

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

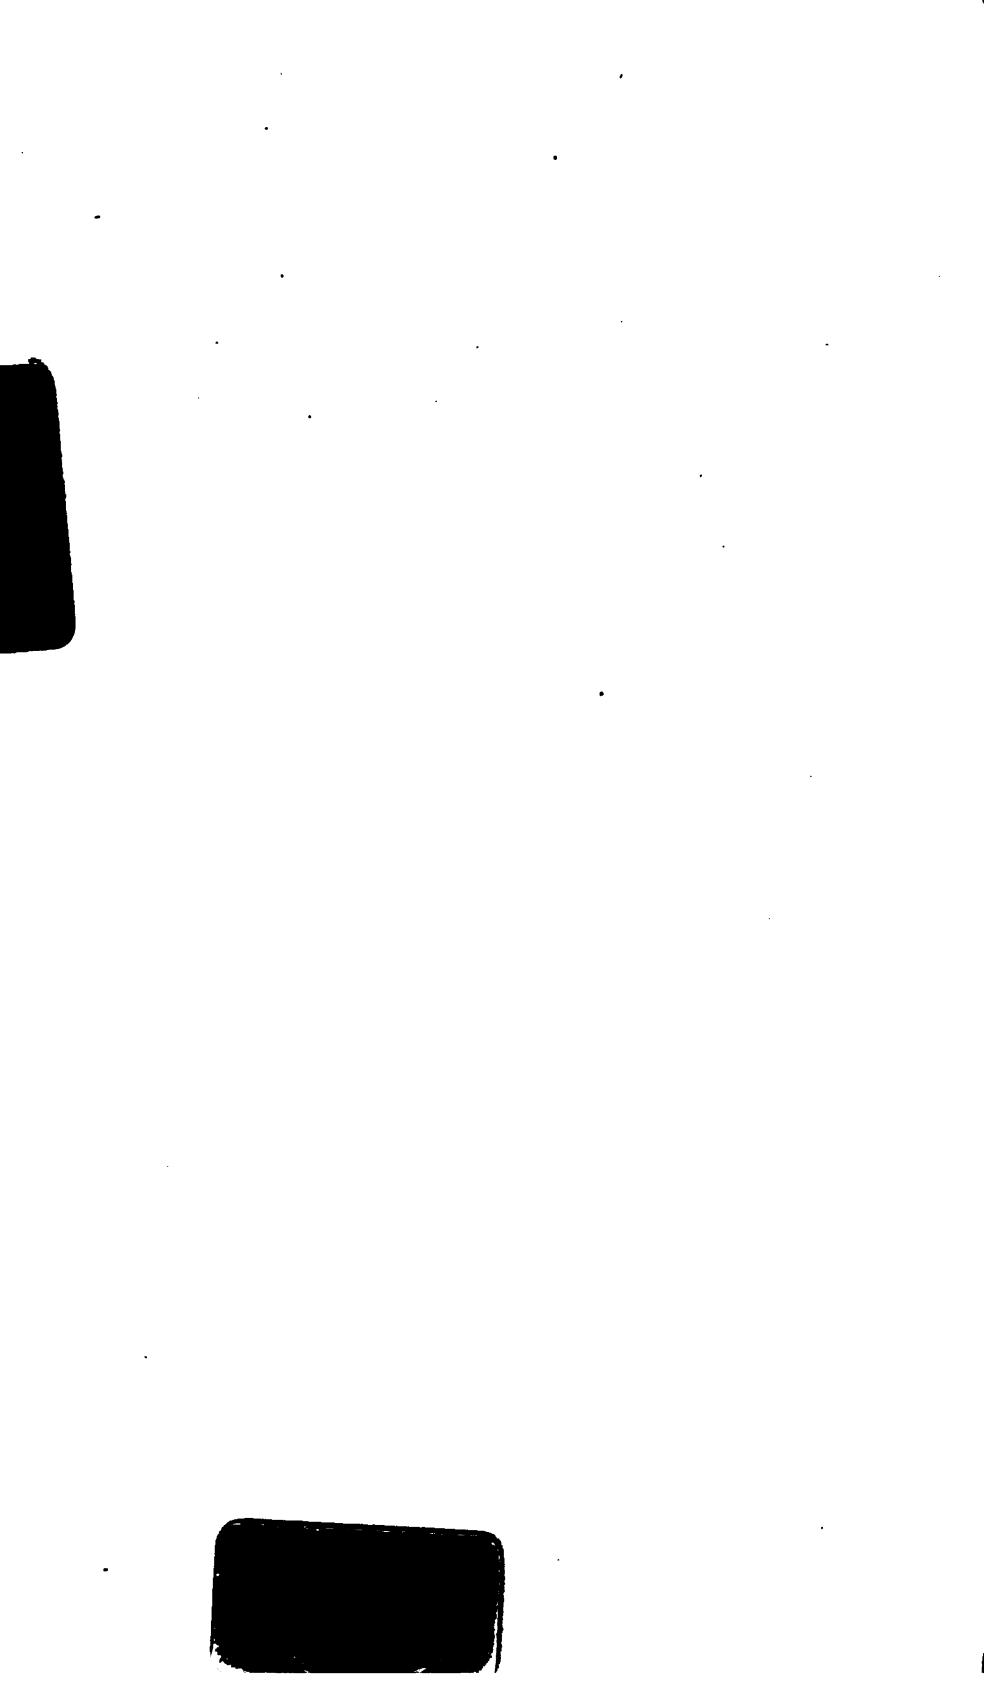

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at http://books.google.com/

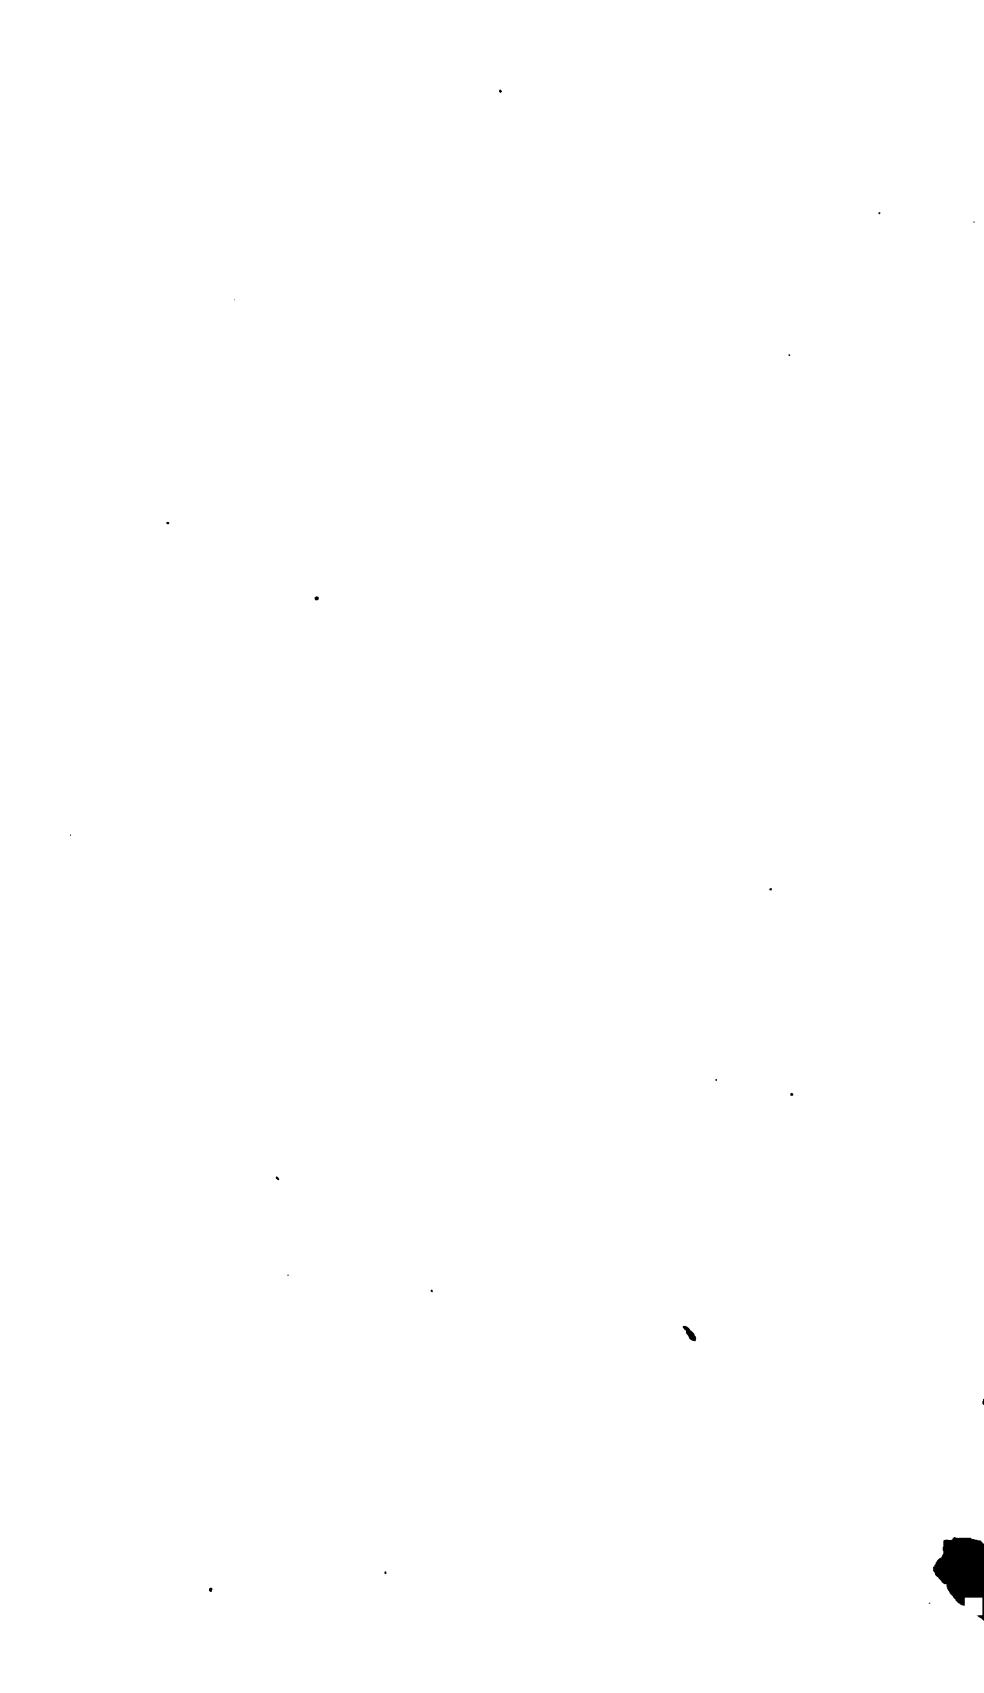

Suy in the same

•

		•
					•
	•
				•
						_
			•		•	·
				•
				•
_
•						•
		_
	•
•	•
•	•
•	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•
	•

GENERAL ABRIDGMENT

O F

Law and Equity,

ALPHABETICALLY DIGESTED UNDER PROPER TITLES;

WITH NOTES AND REFERENCES TO THE WHOLE.

BY CHARLES VINER, Esq. Founder of the vinerian lecture in the university of exford.

FAVENTE DEO.

THE SECOND EDITION.

T A B L E

OF THE

Several TITLES, with their Divisions, and Subdivisions.

C			1	Page
Scocas.
Cafes relating to Stocks in Companies.		_	A.	1
Stopping Lights.			+
By on : that has Land auguning	-	-	A.	8
A c Clarry of Possession		-	В.	9
In London	•	-	C.	ó
Actions at Law, or Suits in Equity	-	-	D.	10
Pleadings	•	-	E.	11
Stranger.
Advantage. Of what he may take Adv	vantage.	-	A.	13
Dtriai Juris.			- 0
What Things are.	-	•	A.	14
Striking.
In Privileged Places.
Church or Church-yard			A.	10
King's Palace, Courts, &c	-	17.	В.	16
Indictment and Pleadings.	-		, č.	19
			,

Suit of Court.		Page
By Writ De Exoneratione Secta.	P.	40
Pleadings	G.	41
Summary Protechings	A.	42
Summons.		4-
To the Person. In what Cases.	A.
Lo what Place.	A.	42
The Place in Demand.	B.	42
By what Thing.	č.	43 46
By how many.	C. z.	46
In Real Actions.		4-
How.	C. 3.	47
In other than Real Actions.		•••
Good.	C. 4. C. 5.	49
Necessary in what Cases.	C. 5.	50
Attachment.	_
By the Goods of whom one may be attached.	D.	52
Summons and Seberance,
Lies.	_
In what Actions.	E.	51
At what Time.	E. 2.	54
Necessary, in what Cases What Persons shall be summoned and severed.	E. 3.	54 56
Executors,	I.	50
In what Cases they may be summoned and fevered.	I. 2.	56
How Process shall be before Severance.	Ĺ.	-
Pleadings. And in what Cafes the Writ shall abate		57
before or after Severance.	M.	-58
Judgment. How. After Summons and Sever-		•
ance.	ο.	60
Severance.
Lies.	_
In what Cases.	F.	54
At what Time. Without Writ of Summons Ad fequendum fimul	G.
, auture	0.	55
	,	55
		57 60
		-
		6: 0.4
		61
	,	OI
		62
		63 64
	7	•
	•
		71 66
		67

With their Divisions and Subdivisions.

Swerledens
		Page
In Parliament, in what Cases it shall be a Su-	_
perfedeas.	C. 2.	78
At what Time Error will be a Supersedeas in		-
Law.	D	81
Not after a Superfedeas.	E.	87
From what Time.	E. 2.	89
To what Persons, Privies, or Strangers.	D. 2.	87
Surmife. See (D) pl. 7.		1
By Certiorari.
Of what Thing it shall be a Supersedeas.	F.	89
What Certiorari shall be a Superfedeas.	Ğ.	91
How the King may grant.	G.	91
Audita Querela.	H.	-
Habeas Corpus.	Ï.	91
At what Time.	ĸ.	92
Grantable.	364	93
Out of what Court.	L.
In what Cates and Actions.	M.	93
For what Caufes.	N.	94
	TA*	90
mupplicanit.	_
In what was a granted, and how.	A.	99
Gutet i.
In want Calls to be it hd.	A.	101
Chargeable. How tar.	В.	101
Dispute between Sureties themselves.	Č.
Equity.	•	103
Relieved. How far in Equity.	D.	***
Favoured How to enable him to recover his	471	104
Debt.	E	300

Surrender.		Page
What Effate	B.	123
To whom. See (B).	B. z.	124.
Of what Thing or Estate it may be	C.	125
At what
Place	D.	126
Time.	E.	$27
What Act or Thing shall be said a Surrender.	G.	134
Acceptance of Leffee for Years, &c.	F.	127
Words. By what Words it may be.	H.	139
Hindered. In what Cases. By other Estate.	I.	141
How it may be made.	K.	142
Without Deed.
Of what
Thing.	L.	143
Estate	L. 2.	144
To whom. The King.	L. 3.	145
What shall be a Surrender of Part, or of all.	M.	145
Pleadings +	N.	146
Survivor.		- 4-
Take.
— • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	A.
What Things he shall take.	В.	146
Lands, by what Limitation.	č.	147
Survivorthip. In what Cases among what Persons.	D.	148
Words. By what Words a Thing shall survive the	D.	148
Dancer and the mind thin	E	•
	E.	148
In what Cases the Survivor shall bring Actions, or	2-9F	•
be charged alone, or he and the Executors,	F. or Heirs of the other.	F.	149
Sulpicion,
Cause sufficient to arrest and detain a Person.	Α.	120
And how. See Justices of Peace (M) pl. z		•
Trespass (D. a)	A.	150
T11 - 3"	T

Capit.		Page
Equity.
Agreements carried into Execution against	the Iffue in Tail.
Made by
Tenant in Tail.	E.	168
Tenant for Life	F.	169
47 17 4 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	In	109
what Cafes	G.	150
Actions. What Actions Tenant in Tail may ha		170
And Pleadings.	н.
Tenant in Tail after Possibility.	41.	171
Who is
and the second of the second o	Ţ.	575
Of what Thing he may be	K.	173
Privileges of him or his Grantee.	L.	174
Cender.		-/1
Necessary. In what Cases	´ A.	177
Good.	44.	177
In respect of the Thing tendered.	D
	В.	177
By whom.	C.	178
To whom	D.	18t

Cenaves.		Page
Upon Extinguishment of the Tenure.	H.	208
Of whom he shall hold by express Reservation.	J.	209
By Knight Service.
What is, and what Writ lay of it	P.	221
Of the King. Upon what Refervation, and where, without express Reservation.	K.	212
What Estate might be held by Knight Service.	N.	219
Castle-guard. How it is to be done	O.,	22Q
In Capite, what,	L. 2.	213
- What Perfons might create it	L.	213 Created by Law, without Refervation of whom it fhould be	M.	219
Escuage	Q.	224
Of what Service it was due.
Not for Grand Scrieanty	R.	226
Affested by Parliament	S.	226
By whom the Service was to be done.	T.	227
Who should have it	U.	228
Summons	X.	230
Trial	Y.	230
Frankalmoign	Y. 2.	231
Socage	Z .	231
T 793 A	Ž.,	231
	,	•
	A. a.	233
		-
• •	B. a. *	240
• -	By a. 2.	243
	C. a.	949
Abridged.	C. a. 2.	243
Relief.	C. E. 21	245
What	D a	246

With their Divisions and Subdivisions,

Ceffe.		Page
What Time there ought to be between the Teste		•
and Return of Writs	· A.	262
Good, or not, and where it shall be said to be prior to the Cause of Action.	В,	261
In whose Name.	C.	266
Time.
Day.
Taken exclusive. In what Cases	A.	266
Computed. How	A. 2.	269
Where there shall be a Priority and Posteriority as to Things done on the same Day.	A. 3.	269
Year.	•
How accounted.	B.	270
Month.		-4-
How computed	C.	271
How understood, where mentioned generally.	D.	273
Pleadings.	- •	-/3
Necessary to be pleaded. In what Cases.	E.	273
Day shewn certain. In what Cases	F.	7/3

Tall.	•		•		Page
Remedy.	•	• •		I.	297
Writ and Declara	tion. G	loods or no	t	ĸ.	298
Pleadings.		_		L,	300
Verdict.	_	-	_	M.	, 304
Toll-book.	-	→		N.	304
Cart.					• •
Construction of La	w as to	Torts.	•	A.	305
Cout temps Briff.	•
And Uncore Prift.			-	A.	306
Pleaded.					at.
At what Time.			_	B.	308
The Effect the	reof afte	r Verdict f	or Defenda		J on the Tende		-	_	C.	309
How the Pleadi		be, where	he (hall bri		3-3 into Court th				-0
Money.	_	_	_	D.	310
Thing.	_	_		E.	312
Uncore Priff.	_		-		3

Craverle.		Page
Where both Parties claim by one and the fame	Z. a.	397
Person	A.b.	398
versable, which of them shall be traversed first. Supposal of the Writ traversable. In what Cases. By whom, or in whose Name to be taken. Plaintist,	B. b. C. b.	400 401
&c. or Defendant, Tenant, &c. How much. What must be alleged, though it be not traversable.	D. b. E. b. F. b.	401 402 403
What Thing is traverfable in one Action which is not so in another. By what Words, or what will amount to a Traverse. Aliter, velalioModo. Good or necessary. In what Cases Modo & Forma. Necessary or good. In what Cases. Traverse upon a Traverse Necessary, or good, or not. Two several. Traverses, or more.	. I. b. K. b.	404 405 405 407 408 411
		412
		413 413
a a	l _ð	413 414
•	4	7-7
		415 416 417
_		417 418 418
Strangers. Who shall have Trees cut down by Strangers.		•

Crefpals.		Page
Possession. What is sufficient Possession of Land to maintain the Action.	S.	463
By Relation. And after Restitution for Trespals done Meine.	T.	464
Trespals	v	468
or Detinue.	Υ.	•
Not Cafe. See Action (M. c).	Y. 2.	470
Or Trover	Y. 4.	473
Imprisonment.	* .
Ĵustifiable	D .	.0.
By Officers	D. 2.	484
Upon Warrants	C. a.	477
Pleadings	C. a. 2.	481
Without Warrant. Pleadings	D. a. z.	486
By others	E. a.	488
Pleadings.	E. a. 2.
By Aiders of Officers.	P.	459
		12

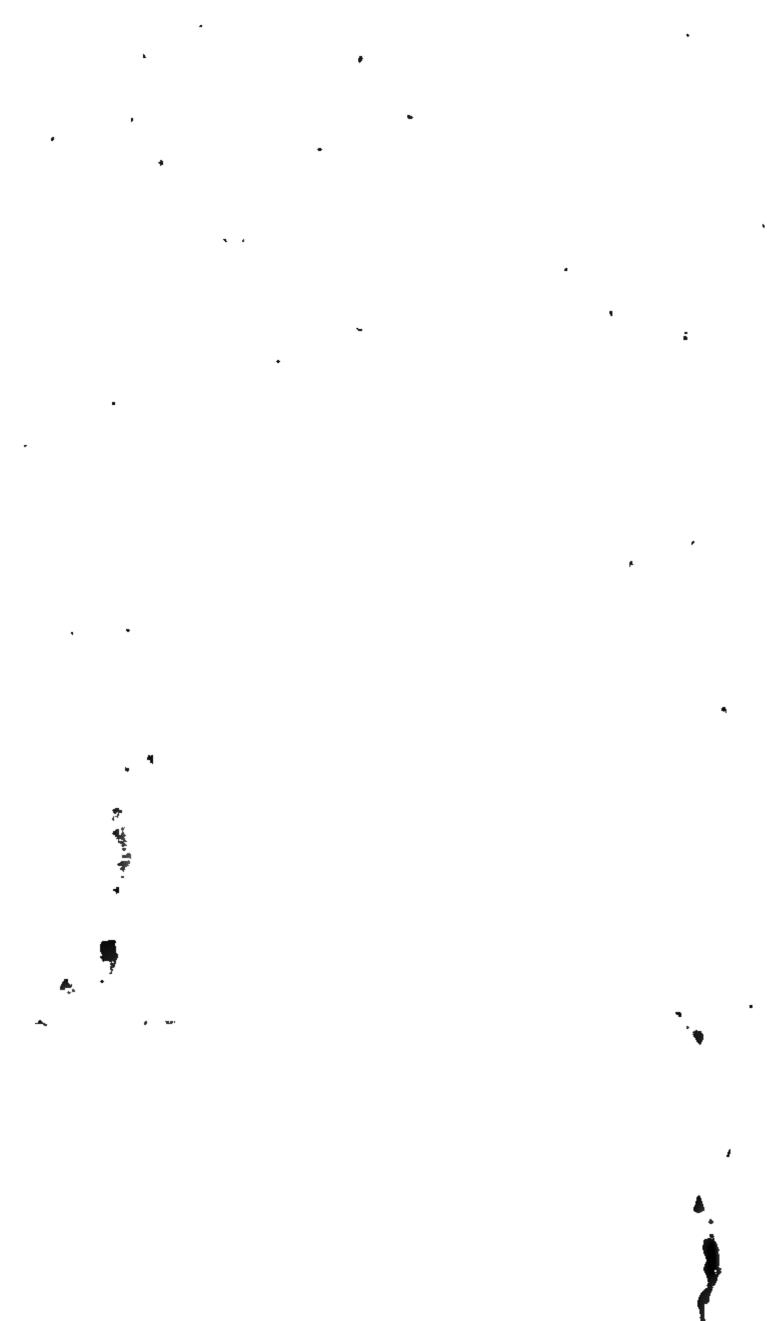

.

၀န

.19

;25

;27 ;27

Stocks.

(A) Cases relating to Stocks in Companies.

1. A Dministrator durante minore atate sells the infant's stock in the East-India Company to B. and C. two members of the said company, who had notice that it was not the administrator's estate, as appears by the entries in the company's books; decreed, that it was fraudulent, and an account to be taken. Fin. R. 298. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. Munn and Brown v. East-India Company, Dunkin & al'.

Carth. 468:

A. in confiperation of both paid than by Ba affined, of the 29 RO day for the time of he may be made of it is the light of and and world to the senter

Bur of the to the second of the second of the second of the property of the second of

4.1

was, Whether this contract, made 29 Oct. 1696, by which B. had time to request the affigument of the Bank stock till 10 May 1697, was within the statute, and made void thereby? The court delivered no opinion, but Northey argued that it was not; for this is not a contract, which by the tenor of it is to be performed after the 10th day of May 1697; for although the plaintiff had liberty to perform the request of the assignment of the Bank-stock to him until the 10th day of May 1697, which was 9 days after the act took place, yet such request might be made before the 1st of May, and so the contract, by the tenor of it, was not to be performed after the 1st day of May; for a contract to be performed after the If day of May, is intendable of fuch a contract which of necessity ought to be performed after that day, and cannot be performed before; but a contract performable as well before as after that day, at the election of the party, is not within the act of parliament, but is cafus omiffus; and he compared it to a case upon the statute of 29 Car. 2. cap. 3. of trauds and perjuries, by which it is enacted, that no action shall be brought, &c. whereby to charge any person, &c. upon any agreement which is not to be performed within a year from the making thereof, unless " the agreement be in writing; and an action was brought, upon an agreement by the defendant to pay fo much upon his marriage, but without any writing or memorandum of the agreement; and the defendant did not marry within the year; upon the trial at Guildhall before Holt Ch. J. he was in doubt whether that agreement was within the statute, and whether it ought not to have been by writing? And ordered that the opinion of the judges of the court should be taken. And by the major part of the judges in B. R. it was refolved, that this was cafus omiffus; for that the defendant might have married within the year; and so it was not an agreement which was not to be performed within a year, and by confequence was not fuch an agreement as was intended by the act of parhament: and he faid he did not fee any diverfity between the cafes. Rep. 49, 50. pl. 32. Hell. 9 W. 3. in B. R. Anon. -→Ld. Raym. Rep. 316, 317. Smith

w Weffail, S and the contutract being p to have been pleaded the a-

In affumpi agreement in fo much floci averred, that cap. 32. agai the faid act, But per Holt queft was bef Rep. 672, 6

r[2]

pon an

pon an ransfer and king, within the re-

t, Ą.

id B. i, A. 695, ироп , that Eng⊶ days 1 the ended ne to B. , bad . dcıs ili, Noithe contract within the time; for the covenant was not, that he should transfer any particular 1000 l, of Bank steek, which he had at the time of the covenant, but any 1000 l, of steek. But then the whole Court held, 1st. That this action with the sector the plaintiff in this case, because it appears that he has not transferred; and without transfer, B, is not bound to pay the money; for the money was to be paid upon the transfer: and therefore no transfer, no money. And cited Co. Litt. 304. Dyer, 371. 2 Mod. 266. OTWAY v. HOLDIPS. But the matter in the declaration might have been a good excuse for the plaintiff, if the defendant had sued him for not transferring the Bank stock; or the plaintiff might have assigned his breach in the non-acceptance of the stock by the defendant. Ld. Raym. Rep. 440. Pasch. 11 W. 3. Shales v. Seignoret.

6. The Court held also, that it did not appear to them but that the Bank flock was transferrable at another place than at the office of the Bank; for though the all fays, that no transfer shall be but as the king shall appoint, and the king has appointed it to be at the office of the Bank, and not in any other place, yet that ought to have been pleaded, or otherwise the Court cannot take notice of it; and therefore, notwithstanding any thing that appears here to the contrary, the transfer might have been in any other place, and then a tender though eastly que trust forbid his doing it. On a bill by the trustee to be repaid this to 1, per cent, Lee C. King decreed it accordingly, with interest and costs. a Wms.'s Rep. 453. Pasch. 1728. Balt. v. Hyham.

But if the cefty que trust had not only forbid the payment, but bad also offered security to indemnify the trustee, it had been material a but the trustee had good reason to think he was liable to pay the whole money borrowed. Per Ld. C. King. Ibid. 455. S. C.

The condition of a bond was,

Whereas fhall not be compounded by the parties thereto, or interested therein, on P. B. merecutor of

F. B. being of signed by the party interested therein, and who shall be minded to take possessed of advantage of the same, shall be entered and registered in books, which are thereby required to be provided for that purpose by the respective companies to whose capital such stock, Sc. do or shall relate, before the 1st them for such contract, as to so much as shall remain unperformed and not com-

and bofe

:rred anflr thá s for that 1006 20lèam. er of that er of pd it Agn muji ered, iain-365 part,

him, Sec. adlows. r#WŹwith CHIE e ebne. and the le i son ffue, way, toper 20° 20 1 for ; thè y of ilter ght, 2m -VCX-, the ntry 201

Stocks.

and register, that the desendant might know who had a demand upon him; which in this case the de-Tendant did, the intere contract being registered; and by the import of the deed it appears to be for the plaint of a benefit. And of that opinion was the Court; and Raymond J. faid, that this act being ex pet facts, the construction of the words ought not to be firained, in order to defeat a contract, to the benefit whereof the party was well intitled at the time the contract was made. Judgment was given for the plant st. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1350, &c. Easter, 10 Geo. Wilkinson v. Sir Peter Meyer.

S. C. 8 Mod. 272. says, that by 3 Judges against the Ch. Justice, this was held to be a good contract, and well entered in the S. S. books; for the whole agreement was registered, and by consequence is much be shown a party back a right to demand the money. That the money of the language what he is must be showed who had a right to demand the money; that the invent of the legislature was only to form, that there was a good and folime contract, to that people might not be troubled with every triting burgain made at that time, but only upon legal contracts, which were to be registered; and what was dine by the plaint: if, thews that this contract was for his benefit, and that he is the perfor that had the right. Judgment for the plaintiff.

12. In assumptie for 580 l. for 10 sbares in the stock of the com- In this case pany of copper-mines, the defendant pleaded non affumpfit. the trial there was proof of a contract, according to the declara- myni, Arg. tion, but there was no memorandum in writing, nor any earnest paid, the case of ķ

W C a L tl F C

> į ¢

1

Upon was cited by Serjeant Co-

15. Cashier of S. S. company received money for a subscription, but did not enter respondents names in the book; the respondents recovered the money against the company. MS. Tab. tit. Stocks, pl. 1. cites March 6, 1722. S. S. Company v. Curson.

16. Chancery will compel or supply the want of a transfer of flock. Per Parker C. 10 Mod. 498. Trin. 8 Geo. 1. Cock v.

Goodfellow.

Judgment affirmed in Cam. Scace- Ibid. Cafe Was 25aik.623. Lancashire w. Killingworth.

17. Plaintiff covenanted by indenture to transfer S. S. stock to defendant, on or before September 21, and the defendant covenanted to pay the plaintiff 8500 l. on or before the faid day, and gave bond for 206.—This performance of the faid covenant: in debt on the bond the plaintiff fet forth all this matter, and that pro & in consideratione premifcompared to forum, the defendant covenanted to pay the money, and that he was ready at the time and place agreed, &c. and that defendant, or any for him, was not there to receive. On a demurrer it was adjudged, that these were mutual covenants, the transfer being to pay for a bargain which he cannot have; that there ought to be quid pro quo, whereas in this case desendant had sold the plaintiff a bubble or moonthine; that the defendant was the chief actor, that he went to market with this bubble; and that fince no transfer can be made, he granted a perpetual injunction, and ordered the defendant, at the plaintiff's charge, to enter fatisfaction on the judgment. And afterwards the cause came on to be re-heard by Lord C. King, who made no decree, but faid, he could not divide the loss, and recommended an agreement, and to share the difference. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 217. Pasch. 1724. Stent v. Baylis.

Stocks.

21. Mortgagee of S. S. stock fells part; he was liable to ac- Comym's count. MS. Tab. tit. Stocks, pl. 3. cites May 10, 1727. Har- Rep. 3930 rifon v. Franks.

pl. 193. Hwriton, and Hart, and Franks, S. C. in the Exchequer, Mich. 13 Geo. 1. an account was directed for all monies received on the fale, notwi-liftanding the day of redemption was paft.

bim 1000 l. capital S. S. Stack, at or before the shutting up the books for the then next Christmas dividend. A. accordingly sent a notice in writing to H. that " he would transfer this stock to him on the Friday or Saturday next, being the day for the shutting up the books. plaintiff avers in his declaration, that A. was at the S. S. House on the day to make a tender, but that neither H. nor any for him, was there to receive the transfer: upon which the plaintiff, as executor to A. brings this action. The plaintiff gave in evidence, that the usual and only time for making thefe tenders was between the hours of nine and one; and that not so much as the transferring any stock can be made but between these hours, unless in these particular days just before the sutting up the books for the making of their dividends. That A. bad a person ready to make this tender all the time between those hours: that three calls accordingly were made, but that nobody came for H. to accept it. The Court faid, that this matter was now brought to one fingle point of law, whether upon the face of the plaintiff's ring

fact tion they
the faid ; fo law rary that tonThe

DOd,

bid. 179. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. 3732. the j fame exception being argued agein, the Court overruled it for the fame realons givenbefore. A had stotwithstanding another • "umption was talcen 1421 61 in the phineiff. the ately that ing; ing; that but paid nder ace, upbuilding, which filly exhibit of one room only, as well as of more. The Chief J. observed, that if desendant had pleaded the general iffue, the plaintiff roust have proved his tender in that very particular part of the house where the books are kept. Adjoinatur. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 156, Trin, 5 Geo. 2. Jacobs v. Crosley.

25. É.

Stopping Lights.

the S. S. books foon after his buying it. Afterwards another of the fame name, but known by another description, got, by some means or other, the 1000 l. flock belonging to the first E. H. placed to his account in the S. S. books, and some years afterwards transferred the same to R. his broker, in order to sell the same for him, which R. accordingly did. Both the E. H.'s died. On a bill brought by the representative of the first E. H. the Court was of opinion, that the representative might elect either to have this specific quantity of flock bought for her, or a satisfaction for it as it was at the time it was sold out, at which time a conversion was made of it; and likewise seemed to incline, that the company might be liable, in case the representative of the last E. H. has not sufficient assets, because they must be considered as trustees for the first E. H. at the time he purchased this stock; and as the same was transferred without ill.

[8]

rut

i to

HUN. FCL

Y.

1.

į

land S. C. Stall out Velo and ows state rate ows of Vi Vi v.

f on Bal - = vial S. C. and Em. 136.

ter lows v.

that Polite arde

fore

in case of Hughes v. Kemith.

S. C. cited before time of memory, the owner of the land had granted to the owner of the house to have the said windows, without any stopping of them; and so the prescription may have a lawful beginning; cited in Aldred's case, 9 Rep. 58. as Trin. 29 Eliz. B. R. the case of Bland v. Mosely.

Le. 168. pl. 234. Bowry v. Pope, 5. C. atcordingly.

2. If 2 men be owners of 2 parcels of land adjoining, and one of them does build an house upon his land, and makes windows and lights looking into the other's lands, and this house and the lights have continued by the space of 30 or 40 years, yet the other may, upon his own land and foil, lawfully erect an house or other thing against the said lights and windows, and the other can have no action; for it was his folly to build his house so near to the other's land. It was agreed by all the justices, and adjudged accordingly. Nota, cujus est solum, ejus est summitas usque ad Temp. E. 1. Cro. E. 118. pl. 3. Mich. 30 & 31 cœlum. Eliz. B. R. Bury v. Pope.

Raym. 87. Paimer v. houl Fielhees, the Mìch. 14 Fleta Car. 2. B. R. S. C. and there held by T Sid. 167. pl. 26. S abient.— -- Ibid. If A. fells the wat Court doubted that without referving Mod. 314. Mich. in the case of Fletch cafe of Bowry e. Po •[9] Sid. 167. 4. pl. 26. 5.C. may and S. P. by upor. Twifden and Windham. -Palm If a man builds a house upon does thereby flop the bolds, unless there b & 25 Car. 2. B. R $id. 167. pl. 26. $.C.

by Twister Flet.

ham J. --- Ibid.

and Winds

(B) After Unity of Possession.

1. CT WO bouses came into one hand, and windows, &cc. are altered, 15 .866. pla and then the nonfastere divided, the lights cannot be ec-1195 S C. refolved that flored by law, but must be taken as they were at the time of the the venden last division and conveyance. Holy 131. pl. 173. Hill. 13 Jac. that never abate the . C. B. in the cale of Robins v. Barnes. podinče,

2. If I have an ancient house and lights, and I purchase the next boufe or ground, where no nuisance is done to my former house, my privilege against what I have purchased ceaseth; for I may use my own as I will. Now if I lease my former house, I may build upon the latter; or if I leafe my latter, he may build against me, as it may feem. Hob. 131. Robins v. Barns.

(C) Stopping Lights in London.

BY the custom of London a man may build upon his old foun- Yelv. 215, dation; and if there be no agreement to the contrary, may lac. B. R. stop up his neighbour's windows: by this custom, if he make S.C. acnew windows higher, the other may build up his house higher, to cordingly... destroy those new windows. Godb. 183. pl. 262. Mich. 9 Jac. Beld. 115.

fo ďο B۱

da q٤

'n 0 ᆲ П p IJ A b P h tl 2

1

Roll. Rep. 221- pl. 27-S. C. faye did not allege any requeft to semove the faid fhed; and that Coke action did mot lie, hecause no act was done by the leffee, but & gontinuance, could not remove it

2. In case the plaintiff declared that he was seised of a house and chamber in N. and that A. was possessed of a shed adjoining the plaintiff to the faid house, and I Sept. 40 Eliz and time whereof, &c. there was a window in the faid boufe looking towards the faid shed, by which window, and by no other means, the light came into the chamber of the bouse, and the said A. 30 Sept. 40 Eliz. erested a building upon the fled to near to the house, that it stopped all the light of the faid window, fo as he lost all his light, and that the thought the defendant possessed of the faid new building, had continued and not removed the faid new erection. A. leased this shed to B. who now dwelt in the faid thed, and the action being brought against B. it was agreed by all the court, that this action lay against him who erected it: but it was objected, that it lay mot against the defendant, who only is leffer for years, and inhabitant and that he there; and that if the plaintiff had any remedy, it should be a quod permittat against the tenant of the freehold. And to that without he opinion Coke Ch. J. feemed to incline, but the other justices

9

n ¢ đ

18 14

0 12 C ¢ C -۱.

a ᄂ ď 1= į. >y d Į-Æ ĥ

(E) Pleadings.

Sec(A) pl. 3.

1. WHERE one prescribes to have lights to his house, and the S. P. Per other prescribes to flop them up; this is not good. Per Cur. Freem. Coke Ch. J. Godb. 183. pl. 262. Mich. 9 Jac. B. R. in case of Rep. 27. Hughes v. Keenes. 1676, in cast of Hickman v. Thorny.

2. In trespess of taking, breaking, and carrying away 12 boards of S. C. cited the plaintiff's. The defendant, as to the taking and carrying away, 2 Roll. R. 2 Roll. pleaded not guilty; and, as to the breaking, he justified, because the of Abbut ve plaintiff bad fixed them to his house, and that they hindered his light, Blancis. and he broke them, as lawfully he might. The plaintiff replied, that be did not fix them to the boufe of the defendant; and upon this they were at iffue, and found that they were fixed, but not by the

Cro. C.

Hill. 15

573. pt. 18.

De Cha

Stopping Lights.

fay bow many), and that, time out of mind, the light came in at the windows; this was allowed a good form of alleging the prefcrip-tion. Vent. 248. Mich. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

6. Trespass on the case for stopping up ancient lights, by the erection of a wall; prescription in quodam messuagio seve tenemento antiquo is good enough; though an ejectment will not lie de uno messuagio sive tenemento, because the sheriff will not know what to deliver possession of; judgment for plaintiff. 2 Show. 96. pl. 94. Pasch. 32 Car. 2. B. R. - v. Fetherston.

7. In case for stopping lights the plaintiff declared only quod possessionatus fuit of such an house in which habuit & habere debuit fuch and such lights. Exception was taken on demurrer, because he did not fay time out of mind, nor so much as that it was an ancient bouse, and that the lights were ancient; but it was held well Car. B. R. enough upon the case of * Sands v. Trefuss. Show. 7. Pasch. 1

W. & M. Villers v. Ball. & al.

2 Salk to. 8. Plea of a former action for stopping his lights, and a recopl. 3. S. C. very therein is a bar to any new action for fuch erection; but not accordingly. to another action wherein he declares of the continuance of the nuifance.

Comb. 481. 9. Iı fo S. C. acnear th ntiff cordingly, declarea but that it per would have quas lu the been naught plaintif was apon demurrer; for not faid not the defendto be a und ant might againít :18. not be a wrong-doer, And a ther ereding up- antique. 70. on hit own ground, &c. 2 Cro. wrts -Cartha that usage ti 454. S. C. ulage t this accordingly. -- 6 Mod. Cafe, fc tiff. 216. S. C. CCIL The Co Mich. 13 W. 3. men Rofewe . R. good up words of the re of declaration to be bubint ancient lights and ancie ı. C. accordingly; but Hole

> 'U[₃ For

Military miles office Broker creases

Stranger.

(A) Of what Things a Stranger may take Advantage.

TE who is a ftranger to the iffue shall not have advantage Br. Trials, of the verdict or trial, though he was party to the original. pl 2.3. Br. Record, pl. 3. cites 33 H. 6. 6. 1. S. C. 2. As in debt against two of D. by Several pracipes, and both were -Br. Verdict, pl. 6. estlawed, and the one taken by capias utlagatum, and pleaded that no ber of on, .nd ites to Br. Condition, pl. 83+ cites S. C. ınd ien in-CX CT-11. m. nd et, of p Roll's Rep. 196 gl. 38. ın, ali 均算 :3 3% he 2y advantage of it; for the limitation of the toe over to E. is world by a particular maxim of the common law, which will not allow a fee to be limited upon a fee, or by that other maxim by which a firanger cannot take advantage of a condition. Per Parker C. 10 Mod. 423. Mich. 5 Geo. 1. in Canc. in case of Marks v. Marks.

Strifti Juris.

For more of Stranger in general, see Arbitrement, Conditions, faits, fines, (F. 4.) and other proper titles.

[i4]

Stricti Juris.

S. C.
Goldfie
184. pl.
142. by th
name of the
v. Tauston
—Path:
Logi's c.

his to Ba

ed

12

.ill.

) 1982

odi -

udy

Ast Cro. E. 816. Pafch. 47 12/12. B. R. Dureper v. Symons.— 4 Rep. 190. a. Hill. 45 Eliz. S. P. in S. C.

8. P. But Ty. Cy", as to bar effectes shall be taken strictly. See Yelv. to ham, a set tom to be maintenance, the thicking of a copyrhold total be taken favourably. If from the control of the control of

3. Reft:.

8. Reflications have favourable constructions more than grants. Advowlons, without express words, pass in case of restitutions, but not in case of a grant. Arg. Lat. 255. in case of Surry v. Cole, cites 41 E. 3. 5. M. 3 Jac. C. B. Barker and Barret.

9. Things that go in abridgment of the common law, shall be taken strictly, and shall have no favour in construction. See Yelv. 92.

Trin. 4 Jac. in case of Armiger v. Browne.

10. A claim of discharge of tithes is contrary to common right, and therefore shall be strict. Noy, 97. Hill. 15 Jac. C. B. in case of Slade and Drake.

11. Indibitions, &c. are stricti juris. 2 Buls.

12. Forfeitures are odious in law, and shall be taken strictly.

Per Cur. See Hutt. 103. Pasch. 5 Car. Paston v. Utber.

13. Estoppels are to be taken strictly; for they neither give nor take away any right. No man is bound by them, but the parties and their privies. Arg. Show. 27. Trin. 1 W. & M. in case of Incledon v. Burgess.

14. Remitters are favoured in law. Arg. See Show. 420. Trin. 6 W.

Birch.

15. the not ov d g the ch come ord.

suclufic pl. 14. 16. of odious codious a ftric m tioned

majori
10 A1
17.

owner to Ma
try, fi gumen point

for that fines the withing

P. di

them, [15]
d gave
. thall
ords of
. 169.

Mark 189. P. (20-14)
of an receive menof the

A) pl. 6.
And the notes there.

But were of mateured is v, and domis 17 s ventos

Hill.

For more of Sprice Juris in reactal, its despite the Character of per allows

Vot. 17:1

Strifti Juris.

allow a fee to be limited upon a fee, or by that other maxim by which a firanger cannot take advantage of a condition. Per Parker C. 10 Mod. 423. Mich. 5 Geo. 1. in Canc. in case of Marks v. Marks.

For more of Stranger in general, see Athittement, Conbitions, faits, fines, (F. 4.) and other proper titles.

[4]

Stricti Juris.

fich.
pl.
his ns to
L. B. fhall ken,
to to 33 fo

Sed

: but i&ly.

S. C.
Goldfb.
184. pl.
142. by the name of Goldfb.
v. Tauston
—Path.
1007/S. C.
1001/t was All cond ton to de 1 Septe

k,

-alle

condia

Hardy

Ac Cro. E. 816. Palch. 47 12/12. L. R. Dureper v. Symons. --

3. 2. But a. Copies to bar easter that no taken firstly. See Yelv. 1.

per time. Malch. 44 Eliza it. R. Barpo e " Long.
ham, a "h" is in majorenative, in the dang of a copyrious time, final be taken favourably. "
Long. 2. 12 Paris of Lisa B. R. 2. L. - - - Come it is an object of left it in species for Receive. Modden.
1675. 1. 2. 12 Landau Richly. Ord. Commit. 1 and a " Gare size E. R. Cafe of Receive. Modden.

3. Reft.

8. Reflitations have favourable constructions more than grants. Advowlons, without express words, pass in case of restitutions, but not in case of a grant. Arg. Lat. 255, in case of Surry v. Cole, cites 41 E. 3. 5. M. 3 Jac. C. B. Barker and Barret.

9. Things that go in abridgment of the common law, shall be taken strictly, and shall have no favour in construction. See Yelv. 92.

Trin. 4 Jac. in case of Armiger v. Browne.

10. A claim of discharge of tithes is contrary to common right, and therefore shall be strict. Noy, 97. Hill. 15 Jac. C. B. in case of Slade and Drake.

11. Inhibitions, &c. are stricti juris. 2 Buls.

12. Forfeitures are odious in law, and shall be taken strictly.

Per Cur. See Hutt. 103. Pasch. 5 Car. Paston v. Utber.

13. Extoppels are to be taken strictly; for they neither give nor take away any right. No man is bound by them, but the parties and their privies. Arg. Show. 27. Trin. 1 W. & M. in case of incledon v. Burgess.

14. Remitters are favoured in law. Arg. See Show. 420. Trin. 6 W

Birc
I not the com esch
pl.

odic a st tios maj

10

owi try, gur poi

for fine

-

nil P.

, V.

them, [15]
d gave
. shall

nrds of
. 169.

102. [[20] [4]

of an

'eccive

menof the

ин.

W tare See Powers,

(A) pl 6.

And the notes there.

But

April of there are avoured are avoured.

domis 172 reut y

For more of Sprick Jury in peaced, he designed there are no peacether.

Vot. 17:1

13 16

Striking.

(A) Striking, &c. in privileged Places. Church, or Church-yard.

D. was indicted upon the flatute of 5 Ed. 6. or church-yard, it shall be lawful for the ordinary to suspend him, if for firiting be be a layman, ab ingressu ecclepse; and if a clerk, from the ministration of his office.

yard; and it was moved, that, it being a church-yard of a cathedral church, it is not within the flatute; but Curia contra, Cro. E. 224. pl. 7. Paich. 33 Eliz. B. R. Dethick's cafe. — Le. 248. pl. 337. S. C. Accordingly prohim in the church-yard; because cos church-yard; because cos pro expensis litis; others

Large v. Alton-

*[16] Whetherthe . 8. 2. offender, by in church the offence committed, intracdiately fentence given, or proof deemed excommunicate, (And further, that he fh to the next term; but th mean time. D. 275. b 4. Eliz. B. R. In cofe communicated, is to be tion, and not before. ---tiff iplo fach : " " " BU SECOMPIL nest, by although the lateta turb fentence et claratery, or Wherefore is political conbe received a restant Eliza grot pla ... Berti. $6. 5. C. but feembie Where by the Barota aution in the letter this is fault for less doc met that to the old water T Co Over to Fang it not at nther, acto. * any to) be z, vis. re vult in the Trin. be ex-:OBViCplainbewing For after a lution. ton blu Cro. 4 Cat -Het.

* K h 950

Marie Langue & Co.

L.

B. R.

yet he fmitted pl. 10. d fo is time be at any final maliciously strike any person with a weapon in Collection to church or church or short of with it sees a strike another acry person so offending, and was with a gradient of special strike another acry person so offending, and was write to with by wordest, there we enspell up as two witnesses, before the justices of afficient of afficient strike are subject of justices of peace in their sossines, and if he have no ear, he shall be burned.

burned in the cheek with the letter F. and shall fland excommunicated draw a weapon (alisse facto, as aforefaid.

in his own defence) there; for it is a fanctified place, and he may be punished for that by a Ed. 6. and so if in any of the king's courts, or within view of the courts of justicey because a force in that case is met justifiable, though in his own defence. Noy, 104. The 5th resolution in the case of Day v. Bed. dingfield & al'....... S. P. Lev. 106. Trin. 15 Car. a. B. R. in Bokenham's case.

† S. P. Cro. J. 367. Hill. 12 Jac. in the Star-chamber, in the case of FRANCES v. LEV, the 5th refolution. But fays, fee the ftatute of 5 E. 6. -- S. P. Hawk. Pl. C. 57. cap. 21. f. 4.

P. was indicated upon the flatute of 5 E. 6. cap. 4. for drawing his dagger in the church of B. against J. S. and does not say (according to the fixtute) to the intent to fixike him; and for this canie it was void. But then it was moved, if this were not good as for an assault, that he might be sined upon it. But, per Cur. it is void in all; for being I indicted upon the flatute, it is void as to an offence at the Common Law. Cro. E. 232. pl. 23. Paich. 33 Elis. in B. R. Penhallo's cafe.

S. C. 2 Le. 288. pl. 234. by the name of Perchall's cafe, accordingly per Sands, clerk of the crown, and the whole court. For the conclusion of the indictment is contra formum flatuti, and therefore the jury cannot inquire at the common law. ------- Le. 49. pl. 127. Penhall's cafe. S.-C. accordingly, and in almost the same words.

I S. P. accordingly, by all the justices coutra Jones, that being laid coutra formam fixtuit, It cannot be good as for a bettery at the common law, Cro. C. 465. pl. 2. Trin. 22 Car. B. R. Cholmley's by: and gave the Aff. the (and v to th 41 v	warded man frack is land signs at Welminfer. diately which paties rdoned against him, he was thereof in- dicted and amaigned at the Tower of London, and his land failed in- intempts, pl. 35. cites in 170. cites S. C.

(B) Striking, &c. in privileged Places. King's Palace, Courts, &c.

41 /	e for the second of the second place the fi shall	they other of the view of the take the offender
to j agai gere	The Coper of the C

But the not be competed that, if he wall not be bound, he fhall be extended to the ter in the fer of the real process of ferome generates. But D will, pl. 22. Alter S. C.

2. A. B. hear a frie, and fac brought only opinith has at B & 4 2 mi is winnich as be beat her with for er, on long new infiness in will remote to eggs But page spacety to the a se pend to be bad with a soil merchandise in the half, and the green includation gufficiat - the green num ba Bille, pl. 44 cites Log All b. K.

S. C. reited

-6 Mod. 75.

Ann. B. R.

Mich. 2

4. If any man in Westminster-Hall, or in any other place, sitting the courts of Chancery, the Exchequer, B. R., C. B., or before justices of assise, or justices of over and terminer, (which courts are mentioned in the statute of 25 E. 3. De Proditionibus,) shall draw a weapon upon any judge, or justice, though be strike not, this is as great misprission, for the which he shall lose his right hand, and forseit his lands and goods, and his body to perpetual imprisonment. The reason hereof is, because it tends ad impedimentum legis terra. 3 Inst. 140.

Note, the 3. If any strike in the king's palace, suberve the king's royal person law makes a resides, he shall not lose his right hand, unless he draw blood; great differ- but if he draw blood, then his right hand shall be strucken off, ence between be perpetually imprisoned, and fined, and ransomed. 3 Inst. 140.

blow, in or hefore any of the fold courts of justice, where the king is representatively present, and the sing's court, where his stryal person resides. It or in the king's house (as has been said) blood must be drawn; which needs not in or before the courts of justice, but a stroke only suffices. Again, the punishment is more severe in the one case than in the other, such honour the law attributes to courts of justice, when the judges or justices are doing of that which to justice appertains; and the reason is, quia justice simulture solution. 3 last, 240.———S. P. Hawk. Pl. C. 57. cap. a.t. s. 3.

6. By the ancient laws of this realm, striking only, in the king's court, was punished by death. See Lambert, inter leges Inz., ca. 6. Si quis in regia pugnarit, rebus suis omnibus mulchator, & sitne motte etiam plectendus, regis arbitrium & jus esto. Inter leges Canuti, cap. 56. Si quis in regia dimicarit, capitale esto, &c. Inter leges Alveredi, cap. 7. Qui in regia dimicarit, ferrumve distrinxerit, capitor, & regem penes arbitrium vitæ necisque ejus esto, &c. 3 Inst. 140.

7. PETER BURCHET, prisoner in the Tower, struck, within the Tower, John Langworth his keeper, (who stood in a window reading of the Bible) with a billet on the head behind, whereby blood was shed, and death instantly ensued. This being without in the cafe poter, &c. anv provo. tion, was adjudged murder, for w attaintca; and octore his execution, (which was i , OY€Iand Powel, J. faid, that : minit bon erfet-House,) his right hand was off, by of a palage i arce o 2.] for er svas one of t IS MOT FOR -seos benittual selfdene , and info at the country the cafe, ilea. But and infi 2 judges 5 upon tl ed the re-Mich. 1 £- 2- 28d

eard of Burrhee's atta.

there is to judy near the factor of the Ch. I doesn in with our ellipse of a period when it is a factor of the court of the

Dil 2 8. Where i me of the books abovefuld fay, that the offender is for immore the inforfest his lands, and some, that he shall be disherited, ye me cutes a the forfesture of his lands is only for term of his life; for, being as the follow, the bised is not corrupt to ver the her distinguished to inherit the first that this severe punishment is at the full be tried by the officers party may have his action, and t shall be tried by the officers and criers. And for such a stroke, Thomas of Whittelly reco- for the forfeiture of his vered 500% Trin. 9 E. 3. Rot. 154. Midd. 3 Inft. 141. it is, that they are forfeited only for his life. - In Cary's cafe, Cro. E. 405. pl. 14. Trin. 37 Eliz. B. R. Popham faid, that if the indictment had hid the offence as done comm domina regina, he had forfeited all his lands, &c. ---- Ow. 120. S. C. accordingly. --

211

9. One R. G. smote one Whitehall, sitting in the court of re- so if one quests, and was but fined and ransomed. 12 Rep. 71. in Olds fmite one in field's case, cites 9 Eliz. B. R. Robert Girling's case.

the dutchy, &c. But if one imite another before the justices of affile, there his right hand thall be cut off, as it appears, 22 Ed. 3. fol. 13. & 19 Ed. 3. title judgment, 12 Rep. 71. in Oldfield's cafe.

to. One B. in the Hall of Westminster, sedentibus curiis, with his elbow and shoulder out of malice justled Anthony Dyer of . the Inner Temple, so that he overthrew him, and with his feet spurned him upon his legs, but did not smite him neither with his hand, nor with any weapon, and yet it was held that his right hand thould be cut off, &c. upon which B. was indicted in B. R. and after obtained his pardon. 12 Rep. 71. Oldfield's C2 fore he C3 Prar a ju we his aftices. ris ch other in the ju H Elia. D 8 Jac. Т : withù ", and in the М ا بزرج ه þe 10 % Ģί cours D. 188 # 5 οĺ DO1 18 ju 2. R arri 1 47 6 7 4 morty is W fe b (in thors ile d ci 5 veren, 285. 139 188. 22 f. 3. 1.) ropu. 207. a n. 2 ke. . R. Arcn.

23. A felon condemned flung a prickbat at the frage, for which or was immediately inducted, his right cand cut of and fixed to age or, on which himself was unmediately benget to prefence of D. 188. b. pl. 10 Marg. clears as done at Sal. bors 71, met e summer ashkes i gain a Resharshon Ch. J. of C. A. € 3

14. C. was bound to his good behaviour for giving the lie in Westminster-Hall,—and the other for giving provocation. Lev. 107. Trin. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Collins v. Man.

(C) Indicament and Pleadings.

A Man was indicted upon the statute of E. 6. that in the church-yard, such a day, extraxit gladium against I. L. Wipsum percussit; and because the statute was, if any person maliciously strike another, or shall draw any weapon with an intent to strike any person, and the indictment was quod extraxit, but does not say, ad percutiendum; and because it is quod percussit, without saying, malitiose; the party was discharged upon judgment. Noy, 171, 172. Anon.

2. Indictment against the defendants for that they infultum forcerunt upon J. C. of H. in ecclesia de Shoreditch pred & predict. J. H. then and there in the said church, did beat and wound, & contra formam statuti, &c. the defendant was sound guilty. It was objected, that the indictment being contra formam statuti, is ill, and this offence is not punishable by the statute unless he smote with or drew a weapon in the church or church-yard with an intent to strike there, which is not mentioned in the indictment; and by the 2d clause in the statute smiting and laying violent hands is excommunication ipso sacto. The justices doubted. But because of the words (Shoreditch prædict.) whereas Shoreditch was not mentioned before; all the Court held the indictment void. Cro. C. 464. pl. 2. Trin. 12 Car. B. R. Cholmley's case.

3. Information for striking in the king's court, &cc. the defendant pleaded privilege of parliament; and urged for himself, that a peer could not be impleaded during the privilege of parliament, either in a civil or criminal cause, unless it was capital; and cited the case of the lord Arundel and Lovelace. It was insisted for the franc caly ir at (we)

t≪afor cuted

of Par that the chis, th rundel was a great misseat he could be prosecuted of parliament. But it was t does not extend to high or surery of the peace, and case, and Prinn's Survey o2. And the Court held hief; but notwithstanding ivilege, to which there was

e demurrer, and afterwards the plea was over-ruled by the Court; and he was fixed 30,000 h. Trin. 3 Jac. 2. Comb. 49, 50. Pafelic 5 Jac. 2. The Kine with Earl of Devonshire.

For more of Striking in general, see Andianient, (D),

(A) Subornation.

1. CUbornation is derived of fub & orno; and ornare in one of its fignifications is to prepare, so that subornare is as much as to fay, to prepare secretly, or under-hand. Est autem subornate quasi subtus in aure ipsum male ornare, unde subornatio dicitur de fals expressione, aut de veri suppressione. And here is to be noted, that in the judgment of the parliament plus peccat author quam after; for the suborner forfeits 401. and he that is suborned but 201. 3 Inst. 167.

2. 32 H. 8. 9. enacts, that no person sball suborn any witness by letters, rewards, promises, or other means to maintain any matter or cause to the disturbance or hindrance of justice, or to the procurement of the of any s soiety to king's c the cros

3. # jury be Anon. Set in the 2 Show. for attem cause, th The C

for fuch grettion that had he does n before Ga decayse the a & g Ja Hawk he an of eath; be person by liable to 1 a per- But the re-B. R. porter fays, he had known one

2 Show. 1, 2. _____ ves a fine of 500 marks afterwards, in another

smit a perjusy, but he sent cannot be framed funded to fwear. The ed him to oq, whether is true in fact, and yet le; the first is perjury indictaces vas qualbed, uft set. They held, t. 10 2. Hill.

commercial for second to tho in viriles fuch in alua , too it, the in contain, that he is

4. E f par- 7 mind. ffued; And fays, whereupon he was taken and brought into court, where he offer a that unon ed to move the every of judgment; but the Cour quarter it or it quit he white out of time; for that the judgment quad capt for was a final air with judgment, and a subfrquestion is the for the or courty of the leading, tine. 1 Salk. 78. pl. 3 Mir. 4 Ann. 5. 7. Cucen e 200 to 20 1817 C) 1818 could be see moved in state of thos vein for their see well private and the second and the many the fit of a price of the first of the color of the first same and the first of a first of the f that there was a cause in Chantery between A. and B. and that a commission did iffee out of that court to examine witnesses in the cause, and that I. S. was from a witness before the said commissioners, (without faving in that cause, or what he had sworn). That the defendant did solicit him to for-Iwear what he had fworn before; and it not appearing that the outh was in any cause pending, or that it was in any material point, were two exceptions; for that ought to be fet forth, that the Court might judge whether it was a point material or not; for it could not be perjury if it were not, and then folicitation could not be a subornation. 7 Mod. 100. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Darby.

> For more of Subornation in general, see Persury, and other proper titles.

[22]

Subpoena.

(A) Of the ferving a Subpœna.

T. AN attachment was awarded against the defendant for his non-appearance upon oath that he was ferved with a fubpœna, who now appeared gratis, and would have excused himfelf, that he had no notice of the subpoena; but he that served the fubpoena deposed, that he did hang the same upon the defendant's door, and within Milf an hour after faw him abroad with a writ in his band, which he supposed to be the subpæna, therefore he was committed to the Fleet. Cary's Rep. 57. cites I Eliz. fol. 249. Richers v. Stilman.

So where the defendant made oath, the plaintiff caused him to be ferved with a ful pens the Saturday icfore the end of the term, re turn, and againft h so as he •warded € 8d. Leane. be the defendant to ellicould not conveniently aplefs, the plauntant had g plaintant's bill was but fo in his answer. Cary sich

2. The defendant was ferved with a subporna the day of the reattachment was awarded s ferved fix score miles off, therefore a commission is antry, paying the plaintisf . George v. Bolington &

> tevo days before the end of the terin, London ; wherefore the detendant e faid subposna; and yet neverthedant; therefore, and for that, the feliarged of the attachment, putting

S. P. Cary's Upon path made of a delivery of a fubjection the defendant. 3 p 1114 sufe, being in the defendanc's boufe, who has not appeared, an ar Yes as de 12 F le. tachment was awarded. Cory's Rep. 76, cites 18 & 19 Elin. Piletier v. Barlow v. Baker

4. Walter Jeames made or th, that he hanged a fubpana on the from all one Stacy But by wildows a little the defendent when to re-

J.

. fort, as he heard reported before that time, who has not appeared; therefore an attachment was awarded. Cary's Rep. 79. cites'

18 & 19 Eliz. Jeames v. Morgan.

5. Goodwine made oath, that at fuch a time as he came to the house of the defendant, to serve a subposts upon him, according to an order of the 10th of May last, one of his fireunts came forth, and told him be was within, who thereupon delivered the writ to be delivered to the defendant his mufter. Cary's Rep. 91. cites 19 Eliz. Goodwine v. Sullyard.

6. Upon oath, that he faw one Lewis leave a subpares in the boll of the defendant, and that the defendant was at home at the fame time, who has not appeared, therefore an attachment is awarded against the defendant. Cary's Rep. 130. cites 22 Eliz.

7. Upon oath, that he did show and offer to deliver to the weffendant a subperna, which he would not accept, and has not appeared, therefore an attachment. Cary's Rep. 134. eites 22 Eliz. Peris v. Thomas.

8. The defendant made oath, that the plaintiff forward him a subparna, holding it in his own hand, and faid it was against him, but would not let him have it, or fee it, to that he might read it ; neither would he deliver him any note of his appearance, not tell him the fame, but t about an bour : defirous e label to to fe the d 2 whereupon : attachmeni ep. 137. Cites gainst the şlain Bake Baker an-Super good ferfor want VICE of 21 : & al' v. Bake

14 lodge latt place . . at d orde of al ជាខានា ជាកា 🙉 boui tratio fend agai other defend was regular, and infifted that it hevig above 12 month of the above? other defendant had left the lolging, the tervic, was in good; and years before the Court was of that opinion. 2 Water 300 3. 3324 Mich.

1699. Parker v. Blackbourne

1: 4 Ann. cap. 16. f. 22 an icha, that no julpeeur, or prosess for appearance, Shall office one of any court of equity till the hill officed, (corress in offer of bills for injunctions,) and a cortificate to errof be seed

[22] defendant Nelf. Char Rep. 103. S. C.

g been a Chan. Pres. tained an an pl. 87. where a fequet, me fubpana was left, Ottice 10 - the faid det relieved fendant had lodged but once, and roore ling that was to the subparna office, under the hand of the fix clerk, or other officer who usually files bills; for which certificate he shall receive no fee.

12. 5 Geo. 2. cap. 25. f. 1. enacts, that if in any fuit in equity, any defendant against whom process shall iffue, shall not cause his appearance to be entered, according to the rules of the Court, in case such process had been served, and assidavit shall be made that such desendant is beyond the feas, or that upon inquiry at his usual place of abode, he could not be found, so as to be served; and that there is just ground to believe that fuch defendant is gone out of the realm, or absconds, to avoid being ferved, the Court may make an order, appointing fuch defendant to appear at a day therein to be named, and a copy of fuch order shall noithin 14 days be inserted in the London Gazette, and published on some Lord's-day after divine service, in the parish church where such defendant made his usual abode, within 30 days next before his absenting; and a copy of such order shall be posted up, viz. a copy of such order made in Chancery, Exchequer, or Dutchy-chamber, shall be posted up at the Royal Exchange; and a copy of every such order made in any of the courts of equity of the counties palatine, or of the great fessions in Wales, Shall be posted up in some market town within the jurisdiction of the Court, nearest to the place where such defendant made bis usual abode, such place of abode being also within the jurisdiction of the Court; and if the defendant do not appear within such time as the Court Shall appoint, then, on proof made of fuch publication of fuch order as aforefaid, the Court may order the plaintiff's bill to be taken pro confeffo, and make such decree thereupon as shall be just; and the Court may order fuch plaintiff to be paid his demands out of the effate sequestered, according to the decree, Juch plaintiff giving fecurity to abide fuch order touching the restitution of such estate as the Court shall make supon the defendant's appearance; but in case such plaintiff shall refuse to give security, then the Court shall order the effects sequestered to remain under the direction of the Court, until the appearance of the defendant to defend such suit.

For more of Subpoens in general, see Bill of Revivor, Cous, and other proper titles.

[23]

Successor.

(A) Bound. In what Cases.

Sorfan classes and Prior granted an annuity, and refigned, and yet the annuity see grants an annuity, per judicium; quod note. Brooke fays and refigned this seems to be for life of the prior who granted in. And per Word.

Address of the Wood, Vavifor, and Davers, the tender is good by the fucceffor; the sibot his contra Brian. Br. Annuity, pl. 22. cites Fitzh. tit. Grants, 99. Successor Ball And 15 H. 7. 1. agrees with Brian in this, and puts the difference, during the where the writing is, that R. prior of D. or J. mayor of C. shall life of the make the tender, and where it is that the prior of D. or mayor of predecessor whocharged. C. without name of baptism. Br. Annuity, pl. 22.

Br. Surrender, pl. 53.

cites 32 H. S. and Fltah. Grants, 99. accordingly .-- Br. Grants, pl. 240. cites S. C. and 29 E. 3. 16. and Fitzh. tit. Abbe, 27. - But if a person grants an annuity, and religns, the grant is void; quod fuit concessum. Br. Grants, pl. 56. cites at H. 7. 1. Br. Dean and Chapter, pl. 10. cites S. C. S. P. per Butler, though the ordinary confirm it; for the annulty was determined before by the refignation. Br. Charge, pl. 54. cites 21 H. 7. 1.

2. A prior recovered an annuity against a parson, and after judgment the parson permutes; and there per Cur. execution shall be against the new parson, and not against him who has resigned; for the church is thereof charged. Br. Arrearages, pl. 12. cites

34 E., 3.

3. If an abbot confesses action, or a deed with warranty, this shall If an abbot bind his successor for ever; per opinionem Curize. But Brooke confesses the fays, quære of confession of an annuity; for of this the successor with of anhas no remedy. But if he confesses the action in pracipe quad red- unity, the dat, the successor may have writ of right. But in the case of the secressor annuity the person is charged only. Br. Abbe, pl. 28. cites 34 it, but that quod nota. Br. Abbe, &c. pl. 1. cites g H. 6. 3.

be bound

WINrent cafe

> ons : the 5 42

r, to Br. Waives the de Chofes, and S. C. the S. P. Br. Waiver de Chofes. pl. 19. cites S. C.

here S. P. ibid. good plagacites and 47 E. 3.23.

the writ was in the debet & detinet. Contra by executors.

A١ of the patron and ordinary, thall It a partor. per judicium. Brooke makes grants an -h a bishop in the time of H. 8. the patros 4 þ, n in this cafe. Br. Grants, and order by $\mathbf{p}_{\mathbf{l}}$ compress: 12, and the parts mere, if the parion had granted it for bin and our juccef-

Z;

If a perfor; genree, and ordinary great an annuity in fee, and do not fay for the perion and his factoffors, the factofier shall not be charged; for this charges the perfor only, and not the girbs. Per Frowicke, Ch. J. Br. Dean and Chapter, pl. 10- cites 21 H. 7- 4- S. P. Br. Grants, pl. 56ches 21 H. 7- 1-

So of annuity.

9. Where a fine is levial between two priors, by which the one has entered annuity, and the other has an advewfon, and he who grants the annuity is prefentable, and has no covent nor common feal, and he nuity is prefentable, and has no covent nor common feal, and he dies; yet if his fucceffor accepts the advowfon, he shall be bound to pay the other; because he has quid pro quo. Br. Acceptance, pl. 2. cites 11 H. 4. 68. & 70.

that the house may be charged in case the about dies; there, if the vendor takes obligation of the about alone for the debt, this shall discharge the contract, and there, if the about dies, the action is determined, and the debt is lost. Br. Abbe, pl. 20. cites 20 H. 6. 21.

11. In debt, an obbot and prior, and his covent, are bound by obingation; and after the abbot or prior is created a hishop, the successor shall be charged, and not the predecessor. For he may be bound as bead and member of the corporation; and where this is the deed of the corporation at the time of the making, it cannot afserwards become the deed of another person, who is no part of the corporation, quod nota. Br. Abbe, pl. 8. cites 21 H. 6. 3.

8t 22 H. 6. 4.

12. If iffues are forfeited by on abbot, who is after made a bishop, the successor shall render the issues; per Pole. And there he took no difference, whether the abbot be removed in such manner as that he is disabled, and where not; as where he is deposed, and remains a mank, and after is made an abbot or bishop, and where he is made a bishop or abbot of another house immediately: for, per Newton clearly, there is a time in the law between the translation and installation, &c. Br. Abbe, pl. & cites 21 H. 6. 3. & 22 H. 6. 4.

13 If damages are recovered in trespass against an abbat, the successor shall be charged. Br. Abbe, pl. 9. cites 22 H. 6. 56. per

Bing

And if the 14 empen short so is thall to pay for Mall beer for the boule, and to the uje of the boule this shall be given in aled if an abbert he a fireager, the taccel the use of the bouse, and after to a stranger, the successor bbe, pl. 9. cites 22 H. 6. 56.

or takes the bread and beer before it comes ton, to which Afone agreed; and that > 56.

nd to the use of the beuse, who gives it to a 22 H. 6. 56.

predecess r of the abbot borrowed of him 100s, which came to the use of the bouse, and put the charters in pledge; and if he will pay the 100s, he is ready to deliver the churters. And the juttices said, that it is was never doubted, but that the successor that he charged by the contract or promise of the predecessor, if the thing cours to the pie of the house, though the emerge was not by sorting, quod note. Br. Abbe, pl. 16. cites 21 E. 4. 19. 4:

[25]

21 £ 4. 90.

16. It was preferred for the king, that an abbot and his pradecoffers have used to clounge such a guster, for the ease of the king's highway, by reason of the towers of the same land; the defendant said. that [it was prefented] upon the same matter in another place; [and] that, after the prefentment, the predeceffer elegated the highway. which continued well, and sufficient in his time, and yet is; and a good plea per Cur. and that the fucceffer shall not be punished for an offence in the time of the predeceffor ; per tot. Cur. And by the apprentices, the fucceffor shall not be put to answer; for by the death of the predeculor the offence is determined. Br. Prefentments in Courts, pl. 15. cites 5 H. 7. 3, 4.

17. If a parson is charged with amounty by prescription, and the S. P. Beannuity is arrear, and the parfon refigns, and a new parfon is in-Chapter, pl. ducted, he shall be charged with the arrearages, and not the old 10, cites as parson; for though the person of the parson be charged, set if H. 7. to is by reason of the parsonage, and as parson; and when he has Fromike, refigned, he is not parson. Br, Arrearages, pl. 8. cites 21 H. Ch. J.

7- 5-

18. In colleteral conditions, a fuccessor is not included, unless

Mo. 606. pl. $36. Coftard V. Wingate. S. C. fays they agreed that the parfon, being a layeran, ought to be deprived, at Otherwise ali bre ade thall be good as lawfol parties, till deprovation. -D. 293. b. Marg. pi. 72. c.tes S. C tavs, that depr.icio, triongle is

21. A

21. A. an incumbent; made a lease of a parsonage to J. S. under whom W. R. claims. Afterward B. was incumbent, by whose consent a decree was made to consirm the said lease. W. R. brings a bill against H. the present incumbent, to compel him to consirm the same; but the Court, seeing no reason so to do, were clear of opinion, that the act of a present incumbent cannot bind his successor, and so dismissed the plaintist's bill. Chan. Rep. 148. 16 Car. 1. Press v. Hinchman.

For more concerning this division, see Effates, (Q. a. 7.) &c.

[26] (B) Of what the Successor shall take Advantage.

I. NOTE, That the goods of an abbot belong to him during his life, and he has property in them, and may give them and sell them; but if he dies, the property of the goods not given not sold are in the successor, and he may bave trespass de averiis domus & ecclesia sur captis; and this, it seems, by the common law; for replevin affirms property. Contra of trespass. Br. Property, pl. 36. cites 9 H. 6. 25.

2. If a leafe be made to an abbot during bis life, and be is tranflated to another house, the successor shall have it during his natural life. Br. Abbe, pl. 13. cites 3 H. 7. 11. and 5 H. 7. 24.

Per Rede.

Otherwife it is if the prior or mayor are not named by proper name.

3. If J. S. mayor of London, has a license to purchase to him and his successors, and to the commonalty, his successors shall not enjoy the license. Br. Tender, pl. 15. cites 14 H. 7. 31. and 15 H. 7. 1.

Br. Tender, pl. 25. cites 24 H. 7. 31. and 25 H. 7. E.

4. Usurpation by the master does not gain possession to the successor; for he does that which is wrong in another capacity; because a corporation cannot do wrong but by their writing under the common seal; per Fitzjames J. Br. Corporations, pl. 34. cites 14 H. 8. 29.

the but

C2-

43. after 4 an

480,e

the am reffor, for, and so the executor to the contract of the testator. Goldsb. 120.

pl. 6. Hill. 43 Eliz. Overton v. Syddall.

C

ᆲ

7. Doctor Langton, late prefident of the College of Phylicians, had recovered for the king and for himself, by the name of Prefidens Collegii, 601. and dies; and afterwards Doctor Atkins, being made prefident, brought a feire facias upon that judgment; and by the whole Court adjudged well. And it ought not to be brought by the executor of Dr. Langton. Noy, 121. Dr. Atkins v. Dr. Gardiner, cites Dyer, 148. a.

(C) What shall go to the Successor, or to the Heirs or Executors, &c. of the Predecessor.

[27] See Corporations (L), ph 2, 3, 4+

THE bishop of C. sued against the executors of his predecessor, viz. A. B. because all the ornaments of the chapel of the bishop, and all the goods and chattels found in the manor belonging to the bishop, at the time of the death of a bishop, received of the executors of his predecessor, for which gree was made, should not be seised by the escheator, and delivered to the successor, and shewed certain that such things came to the hands of the executors of his predecessor, and prayed writ to warn them to say why they should not deliver them to him, and had scire facias; and the sheriff returned the defendant nihil in lay see, and that there were benefices, by which issued scire facias de bonis eccle-

S. P. For he

respect of any thing

have the prefentation, and not the executor of the bishop. Br.

Executors, pl. 143. cites 50 E. 3. 26.

5. In ravidament of ward, it was held for clear law, that if a man held of a bishop in chivalry, and died his beir within age, and after the hishap died, and did not seife the infant, that the successor might feife him, and should have writ of ravishment of ward of him. Brooke fays, quere if the executors of the bishop who was dead should not have him; for of a thing transitory the law adjudges possession without seisure. Br. Chattels, pl. 21. cites 2 H. 4. 19.

6. If an abbot purchases to himself and his heirs, it shall not serve but for term of his life. Contra of a bishop, per Martin & Cockain Just. Br. Corporations, pl. 20. cites 9 H. 5. 9.

7. An abbot is imprisoned, he may bring action thereof by name of the abbot, without faying J. N. abbot, &c. And if he recovers damages for a tort done to his person, the successor shall have execution, and not his executors; but Brooke fays, it feems, that he cannot make executors; for he has no capacity but to the ufe of the house, &c. Br. Abbe, pl. 7. cites 7 H. 6. 27.

8. Where the mafter of an hospital, who has confreres, recovers in cannot make surit of annuity, and dies, the fuccessor shall have the arrears by executors, in * scire facias, and not the executors. Br. Corporations, pl. 26.

cites 19 H. 6. 44.

which belongs to the corporation. Contra of a parson of a church; for there his executors shall have the arrest-ages incurred in his time. Br. Arrearages, pl. 6. cites to H. 9. 44. but it should be H. 6.—S. P. And so it a dean and chapter, or guardian of a bouse, recovers in debt or annuity, or other thing, in a court of record, as in right of their church and house, and die before execution sued, see. the secretic may have a feire facius to assente the same judgment. Perk. 6. 499.

[28] 9. In trespass it was admitted, that where a parson dies after the Ift day of May, where the land is fown, and after another parlon is made, and after the emblements are severed, the executor of the first parson shall have the tithes, and not the now parson. Br. Emblements, pl. 9. cites 21 H. 6. 30.

10. If a parson dies before the feast of the Conception of our Lady, S. P. Br. Encumbent, the fucceffor shall have the emblements growing, and the tithes թե ու Br. Emblements, pl. 2. S. C.

of Saint Mary, in Boston, Fer w s mar te alderman, which was to bound in Just. he ought to foew church f abbot and prior, or dean ders c ther j unot be made but by special fors, 1 s successor cannot take effect word ife this word fuccessor is ∯ri ii and U O E. 4. 2.

CHIOTI id Littleton Just, to the same purhave . pole. A band made to the dean of P. and his junctifore, is not good to the forcessors, but the executors shall have the action. Contra of bond to the dean and chapter of P. and their face force, there the successor shall have the action areas the death of the predominor. Br. Corporations, pl. 60. cress 20 E. 4 2 So of a bifusp, per Littleton, to which Chulte Justice agreed, and agreed the case by Brian, and that bend made to abbit or pener, and their justifiers smitting the coverer, is good to the forcefor; for no other of the corporation is able to take the bond but the abbot. Br. Corporations, pl. to. cites 20 E. 4. 2. ——And where chantry priest is founded by fuch name, and fuccess rs, and land a given to him and his fuccessors, this is good; and the successor shall have it, and not the heir; per Cooke Just. Br. Corporations, pl. 60. cites 20 E. 4. 2. ——But hard made to him and his fuccessors that enter to the executors, and not to the successors; by which the plaintist prayed leave to purchase a better writ. Br. Corporations, pl. 60. cites 20 E. 4. 2.

12. If a man diffeifes the dean and chapter of P. and the dean hes, the successor shall have affife. Contra in case of an abbot diffeised, and he dies, and another abbot is made. Note the diverfity. Br. Corporations, pl. 86. cites 1 E. 5. 4.

13. In an action of covenant by executor to G. M. late bifloth of Winchester, and sets forth, that Brian, the predecessor of the said histop, had demised a rectory and certain lands to J. S. for 21 years, who had assigned to the sestator of the desendant, and that the lesse covenanted with Brian and his successor to repair the chancel of the church, and the barns, &c. and assigned a breach in the not repairing by the testator of the desendant in the life of the said G. M. and that the lease afterwards expired. To this the desendant demurred, for that it was pretended that the executor of the bishop could not bring this action; for the covenant was with the predecessor bishop and his successors. But the whole Court gave judgment for the plaintiss, and that the executor is here well insided to the action for the breach in the testator's time. 2 Vent. 564 Trin. 1 W. & M. in C. B. Morley v. Polhill.

(D) Relieved against Frauds of the Predecessor. [29]

the innefit of the ruinous build but or be inquired fuch leafe go his report. wately, withe for, and tool aron the leafe the rector's obtained by the fuccessor death, for the successor's benefit. Ld. C. Talbot thought it too hard to set aside the lease, the lesses not appearing to have had a great bargain, the repairs having been great, and no had sold part, and in the taking it he looked no further back that to the decree; it is so the late rector, he had no doubt but the food, might to be a fixed as a part of the trust, and to be a pair with interest to the now rector from the death of the former; and decreed the food, we laid out in a purchase for the rector and his successors, and till to be laid out on security in trustees traines, and the late rector's executors to pay costs out of his affets; but as against the lessee dismissed the bill, but without costs. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 199. Trin. 1736. Galley v. Baker.

See Phy6eians (A)

(E) Actions by or against Successor. And Pleadings.

pl. 8.—— Trial(X.d.)

1. By 52 H. 3. IT is provided, That if any wrongs or trespelles cap. 28. I be done to * abbots, or other prelates of the church, There were cap. 28. 2 mischiefs and they have fued their right for fuch wrongs, and be + prevented at the commen lew, with death before judgment given therein, í 29 MARY dia hold) that in the case of abbots, priors, and other regular and religious persons, if the goods of the mona-stery were taken away in the life of the predecessor, that after his death his successor had no remedy see fuch trespesses. The other mischief was, that if in time of vacation, when there was no abbot, prior, or other regular or religious fovereign, any intrution were made, the foccessor had no remedy to recover the land with damages, though thereof his predecessor died seifed, and both these are remedied by this

2 Inft. 151.

This act extends only to abbote, priors, and other prelates that be religious and regular, and not to bishops and other persons ecclesiastical, being secular; for in the 2d clause of this act, bujustandi religiosrum is mentioned for the diffinction between religious and fecular. (See the first part of the Inflitutes, fect. 133.) And the reason of this diversity is, that the abbots, priors, and other religious and regufar perfons, are dead perfone in law, and have capacity to have lands and goods only, for the use and benefit of the house, and cannot make any testament; and therefore the church or religious house is holden always one, in respect whereof the succeeding abbot shall have an affile for a diffeitin done in the life of the predeceffor, and an action of waste, for waste done in his predeceffor's time; but so that not a bishop, archdeacon, dean, parson, or the like, that are ecclesiastical secular, because the thurch by their death has an alteration, and is not always one, and they may make their testament; for that they may have goods and chattels to their own use. 2 Inft. 151.

Also the biftis is of an bigher degree than the abbots and priors, with which this act begins.

$ Inft. 15t.

+ Sec the note to the next paragraph.

roods of their

ion, wherein the make it evident, e common law ; was given to the But an action ntinue, the fut-ratalla domus 📽 not the church's, itute gives action it of trefpais, in W. the prior, in ed. Per Roub. a not vitiate the nd therefore the respais, pl. 248.

cites it as in the time of E. t.

If an abbot or prior be depoted, the forceffor shall have an action upon this act, although the prodeceffor be alive, as well as if he had died; for as to that house he is envilate mercaus. 2 last. 151.

The forcestor shall have, by the county of this statute, ar action of treppels of custing down of trees, and corrying them are ty, wherein it is to be observed, that acts that give remedy for wrongs done, had be taken by equity. I last a sale

i The action that the face-for thail bring upon this flatute, thall be bonn & cetalla domus & ecclehe fue tempere J. premerfier's ful, which without question a bishop, dean, or other exclesiastical focuiar, cannot tay. 2 luft. 1 52

The prior of St. C. brought trespass quare bona & catalla ecclefia fantii G. & Nicholal practicesfirit bear prairie apud C. cepit, &cc. and the writ was awarded good; quod nota. Fitzh. tit. Trespelle, pl. 205. cites Mich. 47 E. 3. 23. and fays, vide 16 E. 3.

Moreover, the successors shall have like action for such things as Yet if the were lately withdrawn by fuch violence from their boufe and church, taking of before the death of their predecessors, though their ford predecessors were long did not purfue their right during their lives.

before the deeth of the abbot or prior, his fucceff or thall have an action of trespats by this flatute. . . Inft. 152 .--Fitzh tit-Trespals, pl. 211. cites Trin. 16 E. 3. where a prior brought trespals of goods carried away in time of his predecessor, an objection was made that such writ lies not at common law, nor is given by the statute, unless freshly brought before the producesfor's death; and that if there was laches in the preducesfor, fach writ hes not : but it was over-ruled, and the defendant pleaded not guilty, and fo to iffus.

And if any intrude into the lands or tenements of fuch religious per- About fens in the time of vacation, of which lands their predecessors died seifed, trespals for as in the right of their church, the successors shall have a writ to re- cutting cover their seifin; and damages shall be aswarded them, as in assign of trees in time novel diffeifin is wont to be.

of watetien;

Soul that no action lay either by the common law, or flatute; and that if this action lies for an abbot, it would be for a bishop likewise for a trespass done in time of vacation: but it was answered, that the cales are not alike; and a respondess outter was awarded. Fitzh, tit. Trespale, 237. cites Mich. 18 E. 2.

This branch is caken by eyony; for by these words the successor of an abbot, prior, or any other religious fovereign, that have an action of trespats for trees cut down, and catried away in the time of raeation. 2 Inft. 152.

But a biflop shall not have an action of trespais in that case, 1st, as has been said; for that this act extends not to him- adily. The king has the temporalties during the vacation; and therefore he conme before 20.

to bear the your of the Sore I have manuscripti But F. 1 dighops; 25 in cutting parks, or fit proc to sep Writ of poficition (tate, where 443, for th 152.

time of the in the time

2. In Lempore , the writ H. præs he thoul flanding Brief, pl ; A died, he कर्श बहुका firmias o parí

' year

wine. It was objected that the writ should be bona & catalian in the prior; for that the property was his. But per Choke, the successor * cannot have action of this taking, but in respect of the right which was in the church; and therefore the writ is good. And per Danby, the prior could not have goods otherwise than in the right of his church; and he could not devise them, &c. and they held the writ good. Fitzh. tit. Brief, pl. 176. cites Trin. 9 E. 4. 33.

19. Scire facias against successor of a parson to have execution of certain arrears of annuity recovered against his predecessor; the defendant said, that he at D. in another county, resigned into the hands of the history, which he accepted, &c. and so he was not parson the day of the writ purchased, nor ever after; and the best opinion was, that this is a good plea; but by some nothing shall be entered but not parson the day of the writ purchased nor ever after, and the resignation shall be given in evidence; and it seemed to some that all should be entered for evidence and plea. Br. Scire Facias, pl. 133. cites 9 E. 4. 49.

20. If mayor and commonalty are disselfed, and the mayor dies, the successor and the commonalty shall have assigned, and the writ shall be disselfed out our Br. Corporations, pl. 56. cites 12 E. 4. 9, 10.

21. In detinue of charters by an abbot, it is a good plea that his predecessor pledged them for 10 l. which is not paid. Br. Chattels, pl. 25. cites 21 E. 4. 19.

For more of Successor in general, see Construction, Corporation, Estate, and other proper titles.

Sa (B (A.) By woom it may or mun or done.

This does 1. BY 20 H. 3. cap. 10. it is provided and granted, that every freeholders in ancient drea, 2 d 5 rapentake, demesse, but not o comboser. 2 last, soo.

† Note, there be 2 conds of suits, viz. suit  real, that is, in respect of his refiance, to a keet or torn; and suit forence, that is, by reason of a tenure of his land of the county, hundred, wapentake, or manor, whereung a nourt baron is incident. Before this act, every one that held by suit service eacht to appear in person, because the suitors were judges in those courts; otherwise he should be americal, which was muchievous; for it might be, that he had lands within divers of those seigniories, and that the courts might be kept in one day, and he could be but in one place at one time. But this structe extense not so suit real, because he cannot be within a least, dec. 2 Inst. 99.

🍑 $. P. per Trem. Br. Sult, pl. u. eiter 45 E. 3. 25.

1 Herr

1 Here it figuifies a court which coufiffs of 3 or 4 bundreds, and does not there figuify a leet, or view of frankpledge. 2 Inft. 99.

That, which is some countries is called a bundred court, in some countries is called a suspentate, quod angli vocant hundredum supradicti comitatus vocant wagentagium. Now the reason of the name was thus: when any, on a certain day and place, took upon him the government of thesehundred, the free suitors met him with launces, and he descending from his horse, all role up to him; and he holding his launce upright, all the rest, in sign of obedience, with their launces touching his launce or weapon. For the Saxon word wapen, is weapon, and tac, is tactus, or touching; and therefore this affembly was called wapentake, or touching of weapon. 2 last, 99.

Or to the court of his lord, may freely make his attorney * to do those fuits for him.

† [34] He must make a letter of attorney under bit feel, which the steward ought to allow; and if he does not, the faiter may have a writ + out of the Chancery, for the allowance of him; or, if he doubted that he should not be allowed, he might have a writ before-hand to receive him as attorney. And fach a writ shall ferve during the life of the tenent, Sec. for the words of another writ he, et quia virtue brevium nostrorum de hujusmodi attornate faciendo terminum non capit, not terminus limitatur durantibus personis, Sec. What such an attorney may do, and who cannot be attorney, see the statute of W. 1. 2 Inft. 100.——S. P. F. N. B. 156. (D).

F. N. B. 157. (C).

And if the tenant, by his letters patent under his feel, make atterney for him to do fuit for him at the lett's court, or at the hundred, and the builiffs will not admit of him, &c. then he feelt have a writ unto them. F. N. B. 256. (D) — And the book lays, that if the sheriff or builiff of the court refuse to admit such for his atterney, upon that refused, the party shall have an attachment against the builiff, &c. although he has use fined forth any world directed to him before; because they do against the statute, which requires, that they admit him for attorney whom the tenant will make to be his attorney. F. N. B. 257. (C).——So if a man feet forth a writ to admit one for attorney, and the bailiffs refuse to admit him, the party fall have an attachment against them, without suing forth an alian, or a pluries, directed unto them. F. N. B. 157. (C).

And he that to do fust for If a man bailiffs will an discharge bim year, or for an may have a this attorney; turnable in Capluries, which

So as, by Now albeit as the free fulof the flatute! This act en t an attorney
i. 157. (D), purt, and the id afterwards ty above one ien the party cive him for ift them, reuse upon the fit as judge, and the words y 100.

2. If or the feoffer of tit. Suits, 3. One shall be it

2 Salk. 604. in case of Tomkins v. Crocker, cites 12 H. 7. 3.

4. If the wife be tenant in dower of any land, fire shall not be restrained to do suit for that land which the holds in dower, if the beir has sufficient land in the same county to be distrained for the same. And if she be distrained, then she shall have a writ pre exoneratione secture. F. N. B. 159. (A).

D 4

5. Note,

5. Note, that men or women who have entered into religion, pught not to come unto the sheriff's torn, or unto the leet of any other, without great cause; and if they be distrained for to come, they may have a writ out of the Chancery to discharge them, F. N. B. 160. (C),

6. [So] clerks who are not parsons, nor have tenefices, shall not be distrained, or compelled to come to torns or leets; but they shall have a writ to discharge them. F. N. B. 160. (C).

7. [So] by the common law, parsons of churches shall not be compelled or distrained to come to the king's leets, or to the leets of other lords of the lands annexed to their churches; and if they be distrained so to do, they shall have a writ. F. N. B.

160. (C).

A woman may be a free fuitor to the courts of the lord; but though 8. Women are not compellable nor distrainable to come unto the sheriff's torn, nor to leets; and if they be distrained, they may sue such a writ as a priest may sue, and thereupon an alias, pluries, and attachment, &c. F. N. B. 161. (A).

it be generally said, that the free suitors be judges in these courts, it is intended of men, and not of wonners. 2 Inst. 119.

o. If the sheriff will distrain the tenants in ancient demesse, to come unto the leet or sheriff's torn, they may have one writ for them all, directed unto the sheriff, commanding him that he do not distrain them, &c. to do any suit at the leet or torn; and that writ shall be sued in all their names, if they will, as a monstrave-runt shall be sued; or any of them may sue the writ in his own name, if he be distrained to do such suit. F. N. B. 161. (C).

See(C)pl. 51 (B) How. By Parceners, Feoffees, &c.

This is 1. 52 H. 3. FOR doing fuits unto courts of great lords, or of understood cap. 9. meaner persons, from henceforth this order shall be vice to courts observed great lords.

That + none that is infeoffed by deed from henceforth shall be common law, distrained to do such suit to the court of his lord, without he be specially making of bound thereto by the form of his deed, if the lord had made a stablement by seed and reserved certain services, as, for example, sealty, and 2 sa rent, or 2 s. rent generally, which had implied fealty, in this case, it the lord had distrained for homage, or suit, or any other rent or since there was reserved in the deed, not only the tenant and his heirs, but his affigues also, or any other senant of the lord, might have rebuted the lord, his heirs, or assigns, by the deed; and this holds between party and party, privy and stranger, and stranger and stranger. But this ass gives the tenant, or him here, a more specify remody; for hereby is given to the teament, against the lors and his heirs, a writ of contrassements substances. 2 Inst. 117, 118.

And lord Coke lays, that herein are feveral things murshy of abservation, as,

. When

I

y. When any act does prohibit any wrong or reaction, though no action he perticularly named in the set, yet the party grieved shall have an action grounded upon this flatute; which in this esfe is a * prohibition to the lord or his bailiffs, and recites this act; the form whereof you may read in the Register, & F. N. B. Now where it may be objected, that in Mich. 16 H. 3. reported by F. tit. Avowry, 243, that upon a confirmation a writ of contra formest feoffementi does lie; and by that book it should feem, that a writ of contra formam feoffamenti did lie at the common law before this flatute, which was made in 52 H. 3. To this it is answered, that the faid case is mifprinted; for where it is Mich. 16 H. 3. it should be 56 H. 3. when the case was so resolved, and in which term, viz. the 16th day of Novemb. H. 3. died; so as that opinion was after our fiatute, and that the writ was given by this statute, the writ does recite it. And where in this clause the statute lays, that be differented, all this chapter is to be understood of suit service; because for fait real to diftrefs can be taken, but for the americament in default thereof. 2 Inft. 118.

ad y, Where the statute says, contra formam feoffamenti, yet if the lord confirms the offate of the tenant to bald by certain fervices, upon this confirmation he thall have a contra formam feoffamenti, for that it is within one and the same reason. 2 Inft. 118.— -- Where the fervices by the deed of confirmation are lefs than before. Br. Contra formam Feoffamenti, pl. 3. cites 16 H. 3. 1. & Pitzh. tit. Avowry, 243. — Ibid. pl. 5. cites S. C. — K.tch. of Courts, 209. tit. Suits, S. P. cites 10 H. 3. tit. Avowry, 243. & 26 E. 3. tit. Avowry, 246. — F. N. B. 163. (G) cites Mich. 16 Ed. 3. 3dly, Upon these words (certain service) if one give land in frankalmegne, or in frank-marriage, he cannot have a writ of contra formain feoffamenti; because there is no certain service contained in the feofiment or gift, and therefore out of this act; but he may rebat. a last. 128. --- F. N. B. 163. (F) S. P. cites the opinion of Parning, Parch. 10 E. 3.

athly. If the lord diffrains either for fuit, or for any other fervice, or rest, not contained in the dead, the tenant fault have this writ of contra formam feotfamenti; for the words of this act be, ad hujufmodi fectum, vet ad alsod, &c. 2 Inft. 118.

5thly, The statute says, contra formum feoffamenti; hereupon exposition has been made, that this writ ii-t only between privies, vis. by the tenant and his heirs, againft the lord and his heirs; for they be included in privity of the feoffment, but so are not the affigur on either fide. 2 lnft. 118 .-This + writ lies only where the plaintiff claims by his ancestor, and not where he claims as purchafer; and that fo it is of ne injuste yexes. Regist. Bev. 176. cites Hill. 19 E. 3. the last pl. by Widoughby-

 The writ of contra formam feoffamenti is a prohibition in Itself, and if the letd and bailiffs do contrary to the write fent to them, the tenant thereupon shall have an attachment and distress. F. N. B. 163 (A) - S. P. And if he diffram after the writ delivered to him, the tenant shall have an attachment against him; and thereupon he shall recover his damages, if it be found for him, are, and the process as prohibition, attachment, and distress. F. N. B. 163. (D).

If the feefiment be without deed, the feoffee is driven to his writ of ne minfe vener. 2 Inft. 118. -So if the feoffment be made hafore time of mem ry, one thall not have a contra formam feoffamenti, but a ne injuste vexes, for such scoffment is not pleadable. F. N. B. 162. (E), in the new notes there, (b) cites 12 H. ተ[36]

These only do luch fuit taigne; fince these statutes does incline rath fion; and theref arife in this reali de foresta, in the into Bretnigne, 1 were regular and

O The law does even fa-vour policifion at an argument of right, and without pollefroubles that did irta, and charta e his first going soben the canet

Likewise f the time of ti trained to do before the faid wayage. M Here he be-& gins with feaffine its 🕻 without de as in the next branch with feeligments by deed 3 who reprised to a conferved the great maliquity of feeliments by deed or without deal, or line one time perone the language. I have also rely, The section in these troublesome that is the first going a is of the king (as has been Additional and and a state of the same of the wife of the decided at a said and a find basedia ton in (19

And they that one infeoffed by and to do " a certain fervice, as, for the vorce reve of fo many Stillings by your, to be acquitted of all fervice, from at the ut henceforth makerin henceforth shall not be bounden to such suits, or other like, contrary unto the form of their feoffment.

And if any inheritance (whereof but one fuit is due) descend This is to be underunto many beirs, as unto parceners, who fo has the " eldeft part of $000 after the inheritance, shall do that one suit for himself and his fellows, and partition, the other coheirs shall be contributaries, according to their portion, for for before wat, the eldoing fuch fuit. deft has not enstiam partern, and therefore before partition this act extends not to it, and before partition there can be no contribution, as hereafter shall be faid; but in the † king's case, all the coparceners shall do just as well after partition as before, and so shall their several scotters, for this act extends not to the king; for the words be, ad curiam magnatum, &c. 2 Init. 119.———S. P. For the king not being named, is not seftrained by the statute. Pl. C. 240. b. in case of William v. Ld. Barkley.——Br. Suite, &c. pl. 4. cites 34 E. 3. 73. and makes a guere as to the case of a common person, before partition.

+ S. P. F. N. B. 159. (C). — Kitch, of Courts, 297. tit. Suits, cites S. C. & 13 H. 7.15. — But if the land be holden of another lord, then that I copercener or his froffee, subo has the part of the sidest fifter, shall do the fast alone; and if the lord will distrain the other coparceners, then they shall do the fast alone; and if the lord will distrain the other coparceners, then they shall do the fast alone; and if the lord will distrain the other coparceners. have a writ against him, directed to him or his bailists, to discharge them of that suit, and dishess taken, &c. F. N. B. 159. (C). 1 S. P. Pl. C. 240. b. Arg. in case of William v. Ld. Barkley.

If the eldest after partition will not do the fuit, in the case of a common person the lord may diffrain the other paremers, as well as the eldest for the fuit, and the other parceners may have upon this act a writ against the eldest to compet her to do the fatt. And if the eldest does the furt, and the residue result to contribute to her charges, he shall have upon this act a writ de contributione fatienda to compet them to contribute. 2 Inst. 129. —S. P. F. N. B. 259. (E). —S. P. F. N. B. 162. (B). So if the eldest does she fast, and the other coparemers agree with the eldest for a rate; now the writ of contribution thall be brought against the others, who would not contribute, &cc. F. N. B. 162. (B).

And yet this act extends to the froffee of him that has entrum partem, and to it is of the tenant by the courtefy. 2 Inft. 119.

[37] This is to be underRood, the tenant bolds by

And if many feoffees be feifed of an inheritance (whereof but one either when fuit is due) the lord of the fee shall have but that one fuit, and shall . not exact of the faid inheritance but that one fuit, as has been used to be done before.

frits, and enfesffs others fall have but others, or wh they shall deli not have a wri there can be n feveral fuit, as fest, if the otl them of the fi on this and or the Reguler. but lays, quat train which be Lall have only

S. P. 6 1 makes foffmo fatute; for w agrees F. N. B i; there the lord enda, against the e but one fast ; as the fuit, he fall ided, and intire, feeffre Ball do a I feoffees does the lard to discharge are grounded up-I which appear in joint feoffment, e loted might diff, and fo the lord ut if the tenant a purview of this n, and with this ral fuit.

5 P. F. N. B. 159. (D)--And if he fue fuch writ, and be difframed, then he shall have an attachment against the lord, or the bailiffs to whom the first was directed, to answer that contempt, in which writhe that recover his damages, &c. F. N. B. 150. (D).

If fewe af are infeoffed at land, for which one fuit ought to be done, &c. Now if they agree among themfelves, that one of them fould do the fuit, and that the stoors shall contribute unto him, it he do the fuit, and afterwards the others will not allow him for that full according to their rate, then he' shall have the writ of contribution against them, and the west jond menters the agreement, &c. and if they cannot agree, then the had that diffram them all for all their facts, if the fact be not done; but if one feather of his own will do the full for them all, without any agreement for the fame made between them, the lord cannot then diffrain the others for the fuit, for as to the lord, it is not material whether there be any agreement between them or not; but between the fooffees, he that aid the juit fault not have the write of contribution against his companions, suchest agranutes thereof made betwint them. F N. B. 162. (B).

If two are feverally infeoffed by one tenant who holds of one monor of the king, every of them shall make fuit. Kitch, of Courts, etc. Suit, 298, cites 45 B. 3. tit. Bar. 221.

And

And if those feeffees have no warrant or mefine which ought to acquit That is to them, then all the feoffees according to their portion fall be contributaries for doing the Juits for them.

have neither one to warsant by fpeeid grant, nor any maine by tenure which ought to acquit them, tune omnes illi feoffati pro portione. for contribuant, &c. This clause is to be underflood of feweral tenants, as has been said before; and no provision is made by this oft concerning contribution, where the parties are provided for by grant or tenure, a laft. 130.

And if it chance that the lords of the fee do distrain their tenants Hemis we for fuch fuits contrary to this act, then, at the complaint of the tenants, to the tenant the lords he attached to appear in the king's court at a foort day, to squink the make answer thereto, and shall have but one essin therein (if they be lord, if he within the realm); and immediately the beafts or other diffresses taken tracy to this by this occasion, shall be delivered to the plaintiff, and so shall remain tistum.

until the plea betwirt them be determined.

And if the lords of the courts, which took diffresses, come not at . Note, the the day that they were attached, or do not keep the day given to them by efforn, then the sheriff shall be commanded to cause them to come at be recovered, another day; at which day if they come not, then be fall be commanded but damages to diftrain them by all their goods and chattels that they have in the for the same. foire, fo that the sheriff shall answer to the king of the iffues of the faid inheritance. And that he have their bodies before our justices at For when a certain day limited, so that if they come not at that day, the party plaintiff fall go without day, and his beafts or other diffresses taken the fuit can. by that colour shall remain delivered, " until the same lord have re-

COURT time righ fore.

Tuch COUT ĎŒŪ 2

this dift the

POLFIL be

in as much as he cannot take the fuit, and be contributary to the fuit which he himfelf takes .--–$. P. Set.

[bali but 加 162. (D).

in fee of his part his feeffee the a her jointenams fhall do e, cap. 9. But every tenant nd feveral fuits. F. N. B.

5. Quare,

2 Juft. 120.

fuit that is _S P. the courtday is pull notbe made. Br. Suit, pl. 7. cites 7 E. 4. 28. -Br. Avourry, pl. 96. cites S. C. [38]

Br. Suit, pf. 1. cites S.C.

Brooke fays

the reston feems to be

5. Quere, If A. holds lands charged with fuit to the hundred by prescription, and enfeoffs the king of parcel, if all the suit is gone ? F. N. B. 159. (A) in the new notes there.

(C) Remedies for not doing thereof.

1. 52 H. 3. ENACTS, that if the tenants after this act withcap. 9. f. 2. E draw from their lords fuch fuits as they were wont to do, and which they did before the time of the first voyage of king Henry into Bretaigne, and bitherto used to do, then by like speediness of justice, as be to limiting of days and awarding of distresses, the lords of the court shall obtain justice to recover their suits with their damages, in like manner as the tenants should recover theirs,

And this recovering of damages must be understood of withdrawing from felves, and not of withdrawing from their ancestors.

Nevertheless the lords of the court shall not recover seifin of such fuits against their tenants by default, as they were went to do.

And touching suits withdrawn before the time aforementioned, let the common law run as it were wont beforetime.

2. In trespass the defendant justified for amercement, in as much as the plaintiff held of him of his manor by fealty 2d, of rent, and fuit to bis bundred de tribus septimanis in tres, &c. And per Gascoign & Alcue, this suit is only suit service, for which a man may distrain: but otherwise it is of suit real, as to a leet for refiancy of which a man cannot be his own judge, and therefore there he enay diffrain for the amercement. Br. Suit, pl. 9. cites 8 H. 4. 16.

> intiff beld . l feisin of the feifin et is fuit lord Shall . 6. cites

· his mill, olendinum another 's not the aciend, as it in the not bave

any other profit but only appearance in his court. But in the other [39] case de fetta ad molendinum, he shall have other profits by the fuit, the toll of the grain he shall grind there; and for that profit it teents the action of fecta ad molendinum was given, and for the furt of the court, but only a diffress; tamen quære. F. N. B.

158. (D) Ritch. of

وانتاك ملك

5. If there be 2 appareners of land, for which one fuit ought to Courts,297. be done, and the eldest After will not do the fuit at the lard's court, then then the lord may distrain the other * coparcener, as well as the cite 3. C. eldest coparcener for that suit; and if the coparceners be dif- 159. (E) in trained, then they shall have a writ against the eldest lister, to come the new pel her to do the fuit. F. N. B. 159.

(c) fays he 24 E. 3. 78 shall make avowry on her only, and not on both, after a partition by feoffment, acc-See 2 E. 2. Avowry, 184. And fee the cafe, 24 E. 3. 34- 73. where the eldest aliens ber part to one, and the younger ber part to another, and the avowry made on the alience of the elder only for fult. arc. And fo it may be on the slience of the younger for other furt; yet juit made by one discharges bethe And note per Cur, he cannot avow on both in fee after fuch feverance.

(D) Excuse of not doing Suit.

1. IF lard feifed of 2 courts, viz. P. and C. and 2 tenant owes fuit Bt. Suite, to the court of P. and after the tenant has done fuit at the place of the first the state of the court of P. the lord agrees by deed, that for the ease of the tenant, and in confideration of 2s. rent a year, that the tenant fhall do fuit at the court of C. the which he does for 40 years; and after the lord infifts on the fuit to be done again at P. it feems that having been seised of the suit at P. the same is still due there; for the doing it at C. was only in allowance of the other fuit that was due at P. See Fitzh. tit. Action fur le Statute, pl. 24. cites

2. If a man have lands in divers places in the county, and there are feveral leets, &c. or hundreds, and he is diffrained to come unto the leet, or the theriff's torn, where he is not dwelling or conversant, but is dwelling within the precinct of some other leet these are very many tenants thereof; and that there is a custom for the sing these convoliders who live remote from the manon, to pay 80, to the autom to be fleward, &cc. for the use of the lord, and d. for hanfelf for entering lived to it, and then foculd be excused from doing furt for one your after the pay- water to ment; and alleged, that he lives to miles from the manor, and the com's that he tendered the 8d. and the 1d. but that both were refuted. was been a And upon demurrer to this replication, Hale Ch. J. faid, that it good out is cutom gives the fust, and confequently may qualify it. The tom, the de aba pull semponsary court, but a court baren, in which the free faitoer are judges, and fo not essential to courtnot be- doubt arifes, because the plaintiff has not alleged that there are any tenants live near or within the manor, or whether that ought to be shewn on the other side, if it be not so, because the intendment is strong that there are. Therefore a bye-law in a manor binds the tenants without notice, because they are supposed to be within the manor: wherefore they gave judgment for the plaintiff. Vent. 167. Mich. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Isaac v. Ledgingham.

S.d. 461. and in m

Suit of Court.

- Mod. 77. pl. 37. Mich. 22 Car. s. B. R. Leginham v. Porphery, * S. P. exactly, 40]

(E) Suspended or Determined.

1. IF land be held by fuit, and parcel of it comes to the lord, the intire fuit is extinct and determined; for the lord cannot make contribution of fuit to his own court, nor take it.

of Courts, 299. tit. Suit, cites 34 Aff. 15.

2. If the lord purchases parcel, the whole suit is extinct. of Courts, 298. tit. Suit, cites 40 E. 3. fol. 40. by Mowbray, and fays, fee Litt. fol. 49. for fuit cannot be apportioned, because there cannot be contribution.

> ourt is Kitch.

Kitch. of Courts, tit. Suit, fays the 2 E. 6. cap. 8. did not alter the COMMON law in this point for fuit to the court; and citus 20 Aff. 17, that the feigniory is folgende . tur for the in caime the ittees; ento the in the or in n, that in the

5. If the king has any lands or tenements in ward, during the surage of an infant, and the king in Chancery offigns dower unto the muje of the husband, who was father to the word, of lands holden of other level/bips now is the other lords will distrain the tenant in dower for fuit at their court, during the time that the lands are in the king's hands, the wife thall have a writ unto the bailiffs of the other lords, commanding them that they do not diffrain her, and recite in the writ all the special matter, and if they have taken any diftrefs, that they deliver it back again. F. N. B. 157. (A).

۳.

3°M

4 4 4 4

(F) Suspended or Determined by Writ de Exoneratione Secta.

HIS writ lies where the tenant holds his land to do fuit at So if the the county court, hundred, or other court baron, or wapen- lands be in take, or leet, and he who ought to do the fuit is in ward unto the the king's hing, or bis committee; and the lord of whom he holds by fuch word; for fervice will " distrain him to do his suit at his court, during the of the king time he is in ward unto the king or his committee, his guardian in capite; fall fue this writ unto the theriff, or bailiffs of the court, that they and afterdo not distrain him, &cc. to do fuit during the time he is in ward other lords, to the king or his committee. F. N. B. 158. (A).

of whom the beir

holds parcel of his lands, will diffrain for any fervice or rest to them due, then the king, or his committed, may fue a writ for them to furcease from such diffress. F. N. B. 158. (C).

2. And the like writ shall be for tenant in dower, where the is Alfo the toendowed in the Chancery of lands which are in ward to the king, down [of which lands are bolden of other lards: now if the other lards will lands bolden distrain the tenant in dower to do suit for those lands which she of the king holds in dower, the shall have a writ to discharge her. F. N. B. 158. (B).

if the bailiff

of other lords will diffrain her for the relief of the heir, or other fervices, during the time that the hear's lands are in the king's cuttody, or in the cuftody of his committee. And it forms, that he may for this writ directed unto the ford himfelf, as well as to the balliffs, or unto them both. F. N. B. 158. (C).

3 war at be lore bail king the 159 the are ferv fur

(G) Pleadings.

IN a contra formam feeffamenti, the plaintiff counted upon the + Bota ire deed, and the defendant demanded over thereof; but could English editions out not have it. F. N. B. 163 (H) cites Mich. 3 E. 2, + Action fur Adjous fur Je Cale, 5.

tions cite

French elities eites the citle Actions for le Statute, 24. where the case is 3 and is 2. follows, of contra formam fooffamenti, against B. & E. his seme, and counted that they distrained him to do soit to the court in C. against the form of the seossement; whereas neither he nor his ancestors had used to do suit, &c. The defendant prayed that plaintiff shew his deed; but it was said, that he ought not. Then they said, that the plaintiff held of the said B. and E. as of the gift of E. and of the heritage of C. by suit to the said court, whereof the ancestor of C. was seized before the [time of] limitation. The plaintiff replied, Not seized before the [time of] limitation; prist. Whereupon the defendants served aid of C. to whom the reversion was, and had it.

2. Avowry by the lord of the hundred, inalmuch as in the same hundred the plaintist beld a house, by reason of which he swed suit to the hundred de tribus septimanis in tres, &c. and alleged seisin in him and his ancestors in [of] the tenant and his ancestors, time out of mind. And so see that he did not allege tenure; for suit to the hundred is without tenure. Br. Suit, pl. 15. cites 11 E. 3. Fitzh. Avowry, 101.

3. Cessavit that he held by certain services and fuit to his court at D. held annually at Michaelmas and Easter; and by the opinion of the Court this may be intended court baron, though it be not suit de tribus septimanis in tres, &c. for suit may be as it is reserved at the commencement of the tenure. Br. Suit, pl. 8. cites 21 E. 4. 25.

For more of Suit of Court in general, see Coppholos, Courts, and other proper titles.

Etly to form, them; and uplaint had fuch a day, not appear, B. R. The

For more of Summary Proceedings in general, fee other proper Summons.

(A) To the Person. In what Cases it shall be to the Person.

[1. In quare impedit it shall not be to the person. 11 H. The therist might have summoned the defendant in the church in quare impedit; per Marten. But Danby and Cott. contra. Br. Retorm & Briefs, pl. 105. cites 11 H. 6. 3.

The fummions upon the first writ may either be made at the church door, or to the person of the defendant. Brownl. 158. Anon.

[2. Nor in writ of debt. 11 H. 6. 4.]

3. It was agreed in writ of annuity, that if the sherisf fummons bim, who has nothing, by his person, and returns him summoned, it is well, though he has no land. And this is the reason, that in some actions, as in annuity, covenant, &c. at this day, summons was the process, had he land or not; because if he has not land where he may be summoned, he may be summoned by his person. Br. Summons in Terra, pl. 1. cites 33 H. 6. 42.

4. Whe or fessions garnishmen shall be square cites 5 E.

[43]

5. In A mons that But Town quod nota the other.

Br. Scire Facias, pl. 211. cues S. C

(B.)

Ė

* Curn quia fum pont c effections attant pont or demand, though he be not tenant 10 H. 6. 12. b. 44 H.

[t.]N †

6. 4- 13 E. 3 52. b. 25 E. 3. 39. 5]

والمحافظة والما

in propose performable lawer than fuerir a constitution of the constitution of a state of the constitution of the constitution

1. S. I. and what is confined within the croud-sty is to Brotton, and not a Flats.

7 In year of great reader, the floriff returned the first day, that it ideflected it not take a to the site is likely, and notwithstanding this, becauseful the demandant that he was become a time to a terra petita was awarded. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 23. cites 25 Edw. 3. Fitzh. Retorn de Via cont, 97.

Mortdances- [2. So in a mortdancestor. 50 Ass. adjudged.]

one did not come, by which summant ad sequendum simul issued, and the sheriff returned nibil; and by advice of all the justices it was awarded, that he should be summoned in terra petits, quod note. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 3. cites 44 E. 3. 27.——S. P. Br. ibid. pl. 35. cites 50 Aff. 8. and yet another's franktenement.

Sec. (C) pl. [3. So in affize, the summons shall be upon the land in plaint. 1. cites S.C. 11 H. 6. 3. b.]

See (C) pt. [4. So shall it be in affize of mortdancestor; yet no land is de2. cites S.C. manded thereby. II H. 6. 4.]

[5. Same law in a juris utrum. 11 H. 6. 4.]

6. In writ of error against the beir of the recoveror, he ought to be summoned in the land, though the heir has nothing in the land; for he is privy to the recovery, and this writ is to defeat the recovery. 10 H. 6. 12. b.]

#5. P. And [7. In * præcipe quod reddat, or † other action which demands grand cape the land, if the tenant has aid of him in reversion, he shall be swarded in terra petita. adjudged, 25 E. 3. 37. b. adjudged.]

Br. Sum-

> ber coparother ber en them.

[44]

ght to be ;; for he ra 10 H.

Br. Semmons in Terra, pl. 13. citts 2. C.— Br. Retorn

The second second

ought to ugh it be it it is to land, he

222. cites S. C. But Brooke fays, quod quære, because it may be that he is not thereof tenant, and few alies shall after without americanent of the sheriff.

Charles an artist grane

for this is perfoant. To H. S. . b.]

[12. In fann ww in a per que fervitie. 10 H. 6. 12. b.]

[13. The same law in per quem redditum reddit. 10 H. 6.

[14. The same law in waveauty of charters. 10 H. 6. 13.]

a = h

at the collect of [15. In a quid juris clomat the furnmens shall be in the land of In quid juris which the fine was levied. 38 E. 3. 28. b.] the ore appeared, and the theriff returned that the other is elericus beneficiatus non babens laicum feodum, and diffrefs thath iffus into the fame land in the fine. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 11. cites 38 E. 3. 28.

[16. In a writ of right of advertofon, the fummons ought to be Br. Retorn in the glebe of the church, though the patron be not seised of it, be- de Briefs, pl. 101. taule it is in demand. 11 H. 6. 3. b.] cites 9. C.

[17. In quare impedit against the patron, he shall not be summon- See(A)pl. 1. ed in the church; for this writ does not demand it. Dubitatur,

11 H. 6. 3. b.]

[18. In action of waste against a lessee, if he be not seised of the In waste, if land, he shall not be summoned in the land; for it is not in de- the tendet it returned nimand. Contra, 12 H. 4. 4.] be, the tenant fall be diffrained in terra petita in wafte, quas tenet. Be. Sommons in Terra, pl. 4. cites 12 H. 4. 4. Per Skrune. ————Centra in writ of waste, quod tenuit; for this is land of another man, in which the tenant now has nothing. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 4. cites 12 H. 4. 4. Per

[19. If a writ be brought in the county of N. and the tenant wouches J. S. to be summoned in the county of K. and after the entry tate the warranty by J. S. the parol demurs without day by demise of the king, and the demandant fues the refummons in N. and the vouchee is returned nibil, he shall be resummoned in the land demanded, because the vouchee is tenant thereof by the warranty. 1 E. 3. 13. b.]

20. If the parol be put without day after the entry into the war- Upon re-ranty by the ve nibil, he shall Тетга, pl. 24.

flemmons that Meriff rerutned that the defendant it not & terra petita.

tender, and that mi Br. Re-fomment, p

21. Contra 1 is not tenant in cites I E. 3. & 22. In *attai*i tified, that be a fued there; qu 21 E. 3. 18.

Atteint in the county of N. upon a plea of land, but it does not apprais TOUR IN YOUR PARTY spon what it arose, a county of E. where :

508 6 / 16 8 deal, or the like, in as much as it was tried in a county where the find it not. Er. Summo is in A ... ra petita, pl. 2. cites 42 E. 3. 19.

23. Upon voucher the tenant prayed that the would be be funmoned in this county and two others, and abe armandan' fold that he but offers in this county, and proved, that he he fummoned there only, et non allocatur; but the prayer of the tenant was grunted. Sommons in Terra, pl. 19. cites 21 E. 3. 37.

24. Pracipe

24. Precipe quod reddat in the county of Wilts, at the petit cape the tenant alleged imprisonment at D. in the county of M. and so to issue, which passed for the tenant, by which the demandant brought attaint in the county of M. and the sheriffs returned the tenant mild; by which summons was awarded in the county of Wilts, where the land is; and the inquest was not awarded by default. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 20. cites 42 Ass. 14.

25. In formedon the tenant vouched the baron & feme, who entered into the warranty and pleaded, and after made default, and after petit cape in terra petita issued. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 5.

cites 19 H. 6. 51.

26. Though in scire facias, and in babere facias seismam, the summons shall be upon the land; yet in debt upon a recovery of damages in writ of entry sur disseisin, the summons shall be to the person. Per Portington. 22 H. 6. 38. 2. pl. 7.

27. In action against one as heir the summons shall be in the land which descended; but otherwise it may be in any land whatsoever. Fin. Law, 86. a.

S. P. In ceffavit, and that if the tenant is financed in ather land than is in

28. If it be to recover the franktenement of the land, the summons shall be in the same land; otherwise if he makes default, he may at the cape wage his law of non-summons; but if he appears, it is not material in what land he be summoned. Fin. Law, 86. a.

demand, and appears at the furnments, he shall not have it for plea; for in whatfoever land he is summoned, so that he appears it is sufficient. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 7. cites 37 H. 6. 26.

And Brooke says, it is said elsewhere that summons to the person is sufficient, but by this he takes conufance of the land. Ibid.

29. Judgment by default in dower, and upon 'a writ of enquiry

: theriff apm mention ught to be, that he did appears not nmons was, at the lands h of any of it there are was made. nt, and that ite circums impossible lace of the mam flatuti, d, that the words secundum formam statuts, extend far. And Roll, Juk. said, that proclamation in one place rous good in all. Sayl. 67. Mich. 22 Car. Thyrm - Thyrm.

as objected

(C.) Summons. By what Thing it ought to be.

[1.] N affife attachment shall be made of any thing upon the land. 11 H. 6. 3. b. 3

[2. But not of the land itself, because the land is not demanded by this writ. 11 H. 6. 4. The same law in affise of mortdancestor.]

3. In pracipe quod reddat, if the tenant wouches the bifbop to warranty, part of whose temporalties is in the hands of the king, he fhall not be summoned in his temporalties, so long as any part of them remain in the hands of the king, though he has fufficient in his hands whereof to be fummoned. Br. Sommons in Terra, pl. 17. cites 38 E. 3. 29.

4. Attachment shall be by a mere chattel, which shall be forfeited by default of the party; but it shall not be chattel real, as a lease for years or ward of body, nor by apparel. Br. Attach-ment, pl. 4. cites 7 H. 6. 9. per Bab.

5. In affife the defendant pleaded, that not attached by 15 days, and the bailiff was examined, who faid that he attached him by glebe of the land, and because the attachment ought to be made by moveables or by pledges, or by a thing which may be forfeited by outlawry, and not of glebe, which is parcel of the franktenement. therefore new attachment was awarded; quod nota. Br. Attachment, pl. 1. cites 27 H. 6. 2. & 26 H. 6. Fitzh. Assis, 14.

6. In scire facias, against patron and incumbent, upon a recovery in quare impedit, if the incumbent has no lay fee whereby he may be fummoned, the sheriff must summon him by his per-

7. commisso anoth: Somm

e, Br. Retorn is de Brief, pl. 124. cites I. S. C.-. S. P. Fin. Law, $6. a.

[13]

[2.

Roll Stands divided, but t. without any new letter.

* This in

5. But there mail to 1 a fum where at the leaft; and if any of them do not that which it is returned they ought to do, then the war is not effected as it ought to be. F. N. B. 97. (C) .- S. P. Fin. Law, 86. at -- S. P. 2 lost, 253. - and therefore, if one of the furnmoners fags that the furnmons was not made, an it, e other that it was made, 7. (C) on the new notes the city, city of $1. o. 2 30 il. 3. and the black was on the land of the fame time, for the feme the demands 17- --- 501 persole, but tail recover. F. N. B. 97. (C) in the new note there [c]

Citty Erg.

† 1. C. to Earl of Leauester v. Heydon, fays, there must be a some meners in a term is a futting by and only is not fufficient, se alimical in court, so that there must be two at the lesse, units the se that can law . and hour, and other disequiftances, when they first be exarcaged by to , ú. f. 9. -----Brack, lib. 5. cap. 5. f. 5. p. 333. b. 334. " acronding

(C. 3) Summons. In Real Actions.

This statute 1. 28 E. 1. IN * summons, and + attachments in ‡ plea of land, was made + cap. 15. I the summons and attachments from benceforth shall in affirmance contain & the term of 15 days full, at the least, according to the common mon law, 22 law, by the ex-

prefe words of the flatute it appears, contrary to a fudden and misconceived opinion in our books; for Gianvill faith, fummonebitur per intervallum quindecim dierum ad minus. And therewith agreeth Bracton and Britton, et fi afcun foit refonablement fummon, il doit aver space de 15 jours al meynes, de soy garner de son respons. And Fletz, [lib. 6. cap. 6. f. 11.] faith, nec etiam sufficit quod summonitio fiat ad flatim respondendum, sed decet quod quilibet habeat tempus 15 dierum ante diem litis, & 6 fummonitus minus spatium habuerit, pro illegiuma debet reputars, nis in causis specialibus; ut funt cause mercatorum, & cruce fignatorum, & hujufmedi que instantiam defiderant & celeritatem, &c. And all these authors wrote before the making of our act. And the author of the Mirror, that wrote of the ancient laws of this realm, speaking of the time of summons, faith, et reasonable respit al meyns de 15 jours de purveire respons, & de parer en judgment. And the cause wherefore the common law fet down the certain time of 15 days was, for that a day's journey is accounted in law 20 miles, rationabilis dieta constat ex viginti miliaribus; for dieta, both in the common and civil law, fig-nifics a day's journey, continct legalis dieta viginti miliaris. And therefore 1 c days was accounted by the common law a reasonable time of summons or attachment; within which time, wheresoever the court of juffice (ate in England, the party furnmoned or attached, wherefoever he dwelt in England, afore the king's writ did come, might per prædictas dietas computatas, by the faid account of days journies, appear in court, &c. 2 Inft. 567.

4 Co. Litt. 134. b. S. P.

The reason of these long delays given in real actions was, (the recovery being so dangerous) that the tenant might the better provide him both of answer and of proofs. But, by consent, they may take other than common days. Co. Litt. 134. b.——By assent of the parties a shorter day was given in practipe quod reddat. Fitzh. tit. Jour. pl. 17. cites Pafch. 41 E. 3.

In a writ of pone to remove a replevin at the fuit of the defendant, the writ faith, et die prafato quepenti, qued fit coram justiciariis nostres apad Westme-tali die; there ought to be a warning by 15 days, jury, it in nature of a summons. But this statute extends not to a writ of error, nor to days of prefixing, as upon a furing woncher in London, and the like. 2 Inst. 567.

This ac for that this (die querenti) is in nature of a summons, and so the writ of venire fac' for returning of a haA 🕇 In affile he attaches 90 be 15 da Br. Attacl ‡ Upor but if the tefte and (yet being : pught to b 11 D otber judic there proce

, who faid, thet ttachment argbe rded, quod nota, A miles to the beautiful a

-

ě

, as is aforefuid; rar, between the in the original, moon thereupon

, that so it is in thin bis maners, lay of the return

In the king's pre fence, is a much as to

A State of the Assessment

must be ac

refence, | or

by Sir Goilliam

E R. there if all be a certain de, siven at it, the affire t for example, the Monday, or the morrow, or In the utas or quinden' of Faders out it behaves, that the tenant has garaidament by 15 days in the attenar, for this flatute of artisus super sinutes doc, not give any less term, but only in an effice of 11 good aufeifin in B. R. C. B. or in type. 2 Inch. 368.

pota. Br. Attachment, pl. 73. enter 22 Aff. 79. D. P. F. N. B. 177. (D) fore, that in B. R. the, allowed attachment in affice of movel diffests of 8 days and less; quod

This branch, as to B. A. fe say to be in affirmance of the momen law; for in criminal cables, which round, the life of man, if a man be indiffice of treasing or felony in the county unbere B. R. dath fit, the distit coming fac' for the returning of the jury need not have 15 days between the teste and the return; may, the entry may be idea immediate venit inde jurita, sec. But if the ind stiment be taken in any the county, and removed into B. R. there ought to be 15 days between the teste of the venire fac' and the venire.

الأنفضان القاسة

turn. s Inft. 568.

Commissioners of open and terminer may in case of treasion, selony, misprisson, tresposs, sec. try the priferer the same day they award the ver re sac', as by divers precedents, ancient and late, do appear: * but the commissioners mass make a precept in parabonent, under their scale, for the returning of a jury immediately the same day, if they will, or any day after. And likewise influes of good delivery, or justices of peace, may try the prisoner the same day, or any day after; but need not make any particular precept. For the justices of good delivery, and justices of the peace, make a general precept in parchiment under their scale for the summons of the settions, and for return of juries, sec. and therefore any particular precept is not requisite. There was a general summons made 40 days before the fitting of the justices in eyee. 2 Inst. 568.

The printed books leave out (or before the juffices of the common bench), which ought to be added.

Inft. 567.

2. Si fummonitio omnino dedicta sit, & petens se teneat ad desaltam, vocandi sunt summonitores, ut testificentur summonitionem, & cum diligentur examinati concordes inveniantur summ' testificantes tunc primo vadiat summonitus legem, per quam se desendat contra summonitorum testificationem, & non solum quod summonitus non fuit in propria persona, sed quod nulla summonitio venit ad ipsum nec ad domum neq; ad samiliam per quam inde suerit pramunitus ante diem litis. Si autem summonitores in probatione summonitionis discordes inveniantur, non habebit summonitus necesse ulterius desendere sum' sed dabitur ei alius dies in cur. nisi tunc gratis voluerit respondere. Fleta, lib. 6. cap. 6. s. 12 & 13.

3. Summons upon grand cape, and other summons, shall be ferved 15 days before the first day of the return of the writs; but 15 days before the fourth day of the return is not sufficient; and because it wanted 4 days of the 15 before the first day of the return, the demandant could not recover seisin of the land. Br.

Sı

is

JD Jei

> 9 21 3

ta

B

fi. T

mh f ta

•[49] See Difceit

(A) pl. 1.

-If the pa-

rift extends into 2 counties, and the land li s m

one county, and the

the proslaought to be church, in

mation

reason it must be of his own proper goods, and not of such as are lent or pledged to him. And the sherisf may either take them. with him, or leave them with the party as he pleafe; but be it which it will, the property is not out of the party till he makes default. Fin, Law, 94. a. b.

9. To prove a fummons of the tenant, there ought to be 2 or 3 witneffes. Co. Litt. 6. b.

10. 31 Eliz. cap. 3. f. 2. For the avoiding of fecret fummons in all real actions, without convenient notice of the tenants of the freehold, be it also ordained and enacted by the authority of this present parliament, that after every summons upon the land in any real action, 14 days at the least before the day of the return thereof, proclamation of the the parish in summons shall be made on a Sunday, in form aforesaid, at or near to the most usual door of the churches or chapel of that town or parish where the land, whereupon the fummons was " made, does lie, and that prochurch in the clamation so made as aforesaid shall be returned, together with the names erbercounty, of the fummoners.

And if fuch fummons shall not be proclaimed and returned, according made in the to the tenor and meaning of this act, then no grand cape to be awarded, but an alias and pluries fummons, as the cause shall require, until a manner as if fummons and proclamation shall be duly made and returned, according all the parish to the tenor and meaning of this act.

was in one

county; and the theriff of the county where the original writ is brought, shall make the proclamation in the other county at the church there, and has sufficient warrant to do it by the said statute, though he be not theriff of the county where the church is. And. 278. pl. 286. Trin. 34 Elis. Anon-

But if there be no church in the par fb, the summons by the common law is sufficient; for it was not the intent to have summons at the church where there is no church; and fo it seems when there is no fermon nor propers, means between the delivery of the writ to the theriff, and the return or time limited in the ftatute. And 278. pl. 286. Trin. 34 Eliz. Anon.

So if the land her in 4 parifies, and there is no church in one of them, it is sufficient to make proclama-tion where the shurch is in which parish the summons is made. And, 278. Trin. 34 Eliz. Anon-

And if there be a church in every parish, proclamation need not be made at all the churches; but if it be made at any of the churches, it is sufficient. Brownl. 126. Allen v. Walter.——S. C. Hob. 133. Per that the proclamation was sufficient. 1st, In imitation of the common law, id in one town is sufficient. 2dly, The words of the fistube see, for avoiding ve convenient notice to the party; both which are fatisfied in attion would be mischievous; for the land may lie in ao this one proclam own, and every one upon a Sunday, and every one 14 days towns, and so th before the recurn there was no affinal fummons returned, but only the names of at is all the form at the common law, and there is no alterathe summoners, th tion made by the mans. Hob. 133. Allen v. Walter.

But where he comed the contents of the writ, that is infufficient. Hob. 133.

Allen v. Walter——For he ought to fay what. Brownl. 126. $. C.

It was moved to fet afide the grand cape, proclamation not having been made 14 days before the return of the furnment according to the statute 31 Eliz. cap. 3. S. T. the summent was returnable crass.

Animar. and proclamation made Oliober 27, which was but 6 days before the return; the Court made a rule to them cause which was attenuated made absolute. Banacie notes to C. R. v. Fait. 2 Gan. 2 rule to thew cause, which was atterwards made absolute. Barnes's note, in C. B. E. East. 8 Geo. 2. Freeman v. Cannam. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 115. Freeman v. Cannon, S. C. No defence bring made, the rule was made coroliste, on affidavit of fervice.

> 11 In lummons in real actions, the fummoners, in the prefence of the pernours, vegoers, &c. pught to summon the tenant, tilt, to keep his day, and same is in cartainty to render, &c. 2dly, They ought to name the name of the demandant, &c. 3dly, They ought to name the land in demand. 6 Rep. 54. b. cites 3 E. 3. 48. 43 E. 3. 32. a. 50 E, 3 46, b.

12. Disceit

Difect for non-fummons in a formedon in remainder; the fummeners and veyors were examined by the Court, as it was held they ought to be, and not by the clerks, whether they spake the words, or the bailiff, and at what time; and it appeared they did it after fun-fet : and by all the Court, the summons was not well made. Cro. E. 42. pl. 2. Mich. 27 & 28 Eliz. C. B. Greene 7. Ardenc.

In other than Real Actions. (C. 4) Summons. Good.

Summons to appear on Friday the 17th of April, where Tuefday 6 Mod. 41. is the 17th, is as no summons; for the time being impossi- S. C acble, it was the same thing as if there had been no summons. cordingly. And when one day is fet forth in the conviction, as that he was sited 8 Mod. fummoned to appear, and by virtue thereof did appear on Friday 378. Trin. the 17th, &c. his appearance cannot be intended on another day; case of the and for that reason a conviction was quashed. I Salk. 181. pl. 1. King v. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Dyer.

Necessary. In what Cases. In other than see Tres. Real Actions. pale, (B. a)

HERE a capius issues out of an inferior court, and no summons was first issued, false imprisonment lies upon the Vent. 220. Trin. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Read v. Wilmot. Lutw. 2565, and denied.

2. Sw where th diftant p cale of Glide's (cites JAME mone for a articular ci anneites f 3 jost. the Morris br and a reture tice or parti eginion of ti it 4 Mod. 33. e 37. Tria. 3 4 4 W. n & M. in R. R. the City of Excter w. Glido, and particular (1126.id then to allege the words licat nion of the other 7 Will. 3. one ses / Wiltshire, bo h c . 9 no-Total Control of the awy S. O

3. D. embezzlu 🛒 of common night the party ought to be him, nowad, if pollible; in More and it would be well to fet forth, that he was furamored, and ap- of. S. c. peared, or did not appear, or could not be faund, to be furamoned; and though the act of patheogent precise the offender thould be convicted, yet that must be satended after funmous, that he may have an opportunity of making his defence; and it is abominable to convict a man behind his back. And all the Court agreed, that of common right there ought to be a fummous. 6 Mod. 41. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Dyer.

 1 3 alk. 18 J. pl. 1. S. C according! -

4. An order of bastardy was quashed, for not setting forth that 2 Bernard. the party was duly summoned; for it is against the law of Eng-R.241-261. land, that a man should be impeached without notice to make his deof the King fence. 8 Mod. 3. Mich. 7 Geo. The King v. Glegg. w. Cotton, Parch. 6 Geo. 2. cites the case of the King v. Gregg, Mich. 13 Geo. 1. and in the case of the King v. Holland, Trin. 5 Geo. 2. and the case of the Queen v. Squire, and of the King v. Allington.

> 5. Where a mandamus was directed to the chancellor, &c. of the university of Cambridge, to reflore Dr. Bentley to his academical degrees, to which a return was made, but no mention therein that the doctor was summoned, nor did the return fet forth that the proceedings in the vice chancellor's court, or the congregation, are according to the rules of the civil law, and therefore the return was held ill, and that therefore the proceedings must be intended to be agreeable to the rules of the common law; and if fo, it not appearing that the party has any relief by applying to another Court, this Court will relieve him, if he has been proceeded against and degraded without being heard, which is contrary to natural justice. And therefore a peremptory mandamus was granted. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1334. Hill. 10 Geo. The King v. the Chancellor, &c. of Cambridge University.

6. Exception was taken to an order of fessions made to hinder [51] A formmone the defendant from felling ale, that it did not appear that the deanentioned | a fummons had been necessary, if the statute had not given the in an order festions, or two justices, an absolute * power to put down alchouses of jufficer, where they at their discretion; but that where they have an unlimited power, bere jurifdiction; but it is not necessary to set forth any summons in their order, neither is a if they pro- fummons ever, and without or the like, w the party, it forth that the j le punificable baftardy. rion. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 14970 accordingly, as to its not being no deer-stealing, is ufual to fet o in orders for g v. Austin. Mod. 377. S. C.

Summons. Attachment. By the Goods of wbon, one may be attached.

[1.] E B. has goods of A in his poffe fron, B. may be attached by No goods thefe goods; for B is charged to render it to A. 11 H. 4. shall be attached, but 90. b.] goods of the party, and not goods pleiged not goods borrowed. Br. Attachmem, pr. 20. cites 35 Ha 6. $5+

[2. In

Salah GM

[2. In an action against baron and feme, the feme, because she Fitch, st. has no goods, ought to be attached by the goods of the baren. Contra, 7 H. 6. 9. b.]

ment, pl. s. cites Mich. 7 H. 6. 9.

the fit may be attached by the goods of the baron--And ibid, pl. 4. cites Trin. 26 H. 6. accodingly. - Fitzh. tit. Forfesture, pl. 17. S. P. admitted, cites Mich. S E. 2.

[3. So in action against the sovereign and his commoigne, the Fitch sit. commigne ought to be attached by the goods of the fovereign. 7 H. 6. 10.]

ment, pl. 3. eites Mich. 7 H. 6. 9.

S. P. accordingly.

Summons and Severance. In what Actions See (I. 2.) (E) it lies.

[1.] T lies in action of waste, because the land is to be recover- Br. Summons and ed. 48 E. 3. 32. 2 H. 4. 2.] Severance,

-S. P. Br. Wafte, pl. 29. cites 42 E. 3. 21, 22.pl. 9. (bis) cites S. C.— -S. P. For the writ is ad exharm-dationem, and the action of waste is a plea real; in an action of waste brought by a in the tensit, a release of the one is a har to both; but otherwise it is in the tenet; for there it hars but him-Mf. 1 lnft. 307.

[2. It lies in quare impedit. 11 H. 6. 23. b. 9 55. adjudged, It lies in † 21 E. 3. 38. b.] dit, and in a writ of error upon it. Cro. B. 324. pl. 16. Paich. 36 Eliz. B. R. Pipe v. the Queen ... Sammons and Severance, pl. 21. cites S. C .- In quare impedit by 2, if they very in count, there the defendant may plead it to the count, and the writ shall abate; per Littleton and others, and they shall not be severed. Br. Count, pl. 66. cites 6 E. 4. 10.

† Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 13. cites S. C. /

[3. But the other shall have the fuit of the whole. Contra,

21 E. 3. 38. [4. It lies

his. compani

30 E. 3. 30. 45 E, 3. 2.]

34 H. 6. 31. & 💃 Br. Summo

jenk. 24. pl. 46. I Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 2. cites * S. C.

[5. So in cause it is se

[6. So it 1

[7. It lies TECOVET 2 W 21

Fitch, tit, Sever

in detinue of char

[52]

B. Charters the Petrologia 74. Lites feverance in a at that Fire pl. 52. is to the contrary. S. P. Br. Summore and Severance, pl. 2, cites 34, H. 6, 31, 66, 35 H. 6, 19.

[8. It does not lie in quid juris ciamat. 48 E. 3. 32.] 15 Acp. signa directe of Read to Rollman ; but the northeit of the up, dials on the northeit of the other, for the senant that not he compelled to actors to one only.

[9. In

[9. In forgery of false deeds summons and severance does not 18 H. 6. 6.

[10. It lies in action of * debt by executors. 10 H. 6. 2. b.]

Summons and Severance, pl. 1. cites 25 H. 6. 3. ------ S. P. ibid. pl. 2. cites 34 H. 6. 31, and 38 H. 6. 19. -S. P. 10 Rep. 134. Paich. 10 Jac. C. B. Redman v. Read.

[11. It lies in action of trespass by executors of the goods of the conversion by testator taken. 14 H. 4. 29.] 3 esecutors

[12. But otherwise it is if it be quare bona sua cepit. against the defendant, 29. b.] for a bond, and declare, that it was left in the tefluter's life-time, but lay the conversion since his death; two of the plaintiffs were summoned and severed, and non' pros' entered as to them; to the 3d the defendant pleaded not guily, and found against him, and 500 l. damages. Upon motion in arrest of judgment, it was held by Hale Ch. B. and the whole Court, that furnmens and severance did not lie in this case, because the conversion, which is the most material part of the declaration, was in the executor's own time, so that the action was grounded on their possession, as tresposs of their own pessession, in which case summons and severance does not lie, and consequently the nonlinit of one is the nonlinit of all, and all the proceedings after are to no purpole. And per Hale chief baron, there are two forts of feverances, one when a plaintiff will not appear, and the other, when all appear, but force one or more will not proceed and profecute, there he or they shall be severed by order of Court. Hard. 327. pl. 11. Mich. 14 Car. 2. in the Exchequer. Manly v. Lovel.

It was held bat *errei*ur fall en fue the nature open which it is foundad, fo that,

13. Attaint by three, they were effoigned at the first day, and at the day of adjournment of the effoign, two did not come, by which fummons ad fequend' fimul was awarded, and no other thing of the section against them, &c. But it does not appear upon what action the attaint was founded. Br. Sommons and Severance, pl. 15. cites 7 Aff. 8.

if funness like, severance lies; contra where it is founded upon troposts, conformers, and such alliest perfecal; there if it be brought by two, and the one will not sue, this shall be the nonfuit of both. Ibid.

Affise bytwo, the one did not come, by which 14. Affife by 8 daughters, 5 are nonfuited, or will not fue, they shall be summoned and severed; quod nota. Br. Sommons and Severance, pl. 16. cites 10 E. 3.

विकास करें fequend' firmal if joffices, by which default as before, nothing but review mul was awarded not coming of the er not, but made e-attachment aid us ad fequend' fi-- S. P. ia

i

pracipe quod redi If judgment be had ara gainft two, the and one a writ of er-

For and the other will not john, he thould be

fummoned

& ievered, and if he brings a we't alone, it is not goods

upon sprit of after two of were severed

would bring by award without process. And so see that the severance lies in writ of error founded. " upon a personal action. Brooke says the reason seems to be in as much as the plaintiffs in the writ of error made definit in the writ of ravithment of ward, and fo in a manner they are by may of defence, in which case the act of the one shall not projudice the other in action personal, contra of the plaintiff in action personal; for the nominit or release of the one goes against both. Br. Son mons and Severance, pl. 19. cites 29 Aff. 35.

₩oth, 7 Trin 3 jac 7 B. R. Hacket v. Herne. 3 Mod. 194. S. C.

Ia.

. T. A. C.

In falle judgment, one of the plaintiffs, who before had appeared, was nonfuit and severed. D. 262. b. pl. 324

16. Champerty by two against one who maintained in scire facias Inchamputy upon a recognizance brought by the plaintiff for the part of J. N. founded ap-The one plaintiff was nonfuited, and it was awarded the nonfuit allien, fumof both, and that severance does not lie; contra by some, if the mons and action had been founded upon a real action. But Brooke fays, it does not fie; feems that all is one; for a man shall recover only damages in per tot Cur. this action; contra of attaint; for by attaint upon a real action, But per a man shall be restored to the land, and so recover land; but con- in this ac-Note the divertity. Br. Sommons and tion where tra in champerty. Severance, pl. 7. cites 44 E. 3. 6.

rad affirm. Brooke fays, quare inde; for it feems that it does not; for it is not like to writ of error or attaint, which thall reverse the first action; for this action of champerty is only to recover damages or sely against the party defendant; for the writ at the fuit of the party, faye, at grave dammum, &c.

Br. Sommons and Severance, pl. 20. cites 47 All. 3.

17. It lies in writ of cofinage. Br. Judgment, pl. 144. cites

10 H. 6. 9, 10.

18. It was agreed arguendo, that in audita querela brought by two, upon a release made to them, if the one will not sue, the other shall fue alone, and he who makes default shall be severed; and the reason seems to be, inasmuch as they are by way of defence; and of the part of the defendant, the default of the one shall be the default of both. Br. Sommons and Severance, pl. 2. cites 34 H. 6. 31. & 35 H. 6. 19.

19. It lies in writ of intrusion, ravishment of ward, and other like cases, as ejetiment, &c. where a man is to recover the thing itself which is in demand. Per Vavisor. Kelw. 47. b. pl. 4.

Mich. 18 H. 7. Anon.

20. In a nativo-habendo fummons and feverance lies not. But m a *libe*r

21. li

and the

F. N. B.

22. II

parcener

moned a one was fur

Obüt, pl. 1

· Nupar sbiit by 2 third, the Br. Nuper

23. S he that ' the whole. Jenk. 211. pl. 46.

24. In an office of nuifance famousons and everance hes Godb. 59. pl. 70. Mich. 28 & 19 Eliz. B. R n Giles's cafe.

25. And themfore it lies in an action on the cofe quare exelluvit flagment, per quid pratum fuum inundation fist. Godb. 59. Giler's cale.

(E. 2) At what Time.

1. SUmmons and severance is always before appearance, and nonfuit after appearance, where the severance is without process, &c. 10 Rep. 135. 2. In a nota by the reporter, at the end of the case of Read v. Redman, cites 38 Ass. 39. 26 Ass. pl. 35.

L. P. R.
tit. Summone and Severance,
cates 6 W. &
M. in B. R.
that furnmone and feverance was after joinder in the aftignment of arrors.

2. Error was brought of a judgment in ejectment against a desendants; and afterwards one of the plaintiffs in error gave a release to the desendant in error, who pleaded it in bar as a plea puis darraign continuance. It was insisted upon demurer, that after in nullo est erratum pleaded, there cannot be any summons and severance; and resolved, that the release should bar him only that released Cro. J. 117. pl. 5. Pasch. 4 Jac. B. R. in case of Blunt and Farley v. Snedston.

(E. 3) Necessary. In what Cases.

A Writ of error to reverse a judgment given against 20, was brought by them all; but only one of them appeared, and the others exacti non venerunt. Afterwards the one assigned errors alone. It was held, that the assignment of errors of the one only, per se, without suing a summons and severance of the other 19, is as null and void; and the writ was abated, and execution awarded. Cro. E. 891. pl. 8. Trin. 44. Eliz. B. R. Andrews v. Lord Cromwell.

(F.) Severance. In what Cafes it lies.

[1. N fuch cases, where men may have several actions, if they join in an action, there the for their folly. 7 H. 4. 45. b.]

Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 11, cites S. C. Con-

[2. As if several are out-last a writ of error, there cannot they might have had several y join in because tra in practice quod reddat. Writ of error to ren both the parties outlawed; and if one only appear, the nefit of line that appears only. Per Cur. 2 Salk. 496. pl. 7. Paich. 4 Ann. B. R. Symmonds v.

Bingoc and Cook.

But when they plead a jaint plea, as releafe, or the like, which ir found against them in action personal, there of accessive they

3. In conspiracy against two, the one pleaded not guilty, and the other ancience plea; and the jury passed against them to the damage of root. The one brought attaint alone, and it was adjudged, that it lay well of the principal; but he was compelled to abrulge his demand of the damages; for as to the principal, their plea was severe entire, therefore may severe in attaint; but the damages were entire, therefore he shall abridge as to this, though he has paid the whole, and made formise of it; for the Court shall thall intend that both have paid it, according to the form of the fall jum; judgment. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 2. cites 34 H. 6. 31. and yet there, if the & 35 H. 6. 19. one will not fue, severance does not lie. Ibld.

*#5/J

4. Where a man leafes land for life, and has iffue two daughters, and dies, and the one takes baron, and the tenant grants to ber and ber baron all bis effate, this is no furrender; per Vavisor, J. clearly. And if they do waste, the action of waste shall be brought in all their names, and the baron and feme shall be summoned and severed.

Summons and Severance, pl. 14. cites 21 H. 7. 40.

5. Error in C. B. was brought by feveral defendants; the de- The wat of fendant in error pleads the release of one of the plaintiffs only. This follow the is a good bar against the releasor, but not against the others; and nature of therefore there ought to be a summons and severance, and for the ard acthat reason judgment reversed nisi, &c. Cumb. 95. Mich. 4 Jac. 2. tion; to that B. R. Croket v. Daniel, cites 2 Cro. 116. Blunt's case.

the first action, then the release of one defendant in a writ of error brought on such action is a release of the other defendant. Godb. 59. pl. 70. Mich. 28 & 29 Elis. B. R. Giles's cafe.

(G) At what Time. In what Cafes there shall be Severance without Writ of Summons ad sequendum fimul.

[1. AFTER appearance made by 2 jointenants plaintiffs, if one makes A witt of default he shall be severed immediately without suing summons ad fequendum. * 2 H. 4. 23. b.]

life was brought by feveral. Om prayed process ore appearance re. Yely. 4.

plaintiff in error of ad lequendum firm there can be no ju Pafch, 44 Elia. I Br. Summou

[2. But otl 2 H. 4. 23. b

Br. Sung. mons and cites S. C.

> 'nd it 160

(H) What

[I. THE]

furctale from taking the inquest, and the fufficer of the bank, and in the resord, for most; and others in a contrary opinion, therefore quieses. And Brooke was the figure taking of the inque? Br Summous and Severage of the (!) Summons and Severance. What Portons shall See the st be fummoned and fevered

(1. 18 coparceners bring writ of cofinage, and one is nonficied, the shall be fummoned and severed. 14 11. o. 9. b.]

2. 3

[2. So if one releases he shall be severed. 10 H. 6. 9. b.] [3. In quare impedit by coparceners, they may be furnmened and tenants bring fevered. 38 E. 3. 35. adjudged.] quere impedie, and the one will not fue, he shall be fummened and fewered, but if he will wary in title, there the writ fall abote without raisely; for then it appears that they have foined upon feveral titles; good nots. Br. Qumre Impedit, pl. 2. cires 26 H. 8. 5.

> [4. It 2 executors fue execution of damages recovered by tellator, furnmons and severance lies. 31 E. 3. 13. b.]

[5. So in action of trespass by executors, of the goods of the testator But it lies post of their taken, summons and severance lies. 14 H. 4. 29.] own poffeffien. Hard. 318. Manley v. Lovell .- Co. Litt. 139. a. (h) is, that it lies for goods taken out of their own polletion. [6. So in an account by executors against by the bailee of their testa-It lier in secount, at tor, furnmons and feverance lies. 20 E. 3. Account, 78. adjudged.]

by the receipt of their own hands. Co. Litt. 139. a. (h).

* S. P. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 9. cites 48 E. 3. 14. Brooke fays, And fo fee Severance in action perforal by executors. Contra by other men in action perfonal. _______S. P. Ibid. pl. 2. cites 34 H. 6. 31. and 35 H. 6. 19.

(I. 2.) Executors. In what Cases and Actions they Sec (E), pl. 10, 11, 12. may be fummoned and fevered. —(I), pl. 4, 5, 6.

Br. Summens and Severance, pl. 3. cites S. C.

1. DEBT by 2 executors, excommunication was pleaded in the one, by which he was demanded, and did not come; wherefore he was fevered by award, and the other admitted to fue alone: And so see that both did not sue; quod nota. Br. Executor, pl. 30. cites 42 E. 3. 13.

Otberwife it 2. Debt by 2 executors, the defendant was outlawed, and fuel is in writ of charter of debt brongbr ferued, by by another perfor; the the one, a. region feems pluries, 21 to be insfmuch as the him only. GEOCHTOS

r rubo ruas not l ferved against iff prayed ficut to count against may be furnmoned and few

3. In a be fevere pl. 156.

fault, he shall Br. Executors, pl. 10.

. Ibid.

4. In debt for arrears of annuity granted by deed to the testator, formmons and feverance lies for the executors. Keilw. 47. b.

Mich., 18 H. 7. [57] g in perfected affines are whome interestors, there shall be sum-No fum-มหากร รถสั mons one teverance; because the best shall be taken for the Severance. benefit of the dead. Co. Litt. 139, a. (h) lies in per-fonal actions: as if irreforfs be committed, in fush rais jointener to m. A both join in the action; for as one may seleafe the v hole, fo the other may ten for go on, and the core cannot recover his part of the damage without him. And to in debt, he are coligation to a, there can be no formions and severance; because one of the joint obligers may mkn's the poort, and therefore may not join in the aftern. But if a min appoints to the co-cut es, these shall be from more and freezance, because though one of the executors may release peleste, though fuch a release is a devastavit in him, yet if he will not proceed at law, it is no devastavit; and therefore both executors, being only trustees for the person deceased, they shall not both be compelled to go on together; but if one refules, the other may bring his action in the name of both, and have functions and feverance; for otherwise each co-executor might, by collusion with the debtor, and not proceeding, keep the other from recovering the affets, and not create a devastavit in himself. But after Such fermmons and severance he does not proceed for the mosety, as in real actions; but he proceeds in that action as the whole representative of the testator, and is entitled to the whole as the testator was in Lis lifetime. G. Hist. C. B. 196, 197.-S. P. Cart. 191. cites 9 Rep. 17. Hensloe's case, 7 H. 4. 18.

How it shall be made. In what Cases, without Process.

[1.] N a right of word by two, if the one be nonfuited after that he S. P. but 38 E. 3. after appearbas appeared, he shall be severed without process. 9. b. adjudged.] fall be prodefi. Hr. Summons and Severance, pl. 12. cites S. G.

 Summons and severance lies between executor's plaintiffs; and if one be outlawed or excommunicated, he may be demanded; and if he comes not, shall be severed by an award without proceis, after he hath appeared, and the other shall proceed without him; but if he has not appeared, then furnmens and severance shall iffue out against him. Brownl. 37. in an anonymous case.

(L) How the Process shall be, before Severance.

[1. IN formedon, if fummons ad sequendum simul issues, the grand cape shall go of the whole, and not of a moiety, till the sovevance comes. 17 E. 3. 36.]

2. If two fue feire facias of the land, and the one makes default, ∫ummons acias ad fequendum faid, that upon aid [xiliandum shall iss Br. Summons & S 2Ccordingly. Bu દિક દંશ the first case, |

3. Debt by 2 ll be Br. Process, mul pl. 12. cices fummoned and 28 H. 6. 3. be awarded, ai eefs fball be pica or the proof determined by out savry against the defendint; and the thall not be fewered till be he fanctioned Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 7. cites 28 H. d. 3

4 As in pracipe good reddet by two, A the one would not fue at the [58 : do of return, and the tenant makes defoult. there farmenous ad fe- And it to queudum shall issue, and grand cape of the whole land, quod reapparent red negature. Br. Sumanons and Severance, pl. x. cites 28 H. 6. 3. 46 May we runded, then the other demandant field recover the molety, per Moyle; quod non argue r. Inidsins all fig. 6. g. . And there wit the principal case above a sursed rechaugh again as about

Vot. XX

5. There

Summons and Severance.

5. There are 2 forts of severances, 1. When the plaintiff will not appear, there he shall be summoned and severed. 2. When all appear: but some one or more will not prosecute, there he or they shall be severed by order of court. Fer Hale Ch. B. Hard. 318. Mich. 14 Car. 2. in Seacc. in case of Manly & all v. Lovell.

(M) Pleadings. And in what Cases the Writ shall abate before or after Severance.

And if 2 jointenants, and two dissels two, they jointenants and the dissels full have assisted in name of the four; and the two shall be sure purebases cites 23 Ass. 9.

the other shall have assiste in name of both, and the purchaser shall be summoned and severed. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 17. vites 23 Ass. 9.

2. In affife against 3 daughters, it was found, that 2 made the dissersion, and the third not, and all three brought attaint, and she who did nothing was severed; and the desendant pleaded to the writ, because the third, who was acquitted, and had no cause, nor was not grieved, was joined with the other two; and therefore the writ was abated; quod mirum, after severance. Br. Brief, pl. 294. cites 29 Ass. 14.——and see thereof 39 E. 3. & 11 H. 4. 26. 27.

So in writ of account, brought by the executors of the Earl of Sa-

3. A writ of debt was brought by 2 executors. Defendant pleaded, that one was dead. Plaintiff replied, that he that died was fevered. But the writ was abated. Br. Brief, pl. 136. cites 38 E. 3. 11. Contra * 16 E. 3.

lifbury, it was pleaded, the writ, &c. It was award, &c. Fitzh. ti is dead. Judgment of the writ was abated-by

But in debt by two of defendant pleaded in at Pasch. 10 Jac. C. B. ... Went. Off. of E1

s severed, died. The abate. 10 Rep. 134.

at the j was no feeered by any. Laren t who vouched, and did not come, but that the other be and was fevered fevered has taken ood, quod nota, above against all by temot. Of the severance; for otherwise it shall abate against all. And now for the moiety it remains good. Br. Brief, pl. 225. cites

39 E. 🤈 16.

Br. Carde, pl. 73. ther S. C. cated a Rap. 68.
n. b. Hill.
At E. a. in Teoker's ale.

g. Ward by 2, and counted, that the tenant held of their ancester, and conveyed the descent to them; the desendant said, that there is one R. in said life, not named, so whom the seigniory descended with the plaintiffs. Judyn ont of the writ. Belk. said, this R. has released to the tenant, against whom the writ is brought, and so the action is given to us two alone. But Cand. faid, You ought to have joined all three, and after * R. should have been summoned and severed. Finch, said, If you had counted that he held of yourselves, and had not mentioned the descent, then it had been good without R. But now, by mentioning the descent, R. ought to be named, and summoned, and severed, and the 2 shall recover the whole, and the other may have account against them. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 5. cites 45 E. 3. 10.

.- A S. A. THERE

6. Where two lords are, and the one releases to the other, and he comes to distrain, and the tenant offers but a moiety of the rent, he shall take the distress. Per Wych. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 5. cites 45 E. 3. 10.

7. Three leafed for life, and 2 releafed to the third, and he brought waste alone, supposing that he leased; and the tenant shewed deed that the three leased, judgment of the writ; and the other pleaded the release of the two, and the writ awarded good; for whereas three leased, therefore the one leased. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 6. cites 46 E. 3. 17.

8. Assiste by 2 barons and their femes by title of coparcenary, and the one baron and feme were summoned and severed, and the tenant pleaded to the writ, because the baron who was severed was alien born; et non allocatur, but the writ awarded good. Contrary it seems, if he had not been severed. Br. Brief, pl. 120. cites

11 H. 4. 26.

o. For the better understanding the true reason of the law in the cases of summons and severance, these diversities are to be observed: 1st, Between writs real original, and writs real judicial; for if 2 coparceners or jointenants bring an original real action, and one is summoned and severed, and dies, the writ shall abate; for

in a real a 🗀 hich is false in we a writ both true act of God; and mers or jointenants s a fine levied, &c. vithout er that issue, the died bad if 2 E. 3. 2 & 8. where d, and be that is f by which ie lana, or there is a everid: for fuch 31 nd the writ by such acts (where there is not any summons and severance) become abstable only. 3dly, The diversity is between actions real, concerning freehold or inheritance, without any regard to the survivor, and actions merely personal, or must worth the realty, in which chattels or things entire are domanded, there, if one plaintif be summoned and severed (where the thing intire survives to the other) the writ shall not abate; as in writ of ward of the body, according to 37 H. 6. 11. 38 E. 3.35, 36, Sec. 10 Rep. 124.

a. b. in case of Read v. Redman.

F 2

Summons and Severante.

plaintiffs shall not abate the writ without any severance, viz. where stherwise the surviving plaintiss would be without any remedy, &c. as upon plenarty, and 6 months passed, where lapse shall incur, which reason perhaps may reconcile all the books, which prima facie seem to differ; and this is the reason given in some of the books, as in 38 E. 3. 36. 9 H. 6. 30. &c. that otherwise the tort done to the plaintiss will be dispunished, and the survivor lose his presentation by lapse, and perhaps his inheritance. As where 2 purchase advowson in see, and a stranger usurps; but where after the death of one the survivor may have a new writ without any prejudice to him, there in some of the books the writ has abated, but without question, if one be summoned and severed, and dies, the writ shall not abate. 10 Rep. 134. b. in case of Read v. Redman.

[60] (N) What the Party severed may do after Severance.

Several books fay, that after judgment he who was fummoned and fevered may fullexecution.

I. IN debt by two executors, one of them is summoned and severed, and the other proceeds to judgment; in such case he who was severed shall not be received to acknowledge satisfaction of the debt, because he has no day, nor is privy to the judgment, but secluded from it; and yet if he had made a release before the judgment, it should have been a bar, notwithstanding the severance. D. 319. b. pl. 15. Mich. 14 & 15 Eliz. Anon-

Exec. 104. cites 13 E. 3. Fitzh. Execution, 9. 11 R. 2. Privilege, 2. but adds quarre thereof; for he cannot acknowledge fatisfaction, as hath been fince resolved, Mich. 14 & 15 Eliz. Dy. And the reason thereof being because he is no party to the judgment, by the same reason can he not sue execution upon it; for how can he have execution for whom there is no judgment given? Now the recovery is only in the name of cannot release his del time before judgment Ed. 3. Rich. 2. Y release of him severed is not a plenary judgm account, which may then puts a case, viscutes it and escapeth, think he may not.

Now the recovery r judgment had he in, though at any 2 precedent temp. fall account, the 14, 15. But this to be had after the ity adjudged, [and ecutor who profess by a release? 2

(O)

Severance.

I. IN ward by 2, if the one is summored and severed, the other that recover the whole ward; for this cannot be severed; per Finch. Br. Judgment, pl. 147. cites 45 E. 3. 10.

2. Debt by 6 executors, on a bond to testator, 3 of them were summoned and severed, and the other proceeded and bad judgment; and upon a writ of error brought it was objected, that there is no mention of those who were severed; for that they being still executors, ought to be named in the judgment. Precedents were ordered to be searched in C. B. as to the course there, whether upon summons and severance judgment should be for those only

which

A CERTIFICA

21.52

Summons of the Pipe.

which profecuted; which they certified to be fo. And the Court, (absente Brampston,) held it a good course; for perhaps the executors which are severed never proved the testament, nor never will either prove it, or administer; so that when they are named in the writ, and would not join, it is reasonable that judgment should be for those only that prosecuted without naming those who fewerd. And judgment was affirmed nifi, &cc. Cro. C. 420, 421. pl. 11. Mich. 11 Car. B. R. Price v. Parkhurft.

3. A judgment is recovered against 4 defendants. A writ of error is brought, and one of the 4 defendants is fummoned and severed, and he releases errors, the judgment is reversed quoad the 3, and a nil capiat per breve entered for the 4th. 2 L. P. R. 538. cites

Mich_9 W,

For more of Summons and Summons and Severance in general, fee Attachment, Jointenants, Ponfuit, and other proper titles.

Summons of the Pipe.

View with 1 This 1 Pents. Hig.

rfter-Hift.

fame • S. P. Buf in if, the fumtheir mons of the green wax is Gilo. iffued by a different officer, and the cultal revenue is annexed to fuch functions of the green war. Gib Hift. View of the Exchange,

3. Summons of the pipe iffred against desendanc to levy 500 l. apon a super set upon birn by one Jones, treasurer of certain sums of money in the late times. And a supersedeas was now moved to., because this is an execution against body and goods, and otherwife the party cannot be received to plead in discharge of it. And per Hale Ch. Baron, fummous of the pipe ought not to effue but for a debt upon record, or a debt stated and determined, and not for money due upon matter in pair, as this case is: wherefore if a collector 3 lector in chief charge his under-collector upon account, or an under-collector charge any particular person within his precinct; or if any accountant charge another together with himself, for timber, or other goods of the king's sold to him, and not paid for, summons of the pipe shall not issue in these cases, but a scire facias, or a distringas ad computandum, to which the party may plead; for that these debts are not debts upon record, but arise upon the accountant's charge only; and so here: wherefore in this case the summons of the pipe was superseded, and a scire facias ad computandum awarded. Hard, 322, pl. 1. Pasch, 15 Car. 2. in Scac. Anthony Mildmay's case,

For more of Summons of the Pipe in general, see other proper titles.

Sunday.

- (A) What Things done on a Sunday, are void, or not.
- 1. TIE Dominico nemo mercaturam facito: id quod fi quis though by the at fells on that E. 485. pl. 1.

[62]

r though it is make entry of a of an informin the Exchequer, Bedoe v. Alpe.

6 Mod. 95. 8. C. 20cordingly.

Baltimer and A

4. One was taken on a Sunday, by virtue of an escape warrant; and it was held good; for one may take another on a Sunday upon fresh pursuit; and this is in the nature of it, though it he by a new method; for this is no original process, but the party is in still upon the old commitment continued down. 2 Salk. 626, pl. 7. Hili. 2 Ann. B. R. Parker v. Sir William Moor.

Section 2. 11

and the same of $

(B) Service of Process, Rules, &c. In what Cases good on Sunday.

1. 29 Car. 2. ENACTS, that no person upon the Lord's day shall cap. 7. s. 6. Serve or execute any writ, process, warrant, order, judgment, or decree, sexcept in cases of treason, selony, or breach of the peace, but the service of every such writ, &c. shall be void; and the persons executing the same shall be as liable to answer damages, as if they had done the fame without any warrant.

2. In trespass and battery, upon not guilty pleaded, a special verdict was given, viz. the plaintiss being complained of to a justice of peace, he makes a warrant to the desendant to take the plaintiss, and to find sureties for the good behaviour, the desendant, being constable, executes the warrant upon a Sunday. Whether this was good within the late statute which says that all process executed upon a Sunday other than for the peace shall be void? Resolved for the desendant, that a warrant for the good behaviour is a warrant for the peace and more; and this statute is to be favourably extended for the peace. This judgment was assumed in a writ of error in B. R. Trin. 32 Car. 2. Raym. 250. Hill. 30 & 31 Car. 2. C. B. Johnson v. Coltson.

3. Delivery of a declaration upon a Sunday is not good. Ruled Declaration per Holloway J. Comb. 21. Trin. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. Anon. was delivered in Triang

Senday, and debated on motion, if such delivery were not void by the statute of 29 Car. 2. 7. And per Holt, strongly it is; for first, it is no act of needstry within the meaning of the statute, as purting of excless official process upon the church door, or making a tender to save a penalty. And he said he would take the word process for proceeding, and such construction as tends to a better observation is to be made; and this declaration, as del for that by the sta Sunday, but is ke Waldegrave's cast default, and a wribecause the statute delivery was but q the defendant had and said, that that 13 W. 3. Walg to till Trin term; end always on the Mich. 13 W. 20 ar a judgment by try was not good; tra, because such o the Court that not intermeddle, 705, 706. Mich.

4. Venire j Crò. J. 64. I

fules to obey week-day, a 1 into contemp Mich, o W. 3. Br Anon.

le.

To have an attacked from person of the manner of the manner of the manner of the manner of the performal performal performance of the performance fervice, which if it be on a Sunday, though it is not good to have an attachment for non-payment on that day, yet it is for refutal on any other. Camb. 462. Mich. 9 W. 3. J. R. Anon.

6. The question was, whether serving an attachment for contempt on Sunday were within the statute against sabbath-breaking, the words being that all arrests on Sunday, except for breach of peace, are void. Holt Ch. J. said, suppose it were a swarrant to take for forgery, perjury, &c. shall they not be served on Sunday? and shall not any process at the king's suit be served on Sunday? sure the Lord's-day ought not to be a sanctuary for malefactors? and this here partakes of the nature of process upon an indicament; but Cur. advisars vult. 12 Mod. 348. Pasch. 12 W. 12. 10. 3. B. R. Sir . . . Cecil and others of the town of Note tingham.

*[63 ]

Onnh. 462. 7. Service of a declaration in ejectment upon a Sunday was held Mich. 9 W. good per Cur. and not within the statute 29 Car. 2. cap. 7.

3. B. R. Comb. 286. Trin. 6 W. & M. B. R. Anon.

But Hill. 13 W. 3. It was hold per Cur. that fervice of a declaration in ejectment on Sunday is not good now upon the statute of 29 Car. 2. For it is a process, though not a judicial one; for it is compulsive on the party to appear. And it may at well be faid, that service of a jummons in a real action may be good on Sunday. 12 Mad. 667. Tailor's case.

r Salk. 78. pl. r S.C.by the name of Wilfon v. Tucker. 8. A man was arrefled on a Sunday by a writ out of the Marshalfea. The Court resused to discharge him, but directed to bring an action of false imprisonment. 5 Mod, 95. Trin. 7 W. 3.

Wilson v. Guttery.

Carth. 504. S. C. by name of Alanfon v. Brookbank, and that a prohibition was denied. −2 Saik. 625- pl. 4- . S. C. accordingly.-12 Mod. 275. S. C. accordingly. —s. c. cited Arg. 1.d. Raym. Rep. 706. in cale of Walgrave t. Tailor.

o. A woman was libelled against for living incontinently with the lord, &c. and was thereupon excommunicated. The suggestion for a prohibition, and likewise for an absolution, was, that she was wrongfully excommunicated, the citation being served on her on a Sunday contrary to the statute 29 Car. 2. by which it is enacted, that no process whatsoever shall be served on a Sunday, except in cases of treason, selony, or breach of the peace. And though it was pretended this citation was fixed on the church door on a Sunday, and that it is the constant usage both before and since the statute so to do, it was said, that this might be well enough where the person cannot be personally cited; but where he can, it is not the constant practice which will give authority to such a citation,

the statute to

r₂ but that the

nporal process or day as on a non.

Car. 2, cap. 7. d the bailiff is os this will be $8.

(C) In what O. for it that be Dies Juridicus.

But where 1. I F are origin. I should bear date on a Sunday, the appearance of the party would not help it. Arg. Vent. 7. Hill. 20 & was direct. 21 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Vaughan v. Loyd.

dry, and a worst of sugarry was executed, the Court refused to intermeddle, and faid, that the opposiance but made all good; and the judgment flood. Ld. Raym. Rep. 705, 706, Mich. 13 W. 3. Walerave v. Taslor

. 5 d. 406. pl. 16. S. C. buc S. P. does not appear,

2. Serjeant

2. Serjeant Hawkins fays, it hath been holden, that in every 2 Saund. whereon it was taken ought to be fet forth, that it may appear __ vent. not to have been on a Sunday. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 56. f. 9. cites the 107.

cases in the margin.

3. Case against the custos brevium, the declaration was delivered The 4 days on Friday morning, and rules given to plead within 4 days, whereas to plead much Saturday and Sunday were not juridical days. Et per Cur, we always be retkoned reckon them non juridici as to matters to be transacted in court, and fuch days therefore Sundays and holidays are no days to * move in arrest of wherein the judgment. But as to bufiness done out of court, rules to plead within may plead 4 days, &c. Sundays are reckoned the same with other days. and when the Salk. 624. pl. 2. Trin. 11 W. 3. B. R. Atmole v. Serjeant Beer ave Goodwin.

open; and therefore

Sunday is never reckoned one of those days, because neither courts or offices are then open. And this is so, like the case mentioned on the other fide, where Sunday is reckoned one of the 14 days for giving save of trul, because a man may prepare for his journey, or come up to London on that day as well as on any other day of the week; and for this reason it was resolved, that the plea should be received.

Mod 21. Mich. 7 Geo 1721. The Ld. Coningsby's case.

Sandry is not included in the 4 days to move in arrest of judgment, but the defendant must have 4 judical trys. 2 Salk. 625. pl. 6. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R. Sir Christopher Hales v. Owen.

4. It was moved to flay the proceedings, the writ being return. Upon hearable in 8 days from St. Hillary, and the notice being to appear on ing counted on both Sunday Jan. 29. Per Cur. the Sunday is the true day of the sides, and return, and therefore it is as it ought to be. Notes in C. B. 205. after taking Hill, 7 Geo. 2. Jenner v. Oatridge, time to confider, the Court were of opinion, that a notice to appear on Monday Jan. 22. as the return-day of Off. Hill, was bed, it ought to have been to appear on the 20th, which, although it be Sunday, is the true day of the mism. Notes in C. B. 207. Eaft. 7 Geo. 2. Lloyd. v. Beefton.

5. The writ was returnable quinden' Pasche, served with notice to oppear on Ap ceedings; bu 7 of the return. y. Beefton. A mot

Sunday, and Monday after fendant did 1

notice of a c

ed, which it on a Notes in C. the B.209.S.C. de⊸ ufter 10%race

loyd

he came befo r till ferring of th the plaintiff would proceed upon fuch irregular terriculof the process; and therefore proceedings were staid. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 205, 106. Trin. 7 & 8 Gen. 2. Jamet v. Veyer.

(D) Statutes.

1. I Cor. 1. E NACTS, that there shall be no meetings, or con-Lord's-day, for any sports and pastimes, nor any bear-builing, bullbostang, baiting, interludes, common plays, or other unlamful exercises, used by any within their own parishes; and every person offending shall forseit 3s. Ad. to the use of the poor of the parish. And if any justice of peace, or the chief officers of any city, borough, or town corporate, upon their view, or confession of the party, or proof of one witness by oath, shall find any person offending in the premises, the said justice or chief officer shall give warrant to the constables and church-wardens of the parish, to levy the penalty by distress and sale of goods; and in default of distress, that the party offending be set in the stocks 3 hours; and if any man be such for execution of this law, he may plead the general issue, provided that no man be impeached by this act, except he be called in question within one month after the offence; provided also that the ecclesiastical jurisdiction by this act shall not be abridged.

Continued indefinitely by 3 Car. 1. cap. 4. and 16 Car. 1. cap. 4.
2. 29 Car. 2. cap. 7. f. 1. enacts, that all the laws in force concerning the observation of the Lord's-day, and repairing to church thereon, shall be put in-execution; and all persons shall on every Lord's-day apply themselves to the observation of the same, by exercising themselves in piety and true religion publicly and privately; and no person shall do any worldly labour or work of their ordinary callings upon the Lord's-day (works of necessity and charity excepted); and every person of the age of 14 years, or upwards, offending in the premises, shall forfeit 5s. And no person shall publicly cry, or expose to sale, any goods upon the Lord's-day, upon pain to forfeit the same goods.

S. 2. No drover, horse-courser, waggoner, butcher, or higher, shall travel or come into their inn or lodging upon the Lord's-day, upon pain to forfeit 20s. And no person shall travel upon the Lord's-day with any boat, wherry, lighter, or barge, except upon extraordinary occasion, to be allowed by some justice of peace, or head-officer, upon pain to forfeit 51. And if any person offending in the premises shall be convicted before any justice of peace, or chief officer, upon view or confession of the hief officer shall

the goods

ther forfeitures

e offender shall aid shall be emshall be lawful alties to reward

not the 3d part par giv cric by c be j plo for any gof dreffing of meat in families, or dreffing or felling of meat in inns, cooks-flops, or viet culling-houses, for such as otherwise cannot be provided, nor to the crying of rulk before 9 in the morning, or after 4 in the afternoon.

S. 4. No person Shall be prosecuted for any offence before mentioned, unless he be profecuted within 10 days after the offence.

3. II & 12. W. 3 cap. 21. f. 3. enacts, that it shall be lawful for the rulers, &c. of the company of watermen, to appoint any number of watermen, not exceeding 40, to work on every Lord's-day between Vaux-hall above London-bridge, and Limehouse below bridge, at convenient places for corrying passengers cross the river, at 1 d. each, &c.

4. 9 Aun.

Superlebeas.

4. 9 Ann. cap. 23. f. 20. enacts, that coachmen or chairman siemfed, may ply on the Lord's-day, notwithstanding the act 29 Car. 2.

For more of Sunday in general, see Estapes, Robbery, and other proper titles.

Superledeas.

[66]

(A) Supersedeas. What Thing will be a Supersedeas. Writ of Error. [* Audita Querela, pl. 6.] • See (H).

[1. WHERE the party cannot be reflored to all that which shall be lost by the execution (if it be made) when the judgment is rewried, there the writ of error shall be a supersedess of the execution (at what time soever it be brought as it seems is intended); because otherwise it will be mischievous. 7 H. 6. 29.]

[2. As if a jurer be attainted in a writ of attaint, a writ of error shall be a supersedeas, because he cannot be restored to that which he shall lose if the execution be made. A. H. 6. as 1

he shall lose, if the execution be made. 7 H. 6. 29.]

[3. The fame law is in writ of error upon an attainder of felony.

7 H. 6. 29.]
[4. But it tinue against brings writ concentration upon any superfed shall not be a (It seems becomes)

Where a man brings writ of error of a judgment given against him, he ought to fue fuperfedeas of execution: quod mirum! a statute, and m recent, and r, p 60. cites ail the editions ad that there is

[5. But it seems it is a supersedeas in law to the defendant; so that he ought not to deliver the statute to the plaintiff, as he there did, and thereupon the plaintiff sued execution; and there it is held that it is not any supersedeas in law of the delivery without an plactual supersedeas.]

Fol. 490.

Br. Frror,
pl. 60. cites
S. C. but Brookeadde,

that it from that after the writ of error is fixed and allowed, execution cannot be awarded of the first judgment; for by the writ of error the record it felf is rannied, and then the Court has nothing whomf to award execution.

Br. Super[6. An audita querela upon a statute shall be a supersedeas in law sedeas, pl. of the execution upon it. 24, E. 3. Audita Querela, 11.]

C.—If a man fues forth an audita querels, to avoid a statute staple or a statute merchant, he still have a superfedeas to the sherist, not to do execution hanging the plea, &c. F. N. B. 240. (A) titts Re-gift. 173.

Audita querels is no superfedent, and therefore execution may be taken out, unless a superfedent be find for ab; and if the audita querels be founded on a deed, it must be proved in court before a supersedent shall be granted. I Salk. 92. pl. 1. Mich. 3 W. & M. B. R. Langston v. Grant. It is no supersedent rill there be a special supersedent, which shall not be granted till the matter be proved by a witnesses. In Mod. 105. Anon. Comb. 389. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Langston v. Grant, that when the deed is produced in court, and proved or confessed, a special supersedent may issue, but not to shop the sherits from selling; per Holt Ch. J. But the goods were stayed by consent.

7. When one is in execution, they cannot supersede it by erapid 286.

31d. 286.

Tor, but be must continue committed, else there would be no remedy to bring him into custody, in case the judgment should be affirmed to bring him into custody, in case the judgment should be affirmed to bring him into custody, in case the judgment should be affirmed this is a new fuit; and the party is discharged by bail, because this is a new fuit; and the party is never to be taken again, a conviction more.

2 Keb. 43. pl. 88. Pasch. 18 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. White more.

for dexrflexing and breaking of parks. ——— So where persons were fined to the king at the sessions, and in execution for it, and brought habeas corpus and a writ of error, the Court would not bail them, because, they are in execution for the king; but it was said that it is usual in the Crown Office to bail in such esse. Sid. 320. pl. 10. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Marseull, &cc. Inhabitants of Lyme-house.

(B) By Error, In what Cases it shall be a Super-sedeas in Law. By what Thing. [Not where it is as a new Original.]

ch. and before ught of the first judgment and an a manidgment shall gs writ of era fuperfedess to, ter a new eri-

ginal. to H. 6. 6 b.]

[3. But if frire facin. be fued to have execution of a judgment in annuity, a writ of error of the judgment in the annuity shall be a superfedeas of the scire facine; for it always depends upon the first original. 10 H. 6. 6. b.]

5. p. pr. [4. It a man brings debt for damages recovered by judgment, if Enor, pt. after the reward of the judgment be removed by writ of error, yet this is not any supersedeas to the action of debt; for it is a new orial ginal. 10 H. 6. 6.]

whe exmen recovers acht and damages, Sec. and writ of error is chareof brought, there the demandant or plaintiff

1. John

timent for execution by original, nor otherwise of the damages, nor of the land; because by the writ of error the record is gone, and the hands of the justices closed. Br. Execution, pl. 68. cites 4 H. 6. 32.--

Br. Dette, pl. 106. cites S. C.

Ber in ection upon the cafe, the plaintiff was confused at the wordist; by which the defendant, by the Rature 23 H. S. bad jadgment to recover his cofts; and after the record was removed by error into B. R. by the plaintiff, pending which the defendant brought office of debt in C. B. upon a new original, and counted upon the record of the office upon the cofe, and this matter was pleaded by the defendant, &c. and the best opinion of the Court was, that the action is maintainable, inasmuch as it is brought upon & new original. D. 32. pl. 5. Paich. 28 & 29 H. 8. Anon.

Defendant brought a writ of error in the Exchoquer-chomber, of a judgment given against him in B. R. And then plantiff brought an action of debt upon that judgment; to which defendant pleaded wal tiel re-card. Refolved, that the plea is naught; for debt her notwithstanding, and cited D. 32. b. pl. 5, 6. & 13 E. 4. 7. But Bendl. 10. pl. 31. takes this difference, that when the action of debt is brought before the writ of error, the action continues good. But if the writ of error is brought first, then debt does not lie. But that in case of LIMBNY V. LANGRAM, the Judges held it was all one, and that write of error is no supersedess to an action of debt; and that notwithstanding the writ of error, the bail may being in the principal in discharge of the mainpernors. Raym. 100. Hill. 16 & 17 Car. 2. B. R. Adams v. Toralinson. Lev. 153. S. C. and says, that all except Keeling held, that it well lies ; the Court held, that an action of debt would lie upon a judgment after a writ of error brought,---3 Keb. 330. pl. 25. S. C.—S. C. cited Lutw. 602. & S. P. refolved accordingly, (the Ch. J. being absent,) Mich. 11 W. in case of Denton v. Evans. For (as Powel, J. said) this action has been allowed ever fince the reign of H. 6. And fometimes this plea has been pleaded in abatement, and fometimes in retardatione, &c. of the fuit; but could not be made good, because there can be no certain time for re-fammons of the party, when the judgment should be affirmed, as there is in the case of a proton-

So dele upon a judgment in B. R. the defendant pleaded, in abatement of the action, a writ of error pending upon this judgment in Com. Scaer. To which the plaintiff demurred; and it was adjudged for the plaintiff, & Sid. 236. 4 H. 6. 31. & 18 E. 4. 6. were cited by him to be fo resolved. And a case was cited by Dolben to be adjudged accordingly in the time of Roll, and after affirmed in parliament before all the judges in England, between LIMERICAL And though it had been stuck at, and Vaughan questioned it, yet it had been oftentimes foruled. And it was held in the case of DANSERS and Satiff in the Exchequer chamber, that fuch ica is not good in bar, but good in abstement; but this difference was not thought reasonable. And Hok Ch. J. faid, if it was not for the current of authorities contra, it feemed hard to him that fuch an action lies; for the writ of error is a superfedent to an execution, and therefore, pari ratione, it ought to be a superfedent to all the ways to come at an execution; and he cited the case of READ and BRAR-BLOCK, where a man pays a fecunity of an inferior nature, pending a writ of error upon a judgment on a fecunity of an higher nature, this was not a devastavit, which thews that the writ of error had so totally suspended the effect of the judgment, that it shall not have any regard or effence; but this notthe Court ut supra, withstanding, it was, Skin. 388 Mich. 5 S. C. accordingly.

In debt on C. B. up Guildhall where the stweet into B. R. by ther this action is mi was; because the reco and the inperfedens is But the Ch. J. held, court, but orght to dele the writ of error; an 3 Lev. 396. Paich. Mich. 9 W. 3. in de the whole matter, judg Mich. 5 W. & M. ii ne issue was tried at ich tuas founded, was ale made) was, whee It was argued, that it nt execution upon it, n. & 18 E. 4. 6. b. a a judgment in this I the concoul of it by dum and, in B. R. s, that in Trin. or ireenvil v. Dightone

-3. Lev 375. - Carth. 281.

ught, declaring upon

-Skin- 400; S. C. 19t D. P. -- 4 Mod. 214 S. C. bat 17, P The Court doubted if debt would be upon a judg near parking a versi of area. Holt Ch. J. faid, Vanghan was of a different opinion from Hair in this institer. Et abjutatte. But the la v feems now fixed, that a writ of error flays all proceedings whatforeer. 12 blod, 78, ps. 19. Paich, 5 Annes, B. R. Agon.

15. If a feire facias be fued to have execution of a fine, and tenant & me ferne comes and pleads, and after brings writ of error of the fine; yer this fire, the teshall not be any superfedens to the feire facier; for it is in a manner nonthrought 2 new original. 110 lbl. 6.6.]

return of the science facias. 20 H. 6. 4. b.]

be allowed, because execution was awarded; and at last it was allowed, for by the writ of error their hands are closed; so that if they proceed it will serve for nothing, wherefore they allowed it. Br. Error, pl. 10. cites 20 H. 6. 4.

[7. If a man be adjudged to account, and after the plaintiff brings a capies ad computandum, in which the parties are at iffue, and it is found against the defendant; and after the defendant brings write of error, admitting that it lies, yet it shall not be any supersedeas; so that the judges shall not give judgment according to the verdict. 21 H. 6. 26.]

S. P. but is founded upon the first grant of the annuity. Br. Error, pl. 200. cites 4 H. 6. 31.

8. Where a man grants an annuity for 20 l. and for non-payment at the day 10 l. nomine pane; there if writ of annuity be brought of the annuity, and the plaintiff recovers, and the defendant brings writ of error, there the first plaintiff, upon shewing of the deed, may have writ of debt for the pain in C. B. And it is no plea, that there is writ of error pending of the principal annuity; for this action is not brought of any thing which was adjudged by the first record. Br.

Execution, pl. 68. cites 4 H. 6. 31.

" [69] 2 Lev. 38. S. C. by the name of HOPKINS and Prior y. Wria-CLES-WORTH, fays the error affigued in the Exchequer-cham-ber was the death of one of the placeriffs; and the defendant in error there, plead- Pa ed in nullo eft erratum, which is not lie in B. R.

chamber.

بكو منتاها

o. Writ of error in the Exchequer-chamber of a judgment in B. R. and error in fast was assigned there, and they affirmed the judgment:

* whereupon record of affirmation was remitted into B. R. and another writ of error in B. R. coram vobis residen' (as is usual for error in fact); it was moved, that upon putting in bail, this new writ of error might be a supersedeas to the execution: but the Court held, that this writ was not to be allowed in this ease; because the judgment being affirmed in the Exchequer-chamber transit in rem judicatam, and a writ of error cannot be brought here on a judgment there; and it is the course, in a writ of error, to recite all the proceedings that have been in the matter. And the course is, that if a writ of error be brought here, upon error in allowed in court; wh

the new writ of error does edings in the Exchequer-

brings error in the E_{δ} the meine profits, an ustain, in case the judgment be affirmed; pending which the plaintiff in the original action brings trespals against the defendant for the mesne profits. was moved, that the plaintiff has no title to this action, pending the writ of error; for by this means the defendant may be doubly charged; and flould the plaintiff get judgment in trespass before the writ of error be determined, we have no remedy, (in case the judgment be reverted,) for the damages recovered against us in trespais. But it was answered by 3 Judges, (Holt absent,) that this writ of error in the Exchequer-chamber is no superfedeas of the judgment, as it would be in this court upon a judgment in C. B.

acous files

C. B. and we think he may as well have this action for the mefne profits, as debt upon the judgment, notwithstanding the writ of error; and there is no inconvenience to the party thereby, for the damages upon the trespass are a good bar to the plaintiff in any actions brought for them after the affirmance of the judgment; wherefore this action must proceed. Comb. 455. Mich. 9 W. 3. B. R. Ton-

 11. The plaintiff had judgment in ejectment, of which error was brought, and bail given to profecute, and answer the mesne profits, and pending it, the plaintiff brought debt for rent. And, per Cur. the writ of error does not hinder the plaintiff from bringing debt, or distraining for his rent; and here he might have entered without a writ of execution, and only all executions by writ are fufpended by the writ of error. 12 Mode 398. Pafch. 12 W. 3.

Badger v. Floid.

12. Debt upon a judgment in B. R. the defendant pleads a writ of error, pending in the Exchequer-chamber before the justices and barons; and prays quod billa caffetur. The plaintiff demurs. The resolution of the Court was delivered by Parker Ch. J. that this was no good plea, and that the defendant must answer over; . and declared, that they founded their judgment upon the many resolutions that there had been in the like case. He observed, that two questions were made in the debating of this case: 1st How far the plaintiff could proceed, pending the writ of error? And 2dly, Whether the record was remaining in this court, or removed into the Exchequer-chamber? The action here was brought on the record of a judgment in this court: 1st, As to this it has been thought a very hard thing, that while the judgment was in dispute, the plaintiff should go on to recover this way. It has been attempted every way, that could be thought on, to put a ftop to this way of proceeding; fometimes by pleading it in bar to fuch an action, times by pleadir theless been a 1 Lev. 153. * Raym. 100. 2 Keb. 526. w ment by the te there was a wri to which the p awarded. It w that it was gone it is faid, that of error be brought, it still remains a record of B. R. and an action of debt may be brought upon the judgn ent. See 2 Keb. 659. Holmes v. Chamberlaine, this plea was pleaded, and difallowed. See 2 Keb. Posterne v. Weber. And the Court said they would stay the proceedings; albeit there had been no delay in the prosecution of the writ of error, and so adjudged in | LYMPY and | See (B) LANGUAM's cafe. There are many other cafes, and it has been Pl. 4. in the always held, that the action did lie. Show. 146. 1 ROTTENHUF- S. C.

70] the notes to

FER I See (C) pl. 22. S. C

PER v. LENTHALL, 4 Mod. 247. Lutw. 600. 2dly, It was refolved, that the record does remain in the Queen's Bench, notwithstanding the writ of error in Cam. Scace. Supposing the writ of error does not prevent the action, it has been reasonably are gued, that they should have a record before them to proceed upon; but yet it has been held, that the record is not before them. The words of the 27 Eliz. cap. 8. are only directory: it enacts that in the cases mentioned in the act, a special writ of error shall be devised in the court of Chancery, directed to the Ch. Just: of B. R. commanding him to cause the said record, and all things concerning the judgment, to be brought before the justices of C. B. and barons of the Exchequer, into the Exchequer-chamber, there to be examined by the said justices of B. R. and barons of the Exchequer, &c. It has been always thought sufficient, if the transscript of the record were only removed; that is a removal of the record quoad their consideration. All the entries are transcript' record' & process', &c. cum omnibus ea tangent' prætextu cujusdem brevis dominæ reginæ de error' corrigend', &c, in premissis prosecut' justic' dictæ dominæ reginæ de C. B. & baron' de Scaccar' dominæ reginæ in Cam. Scacc' juxta formant Statuti, &c. a Cur. dictæ dominæ reginæ hic coram ipsa regina transmiss' fuerunt, &c. except 1 And. 143, 144. where record' & process' are transmitted into Cam' Scace. but all other precedents are to the contrary. It was resolved, that the action was well brought, and that the defendant should answer over; per tot. Cur. Parker Ch. J. Powell, Powis, and Eyre. Pasch, 10 Ann. Regina, B. R. Godwin v. Goodwin.

1 Saind. 180. Lawe w. King.

Plaintiff re-

judgment;

defendant

brought a writ of error, and

covered

13. In action of debt upon a judgment, defendant moved to flag the proceedings pending a writ of error, which the Court ordered upon giving judgment in this action. A rule of court of B. R. was produced, whereby proceedings were staid, without giving judgment pending the writ of error; but per Cur. the practice is pending that otherwise. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 170. Trin. 7 & 8 Geo. 24 writ, plain- Sedgley v. Westbrooke.

tiff brought an action of debt on the judgment, and after judgment therein, levied execution. And the question was; whether plaintiff could do this without leave of the Court? Per Cur. defendant might have moved the Court to flay proceedings in the action on the judgment, pending the writ of error, which is always granted; but bawing made no such application, plaintiff is regular. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 137. East: 9 Geo. 2. Humphreys v. Daniel .- Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 129: S. C. accordingly.

/4 [71] Sec (A) (B)

Supersedeas. By Error or Attaint.

Let I F a man recovers debt against executors, a writ of error shall be a supersedeas of the execution. 17 E. 3. 46.]

[2. If a man revovers against J. S. in a writt of trespass, by which it is awarded quod defendens, capitatur; and after the defendant brings writ of error, yet it shall not be any supersedeas of the ca-. pias pro fine for the king. 16 Ed. 3. Attaint, 24. by Hill.]

[3. So if the defendant brings an attaint, yet this shall not be If a man be condemned in any supersedeas of the capias pro fine for the king. . 16 E. 3. debt or trefpais by fulle Attaint, 24. by Hill.]

wardely and a capias be awarded to arrest the party, now if the party sues an atmint, he may come into the Chaptery, and there find furetur that he shall appear at the day, sec. and ansever the party, and fur ify the king and the party what belongs to them, if the attains does page against him; and upon the same he may have a supersedeas to the therits, that he do not arrest him. F. N. B. 237.

If a man be condemned in trespass and the defendant brings attaint, and the plaintiff sucremental by eight, and capius is awarded against the defendant for the king's fine; the defendant in Chancery may for a superfedent of the capies, reciting in the writ, that the defendant has brought an attaint, and that the plaintiff has fued forth an elegit, commanding the theriff to whom the supersedess is directed, that if the defendant do yield himself to prison, and there find fureties to the theriff to fatify the king for what belongs to him, &c. that then be do deliver him out of prison upon that fecurity, if he conceives the fame to be sufficient security. F. N. B. 238. (c).

[4. If A. recovers against B. debt or damage, and after sues a capiat ad fatisfaciendum against B. which is returned non est inventus, and upon this a scire * facias is awarded against the bail and return- * Fol. 491. ed, and after a 2d scire facias is awarded, but a day before the return thereof, B. brings writ of error upon the first judgment. This is not . any superseders to the proceedings against the bail, but the 2d feire facias may be returned, and thereupon the plaintiff may proceed against the boil, notwithstanding the writ of error; for it is diffinet from the principal judgment. Mich. 13 Car. B. R. between Lock v. TILLIARD, by Jones and Croke against the opinion of Brampiton.]

[5. If a man recovers against J. S. and upon a scire sticios bas judgment against the bail, and after the bail brings writ of error upon the judgment given in the scire facias. This shall not be any supersedeas in law of the execution upon the first judgment against the principal. H. 11 Ja. B. R. adjudged.]

[6. If A. recovers against B. in B. R. where C. and D. are special $5. C. cited bail for B. and after B. brings writ of error against A. upon this 149.10 the judgment in the Exchequer-chamber, and after C. and D. the bail, to calc of Calf discharge themselves of their bail, bring into the court of B. R. the v. Bingley. body of B. and pray that his appearance be entered, and that A. Shall cited Poph. take bim in execution. Yet though the roll for the bail is a feveral 186. in S.C.

roll from the re is brought agai not accept this error is a super fedeus to the ; B. in execution into the Excl 4 Codnor and between Calfi Curiam.]

by the name of Calf v. - Nevil & al. £ 1]0. 138. pl. 4. 5. C. -Poph. r 185. S. C. -3 Bulf. 331. Ca.f t v Bingley. 5 C.an Gee Bail. A Section i Ui B 6 - 12° C - 1

[7. If a man belogg wing of the original regularization to a larger than remove the record in a days where there includes that he granual, we cause it appears that the writ of chor is brought merely for delay. P. 13 Ja. B. R. between Mansh and Whitestonic, adjudged per Curiam.]

3 Where damages are recovered and the defendant is imprifunable, Br Visite. there he shall find furery in writ of error, or remain in prison if hon, 142

2. 40. --- the year be not past, or if he be not in prison by way of execu-Br. Surety, tion. Br. Error, pl. 38. cites 7 H. 4. 36. [40.] pl. 3. cites S. C.

S. P. Bat Brook fays, mirum ! that their hands are not closed by the coming of the writ of er-

9. In trespass the plaintiff recovered, and writ of error came, and it expired, no record being removed, and after came another writ of error, by which execution was awarded for the delay; but it was faid, that when the record is removed into B. R. the defendant may come here and have supersedeas to the sheriff to surcease from execution. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 17. cites 9 Lit should be 19] H. 6. 8.

tor, which to directed to them. Br. Executions, pl. 51. cites 19 H. 6. 7, 8 .--The very feeling a writ of server is a supersedess to the execution; per Keeling. And Twisden said, that in a writ of error to remove the record of a judgment, some of the parties names were left out, and that by advice of Wild J. the writ not removing the record, they took out execution. But that the Court was of opinion, that though the record was not removed thereby (of which, they said, he was not judge whether it was or not), yet that it to bound up the cause that they could not take out execution. It is indeed good cause to quash the writ of error, when it comes up, but execution cannot be taken out. Mod. 28. pl. 73. Mich.

21 Car. 2. in B. R. Hughes v. Underwood.

The difference of the books is, that when the first writ abates by act of the party, the second writ shall be no superfeders, but otherwise when it shares by the act of God, or without the act of the party, as for want of form. Per Jones J. and judgment accordingly. Lat. 57, 58. Paich. 1 Car. Crouch v. Hains.

10. Where the defendant is awarded to account, and pleads to iffue before auditors, and this is certified to the justices, and found against bim by nifi prius, and upon this a writ of error is cast, yet the Court shall award him to the Fleet, for be is as a prisoner by reason that he had found mainprife before to appear in proper person every day pending the plea; for writ of error cannot stay execution, by reason that there was a judgment given before, viz. the award to account, and all times after he shall be adjudged in ward; and if a man be in ward, he cannot be taken out of ward by writ of error. Br. Error, pl. 77. cites 21 H. 6. 66.

11. If error is fued, there if it be error apparent in the record, the justices shall let the party to mainprise; but if it be error in ty to prifon; per

A world of erece, tho' .it removes not the record itfelf (in which cale it would necelfarily be a fuperseders, the and an ettaint was cord was removed t, the first plaintiff ion on the judgerfedeas, nor does le of error. 5 & 7 E. 6. Ayliff

v. Plat

To and stice of their processing below being after, from them) is upon very good reason in law a supersedent, and in this respect differs for an extense upone a so supersedent, for the wordest being sounded upon the earlie dual aim leg sum to problem equipment of such will admit of no presumption against the truth of such world, till it be add, so, and by verdict in attaint, which is the reason the bringing such attains only, is in their no futuries as ; to tender is the law of the reputation of the fubject, as for no respect to pretunes him perjetted without manifest proof upon the eaths of a double jury, and so tander of his liberty and property, is not to samet the fame to be taken from him, ugon fo flight a prefumption as the only foling forth a writ of error in. See Skin, 423, Hill. 5 W. & M. in B. R. in the case of the certification in Chancery.

13. 3 Jac.

quer Cham-ber of a rent, which

13. 3 Jac. 1. cap. 8. enacts, That no execution fall be flaged by See (C. 2) any writ of error or supersedens thereupon in any action of debt upon a fingle bond, or upon any obligation with condition for payment of money the Excheonly, or for rent, or upon any contract in the courts of record at Westminster, or in the counties palatine, or in the courts of great fession; judgment in unless such person, in whose name such writ of error is brought, with this court in two fureties, fuch as the Court, wherein the judgment is given, shall debt for Moto of, Shall first be bound unto the party for whom judgment is given, by recognizance in double the fum recovered, to profecute the write of the write error with effect, and also to pay (if the judgment be affirmed) all of error dedebts, damages, and costs, adjudged upon the former judgment, and there) were all costs and damages to be aswarded for delay of execution. by the not coming of the juffices; the term being adjourned propter peftilentiam in London, and the adjournment did not extend unto them : now a new writ of error, quod coram wobs: refidet, was brought; and foralmuch as this writ was brought after this flatute to flay execution In debt, it was prayed that according to the faid statute he might have execution, or that the parties should put in sureties to pay the condemnation a but upon consideration of the statute, all the justices held, that it was out of the statute, because it is not an original writ of error, but it is in lies of a former worit upon which the record was removed before the flatute; and it being discontinued not through default of the party, it is not reason he should be prejudiced thereby; wherefore it was resolved, that this case was out of the statute 3 Jac. cap. 8. Cro-

This act was made perpetual by 16 and 17 Gar. 2. cap. 8.

J. 135. pl 8. Mich. 4 Jac. B. R. Boftock v. Snell.

Judgment in debt upon an infimul computaffet, the defendant brought a writ of error in B. R. and the plaintiff in the action moved, that he might put in bail, according to this statute. But per Cut. this case is out of the flatute, because the debt recovered did not drift upon any contract, or other duty cerfams to a certainty. So that the original cause of action being founded upon the account, which is -S. C. cited and agreed Lev. 117. Paich. 15 Car. 2. firmed it to have been so adjudged before. -B. R. in case of the Dean and Chapter of Paul's v. Capell.

Debt apon arbitrement is not within the statute, because here is no certain debt at the first, not till the arbitrators have reduced the controversies to be recommended by a certain sum. Yelv. 227. Hill. to Jac. B. R. in Girling's case. S. P. 2 Bulst. 54. in case of Gilling v. Baker, S. C. S. P. agreed Pasch. 15 Car. 2. S. R. in case of the Dean and Chapter of Paul's v. Capel.

But in debt upon a bond conditioned to pay to B. fo much money as J. S. upon account by him flated between the plaintiff and defendant, flouid declare to be due to the plaintiff, the defendant pleased, that J. S. had not declar plaintiff. Upon error bi this flutute, which exter agreed, that this action i the bond was executed, ye ginal action to take his e

117- Pafch. 15 Cur. 2. Debt upon bond for pe 2 Bulft. 54. Mich. 10

But where debt was br diff and damages for the and over being brought sould put in ball accordi was objected, that the o words of 3 Jac. which as and judgment for the thould find bail upon he condition. It was though uncertain when e plaintiff in the orifuch a day, I Lav.

bre out of the flatute.

chie agreed, and were m at but of accaules the galant of an arror ette in Care a. At tenco e atracks for money. And to this Twiffen intrinsit; but per Ke li g and Mort M, this 'an after a upon which the error is brought, was for money out recovered by the des judgment, and judgment is within the words (contracts for money), and for rise, he plaintiff to error to put in hair. Leve 360. Hill, 20 and 27 Cir. 2 B. R. Biddolph v. Tempie.

Excutor pleased please administravit, which was found against him. His brought a writ of error; and I was moved that he should not have a superfedent to stay execution without special furcing the pay the condemnation if judgment be affirmed. Resolved that tolls safe is our of this statute, with contacting the words are general, yet must be intended where for attem is a count against the party Ermyrf apon his abrigation, or in case who, e the judgment is governed against the exe u as, but where the judgment is firetal. that execution that be de bon a tellatoris, and do ingus on a de limbs propri so it is wor restorable that he though find farether to pay the whole condenduation with his own goods; and acr cording to this difference, Coke Ch. J. faid it had been ruled in C. B. when he was there; and Man the fecondary faid, that the precedents of this Court ever fince the flatutes were, that a superfeders hall been allowed upon error brought by an executor or administrator. Cro. J. 350. ph. 2. Mich. 12 Jes. B. R. Goldsmith v. Platt.——2 Bulst. 284. S. C. accordingly. And Coke Ch. J. said, that if in this case sureties should be found, this would then change the judgment of the law, which in this case here is conditionally suited a 6 between the conditionally suited a 6 between the conditionally suited as 6 between the conditionally suited as 6 between the conditional condition here is conditionally, (with a fi haborrit,) and if he should here find furction, that will then make the judgment to be absolute; and the whole Court agreed with him.—S. P. resolved and ruled accordingly In debt upon a bond against an administrator. And Wright, clerk of the errors, said it was the common practice upon this statute. Cro. C. 59. pl. 3. Hill. 2 Car. C. B. Sir Henry Mildmay's case.

But in scire facias against administrator defendant upon devastaout alleged, and judgment de bouis proprist, error was brought, and it was agreed per tot. Cur. that he shall find bail; for being charged de bonis propriis, it is not like the case where administrator is charged de bonis testatorie; but here it is In jure proprio, and not like Mildmay's cars, nor to Goldinith and Platy's cars [above].

Lev. 245. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Fitswilliams v. More. - Sid. 368. pl. 4. S. C. accordingly-Judgment was given in debt upon an obligation for payment of money, and debt upon this judgment, and another judgment thereupon; and in error of the last judgment it was doubted if bail shall, be found. Cited Lev. 268. In case of Biddolph v. Temple, as Mich. 29 Car. 2. Taylor v. Baiter.

Bond for payment of money upon the return of a flip on a bottomree contract is out of the letter of the act of 3 Jac. cap. 8. so that no bail is needful. Show. 14, 15. Pasch. 1 W & M. Garret v. Dandy.

S. C. cited Comyns's Rep. 32s. Arg. Mich. 6 Geo. 1. in the case of Huddy v. Gifford, and agreed to as reasonable by the counsel of the other fide.

Where a bond was to pay money, and to do other collateral affs, though in an action on the bond, the breach affigned was only for not paying the money, and so the case upon the pleading is the same as if the condition of the bond had been for payment of money only; yet per Holt Ch. J. this case is unce within the statute which relates to judgments upon bonds, with a condition for payment of money only; and in this a judgment being given, a writ of error was allowed without bail. Carth. 29. Paich . W. & M. B. R. Gerard v. Danby.

A. was bound with J. S. the defendant, for the debt of J. S. to pay 50 l. to W. R. 30th October next, and at the fame time J. S. gove bond to A. receiving the joint bond to W. R. and fays, if therefore the faid J. S. pay to the faid W. R. the faid 50 l. on the faid 30th October, Sec. then, Sec. The 50 l. not being paid at the day, A. brought debt against J. S. and had judgment. J. S. brought error, but he not finding bail, A. took out execution. It was insisted that this bond was only as an indemnification-bond, and so not within the statute. But it was urged on the other side, that this was a bond for payment of money, and consequently within the statute. King Ch. Just. seemed to think this case within the letter of 3 Jac. cap. 8. and that this flatute ought to have a liberal conftruction; but be cause the judges of B. R. doubted, and inclined to the contrary opinion, that there might be one uniform opinion in the two courts, it was agreed to be put off till the Court could talk with the judges of B. R. And in the last day but one of the term, the Ch. Just, delivered the opinion of the Court, and faid, that this court was agreed that execution ought not to be stayed in this case, if bail was not found; for the flatute ought to be confirmed liberally, and for the benefit of him who had obtained judgment, and therefore the rule for staying execution was discharged. Comyns's Rep. 321, 322, 323. pl. 164, Mich. 6 Geo. 1. Huddy & Uxor v. Yate Gifford. In this case was cited the case of HAMMOND v. WEBB, as determined in B. R. I Geo. where the condition recited a former bond given by the defendant to A. and then goes on, vis. (if the faid J. S. shall pay the faid furn of, &cc. on the faid day, &cc. then, &cc.) in the same words as in the present case; and says, that the Court was of opinion, that ify. But it was faid by the bail was not necessary, becounsel of the other fide, o judgment was given in the cafe of Hazamond v. Wei Debt was brought in C whereof the partics bound On error brought in B. R. unlefs B. had put . bail tion is brought on a furgle of given, which implies tha tract, yet it is not for pay fonot within the provide:

والمتعالمة والمتعالمة

on S. S. articles, at the end and plaintiff had judgment. persedess to the execution, requires, that subere an achat in fuch cafe bail fall be And though this is a conmance of an agreement, and . Le original affion, yet it muft

Be given upon a were the reason in the given obtained in fuch action; as for instance, if an action be brought In B. R. for 51- the "ball an "squired, but if judgment be had in that action, and a writ of error brough, ball small correctly want to 3 Mal rate, at Patch, 9 Geo. 1724. Strode v. Christy.

Ji i man be taken in exere is the cambic be bailed tho' he brings a weit of er-

14. The second of a judgment in B. was removed by error into the Exchequir Symber and it was prayed, that the defendant, being in execution, rught on bailed; but because the record was removed, for as there was no record here, it was held, that he could not be bailed here; neither could be in the Exchequer-chamber, because ror. Vent. they have no authority, but only to reverte or affirm the judgment, and not to make execution, and so he is not bailable. Cro. J. 108. 2- Mich. 20

Hill. 3 Jac. B. R. Sheppard v. Allen.

15. Judgment was given in B. R. in Ireland, and a writ of error on that judgment, returnable in B. R. in England. All the justices of B. R. were of opinion, that the writ of error in judgment of law is a supersedeas, though the record itself is not sent, but the transcript only. For it is the same where error is brought in parliament of a judgment in B. R. here. And so also of error in the Exchequer-chamber, the transcript only is sent, and yet the Court is fore-closed pendente placito indiscusso. And they all refolved, that the writ of error was a supersedeas until the error was examined, affirmed, or reversed. Cro. J. 534, 535. pl. 19. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. The Bishop of Offory's Cafe.

16. If a writ of error is brought in this court, and the day of the The Court return is long, in order to delay the party, as if it be more than the regreed 6 H. ment term, the Court may award execution. Het. 17. Paich. 3 Car. a writ of renew is no fuperfedess; nor can fuch writ, being under feal, he mended here; but in Chancery, by motion, it may. I Keh. 109. pl. 1. Mich. 1661. 13 Car. 2. in B. R. Anon. -- S. P. Sid. 45. pl. 2. Mich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

C. B. Anon,

[75] error with

17. 13 Car. 2. Stat. 2. cap. 2. s. enacts, That no execution pall be flayed in the courts mentioned in the all 3 Jac. 1. cap. 8. by writ of error or supersedens thereupon after verdict and judgment thereupon, in any action of debt upon the statute 2 Edw. 6. cap. 13. for not fetting forth of tithes, nor in any action on the case, upon promise for payment of money, trover, action of covenant, detinue and trespast, unless such recognizance as by the former act is directed, be first acknowledged.

18. 16 & 17 Car. 2. cop. 8. f. 3. enacts, That no execution shall be flayed in any of the aforefaid courts, by writ of error or supersedeas thereupon, after verdict and judgment thereupon, in any action personal whatforver, unless a recognizance with condition, according to the statute 3 Fac. 1. ca upon any judgmi no execution fbas bound unto the fum as the Court think fit, with co of error discontinu nonfuit in fuch w cofts, damages, a judgment affirmed rma, ıll be [uch [ball arrit 22 hier

/4 b

8. 5. Provided that this off shall not extend to any work of each to be brought by any executor or administrator non umo sem acre tempotar, nor unto any other action upon any penul land for early for not belong for the of tither), nor to any indicament, preferment, information, or appeal

19. Error was brought in the Exchequer-chamter, to reverse in ferror a judgment in B. R. The writ of error was figured by the Ch. J. lack a most but before the record-certified he died, and no new writ of error was tion, the brought. Upon a motion for leave to take out execution, the Sourt or Court (upon inquiry of the practice) faid, that it the second be defendant

fu grea. caufe. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 136. Hille 9 Geo. s. Cramborne v.

not certified within eight days, they in the office of the clerk of the papers, would give rules to take execution, but they may certify the record, and fo make all good, because the writ was figued; but if it had not been figued, it had abouted by the death of the Ch. J. Sid. 268, 269, pl. 20. Trin. 17 Car. 2. B. R. Allen v. Shaw.

Quennel. The book fays, There were feveral other motions of the fame kind this term; and it was held by the Court, that where the writ of error is not returned by the Ch. J. at becomes in fieltual; but plaintiff cannot take out execution without leave of the Court. _____ S. F. And where in such case the plaintiff took out execution without leave of the Court, it was held to be urregular. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 137. Hill. 9 Geo. 2. Hayes v. Th roton.

It was held upon hearing counsel on both fides, that the writ of error not being returned and figued by the Ch. J. breeger in: freshal by his death; and the rule to shew cause why plaintiff should not have leave to take out execution, was made absolute. Bar es's Notes in C. B. 136, Hill. 9 Geo. 2. Olyrenshaw v. Stanyforth. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 128. S. C. and cites Middleson and Gardner the like rule.

 The cafe of the Earl of Pembroke y. Boflock. Mod. 112. pl. 9. Anon. feems to be 5. C. of Ayers v. Lenthall. [76]

Where in

fech an action the defendant pleaded fach

m pica in abatement, upon de-

munet it

20. Fwiklen J. faid, that Trin. 5 Car. 1. F Godb. 439. it was fettled on folemn argument, that the writ of error was the superfedeas in itself, and there is no inconvenience, and if it be delivered, shewed, or allowed before the return thereof, it is a fufficient supersedeas; but if the return be before the day in Bank, or of the judgment, per Cur. it is no supersedeas. And by Hale Ch. J. errors, nor other records, are not returned till a term after taken out, and fometimes longer; therefore it is no reason to stay so long; to which Rainsford and Wild agreed; and Wild faid he knew it ruled, that allowance of error after execution taken out, and before executed, was a supersedeas. 3 Keb. 309. pl. 51. Pasch. 26 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Ayres v. Lenthall.

21. The plaintiff brought an action of debt on a judgment obtained in B. R. and the defendant pleaded in bar, that he ante diem impetrationis bille predicti, had brought a writ of error on that judgment, which was still depending; and upon a demurrer to this plea, it was adjudged, that this matter could not be pleaded in bar, though it might be pleaded in abatement; and thereupon the plaintiff had judgment. Carth. 1. Trin. 3 Jac. 2. in B. R. Rogers wasadjudg'd that the writ V. May he Mould abate. Carth, x Trin. 3 Jac. 2. in this case, and teigns to contrary, [which i e after B. R. Rot. 500. Where pending, neither in care compelled to make any to defendant was toled to whom to ever.

he reporter makes a quan here it was adjudged to the Rowley, Trin. 7 W. 3. pleaded a writ of error depetit, &c. if he fhould be s wate adjudged ill, and the

22. Deby upor gleape was brought against the marshal, in which Show. 140. S. C. acthe plus stiff and a vertical and judgment; and in an action of debt cord-net/ trought then judgment, the defendant pleaded that he brought per tot Cu . and that the g very of error on the lame, adhue dependen. 8c indifcust. and conlaw was alcluded in abouement, (viz.) si respondere compelli debeat, &c. ways ta ith upon a general demurrer to this plea, it was adjudged ill; fo to be fo titl the defendant was ruled to answer over. Carth. 136. Pasch. one cale 13 See France 2 W. & M. B. R. Rottenhoffer v. Lenthall. Pemberton's time, when a difference was made between in bur and abatement; but the Court now held it all one, and judgment for the plaintiff. And the book fays, that the defendant afterwards pleaded the fathe plos in bus, and the plaintiff had judgment. Show. 98. Trin. z W. & M. between Syms and Tyma,

an Kataratini

23. In a real action, after judgment the plaintiff may enter, notwithstanding writ of error, if his entry were lawful, without the judgment; for that is not by force of the judgment, which shall not put him in a worse condition than he was in before. 12 Mod. 398. Palch. 12 W. 3. in cafe of Badger v. Floyd.

24. Upon a writ of error brought after judgment, execution ought not to be flayed, if bail be not found. Comyns's Rep. 3'21. pl. 164. Mich. 6 Geo. 1. Huddy & Uxor v. Yate Gifford.

25. Plaintiff in error put in bail, but the plaintiff in the original oction excepted against them as insufficient, and nothing further was done to justify them, or to put in other bail. It was insisted, that this putting in infufficient bail will not conclude the party, and compared it to the case of REEVE v. PIKE, where, after defendant put in bail, he moved that they might be discharged; but it was donied. And in the principal case judgment was given, that this writ of error was no supersedeas, unless good bail was put in. 8 Mod. 121, 122. Pasch. 9 Geo. 1. 1724. Strode v. Christy.

26. An action of trespess for the mean profits was brought pending a writ of error on an ejectment; defendant moved to stay proceedings. The Court faid, this case was within the reason of the rule which is constantly granted where an action of debt is brought on a judgment pending a writ of error; and therefore made a rule that the plaintiff might proceed to afcertain his damages, and to fign his judgment, but that execution thereon should be flaid till the writ of error on the judgment was determined. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 46. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Harris v. Allen.

27. The plaintiff did not fign his judgment till after the return of the writ of error, the Court, on hearing counsel on both fides, and the matter fully debated, and many cases cited, declared that the plaintiff mig thought fit to de error, he had li notwithstanding returnable before therefore the C Pract. in C. B.

d if he writ of rcution, rror, if 's and tepulofi

28. But on a. ecuted after a 🖼

481.15-

had confessed a juney promised to sign it the 31st of May, which was the any before the efforge day of this term, but he deferred doing it till after the ceturn the the reof the worst of error was experted, and show took out his execution. Which was of esthe Court faid would have been regular, if he had not confented to for was fign judgment at the time above-mentioned, but feeing he had expired, the ognically acted this part contrary to his own agreement, they ordered the edu, on for execution to be fet afide, and reftitution made; and likewife or- that purdered the plaintiff's attorney to fur cut, a way writ of error at his own Court or ras ex- The plan-សាខា cd អិទ្ធក្ម and Euchard cofts. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 54. Trin. 2 & 3 Geo. 2. Griffin dered a new writ of erv. King. gor to be fued out, at the plaintiff's expense, and that he should pay the defendant his colls. Rep. of Pract, in

C. B. 77. Eaft. 5 Geo. 2. Duffield v. Warden.

But the reporter cites the case of Harding v. Avery, [supra, pl. 27.] and says quarre; for it does not appear in this case that the plaintiff has in any manner muchehaved himself. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 71.

3. P. Butit that if the plaintiff had Raid till Michaelmas term following before he had figned final judgment, es in the cale of Joy ANDFRANsxaw, he might have had fome colour to take out execution (though that is a practice not to be encouraged); and the Court were of that opimion, and ordered the execution to be fet slide, and restitution and costs; and an attachment ash agunt the plaintiff's attorney, to flund over till he fees reflitution made, and cofts paid. Barnes's Notes at in C. B. 127, 128. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. Warwick v. Figg.

29. On a motion to fet afide an execution taken out upon a judgwas infifted ment figured in Trinity vacation after the expiration of the writ of error, which was returnable tres Trin. the Court were of opinion, that the plaintiff could not regularly fign his judgment, and take out execution thereon till Michaelmas term following, because every judgment is of the first day of the term; so the judgment having relation to the first day of the term, must be construed to be signed pending the writ of error, which was returnable tres Trin. and confequently the writ of error attached upon the judgment and was a superfedear, and execution afterwards was irregular; which therefore the Court set aside, and ordered the plaintiff's attorney to pay cofts. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 77. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. Warwick v. Figg.

30. Joint action against several defendants; damages 201. against 4 of them on trial, and 5 s. against one defendant, who had let judgment go by default. Writ of error was brought by the 4, in the name of the one who was not obliged to find bail, because it was by default. It was moved for leave to take out execution against the 4, notwithstanding such writ of error. Cur. shew cause; rule made absolute Trinity next, on affidavit of service. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 138, 139. East. 9 Geo. 2. Mason v. Simmonds and others.

Barnes's Notes in C. B. 309. $. C. accordingly.

31. Judgment for the plaintiff; a cap' ad fatis' iffues thereon against the defendant; upon that ca' fa' an exigent was taken out, tested 7. tefted 5 might p of error fued by the defendant, oved, that the plaintiff iotwithstanding the writ gment, and then a writ II will permit the plainjudy ment, though they

នៅ មែរ E 28)

e£ miru

I thay execution. But it was answered, if a the writ of error is infely a fuger federa. It is to equit is no contempt till notice; the taking but the weit of for, the Court is stayed from pic analog the securions. And of that opinon was the Court, for the sugart only to same on the execution. Fier (8) 1 .41 Patch. 10 Geo. 2. Spinks v. Bird.

22. Diffidant being brought to the bar by the warden of the First by some of a babeas corpus ad facisfactoridum, in order to be charged in . . on at the straint's fuit, produced the ullowance of a and for a such objection that as much writ was feated and al-JUN JO

Daniel and Miller and In

Street &. рікві те Gen No. gapfe rec epinaging.

lowed, he ought not to be charged. But the Court faid, they in execution would not intermeddle; plaintiff might proceed at his peril; was after the and thereupon defendant was charged in execution. Barnes's allowing the Notes in C. B. 267. Trin. 10 Geo. 2. Hannot v. Farettes.

thereof to plaintiff's actorney, the Court fet afide the commitment in execution, but refufed to grant an attachment against plaintiff a attorney, because though the writ of error be a superfedent from the allowsace, no contempt is incurred till after notice of it. - Rep. of Pract in C. B. 133. S. C. ac . cordingly.

(C. 2) Error in Parliament. In what Cases it shall be a Supersedeas.

C. Had judgment in the C. B. in ejectment; and H. brought Lat. 57.

Pafels. I
Car. Crouch And afterwards he brings error in the parliament; and the Ch. J. v. Hain, in B. R. brought the record itself in parliament, and there left S. C. aca transcript of it, and brought back the record itself. And after the cordingly, and says the parliament is dissolved, and C. now prays execution, and had it; parliament although the writ of error abated without the act of the party. was dissolved by faid, it is doubted if error in parliament shall be a death of supersedeas; for upon that, if the party be in execution, he shall king James. not be bailed, as he should be in another court; and cited -- Jo. 66.
1 H. 7. 19. b. 15 H. 6. 18. By dissolution of parliament, the accordingly, error is abated. 22 E. 3. 3. 1 H. 7. 19. And so was the case though in of Godsave and Heydon, error in parliament abated by diffo- was infinited that this And by Doderidge error was brought in parliament, abstement and the party prays a scire fac. returnable the next parliament, was not by and the party prays a lene late, returnable the sche party, and it was denied, for the delay. And in our case execution the act of the party, was awarded. Noy, 76. Crouch v. Hanney.

but of God. And the Court faid they would not flay execution, in expectation that he would bring a new writ of error the next parliament; and though execution be made, yet he may bring a new writ of error, and be reflored to all that he loft, if the judgment was erroneous .- 2 Roll. Rep. 352, 353. Trin. 21 Jac. S. C. but -G.db. 407. pl. 448. S. C. but not S. P.

2. A writ of it in dower, Sid. 413. discontinued pl. 11. S.C. given in C. B.weit was adjornatur. by the prorogation brought, teste th 110 - ... le 2 Keb. 438. Was ... pl. 89. 491. 19 November, t rogued. The a of creat was not discontinued by any act of the party of the of the box length of time on which this writers a return that a first on had a first to no superfedence. More in P. J., at Con. B. is Moreover of the T.

Is a long privagation, to come a term has into were as no type forces. As to on a seriod error upon judgmentin C. B. where a record a actually returned into a mean of interest to a privagation, and no community of the norm of around execution that he was a final and a Privagation. W. & A in B. R. James a Barkley.

7. It was moved to difference in one field in a conon 'n parke 1 4:454. me and prost formers, or jungs, we be Come on the come of the come ale be for not delivering wine affirmed in B. R. which the Court granted. But had it been returnable in prasenti parliamento, or on a day certain, it would have been a good supersedeas; but being amended fince delivery to the clerk of the errors, the parties thereto were committed; but would not quash the writ of error, nor allow any new one; and they agreed that a return in præsenti parliamento without day, unless sedente parliamento, if adjourned for half a year, or any long time, is no supersedeas. 2 Keb. 647. pl. 83. Pasch. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Roderiguez Francia v. Waldow.

Court doubted if they did qualh the If writ, whether the 2d writ, being without day, would be a super-Sedeas.

4. If a writ of error be brought in the Exchequer-chamber, and that be discontinued, and another writ is brought in parliament, this second writ is a supersedeas. Vent. 100. Mich. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

Mod. 285. pl.31.Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R. Sir

ERAN.

5. But if a writ of error be brought in parliament, and that abates, and the plaintiff brings a second, this is no supersedeas, because it is in the same court. Vent. 100. Mich. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

DUNCOME'S case, S. P. and were it not for the difference of the year seems to be S. C.

6. It was moved that the clerk of the court might make out process, notwithstanding a writ of error, of conviction of perjury brought in parliament, returnable ad prox. sessionem, being after another writ of error determined by prorogation, and so no superfedeas, as * Worthly's case; but the Court refused to meddle Vent. 31. in it, but left the party to use discretion. 2 Keb. 749. pl. 2. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Robinson.

Holt.

Wortley v.

Mod. 106. pl. 15. S. C.

7. Error was brought in parliament, and this determined by prorogation, and a 2d writ of error was brought, and this also determined by prorogation in November to 7 January following, and then a 3d writ of error was fued, and a supersedeas prayed to stay execution; and after several debates and search of precedents it was granted, the prorogation being to a day certain, and no term interposing. But per Hale, if a term had interposed between the teste and the return of the writ of error, no supersedeas should issue, unless there be error apparent in the record, notwithstanding that the writs of error are abated by the prorogation, without default of the party. And Wild J. held, that though a term had interpoled between the teste and return of the first writ of error, yet a supersedeas should be granted in this case, because the determination of the writ is by the prorogation, without default 5 Lev. 93. Mich. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Gofton v. of the party. Sedgewick.

8. Execution was prayed on a writ of error brought in parliament, and discontinue! by prerogation, which Wild and Raynsford granted, the record being never carried hence, nor trans-3 Keb. 238. pl. 35. Mich. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Istead v.

Streater.

9. A + rule was lately made by the House of Lords, that all causes there depositing should not be discontinued by the intervening of a prorogation.

$ 2 i.ev. 930 at the end m the wie and Levins,

tion at their peril, if by law they

Vent. 266. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. Lord Eure v. of Gofton provogation. Turton. wick, the same rule is mentioned to have been made.

10. Some time after the above rule, a writ of error, teffed 30th 2 Lev. 120. Nevember, was brought returnable in parliament 13th April follow- S.C. by the ing, that being the day to which the parliament was prorogued. It Lord Evan was infifted that this case will not be there depending before V-Tausons the return of the writ. Hale Ch. J. faid, that the rule does not who was of reach this case, because the writ is not returned. And the opinion counsel for of the Court was, that the writ of error * was no supersedeas; but the plaintiff, they would make no rule in it, because they said the cause was Court said not judicially before them, but the party might take out execu- they might tion, if he thought fit; and then if the other fide moved for a Supersedeas, they should then resolve the point. Vent. 266. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. B. R. Lord Eure v. Turton.

for that executions are issuable of course without rule of Court; but if the other side had moved for a superfeders, they faid perhaps they should have denied to grant it.

11. Debt on a bond in C. B. and judgment for the plaintiff; 7 Mod-120error was brought in B. R. and bail put in according to the statute, feems to be and judgment affirmed; thereupon error was brought in parliament, and the clerk of the errors refused to allow the writ, unless the the whole party would give a new recognizance. It was moved that it ought to be allowed without, it being not requirable by the it was not a 3 Jac. t. cap. 8. Sed per Cur. the first recognizance does not include payment of costs to be assessed in the House of Lords, and bail; but those costs ought to be paid; and therefore a new recognizance upon the ought to be given within the intent of the statute; and it is not importunity the business of this Court to examine whether bail was put in upon the first writ; for the want of bail does not binder the process to speak to of the writ of error, but only makes it no supersedeas. Salk. 97. pl. 2. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Tilly v. Richardson.

might do it; • [80] Court inclined that fuperfedeas without of Broderick gave leave it sgam. Though on a west of error in

B. R. bail thall be put in there, yet if afterwards error in parliament be brought, new haif must be put in B. R. 8 Mod. 79. Trin. 8 Geo. Colebrook v. Diggs.

12. Writ o and before That time it ava a new one, and term inter-'as a it perfedeas of exe refem lafe was, the writ o carry up the record, no ed of a by virtue of that writ. And after all, here the Court left them is do what they could by law 12 Mod. 694. Mich. 13 W. 3. 1701. Peters v. Benning.

13. Error of judgment in the Exchequer-chamber, returnable the ift day of parliament, viz. the present sessions, and now it was moved that plaintiff in error might transcribe the record within 8 days, otherwife that execution might be taken upon the judgment; and a rule was made to thew cause upon this matter, but now she rule was discharged; for by order of the lords in parliament, 13th July 1678, all persons upon writs of error in parliament, shall bring in their writs in 14 days after the 1st day of the session in which such writs shall be returnable, otherwise such writs shall not be received unless it be upon judgment given during the session, which shall be brought within 14 days after judgment given; and therefore fuch motion within 14 days after the beginning of the session is too hasty; for it is not reasonable that a plaintiff in an original cause should take execution within the time allowed by order of the lords to bring such writ into their house; but if the plaintiff in error should exceed the time allowed by the lords, in such case it would then seem reasonable that the plaintiff should be at liberty to take execution upon the first judgment; and thus it was said to be formerly determined in this Court, in the cause between White and Roberts. Comyns's Rep. 420, 421. Hill. 13 Geo. 1. in the Exchequer, Barnes v. Otway.

[81]

See (C. 2) Error. At what Time it shall be a Supersedeas (E. 2) in Law.

After judg-[1. TF a capias ad satisfaciendum be awarded, and after a writ of ment in an error comes, this shall not be a supersedeas to the capias, action of for it is out of the court, and lawfully granted. 17 E. 3. 8. debt, on a former judg-20 H. 6. 4. b.] sent, and

ea. so delivered to the sheriff, desendant moved to stay execution pending a writ of error brought to reverse the former judgment. Per Cur. the motion comes too late; it ought to be before judgment in the letter action. And so rule to shew cause was discharged. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 140. Mich. 23 Geo. 2. Clarkson v. Physick.

> [2. In affife of darrein presentment, if upon demurrer a writ be awarded to the bishop for the plaintiff, and a writ of inquiry of the damages, and after a writ of error is brought of the principal, this is not any supersedeas to the writ to inquire of the damages; but the sheriff may serve it notwithstanding, and return it. 17 E. 3. 34. b.]

> [3. But when it is returned in Bank, the Court cannot give judgment and award execution upon them, because their power is bound by the writ of error. 17 E. 3. 34. b. 36.]

[A If A. recovers against B. and after a nibil returned against the principal, he sues a scire facias against the pail upon their recognizance, and after B. the principal in ing shorit of error, this will of crioi shall not be any supersedeas of the scire facias agamst the hail. P. 14 a. B R between the Spanish Ambasand refolved fado, and Gifford, by Cook and Houghton] econdingly. Roll. Rep. 334. p., 50 Hill. 13 Ja. 5 C meiner 5, P. ____ Bulft. 182. S. C. & S. P. ____ After a writ of error brought, and before he return of it, R. the plaintiff in error, was brought to the par by values corpus brought by his bail, when B. and alto his bail, prayed that he might be committed in execution in their discharge. But Hobert Ch. J. held, That by bringing the writ of error the Court was disabled either to award execution, o to put him in execution. And this also was the cause that the bail could not be discharged; for the end of the bail is not only to bring the body, but that he come subject to the Court, according to the meaning of the bail, which cannot be in this case, because of the writ of groor; for the entry in discharge of rice hall must be, that the defendant redidit fe to the Court m he in execution, if the plainted will; which cannot be fo here. And quære, whether this has not to dished this defendant by his own act, that the bail is forfeited, (note, the bail have not disabled themselven,) though afterwards he proceeded not in his writ of error; and so execution may be taken bert. But note, that afterwards this term, Bradshaw the defendant was brought again to the bar by another baboss corpus, and the plaintiff prayed him in execution; which was granted, because the day of the return of the writ of error was palled, and he had not caused the record to be removed, and therefore this Court was re-enabled to award execution. Hob. 116. pl. 142. Paich. 14 Jac. Wick-field v. Brailhaw.————It was agreed, per Cur. and the Attorney-general, that the bail may render their principal pending a writ of error, though during that time the plaintiff cannot charge him in excuention. 7 Mod. 77. Mich. : Anne, B. R. in the cafe of Goodwin v. Hilton -Ibid. 98. S. C. & S. P.

Mo. 850. pl. 1156. 号. C. by the name of Don Diego d'Acuna v. Gifford,

[4. If upon a fieri facias upon a judgment against B. the sheriff Gods were takes the goods of B. into his hands; but, before fale of them, B. taken by fic. delivers to the theriff a supersedeas upon writ of error, B. shall have fore fale, the his goods again; for no property was altered by the feifure. record was M. 17 Ja. B. between Sare and Shelton. Per Curiam.

into the Ex-

cheques-chander, and a supersedent sewarded; and the sheriff returned, on the si. sa. that he had seefed the goods, and that they remained in his hands for want of buyers; and also, that a supersedent was awarded; thereupon the desendant moved to have restitution. But, per tot. Cur. though the record be removed, and a supersedent awarded, yet since it came not to the sherist before he began to make execution, as appears by his return, a venditioni exponse shall be awarded to perfect it; and though the plea roll be removed, yet it shall be awarded upon the seturn of the si. sa. which remains siled in the office. Cro. Elis. 597. pl. 2. Hill. 40 Elis. B R. Charter v. Peter.—Cro. E. 602. Charter v. Peter is a D. P. —Mo. 542. pl. 718. Hill. 40 Elis. seems to be S. C. accordingly, by Popham & Gawdy, absentibles seems & Clench, and that the execution is intire, and cannot be divided.

If one recovers in debt, and has fi. fa. to the theriff to levy the debt, and defendant brings error on the judgment, and has superfedess to the theriff, so much goods of defendant as the theriff has in his hands by the fi. fa. before the superfedeas comes to him, shall remain to satisfy the recoveror, and venditions expones thall iffue thereupon; but after the supersodess comes to the sheriff, he cannot proceed further upon the fi. fa. Yelv. 6. Trin. 44 Eliz. B. R. Tocock v. Honeyman.

If before the writ of error the steriff returns a fieri fees, & non invent emptores, the execution is not to be undone. Per Hale Ch. J. Vent. 255. Hill. 25 & 26 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

Though a writ of error be a supersedens in itself, yet, after execution begun, it shall not hinder it; but the heriff may go on, and on a fieri facias fell the goods; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 99. Trin. S W. 3. Anon.

[6. If upon a fieri facias upon a judgment the sheriff returns quod cepit bona & catalla of the defendant, and quod remanent in † Pel. 492custodia pro desettu + emptoris, & quod ante returnum bujus brevis If goods are breve de non molestando suit direct' quod de ulteriori executione super- taken on a federet, the which writ he returned annexed to the fieri facias. fi. fa. and a And this writ de non molestando was awarded in Bank, by rea- writ of error is brought, fon of a writ of error there brought by defendant; but the re- and a super-cordaras not yet rei was crastino Ascensios and a writ of vend MILTON V. ELDRING

6 Mod. 293. Mich. 3 April contra, and Glid, that atour i as 15 Pafeh. before sale, yet the shea. 99- f. 57- ifffhallell. not in the Per Holt Ch. J.

p. though a Roll, Apr. 491. 🚾 refitment echange gary for Surmife.

[7. If a writ of ergor be brought returnable in the Euch quer- S. C. cite. chamber, and it is allowed by the elect of the errors, and superfedent 3 her. 11 sgranted, but the record is not marked by the clerk of the errors, as the Smith v. use in or + notice of it given to the attorney of the other fide, it not Cave .being done because it was not known who was etterney, nor the S.C. c tid number-roll of the record known, by which it might be marked, yet Pakh. this is a supersedeas in law; so that if execution be avarded after 20 Car 2-

A MANAGEMENT OF

B.R. in esse of Ayers v. Lenthall .-S. P. Sty. 159. Mich. 3649. Mercer v. Rule. ⊷† S. P. per Cur. 11 Mod. 272. pl. 17.

to another county than that where the superfedeas was granted, and is there executed, this is erroneous, and a supersedeas shall be awarded quia erronice emanavit. But it is not any contempt by the attorney of the other fide in fuing out of the execution, he not having notice of the writ of error, nor the roll marked. Mich. 1649, between METHWOLD and BAWD, adjudged accordingly, and fuch supersedeas, quia erronice emanavit, granted.]

8. A man is taken upon ca. fa. upon condemnation, and brought to the bar by the theriff, and prayed to be delivered from it, because there is writ of error of it come to the Treasury, as he should be if the writ of error had been brought before the award of the capias, and was not delivered but fent to the Fleet. But Prifot faid, that when the record is come up here, the justices may send for him to the warden of the Fleet. Br. Executions, pl. 9. cites

34 H. 6. 18.

9. A man was outlasved in B. R. and brought writ of error out of Chancery to them the fame term, and they were in doubt if the writ of error was good or not; for it was too general, &cc. And upon long debate it was awarded, that the party shall have supersedeas for his goods, quod capta securitate quod non elongabit bona sua, that then the sheriff and escheator cessabunt seifere bona sua, quod nota; and if the matter pass for the party outlawed, he shall retain his goods, and if against him, then the king shall have his goods. Br. Supersede2s, pl. 27. cites 4 E. 4. 43.

[83]

10. Judgment was given in B. R. but before execution a writ of error was brought in the Exchequer-chamber; but the plaintiff in error did not bring a scire facias ad audiendum errores; the defendant in error brought a scire facias in B.R. quare executionem habere non debet, and fince only a transcript of the record was removed by the writ of error, and the record itself remained here. he prayed execution. But by 3 justices, absente the Ch. J. though this be true, yet B. R. cannot award execution till the matter is determined in the Exchequer-chamber, and then they fend back the transcript, and B. R. awards execution upon the first judgment; fo t rought in the Exchequer. t have been nonfuited chamber, at ript would be remitted

there for th hither, who cution upor

B. R. Ano rought a writ of error II. Judg in the Exchequer-chamber, and the record was removed thither; the plantif took out execution, and the theriff levied the money. The defendant moved for reflication. After the Court had taken thme to advise, Roll Ch. J. vid. the record being removed by writ of error in the Exchequer is not now before us, nor was at the time of the execution fued forth; and this being after verdica and judgment, the writ of error is no supersedeas; but ordered a supersedeus quia erronice, &c. to supersede the execution (it being ill awarded) and to take the money out of the flieriff's hands. Sty. 414, 415. Hill. 1654. B. R. Wingfield v. Valence.

12. Nots

horized to award exe-86, 187. Trin. 10 Jac.

12. Nota; If the roll be marked for a writ of error before execu- But, per tion done, the sheriff shall be excused for doing it before a supersedens delivered; but this is sufficient to supersede the execution; per Twisden & Curiam. 1 Keb. 12. pl. 27. Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

Cur. the marking the roll, or paying fees for a writ of error, or ell-wance by the Ch. J. unless it be actually taken out, is no supersedens to execution; but being taken out, it is. But the theriff is not in contempt if he have no notice of it, or supersedeas delivered to him. This was on a motion to set aside execution, which the Court granted, if the secondary reported it was unexecuted when the writ of error was taken out. Keb. 863. pl. 4. Pasch. 17 Car. 2. B. R. Abbot, administrator of Pickas, v. Leech.

Till the roll be marked, or the writ delivered unto the officer in court, a writ of error is no supersedens, especially after the return of it. 3 Keb. 191. pl. 39. Trin. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Pascal v.

13. Error being brought and shewed to the attorney is no super- Nota, per sedeas, by Twisden, until it be shewed to the clerk of the errors, which is an allowance in court: and therefore if execution be done before it be allowed by the judge, or shewed to the clerk of the errors, it is well done, because the attorney otherwise would never have it allowed, but only shew it to the attorney of the other side. But if he shew it, and * declare his intention to have it speedily allowed, there execution is superseded in the mean time; but yet if bail be not put in according to the statute, the execution may be well done, which the Court agreed. 1 Keb. 33. pl. 89. Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. v. Noell.

Cur. at common law, if a writ of error be brought, and bewed to the attorney of the other fide, the party could not have taken execution, nor before, unless a rule be entered for judgment on the piftea; but if he that shews the writ of error does not get it allowed within 4 days after, the party may sue execution, so if in 4 days after the allowance no bail be put in ; but if the parties agree to accept the allowance and bail together, the party cannot fue execution; and beexuse he had done so, the Court awarded restitution. 2 Keb. 129. pl. 84. Mich. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Warcop v. Pallavicine.

See pl. 23.

14. A supersedeas was prayed for suing out execution, not- Lev. 117. withstanding special bail put in (as it ought) before my Lord Ch. J. in writ of error, which although it be but de bene effe, yet it is good, if no exception against them; and per Curiam, till over-ruled no execution ought to be made; the notice of bail put in is only to excuse the party of contempt, but not necessary, so the bail be put in. The Court awarded supersedeas * and festitution. 1 Keb. 690. pl. 2. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. B. R. The Dean of St. Paul's v. Capel.

Pasch. 15 Car. 2. B. R. S. C. but not S.P. -Nota pro regula, though the bail were not put in within 4days after the writ of .

error breught, according to the rule of the Court, yet it is a supersedeas; but the defendant ought to pay all the costs and charges of the plaintiff's proceeding after the 4 days; he Paissen and Keeling, contra Windham, on a motion for supersedeas to an execution, being executed after bail put in; but only de bene esse, and notice of it-to-she plaintist, which the Court grantes. Kee. 926. pl. 31. Trin. 17 Car. 2. B. R. Randt v. Kingston. [84]

15. Judgment was entered for the plaintiff, and execution taken out, and a writ of error was brought, which was scaled about an Whereupon it was moved, that the bour before execution executed. therist might bring the money into the court, for that the writ of Berkley ? error was a supersedeas; for though the sherist shall not be in contempt, if he makes execution after the writ, if no supersedeas tofore. be sued out, for that he had no notice; yet the writ of error immediately upon the sealing forecloses the Court, so that execution ficri facias made after is to be undone; of which opinion was the Court, on Friday,

2 Kab. 506. pl. 78. S. C. and Lively said, that had ferved him to nere-So where a was lued out the warrant and ordered the money to be brought in, and not delivered to the delivered plaintiff. Vent. 30. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Sir Ros that evening to the officer, bert Cotton v. Daintry. a writ of error allowed on Saturday morning, and notice delivered at the plaintiff's attorney's bouse about a quarter after 11 that morning, and execution executed before the plaintiff's attorney could countermand it, viz. about one at Hammersmith. Per Cur' the allowance of the writ of error with the clerk of the errors, is a supersedeas, without notice of such allowance. And though it was infissed, that this execution being taken out before the allowance of the writ of error might be executed, notwithstanding such allowance the execution being awarded by the Court; yet it was declared to be the fettled opinion of the Court, that the allowance of a writ of error is a supersedeas, even where the execution issues before, and is executed after the allowance thereof, without notice of it. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 39. Mich. 1 Geo. 2. Miller v. Miller.

211d

So where the defendant suffered judgment by default, and staid till after execution was sent down into Dorsetspire, and then got a writ of error allowed, and served the agent with the allowance thereof, and though it was impossible to stop the execution in Dorsetshire, the writ having been sent down some time before, yet the Court set aside the execution, and ordered restitution, and would not give the plaintiff his costs. For the allowance of a writ of error is a supersedeas from the time of the allowance, though the sheriff executes the writ before notice thereof was given; and yet neither the plaintiff, nor his attorney, nor agent, nor the sherist, were blameable for any misconduct. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 35. East. 13 Geo. 1. Jennings v. West.

> 16. At common law the very writ of error, especially when entered on record, was a supersedeas of itself; therefore, unless bail be put in, or the defendant declares that be will not stay execution, no writ of error ought to be allowed until execution be awarded. And unless the party render himself in execution or agree, it shall not supersede; per Cur. The allowance of the writ of error without bail was denied. 3 Keb. 169. pl. 2. Trin. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Hammond v. Gaap.

> 17. A supersedeas was prayed after execution executed by seisure, and before the sale of the goods upon 2 Rolls, 49. s. 5. and 1 Roll. 894. there being a writ of error duly taken out before, but the clerk of the errors not then in town, it was not allowed. The Court inclined, that the sheriff could not sell after supersedeas; but held, that before allowance the Court can take no notice of any writ of error. But adjornatur till the shcriff's return of scire facias. pl. 4. Trin. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Mull v. Warren.

18. After execution made out, the defendant's attorney shewed a writ of error to the plaintiff's attorney, after which execution is done, and per Cur. it is well done, the writ of error not being allowed with the Chief J. within 4 days after making; but if it had been allowed, though the sheriff might be excused of the contempt, yet a supersedeas is grantable; but per Cur. keeping a writ of error in the pocket is of no value after the 4 days. Court would not undo the execution. 3 Keb. 294. pl. 23. Pasch. days (which 26 Car. 2. B. R. Brittair. 7 Haukinson.

time the Court gives as a convenient sime for pritting in bail according to the statute), * it is no superfedeas; per Hale Ch. J. Vent. 255. Hili. 26 Car. 2. B. R. Anon. S. P. Mod 112. pl. 9. Pakh. 26 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

[85] 19. If writ of error bears teste before the judgment given, and the 3 Keb. 308. pi, 51judgment is given before the return, it is good to remove the record, Ayers v. and whenever the judgment is entered, it hath relation to the day Lenthall in Bank, viz. the first day in term; so that a writ of error refrems to be S. C. acrunable after, will remove the record whenever the judgment cordingly, is entered; per Hale Ch. J. Mod. 112. pl. 9. Pasch. 26 Car. 2. and says the B. R. Anon.

If the plaintiff does not fbow bis writ of error to the other party, or get it allowed by the clerk, by his endorting recipé upon it within 4

that the phint if had judgment for fecurity, after which the defendant came in and prayed leave to plead, and before the rule is out procured a writ of error, and thewest it to the plaintiff, after which the plaintiff entered a second judgment for want of a plez, and to which of these judgments the writ of error flouid be applied was the question; and per Cur. it is in the plaintiff's election to either, and so was applied to the last, and a supersedeas thereon granted.

A writ of error was brought revuenable on the efform day of Hilary Term, the final judgment was found of the fame Term the 26th of January, and the plaintiff took out execution, apprehending the judgment not to be removed by the writ of error. It was moved to fet afide the execution, for that the judgment relates to the effoin-day, and is a judgment from that day; and the Court will not make a fraction of the day, and confequently the record is removed by the writ of error. It was answered that the judgment must be given before the return of the writ of error, and if given upon the return-day of the writ of error, it is not removed by that writ. The Court held the record well removed, and set after the execution with costs. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 131. Bast. 6 Geo. 2. White v. Morgan.

20. A second writ of error brought after nonfuit in a former is so supersedeas; per Cur. and leave was given upon motion to charge the defendant in execution. Comb. 19. Pasch. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. Anon.

21. The plaintiff had a verditt in ejettment at the affiles in the S. C. cited leng vacation; the defendant brought a writ of error, which was 8 Mod. 148. ellowed, and bail put in 24th October. The plaintiff afterwards on in case of 27th October having no notice of the writ of error entered judgment Belt v. Colgenerally (which refers to the first day of the term), and took out mecution teste the first day of the term, and had it executed before notice of the writ of error; but upon a motion the defendant had restitution; for by suing the writ of error and the allowance, and putting in bail, the hands of the Court are closed, and so the execution void, though the fuing it was no contempt, no notice being given. And though the judgment by the general entry relates to the first day of the term, (viz.) to the 23d October, and the execution is of the fame date, and both before the allowance of the writ of error, which was 24th October, yet the judgment being founded on the verdict given in the vacation, upon which, by the rules of the Court, judgment could not be entered till the quarto die poff, (viz.) till the 27th October, at which time the judgment was figued, the

W. and M. 22. In det defendant bre

the judgment B. R. and bes error in the B under the B judicatione enecutionis. Notwithstanding silting a to a common in the markets original action were on and fuel, not wecution, and now a non-according tion was made to fet it afide, because it was fixed out when there apon the was a writ of ecrop depending. The tours hard that a rection ments of was a writ of error depending. The Court hard that a writ of the safe; but error could be no supersedeas to the execution, and that what the three the plaintiff did was well, and no contempt. Saik. 26; pl. 4. Mich. eight is un-8 W. 3. B. R. Hartop v. Holt.

brought up in the award of execution, so that the Exercises substitution have not a receiver offer the cases ingle; for the Exchequer chamber, by the after any other parguings on the State and one of the Voj. XX

· Palance

it. The 5 Mod. 229. Sec. and S. C. ac. cordingly ; wer of Lynof the and the wife executed their authority, and have no power to examine their own judgment,-–8, C, LJ, Rayas, Rep. 97. accordingly, and that it is privileged from any other writ of error after affirmance there, or otherwise the law would be infinite and without end. - And fays, * that afterwards, Hill. 8 W. 3. B. R it was held in the case of Bonies, and Rawlins, and Mak, that error in the Exchequerchamber upon judgment in four facias against bast is not a superfedeas to the execution, because error does not lie there in fuch cafe.

 [86] S.C. 6 Mod. $10. The point was OR & judg-TOGET WAS sturnable fuch a day, and non eft invent' returned, but was taken out before

23. A writ of error is a supersedeas from the time of the allowance, and that is notice of itself, but if defendant has notice before that a capies allowance, it is from the time of that notice a supersedeas; but if a writ of execution be executed before a writ of error allowed or natice. it may be returned afterwards. The utmost length of time the law allows for executing a writ, is the day whereon the wik is returnable; and it is not executable any longer that day than the Court fits; fo long as it is executable, but not executed, the not filed. A allowance of a writ of error is a supersedeas, but not afterwrit of error wards. Salk, 321. pl. 8. Pafch. 3 Ann. B.R. Perkins v. Woolafton.

the day of return of the capies, but not allowed till that very day, nor any notice thereof to the plaintiff's attorney, and the Court faid, that the opinion in some books was, that a writ of error was a superfedent to avoid execution from the enscaling thereof, though not to punish the officer till superfedent comes to him; and of this opinion is Rolls. But that the law now is taken, that it is not a supersedeas till notice to the plaintiff's attorney, and that the allowance thereof is fufficient notice, for that actual notice be before allowance.

in B. R. and the question was, whether it was a supersedeas before it was allowed by the Court. The Ch. J. and two other judges were of opinion, that it would be hard that the execution of a judgment in this court should be delayed by a writ of error allowed by a fecondary; for if that should be so, then any man may avoid the execution for a whole vacation, at the expence of no more than 1 s. There is certainly forme difference between a writ of error of a judgment coram nobis refiden. and other worits of error. for the one is directed to the justices of this court, and therefore should be allowed by the Court; but the other is directed to the Ch. Justice only. But Just. Eyre was of another opinion, he cited the case of Lowns and Carter in the Ch. J. Holt's time, where a writ persedens before it was allowed. It is to tween this case and other writs of error for where writs of error π in the House of Peers. are brought in to reverie the , they are always directed to the Ch. J. alone, because he is to certify the record; but where a writ of error coram vobis refiden. is brought, there is no record certified. Besides, there never yet was a motion in a court of law to allow a writ of error, because it is a writ of right, and due to the subject ex debito justitize. But admitting this writ is no superfedeas before the allowance, yet it is a good superfedeas after it is allowed, as this was by the fecondary, and before notice; and so it was adjudged in the case of SMITH v. CAVE, in which case an execution executed was set aside, but the want of notice excused the contempt. 3 Mod. 147, 148. Tin.

250 🐧

Belt v. Collins.

24. Error coram vobis refiden, was brought on a judgment given

2c. A motion was made to fet afide an execution iffined after Rep. of writ of error allowed, and notice thereof given to the plaintiff's B. 88. S. C. attorney; it appeared that an interlocutory judgment was figued, and And adds, worit of inquiry executed in Michaelmas term last, and a writ of note, if the error was then allowed, and notice given; but the final judgment was had been not figured till after the beginning of Hilary term last. The Court returnable held the execution to be regular, the interlocutory judgment not after the first being removeable by the writ of error, and the final judgment remain being signed of a subsequent term, was not removed, and there- which judg. fore refused to make any rule. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 130. East. and was 6 Geo. 2. Cooke v. Harrock.

figned, it would have removed the record, fach judgment having relation to the day in Bank.

(D. 2) Error. In what Cases it shall be a Superse- [87] deas. To what Persons. Privies or Strangers.

1. TUDGMENT was given erronice that the king should seife the temporalties of the bishop of D. and upon this the bishop brought writ of error, and pending this the king fued feire facias against R. of the provendery [prebend] of M. and supposes the provendery to be annexed to the temporalties, and that this voided after; and the other faid, that writ of error is yet pending of this judgment; and yet because. R. was a stranger to the first judgment, therefore the judgment not being reversed, the king recovered against him by award; quod nota, and so it seems that writ of error is no supersedeas but only to privies, and not to a stranger. Br. Error, pl. 62. cites 21 E. 3. 20.

(E) At what Time. Not after a Supersedeas. Sec (C. 2).

[J.]Fan 2 ju for judgmen difattowed, writ of erri for the first wid, and th er upon ero J. 448. or figned pl. s. Hill. error is B.R. feems d mercly pear, and fo a fuperfedeas in law. Mich. 15 Ja B. R. oc.weech Smith and Bowles adjudged.]

[2. If A. recovers against B. in an affise en pais, which judgment Cro.) was softer offirmed in B. R. upon a writ of error brought there, and don't Game upon the writ of error brought, a supersedeas of the execution is granted live S. C. in B. R. and after B. brings a new writ of error in parliament; and it was this writ of error shall be a supersedeas in law of the execution, execution for this writ is now brought in another court than where the first might be superfedeas was granted, and by the writ the hands of the judges granted nate of B. R. are closed. P. 12 J. B. R. between Godsoll and ing this writ 且 2 SHEP-

"Silve State of Jan.

a new to be S. C. but S. P. .: deas, does not ap-38ulff.290. Patch. 15 but rocs. P.

刘松·梅梅。

of error, be- SHEPHERD plaintiffs, and Sir Christopher HETDON defendant, cause at an adjudged.]

he has a supersedess upon the first writ of error, whereby the plaintiff was delayed in the edecution of his judgment in the affife, and therefore he ought not to be again delayed by a new writ of error, and cites 5 H. 7. 22. 6 H. 7. 2dly, This writ of error is to reverse a judgment spen a judgment is more than a single judgment, and it shall be intended true; wherefore the execution shall not be stayed, no more than in an attaint. All the justices except Coke Ch. J. held, that the writ of error itself is a superfedeas in itself; for although there were a superfedeas before, that was upon another judgment, and this whit of error is upon another judgment, and is in debate, whether it be error or no, and until it be determined, they may not proceed to execution; and they all held that a writ of error in parliament is by the diffolution of the parliament determined. —— Mo. 834. pl. 1122. Heydon v. Shepherd & al' S. C. fays, that Haughton and Croke J. and Coke Ch. J. held that the writ of error did not lie in parliament to reverse a judgment given in B. R. upon error brought there, because there is a double judgment, and that the reversal of the judgment given in the writ of error shall not reverse the first judgment, but that execution shall iffue upon the first judgment in affife; but Doderidge contra-Cro. J. 334. pl. 2. Heydon v. Godfalve is a D. P. Godb. 250. pl. 347. S. C. by the name of STR CHRISTOPHER HETDON'S case, and there Haughton, Doderidge, and Crooke held clearly, that this writ of error was a supersedess in itself, and that upon the book of 8 E. 2. Error, 88. and 1 H. 7. 19. which lays, that the justices proceeded to execution after that judgment affirmed in parliament, and therefore ex confequence fequitur not before; and fo the writ of error is a superfedear that they cannot proceed, but there is no precedent of it in the Register but a scire facial, fol. 70. And the Court held, that if a " supersedeas be once granted and determined in default of the party bimself, he shall never have another supersedeas, but otherwise if it fail by not coming of the justices. Coke Ch. J. said, that admitting the writ of error be a supersedeas for the second judgment, yet it is a question, whether it be so for the first which is not touched by the mile and substitute that a question of the second party bimself. for the first, which is not touched by the writ, and whether they may grant execution upon it or not, and cited 23 E. 4. 4. 43 E. 3. 3. 8 H. 7. 20. and therefore the Court saviled Sir Christopher to petition the king for a new writ of error, and to do it in time convenient, otherwise they would sward execution if they perceived the fame merely for delay, according to the cases in 6 H. 7. & 8 H. 7. and the parliament being afterwards fuddenly diffolved without any thing done therein, execution was awarded. -Roll. Rep. 18, 19. pl. 19. S. C. accordingly. And there Coke Ch. J. faid, that if a man has judgment in writ of annuity, and then fuer a feire facian and has judgment thereupon, and afterwards the defendant brings error upon the first judgment, this was a superiedeas for the first judgment, but not for the 2d, and fo in the principal case. ____ 2 Bulft. 159 to 176. S. C. accordingly.

Br. Superfe[3. If a man be nonfuited in an audita querela, he shall not have deat, pl. 18.
cites S. C. a supersedeas upon a new audita querela, because the first writ was in an audita querela after supersedeas, and brings another audita querela, he faell not have another supersedeas, per jay. But Brooke says, it seems to be all one. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 23. cites 2 H. 7. 12.

—He who a supersedeas in law. 24 E. 3. Audita Querela, 11.]

Br. Execution, pl. 41.
cites S. C.

Br. Nonfc
fuit, pl. 56.
cites S. C.

if a man brings writ of error and

e facias upon it, and it of error and another to first action, who rein the writ of error assed, and had it by the writ of error; and ferror is supersedeas has superfedens, and as. in itself, and it is said that it is so where the writ of error abates, ter is nonfull distriction for the plaintiff is made bishop or knight, he shall have other of a ror, and supersedeas. Br. Error, pl. 55. Lites 9 H. 5. 13.

then bring another writ of error he shall not have supersedens; for he shall have only one supersedens.

Br. Supersedens, pl. 29. cites 5 E. 4. 2.——— S. P. per Mordant. ibid. pl. 23. cites 2 H. 7. 12.

Br. Error, pl. 140. cites S. C. per Jay and Mordant.

In error, the plaintiff may be nonfuited and have another writ of error, but if the party be in excesstion, be fault nor have supersedent; per Cur. Br. Error, pl. 140. cites 2 H. 7. 12. Br. Supersedent, pl. 23. cites S. C.

But per Cur. I be be not in execution nor taken, he may have supersedess in the second writ of error, though he had supersedess, before in the first writ of error. Br. Supersedess, pt. 23. exces 2 H. 7. 22.

—— Er. Error, pl. 140. cites S. C.

5. Where

Stranger and the second second

5. Where 2 writ of error abates by death of one of the parties, Br. Superfoer by demife of the king, he shall have superfedeas again in a cites S. C. new writ of error. Br. Error, pl. 140. cited 2 H. 7. 12. Per Jaye. -Abatewit of error by death of parties, or of Ch. J. or by act of Court, does not hinder but that the ad writ be a fuperfedent; per Cur. Keb. 658. pl. 40. Hill. 15 & 16 Car. 2, B. R. Tremain v. Sande.

6. After execution awarded, a supersedeas issued quia improvide emanavit executio, but no clause of restitution was in the supersedeas; wherepon it was faid that the execution was made before the execution was awarded. And upon that the Court awarded a new supersedeas, with a clause of restitution reciting all the matter.

Mo. 466. pl. 661. Paich. 39 Eliz. Core v. Hadgili.

7. In formedon the judgment was pronounced 16 November 18. and writ of error was brought, bearing tefle 27 November, and then allowed, and in majorem cautelom a supersedeas made against executions, and yet the demandant obtained a writ of feifin, bearing teste 9 die Octobris before, by warrant of the judgment which was afterwards entered but as of octab. Mich. being the last continuance; which being opened to the judges, and they well knowing that judgment was not pronounced till 16 Nov. fo that the tenant could not have a writ of error before, neither ought the defendant to have a writ of seisin before, for by this trick any writ of error might be defeated, as to faving possession; and therefore a new supersedens was awarded against that writ of execution quin erromer, &c. Hob. 329. pl. 404. Clanrickard v. Lisle.

(E. 2) Supersedeas. From what Time. Error. Sec (D).

1. TRESPASS; the plaintiff recovered; the defendant fued writ of error returnable mense Michaelis, and after fued another writ returnable 15 Martini; and because it founded in delay of the plaintiff, there at the prayer of the plaintiff the Court awarded execution, because the s But it was faid that as fo . the party may have super i fur-cease execution; que ; that their hands are not c 1101; for this is directed to · 73·

çites 6 H. 6. 7, 8.

2. Detinue, the plaintiff has verdist for him of the thing demanded, and 40s. damages, if the thing may be obtained, and if not, 20/. damages for all, and judgment is given to recover the thing, and 40s. damages, and diffringus iffued to deliver the thing demanded returnable oftabis Hilarii, and at the day the sheriff returned issues, and the defendant neither came nor delivered the thing; and after the 4th day of oftabis Hilar. comes writ of error; and the plaintiff prayed judgment and execution of the 201, and to have it entered upon the 4th day, which is before the writ of error came, and could not have it; for by the coming of the writ of error the . Н 3 hands of the justices are closed; quod nota. Br. Error, pl. 80, cites 22 H. 6. 41.

A Rate Ch.

12 Mod.
517. S. C.
in the fame term, but
a D. P.

3. A capias was returnable the 1st day of Hil, term, and in the afternoon of that day a writ of error was brought returnable in Cam. Scace. the next day. Per Holt Ch. J. It has been a vexata questio, whether the suing out the writ, or the notice thereof to the plaintiff or his attorney, were what superseded the execution? If the writ be tested after return of the capias, it does not supersede it. If a capias be out, and execution thereon, and then writ of error, it shall not discharge the execution. And the ancient opinions have been, that a writ of error is a supersedeas from the actual purchasing of the writ, but that the party shall not be punished for executing it till notice, but still it avoided the execution. 12 Mod. 501, 502. Pasch. 13 W. 3. B. R. Spurraway v. Rogers.

4. But note, Clark the Secondary told me, that a writ of error was not a supersedeas till a certificate taken out from the clerk of the errors, and served on the party. 12 Mod. 502. cites 6 Mod. 130. Parker v. Woollaston.——[Quære if this was said by Holt, or is a note of the reporter.]

(F) By Certiorari. Of what Thing a Certiorari shall be a Supersedeas.

In a man be bound in a recognizance to appear at the next general assists, and in the mean time to be of the good behaviour, and after the recognizance is removed by certiorari into the King's Bench, this shall be a supersedeas in law for the good behaviour,

M. 37 El. B. R. by Fenner and all the Clerks.]

1. So this certiorari shall be a supersedeas of his appearance at the assistance. M. 37 El. B. R. by Fenner and all the Clerks, but assume the contract.

In assumfsit Popham e contra.]

less the plaintiff from a recognizance, in which he was bound for defendant's appearance at next affer in S. the defendant pleaded that he brought a certiorari directed to the justices of gast delivery, which wit was delivered to them such a day, and allowed by them. Upon demurrer this plea was held ill; for though the certiorari removes the recognizance, yet it excuses not the appearance, but desendant ought to have appeared, and procured his appearance to have been recorded; and for his non-appearance his promise is broke. Cro. J. 281, 282 pl. 2. Trin. 9 Jac. B. R. Rosse v. Pye.—Yelv. 207. S. C. adjudged that the action lies: for though the certiorari be the command of the king, yet the purchasing it is the act of the detendant, who cannot by a fleight save his recognizance. And this was the opinion of the whole Court.—Bulst. 155, 156. S. C. adjudged. And though the certiorari ties up the hands of the justices, yet they might very well have entered his appearance.—2 Hawk. Pl. C. 294. cap. 27. s. 65. cites S. C. And the Serjeant says that this opinion seems to be supported by the better authority, and that the opinion in Roll above would be highly inconvenient.

3. If justices of peace receive a certiorari, all that which they do after is without ivarrant, but all which the sheriff does after upon their warrant before, is not erroneous; and yet their negligence is punishable by attachment as contempt. Mo. 677. pl. 921. Hill. 44 Eliz. B. R. Prince v. Allington.

If a certiorari be disected to

4. Stat. 21 Jac. cap. 8. s. 5 & 6. Whereas indiciments of riot, forcible entry, or assult and battery found at the quarter-fessions, are often removed by certiorari, all such writs of certiorari shall be delivered justices of at some quarter-sessions in open court; and the parties indicted shall, move an inbefore allowance of such certioraries, become bound unto the prosecutors dictment in 10l. in such sureties as the justices shall think fit, with condition to found before pay to the prosecutors within one month after conviction, such costs as cannot prothe justices of peace shall allow; and in aefault thereof it shall be lavuful ceed, alfor the justice to proceed to trial.

them, they though the record is not

The 21 Jac. 1. cap. 8. does not extend to indictments of felony, but only to lefter acts against the peace, as rises, trespass, forcible entry, and the like: they may proceed in these cases, notwithstanding such certiorari, if he that sues out such certiorari does not enter into a recognizance with sureties, to profecute it with effect, and to pay costs to him against whom the trespals was committed, if the defendant does not prevail. Jenk. 181. pl. 64.

Two men and their wives indicted upon the statute of forcible entry, brought a certiorari to remove the indiament into B. R. Some of them refused to be bound to prosecute according to the stat. of 21 Jac. cap. 8. and therefore, notwithstanding the certiorari, the justices of peace proceeded to the trial. It was resolved, that whereas the statute is (the parties indicted, &c. shall become bound, &c.) That if one of the parties offers to find sureties, although the others will not, yet the cause shall be removed; for the denying of one, or any of them, shall not prejudice the other of the benefit of the certiorari which the law gives unto them; and the woman cannot be bound. Mar. 27. pl. 63. Trin. 15 Car. Anon.

And it was farther resolved, that where the statute says, that the parties indicted shall be bound in the sum of 10 l. with sufficient sureties, as the justices of the peace shall think sit; that if the sureties be worth Iol. the justices cannot refuse them, because the statute prescribes in what sum they shall be bound. Like to the case of commission of sewers, 10 Rep. 140. a. that where the statute of 3 H. S. exp. 5. enables them to ordain ordinances and laws according to their wildoms and discretions, that is ought to be interpreted according to law and justice. Mar. 27. pl. 63. Anon.

And here it was farther resolved, that after a certiorari brought, and tender of sufficient sureties, according to the statute, all the proceedings of the justices of peace are coram non judice. Mar. 27. pl. 63. Anon,

5. A certiorari was fued out here, and not delivered to the justices before they had awarded restitution on the statute of forcible entry 8 H. 6. but before any restitution was actually made upon their And by Twisden, the hands of the justices are closed by the issuing of the certiorari, though they be not in contempt for what they have done before the delivery of it, but they ought to have awarded a supersedeas immediately upon the receipt of the certiorari, and because they did not, the party had a restitution 1 Keb. 93. pl. 79. Trin. 13 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Spelman,

(G) What Certiorari shall be a Supersedeas. How [91] the King may grant.

[1.] 8 El. 253. 98. the queen granted the cultody of the This feems • heir of Kniveton to Cordel; Kniveton being seised in to be enfee of land held in capite, conveys in to the use of himself for life, by milake remainder to C. his feme in tail, remainder over to the right heirs of the prinof him and his wife. And the queen granted to the said Cordel tere. suftodiam omnium terrarum & tenementorum haredi prædicto desvendentium seu pertinentium ut filio & bæredi dicti Kniveton. Per consilium wardorum, grantee shall have the ward of the body [and] marringe of the heir by the first words, wardship being saved by the statute for alienation to his seme. But the grantee shall not have H4 the

the lands which appertain to the queen, because the grant is of lands which descend from Kniveton.]

See (A)
pl. 6.—
And fee
Audita Querela.

(H) By * Audita Querela.

I. IF a man bound in a statute merchant be taken in execution, and his land extended, and liberate awarded, and after he brings audita querela, he shall have a supersedeas for his body; for this does not discharge the body absolutely, but only for the time; so that he may better prosecute the suit; for he shall be in execution again, if his audita querela does not aid him. M. 5 Ja. B. between Whidner and Convers, per Curiam adjudged.]

[2. But in the said case no supersedeas shall be granted for the land and goods, because they cannot grant a supersedeas after the execution served and executed. M. 5 Ja. B. between WHIDNER

AND CONYERS adjudged.]

pl. 27. Mich. 36 & 37 Eliz. C. B. Charnock v. Sir Tho. Gerard.

[3. But upon an audita querela before execution had, a supersedeas may be granted, as well of the land and goods as of the body. M. 5 Ja. B.]

Br. Superse[4. An audita querela upon a statute, shall be a supersedeas in deas, pl. 18. law of the execution upon it. 24 E. 3. Audita Querela, II.]
s. C.—
The conssee of a statute-staple purebased part of the land, and the plaintist another part, and yet be such out execution, and caused the land of the plaintist to be extended, and delivered to him in execution. This was held to be a good cause for an audita querela. Then a supersedeas was moved for to stay execution; for though the lands were extended, yet they were not delivered by liberate. The Court doubted, because it was on a statute-staple, which was not returnable in this Court, but in Chancery; but it might well be upon a statute-merchant, that being always returnable in this Court. But the prothonotaries saying, that it well lies in this Court in this case, and that a supersedeas should be awarded, as it was in Lord Dudley's case, and that divers other precedents accorded therewith, the Court afterwards resolved, that it well lay here, and a supersedeas was thereupon awarded. Cro. E. 364.

Note, that a [5. In an audita querela, if there be any ground for it of record, or in writing, the plaintiff shall have a supersedeas to stay execution against him; but otherwise it is, if it be but only matter in supersedeas supersed upon a specialty; but he shall have an audita querela upon a surmise, if he put in bail, &c. but not a supersedeas. Cook Ch. J. advised every student to take notice of that; and after in many cases it was

The obtained a judgment a sunit l' and had favir sufficient upon it, and gave a release to the desendant; yet afterwards takes out a capias no surfeciendum against him, whereupon he brings his audita querels, and moves the Court, that he may have a supersedent to the capias ad satisfaciendum. The Court defired to see the release, and upon view thereof the rule was that the party should proceed in his audita querela; but said, they would grant no supersedies, because the release was ambiguous. Sty. 294. Trin. 1651. Pickering v. Emma.

† [92]

6. If a man be nonfunted in a writ of error, or audita querela, once, he shall not ever after have supersedeas or audita querela to be a supersedeas for him, but writ of execution may be executed upon him; for the first writ is a supersedeas in itself, but the other, which is purchased after the nonsuit, is not a supersedeas, in itself; per Hobard. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 37. cites 6 H. 7. 16.

7. Pending

7. Pending an action brought by an administratrix, the son of the inteflate, by covin between the debtor and him, obtained other letters of administration to be granted to the feme and him jointly, without any notice taken of annulling the former; and then, after judgment, he released to the debtor all demands and executions. But the administratrix sued to execution, and thereupon the debtor brought an audita querela with a supersedeas in it; and whilst that was depending, the 2d administration was repealed, and the repeal pleaded in bar to the audita querela, and adjudged against the plaintiff. D. 399. pl. 46. Hill. 17 Eliz. Anon.

8. Mainpernors were in action of debt for damages and costs; and scire facias issued de debito & damnis, and judgment was given against the mainpernors; and now a supersedeas, quia erronice, was moved for, because after execution made; for they were not sureties for the debt. Doderidge J. told them, they were put to their audita querela. 2 Roll. Rep. 431. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R.

Cole v. Varnon.

(I) By Habeas Corpus.

[1.] N an action upon the case in an inferior court, if after is upon the case in an inferior court, if after is upon the scale is per Holt Ch. delivered by the defendant in the court there, and pays the fees for allowance of it there; and yet after they proceed there to try the of Cross v. issue, and thereupon a verdict and judgment given, this is error, and in writ of error it may be affined for error; for the habeas pl. 7. Ellis corpus was a supersedeas in law." Trin. 8 Car. B. R. between v. Johnson, JOHNSON and ELLIS, adjudged in writ of error, and judgment given in Maidstone reversed accordingly.]

. 12 Mod. 546. in case Smith.— Cro.C. 251. S. C. accordingly, though it was objected not to be error, because the habeas corpus was not alledged to be upon record, and so the error affigued mot triable.

2. Debt was brought in an inferior court upon a bond of 2001. not rade within the jurisdiction. After issue joined a habeas corpus was : warded thither to remove the cause; but they proceeded notwithstanding, and the judge of the court was an attorney only, and not an utter barrifter. And it was resolved, that after the habeas corpus delivered, the proceedings were ili, and not warranted by the statute 21 Jac. cap. 23. And the proceeding after to trial and judgment were also void, and thereupon a supersedeas was awarded; and the judges of B R. being informed thereof, agreed, that their course in B. R. was to disallow proceedings in an inferior court, after an habeas corpus delivered, unless it were a cause arising in the vill or corporation. Cro. C. 79. pl. 1. Mich. 3 Car. C. B. Clapham's case.

3. Per Cur' if a habeas corpus be directed to an inferior court, [93] returnable 2 days after the end of the term, yet the inferior court cannot proceed contrary to the writ of habeas corpus. cited the case of STAPLES, steward of Windsor, who hardly escaped escaped a commitment, because he had proceeded after a habeas corpus delivered to him, (though the value were under 51.) and would not make a return of it. 1 Mod. 195. pl. 27. Hill, 26 & 27 Car. 2. in C. B. Haley's case.

(K) After an Arrest.

Br. Imprifonment, pl. 21. cites 5. C.

I. IF a man purchases supersedeas, and is taken by capias by the sheriff in the same suit, before that the supersedeas comes to the sheriff, but the supersedeas is delivered to the sheriff before the return of the capias, and after the sheriff returned cepi corpus, there the supersedeas shall not serve; contra if the supersedeas had been delivered to the sheriff before the writ served by the arrest. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 36. cites 19 H. 6. 43.

2. If a man is arrested at the suit of the king, he shall not have supersedeas in C. B. per Babb. quod tota Curia concessit. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 1. cites 9 H. 6. 44.

3 Bulft. 96. S. C. accordingly. ----Rall. Rep. 240. pl. 10. S. C. and judgplaintiff, by the affent of Coke, Croke, and Doderidge, Haughton faying nothing.

3. It was moved, that the sheriff though he has a supersedeas, yet is not bound, upon pain of false imprisonment, to allow thereof; but may return the writ and the prisoner with the supersedeas, and the Court may discharge him; and therefore there is difference where the arrest is before the supersedeas, and ment for the where after; for that it is unlawful in the last, but not in the first case, and cites 2 H. 7. 19. 19 H. 6. 43. 9 E. 4. 3. But all the Court held, that the supersedeas was as good cause to discharge him, as the first process was to arrest him, and he must obey it at his peril; and in regard he has not done it, he is chargeable with false imprisonment; and the detaining him in prison is a new caption, and he may well declare of caption and imprisonment. Cro. J: 379. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R. Withers v. Henley.

(L) Out of what Court.

2. TN false imprisonment the defendant was condemned, and ca. sa. & exigent upon it iffued in the county of O. and another ca. sa. & exigent upon it issued in the county of E. and therefore he came into the Chancery, and had supersedeas upon mainprize of 400 marks, and for fine of the king; and another supersedeas to the justices of Bank to surcease. And by some this supersedeas is contrary to law. But Finch. surceased, because it came out of a higher court; and so there was no further process. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 5. cites 15 E. 3. 19.

2. In debt the plaintiff recovers upon an obligation in C. B. and the defendant brings writ of error in B. R. and pending this the first plaintiff brings writ of debt in London upon the same obligation; the desendant shall have supersedeas in B. R. and not in C. B.

Br. Supersedeas, pl. 11. eites 11 H. 4. 73.

3. Where

[94]

Where a void office is adjourned into the Exchequer-chamber, and there argued and found void, supersedeas shall be awarded in the Exchequer-chamber, and rehearing the patents granted to the patentees, and that they shall not intermeddle; quod nota. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 30. cites 5 E. 4. 7.

4. If an accountant in the Exchequer be impleaded in C. B. the Exchequer may fend supersedeas to them to surcease. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 38. cites 9 E. 4. 57.

5. And if he be impleaded in B. R. those of the Exchequer will show the record of account, &c. for they cannot make superfedeas to the king; for there the pleas are held coram rege, and not coram justiciariis, and he shall be dismissed. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 38. cites 9 E. 4. 57.

6. A man sued in court christian, and the other obtained probibition, and notwithstanding the other sued forth and got capias and excommunicatum against his adversary, by which he surmised this matter in court of Bank, and prayed supersedess. Thorp bid him go to Chancery; Morrice said, the Chancery cannot grant it, as long as this court is open. Thorp said, this is true; and thereupon he granted the supersedess. Br. Supersedess, pl. 13.

7. C. B. after execution awarded, and writ of error delivered there, may award a supersedeas before execution executed.

Jenk. 93. pl. 80.

(M) In what Cases and Actions.

ACCOUNT against W. N. where there were 2 of the name, and * W. N. appeared, and prayed, that the plaintiff count against him; and the plaintiff said, that he is another of the same name, and not the defendant; by which the plaintiff had another process against the defendant, and the other had writ that he should not be grieved, and that the sheriff should not take him; which was a special supersedess as it seems, and the diversity of the names was also put in the process. Br. Supersedess, pl. 35. cites 21 E. 3. 35.

2. A man distrained 2 sheep, and the owner brought replevin; and the defendant by covin affirmed plaint in court of franchise against the plaintiff, to the intent to know those goods attached, so that they should not be replevied; it was said the plaintiff shall not have supersedeas for the chartels, but for his person; but, per Laicon, he shall have supersedeas for both. Br. Supersedeas,

pl. 34. cites 16 H. 4. 8.

3. Trespass upon the case against the bishop of Lincoln for claiming the plaintiff as villein, they were at issue; and pending this the temporalties of the bishop were seised into the hands of the king, by which came writ to the justices rehearing all the matter, and commanding them quod non procedant rege inconsulto, by which the justices ccased; quod nota. For if the plaintiff be villein he is parcel of the manor to which, &c. and so a loss to the ling. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 40. cites 2 R. 3. 13.

* All the editions are J. N. which feems to be misprinted.

4. It

4. It was held for law, that in writ of attaint a man shall not have supersedent to disturb execution; for the verdict shall be intended true quousque, &c. Contra in writ of error; for it may be intended that error is, &c. Br. Supersedent, pl. 24. cites 5 H. 7. 22.

5. And, by some, supersedeas does not lie upon certificate of assis, for the same reason, quære inde. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 24. cites

[95] 5 H. 7. 22.

If a man fues out an audita querela, fupersedeas lies to stay executives out an audita quetion. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 24. cites 5 H. 7. 22. and 32 H. 8. rela to avoid a featurefraple, or a featurefraple, or Astute-merchant, he shall have a supersedeas to the sheriff not to do execution, hanging the plea, &c. F. N. B. 240. (A) cites Regist. 113.

F. N. B.

7. A supersedeas lies not to take a man on an excommunicate
239. (B)
S. P. cites capiendo; or if he be taken, that then he deliver him donec Register, 67. placitum dicti attachiamenti fuerit discussum, &c. F. N. B. 64.

The (D).

moved to supersede a evrit de excommunicato capiendo, for that it was too general. It was insisted upon, that the motion for the supersedeas was made too early, the sheritf not having returned the writ; and cited 1 Sid. 181. Parker Ch. J. said, if the Court of B. R. cannot grant a supersedeas before the return, the consequence will be, that a subject may for a long interval of time, vis. between the delivery of the writ to the sheriff and his return, be wrongfully deprived of his liberty, without possibility of redress. In fact, these writs have not been superseded before their return; but I see no reason why they may not. A supersedeas was granted accordingly. 10 Mod. 350, &c. Hill. 3 Geo. 1. B. R. King w. Theed.

8. Supersedeas lay in a nativo babendo. See F. N. B. 77. (C),

(D).

o. If a man be sued, and a capias or exigent be awarded against him, he may by his friend sue forth a supersedeas out of the place where the capias or exigent was awarded against him, or out of the term he may sue forth a supersedeas out of the Chancery directed to the sheriss, that he take sureties of him, and to appear at the day, &c. and that he let him at liberty, or he may find sureties in the Chancery to appear at the day of the return of the capias or exigent; and upon this he shall have a supersedeas to the sheriss, that he let him go, if he have arrested him thereupon, and if he have not arrested him, that then he do not airest him, but suffer him to go in peace. F. N. B. 236, (A).

(A) S. P. to find furcties of peace, the defendant who is arrested may have supersedeas in Chancery to the sheriff, commanding him not to arrest him. F. N. B. 238. (E).

F.N. B. 39.

II. In a court-baron, or any other court, as in London, in writ of right, if the tenant vouches a foreigner to warranty, the tenant who vouches shall have a writ of supersedeas directed to the Court, to surcease the plea until the warranty be determined. F. N. B. 239. (A) cites the Register, 5. 11. & 13.

12. It lies upon a writ of homine replegiando. F. N. B. 239. (C) cites Regist. 79, 80.

13. If

13. If trespass vi & armis be brought in the county, a supersedess lies to the sheriff, &c. where the plea is holden, reciting that a plea of trespass vi & armis shall not be held in a less court than before the king, or other justices by his command. F. N. B. 239. (D) cites Regist. 111.

14. If an order or rule be made by the Court, that execution shall not issue, or if judgment be entered before it be pronounced, although execution be executed, in these cases it shall be set aside by a supersedent quia improvide emanavit. Jenk. 93. pl. 80.

15. If the plaintiff in a writ of error be nonfuit, or does not remove the record before the day of the return of the writ of error, or if there be too long a day between the teste and the return of the writ of error, no supersedeas shall avail in these cases, because of the manisest delay of justice. Justitia non est neganda non differenda. Jenk. 93. pl. 80.

16. It was resolved by all the judges, that error is a super-sedes to the writ of inquiry. Mar. 89. pl. 142. Pasch. 15 Car.

Anon.

(N) For what Causes.

[96]

1. DEBT against 2, the one was at the exigent, and the other at the distress, and be at the distress came and demanded the plaintiff, and he did not come, and was nonsuited; by which the other had supersedeas omnino, because nonsuit against the one in action personal, is nonsuit against both. Br. Supersedeas,

pl. 6. cites 1 H. 4. 4.

2. Trespass vi & armis in B. R. against T.S. who pleaded not guilty, and was found guilty, and the plaintiff had judgment; and for the king capies pro fine was awarded against the defendant, and after exigent for the king issued against the defendant, and when 3 counties were passed the king sent privy seal to the justices of B. R. for the defendant rehearling the matter, commanding them to surcease to make process for the king; and that if they had made process, that they should make supersedeas; and yet the plaintiff prayed process for the king, and the defendant contra, and prayed supersedeas; and upon good argument, in the end be bad supersedeas; quod nota, upon privy seal; for though the fine of the king arose upon the suit of the party, yet pending the process not served, the king may cease his own process at his pleasure; for the party shall not compel the king to suc against his will, but if he was taken by the process, the king shall not fet him at large till the party be fatisfied; for per omnes, the plaintiff may take this for his execution, if he will. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 26. cites 4 E. 4. 16.

3. Supersedeas quia erronice emanavit was in debt against 3 by several pracipes, and execution is against the one only. Br. Super-sedeas, pl. 28. cites 4 E. 4. 39. and 5 E. 4. 4.

Br. Executions, pr. 96. cires S. C.

So where debr is egainst 4, upon one and the same obligation, and 2 are condemned by default, and execution is such against them, they shall have supersedess quia erronice, which manner of supersedess shall not issue but only upon a record; quod note. Ibid. cites § E. 4. 5.

4. If

Olig. is

(bon).

4. If indictment be insufficient, the justices ex officio, by the informs ation shall send supersedeas. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 30. cites 5 E. 4.7.

5. So if exigent be awarded where no exigent lies. Br. Superfedeas, pl. 30. cites 5 E. 4. 7.

6. In affise it was said, that if diem clausit extremum is ues, and after supersedeas comes to the escheator to surcease, this had been adjudged void; for the diem clausit extremum is the suit of the party, and by other way he cannot have his land; and therefore he shall be delayed of his suit; and the statute of 2 E 3. cap. 8. wills, that by the great scal nor the petit seal, the justices shall not surcease to do right: but quære if the supersedeas shall not be allowed against the diem clausit extremum? it seems that it shall. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 25. cites 5 E. 4. 132.

7. In replevin the sheriff returned quod averia elongata sunt, and the defendant appeared, and notwithstanding withernam was awarded, which was erroneous, by reason of the appearance of the defendant, by which supersedeas issued to the sheriff to surcease, &c. and if he had taken them to re-deliver them to the defendant, and the sheriff returned that before the supersedeas came, he had delivered the beasts of the defendant to the plaintiff in withernam; and he went to the plaintiff to have re-delivery, and he essoigned them; and the desendant appeared and pleaded that he did not take the beasts, and prayed withernam, &c. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 32. cites 7 E. 4. 15.

8. A. has judgment in debt against B. and a ca. sa. against him; B. is taken by force of it; his attorney informed the Court that he bad a writ of error in this case before the execution executed, which wit of error he had not with him at the time of the execution. B. was committed in execution, ut supra; for B. ought to have delivered the writ of error before the capias was awarded, or after it was awarded, and before execution to have a supersedeas. By the justices of both benches. Vigilantibus subserviunt jura. Jenk. 92. pl. 80.

9. A. has a ca. sa. against B.—B. has a supersedeas thereto in his pocket; B. is taken upon it by the sheriff, and immediately delivers the supersedeas to the sheriff, this shall discharge him from execution. Quæ siunt incontinenti, inesse videntur. Jenk. 92. pl. 80.

10. Though the statute 3 Jac. cap. 8. be general, yet it is to be intended in such cases where it is against the party himself upon his obligation, or in case where the judgment is general against the executors; but where the judgment is special, that it shall be of the goods of the testator, and damages only de bonis propriis, it is not reasonable, nor is it the intent of the law that the party should be inforced to find sureties to pay the intire condemnation with his own goods. And according to this difference Coke said it had been ruled in C. B. when he was there. And Man the secondary said, that the precedents of this Court ever since the statute made were, that a supersedeas had been allowed upon a writ of error brought by the executor or administrator. Cro. J. 350. pl. 2. Mich. 12 Ja. B. R. Goldsmith v. Plat.

11. Upon a verdict a rule was given for judgment upon the Thursday, and upon Saturday after the plaintiff died. A writ of error was moved for, because, as was said, the party died before judgment, inasmuch as of course after verdict and rule for judgment there are 4 days to move in arrest, and so he died before judgment absolutely given, and moved the Court for a supersedeas. It was agreed to be in the discretion of the Ch. J. ex officio, to allow a writ of error; but because it was a cause of great consequence he took the advice of the Court, and it was agreed, that a writ of error is a supersedeas in itself, yet it is good to have a supersedeas also; and if the writ of error had been allowed, the Court could not deny the party a supersedeas. But because the writ of error was not allowed, and also because no error appeared to the Court, for where judgment is entered this shall relate to the time of the rule given, it was resolved that no writ of error should be allowed, nor any supersedeas granted. Poph. 132, 133. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. the Earl of Shrewsbury's case.

[97]

CITOR

12. D. acknowledged a statute-merchant at Gloucester in 3001, and the statute did not limit any day of payment, and yet an extent was sued, and upon motion a supersedeas was awarded; for that it is no statute, because they had not pursued the authority given by the statute; for the statute of Acton Burnell, 11 E. 1. says, if the debt be not paid at the day, &c. And though debt upon an obligation is payable presently, if the day be not expressed, yet here the statute appoints a day certain. Hutt. 42. Mich. 18 Jac.

Davie's case.

13. A. had judgment against B. who paid part of the money, and A. acknowledged satisfaction of so much; and then they agreed, that if B. did not pay the residue by such a day, then it should be lawful for A. to take out execution against B. without suing any scire facias, though after the year. The money was not paid at the time, and execution being taken out without a saire facias, a supersedeas was moved for, because the writ improvide emanavit, &c. And the Court held it good cause to discharge him, but said, it was in their discretion to grant a supersedeas, or put the defendant to his writ of error. Win. 100, 101. Mich. 22 Jac. C. B. Hickman v. Fish.

of Middlesen, and thereupon moved for a supersedeas, for that the arrest was false. The Court agreed, that a supersedeas cannot be granted quia executio erronice emanavit, which it did not, because the execution was well granted, and if it be returned by the sheriff generally, it ought to be intended well served, though affidavit be made to the contrary; but a habeas corpus was granted. Het. 30, 31. Trin. 3 Car. Mrs. Row's case.

15. In case for words spoke in London, the defendant justified for a matter arising in Suffolk; the plaintiff replied, de injuria sua propria, and upon issue procured a scire facias to London. A supersedeas was moved for and granted, because the venire facias ought to have issued in Suffolk; and the prothonotaries ought to enter upon the roll ideo præceptum est vicecomiti Suffolk. Litt.

Rep. 314. Mich. 5 Car. C. B. Harvey's case.

16. When

16. When a procedendo unduly vel improvide emanavit, it is usual to grant a supersedeas, but because in the principal case the procedendo was well awarded, the whole Court denied to grant a Cro. C. 486, 487. pl: 11. Mich. 13 Car. B. R. iupersedeas. Bower v. Cooper.

17. The Court was moved, that a writ of error was brought to reverse a judgment, and that it was received and allowed, and notwithstanding which, the plaintiff took out execution, and thereupon it was prayed for a supersedeas to supersede the execution, and for an attachment against the party for his contempt to the Court. It was urged, that the writ of error was not duly pursued because the roll was not marked, and therefore the party might well take out execution. But Roll Ch. J. answered, that the writ was well pursued, though the roll were not marked; yet if neither the roll be marked, nor notice given to the attorney on the other side of the bringing the writ of error, if the party proceed to take out execution, it is no contempt to the Court; otherwise it is a contempt: and it is the duty of the clerk of the errors to mark the roll and not the attorney's, and therefore take a supersedeas quia improvide emanavit to stop execution. Sty. 159, 160. Mich. 1649. Mercer and Rule.

18. A peer was arrested by a bill of Middlesex, and in custody of the marshal of B. R. and thereupon moved for a supersedeas; because being a peer he ought not to be arrested. The Court directed him to plead his privilege, and faid, they could not take notice thereof upon a motion. Sty. 177. Mich. 1649. B. R. The Earl of Rivers's case.

19. After error directed to Twisden, but never delivered, another writ was procured directed to Hales Ch. J. by whose creation the other ceased, and no notice is given of it, but within the four days before allowance execution is taken, and per Cur. on 13 Car. 2. stat. 2. c. 2. no bail being yet given, and the four days past, they cannot supersede in action of battery, notwithstanding BATEMAN'S case, which was between Cotton and Daintry; and per Hales Ch. J. execution before bail put in is good. 2 Keb. 770. pl. 55. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Nichols v. Deacon.

20. The defendant was arrested, and no declaration being filed against him within two terms after the arrest, he procured a supersedeas and was discharged, and immediately afterwards he was arrefied again by a capias out of C. B. at the fuit of the same plaintiff, and for the same cause of action; and upon a motion to discharge these proceedings because irregular, the Court was of was thereby another-opinion, for that the defendant had a right to supersede the action because no declaration was filed against him in time, and as he had a right to supersede that action, certainly the plaintiff must have liberty to proceed in another; for his debt is not lost for want of declaring in time, but only that action is gone, and therefore a new action may be brought. 8 Mod. 306. Mich. 11 Geo. 1725. Henley v. Roife.

cation to the Court quas discharged by rule from the new declaration, and her supersedeas was allowed; after her discharge, the plaintiff couled yer to be arrified and beid to but for the former cause of aftion, whereupon

After judgversed by writ of error defendant bad a supersedeas, but before sbe discharged, be was charged with a nero deciasation at plaintiff s fuit, and upon applithe street the Court to be again discharged by supersedess upon entering a common appearance, and upon hearing counsel on both sides, the Court was divided in opinion, Lord Ch. J. and Comyns J. looked upon the 2d declaration to be no charge, and that the Court took it so when a rule was formerly made for her discharge; and thereupon she had the benefit of her supersedess, and that after the judgment reversed and annulled, plaintiff had a right, if he thought sit, to bring a new action. Denton and Fortescue J. were of opinion, that after the desendant had been discharged by rule of court, as to the 2d declaration she ought to be now discharged on entering a common appearance, and that the rule of court amounts to the same thing as a supersedess. No rule. Notes in C. B. 266, 267. East. 9 Geo. 2. Peachey v. Bowes, spinster.

For more of Supersedeas in general, see Audita Duercia, Bail, Certiocari, and other proper titles.

Supplicavit.

(A) In what Cases granted, and how.

I. In supplicative of the peace the sheriff may make precept to take the body; for it is not like to re-dissession where the sheriff is judge and officer; but when the bailoff has taken the body, he shall not take surety, but the sheriff himself shall do it; per Choke. For it is a judicial power given to the sheriff by the writ of supplicavit, which cannot be assigned over; for a judge's power cannot be given over. Br. Office and Off. pl. 39. cites 9 E. 4.31.

2. Several persons had made disturbance in the church, and pulled ent the minister reading the divine service (viz. the common prayer) in the church, and carried him to the compter. Upon articles exhibited, the Court upon n it; and further advised to inform against >. 290. pl. 104.

Paich. 14 Car. 2. B. R.

Vol. XX.

3. A supplicavit was m which per Curiam was go good behaviour apticles, must be a constitute, that was in the order at the cles should be in bonn, but the clashes and an importance equato it was granted:

2 Keb 305, ph. 2 Hell, 19 and 20 Cer. 2 B. R.

Musgrave v. Sin John Pullington

4. A writ of supplicavit issued upon a petitive and articles exhibited. The desendant insisted, that the said writ issuing on petition, and not on a motion in court, nor any redorfement made on the back of the writ, as by the form of the statute is required, and but three of the said articles being sworn to, it is irregular; but the court on reading precedents, not we histanding the objections aforesaid, was fully satisfied, that the supplicavit was well granted and warranted. 2 Chan. Rep. 68. 24 Car. 2. sol. 390. Stoell v. Botelar.

before Jones J. of B. R. by habeas corpus, and bound by recognizance to him to appear the first day of the next term, which he did, and being in court, Maynard moved that the articles sworn in Chancery might be read here, and that they would bind him here, which the Court resused, for that they have no record before them, and the record in Chancery is not duly transmitted hither; but if the witnesses that swore to the first articles had been here and swore to them in court they would have done it, otherwise not, and this was at two several motions by Maynard; but the opinion of the Court was contra. Skin. 61. Mich. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Mullineux's case.

Lev. 53. S. P. Per Cur. but FosterCh. J. said, if any

6. Upon motion in B. R. for a supplicavit, Withens J. said, you must first exhibit your articles in parchment, and then move us. Comb. 28. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. Glover & Uxor. v. Glover.

fued to him for a warrant for the good behaviour, he would grant it. Hill. 13 & 14 Car. 2. B. R. Bill v. Neal:———Sid. 67. pl. 420 S. C. by name of Bill v. Field. And fays, the flatute wills, that no supplicavit shall be put upon articles exhibited.

7. When a supplicavit is moved for upon articles exhibited to the Court in parehment, &c. the plaintiff swears that he moves not for this out of hatred, &c. but for fear of his life, &c. Comb. 28. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. The King v. Lewis.

8. Upon a suplicavit the parties are to give security by bond to the sheriff to appear in this court, and when they come here they enter into recognizance. Comb. 427. Frin. 9 W. 3. B. R.

Russell's case.

- 9. Upon articles filed by A. against B. upon oath of assault and battery, and that he went in fear of his life, Ld. C. Macclesfield granted the writ, which commanded B. to find sureties for a twelvementh, ordering it to be indersed for 4000 l. for the party and his sureties be bound in. And upon motion to discharge the order, or at least to lessen the sum, B. being only tenant for life of his estate, and mentioned the statute (of 21 Jac. 8.) which gives costs in case of a groundless and vexatious complaint of this nature, Ld. C. Macclesfield resused, and said if B. complains of vexation, he comes too son; let him stay till the year is out, and behave himself quietly all that time, and if the sum be too great for his circumstances, there ought to be an affidavit to prove this; and so denied the motion. Mich. 1723. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 202. Clavering's case.
- no prosecution commenced against the defendant in all that time, the party was discharged on very slender security. Gibb. 268. Pasch. 4 Geo. 2. B. R. Grosvenor v. Edwards.
- 11. If a recognizance be taken pursuant to a writ of supplicavit, it must be wholly governed by the directions of such writ. 1 Hawk. Pl. C. 129. cap. 60. s. 15.

12. This

12. This writ is not much in use at this day. 1 Hawk. Pl. C. 128. cap. 60. s. 10.

For more of Supplicavit in general, see Good Behaviour, Return, (C), Surety of the Peace, and other proper titles.

Surety.

[101]

(A) In what Cases to be found.

SeeBail, &c.

1. IN writ of right after battle joined, the demandant and the tenant shall find surety of the battle at the day appointed, viz. for their champion, each two pledges, and the tenant shall first find surety, but upon no pain. Br. Surety, pl. 25. cites 1 H. 6. 7. 7.

2. Action upon the case for calling him villein, and the defendant claimed him as his villein, and had taken part of his goods; by which it was awarded that the plaintiff find surety that he do not essoin his goods, and the defendant find surety that he shall not seise any more of the goods of the plantiff, till it be tried if he be his villein or not. Br. Surety, pl. 30. cites 13 H. 7. 17.

(B) Surety. Chargeable. How far.

1. IN a scire facias upon a recognizance for rent and sarm of the excise, as sarmer thereof, he pleaded the act of general pardon 12 Car. 2. which excepts the rent but not the security; and by an explanatory act made anno 15 Car. 2. the securities of their surveies were made liable, but nothing is said of the sarmer's own securities. But the Court held, that a sortiori the sarmer's own securities should be liable, because the explanatory act mentions the securities of the sureties only: and it is strongly implied, by omitting them out of the latter act, that the parliament had no doubt upon them, but that they were excepted out of the act of oblivion. Besides, the securities of sarmers and their sureties are but the same securities in law; for all are principals with respect to the king. And since the sureties are bound, a sortiori the principals shall. And judgment was given accordingly. Hard. 424. pl. 1. Trin. 18 Car. 2. in Scac. The Attorney General v. Beston.

I 2

2. The

The reporter observes, that the bond was for money lent; and though the furety bad no adwantage, yet the obligee had parted with his money, and loss is as good a confideration for a promife, as benefit or profit. Ibid.

2. The obligee in a bond of 20 years old, exhibits his bill against the administrator of the principal, and the surety (upon loss of Els bond). The administrator says, by his answer, that he has no offets. Upon hearing the cause, it was directed to a trial, whether the furety had sealed and delivered the bond, and a verdiet had passed against the surety, (viz.) that he had sealed and entered into the bond. And the cause coming back to this court, and the plaintist's counsel praying a decree for the plaintiff's debt against the surety, Serjeant Fountain (not of counsel on either side) said it was doubtful whether equity should in this case bind the surety, who was not obliged in law, but in respect of the lien of the bond; and that being loft, and the furety having no benefit by, nor consideration for, being bound, he thought equity, after so long a time, should not charge the surety. The Master of the Rolls faid, he would fee to moderate and mediate this matter between the parties, in order to which he was several times attended by the plaintiff; and the defendant making default, he decreed for the plaintiff. And afterwards the cause was upon a case made [102] brought before my Lord Chancellor, who was of opinion with the Master of the Rolls, and decreed it for the plaintiff. Chan.

Cases, 77, 78. Mich. 18 Car. 2. Underwood v. Staney.

3. J. S. was indebted to J. D. by bond of 1000 l. to perform an award. By the award 2501. was due to the obligee; J. D. put the bond in suit against J. S. A bill is exhibited here to be relieved against the suit, and an injunction awarded on recognizances to abide the order on hearing. J. S. and F. as his furety, are bound in the recognizance, which was penned to pay what should be reported due by N. H. a master named in the deseasance or condition; but the master died before any report made, and so also did the obligor, who died intestate worth nothing. By the strict penning of the defeafance the recognizance is not fuable at law, because no report was made by the master; but the great question was, if the surety, who was not liable in law, should be made liable in equity; for the plaintiff had good remedy for a just debt, and justly proceeded to recover it; but the Court staid his suit, and takes ill security, which proves so, and the debt lost thereby; and therefore the Court is bound to do us right; and the intent of the Court was, that the debt, if due, should be secured, and the intent was not with reference to this or that master's report; for suppose that the Court had, during the life of the parties, transferred the references to another mafter, and he had made a report that should have bound; and in case of a bond lost, this Court have made a furety to pay it. Yet the Lord Chancellor contra; for the party is but a furety not bound by law. 2 Chan. Cases, 22. Hill. 31 & 32 Car. 2. Simpson v. Field.

4. A. and B. infants were made executors: administration during their minority was granted to M. their mother. Upon granting the administration the prerogative court took the usual bond from M. in which J. S. and W. R. defendants were bound as her fureties. B. died, but made his will, and A. executor; A brought his bill for an account of the testator's personal estate, and as to J. S. and W. R. suggested that by fraud and covin they bad got up their faid bond, and procured insufficient security to be accepted by the prerogative court in lieu thereof. The Lord Keeper, upon the first opening the matter, declared he would not charge the sureties further than they were answerable at law; and as to that part difmissed the bill. Vern. 196. pl. 193. Mich. 1683. Ratcliffe v. Graves & al'.

5. A bond creditor shall, in the court of Chancery, have the benefit of all counter-bonds or collateral security given by the principal to the furety; as if A. onves B. money, and he and C. are bound for it, and A. gives C. a mortgage, or bond, to indemnify him, B. shall have the benefit of it, to recover his debt. Abr. Equ.

Cases, 93. Mich. 1692. Maure v. Harrison.

6. A. is bound as a surety in a recognizance dated 5 May 1660, for payment of money, which happened not to be made good by the convention act for confirming judicial proceedings, the act not extending to that day. A. being a furety only, and having no consideration for entering into this recognizance, the Court would not make it good, nor allow it to be so much as a debt. The Lord Keeper dismissed the bill. 2 Vern. 393. pl. 364. Mich. 1700. Sheffield v. Ld. Castleton & Uxor.

7. A. tenant for life, with power to charge the premises by lease, mortgage, or otherwise, with 6000 l. mortgaged part for 1500 l. And afterwards, upon assignment over of the said mortgage, B. eldest fon of A. and who was the remainder-man in tail, covenanted to pay the mortgage-money; and the assignee covenanted to reassign to B.—A. died, and then B. died. It was agreed by Lord C. King, L. Ch. J. Raymond, and the Master of the Rolls, that the personal estate of B. is not liable to pay off this mortgage, in ease of the lands mortgaged; the charge being made by A. in purfuance of his power, and therefore the next remainder-man must be content to take the land cum onere; that this being * the original debt of A. his personal estate, if any were, would be liable; but B.'s personal estate ought not to be charged with A.'s debt; and notwithstanding B.'s covenant to pay, this covenant, since the land was the original debtor, will be considered only as a surety for the land, and therefore a bill by the next remainder-man to charge the personal estate of B. in ease of the land, was dis-2 Wms.'s Rep. 501. 566. Hill 1-31. Evelyn missed with costs. v. Evelyn.

*[103] Sel. Cales in Chancery, in Lord King's Time, 80. Mich. 1730. S.C.—S.C. arguedGibb. 131 to 144. and there, in pag. 142. it was argued, that the covenant of B. the fon, created a personal debt, and confequently fuch a debt as the perfonal estate is to difcharge, and not the real estare, according to the constant course of equity; and as to the objection, that the real effects is the principal debtor, so it is in all mortgages; and yet in all cases, where there is a competition between the real and the personal estate, that is preferred; which is the reason that the practice of the Court requires, that in all cases where the heir is to be charged, the executor must be brought before the Court. To this point was cited the case of hir John Napper and the Lady Effingham, which was, that a great part of Sir John Napper's estate was in mortgage. Then died Sir John, Sir Throphilus being his heir, who, up a his inter-marriage with the Lady Effingham, settled a jointure upon her, and covenanted to pay Sig John's cebts. Then died Sir Theophilus, policifed of a confidential personal estate, which came to his lady, the Lady Effingham; against whom Sir John Napper, the heir at law of Sir Theophilus brough. his bill, to have the personal estate of Sir Theophilus, upon his covenant, applied in discharge of the mortgages; and so it was decreed. But to this it was answered, that the principal case divers from that of Sir John Napper cited; the reason of which was, that part of the estate of the moregagoi was settled by a private act of parliament, in trust to pay his debre; which estate, so settled in routh was dispoted of by Six Theophilus, and then it was but just and equitable, that his person it estate should be applied to exonerate the mortgaged estate descended to the heir at law, because he was answerable for the truft estate, settled for that purpose. My Lord Chancellor, upon the last argument, said, it could not be expected the Court should then deliver their opinion; so that the matter stood thus for the judgment of the Court. Gibb. 142. 144. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. in Canc. in case of Evelyn v. Evelyn, and Evelyn v. Booth & Uzor.

.

(C) Disputes between Sureties themselves.

1. A. Mas sued upon the bond, and the whole penalty recovered But where A. and B. were bound against him: he exhibited an English bill into the court of rewith J. S. quests against B. to have contribution. A prohibition was moved for the proper debt of for to the court of requests, and granted; because by enter-J.S. toW.R. ing into the obligation, it became the debt of each of them wbo sued A. jointly and severally, and the obligee had his election to sue enly on the said bond. which of them he pleased, and take forth execution against him. A. brought And the Court said, that if one surety should have contribution hi bill against the other, it would be a great cause of suits, and thereagainst B. to make him fore the prohibition was awarded; and so it was said, it was contribute to lately adjudged and granted in the like case, in Sir WILLIAM pay the debt Whorwood's case. Godb. 243. pl. 338. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. and damages, J. S. Wormleighton v. Hunter. being infolvent; and the Court was of opinion, that B. ought to contribute a moiety; and decreed W. R. to assign over the bond to A. and B. to help themselves against J. S. for the said debt. Chan. Rep. 120. 13 Car. 1.

Morgan v. Seymour.

2. The plaintiff and defendant were jointly bound for a third Toth. 103. S. C.--person, who died, leaving no estate. The plaintiff was sued, and Where one paid the debt, and brought his bill against the defendant for conobligee, that tribution, who was decreed to pay his proportionable part. is a surety, is fued alone, Lord Coventry. Nelf. Ch. R. 10. Fleetwood v. Charnock. by the custom of the city of London, he shall make bis co-sureties contribute. Vern. 456. pl. 429. Pasch. 1687. Layer v.

Nelson.

2. Three are bound for H. in 300 l. and agree, that if H. failed, to bear their respective parts of the money. 'Two of the obligors borrowed money of A. on their bond, and paid the 3001. [104] The other obligor was insolvent; and now one of the two became insolvent, and the 3d paid A. the 300 l. The other obligor fle thall be compelled to pay a 3d part, not a moiety. Char. Rep. 150. 17 Car. 1. Swain v. Wall.

A. A., B., and C., are bound in a recognizance for J.S. A. was Chan. Cases, fued, and paid the money, who afterwards fued the principal debtor 246.Hill,26 & 27 Car. 2. " upon the counter bond, and had judgment, and took bim in ex-S. C. deecution; but he was discharged upon the 101, act. Then A. exerced that B. thould hibited a bill against B. to have contribution, C. being dead insolvent : contribute a and it was decreed, that he should have contribution. Fin. R. 15. moiety, and not a 2d part Mich. 25 Car. 2. Hole v. Harrison.

only. Fin. R. 203. S. C. decreed accordingly to pay a moiety. S. P. decreed 5 Car. 1. Chan. Rep. 34.

in the case of Peter v. Rich.

(D) Surety. How far. relieved in Equity.

A Man was furety for another for debt, and he and others were bound to lave him harmless; and after the surety said the money, and fued them who were bound; and pending this, the original debtor brought a subpæna in Chancery, alleging that before the obligation made he delivered goods to the surety for bis indemnification, and prayed a restitution, and that he be not charged; and the plaintiff prayed an injunction against the defendant, that he should not proceed at common law: but because the defendant said, that these goods were delivered for another cause, and so made title to them, the injunction was denied. Br. Conscience, &c. pl. 20. cites 16 E. 4. 9.

2. The plaintiff became bound with defendant's father for pay- A surery rement of money at a day which the plaintiff supposed had been paid accordingly, but it was not. The father dies three years after, upon whose death the obligee puts the bond in suit against the plaintiff; but in respect the bond was continued without the plaintiff's years, withprivity, the son (having a good estate from his father) and the feeffees, to whom the son had conveyed those lands in trust, were ordered to sell those lands for payment of the father's debts. Toth. 279, 280. cites 10 and 11 Jac. li. a. fo. 664. and 728. Saunders v. Churchill and Smith.

the bond is continued twelve out the plaintiff sprivity. Toth. 280. cites 12 Jac. fo. 81. Hare v. Michell.

lieved, where

3. The heir of a furety, where the bonds are continued without Nell. Chanthe privity of the surety, relieved. Toth. 280. cites Mich. or Hill. 5 Car. Moile v. Dom. Roberts.

Rep. 9. S. C. reports 18 thus, viz. about 13 years before the bill filed,. Moile the father became bound with one Rosecarrock in a bond of 2.01. conditioned for the payment of 100 l. to the Lord Roberts, the defendant, at a certain day long fince past. Afterwards the defendant purchased lands of the said Rosecarrock to the value of 500 l. which purchase was made about 4 years before Resecurrock's dearb. After his death, the plaint ff took out administration to him; and being sued upon this bond, exhibited his bill for relief. And in regard of the antiquity of the bond, and for that Rosecarrock himself was never sued in his life-time, it was presumed that the defendant did deduct the debt out of the purchase-money; and notwithstanding there were no proofs made of the payment of the money, the Court decreed, that the defendant should be restrained from proceeding at law on the bond.

4. A. was bound as furcty for B. and the debt was recovered. Where a against A.—A. having no counter-bond, brought his bill to recover the debt and damages against B. which was decreed bas accordingly by Lord Coventry. N. Ch. R. 24. Ford v. Stobridge. fer bond, by the city of London, he shall maintain an action against the principal. Venn. 456. Patch. 1687. Layer v. Nelfon.

5. J. S. grandfather of T. S. the defendant, and whose heir [105] and executor the defendant is, became bound with A. the father of B. the plaintiff, and whose heir B. is, in several bonds, as his furely for 4000 l. A. conveyed the manor of C. by way of mortgage to J. S. to counter-secure him against the said bonds for 4000 l. prevailed with J. S. to become bound with him afterwards for 2000?. more. Then A. paid off 1500 l. of the 4000 l. The bill was to be admitted to redeem upon payment of what J. S. or the defendant himself had paid off, or been dampnified by the bonds for the 4000 l. and what remained unpaid of the 4000 l. And the question was, whether the plaintiff, (inasmuch as there was no agreement proved, that the mortgage was to be a security to J. S. against the bonds for the 2000 l. as well as those for 4000 l.) should be admitted to redeem upon payment of the 4000 l. without the 2000 l.? Decreed, that if the plaintiff will redeem, he must save barmless the defendant, as well touching the 2000 l. as the 4000 l. upon this rule, that he that will have equity to help where the law cannot, shall do equity to him against whom he seeks to be relieved. The counsel for the plaintiff said, it was a just decree. Hill, 1667. Upon an appeal to the Lord Keeper Bridgman, the decree was confirmed. Chan. Cases, 97. Hill. 19 & 20 Car. 2. in Canc. St. John, Esq. v. Holford Baronet, and others.

Was

6. Plaintiffs in 1694. were bound as fureties for B. and bad counter-bonds. B. the principal was afterwards arrefled, and the defendant his brother became his bail, and judgment was obtained against the bail. The plaintiffs being sued on the original bond, were forced to pay the money; and now brought their bill to bave the judgment obtained against the bail assigned unto them, in order to be reimbursed what they had paid. Per Lord Chancellor: the bail stand in the place of the principal, and cannot be relieved on other terms than on payment of principal, interest, and costs; and the sureties in the original bond are not to be contributary. And therefore decreed the judgment against the bail to be assigned to the plaintiss, in order to reimburse them what they had paid, with interest and costs. 2 Vern. 608, 609. pl. 546. Pasch. 1708. in Canc. Parsons and Cole v. Dr. Briddock & al'.

7. Per Cowper C, where a person is security in a contract, there is a joint contract that the principal shall indemnify his security; and the ground of equity is, that when the money is due, the equity arises. But Sir Thomas Powis said, that one may exhibit his bill before the time of payment; but where the land, or land and person are both security, the estate stands at stake to enable the principal to owe it, as well as the security to pay it, or borrow it thereon. And the contract of the security is, that he shall continue to owe it on the credit thereof, and not to go to good the next day; for even in a personal security, you must the next day apply for a reimbilisement, for what was equity one day, is equity the next. Security R. 69. Pasch. 7 or 9 Ann. in cale of Hungerford v. Hungerford, sussissis. (E) Surety savoured, how; to enable him to re-

A. Seised of lands in see, was made receiver by the Master of the Rolls of an infant's estate, and entered into a receiver by the Master cognizance cognizance to the Master of the Rolls to account yearly, and B. and C. joined as sureties. Afterwards A. married, having settled part of the land on his wife before marriage in jointure, without notice of the recognizance to her, or her friends. A. devised all his real and personal estate to B. and made him executor, and died. It was decreed by the Master of the Rolls, that all the personal estate of A. should be first applied to satisfy the recognizance; adly, the land devised to B. the surety, the devise being voluntary, and the wife a purchaser; adly, the jointure lands, the jointress claiming under A. can be in no better ease than A. was. But if the lands devised are sufficient, then the bona paraphernalia shall be enjoyed by the widow; but if insufficient, then the bona paraphernalia must be subject before the sureties lands shall be extended. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 542. Trin. 1729. Tynt v. Tynt.

2. And though, in case of a recognizance to another person, the jointress should get an assignment, and extend it at law, it was held by the Master of the Rolls, that even at law the sureties might have an audita querela, insisting, that all the principal cognizor's lands, either in his own or the hands of his alienees, ought to be liable before any of the sureties lands be extended, notwithstanding it was objected, that she was a purchaser without notice. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 543. Trin. 1729. in case of Tynt v.

Tynt.

3. A. recovered in the court of Lynn against B. and when he was going to take out execution, B. offered to give him a note for the money, and to get one to join in it as security with him; which was done accordingly. After this A. commenced another action against the security, and recovered. Upon which the security paid the money, and now brought his action against the principal for so much money laid out to his use. This matter appearing at the trial, the defendant's counsel excepted, that the action would not lie. But Lord Raymond, who sat as judge of assize, was of opinion, that it would. Accordingly the plaintist proceeded in his evidence. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 26. Trin. 5 Geo. 2. Morrice v. Redwyn.

For more of Surety in general, see Bail, and other proper titles.

106]

Surety of the Peace.

(A) Lies for, or against robom. And in what Cases.

Hawkins fays, it feems the better opinion, that

1. If a man is a fraid of being beat by J. S. he shall have surety for the peace. Contra if he be afraid of imprisonment; for he shall have false imprisonment. Br. Peace, pl. 22. cites 17 E.

4. 4.

he who is threatened to be imprisoned by another, has a right to demand surety of the peace; for every unlawful imprisonment is an assault and wrong to the person of a man; and the objection that one wrongfully imprisoned may recover damages in an action, &c. and therefore needs not the surety of the peace, is as strong in the case of battery as imprisonment, and yet there is no doubt but that one threatened to be beaten may demand the surety of the peace. Hawk. Pl. C. 127. cap. 60. s. 7.

It seems agreed, that wherever a person has one man does threaten another man to kill him, beat him, or assault just cause to fear that another will
a writ unto the sherisf. F. N. B. 79. (G).

bouse, or do him a corporal burt, as by killing or beating him, or that he will procure others to do him such mischief, he may demand the surety of the peace against such person. Hawk. Pl. C. 127. cap. 60. s. 6.

Hawk. Pl. 3. If the busband threaten his swife to beat or to kill her, she shall 60. s. 4. have this writ. F. N. B. 80. (F).

says, it is certain that a wife may demand it against her husband threatening to beat her outrageously, and that a busband also may have it against bis wife; and cites Dalt. cap. 98. Lamb. 78. Crompt.

133. b. F. N. B. 80. (F), and 4 3 Lev. 128.

burn bis

This is misprinted, and should be 2 Lev. 128. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. B. R. and is the case of THE KING V. LD. LEE, who upon a habeas corpus granted upon affidavits of ill usage, imprisonment, and danger of her life (as had been done before in Sir Philip Howard's case) brought his wife into court, where they charged each other with unkindness; and she being in court, made oath that she went in danger of her life by him, notwithstanding several affidavits were made in court to the contrary, viz. of his good usage, the Court intended to have bound him with sureties, according to F. N. B. 80. & 239. † (B), but they declared that they could do no more than to bind him, and not to remove her from him.

+ This likewise seems misprinted, and should be 138. (E), the last paragraph.

A woman may have the peace against her bason for unreasonable correction. Mo. 874. pl. 1219. in Sir Tho. Seymour's case. ——Godh. 215. pl. 307. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. in S. C. accordingly.

A matter being before the court of Chancery, relating to husband and wife, and the Court being informed of his ill usage of her, a supplicavit de bono gestu was granted. 2 Vent. 345. Trin. 32 Car. 2. Sir Jerom Smithion's case.

4. Serjeant Hawkins says, it seems agreed at this day, that all persons whatsoever under the king's protection, being of sane memory, whether they are natural and good subjects, or aliens, or attainted tainted of treason, &c. have a right to demand surety of the peace. But that it has been questioned, whether Jews or Paguns, or persons attainted of premunire, have a right to it, or not. Hawk.

Pl. C. 126. cap. 60. s. 2, 3.

5. There is no doubt but that surety of the peace ought, upon a just cause of complaint, to be granted by any justice of peace against any person whatsoever under the degree of nobility, being of sane memory, whether he be a magistrate or a private person, and whether he be of full age, or under age, &c. But infants and seme coverts ought to find surety by their friends, and not to be bound themselves; and the safest way of proceeding against a peer, is by complaint to the Court of Chancery, or King's Bench. Hawk. Pl. C. 127. cap. 60. s. 5.

- (B) How obtained and granted. And Punishment See (A) pl.
 of wrongfully obtaining it.
- 1. BY the ancient course of law, a man ought to take his oath upon a book, before he have this writ, before a Master of the Chancery; but now they use to sue forth such writs by their friends, who will sue for them without any oath made; and the same is ill done, because they are many times sued more for vexation than for any good cause; and the justices of B. R. will not grant any writ for surety of peace, without making oath that he is in sear of corporal damage. And the justices of peace ought not to grant any warrant at the suit of any one, to find sureties of peace, if the party, who does require the same, will not take his oath that he requires the same not for malice, but for the safety of his body. F. N. B. 79. (H).

good behaviour, to be granted out of the Chancery or B. R. shall be wild, unless such process be granted upon motion made in open court, and upon declaration in writing, upon their corporal oaths by the parties which shall desire such process, of the causes for which such process shall be granted, and unless such motion and declaration be mentioned to be made upon the back of the writ, the said writing there to be entered and remain of record; and if it shall afterwards appear to the court, that the causes expressed in such writing be untrue, the judges shall award costs and damages unto the parties grieved; and the parties so effending may be committed until they pay the said costs and damages.

S. 3. All writs of supersedeas to be granted by either of the courts aforesaid shall be void, unless such process be granted upon motion, and upon such sureties as shall appear on oath to be affessed at sive pounds lands, or ten pounds in goods, in the subsidy-books, which oaths, and the names of such sureties, with the places of their abode, and where they stand assessed, shall be entered of record; and unless it shall also appear to the judges that the process of the peace or good behaviour is prosecuted by some party grieved.

8. 4.

- 8. 4. The judges of the courts aforesaid, upon proof of any mission meanors committed in the obtaining of writs of supersedeas, or procuring surety, may likewise punish the false and insufficient sureties, and the procurers thereof, so as such punishment extend not to life or member.
- 3. It was faid by the court, that if an offender be brought before a justice of peace, the party ought to tender sureties; and it doth not behoove the justice to demand it. Noy, 70. Colme v. Frome.
- 4. Every justice of peace is bound to grant it upon the party's giving him satisfaction upon oath that he is actually under fear that such a one will burn his house, or do him corporal hurt, or procure others fo to do, as by killing or beating him; and that he has just cause to be so, by reason of the others having threatened to beat him, or lain in wait for that purpose; and that he does not require it out of malice, or for vexation. Hawk. Pl. C. 127. cap. 60. s. 6.

(C) Taken. How, and by whom.

I T is a common opinion, that the security which the sheriff ought to take of the party who ought to find furcties for the peace, ought to be taken by bond, that is to say, to bind the party and his fureties by bond, that he keep the peace, and that he burn not the houses, &c. But now after the statute of I E. 3. cap. 16. which appoints that certain persons shall be assigned in the Chancery to keep the peace, there are other forms of writs for the ease of the people who will have the peace against other persons, which writs shall issue out of the Chancery; and some of them are directed unto the justices of the peace, and unto the sheriff, and some are directed unto the sheriff only. F. N. B. 80. (C).

ζ. If a man be in variance with other men, and he is in doubt that damage or hurt will come unto him, or his fervants, or his goods, by reason of this variance, then he shall have a special writ against them, directed to the sheriff, that he cause them to find security that they do not damage or hurt the other in his body, or his fervants, or other his goods, in a certain sum, &c. And if they will not find security, that then he arrest them and keep them in prison. until they will find furcties; and that the sheriff certify all that is done upon the same into the Chancery, upon pain, &c. as it appears by the register. And that security ought to be taken by recognizance, vs it seems; tamen quære. F. N. B. 80. (G),

(D) Proceedings after the Wist granted. [100]

If one who fears that furety of the demanded

1. TX/HEN a man has purchased writ of supplicavit, directed unto the justices of peace, or the sheriff, or both, then peace will be he against whom the writ is sued, may come into the Chancery, and there find sureties that he will not do hurt or damage unto him that that sues the writ, and then he shall have a writ of supersedeas out against him, of the Chancery, directed unto the justices of peace, or the sheriff, before any or one of them, reciting how that he has found sureties in Chancery justice of according to the writ of supplicavit, and reciting the writ of sup- the peace of plicavit, and the manner of security that he hath found, and the Tum of money in which they are bounden, commanding the justices ther before and sheriff that they surcease to arrest him, &c. or compel him to find or after a sureties, &c. And if they have arrested him for that cause, and for no other, that then they deliver him, &c. And if the party him, he may who ought to find sureties, cannot come into the Chancery to find such surety, then his friend may purchase a supersedeas in the from such Chancery for him, reciting the writ of supplicavit, &c. and that justice, fuch a one and fuch a one are bounden for him in the Chancery in such a sum, that he shall keep the peace according to the writ him from of supplicavit. And the writ shall be directed unto the justices arrest from of the peace and sheriff, that they, or some of them, take surety of the party himself, according to the writ of supplicavit for to the suit of keep the peace, &c. and that then they surcease to arrest him; and if they have arrested him for that cause, that then they deliver him. F. N. B. 81. (A).

finds furety the same county, ciwarrant is issued again have a fuperfedeas which hall discharge any other justice, at the fame party for whose security he has given fuch furety. Also it is said, that an appearance upon a recognizance of the peace, may be superseded by finding fureties in the Chancery or King's Bench; but this custom having been often abused, therefore the flatute of 21 Jac. 1. cap. 8. was made, [which see at (B) pl. 2.] Hawk. Pl. C. 128. cap. 60. s. 14.

2. Sometimes the writ of supplicavit is made returnable into the Chancery at a certain day; and if it be so, then if the justices do not certify the writ, nor the recognizance, and the security which is taken, the party who fued the supplicavit shall have a writ of certiorari, directed unto the justices of peace, to certify the writ of supplicavit, and what they have done thereupon, and the security which is found, &c. and so the party shall have such certiorari unto the justices of the peace, to certify the security taken upon supplicavit, although the writ of supplicavit be not returnable in the Chancery. F. N. B. 81. (B).

3. If a man demands surety of peace in the county against any man, he shall find sureties in the county before the justices of the peace, &c. He who demands the security may sue a writ of certiorari, directed unto the justices of peace, to remove the furety of peace, and the recognizance taken thereupon, and a rertify that recognizance and security taken, under the seus of h. julloes of peace, or one of them. F. N. B. 81. (C).

Breach what, and punished how.

1. CUrety of the peace is not broken without affray made, or battery, but surety de bene gerendo may be broken by a number of people, and by their harness, &c. Br. Surety, pl. 12. cites 2 H. 7. 2.

2. But it was held, that he who is bound to the peace, ought [110 7 to demean himself well in his behaviour and in company, not doing any thing which shall be a cause of breaking of the peace, or of putting the people in dread, fray, or trouble; and so it shall be intended of all concerning the peace, but not in misdoing of other things which do not concern the peace. Br. Surety, pl. 12. cites 2 H. 7. 2.

3. If a man has fued a writ against one directed unto the sheriff, and the sheriff take security of him to keep the peace, and afterwards he breaks the peace against him who demanded the same; he who demanded the furety of peace shall have attachment against him who found this furety. F. N. B. 80. (A).

4. And upon this writ the plaintiff shall recover damages, and the defendant shall be fined for his contempt, if he be found guilty. F. N. B. 80. (A).

(F) Cases relating thereto.

pl. 17. cites s. c.

IIO

Br. Pledges, 1. Respass by bill, where the defendant came versus curiam regis of C. B. to have answer in a plea of land, there came the defendant and affaulted, wounded, and menaced him, so that be durft not carry his charters and come without great costs, in contemptum regis, contra pacem & ad damnum, &c. & tam pro rege quam pro seipso sequitur by bill in C. B. and the defendant pleaded not guilty; and the defendant was compelled to find pledges of his good behaviour and the peace, and that he should do nothing to the plaintiff privately nor openly, by himself nor by others, &c. Br. Surety, pl. 11. cites 30 Aff. 14.

2. In surety of the peace against a prior or abbot, he bimself shall be bound with the sureties; but if it be chanon or monk, the sureties only shall be bound for him. Br. Surety, pl. 9. cites 36 H. 6. 23.

3. Where a man finds surety to keep the peace, and has day mense Pasche, he ought to appear at the day, though the party who demands the peace does not appear; otherwise he shall forfeit his bond; contra in action between party and party; the defendant who is bound to appear upon capias to keep his day, shall not forfeit his bond by his default, if the plaintiff does not appear at the same day. Br. Surety, pl. 10. cites 39 H. 6. 26.

4. In writ of privilege at London out of B. R. the sheriff of London returned inter alia, that the party was arrested for surety of the peace, and therefore he who took the peace was demanded in Bank, and if he did not come the prisoner should be discharged of the surety of the peace; but if he came and demanded surety of the peace, the furety of the peace should be granted to him in Bank; but the surety in Loudon should be discharged. Br. Surety, pl. 13. cites 2 H. 7. 4.

(G) Pleadings.

1. TATHEN a justice takes surety for the peace, it is not sufficient to say, that I. N. invenit sufficientem securitatem de pace, without naming the names of the surety and their sums, but he ought to name their names and sums. Br. Surety, pl. 13. cites 2 H. 7. 4.

Surmise and Suggestion.

For more of Surety of the Peace in general, see Bood Behaviour, Supplicavit, and other proper titles.

Surmile and Suggestion.

[111]

(A) In what Cases sufficient.

1. THOUGH no process be awarded against the king's debtor, yet if he be present in the Exchequer, he shall answer to the king immediately; per Ludlow. Per Fitzjohn, in case that it appears of record that he is debtor to the king, then he shall answer, but not upon furmise or suggestion; but there he shall come by process. Br. Surmise, pl. 26. cites 40 Ass. 35.

2. Suggestion was made in Chancery, that the prothonotaries of Br. Surmise, the king bad given certain land to R. C. grandfather to the lord C. pl. o. cites that now is, in tail, and that R. father of the lord purchased licence Ass. 15. 20to infeoff certain persons of the same land, and retook to him and Joan his feme in tail, the remainder to his right heirs, upon which fuggestion issued scire facias to T. M. who had espoused the feme of R. if he knew any thing to say why the king should not have restitution of the issues of the land during the nonage of the heir, who is now lord C. in ward of the king; who came and said, that the scire facias is not founded upon any record or office but upon suggestion, and tendered a demurrer, et non allocatur; by which he would have taken advantage of the warranty made by the fcollor; but it was faid for the king, that because the licence was obtained in descrit of the ting, he not perceiving his right, this cannot discontinue the revenue of the king, and therefore the king shall have the word, and the mesne is and be award the baron was charged of issues in right of two parts and discharged of the third part; for the has thereof eause of dower: and so see that suggestion or information shall serve in lieu of an office. Br. Surmise, pl. 30. (bis) cites 40 Aff. 36.

3. And if the land tailed the reversion to the king be recovered in value against the tenant in tail, and he dies, his heir within age, yet the king shall have the ward of the heir. Br. Surmise, pl. 30.

(bis) cites 40 Aff. 36.

4. In

4. In trespass where the defendant is returned in issues upon the distress, a man cannot surmise that he is dead, and pray that the process shall cease; but this ought to come in by the return of the sheriff, and not by suggestion. Br. Surmise, pl. 15. cites 22 E. 4. 1.

5. In appeal, the defendant confessed the felony and took to his clergy, the plaintiff made suggestion that he was taken at his fresh suit in Middlesex, whereupon the court wrote to Middlesex to inquire of the fresh suit and sound it, and he had restitution. Br.

Surmise, pl. 21. cites 2 R. 3. 13.

[112] (B) In what Cases sufficient to support Actions.

I. N. sued execution upon a statute-merchant, and writ issued to extend the land, which writ was not returned, and the conusor came and said that execution is made, and prayed venire facias upon audita querela; and it was granted to him upon this surmise, notwithstanding the writ was not returned. Br. Surmise, pl. 11. cites 39 E. 3. 30.

2. If an obligation is made by two, and the obligee brings action against the one, he may surmise that the other is dead or is an infant, or is a seme covert; and so where the obligation is made to two, and the one brings the action, he may surmise that the other is dead, or a monk professed. Br. Surmise, pl. 20. cites 32 H. 6. 30, 31.

3. Attaint upon conspiracy brought against 2, and the one pleaded not guilty, and the other pleaded another plea, and the issue found against both, and the one alone brought attaint, and assigned the salse oath in all that was said against him where they found damages of 1001. against both, and there the plaintist was compelled to abridge bis demand of the damages, for those are intire, and to proceed with his attaint of the principal. And there it was argued by divers, that he may make surmise that the whole execution was levied upon him, and so to maintain the attaint alone of the whole; et non allocatur; for it shall be intended that the execution was made as the judgment is, and as it is sued; and therefore judgment was as above, that he shall abridge his demand of the damages; quod nota. And so it seems that such surmise shall not serve. Br. Surmise, pl. 1. sites 24 H. 6. 30 & 35 H. 6. 19.

4. A man shall not have writ of melius inquirendum upon surmise. Br Sumis, pl. 17. cites F. N. B. 255.

(C) In what Usies inflicient to support Action in a Foreign County.

1. IN quare non admiss, the sheriss at the distress returned the bishop nihil, by which the plaintiss said that he had assets in London, and prayed distress there, and had it. Br. Surmise, pl. 2. cites 3 H. 4. 4.

2. In

2. In detinue the defendant prayed garnishment, and had it, 2 nibils were returned, and the defendant surmised that the garnishee had land in another county, and prayed process there, and had it upon his surmise. Br. Surmise, pl. 13. cites 6 E. 4. 11.

(D) In what Cases sufficient to inforce the doing a Thing.

1. I F the tenant in assist of novel disseisin, obtains writ to the justices to fend it into B. R. and the justices deliver it to the tenant, and be retains it, there upon suggestion the plaintiff may have writ to take the body of the tenant to deliver the record. Br.

Surmise, pl. 4. cites 1 Ass. 14.

2. Suggestion was made in B. R. that J. S. was indicted of [113] felony in the county of D. before the justices of peace, and was imprisoned for it in D. and prayed the Court to send for the body of the record. Knivet J. faid, we will not write without seeing the record before us, but you may have writ in Chancery to remove the body and the record before us. And so see that they would not grant his prayer upon suggestion. Br. Surmise, pl. 10. cites 41 Aff. 22.

3. Homine replegiando; the defendant avowed the imprisonment of the plaintiff as his villein regardant, &c. and the other said that frank, &c. and so to iffue, and the plaintiff suggested that the defendant bad taken his goods, and prayed deliverance; to which the defendant said nothing; by which writ issued to make deliverance, and the defendant took exception to the allegation of the plaintiff, saying that this is a count without original; et non allocatur; for it was said that it was a surmise, and not a count, by which he had his goods without furety to re-deliver them to the avowant, if the issue passed for the defendant. And per tot. Cur. the attorney of the defendant shall gage deliverance well enough. Br. Surmise, pl. 12. cites 5 E. 4. 8.

4. Matters of record ought not to be stayed upon the bare suggestion or surmise of the party; but there ought to be an affidavit made of the matter suggested, to induce the Court to ground a rule for staying the proceedings upon the record. Whom 50. B. R.) For the law favours not the stopping of the proceedings in law, except there be very good cause for it. I. F. R. 53.

tit. Suggestion.

In what Cases sufficient to inforce the doing a (E)Thing. Pleading.

I. IN debt of 20 l. upon an obligation, the defendant pleaded acquittance, that the plaintiff had acquitted him of 20% due to him, for 20s. rent bought by the defendant of the plaintiff; and therefore the defendant surmised in fact, that the plaintiff was leised of the YOL. XX.

Surplulage.

20 s. rent in D. and sold it to the defendant for the 20 l. which 20 l. is the same 201. contained in the obligation of which the acquittance is made. And good matter in inforcing the acquittance; per tot. Cur. and the plaintiff said that he sold to the defendant 20 acres of meadow in D. for the 201. for which the obligation was made, absque hoc that the obligation was for the 201. which was for the 20 s. rent, prist; and the others e contra, and a good issue. Br. Surmise, pl. 22. cites 3 H. 7. 16.

(F) At what Time. After Judgment.

I. I N dower the tenant confessed the action, and the demandant re-covered, and after the judgment the demandant surmised that the baron died seised, and prayed writ to inquire of the damages, and had it after judgment; quod nota. Br. Surmise, pl. 16. cites 14 H. 8. 25.

[114]

Surplusage.

(A) In Pleadings.

Br. Nugation, pl. 10. cites S. C.

Ormedon in descender, and counted of a gift made to one of a reversion by fine in tail, the remainder to his ancestor in tail, and alleged seisin in his ancestor by force of the tail, and conveyed himself heir, and the tenant prayed that he shew the fine, because he counted upon the fine. But per Hill and Hank, he need not; for he has shewed the fine executed; and therefore it is only surplusage, and a thing to which you shall not have anfwer; and so was the best opinion. Br. Nugation, pl. 4. cites 11 H. 4. 39.

Surpluisge on the part of the plainriff or defendant shall abate the writ by the 3. Contrary on the part of the defendant in action, where process common lanu; of outlawry lies; note the difference. Br. Nugation, pl. 11. cites per Pafton for law; 9 H. 5. 5.

2. Addition of executor, administrator, carpenter, &c. on the part of the plaintiff, where he is not executor, administrator, or carpenter, or if he be named J. N. of D. where he is of S. this is only furplusage, which shall not prejudice. Br. Nugation, pl. 11. cites 9 H. 5. 5.

quod non negatur. Br. Nugation, pl. 2. cites 9 H. 6. 1.

Bus now in action where process of outlawry lies, he ought to give addition to the defendant; and this shall not abate the writ. Contrary on the part of the plaintiff at this day; per Paston for law; quod non negatur. Br. Nugation, pl. 2. cites o H. 6. 1.

Action against J. N. and offign was cast by J. N. of D. and therefore was disallowed; and so see that surplusage that hurt on the part of the defendant sometimes. Br. Nugation, pl. 24. cites 18 E. 4. 4.

4. Debt by J. N. administrator, &c. or executor, &c. and counts of a duty due to himself, it is well; for this word executor or administrator is nugation. Br. Nugation, pl. 18. cites 9 H. 5. 5.

5. Entry in nature of assise of a disseisen done to his father. Ful-. thorp pleaded actio non; for your father, whose heir you are, infeoffed us in fee without condition, and gave colour. faid he infeoffed you upon condition, &c. and for the condition broken he re-entered, and was seised till by you disseised; and held a good plea and good confession, and avoiding, notwithstanding that the defendant alleged the feoffment to be without condition; for those words (without condition) are woid, unless the defendant claims by the condition to have the land by the performance of it; by which the defendant said that he infeoffed him simply, absque boc that he infeoffed him upon condition, prout, &c. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 45. cites 9 H. 6. 55.

6. Solvendum to the obligor in an obligation, is surplusage.

Nugation, pl. 19. cites 4 E. 4.

Br. Br. Obligation, pl. 47. cites 4 E. 4. 29. S. Pi

7. Debt against the provost and scholars of a college in Cambridge, because T. M. late provost, predecessor of the defendant, and the scholars by F. their servant, bought 2 bells of the plaintiff for 40 l. here at London, where the action is brought, which came to the use and profit of the college aforesaid; and after T. M. was removed from the provostship, and the defendant was elected and made provost, and the defendant, being often requested, did not pay. And, by All the fome justices, the buying of the provost and the * college cannot editions of be good; nor by the abbot and covent, + dean and chapter, baron and feme; for it is only the buying of the dean, provost, abbot, but it seems or baron, for the others shall not be but as dead persons in mis-printed the law. And by some justices the contract is good, and shall be intended the bargain only of the provost, and the name of the scholars is not but surplusage; for the contract of the provost, and the original. the coming to the use of the college, is the effect of the matter. Br. Corporations, pl. 53. cites 5 E. 4. 70.

8. Detinue of charters against J. N. son and heir of J. N. and Contra in counted of bailment made by the plaintiff to the defendant; who said, that he is son and heir of W. and not son and heir of J. N. Pet or in detinue Moyle; this is no plea, because it is of his possession, and not brought against bim against bim as beir, and so it is surplusage; as in trespass, de son ibid. tort demesne is no plea. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 235. cites 10 E. 4. 12.

9. Writ of entry upon 5 R. 2. that be entered into such land; which N. gave to him in tail; and by award of the Court those words (which N. gave to him in tail) were struck out; quod nota, for surplusage. Br. Nugation, pl. 15. cites 15 E. 4. 24.

10. But where in affise of rent, if the plaintiff makes title in his plaint to a rent-charge, the defendant shall answer to it; for this is material. Note the difference. Br. Nugation, pl. 15. cites 15 E. 4. 24.

Brook are (contract); for (college) and that is agreeable to L. 5to E. 4. 73. b. 74. a. † [II5] debt againft

11. In debt upon a bond, if the plaintiff counts that the defendant made it when he was of full age, the defendant may plead nonage, without traversing the full age; for this is not material, nor usual in the count; per Littleton. Br. Nugation, pl. 15. cites 15 E. 4. 24.

12. Surplusage is no bar nor estoppell. Arg. Godb. 380. in Brooker's case, cites 9 E. 4. 24. 7 E. 4. 19.

Cro. E. 183. pl.6. Pasch. 32 E iz. S. C. accordingly.

13. In trespass the plaintiff declared, that the defendant vi & armis broke his close and entered; and blada tritici, &c. conculcavit & consumpsit, nec non herbam suam, &c. pedibus ambulando conculcavit & consumpsit continuando transgression' præd' quoad depasturationem, conculcationem, &c. herbæ, &c. The plaintiff had verdict. And it was assigned for error, that the plaintiff supposed a continuance of the trespass in depasturing of the grass, whereas nothing of that was mentioned before; for the trespass was laid in conculcatione & consumptione herbæ, pedibus ambulando. But this was held to be furplufage, and the judgment was affirmed. Mo. 684. pl. 944. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. in the Exchequer-chamber. Short v. Hellyar. 14. When a man meddles with a thing which is but surplusage,

2 Bulf. 174. S. P. in Heydon's cafe, by Coke; and that if he which he needed not to do, he must recite the same substantially; otherwise his plea will be vitious. Per Coke Ch. J. Godb. 248. pl. 345. in Sir Christopher Heydon's case, cites 4 Rep. Palmer's casc.

commits any contrariety in this recital, this writ shall abate; and said, that to this purpose it appears at large in Pl. C. 84, 85. in Partridge and Croker's case.

> 15. It is surplusage for a plaintiss in trespass to make a title to bimself in his declaration. 2 Bulst. 288. Mich. 12 Jac. Willamore v. Bamford.

> 16. An action of trespess brought, and a continuando of the trespass unto the day of the suing forth the plaintiff's original, te wit, the 20th day of November, which day was after the fuing forth of the original. And because the jury gave damages for the whole time, which ought not to be, it was moved, that the judgment upon the verdict might stay; but by the whole Court the videlices was held idle, and judgment given for the plaintiff. Brownl. 234.

Brown!. 235. S. C. fays the Court was of opinion, that it was helped by the statute of jeofails, and the word (pater) was idle, and judgment was given for the plaintiff.

• [116] Hill. 13 Jac. Forrest v. Headle. 17. In trespass for taking his horse, the defendant pleaded, that J. H. was seised in fee, and granted a rent, &c. for which he distrained, &c. * The plaintiff replied, that before the grant of the rent, W. H. was seised, who had issue J. H. the elder, and J. H. the younger; and that he devised his lands to his said 2 sons in tail, and died; and that J. H. the eldest died without iffue; and that J. H. the younger had iffue A. H. and died; and that the faid A. H. gave leave to the plaintiff to put in his horse, absque hoc, quod pred. J. H. pater, was seised in fee, prout, &c. Upon issue it was found for the plaintiff. It was objected, that here was no issue at all, because the desendant had not pleaded quod J. H. pater was seised in fee, as the traverse was. But the plaintiff had judgment; for though pater be added, yet the words, without pater, bind it to that person, that the defendant had pleaded; and that (pater) is but John, and can do no hurt, especially since it may stand true that he was pater, as if it had been traversed absque hoc quid pradictus J. H. generesus, &c. otherwise if it had been absque boc quod pred. W. H. which could not be taken for the same person. Hob. 116. pl. 144. Trin. 14 Jac. Blackford v. Alkin.

that

18. In an action of escape against the sheriss, upon a mesne So in debt process, the defendant pleaded, that he had taken the party upon a latitat; and that in bringing of him from Islington pradicto he was rescued, and so returns the rescue; and exception taken to the defenthe (prædicto) because there was no Islington mentioned before. But Coke Ch. J. held, that the (prædict.) was surplusage, and idle, The plainand judgment was entered against the plaintiff. 3 Bulst. 198, 199. Trin. 14 Jac. Proby v. Lumley.

upon a bond to perform or award, dant pleads nul agard. tiff replies, and fersout an award, that the defendant should pay to the plaintiff 661. at the house of the plaintiff apud Sevennak prædictum, and affigns a breach in non-payment. And exception was taken to the prædictum, because there was m Sevenak mentioned before; but resolved, that the prædictum was void. But the plaintiff had judgment notwithstanding. Lutw. 551. Mich. 11 W. 3. Lambert v. Kingsford. - S. C. cited 2 Lord Raymond's Rep. 1183. Trin. 4 Annæ, in case of the Queen v. Mackarty and Fordenburgh.

19. J. S. granted a rent-charge to baron and feme, during the life of the feme. The baron dies. The feme survives, and takes administration to the baron. The rent was behind in life of the baron. In replevin the defendant made conusance, as bailiff of the feme, as administratrix of her baron, setting forth the grant. It was objected to the conusance as bailiff to her, as administratrix, when the was intitled by survivorship. But the objection was overruled, because the conusance as administratrix is void, idle, and superfluous. Brownl. 171. Hill. 15 Jac. Brown v. Dunry.

20. Debt upon bond, conditioned to pay 101. on the 14th day of Cro. J. 549. July; the defendant pleaded payment on the 14th day of July. The plaintiff replied, that he had not paid it prædicto 14 die Augusti, quo eidem solvend. fuit. The jury found, that he paid it on the 14th day of July. Upon a writ of error in B. R. the error affigned was, that the 14th day of August was not mentioned before: but nythan. But the Court held, that the word (August) is only superfluous, and that the issue was not joined upon that, but upon the aforesaid 14th day; and so affirmed a judgment given in C. B. Palm. 74, 75. Hill. 17 Jac. B. R. Halsie v. Bointon.

550. pl. 11. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. $. C. by name of Hall v. Bosays, that Haughton was contra. ----2 Roll. Rep. 135. Haise v. Bomithan. S. C. adjornatur. Mich. 17 Jac. But Monntague Ch. J. and Doderidge, were of opinion as here; but Haughton contra. But they faid, that if the represention had been non folwit 14 die Auzusti, leaving out the word (prad. Ho), then it had not been a good iffue joined. And Dode idge J. relied much upon the finding of the jury, because they found the non payment the 14th day of June; but had they found the non payment the 14th day or August, the case had been more dubitus.

21. In action upon the statute for tithes de viginti acris terræ sor three years de quibus quidem triginta acris, no tithes were paid, &c. After a verdict for the plaintiff it was moved that it might be amended and made (viginti), as it was in the first part of the declaration, and as the truth of the matter really was; but fince all the rolls were (viginti) it was held not amendable, but it being after verdict the Court thought it well enough, and that the word (triginta) in the declaration was only surplusage; for de quibus \mathbf{K} 3 quidem guidem acris is well enough, for it cannot be intended but of 20 acres. Sid. 135. pl. 9. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Fanshaw v.

[117]

Mildmay.

S. C. cited by Powell J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 195. Pasch. 9 W. 2. in case of Reynoldson y. Blake.

22. The distringus against jurors was returnable tres Trin. &c. niss prius venerit M. Hale mil' capital baro, &c. on such a day ejusdem mensis Junii, whereas no month of June was mentioned before; after verdict this was moved in arrest of judgment as a disconti-The Chief Baron and the whole Court held that the nuance. word (ejusdem) shall be void, and the word (Junii) shall be intended June next ensuing; as a covenant to pay money at Michaelmas, shall be intended Michaelmas next. Hard. 330. pl. 4. Trin. 15 Car. 2. Anon.

23. E. N. the administrator of G. N. brought an action of debt upon a bond due to the intestate, and sets forth that the adminiftration was granted to him, but in the conclusion of his declaration, he says, profert hic in Curia literas, &c. prafato, &c. G. instead of prafato E. The defendant pleaded a frivolous plea, and upon demurrer it was insisted for the defendant, because of this variance of G. instead of E. But per Cur. (præsato G.) are only furplusage, and thall not vitiate the matter preceding, which was sufficient without them. And judgment was given for the plaintiff. 2 Jo. 219. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Nonne v. Maxey.

8 Nelf. Abr. 262. pl. 10. cites S. C. out of Lutw. and fays it was held to be furplujage.

- 24 In debt the plaintiff declared upon a bill penal of 60 l. dated 1 May, for payment of 331. on 1 Nov. and averred that the said 601. was not paid, and upon demurrer one exception among others was taken to the declaration, that the plaintiff averred the defendant had not paid præd. sexaginta libras, when the word (sexaginta) was not mentioned before, and he should have alleged that the faid 33 l. gwere not paid; for otherwise the sum penal did not become due, and yet it is demanded in the action; Curia advisare vult. the reporter fays, quære, if the word (sexaginta) shall not be taken to be void, and as if it had not been alleged, there being no fuch sum of 601. by the bill to be paid upon the 1st Nov. and then it is all one as if he had faid that the defendant non solvit præd, libras quas solvisse debuit super præd. primum diem Novembris, and cited several cases. Lutw. 445. 450, 451. Mich. 3 Jan. 2. Bell v. Bolton.
- 25. In debt upon bond for performance of covenants the plaintiff assigned a breach generally; the defendant demurred, for that it is aid (as in the aforesaid indenture is mentioned) where no indenture was mentioned before, but it was conceived [by somebody, but fays not by whom, but only that I conceive] that utile per inutile non vitiatur, and that the word [aforesaid] is not only surplusage but void, as the viz. was in Hob. 169. which in Stukely and Butler's case was deemed void. 2 Sid. 63. Hill. 1657. B. R. Longvil v. Damport.

bail top ch I that any judgment given in this tale is mentioned in 2 Lutw. 919.

26. Trespass for an assault and false imprisonment for 40 hours; the defendant pleaded that the plaintiff was outlawed, and that a capias utlagatum was prosecuted against prædict John Fowler (the plaintiff) whereas his true name was George, and so justifies by virtue of a warrant ou a capias utlagatum, and upon demurter to this plea the defendants had judgment; for the plaintiff was &c. which named through all the proceedings, but in this place where it was faid, that a capias utlagatum was profecuted against prædict' Johannem, therefore the word Johannes shall be rejected as surplufage, and then the plea will be, that a capias utlagatum was prosecuted against prædict. Fowler. 3 Nels. a. 262. pl. 11. cites 2 Lutw. 919. Fowler v. Holmes & al'. 1 Lev. 428. S. P. 450. S. P. Yelv. 182. S. P.

exgument in ten terms, it is probable it was never argued afterwards; and that as to the point here no authority was cited. And as to the books mentioned to be S. P. there feems some great mistake.

27. The plaintiff declares, that he was seised of an ancient 5 Mod. 206. watercourse and mill, and that the defendant being conusant thereof, diverted the said watercourse so that it could not flow to his mill for so long time in certain, eo quod molare non potuit, &c. After verdict for the plaintiff it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the hindrance of the grinding is designed to be the git of the action, and therefore it ought to be shewn expressly, but here it is not shewn intelligiby; for it should be molere, which signifies to grind, but molare has no fuch fignification. Sed non allocatur; for per Holt Ch. J. & totam Curiam, where the all implies a tort of itself, a per quod is not necessary to support the action, but only aggravates the damages. Now here it appears a tort without the per quod; for it is said that the watercourse could not flow to his mill, and therefore it is good, especially after verdict. Judgment for the plaintiff. Ld. Raym. Rep. 102. Mich. 8 Will. 3. Richards v. Hill.

28. The plaintiffs brought quare impedit for hindering them to present to the church of Saint Andrew's Wardrobe in London, and aver, that the indowment of the rectory of the church of Saint Andrew's Wardrobe was of greater annual value than the indowment pradicta vicaria ecclesia of Saint Ann Black-frier's. It was objected by the defendant's counsel, that the plaintiffs have not made a sufficient averment as to this point; for the plaintiffs have averred that the indowment of the church of Saint Andrew's Wardrobe is of greater value than the indowment (prædicæ) vicariæ ecclesiæ de Saint Anne's Black-frier's, whereas no mention was made of any vicarage before, to which this relative word (prædictæ) can refer, and so the indowment, which is a substantial part, is not traversable. But the whole Court resolved, that the averment was sufficient, for they would reject the word (prædictæ) as surplusage. Ld. Raym. Rep. 192. &c. East. 9 W. 3. Reynoldson v. Blake and the Bishop of London

29. In trespass the plaintiff declared of taking cattle at D. parvum predict. &c. It was objected that the declaration was ill because no mention was made of D. parvum before, and therefore it is a declaration of a trespass in no place, but the Court said they would reject the (prædict.) as surplusage. Ld. Raym.

K 4

Rep. 237. Trin. 9 W. 3. Lambert v. Cook.

Suys the case was ordered to be argued again, but that by its not being entered in the prothonotary's book for [118]

Pasch. 8 W. 3. S. C. and held that the word (molare) being insenfible, no damages could be given for it, and that the declaration had been good if that part of it had been left out, fo that the plaintiff had his judgment. 3 Lev. 435. s. c.

30. In trespass of taking cattle the defendant pleaded a lease from J. S. the plaintiff replied a former lease still in being to him, and traversed the lease to the desendant; the desendant demurred because the plaintiff, non traversat the last lease, &c. The Court said, that as to the word (non) since it is contrary to the record, they would reject it as surplusage. Ld. Raym. Rep. 237, 238. Trin. 9 W. 3. Lambert v. Cook.

31. Indeb. aff. for money had and received by the defendant for the plaintiff ad usum of the defendant, and verdict on non ass. for the plaintiff. Held on motion in arrest of judgment, that those words (ad usum of the defendant) should be rejected because insensible and repugnant. I Salk. 24. pl. 7. Pasch. 13 W. 3.

B. R. Palmer v. Stavely.

5 Mod. 327.
S. C. but
S. P. does not appear.
—2 Salk.
451. pl. 2.
S. C. but
S. P. does not appear.

12 Mod. 510. S. C.

accordingly.

----Ld. Raym 669.

S. C. ac-

Cordingly.

32. In debt brought by the college of physicians exception was taken, that it was said in the declaration, that the defendant by the space of so many months ante exhibitionem billa, scilicet the 23d of August, practised physic, &c. which was impossible; but it ought to have been from the 23d, &c. To which it was answered and agreed by the Court, that the words 23d of August coming in after a scilicet, if they were repugnant to that which went before, should be rejected, and then the declaration would be good for so many months ante exhibitionem billæ. 1 Ld. Raym. Rep. 681, 682. Trin. 13 W. 3. in case of the President and College of Physicians v. Salmon.

[119]

33. In error of a judgment in C. B. the plaintiff assigned the want of an original, to which the desendant pleads a release of errors in the said judgment, et hoc paratus est verificare unde petit judicium si prædictus the plaintiss breve de errore prædictum prosequi aut manutenere debeat of quod idem judicium in omnibus assirmetur. It was objected to this plea because the conclusion of it prayed that the judgment might be affirmed, whereas it was said it ought to be upon the estoppel; but it was resolved, that the beginning of the plea and the conclusion of it, till you come to those words, et quod idem judicium, &c. was proper and right, and therefore the addition of those words should be rejected; and Powell J. said he wondered how it could be fancied to be an estoppel. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1052. Mich. 3 Annæ. Davenant v. Raster.

For more of Surplusage in general, see Abatement of Writz, Arbitrement, Avowry, Judgment, Trial, and other proper titles.

Surrender.

Surrender furfum redditio properly, is a yielding up of an estate for life, or years to

(A) † What Persons [may surrender]. Good, in respect of their Estates.

F ol. 494.

him that has

[1.]F t two jointenants, and to the heirs of one, he who has for life cannot surrender to his companion for the joint posses- reversion or from in them. 22 H. 6. 51. Curia.]

an immediate estate in remainder, wherein the estate for life or years may drown by mutual agreement between them. Co. Lit. 337. b .---- † See (B) —- (C) pl. 1, 2, 3, 4.

1 S. P. Put in such case tenant in common may. Mo. 388. pl. 506. Arg. in Perrot's case cites

22 H. 6.

If I infooff two, habend' to them and the beirs of the one, there he who has franktenement cannot furrender to the other by reason of the joint possession; for there the franktenement cannot merge in the reverfor; by reason that he who has the fee is jointly seised of the possession with him who surrendered, and et is not properly a furrender, but where he who surrenders gives possession to him who takes by the surrender. Per tot. Cur. except Port. Br. Surrender, pl. 13. cites 22 H. 6. 51.

[2. Tenant for life may surrender to him in remainder for his life, for his estate for his own life is more high to him than the estate for the life of the leffee. 24 E. 3. 32. b.]

Perk. s. 590. S. P. cites 22 H. 7. 11. and lays, that in the same manner as it is of land it is likewise of all rents, commons, corodies, &c. mutatis mutana dis, &cc.

[3. If baron and feme jointenants for life are, the baron may well It is not furrender to him in reversion; and this shall bind the baron, though it shall not bind the wife, nor shall be any discontinuance to her; nature of a yet this is good furrender during the life of the baron. Contra, 17 H. 7. Kelloway, 42.]

good, because the furrender is to give abfolutely all the estate for term of life; which cannot be here for the interest of the feme by words of surrender.

Kelw. 41. pl. 5. per Frowike.

Perk. f. 612. fays, it is a good furrender during the coverture; and if the husband dies before the wife, or if they be divorced, ausa pracentractus, the wife may enter and defeat the surrender, notwithstanding that he, to whom the surrender was made, died seised of the land in his demesse as of fee, and his bear be in by Jescent. The same law is, If the surrender be made by the husband and wise, &c. | [120]

4. Scire facias to execute a fine by the heir of S. who was in remainder in fee by the fine. The case was, that fine was kivied to A. for life, the remainder to J. in tail, the remainder in fee to S. who were three brothers; and after A. Jurrendered to J. and then S. died without iffue, and after J. died without iffue; and the plaintiff brought the scire facias to execute the fine, as heir of S. And the tenant pleaded, that A. after the death of J. and S. entered, que estate be has, and so the fine executed. And Thorp held, that the surrender of the estate of A. to J. was only the estate of A. and that J. had J. had the estate of A. but only during the life of A. and that if J. had died, living A. quod occupanti conceditur, which seems to be a great error, for Finch contra, and that this was a full surrender. And by this the estate of A. is merged in the tail, and the estate tail of J. executed, and his seme shall be endowed; and that J. might have vouched by the warranty of the tail in the life of A. and therefore the plaintiss made another answer to the plea of the tenant; quod nota. Per Thorp; if A. had charged and surrendered, J. should hold charged during the life of A. which seems to be law. Br. Surrender, pl. 4. cites 24 E. 3. 9.

5. In assise it was said, that if a man leases land for term of life, and after grants the reversion to J. N. for term of life, and the tenant attorns, and they both surrender, that this is no good surrender to him in reversion for term of life. The reason seems to be, inasmuch as it does not lie in grant, but by deed. But Grene said, it was a good surrender; but he was not precise, but awarded the assise for another cause; quod nota. Br. Surrender, pl. 31. cites 47 Aff. 46.

6. A surrender may be made by tenant for term of life to him in reversion, upon condition, well enough; and so it was, viz. rendering rent, and for default of payment a re-entry. It seems that this ought to be done by deed indented. Br. Conditions, pl. 156.

cites 14 E. 4. 6.

7. Where a feme has a lease for years, and takes baron, the baron may give or surrender, or forfeit it, but he cannot charge it; but the law shall charge it to the king for debt. Br. Surrender, pl. 44. cites 22 E. 4. 37.

8. In writ of entry it was agreed, that the furrender of one executor is good for both; quod nota. Quære, of the default of one executor, upon resceipt after plea pleaded. And the case was, that 2 executors prayed to be received to save their farm by the statute of Gloucester, and after the one made default, and came, and would have surrendered, and was not suffered; for the Court had no warrant but to record his default. The reason seems to be, inasmuch as he is not party to the original, but comes a latere by the resceipt. Br. Surrender, pl. 22. cites 21 H. 7. 25.

9. If there be lesse for years of land, the remainder of the same land to a stranger for life, the remainder to another in see, and during the years he in the remainder for life surrenders to him in see, it is a good surrender. Perk. s. 605.

franger for life, and takes a husband, and the lesse grants his estate unto the husband, this is no surrender; and yet the husband is seised of the reversion in see, which is immediate to the estate of the lesse, viz. in the right of his wise, and not in his own right, &c. Perk. s. 622.

11. Feme tenant in tail made a lease for years, and then took baron, and died. The baron, being tenant by the curtesy, surrendered to the

S. P. Br. Charge, pl. 1. cites 9 H. 6. 52.—— S. P. Perk, £ 612.

Ow. 83, Paich. the issue. It was held per Curiam, that the issue shall avoid the 6 Elis. in C. B. Powlease. Mo. 8. pl. 30. Pasch. 3 E. 6. Anon.

S. P. exactly, and seems to be S. C. And Dyer doubted whether this surrender be good; because tenant by the curtesy is but in reversion, and has nothing in possession, and it is dubious how he can surrender. But Weston and Brown held, that he may surrender; for a term or franktenement may be surrendered to him that hath the estate in reversion or remainder, if it [there] be not a messe estate, as tenant for life, the remainder for life, the remainder in see; the first tenant for life cannot surrender to him that has the see. But the great point was, whether the issue could avoid the lease during the life of the tenant by the curtesy; and the Court held he could not, for the tenant is in as a purchasor.—Dal. 65. pl. 28. S. C.

Per Dyer. Dal. 32. pl. 17. anno 3 Eliz. Anon.

S. P. unlese in special cases. Perk.

1. 599.——And therefore if lesse for life, or for years of land, be oussed of the land by a stranger, and after the ousser, and before his entry, he does surrender unto his lessor, it is no good surrender; because he has but a right at the time of the surrender, &c. Perk. s. 600.

So if a woman has title to bave deever by the common law, and the furrenders unto bim, against whom for earght to have dower, it is a void surrender. Perk. s. 600.

13. A. leases to B. for 21 years. B. makes an under-lease to C. for 10 years, and then B. granted the residue of the term to D.—A. leases to E. for 21 years to commence after the determination, surrender, &c. of the lease to B. Asterwards A. grants the reversion to J. S. C. and D. attorned; and afterwards C. and D. surrendered to J. S. Per Cur. the surrender by D. is good; for inasmuch as the interest, which D. had at the time of the surrender, was a reversion in B. after his grant to C. and there it remained, and continued in its nature, as to that point, notwithstanding that by the grant it passed in another manner than as a reversion. 3 Le. 95, 96. pl. 138. Trin. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Gurney v. Saer.

14. Tenant at will cannot furrender. Per Gawdy J. Cro. E. 156. pl. 39. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. B. R. in the case of Sweeper v.

Randal.

15. A. bad 2 sons, B. and C.—A. was tenant for life, remainder Le. 176. to B. and C., for life. C. purchased the reversion in see; and then A. and B. surrendered to C. without deed. Per Fenner J. the surrender is void; for if it be good, it must first be the surrender of him in remainder, which cannot be without deed; and it cannot be the surrender of the first tenant for life to him in remainder, because there is no word of surrender between them. Cro. E. 269. pl. 9. Hill. 34 Eliz. B. R. Perkins v. Perkins.

16. Tenant by extent may surrender to him in reversion. Per Ventris J. 2 Vent. 328. in case of Dighton v. Greenvill, cites

4 Rep. 82. Corbet's case.

17. Bargaisse before entry may surrender, assign, or release. Cart. 66. Pasch. 18 Car. 2. C. B. per Bridgman Ch. J. in case of Geary v. Bearcrost.

18. Surrender of leases (made by the limitor of the estate) to cesty que trust (being remainder-man for life in possession) according to a power reserved by the limitor, was held not to pass the estate, the surrenderee having only a trust, and not the legal estate. Skin. 77. Mich. 34 Car. 2, B. R. Lady Stafford v. Luellin.

29. If

19. If after the lease and release executed to make the tenant to the pracipe, the tenant surrenders to the releasor, this is void; for he has no reversion for the surrender to operate upon. Pig. of Recov. 50.

[122] Sec (C) pl. 8, 9.

(A. 2) The Force and Effect thereof.

1. RESIGNATION by the warden of a chapel, parson, prebendary, or such like, pending the writ, shall not abate the writ, by the best opinion there; and yet see elsewhere, that lease of the party who resigns, is void thereby. Br. Surrender, pl. 27. cites 15 Ass. 8.

2. Where the tenant for term of life surrenders to him who right has, or the tenant to his lord, the franktenement vests without livery; per Shard. Br. Surrender, pl. 28. cites 27 Ass. 37. But contra Hank. 12 H. 4. 21. for the tenant has fee-simple; but it appears elsewhere, that where tenant for term of life surrenders to him in reversion or remainder, and he thereby enters, that the franktenement vests without livery. Br. Surrender, pl. 28. cites 27 Ass. 37.

3. If the king gives in fee, or in tail, or for life, and the patentee leases it for years, or leases or gives part of the land in fee, and after surrenders his patent by which it is cancelled, the lessee or donee shall not by this lose his interest; for he may have a constat out of the involument, which shall serve him. But see now an act of anno

3 & 4 E. 6. cap. 4. thereof. And quære, if the common law shall not serve; for it appears in libro intrationum, that a man may plead a constat. Br. Surrender, pl. 51. cites 13 R. 2.

Br. Briefs, pl.240. cites S. C.

- 4. Tenant by the curtefy and the heir within age were, and assiste was brought of rent against them, and the tenant by the curtefy surrendered to the heir pending the writ; and per June, he shall not be adjudged in by descent as to the plaintiff to abate his writ, because the taking of the surrender was his own act; and if the tenant by the curtefy had charged, the heir shall hold charged during his life; per Rolfe, if writ of entry be brought against the heir after the surrender, he shall be supposed in by his mother, and not by the tenant by the curtefy. Br. Surrender, pl. 24. cites 1 H. 6. 1.
- 5. If the tenant breaks covenant in reparations, or such like, and after surrenders, and the lessor accepts it, yet he may have action of covenant. Br. Surrender, pl. 47. cites 27 H. 6. 10.
- 6. If tenant in tail of the gift of the king surrenders his letters patents, this shall not extinguish the tail; for the invollment remains of record, out of which the issue in tail may have a constat, and recover the tail, in case of The Earl of Rutlann, by which they made another devise, that the king should grant to him the fee-simple also, and then recovery against him would har the tail; et e contra, the reversion being in the king. Br. Surrender, pl. 51. cites T. 32 H. 8.

7. A surrender determines the interest of all parties but of strangers. But as to themselves it is determined to all intents and purposes; per Croke J. Het. 21. Mich. 3 Car. C. B. in case of Sir Edward Peyto v. Pemberton, cites 3 H. 6.

8. The Court held, that a furrender immediately devests the estate out of the surrenderor, and vests it in the surrenderee; for this is a conveyance at common law, to the persection of which no other act is requisite but the bare grant; and though it be true, that every grant is a contract, and there must be an actus contractum, or a mutual consent, yet that consent is implied. A gift imports a benefit, and an assent to take a benefit may well be presumed; and there is the same reason why a surrender should vest the estate before notice of agreement, as why a grant of goods should vest a property, or sealing of a bond to * another in his absence, should be the obligee's bond immediately without notice. 2 Salk. 618. Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. in case of Thompson v. Leach.

3 Lev. 284. in Trin. 2 W. & M. in C. B. the same case, Poilexten Ch. J. and Powell and Rooksby J. held that the estate did not pals by the furrender; and for this they relied upon the constant form of pleading furrenders, in which the precedents always are not only to plead the furrender, but to plead it with an acceptance, viz. to which the furrenderee agreed, unless one or two in Rastall; and divers authorities were cited in the case pro & con. And they held, that after acceptance it shall not be so referred to the making the deed, as to make it by relation a surrender to the prejudice of a 2d person, as to destroy the estate of an after-born son. But Ventris I. held, that the estate vested immediately by the making the deed of surrender, but to be devested by refusal of the furrenderee afterwards to accept it, but that till such refusal the estate is in the surrenderee; but that if it should not vest by the delivery, yet by acceptance after it shall be by relation a surrender from the first, and so destroy a contingent remainder of an after-born son; and that this relation does no wrong to a 3d person, because such son was not in esse at the time of the surrender. But judgment was given according to the opinion of the 3. Whereupon error was brought in B. R. and Hill. 3 W. & M. the judgment given in C. B. was affirmed by the whole Court. After which error was brought in the House of Lords, and in December 1692, upon hearing of the judges, who were all of opinion as before except Atkins Ch. B. then prolocutor of the House of Peers, the judgment was reversed by the lords, Atkins and Ventris concurring with them. ———2 Vent. 198 to 200. S. C. with the argument of Ventris J. at large. —— 3 Mod. 296. S. C. argued in B. R. on the writ of error, and the judgment affirmed there; but fay's that in 4 W. & M. it was reverfed in the House of Lords. -----Show. 296. Mich. 3 W. & M. S. C. argued. ——— Carth. 211. S. C.

The case in Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. was upon another ejectment brought afterwards by the same plaintiff against the same defendant, in which the question was upon the surrenderor's being alleged to be non-compes; and that being found, the surrender was adjudged void. See Carth. 435. Comb. 438.

468. And upon error in the House of Lords upon that judgment, the same was affirmed. See 3 Mod. 301. 311. Show. Parl. Cases, 150. Ld. Raym. Rep. 313. 316. S. C. and 2 Vent. 208. Co-myns's Rep. 45. S. C. but imperfect. Adjornatur.

(B) What Estate. [And to whom.] See (C).

[1. THE very tenant cannot furrender to the lord. 12 H. 4. S. S. Br. Confession, pl. 13 H. 4. 13. adjudged. 50 Aff. 1. Contra, 49 E. pl. 15. cites 12 E. 4. 20, 21.

[2. The very tenant of the king cannot surrender to him. See (L-3). Contra, 50 Ass. 1.]

[3. An estate for life may be surrendered. 49 E. 3. 5. 13 H. 4. 13. b. 50 Ass. 1.]

[4. If

[4. If tenant in tail discontinues in fee, discontinues cannot furren. Perk. pl. 598. S. P. der to the issue in tail. Contra, 34 Ass. 2. adjudged.] cites 20 H. 4. 21. and 34 Aff. 11.

Br. Surrender, pl. 28. cites S. C.

[5. In a pracipe, or other action, where the land is demanded, the tenant who is seised in see, may surrender in pais the land to the plaintiff without livery; for he does this by the command of the writ. 27 Aff. 37.]

6. Where a man leafes land for term of years, the remainder over for life, the remainder over in fee, or reserving the reversion, there, he in remainder for life may surrender to him in reversion, or to him in remainder in fee, and the estate for term of years is no impediment; for though this cannot give the possession of the land, yet it gives the possession of the franktenement, which is in the thing which was furrendered. Br. Surrender, pl. 55. cites 5 E. 4.

[124]

7. A surrender of a lease, void on non-payment according to covenant, is no furrender. Per Manwood, 2 Le. 143. pl. 178. 33 Eliz. in the Exchequer, in Sir Moyle Finch's case.

Interesse termini cannot be expressly surrendered. 10 Rep. 67. b. in case of the Church-wardens of St. Saviour's, Southwark, cites 37 H. 6. 16.

S. P. by Holt Ch. J. Skin. 580. S. C. -2 Salk. 565. S. C. & P. by Holt Ch. J.

9. An estate at will of lands between common persons is not a surrenderable estate; because it is at will of both parties, and either party may determine his will, without the formality of a furrender; and therefore there is no furrender at all in law of an estate at will between common persons. Per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 79. Trin. 7 W. & M. in case of the King v. Kemp.

Cumb. 334. 10. But when the king grants an office at will, that is not at S. C.— the will of both parties; it is only at the will of the king to de-2 Salk. 565. termine the interest in the office that grantee holds of the king, S. C. There ought to be without any furrender; for if it be an office of trust for the profit the will of of the king, he is punishable by fine for refusal of it, and of that the king dehe cannot devest himself without an actual surrender, though it need clared under not be proved. So it was done by 2 chief justices, Hale and the great feal, that be ac-Pemberton, who had an estate at will in their offices, and made copts bis foran actual formal furrender by deed enrolled in Chancery. And if render; otherwise he the king determines his pleasure, it must be by writ of discharge is finable, if under the great feal, or by constituting a new person. 12 Mod. 79. be furceases Trin. 7 W. & M. in case of the King v. Kemp. to execute his office without such a discharge; and it was so done in the case of Hide and Hale, Chief Justices, who actually surrendered their offices or chief justice, and had a discharge under the great seal. Per Holt, Skin. 581. in case of the King v. Kemp. ——— 2 Salk. 466. pl. 2. S. C. & F. per Cur.

See (A) (B).

(B. 2) To whom.

IF two are seised, and lease for term of years, and after the tenant surrenders to the one; this is a good surrender, men are and thereby both may enter. Br. Surrender, pl. 54. cites 26 filed, and leafe for life. E. 3. 16. and the te-nest for life furrenders to the one, this is good to both, and the other may enter. Br. Surrenders pl. 39. cites 5 E. 4. 4. -- S. P. But Brooke says, it seems to him that he may grant his estate to the one, and the other cannot enter. Br. Reservation, pl. 48. cites 5 E. 4. 4. S. P. Perk. s. 615. But if the lessee for life has surrendered the lands unto both the lessors, or to one of them for 20 years, the same shall not take effect by way of surrender; for then there remains an interest in the lessee, which is as a mean remainder between the estate which is surrendered, and their reversion, &c. Perk. 1. 615.

2. Particular estates, as for life, or for years, may be surrendered If a man to bim who has the immediate remainder or reversion to the particular J. S. and estate in bis own right; if the estate in remainder or in reversion be such an estate, wherein the particular estate may be drowned, unless he who surrenders had a joint estate in the freehold, or in the term for years, with him to whom the furrender is made; them, and me and in other special cases, &c. Perk. s. 584.

does enfeoff T. K. of certain land, to bave and to bold to the beirs of T. K. and

- J. S. surrendereth his estate unto T. K. it is a void surrender; notwithstanding that J. S. had that freehold, and T. K. had a fee expectant to be executed in possession, immediately after the death of J. S. And the reason is, because that T. K. had a joint possession in the freehold with J. S. and every joint tenant is seised of the whole; so that the surrender cannot be the cause that he has the possession of any part of the land; and also his estate cannot drown in the estate of T. K. for either of them has estate of freehold in possession, in and through the whole land. Perk. 586. cites 12 H. 6. Sur. 6.
- 3. It has been holden, that an estate in fee of lands or tenements may be furrendered by the tenant unto his lord, who has cause to have an action of cessavit of the same land. Quære. Perk. s. 585. cites H. 13 H. 4. f. 10.

4. If donee in tail of a rent, &c. surrenders his estate to his donor who has the reversion of the same land in fee, it is a void surrender.

Perk. s. 590. cites 12 H. 7. 11.

5. If J. S. makes a lease for life of land to A. the remainder of the samesland to B. for years, and A. surrenders his estate to B. it cannot take effect as a furrender; because an estate for life cannot drown in an estate for years. Perk. s. 589.

6. One termor cannot furrender to another termor; per tot. Cro. E. 173. Le. 303. pl. 420. Trin. 30 Eliz. C. B. in case of Pory v. 5. C.—O₩. 97. S. C. Allen.

7. Leffee for 20 years makes a lease for 10 years. The 2d lesse cannot furrender to the first; for 10 years cannot be drowned in Cro. E. 173. Hill. 32 Eliz. in case of Porey v. Allen.

Per Gawdy J. it is good to convey his interest, but nottodrown the estate. Cro. E. 302. Trin. 35 Eliz. B. R. in case of Hughes v. Robotham.

- 8. A furrender of a lease cannot be but to him that has the Ow. 97. immediate reversion, as an under-lessee for part of the term cannot Allen, S. P. furrender to the first lessor. Arg. Vent. 359. Hill. 33 & 34 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Moor v. Pitt.
- (C) What Thing or Estate they may [surrender]. Sec (A) (B) ----Gran¢ (M)(N).
- [1. LESSEE for years leases to lessor part of his land, he may surrender the residue, for it is reversion. 20 E. 4. 13.] [2. One

So of join[2. One jointenant in fee cannot surrender to his companion. 40 tenant of franktenefranktenement, or of shall be intended, that it shall enure as release.)] a lease for years. See Perk. pl. 584.

[3. A devisee of land till a certain sum be levied may surrender it, yet he has not any estate, but only a chattel, scilicet, the perception of the profits. 4 Rep. 82. b. Sir Andrew Corbet's case.]

S. P. and C. [4. Tenant by statute merchant, staple, and elegit, may surrender. eited by Ventris J. 4 Rep. 82. b. Sir Andrew Corbet's case.]

2 Vent. 328. in case of Dighton v. Greenvill.

S.P. for [5. A lease for years to commence at Michaelmas, cannot be surrenmothing is in him in poshim in possession till s. 601. D. 35 H. 8. 58. Contra, 37 H. 6. 18.]

Michaelmas,

mas is good. Contra of release made by the lessor to the lesse before Michaelmas. Br. Surrender, pl. 43. cites 20 E. 4. 13. Per Brian and Nele J.——S. P. Perk. s. 601.——S. P. Br. Surrender, pl. 38. cites 4 H. 7. 10. per Keble and Rede.——S. P. Co. Litt. 338. a. But though in such case a surrender in deed is not good before Michaelmas, yet if before Michaelmas he takes a new lease for years, either to begin presently or at Michaelmas; this is a surrender in law of the former lease.——S. P. By Coke Ch. J. 6 Rep. 69. b. in Sir Moyle Finch's case, and cites 37 H. 6. 17. b. 18. a.—S. P. 10 Rep. 67. b. in the case of the Churchwardens of Saint Saviour's, Southwark, cites 37 H. 6. 16.

Debt upon a lease for years made at Lammas, to commence at Michaelmas next, to endure for 20 years rendering rent, the rent was arrear, and the lessor brought debt, the desendant pleaded another lease the mext day to commence at the same Michaelmas for such a number of years upon condition broken of the part of the plaintiff; and so the second lease void, and a surrender of the first; and so both leases void. And per Moile and Davers, it is no surrender, because it was made before that the first lease commenced; but if the second lease had been after the first lease commenced, this had been a surrender; but per Prisot, all is one; but 22 E. 4. 37. contra per Prisot; for a surrender gives possession, which cannot be before the first lease commenced, and he granted that release is not good before Michaelmas, nor the lessee shall not have trespass or ejectione sirms before it. Br. Surrender, pl. 22. cites 37 H. 6. 17.

*[126]

[6. A man leases for years, lesse cannot surrender before entry. Contra, 22 E. 4. 37.]

[7. But in such case, if lessor waives the possession, the lessee may surrender before entry. Perkins, s. 603.]

Br. Surrender, pl. 42.

[8. If lesse for years leases to the lessor part of his term, and after surrenders the reversion of it, the rent is gone. 20 E. 4. 13.]

Fol. 495. [9. If there be lesse for years rendering rent, and lessor grants the rent to another, and after accepts surrender of the lesse, yet the cites 14 E. 4. rent continues to the grantee. 20 E. 4. 13. b.]
6. per Brian.

S. P. Br.

- 10. In divers places there is a custom, that the franktenant Customs, pl. who is feifed in fee, when he will alien, shall come into the court and 6.45 where furrender the land. Br. Customs, pl. 17. cites 14 H. 4. 1. per it is admitted Hank ...

a good custom to surrender the franktenement.——Though it be incident to the estate of a copyhold to pass by surrender, yet so forcible is custom, that by it a freehold may pass by surrender. Co. Litt. 60.

As where a 11. A surrender is good of a thing of which there is no reversion.

man grants rent to ano ther for term of life out of his land, the grantee may surrender, and yet the grantor has no reversion of the rent. Br. Surrender, pi. 16. cites 14 H. 7- 2.

б

Surrender.

12. A right cannot be surrendered. Co. Litt. 338. 2.

288. Arg. in

606 of Moor v. Pitt.—Right nor condition cannot be given or determined by surrender, but by re kase. Cio. J. 36. Trin. 2 Jac. B. R. Hull v. Sharbrook; and cites 4 Rep. 25. b. Kite v. Quinton.

13. Though a future interest cannot properly be surrendered, yet it may be merged. Arg. 2 Roll. R. 171. in the case of Price v. Butts, cites 37 H. 6. 21 H. 4.

14. Dignity of peerage cannot be surrendered. Show. Parl.

Cases, 1. The King v. Lord Purbeck.

(D) At what Place.

See (B) pl 5.

2. In formedon, or other præcipe quod reddat, the tenant cansion, pl. 15.
not surrender in pais. Br. Surrender, pl. 9. cites 12 H. 4. 21.

Br. Confession, pl. 15.
cites S. C.

(E) At what Time they may [surrender.]

[127] See (C) pl. 5, 6, 7.

[1. IF A. leases to B. land for years, and afterwards before B. enters, or A. waives the possession, B. surrenders to A. this is a void surrender, inasmuch as he has not any actual estate till entry or waiver of the possession by lessor.]

Perk.s. 602.
S. P. says, it seems to be a void surrender, if any other

perfon be in possession of the thing leased at the time of the surrender, unless he has parcel of the term of the lessee by force of the grant of the lessee, &c.

If a man seised of land leases the same for 10 years to begin presently, and the lessor waiveth the possession, and before any entry made into the same land by any person, the lesse surrenders his estate unto his lessor, it is a good surrender, and yet the lesse shall not have an action of trespass for a trespass done apon the land before his entry; and also a release made unto him by his lessor is void before his entry, are. Perk. s. 603.

[2. If A. leases land to B. for years, and B. enters, and after B. assigns it to C., C. may surrender to A. before any entry made by him or waiver of the possession by B. because this was an actual estate in B. severed from the reversion by the entry of B. and C. has an actual estate by the assignment made to him before entry, B. not being any ejector. P. 11 Car. B. R. per Cur. adjudged upon a special demurrer between Pranch and Titley. Intratur, 1111.

11 Car. Rot. 70. But judgment was e centra upon another point.]

3. If there be lesse for 10 years of land, and he grants parcel of the years unto a stranger, and the grantec enters, &c. and the lesse surrenders to his lessor, it is a good surrender; but if the grantee of the lessee had surrendered to the lessor of his grantor before the surrender made by the lessee, the same shall not take effect as a surrender. Gaufa Patet, Ferk, f. 604. cites 14 H. 7. 3.

Vol. XX. L 4. If

See Release (G) pl. 12.

4. If two jointenants of a next avoidance are, the one of them cannot furrender to the other after the avoidance happens. D. 283. Marg. pl. 29. cites P. 31 Eliz. Brockbie's case.

5. If I make a lease to I. S. for so many years as I. K. shall name, I. S. may not surrender his term before that I. K. names the years; per Popham. Goldsb. 168. pl. 98. Hill. 43 Eliz. in case of Hoo v. Marshal.

6. Bargainee before entry may furrender, assign, or release. Cart. 66. per Bridgman Ch. J. for he has actual possession.

(F) By Acceptance of Lessee for Years [&c.]

And. 51. pl. [1.] F lessee for life accepts by parol a feoffment in fee of the land, and livery upon the land from him in reversion or remain-Aller, S. C. der, this is a surrender and afterwards a feoffment. D. 19. El. that the feoffment 351. 48. 40 E. 3. 24. 37 H. 6. 18. per Prisot.]

was good.—Bendl. 288. pl. 288. Langastell v. Aller, S. C. and the special verdict.

[2. If lessee for years agrees that his lesser shall make a feosfment years the remainder for life are, and he in reversion in fer makes feofiment and livery to leffer for years, though this acceptance of the feofiment cannot enure as a furrender because of the estate for life in remainder, yet it shall enure as a grant of his estate for the time to the seossion, or at least a licence to him to make livery, and so a good seofiment. P. 40 El. B. R. between Eedes and Knotsford; but Mich. 40 & 41 El. B. R. this was adjudged to the contrary. See Feofiment (L) pl. 8. and see Ow. 66. Trin. 42 Eliz. B. R. Knotts v. Everstead.

If lessor by

[3. If a lesse gives licence to the lesser to make a seofiment of the land to a stranger, this is not any surrender, but only a grant of his term for a little time, for the licence shews that he does not intend to pass his estate. D. 29 H. 8. 33. 14. 5. per Fitzherbert, said it was so held in 5 H. 7.]

fent will make a lease at will, or a surrender for the time, and so the livery good. 2 Roll. Fooffment (L), pl. 17. cites 40 El. per Cur. between Shepherd and Gray.

[4. So if lessee licenses the lessor to make livery, a fortiori this is not any surrender. Tr. 4 Ja. B. R. per Cur. in the case of Sible v. Searle.]

S.P. agreed [5. So if lesse for years makes livery as atterney to the lessor, this And. 247. is not any surrender. Tr. 5 Ja. B. R. per Cur. in the case of Sible & 32 Eliz. v. Searle.]

Batty, alias Potty, v. Trevillian.—S. P. for he does not make the livery in his own right, but as a fervant or minister to the lessor, and by his authority; and when the lessor made a feodiment, he gave nothing but what he might rightfully pass, which is only the reversion that is in him, and the livery of the lesse gives nothing to the feofice but only a means to pass what the lessor might lawfully pass; as if the tenant makes seofiment of his tenancy and the lord as attorney makes livery, this does not extinguish his seigniory; for he does nothing but by authority given. Mo. 11. pl. 41. Hill. 4 E. 6.

So if life for life delivers seifin upon a letter of attorney, this is no surrender; per Periaps. D. 33. do Mary. pt. 13. & 14. cite. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. C. B. Trovellian's case.

[6. The

[6. The acceptance of a voidable lease will be a surrender of a (G) pl. 11. good and sure lease. D. 3 & 4 Ma. 140, 43.] Woman sole takes a confideration for making a lease for 21 years and then marries, and she and her husband made the promised lease. Before the 21 years end the lisse surrenders and takes a new lease for 21 years more; the huiband dies; the wife outs the leffee, who fues in Chancery to have the first lease continued for the remainder of the first 21 years, and not remedied here, the surrender being voluntary. Cary's Rep. 29.

cites 44 Eliz. Anon.

A. and M. bis wife were tenants for life, afterward the lessor by indenture betwirt him and A. and M. and B, their son, dated 30 July, 21 Eliz. leased it to A. M. and B. babendum a die datus indentyres for their lives, and made livery 23 Eliz. secundum formam chartze, and it was resolved by all the Court that the 2d leafe was void; for as much as it is habendum a die datus, and the livery made so long time after it will not belp it; but yet they beld, that it was a surrender of the first lease, for the acceptance of the indenture in the contracting, and agreement to have a new leafe, made a surrender of the first lesse; and it was adjudged accordingly. Cro. E. 873, 874. pl. 12. Hill. 44 Eliz. in C. B. Mellows v. May. ---- Mo. 636. pl. 876. S. C. refolved that the taking the second lease was a surrender of the effate of the feme being covert during the coverture only.

Acceptance of a weid lease is not a surrender of a good lease. Hutt. 105. in case of Watt v. Mayd-well, cited per Cur. as the case of Baker v. Willoughby.

[7. If a leffee for years of a dean and chapter made before the sta- Je- 405: tute of 13 Eliz. after the flatute accepts a new leafe for the residue of pl. 2. Trip. the term by force of the provise of the statute of 13 Eliz. but this B. R. new lease is not good within the proviso but merely woid; this shall Lloyde v. Gregory. not be any surrender of the first lease; but otherwise it is if the S. C. acnew leafe be only woidable and not woid. Mich. 13 Car. B. R. per cordingly. Curiam, between Fludd and Gregory upon evidence at the bar, ---- Cro. C. 502. pl. but this among other things found specially.] 2. S. C.

but the diversity of void and voidable leases does not appear there.

[8. If seme lessee for years takes baron, who after accepts a new D. 177. b. pl. 35. Hill. lease for their lives, this is a surrender of the first lease, Pl. C, 2 Eliz. S. C. 199. per Curiam, Wrotesly v, Adams,] - If a feme leffee

for years marries, and then takes a new loafe for life, this extinguishes the term; but if busband disegrees, then it is revived; but if the sew leafe had been made to the bushand and swife, then it had been questionable, for the efface passed by implication, viz. by a surrender in law by the accepting a new lease; per Hobart Ch. J. Hutt. 7, 8. Trin. 14 Jac. in case of Swaine v. Holman .- Hob. 179. pl. 212. Swain w. Hollasp S. C. but S. P. does not appear. — Ibid. 203. pl. 257. S. C. Hohare Ch. J. fays, if the second lease had been made to the husband and wife both, as it was but to her alone, yet upon his death she might have claimed again by her old term. ----- Ibid. 226. S. C. cited by Hobart in case of Anny Needler v. the Bishop of Winchester, that the state was not totally surrendered as to the feme. 129

[9. If leffee for years accepts a new leafe to commence presently, this is a surrender; for by this he admits the lessor to have sufficient power to make this new leafe, the which he cannot do with- makes anoout a furrender. + 37 H. 6. 18.]

sber leafe to the same les-

fee of the fame land, the acceptance of the second lease is a surrender of the first sease; per Brudnell Ch. J. and Brooke I. which none of the other justices denied, quod nota; and it is not expressed these if the ferend lease was for more years than the first or not; quod nota. Br. Surrender, pl 14. cites 1481. 8. 15. † S. C. cited 6 Rep. 69. b. in Sir Moyle Finch's caie.

[10. So though the 2d lease be for fewer years than the first. D. 3 to B. for & 4 Ma. 140. [b.] 43. [Whitley v. Gough.] 100 years, and then grants the reversion to C. for two years, and C. leafes to B. for two years, and B. accepts the leafe for two years, this is no furrender; for a term of 100 years cannot be drowned in a revenion for two years, and yet the first lease is determined; per Anderson, which Periam granted, Le. 322, 323. pl. 454. Hill. 31 Eliz. C. B. in case of Willis v. Whitewood.

This is a furrender of the first lease, and is as if the first lastee had taken a new lease for a years of hie leffer. Cro. E. 302. pl. 1. Trin. 35 Eliz. B. R. in cuse of Hughes v. Robotham.

III. If

And where a lease is by parol; this is a surrender of the first lease. D. 3 & 4 Ma. 140. asteric made 43. [Whitley v. Gough.]
by indenture, Brooke makes a quære if this be not a surrender. Br. Reservation, pl. 17. cites 21 H. 7. 37.

[12. If lesse for years accepts a future lease to commence within Cro. E. 605. pl. 3. the first term, this is a surrender immediately. *P. 40 El. B. R. Hutchins v. between Majon and Hutchins. 5 Rep. 11. b. + Ive's case re-Martin, folved, because he by his acceptance has affirmed the lessor to have S. C. accordingly; ability to make the leafe, the which he cannot do without furand the lefrender, and there cannot be a fraction of the estate, scil. to be a surfor may enter in the render for part of the years.] interim, and take the profits. — † Cro. E. 521. pl. 49. Mich. 38 & 39 Eliz. C. B. Ives v. Sammes, S. C. accordingly. — 2 And. 51. pl. 38. S. C. accordingly. — S. C. eited per Cur. Hutt. 105. in cafe of Watts v. Maydwell.

Prior and [13. The acceptance of one future interest is not any surrender of another future interest. 3 H. 6. 18.]

leafe to B. for 24 years; and about 2 years after made a leafe to C. for 99 years, to commence at a day before. About 4 years after the leafe to C, the prior and convent were translated into a dean and chapter, and their possessions confirmed, and they then made a new lease to C. for 99 years, to commence at a day before. The lease of 24 years was still in being. Within a year after, the statute of 31 H. 8. of dissolutions was made. Afterwards in 2 E. 6. they surrendered their possessions, and a new corporation was established, reserving to the king the land in lease, which he granted to W. in fee. The question was, if W. might enter and avoid the 2 leases of C. or either of them? And the Court, prima facie, thought he might; and that the first 99 years lease was drowned, and surrendered in law by the taking the 2d, though he had no possession of the land at that time, according to 37 H. 6. 4. and that the 2d leafe was void by statute 31 H. 8. it being made within a year before the act, and the first lease being in esse, &c. tamen Curia advisare vult. D. 279. b. 280. a. Mich. 10 & 11 Eliz. Corbet's case als. the Prior and Convent of Norwich's case. ———See 2 Rep. 49. a. in the Archbishop of Canterbury's case, Trin. 38 Eliz. B. R. where this case is said to be denied by Popham Ch. J. and some other justices [But, as it ferms, this was with respect to the avoiding the leases of colleges, deans, and chapters, &cc. by the Batute of 31 H. 8

If a lease be made to begin at Michaelmas, and before that time the lessor makes a new lease to the same lessee to commence presently, the same is not any surrender, and yet thereby the same is determined. Per Windham, which Anderson granted, but Periam doubted. Le. 323. pl. 354. Hill. 32 Elise

C. B. in case of Willis v. Whitewood.

It shall be construed as a lease so the rest of the rest of his land in D. (where the land lies) yet this is not any ‡ surrender; for peradventure he intended other land. Tr. 5 Jac. B. R. per of his land in D. Cro.

J. 177. Gibson v. Scarie, S. C.

[130]

And because he may have the bemess of it after the lease is determined.

[15. If lessee for years accepts a grant of a rent of him in recause he may have the bemess of it accepts a grant of a rent of him in remess of it does not appear that they intend that it shall issue out of the reversion. Tr. 5. Ja.

B. R. per Curiam, in Sible and Searle's case.]

[16. But if the rent be granted to commence at a certain time within the term, this is a furrender. Tr. 5 Ja. B. R. in Sible and

Searle's case; per Curiam. 27 H. 7. 5.]

[17. If leffee for years of land accepts a new leafe of vestura terre; this is a furrender. Tr. 5 Ja. B. R. per Curiam, in case of Sible v. Searle.]

So of berbage, because it cannot confist with the lease. Cro. J. 177. in case of Gibson v. Searle.

[18. So if lessee accepts a grant of a common out of the same Because inconsistent land; this is a surrender. Tr. 5 Ja. B. R. per Cur. in case of with the Sible v. Searle.] leafe. Cro. J. 177. in S. C.

[19. If lesses for 21 years of a manor accepts a grant of the office of the bailiwick of the manor for the 21 years; this is not any furrender of the first lease, because this office is not any interest in the thing leafed, but only an authority; and peradventure it was intended that he should be baily of the reversion, to pay the rent due by himself to the lessor. Tr. 5 Ja. B. R. adjudged between Sible and Searle.]

S. P. dehated Cro. 1 84. Gibson v. Searies. --Adjudged no furrender. Cro. J. 176. pl. 16. Trin. 5 Jac. B. R. S. C.

Leffec for years of a manor takes a lease of the bailiwick of the manor; this is no surrender of his term, because it is of a thing which is collateral. Godb. 153. Gage v. Peacock. --- Noy, 12. S. C. The bailiff of Westminster is commonly a great man, who hath also leases in Westminster of the demile of the dean and chapter, and yet it was never intended to be any surrender. C10. J. 177. in the scale of Gibson v. Searle.

[20. So the acceptance by lessee for years of a manor of the flewardship of the manor, is not any surrender for the cause aforecites it to have been faid. Tr. 5 Ja. B. R. cited to be adjudged.] fo adjudged in the case of Sir Valentine Brown.

[21. So if lesse for years of a park, accepts a grant of the keepersbip of the park, this is * not any surrender, because a keeper has no interest in the park. Tr. 5 Ja.B. R. cited to be one SIR JOHN CHAMBERLAIN'S case, for Prestbury Park in Gloucestershire.]

* S. P. Because it is an office collateral to the lond. Cro. I. 177. in case of Gib-fon v. Searl, cites S. C. King H. 8. granted the custody of the park of O. with reasonable herbage, to G. and also the manor of O. cum pertinentiis, and 100 loud of wood (excepting the park, the deer, and the wood) for 50 years, if the grantie should so long live G. surrendered the letters patents in Chancery to be cancelled, (and so they were,) to the intent the king might grant a new lease to P. and accordingly a new leafe was granted to P. of the manor of O. as it was before granted to G. And afterwards anno 5 & 6 Ph. & Mar. the office of keeper of the park was granted to the same P. without the proviso of his living 50 years, or laying reasonable berbage. The reporter concludes with a nota, I that he heard Sir H. Yelverton say the judges were of opinion, that he had but the custody of the park, and no interest in it; for that by the acceptance of the custody of the park, when he had a lease of it before, it was a furrender of his lease. Godb. 413, 414. 425. pl. 491. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Lord Zouch v. Moore.

22. A prioress leases to T. for term of life, who takes feme, and after the prioress comes to T. and T. fays to her that his will is that she enter into the land, by which she enters; this is a good surrender; quod nota; and then she leased again to him and his seme. Br. Surrender, pl. 1. cites 40 E. 3. 24.

23. If tenant for life surrenders to him in reversion out of the land, to which he agrees, the franktenement by this is in him immediately, and he is tenant to bring action by præcipe quod reddat without entry, but he shall not have trespass without entry. Br. Surrender, pl. 50. cites 21 H. 7. 7.

Rut if lesse 24. If tessee for 10 years of land takes a new lease of the same for years of lands of his lessor for 20 years, it is a surrender of the first lease, takes a 2d &c. Perk. s. 617.

lease for more years of the same land of the king, this second lease is therely void; and therefore an acceptance of it shall not cause a surrender of the other lease. Agreed by the barons; and they said it was so held in HARRIS AND WING'S case. Lane, 22. the case of Saint Saviour's in Southwark s

So it is if a man make a lease for years, and the less the reversion to the lesse upon condition.

25. If a man make a lease for 40 years, and the lesse afterwards takes a lease for 20 years upon condition, that if he does such an att, that then the lease for 20 years shall be void; and after the lesse breaks the condition, by force whereof the 2d lease is void, not withstanding the lease for 40 years is surrendered; for the condition is annexed to the lease for 20 years, but the surrender was absolute. 2 Inst. 218. b.

and after the condition is broken the term was absolutely furrendered. A Inst. 218. b.

And the diversity is when the lessor grants the reversion to the lesse upon condition; and when the lesse grants or surrenders his estate to the lessor; for a condition annexed to a surrender may revest the particular estate, because the surrender is conditional. But when the lessor grants the reversion to the lesse upon condition, there the condition is annexed to the reversion, and the surrender absolutes 2 Inst. 218. b.

26. Lease for years to A. Afterwards a lease is granted to Be to commence at the end of the lease to A. A. takes a new lease. This is a furrender of his other lease, and B. may enter. Ph. C. 198. b. Wrotesley v. Adams.

By 4 against 2, it is a surrender. Ibid. Marg. S. C.——

Adjudged,

27. Lesse for years of u bouse, accepts the office of the tustody of the same house for life, with a see for exercise of the said office. If this be a surrender? No judgment was given, but the matter was lest to the determination of some of the privy council, &c. D. 200. b. pl. 62. Pasch. 3 Eliz. Earl of Arundel v. Lord Grey.

furrender. Ibid. in Marg. cites 3 Jac. Gibbs v. Searles.——S. P. cited as adjudged a surrender; for it is another interest, and cannot stand with the first lease. Cro. J. 177. in case of Gibson v. Searl.

28. A. tenant for life, remainder to B. in tail, B. levies a fine, with proclamations for concession, to A. and C. for their lives. This fine bars the entail during the said 2 lives only, and is not a discontinuance omnino; for B. was seised by force of the tail, and the fine is sur concession. It seems that A.'s acceptance of this estate to him and C. is a surrender of the former estate which he had; as in case of a lease for years made to A. and during the years he accepts a lease for years of the same land to him and B. Jenk. 321. pl. 28.

Me. 358.
pl. 487.
Carter v.
Love. S. S.
accordingly.

29. Lesse for years devised his term to J. S. and made his wife executrix, and died. The widow entered, and proved the will, and married again; and this 2d husband takes a lease from the lessor. J. S. entered, and grants all his estate to the husband and wife. The opinion of the Court was clearly, without argument, that by this acceptance of the new lease by the husband, the term, which the seme had to another use, viz. to the use of the testator, shall shall be deemed a surrender. Owen, 56. Trin. 27 Eliz. Carter v. Lowe.

[132]

30. Lesse for 21 years took a lease of the same lands for 40 years, to begin immediately after the death of J. S. This is no present surrender of the first term; but if J. S. die within the term, then it is a surrender; for it may be J. S. may survive the first term. 4 Le. 30. pl. 83. Pasch. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Anon.

31. A. lessee for 30 years leases for 19 to B. - A. agreed with C. by articles in writing, that B. should beve a lease for 3 years more in the same and other lands, and that it should not be a surrender of Peryn v. bis other lease. B. afterwards agreed to the articles. Per Cur. this Allen.is no surrender. Le. 303. pl. 420. Trin. 30 Eliz. C. B. Pory v. Allen-stated; and there adjudged, that words and all's between frangers can make no surrender, as an agreeconcert between A. and B. that C. thall hold for 3 years lands of which C. had a leafe for 17 years, and other lands at a greater rent, cannot make an after agreement of C. to be a surrender of his torsa for 17 years.

Ow. 97. 5. C. by name of Cro.E. 173. S. C. but fomewhat differently

32. Tenant in focage leafed his land for 8 years, and died, his heir within the age of 8 years. The mother being guardian in Jocage, leased by indenture to the same lessee for 14 years. Per Cur. the first lease is surrendered; but otherwise on a lease made by guardian by nurtura. Le. 158. pl. 226. Mich. 31 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

4 Le. 16% pl. 267. S. C. in totidem verbis.----Le. 322. pl. 454. S. C. by the name of Willis v.

Whitewood; and Anderson said, that surrendered it cannot be; for the guardian has not any reverfion capable of a furrender, but only an authority given to her by the law to take the profits to the ase of the beir; but yet perhaps it is determined by consequence and operation of law. --- Ow. 45. S. C. accordingly, by Anderson. 4 Le. 7. pl. 3x. S. C. by name of Willet v. Wilkinson, Tays, it was adjudged that this was a surrender of the first lease; and says, note, the 2d lease was made in the name of the guardian. -- S. C. cited Arg. in case of Watts v. Maidwell, by the name of Mills v. Whitewood; and that it was adjudged no Currender. Hutt. 105. — Litt. Rep. 282. Arg. in case of Maydwell v Watts, cites S. C. by name of Wills v. Whitewould, and that it was ad-Audged no farrender, because guardian in socage cannot take a surrender, for he has no reversion.

33. Magdalen-College in Oxford, 20 Dec. 8 Eliz. leafed a messuage to W. S. for 20 years from Mich. next. And after, on the 25 Ochober, 21 Eliz. they did leafe the same messuage to W. S. Eliz. S. C. the same person, for 20 years from Mich. next. Afterwards, on the 31 August, the 30 Eliz. they leased to J. N. for 20 years. The acceptance of the 2d leafe by W. S. is a surrender of the first, and is so immediately on the acceptance, and not good to the Michaelmas following: and so the 2d lease is but a lease to begin in future. Poph. 9. Hill. 35 Eliz: Thomson v. Trafford. 34. A. made a lease by deed to B. 14 December, 14 jur. [which " Rutt. was in 1617] to commence at Lady-day 1619, for 41 years. terwards, upon the 3 December, 15 Jac. [which was 1618.] A. leased the same land to C. for 99 years, to commence + presently. terwards 14 * Jan. 16 Jac. [which was Jan. 1619] A. made another lease to B. for 41 years of the same land, to commence 17 No- dated the 14 vember 1619. All which leases were by indenture. The sole question was, Whether the taking of the 2d lease of the same land by B. the first lessee, be a surrender? It was resolved, that the first 17 Nov. lease was not surrendered or determined; that the 2 terms which C. took can never meet or clash together, and consequently it cepted it, 104, 105. S.C. instead of Jan. mentions the 2d leafe to B. to be Nov. 16 ac. to commence from 161c; and that B. ac-cannot

2 Le. 188. pl. 286. Trin. 32 adjornatur

Ibid. it is faid which feems to be an addition, it feems not reasonable that a leafe which is in

in truft,

the repor-

Lurrender.

cannot be a surrender; and judgment was given accordingly. and afterwards enter-Litt. Rep. 268. Pasch. 5 Car. & 279. Trin. 5 Car. C. B. Watts v. Maydwell. +Hutt.says, that the lease to C. was to commence from the Annunciation last; and that C. entered, and was thereof possessed, and that afterwards (ut supra) A. made the soid ad lease to B. --- Hutt. 105. says, it was adjudged for the plaintiff, because by the lease made to C. for 99 years, and her entry, A, had but a reversion, and could not by his contract made afterwards with B. give any interest to B. This lease made to B. viz. his former leafe, was good in interest, being to commence at a day to come, and is grantable over, and may be surrendered or determined, by matter in law before the commencement thereof, as if he take a new leafe to commence presently, which see in 27 H. 6. 20. 22 E. 4. for it inures in contract. And in this case it had been without question, that the taking of the new lease had been a surrender of the former if it were not by reason of the lease for 99 years, which is for so great a number of years, that disables him to contract for 41 years.

"[133] 35. Where an officer for life accepts of another grant of the S. C. cited Vent. 297. fame office to him and another, it is not any furrender of the first . but there it grant. Resolved. Cro. C. 259. Trin. 8 Car. B. R. Walker v. is mentioned Sir John Lamb. that if an officer for life'accepts of a new grant it is no furrender of his former grant without mentioning the 2d grant being to him and another. - But where two were joint officers for life, and to the survivor, and they surrendered in order that a new grant might be made to one of them and a stranger, the acceptance of the new grant by that one would be a surrender. Vent. 297. Trin. 28 Car. 2. B. R. Woodward v. ____2 Mod. 95. S. C. accordingly.

> 36. A. was leffee of H. 8. by patent for 21 years, the reverficn to B. Afterwards B. by deed reciting the lands, but mis-reciting the dates of the several letters patents, grants all the lands to the said A. for 21 years after the expiration hujusmodi literarum patentium. This acceptance of the 2d lease seems to be a surrender of the first, the commencement being referred to the expiration of the faid letters patents, and not of the term, and so the 2d lease shall commence immediately. See Grants, (Q), pl. 6. But see Prerogative, (Q. b. 2), pl. 4. and the notes.

37. Lesse for years of lands held of a prebendary for 99 years by a leafe made in 4 E. 6. to commence after the expiration of former leases, employed some friends to take new leases of the sucor remark of ceeding prebendaries, in trust for him, who accordingly did so. ter | viz. and The doubt was, Whether this was good evidence of the furrender of this old lease? and the Court inclined that it was. But the next day the jury found that it was no furrender. Sid. 75. pl. 6. Pasch. 14 Car. 2. B. R. on a trial at bar, Gie v. Rider.

another perton, and made in majorem cautelam, should be a surrender.

38. Lesse for life accepts a lease for years. This is a surrender So if he accepts a leafe of his estate for life; agreed. All, 59. Pasch. 24 Car. B. R. at will. Mo. 637. in case in case of Bernard v. Bonner. of Mellow v. May. Cro. E. 874. in case of Mellows v. May.

> 39. Jointenants of a house join in a leafe, to commence the next day. Afterwards, the same day, 2 of the 3 demise the same bouse to the same lessee for the same term, to commence from the same day. This is a surrender of the sirst lease, and a new lease of their 2 parts; and the old leafe continues as to the 3d part of him that did not jour join in the 2d leafe, and the leffee's entry and possession was by both leases, viz. of the 3d part by the first lease, and of the 2 parts of the 2 others by the 2d lease. 3 Lev. 117. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. in Cam. Scacc. Turbervill v. Stockton.

(G) What Act or Thing shall be said a Surrender.

[134] See (F) pl. 2, 3, 4, 5.— Remitter(E)

[1.]F there be lesse for life, the reversion to an infant, and the lessee makes feoffment in fee to him in reversion, this is a surrender. 39 E. 3. 29.]

[2. If tenant for life makes feoffment in fee to him in reversion, though he be of full age, yet this is a furrender. 39 E. 3. 29.]

Co. Litt. 42. a. S. P. ----Ibid. 252. s. S.P.

Perk. pl. 616. S. P. And so if he infeoffs him in the remainder for life.

[3. But otherwise it is, if tenant for life infeoffs him in remain- If tenant der in tail; for this devests the remainder, and so passes as a feoff- for life in-41 Aff. 2. adjudged.]

feoffs him in remainder; this is a fur-render; per Persey, Kirton and Clopton, in a scire facias; and yet Belk. awarded contra. Br. Surrender, pl. 7. cites 50 E. 3. 6.

[4. If lessee for life infeoffs baron and feme in reversion in right of the feme, this is a furrender (admitting that it is not a forfeiture). Dubitatur. 39 E. 3. 29. Contra, 39 Aff. pl. 7.]

}

[5. But if the lessee for life grants his estate to the baron and seme in reversion in right of the feme, this is not any furrender for the be- render, pl. nesit of the baron. *21 H. 7. 40. Curia, 14 H. 7. Rent revived. 2 Curia. Contra, 11 E. 2. Age, 144 adjudged.]

23. Cites S. C.— It shall

enure by way of grant. Perk. f. 82 .- Where a man leafes land for life, and bas iffue two daughters, and dies, and the one takes boron, and the tenant grants to ber and ber baron all bis estate, this is no furrender, per Vavisor clearly. Br. Summons and Severance, pl. 14. cites 21 H. 7. 40. - S. P. Perk. f. 623. tites 2 H, 7. 14.

[6. If lessee for life be the reversion to a baron in fee, and lessee leases the land to the baron for the life of the baron, and then the baron Fol. 497. dies, and then the lesse dies; the wife shall not be endowed of this, So where a because there was a possibility of reversion during the coverture, man leased as to the franktenement (which proves that this was not any fur- land for render). 1 E. 3. 16. per Tond.]

term of life, the remainder to W. in tail, and the tenant for life leased it to bim in remainder for term of life of bim in remainder, who took feme and died, and the first lessee entered, and the seme was barred of dower; and so this is no surrender. Br. Surrender, pl. 49. cites 50 E. 3. 27. and Fitzh. Dower, 55.

So where A. was tenant for life, the remainder to W. in fee, and A. allened to W. for the life of W. W. died, and A. re-entered, and the seme of W. brought writ of dower, and was barred; for this alienation is no forfeiture nor surrender, because it was to him in the next remainder; quære legem inde. Br. Forfeiture de Terres, pl. 91. cites 13 R. 2. and Fitzh. Dower.

[7. If baron and feme seised in right of the feme for the life of the feme, lease by indenture to him in reversion for the life of the baron, this is not any surrender; for by this taking he affirms the reverfion in him in reversion. 29 Ass, 64.]

[8. If

So of such [B. If leffee for life leafes to the leffor for the life of the LESSOR, it leafe to him is not any surrender; for he has a possibility to have it again, Br. Estates, scil. if the lessor dies before himself. I E. 3. 15. adjudged.]

pl. 67. cites

H. 13 R. 2. But if tenant for life aliens to bim in reversion for term de auter vie, it is a good surrender. Br. Forsciture de Terres, pl. 83. cites 24 E 3. 68.

So if lessee for life of land leafes the same land to him in the reversion for life, the remainder unto a Branger in fee, the same is no surrender; causa patet. Perk. s. 620.

If tenant [9. (But) if leffee for life leases to the leffor for the life of the for life leases leffee, this is a suirender, because he has not any possibility of revertands to him fron, though there be a possibility of an occupancy; for this is all in reversion, one with a grant of his estate.]

to him during the life of the tenant for life rendering rant. Adjudged this is not good without livery of seisin; nor is this lease any surrender either in law or in deed, to him in the reversion. By all the Justices of C. B. Bendi. 152. pl. 211. Pasch. 8 Eliz. Brown v. Kinswell.——bid. 33. pl. 21. Browne v. Kinssten, S. C. but states it of a lease made by tenant pur auter vie; and that he made the lease to the reversioner, habendum to him during the life of the lessor rendering to him certain rent. And the justices were of opinion, that this is not good without livery, nor is it any surrender.

[10. So if leffee for life leases to the leffor for the life of the leffor and leffee, this is a surrender, because there is not any possibility of reversion. P. 16 Ja. in the Exchequer-chamber, upon an English bill, adjudged by all the barons, between the King and the Lord Dudley.]

(F) pl. 6. [11. The acceptance of a voidable leafe will be a surrender of a S.C. — good and sure lease. D. 3 & 4 Ma. 140. 43.]

This is the Stafe of Whitley v. Gough.——A guardien in chivalry took a feoffment of the infant within age that was in ward, and the infant brought an affife, and the guardian shall be adjudged a diffeifor; which proves that the feoffment, as against the infant, was void; and yet by acceptance thereof the interest of the guardian was surrendered. 2 Inst. 218. b.

Br. Surrender, pl. 32 in ward, and the other aliens to B. who purchases the ward of the accordingly. land and body of the lord, and after at full age of the ward it is agreed between them, that partition shall be made; and upon this they put themselves in arbitrement, and the arbitrator awards a severance, and assigns their parts, to which the ward does not agree, yet this is a surrender, scil. the submission and award. 31 Ass. 26. adjudged.]

Roll. Rep. [13. If a leffee grants part of his estate to the lessor, by which a 387, 388. reversion continues in himself, this is not any surrender. My pl. 8. Trin.

14 Jac. Ba. Reports, 14 Ja.]

con v. Walder.—(I) pl. 1. S. C.—But if !essee for life grants bis estate to him who has the reversion in fee in his own right, and immediate to the particular estate, this shall essure by way of susrender. Perk. 6. 82.

Roll. R.

[14. As if lesse for 20 years grants all his estate to the lessor, ex287. Trin.

[14. As if lesse for 20 years grants all his estate to the lessor, except a month or a day at the end of the term, this is not any surrender, because the lesse has a reversion. My Reports, adjudged
Bacon v. Waller.]

Bacon v. Waller.]

& S. P. by Coke Ch. J. accordingly; and faid it is very clear he shall have it in several.——(1) pl. 2. S. C.

[15. If

113. If leffee for life grants all his estate to the leffor, this is a But if leffee for life Inrrender. 7 H. 6. 4. b.] grants his estate to lessor rendering rent, it is no surrender. Arg. 2 Roll. R. 474. cites Bendl. Rep. _____This shall not enure as a surrender, because there wants words of surrender, but shall enure by way of grant only. 4 Lé. 237. cites it as adjudged 44 Eliz. in B. R.

[16. If leffee for life leafes to the leffor in reversion, and to the beirs of his body for the life of the lesse, this is not any surrender; for peradventure there may be an heir of the body, who shall not be heir general, and the estates divided. 18 E. 3. 45. admitted.]

17. If tenant for life be contented and agreed with him in reversion, that he shall have the land and his interest for a certain annual rent, and that if tenant for life survive him in reversion, that he shall have the land again; this is not any surrender clearly, because he shews that the lessor shall not have all his estate. D. 8. [136]

Eliz. 251. 93.]

[18. So if the tenant for life be contented and agreed with him It was ain reversion that he shall have the land and his interest for a certain annual rent; this agreement being by parol is not any furrender; for if it should be a surrender, then the reversion of the Kingswell rent should be void, this being by parol, and his intent is apparent to have the rent. And therefore it seems that this is but a lease at will, no livery being made, and so the rent well reserved. D. El. 251. 93. per Curiam. But the justices of assize contra.]

greed in the cale of Brown and that a lesje for years may be determined by words implying a vocatentment of leffee, that the leffor should have the lands again: but it was there doubted if a leafe for life may be so determined, and where in the principal case the lessee delivered the indenture containing the demise to a franger to deliver simul cum toto statu & interesse termini preedict to the lessor, upon the leffor's agregment to pay to leffee 70l. And that superinde the stranger delivered, &c. accordingly, and the leffor accepted thereof, and plucked away the feal; and all this was found by the verdict, and further, that the leffer was content, and afterwards the leffor made a new leafe; this is a good furrender as if it had been found that he had used fuch words. Cro. E. 487. pl. 4. Mich. 38 & 39 Eliz. B. R. Sleigh v. Bateman.

When leffee for years agrees with leffor, and is content that the leffor shall have the land again, it is a good furrender of a term for years, Cro. E. 448. Sleigh v. Bateman.

19. If a man leases for years the remainder over for years, and after the first termor grants his interest to the lessor, this is no furrender by reason of the mesne interest of the term in remainder. Br. Surrender, pl. 52. cites 31 H. 3. & lib. Perkins, tit. Surrender.

20. And if termor makes his lessor his executor and dies, this is no furrender; for he has it to another use; contra Whorwood. Br. Surrender, pl. 32. cites 31 H. 3. & lib. Perkins, tit. Surrender.

21. Where a man leafes for years rendering rent, and the leffee Br. Affise, waives the possession for greatness of the rent, and takes away his cites S. C. goods, and the leffor enters, his entry is not lawful; for this is If the leffe no surrender. Br. Surrender, pl. 25. cites 8 Ass. 20.

waives ib

possession, this is no furrender by the opinion of the Court, unless the lesor agrees to it, and enters, & quere inde for the waiver does not express the intent of the lessee. Br. Surrender, pl. 45. cites 7 H. 6. 1.

22. Tenant by the curtefy was, the reversion to baron and feme; the tenant by the curtefy infeoffed the baron and feme. This was adjudged a surrender to the seme, and no feofiment; and so see that if the feme dies without iffue, the heir of the feme may enter upon the baron; quod nota. Br. Surrender, pl. 26. cites 11 Aff. 14.

If a man seised of land lease the same and grants sbe remainder unto a Granger for life, and the

[137]

23. Formedon against tenant for term of life, the remainder to W. for term of life, and this same tenant for term of life grants or leases his estate to him in remainder for term of life, habend. to the land for life grantee in remainder for term of life of the same grantor's and per Wilby J. clearly this is only a furrender; contra if the tenant for life had leased to a stranger for term of life of the stranger, this had been a forfeiture. Br. Surrender, pl. 17. cites 24 E. 3. 32. 68.

leffee for life grants bis estate to bim in the remainder for life; the law says, that this shall enure by way of surrender.

Perk. L 616. cites 14 H. 8. 15.

24. Assize; feme tenant in tail after possibility of issue extinct. the reversion to R. in fee took baron, the baron and feme aliened to him in reversion, rendering rent for life of the baron, by deed indented with clause of re-entry for non-payment by 8 days. The alience aliened over; the rent [was] arrear; the baron and feme entered for the rent arrear, and the entry adjudged lawful by reason of the rent arrear, and not of the alienation of the alienee, and it cannot be adjudged a furrender, because it was by the baron for his life, and the feme may survive him. Br. Conditions, pl. 112, cites 29 Aff. 64.

25. A. bound by flatute to B. his land is extended. C. recovers against B. in debt, and the land extended by B. is now extended by elegit to C. A. grants his estate to the conusee; it is no surrender. 3 Le. 156. pl. 205. in case of Cadee v. Oliver, Arg. cites 29 Ass.

64. by Seton.

26. In assise; land was given to A. a bastard, and to E. bis seme, and the heirs of A. who had iffue C. and after A. died, and C. took 7. to baron; after which tenant for term of life gave the land to the said J. and C. his feme, and to the heirs of J. and after C. died without issue, by which the lord entered for escheat, and J. the baron brought assis, and upon argument and adjournment, the opinion of the Court was against the plaintiss; by which he was nonsuited; for because C. the feme was within age and also covert baron, this was taken as a surrender and not a gift to the baron; and then because he is not heir of the part of the father of C. scil. of the part of A. who was a bastard, to whom the land was given in fee, and E. who is yet alive had only for term of life, therefore it is a furrender; quod mirum mihi! by reason that the baron was joined. Br. Surrender, pl. 34. cites 39 Ast. 7.

27. Land was given to R. and J. his feme and the heirs of R. and R. died having iffue a daughter C. who took to baron O. and after J. who survived, gave the land to C. and O. her baron in tail, the remainder in fee to O. Quære, if it be a surrender? It seems that it is not by reason that the baron is joined with her. Br. Surrender, pl. 20. cites 39 E. 3. 29.

28. Land was given to baron and feme, the remainder to J. S. the baron discontinued and retook to him and his seme the remainder to W. N. and died; the feme claimed in by the second estate, and surrendered part to W. N. in the last remainder; and because the seme

by

by the taking of the second estate was remitted, and the first remainder also, therefore this gift is no surrender to the second remainder, but only a grant of his estate: for the remainder is in J. S. by award.

Br. Surrender, pl. 36. cites 41 Ass. 1.

29. If my termor agrees that I shall make feoffment to a stranger, Naked con-Sent of tethis is a surrender; per Frowick Ch. J. who said that this case is nant for adjudged in our books. Brooke says, quære, where? because he life, that rebelieves that it is not law. Br. Surrender, pl. 48. cites 41 Ass. 2. vertioner in tail Bould make a feeffment, amounts not to surrender of the estate for life. Resolved per Cun. Hill. 2 W. 3. B. R. Carth. 110. Switt v. Heath.

30. A. leased to B. for life, the remainder to C. in tail, the remainder to D. in fee, and after B. aliens to C. and his feme; this is no surrender, by reason that the feme was jointenant. Br. Forseiture de Terres, pl. 84. cites 41 Aff. 2.

31. If the tenant in dower leases her estate to the heir, rendering Br. Voc. rent, for term of ber life, the heir shall have his age in the life of cher, pl. 30the tenant in dower; for this is a surrender, and the heir is in by Perk. s. the ancestor. Br. Age, pl. 8. cites 45 E. 3. 13. Per Finch.

cites S. C. 623. cites S. C.—Br.

Surrender, pl. 5. cites S. C.

22. In scire facias upon a fine, it seems by the argument, that where fine is levied to baron and feme in tail, the remainder to W. in fee, and the baron dies without iffue, and the feme leafes her effate to W. who has issue, and dies, the issue shall not have scire facias to execute the fine; because the lease to W. the father was a surrender. Br. Surrender, pl. 6. cites 45 E. 3. 18.

33. Fee simple cannot be surrendered without livery of seisin.

Confession, pl. 15. cites 12 H. 4. 20, 21.

34. If a man leases his land for 20 years, and after grants a Br. Charge, rent-charge of 20s, out of it, and after the termor grants his term pl. 10. cites to the lessor within 4 years, the lessor shall hold charged within the 20 years; for this grant is a surrender, and the lessor is in see, and not in by the termor. Br. Surrender, pl. 10. cites 5 H. 5. 8.

35. It is not properly a surrender, but where he who surrenders gives possession to him who takes by the surrender. Br. Surrender, pl. 13. cites 22 H. 6. 51. per tot. Cur. except Port.

36. If a man, seised of an acre of land, lease the same acre for life, the remainder for life unto a stranger, and the lessee grants bis effate unto bis leffor, that shall enure by way of grant; and yet the grantee is seised of the whole reversion at the time of the grant; but the same reversion is not to take effect animediately after the estate of the lease determined, if he in the remainder be living, as he is at the time of the grant. Perk. s. 83.

37. If lessee for life of land grant his estate unto him in the reversion, and to two other men, it is a surrender for no part. Perk.

£ 618.

38. Release of lesse for years to lessor does not amount to a See (H) pl surrender; for release supposes lessor in possession. Jenk. 30. 4. pl. 58.

[138]

Bendl. 35. pl. 59. Anon, S. C. accordingly.

(A.2) pl. 8,

39. A lease is granted to a feme sole for life, remainder to her for 20 years, and after lessor makes a lease for 40 years to J. S. ta commence after the death of the feme, and the term of 20 years; and afterwards J. S. marries the feme, and the feme dies. The baron has both the terms, and his last is not surrendered nor determined; for surrender cannot be before the said term commenced in possession. And. 32. pl. 80. Mich. 5 E. 6. Anon,

40. Three things are incident to a surrender. 1 An actual possession in him who furrenders. 2. An actual remainder or reversion in him to whom the furrender is made. 3. * Confeut and agreement between the parties, Arg. Owen, 97. in case of Petrin, al.

Porey v. Allen.

41. Lease for years; after the lease made lessor says to lesse, Though I have not excepted it in my lease, yet I mean to have the chamber over the kitchen to put my stuff in, till my son comes of age: to which leffee answered, be was well content with that. On which lessor put his stuff there. Per Popham, Att. Gen. this does not amount to a surrender, but is only a permission for a 3 Le. 223. pl. 301. Trin. 30 Eliz. in the Exchequer, Queen v. Littleton,

42. Tenant for life levied a fine come ceo, &c, to him in reversion in fee, and declared the uses to the cognizee and his beirs, upon condition that he paid the tenant for life the yearly sum of 41. during his life, and in default of payment thereof, then to the cognifor for his life, and for one year over, The annuity being not paid, nor demanded, the tenant for life entered. The question was, where ther this fine was a furrender; but it was held, that it was no furrender; for a fine implies a gift in fee-simple, and every party to it shall be estopped to say the contrary. Cro. E, 688. pl. 23.

Trin. 41 Eliz. C. B. Smith v, Warren.

43. The king saised in sec of the rectory of St, Saviour's in demesne as of see, as in right of his crown, demised the same to the church-wardens of St. Saviour's for 21 years. Afterwards by letters patents reciting the said lease, and that the said church-wardens modo habentes, & ad præsens possidentes, the said estate, interest, &c. yet to come in the faid rectory, bad furrendered the same, be, in consideration of the said surrender, and of 201. demised it to them for 50 years. Resolved that there was no occasion of any actual furrender, because the words modo habentes, &c. proved, that at the time of the making the said new demise the other was in being; and that instead of their making any surrender before the new dernite, the acceptance of the new demise should be a sur-10 Rep. 66. b. Trin. 11 Jac. in the Excherender of the old. quer, Church-wardens of St. Saviour's, Southwark,

44. Before remetion of the clerk, the king cannot present the same clerk, who is in by usurpation; for this cannot enure as a [139] surrender and new presentment. See Presentation, (Q. a) pl. 5. and Roll. Rep. 236, in case of the King v. the Bishop of Norwich,

45. R. S. brought waste against H. and E. his wife, and declared, that the queen by letters patents granted the lands to E, for life, remainder to the plaintiff, and that H. the defendant married the said E. and committed waste. The defendants by their plea

Hob. 203. Pl- 257. S. C. the hufband could not confess the lease and marriage; but farther say, that 2 Feb. anno be said to 40 Eliz. they surrendered the estate of the said E. to the queen, to the intent that she should grant a new lease to the said E. and 2 others for their lives; which surrender the queen accepted, and 3 Feb. made a new leafe. Issue being taken thereupon, the jury found the new lease made 3 Feb. reciting that she surrendered the estate and the grant, and that the queen, in consideration of money, &c. and that the new leafe was made with the consent of H. the husband, and that be and E. agreed to it, and held claiming by the said new lease; adjudged that the consideration which procured the new lease was the furrender of the old leafe, which furrender was not absolute, but deseasible, if E. survive, or H. disagree, and then the old leafe is revived. Besides the freehold for life, which H. had in right of E. his wife, could not be given away by his bare affent; but if that lease had been made de novo to him and his wife, then it had been questionable; because the estate passed by implication, viz. by a furrender in law, by the acceptance of the new leafe. Hutt. 7. Trin. 14 Jac. Swaine v. Holman.

Jurrender to the queen but by record; whereas his affent was not of record, but was a matter dehors, as it was found by the jury.

46. It was held, that if the indenture of lease be given up to the leffor, and accepted by him, this is a furrender in law. Clayt. 131. pl. 236. March 1648, before Thorpe serjeant at law, judge of affisc. Anon.

Grantes of rest delivers up the deed to the grantor, this is, no furrender but he may fine for his rent, if he can recover his deed again; for a chose en grant must be surrendered by deed; per Cur. Vent. 297. Trin. 28 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Woodward v. Aston.

47. Where a surrender may be made, and both estates come into the same bands, this amounts to a surrender. Arg. Skin. 263. in case of Knight v. Greenvill, cites Co. Litt. 41, 42. Poph. 30. For no man can have an estate in possession and reversion also, without an intermediate estate in some other,

A Grant by operation of late turns to a surrender. because a man cannot have a citates of equal dignity in the law at the same time. Arg. 3 Med. 302. in the case of Thomson v.

(H) By what Words it may be.

THE word surrender is not necessary to make a surrender, if there are other words which tantamount, adjudged.]

der, pl. 35.

cites S. C. When the words prove a fufficient affent and will of him who is the projecular tenant, that he in the remainder or the reversion shall have the thing which he has or holds, they are words sufficient to make a ferrender, if he to whom the surrender is made do agree thereunto. Perk. s. no7.

[2. If leffee for life saith to the leffor, that he grants that he shall enter into the land, and that he will that he shall have the land, [this cites S.C. amounts to a surrender.] 40 Ass. 16.]

Br. Surren-If leffre for life, or for years, of land, fay to his leffor, that bis will is that his leffer shall enter into the land which he holds for life, or for years, and shall have the same, and by force thereof the lessor does enter into the same, it is a good furrender; and so shall it be, if he say unto his lessor, or unto him in the remainder or reversions that be wills that be have the land, and the leffor does enter by force thereof, or agrees thereto, it is a good furrender; but if the leffor, &c. does not enter by force thereof, nor agrees thereto, the furrender is not good; for he cannot surrender to him against his will. But if he to whom the surrender is made do once agree to the same, he cannot afterwards disagree thereto. And in the time of king E. t. the lessor did enter into the land leased for life, with the assent of the lessee; and because it was not in the presence of good men of credit, it was holden to be a void surrender. But the law is otherwise at this day, &cc. Perk. s. 608.

If the leffee.comes to him in the remainder, or in the reversion, and says to him that be will occupy the land no longer, and be in the remainder by force thereof does enter, it is a good surrender. And if the leffee does say to his lessor, I do surrender unto you the land which I hold of your lease; or if he said, I hold such land or house, &c. and shews certain the land or house, &c. of your lease, and I do surrender the same land or house, &c. to you, and the lessor doth agree thereto, the same is a good surrenders.

Perk. 1. 609.

3. In affise; tenant in tail discontinued, and the discontinuee died seised, and 3 heirs after him, and the 3d heir on his death-bed sent for the issue in tail, and bailed to him the deed of entail; and said to him that he had right to the tenements, and surrendered them to him by parol, and died in the house of the tenements; and the issue in tail entered by the surrender upon the heir of him who surrendered, who interrupted him; and the surrender awarded good, and the entry lawful. Br. Surrender, pl. 33. cites 34 Ass. 2.

8. P. Jenk. 4. Release of lessee for years to lessor, does not amount to a 30. pl. 58. furrender, because of the repugnancy; for the lessee is in possession, and the release supposes the lessor in possession. Jenk. 195.

in reversion. pl. 2.

it is veid; because it cannot enure as a release, for he is in possession; nor can it entire as a surrender for want of apt words. So of lessee for years; per Anderson Ch. J. But Snagg said he knew it ruled in a case of great importance, that though the words did not amount to a surrender, yet the consent and agreement of the lessee, which is proved by the deed, will amount to a surrender. Cro. E. 21. Trin. 25 Eliz. C. B. pl. 2. Anon.

Tenant for years remises, releases, discharges, and for ever quits claim to him in reversion. The Court inclined that it was a good surrender; sed adjornatur. I Lev. 145. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R.

Maon v. Tredway.

version was granted to B. for life, remainder to C. in see. A. attorned to B. Asterwards B. by deed released to C. all his right, &c. with words excluding him to make any claim for the future. C. reciting all this matter, granted his said reversion and remainder to J. S. in see, to whom A. paid the rent; and B. likewise released to J. S. and his heirs, &c. all his right, with like words as in the other release. Dyer, Weston, and Welshe J. held, that nothing passed by this release, because there were no words of surrender in the deed. And Saunders Ch. B. and Browne accorded, but Catlyn and Whiddon e contra. D. 251. 2. pl. 91. Pasch. 8 Eliz. Stepkin v. Lord Wentworth.

6. Tenant in tail leases for years; afterwards lessor covenants and grants with lessee, that he shall have and hold the land to him and others during the life of lessor, but no livery and seisin was made. By the opinion of 3 justices, this is neither surrender nor confirmation to enlarge his estate, and is only a covenant, notwith standing the word grant; but Weston J. seemed e contra, by reason of the word grant. D. 272. pl. 34. Pasch. 10 Eliz. Cardinall v. Sackford.

Cro. E. 156. 7. Tenant at will cannot furrender; and if he says, I agree to 129. Mich. surrender my lands, this by 3 Just, against 1, is not any thing in present.

present, but an act to be done in futuro. Le. 177. pl. 250. 31 & 32 Trin. 31 Eliz. B. R. Sweeper v. Randal.

Eliz. B. R. S. C. accordingly.

8. Lease for life, remainder for life; and afterwards he in re- Poph. 125. mainder for life, during the life of the tenant for life in possession, the name of and in his presence upon the land, furrenders to reversioner by BENNET these words, viz. I surrender and yield up the tenements to you, and v. WESTthen delivers up the lease to the reversioner, by whom the lease was granted to him. Per 3 * Just. this is not good, but it ought to be done by be by deed; but Mountague J. contra. Et adjornatur. Rep. 20. Pasch. 16 Jac. B. R. Bennet's case.

BECK, DUIT states it to 2 Roll. assent of the tepant for life, but to a firanger upon the land in the absence of the lessor; and that he said he surrendered to him in reversion. It was objected that this surrender could not enure to him in reversion, being absent. Sed non allocatur; for the sole point in question was, whether he in remainder for life can furrender without deed? And as to that this rule was taken, viz. that what cannot commence without deal, cannot be granted without deed; as a rent, reversion, common, advowson, &c. But in this case this took effect by livery, and not by deed; and therefore might be determined without deed. Mountague and Haughton agreed, that it might be furrendered without deed, but that it could not be granted over without deed; but Doderidge J. said it could not be surrendered without deed, but that tenant in possession may, or tenant for life, and he in remainder together may surrender to him in the reversion; but this shall enure as 2 several surrenders, first of him in remainder to the tenant for life, and then by the tenant for life to him in the reversion. And Croke J. agreed with Doderidge, because the estate of him in possession is an estopped to the surrender, so that it could not be surrendered without deed. *[141 }

In what Cases a Surrender shall be bindered by See(F)(G). other Estate.

[1. IF lesse for 20 years grants 10 of the said 20 years to the lessor, See (G) pl. yet this is not any surrender, because he himself has a re- 13, 14.5.C. version mesne. Tr. 14 Ja. B. R. adjudged between Bacon and lessor has Waller.] but a future interest; per Doderidge and Haughton J. Roll. R. 388. S. C.

[2. If lessee for years grants all his estate except one day at the end See (G) pl. of the term to the lessor, yet this is not any surrender; for this day is a reversion, and so shall hinder the surrender as strongly as if it had been 20 years. Tr. 14 Ja. B. R. adjudged between Bacon . and Waller.]

3. Lease was made to W. for life, the remainder to P. in tail, But if P. the remainder to T. in tail, the remainder to the right heirs of W. dies without and after W. infeoffed P. and his feme in fee, now T. cannot enter; T. may enfor be has not the immediate remain her. Br. Surrender, where cites ter for the 41 E. 3. 21.

alienation. to his difin-

beritance; per Wiching. quod non negatur. And so see that it is no furrenter, excelle the feme quas joined with P. who was in the remainder; but if the had not been joined, then it feems i had been a furrender; for tenant for life cannot infeofi him in the reversion or remainder. Br. Surrender pl. 3. cites 41 E. 3. 21.

4. In debt the defendant pleaded furrender, and the case was, that an abbot leased land for term of 20 years to B. C. who leased over to E. for 5 years, who leafed his interest by indenture to W. N. reudering 2 marks per annum; and in debt brought by E. against W. N. the defendant pleaded that the full R. and this W. N. now defendant VOL. XX.

his lessee, before any rent arrear, surrendered their estates, which they had in the land, to the abbot first lessor, who agreed to it, judgment, And by all the justices, except Brian, this is no good surrender; for there was no privity between the 2d and 3d lesses, and the first lessor, and therefore a void surrender; and also the third lease, with reservation of the rent, had been void, but by reason of the deed indented; because the second lessee had no reversion in him, and also the surrender in such case is not good without deed; for of a rent, &c. which cannot pass without deed, nor commence without deed, there the furrender of fuch a thing is not good without deed. And note also here, that there is not any immediate [142] reversion or remainder between the 2d lessee and the 3d lessee, and the 1st lessor; and so void, by the best opinion. Br. Surrender, pl. 16. cites 14 H. 7. 2.

5. If a lease for life be made of land by A. to B. the remainder to G. for life, the remainder to D. in tail, and B. furrenders to C. or to A. his lessor (who has the fee in reversion) leaving out him in the remainder for life, this surrender is void to take effect as a furrender; because he unto whom the surrender is made, has not the immediate estate in remainder to him that makes the surrender. But if he who made the surrender had but an estate for years, and in the surrender there be words which amount unto a grant of his estate, then the surrenderee shall take the same by way of grant of his estate, &c. Perk. s. 588.

But if an after-made lease to C. by another

6. A lessee for years remainder for years to B. der for years hinders the furrender of leffee for years to leffor; secus of an after-made lease to commence after the first lease. indenture of Jenk. 256. pl. 49.

the same land had commerced with the lease to B. then it is only a lease by estoppel, and does not hinder the surrender of B. For it is not one and the same estate with the lease of B. and conjoined. But in this case if B. surrender, C. shall enjoy his lease, and if in the last case B: attorns to C. then C. shall have it as a reversion, and the rent as incident, and such riversion binders surrender by B. to A. the first lessor, for he is not immediate to him. Jenk. 256. pl. 49.

> 7. Lesse for life makes a lease for years rendering rent, and after surrenders to the lessor on condition. Lessee for years takes a new lease for years of the lessor; lessee for life performs, the condition and puts out the lessee for years, who re-enters, and the lessee for life brings debt for the first rent reserved, and ruled that it does not lie; for the lease out of which it was reserved is gone and Cro. E. 264. pl. 4. Mich. 33 & 34 Eliz. B. R. Brewster v. Parrot.

How a Surrender may be made.

*Br.Dower, [1. A Surrender may be upon condition. pl. 74. cites Perkins, f. 624. 44 E. 3. 3.] * 14 E. 4. 6. adjudged.

S. P. Br. Surrender, pl. 41. cites 7 E. 4. 26. --- S. P. Co. Litt. 218. b.

You must know, that a surrender of a freebold made by deed indented upon condition is good, and if the furrender be of an office for years in land, then the furrender may be upon condition without deed; and if a furrender be made of the freehold by deed indented upon condition, that if he to whom the furrender is made, do not go unto York within one month next following the date of the furrender, that then it thall be lawful for him who made the surrender to re-enter into the land; the same is a good surrender upon condition. Perk. s. 624.

[2. Tenant for life, and he in reversion for life may surrender without deed, and the estate of him in reversion shall be surrendered thereby; for it seems this shall enure first as a surrender of the lessee to him in reversion, and then as the surrender of him in reversion, so that he surrenders an estate in possession. 27 Ass. 46. adjudged.

[3. A surrender of an estate for life may be without livery. As tenant in dewer gave 44 Aff. 3. Curia.] the land to bim in the reversion by dedi, concess & confirmavi for her life rendering rent, and for default of payment to re-enter; and in affile brought by the tenant in dower against him of the land, be pleaded the deed qued ipfa ratificavit & confirmavit the land to him in reversion then seised of the reversion habendum for life of the tenant in dower, rendering 5 l. rent, which he has been always ready to pay, and would not use the deed as a gift, but as a surrender; and the opinion of the Court was, that it is a surrender and not a leafe; and this notwithstanding the condition and the rent reserved. Br. Surrender, pl. 37. cites 44 Aff. 3.

But tenant of fee-simple cannot surrender to the lord without livery of seisin. Br. Surrender, pl. 9. cites 12 H. 4. 21. Br. Condition, pl. 15. cites S. C. *[143]

4. In assise, it was admitted a good bar, that the tenant brought Br. Surrenpracipe quod reddat, scilicet, dum fuit infra atatem against the plaintiff, and he rendered to him the land in pais, judgment fi actio; for But Brooke per Fish, this is all that the writ demands; for it is præcipe N. quod reddat B. fuch land. By which the iffue was taken, that he disseised him, absque hoc that he had any thing of his render, the writ is quod nota; and the affife was taken; which faid that he did not that he shall Br. Barre, pl, 64. cites 27 Ass. 37. furrender.

der, pl. 28. cites S. C. fays, it seems that the intent of come into the court where the writ is returnable, and render it there, so that it may be of record to bar the demandant at another time; and yet the writ says further, et nist fecerit, & prælictus (le demandant) fecerit te fecurum de c'amore suo prosequend, june sum, per bonos summonit, prædict. (le tenentem) quod sit, &c. oftensor' quare non fecerit, &c. And so it seems that in ancient time, it sufficed that the tenant render in pais according to the words of the write

- 5. Leffee for years cannot furrender by attorney; but he may make a deed importing a furrender, and a letter of attorney to another to deliver it; per Clench. Le. 36. pl. 45. Trin. 28 Eliz. B. R. Anon.
- 6. A surrender may be to an use. Cro. E. 668. pl. 23. Trin. Whether lands in fee 41 Eliz. in C. B. Smith v. Warren. may be furrendered to an use was doubted by Coke. Roll. R. 412.—They may be surrendered according to the custom of a manor, Rell. R. 411. Wastell v. Yelton ______ 3 Buist. 270. Elkin v. Wastell, Mich. 14 Jac. S. C. and there 231. It was urged that fee-timple lind may ! Surrendered by the custom, and that it had been so adjudged here; and this seems admitted by Coke Ch. J.
- In what Cases Surrender may be without Deed, Bennet V. and in what not. What Thing. Westbeck. (ix) pt. 20
- [1. A Corodie cannot be surrendered without deed. i2 II. 4. 17.] [2. Such thing which cannot be created without deed, can-Br. Monitrans, pinot be furrendered without deed. 19 H. 6. 33. b.] 54. S. P. çites S. C. ___S. C. cited Poph. 137. Faich. 16 Ja in cafe of Lennat v. Waltbeck. ___S. P. but a thing which may be leased without deed may be surrendered without deed, though the lease was by deed a per Markham. Br. Surrender, pl. 12. cites S. C.

S. P. Br. [3. As a rent charge or rent seck cannot be furrendered with surrender, pl. 12. cites out deed. 19 H. 6. 33. b.]

S. C.——S. P. Ibid. pl. 16. cites 14 H. 7. 2.—Br. Monstrans, pl. 54. cites S. C. But furrender of land is good without deed thereof made; for it may pass without deed as by livery.——S. P. Perk. pl. 581, 582.

[4. Lesse for years of a manor cannot surrender it without deed, because it cannot pass without deed. Tr. 5 Ja. B. agreed per Curiam, between Bucknam and Warnford.]

If lesse for [5. If a man grants a reversion for years by deed as he ought, life be of and after this comes into possession, this may be surrendered without a house, and deed. Tr. 5]a. B. R. per Coke.]

the grantor

grants the reversion unto a stranger for life, and the lessee attorns, the grant is void if it be not by deed. And yet if the lessee dies, and the grantee enters into the land, be may surrender the same without deed and out of the land, if the surrender be made so thin the county subere the land is. But if the surrender be made in another county, it ought to be by deed, &c. Perk. 1. 583.

[144] 6. If a man be tenant by the curtefy, or tenant in dower, of an advowson, rent or other thing that lies in grant, albeit there the estate begins without deed; yet in respect of the nature and quality of the thing that lies in grant, it cannot be surrendered without deed. Co. Litt. 338. a.

7. So it is if a lease for life be made of lands, the remainder for life, albeit the remainder for life began without deed; vet because remainders and reversions, though they be of lands, are things that lie in grant, they cannot be surrendered without deed.

Co. Litt. 338. a.

- 8. A. tenant for life, remainder to B. and C. for life. C. purchases the reversion in see; A. and B. surrender to C. but without deed; per Fenner J. the surender is void; for if it be good it must first be the surrender of him in remainder, which cannot be without deed, and it cannot be the surrender of the first tenant for life to him; for there is no word of surrender between them. Cro. E. 269. pl. 9. Hill. 34 Eliz. B. R. Perkins v. Perkins.
- 9. A corporation aggregate cannot make an express surrender without deed in writing under their seal, yet they may by all in law surrender their term without writing; for fortion & potention est dispositio legis quam hominis. Admitted. 10 Rep. 67. b. Trin. 11 Jac. in the Churchwardens of Saint Saviour's, Southwark's case.

Leffee for years agreed to surrender for his lease to the lessor, and delivers the key, which lessor of the lessor of the key,

10. 29 Gar. 2. cap. 3. enacts, That no leases, estates, interest of freehold, or terms of years, or any uncertain interests in or out of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, not being copyhold or customary interest, shall be surrendered, unless by deed or note in writing signed by the parties, making them, or their agents authorised by writing, or by operation of law.

accepts, but accepts, but accepts, but a series afterwards refused to take the surrender of the lease; decreed by Lords Commissioners that the lease should be discharged of the rent. 2 Vern. 212. pl. 109. Mich. 1689. Natchbolt alias Knatchbull v. Porter.

Upoz

Upon a case reserved to the Lord Ch. B. Gilbert for his judgment, at his chambers, he gave his opinion, that fince the statute of frauds and perjuries, a lease for years cannot be surrendered by cancelling of the indenture, without writing, because the intent of that statute was to take away the manner they formerly had of transferring interests to lands, by figns, symbols, and words only; and therefore as a livery and seisin, on a parol seoffment, was a sign of passing the freehold before the statute, but is now taken away by the statute, so he takes it, that the cancelling of a lease was a sign of a surrender before the flatute, but is now taken away, unless there be a writing under the hand of the party. And the words, viz. By act and operation of law are to be construed a furrender in law by the taking a new lease, which, being in writing, is of equal notoriety with a surrender in writing. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 236. Cales in Ircland, in time of Geo. 1. Magennis v. Mac-Cullogh.

(L. 2.) What Estate.

[1] [6. E STATE for life of land may be surrendered without S.P. And deed. 40 E. 3. 41. b. 19 H. 6. 3.3. b. 50 Ass. 1.] without livery: bevery; because it is but a yielding or a restoring of the estate again to him in the immediate reversion or remainder, which are always favoured in law. Co. Litt. 338. a.

Liffee for life or years of land, or of a house, upon condition by deed indepted, may surrender his estate without deed. Perk. pl. 583.

[2] [7. One jointenant may furrender to his companion (admitting that he may surrender) without deed. 40 E. 3. 41.]

3. Surrender of a term upon condition, is good without deed. S. P. Br. Contra of such surrender of a lease for term of life upon condition; for this ought to be by deed. Br. Surrender, pl. 40. cites 7 E. 4. 49. 7 E. 4. 16.

Conditions, pl. 149. cites

4. Estates in fee of some things issuing out of lands may be determined by the surrender of the deed to the tenant of the land by which deed it was granted, &c. Perk. f. 585.

(L₃) To whom. [The King.]

[145]

[1.] [8. THE tenant of the king (admitting that he may surrender) cannot surrender without deed. Contra, 49 E. 3. 5. 50 Aff. 1.]

(M) What shall be said a Surrender of Part, or of all.

[1.] F lessee for years of land accepts a new lease by indenture of part of the land before leafed to him, this is a furrender only for this part, and not for the whole. Hill. 43 Eliz. B. R. per Curiam, between Fish and Campion.

2. A man leased for life rendering rent, and after the tenant for life granted his estate to the lessor and 2 others; and the best opinion was, that this is a surrender for the 3d part; for when the fee and the franktenement come together, the one determines the other, and so the jointure determines, and they are tenants in common; and yet the opinion of Perkins in his book is, that it is no furrender for any part for the advantage of the other two; but

If tenant for life makes a hase for bis orun life to the leffer, the remainder to the liffer, and un istranger, in fee; in this does not so appear in this book. Br. Surrender, pl. 11. cites this case, forasmuch 7 H. 6. 2, 3.

 M_3

as the limitation of the fee should work the wrong, it enures to the lessor as a surrender for the one moiety, and a forfaiture as to the remainder of the stranger; for he cannot give to the lessor that which he had before; and as to the remainder to the stranger, it is a forfeiture for this moiety, and when the lessor enters he shall take the benefit of it. Co. Litt. 335. a.

If liffee grants bis estate to leffor and a stranger, this is a surrender for a moiety. Arg. 2 Roll. R.

445. in case of Eustace v. Scayen.

3. Where there are two co-heirs, and the tenant for life grants his estate to the one, this is no surrender but for the one moiety, and of the other moiety the other may have writ of waste, though the action of waste shall be in name of both, and the one shall be severed as it seems. But quære; for it seems the action of waste shall be of the moiety; quære before partition and severance of the land. Br. Sutrender, pl. 23. cites 21 H. 7. 40.

4. If A., B., and C. be joint feoffeer of lands, to have and to hold unto them and to the heirs of B. and afterwards A. does release all his right to C. and afterwards C. surrenders to B., &c. it is a good surrender for the 3d part of the land, &c. Perk. f. 587.

5. If I hold one acre of land for life, of the lease of the father of J. S. and I hold one other acre for life or years of the lease of J. S. and I surrender unto J. S. the land which I hold of his lease, by this surrender he shall not have the land which I hold of the lease of his sather, notwithstanding that the reversion of the same acre be in him by descent from his father, &c. Perk. s. 611.

6. A., B., and C. jointenants join in the lease of a house to 7. S.

to commence from Michaelmas last. Afterwards on the same day B. and C. without A. demise the same house to J. S. to commence from the same time and for the same number of years as in the lease made by all three; and in ejectment by J. S. he declares upon both these leases. Resolved that the declaration was not double; for when the 3 demised the whole, and afterwards 2 of them demised all the same thing, this is a surrender of the sirst lease, and a new lease of their two parts, and the old lease continues as to the 3d part of A. and so J. S. entered, and was possessed by both leases, viz. of the 3d part of A. by the sirst lease, and of the two parts of B. and C. by the 2d lease; and so affirmed a judgment in B. R. 3 Lev. 117. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. in Cam. Scacc. Tubervill v. Stockton.

(N) Pleadings.

In affile Bagot pleaded surrender of letters patents of the office of clerk of the crown of the Chancery into the hands of the king, viz. Quod idem W. S. coram dicto domino rege in Cancell. sua tali die & anno eadem Cancell. apud villam Westm. tunc existente personaliter constitutus ex certis causis ipsum moventibus totum jus, statum, tit. & interesse sua quod ipse in dicto officio ac in 20 li. pro exercitio ejusdem habuit, concessit, ac officium illud gratis, pure, ponte, realiter, & absolute sursum reddidit dimist, & resignavit, mesato dominiter.

no regi, ac literas illas fibi inde factas in Cancell. predicta ibidem en eausis prædictis tunc ibid. restituit Cancellandas. Br. Surrender,

pl. 18. cites 9 E. 4. 7.

2. In replevin the defendant rejoined, that lessee surrendered Litt. Rep. dimissionem prædictam, without saying that he surrendered the tenements or all the estate therein. But it was held, that these words imply all his estate and interest, and so it is intended; and though the usual course is to plead surrender of the estate, yet all is one, and so much is implied. Cro. C. 101. Hill. 3 Car. C. B. faid such an Peto v. Pemberton.

83. S. C. & P.accordingly; for in common parlance, when it is one had a lease for years, not only a writing is intended, but a term; and in the books it is said that he surrendered his lease, &c. and cited SIR JOHN PAGINTON'S CASE adjudged, which was, that he made a feoffment in fee upon condition, that if he paid money at such a day, then the charter of feoffment should be utterly frustrate and void, but did not say that the estate should be void, or the livery and seifin, &c. And yet adjudged that this goes to the estate, and yet the deed does not make the estate, but the livery. And fays Coke remembered this case in 5 Rep. and that the case is more strong than a lease for years, as the principal case is, which is only a contract; that if it was estate of franktenement, it ought to be intrando agreavit.

3. The constant form of pleading a surrender, is not only to plead the surrender, but to plead it with an acceptance, viz. to which the furrenderee agreed; and so are all the precedents, unless one or two in Rastal. Per Pollexsen Ch. J. Rooksby & Powell. 3 Lev. 284. Trin. 2 W & M. B. C. in case of Thompson v. Leach.

For more of Surrender in general, see Copyhold, Extinguistment, fines, Release, and other proper titles.

Survivor.

(A) What Things Survivor shall take.

1. IF an obligation be made to many for one debt, he who fur-vives shall have the whole debt or duty. And so it is of other covenants and contracts, &c. Litt. s. 282.

2. Money lent on a mortgage in trust, and with intention, that [147] each of the mortgagees should have his money and interest again, there shall be no survivorship, Chan. Rep. 57. 7 Car. Petty v. Styward.

3. Joint farmers of excise; per Finch C. if there had been no covenant that it should survive, yet in equity it ought, by reason M 4 of the joint charge and expence. If there had been any agreement among the farmers that it should not survive, that might have altered the case. Vern. 33. Hill. 1681. Hays v. Kingdom.

4. Where two become jointenants, or jointly interested in a thing by way of gift, or the like, there the same shall be subject to all the consequences of law. But as to a joint undertaking in the way of trade, or the like, it is otherwise. Vern. Rep. 217. Hill. 1683. Jeffries v. Small.

5. If a guardianship was granted to 2, if one dies, it shall sur-See 2 Lev. 213, 219. vive to the other. G. Equ. Rep. 177. Pasch. 8 Geo. 1. Earl of Hill. 29 &

Shaftsbury v. Countess of Shaftsbury. 30 Car. 2.

B. R. Lowry v. Reines, where this point was moved, and cited D. [189. b. &c. pl. 15. &c. Mich. 2 & 3 Eliz.] Lord Bray's case, that by the death of one the authority is determined; but in the principal case the Court said nothing to the point.

(B) In what Cases Survivor shall take.

1. TF a demise of lands be by 3, on condition to pay them 100% equally to be divided, and one of them dies, his executor or administrator shall have the money. Brownl. 32. a nota there.

If a restekarge be granted by A. to bufband and quife, during the life of the wife, and

2. If I make a leafe for years, reserving rent during my life, and my wife's life, if I die, the rent is gone, because she is a stranger; and she shall never have the rent, because she has no interest in the land. If one of them die, nothing can survive to the other, and a limitation must be taken strictly, otherwise it is by way of grant, that shall be taken strongly against the grantor. the wife sur-Brownl. 39. a nota.

shall have the rent. Brownl. 171. Hill. 15 Jac. Brown v. Dunry.

3. Lands charged by deed with 1000l. to be raifed and divided among 5 children, one dies before distribution; the survivor shall have his share, and not the devisee of him that is dead. 2 Chan.

Rep. 129. 29 Car. 2. Woolstenholm v. Swetnam.

4. Joint-purchase by A. and B. of a building-lease, in the name of C. who declared it a trust for A. and B. and of another building-lease in D.'s name, who also declared the trust for A. and B. -A. dics, and M. his executor, and E. (who had taken the houses in execution) assigned to J. S.—B. became bankrupt, and the commissioners assigned to R. S. ____ R. S. conveys to W. S. ——W. S. denies notice of the title of J. S. but confessed his having C.'s assignment, and the declaration of trust put therein, and that the lease to C. was not assigned to him by any express words.—Yet, W. S. being a purchaser, though under those circumstances, Trevor Master of the Rolls dismissed the bill without costs, and the rather because the plaintiff did not bring the bill till after defendant's purchase, though plaintiss's purchase was made 2 years before. Vern. R. 360. Hill. 1685. Usher and Prime v. Aylworth, Edmonds, & aP.

(C) By what Limitation Survivor shall take.

GIFT to 2 in tail; here are estates tail executed with several inheritances; but if one die, the other shall have all by survivor for his life; per Haughton. Roll. R. 178. Pasch. 13 Jac. in case of Bowles v. Berry.

2. So gift to 2 and the beirs of one, if he who has the fee dies, the other shall have all for his life; per Haughton. Roll. R. 178.

in case of Bowles v. Berry.

3. Lands were devised to baron and feme for their lives, and after the decease of the seme, then to the child or children of her body; in this case the baron's estate determines upon the death of the feme. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 653. 671, 672. Mich. 1734. Cowper v. Earl Cowper.

4. But a limitation to them for their lives (without more) will undoubtedly carry an estate for both their lives, during the life of the survivor; per Master of the Rolls. Ibid. 671. cites

5 Rep. 9. Brudenell's case.

5. And he faid, that this is the legal as well as literal and grammatical construction of those words, (for their lives,) which being plural, must comprehend both, and join them together, where there is no particular reason to vary from it; as where an office was granted to 2 for term of their lives, this was held in Auditor Curle's case, 11 Rep. 3. b. to determine upon the death of one. But in a limitation of lands, it is otherwise. And the reason of the difference is this, a jointenancy of lands may be severed; and if it be not, the interest must consequently survive, which is otherwise in an office; and that it is so in lands, is not from the import of the words of that limitation, but from the institution or operation of law; for if the words imported a survivorship, it would do so in both cases. Besides, upon a severance of the jointenancy in land, the estate does not continue during the life of each donee; but determines upon the death of one for his moiety, and of the other for his; and cited D. 67. a. and Co. Litt. # 197. a. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 672. in case of Cowper v. Earl "It seems Cowper.

it should be 191. 2.

(D) Survivorship. In what Cases among what Persons.

1. YUS accrescendi inter mercatores locum non habet; this extends to joint shopkeepers; and per Coke, there are 4 forts of merchants, viz. adventurers, dormant, travelling, and resident; and neither of them shall take by survivorship. 2 Brownl. 99. in a nota there.

Noy, 55. Anon. That a joint-bond to jointtraders thall not furvive; per Owen. ---No survivorship between merchauts. Chan. Cases, 127. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. in case of Holtscomb v. Rivers. --Neis. Chan. Rep. 139. in S. C.

(E) By what Words a Thing shall survive the Person, or die with him.

1. A N award was, that A. shall pay to B. during the term of 3 Le. 65. pl. 97. S.P. fix years, towards the education and bringing up of such an and there one, an infant. Within the 2 first years of the term the infant Dyer fays, that this dies. Cited by Dyer, who faid, it was adjudged that the sum case was in ought to be paid for the whole term after; for the words (towards C. B. about his education) are only to shew the intent and consideration of the 3 years before. payment of that sum, and are not words of condition, &c. 2 Le. *[149] 154. in pl. 186. 19 Eliz. In C. B. Anon.

Joint covenant shall survive, as one dies, then there is nothing to survive; per Doderidge J. where A. 3 Bulst. 31. Pasch. 13 Jac. in case of Quick and Harris v. Ludand D. to give bond to pay 101. to B. who dies, the covenant survives. Brownl. 207. Yates v. Rolles.

with B., C.,

(F) In what Cases the Survivor shall bring Actions, or be charged alone, or he and the Executors or Heirs of the other.

If the heir be within age, and the charged with the whole, but they and the heir of the conusee the deceased shall be equally charged; quod nota. Br. Charge, pl. 27. cites 29 Ass. 37.

against the 3, it is a good plea that the 4th is dead, and his issue within age, and by his age the perolected shall demur against all; per judicium; quod note, that charge shall not survive; and it is not said there if they were bound jointly and severally or not. Br. Jointenants, pl. 27. cites 39 Ass. 37.—And execution shall be against the 3, and the heir of the other, and well; and judgment given, and affirmed in error. Br. Error, pl. 191. cites 29 Ass. 37—Br. Parol Demur, pl. 16. cites S. C.—.

Br. Age, pl. 36. cites S. C. per Seton and Shard, but Mowbray contra.

• It should be (29).

2. In debt upon bond against busband and wife, as beiress to ber sether, they pleaded non est factum of the father. The jury sound that the bond was made to the plaintiff and another; whereas in truth the plaintiff declared on a bond made to himself only, without mentioning the other obligee, and he as survivor brought the astion. The Court was clear of opinion, that the plaintiff ought to have declared upon the special matter. Le. 322. pl. 453. Mich. 30 & 31 Eliz. C. B. Dennis v. St. John.

3. If a bond is made to 3, to pay money to one of the 3, they must all join in the action, for they are all but as one obligee. And if he to whom the money is payable dies, the other 2 who survive ought to sue, though they have no interest in the money contained in the condition; per Cur. Yelv. 177. Trin. 8 Jac. B. R.

in the case of Rolls v. Yates.

- 4. In debt on bond it appeared upon over, that A., B., and C. were bound jointly, and that A. was dead; whereas the action was brought against his executor, and the other 2. Upon demurrer the Court were of opinion that the action was not well brought; for by the death of one of the obligees, his executor is wholly discharged. Sid. 238. pl. 7. Hill. 16 & 17 Car. 2. B. R. Osborn v. Crosbern & al.
- 5. A judgment was obtained jointly against 3, and one of them dies, and the plaintiff sued a seire facias against the executor of him that was dead, and the 2 survivors. The judges seemed to incline, that the charge did survive, and the executor was not liable; but per Wylde, he might have sued a scire facias against the heir and the 2 survivors, because as it charged the realty, it did not survive; but he could not charge the executor. Freem. Rep. 366. pl. 468. Pasch. 1674. Anon.

Saunders
of counsel with the executor, cited a case of Norton AND HARvey, where Harvey being executor was sued, and pleaded

feveral judgments, and that he had fully administered; and amongst other # judgments pleaded one which was recovered against his testator, and an estranger; and because he did not aver that his testator survived, the plea was ruled to be ill. Ibid.

[150]

For more of Survivor in general, see Devile, Jointenants, Trust, and other proper Titles.

Bulpicion.

(A) What is good Cause of Suspicion to detain a Person.

It ILL of false imprisonment in B. R. the defendant said that certain persons said to him that the plaintiff and J. N. were come to L. with certain oxen, which were stole, as they thought; and be came and found the oxen in an obscure house, and arrested him upon suspicion; judgment si actio. And per Gascoign and Hull, it is no plea; for † suspicion is no cause of arrest, unless a selony was committed in the country before. Et adjornatur. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 4. cites 7 H. 4. 35.

Bridgm.62.
Arg. in case of Weal v.
Wells, cites
S. C. that fuspicion cannot be tried, because it is but the imagination of a man,

which lies in his own conceit.——— † Serjeant Hawkins says, that generally no suspicion will justify an arrest where no treason or felony hath been committed, or dangerous wound given. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 76. s. 16.

But the Serjesor thinks that this rule holds not as to arrests on a kne and cry, or by virtue of a warrest from a justice of peace. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 76. s. 16, 17.

2. J

2. It is good cause to arrest a man, inasimuch as he is vagrant, exercising no trade, nor doing any work. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 22. cites 7 E. 4. 20.

Goeds were follow and found in the house of the plaintiff, and he would not show bow be came by them, this gave good cause of suspicion, and being examined before a justice, giving various and uncertain answers, aggravated the suspicion, and was just cause of hinding him to sessions. Cro. E. 901. pl. 4. Mich. 44 & 45 Eliz. B. R. Chambers v. Taylor.

3. So that parcel of the goods stole were found in the possession of the plaintiff. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 22. cites 7 E. 4. 20.

* Orig. is (Pi'.)

[151]

- 4. False imprisonment made at W. in the county of K. The desendant said, that at the time, &c. T. Fawconbridge with 20,000 men, as rebels and traitors to the king, intending to depose the king, affaulted the city of London, and burned houses, and killed A. and B. and the citizens drove them to Blackheath; and the common voice and fame was, that the plaintiff was one of them, and the * defendant suspecting him thereof, took him at W. and because there was no gaol in the county of K. where he might put him for doubt of rebels, be carried him to London, and there imprisoned him. And per Cur. a man cannot arrest another for suspicion, if he himself has not suspicion thereof; nor he cannot justify by command of him who has suspicion. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 25. cites 11 E. 4. 4. ---But after fol. 7. the opinion was, that it is no plea, if he does not fay that he durst not carry the plaintiff to the gaol of Kent for doubt of rebels. Quod nota; for a man cannot justify the taking in one county, and the imprisonment in another county, unless for such special cause; but where the gaol of one county serves in two counties, there he may plead it and justify, &c. And the plaintiff maintained his writ absque hoc, that the common voice and fame in London was, that he was one of the rebels.
- done, and the common fame and voice of the country was, that the plaintiff was of ill government, and that he did the felony, by which he who was robbed came to the constable, &c. and required him to arrest the plaintiff, whereupon the constable came and required the defendant to aid him, by which he aided him to arrest the plaintist, which is the same imprisonment. And per Keble, Vavisor, and Townsend, the plea is good; and it is lawful to arrest him by the suspicion of him who was robbed; and a man may justify the taking the goods of an alien, as servant of the Duke of G. and yet every one may seise them as well as another. Contra Brian and Hawes, and that the suspicion cannot extend but to him who has the suspicion, and to no other. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 14. cites 2 H. 7. 15.

6. In false imprisonment the defendant said that J. S. was point of and the common voice and same was, that the plaintiff had done it, by which he as servant of W. N. sheriff took the plaintiff, and carried him to the prison. And per Cur. he who justifies as here, ought to allege that such a one was possened, and therefore for suspicion of selony he shall say that such selony was committed, &c. and this is traversable; and per tot. Cur. he cannot justify as servant of the sheriff, but of his own authority; for when a felony is done, and suspicion is, every one who has the suspicion may arrest the party, but not by the command of the sheriff, unless the sheriff has writ ad illum arrestand. by which the defendant amended his plea in this point; quod nota bene. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 16. cites 5 H. 7. 4.

S. C. cited Arg. Bridgm.62. Trin. 14 Jac. in case of Weak v. Wells.

fcrvant

7. And per Davers and Brian, if a man be indicted of felony, this is a sufficient cause of suspicion to arrest him; quod Jay and Keble negaverunt; for process ought to be awarded, and the indictment may be false. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 16. cites

5 H. 7. 4.

8. Common voice and fame is not sufficient to arrest a man, S.P. Arg. where no felony is done. Contra, where a felony is done. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 16. cites 5 H. 7. 4.

Br. in case of Bridgm. 62. Weal v. Wells. -

S. P. Arg. Godb. 406. cites 7 H. 4. 35. S. P. 2 Inft. 52. Buift. 149. Trin. 9 Jac. in the case of Wale v. Hill, Arg. cites 2 H. 7. 5. 5 H. 7. 5. 26 H. 8. 9. & 7 E. 4. 20. That common fame, in some cases, may be a good justification in a false imprisonment; but this is to be taken, if the cause, for which he was taken, be public; but otherwise it is, where the cause is private; that for taking of a man's goods in a private manner, there he ought to shew specially, that the goods were found with him, and in his possession, and not to go by belief, and to give credence to every particular man; but he ought for to shew some good and apparent cause to the Court, and so is 7 E. 4.

If a man be robbed in the night, and it is the common voice and fame that J. D. did it, a man may arrest him by the fame of this county where, &cc. Contra by the voice of another county. Per Choke & Brian. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 25. cites 11 E. 4. 4.

This fame, Bracton describes well: fama que suspicionem inducit oriri debet apud bonos & graves. non quidem malevolos & maledicos, sed providas & fide dignas personas, non semel, sed sæpius, quia clamor minuit & defamatio manifestat. 2 Inst. 52.

9. Hue and ery is good cause to take a man for suspicion of fe- S. P. Br. lony, and if it be made without cause, he who made it shall be punisbed, and not the other who arrested the man. Br. Trespass, pl. 16. cites pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

Faux Imprifonment, 5 H. 7. 4. ---- S. P.

Ibid. pl. 25. cites 11 E. 4. 4. ---- S. P. 2 Inst. 52.

10. A justice of the peace himself cannot arrest a man for suspi- Br. Faux. cion of felony, unless he himself suspects him, and not by the suspicion of another; and therefore cannot make a warrant to arrest cites S. C. him upon suspicion * of another; but he who has the suspicion of -The defelony in another, may arrest him himself. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 8. cites 14 H. 8. 16.

Imprisonment, pl. 33. fendant cannot arrest any of su/picion of another, but of himself. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 22. cites 7 E. 4. 20. No causes of suspicion whatsoever, let the number and probability of them be ever so great, will justify the arrest of an innocent man by one who is not Limitelf induced by there to suspect him guilty, whether he make fuch arrest of his own head, or in obedience to the commands of a private person, or even of a sonfiable. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 76. f. 15. [152]

11. If A. be suspected, and he fleeth, or hides himself, it is a Absenting 2 Inft. 52. good cause to arrest him. notice of a warrant against him for robbery committed, is good cause of suspicion. Cro. E. 871. pl. 7 Hill. 44 Eliz. B. R. Pain v. Rochester and Whitfield.

12. If-treason or felony be done, and one has just cause of suspicion, this is a good cause, and warrant in law, for him to arrest any man; but he must show in certainty the eause of his suspicion; and whether the suspicion be just or lawful, shall be determined by the justices in an action of false imprisonment brought by the party grieved, or upon a habeas corpus, &c. 2 Inst. 52.

13. Refusal to shew cattle which are charged to be stolen is a good cause of suspicion, and to carry before a justice of the peace to be examined; per Doderidge J. 3 Bulst. 287. Hill. 14 Jac.

in case of Weal v. Wells.

(B) Pleadings.

Br. Double, 1. TN false imprisonment in S. the defendant said, that before the pl. 151. imprisonment B. was killed in S. and the plaintiff was in the cites S. C. company of the murderers at the time of the felony; and the fame of the ----S. C. county of S. was, that the plaintiff was party to the felony, by which cited Arg. Bridgm. 61. the defendant found the plaintiff at S. and arrested him for suspicion in cale of of felony, and committed him to the sheriff, which is the same impri-Weal v. somment. And Brian said, the plea is double, viz. the same, and Wells, that the defenthe being in the company. But Markham J. contra; for in such dant trajustification a man may make 20 causes of suspicion, and all is versed the indictment only one suspicion. Brian said, he imprisoned him de son tort without demesne, absque hoc that he was in company, or that there was that, that fuch fame, and was not suffered to have both, by which he trathe plaintiff was in their versed the being in the company only. Br. Faux Imprisonment, company, and without pl. 22. cites 7 E. 4. 20.

that, that
the report was so, &c. And Nidkam (Markham) said there, that issue could not be taken upon the report, but upon the matter in fact; for if men say in the country that I am a thief, that is no cause to arrest me; but matter in fact ought to be shewed, which is traversable. Whereupon issue was taken upon the first matter only. And in the 9th of Edw. 4. it is holden that a man ought to shew some matter in fact, to prove that the plaintist is suspected. And II Edw. 4. 46. in a false imprisonment, the desendant, who justisses upon a false imprisonment for selony, ought to shew some matter in fact to induce his suspicion, or that his goods were in his possession, of which the country may take notice. And in the 17 Edw. 4. 5. in a false imprisonment the desendant justissed, because that A. and B. did rob another, and did go to the house of the plaintist; whereupon the constable did suspect him, and did require the desendant to assist him in arresting him, &c. and holden there, that they ought to surmise some cause of suspicion, or otherwise the plea was not good.

2. In trespass the defendant justified, because a felony was done in the country, and the defendant had suspicion of the plaintiff, and entered into the house, and there found the ox that was stole, by which he arrested him. And per Cur. he ought to carry him to gaol; to which he said, that the plaintiff rescued himself. And it was awarded a good plea, though he did not say that the plaintiff was suspected in the country; for he did not arrest him but sor suspicion which he had in himself. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 27. cites 20 E. 4. 6.

* 10 H. 7.

3. Whosoever would justify the arrest of an innocent person, 17. b. 2 H. by reason of any suspicion, must not only shew that he suspected the party * himself, but must also set forth the † cause which into b. 5. a. 7 duced him to have such a suspicion, that it may appear to the Ed.4. 20.3. Court to have been a sufficient ground for his proceeding. Also

it

4. b. Cro.

12 Rep. 91. 10 H. 7.

17. b. 2 H.

16. a. 17 E. 4. 5. a. b.

52. Finch.

340. 17 E. 4. 5. a. b. .

† 2 Inft.

7. 15. b.

E. 871.

it feems I certain, that regularly he ought expressly to shew, that b. 11 E. 4the very same crime for which he made the arrest, was actually committed. But if a || man have several causes of suspicion, he is not H.P.C.93. bound to insist upon some one of them only, but may allege them all; for that the replication de son tort demesne answers the As s where a man arrests another, who is actually guilty of the crime for which he is arrested, it seems that he needs not, in justifying it, set forth any special cause of his suspicion; but may say in general, that the party feloniously did such a fact, for which he arrested him, &c. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 77. 1. 18. cites the books in the margin. 1 E. 4. 20. a. Bridgm. 62. 7 H. 4. 35.

1 8 E. 4. 3. b. 27 H. 8. 23. a. Cro. J. 194. Fiach. 340. 1 7 E. 4. 20. 19 E. 4. 5. a. b. Bridgm. 62. Fin. 394. 4 H. 7. 1. b. 2. 2. 5 10 H. 7. 14. b. Fits. Faux Imprisonment, 5.

(A) Taliter Processum.

1. TRESPASS for taking his beasts. Defendant justified by a plaint in a hundred-court, by which taliter procesfum fuit, that the plaintiff was nonfuited, and costs taxed, and a precept to levy; whereby he took the beafts, and traversed, that he was guilty before the delivery of the precept, or after the return. Upon demurrer it was objected, that this short way of pleading a judgment in inferior courts is not allowable. non allocatur; for it is good enough, fetting out the plaint levied, but ought not to commence at the judgment, viz. that consideratum fuit. 2 Lev. 81. Hill. 24 & 25 Car. 2. B. R. Doe v. Parmiter.

2. In trespass for taking his cattle, the defendant justified by virtue of an execution in an action of tréspass in the hundred-court. The plaintiff demurred. Exception was taken, that the defendant, reciting the proceedings below, faith, taliter processum fuit; whereas he ought particularly to shew all that was done, because not being in a court of record the proceedings may be denied, and tried by a jury. But the Court inclined that it was well enough, and the safest way to prevent mistakes; but if the plaintiff had replied de injuria sua propria absque tali causa, that had traversed all the proceedings. But no judgment was given. 2 Mod. 102. Trin. 28 Car. 2. C. B. Lane v. Robinson.

-3. In trespass and false imprisonment, the defendant justified Freem. by process out of the court of Warwick, on a judgment had there, Rep. 322. on a plant in trepass, super quo taliter processum suit, that Tria. 1677. judgment judgment was given against him, whereupon he was taken, &c. Exception was taken, because it was pleaded by a taliter, and not mention was made of any declaration; and that the pleading taliter. &c. in an inferior court, is not good. But it was answered on the other side, that the taliter, &c. is the shorter and better way; and therefore in a sci. fa. nothing is recited but the judgment; though it is true, in a writ of error, the whole record must be fet out. The Court was of opinion, that the plea was well enough as to this. 2 Mod. 195, 196. Hill. 28 and 29 Car. 2. C. B. Higginson v. Martin.

S. C. but not exactly S. P.

4. In trespass of taking a gelding, the defendant justified by a plaint in a court-baron, and that taliter processum suit, that the plaintiff recovered against the now plaintiff, and that a precept was thereupon made to the now defendant, who is an officer of the faid court, to levy the debt and costs, by virtue whereof he took the gelding, and appraised and sold him. The plaintiff demurred generally; and exception was taken for him, that taliter processum in a court-baron is a very curt way of pleading, and that all the proceedings ought to be shewn at large, because not being matter of record all is traversable: quod Curia concessit. And judgment for the plaintiss, nisi, &c. 2 Jo. 129. Hill.

31 & 32 Car. 2. B. R. Garret v. Higby.

5. In falle imprisonment the defendant prescribed to have a court, &c. for trial of all personal actions, &c. and that a plaint was devied there, &c. and that taliter processum fuit, and did not set forth any declaration or appearance, but only that the plaintiff had judgment, and the defendant was taken in execution, where he was detained till he paid the debt, &c. And upon demurrer it was adjudged for the plaintiff, because the record in the inferior court was recited only by taliter processum fuit. 2 Lutw. 913.

Trin. 3 Jac. 2. Dennis v. Rowles.

Comb. 124. Simplon v. Mayhill, S. C. And Dolben J. faid, that taliter processum fuit is ill in an inferior court, and has been fo veral times fince the

6. In trespass for taking goods, &c. the defendant justifies by judgment in a hundred court, and process thereupon, that there was a plaint levied in trespass on the case, & taliter processum fuit, that it was considered that the plaintiff should pay costs for his default, unde convictus eft. This was insisted to be ill, because in case of an inferior court, they ought not to plead it so; for that each part of the process is traversable. Holt Ch. J. said, that in Lord Hale's time it was held good, though only said taliter processum fuit, and that in that very point himself was over-ruled in Sir adjudged fe- Francis Pemberton's time, and a year fince in C. B. adjornatur. Show. 47. Trin. 1 W. & M. Simpson v. Merrille.

Lord Hale's time; and there is no case against it, except the case above-recited by Holt, and that case was disallowed by Pemberton; but Hale was always very much inclined to make pleadings good. Adjornatur.

> 7. In trespass of taking his cattle the defendant justified under a plaint by J. S. against the now plaintiff in the county-court for a debt of 39s. 11d. and that superinde taliter processum fuit, that T. P. the plaintiff in that plaint recovered, &c. and thereupon. quoddam præceptum emanavit, per quod the sheriff commanded the plaintiff to levy the money, &c. and upon demurrer to this plea it was adjudged for the plaintiff (among other reasons) because the judgment was pleaded in an inferior court, not being a court of record, with a taliter processium fuit, when the proceedings should be set forth at large. 2 Vent. 100. Mich. 1 W. & M. in C. B. Pinager v. Gale.

8. In debt on bond for quiet enjoyment of lands leased to the plaintiff, the plaintiff averred, that he was prosecuted in the Exchequer by J. W. and that taliter superinde in eadem curia, &c. processim fuit, that the plaintiff there recovered against the plaintiff here 801. and 701. for damages, &c. prout per recordum, &c. plenius liquet, &c. It was infifted for the defendant, that the whole record of the recovery ought to be fet forth at large in the declaration; fed [155] per Curiam non allocatur; for at this day it is otherwise practised; and it is sufficient to plead, that the plaintiff recovered with a taliter processium fuit, without reciting the whole record. Holt Ch. J. fays, this declaration is too general; and that the plaintiff should at least have set the matter out in this form; scil. that he was impleaded in an action of debt for so much money certain (of which this was parcel), or have set forth the whole declaration in the action brought by J. W. with taliter superinde processium fuit, fo as it might appear to the Court, that the recovery was against the plaintiff for the same matter, against which he was to be defended; for that in this case he could plead no other plea than nul tiel record; and upon his opinion judgment was given against the plaintiff. Carth. 305, 306. Pasch. 6 W. & M. B. R. Hool v. Burgoigne.

9. In trespass of affault, battery, wounding, and imprisoning, &c. the defendant, as to the force and wounding pleads not guilty, et quoad residuum transgressionis, the assault and imprisonment, he justifies, for that the plaintiff avas indebted to him infra jurisdictionem Cur. de recordo de B. and for the recovery thereof the defendant implacitasset eum in the said court, and found pledges to prosecute his suit; et superinde taliter processium fuit in eadem curia, that he had judgment and execution, which he delivered to the other defendant being a bailiff, who at D. infra jurisdictionem cur' molliter manus imposuit upon him, and arrested him and detained him in prison, which are idem residuum transgressionis præd'. It was resolved upon demurrer, that this short way of pleading the judgment in an inferior court, viz. by an implacitaffet, and that taliter processum fuit was good, though the usage anciently was other- Cur. Mich. wife; and though there are some cases where the plea has 36 Car. 2. been held ill without reciting a plaint levied, yet by the unplacitaffet and pledges found as here in this case they supply 3 Lev. 403. Mich. 6 W. & M. in C. B. Patrick v. Johnson.

2 Lutw. 925. S. C. but as to the taliter processum, though it is in the pleadings, I do not observe any notice taken of that part in the observations of the reporter. 3 Lev. 404. in S. C. was cited per in C. B. the ાકિ of ADNY V. VERNON, where the pleadings by talter procellum of a judgment in Worcester-court was adjudged good; but observes, that there they commenced the plea with the lewing of a plaint, upon which tality processim fuit. another case resolved by Hale Ch. J. and the whole Court. Hill. 24 & 25 Car. 2. B. R. but there a plaint was likewise pleaded to have been levied, and so held good; but that without plains it would have been void. ____ See 3 Let. 243, 244. Mich. 1 Jac. 2. in C. B. Adney v. Vernon.

Vol. XX,

ro. in

10. In trespass defendant justified the taking, &c. by process out of the county-court, that taliter processum fuit that the plaintiff there had judgment, and a precept was directed to this defendant to levy the money, and so justified. Exception was taken, that fuch pleading is not good as to proceedings in a county-court. Several other exceptions were taken to the pleadings, and judgment was given to the plaintiff; but the reporter fays, that the Court did not declare for which of them they gave their judgment. And adds a nota, that as to the abovementioned exception, it had of late time been adjudged, that the proceedings in fuch inferior courts may be pleaded by a taliter processium suit, 2 Lutw. Rep. 1410. Hill. 7 W. 3. Walker v. Freeby & Holmes.

See pl. 1.

11. Trespals for the taking of a horse. The desendant justifies under a judgment recovered against the plaintiff in the bundred court by a taliter processum, and does not set out the proceedings at large; and adjudged good, notwithstanding that the old books are to the contrary, upon the authority of a case between Doe and Parmiter; Hill. 24 & 25 Car. 2. adjudged in point in B. R. in the time of Lord Hale, upon great debate. Ld. Raym. Rep. 80. East. 8 Will. 3. Mackareth v. Pollard.

For more of Taliter Processum in general, see other proper titles.

[156]

Tally of the Exchequer.

acquittances and tallies to the tenants, and yet nichiled account; and upon complaintof the renants, the king often issued out writs, quilitions were taken, and what perions the

The sherisf 1. 14 Edw. 2. ENACTS, That if sheriffs and other ministers often gave cap. 1.

NACTS, That if sheriffs and other ministers which gather the debts of the king, and make * tallies and other acquittances to the debtors, and yet do not acquit them in the Exchequer, and of the same are impleaded in the Exchequer, and by favour are put to little issues, which they will rather them on the lose than come to answer, the sheriff, &c. when he is impleaded in the Exchequer, and the great distress returned against him, and be comes not to answer, there shall go forth another writ of distress, in which shall be commanded that proclamation be made in the full county, that the defendant come at such a day, and acquit the debtor of the sum for which he made tally or acquittance, at which day if the defendant whereby in- come not, and the writ be returned, and proclamation certified, be shall be holden for convict, and the debt levied of him, and damages awarded to the plaintiff, according to the discretion of the barons. And this statute shall extend as well to those which have been sheriffs, and other ministers that let to lease their bailiwicks, as to the sheriffs theriff had and other ministers, which hold their bailiwicks themselves. this flatute no man shall be forbidden, but that he may complain of which was sheriffs and other ministers when they be found in the Exchequer, and nichiled at that they shall answer there as has been used.

aná

moneyfrom, the Exchequer, and tuch tallies were produced to the persons impanelled; and if the sheriffs were found guilty they were attached. The words of the writ are, quod veritatem talliar' delictarum seil't inquirat, & si delictores talliarum fuerint attincti tune habeas corpora corum coram baronibus, &c. But for the more effectual remedy of this grievance, the stat. de attinct. was made, 12 E. 2. Gllb. Hist. View of Exch. 94, 95. cap. 5.

Wingate mentions this statute as 13 E. 2. and Cay mentions it as 14 E. 2. which Ld. Ch. B. Gilbert mentions as 12 E. 2.

- When any man pays in money into the Exchequer, he pays the fum to the teller, and the teller makes a bill in parchment for the fum so paid, in which is the christian and signame of the party, his office, and the day of payment, and the fum so paid wrote in numeral letters; this bill is rolled up, and thrown down through a pipe into the tally court; then the tally-cutter prepares the tally, which is notched according to the sum mentioned in the bill, viz. a greater notch for (M) and a lesser notch for (C) a letter notch for (X) and to a letter notch for fingle pounds, and for shillings and pence; the tally is but flightly cut with the knife. Then the auditor of the receipt, who was anciently called the receptor talliar', writes a duplicate upon the wood of the tally, of the contents of the parchment bill, and the fum (which is writ in the numerical letters upon the bill, and is expressed by notches on the tally). Then the clerk of the pells enters the bill into his book, and the scriptor talliar' reads the tally; the clerk of the pells at the same time looking into his book to see that his entry and the tally agree together; and then the chamberlains strike the tally, that is, divide it into two, and the tally or the stock is given to the party, and the foil or counter-part is left with the chamberlains, and the hill is carried away and filed by the auditor of the receipt. Gilb. Hist. View of the Exch. 140, 141. cap. 9.
- 2. It appears in a case of debt, that where the king is indebted Br. Debt, to a man, he may assign the party by the record to take the sum of a S.C. customer, and deliver to him a tally thereof; and there if the creditor fbews the tally to the customer, the customer is thereby charged, if he has affets in his hands, or when affets come to his hands, he may have debt against the customer thereupon, naming him customer; and there it is a good plea for the customer to lay, that at the time of the shewing of the tally, nor ever after, he had nothing in his hands; and there the tally need not be shewn in the court, nor upon the count, as upon debt upon an obligation; for the customer is not debtor by the tally only, but by the record by which it is assigned to the plaintiff, and by the shewing of the tally. Br. Taile de Exchequer, pl. 1. cites 27 H. 6. 9.

3. And if the tally be lost the creditor upon his oath shall have a [157] new tally which is called an innovate, contra of an obligation; for there if he loses it, he loses his duty, and therefore this shall be shewn in the count, contra of the tally; for this is only to deliver to the customer to take allowance thereof upon his account, but the debt is due by the assignment in the record, and not by the tally; note the diversity. Br. Taile de Exchequer, pl. 1. cites 27 H. 6. 9.

4. In the Exchequer it is the common course upon a tally for the customer to say, that he has nothing in his hands but 201. and that B. shewed to him a tally of 201. and one A. another, &c. and to those who first shew they are chargeable, &c. nota. Br. Taile de Exchequer, pl. 2. cites 9 E. 4. 12. per Pigot; and the same law per Chocke in the residue of the said case, fol. 14. upon several tallies thewn, and in pleading thereof it ought to be shown what day and year it was shown to him, and at what place.

1 221. 11. 221. 11. 25 C. 5. A tenth was granted to king R. 3. by the clergy payable at, two days, by which the king assigned divers tallies thereof to his debtors, payable by the hands of the king's collectors thereof, which collectors were assigned by the clergy, and mesne between the two days king R. died. And it was held that the collectors upon the shewing of the tallies by the debtors are chargeable to them, and that the clergy after this are chargeable to the debtors, and that after this assignment and shewing of the tally, the king cannot pardon the clergy of the tenth; for it is altered into a debt before, and that it is not due to the king after the shewing of the tally; and that after this the old king, nor the new king, cannot have it, but the debtors. Br. Taile de Exchequer, pl. 5. cites 1 H. 7. 8.

For more of Tally of the Exchequer in general, see Atquittante (B), Prerogative, and other proper titles.

Tares.

(A) How Construed.

or where the subject matter will bear it, shall be intended parliamentary taxes, propter excellentiam. 2 Salk. 615. says, that this was laid down as a rule by Holt Ch. J. Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. in case of Brewster v. Kidgell, and cited 34 H. 8. Quinzim, 9. but said that there are other taxes not parliamentary, as for repair of churches, commission of sewers; for any imposition which takes away part of the goods or rent is a tax, and cites 2 Inst. 532.

See the case of Brewiter v. Kidgell at (D).

[158]

2. If a tax be given by parliament, which was never known, or in esse before, a covenant that the lesse should pay all sum and sums of money that now is or shall be assessed for and in respect of the premises demised for chimney-money, church and poor, or visited houses, or otherwise above and besides the rent reserved, would not extend to such taxes; but if it had been worded thus (all taxes that should be hereaster imposed by parliament), all taxes whatsoever would be included. It Mod. 239. per Powel J. Trin. 8 Annæs B. R. in case of Hopwood v. Baresoot.

(B) Liable, what and who.

See Prerogative, (R. 5).

A Having a rent payable half yearly out of a term, whereof about fix years were to come, was content to release it upon a bond entered into to him, and conditioned for payment of the like sum with the rent, and at the same times. Per Cur. it is equitable, taxes be allowed, in regard the money in the condition was intended between the parties to be put in lieu of the rent, which should have been chargeable with the assessment. Vent. 252. Hill. 25 & 26 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

2. In trespass upon not guilty pleaded the question upon a special verdict was, whether a new-built house which had never been inhabited, nor any account of the chimnies thereof returned into the Exchequer, should pay the duty for chimnies? The whole Court was clear of opinion, that it should, for the words are, every house (other than such as hereaster are excepted) shall pay, and a new-built house is not excepted. Vent. 311. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R.

Ironmonger's Company v. Nailer.

3. By an act of parliament for building new ships, and another for disbanding the army, all lands, &c. annuities, offices (except military offices, and offices relating to the navy under the command of the high admiral), and all other real and personal estates, were to be affested equally by a pound rate. Upon a reference by the king to all the judges of England, the question was, whether the commissioners of the customs, being constituted by letters patents, are taxable in the Tower-ward, where they execute this office, for their falaries of 12001. per ann.? It was insisted for the commissioners, that the word offices did not extend to them, and the words annuities, profits, and personal estates, do not make them taxable in the Tower-ward, for these words follow their persons: as for the word offices, it imports a stated and ordinary charge for ever; but this office is pro hac vice tantum, and the words (other real and personal estates) charge only such estates; but per omnes justiciarios, these words annuities, profits, and personal estates, do charge these salaries. It is true, this is not such an office for which an affise would lie, but the intent of the act was to charge every thing which was not excepted; and military offices are excepted, of which an affile will not lie, and yet they are called offices, and would have been charged if 2 Jo. 220. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Sir Rich. not excepted. Temple and the Mayor of London's case.

4. The Attorney-Gen. Treby, and Solicitor-Gen. Somers's answer to the quæries sent them by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, 30th March 1692.

Qu. Whether high-constables, and those that have served the office of high-constable, are to be affested as gentlemen by the poll?

Resp.

[159]

Arg.contra.

Resp. We conceive, that the mere bearing the office of high-constable, without being otherwise reputed, owned or written gentlemen, doth not make the person liable.

Qu. Whether grasiers, maltsters, horse-coursers, &c. ought to be charged as tradesmen?

Resp. Grasiers, maltsters, and horse-coursers, being understood to be such as make the said employments their ordinary profession and way of livelihood, ought to be charged as tradesmen.

Qu. The 4 quarterly payments are to be affested together; if so, then what can be done with servants upon their removals, and how the affessments can be levied?

Resp. We conceive the best and most proper course will be to make four distinct assessments.

5. A. surrendered a copyhold estate to B.—B. surrendered it back to A. provided if B. paid not 1001. per ann. to A. without any deductions or charges, A. to re-enter, and the surrender to be void. The question was, whether parliamentary taxes are to be allowed out of it, this being neither properly a rent, annuity, nor interest money? 2 Vern. Rep. 306. pl. 296. Mich. 1693. Lynes v. Brown.

6. A rent-charge can be subject to no other but parliamentary Ibid. 371. taxes; it is not contributory to church, * poor, sewers, or highways.

Arg. 5 Mod. 369. in case of Brewster v. Kidgill.

7. Per Cur. if a man's estate is of such a nature, as that the commissioners cannot assess a certain tax upon every man, as in the case of common, &c. they ought not to meddle with it. 11 Mod. 89. pl. 10. Trin. 5 Annæ, Anon. cites Hill. 7 Ann.

(C) In what Place.

1. IN the Exchequer upon a super, the question, upon the statute for imposing the tax of 4s. in the pound, arose upon the clause in one of the first acts, for taxing the shares in the Company of the New River water, which ordains that the shares in this company should be taxed in the county where the owners inhobit; and in the principal case, the defendant inhabited in one county, and was taxed in another, and therefore the refused to pay. And the Court was clear, that she ought to pay; for there is an interest vested in the king by the act, and if the remedy for collecting it, or the method for affesting it, prove impracticable, the duty being rested in the king, this shall be levied by the aid and assistance of this Court; and it was adjudged accordingly. But infomuch that there was 1800l. and more returned upon the super, the Court declared that the defendant shall not be charged for the whole, but only for her own proportion. Skin. 642. Trin. 8 W. 3. B. R. the King v. Margaret Webster.

2. The inhabitants of one parish bad common appendant in waste grounds which lay in another parish; and the question was, whether the commoner should pay taxes, and should be affested in the parish

parish where the waste lay, or where his farm lay? And sit was held that it should be where his farm lay; for it is incident, and will pass by the grant of the farm, &c. so that it is to be considered as part of the farm, and the farm to be taxed the higher. I Salk. 169. pl. 1. Mich. 6 W. & M. in B. R. the King v. Fox.

3. Trespass against the collectors of the land-tax; the plaintiff lived in Middlesex, and exercised the employment of a factor in Smithfield. The question was, whether he should be taxed where he lived, or where he followed his employment? Holt Ch. J. was of opinion, that he was not taxable by the commissioners of Middlesex; for by the very words of the act, he is to be taxed in the place where his office is exercised. But the other judges contra; for this is not an office which is local, but a personal employment, and the person is taxable where he lives, and the affirmative words of the act are directory: he is taxable in 2 Salk. 616. pl. 2. Trin. 5 Ann. B. R. Trowell v. either place. Elford.

(D) Allowed or deaucted, in what Cases.

·[160]

1. IF a man leases his land for years rendering rent, and grants Br. Charge, that he will discharge the tenant during the term of all charges pl. 47. circs erifing upon the land, and after the parliament grants to the king the tenth part of the value of the land of every man; several held, that he shall not discharge the tenant of this. Otherwise if the tenth part of the issues of the land had been granted by parliament. for the king Br. Grants, pl. 164. cites 17 E. 4. 6.

S. C. and adds, and by several he shall difcharge him: may distrain upon the land; quære inde, where the lease was before the grant by parliament. ----- Br. Covenant, pl. 30. cites S. C.

2. The plaintiff demised unto the defendant a house, rendering 101. yearly, without any deduction or abatement for or in respect of any bearth-money, parish-duties, dues, taxes, and assessments already had, made, rated, taxed or affessed, or to be had, made, &c. at any time during the faid term upon the plaintiff, by reason of the Afterwards an act of parliament gives a tax, and enacts, that the landlord shall pay it; but there is a proviso, that it shall not extend to discharge any covenants or agreements made between landlords and tenants. It was infifted for the defendant, that the word parish shall extend to dues, duties, &c. and it shall not be intended of extraordinary charges laid by parliament, and said that parish est verbum gubernous. Ellis]. said, if the words do not extend to parliamentary taxes, they can have no fignification; for hearth-money and parish-duties, &c. are to be paid by the tenant without such a covenant. as to that point, whether or no this covenant was dispensed with by the act of parliament, the Court delivered no opinion, because they all agreed, that as the tender was pleaded

12 Mod. 54. S.C. Trin.

6 W. & M.

1675, and the other

this point held contra to Holt

Ch. J.

5 Mod. 368.

S. C. and

fays, the confirmation of this grant was in

1552; and

per Curlam, where taxes are mentioned (if the subject matter will allow it) it must be intended taxes

by parliament, which are the most eminent, and that by an

it was naught; and upon that point judgment was given for the plaintiff. Freem. Rep. 148, 149. pl. 169. Pasch. 1674. Marshal v. Wisdale.

3. If a lease be made for years rendering rent free of all taxes, eharges, and impositions whatsoever, the word render makes a covenant, and the leffor is discharged from all land-taxes lately imposed by parliament, and long after the commencement of this lease; and the lessee must pay the whole rent, without any manner of deduction for any old or new charge, or imposition what-Adjudged, absente Holt Ch. J. Carth. 135. Pasch.

2 W & M. in B. R. Giles v. Hooper.

4. Lessee covenanted to pay so much rent clear of all taxes; the defendant pleaded performance; the plaintiff replied, and assigned a breach in non-payment of so much for half a year's fays the leafe rent; the defendant rejoined, that he had paid so much in was made in money, and so much in taxes, which being allowed, did amount to the whole rent; and upon demurrer, Holt Ch. J. held, that justices as to this covenant did not extend to parliamentary taxes for want of the word parliamentary; but the others contra; for all taxes include parliamentary. I Salk. 221. pl. 2. Trin. 5 W. & M. in

B. R. Countess of Arran v. Crispe. *[161]

5. A. seized of lands in see, by deed dated 1649, granted a rent-charge to one Brewster and his heirs, which deed was thus indorsed, that the rent was to be paid clear of all taxes; afterwards A. confirmed this grant, and covenanted to pay the rentcharge clear of all taxes. By the statute 3 W. & M. 4s. in the pound was laid on all lands, and power given to the tenants to deduct it, with a proviso not to alter any covenants or agreements of parties. The question was, whether the tenant could deduct for taxes? Per Cur. if this covenant * had been made in the year 1640, it would not have discharged the rest-charge. from the taxes imposed by this act, because there was no such parliamentary tax known or in being at that time; but because there were such taxes in the year 1645, which was before this grant, this covenant must for that reason be construed to extend to them, otherwise it would signify nothing. I Salk. 198. pl. 4. ordinance in Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. Brewster v. Kidgell.

force, when this covenant was made, the rent was as much rated as the land. But they were of opinion that this was only a personal covenant, and not a covenant running with the land. ——— Comb. 424. Trin. 9 W. 2. S. C. adjornatur. -- Ibid. 466. Hill. 10 W. 3. B. R. the resolution of the Court was delivered by Holt Ch. J. accordingly, and because taxes have a virtual existence in the constitution of the government before any act is made for the raising of them.——Carth. 438. S. C. accordingly. Ld. Raym. Rep. 317. S. C. accordingly. 12 Mod. 170. S. C. and the resolution of the Court delivered by Holt Ch. J. accordingly. But Holt said, he could not see how the plaintiff can have his judgment; for if this covenant should charge the land it would be higher than a warrantia chartæ, which only affects the land, from the judgment therein given. But the other three judges thought that this covenant might charge the land, being in nature of a grant, or at least a declaration going along with the grant, shewing in what manner the thing granted should be taken, and reckoned the indorsement as part of the deed, and so judgment was given for the plaintiff.

If a tax had been given for rebuilding St. Paul's church, this would have been out of the statute. Per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the Court. Carth. 439. in case of Brewster v. Kidgell. Ld. Raym. Rep. 322. S. P. per liult in S. C.

6. Devile

6. Devile of lands on condition to pay 20,000l. by 1000l. a 2Ven 594gear for 20 years, till 20,000l. paid. The devisee entered for non-not S. P. payment. It was decreed, inter alia, that here is to be no deduction of any taxes, because it is not to issue nor arise from the lands, but is given as a fum in gross, secured by entry on the lands for non-payment. 1 Salk. 156. 1707. in Canc. Grimston v. Ld. Bruce.

7. In a trial before Holt Ch. J. in an action of covenant, this case was reserved for the opinion of the Court. A building lease was made in 1672, by A. for 61 years, in which there was this covenant, that the leffee should pay all sum and sums of money that now is or shall be affeffed or taxed for, and in respect of the premises demised as aforesaid for chimney-money, church, and poor, or visited boufes, or otherwise, above and besides the rent reserved thereupon; in 1608, the leffee surrenders this lease, and a new lease was made upon the foot of the former, in which there was the same covenant as in the former lease. After several arguments at bar, adjudged that leffee was not liable to pay the land tax. 11 Mod. 237. &c. Trin. 8 Ann. B. R. Hopwood v. Barefoot.

8. Holt Ch. J. said, that it was likewise adjudged, that where A. made a lease, and covenanted to discharge the lessee of all burdens and charges, (there being no tax at that time, but afterwards a 15th being granted by parliament), the tenant was diftrained for it; and this was adjudged within the covenant, because taxes are always a charge in * viris. 11 Mod. 240. in case * Quere, of Hopwood v. Barefoot.

9. A. covenants to pay an annuity to B.—A. shall not deduct G. Equ. for taxes; for the charge is on the person of the covenantor, and Legat v. not on the land. 2 Salk. 616. pl. 3. Mich. 8 Annæ, in Chancery. Shewell. Robinson v. Stephens.

10. If H. having a term for years, devises an annuity to J. S. and his heirs, there can be no deduction for taxes. 2 Saik. 616.

Mich. 8. Annæ, in Canc. Robinson v. Stephens.

11. If H. grants annuity to J. S. and after secures it out of a G. Equ. real estate, there shall be no deduction for taxes; for the subse- Rep. 142quent security cannot lessen the essect of his former grant, which case of in its creation was tax-free. Per Cowper, Lord Chan. 2 Salk. Green v. 616. Mich. 8 Ann. in Chancery, Robinson v. Stevens.

12. Leffor covenants with leffee to pay all taxes on the lands demised. Lessee brought covenant, and assigned for breach the not paying the rates to the church and poor. Upon demurrer it was objected, that those rates are personal charges, and not on the [162] land; and for that reason the defendant had judgment.

314. Mich. 11 Geo. 1. 1725. Theed v. Starkey.

cites the

(E) Allowed. How much.

seised of a rectory of 1201. per ann. charged with a fee- Comb. 483. A seiled of a rectory of 120. per aux. was taxed for all the rectory Trin. 10W.

farm rent of 26l. per aux. was taxed for all the rectory Trin. 10W. only according to the rate of 251, per ann. for taxes; he retains Sherrington 4s. per pound for the fee-farm rent, which was much more than he really paid. The whole matter appearing in the Exchequer, so in case of where a bill was brought, it was decreed, that the owner of the fee-farm rent should allow only in proportion to what was paid.

And a bill brought by 12 Mod. 171. Hill. 9 W. 3. cited as one Sherington's case.

the ford of the manor was dismissed with costs. But the matter having been examined and ascertained by the commissioners of the land-tax, Lord Cowper would not re-examine it; but declared his opinion, that the payment should be only in proportion. Wms.'s Rep. 328. Mich. 1716. Brockman v. Hencywood.

Comb. 483. S. C. 2. P. seised of land, and Sir J. W. of a fee-farm issuing out of it, paid taxes only after the rate of 1s. 3d. per pound, and retained for the see-farm after the rate of 4s. at which the land-tax was. On which Sir J. W. owner of the see-farm rent, brought his bill in the Exchequer, and prayed, that P. should set forth the value of the land, and what rent he received, and what he had paid for taxes: to which bill P. demurred, and the demurrer allowed, notwithstanding the above case of Sherington was cited; the whole matter there appearing, and this being on a demurrer, which was made the difference. 12 Mod. 171. cites it as one Pickering's case.

(F) Collectors. Their Power. And how punished for Misdemeanors.

Marrant given to the collectors of the king's tax was, to break open doors, &c. in case of opposition, &c. and this warrant was granted before any default, which ought not to be. And Holt Ch. J. said, strictly it was so; but the practice having been, in this case of taxes, to grant such a conditional warrant to distrain, communis error facit jus. Cumb. 342. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. East India Company v. Skinner & 21'.

2. The collectors of the King's tax may distrain money as well as goods; and though they take more than was due, yet it sufficeth that they return the overplus, when they have sold it, &c. Per Holt. Cumb. 342. Trin. 7 W. 3. in case of East India Company v. Skinner & al'.

3. The defendants were found guilty of misdemeanor, for that, being assessor and collectors of the public taxes in such a parish, they assessor some too high, and omitted others in their books; and yet levied the money on them, and put it in their own pockets. On their coming to receive judgment, it was moved, that no corporal punishment might be inslicted, because the crime was not of an infamous nature. But they were adjudged to the pillary in the county where the crime was committed; and that the marshal should carry them down, and a writ should go to the sheriff to assist him in the execution. 6 Mod. 306. Mich. 3 Annæ, B. R. the Queen v. Buck & Hale.

4. Upon the motion of Sir Peter King, recorder of London, the court granted a mandamus to the commissioners of the land-tax for Barnwell, to tax the lands there equally. 11 Mod. 206. pl. 6. Hill.

[163]

Hill. 7 Ann. in B. R. Queen v. the Commissioners of the Land-Tax for Barnwell.

For more of Taxes in general, see Bridges, Poor, and other proper titles.

Tayle.

(A) Tayle. Of what Thing to another.

Fol. 499.

[1. IF a mesne gives the mesnalty in tayle, the law will create a See Tenure tenure between the donce and donor. IH. 4. 3. b.]

(B) pl. 4 & (G) pl. 5.

S. C.——And of what things an estate-tail may be, see estates (S).

(B) What Persons may make Estate-Tayle, and to whom.

[1. Acknowledged all his right [by fine] to B. who rendered to A. for life, remainder to him in tail; it is a good taile, without donor besides himself. 42 E. 3.5.b. (But it seems it is not law.)]

If A. levy a fine, remainder in tail to himfelf, remainder to

B. in see, this remainder in tail is void; for he cannot give to himself. Br. Fines, pl. 113. cites 14 H. 4. 31. & 42 E. 3. 5. where he says it is not adjudged; and yet he says it seems to be a void remainder. —A man cannot by sine, by way of remainder, reserve a less estate to himself than see. And therefore if A. acknowledge a fine to B. in see, and he renders to A. in tail, the remainder to himself for life, this remainder is void; for A. had see-simple before. [West's Symb. s. 30. cites 24 E. 3. 28. 14 H. 4. 31. He who is seised in see, and gives, cannot reserve a remainder to himself in tail, the see-simple never being out of him. Br. Refervation, pl. 41. cites 1 H. 5. 8.

A man cannot referve a less estate to himself than he had before. Br. Reservation, pl. 19. cites 38 H. 6. 38.

(C) At what Time [be may bar Estate-Taile].

[1.] [2. AFTER issue, he may bar the estate-taile by alienation, or forseiture by treason. 7 H. 4. 46. pl. 6.]

2. 13 Ed. 1. cap. 1. Concerning * lands that many times are given upon condition, that is, to wit, where any gives his land to any man and his wife, and † to the heirs begotten of the bodies of the same man and his wife, with such ‡ condition expressed, that if the same man and his wife die without heirs of their bodies between them begotten, the land so given shall revert to the giver or his heir.

Before this flatute, all inheritances were effates
in fee, viz.
cither feefimple abforlute, or fee-conditional, er a qualified fee; whereof you spay also read in the first part of the Institutes, 6. 1. [13] And who wrote before this statute, says, that if any purchase to him and his wife, and to the heirs of them lawfully begotten, the donees have presently but an estate of freehold for the term of their lives, and the see accrues to their issue, sec. taking the condition to be precedent; yet had the donees at the common law a see-simple conditional presently by the gift. For if lands had been given to a man, and the beirs of his body issuing, and before issue he had, before this statute, made a seossement in see, the donor should not have ente ed for the forseiture, but this seossement had barred the issue had afterwards; which proves, that he presently by the gift had a see-simple conditional, and this agrees with the authozity of Littleton, ubi supra. 2 Inst. 333.

See Estate, (A. a) S.P. See pl. 2 paragr. 4. in the notes there.

[164]

If donee in tail at common law had aliened before any iffue bad, and after had iffue, this alienation had barred the isiue, because he claimed a fee-simple; yet if that iffue died without iffue, the donor might re-enter, for that he aliened before any issue, at what time he had no power to alien, to bar the possibility of the donor. But if fime tenant in tail bad taken busband, and bad issue, and the bus. band and evife had aliened in fee by deed before the flatute, yet the issue might have had a formedon in descender, for the alienation was not lawful; but otherwise it is, if it had been by fine. And these things, though they feem ancient, are necessary notwithstanding to be known, as well for knowledge of the common law as for anautities, and such like inheritances, as cannot be intailed within the said statute, and therefore remain at the common law. If the king, before the statute of donis conditionalibus, bad made a gift to a man, and to the heirs of his body begotten, the donce, post prolem suscitatam, might have alrened as well as in the case of a common person. But if the donce had no issue, and before the statute bad aliened with warranty, and died, and the warranty had descended upon the king, this - should not have bound the king of his reversion, without assets; but otherwise it was in the case of a common person. Of the other side, if lands had been given to the king, and to the beirs of bis body, be could not before iffue have aliened in fee, but only to bave barred his iffue as a common person might have done; but not to have barred the reversion, for that should have been a wrong in the case of a - Subject, and the king's prerogative cannot alter his case, nor make it greater than the donor gave nato him; and it is a maxim in law, that the king can do no wrong. Co. Litt. 19. a. b.

Now for the better understanding of this act, seeing that the estate was conditional at the common law, it is necessary to be known when the condition was performed, and to what purposes. If the done had issue, he had not thereby a see-simple absolute, for if after he had died without issue, the donor should have entered as in his reverter. But after issue bad the condition was performed to this purpose, that be might have aliened, and thereby have barred the donor and his beins from all possibility of reverter for default of issue; for the heirs of his body (he having a see conditional) might have harred them as well before issue (as has been said) as after. 2 Inst. 333.——This is said to have been a common error, that the donce post prolem suscitatam habuit potestatem alienand; but being taken and ensued as common law, this statute was made to reform the abuse, and restore the common law to its right course, and restore to the donor the observation of his intent, and so is made in restitution.

Pl. C. 251. b. 252. a. in case of Willion v. Lord Barkley.

🖁 Co. Litt. 19. a. S. P.

In 2 Inst. Lord Coke for the word (lands) uses the word (tenements); and in his Co. Litt. 19. b. says, the word (tenement) is the only word which this statute uses.

+ For to a gist in tail made, this word (beirs) is requisite, unless it be in case of a last will, &c.

2 Inft- 334.

1 If this condition expressed had not been added, the very gift would have implied so much. 2 Inst. 334.

By this In case also where one gives lands in free-marriage, which gift has a clause it appears that condition annexed, though it be not expressed in the deed of gift, which an inhering is this, that if the husband and wife die, without heir of their botance passes dies begoiten, the land so given shall revert to the giver, or his heirs. by these words (frank-marriage). 2 Inst. 334.——Lands were given before the statute in frank-marriage, and the donees had issue, and died; and after the issue died without issue. It was adjudged, that his collateral issue shall not inherit, but the donor shall re-enter. So note, that the heir in tail had no fee-simple absolute at the common law, though there were divers descents. Co. Litt. 19. a.

This act In case also where one gives land to another, and the heirs of his having put 2 examples of estates their heirs, that their will bring expressed in the gift, was not beretotail special, fore, nor yet is, observed.

viz. the first to a man and his wife,, and to the heirs of their bodies; the 2d of a gift in frank-marriage, a § special case, and a special estate in tail; here he puts a case of an estate sail general, not that the makers of this statute meant to enumerate all the forms of estates in tail, but to put these as examples, so as all manner of estates tail, general, or special, are within the purview of this act. 2 last. 334.

Īn

In all the cases aforesaid, after issue begotten and born between them (to whom the lands were given under such condition) heretofore such feoffees bad * power to alien the land so given, + and to disinherit release, or their issue of the land, contrary to the minds of the givers, and contrary to the form expressed in the gift.

That is to lay, by fine, ferffment, cenfirmation. 2 Init. 334. But the tenant in tail had not only potestatem alienandi, but sorisfaciendi, &c. also; for if after issue had, he had been attainted of treason or felony, the land intailed had been forfeited, and thereby the donor barred of the possibility of reverter, and forisfacere is alienum facere; and therefore in this act is included in these words, potestatem alienandi. And so might the tenant in tail, before the making of this act, [after iffue had. Co. Litt. 19. a.] have charged the land with rent, common, or the like, to have bound his iffue; but by this act he is restrained as well to charge as to alien. 2 lnst. 334.

But the having of iffue before this act did not alter the course of descent. 2 Inst. 334.— Litt. 19. 2. S. P. For if the donce had issue, and died, and the land descended to his issue, yet if that issue had died (without any alienation made) without issue, his collateral beir should not have inherited; because he was not within the form of the gift, viz. heir of the body of the donce.

† Hereby it appears, that there were a miscoler's before this act, viz. 1st, The disherison of the iffues in tail. 2dly, That it was contra voluntatem donatorum, & contra formam in dono expression; for the donor and his heirs were barred of the possibility of reverter; and both these were wrongs for which at the common law there lay no remedy; for disherifons, and breaking the express will and intention of the donor, are wrongs which this act does remedy. 2 Inst. 334. ——Pl. C. 247. a. S. P. Arg. in case of William v. Ld. Berkley.

And further, when the issue of such feoffee is failing, the land so given ought to return to the giver, or his heir, ‡ by form of the gift expected in the deed, though the iffue (if any were) had died.

I It was faid before, contra formatte in dono expressam; to as whether the estate was made by deed, or without deed, it is all one to the intention of this act; and the most usual gifts in tail being of inheritance, were by deed. 2 Inst. 334.

Tet by the deed and feoffment of them (to whom land was so given upon condition) the donors have heretofore been barred of their reverfion, which was directly repugnant to the form of the gift.

8. 2. Wherefore our lord the king, perceiving how necessary and ex- Upon these pedient it should be to provide remedy in the aforesaid cases, has ordained, that the | will of the giver, according to the form in the deed of gift will of the manifefly expressed, shall be from henceforth observed.

2 branches, viz. that the donor should be observed, and that the donce should not have power to alien, the judges by a threefold construction did not only remedy all the faid former mischiefs, but prevent all others that might arise, viz-

1st, Therefore in execution of the will of the donor, and that he should have no power to alien either lands that lay in livery, or tenements that lay in grant, they adjudged that the donce should not have a fee-fimple, but divided the estates, and created a particular estate in the donce, and a reversion in the dosw; so as where the donee had a fee-simple before, by this act he had but an estate tail; and where the donor had but a possibility before, which after issue might be barred at the pleasure of the donee, now by construction upon this act the donor had the fee-simple expectant upon the estate tall, which we call a revertion; to as by this divition of the estates, the donce after issue, or before, could not bar or charge his issue, nor, for default of issue, the donor or his heirs, either by alienation, forseiture, or any charge whatfoever.

The 2d construction was, that no lineal warranty should har the issue in tail, unless there were $ assets descended in see-simple from the same ancestor; but a collateral warranty made by a collateral ancestor, field bar the issue in tail without assets; for that warranty is not restrained by this act; and so likewife the collateral warranty of the donce shall bar the donor, and is not restrained by this act, as well at the warranty of the donor shall bar the donce, and is not restrained by this act.

The 3d construction was, that albeit tenant in tail was restrained from power of alienation, yet of laids and tenements, that lay in livery, his fine or feoffment should work a discontinuance, and drive the If in tail to bis action; for seeing he had an estate of inheritance, the judges compared it to this case, where a man was seised in the right of his wife, or a bishop in the right of his bishoprick, or an abbot in the right of his monaftery, et fic in similibus, and of inheritances that lay in grant, as of cents, advowices, and the like, tenant in tail could not make any discontinuance, no more than the others before recited might do, which construction was made according to the rule and scalus of the common in other like cases 2 Inst. 335.

$ 500 Litt. f. 712. and the notes thereupon. Co. Litt. 374. b.

Si

So that they, to whom the land was given under such condition, shall have no power to alien the land so given, but that it shall retain that the issues in tail should not alien no there is no issue at all, or if any issue be, and fail by death, or heir of they to whom the land was given, and that was the intent of the makers of this act; and it was but their negligence that it was omitted, as there it is faid. In this case, by way of purchase, the land is given to the donce, and by way of limitation to the issues in tail; and therefore by a benign interpretation, the purview of this act extends to the issues in tail. 2 Inst. 335, 336.

Upon these words several constructions have been made; as if tenant in tail makes a seoffment in fee, this makes a discontinuance, and is voidable by action only. And that if he grants in fee, rent, or other thing lying in grant, and whereof be is seised in tail, it is no discontinuance, but is voidable by claim, or by action; that if he grants rent out of the land, the rent absolutely determines by his death; that a release to bis diffeiser is no discontinuance, but the estate is voidable by entry or action of the issue; but release with warranty is discontinuance, if the issue be heir to the warranty; that if he makes a lease for bis own life, or years, and releases to leffee and bis beirs, this is no discontinuance, though it be with warranty; that if he makes leafe for life, and afterwards grants the reversion in fee, this is no discontimuance of the fee, unless it be executed in the life of the grantor. The reason of wbich, and many other constructions made upon these words, is, that the judges have construed them according to the rule and reason of the common law; for at common law, if a bishop, abbut, &cc. or baron seised in right of his wife, had made a feoffment in fee, this had been a discontinuance, and put the successor or feme to their action, in regard to the favour which the law gave to an estate which passed by livery and seisin, and because it is public and notorious, and formerly was the common assurance of land; but if they had been seised of a rent, or other thing lying in grant, and had granted it in fee, this had been no discontinue ance, and yet it was not absolutely determined by death of the bishop, abbot, &c. or baron; for the successor or feme had election to determine it, and make it voidable either by bringing a writ, or by chim mpon the land; but if the rent had been granted by them de novo, it had been absolutely void by their death. So, if they had released to a disseisor, it had been no discontinuance; and if they had leased for years, and released to the lessee and his heirs, this had not absolutely determined by their death, but had been voidable, or void, at the election of the successor or seme. But had they made lease for life, and after granted the reversion in fee, and the lessee for life had died, living the bishop, &c. or baron, this had been a discontinuance; otherwise had the lessee survived the bishop, &c. or baron. 3 Rep. 85. b. Pasch. 44 Eliz. a nota of the reporter in the case of fines.——See Co. Litt. 327. b.

Grant by tenant in tail to bold without impeachment of waste, with assets descended, is no har against the issue in tail; for the statute of Gloucester speaks only of warranty and assets, and the statute of Westm. 2. cap. 1. mentions quod non babeat potestatem asienandi, yet this is intended of all things which may turn in disinberitance of the iffue. Br. Tail & Dones, &c. pl. 13. cites 38 E. 3. 23.

Neither shall the + 2d husband of 'any such woman, from henceforth These are but confehave any thing in the land so given upon condition, after the death of quents to the his wife, by the law of England, nor the iffue of the 2d husband and words of the wife shall & succeed in the inheritance, but immediately after the death purview, and are but exof the husband and wife, (to whom the land was so given,) it shall planatory come to their issue, or return unto the giver, or his heir, as before end not of fubstance, is said. and might well have been omitted. 2 Inft. 336.

Yet was it adjudged, soon after the making of this act, that where lands were given in frank-marriage, and the husband died, and the wife took another husband, and had issue before this act, that the husband should be tenant by the curtesse; and the principal reason was upon this branch of the states (nec habeat de cætero secundus vir, &c.) for that this restraint proved, as there it is said, that the law before was, that he should be tenant by the curtesse; and yet, without question, the issue should not inherit that land. 2 Inst. 336.

I In ancient time, if land had been given to J. S. and bis successors, he had had a fee-simple; but otherwise it is at this day. 2 Inst. 336.

Hereby it S. 3. And for a function as in a new case new remedy must be proappeared that 2 forwided, this manner of writ shall be granted to the party that will medon in the purchase it.
descender lay que at the common law, but was given by this act, and the form of the writ is here set down. 2 Inft. 336.

Precipe

Precipe A. quod juste, &c. reddat E. manerium de F. cum sins Here is the pertinentiis, qued C. dedit tali viro, & tali mulieri, & hæredibus de form of the iphs viro & muliere exeuntibus.

Or thus.

Quod C. dedit tali viro, in liberum maritagium cum tali muliere, & quod post mortem pradictorum viri & mulieris, pradicto B. filio corundem * viri & mulieris descendere debeat per formam donationis predicta, ut dicit, &c. Vel, quod C. dedit tali & hæredibus de corpore suo exeuntibus, & quod post mortem illius talis pradicto B. filio pra- which gives ditti talis descendere debeat per sormam. &c.

formedon in sbe descender set down a and therefore this statute need not be recited, nor any statute the form of the writ. 2 Inft. 335.

S. 4. † The writ whereby the giver shall recover, (when iffue + The forfails,) is common enough in the Chancery.

medon in reverter die

lie at the common law, but not a formedon in remainder upon an estate tail, because it was a seefimple conditional, whereupon no remainder could be limited at the common law; but after this flatute a remainder may be limited upon an effate tail, in respect of the division of the estates. 2 Inft. 335. "[167]

‡ And it is to wit, that this statute shall hold place touching aliena- ‡This clause tion of land contrary to the form of the gift hereafter to be made, and shall not extend to gifts made before.

ought to receive a twofold interpretation.

1. That (ad dona prius facta) must be intended of seoffments or alienations made by the donee pe his issues, and not to gifts made by the donor, for to them this act does extend. 2 Inst. 336.

2. Dona prius facta, that is, post prolem suscitatam, for then the alienation by the tenant in tail, or his issues, was good in law; so as (dona) here are to be intended lawful gifts, and made in due manner, and fuch as could not be avoided; for law allows no wrong. 2 Inft. 336.

And || if a fine be levied hereafter upon such lands, it shall be void || This act does not in the law. make the Ane void, but ipso jure fit nullus, that is, it shall not bind the right; yet it shall (as has been said) make a discontinuance. 2 Inst. 336.

But now by the flatutes of 4 H. 7. cap. 24. & 32 H. 8. cap. 34. a fine levied with proclametion does but the iffues in tail; but a fine without proclamation is a discontinuance only, and no bar-2 Inft. 336, 337.

Neither shall the heirs, or such as the reversion belongs unto, though they be of full age, within England and out of prison, need to make their claim.

Here is now compos mentis left out, and so is a feme covert.

2 Inft. 337. ——— Hereby it may be gathered (as the law was) that a fine at the common law did not bind a ftranger that was within age, in prison, or beyond the seas. 2 Inst. 337.

Issue in Tail. Bound by Acceptance or Agreement.

I. TENANT in tail granted rent, and died, the issue paid the rent, and made a feoffment of the land, and retook in fee, yet he shall hold discharged; for the rent was void by the death of the grantor, and the payment by the heir will not make it good. Contrary of a leafe by the tenant in tail, and the beir accepts the rent; for the lease was only voidable. Br. Grants, pl. 145. cites 21 H. 6. 25.

S. P. Br. Barre, pl.27. cites 21 H. 6. 24. And upon acceptance of the rent, there is no difference where it is accepted in pais, and where he avoque for it in a court of record; for the substance is in the one case and the other, other, that where he accepts it, or demands it, he thereby affirms the leafe or discontinuance; ped Newton. For a thing void or determined cannot be made good by payment, but must have a new-creation.

2. Grandfather, father, and son. The grandfather being te-Poph. 112. Holme v. mant in tail by indenture makes feoffment in fee, rendering rent to Gee S. C. bim and bis beirs, and dies. The father accepts the rent; the and by Popfeoffee levies a fine with proclamation, 5 years pass, and then the ham and Clench the father dies. The point was, whether the acceptance of the rent acceptance, by the father had extinguished his right to the entail, or whether though by it is an estopped only; for if he is only estopped, then, he having the hands of a right at the time the fine was levied, * and the five years incurone who was to pay, viz. ring in his time, the fon was barred; but if he had extinguished the tenant himself, shall his interest, then the son, being the first to whom the right came not bar the after the fine levied, is not barred by the five years incurred in right of inthe life of the father. It was adjudged per Walmsley and tail in the Clench J. at Lancaster assises, that the issue was barred. But the father (as a release of Court here thought that he is not barred, because the acceptance right should do) but this is conclusion only, and does not extinguish the right. Mo. 301. pl. 449. Pasch. 33 Eliz. Hulme v. Jce, alias Ice. acceptance mail only foreclose him of his action to demand the land during his life, and therefore the right, which the father had, being barred by the fine, the son is without remedy; for he shall never have remedy on a fine levied in his father's time, the five years after the proclamation being past, unless only where the right begins sirst to be a right in the son, and not where there was a right in the father; and so they thought the judgment is to be affirmed. And they seemed further that payment by him, who had nothing in the land at the time of payment, shall make no conclusion to him that accepts it, because this payment would be as none in law.

Tenant in tail made feoffment in fee to the use of himself and his heirs, and after made a lease for years sendering rent and died; the issue accepted the rent. And by the opinion of all the justices the acceptances does not confirm the lease, because the issue was remitted to the estate tail by descent, and so the lease was utterly void that was made by the father, being then tenant in see-simple. Mo. 846.

pl. 1143. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R. Anon.

- 3. Tenant in tail agreed to make a conveyance, but died before it was perfected, and was in contempt for the not doing it. The issue in tail accepted the satisfaction agreed to be given for the conveyance to have been made by the tenant in tail. By this acceptance he has made it his own agreement, and shall be bound by it, and decreed accordingly. Chan. Cases, 172. Trin. 22 Car. 2. Ross v. Ross.
- 4. Tenant in tail of a rent grants it in fee, it is void by his death; but if the issue assirms it to be good, and brings a formedon, he may be barred by warranty. Per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 3612 Pasch. 12 W. 3. in case of Pullen v. Purbeck.
- (E) Equity. Agreement of Tenant in Tail carried Execution against the Issue.
- and entered into a coverant for further assurance and died. Bridgman K. would not compel the issue to make the assurance good, though the sather might have done it by suffering a recovery.

covery. Lev. 238. Pasch. 20 Car, 2. in Canc. Jenkins v. Keymis.

2. Covenant by tenant in tail to levy a fine upon a valuable con-S. C. cited sideration, and a decree that he shall do so, binds the issue in tail. Hill 32 & Chan. Cases, 294. Mich. 28 Car. 2. Hill v. Carr.

33 Car. 24 in case of Sayle v. Freeland. But Ld. Chancellor faid, he would not supersede sines and recoveries; but where a man was only tenant in tail in equity, there this court shall decree such a disposition good; for a trust and equitable interest is a creature of their own, and therefore disposable by their rule, otherwise where the entail was of an estate in the fand. .

Se where there was a covenant and no decree upon it, and he acknowledged a fine, but died before it was perfected; equity would not supply this defect against the issue. 2 Vern. 3. Trin. 1686. Whai-ton v. Whatton.

So where tenant in tail mortgaged the land, and bor a bill in this court was decreed to suffer a common recovery, but he died in contempt of the court for not performings the decree, the Court would not carry the decree into execution against the heir in tail. Cited Arg. 9 Mod. 18. And by the Judges affishants that case was admitted; but they said, the reason may be, that the heir, after the death of his ancestor, was in by the statute de donis, which this Court could not control. But if the ancestor bad been cesty que trust in tail, his heir would have been bound by such ancestor's sien; because in that case he would not have been in by the statute. 9 Mod. 19. in case of Coventry v, Coventry.——This is the case of Weale v. Lower, cited 2 Verns 306; in case of Fox v. Crane and Wright.

Bare articles shall be a bar to an entail of an equity; per Cur. 2 Vern. 226. pl. 205. Patch. 1601. in case of Baker v. Baily.——Where an intail is only of a trust, it is not within the statute de donis; and so a fine or recovery is not necessary, but is alienable by any other conveyance made by him that has an estate of inheritance in the trust. Arg. and decreed accordingly, that a seossment by cesty que trust and trustees barred such estate. 2 Vern. 344. pl. 318. Hill. 16.7. Bowater v. Elly.

Those cases in which the court will not compel the execution of powers, are where it would be against the will of the donor, that they should be executed. Arge 9 Mod. 16. in Lady Coventry's case.

[169]

3. The mother agrees to give her son other lands in lieu of lands intailed, and by will disposes of the intailed lands to her daughter, takes bond from her son to permit and suffer the intailed lands to be enjoyed, as she by will had devised them; the son dies, leaving the defendant his son an infant, who brought an ejectment for the intailed lands. The plaintist could not sue the bond against the desendant, being an infant. Per Cur. the infant being in possession of the lands that came in recompence, we will at present only quiet the plaintist's possession in the intailed lands, until 6 months after the infant comes of age, and then he may shew cause if he thinks sit: 2 Vern. 232, 233. pl. 212. Trin. 1691. Thomas v. Gyles.

4. Partition between tenants in tail, though but by parel, was decreed to bind the issue. 2 Vern. 232. cites the case of Burton

v. Jeux, and the like in the case of Rose v. Rose.

5. Tenant in tail covenants to settle a jointure: though he might have done it by fine and recovery, yet if he dies without doing it, a court of equity cannot relieve and decree a jointure. Arg. 2 Vern. 380. in case of Lady Clifford v. the Earl of Burlington and Ld. Clifford.

And where a power was referred to him to fettle a jointwe, and he covenants to tettle, but des not execute it at all, there may be some reason for a court of equity, not in enforce the execution thereof;

thereof; but where it is executed in any part, though not strictly performed, it is the standing rule of this Court to make it good. And cited several cases where articles had been carried into execution against remainder-men, and particularly the case of Ld. Burlington v. Clissord; and it was agreed by the other side to be true, that in the Li. Burlington's case there was a general covenant, but that it did not rest there; for he settled what he pretended was 1000 l. a year, according to the articles, which was afterwards found to be of less value, and appeared so by the desendant's unswer. 9 Mod. 16, 17. Arg. in the case of Ld. and Lady Coventry.

- 6. If tenant in tail, having a power to make leases for 3 lives, covenants to make such a lease, and dies before execution; the Court will carry this into execution though they would not a sale. Arg. 10 Mod. 469. in case of Coventry v. Coventry.
- (F) Equity. Agreement of Tenant for Life carried into Execution against the Issue in Tail.

AN agreement was made by articles between a lord of a manor who was only a tenant for life, and certain tenants of the manor who were likewise tenants for life only by settlements made precedent to the articles, which were for settling heriots and flinting of common, was confirmed by decree. Upon a bill to revive [170] the decree, it was objected that this agreement could in no fort bind on the one hand or the other the persons, who upon the respective deaths of the tenants for life, became tenants in tail. But the Master of the Rolls was of opinion, that these articles tending to settle the customs of the manor, which were immemorial, and before the statute de donis, and for stinting the common and preventing suits, ought to bind the issue in tail, though made only by tenant for life; and he would not presume that the tenant in possession would do any thing in prejudice of the tenants right; and decreed that the former decree should be confirmed, and revived, and executed. Quære. Vern. 426, 427. pl. 401. Hill. 1686. In Curia Canc. Dunn v. Allen.

(G) Equity. Creditors relieved against the Issue in Tail. In what Cases

1. THE husband in consideration of his wife's joining with him in a fine, and parting with her jointure of 40 l. per ann. gives her trustee a bond to settle other lands of 40 l. per ann. on the wife for life, remainder to the heirs of his body by her. The husband being indebted in other bonds dies intestate, and the wife takes administration, and confesses judgment to her trustee; on a bill by another bond-creditor decreed the wise's bond should be allowed, and stand good so far as to secure 40 l. per ann. to the wife for life; but as to the remainder to the children, or any settlement to be made for them, the Court took it, that upon the wording of the condition of the bond, the husband was to have been tenant in tail, and might have barred such settlement, if made, made, as to the children, and therefore as against the plaintist the desendant must have a satisfaction prior to him, but as to the children he must be preserved; and decreed it accordingly.

2 Vern. 220, 221. pl. 201. Pasch. 1691. Bottle v. Fripp & al.

2. Trustees in a marriage settlement for preserving contingent remainders, the marriage having been six years since (there being no issue) are decreed to join in a sale, the settlement being only of an equity of redemption, and the wife consenting to the sale, 2 Vern. 303. pl. 294. Mich. 1693. Platt v. Sprigg.

3. Where a settlement on marriage is made in tail of an estate martgaged, if mortgagee foreclose the husband and wise, it will bind, though issue should be born afterwards, 2 Vern. 304. in.

case of Platt v. Sprigg.

4. A. mortgages land to B. for 1000 years, and afterwards fettles it on marriage to himself for life, then to his wife for life, and then to the heirs of his body on the body of the wife, and afterwards mortgages again the same lands to C. and makes oath that the lands were free from incumbrances; they have issue a son; the wife dies; A. dies intestate; J. S. takes administration durante minoritate of the son, and pays off the mortgage to B. out of the personal estate, and takes an assignment in trust for the issue. Master of the Rolls decreed the debt to C. to be satisfied as far as there were assets of A. and that in taking the account, J. S. the administrator should not be allowed, as against C. the plaintist, the money by him paid to B. on his assigning the sirst mortgage. 2 Vern. 304. pl. 205. Mich. 1603. Fox v. Crane and Wight.

(H) Actions. What Actions Tenant in Tail may [171] have, and Pleadings.

For NTRY in nature of affife; the demandant counted that one f. N. gave in tail, and it was agreed, that it is not the course to count of a gift; but per Prisot in this case, where it, is of a particular estate, he cannot say, that he was seised in his demesse as of see; for he has only tail; but shall say, that he was seised in his demesse as of frank-tenement. Br. Count. pl. 15. cites 33 H. 6. 14.

2. Tenant in tail shall not have quo jure; for it is a writ of right, so of ne injuste vexes for the same reason. And if tenant in tail brings writ of right, the tenant shall say, that the demandant had nothing the day of the writ purchased, but to himself and his heirs of his body begotten. Br. Tail & Dones, pl. 35.

cites 5 E. 4.

3. Tenant in tail shall recover the rent by formedon, without shewing the deed; for the formedon is in the right. But he shall not have avorvry nor assis, without shewing the deed, for this is in the possession. Br. Tail & Dones, pl. 26. cites 4 H. 7. 10, Per Keble & Fairfax,

(I) Tenant in Tail after Possibility. Who is.

He is called . 1, TENANT in fee tail after possibility of issue extinct is, tenant in where tenements are given to a man and to his wife in tail after . special tail, if one of them die without issue, the survivor is tenant possibility of in tail after possibility of issue extinct; and if they have issue, issucextinot, because by and the one die, albeit that during the life of the issue the surno possibivivor shall not be said tenant in tail after possibility of issue exlity he can. have any tinck, yet if the issue dies without issue, so as there be not any issue issue inhealive which may inherit by force of the tail, then the surviving ritable to party of the donces is tenant in tail after possibility of issue exthe fame . Litt. f. 12. estate tail. But if a man' gives land to a man and bis wife, and to the heirs of their 2 bodies, and they live till each of them be an bundred years old, and have no iffue, yet do they continue tonant in tail; for that the law fees no impossibility of having children. But when a man and his wife be tenant in special tail, and the wife dies without iffue, there the law fees an apparent impossibility that any iffue that the hushand can have by any other wife, should inherit this estate. Co. Litt. 28. 2.

2. Also if tenements be given to a man; and to his heirs, which he shall beget on the body of his wife; in this case the wife has nothing in the tenements, and the husband is seised as donee in special tail. And in this case, if the wife dies without is use of her body begotten by her husband, then the husband is tenant in tail after possibility of the issue extinct. Litt. 1. 33.

3. None can be tenant in tail after possibility of issue extinct, but one of the donees, or donee in special tail. For the donee in general tail cannot be said to be tenant in tail after possibility of issue extinct; because, always during his life, he may by possibility have issue, which may inherit by force of the same entail. And so in the same manner the issue, which is heir to the donees in special tail, cannot be tenant in tail after possibility of issue extinct, for the reason abovesaid. Litt. s. 34.

4. W. R. Teised in see, gave land to B. and M. his feme, and 2 Inft. AFI, 682. cites to the heirs of their a bodies begotten, remainder to the heirs of the S. C. but fail B.-B. levied a fine with proclamations, and dies, leaving . fays it was issue C. a son by the said M. Within 5 years after M. entered resolved 4thly, that claiming her estate. It was insisted, that M. had only an estate the estate of the seme was for life, dispunishable of waste, as tenant in tail after possibility. But resolved, that after B.'s death, M. had an estate in tail; and changed to ' an estate for though the issue is barred by the fine, yet the estate of the life, dispanishable of feme is not touched by it, she being a stranger to the fine, and walte; for therefore her estate not changed into an estate for life. that theiffue 9 Rep. 138. b. Pasch. 10 Jac. in the court of wards. in tail, by the fine, was mont's case. difabled to inherit. — This very same case came in question again, in an ejectment by Baker v. Willis, Cro. C. 476. pl. 5. Trin. 13 Cai. B. R. and was argued by Crooke and Barkley J. but not by the other justices, because they heard that the parties were about to agree, which, by means of the judges, they afterwards did. But Crooke and Barkley held, that M. by her entry, was tenant in tail, and not tenant after possibility, nor in nature of such a tenancy in tail, but an absolute tenant in tail to all purposes. And Ciboke said, that if she be to sue a real action, she must name herself tenant in tail; and cited N. 331. and 331. — Jo. 393. pl. 3. S. C. by name of Dixie v. Braumower. But nothing said there as to this point; but says the case was argued by Crooke and Berkley, and asterwards the mater was compromised. ____S: C. eited accordingly, Hob. 257. 259. by Hobart Ch. J. in case of Duncombe v. Wingfield.

So where baron and feme were tenants in tail, remainder to the heirs of the haron by a conveyance. made by the baron during coverture; and the baron died, and the feme entered, and was seifed; and the issue, in life of the mother, levied a fine to the use of himself and his heire, it was held, that the mother remained tenant in tail, and so a lease made by her was held good. Cro. J. 688. pl. 5. Trib. 21 Jac. CROCKER v. KELSEY. But in a nove there fays, this was on a writ of effor, brought 9 Cat. in the Exchequer-chamber, on a judgment given ? Car,

5. A. in confideration of marriage, covenanted to stand seised to the use of bimself and M. his intended wife, for their lives, without impeachment of waste; and after of their first issue male; and the beirs male of such issue male issuing, &c. And for default of such, then to the use of the beirs of the body of A. and M. And for default, &c. then to the life of B. son and heir apparent of A. (by a former wife) and the heirs male of his body. And for default, &c. A. and M. marry, and have iffue C. Afterwards A. dies, not having other issue of the body of M: Then M. C. dies. Resolved, that because M. had estate for life by limitation of the party, and the estate which she had in the remainder, viz. of tenancy in tail after possibility, was not larger in quantity than the estate for life, and consequently cannot. drown it, M. was not tenant in tail after possibility; for such estate must be a residue of an estate tail, and must happen by the act of God, and not by limitation. 11, Rep. 79. b. and the 3d resolution, Pasch. 13 Jac. B. R. Lewis Bowles's case.

6. The estate of this tenancy must be altered by the att of God, and that by dying without iffue; for if a feoffment in fee be made to the use of a man and bis wife for their lines, and after to their next issue male to be begotten in tail; and after to the use of the busband and wife, and of the heirs of their 2 bodies begotten, they bewing no iffue male at that time; in this case the husband and Roll. Rep. wife are tenants in special tail executed; and after they have issue a son, they are become tenants for life, the remainder to the fon in tail, the remainder to them in special tail; for albeit their estate tail is turned to an estate for life, yet they have a bare estate for life: but if the husband die, having no other issue, and then the fon dies without issue, the wife shall have the privileges belonging to a tenant in tail; after possibility of issue extinct, as it appears in Lewis Bowles's case. Co. Litt. 28. 24.

an estate for life, he shall not be tenant after possibility, because this must be ex dispositione legis, and not ex provisione homisis. ____ 11 Rep. So. b. the 3d resolution in Lewis Bowles's case.

7. If land be given to a man and his wife, and the heirs of their 2 bodies, and after they are divorced, causa pracontractus, or consanguinitatis; or affinitatis, their estate of inheritance is turned to a joint estate for life; and albeit they had once an inheritance in them, yet for that the estate is altered by their own act, and not by the act of God, viz. by the death of either party without iffue, they are not tenants in tail after possibility. Co. Litt. 28. a. b. pl. 11. cites S. C. ___ 2 Inft. 682. in Beaumont's desc. ____ 7 Repe 147. a. in S. C. cites 7 H. 4. 16.

Such tenancy ought be the relidue of an estate in special tail; per Coke Ch. J. 180. in case of Bowles v. Berry, and cited 50E.3. that feoffment on condition to have for life only is good; but when it is decreased to

L. 173. Br.Deraignment and Divorce, pl. 13, cites 7 H. 4, 16.— Br. Taile & Dones, &c. pl. 9. cites, ·S. C.~ Br. Effates, and lays, that in such case the estament in distolved ab initio, and so the issued is made batter a

8. Lands are given to the hufband and wife, and to the heirs of the body of the husband, the remainder to the husband and wife, and . to the heirs of their 2 bodies begotten; the husband dies without issue; the wife shall not be tenant in tail after possibility; for the remainder in special-tail was utterly void, because it could never take effect; for so long as the husband should have iffue, it should inherit by force of the general tail; and if the husband die with. out issue; then the special estate tail cannot take effect, inasmuch as the issue which should inherit the special tail must be begotten by the husband, and so the general, which is larger. and greater, has frustrated the special, which is lesser. Co. Litt. 28. b.:

But if the king give land to a man with a Womin of bis kindred in frankmarriage,

9. If lands be given to a man with a woman in frank-marriage, albeit the woman (which was the cause of the gift) dies without issue, yet the husband shall be tenant in tail after possibility, &c. for that he and his wife were donees in special tail, and so within the words of Littleton. Co. Litt. 28. b.

and the woman dies without iffue, the man in the king's case, shall not hold it for his life; because the waman was the cause of the gift. But otherwise it is in the case of a common person. Co. Litt. 21. b. 22. a.

> 10. If the king gives land to a man and a woman, and the heirs of their 2 bodies, and the woman dies without issue; yet shall the man be tenant in tail after possibility. . Co. Litt. 22. b.

(K) Of what Thing. Tenant in Tail after Possibility may be.

5. P. per Coke Ch. J. Roll. Rep. 180. in case of Bowles v.

Berrie, S. C.

5. P. Br.

HERE is no question but tenant in tail after possibility may be of a remainder, as well as of a possession. 11 Rep. 81. a. Pasch. 13 Jac. B. R. in the 4th resolution in Lewis Bowles's cafe.

2. And therefore, if lease for life be made to A. the remainder to baron and feme in special tail, and the baron dies without issue, now the feme is tenant in tail after possibility of this remainder; and if A. surrenders to her, as he may, now she is tenant in tail after possibility in possession. 11 Rep. 81. a. per Cur. in the 4th resolution in Lewis Bowles's case.

[174] (L) Privilege of Tenant in Tail after Possibility, or of his Grantee.

1. TENANT in tail, after possibility of issue extinct, has eight qualities and privileges, which tenant in tail him-Co. Litt. 27. b. felf has, and which leffee for life has not.

2. As, 1st, He is dispunishable for waste. Co. Litt. 27. b. Tail & Dones, pl. 17. citer 30 Ed. 3. 16. - Dr. & Stud. lib. 2. cap. re fays, the law is clear, that LARENDEN's tale, because his original estate is not within the statute of Gloucester, eap. 5.--e lagi

That. 302. S. P. And though he is within the letter of that statute, yet he is out of the meaning of it, because the inheritance was once in him.

Roll. Rep. 179. S. P. by Doderidge J. cites time of E. 1. Fitzh. Waste, 26. 45 E. 3. 39 E. 3. 16. 12 H. 4. 1. 11 H. 4. 5. 16 H. 6. 16. 7 H. 4. 26 H. 6. Aide, 77. - And per Doderidge J. he shall not be punished for waste, because he continues in by virtue of the livery upon the estate tail; and it seems because by the livery, he had power to do waste, though the estate be changed, yet the same liberty continues so long as the gift and livery continues. And per Coke Ch. J. at common law this tenant had a fee, and consequently full power to sell and dispose of the trees; and notwithstanding the flatute has made the estate to be only for life, yet the privilege and liberty is not taken away. Roll. Rep. 184. Paich. 13 Jac. B. R. Bowles v. Berry. _____ 11 Rep. 80. a. Lewis Bowles's case.

The learned author of An Institute, but now called The New Abridgment, 2d vol. 269. tells us, that to punish the tenant for waste, seems to be against the design and intention of the first donation; for by that the donor gave the inheritance, and an absolute power over the lasting improvements, which are looked upon as part of the inheritance for their duration; and consequently it can be no injury to him in revertion, nor belides his intention in the donation, if the doned exercises the power he was intrusted with by the donor; nor can the donor revoke it, because the authority given by the gift must continue as long as the gift, to which it was annexed, continues.——But see tit. Waste (Q) Mr. 1. and (S) pl. 12.

2dly, He shall not be compelled to attorn. Co. Litt. 27. b. S. P. Br.

ment, pl. 10. cites 43 E. 3. 1. ____lbid. pl. 11. cites 46 E. 3. 13. ____lbid. pl. 12. cites 46 E. 3. 27. -- Ibid. pl. 26. cites 39 E. 3. 20. -- Br. Tail & Dones, pl. 17. cites 39 E. 3. 16. Quid juris clamat lies not against such tenant. Br. Quid Juris clamat, pl. 1. cites 43 E. 3. 1. -Ibid. pl. 6. cites 46 E. 3. 13. 11 Rep. 8c. Pasch. 13 Jac. B. R. in Lewis Bowles's ease — Roll. Rep. 179. S. P. per Curism, in case of Bowles v. Berry. — Co. Litt. 316. a. S. P. But his affignee shall attorn, because he never had but an estate for life. — 3 Le. 241. pl. 336. Trin. 32 Eliz. in the Exchequer, in George AP-RICE's case, it was said to have been adjudged in a court of Wales, that the affignee of tenant in tail after possibility of issue mould attorn; upon which judgment a writ of error was brought in B. R. and there, upon good advice, the faid judgment was affirmed; for although it be true, that tenant in tail after possibility shall not be compelled to attorn, yet that is a privilege which is annexed to his person, and not to the estate; and by the assignment of the estate the privilege is destroyed. --- 2 Le. 40. pl. 54. Mich. 30 Eliz. B. R. S. C. accordingly. ---S. C. cited per Coke Ch. J. Roll. Rep. 179. in case of Bowles v. Berry. —— Co. Litt. 316. a.

In error brought of a judgment in quid juris clamat, Clerk J. conceived that grantee of tenant in tail after possibility, should not be driven to attorn. Sed adjornatur. 3 Le. 121. pl. 173. Trin. 27 Eliz. B. R. Anon. ——Le. 291. pl. 397. S. P. —— But Co. Litt. 28. a. says, that where tenant in tail after possibility of issue extinct, granted over his estate to another, his grantee was compelled to atform in a quid juris clamat, as a bare tenant for life, and so be named in the writ; for by the affignment, the privity of the estate being altered, the privilege was gone; cites it as adjudged Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. in EWENS's case, and judgment affirmed in a writ of error, and says herewith agreeth 27 H. 6. tit. Aid, Statham, 29 E. 3. 1. b. S. C. cited 11 Rep. 83. b. in Lewis Bowles's case.

-Roll. Rep. 179. S. C. cited by Coke as. Owen's case.

4. 3dly, He shall not have aid of him in the reversion. Co. S. P. Br. Tail and Litt. 27. b. Dones, pl.

17. cites 39 E. 3. 16. S. P. Fitzh. tit. Ayde, pl 77. cites Trin. 26 H. 6. because the same tenancy, which he had at the first, continues.

Tenant in tail after possibility, &c. shall not have aid, but his grantee shall. Arg. 3 Le. 121. pl. 173. Anon. cites Statham, tit. Aid, 27 H. 6. - Br. Aid, pl. 37. S. P. cites 2 H. 4. 17. Brooke says, it seems the reason is, because he had once an estate of inheritance. Roll. Rep. 184. S. P. Per Doderidge J. in case of Bowles v. Berry, cites 10 H. 6. 1. ----- 11 Rep. 80. a. b. Lewis Bowles's case.

S. P. Because he having originally the inheritance by the first gift, has likewise the custody of the writings which are necessary to defend it. 2 New Abr. 269.

[75] 5. 4thly, Upon his alienation, no writ of entry in consimili S. P. But ocfu lies. Co. Litt. 27. b. fion may enter. Fitzh. tit. Entre Congeable, pl. 56. cites 13 E. 2.

S. P. Because this case is not confimilis to that of tenant for dower, because this tenant had originally the inheritance in him, which the tenant in dower never had. 2 New Abr. 269.

So upon his death the donor shall not have writ of entry in confimili casu, as upon the death of tenant for life; per Doderidge and Coke, quod fuit concessum per Haughton, Roll. Rep. 179. and cited 13 E. 2. Entre Congeable, 56. - 11 Rep. 80. b. Lewis Bowles's cafe. Fitzh. tit. Ayde, pl. 77. sites Trin. 26 H. 6. that he shall have formedon in reverter, and not writ of entry. ----- S. P. As to the formedon; per Doderidge J. quod fuit concessum per Coke. Roll. Rep. 179.

. 04

6. 5thly,

Roll. Rep. 6. 5thly, After his death no writ of intrusion does lie. Co. 179. in case Litt. 27. b.

Berry. S. P. by Coke Ch. J.——11 Rep. 80. b. Lewis Bowles's case.——S. P. Because this writ is given only upon an entry and intrusion asser the death of a bare tenant for life, which this tenant is not. 2 New Abr. 269.

But he shall have formedon, see the notes on the plea next above.

In writ of intruston, it is a good plea to say that he was seised, and gave to him whom he supposes tenant for life, and to the heirs of his body; and for that he died without heir, he entered, shique hoc, that he held for life of the lease of the demandant at the time of his death. F. N. B. 203. (E) in the new potes there (a) cites 24 E. 3. 74.

S. P. Be-. 7. Othly, He may join the mise in a writ of right in a special deeds be- manner. Co. Litt. 27. b.

longing to the inheritance lying in his hands, he may make out his title without calling in the reverfioner. 2 New Abr. 269.

S. P. by Boderidge. Roll. Rep. 179. cites 19 E. 3. 16. But by Coke, he cannot join the mise upon the mere right. Ibid. cites 27 H. 6.——11 Rep. 20. b. Lewis Bowles's case, cites abundance of cases out of the old books.

S. P. For if 8. 7thly, In a præcipe brought by him, he shall not name himhe does, and felf tenant for life. Co. Litt. 27. b.

the Court that he is tenant in tail after possibility, the writ shall abate; per Coke and Doderidge. Roll. Rep. 179. cites 18 E. 3. 27.—— It Rep. 80. b. cites 5. C. of 18 E. 3. 27. a. that seme brought cui in vita, quod clamat tenere ad vitam, and maintained it in her count by gift in special tail to her and her baron, and that her baron is dead without issue, and the writ abated, because of the contrainesty of the title.

S. P. Because his original inoriginal ino. 8thly, In a præcipe brought against him, he shall not be cause his original innamed barely tenant for life Co. Litt. 27. b.

feudation, by which he claims, was of an estate of inheritance, and not of an estate for life. 2 New Abr. 269.

In quid juris clamat, the defendant pleaded, that he, tempore levationis not a pradicta, was seised in fee of the gift of R. R. absque hoc, quod itse tempore levation is not x prædicx bild tenementa prædicx, pro termino witae fua tantum, &c. And thereupon they were at issue; and it was found that he held them as lands entailed, after possibility of issue, &c.. The Court resolved for the defendant; because it appears to the Court, that the defendant has an estate privileged from attornment, to be made by him; and the inducement of the traverse is not any cause of forseiture. Wherefore it was adjudged for the defendant. Cro. Eliz. 671. pl. 29. Pasch. 41 Eliz. C. B. Veal v. Road. --- Noy, 74. Veale v. Reede, S. C. but fays nothing of any judgment, but only that upon the question for whom judgment should be given upon this issue; Williams said for the plaintiss, because it is an estate privileged, and ought to have been pleaded in bar. ----- 11 Rep. 80. b. in Lewis Bowles's case, cites S. C. as adjudged for the defendant, because such tenant shall not in judgment of law be included in writ or fine, &c. within the general allegation of a tenant for life. S. C. cited Roll. Rep. 179. in case of Bowles v. Berrie, says that in the quid juris clamat it was alleged that the defendant was lessee for life at the time of the fine levied, and adjudged for the defendant; for he was not any fuch tenant as was compellable to attorn in such writ; but says, the that took the traverse was not commended for taking such a desperate traverse, notwithstanding it was helped in this manner; for he was a tenant for life. But the book cite, 29 E. 3. 1. b. that if it be alleged that one holds for life, it shall not be taken that he is tenant after possibility.

- 10. And yet he has 4 other qualities, which are not agreeable to an estate in tail, but to a bare lessee for life. Co. Litt. 27. b. 28. a.
- S. P. Be11. As, 1st, If he makes a feoffment in fce, this is a forfeiture no longer a of his estate. Co. Litt. 28. a.

descendible estate in him, he cannot transfer it to another, without the prejudice and disherison of him in remainder. 2 New Abr. 260.

* He in remainder may enter for alienation. Br. Aide, pl. 37. eites 7 H. 4. 10. and 39 E. 3.—
Br. Forfeiture, pl. 88. cites 45 E. 3. 25.—Br. Entre Congeable, pl. 12. cites S. C.—Br. Tall & Dones, pl. 17. cites 39 E. 3. 16.—Roll. Rep. 170. Pasch. 13 Jac. B. R. in case of Bowles v. Berry, per Doderidge J. cites 13 E. 2. Pitzh. Entre Congeable, 56. 13 H. 4. 30 E. 3. 16. accordingly.

Cordingly, qued fuit concessum per Curiam .-11 Rep. 80. b. in Lewis Bowles's case, cites 45 E. 3. 22. 28 E. 3. 96. b. 27 Aff. 60.

2dly, If an estate in fee, or in fee tail in reversion or re- Br. Estates, mainder descend, or come to this tenant, his estate is drowned, pl. 25. cites and the fee or fee tail executed. Co. Litt. 28. a.

9 E. 4. 17. 18.—Roll

- Rep. 179. S. P. per Doderidge, and cited 9 B. 4. 50 E. 3. 35. 7 H. 4. 23. Quod fuit concessum per Coke, and he cited the same books also. _____1 Rep. 80. b. in Lewis Bowles's case, cites 32 E. 3. tit. Age, 55. 50 E. 3. 4. 9 E. 4. 17. b.
- 13. 3dly, He in reversion or remainder shall be received upon S. P. Br. Aide, pl. 37. bis default, as well as upon that of bare tenant for life. cites 7 H. 4. Litt. 28. 2. 10. and 39 E. 3.—
- S. P. Br. Taile & Dones, pl. 17. S. P. 11 Rep. 80. b. Lewis Bowles's case, cites 2 E. 2. Resoeit, 147. 41 E. 3. 12. 20 E. 3. Tit, Resceit. 38 E. 3. 33. ------ S. P. Roll. Rep. 179. per Doderidge J. cites 11 H. 6. 15. 10 H. 6. 1. Quod fuit concessum per Crooke and Haughton; but Haughton said, that this is by the express words of the statute of resceits, which says (per donum) but said, that if it had not been for the express words, he doubted whether he should be received.
- 14. 4thly, An exchange between a bare tenant for life, and him, is good; for their estates in respect of their quantity are equal, so as the difference stands in the quality, and not in the quantity of the estate. And as an estate tail was originally carved out of a fee-simple, so is the estate of this tenant out of an Bowles's estate in special tail. Co. Litt. 28. a.

S. P. Per Coke Ch. J. Roll. Rep. 179. - 11 Rep. 80. b. S. P. Lewis case.

15. Tenant in tail recovers in assisse, and after becomes tenant in Fitzh. ut. tail after possibility, &c. he shall have redisseisin. Per Doderidge J. Roll. Rep. 179. in case of Bowles v. Berry.

Aid, pl. 77. cites Trin. 26 H. 6.— 11 Rep. 81.

a. in the 3d resolution in Lewis. Bowles's case; for it is the same franktenement as he had before, this being partel of the estate-tail. ——Co. Litt. 154. b.

16. In some case a person who is not really and strictly tenant in tail after possibility, shall have the privilege of such tenant. As in the case of the wife in Lewis Bowles's case, 11 Rep. 81. a. where an estate for life fell to her on her baton's death by reason of a prior limitation in their marriage settlement, and afterwards, by the death of the issue in special tail without issue, an estate of tenancy in tail after possibility would have fallen to her by means of a subsequent limitation in the same settlement (viz. in default of issue male of their 2 bodies, then to the heirs of the bodies of the baron and feme); but she being in of the estate for life, and that estate being equal in quantity with the tenancy in tail after possibility, and consequently could not merge in it, and so could not be tenant in tail after possibility, besides, that such estate is always a residue of an estate tail, and must happen by the act of God, as by death, and not by limitation of the party, yet it was resolved that now after such issue's death she shall have the privilege of such tenant, by reason of the inheritance which was once in her. See the safe at (I) pl 5

For

For more of Tayle in general, see Debste, Estates, Kines, forfeiture, Formedon, Mortd'ancestor, Recovery Common, Kemainder, and other proper titles.

[177]

Tender.

(A) Necessary in what Cases.

I. IF a man be bound to pay rent-service, or rent-charge, there he need not to tender it; but it suffices to be ready upon the land; quod non negatur. Br. Tender, pl. 22. cites 14 E. 4.4.

2. But annuity ought to be tendered, to save the obligation.

Br. Tender, pl. 22. cites 14 E. 4. 4.

- 3. Per Anderson, Ch. J. there is a difference where the obligation precedes the duty, which accrues by a matter subsequent, and where the duty precedes the obligation, which was made for the surther assurance of the duty. In the first case a tender must be pleaded, and cites 14 E. 4. 4. where A. was bound to B. that whereas he had granted a rent-charge; now if B. should enjoy the said rent, according to the said grant, that then, &c. he needs not plead any tender, because the rent is not payable in other manner than it was before. Contrary if the condition had been for payment of the money, or annuity; and of that opinion was the whole Court. Le. 71. pl. 95. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. C. B. in case of Bret v. Audar, alias Andrews.
- 4. A tender is not necessary in any cases, but where there is a penalty. Per Holt Ch. J. Comb. 334. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. in case of Broome v. Pine.

(B) Good. In respect of the Thing tendered.

This case is 1. D. 81. b. pl. 67. Barringcon v. Potter. 21

AFTER the fall and embasement of money in 5 E. 6. debt was brought against executor of lessee for years, for rentarrear for 2 years at Mich. 2 E. 6. at which time the fallings, which at the time of the action brought were decried to 6d. were current at 12d. The desendant pleaded tender of the rent at the days when it was due, in peciis monetæ Angliæ vocat shillings; and said, that every shilling at the time of the tender was payable for 12d. but that the plaintist nor any for him was ready to receive it. And concludes, that he is uncore prist to pay the arrears în dictis peciis vocat shillings, secundum ratam, &c. The plaintiff demurçed; but afterwards accepted the money fecundum Tatam prædictam, without costs or damages. Dav. Rep. 27. in the case of mixed moneys, cites D. 81. 6 & 7 E. 6.

2. In debt upon bond for payment of 24 l. at 2 several days, the defendant pleaded, that at the day and place limited for payment, there was current certain money called pollards, in lieu of sterling, &c. and that defendant, at the first day of payment, tendered the moiety of the debt in the money called pollards, which the plaintiff refused; and that he is uncore prist, &c. and offers it in court. And because the plaintiff did not deny it, it was awarded, that he recover one molety in * pollards, and the other in pure sterling money. Day. Rep. in the case of mixed moneys, cites, pleas of the it adjudged 29 E. 1. and reported by Dyer, 7 E. 6. 82. b.

This is at D. 82. a. b. pl 69. Hill 6 & 7 E. 6. cites a book in the cuftody of Lord Mountague; but says it is not in his own book of lame year. Pong v. Lindley & al.

- 3. The mortgagor was bound to pay 250 l. of lawful money of *[178] England, on a certain day and place, and he tendered money accordingly; but because there was 5 s. in Spanish money, and two foreign pieces of gold called double pistolets, the mortgagee re-Adjudged, that Spanish silver was lawful fused to take it. money of England, being made so by proclamation; and that the king, by his absolute prerogative, may make foreign coin lawful money of England. 5 Rep. 114. Trin. 43 Eliz. C. B. Wade's case.
- 4. Queen Elizabeth made a large quantity of mixed money in the Tower of London, and fent it into Ireland to pay the army there; with a preclamation, dated 24 May, 43d of her reign, that the faid money should be lawful and current in that kingdom, and accepted and received as such; and that they who refused it inould be punished for a contempt. And by the same proclamation the put down, from the 10th of June next, all other coins current there. A merchant in Ireland had bought goods of G. in London, and was bound to G. in a bond of 200 l. conditioned to pay to the said G. 100 l. sterling in Ireland on a certain day, which happened after the proclamation; at which day the obligor tendered the 100 l. in mixed money. Resolved, that the tender was good. Dav. Rep. 18. Trin. 2 Jac. the case of mixed money.

5. If a man be obliged to pay 100 l. French crowns, yet he may Palm. 407. tender all in English money. Per Jones J. Lat. 84. in case of S.C. & per Ward w. Ridgwin.

Jones; to he may e con-Actio.

6. Our law takes notice of guineas, and they are current here 2 Salk. 446. for 20 s., for before guineas were coined there was a 20 s. piece S. C. of gold, which by proclamation was raised to 21 s. 4 d. whereapon guineas were coincid at 1 s. 4 d. less. And provided any piece has the king's stamp, and be coined at the mint, it shall be current without proclamation, in proportion to its value. in indebitatus assumpsit the plaintist need not set forth they were guineas guineas which defendant received, but so much money received to his use. Per Holt Ch. J. Comb. 387. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Dickson v. Willowes.

7. Tender of a bank note is not strictly a legal tender; but it being proyed, that the plaintiff offered to turn it into montey, it then became a good tender. Abr. Equ. Cases, 319. Hill. 1729. Austen v. Executors of Sir William Dodwell.

3œ (D).

(C) Good. By whom.

1. TENDER [of rent-service] to the lord, by one who has only a lease for term of years, is not good. Br. Tender, pl. 2. cites 2 H. 6. 1.——Brooke says, it seems it is not good at this day, after the statute * of 21 H. 8. any more than before.

* See Avowry.

2. In replevin, payment by one jointenant is good for all, and against all, as seisin of rent obtained. Contra of attornment by the one. Br. Tender, pl. 16. cites 39 H. 6. 2, 3.

3. If a man grants on annuity till the defendant be promoted to a benefice by R. the grantor, the tender of the benefice shall be by R. and not by his successor; for the case was by prior and covent, &c. Br. Tender, pl. 15. cites 14 H. 7. 31. & 15 H. 7. 1.

] 4. Where a lord of parliament is impleaded by cessavit, if he will tender the arrears, he shall tender them in proper person; so of all other tenants in cessavit. Br. Tender, pl. 29. cites 15 H. 7.9.

5. If a feoffment be on condition that feoffee pay 201 at Michael-5. C. cited Mo. 336. mas to the feoffor, otherwise that feoffor shall re-enter, and feoffee pl. 455. in before the day enfeoffs J. S. in this case a tender by, the feoffee or Englefield's 7. S. at Michaelmas is good, and upon refusal the condition is Cale -----And 4 Le. gone. For the first feoffee was privy to the condition, and the 2d 176. pl. 276. in effate, and in judgment of law has an estate and interest in the in S. C. and pl. C. condition for the falvation of his tenancy. Litt. f. 336. 291. b. in Jekyl. 10 Mud. 420. in case of Marks v. Marks.

6. If a feoffment be made upon condition, that if the feoffor pay fuch a sum to the feoffee, then the feoffor and his heirs may enter; if the feoffce dies before the payment, and the heir will tender to the feoffee the money, such tender is void, because the time, within which this ought to be done, is past; for when the condition is, that if the feoffor pay the money to the feoffee, &c. this is as much as to fay, as if the feoffor during his life pay the money to the feoffee, &c. and when the feoffor dies, then the time of the But otherwise, where a day of payment is limited, tender is past. and the feoffor dies before the day, then may the beir tender the money, as is aforefaid; for that the + time of the tender was not . past by the death of the feosfor. Also it feems, that in such case where the seoffer dies before the day of payment, if the executors of the feoffor tender the money to the feoffee at the day of payment, this tender is good enough; and if the feoffee refule

† See pl. 9. Marks v. Marks. it, the heirs of the feoffor may enter, &c. because the executors represent the person of their testator, &c. Litt. £ 337.

7. If a man bring an action of trespass for taking away his beafts or other goods, there tender of sufficient amends before the action brought is no bar, because he that tendered the amends is not the owner of the goods, but a trespasser, whom the law fayours not. 2 Inft. 107.

8. A lease for years was made upon condition to be void by the Cro. J. 275. tender of 6 d. to the lessee by him in reversion; the lessee entered and was disseised by another; the question was, whether the tender of the 6d. to avoid the leafe might now be made by the reversioner after the disseifen. The whole Court was of opinion that it might; for this payment is a collateral thing. And judgment accordingly.

Bulst. 118. Pasch. 9 Jac. Plact v. Sleep.

9. A. had issue 3 sons; B. his eldest, who died in his life-time kaving a daughter, and C. and D .- A. devifes lands to his wife for life, and after her death to D. and his heirs, provided, that if C. do, within 3 months after the death of the wife, pay to D. the sum of 500 L then the lands to remain to C. and his beirs. C. died in the life-time of the wife, leaving N. his heir. D. enters within 3 months after the wife's death. N. brought a bill to have a conveyance on payment of the 500%. The principal point was, whether this 500%. being to be paid within a limited time by C. and he dying within that time, the heir at law of C. who was not heir at law of A. bould now on payment make a title? The counsel for the plaintiff, among other things, infifted on Co. Litt. f. 134. and Coke's . comment thereupon; to which it was answered on the other side. that the case there was but in nature of a mortgage; that it was to relieve against a forseiture by non-payment of the money at the day, which may be good, even at law, much more in this coutt; that there was a wide difference between a condition precedent, and a condition subsequent; that that was a condition subsequent, and for the revesting of the estate, and the condition descended on the heir, and consequently might be performed by him, though not named; that this was a condition precedent, and for the new creation of an estate in a person who had no right or title before, and was not heir at law; that this was personal in C. that he had not jus in re, nor ad rem, and could neither have devised, released, or extinguished this condition; that it was a bare possibility, and he dying before it was performed, his heir could not make it good. But the Master of the Rolls denied this to be a condition, because such is only to be performed by the party making it or his heirs; whereas this is to be performed by a 3d person. Nor is it in nature of a remainder to C. the devise to D. being not in tail, but in fee, and a remainder can be only after a tail or less estate; so that this is an executory devise, or may be called a possibility in the largest extent of the word, but is not strictly such: for nothing was vested in C. which he could either grant or release, not did any thing descend to his heir: that (heirs) in this cafe, were not named to take by purchase, but by descent; and the naming them was to denote the quantity of the estate, and

pl. 4. S.C. accordingly.

[180] 10 Mod. 419 to 426. Mich. 5 Geo. 1-S. C. decreed for plaintiff by the Lord Chancellor, affifted by Sir Joseph Jekyll Master of the Rolls, who observed, that this was upon the cale of a will, where the law has ever allowed the greatest latitude of construction, in fupport of the intention of the testator; that nobody can doubt but the testator's intention was to give the land only in the nature of a lecurity for 500 l. and that C, was to have the fce-simple-And Ld. C. Parker faid, that though the words of the will are enly, that C. shall pay and not thus

C. and his heirs shall, yet that is only a plain mistake in the will, which is a. Conveyance which the law supposes to be made is inops conflii, and therefore allows great savour to be wied in its construcif A. had made a feoffment to D. upon condi-

was to take and not to give them any estate originally; and cited 10 Rep. Lampett's case, and Pl. C: Brett v. Rigden. But it was argued, that the possibility of performing this condition was an interest, or right, or scintilla juris, which vested in C. himself, and that he survived A. and so this differed from Brett and Rigden's case; and consequently such right, possibility, or interest, descended to his heir, and might be performed by him, as before the statute de donis the possibility of reverter descended to the when a man heirs of the donor. The Master of the Rolls looking on this 28 a case of some difficulty, appointed it to be spoke to again when the Afterwards, in Mich. term, 5 Geo. 1. it was decourt is full. creed by Ld. Chancellor and Master of the Rolls for the plaintiff upon Litt. s. * 334, 335, 336, and 337. Co. Litt. 205. &c. And they said, that though a condition was not in strictness of tion; that law deviseable, yet since the statute of uses, the devisee may take benefit of it by an equitable construction of the statute; and that C. might have released or extinguished his right. Chan. Prec. 486, Pasch. 1718. Marks v. Marks.

dition, that if the testator should pay so much money to D. then C. should have see, this is a condition, the right of performing which descends to the heir of the testator, and the heir would be at liberty to take advantage of it; for the limitation of the fee over to C. would be void, by a particular maxim of the common law, which will not allow a fee to be limited upon a fee, or by that other maxim, which excludes a stranger from taking advantage of a condition of that the testator gives the land to D. redeemable upon the payment of 500 l. and he gives the equity of redemption to C.-C. therefore seemed to him to have an equity of redemption, that remains open to him in a court of equity, as well after the time limited, as be-That indeed there might have been a difference between this case and the case of a common moit. gage, where, though when the day is past, and so the legal estate is absolutely vested in the mortgagee, yet in equity a right to redeem remains, had C. been to come, here for relief against the heir at law: but this is not the case; for he comes for relief against a third person, who had the estate vested in him for no other. purpose but to make the estate redeemable; that payment of a small tristing sum may be considered rather as a ceremony than a valuable confideration. And this he took to be the ground upon which the two judges went, who in the case of Spring AND CasAR held the payment of the 10s. to be a personalact; for when the fum comes to be confiderable, as here it is 500 l. the payment of it is never effectmed a personal act; and this appears throughout ENGLEFIELD's case in the 7th report; that the case of the scoffment in the section of Littleton, is parallel in all respects to the present case; parallel as to the condition, as to the performance, as to the effect of the performance, and differs only as to the person who is to take advantage of the performance of it. And this is supplied by the statute of wills, which gives the 3d person as good a title to take advantage of it, as the seosfor had by the common law.

I have likewise a MS. report of this case, agrecable to the books above-mentioned; and there Ld. C. Parker said, that if the heir of C. pays, C. pays to all the purposes of the will, by his representative; that certainly it is not necessary that the estate should yest in C. in order to descend to his heir; that the ground of Wood's case, [which had been cited, and is in Surlly's case, I Rep. 90. a.] was, that a right vested and descended, but here the condition is, subsequent in respect to D. and precedent to the vesting C.'s estate, and not so properly to defeat the estate of D. as to vest it in O. and + as to this the case of Wood is exactly the same; and the only difference between them is, that in Wood's case the condition was for the benefit of the covenance and his heirs, but here for a 3d person; that there the old estate is taken, but here C. takes a new one; but that this is a difference only in found, and here it is upon the operation of a will, and each party has the benefit intended him; if the effate had descended to the heir at law, C.'s condition would have been precedent, but here the estate being given to D. the condition is subsequent; be it the one or the other, if it is performed it is all one, and the heir's payment is a good pay-The advantage was yested in C. which he might have released or extinguished, but not having done so, his heir has it. -N. B. It appears by the printed reports of this case, and likewise by the MS. report, that the reason why this, being a point purely at law, was brought into equity, was, that D. had so mortgaged and incumbered the estate by a marriage settlement on his wife, that the plaintiff prayed relief, and the direction of the Court, to whom he should make a tender of the money. And Ld, Chancellor (as, · my MS. report has it) said, it was proper for the plaintiff to come here for relief, because of the uncertainty to whom the money should be paid; that perhaps, a payment to D. would have been a good payment, according to the will; but it is a question if it had been secure against the mortgages and settlements of D. That the decree must be in nature of a redemption; that the money must be paid to the master, to be laid out in a purchase of land to be settled to the uses of D.'s marriage settlement, and the profits in the mean time, during D.'s life, to be gaid to his mortgagee, according to their priority,

See Mortgege (N) pl. 1.

†[181]

(D) Good. To whom.

3. IF the conusee upon a statute merchant makes assignment after that Tenderme he has had execution of the land by the statute, then the tender of the money shall be made to the assignee, quod nota; and satute and quære, if it be not good to the conusce himself. Br. Tender, not to the pl. 38. cites 15 E. 3. & Fitzh. Responder, 1.

be to the assignee. P Hale Ch.

Vent. 211, Pasch. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Anoi

2. Tender to the assignee of the feoffee, upon deseasance of a re- Br. Condi lease of right was pleaded; and quære of it. Br. Tender, pl. 17. 103. S. C cites 17 Aff. 2.

- 3. Where the defendant in debt will tender the money to the sheriff in pais, or in pracipe quod reddat will offer to render the land in pais to the demandant, yet the sheriff shall not cease to make the summons, er serve the process; for if such render may be good against the will of the parties, then the plaintiff or demandant shall lose his damages, which is not reason. Per Thirning. Br. Tender, pl. 9. eites 11 H. 6. 62.
- 4. If obligee assigns A. to receive the money at the day and place limited in the bond, a tender to A. is sufficient. Mo. 37. pl. 120. Trin. 4 Eliz. Anon.

5. But where the condition is to pay money to a stranger, the payment be made at the peril of the obligor. Mo. 37. pl. 120. Anon.

6. Rent was referved payable at Lady-day or a month after; tender at the house of lessor, and payment there to the daughterin-law of leffor (who had formerly received the rent by order of leffor) between Lady-day and the month after, is no good tender, be- his person, cause before the month end lessor could not distrain or have debt for the rent. But where the reservation is at Lady-day, and the Croppes's month after is given only for faving a re-entry, there such tender case S. C. was held good by Wray Ch. J. 2 Le. 130. pl. 173. Hill. 28 Eliz. B. R. Crop v. Hambledon.

Mo.223. p 363. S. Ć reports the tender to --Godd 38. pl. 43 reports it tendered to the daughter-in-law, and they supposed lessor's refusal to be trickish; and judgment against him.—Cro. E. 48. S. C. re ports that the 2 first payments were to the servant, a 3d payment to the lessor, a 4th payment to the same servant, who within the 20 days tendered it to the lessor; per Cur. The tender out of the land at any time within the month, is good; and the tender by the servant was as servant of the lesses for the size, and all one as if leffee had tendered it.

7. A. was obliged to B. to the use of C. to deliver a chest to C. [182] who refused to receive it upon the tender at the day; the obligation was faved, because the obligation was to the use of C. for he shall not take advantage of his own act. Cited by Glanvile, Cro. Eliz. 755. pl. 16. Pasch. 42 Eliz. in C. B. in case of Huish v. Philips, as adjudged between Carne and Savery.

8. Audita querela by H. fet forth, that he was bound in a fla- Upon erro Tute of 6001. to P. the defendant, to the use of J. B. with a defeasance, brought of this judgthat if he paid such sums at such several days to J. B. it should be ment, it we refolved, that though 1. B. was a stranger to the recognizance, yet it being averged to be made to his .nse, he ought at his peril to be ready at the place every day to receive it; otherwise the recogpizance is not for-. feited, when woid; and that at every of the said days and places, he was paratus to pay the said sums, and obtulit them; and that J. B. was not there. The desendant pleaded, that * such a day J. B. was at the place, &c. and demanded the sum, and neither the plaintiff, nor any for him, were there to pay it, absque hoc; that the plaintiff obtulit the said sum at the said day. Upon demurrer, it was insisted for desendant, that on this matter an audita querela lies not, because J. B. is a stranger to the statute; and though the plaintist tendered to a stranger who resused, yet the recognizance is forfeited; for he must, at his peril, procure the stranger to accept it, when the act is to be done by a stranger. But all the Court held, that the tender was a sufficient performance, the deseasance being made to the use of. J. B. but had he been a mere stranger, and not to have any benefit thereof, it would be otherwise. Cro. E. 755. pl. 18. Pasch. 42 Eliz. C. B. Huish v. Philips.

the other does not tender it. Judgment was affirmed. Cro. J. 13. pl. 17. Pasch. I Jac. B. R. Philips v. Rice Hugre.——It was not any duty in J. B. but it is as a penalty inflicted upon H. that he should pay to J. B. and so being a collateral duty, payable only to J. B. a stranger, J. B. ought to be there in person, or by attorney, to receive it; and H. is not constrained to exceed the words of the defeasance. Per tot. Cur. Yelv. 38. S. C. in B. R.

* It seems, by Yelv. ut supra, that the plea of desendant was, that H. (the plaintiff) non obtulit at every of the said days, &c. pro placito dicit quod J. B. dicit, which the book says is as if P. (the desendant) had told a tale out of J. B.'s mouth.

9. A mortgagee after settling an account with B. the mortgager, and time agreed upon for discharging the mortgage died, leaving 4 executors in trust for his daughter; B. on the day tendered the money to one of the executors, who refused to accept the tender, neither of them having proved the will; then B. made a like tender to another of the executors, who refused likewise giving the same reason. Decreed, that this was a good tender, and that any or either of the executors might have given a good discharge before probate, especially when, as appeared in the case, they afterwards proved the will, and so were executors ab initio; and the infant heir at law was to convey the inheritance descended to her according to the act 7 Anna, for obliging infant trustees to assign and convey. Hill. 1729, at Ld. Chancellor's. Abr. Equ, Cases, 318. Austin v. Executors of Sir Wm. Dodwell.

(E) Good. How.

1. CONDITION was, that the froffee shall render certain tynn at such a day, and he tendered and the other refused. The question was, whether he shall render the price as it was at the time of the payment, or as it is now? &c. B: Conditions, pl. 113. tites 30 Ass. 11.

8. P. Br. Tender, pl. 39. cites 1 R. 3.

2. It was agreed in avowry, that where the lord distrains for a rent days arrear, and the tenant offers the one, the lord is bound to seceive it, and if he distrains he does a tort. Br. Tender; pl. 2. cites 2 H. J. 1.

3. But if he distrains for the rent of one day, and tenant offers S. P. Br. part of it, the lord is not bound to receive it, but he may distrain. Note the diversity. Br. Tender, pl. 2. cites 2 H. 6. 1.

Tender, pl. 39. cites 1 R. 3.— So of the part of the debt. Br. Tender, pl. 39. cites 1 R. 3. - But if he accepts part after judgment, he cannot demand the test. Br. Tender, pl. 39. cites 1 R. 3.

4. The feoffee may tender the money in purses or * bags, witheut sbewing or telling the same; for he does that which he ought, viz. to bring the money in purses or bags, which is the usual man- money in ner to carry money in, and then it is the part of the party, that is to receive it, to put it out and tell it. Co. Litt. 208. 2.

 S. P. If in fact there was so much them to fatisfy the . debt; and if there is any bad menty in the bags, and the mortgagee accepts it, the mortgagor is not bound to change it. 5 Rep. 115. WADE's case, and said there to have been so resolved in WINTER's case, and in the case of VANE V. STUDLEY, who put the money into his purse, and after took it out and told it over again, and found counterfeit pieces.

So where he brought in a bag, and cast it on the table before the obligee, it was held good. Noy, 67.

Flower's case.

But where mortgagor came at the day and placer and faid to the mortgagee, Here I am ready to pay you the 2001. and yet held it all the time on his arm in bags, it was adjudged no tender; for it might be counters or base money for any thing appeared; and per Anderson, it is no good tender to say, I am ready, &c. Noy, 74. Suckling v. Coney.

5. Mortgage by A. to B. for 4001. payable at a day and place Ow. 34. certain. C. prevailed upon B. at the day to take the money at C.'s house, and the money was told and delivered in bags to B. but differences arising between A. and B. C. said if they would not agree they should not have his money. Per Cur. this was no sufficient tender; whereupon A. requested C. that he might have the money to carry to the said porch of the said parish church, who was contented, and there B. came to receive it, and A. would not pay it. It was moved, that this was a good payment to discharge the mortgage; for the money was told in the house of C. and B. there put it up into bags; and the same is a good payment and receipt. But it was answered, that this is no payment; for it was not the money of A. but of C. as appears by the words of C. (scil.) if they could not agree, they should not have his money; also A. requested C. that he might have the money to carry to the porch of the parish-church aforesaid, by which it appears that it was not A.'s money. And for that cause it was also the opinion of the Court, that the same was not any sufficient tender. 2 Le. 213. pl. 268. Trin. 31 Eliz. B. R. Winter v. Loveday.

6. If a man tenders more than he ought to pay, it is good enough, and the other ought to accept so much thereof as is due to him. The 3d resolution, 5 Rep. 125. a. Fin. 43 Eliz in C. in Wade's case.

7. A man cannot make a tender, unless he shews for what purpose he makes such tender; per Doderidge s. Lat. 70. in case of Warner v. Harding.

8. If a 3d person puts the ring (or other thing to be rendered) into the bands of the perfor to rubom the tender is to be made, and at the same time declares for what the other tenders the ring, it is Vol XX. रुग्धते :

S. C. but it is only a very short note of it.

good; per Doderidge, to which Crew Ch. J. agreed. Lat 109. in case of Wardner v. Hardwin.

9. The defendant agreed to pay 15001. to the plaintiff, upon his assigning a judgment. Ld. C. Macclessield declared, that where there are no words to determine the priority of the acts, a middle way is to be chosen. The party is not obliged to make an absolute tender of the money first, but by such words as these, I tender you the money so as you make an assignment. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B.R. 308. Trin. 6 Geo. 2. in case of Anvert v. Ennover, cites it as Trin. 13 Ann. the case of Turner v. Goodwyn.

[184]

10. An account was settled between B. mortgagor and A. mortgagee of what would be due at fuch a time, when the money was agreed to be paid and received, and the sum was agreed to be 44791. At the day fixed B. tendered a bank bill of 45001. to C. the executor of the mortgagee, to take thereout what was then due for principal and interest. C. refused to accept the tender, whereupon B. asked C. if he objected to the legality of the tender, being in a bank bill, and not in money, and that if he did he would presently turn it into money. Lord Chancellor held that this tender of a bank note was not thrictly legal; but fince it was proved that B. offered to turn it into money, it became thereby a good tender. Abr. Equ. Cases, 318. Hill. 1729. Austin v. Exccutors of Sir Wm. Dodwell.

Place. At what Place it may, or ought to be.

1. TENDER of homage in a foreign county, in which the land does not lie, is a good tender. Br. Tender, pl. 30. cites 21 Ast. 14.

But in debt 2. Tender of rent is sufficient upon the land, and the other canfor rent upon not distrain. Br. Tender, pl. 18. cites 30 Ass. 38. a lease, tender of the rent upon the land, and refusal by the plaintiff, is no plea. Br. Tender, pl. 22. cite 14 E. 4. 4. — Contra in avery for the same rent. Ibid.

Butthebook makes a quære, if the lord had diftrained for a fee, or bo-

3. If a man holds lands in the county of D. by 3 d. rent, of which the lord has been seised time out of mind at S. in another county, if the lord distrains upon the land, and the tenant tenders the rent upon the land, this is a good tender, and he shall not be compelled to go neur, or for to a toreign county where, &c. to tender it there. Br. Tender, suit or castle. pl. 31. cites 30 Ast. 38.

guaid, or for Lomage, what tender shall be made there. See Br. Tender, pl. 31. And 30 Air. 38.

- 4. Where rent is reserved upon a lease for life, rendering rent at Easter, and for default of payment a penalty of 101. if the tenant tenders the rent to the lessor, or is ready to pay upon the land, this shall excuse the penalty. Br. Tender, pl. 11. cites 22 H. 6. 57. per Newton.
- 5. If a feoffment in fee be made, referring a yearly rent, and for default of payment a re-entry, &c. the tenant needeth not to tender the rent, but upon the land, because this is a rent iffting out of the land, which is a rent seck; for if the feoffor be seised once of this rent, and after cometh upon the land, &c. and the rent is denied him, he may have an affife of novel disseifin; for though he may enter for the condition broken, yet he may either relinquish his entry, or have an affise. Litt. s. 341.

ot

6. If the feoffee comes to the feoffor at any place, upon any part of the ground at the day of payment, and offers his rent, though not at the most notorious place, nor at the last instant, the feoffor is bound to receive it, or else he shall not take any advantage of any demand of rent for that day. Co. Litt. 202. a.

7. Tender being to be made at a certain place, cannot properly be made any where else; per Cur. Freem. Rep. 149. pl. 169. Pasch. 1674. in case of Marshall v. Wisdale.

(G) No Place being limited. In what Cases it must [185]. be to the Person.

1. WHERE a place certain is limited, and he tenders there, it Br. Tender, is sufficient, though none be there to receive it, by some, and so is Littleton. But where no place is limited, he shall tender to the person, or upon the tenements. Contrary upon the tenements by Littleton, upon mortgage; and payment elsewhere, where the party receives it, is good. Br. Conditions, pl. 103. cites 17 Ass. 2.

2. In debt of 201, the plaintiff declared upon indenture made of a Le afe for term of years to the defendant, rendering 10 l. rent at Easter, and other covenants, and shewed what, &c. ex utraque parte, and ad omnes conventiones prædict. perimplendas, each of them for his part bound themselves to the other in 201. and that the defendant did not pay the 101. at Easter last, and therefore he demanded the 201. The defendant pleaded, that at Easter, &c. he was all the day upon the land, ready to pay the 101. and none came of the part of the plaintiff to receive, &c. And per Newton, Ashton, and Port. in debt upon a lease for term of years, tender upon the land is a good plea in excuse of damages: but where a collateral surety is found by another deed, or the party binds himself by obligation to pay it at the day in the indenture, this does not depend upon the lease, therefore there he ought to inquire him out where he is, and to tender payment to him. But in this case where it is in the indenture of lease, this refers to the payment in the indenture of leafe, which is to be made upon the land, and therefore a good pleas quod nota, diversity where it is by the indenture of lease, and where it s. C .-is by another indenture or obligation. Br. Tender, pl. 11. cites 22 H. 6. 57.

Br. Dette, pl. 102. cites 22 H. 6. 5. - If a min leajes for years, rondering rent at M. baelmas, and other comenants, if he be bound in an ebligation to pay the rent precisely, there he shall feek the lessor. Br. Tender, pl. 20. c tes 6 E. 6,----Br. Tender, pl. 11. cites But if he ba bound to perform the covenants, there tender upon the land suffices, because there the payment is of the nature of the rent reserved. Contra in the first case. Br. Tender, pl. 20. cites 6 E. 6. ____Br. Tender, pl. 11. cites S. C.

3. Some say, if the feoffer upon condition be upon the land It has been ready to pay, at the day set, and the foffee is not then there, the that seeing the money is a fum in gross, and collateral to the title of the land, that the feoffor is quit, and excused of the payment, for that no default is in him. But some think that the law is contrary, and that he is bound to seek the feoffee, if he be in England. a man be bound in 201. upon condition to pay to the obligee, at fuch a day, 101. the obligor must seek the obligee, if he be in England, and at the day tender unto him the said 101. Litt. feoffor must f. 340.

tender the money to the person of the feoffee, according to the latter opinion; and it is not sufficient for him to tender it upon the land; otherwise it is of a rent that issues out of the land. But if the condition of a bond or feoffment be to deliver 20 quarters of wheat, or 20 load of timber, or such like, the obligor or feoffor is not bound to carry the fame about, and feek the feoffee; but the obligor or feoffor, before the day, must go to the seossee, and know where he will appoint to receive it; and there it must be delivered. And so note a diversity between money and things pond.rous, or of great weight. If the condition of a bond or feoffment be to make a feoffment, there it is sufficient for him to tender it upon the land, because the state must pass by livery. Co. Litt. 210. b.

> 4. If the obligee, &c. be out of the realm of England, the obligor, &c. is not bound to feek him, or to go out of the realm unto him; and because the scoffee is the cause that the scoffor cannot tender the money, the feoffor shall enter into the land, as if he had duly tendered it according to the condition. Co. Litt. f. 210. b.

[186] (H) Time. At what Time it may or ought to be made.

Br. Tender, pl. 11. cites S. C.---Where a man leases land for gears, rendering rent, and for default of payment to reenter, it suffices for the leffee to tender the rent upon the land the last

1. TX/HERE a man leases rendering rent, and for non-payment by one month to re-enter, and the tenant tenders upon the land all the day, and the lessor does not come; or if he tenders to the person of the lessor, and he refuses it, in those cases, if he does not pay within the month, the lessor cannot enter; per Brooke says, quere inde; for it has been used, that if he demands it the last day of the month, or the last instant, and the other does not pay, that he may re-enter. But see there, by the opinion of Newton, that the tenant who tenders ought to be there all the day. Quære inde; for it suffices to the lessor to come the last instant of the day. Br. Conditions, pl. 60. cites 22 H. 6. 57.

bour of the last day of the month, if the money can be numbered in this time; and so it suffices for the lesson me hour. Br. Tender, pl. 41. cites it as agreed, 4 M. 1. in the Serje B. N. C. pl. 483. cites S. C .- S. P. Br. Entre Cong. pl. yo. cites 6 H. 7. 3.

> 2. If a man be bound in a fingle obligation, and no day of payment is limited, this is not payable before request; quod nota bene. Br Tender, pl. 14. cites 14 H. 8. 29.

> 3. If the lord or his bailiff comes to distrain the beasts or goods of his tenant for his rent behind, the tenant before the diftress (that he may keep and use his beasts or other goods) may upon the land tender the arrearages; and if, after that, a diffress be taken, it is wrongful. And if the lord have distrained, if the senant, before the impounding of them, tender the arrearages, the lord lord ought to deliver the distress; and if he does not, the detainer 2 Inst. 107. is unlawful.

4. Though where the time of payment, by force of a condition, being * indefinite, the most convenient time is the last hour of the day appointed, in which the money may be told before sun-set; yet if tender be made to the person at the place specified, at any time of the day, and refused, the condition is saved, and no new tender need be at the last instant. For by the very letter of the condition the money is to be paid upon the day indefinitely, and convenient time before the last hour of the day is the extreme time appointed by the law, to the intent the one shall not prevent the other, but both be there at the same time. both meet at any time of the same day, and the debtor makes ly; the protender at the place to the debtee, and he refuses, the penalty is per time to saved for ever. Resolved. 5 Rep. 114. b. Trin. 43 Eliz. C. B. Wade's cafe.

* S. P. But if by usage of a company, the time of transfer is at a fet time, that must be averred. As if the utage be, that the books are open till fix come will be about five, and to flay till fix.

And judgment for defendant per tot. Cur. 12 Mod. 533. Trin. 13 W. 3. Lancashire v. Killingworth, cites Shales v. Seignoret. ____ 3 Salk. 342, 343. S. C. accordingly. ____ Ld. Raym. Rep. 688. S. C. & P. accordingly.

5. Condition for payment of money at or before such a day; upon which debt was brought, and the defendant pleaded, that be was at the place at a day before, and tendered the money; and that the plaintiff was not there to receive it; and held no good For though he had election to pay before, or at the day, yethe cannot make tender before the day, if plaintiff be not there willing to receive it; and you cannot compel him to receive it sooner. Therefore the last day, which is the day appointed by both parties, they ought to meet, one to tender, the other to re- [187] ceive. Per Cur. 12 Mod. 422. Mich. 12 W. 3. B. R. in case of Hammond v. Ouden.

- (I) Time. Notice. In what Cases, where no Time is limited, Notice must be given.
- 1. TF a man be bound to pay 201. at any time during his life, at a place certain, the obligor cannot tender the money at the place when he will; for then the obligee should be bound to perpetual attendance. Therefore the obligor, in respect of the uncertainty of the time, must give the obligee notice, that on such a day, at the place limited, he will pay the money; and then the obligee must attend there to receive it; for if the obligor them and there tender the money, he shall save the penalty of the bond for ever. Co. Litt. 211. a.
- 2. So if a man make a feoffment in fee upon condition, if the See Condifeoffor, at any time during his life, pay to the feoffee 20 !. at tion. (F. c.) such a place certain, that then, &c. In this case, the feoffer must give notice to the seossee when he will pay it; for without such notice, the tender will not be sufficient. Co. Litt. 211. 2.

3. But in both the above cases, if at any time the obligor or feosfor meets the obligee or feossee at the place, he may tender the money. Co. Litt. 211. a.

4. If A. be bound to B. with condition, that C. shall infeoff D. at such a day, C. must give notice to D. thereof, and request him to be on the land at the day, to receive the feoffment; and in that case he is bound to seek D. and to give him notice. Co. Litt. 211. a.

- 5. A bargain and sale of lands was made by A. to B. and C. with a power of revocation upon the tender of 20s. to them, or either of them, at a certain place. The tender was made accordingly; but neither B. or C. was there present, neither bad they any notice of the time of the tender. It was held, that this was no performance of the condition, to avoid the bargain and fale. Moor, 602. pl. 833. in Chancery, Trin. 42 Eliz. Lady Burgh v. Williams, Powell, & al'.
- 6. The defendant was bound to deliver 10 quarters of corn to the plaintiff, at or before such a day; and he pleads that he tendered it to him at such a place before the day, and none would receive it, and does not fay that he went to him before to know where he would receive it, and tendered it accordingly; and it was held no good plea. Freem. Rep. 433. pl. 582. Trin. 1676. Harvey v. Jackson.

(K) To whom, and how, to revoke Grants, &c.

Hemsley v. 1. ONUSEE of a fine made a lease for life to a stranger, Price. S. C. remainder to the queen by deed involled, upon condition to Cro. E. 639. be void upon tender of so much money to the stranger tenant for pl. 41. Mich 40 & life; one question was, whether the tender of this money to the 41 Eliz. stranger shall devest the remainder out of the queen? Adjudged that B. R. reports, that all it shall devest it without office, because the condition is not to be performed to the queen, but to the tenant for life. Mo. 546, the Court, except Gawpl. 729. Hill. 40 Eliz. Hemley v. Brice. dy, held, that the entry is lawful upon the tenant for life, and the frank-tenement being defeated, the # queen's estate is defeated, the being the person against whom the freehold was demandable and recoverable; but that if the queen had had the immediate estate, it had been otherwise. #[188]

2. Power reserved upon seofsment by A. to B. that if A. or his assigns, shall tender 1s. to B. or his assigns, at or in, &c. B. died, leaving a daughter, and his wife enseint of a son; A. pays the is. to the daughter, who was not 3 years old, and then revoked and altered the uses; this is a good tender and revocation, Ley, 55. Trin. 15 Jac. Allen's case.

3. A mortgage was forscited; mortgagor afterwards meeting the mortgagee, said, I have money, now I will come and redeem the mortgage; mortgagee replied, he would hold the mortgaged premises as long as he could, and when he could hold them no longer, let the devil take them, if he would.

mortgagor

mortgager went to mortgage's bouse, with money more than sufficient to redeem, and tendered it there; but it does not appear that the mortgagee was within, or that the tender was made to him. It was decreed a redemption, and the defendant to have no interest from the time of the tender, because of his wilfulness. Chan. Cases, 29. at the Rolls, Mich. 15 Car. 2. Manning v. Burges.

(L) Tender of Amends. To whom it may be.

1. TENDER of amends to the bailiff is not good; for he cannot deliver the distress after it is taken, any more cro. J. 377. than he can change the avowry of his master, &c. Resolved, pl. 4. in cise of Wingsield v. Bell.—Roll, Rep. 258. in S. C.—Cro. E. 813. pl. 1. Pilkington v. Hastings. S. C. all the

v. Bell.——Roll. Rep. 258. in S. C.——Cro. E. 813. pl. 1. Pilkington v. Hastings, S. C. all the Court held that the tender to the servant was not sufficient, especially the master being present at the distress; but if the servant only had destroined, Gaway said, that then the tender to him might have been more colourable: and Popham said, if it had been to the bait of of the maner, it might perhaps have been good, but not to a servant who only joined in the distress; and therefore adjudged for the arowant.——The offer of amends cannot be made to him that makes cognizance. Brownl. 173. Hill. 9 Jac. Roberts v. Young.

Hold said, that it was not yet settled whether, after return irreplevisable, if party tenders arrears to balliff, it be good to intitle him to act on for detainer against principal, though it be so settled in case of tender to principal in Carrenter's case, & Co. And he said that he was not satisfied with Principal Ton's case in that point; for if balliss may not distrain, nor receive money tendered, why shall his recept abate a writ? 12 Mod. 354. in case of Horn v. Luines.

(M) Damage feasant. Tender of Amends. At what Time, and how much.

1. IF a man takes beasts damage seasant, and the other offers F. N. B. 69. sufficient amends, and he refuses to re-deliver them, now (G) in the if he sue replevin he shall recover damages for the detinue of them, new notes there (a) and not for the taking them, because the taking was lawful. cites 27 E. F. N. B. 69. (G).

if the other had them in the pound before amends tendered, it is then too late to tender the amends; and on the avowry the defenuant shall have no return till a new tender, and then the party may have destinue; quære. 13 H. 4. 17. 14 li. 4. 4. And if he tenders before the taking, the † taking is tortious. 7 E. 4. 8. and if immediately on the taking, the detainer is so, and he may recover damages for it, and no return shall be awarded to the lord. 45 E. 3. 9.——S. P. 2 Inst. 107.——S. P. But tender after impounding makes neither the one nor the other tortious; for then this comes too late, because then the cause is put to trial at law to be determined. But after the law has determined it, and the avowant has return irreplevisable, yet if plaintiff makes him sufficient tender, he may have action of decimal for the detaining them after; or he may, upon satisfaction made in court, have writ for the re-delivery of his goods. 8 Rep. 147. a. b. in a rota of the aportus, in the 6 Carpenter's case, cites 13 H. 4. 17. b. 45 E. 3. 9. Regist. Indicas, 37.

S. C. cited 8 Rep. 146. b. pen Curram, in the 6 Carpenter's case. — And in Litt. Rep. 34. Pasch. 2 Car. in C. B. Arg. in case of Beare v. Hodges. — And in Het. 16. S. C. which seems to be a translation from Litt. Rep.

[189]

2. In replevin the defendant avows for damage feasant; the When adifplaintiff replies that the day after the distress taken, he tendered for damage feasant; the When adifplaintiff replies that the day after the distress taken, he tendered for damage party may tender amends till the beafts are impounded. but after they are in custodia letoo late. Resolved per tot. Cur. 5 Rep. 76. a. Paich.

feasant, the sufficient amends, viz. 6d. which the defendant refused; upon which the plaintiff demurred, because the tender was not before the impounding. Per Gawdy, the tender is good, although the cattle be impounded; and if the party that distrained refuses it, the owner may take them out of pound. And it is clear, if the tender were before the impounding, he might take them out; quod fuit concessum: whereupon the Court gave day to the defendant to gis, then the shew cause to the contrary, otherwise judgment shall be given for tender comes the plaintist; but Tansield at the bar said, it was adjudged in Sir HENRY CROMWELL's case in C. B. that tender after impounding comes too late. Cro. Eliz. 332. pl. 10. Trin. 36 Eliz. B. R. Nevill v. Seagrave.

43 Eliz. B. R. Pilkington's cafe. ---- Cro. E. 813. pl. 1. PILKINGTON V. HASTINGS AND MEACOCK, S. C. accordingly, and cited 13 H. 4. 7. 27 E. 3. 88. S. C. cited Litt. Rep. 355. Hill. 6 Car. In C. B. in the case of JENNINGS v. Cousins, and agreed to be good law, that it ought to be before the impounding. ———Het. 165. S. C. accordingly.

Litt. Rep. 355. S. C. accordingly, and Hetl. seems to be only a translation from Litt. Rep. -Freem. Rep. 339. pl. 419. Trin. 1673.

3. In replevin the defendant avowed for damage feafant; the plaintiff replied, that he tendered amends after the taking, and before the delivery of the cattle. The whole Court held the replication naught; that the tender was ill, because the words (before the delivery) implies that they were impounded; and it is not shewn in certain that the tender was before. And judgment for the defendant. Het. 165. Hill. 6 Car. C. B. Jennings v. Cousins.

AYRE V. RUSHTON, same plea of tender of amends post captionem & ante deliberationem; and the Court resolved it was naught; for the tender ought to be before the impounding, according to PIL-MINGTON's case. 5 Co. 76. Et aute deliberationem implies, that it was after the impounding, and so comes too late. Twisden sald, Perhaps he might mean that the tender was before the replevin, and so might be good by stat. 21 Jac. 1. cap. 16. But per Curiam, that extends only to actions of trespass.

4. Replevin, the defendant justifies damage feasant; the plaintiff replies, that after the impounding he tendered amends, viz. 5s. And the defendant demurs, and judgment was given without argument for the defendant; for tender after impounding is too late, and this is not within the statute of 21 Jac. of tender before action brought; for that is in actions quare clausum fregit, and not in replevin. Freem. Rep. 527. pl. 711. Trin. 1680. C. B. Twinning v. Stephens...

5. If beasts have done damage to-day, and gone off, and come again at another time, and are doing damage, and are taken for that, and the owner tenders amends for that damage; the party cannot justify keeping them for the first damage; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 660. Hill. 13 W. 3. in case of Vasper

v. Edwards.

(N) Tender and Refusal. In what Cases it shall be a Discharge of the Debt.

I. I N debt upon a lease for years rendering rent, a tender of the rent upon the land, and refusal by the plaintiff, is no plea. Contra, in an avowry. Br. Avowry, pl. 140. cites

14 H. 4. 4.

2. Where a man is bound in 601, to pay 401, if he pleads tender of the 401. in action of debt brought against him of the 601. he ought to say that he is yet ready, and always has been to pay the 401. and, bring the money into court, because the lesser sum is parcel of the greater sum expressed in the obligation, and the refusal of this shall not serve it; for it is parcel, &c. Br. Tout temps prist, pl. 31. cites 20 E. 4. 1. per Brian & Cur.

But if the obligation be of 60 l. to infooff the plaintiff by a a day, or to deliver to bim a borse, &c. wbich is not money tender by the defendant and refusal by the plaintiff is sufficient for the desendant for ever. Br. Tout temps prist, pl. 31. cites 20 E. 4. 1. per Brian & Cur.

3. Where the defendant pleads tender of the money, and brings it As if an deinto court, and the plaintiff takes another iffue for making the defendant to forfeit the whole obligation, if the iffue passes against the plain- made with tiff, he has lost the money tendered for ever. Br. Conditions, pl. 171. cites 21 E. 4. 25.

ligation of 100% be condition for the payment of 50% at a day, and at the day the obligor tenders the money, and the obligee refuses the same; yet in action of debt upon the obligation, if the defendant pleads the tender and refufal, he must also plead, that he is yet ready to pay the money, and tender the same in court; but if the plaintiff will not then receive is, but takes iffue upon the tender, and the same be sound against him, he has a lost the money for ever. Co. Litt. 207. a. ---- S. P. Hob. 198, 199. Obiter, in case of Brickhead v. Archbishop of York.

For he has renounced the condition, and the benefit of it, by not praying judgment for the 501.

and there is no confession in this case. Jenk. 102. pl. 99.

The respense wherefore in the case of the obligation, the sum mentioned in the condition is not lost by the tender and refusal, is not only for that it is a duty and parcel of the obligation, and therefore is not soft by the tender and refusal, but also for that the obligee has remedy at law for the same. And in this este liberata pecunia non liberat offerentem. Co. Litt. 207. 2.

4. If a feoffment be made in mortgage, upon condition that the † Here is feoffor shall pay such a sum at such a day, &c. if + tender of the money is made, &c. and the feoffee refuses to receive it, by which time and the feoffor or his beirs enter, &c. then the feoffee has no ‡ remedy place, acby the common law to have this money, because it shall be accounted his own folly that he refused the money, when a lawful tender of it was made unto him. Litt. sect. 335.

implied at cording to the condition. Co. Litt. 207. The reason is, because the money is | collecteral to the land, and the recited has no remedy therefore. Co. Litt. 207. a.

See pl. 8. the case of Genne v. Tinker.

5. Note, that in all cases of condition for payment of a certain sum in grofs, touching lands or tenements, if lawful tender be once refuled, he which ought to tender the money is of this quit, and he than fully discharged for ever after. Litt. s. 338,

This is to be understood, that cught to tender the money is of this discharged for ever to make any other tender, but if is were a dury before, though the feoff feoffor enters by force of the condition, yet the debt or duty remains; as if A. borrows rool. of B. and after mortgages the land to B. upon condition for payment thereof, if A. tender the money to B. and he refutes it, A. may enter into the land, and the land is freed for ever of the condition, but yet the debt remains, and may be recovered by action of debt; but if A. without any loan, debt or duty preceding, infecff B. of land, upon condition for the payment of 1001. to B. in nature of a gratuity or gift: In that case, if he tender the 100 l. to him, according to the condition, and he resules it, B. has no remedy therefore; and so is our author in this and his other cases of like nature to be understood. Co. Litt. 209. 2. b.

6. If a man make an obligation of 100 l. with condition for the [191] delivery of corn or timber, &c. or for the performance of an arbitrement of the doing of any act, &c. this is collateral to the obligation; that is to say, is not parcel of it; and therefore a tender and refusal is a perpetual bar. Co. Litt. 207. a.

S. C. cited per Holt Ch. J. ia cale of Squire v. Grevil, but cites it by Lutton v. Craidon, in the latter end of Styles, that where a thing is awarded to be done on payment and receipt, tender of the payment and refulal · entitles the party to it as much as an actual payment;

7. A. by indenture articled to pay to B. 110 l. at a certain day, 6 Mod. 35. and B. by the same indenture articled upon the receipt to give an acquittance, and also to enter into bond of 400 l. to A. to fave him karmless from all claims to certain lands, &c. A. tendered the 1101. but B. refused to receive it and to give A. acquittance, and likewife to enter into the bond. After the Court had taken time to the name of advise, Glyn Ch. J. said, that here is no breach of covenant alleged to ground the action upon; for the articles express, that upon the receipt of the 1101. the defendant would give the acquittance and enter into bond, and the breach alleged is, that the plaintiff tendered the 1101. at the day, and the defendant refused to receive it, and has not sealed the acquittance, nor given the bond of 400 l. and it may be it was the intent of the parties, that it should be in the election of the defendant either to receive the 1101. or not to receive it, and the plaintiff is not prejudiced by the defendant's not receiving of it; for if he should sue for the 1101. the plaintiss may plead this tender and result against him, and that will be judged a payment, and when he sues you for the 1101. you may fue him for the acquittance and the bond. Nil capiat per Billam, nisi, &c. Style, 481. Trin. 1655. London v. Craven.

and faid, that the authorities have been so ever since. ——But in 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 964. in S. C. by name of Squire v. Grevet, it is mentioned as faid, by Holt Ch. J. that a tender and refusal has been formerly held no performance without actual payment as in the case of * HUNT V. CRAVEN; but that it has been adjudged otherwise ever fince.

This seems to mean the case of London v. Craven, which is above, and cited contra per Holt, in 6 Mod. 35. for I do not find any other case of like name and like point in all the books of teborte.

> 8. Debt upon a bond, that the defendant and 2 others should perform an award between them and the plaintiff; the defendant pleaded the award, which was, that he should pay to the plaintiff 20s. and likewife 20s. to each of the others; and that he tendered his 20s. which the plaintiff refused to accept. The plaintiff replied, that on such a day, after the refusal, be demanded the 20 s. of the defendant, which he then refused to pay. And upon demurrer, the Court held this replication idle, because by the first refusal the 20 s. being a fun collateral to the obligation, was lost for ever. 3 Lev. 24. Mich. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Genne v. Tinker.

9. Award

9. Award was to pay 10 l. to B. and upon payment B. to release. B. would not receive the 10 l. because he would not release. Resolved, B. was as much obliged to release upon the tender and resusal, as if he had actually received the money. 1 Salk. 75. pl. 14. Trin. 2 Annæ, B. R. Simon v. Gavil.

V. Grevet, S. C. accordingly.——Vent. 167. Mich. 23 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Isaac v. Ledingham, the same point exactly was cited by Twisden J. to have been resolved.——By tender of the 101. the obligation is saved. Cro. E. 4. pl. 1. Pasch. 24 Eliz. B. R. Eccie. take v. Maliard.

(O) Tender and Refusal. In what Cases it shall [192] be a Discharge of Interest.

If money be tendered, and none ready to receive it, and afterwards he to whom the money is payable demands the money, and the other refuses to pay; and afterwards an action is brought, and a tender pleaded, defendant shall pay damages from the time the money was demanded. Per Cur. Brownl. 71. Pasch. 12 Jac. Anon.

2. Though a bond be forseited, if the money be tendered after-wards, no interest shall be allowed after the tender. Toth. 89. cites 12 Car. Malton v. Pennell.

3. If mortgagor tenders the money, and mortgagee refuses it, See (K) mortgagee shall have no interest from the time of the tender. Pl. 3. S. C. 2 Freem. Rep. 174. pl. 230. 26 Oct. 15 Car. 2. Manning v. Burgess.

4. A deed was in nature of a mortgage, and covenant to reconvey on payment. The money was tendered at the day and place, and refused. Decreed the money without interest from the time of the tender, and to reconvey; though the plaintist ought to make oath, that the money was kept, and no prosit made of it. 2 Chan. Cases, 206. Trin. 27 Car. 2. Lutton v. Rodd.

5. On a bill to foreclose a mortgage, defendant answered, that 2 persons (naming them) offered to pay, and tendered to the plaintiff all bis principal and interest, then due on the mortgage, and this before a declaration in ejectment was delivered; and defendant brought a cross bill to redeem. Decreed the principal, and interest to be paid to the time of the tender, at a place and time to be appointed by the Master, discounting the mean profits, &c. Fin. R. 379. Trin. 30 Car. 2. Newby v. Cooper.

6. A. lent B. 1000 l. in London, for securing which, B. mortgaged lands to A. but in the mortgage-deed no place was mentioned where the payment should be. But afterwards B. gave 6 months personal notice in writing to A. that he would tender the money and interest such a day and hour in Lincoln's-inn Hall, which he accordingly did. B. brought a bill for a re-assignment, and to stop payment of interest. It was insisted, that in this case the tender must be to the person. But Ld. C. King said, that the money being lent in town, and personal notice given for payment thereof, and no objection made by A. to the place at the time of the notice, it would be hard to make B. travel with so much money to Oxford, where A. lived; but that it ought to appear that B. from that time always kept the money ready: whereas it being proved, that B. was not ready to pay it, the interest must run on. And decreed A. to re-affign to B. or his order. 2 Wms.'s

the

Rep. 378. Mich. 1726. Gyles v. Hall.

7. A. mortgagor, and B. mortgagee in fee, settled an account, and agreed on a day for discharge of principal and interest. B. died before the day, leaving 4 executors in trust for his daughter and beir. A. at the day tendered the whole money to one of the executors, who refused to accept it, because neither of the 4 had proved the will. Then A. tendered it to another, who refused it for the fame reason, and because it was in a bank bill; but as to that, A. of himself had proposed to turn it into money, if he objected to the bill. Lord Chancellor held, that though the tender of a bank note might not be, strictly speaking, legal; yet the offering to turn it into money, made it good; that any or either of the executors might have received and discharged the debt, before probate; and that their being executors in trust for an infaut, did not put them on a better foot than B. himself would have been, had he been living. And decreed a redemption, on payment of principal and interest to the day agreed upon, and no longer, and no costs on either side; and the infant heir, on payment to the executors, to convey as by the act 7 Anna. Cases, 318, 319. Hill. 1729. Austin v. Executors of Sir Wm. Dodwell.

Sec (Q) pl. 14.

[193]

Tender and Refusal. Bar of Costs and Damages.

A Recovered debt, and then brought a new action of debt on the judgment; and defendant pleaded a tender of the money before the action brought, & uncore prist. The plaintiff could have no costs. Vent. 21. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

2 Salk. 343. S. C.---The pleading a tender inassumpfit, may excuse from da-

2. Though a tender is made, and the plaintiff refuses the money, yet the tender cannot be pleaded in bar of the action; neither in debt nor assumpsit, but in bar of the damages only; for the debtor shall nevertheless pay his debt. Per Holt Ch. J. Lord Raym. Rep. 254 Mich. 9 W. 3. Giles v. Hartis.

mages for the delay; but mit as to the principal damage. Comb. 334. Triu. 7 W. 3. B. R. in case of Broome v. Pines.

Tender can be pleaded to an avery only in excuse of damages; and if pleaded in bar, it is ill; per tot. Cur. Ld. Raym. Rep. 644. Hill. 12 W. 3. Horne v. Lewin.

> 3. In an indebitatus assumpsit, if the tender had been pleaded at the day of the promise, with touts temps prist, Holt Ch. J. doubted, doubted, whether it would be in bar of the action or of the damages. He said, that in this action, if it should be in bar of the damages, as it is in debt, it would be a bar of the whole demand; for fince indebitatus assumpsit is to recover uncertain damages, the plea which will bar the plaintiff of his damages, will bar him of his whole demand. Per Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 254. Giles v. Hartis.

(Q) Pleadings.

1. IN replevin, and avowry for rent, it is a good plea to fay, that he tendered at the time of the taking, and the defendant refused, without tender now again; for it shall not be tendered but upon the land; per Cur. Br. Conditions, pl. 38. cites

7 H. 4. 18.

2. A man granted an annuity till the plaintiff be promoted to a benefice, and in writ of annuity the defendant pleaded that he tendered a competent benefice pending the writ, and the plaintiff refused, he need not to tender the arrears incurred before the writ brought; for the benefice cannot be always void; and also if the annuity be determined, he shall not recover any thing upon this writ; quod nota. Br. Tender, pl. 15. cites 14 H. 7. 31. and 15 H. 7. 1.

3. Debt upon an obligation to pay 10 l. the defendant pleaded tender thereof, and that the plaintiff refused, and issue was not taken upon the refusal, but upon the tender; for there can be no refusal unless. there were a tender; and therefore the plaintiff took the refusal by protestation, & pro placito that he did not tender. Br. Issues Joines,

pl. 91. cites 16 H. 7. 13.

4. If a man be bound by obligation, that J. N. Shall perform all Contra if be covenants contained in such an indenture, of which one is, that J. N. shall * pay to the obligee 101. there if he fays that J. N. offered, and the plaintiff, viz. the obligee refused, this is a good plea; for though pay 201. se 7. N. is a franger to the obligation, yet the plaintiff is privy. Br. Tender, pl. 1. cites 27 H. 8. 1.

[194] bad been bound to the plaintiff, to a stranger, and be refused, there the obligation is forfeited; and in that case he shall not say that be or J. N. bas been always ready, and yet is, because it is for performance of covenants; and also J. N. who is to pay, is a stranger to the obligation; note the diversity. Ibid.

If covenent be to pay a sum to a stranger at such a day and place, tender and refusal is no excuse of son-performance; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 441. Hill. 12 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

5. Debt upon bond conditioned to pay to the obligee, or to his offigns, at such a day and place, 20s. The defendant pleaded that the plaintiff appointed and affigued one A. to receive the faid money of bim at the faid day and place; and that he tendered it to the faid A. without alleging payment in fact; and it is not like a condition to pay the money to a stranger; for there the payment .nust be at the peril of the obligor. And Dyer held that the iffue would be better on the tender than on the payment; and Leonard and

'and Whetly affirmed the same. Mo. 37. pl. 120. Trin. 4 Eliz. Anon.

Anderson
Ch. J. put a difference between the ing any tender; and for that reason it was held ill by the whole case in 22
H. 6. 57.
and the case
Andrews.

for in our case the obligation doth precede the duty which accrues by the award subsequent, but in the former case the duty did precede the obligation, which was made for the surther officiance of the duty; and here the desendant ought to have pleaded the tender. Le. 71. pl. 95. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. C. B. Bret v. Audars.

7. Tender of amends is no plea, where the trespass was voluntary, as for battery, or breaking his close, or putting cattle into his grounds; per Popham and Williams J. Noy, 12. Sir G. Wal-grace's case.

8. In intrusion, mastitagio non satisfacto, plaintiff did not allege any Yelv. 59. S. C. fays, tender. Upon demurrer to the declaration, all the Court (Gawdy št was adabsent) resolved, without hearing of any argument, that for the judged una value of the marriage, tender is not requisite; for it is due de voce, that mero jure without any tender, and the alleging of tender is but furthe payment -belonged to plusage, and gives colour to traverse it, whereas it is not traversthe lord without ten- able. And Williams said, that he had known it to be so ruled in C. B. and in the Exchequer; wherefore they gave rule to enter der; for it may happen judgment accordingly, unless, &c. And at another day Stephens that the moved to be heard to argue it for the defendant; and Gawdy infant may be eloigned, said, that he much doubted thereof, by reason of the diversity of or travel opinions in the books concerning that question; but because the beyond sea other justices had resolved it, they without further argument adin his father's lifejudged it for the plaintiff. Cro. J. 66. pl. 6. Pasch. 3 Jac. in time, fo B. R. Palmer v. Wilders. that the make a tender, and the statute which says, de mero jure, shews that the value is not a thing given by any special law, but by the common law and rule of reason in recompence of the loss of services, which the lord has by the nonage; and also in this action the tender is not traversable. Quod nota.—5 Rep. 126. b. S. C. accordingly. Palmer's case.——In valore maritagii, it was adjudged upon demurrer, that the tender was not traversable in this action [and that fur the reasons mentioned above]. But Warburton said, that for an beir semale, because the lord has a years after her age of 14 to make tender of marriage, the tender is traversable. Cro. J. 151. pl. 13. Hill. 4 Jac. B. R. the Lord Darcy v. Page.

So in debt upon bond to pay rent, &cc. the defendant pleaded that be was ready to pay the rent due on the premises, but nobody was

9. An award, that the defendant should enjoy a house for 3 years and a half, and should pay half-yearly for it 13 l. at Michaelmas and Lady-day; and if he failed of payment, the award for enjoying to be void. He pleaded that be tendered the money at the day and place, and that none were there to receive it; but did not jet forth that he tendered it at the last hour of the day. It was held not good; and judgment for * the plaintiff. Ofo. J. 423 pl. 4. Pasch. 15 Jac. B. R. Furser and Bond v. Proved.

ceive it, and that afterwards dealer to say the money to the plaintiff, but he refused; and upon a special demurrar, the Cour help the tender on the land not well pleaded, it not being shewn that it was made in convenient time on the lands, before the fur-fer; out this was cured by pleading the tender to the plaintiff himself externally. And actuaged for the plaintiff himself externally. And actuaged for the plaintiff. I have 590. Pasch. 9 W. 3. Kesting v. Irish.

10. Where

- place certain, and an action is brought for the rent, it is no good plea by the defendant that he made a tender of the rent, unless he plead the tender to have been made at the place where the rent was agreed to be paid; and judgment was given accordingly. Freem. Rep. 148. pl. 169. Pasch. 1674. Marshall v. Wisdale.
- 11. Tender and refusal is no plea in debt on bend to save barmless from another bond. Vent. 261. Trin. 26 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.
- ney for B. (who had entered into a band to pay the same) to A. the obligee at his house on the 27th of July, if he would deliver up the first band uncancelled, and assign the same to W. the desendant. W. the desendant pleaded, that B. did not pay the money, whereupon the defendant went to A's bouse on the 27th of July an hour before sunset, and there staid till after-set, paratus to pay the money, but that A. was not there, nor any other for him ready to receive it, or to deliver up the band, & hoc, &c. The plaintist demurred generally, and had judgment; for per tot. Cur. this plea was ill, for want of obtuit solvere, because the tender, and not the paratus, is traversable, and the tender must be made before the other is bound to deliver up the bond. 3 Lev. 103. Pasch. 35 Car. 2. C. B. Cole v. Walton.
- dum sola; then they allege a special request by the wife dum sola, and another by the husband after the marriage. Desendant pleaded in bar, that he was always ready to pay, &c. and that he tendered is before the action brought; and upon demurrer to this plea, the plaintists had judgment, because it appeared that the tender was pleaded after two requests, one by the seme dum sola, and the other by the plaintists after marriage. I Lutw. 224. Hill. 2 & 3 Jac. 2. Johnson & Uxor. v. Mapletost.

14. Where a tender and refusal is pleaded either on a single bill, or other simple specialty, the defendant need not conclude in bar to the action, but only in discharge of the damages; for in this case the tender is not a discharge to the action, or to the payment of the money, which is still due notwithstanding the tender; for that is only to excuse the damages; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 133. Pasch. 2 W. & M. B. R. Anon.

penalty on a bond, with a condition to pay a lesser sum, there the Carch. 133. defendant must conclude in bar to the action, because a tender of a less sum on the day had discharged the penalty; and therefore it is a good bar to the action brought for the penalty; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 133. Anon.

16. In rescous, &c. the plaintist declared, that he had distrained 5 bogs doing damage, &c. and would have impounded them, and had actually put one in the pound, &c. The deser dant pleads, that after the taking, and before the rescous, he tendered to the plain tiff 10s. which was a sufficient amends; and upon a distractive tiff 10s. which was a sufficient amends; and upon a distractive tiff 10s.

The reporter alds, not a also, that in both these cases the pleader ought to conclude with a profer hic in curia. Carth. 233.

the Court were all of opinion, that the tender came too late for the damage done by that hog which was in the pound, and therefore he should have traversed that one hog was in the pound. 2 Lutw. 1259.

*[196] Trin. 7 W. 3. Alwaies v. Broom.

17. Indebitatus assumpsit, &c. for several sums upon several But in debt promises; defendant after an imparlance alleged, that the several for rent the defendant fums, for which the plaintiff had declared, amounted to 66 l. and as pleaded a to 64 l. 7 s. part thereof, he pleaded non assumplet; and as to the rest tender after he pleads in bar, that the * several promises set forth by the plaintiff imparlance; and it was were but one contract for an horse, and that before the action brought, adjudged be tendered the residue, (viz.) 11. 13s. to the plaintiff, which he rea good plea. fused; and that he was and still is ready to pay the same, &c. Upon Comb. 50. Pasch. 3 Jac. a demurrer, it was resolved, that the plea was ill by reason of the 2. B. R. imparlance, and also because it is uncertain upon which of the Dalby v. Smith. — promises the money was tendered. 1 Lutw. 238. Hill. 11 W.3. In debt on Morris v. Coles. bond, conditioned to a fum certain, a tender may be pleaded after imparlance. Per Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 254. Mich. 9 W. 3. in case of Giles v. Hartis.

18. He that makes a tender, must stay till fun-set, unless special circumstances set forth make alteration. 2 Salk. 624. pl. 3. Trin. 13 W. 3. B. R. in case of Lancashire v. Killingworth.

19. Indebitatus assumpsit was brought for goods sold and delivered, Salk. 623. defendant pleaded in bar, that before the time of bringing the pl. 2. Hill. 10 W. 3. action he made tender of the money, and that ever since the B.R. Sweettender paratus fuit to pay the money. It was infifted, that the land v. bar was not complete enough; for he should have pleaded, that Squire. S. P. and feems to he has been ready to pay the money, not only ever fince his tender, be S. C. only but from the time the goods were delivered, viz. from the time the the year is money became due. And the Court seemed to think this a material mis-printed 10W. 3. inobjection; for it may be the money was demanded before the stead of 10 Anns. Be- tender, and then there is a good cause of action. 10 Mod. 81. Hill. 10 Ann. B. R. Whitlocke and Squire. sides that, I have a MS. report of the case of Sweetland v. Squire as in Hill. 10 Ann. B. R. accordingly.

Tender and refusal is no plea in assumpsit; but the defendant must pay the plaintiff when he will have it; per Holt. Cumb. 334. Trin. 7 Ann. B. R. Broom v. Pine.

20. In an action of debt, by an officer of a borough, for a copy of the poll at an election of burgeses for parliament, the defendant pleaded, that he was ready to pay what was due for the copy. And the Court agreed, that the tender was good; for till the officer demands something, or delivers a copy of the poll, the party cannot know what to tender. As where there is a demand for a copy of a commitment. &c. upon the statute 31 Car. 2. it is only necessary to say, that he was ready to pay for it. And so a judgment was affirmed by all the Judges, and afterwards it was affirmed in parliament. Cornyns's Rep. 279. 288. pl. 153. Pasch. 4 Ceo. r. Fhilips v. Smith.

delivered, the defendant was by rule obliged to plead an issuable pleas a tender is no issuable pleas within the meaning of this rules therefore the sudgment was held good. Rep. of Pract. in C.B. 134.

Mich, in Geo. 2. Davership, v. Barret.

(R) Pleadings. In what Cases a Refusal must be alleged as well as a Tender.

1. A Promised to pay B. such a sum of money at such a place, S. C. cited and in consideration thereof B. promised, on payment of Vent. 109. the said sum, to surrender to A. a lease for years. A. tendered the in case of money, and B. did not furrender the leafe. A. brought affumpfit Buckler v. against B. and alleged, that he obtulit the sum; but does not say, that B. refused, and therefore it was held not good. And Coke faid, that WITTENHALL's case was adjudged, that tender, with- [197] out alleging a refusal, is not good. Cro. E. 889. Trin. 44 Eliz. B. R. Lea v. Exelby.

2. Action upon a promise, that the defendant, in consideration S. C. cited that the plaintiff would pay him a certain fum of money, promifed to assign him a term; and the plaintiff averred a tender of the Holt Ch. J. money, but that the defendant did not assign. And after verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the plaintiff did not entitle himself to an action, for that he did not aver a refusal, though he had averred a tender; but it was there adjudged well after verdict; but also held, that it would be bad Sid. 13. pl. 3. Mich. 12 Car. 2. B. R. Ball v. Peake.

12 Mod. 530. per in case of Lancashire v. Killingworth. And in Ld. Raym. Rep. 687. in S. C. ----And in Comyns's Rep. 117. in S. C.

3. An agreement was made by one to build a house, and for that Vent. 177. the other was to pay him so much money for building. The plaintiff averred, that he made a tender to build the house, but not that -2 Saund. the other had refused to suffer him to build it. All the Court were of opinion, that the tender, without averment of a refufal, was by Holt Ch. not good; but being after verdiel it was held well. 2 Lev. 23. J. 12 Mod. Mich. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Opy v. Peters.

214. Peters v.Opie, S.C. 350. S. C. S. C. cited 530. in case of Lancashire v. Killingworth. ---- And in 2 Salk. 123. in S. C .---- And in Ld. Raym. Rep. 687. in S. C. ----And in Comyns's Rep. 117. in S. C.

4. Debt upon bond to pay 12 l. on 15 Aug. and on 15 Feb. by S. C. cited equal portions. The defendant pleaded, that on 15 Aug. there was 61. due, and no more; and that he (the defendant) on the faid Holt Ch. J. 15 Aug. at B. obtulit folvere the same, and was ever afterwards in case of ready to pay it; and after that, (viz.) on the I Decemb. &c. did v. Killingfry it to the plaintiff, which he did accept, unde petit judicium, worth. &c. Upon demurrer the whole Court held the pleading insufficient, because it is not feed that the preductiff of the . Otherwile if a place of payment bad been in the condition, withit had been shewn in pleading, they the party who was to receive the money was not there, and the acceptance after the day figni-2 Int. 107. Mich. 1 W. & M. in C. B. Buckler fied nothing. v. Milloid.

12 Mod. 530. per

5. Defendant covenanted with the plaintiff, that upon two days I.a. Raym. notice, within a year, to be given at Hudfon-Bay House, he would see accordingly.-2 Salk. 623. pl. 3. S. C. And per Cui. when both parties meet at the time and place, he that pleads a tender must also plead a refulal, otherwise fuch a plea is naught ppon demurrer. but accept of 10001. Stock in such a Company, and would pay 20001. at the transferring thereof. The declaration avers, that within the year, viz. such a day, he lest notice in writing for K. the desendant, to come to Hudson's-Bay House the 4th of November, which was also within the year, to accept the transfer; that the plaintist was there on the same day ready, and did tender a transfer of the said stock to the desendant; but that the desendant did not come and accept it, or pay the 20001. Per Holt Ch. J. he ought to have averred the tender and resusal; and in that case to aver a tender, without averring a resusal likewise, would not do. 12 Mod. 529. Trin. 13 W. 3. Lancashire v. Killingworth.—Cites 16 El. 31. 17 Ed. 3. 11.

Vol. XX.

'good after a verdict; and if the defendant be absent, he must shew that, and also that himself was at the time and place, and tendered.——S. C. cited 8 Mod. 106. in the case of Blackwell v. Nash.——Comyna's Rep. 116. pl. 81. S. C. accordingly; and that in such cases the later way of pleading is, that the defendant did not come, nor any other for him, though this is not of necessity; for if a man pleads a tender and resulal, it is sufficient to shew the resulal, without saying at what time the resulal was; for a resulal by the party, at any time or place, is sufficient. But if a man pleads notice given, by which it appears that the desendant was not present when the act ought to have been done, then the plaintist must say that he was ready at such a time, viz. to the last part of the time when the thing was to be done; and that the desendant, or any for him, did not come. And the reason of all those cases is, that when the plaintist simplest is to do an act, and that act is not done, he ought to shew to the Court that he had done every thing that was in his power, and cited Hob. 107. I Cro. 694. 8 Co. 92. And therefore judgment was given for the desendant by the whole Court.——3 Salk. 342. 5. C.

[198]

(S) Bar, in what Actions.

In replevin the defendant awound the taking the cattle damage-seafant. The plaintiff replied, and disclaimed any litle to the place where, &c. but set fortb, sbat bis cattle entered into the defendant's ground against bis

1. REPLEVIN of 300 sheep. As to 200, the defendant pleaded ne prist pas; and as to 7, he took them damage-feasant; and as to the rest he said we pursued them by reason of the 7, absque hoc that we took them. The plaintist maintained the taking all, except the 7; and as to the 7, he said we met you immediately upon the taking, and proffered 6d. for the damages; and averred, that the damages did not amount to more, judgment, &c. Horton demanded judgment; for now you have confessed the taking rightful, and therefore ought to have writ of detinue. Per Hull; the chasing after the tender was tortious. Defendant said, he took and impounded them before he tendered. Skrene, immediately upon the taking we tendered; prist; and the other e contra. Therefore it seems that replevin lies after the tender. Br. Replevin, pl. 21. cites 12 H. 4. 23.

will, and did damage; and that immediately after the trespals, be tendered to defendant 5s. amends, which be everall was sufficient, but desendant tended, &c. Upon demurrer the Court gave judgment una voce for the avowant; for they were of opinion, that the statute 21 Jac. extends not to this case, but only to actions of trespals, and not to replevins, which remain as they were at common law; and therefore it is clear that the tender ought to be before the impounding. 2 Lutwo 1594. Hill. 9 W. 3. Alles we Bayley,

In replevin the defendant avorated for damage feasant; the plaintiff replied a tender of amends after the taking. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that the tenders not being pleaded to be before the impounding, this is determined to be bad upon a general demarter in Lutw. 1596. and therefore he thought it might be taken advantage of as well in this way. The Ch. J. said, that case was certainly law; and Pilkington's case, 5 Coke, is to this purpose; but he observed, that the desendant had joined iffue upon the sufficiency of amends; and by that means had waived, as to the irregularity of the tender. But he owned, that if this action had been in trespass, it would have been otherwise, even spon a general demurrer; for this statute says in general, that a tender of amends may be well pleaded in trespass besore the action brought. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 309. Pasch. 2 Geo. 2. C. B. Baker v. Johnson.

- 2. Refusal of a stranger to the obligation, is a good plea in bar. Br. Conditions, pl. 62. Br. Tender, pl. 12. cites 15 E. 4. 5. cites S. C.
- 3. Trespass of breaking his close, and spoiling his grass, the defendant said, that the trespass did not exceed 10s. and he tendered bim sufficient amends. And it was held no plea, but a void tender. Contrary in avowry for damage-feafant, elsewhere. Br. Trespaís, pl. 214. cites 21 H. 7. 30.

S. P. And the defendant pleaded that he tendered fufficient amenda. and the plaintiff refuled the same, and demanded judgment, &c. And upon a demurrer, the opinion of the Court was, that this is no plea in trespass, but in a replevin it is a good plea. Sed non dixerunt causam diversitatis. Ow. 48. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. Kent v. Wichall, cites 21 H. 7. 30. 9 H. 7. 21. F. N. B. 69. (G) 31 H. 4. 17.

4. 21 Jac. cap. 16. s. enacts, That in all actions of trespass,' It was quare clausum fregit, wherein the defendant or defendants shall disclaim, in his or their plea, to make any title to the land in which the trespass is by the declaration supposed to be done, and where the trespass is by negligence or unvoluntary, the defendant or defendants shall be admitted to plead a disclaimer, and that the trespass was done by negligence, or unvoluntarily, and to tender or offer sufficient amends for such trespass before the action brought; whereupon, or upon some of which, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be forced to join issue; and if the said issue be found for the defendant or defendants, or the plaintiff or plaintiffs be nonfuited, such plaintiff or plaintiffs shall be clearly barred from the faid action or actions, and all other fuits concerning the same.

agreed, that in trespass the defendant may plead the trespass to be involuntary, and d fclaim in the title, Withcut pleading the flatute of 21 Jac. for it is a general fatute.

Litt. Rep. 355. Hill. 6 Car. C. B. Jennings v. Coufins. Trespass quare clausum fregit. The defendant pleaded according to this statute, that be tendered amends before the action brought, viz. the 2d Oct. 7 Car. The plaint. If replies, that before such tender be fued a latitat, teste the last day of Trinity Term before, and upon that procured the defendant to be arrested, intending to declare in tresposs. It was thereupon demurred, and resolved, that this tender came too late; for as well as a tender after an original writ comes too late, so after an arrest upon a latitat; for the tender by the flature is intended to be immediately after the tresposs, and before any suit commenced; wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 264. pl. 11. Trin. 8 Car. B. R. Watts v. Baker, --- See (M) pl. 4. · [199]

5. Where a custom was to be excused from suit of court by payment of 8 d. to the lord, and 1 d. to the steward by copyholders living at 'fuch distance, and such excuse to be for a year, it was held by all, that tender and refusal was as much as payment. Vent. 167. Mich. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Isaac v. Ledgingham.

6. A man cannot plead a tender and touts temps prist in a quantum meruit, because the demand is entirely uncertain; nor. could a man plead tender of amends in bar of any voluntary trefpass at common law, except in case of damage-feasant, to prevent the impounding of cattle, until the statute of 21 Jac. 1. cap. 16. Ld. Raym. Rep. 255. Mich. 9 W. 3. in case of Giles v. Hartis.

For more of Tender in general, see Condition, Rent, Stocks, Cout temps Prist, and other proper titles.

Tenures.

(A) Tenures. Antiquity.

Whether these te-Dures were introduced here by Will. the Conqueror, or were in use here before his coming, has been a matter much disputed, and many learned men have been

In In the escuage and roll in the county of Lincoln with Master Bradshaw in the Exchequer, upon a voyage into Scotland, anno I E. 3. Rot. 17. there is comes Albemarle tenet Helewell per baroniam de domino rege in capite de Conquestu; and in the same roll, another holds of such who holds of such honor, de Conquestu; and others hold of such an one who holds over by a knights fee, &c. de Conquestu, and so in divers other rolls of it.
But always it is said to be held of the king de Conquestu, and not of any other. But it is there many times said, that such an one holds of the king, and of others also, de * antiquo feossamento; and of others, de novo feossamento. Quære, what is intended thereby?

engaged in the controversy; but it seems that the greater part of those who were particularly learned in matters of antiquity, were of opinion agreeably to Roll, that the Conquest was their utmost zera.

Feodum antiquum is that which has been in some of the family of the present possessor, of whatever kindred they were of the father's side, for more than 4 descents. Feodum paternum, is that which has been held by his lineal ancestors to the 4th degree, as avus proavus, abavus, atavus. And feodum novum, is that which was first given to the person enjoying it, and which he came not into by succession to his father. See Spelm. Gloss. 220. verbo Feudum.——Freigius de seudis, is much in the same words with Spelman.

† Ancient fee is where the feodary and his ancestors time out of mind, have held such a fee, and here the feodists place a medium between these two, viz. paternal fee which comes by four degrees of descent, and they define that to be the ancient, which descends from more. Cowel's Institutes, lib. 2. tit. 3. 6.9.

Dr. Brady, in his Introduction to Old English History, 187. cites the following records, thereby to explain the meaning of the novum and vetus teotlamentum, viz.

† [200]

....عناد.

Carta Albani de Hairun.

Domino suo excellentissimo Henrico regi Anglize Albanus de Hairun, vestrze excellentize notifico, quod ego, in Hertfordscira feodum unius militis de veteri sesamento, de vobis principaliter teneo, & quod de novo sesamento nichil habeo, nec militem seossatum aliquem habeo valete.

Carta Matthæi de Gerardi-villa.

Matthæus de Gerardi villa tenet in capite de domino rege seodum unius militis de veteri fesamento & aullum habet militem sesamentum [seossatum] nec habet aliquid de novo.

Carta Willielmi filii Roberti.

Karissimo domino suo Henrico regi Anglize, Willielmus silius Roberti salutem; sciatis quod de vobis teneo seodum unius militis pauperrimum, nec alium in eo seodavi, quia vix mihi sussicit, & sic tenuit pater meus. Valete.

And pag. 183. adds, that, by these records the meaning of vetus & novum seossamentum is very apparent; that it was called so in respect of time only, and not in respect of the original seudataries, or their sub seudataries or tenants in capite, and tenants by mesne tenure in military service.——And ibid.

ibid. pag. 215. cites Jani Anglorum facies nova, pag. 236, &c. where speaking of vetus & novum feoffamentum that author says, that the old feoffment was of such fees as were granted from the crown, and that the new feoffment was of such fees as were granted by the tenants in capite to others by subinfeodations, or such as the tenants in capite held by meshe tenure; the Doctor observes, that the word feoffment is derived from the French word fielment, which fignifies infeoffing, or giving of a fee, and that from the word fief, a fee; that in the writings of the seudists, we find vetus feedum & novum, and cites Hottom. de Feud. disput. c. 6. coll. 819. B. that an old see is that which was given by the predecessor of the present lord, or which was granted to the predecessor of the vassal; for always an old fee is so called, in respect it hath descended or gone in succession; but a new see is that which is given by the present lord to the present vassal; and again in lib. 2. Feud. tit. 3. sect. That is called a new see which was given to the present feudatory; and that is called an old one, which was given by his parents or ancestors.

The Introduction to the Law of Tenures, pag. 25. (m) as to the antiquum & paternum, cites Crag. de Jure Feud. fol. 6. that paternum five antiquum dicitur id, in quo quis patri, avo aut alicui majorum succedit. And quod jure successionis ad aliquem devolutum Stry. Exam. Jur. Feud. cap. 3. Q. q. quicunque ex superioribus id acquisivit. Feud. lib. 2. tit. 5. And as to the novum, quod de novo acquifirum fuit & habet initium in persona investiti, nec a progenitorum successione provenit, cites Zasius in usus Feud. fol. 6. Crag. de Jure Feud. fol. 55. Hanneton de Jure Feud. 30, and Stry. Exam. Jur. Feud. cap. 3. Q. 12.

(B) What Things may be beld.

[1. A N advowson in gross lies in tenure. 42 E. 3. 7. 1 H. 4. In quare impedit, the limited. 25 E. 3. 54. admitted. plaintiff in-Contra, 33 H. 6. 35.]

titled himself that the

advowson was held of him by homage and fealty, and was appropriated in mortmain, and it is not contradicted, but that the advowson well lies in tenure, and it was brought by a common person against an abbot. Br. Tenures, pl. 15. cites 21 E. 3. 5. ——And such a case the same year, fol. 29. by the Earl of H. against the Dean and Chapter of H. and was of an advowson in gross, and counted that it was held of him, and that it was aliened in mortmain, and he presented as lord immediate within the And tit. Quare Impedit, 73. it is admitted, that advowson in gross of a pro vostry, may well be held in capite, and thereby the king shall have the prerogative of all his other lands held of others; and in another quare impedit after the king counted that the advowson in gross was held of him, and made title by descent to 4 daughters, and that the youngest was in his ward, and admitted for good; quod nota. Br. Tenures, pl. 15. cites 21 E. 3. 5.

The king counted of advowson in gross held of him, and that the tenant died without heir, by which he presented, and well; quod nota of advowson in gross in tenure. Br. Tequres, pl. 10. cites 24 E. 3.

-Br. Quare Impedit, pl. 99. cites 24 E. 3. 69. S. C.

In quare impedit, the plaintiff counted that J. N. held of him certain lands and advowson in chivalry, and entitled himself to the presentation by ward of the heir, &c. and the other made bar. And fo it feems that an advowson lies in tenure. Br. Tenures, pl. 18. cites 24 E. 3.——And in a quare impedit, 14 H. 7. 6. & 15 H. 7. 8. it is agreed that the advowson lies in tenure, scil. advowson wbich was appendant to a manor, and is severed after, and this by the justices, and that a common person may. give it to hold of him; but quære inde, and where he shall distrain; for if he can have no means to come to the tenure, then it seems that the advowson in gross cannot lie in tenure, for cessavit & præcipe quod reddat, does not lie. Br. Tenures, pl. 18.———See pl. 7.

Advowson may lie in tenure. As where manor and advowson are held, and the advowson is made in gross, the advowson is held pro particula; per Littleton and others for the best opinion. And per Davers and Heuxst [Hengton] cessavit lies of advowson, and in writ of right of advowson the summons shall be at the church or at the doors thereof. And grand cape lies in it, and the lord may distrain in the glebe, scil. the beasts of the patron, but not the beasts of the incumbent or parson. Br. Tenures, pl. 4.

cites 33 H. 6. 34.

Writ of right of adviswson shall suppose that he holds the advowson. Bt. Tenures, pl. 18. (bis) cites 14 H. 7. 26. & 15 H. 7. 8. See Pl. C. 498. b. 499. a. in the case of Grendon v. the Bishop of Lincoln. *[201]

[2. Land held fince time of memory becomes a priory; this shall not destroy the tenure. 42 E. 3. 7.]

[3. Land which has been a priory time out of mind, &c. may be 42 E. 3. 7.] held.

4. Pifchary does not lie in tenure; for the foil may be to one and the pischary to another, and then the lord cannot distrain. Br. Tenures, pl. 75. cites 32 E. 3. Fitzh. Scire Facias, 100.

5. It was agreed that remainder is held, and by escheat thereof the seigniory is extinct, and the lord may have action of waste, as he in remainder might have had in his life. Br. Tenures,

pl. 107. cites 3 H. 6. 1.

6. Assise of certain wan and cotton to make a taper to burn in the church of Laiton in the county of Essex, and the abbot of Stratford brought thereof assise for the not rendering thereof, and it was held rent service and a good tenure; and yet he should not have thereof any profit nor avail, and because he should have distress in the land of the defendant, therefore tenure. Br. Tenures,

pl. 50. cites 35 H. 6. 7.

7. In quare impedit, it was faid, that mesnalty lies in tenure by See pl. 1. a mesne, contra of an * advowson; for this is appendant to the land or manor to which, &c. but not parcel. So of common, and villein regardant, way, courts, leets, waifs, strays, &c. for those do not lie in tenure unless of the king; for he + may distrain in other land; contra of a common person; quod nota, by the opinion of the Court. But advowson lies in tenure, per Vavisor and Davers, contra Townsend and Brian. Br. Tenures, pl. 34. cites 5 H. 7. 36.

cannot, but mulprinted.

(ne poit)

† All the editions are

5ec (E)

What is taken in within the

crotchets is supplied out of the Year-book

to make the meaning

[B. 2] Of what Thing to another.

[1,] [4.] F a mesne gives the menalty in tail, the law will See (G) pl. 5. S. C.create a tenure between the donee and donor. Tayle (A), 1 H. 4. 3. b.] pl, 1. 5, C.

[2.] [5 A man may hold land of 2 manors. 17 E. 3. 13.]

[3.] [6. As a man [seised of 3 manors] might before the statute [make feoffment to another in fee] and so now [since the statute, make feoffment] in tail, [he] may give parcel of one manor and parcel of another manor to hold by certain services, [as one tenancy,] and the services shall be regardant to both [all] the manors. 17 E, 3. 13.]

more clear. Br. Tenures, pl. 58. cites 19 E. s. &

4. Where a man bolds of another of his manor by fuit to his mill, and the lord grants the mill and fuit, yet the heir of the lord fall Firsh. Affise bave the fuit, if he makes a new mill; for the tenure is to the manor of the grantor or to his person, and not to the mill, which [202] suit remains with the other services. Per Herle. Quære, Br. Alsife, pl. 458. cites 31 E. 1. & 19 E. 2.

(C) What Services may be reserved. Against the Fol. 500.

[1. A Man may hold by marchet [agreement] that when his daughter or fifter commits fornication, or be espoused without leave of the lord, that he shall pay 5s. 8d. to the lord; for he may bind him to it by his own agreement. 15 E. 3. Aid. 33. admitted.]

2. A man, before the statute, by feoffment, and at this day, Br. Tenures, by gift in tail, may referve tenure to make a beacon or to make a bridge at B. or to keep the castle of the king adjoining to the sea; and this is good, inasmuch as he has advantage thereof, because it is for the commonwealth, and so he had advantage; contra if he gives land to one to give rent to a stranger, or to ride along Orginal with a stranger; for there is no commonweal. But gift of land to find a chaplain to chaunt in a certain place is good tenure; because he has benefit by reason of orizons. 11 H. 7. 12. b.

pl. 3. per Fineux.

3. A refervation of things which lie only in prender or usage, cannot make a tenure; and therefore if a man feised of land and wood, before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, does thereof enfeoff a stranger, and after the said statute gives the same lana and wood in tail, or leases the same for life unto a stranger, referving unto the feoffor, donor, or lessor common for 4 beasts in the same land, and to suffer the feoffor, donor, or lessor to take yearly in the same wood 3 loads of estovers for sewel; this reservation is void to make any tenure, and this cannot be said a reservation, because the feoffor, donor, or lessor cannot take profit thereof but only by his own act, and a man cannot do service unto bimself; and therefore such reservation is void, if it be not by deed indented, and then he shall take the same by way of grant of the feosse, donee, or lesse. Perk. s. 702.

In what Cases it may be created by express See (E). Words. Of what Thing by the King.

[1. THE king may grant his fee-farm of a vill, and reserve a S. P. And tenure. 44 E. 3. 45. 1 H. 4. 3. b. 44 Ass. 22. by all the king may distrain may distrain the justices.] in all other lands of the .

party for such things as he reserves upon the cenure of the rent. Contra of a common person. Brooke says, and so see that the king may reserve tenure upon a rent which does not see in tenure. But it was faid, that if a common perfer gives his feigniory to hold of him, this is good; but the land of tenant that not be charged with distrain, unless the beasts of the grantee [grantor] come there, by the best opinion. Br. Tenures, pl. 7. cites 44 E. 3. 35.

[2. The king may grant + a rent to be held of him, and this + S.P. And by alienation shall be a good tenure. ‡ 10 H. 6. 12.] thereof without ligence, the king may seise. Br. Tenures, pl. 93. eites 3 E. 3. Fitsh. Avowry, 73% 1 Br. Tenures, pl. 98. cites S. C.

[3. And

[3. And the king may grant this seigniory over, and the rent shall be held of the grantee. 10 H. 6. 12.]

[4. The king may grant a seigniory over to hold by certain services of him.]

5. Where the king gives land, and referves some tenure in special, the tenure shall be such as it is reserved, be it socage or otherwise. And if he grants land, and reserves nothing, nor speaks of any thing, in this case the grantee shall hold in chivalry for the non-certainty; quod non negatur. Br. Tenures, pl. 3. (bis) cites

33 H. 6. 7.

6. Archbishop of C. was seised of the manor and borough of S. in right of his bishopric, and the prior of M. was seised of a house held of the said archbishop, as of his said manor, &c. Afterwards in 30 H. 8. the archbishop gave the said manor and borough, with confirmation of the dean and chapter, to the king. Then the said prior surrendered, and so the king was seised of the manor and borough, and likewise of the said house. The king by letters patents gave the house and other lands to J. S. and T.S. in fce, tenend' in libero burgagio per fidelitatem tantum & non in capite, pro omnibus serviciis & demandis. Afterwards E. 6. gave the manor and borough to the mayor and commonalty of London. J. S. and T. S. convey the house to W. in fee. W. died without heir. The question was, what tenure was referred by the words and grant by H. 8. to J. S. and T. S.? It was faid, it could not be a tenure in burgage, because no rent is referved, according to Litt. f. 162, 163, 164. Anderson Ch. J. at the first strongly insisted upon it. Another matter was, that one tenure only is reserved for all the lands and tenements; so that, should the tenure reserved be adjudged to be burgage, then lands at the common law out of boroughs should be held in burgage; besides, a tenure in burgage cannot be created without these words, ut de burgagio; and to that purpose Shute J. agreed. 4 Le. 207. pl. 333. Mich. 32 Eliz. B. R. Waite v. Cooper.

(E) Tenure created by express Words. Of what Thing. By common Person.

[1. A Seigniery may be granted at the common law by a common person, reserving a tenure for the possibility of distress by the escheat of the tenancy. 44 Ass. 22. Quare.]

[2. [So] if meshalt; be given in tail, a tenure may be reserved of it for the possibility of the distress by the escheat of the tenancy.

1 H. 4. 1. b.]

[3. So if a man holds a manor by certain services, those services may be granted (it seems it is intended in tail) to hold by certain services. Dubitatur. 14 H. 6. 24.

Br. Tenures, [4]. A common person cannot grant a rent to be held of him.
pl. 105. lays.
10 U. 6. 12]

13. B. Among the advisions of element, that rent lies in tenure, and writ of element lies thereof, supposing

5. If a man be seised of a manor in see, in which manor there is a mill for the grinding of wheat and other grain, and before the statute of quia emptores terrarum he does infeoff certain tenants of the manor of parcel of the manor, doing suit at his mill; this is a good tenure by the word (doing). Perk. s. 638. cites 9 Ass. 24. & M. 9 E. 3. 35.

6. A man may hold of J. W. as of his manor, but not as of his bouse. Br. Tenures, pl. 47. cites 8 H. 4. 1. per Gascoigne.

7. And a man may hold of the king, or of a common person, as of kis person; and so is 2 H. 4. 3. quod nota bene; for it is good law. Br. Tenures, pl. 47. cites 8 H. 4. 1. per Gascoigne.

8. If a man had given land to an abbot or prior in fee before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, to find a lamp, &c. this is a tenure, as appears in a cessavit. Br. Tenures, pl. 62. cites

45 E. 3. 15.

9. Avowry made for tenure of 10 acres of land for fuit to the leet of the defendant. And per Fineux Ch. J. a man may hold by fuit to the leet, and to be crier at the leet, or to be collector of americaments of the leet, or to repair a bridge, high-way, or the like, or to keep a beacon for fear of enemies, or the like. Br. Tenures, pl. 35. cites 12 H. 7. 18.

10. The king may licence the tenant to give in tail to hold of himscif, and so, to make feoffment to hold of himself and the king; and other lords may license the tenant paravail to make feoffment in see to hold of himself; and this notwithstanding the statute of quia emptores terrarum; for this was made in advantage of them, and therefore they may dispense with it; per Fitzherbert J. Br. Tenures,
pl. 2. cites 27 H. 8. 26.

(F) Of whom [a Man] shall hold by Creation † of † These words seem the King [or others]. At Common Law.

not to belong to this divi-

[1. BEFORE quia emptores terrarum, if the tenant had made feoffment in fee, the feoffee should hold of his feoffor and not of the lord paramount. 4 H. 6. 20. ‡3 Ass. 8. contra 33 E. 3. S. C. Annuity, 52.]

S. C. acception of the lord paramount is the tenant had made fisch tit. Affile, pl. 182. cites

24. cites

S. C. accordingly, though in the grant no mention was made of whom he should hold. Br. Tenures, pl. 21. cites 4 H. 6. 20. S. P. per Cottismore. But if he had said tenendum de capitali domino, le should hold of the chief lord.

If he had made the feoffment generally without reservation of any tenure, the seoffee should have holden of the feoffor, as he held over; for example, if he had holden by knights service, the feoffee, by erestion of law, had holden by knights service of sthe feoffor, in respect of the tenure over by him; and therefore, if the lord had confirm d the estate of the feoffer, viz. the mesne to hold by fealty only (which was focage) the tenure between the tenant and the feoffor should be socage also; because the tenure creased by law follows the tenure, in respect whereof it was created. 2 Inst. 501.

> [2. [But] if tenant in tail makes feoffment in fee, seoffee shall hold of the lord paramount, and not of the donor. 48 E. 3.9. b. 4 H. 6.]

> [3. So if tenant in tail lease for life, which is a discontinuance, by which he has a reversion in fee, he shall hold of the lord paramount. 4 H. 6. 21. quære.] [205]

[4. If fince [the statute de] donis, the tenant gives in tail the Where there is lord and donee shall hold of the donor, and not of the lord paramount. tenant by cbi-4 H. 6. 20, 21. b. adjudged. 3 Aff. 8. Dub.] welry, or otherwise, and the tenant infloffs N. who gives to the fon of the tenant in tail, tenendum de capitali domino, and the donce dies, the issue shall hold it of his donor, and he over of the lord, but the issue in tail, nor the tenent in tail shall not hold of the lord immediately; per Danby Ch. J. clearly; quod nota, and so is 4 H. 6. But Littleton made a doubt, because no notice was given to the lord of the feoffment. Br. Tenure. pl. 37. cites 2 E. 4. 6.

[5. So if the tenant of the king gives in tail, the donce shall Where tenent of the hold of the donor, and not of the king. 4 H. 6. 22. b. adsail, the king judged.] may choose to so take the tenant in tail for his tenant or the donor, and this as well before licence as after licence, for the licence of alienation is a pardon for the trespass, but this is no conclusion to the king; but if he takes the one for his tenant, as by the ward of the heir of the one, or the like, he shall not have the other after; for he has determined his election; per Fitzherbert J. But see contra 4 H. 6. 20. per Judicium. Br. Tenures, pl. 2. cites 27 H. 8. 26.

> [6. If before quia emptores a man had aliened in fee by deed, referving a rent, this should create a tenure without doubt. Contra,

33 E. 3. Annuity, 52.]

[7. [80] if before quia emptores terrarum a man had aliened in fee reserving a tenure to bis beirs, this had been a void reservation, and by creation of the law he shall hold of him as he holds over. Co. Litt. 99. b.]

8. In affife [it was faid] for clear law, that where city, borough, er vill, is leased to the mayor, burgess, &c. in see-farm, those who hold burgages or land therein hold them immediately of the mayor, burgess, and corporation, and not of the king immediately. nures, pl. 57. cites 49 E. 3.

9. It is a law ordained, that if a man aliens in mortmain, and the king seises and grant: it over; this shall be held of the chief lords.

Br. Tenure, pl. 3. (bis) cites 33 H. 6. 7.

10. When a man made feoffment of parcel of his manor before the flatute to hold of him, this was intended to hold of the manor, and not of his person in gross; quod nota. Br. Avowry, pl. 60. cites 22 H. 6. 50.

11. If before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, there had been father and a daughters, and the father, being seised of m one acre of land, enfeoff thereof his eldest daughter to hold of him and bis beirs by fealty and 12d. and the father dies, and the seigniory descends unto the two daughters; now the eldest daughter shall hold of her younger sister by fealty and 6d. Perk.

s. 656.

12. If a man feised of land in fee in right of his wife, and before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, the husband alone enfeoffs a stranger, without saying more, the feoffee shall hold of the husband by such services as the husband and his wife held over; for the husband alone did not hold over. busband and wife had joined in the feoffment, to hold of the husband, these words (to hold of the husband) are void. And the feoffee shall hold of the husband and wife by such services as they held over; so that if the husband dies, and the wife after his death accepts of the services from the seoffee, she shall not avoid the seoffment in a cui in vita. Perk. s. 660.

And if the kusband and wife bad joined in the feoffment, to bold of the wife without more faying, the feoffee shall hold of the husband and wite; so that if the wife dies, the feeffee shall bold of the bushand until the feeffment be avoided by the beir of the wife in a cui in vita, &c. and then the heir shall hold of the lord paramount. Perk. s. 660.

(G) What Tenure the Law will create without ex- [206] press Reservation.

[1. FEOFFEE before quia emptores should hold by the same And so should to fervices as feoffor held over. 45 E. 3. 15. b. 3 H. 6. 11. heirs of should the heirs of Co. Litt. 99. b.] the feoffee; but if the scottor himself holds over by knights service during his life and no longer, and that after his death his heirs shall hold by fealty only, or by other services, now the feoffee and his heirs shall hold of the feoffor and his heirs by like services, mutatis mutandis. Perk. s. 698.

[2. [So] feoffee of part, before the statute, should hold by the If before the statute fame services as feoffor, &c. 3 H. 6. 11.] emptores terrarum, there were 2 jointenants of lands or houses in fee, which they held by fealty, and 2 s. reat, or by fealty and a borse, and they enfeoff a stranger of the lands or houses to bold of one of them by feetly and 12 dol; the feoffee should hold the moiety of him by fealty and 12 d. because by the feoffment he did depart but with a moiety in right, and yet he shall have the whole rent which is reserved, notwithstanding that it be a severable rent, because it is reserved only to him, and he may well reserve the same unto him alone, notwithstanding that he joined in scoffment with his companion, &c. And the feasibe hall hold the other moiety of the other jointenant (to whom the reservation was not made) by fealty, and 12 d. rent, and he and his companion shall hold together the whole land over by 2 s. bethe rent is severable, and if they themselves hold the same land over by a horse, then it is faid, that the feoffee shall hold the same moiety of him by fealty and a horse. Tamen quære, because he was party unto the refervation made unto his companion, &c. But if the jointenants had enfooffed a franger to bold both of them, or of one of them, and expressed no services, they are void words, and the scottee shall hold of them as they held over. Perk. f. 652.

[3. [So] if before quia emptores, the senant by knight service For the tegranted the land tenendum per Id. for all services, & faciendo capisalibus dominis feodi divita servitia pro pradicto, though by the first service to words he should hold without more words by socage, yet by the last words he should hold by such services as he held over. 49 E. 3. 11. Curia.]

mant shall not do the the chief lord as for himself, but for the conufor, of

she fac by which the grant was made,] who is his melue, and so he holds of the melue immediately by those services; and therefore the issue taken was, whether the mesne held over of the lord paramount in chivalry, or in socage, and not whether the tenant [plaintiss] held of the defendant his mesne, in thivalry or in socage; quod nota. And per Persey, by this tenure, viz. faciend' servitia debita capitali domino, &c. he shall pay the rent, &c. to him for the mesne, but shall not do homage, sealty, &c. which are services corporal; for those shall be done by the mesne himself. Note the diversity. Br. Tenure, pl. 10. cites 49 E. 3. 10.

Perk. s. 635. S. P. of a fine by grant and render, and says, that in this case the conuse holds of the conusor by knight service, notwithstanding that he expressly says that he shall do the services capitalibus dominis; for by these words in this case he shall not hold de capitali domino, because there is a tenure before expressed in the sine, viz. by these words, reddendum inde ad sestum, &c. which words make a tenure of the conusor; so that if he shall hold de capitali domino, then he shall hold the land of two several lords, which the law will not suffer in this case. But if these words were not in the note of the sine, viz. reddendum inde ad sestum, viz. annuatim, &c. pro omnibus serviciis se ularibus & demandis, then by the other words the conuse ought to hold of the lord paramount by the like services as the conusor held, &c.

*[207]

Co. Litt.

[4. If a tenant gives in tail, donee shall hold by the same serLitt. s. p. vices as donor holds over. 1 H. 4. 2. 4 H. 6. 20. adjudged;
S. P. that for donor has the ward of the donee. Co. Litt. 23.]

† Co. Litt. 143. 2. S. P.

If he gives the tenancy in tail tenendum de capitalibus dominis, this tenendum is void, because that the law has made a tenure betwirt the donor and the donee, &c. And then if the tenendum should be good, he should hold the same land of 2 lords, which the law will not suffer; if not, that it be by matter of conclusion, &c. Perk. s. 637.——2 inst. 505. S. P.:

Lord, mesne, [5. So if a mesne gives the mesnalty in tail, the donce shall and tenant hold of him by the same services as he holds over. IH. 4. 3. b.] mesne acknowledged by fine surrender to hold in tail by 1d. and rendering to the lord the services doe. And by some, the tenant shall hold of the conusor, and shall not render the services, but only for the conusor, and not for himself; Quære. Br. Tenures, pl. 51. cites 21 E. 3. 49.

The reason why donee shall not hold by grand series find feries find the find by grand series find feries find for the find by grand series find feries find feries find for the find for t cause no man can hold by grand serjeanty but of the king only; and therefore since grand serjeanty includes knight service, he shall in this case hold of the donor by knight service. Co. Litt. 23. a.

Br. Tenures, [7. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant by knight service, and the pl. 10. cites S. C. per lord releases to the mesne to hold in socage, the law will alter the tenure of the tenant; for he also shall hold in socage [only]. quod Belk. omnino concessit.——So if the mesne releases to the tenant, the tenant shall hold per eadem servitia & consuctudines, as the mesne did. 2 Inst. 502.

As if the [8. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant by several services, and the tenant holds by 4d. and sives in tail, and after the donor due without issue, by which his his reversion escheats to the mesne; in this case the donee shall the mesne by hold as the meine holds over, and not as the donor held, because the mesnalty is now extinct. Co. Litt. 23.]

the tenant gives in tail without re-

a. fays, the donce thall

by knight

fervice, be-

serving any thing; so that he [the donce] holds by 4d. in respect of the tenure over, and after the reversion escheats, now donee shall hold by 12 d. For the mesnalty, which was 4 d. is extinct, and the law referved the tenure upon the gift in tail, in respect of the mesnalty; and when the mesnalty is extinct, the former rent between the donor and donee is extinct also; and then by the same reason that the donce shall take advantage, if the donor by release or confirmation had holden by lesser services, by the same reason he shall be prejudiced when he holds by greater services. Litt. 23. a.

[9. If a man seised in fee in right of his feme, tenant by knight Co. Litt. 23. service, gives it in tail, it seems that the donee shall hold this of him by knight service; for till the feme, or her heir, purges not hold of the discontinuance, the baron and his heirs shall hold it of the the baron lord paramount by knight service. Contra, Co. Litt. 23.] cause his wife held the land, and the baron had nothing but in her right; and in that case the baron had gained a reversion by wrong; and therefore such a donee shall do fealty only.

If husband seised of land in right of his wife, makes a seoffment in see, the seoffee shall hold as the wife held; for the husband had nothing but in her right. 2 Inft. 502.

[10. If tenant by knight service makes gift in tail, reserving fealty and rent, the donee shall hold in socage by scalty and rent. Co. Litt. 23.7

11. It seems, that if a man gives land pro homagio & servitiis to J. N. rendering 6d. that he shall render 6d. and fealty, but not bomage; for this does not come in reddendo. Br. Tenures, pl. 78. [208] cites 28 E. 3. Fitzh. Avowry, 141. Brooke says, quod quære; for it is not fo faid there.

12. If 2 jointenants were of land, and before the statute of quia emptores terrarum one of them infeoffs a stranger of what thereof belongs unto him, without reserving any thing, the seoffee shall hold of his feoffor, by the moiety of the services by which the feoffor and his joint companion held over, if they held over by several services, &c. And notwithstanding this feoffment the feoffor, and he, who was his joint companion, shall hold the same land over of their lord as they held before, so as the avowry of the lord is not altered by this feoffment. Perk. 1. 653,

What Tenure the Law will create upon Extinguishment of the Tenure.

[1.]F a mesnalty comes by escheat to the lord, the seigniory is extinct, and yet the lord shall hold by the same services as Co. Litt 99. b.] he held before.

2. If there are lord, three daughters mesnes, and tenant, and two of the daughter's release to the tenant or purchase of the tenant, there they two hold two parts of the lord paramount by extinguishment of the mesmalty, and the third part of the other fister; so that the lord shall make several avowries, and shall have several actions; and the the case of the release the tenant shall hold two parts

parts of the lord paramount, and the third part of the fifter who did not release. Br. Tenures, pl. 23. cites 36 H. 6. 7.

Litt. f. 140. S. P. and Coke, pag. 99. b. in his comment thereupon, fays, that hereby it appears that if the feigniory be transferred by act in law to a ftranger, and thereby the privity is altered, then the tenure in frankalmoin is turned to a

3. Lord, mesne, and tenant by frankalmoigne; the mesne dies without beir; the tenant shall hold of the lord by such services as the mesne held of the lord; because the lord cannot have the same services of the tenant as the mesne had; for service of frankalmoigne remains always in the blood of the donor, and no other can have them besides the donor and his heirs, &c. But if the lord can have the services which the mesne had before of the tenant, then he shall not have the same services as he had of the mesne before. 7 E. 4. 12. a. per Needham.

4. As if there are lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant is an abbot in jure ecclesiae, and holds of the mesne by 12d. and fealty, and the mesne holds over of the lord by 20s. &c. in this case if the mesne dies without heir, the tenant shall hold of the lord by 12d. only, because the lord is nearer to the land than he was before, and so may have the same services as the mesne had, &c. 7 E. 4. 12. 2. per Needham.

tenure in socage by sealty, and that this new tenure created by law shall, upon the escheat, drown the seigniory; for always the seigniory, nearer to the land, drowns the seigniory which is more remote off; and yet the lord in this case, to whom the meshalty is escheated, shall hold by the same services that he held before the escheat.

[209] (I) Of whom he shall hold. By express Reservation.

[1.] F at common law the tenant made feoffment tenendum de capitalibus dominis, he should not hold of the feoffor, but of the lord paramount. 4 H. 6. 20.]

[2. If tenant, fince donis conditionalibus, gives in tail tenendum de capitalibus dominis, yet he shall not hold of the lord paramount, but of the donor; for the donor has a reversion, and so a tenure incident thereto, and therefore shall not hold of both. 4 H.6.

seised of two manors in see, and held them of the king in chivalry in capite, and bad iffue A. and B. and leased the maner to C. for term of his own life, and the remainder to B. his younger son, in tail tenendam de capitali domino; the remainder to the right beirs of the donor. And the donor died; and the remainder descended to A. the eldest son, and B. the youngest son entered as in his remainder; and the king was always feifed of the ferwices by the hands of A. and not by the hands of B. And afterwards B. died, H. bis fon within age; and it was found by false office, that B. was seised in fee, and held of the king in chief, and died seised his heir within age. And came A. the eldes son, and traversed the office for this matter. And it was demurred for the king; and after great argument it was awarded, that the hands of the king should be amoved, and that A. should be restored to the ward; for it was agreed, that this remainder to the right heirs of R. the donor, is only a reverfion; for the fee was never out of him. And where the king has a very tenant in fee-fimple, so long as the fee is not out of him, so long he rests tenant of the king; and he swall have the escheat of him, if he he attainted of selony; and also the king cannot have two several tenures of one and the same land, simul & semel, that is to say, one of the donor and another of the donce; and therefore if the donce shall be immediately tenant to the king, then the donor shall hold of none; which is not so, but the donce shall hold of the doner, and the denor of the king, ut ante donum. And per Haul and June; at the first it was in the election of the king to have elected the donor or the donce for his tenant; but where by the acceptance of the king of the services by the hands of the heir of the donor, he shall hold of him. But the judgment was as above; therefore Brooke says, it seems to him that this opinion is not law. Br. Tenures, pl. 21. cites 4 H. 5. 20.

Where there is lord and terant of chivalry, or otherwise, and the tenant infers N. who gives to the son of the tenant in tail tenendum de capitali domino, and the dones dies, the iffice hall hold it of his donor, and he over of the lord; but the issue in tail, nor the tenant in tail, thall not hold of the lord.

tord immediately; quod nota, per Danby Ch. J. for clear law, and so is 4 H. 6. But Littleton makes a doubt, because no notice was given to the lord of the seoffment. Br. Tenures, pl. 37. cites 2 E. 4 6.

[3. So if the tenant of the king gives in tail tenendum de capi-• This talibus dominis, yet he shall hold of the donor, and not of the king; for the faid words are void. 4 H. 6. * 41. b. CHAM- there being PERNOUN'S case adjudged.]

seems to be milprinted, no fuch page, and should be 4 H. 6. 20. b. Br. Tenures, pl. 22. cites S. C. accordingly, that those words, if referred to the donce, are void; but where gift is made in tail, the remainder over in fee, there the tenant in tail shall hold of the chief lord. Note the diversity. Per Cheyney and Martin, justices.

If the tenant of the king gives in tail, and the tenant in tail dies seised, the king shall not have any thing thereby; for the tenant in tail bolds of bis donor, and the king may receive the rent and services of the donor by the hands of the tenant in tail, and yet he holds of the donor. Per Wood, Keble, and Tremaile, J. quoci affirmatur per omnes. Br. Tenures, pl. 96. cites 4 H. 7. 16.

[4. At the common law, before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, if a man had granted land to hold of his heirs, it would be a void refervation to his heirs, and the law would create a tenure of himself, as he held over. Co. Litt. 99. b.]

See Refervation (C), pl. 4.

[5. If lands held of a common person come to the king by escheat by attainder of the tenant of treason, and the king grants those lands to another by these words, tenendum de capitali domino per servitia debita & confueta, they shall be held of the chief lords as they were before, and not of the king. + 33 H. 6. 7. by Prisot. Co. 6. Molyns, 6. Resolved.

† Br. Tenures, pl. 3. cites S. C. -----S. C. cited and relied strongly on, per Cur. 6 Rep. 6. a. in Molyns's case, and says, that with this accords 8 E. 3. 283. And as to the case of 27 H. 8. [which is 1 ac Br. Parliament, pl. 77. and is in at tit. Statutes (E. 8) pl. 2. and at pl. 9. below] it was answered and resolved, that that case was not like to this case, for a saving cannot save that which is not in esse; but in the said book (of 27 H. 8.) it is further said, vis. that (here are not words of gift or reviving); but that here in the case at bar, (vis. Molyns's case,) the grant of the king amounts in judgment of law to a reviving of the ancient seignioty. Hill. 40 Eliz. in Scaccario. ————S. C. of Molyns, cited 8 Rep. 77. a. and affirmed for good law. 1[210]

[6. If the king lord, B. mesne, and C. tenant, are of a manor, and the tenant is attainted of treason, and office is found thereof, and after the king grants the manor to J. S. in fee tenendum de nobis beredibus & successoribus nostris, & aliis capitalibus dominis feodi illius per servitia inde debita & de jure consueta; this shall revive the tenure of the mesne, and of the king as lord paramount. Co. 6. MOLTHS, 5. b. 6. Resolved.]

This case was affirmed for clear law. 9 Rep. 131.a. Trin. 9 Jac. in the court of wards, in Bewley's case, which see infra, pl. 20. 'So if the king be lord, A. mefne, C. mefne, and D. tenant, and the tenancy comes to the hands of the king by forfeiture or conveyance, the king grants the lands to another in fee, (tenend' de capitali domino per fervitie debite, & consucta,) this grant shall revive not only the immediate tenure of C. but of A. and of the king also; albeit the tenend' de capitali domino be in the fiagular number, (as the statute (peaks,) yet it is as much as capitalibus dominis. 2 lnfl. 501, 502,

[7. But in the faid case, if the king grants the land to J. S. tenendum de nobis, this shall not revive the tenure of the mesne. but he shall hold of the king only. Co. 6. MOLYNS, 6.]

[8. If the king purchases land beld of other lords, all the seigniories by this are extinct; and if the king afterwards grants the land

land to another to hold of him, he shall hold only of the king. 47 E. 3. 21. b.]

See supra, pl. 5, 6. in the notes.— If the king has a tenancy by forfeiture or purchase, covin alien them to hold

[9. If the king has land by forfeiture of treason, by this all tenures are extinct as well of the king as of others; and if this land be after given to another by parliament, saving to all others their rights, rents, services, &c. there the seigniories of common perfons are not revived. 27 H. 8. Brook. Parliament. 74. Br. if he does by N. C.] 27 H. 8. f. 92. Davies's Proxies, 4. because the saving cannot fave that which is not in esse.]

of himself, the lord may sue by petition, and have a scire facias against the patentee to repeal the patent and to reseise the land, and then it shall be granted tenendum de capitali domino. F. N. B. 159. (A) in the new notes there (c) cites 20 Ass. 124. 46 E. 3. Petition, 19. 17 E. 3. 59. but says it is in. sended of an alienation in fee, and cites 3 E. 3. 10.

> 10. A. acknowledged to B. by fine for term of his life tenendum de capitali domino; and the fine was rejected by reason of the reversion in the conusor. But it was received tenendum of the conufor, and rendering to the chief lord the service due for the comisor, quod nota, and not for himself. Br. Tenures, pl. 67. cites 14 E. 3. and Fitzh. Fine, 55.

> 11. Fine was levied to A. to hold of the donor in chivalry, the remainder to B. in tail to hold of the donor by the 12th part of a knight's fee, and doing to the chief lord the service due for the donor; and it was received; for then the donee shall make 2 escuages, one to the donor, and another to the chief lord for the donor; and therefore these words (doing to the chief lord) were ousted, &c. and see there that the tenant for life may hold by one service, and he in remainder by another service. Br. Tenures, pl. 68. cites

> 19 E. 3. and Fitzh. Fine, 71. 12. If there were lord, mesne, and tenant, and before the statute the tenant infeoffs a stranger of the tenancy, to bold of the lord paramount, the same is void. But if the feoffment were made to hold of the mesne, it were good; and he shall hold of him by the same services, which the feoffor held of the mesne; but the tenant cannot make a new tenure between his mesne and his feoffee by new fervices; for to the services reserved, the mesne is a stranger. And if the tenant had enfeoffed a stranger, before the statute, &c. to hold of him and the mesne, the seossee should have holden only of his feoffor. Perk. s. 667. cites T. 7 E. 4. 11. and P. 2 E. 4. 5.

13. And if the tenant before the statute had enfeoffed J. S. to hold of the mesne and T. K., the seossee should have holden only of the meine. Perk. f. 668.

- 14. If before the statute there had been a woman seignioress, and tenant, and the woman had taken husband, and the tenant enfcoffed a stranger to hold of the husband, it is a void terure, and the feoffee shall hold of his feoffor, &c. Perk. 1. 568.
- 15. And if there had been 2 joint lords and tenant, and before the statute the tenant had enfooffed a stranger to bold of bim, and one of the joint lords, it is a void tenure, and the feoffee should hold of his feoffor. Perk. f. 668.

16. If lord and tenant had been before the statute of 2 acres of land, and the tenant had thereof enfeoffed a stranger to hold one acre of the lord paramount, and to hold the other acre of himself, joint tenants, the same is good, &c. Perk. s. 670.

So if there had been lord and 2 before the statute, &c.

and they had enfeoffed a stranger, and one of them had assigned the seoffee to hold of the lord paramounts and the other had affigued the feoffee to hold of himself, &c. the same had been good, &c. Perk. l. 669.

17. If lord and tenant had been before the statute, &c. and the lord granted bis seigniory unto a stranger, and the tenant enfeoffed another stranger to hold of the grantee of the lord, the same had amounted unto an attornment, and also to make a new tenure; and yet the grantee is a stranger unto the reservation of the seigniory between the grantor and the tenant. But as to that, it may be said, that there is a privity by matter en fait, viz. by the grant with the attornment; and so it shall be, notwithstanding the lord had granted it unto the use of the grantor, &c. And the same law is where a mefualty escheats, mutatis mutandis. Perk. s. 669.

18. If the feoffor, &c. or donor, &c. or lessor for life, had referved unto him upon the feoffment before the statute; or had reserved unto him upon the gift or lease, after the said statute, knights service, or fealty, and 10 s. or a borse, &c. and dies, his beir shall have only fealty; because the reservation does not extend unto the heir of the feoffor, donor, or lessor. Perk. £ 699.

19. Tenant for life and tenant in tail are not wholly excluded out of the statute of quia emptores, &c. cap. 3. by force of the words there (in feodo simplici); for where the whole fee simple passes out of the seossor, there this act extends to estates for life and in tail, as if an estate for life or in tail be made of land, the remainder in fee, there then tenent for life or in tail shall hold de capitali domino by force of this act; but otherwise it is when a reversion remains in the donor or lessor. For if a man at this day make gift in tail, tenend' de capitalibus dominis feodi, &c. these words are void, and he shall hold of the donor. 2 Inst. 505.

20. Tenant was attainted of treason, and his manor, &c. forseited to E. 2. who granted the same to J. S. in see, tenendum de nobis, & hæredibus nostris per servitium feodi militis in perpetuum, and 10 l. rent, et faciendo aliis capitalibus dominis feodi illius, si qui fuerint, redditus & servitia inde debita antequam ad manus nostras taliter devenerunt, salvis nobis & hæredibus nostris feedis militum, &c. Resolved by the 2 chief justices, and chief baron, that the tenure of the meine is revived, notwithstanding the king first of all referred to himself other services, viz. knight service, where the mesne before the attainder held of the king in focage; and though the king has referved other rent, yet because * the King, for his honour, &c. expressly intends to revive the meanalty, (which by the tenant's attainder was extinct, according to the rigour of law), the clause of revivor VOL. XX.

[212] Ibid. 131. the reporter Gites 2 E. 3. 33. or 60. b. 8 E. 3. 283. 17 E. 3. 59. b. 25 E. 3. 46. 46 E. 3. tit. Petition, 19. 49 £. 3. 10. 12 Aff. 53. 31 Ast. 30. 4 H. 6. 20. 33 H. 6. 7. And thys, gota upon the said shall be construed to precede, and the restitution of an ancient right shall be preferred. 9 Rep. 130. b. 131. Trin. 9 Jac. tween erein the Court of Wards. Bewley's case.

ation of a new tenure without any aspect to an ancient right, for there the first reservation shall stand and between restitution of an ancient tenure; for this shall be preserved before the reservation which is mentioned first. Nota a good diversity.

- Soe (F. 2) (K) Upon what Reservation [the Tenure] shall be by Knight Service of the King, and where without Reservation. Tenure by Knight Service of the King.
- *Br. Te [I.] F the king grants land and referves no manner of thing, nor aures, pl. 3.

 If the king grants land and referves no manner of thing, nor set the end.

 S. P. cites be adjudged by knight service. *33 H. 6. 7. by Prisot. Co. 9.

 S. C. Lowe, 123.]
- Br. Tenures, pl. 7. the services due and accustomable, this shall be a tenure by knight cites 44 E. service; for it shall be by the services which are most for the king's advantage, scilicet, by knight service. 44 Ass. 22. by all the justices adjudged. 44 E. 3. 45.]

† Br. Te- [3. So if the king leases for life a farm of a vill, and after con Bures, pl. 7. firms to him in fee to hold, per servitia inde debita & consueta, it shall be by the services which are most for the king's advantage, that is to say, by knight service. 44 Ass. 22. adjudged

† 44 E. 3. 45.]

So where the king grants land, and referves 10 s. rent a year, and does not mention how it shall be held, it shall be held by socage, in dands tenen-dum de no

H. 6. 7.]

1 Br. Te- [5. If the king grants land absque aliquo inde reddendo, yet he nurse, pl. 3. shall hold by knight service. Co. 9. Lowe, 123. ‡ 33 H. Dut Brooke 6. 7. by Prisot.]

hoc.—But it was resolved, that by operation of law, it shall be held of the king in capite by knight service, according to the rate and proportion of the land which belongs to a knight's see: and the principal case is more strong, because the king, upon the grant of the services, limited the tenure to be by sealty only for all services, exactions, and demands. 9 Rep. 123. b. Trim. 7 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Anthony Low's case.

[6. The beginning of a manor was, when the king gave 1000 acres of land, or a greater or lesser parcel of land unto one of his subjects,

Subjects, and his heirs, to hold of him and his heirs, which tenure is knight service at least. Perk. s. 670.

(L) Tenure in Capite. What Person may create it.

[1. A Count palatine, who has jura regalia granted to him, See (M) may create a tenure in capite to hold of himself; for by pl. 4. the grant it is in a manner disjoined from the crown and out of the king, (and he is made a petty king.) Da. 1. County Palatine, 62. 66.]

[2. But it seems the king cannot grant such power to a particular man, without granting such royal furisdiction as the count has.]

[3. It appears that land was held of the earl of Chefter in capite. D. 13 El. 303. 19 El. 359.]

[4. So land was held of the Bishop of Durham in capite. D. 277.

10 El. 277. 57.]

[5. But a tenure in capite cannot be created by a subject who is Tenure in merely in condition of a subject, and has no such power granted to bim. Da. 1. 66. b. D. 30 H. 3. 44.]

capite is only of the person of the met where he holds of him as of an honour, manor, castle, &c. unless of certain ancient honours as appears in the Exchequer, and likewise how a man shall hold of the king, and of the ancient lord by recovery by default in præcipe in capite, where the land is not held of the king in fact, and this by reason of the conclusion. Br. Tenures, pl. 65. cites F. N. B. fol. 5. - Br. Tenures, pl. 99. cites S. C.

No tenure created by a subject, though it be a tenure in gross of his person, can by any possibility grow or aspire to be a tenure in capite of the king. And therefore if the prince or other subject create such tenure of his person, and after is made king, this does not become tenure in chief. Arg. Dav. Rep. 59. a. in the case of the county palatine of Wexford.

[6. As the prince cannot create a tenure in capite. D. 30 See (L. 2) H. 8. 44.]

[7. Land cannot be held of the duke of Cornwall in chief by knight service. P. 9 H. 5. B. R. Rot. 85. admitted. Contra 43 Aff. 15. admitted.]

(L. 2) * What shall be said a Tenure in Capite.

[1. A Man may hold of the king in capite as of an bonour, which was the ancient inheritance of the crown; this appears by the writ founded upon the statute of 1 E. 3. cap. 12, 13. quod vide Fitz. Na. 175. a. where Fitzherbert observes this accordingly. It seems the reason is, because by prescription the tenements held of those ancient honours have used to draw the Same prerogative as other tenures in capite.]

See (A. 2). * Tenure in capite ex. is a tenure in gross, and it may be holden of a subject; but being spoken generally, it is fecundum excellentiam intended of the king; for he is caput reipublicae. Co. Litt. 73. a. Regularly a tenure of the king, as of his person, is a tenure in capite, so called propter excellentiam, because the head is the principal part of the body, and he that holds of any common person as of his person, he in truth holds in capite; but again, propter excellentiam, it is only in common under-Manading applied to the king, and that a seigniory of a common person is talled a tenure in gross, that is, by stfelf, and not linked or tied to any manor, &cc. Co. Litt. 108. a.

Br. Te- [2. If a man holds of the king as of his crown of the honour of nures, pl. 61. Berkhamstead, this is a tenure in chief. 21 E. 3. 41. b.]

Ward the prince counted that a man held of the king in chivalry as of his crown, of the honour of Berkhamstead by service of chivalry; and that the king had given the same honour to him and his heirs kings of England, &c. Brooke says, that so it seems that some benour may be beld in capite. And yet see Magna Charta, that all honours are not in capite; for it is not properly in capite, but where he holds of the king as of his person, and not of the manor or honour.——S. C. cited Arg. Dav. Rep. 59. a. in the case of the county palatine of Wexford, that the prince shall not have the prerogative of capite tenure during the life of the king.

An bonour is the most noble seigniory of all others, and originally created by the king, but may afterwards be granted to others. Co. Litt. 108. a.

It is a tenure in capite, and by knights fervice; and it may be that in ancient time

[3. [So] if a man holds of the king as of his honour of H. by the fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
the fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
the fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
the fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a
tenure in cathe fervice of render of 10 s. ad Wardam Castri Dover, this was a tenure in castri Dover, this was a tenure in castri Dover, the fervice of the fervi

he should guard the castle; and that now the king has taken the rent for the same, and yet the taking the sent does not alter the nature of the tenure. Quære. F. N. B. 256. (A)

. A manor was held per redditum 8 s. 1 d. ad Wardam Castri de Dower, &cc. Resolved that this is a socage tenure. Litt. Rep. 47. Trin. 3 Car. C. B. Stevens v. Holmes.

[4. In time of E. 2. a man held of the king in capite ut de honore Abbathiæ Maria. This appears by the writ in Fitz. Na. 256. 2.] [5. There are 4 honours, of which land being holden, they are te-Some honours be in nures in capite, that is to fay, they shall sue livery, and the king capite, as shall have the same prerogatives by them as by other tenures in part of Peverel, and of chief of his person, and those are Bononia, Haggonett, * Peverell, others. Br. and parcel of Dover, and the course of the Court of Wards is Livery, pl. agreeing herewith for those at this day. Co. Litt. 77. for all ex-48. cites 29 cept Dover. But there is mentioned also the honour of + Ralegh; H. 8, * It was but see 34 H. 8. s. 330. Brook cites 3 E. 3. Rot. 2. in the held ac-Exchequer, that this is not tenure in chief.] cordingly. Ley. 52.

Trin. 17 Jac. in the Court of Wards in Churche's CASE, for the manor of Wood Mortimer in Essex; and there said that this honour of Peverel (there called Penerel) was called and known by the several names of Hatfield Powerell, sometimes Pewerel London, and sometimes the bonour of Hatfield Proceed of London; but that all was in truth but one honour, and not diverse.

It was found that a man held of the king in chivalry in capite, as of his bonour of Raylegh; and it was taken to be no tenure in capite, but tenure of the koncur; and therefore the heir shall have outer le main of his other lands, which should not be if it had been in capite; for then the king should have all in ward by his prerogative. Br. Tenures, pl. 94. cites 3 E. 3. Rot. 2. in the Exchequer. And such another matter there 5 H. 6. Ro. 4. Ex parte rememb' thesaurarii; but otherwise it is, if the bonour be annexed to the crown; for then the bonour is in capite. And anno 12 H. 7. the honour of Raylegh was annexed to the crown, therefore now this is in capite. But where the king gives land to hold of him by fealty, and 2 d. pro annibus servitiis, this is socage in capite; for it is of the person of the king. Contra if it was to hold as of the manor of B. note the difference. Br. Tenures, pl. 94-eites 33 H. 8.

There is a manifest which is a county palatine. Co. Litt. 77.]

[7. If a man holds of the king, as of his principality of Wales, by the ‡ service of going into the war of the prince at the charges of the prince, this is not any tenure in chief. § D. 17, 18 El. 344. 3.]

principality of Wales, 17 El. 3. 45. 2. and the case of the county palatine; for where before the subjection of Wales to the crown of England, a man held land of the prince of Wales by service to go in his war; this was not tenure of which the common law could take notice; for this principality of Wales was not governed by the common law, but was a deminion by itjelf, and had its proper laws and customs: and for this reason when this country was reduced under the subjection of the crown of England, such tenure as was of the prince of Wales, could not become a capite tenure of the king of England. But every county palatine, as well in Ireland as in England, was originally parcel of the Same realm, and derived from the crown, and was always governed by the laws of England, and the lands there were held by services and tenures, of which the common law took notice, though the I lord had a several jurisdiction and seigniory separate from the crown; and therefore the tenure in capite of the county palatine, is of the same nature with the tenure in capite of the king, and so being come to the crown, shall be tenure in chief of the king, as it was before of the county palatine. And the reason of this difference appears fully in 19 H. 6. 12. Resolved per Cur. Dav. Rep. 67. a. Trin. 9 Jac. in the Exchequer, the case of the county palatine of Wexford.

6 D. 344. b. 345. Ap. David's case. _____S. C. cited D. 359. b. Marg. pl. 3. and that it was only a mesne tenure _____S. C. cited Arg. Dav. Rep. 59. b. in the case of the county palatine of Wexford. And lays, see the statute of Magna Charta, cap. 32. and the book of 28 H. 6. 11. b.

to this purpole.

[8. If the king grants land to-hold of any of those ancient honours by knight service, and not in capite, this is a tenure as of the honour, and not a tenure in capite. Master Cholmley said that this was one CLARK's case, in the Court of Wards. 7 Car. so resolved per Curiam.]

7. Pasch. 7 Jac. [and not 7 Car. feems to be S. C. and it was found that the land was held of the honour of Peverel by knight service, and not in capite; and the doubt was, because it appears 29 H. 8. Br. Livery, 58. that but part of Peverel is in capite; whereupon the chief justices and chief baron assistants resolved that it was a mean tenure by knight service; for the express finding it not to be in capite, imports the land to be parcel of that part of the honour of Peverel which is no parcel of the old honour of Peverel; and it was decreed accordingly.

*[215]

Ley's Rep.

[9. If a man holds of a common person, as of an honour or manor by knight service, and this honcur or manor comes to the king by † escheat, that is to say, attainder, &c. or by purchase, or the like, he shall hold of the king, as of the honour and manor as besore, and shall not hold in chief. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 27. Palatine, 63. Magna Charta, cap. 31. 1 El. 168. 18 D. ‡ 29 H. 8. s. 113.]

It feems this is not tenure in chief commenced in ancient times upon the grants of the king to defend their persons, and their crown and royalty against enemies and rebels. D. 44. pl. 28. Gilbert's cale.

† Co. Litt. 108. a. S. P. I Br. Tenures, pl. 61. cites 29 H. 8. S. C. Br. Livery, pl. 57. cites S. C.

[10. If the king gives land to hold of him, as of an honour or It is all one manor, which is not any of the ancient honours, this is not a tenure in capite. D. 30 H. 8. s. 113.]

where the king gives land tenendum de s bis ut de manerio, &c. in capite, and where the words are transposed, viz. de nobis in capite ut de maserie, &c. For when in the beginning or end it is expressly limited to be held ut de manerio, the tenure of the person is abundant. 12 Rep. 135. Estwick's case. - This was held as a mesne tenure. and not a tenure in capite. Ibid. 136. cites baron Luke's case.

[11. A tenure in capite ought to commence and take its original creation by the king himself, and not by any subject. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 29. [30.] for this tenure, which is created by a subject, cannot by any means after be a tenure in chief.]

[12. A tenure in capite is a tenure of the king as of his crown, And not that is, as he is king, and of his person. Co. Litt. 108.] when it is holden of the king, as of any honour, castle, manor, &c. Co. Litt. 108. a.F. N. B. 5. (K) accordingly, and that because the writ of right, in such case of its being held of an honour, &cc. shall be directed unto the bailist of the honour or castle, or manor to do right. But when the lands are held of the king as of his crown, they are not held of any manor, castle, or honour, but merely of the king as king, and of the king's crown as of a seigniory by itself in gross, and in chief above all other seigniories.———D. 44. b. Mich. 30 H. 8. pl. 44. S. P. GILBERT's case; and that if writ of right be brought of lands held of the king in chief, the writ shall be directed to the sheriff.

S. P. Arg. [13. If a man holds of a common person in gross, as of his person, Dav. Rep. and this seigniory escheats to the king (though it be by attainder of treason) he holdeth [of the] person of the king, yet he doth not hold in capite, because the original tenure was not created by lating of wexford.

Co. Litt. 108.]

[216.7 114. If the king purchases a manor, of which J. S. holds in chivalry; and after the king grants over the manor to J. D. excepting Br. Te-. nures, pl. 61. the services of J. S. Now J. S. holds of the king as of his percites 29 H. fon, yet he shall not hold in capite, that is to say, to subject him 8. S. C. to the prerogative of the king of a capite tenure, but shall hold as S. C. cited Arg. Dav. he held before; for the act of the king shall not prejudice the te-Rep. 59. 2. in the case nant. 29 H. 8. s. 113. of the county palatine of Wexford.

S. C. cited [15. If the prince, before quia emptores terrarum, had created a Arg. Dav. Rep. 59. a. tenure of his person, and after had been made king; yet this is not in the case a tenure in capite, because in the creation it was not a tenure of the country palatine in capite. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 30. [31.]

Yet the [16. If the king, lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the mesne seigniory is bolds of the king in capite, and after the mesne dies without beir, or is attaint of felony, or dies, and the king is heir to him, or ty is come the king purchases the mesnalty, yet the tenant shall not hold in the chief, because this tenure was not derived from the crown, but by a mesne. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 30. [31.]

pl. 169.

29 Eliz. in the Exchequer, the Bishop of London's case. The mesne held in chief, and the tenant by knight's service, and the manor escheated by attainder. The question was, if the tenancy should be holden in chief. Manwood said, it had been held, that no tenure in capite may be, unless by creation of the king.——2 Le. 214. pl. 347. Mich. 29 Eliz. S. C. in almost the same words.

[17. If the king at this day gives land in tail, to bold of him in eapite, this tenure is a tenure in capite of the person of the king, and not incident to the reversion, nor shall pass by grant of the reversion. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 35. [36.]

He that 18. Magna Charta, cap. 31. If any man hold of any escheat, as holds of the of the honour of Walling ford, Nottingham, Boloin, or of any hold of the other escheats which be in our hands, and are baronies, and die, his person of heir shall give none other relief, nor do no other service to us than he the king, and not of should to the baron, if it were in the baron's hand.

any honor, And we in the same wise shall hold it as the baron held it; neither barony, ma- shall we have, by occasion of any barony or escheat, any escheat or keepmor, or ing of any of our men, unless he that held the barony or escheat othermed it ap- wise held of us in chief.

pears farther in our books, that be that be'ds of the king in chief, muß not only hold of the perfect of the king, but the tenure suff be ereated by the king, or some one of the progenitors, or predecessors, kings of this realm, to defend his person and crown, otherwise he shall have no prerogative by reason of it; for no prerogative can be annexed to a tenure created by a subject. Note, here is not named the honour of Lancaster, which was an ancient honour ever since the Conquest, which E. 3. raised to a county palatine, as in the 4 part of the Institutes, cap. Duch. of Lancaster, appears. 2 Inst. 64. cites 28 H. 6. 11.

per touts les justices. I E. 6. Bro. Trav. 53. Stamford. Prerog. 29. b.

This is intended of common elebeats. Br. Livery, &cc. pl. 58. cites 29 H. 8.—Lord Coke fays, fome question has been made of these words; for some have said, that these words are to be understood of common escheats, as where the lord dies without beir, or where he is attainted of felony. But where the lord is attainted of high treason, there the king has the land by sorfeiture of whomsoever the land is held, and not in respect of any escheat by reason of any seigniory. And therefore where William Riparave, a Norman, held lands in see of the king, as of the honour of Peverell, and Riparave forfeited his said land for treason, and the king seised it as his escheat of Normandy. In this case the land so forfeited was no part of the honour, as it should have been, if it had come to the king as a common escheat; for it comes to the king by reason of his person and crown, and therefore if he grant it over, &cc. the patentee shall hold it of the king in chief, and not of the honour. And all this is to be agreed; but yet the tenants that held before of the honour by knights service, cannot hold of the king in chief.

1. For that they hold not of the person of the king, but of the honour.

2. Because the tenure was not created by the king, or any of his progenitors, as has been said.

2 Inst. 64, 65.

And so does Bracton, who wrote soon after the statute, expound this great charter to extend to forseiture of baronies for treason, as of the Normans. 2 Inst. 65.

And yet, to make an end of all ambiguities and questions, the statute of z Ed. 6. was made, which is, as the words be, a plain declaration and resolution of the common law. Likewise the statute of z + E. 3. which provides, that where the land that is holden of the king, as of an honour, is aliened without licence, no man shall be thereby grieved, is also a declaration of the common law. 2 last. 65.

. By this chapter it appears, that a subject may have an honour. 2 Inst. 65.

+[217]

19. Complaint was made at the second parliament in anno 1 E. 3. as appears cap. 13. that lands, held of the king as of honours, were seised for sines for alienation, as well as if they had been held in capite, by which the king wills, that such seisures afterwards shall not be made. Brooke says, and so see that such tenure is not in capite. Br. Tenures, pl. 100.

20. In affise the plaint was of an office, viz. that he held the usbery of the Exchequer, whereof the serjeanty of C. B. is parcel, in chief of our lord the king. Br. Tenures, pl. 25. cites 8 Ass. 7. Brooke says, quod nota, an office held in capite.

21. It is admitted, that a man may hold of the king in capite in facage as well as in chivalry; and so is the law at this day clear.

Br. Tenures, pl. 46. cites 47 E. 3. 26.

22. Note per Bromley, that it is held, that if [it be found that] a man holds of the king of his duchy of Lancaster, per que servicia juratores ignorant, it shall be taken as service of chivalry in capite as in other cases of the king; for duchy land given by the king passes from the king by livery of seisin, and shall be as it had been in manibus ducis. Br. Tenures, pl. 1. 'cites 26 H. 8. 9.

23. The king may create a tenure of him in chief, if he reserves it to his person and as a service in gross; but if he reserves the tenure as of his manor, honour, or castle, this clearly is no tenure in chief; for the services are regardant to the manor, honour, or castle, and not relating to the king's person. D. 44. pl. 20.

Mich. 30 H. 8. Gilbert's case.

24. Grand serjeanty is tenure in chief; for such tenure is of none but the king. D. 44. b. pl. 30. Mich. 31 H. 8.

25. 🐧

25. A tenure of the king as of his honour of Gloucester, whereof two parts came to the king by descent or purchase, and the third part by the attainder of the late duke of Buckingham, shall not be accounted a tenure in chief of the king, as of his person, nor shall give prerogative of other lands to the king. D. 58. pl. 6. Trin. 36 H. 8. says, it was so decreed in the case of the heir of ARTHUR DE CLOPTON, who was in ward to the king, by reason of the said tenure by service of chivalry ut de honore, as above.

This branch 26. 2 E. 6. cap. 8. enacts, that where an office is found by has been by these words, or the like, Quod de quo vel de quibus tenementa pounded, for prædicta tenentur, juratores præd' ignorant, or sind them holden of if the first the king, but per quæ servitia ignorant, &c. it shall not be taken office find a for an immediate tenure of the king in chief, but in such cases melius tenure of inquirendum to be awarded, as has been accustomed of old time, quæservitia,

&c. yet if, upon the melius inquirendum, the tenure be found of a subject, the sirst office has lost his force per sensum hujus statuti, and need not be traversed; and the melius, &c. is in nature of the diem clausit extremum, or mandamus, &c. And this was but a declaration of the ancient common law, as by the words of the statute (as has been accustomed of old) it appears; but if, upon the melius, it be found again as uncertainly as before is said, then it is in judgment of law a tenure in capite; and so it was before the making of this act, and so are the books that speak hereof, to be intended. But if, upon the melius, a tenure be found of the king ut de manerio per quæ servitia, &c. it shall be taken for knight service. Co. Litt. 77. b.

Co. Litt. 27. Of ancient time every earldom and barony were holden 83. b S. P. of the king in capite. 2 Inst. 7.

fays, it was fo at and before the statute of Magna Charta, cap. 20. and that the king would not suffer them to be divided or severed; but that at this day earls and barons are without such earldoms and baronies of the king in chief.

[218] 28. The queen made a feoffment of lands of the duchy out of the county palatine to hold of her in capite; the feoffee shall hold of her in capite as of her crown of England. Per Egerton Solicitor Gen. Arg. 2 Le. 151. pl. 184. in case of the lord Howard v. the town of Waldon. Cites 4 Eliz. Pl. C. 223. at the end of the duchy case.

19. A man seised of land held in capite of the king before the statute of quia emptores terrarum enseoffed one J. S. of part of the demession see, without saying any thing more. The seoffee enseoffed another to hold of the seoffer and his heirs by the rent of 1 l. 6 s. 8 d. a year pro omnibus servitiis & demandis. This land clearly is not held in capite, and the first mesnalty is held of the seoffer, as of the manor by service of chivalry. D. 299. b. pl. 33. Pasch. 13 Eliz. Ancn.

4 Le. pl. 80. pl. 169. S. C. in almost the same words.

30. If before the statute of Westminster 3, the king's tenant in capite had made a seossment to hold of him, so as now there is lord, mesne, and tenant, and afterwards the mesnalty came to the crown by attainder, &cc. If by the coming of the mesnalty to the crown, the seigniory paramount be extinct, then the tenancy is not holden in capite; but if the mesnalty be drowned in the seigniory it is otherwise. Some held that there was a difference where the mesnalty comes to the seigniory, and where the seigniory comes

comes to the mesnalty; by Manwood Ch. Baron. 4 Le. 314. pl. 347. Mich. 29 Eliz. in the Exchequer. The bishop of London's case. —But there is added a quære.

31. Certain lands called S. were holden of the manor of P. by rent and suit of court; P. was holden of the manor of G. by rent and fuit of court; the manor of G. came to the crown by the Statute of dissolutions; the king H. 8. granted the manor of G. to J. S. and his heirs, to hold by knight service in capite: B. purchased the manor of G. and afterwards he purchased the moiety of the manor of P. and the lands called S. Afterwards B. died, and the lands purchased by him descended to his son, who purchased the other moiety of P. and afterwards enfeoffed C. of the lands called S. It was resolved in this case, that the lands called S. were held in capite by one intire knights fee. Mo. 729. pl. 1015. Pasch. 38 Eliz. Resolved by Popham and Anderson Ch. J. Creswell's case.

- 32. It was found upon a diem clausit, &c. that J. S. held Bl. Acre of A. and also Wb. Acre of. Q. Eliz. as of her manor of V. by fealty and 3 s. rent, but per que alia servitia ignorant. Upon a melius inquirendum, it was found, that J. S. held Wh. Acre of the late queen by knight service. Hobart Ch. J. and Tansield Ch. B. resolved, that Wh. Acre upon both the inquisitions should not be construed to be held of the late queen by knight service in capite, but only by knight service, as of a mesne tenure, as of her manor of V. and decreed accordingly. Ley, 50, 51. Trin. 13 Jac. French's case.
- 33. It was found by inquisition, that J. S. died seised of certain land, et quod tenentur de domino rege ut de uno grosso, per vigesimam partem unius feodi militis. This was ruled by Hobart Ch. J. and the Ch. Baron, absente the Ch. Justice, to be a tenure by knight service in chief. All tenures in chief are in gross, and the words (ut de uno groffo) are scarce of any sense, but of no certain sense at all in law, and so stand as void. Hob. 90. pl. 123. Hill. 13 Jac. Spathurst's case.

Jenk. 298. Pl. 57. a tenure of the king per servitium militare in grofs is a tenure in gross.-An office found, quod tenet de domina regina per servitium militare, generally, and Brooke, Saunders, Griffin Attorney, Stamford and Dyer, thought it ought to be traversed, in as much as it shall be intended the best for the queen, viz. a tenure in chief. D. 161. b. 162. pl. 47. Anon.

- In what Cases the Law will create a Tenure in [219] Capite without Reservation. Of whom.
- [1. T F the king grants land without expressing any service, this is in capite. 29 H. 8. s. 113.]

[2. If the king grants land to hold of his person, this is in capite.]

[3. So if he grants to hold of him, this is of his person, and fo in capite. 29 H. 8. 113. Da. 1. 66. b.]

Br. Livery, pl. 57. cites S. C. -S. C. cited Arg. Dav. Rep. 66. b. in the case of the county palatine of Wexford.———If the king enfeoff others to hold of him, they shall hold as of his crown in chief, per Finchden. Br. Tenures, pl. 9. cites 47 E. 3. 21.

See (L) pl 1.

[4. If a count palatine (who has power to create tenures in capite of himself, by grant of jura regalia) grants land to hold of bis person, this is not a tenure in capite; for though he has such power, yet his person is not changed. Contra Davies, 1. County Palatine, 66. the principal matter.]

[5. If the king purchases land which is held of another, all the seigniories by this are extinct, and if the king grants it to another to hold of him, he shall hold as of his crown in chief. 47 E. 3.

21. b.]

Br. Tenurce, pl. 9.
cites S. C. per Finchden. Quod nullus dedixit.

Br. Te-

[6. When an bonour is seised into the bands of the king, if a manor held of the bonour falls to him by escheat, as of a common escheat, if he aliens to hold of him, he [the alienee] shall hold by the same services as it was held before of the honour. 47 E. 3. 21. b.]

[7. But when an honour is seised into the hands of the king, and a manor comes to the king by forseiture of war as his escheat of Normandy and others, which is by reason of his own person, and he is seised and enseoffs another, he shall hold of him in

eites S. C. chief. 47 E. 3. 21. b.]

be beld by Knight Service. What Estate may be beld by Knight Service.

[1. A Man may lease land for life to hold by knight service.
25 E. 3. 47. admitted, (and it seems that the lessee shall do the service of a knight,) but his heir shall not be in ward.]

2. Lands in gavelkind are held in socage and not in chivalry. Br. Tenures, pl. 72. cites 9 H. 3. and Fitzh. Prescription, 63.

3. If, before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, a man being feised of one acre of land, leases the same to a stranger for life; and afterwards grants the reversion in see unto another stranger, to hold of him and his heirs by knights-service, this is a good tenure; but the grantor shall not distrain for the services, during the life of the lessee, &c. Perk. s. 658.

4. If before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, a man seised of one acre of land leases for life, and afterwards releases all his right therein to the lesse, to have and to hold unto him, and his heirs, &c. or confirms the estate of the lesse, to have and hold the same to him and his heirs, to hold of him by knights-service; the releasor may distrain for such services, or any of them in the land whereof the lease, release, or confirmation was made, as often as the same shall be behind, &c. Perk. 6. 659.

[220]

(0) Knights Service. * Castle-Guard. How it is * castleto be done.

[1. MAgna Charta, cap. 20. Nullus † constabularius distringat aliquem militem ad dandum denarium pro custodia castri si ipse eam sacere voluerit in propria persona sua, vel per alium probum bominem faciat, se ipse eam facere non possit propter rationabilem causam. Et [si] nos adduxerimus vel miserimus eum in exercitum, sit quietus de custodià castri secundum quantitatem temporis quo per nos fuerit in exercitu de feodo pro quo fecit servitium militare in exercitu.

guard is a service due to the king only. Which is originally true, because no man can erect a castle or fort in the kingdom with out the king's licence. But in case the king grants a castle, with all the liberties belonging to it, unto a subject, he grants castle-guard also, if there be any fuch service due unto it; and for this reason this service may as well belong to a subject as the right of a forest. It is a service confishing in fortifying and defending any castle of the king's, or another lord's, as often as the feodary shall require. And this is properly knights-service, when it requires the person of the tenant; but nuben it is converted into a certain pecuniary mules, payable every year for the fortifying and guarding of a castle, it is altered from the nature of knights-service. Cowell's Institutes, 2 lib. tit. 3. f. 4.

† Constabularius is taken here for castellanus. See 2 Inst. 33. cap. 19. 34. cap. 20----- This act (confisting upon a branches) is declaratory of the common law. The 1st, that he, that held by castle-guard, viz. to keep a tower, or a gate, or such like, of a castle in time of war, might do it either by himself, or by any orber sufficient person for him, and in his place. And some bold by such service, as cannot do it in person, as mayor and commonalty, dean and chapter, bishops, abbots, &cc. Infasts being purchasers, women, and the like, and therefore they might make a deputy by order of the common law. If a jointenants hold by such service, if one of them perform, it is sufficient.

adly, If fuch a tenant be by the king led, or fent to his hoft, in time of war, the tenant is excused and quit of his service for keeping of the castle, either by himself, or by another, during the time that he so serves the king in his host; for that when the king commands his service in his host, he dispenses with his fervice, by reason of his tenure, for that one man cannot serve in person in 2 places; and when he ferves the king in person in one place, he is not bound to find a deputy in the other; for he is not bound to make a deputy, but at his pleafure; and this is also declaratory of the ancient common law-2 Inft. 34. cites Co. Litt. 111. 121.

2. They which hold by castle-guard, viz. to guard a tower of their lord's castle, or a door, or a bridge, or a sconce, or Littleton some other certain part of the castle, upon reasonable warning given by the lord, or some other for him, that ‡ enemies yet it seems will or are come into England, hold by knight-fervice, and yet that to keep they hold not by escuage, nor shall pay escuage. Litt. s. 111. time of in-& Co. Litt. 82. b. 83.

I Though speaks of enemies, furrection and rebel-hon, (though, in propriety of speech, rebels are no enemies,) is a tenure by knight-service. Co Litt. 83. a. ____ If the castle be woolly ruinated, yet the tenure remains by knights-service; and it goes in benefit of the tenant, as to the guarding of the castle, until it be rebuilt. Co. Litt. 83. a.

3. By the ancient custom none but a knight might be charged with the guard of a caftle belonging to the king; for the letter of this law mentions only fuch; and therefore to hold by castle-guard is a tenure in knights-service. And it seems, that rent for castle-guard originally was consistent with knightsservice, and that it was not annual, but promiscuously knights might either perform the service, or pay rent in lieu thereof; and upon occasion did neither, if the king sent them into the field. And lastly, that a knight might either do the service in his own person, or by his esquire, or another appointed by him thereto. Bacon of government, 267.

(P) Tenure by * Knights-Service, What. [And See (F. a) pl. 17. what Writ lay of it.]

Tt is commonly called militare, &c. or servitium in our books [1. + DRENGAGIUM est certum servitium, but not knightfervitium fervitium. 1. 6 E. 1. B. R. Rot. 7. adjudged against Robert de Insula, per 8 justicarios præcipuos & plumilitis. And rimos alios de concilio regis.] this fervice was created and provided for the defence of the realm, to perform which fervice the heirs are not account. ed in law able, till the age of 21 years. Therefore, during their minority, the lord shall have custody of them; not for benefit only, but that the lord might fee, that they be in their young years taught the deeds of chivalry, and other virtuous and worthy sciences. Co. Litt. 75. b.

There was no certain fort of profit arose by lands held by knight's service; for they were not for the king's provision, but his defence. These were to attend the king in arms, according to the array that was made in every expedition; and whosnever failed in coming, or rendering his quota of men accord. ing to his tenure, his lands were originally liable to be seised into the king's hands for not doing his duty. Gilb. Hift. View of the Exch. 21. cap. 2.

4 See Spelm. Gloff. verbo Drenches, Drengus, Drengagium, which words he says gave him great perplexity a long time.

[2. A foreign service is knight-service. 7 H. 4. 19. b.] S. P. Br. Tenure, pl.

22. cites S. C. But Brooke says, he wonders that foreign service is service of chivalry, unless the next lord holds by fervitium militare of his next lord.

It is called servitium forinsecum, quia pertinet ad dominum regem & non ad capitalem dominum nifi cum in propria persona profectus suerit in servitio, & nisi cum pro servitio suo intisfecerit domino regi, &c. ideo forinfecum dici potest, quia fit 🥰 capitur foris five extra fervitium, quod fit domino capitali. Co. Litt. 69. b. cites Bract. lib. 2. 36. - S. P. And it it also called regale servitium, quia specialiter pertinet ad dominum regem. Ut si dicata in carta, faciendo inde forinsecum servitium, vel regale servitium, vel servitium domini regis, quod idem est, &c. And another says; Et sunt quædam servitia forinfeca quæ dici poterunt regalia quæ ad foutum præstantur, & inde habemus soutagium, & ratione scuti pro feodo militari reputatur, &c. So as in respect of him that does it, it is called servitium militis; but in respect of him for and to whom it is done, viz. to the king, and for the realm, it is called Servitium regale, or servitium domini regis, &c. Co. Litt. 74. b. 75. a.

[3. A fine was levied of a knight's fee. 5 E. 3. 213.

16 E. 3. Brief, 655.]

[4. 11 H. 3. among the rolls in the Tower of London Rot. 13. Willielmus de Gerdelleg petit versus G. Man extraneum, feodum unius militis cum pertinentiis in S. defendant pleaded recovery of the advowson, which once appertained to the said land, &c. which the demandant acknowledged. And therefore, because demandant petit ‡ dimidium feodum cum pertinentiis, nulla facta exceptione de advocatione illa, consideratum est quod defendens non respondeat ad hoc breve, & ipse sine die, &c. and the plaintiffs in misericordia.7

[5. Vide Dower, 161. 196. 165. adjudged that writ of

dower lies of a knight's fee.]

[6. P. 12 E. 2. Brief, 184. by Berr. In ancient times, at the ancient law, a man should have precipe quod reddat of a knight's fee.]

I Fol. 506.

[7. 3 E. 1. B. Rot. 10. A. queritur de B. quod cum ipse teneat de ipso 2 carucatas terræ in Conington, per homagium, & per servitium militare unde 12 carucatæ terræ faciunt unum feedum militis pro omni servitio. And H. 5 E. 1. B. Rot. 2. unde 22 virgatæ terræ faciunt feodum militus. Vide my manu-There is [222] script register bound with magna charta, fol. 2. 2 writ quod clamat tenere de se per servitium unde tot carucatæ terra, vel tot bida terra, vel tot bovata terra, vel tot virgata terra, faciunt feodum unius militis. And see the printed register, sol. 2. que solebat esse such writ.]

[8. Tr. i E. 2. B. R. Rot. 59. Lincoln, it is said in pleading, quod 48 carucatæ terræ faciunt feodum unius militis.]

Ld. Coke fays there is great diverfity of opinions concerning the contents of a knight's fee, viz. how much land goes to the livelihood of a knight. See Co. Litt. 69. a. where he treats largely of this mutter.

[9. A knight's fee is not accounted according to the quantity or value of the land, but according to the ancient feoffment and reservation; for of the same land in quantity or value may be reserved one or two, or more or less, knight's fees. Vide 14 E. 2. Liber parliamentorum, fol. 91. Contra Co. 9. Lowe, 124.]

[10. See the summons to be made of knights is always.quod Brady's emnes qui babent 20 libratas terræ, vel feodum unius militis in- England, tegrum valens 201. per annum, &c. by which it appears that 620. in the there may be a knight's fee, which is not of the value of 201. a year.]

Hift of reign of H. 3. fays, that all the sheriffs of England were amerced each 5 marks, because they did not distrain every one that had 10 l. a year in their feveral counties, to come to the king and be knighted; but they obtained respite of the king, according to his writs to them directed.

[11. In the treasury with Master Bradshaw in the bag of tenures there is a roll, whereof the title is de feodis militum & partibus feodorum, unde Johanna de Bohun comitissa Hereford dotata fuit 5 Junii 48 E. 3. In which roll every fee, and the value thereof, is set down whereof she was endowed, where it appears that a man holds sometimes by two sees land of the value of 10l. and sometimes of the value of 15 l. and sometimes more and sometimes less, and oftentimes by a see land of the value of 5 l. and this is for the most part, and according to this rate, and rarely by more, but no certainty according to the value.]

[12. Talis tenet dimidium feodum militis vocatum Bacons in London de bæreditate Mountfichit qui tenet ulterius de rege, this shall be intended the service of a moiety of a knight's fee, if no other tenure be expressly made and found. D. 16 El. 329. s. 15.]

[13. Si dicatur in charta faciendo inde * forinsecum fervitium, vel regale servitium sive servitium domini regit, quod idem est secundum modum feoffationis, scilicet, quantum pertinet ad feodum unius militis, vel duorum in eadum villa, vel de eodem feodo, vel ad scutagium 100 s. 2 marcas, vel 3, &c. Sed si dicatur reddendo inde per annum tantum, & faciendo tales sectas pro omni servitio, excepto regali serkitio, vel salvo forinseco, tunc videndum erit un- which the primis si feodum illud in ipsa donatione forinsecum debuit ab initio wel

Bract. lib. 2. cap. 16. 1. 7. pag: 36. 2.---• Forincecum fervitium is fuch service by donor held non, si autem nullum debuit ab initio, nec sit certum forinsecum in the same charta expressum, numquam præstabitur nec peti poterit propter incerland which he gave, &c. titudinem. Bracton, lib. fol. 36. Co. Litt. 75.] Perk. f.

COTDAGE

[14. A man may give land to hold by less service than he 650.- Servitia dici himself holds, ut si ipse teneatur ad forinsecum domino & seoffatori possunt fosuo tenens ipse poterit alium inde ulterius feoffare sine forinseco. Bracsinfecs, ton, lib. 2. fol. 21. b. [cap. 7. f. 3.] quia pertinent ad do-[15. Bracton, lib. [2.] fol. 77. b. Servitium ferinsecum, quod dicitur regale, & quod pertinet ad scutum & militiam ad patrie de-Fal. 507.

fensionem. [cap. 35. s. 1.]

Minum regem, & non ad dominum capitalem, nis cum in propria persona profectus fuerit in servitio, vel nis cum pro servitio suo satisfecerit domino regi quocunque modo & fiunt in certis temporibus, cum casus & ne. cessitas evenerit, & varia babent nomina, & diversa. Quandoque enim nominantur forinseca, large sumpto vocabulo quosa fervitium domini regis, quandoque scutagium, quandoque servitium domini regis, & Ideo forinsecum dici potest, quia sit & capitur foris, sive extra servitium, quia sit domino capitali : Item foutagium, quia talis præstatio pertinet ad soutum quod assumitur ad servitium militae. Bract. 36. lib. 2. cap. 16. f. 7.

[223] [16. Hill. 8 E. 1. Rot. 64. b. Distringus pro homagio & If there be lord and relevio, & pro servitio forinseco quantum pertinet ad unum seodum tenant by knights fer- militis.]

vice, and the tenant gives the tenancy in tail faciendo forinsecum servitium quantem ad eundem terram pertinet, by the words the donce shall hold of the donor by knights service, &c. Jenk. s. 634.

> [17. Time of E. 2. 88. b. there is pleaded a gift in fee of land, tenendum libere pro homagio & servitio, & per forinsecum servitium, scilicet, ad scutagium 20 s. quando venit duos solidos & unum quadrantem & ad plus, &c.]

He that [18. 31 E. 1. Rot. Finium, M. 9. Per forinsecum serviholds by tium cornagii, he was in ward.]

holds by knight service. Co. Litt. 69. b. Litt. s. 156. is, that it is said that in the marches of Scotland some held of the king by cornage, that is to say, to wind a horn, to give men of the country warning when they hear that the Scots, or other enemies, are come, or will enter into England, which fervice is grand ferjeanty. But if any tenant hold of any other lord than of the king by such service of cornage, this is not grand serjeanty, but it is knight service.

[19. The flatute 1 E. 2. [f. 3.] is, that he who holds lands * See Co. Litt. 68. 74. in socage of other manors than of the manors of the king doing D. 75. 2. no foreign service, the rolls of the Chancery shall be searched, and it shall be done as before. By which the statute implies that he is not compellable to be a knight. And by * foreign service is intended, as it seems, knight service.]

[20. Capitula escaetria in Magna Charta, fol. 163. Item s (Q) pl. 14. religios vel ecclesiastica persona a conquestu Anglia aliquas terras seu aliqua tenementa de servitio militari, vel aliquo alio servitio in defensionem regni onerata acquisierunt, quis remanet oneratus de illis servitiis forinsecis & de cujuscunque seodo sunt, &c.]

[21. If a man gives land in tail, rendering rent & faciends See (G) pl. forinseeum servitium, in this case he shall have both, because Kelloway incerti temporis 123. by fall is one service. Keble.]

[22, la

[22. In the book of the ancient charters of the county of * If there Cornwall, there is in 31 charter a feoffment of land rendering 12 d. rent for all exactions, salvo servitio domini regis forinseco quantum pertinet ad quinque acras libera terra de feodo suo. there in the 46th charter, the prior of Bodmin gave to Richard earl of Cornwall 3 acres, faciendo de eisdem tribus acris Ingeramo de Bray, & haredibus suis regale servitium quantum pertinet ed predictas tres acras. And there in the 169th charter, John de Gatesden gave the manor of Lerkey to the earl of Cornwall, reddendo annuatim 2 calcaria deaurata, * salvo etiam sibi & vo forinsece beredibus suis servitio forinseco debito & consueto pro omni servitio.

be lord and tenant by knight fervice, and the tenant does give the tenancy in tail to hold of him by J. D. for all iervices falfervitio, in this case this falvo shali make the donce to hold of the donor by knights service, and yet the same was not in the donor before, but the denor was chargeable with knights service for the same land unto him of whom he held it. Perke e oso.

23. Some held by custom to pay but the moiety, or the 4th Litt. 6 98. part of the sum at which escuage was assessed by parliament; and because the escuage which they should pay was uncertain, they held by knights service. Hawk. Co. Litt. 116.

24. Tenure by cornage, if it be of any other lord than the king, is knight service. 2 Inst. 9. cites Litt. s. 156.

25. Every tenure by escuage is a tenure by knights service; but every tenant that holds by knights service holds not by escuage. Co. Litt. 69. a.

26. Sir Rich. Rokiley Knight did hold lands at Seaton by serjeanty to be vantrarius regis, that is to be the king's forefootman when the king went to Gascoigne, donec perusus suit pari [224] solearum precii 4 d. that is, until he had worn out a pair of shoes of the price of 4 d. And this service being admitted to be performed when the king went to Gascoigne to make war, is knight service. Co. Litt. 69. b.

1

(Q) Tenure by † Escuage.

[1. FSCUAGE was due, if the king had gone a voyage royal into Wales. Fitzh. Na. 83. c. 5 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii.]

[And 6 E. 1. Rot. Clausarum Membrana, 2. Liber Parliamentorum, 2 E. 1. Rot. Clausarum Membrana, 4. it appears by an inspeximus, that there was an escuage roll in whole 41 H. 3. upon a voyage royal to Wales. 7 E. 1. Clausarum knight's see, Membrana, o. a writ is directed to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer to cause escuage to be levied in all counties, half a and there in the end it is secundum quod bujusmodi seutagium pro aliis exercitibus Wallie in casu consimili levari consuevit. 10 E. 1. Rot. Marescalli, the names of those who did their services and that paid their fines. 14 E. 2. Liber Parliamen-Corum, the king demanded escuage of the years of the 5, 10, Scotland to 20, 31, 34 E. 1. and 4 E. 2. for the wars of Waies and subdue the Scotland. 8 E. 2. Rot. Finium Memb. 10. Commission to Scots, he 🕇 Escuage. in Latin scutagium, quas a species of knight 20 E. I. Service. Some held by the service of a fome by the service of knight's fee; and when the king made a voyage levy that held by the king 40 days well arrayed for the war; he that held by half a knight's fee ought to be with him 20; and those that held by more or less, ought to be with him more days, or fewer, in the same proportion. And one might hold to serve the king in his wars in other countries, as well as Scotland.

knight's fee ought tagii de 1. Usque 12 E. 2. for the escuage of the 34 E. 1.]

Hawk. Co. Litt. 111, 112. ——S. P. Cowel's Institutes, 2 lib. tit. 3. s. 5.

When such as held by knight service sailed on any expedition, in coming or rendering his quota of men, according to his tenure, the punishment originally was to seise his lands; but afterwards this seisure was changed into an escuage, or a sine, according to the degree of sailure; but if they sent instead of personally appearing, they made a composition with the king for not attending in person, but sending others; if he did not come at all, then he was assessed for all the lands he held, but had no escuage from his tenants; but if he came, and there was a desiciency in any of his tenants, he had escuage from his tenants; this was an inducement for every person to come or send, because he had no escuage at all, unless he were there, or sent; so that all the escuage fell on him, and he had no ever. Gilb. Hist. View of the Exch. 21, 22.

If the te
[2. Escuage was due if the king had gone a voyage royal into nure be to go in Galgo in Galtiom, Hiber- right appendant to the realm of England.]

siam, Vasconiam, Pictoviam, &c. it is all one as the going into Scotland. Co. Litt. 69. b.

[3. 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii. There is an escuage grant entered in the court rolls of the heirs of the earl of Devon, there are 2 rolls of accounts made 9 E. 2. one of the sees of the honour of Ockhampton, and the other of Plympton for the escuages received of the tenants of the said honours pro exercitibus regis in Scotia de annis 28 & 31 E. 1.]

the king at the petition of the commons pardoned the payment of escuage for his voyage into Scotland.

[4. R. Edward 3. made one or more royal voyages into Scotland, yet no escuage was paid; but it seems this was because aids were granted to him for this purpose by parliament; but see the pardon of 50 E. 3. where forfeits, reliefs and *escuages made, fallen or chanced within the realm of England, are pardoned.]

Prynne's Cot. Rec. Abr. No. 40.——Co. Litt. 72. b.

[3. So the pardon of 14 E. 3. cap. 3. Refiefs and escuages till the king shall go into Brabant [were] pardoned; but see the escuage roll of the county of Lincoln, where an escuage is levied for the voyage of the king to Scotland, the year 1 E. 3. which roll is in the Exchequer with Master Bradshaw.]

[6. He who holds by escuage ought to go with the king in a voyage royal upon a rebellion, not [where it] was to conquer that which the king had not before 5 E. 1. Rot. Clauso Membrana, 8. the clause is so expressed, scilicet, to suppress Elwin the prince of Wales and other rebels; and so 5 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii, Memb. 7.]

[7. An escuage was levied for the voyage of the king into Scotland, 4 E. 2. as appears by 13 E. 2. Rot. Finium M. 1.

Ibidam 16 E. 2. M. 3.]

[8. 28 H. 3. Escuage was granted to the king, scilicet, 3 marks for every knight's see upon the return of the king out of Bretain, where he was to suppress the rebelatand the French. Speed, 576.]

Lo. No

[9. No escuage is due for a voyage to Flanders. 25 E. 1. in the History of the Monk of Gisburne; this is contained in a perfect to the king by the same and I tition to the king by the commons.]

[10. Escuage is properly to sustain war between those of Wales and Scotland, and not between other lands, because those shall be of right appendant to the realm of England. Ancient Tenures, fol. 1. b.]

[11. It seems that escuage is due upon every voyage-royal made A voyage-in the realm for defence of the realm.]

the king bimsself goes to war, as Littleton says, but also when his lieutenant, or deputy of his lieutenant.

And what shall be said a voyage-royal shall be adjudged in this case by the judges of the common law, as an incident to escuage, and not by the constable and marshal, or any other; & sic de similibus.

Co. Litt. 69. b.

There is also another kind of voyage-royal, viz. when one goes with the king's daughter beyond see to be married, &cc. For such a voyage is for the good of the whole realm (for more profit for the sealm cannot be, than to make alliance with another nation); but of this voyage-royal Littleton speaks not here, but only of the voyage-royal to war; so as there is a voyage-royal of war, and a voyage-royal of peace and amity. Co. Litt. 69. b.

S. P. Co. Litt. 130. b. and that in such case a protection profecturæ may be purchased, and cast pendente placito.

[12. Statutum de religiosis, 7 E. 1. in magna charta, sol. 79. b. in fine statuti, nos statim per annum completum a tempore quo hujusmodi emptiones, &c. Terras & tenementa hujusmodi capiemus in manum nostram aut alios inde sesabimus per certa servitia nobis inde ad desensionem nostri facienda, salvus capitalibus dominis seodorum illorum wardis releviis & escaetis & aliis ad ipsos pertinentibus & servitiis inde dobitis & consuetis.]

[13. Mirror of Justices, sol. 2. b. cap. 1. s. of the remnant of the land they should enfeoff the earls, barons, knights, serjeants, and others, to hold of the kings by the services provided and ordained for defence of the realm.]

[14. Capitula escaetriæ in magna charta, fol. 163. Item si See (P) pl. religiosi vel ecclesiasticæ personæ a conquestu Angliæ aliquas terras seu aliqua tenementa de servitio militari, vel aliquo alio servitio in desensionem regni onerata acquisierunt, quis remanet one ratus in illis servitiis sorinsecis & de cujuscunque seodo sint, &c.]

does not draw to it homage, but where the tenant has estate of inheritance; for tenant for life cannot do homage. Br. Tenure, pl. 68.

cites 19 E. 3. Fitz. Fine, 71.

16. He that holds by homage, fealty, and escuage, holds by so- [226] cage and not by chivalry. Br. Tenures, pl. 85. cites 13 H. 4. and Fitzh. tit. Avowry, 197.

17. Homage and knight-service are incident to escuage, and by the grant of services, escuage passes with the rest. Co. Litt. 69. a.

18. Escuage is directed by custom. Co. Litt. 72. b.; for Litt. 6. 98. says, that some hold by such custom, that if escuage be astessed by parliament to any sum, that they shall pay only the moiety of the sum, and some only the 4th part of that sum.

Vol. XX.

Fol. 509.

He that holds by castle-guard or cornage holds by knights fervice, and yet he shall pay no ef-cause, be-

(R) Escuage. * Of what Service it is due. Escuage is not due for any Service of † Grand Serjeanty.

[1. THE constable of England ought by his office to go with the king in a voyage-royal, or otherwise he shall pay escuage. (And yet this is grand serjeanty.) 5 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 6. admitted. For there it is entered that he is acquitted because he goes in person; and 10 E. 1. Rot. Marescalli Memb. 5. he sent another.]

holds not to go with the king to war. Co. Litt. 69. b.

† Tenure of the king by serjeanty to find a man for the war ubicunque infra quatuor maria is grand serjeanty; per Hanke. for it is service to be done by the body of a man, and if he cannot find a man to do the service he shall do it himself; quod aliqui justiciarii concesserunt. Br. Tenure, pl. 13. cites. 37 H. 4. 72.

[2. So the marshal of England ought by his office to go in the voyage-royal, or otherwise he shall pay escuage. (And yet this is grand serjeanty.) 5 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 6. admitted, and 10 E. 1. Rot. Marescalli Memb. 6.]

[3. 10 E. 1. Rot. Marescalli Memb. 4. dimidium serjeantiæ

& facit per J. S.]

[4. 5 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 7. All the bishops and abbots, finem fecerunt, or pro quo satisfecerunt, and 10 E. 1. Rot. Marescalli Memb. 6. Some abbots and bishops are excused for vacancy at the time; by which it appears that escuage is due from bishops and abbots, and they hold their baronies by grand serjeanty.]

5. The king shall not have escuage of such as hold by grand serjeanty, unless they bold of him by escuage. Litt. s. 158.

(S) To be affessed by Parliament.

Magna [f. KING John in a charter ordained in this manner.]

Charta, cap. 37. was, that escuage should be taken as it was in the time of H. 2. But Bacon of Government, 276, 277. says, that the charter of King John hath suferadded hereunto this ensuing provision, viz. there shall be no escuage set in the kingdom, except for the redeeming of the king's person, making of his eldest son knight, and one marriage of his eldest daughter; and for this there shall be only reasonable aid: and in like manner * shall the aids of the city of London be set. And for the assessing of escuage we will fummon the archbishops, bishops, abbots, earls, and greater barons of the kingdom specially by our severa vitte, and will cause to be summoned in general by our sheriffs, and bailiffs, all other our tenancs ir capite, to be at a certain day after 40 days at the least, and at a certain place; and we will set down the cause in all our writs; and the matter at the day appointed shall proceed according to the counsel of those that shall be present, although all that were summoned do not come. And we will not allow any man to take aid of his ficemen, unless for redemption of his body, and making his eldest fon a knight, and one marriage for his eldest daughter; and this shall be a reasonable aid only. This is copied out in Gilb. Hift. View of the Exch. 12. with a note and some few additions by way of explanation, in parentheses; but as it is mentioned as an ADD and use, it may deserve the less notice as being an addition by fome other hand, and the introductory note perhaps not easily to be fupported.

[2. 13 E.

[2. 13 E. 2. Rot. Finium M. 1. Two marks de scuto given for the escuage of 4 E. 2. Ibidem, M. 2. 40s. de scuto de tempore E. 1.]

3. Albeit escuage uncertain be due by tenure, yet because the affessment thereof concerned so many, and so great a number of the subjects of the realm, it could not be affessed by the king, or any other but by parliament. And this was by the common law. No escuage was assessed by parliament since the reign of Ed. 2. and in the 8th year of his reign, escuage was assessed. Co. Litt. 72. a. b.

(T) Escuage. By whom the Service is to be done.

[1. FEMES and abbesses do the services always by others: Litt. 6, 96.

S. P. and so of religion.——And Lord Coke in his Comment, pag. 70. b. says, that the word (religion) is taken largely, viz. not only for regular or deal persons, abbots, manks, &c. but for secular persons also, as bishops, parsons, vicars, &c. for neither are bound to go in proper person.

[2. It seems by all the escuage and marshalsea rolls, that all lay Co. Litt.

persons for the most part in good health, ought to do the service in protininks an thinks an ideot, madiate, man, leper.

a man maimed, blind, deaf, of decrepit age, &c, are not bound to go in proper person.

[3. 10 E. 1. Rot. Marescalli Memb. 5. Infirmus facit per alium Memb. Umphrevil absente de licentia regis recognovit, & facit per J. S. &c.]

[4. Generally of right, they who hold by escuage ought to be in the army in person; and it is not sufficient to find another to be there. Contra, Co. Litt. 70.]

To. In the Exchequer, with Mr. Bradshaw, there is a roll which is intitled, Negotia adjurnata de Scaccario ad Parliamentum Regis apud Karliolum in octabis Sancti Hilarii, anno 35 E. regis; in which there is thus, that Rogerus le Ware, who, upon summons, came to parliament, and faid, that whereas he was summoned to be at Carlisse, 34 E. 1. personaliter cum servitio suo, he acknowledged, that he held by knight-service, and that he was there according to the summons.]

[6. 7 E. 2. Rot. Finium Memb. 5. Pro rege de finibus capiendis ab archiepiscopis, episcopis, abbatibus, prioribus, & omnibus ecclesiaficis personis ac mulieribus & aliis debilibus & ad laborandum impo-

sentibus, &c. et servitia nobis facere debent.]

7. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and each holds of the other by escuage, and the tenant goes a voyage into Scotland, the lord shall not have escuage of the mesne. The reason seems to be, inasmuch as there * shall be only one service done for one and the same land; quære inde. Br. Tenures, pl. 89. cites 6 H. 3. & Fitzh. tit. Avowry, 242. & concordat Nov. Nat. Brev.

less where he himself goesinto the cuage of his

[228]

The lord

shall not have esfon. Br. Tenures, pl. 102. cites F. N. B. 83, 84.

8. I

Hawk. Co. Litt. 113. because the Service originally referved on the

8. If 2 jointenants be of land holden by knights-service, and one goes with the king, it suffices for both, and both of them cannot be compelled to go; for by their tenure one man is only to go. Co. Litt. 70. b.

9. If the tenant paravail goes, it discharges the mesne; for one tenure, was tenancy shall pay but one escuage. Co. Litt. 70. b. performed.

If there be lord and many several mesnes and tenants, and each holds by several knights service, if the tenant paravail of the land does the services, and goes with the king in war, &c. the same shall excuse all the other mesnes; for, for one land but one service can be demanded, viz. to go, or to find a man to go, &c. And so the mesne paramount here is excused, because the service is done by the tenant, &c. F. N. B. 84. (D) _____S. P. Br. Tenures, pl. 103. cites F. N. B. 83, 84.

> 10. An abbot, or prior, &c. that holds lands by knights-fervice, albeit he ought not, in respect of his profession, to serve in war in proper person; yet must be find a sufficient man, conveniently arrayed for the war, to supply his place. And if he can find none, then must be pay escuage, &c. for his profession does not privilege him, but that the king's service in his war must be done, that belongs to his tenure. Co. Litt. 99. a.

Fol. 510.

Escuage. Who shall have it.

S. P. And so if he has ward, by vacation of bishoprick; and so shall a common person, if he has estate for life or years of a seigniory. Co. Litt. . 73. b.

[1. THE king shall have escuage of those who ought to pay escuage to his ward. 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 2. 7 E. 1. reason of the Rot. Finium Memb. 17.]

> [2. If the king grants over to another the custody of his word, and after there is a voyage-royal, the grantee shall not have escuage of the tenants of the ward, but the king.]

> [3. 10 E. 1. Rot. pro Scutagio levando Memb. 2. But there the escuage was granted to the grantee ex gratia speciali. And so

Memb. 3.]

[4. So the grantee of the king of his ward cum feodis militum & advocationibus shall not have escuage of the tenants of the ward, but the king himself. 31 E. 1. Rotulo Scutagii Memb. 1. de jure; but the king granted this to him de speciali gratia.] [5. He who was not with the king in the voyage, nor fent any 5. P. For he Mould have one for him, nor had any lanuful excuse for his absence, nor had no benefit made agreement with the king for his escuage due to the king, he by the deshall not have any escuage of his tenants. This appears by all fielt of others, who the rolls of escuage. Fitz. Na. 83. q.] was guilty of the like himfelf, Hawk. Co. Litt. 113. --- But if the tenant goes with the king, and dies in exercits, in the host or army, he is excused by law, and no escuage shall be demanded. Co. Litt. 72. b.

[6. He who was with the king in another place at the time of the [229] voyage by command of the king, shall have escuage of his tenants. to E. I. Rot. pro Scutagio levando. M. I. & 4. Scutagii Memb. 2.7

[7. Bishops.

[7. Bishops, abbots, and women who had servitium cum rege, shall have escuage. 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 2.]

[8. He who was not in the voyage, nor sent any one for him, if he made a fine with the king for the escuage, shall have escuage of his tenants. 10 E. 1. Rot. pro Scutagio levando, Memb. 3. & Memb. 2. for him qui regi satisfecit pro servitio suo. 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 2. 8 E. 1. Rot. Finium Memb. 8. Fitz. Na. Bre. 83. (I). Contra Co. Litt. 72. b.]

If he that holds of the king by efcuage, goes, or finds anether to go for him with the king, &c. then he shall have escuage of his tenants that hold of him by such service, which must be assessed by parli ament. But if the king's tenant goes not with the king, then he shall pay for his default, escuage, and shall have no escuage of his tenants. Co. Litt. 72. b.

[9. If the tenant of the king in socage has divers tenants by knight service, he shall not have upon a voyage-royal escuage of his tenants, if he does not go in the voyage, or agree with the king for it; but he shall have it if he goes with the king, or agrees with him. Fitz. Nat. 83. (I).]

[10. 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 1. Vicecomiti Oxonii, lices fervitium dilecti & fidelis nostri Roberti de Veer, comitis Oxonii, nobis debitum in exercitu nostro Scotiæ 31, in rotulis marescalciæ nostræ de eodem exercitu non irrotuletur, nec fuerit recognitum ut est moris; volențes tamen ei hac vice gratiam facere specialem, concessimus ei scutagium, &c. Ideo habere facias de dono nostro & boc nullatenus omittas. The like in iisdem verbis, except de dono nostro.]

[11. He who was with the king, though he holds of the king but in one county, yet he shall have escuage of his tenant in every other county of England. 10 E. 1. Rot. pro Scutagio levando,

Memb. 3.]

[12. The executors of him who was the king, shall have escuage.

10 E. 1. Rot. de Scutagio levando, Memb. 3.]

[13. So the executors of him who paid a fine for the service.

Ibidem 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 1.]

[14. So the executors of a bishop, qui habuit servitium cum rege.

Ibidem 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 1.]

[15. If escuage be granted, and after the mesne grants the services to another, and then escuage is levied of the grantee, he may levy this again of the tenants. 1 E. 3. 6. b.]

[16. So if escuage be granted in the time of the ancestor, and le-

1 E. 3. 6. b.]

17. The king or other who has seigniory for term of years, or for life, or has seigniory in ward, or by the temporalties of the bishop, or such like, shall have escuage, and yet he shall not have homage.

Br. Tenures, pl. 103. cipes F. N. B. 83, 84.

18. The lords of with lands were holden by clounge, should have it when assessed; for the lands at first came from the lords, and it is not intended that they were given by there to the tenants, to defend them as well as the king. And the lords might district for it, or have a writ to the sheriff to levy it for them; but of such tenants as held of the king by escuage,

that that went not to the war, the king should have it. Hawk. Co. Litt. 116, 117.

[230]

(X) Escuage. Summons.

[1. 19 E. 1. ROT. Clausarum Memb. 7. in dorso, summonitio servitii, mandamus vobis in side & homagio, quibus nobis tenemini, quod cum equis & armis & tali servitie, quod nobis debitis, sitis ad nos apud Northamptoniam ad faciendum servitium vestrum C. & nomina eorum qui summonentur C. Edmundo fratri regis, Johanni ballivo archiepiscopi Eborum, &c.]

[2. 5 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii Memb. 8. Breve de summonitione, quod intersitis cum equis & armis & cum servitio vestro nobis debito apud Wigorn tali die, &c. parati nobis cum ex inde proficisci in expeditionem nostram, &c. And several summons to each.]

[3. Rot. Scotiæ, 5. 6 E. 2. throughout. 8 E. 2. Memb. 10.

Dorso super fidelitate.]

[4. See 11 E. 1. Rot. Walliæ Memb. 2. in dorso, and 3 in dorso, the manner of the summons.]

(Y) Escuage. Trial.

In IF it be not involled in the roll of the marshal, that I.S. was in the army, yet it may be testified by the king, by a bishop, by the chancellor, by the chamberlain, or other men of credit; and thereupon he shall have his escuage of his tenants. 10 E. 1. Rot. pro

Scutagio levando, Memb. 3.]

[2. 31 E. 1. Rot. Scutagii M. 1. Vicecomiti Oxonii. Licet servitium dilecti & fidelis nostri Roberti de Veer, comitis Oxon nobis debitum in exercitu nostro Scotiæ 31, in rotulis marescalciæ nostræ de todem exercitu non irrotuletur nec fuerit recognitum ut est moris. Volentes tamen ei hac vice gratiam facere specialem concessimus ei scutagium, &c. Ideo habere facias de dono nostro & hoc nulla tenus omittas. The like in iisdem verbis, except de dono nostro.]

[3. In the bag of tenures in the Exchequer, there is a roll, of which the title is Negotia Adjurnata de Scaccario ad Parliamentum Regis, apud Karliolum, in octabis Sancti Hilarii, anno regni regis Edwardi 35. where Theobaldus de Verdon fuit attachiatus ad respondendum quare non venit apud Karliolum in quindena sancti Johannis cum servitio suo quod regi debuit in exercitu Scotia, anno 34, Sc. Et ipse venit & dicit quod secit domino regi servitium suum quod regi, &c. & inde vocat ad warrantum recordum conslabulariorum & marescallorum exercitus regis & datus est ei dies de habendo warrantum suum ad parliamentum pradictum. And so in the same roll; Rogerus de la Warespetachiatur ad respondendam regi, &c. qui venit & dicit quod freit domino regi servitium suum in exercitu pradicto, & petit diem de habendo warranto suo, &c. Et ad hac dies datus est ad parliamentum pradictum.]

4. When

4. When the lord distrained for escuage assessed by parliament, Litt. s. 102. if the tenant would aver, that he was with the king all the days re-muster of quired, and the lord averred the contrary, it should be tried by the the king's certificate of the marshal of the king's host, under his seal, sent host, the to the justices. Hawk. Co. Litt. 117.

marpalgave a certificate

wader bis band and seal to all the tenants that there attended, which was an uncontested evidence of their attending the King in his expedition. When escuage was assessed upon the tenants in parliament, every tenant might have his certificate into the court of Exchequer; and upon such certificate the barons discharged him out of the king's rent roll; for such certificate of the marshal, inrolled in the court Of Exchequer, was an authority to the barons to discharge the pipe-roll of an escuage upon such tenant, . that so no distringas issued upon such escuage. If the king's tenant had not inrolled his certificate, then the distringus regularly issued; but the tenant might plead such certificate at the return of the difringes, and get the discharge. But however the distringes did originally issue, because he had not inrolled his certificate; where it was inrolled, it was never in discharge to the sheriff; where it was pleaded upon the return of the distringas, the sheriff was fined till such certificate produced. If any inferior tenant was distrained by his landlord for escuage, be might replevy; and if upon such replevin he could plead, that he was with the king in the expedition, and shew his certificate from the marshal, the tenant might have a recordari of such plaint before the sheriff, and thereby bring it before the justices in eyre; and upon producing such certificate before the justices, the justices granted a writ de resurno babendo of such distress. Gilb. Hist. View of the Exch. 24, 25

(Y. 2) Frankalmoign.

1. PRIOR beld in frankalmoign and infeoffed J. S. in see, and the lord after the limitation of affise got services, and brought desavit for not doing them; and it was said, that the feoffee cannot bold by frankalmoign, as the prior held; therefore he shall hold by the services accroached, or by fealty only, or as the donor held over, and yet the demandant was barred upon his count of services accreached. Br. Tenures, pl. 39. cites 31 E. 3. and Fitzh. Cessavit, 22.

2. In trespass' it was in a manner agreed arguendo per Cur. that where the lands of the Templers, which were dissolved, and held of the king in frankalmoign, and their lands given by act of parliament to the hospital in fee, to hold by the same services as the Templers held, these words do not make frankalmoign; for frankalmolgn is not any service, and by some it cannot be, because frankalmoign cannot be but of the donors. But Brooke says, it seems to him that it may; for though it cannot be but of the donors by the common law, yet otherwise it may be by the act of parliament, which may make a new law varying from the common law. Br. Tenures, pl. 5. cites 35 H. 6. 56.

3. At this day a man cannot give land to hold in frankalmoign to an abbot in fee; for by the statute of tenures, he shall hold of the lord paramount, of whom the donor held. Contra before this statute, which is called quia emptores terrarum. Per Littleton.

Br. Tenures, pl. 39, cites 12 F. 4, 3, 4.

Tenure (Z) Tenure in * Socage.

where the tenant bolds [1. IF tenant by escuage had made seossiment, before the statute, to of his lord by certain service, as bet scutagium tantum, &c. quantum pertinet ad tantam terram. fealty, and This is but + socage tenure. 27 Ass. 52. per Curiam.]

for all manner of services. And at this day every temporal tenure of a common person is in so-cage; for though, in a strict sense, it only signifies that in which the service of the plough was driginally reserved, yet sargely taken it comprehends all others that have the like effects and incidents; as if a rose, tent, or the doing the duties of an office were originally reserved; and at law every temporal tenure of a subject that was not knight's service, was socage. Socagium idem est quod servitium soca, i. e. a plough; and anciently such tenants ought to come with their ploughs for certain days in the year to plough and sow the lord's demesses, or do other works of husbandry. And afterwards such services were I changed into annual rent, and yet the name of socage remained; such charge must be hefore time of memory; for at this day they cannot be changed by release, consirmation, or any other sonveyance, so long as the seigniory remains. And in some places they still do such services with their ploughs to their lords. Hawk. Co. Litt. 132, 133.

1 S. P. So that this tenure which at first was slightly esteemed of, is now accounted much the better; for the original labours are converted into a moderate sum of money, only the value of the yearly rent is exacted for relief, and it is obliged neither to ward or marriage. Cowell's Institutes, lib.

† S. P. And Brooke says, the reason seems to be inasmuch as the 6 d. is certain, and therefore it cannot be but escuage certain, which is socage, as appears in Littleton's tenures. Br. Tenures, pl. 29. cites S. C.

§ [232]

Fol. 512.

Incidents.

Br. Tenures, pl. 30. cites

S. C. and hold by knight-service, and had granted to the donee and his says, that the best opinion was that, for ward, marriage, and all exactions, the donee should hold by because the relief was put in certain, [viz.]

[2. If at the common law a man had given land in see, to make the common law a man had given land in see, to the donee and his says, that they should pay so much for relief, when it is to be paid for ward, marriage, and all exactions, the donee should hold by because the relief was put in certain, [viz.] bitatur.]

pro dimidia marca, that it is focage, and not knight-fervice; for of focage, relief shall be paid as well within age as of full age, & adjornatur quære.

[3. So it is in the said case, though it be also granted generally, that he shall not be in ward, nor shall pay nothing for his marriage. 19 E. 2. Avowry, 224. By Herle said to be adjudged, though it be knight-service.]

[4. If a man gives by deed to a prior and covent land absque homagio. & fidelitate, habendum & tenendum de se, & hæredibus suis reddende inde annuatim 10s. tantum pro homagio & fidelitate & pro omnibus quæ de dicta terra exigi peterunt, salvo tamen scutagio domini regis quando currit. Though this be knight-service, and domini regis quando currit. Though this be knight-service, and though homage and fealty are incident to knight-service, yet he shall not avow for them against the deed. 19 E. 2. Avow-ry, 224.]

[5. If a man bolds by fealty, and 12d. rent, and the lord releases or confirms the estate of the tenant, to hold by 2d. for all services and demands; this shall bar the lord of relief. Kelloway in certi temporis, 136.]

and

[6. If a man holds land at will, rendering rent, this is not a rent-service; for sealty is not incident to it, but it is a rent dis-

trainable of common right. Co. Litt. 37. b.]

7. If a man bolds his land to pay a rent to his lord for castle- Herein the guard, this tenure is tenure in socage; but where the tenant ought by bimself, or by another, to do castle-guard, such tenure is tenure by If a rent be knights-service. Litt. f. 121.

difference paid for castle-guard, it is clear a socage tenure, as it is agreed in LUTTEREL'S CASE, according to Littleton's opinion. But if a sum in gross, or other thing, be woluntarily paid or given by the tenant, and woluntavily received by the lord in lieu of castle-guard, yet the tenure by knights-service remains. Co. Litt. 37. a. b.

8. Lands held of a manor in ancient demesse, shall be held by no other service than socage. F. N. B. 13. (D) and 14 (B).

9. Every tenure which is not tenure in chivalry, is a tenure in socage. Co. Litt. 86. a.

- 10. If a man hold by homage, fealty, and escuage, viz. by an balfpenny, when escuage runs at 40s. this is a tenure in socage, and no knights-service, for 2 causes; first, it is socage tenure, because of the certainty; for to the tenure in socage certa servitia do ever belong, so as the husbandman may the rather live in quiet. 2dly, Escuage is to be paid at every time when it is assessed, and here it is not to be paid but when it amounts to 40s. Co. Litt. 87. a.
- L1. He that held by escuage certain, i. e. to pay his lord a cer- [233] tain sum for it, at what rate soever the parliament affessed it, held in focage. If one speak generally of escuage, it shall be intended of escuage incertain, because that is the worthiest sense. Hawk. Co, Litt. 116.
- 12. The service which is performed by tenants in fee farm, is . socage, in regard see-farm cannot be where ward and marriage are referred to the lord by charter. And the same is to be understood of tenants in franck bank. Cowell's Institutes, lib. 2. tit. 3. s. 26.

Alteration. In what Cases the Tenure shall See (L. 2). be changed, and how.

[1.]F there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant by his act Br. Tenures, [as] by purchase, forejudger, and the like, is party to the pl. 27. cites 22 E. 3. alteration of the tenure, there he shall hold as the mesne held before; Fitzh. for he comes in loco medii; and on the contrary, where the mef- Dower, 131. nalty is determined by the act of God, as by eicheat without heir, and ----Lord enesne, and the like; for there the feigniory will merge in the mesnalty, and tenant by the memalty will rmain, and the tenant shall hold as before. rent; tenancy by Brook, Tenures 297. purchase, descent, or other laws means comes to the lord in fee-simple; the tenure and all things which were incicent to the tenure, are extinct and gone, because the ford cannot hold the land of his own tenant. . But though the seigniory is extinct, yet the rent is not gone; if we rent due from the melne to the lord, then all the rent continues; if any rent, then it continues for the surplusage, as rent service distrainble of common right. But so long as the land continues in the bands of the king, the distress is sufpended, and the remedy is by petition. But when the king grants it over, then the mesne shall distrain the patentee. Resolved, Jo. 234. Pasch. 7 Car. B. R. Faulker v. Bellingham.

> [2. [So] if there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant bolds by more services than the mesne, and the mesne is attainted of felony, by which the mesnalty escheats to the lord, the lord shall have the same services of the tenant as the mesne had of. him before; for he is now become tenant to the lord, by reafon of the mesnalty to which his services were annexed. 1 E. 3. 6. by Tond.]

> [3. So shall it be in the case aforesaid, though the tenant held by less services of the mesne than the mesne held over, yet he shall pay but the same services which he paid before, for his tenancy is not altered; but the mesnalty to which the services are annexed is come to the lord paramount. 1 E. 3. 6.]

, D. 359. b. pl. 1.

[4. [So] if lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the mesnalty is a manor, and held of the king in capite, a tenant paravail, who holds of the manor by socage tenure, obtains a release of the mesne, now his * Fol. 513. tenure [is] immediate * of the king in capite, as the tenure of the manor was, because the mesnalty is extinct by his own confent; and volenti non fit injuria. D. 19, 20 El. 259. County Palatine, 67.]

' S. P. 2 Inft. [5. If lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the mesne releases to the 502.---So tenant, the tenant shall hold of the lord by the same services as if the tethe mesne held for the cause aforesaid. 7 E. 4. 12. 22 E. 3. nant in-Brook, Tenures, 97. Fitzherbert, Dower, 131.] feoffs the meine, the mesne shall hold by the same service as he did before. 2 Inst. 502.

[· 234] † Br. Tenures, pl. 37. cites S. C. because the . feigniory is extinct in the meinalty; per DanbyCh. J.

[6. If lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the mesnalty escheats to the lord upon the death of the mesne without heir, the tenant shall hold of the lord by the same services as he held before. 7 E. 4. 12. by Needham. Davie's County Palatine, 67. Co. Litt. 99. b. D. 30 H. 8: 44. 30. and the seigniory is extinct. 10 Ass. 29. adjudged. † 2 E. 4. 6. by Danby. 1 E. 3. 6. Brook, Tenures, 91. Fitzh. Avowry, 253.]

See pl. 16. in the note upon the words (by fuch fervice, &c.)

[7. If lord, mesne, and tenant are, and tenant holds in frankalmoigne, and mcsnalty escheats to the lord upon death of the mesne without heir, there the tenant shall hold of the lord by the same fervices as the mesne held; because he cannot hold in frankalmoigne as he held of the mesne, the lord being a stranger to the 7 E. 4. 12. (it seems he shall hold it as near it as may be, that it to fay) by fealty only.]

[8. If the tenant forejudges the mesne, he shall hold of the lord by Where lord, melne. the fame services as the mesne held before of the lord; for it is his and tenant are, and the own act. 22 E. 3. Dower, 131. Brook, Tenures, 97. 10 Ass. 29.]

tenant forejudges the mesne, and is in errear to the lord, he accepts the services by the hands of the tenant, (as he ought,) yet be may distrain him, and awaw upon him for the services of the mesne; for it is the folly of the tenant to forejuige the mesne. And the best opinion was, that the tenant may rebut the Word by deed made to the mefne fr an increaselment of the lord, as the mefne himself may. Br. Tenures, pl. 80. cites 7 E. 3. Fitzh. Avoury, 14 je

S. P. For

- S. P. For the ancient feigniory remains, and the statute wills this. But where lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the tenant holds of the mesne by 3 halfpence, and the mesne over of the lord by 4d. and the mesne dies without heir, the lard is seised of the 3 halspence, and may bring thereof assis upon disseisin, and recover upon the matter; for the seigniory is extinct in the mesmalty, so that he shall have only the services which the messne should have had, and not the services which the messne paid to the lord; quod note. Br. Tenures, pl. 27. tites 10 Ass. 29.
- [9. If lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the mesnalty comes by purchase to the lord, the tenant shall hold as he held before. Davie's County Palatine, 67. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 30.]

[10. So if the mesnalty descends to the lord, the tenant shall hold as he held before. Davie's Reports, 67. D. 30 H. 8. 44. 30.]

[11. If lord, 2 mesnes, and tenant are, and the last mesnalty de- If there be fcends to the first mesne, this first mesnalty is extinct, because he by this comes more near to the tenancy, and yet the first mesne tenant, and shall hold of the lord paramount as he held before. Co. Litt. 99. b.]

.lord, mefneg mesne and the first mesne dies witbout

beir, and the mesnalty escheats to the 2d mesne; or if the mesne grants the mesnalty to the mesne, the meshalty which is nearest to the tenancy doth drown the more remote meshalty, and the tenant shall hold per eadem servitia & consuctudines, as he held before; but the 2d mesne shall hold of the ford paramount per eadem fervitia & confuctudines, as he held before the extinguishment of his mesnalty for the cause aforesaid. 2 Inst. 502.

[12. If lord and tenant are by castle-guard, and the lord grants 4 Rep. 86. b. in Lutover the seigniory, the castle-guard is gone, because the grantee has TEREL'S not the castle. Co. Litt. 83. a. and this is not a tenure by case, Arg. cites 31 E. 1. knight-service, as it was before.] tit. Aff.

441. and said there that the alience cannot build a new castle; for the tenure was to keep the old castle.

Service of castle-guard and suit to the mill cannot be severed from the castle, nor from the manor, so that grant thereof is void. Br. Tenures, pl. 11. cites 1 Ast. 441.

[13. If A. holds of B. as of his manor of D. by fealty and suit of court, and B. grants over the seigniory, the suit is gone, because the grantee has not the manor. Co. Litt. 83. b.]

[14. But if lord and tenant are by castle-guard, and the castle be utterly ruinated, yet the tenure remains by knight-service, and this [235] goes in benefit of the tenant as to the guard of the castle, till it be rebuilt. Co. Litt. 83. c.]

[15. If the king makes release to his tenant in capite to hold by a penny and not in capite, this is a void release and does not alter the tenure; for it is merely incident to the person and crown of the king. D. 30 H. 8. 45. 35. [36.]

16. * 18 E. 1. cap. 1. For a much as purchasers of lands and tenements of the fees of great men and other lords, have many times heretofore entered into their fees, to the prejudice of the lords to whom the freeholders of such great men have fold their lands and tenements to be holden in fee of their feoffors and not of the chief lords of the fees, whereby the same chief lords have many times loft their escheats, marriages, and wardsbips of lands, and tenements belonging to their fees, which thing feemed very hard and extreme unto those lords, and other reat men; and moreover in this case manifest disberit ince:

It is called the statute of Westminster 3. because two notable parliaments had been before holden at Westminster, the one called Westminster 1. and the other called Westminster 2; in hespect whereof, and the excellency of it, this parliament being holden at Westminster, is called Westminster 3. 2 Inst. 5000

· Before

Cenure.

Before this statute, if tenant by knight service had made seossent, the seossee by the law should hold as the tenant held over, viz. by knight service, and if the seosser had after procured a release to hold in socage, the seossee should hold in socage likewise. Per Doderidge J. quod suit concessum per Coke Ch. J. Roll: Rep. 206. in case of Spink v. Tenant cites 49 E. 3.

If a man before this flatute had made a gift of land to one in fee, to repair a bridge or to keep fuch a castle, or to marry annually a poor wirgin of S. this had been a tenure, and the donor might have differenced and made avowry, and is not a condition; but if a seme gives land to a man to marry her, this is a condition in effect, and no tenure. Per Fitzherbert, quod nemo negavit. Br. Tenures, pl. 53.

cites 24 H. 8.

At the common law, if A. had made feofiment in fee to B. reddend' inde five tenend de se & baredibus suis per 6 d. pro omnibus servitiis & faciendo capitalibus dominis serviti pro prædic? A. & baredibus suis omnia servitia debita, &c. In this case by the first reddend' or tenend' the land had been holden of the seosfor, and all the services due shall be done to him: for to do service for a man, is to de it to bim; qui pro me aliquid facit, mihi secisse videtur. 2 Inst. 501.

Our lord the king in his parliament at Westminster after Easter, tommon the 18th year of his reign, that is to wit, in the quinzime of Saint Tenant John Baptist, at the instance of the great men of the realm, granted, anight have provided, and ordained, that * from henceforth it shall be lawful to made a fross-went in fee every † freeman to ‡ sell at his own pleasure, his lands and tenements, of the whole or part of them, be bolden of the chief lord; but notwithstanding the lord might, during the life of the seoffor, take him for his tenant, and avow upon him (in respect of the former fealty, service, and privity) albeit the feoffee gave notice and tendered him all the arrearages, which this statute has altered.

2 Inft. 501.

† i. c. Libere tenenti, to every freeholder, hereby are excluded, not only nativi, but also native tenentes, copybolders, or tenants at will, according to the custom of the manure. 2 Inst. 501.

I This is not only taken for a sale, but for any alienation by gift, feoffment, size, or otherwise; but sale was the most common assurance. 2 Inst. 501.

The ge|| So that the feoffee shall hold the same land and tenements of the neral words of this act \(\) chief lord of the same fee take not away necessary incidents, as that the seossee of all, or of part, shall give notice, and tender the arrearages before the lord shall be compelled to avow upon him; neither do these or the former words (de cetero liceat) take away the sine for licence of alienation, &c. of lands holden of the king in capite, for that belongs to the king by the said statute of magna charts. See Magna Charta, cap. 32. 2 Inst. 501.

These general words have a tacite exception, vis. unless all the lords mediate and immediate do es-sent thereunto; for quilibet renunciare potest beneficio juris pro se introduct'. 2 Inst. 501.

This is taken for the next immediate lord, and so by degrees upward to every lord paramount; albeit the act speaks in the singular number; and it is to be known, that all the lands and tenements in England, are holden either mediately or immediately of the king, and therefore he is summus dominus supra omnes. 2 Inst. 501.

[236]

¶ A. bolds

¶ By such services and  customs as his feoffor held before.

knights service, and gives the same to B. in tail, to bold of him in socage; B. makes a serssiment in see, the sective shall not hold of the lord in socage, as the section held, but by knights service, as A. the donor held; for by the secssiment the reversion in see holden by knights service, is drawn out of the donor, and passes to the secsse, and the secssiment sase cannot hold of the donor; and this case is not against the letter of the law, but within the intent and meaning thereof; for the meaning or this law was, that the secssiment should hold of the lord, as the secssiment did when the secssiment lord; and this act was made for the advantage of the lords; and therefore in construction the secssiment should, not as the secssiment should. 2 Inst. 502.

Also, if the tenant that bolds by priority make a seoffment in see, the seoffce shall not hold by priority; for this act says, per cadent servicia, by the same services, and not according to every collateral quality. 2 Inft. 502.

If the tenant in funkalmoign aliens in fee, the feeffee shall not hold of the lord per eadem servitia, albeit be be a man of the church; but he shall hold of the lord by featifically; for by the first words of this act he shall hold of the lord, but he cannot hold of the lord per eadem servitia, because it is against the nature of the tenance in frankalmoign to hold of any but of the actor or his beirs, and general words of an act shall not be taken to work any thing against the nature of the thing, or the rule of law, but he shall hold by tealty only, which was as free a tenued, and as near to the former as can be, and therefore by construction (radem sortion) the same services skall be taken as near the same services as may be. 2 Inil. 302.

The

The arebbiftop of C. seised of land in right of his archbishopric, and held of the king in frankalmoign, after this statute made a feofiment in fee to J. S. and the dean and chapter confirmed it. The question was, if the land shall be held of the king in capite by service of chivalry or socage in ca. pice? It was resolved upon this statute, that the land shall be held of the king in socage, and not in capite, and this by reason of this statute, for before this statute he should hold of the bishop, and not otherwife; but now this flatute provides that it shall be lawful to alien his land, but the flatute is vendere, noti hoc, &cc. so that the feeffee shall hold the land of the chief lord of that fee, by the same services as his feoffor beld before, the which cannot be in this case. For he cannot hold of the king in frankalmoign, nor by the services which the feoffor held by; and therefore he shall not hold in capite by the meaning of this statute, which shall be taken the most reasonably for all parties concerned. 2 And. 211. pl. 30. in the court of wards, Rotheram v. Wood.

A diversity was taken, when the king grants land, and referves no tenure, or when a clause is absque alique reddende, there the law creates a tenure, the best it can for the king; but when the land passes from a subject, and the law, of necessity, changes one tenure into another, it will create one as near the freedom of the first tenure as may be; as if a bishop or other man of the church had held land of the king in frankalmoign, and at the common law had infeoffed another and his heirs of the same land, In such case the seoffee should hold by fealty only; for this is as near the freedom of the senure in frankalmoign as may be, and so it was resolved in Long's case. And the reason of this diversity is, because in the first case the land moves from the king, and therefore shall be subject to such tenure as the law will create; but when tenant in frankalmoign infeoffs another, the feoffee is in by a subject and not by the king. so as the king parts with nothing; besides, in the last case the law does not create any tenure originally as it does in the first case, but only changes one tenure into another, vis. frankalmoign into fealty only. 9 Rep. 123. a. b. Trin. 7 Jac in the court of wards in Lowe's case. Litt. f. 139. and Coke's Comment upon it, pag. 98. a. S. P.

This act extends to lands holden by fee farm. 2 Inst. 502..

Custom is here taken for services as in the writ de consuetudinibus & servitiis, and not for customs. 2 Inft. 502.

If the tenancy comes to the mesnalty by act in law, as by escheat or descent, the mesne shall hold per eadem servitia & consuctudines, as he held before; for albeit the tenure between the tenant and the meine in these cases be extinct, yet the seigniory paramount, which also was issuing out of the tenancy, remains still. 2 Inft. 502.

The king may licence a man to alien, and to make a tenure at this day, where he is his tenant immediste; and the king and the other meshe lords may licence other tenants to alien and make tenure at this day. But the lords only cannot; for the statute was for the advantage of the king and lords, and the king is not bound thereby; and so the king and the lords may dispense with this statute. Br. Tenures, pl. 65, cites F. N. B. fol. 211.

• S. P. That the king is not bound by this statute, because all land must be held, and therefore if he shall not hold of the king, he will hold of nobody. Roll. Rep. 165. in the case of Smith v. War.

ren, alias Magdalen College's case.

17. If a man had given land before the statute to hold of the † A man chief lord, the feoffee should have held of the chief lord; and if beld 2 acres the lord bad released and + confirmed to the tenant to hold in frank- two several almoign, he should have held in frankalmoign thereby. And so tenures and see that tenure may be altered by confirmation. But it seems that by 5s. rent, and the it is only a diminishing; for he does no services. Br. Tenures, lord conpl. 71. cites 4 E. 3. Fitzh. tit. Mesne, 41.

firmed the estate of the tenant to bold by 4 d. for all fervices, it was held that this shall not make the tenant to hold by one entire senure where he held by several services besore. Br. Tenures, pl. 59. cites 2 H. 6. 9. 8. It feems it should be 9 H. 6. 8. b. 9.]

I On confirmation to the tenant the lord cannot referoe new fervices, as hawk for rent, or rent for hawk. 9 Rep. 142. Pascif. 10 Jac. in the court of wards in Beaumont's case.

18. In assise; the king, lord, mesne, and tenant are, the tenant Br. Tenures, beld of the mesne by socage, and the mesne over in chivalry; the tenant gave his land to his daughter with her baron in frank- Thorp Ch. marriage rendering 12d per concer for all for vices falls forinfeco feruitio; and it was had that the donor cannot have ferringe of chivalry by these wilds (forinseco iervitio); the reason is, because he himself has only in socage; for it appears here, that the foreign service are such services by which the donor holds over. But per Wilby, they are such services by which the land is held, vices, salve

IL 237] pl. 95. cites J. faid, that when a man gave land before the statute, to hold by 2d. for all fer-forinfeco and the mesne holds over by chivalry, though the tenant holds servitio, yet only by focage; and he adjudged accordingly, which was conhe shall hold trary to the opinion of several, and therefore error was thereof by fervice of chivalry brought in B. R. And it was faid, that this word * (salvo) is if the feofsufficient to save that which is in ese, which was only socage here; for held but it is not sufficient to reserve that which is not in esse, as service over by fer-Vice of chiof chivalry here, if he does not say reddendo vel faciendo. Valry, by Wilby and Green, that of which the donor is charged over may reason of be reserved by this word (salvo). And per Wilby, escuage certhe falvo, &c. And tain is socage, and escuage uncertain is service of chivalry; and a if a man inman may hold by homage and yet not in chivalry, but in socage, feoffs anoper Wilby. And the best opinion was, that by these words ther, rendering a rose salvo forinseco servitio, the donor shall have only such services per annum by which he himself is charged over, and not such services which & faciendo his mesne or other lords paramount is charged for the same land; capitali domino servi-Br. Tenures, pl. 28. cites 26 Ass. 66. quod nota. tium debitum pro seoffstore & heredibus suis, that which he shall do for him he shall do to him, and therefore he holds in chivalry. But Mowbray contra, for the first words (for all services) discharge him, and the last words are not sufficient to contradict the first. And Brooke says, the law seems to be with him; for the deed shall be taken more strong against the seoffor, and there is no reservation nor exception of escuage. Br. Tenures, pl. 31. cites 31 Ass. 30.

S. P. Br. Reservation, pl. 33. cites 31 Ass. 30.

19. Lord and tenant by service of 6 marks, and to find a chaplain for ever, the lord released by fine in writ of customs and services to hold by 6 marks, and rendering half a mark for the chaplain, and after devised the 6 marks and died, and in assise all was sound by verdict at large, and the plaintiff recovered. Brooke says, quod mirum! that he may change the services, or reserve rent upon fine of release. Br. Tenures, pl. 49. cites 26 Ass. 37.

20. In affise deed was shewn by which land was given to A. B. and his heirs to hold of the feoffor and his heirs by 6d. for all services, and ex illis sex denariis scutagium solvi debeat quum evenerit quantum pertinet ad tertiam partem unius acra terra; and per Seton he holds in socage by these words (6d. for all services). And these words (scutagium debet, &c.) are not words of reservation, as reddendum scutagium, nec salvo scutagio, therefore it is only socage. Br. Tenures, pl. 31. cites 51 Ass. 30.

21. If a man gives land in tail tenendum libere & quiete, the remainder over tenendum in forma pradicta, reddend. 2s. per annum, the first estate is discharged of the 2s. and not the remainder, otherwise it seems if libere & quiete was not expressed before. Br. Tenures, pl. 92. cites 34 E. 3. & Fitzh. Avowry, 285.

22. If manor be converted into a priory, yet the tenure remains, and the lord may diffrain; for alteration shall not prejudice the $\frac{1}{238}$ lord. Br. Tenures, pl. 55. cites 42 E. 3. 7.

$\frac{3}{5}$. P. Br.

23. If a man holds an acre of land of \(\frac{7}{5}\). S. by fealty and suit as of his manor of Dale, and J. S. is also seized of another manor tit. Action called T. and \(\frac{7}{5}\). S. grants unto the tenant that he shall do his suit the tute, pl. 24.

$\frac{1}{5}$ is also seized of another manor tute, pl. 24.

This grant shall not determine the suit at the manor of Dale. Perk. s. 70.

F. N. B. tit. Cont. Form. Feoffementi.

24. And if J. S. in the same case had granted unto his tenant that he shall give unto him 12d. yearly for his fuit; this grant shall not determine nor alter the tenure. Perk. f. 70.

25. If lord and tenant be, and the tenant infeoffs the lord of the tenancy upon condition, the lord may grant his seigniory, and yet it is not determined nor extinguished; for if the condition be broken, and the tenant enters, the seigniory is revived. But if before the entry of the tenant the lord enfeoffs a stranger of the tenancy, and then the first feoffor, that is to say, the tenant enters, the seigniory is not revived but is determined, because that the lord departs with the tenancy to his feoffee discharged of the seigniory. And so in the same case the lord may depart with his seigniory by such means, &c. Perk. f. 89.

26. If there be lord and tenant by knights-service, viz. by homage, fealty, and escuage, and 12d. rent, and the lord grants the rent unto a stranger saving unto him his seigniory, it is a good faving; but notwithstanding that, the lord shall have the escuage, and yet it is not but a payment of money if the tenant will, and the grantee shall have the 12d. rent as a rent seck, &c. Perk.

f. 648.

27. If before the statute of quia emptores terrarum, there had been lord, mesne, and seme tenant, and the mesne and the tenant bad intermarried, the same should not have altered the lord's avowry; or if the tenant had infeoffed the mesne of the tenancy, it should not have altered the avowry of the lord, &c. Perk. L 654.

28. If lord, 2 jointenants mesne, and tenant had been, and every of them held of the other by fealty, and 12d. and the tenant had infeoffed one of the joint mesnes before the statute of quia emptores terrarum of the whole tenancy, it seems the seossee shall hold one moiety of the tenancy of him who was his joint mesne by fealty, and 6d. rent. Perk. f. 655.

29. See the form of a fine levied upon a writ of customs and services, where it is recited, that whereas there was a dispute about caftle-guard and murage, now the lord concessit quod ipsi, &c. sint quieți de prædictis servitiis, salvis omnibus aliis servitiis ad prædictum fore the statenementum pertinentibus. It seems that the discharge of the murage and castle-guard, which it may be were not of right due, is no discharge of the tenure in chivalry. D. 179. b. pl. 46. Pasch. 2 Eliz. Bruse v. Bonet.

See Bendl. 110. pl. 149. S. C. fays, this was betute of quia emptores, and the fine was given in evidence in an iffue to be tried in the manner of a writ de valore maritagii in Sussex, at the suit of the executors of the old duke of Norfolk v. Keeds.

30. If a man has lands which were parcel of the possession of a .3 Le. 58.pl. chantry, &c. and came to the king by the statute of dissolutions, and before were held of a common person by rent and fealty, or by 4 Le. 40. fervice in chivalry, now the patentee of the king shall hold according to the patents and not of the ancient lord, or of his heirs by the former services, but he shall pay the same rent, which before the same quas rent-fervice, as rent-charge distrainable of common right only by the former lord and his heirs; and so the saving in the statute

85. S. C. accordingly. pl. 109-S. C. and reported in words.-Bendl. 237. pl. 264.

17 Eliz. S.C. accordingly.

Mich. 16 & was expounded. And. 45. pl. 115. Mich. 16 & 17 Eliz. Stroud's case.

- 31. A writ of disceit by the lord of the manor in ancient demesne, upon a fine levied of land there; the defendants pleaded that the lord of the manor in the time of E. 2. released to one who was tenant of the same land by fine de omnibus servitiis & consuetudinibus, salvis servitiis infrascriptis, viz. pro una virgata terræ 2 s. rent, fuit of court, and relief And the release was de uno messuagio & una virgata terræ. It was held, that the custom of the ancient demeine was extinct by the release, but that the rent, relief and ... [239] suit of court remained as parcel of the seigniory by the saving. And adjudged accordingly. Mo. 143. pl. 285. Mich. 25 & 26 Eliz. Griffith v. Clarke.
 - 32. King Edw. 3. was lord, abbot of W. mesne, and C. was tenant. C. was attainted of treason. Office was found. The king granted the land to M. and his heirs, tenendum de nobis & successoribus nostris & aliis capitalibus dominis feodi illius per servitia inde prius debita, & de jure consueta. It was argued (among other things), that this was now a tenure of the king immediately, and not of the mesne, because the words were not per servitia (ante proditionem), or (ante attincturam) inde prius debita, &c. And divers offices and licences of alienations and other records were shewn to the Court, by which it appeared that the law had been so taken all along, that the said manor was held of the king in eapite. But as to the said offices, licences, and other records, the barons said, that fince by construction of law upon the said letters patents, it appears that there is no immediate tenure of the king, notwithstanding it has been found otherwise in offices, or admitted in licences or other records, yet this cannot alter the true tenure which originally appears of record to them as judges; and that though consuctudo sit magnæ authoritatis, nunquam tamen præjudicat veritati. 6 Rep. 5. b. Hill. 40 Eliz. in Scaccario, Sir John Mollyns's case.

33. A. seised in see of land held of queen Eliz. as of the see of crown-land, whereof she was seised in see by admittance, procured a licence from her, and fuffered a common recovery, and Eliz. in the made a jointure on his wife. A. and the wife died, and the land descended to B. as cousin and heir of A. B. fold the land to C. who died seised, and the land descended to D. as son and heir to C. This was found by office; and further, that the said land at C.'s decease was held of queen Eliz. and at the inquisition was held of the king now by knight-service in capite. Resolved by Coke and Tanfield, that the * Juing the licence of alienation is no concluis where the fron to the party, so as to make the lands to be held of the king in party is di- capite, because the words of the licence are (quæ'de nobis tenentur in capite, ut dicitur), but yet that the same may be used as fome part of evidence for the king to prove such a tenure. decreed that the tenure should be taken as a mesne tenure, and not a tenure in capite. Ley, 16. Mich. 7 Jac. Davison & Dymmock's cafe.

rum cit, &c. For in such cales the plea is a conclusion.

 And Ld. Coke cited

a case, Mich.

39 & 40

Exchequer

accordingly;

because the plea has relation only pardon; but otherwise it to the li-eence or rectly charged with a tenure, as by bene & ve-

37. Two

24. Two tenants held of C. by unequal rents. C. gives, grants, and confirms, &c. the said rents, services, and seigniories to them 2 and their heirs; this is an extinguishment of a moiety of every of the tenures, and for the other moiety they hold one of another; it was said that if the acres and rent had been equal, that then it should be extinguished in all; but, as it was, there was a cross tenure between them as to one moiety, and that shall not move as a release reddendo singula singulis. Noy, 113. Goldwell v. Navenden, cites D. 319. 11 H. 7. 12. 2. 39 H. 6. 2. 49 E. 3. 40.

35. A. seised of the manor of W. held in capite, purchased a freehold of 7 acres beld of the same manor in socage. Resolved by the Lord Ch. J. Mountague, and Hobart, and Tanfield Ch. B. that the 7 acres purchased by A. is held of the king in capite by knightservice, as the manor of W. is held, and of which the said 7 acres were held in socage till such purchase. Ley, 63. 65. Pasch.

17 Jac. Mountague's case.

[240] (B. a) Extinguished. What Act will extinguish it. See Heriot (H).

[1.]F the king purchases land which is held of others, by this all Br. Tenure, the services are extinct. 47 E. 3. 21. b. by Finchden.] Pt. 9. cites S. C.

[2. If my tenant infeoffs the king, and retakes estate from the Fol. 514. king, my tenure is extinct. Contra, 45 E. 3. 6. he shall hold of Br. Tenures, both. pl. 56. cites

S. C. that he is my tenant in right, and shall hold of the king also; per Finch. Brooke says, quere of his holding of me; for the tenure was once extinct by the possession of the king.

[3. If the king has land by forfeiture of treason, by this all tenures are extinct as well of the king as of others. Co. 6. MOLYNS, 5. b.]

14. If lord, mesne, and tenant are, and the tenant gives the D. 154. b. land in tail, the remainder in fee to the king, if he affents to the remainder the mesnalty is extinct, because the king can the King hold of none; (and the particular estate and remainder are all and Queen one estate in law, and both hold of the lord paramount.) vithe Arc D. 4, 5 Ma. 154. Co. 2. BINGHAM, 92. b.]

pl. 18. 4 🏖 5 P. & M. v.theArch-Canterbury. —S. C.

cited 2 Rep. 92. b. in Bingham's case. Goldb. 149. pl. 73. Hill. 43 Eliz. S. P. exactly, and feems to be S. C. Anon.

5. If there are lord and tenant in frankalmoigne, and the lord releases to the tenant all his right, the seigniory by this is extinct; and therefore quære, how the tenant shall hold over after. It seems as the lord held before the release made. Br. Tenures, pl. 74. cites 18 E. 2. and Fitzh. Releate, 51.

6. If a man holds homage, fealty, rent, and castle-guard, and [the lord] grant the services, and the tenant attorns, the grantee shall not have the castle-guard; for he has not the castle. But per Berr. & Spigurnel, he shall have money Vol. XX.

for it, as contributory. Quære inde; for it seems, that that Br. Tenures, pl. 58. cites 19 E. 2. & fervice is lost. Fitzh. Assise, 399.

7. If lord, mesne, and tenant are, and mesne is attainted of felong, the lord shall have the services of the tenant which the mesne had, and no more; for the seigniory is merged in the meinalty; per Cand. but Tond. contra. And per Devon. the lord in chivalry may relinquish the ward, and distrain for the services, if he will; quod Tond. concessit. Br. Tenures, pl. 91. cites 1 E. 3. Fitzh. Avowry, 168.

8. The lord granted his rent, saving to him his seigniory, the grantee cannot distrain; for it is rent-seck. Brooke says; and so see, that by express words fealty may be severed from rent-service. Br. Tenures, pl. 79. cites 7 E. 3. and Fitzh.

Avowry, 142.

In fuch case the lord cannot make contribution to the fuit, nor take contri-

9. In cessavit it was agreed, that suit is not severable; so that if 3 tenants bold of the lord, and the part of the one comes to the lord, he shall not have any part of the suit; and the reason seems to be, inasmuch as he cannot take the suit, and be contributory to the fuit which he himself takes. Br. Suit, bution, and pl. 1. cites 40 E. 3. 40.

therefore the suit shall noth a apportioned Br. Suit, pl. 5. cites 34 Ass. 15.

So if 3 bold by a borfe, or other intire thing, and the lord recovers two parts of the land by cessavit, there the entire rent is extinct by the recovery; for this is the act of the lord. Br. Tenures, pl. 104. eites F. N. B. 209.

10. Confirmation with warranty therein, that an abbot shall hold libere & quietus de gildis, placitis & querelis, actionibus & demandis ab omni servitio exactione seculari, &c. demandis does not excuse him of corody; and because it is not expressly rehearsed in perpetuam elecmosinam, therefore they shall do other services; and such grant shall not discharge him from making bridges and causeways. Br. Tenures, pl. 6. cites 44 E. 3. 24.

11. Where two parceners make partition of the manor, so Br. Extinguisment, that the one has the demesnes, and the other the manor, neither pl. 13. cites of them shall have the suit; but if the one dies without issue, S. C. for the suit is revived. Br. Suit, pl. 3. cites 12 H. 4. 25. the fuit was not extinct, but only suspended; quod nota. Brooke says, quære; for the manor was once defeated.

> 12. It was held, that by the unity of possession of the land in the lord, all customs and services annexed to the seigniory, or to the lord, are extinct for ever, as heriot-custom, ancient mesne, fine for alienation, or custom to be bedel to the lord, or to collect his rents, &c. are extinct. But contra of custom, which runs with the land as gavel-kind, burgh-english, dowment of the entire lands, &c. for this runs with the land, and there unity of possession in the lord, and after seossment made to another, shall not change the custom; for it runs to a number, and throughout the country or vill, and not to the lord as a fingular fingular person, as in the other cases before. Br. Avowry,

pl. 46. cites 14 H. 4. 2.

13. If lord and tenant are, and the lord confirms the effate of the tenant reddend' vel solvend' Id. pro omnibus servitiis, by this the tenure, which was before the confirmation, is determined. But if it bad been reservand' vel tenend' by 1 d. there the first tenure remains; per Brian Ch. J. But Brooke makes a quære thereof; for none made any answer thereto. Br. Tenures, pl. 40. cites 21 H. 4. 62. 73.

14. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and the lord releases to the tenant, &c. the memalty is extinct; for he has it only in respect of the charge which he brings to the lord, and by the release all this is determined. But per Littleton, tit. Rents in his book, if there be a surplusage of rent, the lord shall bave it; quod nota. Br. Tenures, pl. 48. cites 8 H.

6. 24.

15. If the king grants land to J. S. in fee, to hold as freely as the king is in his crown, yet he shall hold of the king: and if be aliens without licence he shall make fine; for this is vested in the king by his prerogative, which cannot be extinct by fuch general words. Br. Tenures, pl. 52. cites 14 H. 6. 12.

16. If lord and tenant be of 3 acres of land, viz, White-acre, and 2 other acres, and the lord grants unto the tenant by deed, that he will not distrain in White-acre for his rent and services; this grant shall not enure to such intent to determine the seigniory in any part, but shall enure by way of covenant; so that if the lord distrains in White-acre for his services, the tenant shall have an action of covenant. Perk. f. 69.

17. If lord and tenant are of 2 acres, and the lord releases unto And to this the tenant all the right which he hath in the one acre of the same there is a land, it is a determination of the whole seigniory, Perk. s. 71. difference cites 7 E. 4. 25. 20 H. 6. Exting. 2.

purpose between a fact, and a release in law: for if they purchase one of the acres in fee, which are holden of him, that is no determination but of the rate of the services, which are annual and severable, and he shall have the whole corporal service. But it the annual services be entire, as a borse, a hawk, &c. then all the annual services are gone by the purchase. But if one of the acres descend unto the lord, then if the annual services be entire he shall have the entire annual services out of the remnant of the tenancy. But if it was severable, as rent, &c. then it shall be apportioned according to the rate of the land. Perk. 1. 71. cites 4 Ass. 5. 40 E.4. 5. 40. 34 Ass. 15.

But if the lard different bile tenant of part of the tenancy, the whole feigniory is suspended; for a seigniory shall not be suspended in part and in esse fir other parcel to every intent simul & semel in one person, if not in special cases; but a seigniory may be determined in part, and in esse for other part final & sexel, &c. Perk. 6.71. cites 19 E. 4. 1.

18. By feoffment made by the tenant unto one jointenant mesne, [242] there is but a moiety of the mesnalty extinct, viz. the moiety, which in right does belong unto the feoffee, and no more, &c. so as for one moiety of the tenancy there are lord, mesne, and tenant; and for the other moiety of the tenancy lord and tenant. Perk. f. 655.

19. Resolved, that tite seigniory and tenure of chit, or chantery- The saving land, is extinct by possession of the king, by the act of 1 Ed. a. nonwithstanding the saving in the act, propter absurditatem. But to the donor, &cc. all fuch rents,

for

for the rent-parcel of the tenure, the lord may distrain the patentee of the king and make avowry upon the matter, but not upon the person within his see and seigniory. D. 313. pl. 91. Trin. is controlled by the common law, which adjudges it void as to the services, and the donor shall have the rent as rent-seck, distrainable of common right; for it should be against right and reason, that the king should hold of, or do service to, any of his subjects. 8 Rep. 118. b. in Dr. Bonham's case, cites D. 313. 14 Eliz. and says, it was so adjudged. Mich. 16 & 17 Eliz. C. B. in Strowd's case.

- 20. Abbot, before the dissolution, held of J. S. by fealty and rent, and after the land came into the king's hands by the statute; the feigniory is but suspended; and if the king grants the land to another, the patentee shall hold of the lord as before, and the lord shall have his rent; but whether as rent-service as before, some doubted. D. 213. Marg. pl. 91. cites Trin. 23 Eliz. C. B.
- 21. B. was lord, and D. was tenant of the manor of M. by knight-service. B. held the manor of M. of A. an abbot, as of his manor of L. which came to the crown by the flatute of disfolutions. Afterwards B. purchased the manor of L. of the king, and being so seised of both manors of L. and M. died seised. C. son and. heir of B. conveyed both manors to trustees to the use of himself and E. his wife for life, and to the heirs of C. Afterwards C. purchased the tenancy paravaile, and thereof enfeoffed J. S. Manwood held, that by B.'s purchase of L. being also seised of M. the seigniory between the abbot and B. was extinct, and that D. held of the manor of L. which was held over of the king in capite by knight service; then when C. enfeoffed the trustees, and after purchased the tenancy, now the tenancy became parcel of the manors, and was held, as the manors were, of the king in capite; and when C. enfeoffed J. S. he held as C. the feoffor held it before. Shute held, that before C. purchased the tenancy, D. held of C. and his wife; and though after the purchase of the tenancy by C. the tenancy presently became part of the manor held of the king, yet the seigniory is not merely extinct against the feme: for f C. dies leaving E. then J. S. shall hold of E. during life, there being no reason that the purchase of the baron should prejudice the wife. But if the uses had been limited before the marriage, then by the purchase of the tenancy a moiety of the seigniory had been extinct, and the baron should hold the other moiety of the feme, and when the marriage had taken effect, then this part is suspended. And to this Manwood and Clench agreed. Sav. 21. pl. 52. Pasch. 24 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Hutton's, or Gifford's case.
- 22. A. held land of B. in M. as of his manor of N. by fealty, rent, and suit of court of the said manor. B. by deed indented and inrolled bargains, and sells to C. and his heirs all bis tenements, rents, services, and bereditaments in M. The suit of court is extinguished. 2 And. 5. pl. 3. Mich. 36 & 37 Eliz. Anthony v. Burton.

23. Where purchase of parcel of the land out of which, &c. by the lord shall extinguish the services, and what, see Heriot (H) pl. 2.

(B. a. 2) Revived.

[243]

1. 7 E. 4. 5. ENACTS, That lands holden of a common person See (I) pl. by fealty, rent, or other service, coming to the 9 se 20. king's bands by attainder of treason, and being afterwards granted by the king to another, shall be holden as if such attainder had not been; and that every person not attainted, his heirs, assigns, and successors in the same lands, &c. being in the hands of any other than the king, may distrain for the rent, as they might have done if the said attainders bad not been.

2. If lord and tenant are, and the tenant is attainted of treason by act of parliament, and to forfeit all his lands, and after is pardoned and restored by another parliament, habendum to him and his heirs, as if no such attainder nor former act had been, now he shall hold of the common person as before, and yet at one time the tenure is extinct by the forfeiture of the land to the king. Br. Tenures, pl. 70. cites 31 H. 8.

3. If lands held of the king are given to the king in tail, the remainder over, the tenure so long as it is in the hands of the king is suspended; but after his death, without issue, it shall revive. D. 102. a. pl. 82. Trin. 1 Mar. the Queen v. Ld. Barkley.

In what Cases the Services shall (C. a) Services. be multiplied.

[1.] F a copyholder in fee holds by fealty, rent, suit of court, Palm. 342. S.C. adand to pay a heriot, that is to fay, optimum animal upon every judged. furrender, and after he furrenders parcel of the land he shall pay a heriot; for it cannot be divided, it being entire and a heriot service, and therefore shall be multiplied; for if he shall expect till all be surrendered, peradventure no heriot shall be paid, for then he may furrender all but a little parcel, and so no heriot shall be paid. Hill. 20 Ja. B. R. between SNAGG AND Fox by Dodd. and Chamb. But Houghton dubitavit.]

[2. If a man holds by homage, and dies having iffue divers daughters, in this case the eldest daughter shall do homage for her and all her other fifters. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[3. But in the said case if the coparceners make partition, then every one of them shall do homage, because it is not una sed diversa hæreditas. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[4. So where there are 2 coparceners who hold by homage, and the one enfeoffs J. S. of his part; now J. S. shall do homage for his part; for it is a partition in law of this part. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[5. [So] where there are divers coparceners, who hold by homage, and the eldest does homage for her and her other sisters, and after the youngest enfeoffs J. S. of her part; J. S. shall do homage for it; for by this the coparcenary is destroyed. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[6. If there are several jointenants of land held by homage, they all shall do their homage jointly. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[7. If there are several tenants in common of land held by homage, every of them shall do homage. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[8. If tenant by homage makes feoffment of part of the land, the feoffee shall hold by homage. Co. Litt. 67. b.]

[244] 9. In replevin the defendant shewed that certain land was And if sevebeld by fuit of court and other services, &c. and alleged seisin, ral feoffies &c. and this descended to 2 coparceners who made partition, and were of land, wberethe one of his part infeoffed the plaintiff, and the other of his part of one suit infeoffed J. N. and for suit arrear by 7 years he avowed upon is due, the the plaintiff, and the avowry good per Cur. quod nota. Now lord shall have only there shall be several avowries. And per Seton a man cannot one suit, make joint avowry upon several tenants, but by him after such but this is partition and alienations if the one makes the suit, this shall diswhere they are jointly charge all the tenancy, and if any of the tenants make the infeoffed. fuit, the other may plead it, but he may avow upon whom he Quære, if pleases; quod non negatur. Nevertheless, quære in this case, they are Jeverally inif he shall not have suit of every of them? But per Skip. and feefied, then Seton, he shall have it only of the one. Quod non negatur, quod it seems as Skipwith And the flatute of Marlebridge, cap. 9. wills, that faid, that where coparceners hold by suit, he who has enitiam partem shall the lord may make the fuit, and the others shall make contribution to him; distrain robom be. and this is after partition. Quære before partition. fleases, and pl. 4. cites 24 E. 3. 73. if the one suit, the others shall have thereof advantage, and so the lord shall have but one suit; quod nota. And tit. Tenure, 64. and Bar in Fitzh. 211. every one shall make suit by himself. Br. Suit, pl. 4. cites

24 E. 3. 73.

10. If a man grants parcel of his rent service, and the tenant attorns, this is good, and he shall do two fealties if the service be fealty only. Br. Grants, pl. 4. cites 9 H. 6. 12.

Br. Avow11. If a man holds 3 acres by a hawk, and makes 3 several feoffry, pl. 110.
cites S. C.

ments of the 3 acres, every feoffee shall hold by a hawk; for it is not severable. Contra of 3 d. rent, or 3 s. which is severable.

Tenures,
Br. Tenures, pl. 42. cites 22 E. 4. 36.

cites 29 H. 6. ____Br. N. C. 29 H. 8. pl. 124. S. P.

12. If a man makes feoffment of a moiety of his land, the seossee shall hold of the lord by the entire services by which the entire land was held before; for the statute tenendo pro particula does not hold place here for moiety nor part. Contra of one acre or two acres in certain. Contra of a third part, &c. which goes throughout the whole. Br. Tenures, pl. 64. cites 29 H. 8.

13. If there be lord and tenant of 3 acres of land by homoge, fealty, suit of court, escuage, and the rent of a horse payable at the fealt feast of Easter, or by the rent of a bawk or of a rose, &c. and the tenant after the statute enfeoffs one man of one acre parcel of the tenancy, and another of another acre parcel of the tenancy, in this case every of them shall hold of the lord by homage, fealty, and fuit; but the escuage shall be apportioned, and the relief, when it falls, as a rent feverable, shall be apportioned, and the lord shall have but one horse, or one rose; or one hawk of them all, not apportionable. Perk. f. 684.

14. All intire services, whether things of profit or pleasure, 28 ox, &c. or faulcon, dog, &c. shall be multiplied by alienation of part of the tenancy; but if the lord purchase parcel before any part aliened, all is extinct; but if after alienation, no more is extinct than remained on the parcel purchased. 8 Rep. 105. b. 106.

Hill. 7 Jac. in Talbot's case.

15. Some personal services shall be multiplied, and some not, as 10 Rep. homage and fealty is multiplied, and is not extinct by purchase Losseld's of part by the lord, and so of knights service, and such services case as are pro bono publico & pro defensione regni; but personal private fervices, as to be the lord's butler, carver, &c. or where the tenure is ad convivandum dominum, &c. semel in anno, &c. there shall be no apportionment or multiplication, and purchase of parcel by the lord shall extinguish such private personal services; but where such private personal services shall not be multiplied, the [245] lord may diffrain every one for not doing them, though they shall be done only by one of them. And manual labour, as to cut the lord's corn or grass, &c. which is to be done upon a certain thing, shall not multiply. 8 Rep. 105. b. Talbot's case.

16. There is a difference between very lord and very tenant, and between denor and donce, or the lessor and lessee; for in case of very lord and very tenant, as well the annual as the casual intire services shall be multiplied, as appears in Bruerton's case, 6 Rep. 1. b. 2. a. and in the 8 Rep. 105. in Talbot's case. But in the case of donor and donee, or lessor or lessee, the entire rent reserved shall not by any division either of the reversion or of the possession, by act in law be multiplied. 10 Rep. 107. b. per

Coke in Lofield's case.

17. If a man makes a gift in tail of 2 acres cone of the acres being borough-english land, and the other at common law) reserving a horse, he shall not multiply the horses, but shall pay one horse for which of them he will, but not 2 horses; per Coke 3 Bulst. 154. Mich. 13 Jac. in case of Moody v. Garnance.

(C. a. 2) Services abridged.

1. The man had given land before the statute rendering 3 d. pro omnibus servitiis falvo scutagio quum currit & absque homagio & fidelitate, he should not have homage, though it be incident to the escuage; per Herle, Wilby, Bows, and Muts. but several e contra. And if lord grants for him and his heirs to the tenant and

and his heirs, that they shall never have ward nor marriage, the heir shall rebutt the lord in assise by this deed to claim ward; quod adjudicatur for law, per Herle. Br. Tenures, pl. 87. cites 19 E. 1. and Fitzh. Avowry, 224.

2. If there be lord and tenant, albeit the lord confirms the estate, which the tenant has in the tenements, yet the seigniory remains entire to the lord as before. Litt. s. 535.

Because there is privity between the lord and his tonant; but if there be tere notes, 3. If there be lord and tenant, which tenant bolds by fealty and 20s. rent, if the lord by his deed confirms the estate of the tenant to hold by 12d. or by a penny, or by a halfpenny, in this case the tenant is discharged of all the other services, and shall render nothing to the lord but that which is comprized in the same confirmation. Litt. 1. 538.

the igid cannot confirm the estate of the tenant to hold of him by less services; but it is void, became there is no privity between them, and a confirmation cannot make such an alteration of tenures. Co. Litt. 305, in.— But where there is lord, mesne, and tenant, and the lord confirms the estate of the mesne to hold by sets services, this is good; for he is tenant in possession of the mesnaky, and there is no other possession. Br. Confirmation, pl. 8. cites 14 H. 4. 37.— And as these is required a privity when the lord abridges the services of his tenant by confirmation, so must there be also when he abridges them by release. And therefore the ford paramount cannot release to the tenant paravail, saving to him part of his survices; but the saving in that case is void. Co. Litt. 305. b.

As long as the state of the land continues, it cannot by the lord's confirmation be charged with any new service.

Co. Litt. 305. 2.

4. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant is an abbot that holds of the mesne by certain services yearly, the which has no cause to have acquittance against his melne for to bring a writ of mesne, &c. if the mesne confirms the estate of the abbot in the land, to hold to him and his successors in frankalmoigne, &c. this confirmation is good, and the abbot holds of the mesne in frankalmoigne, because no " new service is reserved; for all the services specially specified be extinct, and no rent is reserved to the mesne, but the abbot shall hold the land of him as before the confirmation; for he that holds in frankalmoigne ought to do no bodily service; so that by such confirmation the mesne shall not reserve any new service, but that the land shall be holden of him as it was before; and in this case the abbot shall have a writ of mesne, if he be distrained in his default, by force of the faid confirmation, where percase he might not have such a writ before. Litt. 1. 540.

And regularly where a confirmation; but a rent-fervice, in respect of the privity betion does a confirmation tween the lord and the tenant, may be abridged by a confirmation. Co. Litt. 305. a.

vices, there ought to be privity. Co. Litt. 305. b.

- + But a man may release part of bis ent-charge or common, &c. Co. Litt. 305.
 - 6. A tenure may be abridged by a confirmation. Co. Litt. 305. 2.

(D. a) * Relief.

[1. BEFORE the time of H. 1. the king and other lords used to make the heirs of their dead tenants to redeem their land. Janus Anglorum, 79.]

Relevium is derived from the Latin word
relevare;
for so ancient authors say, and give

this reason, quia bæreditas que jacens suit per antecessoris decessum, relevatur in manus bæredum, & propter sustan relevationem sacienda erit ab bærede quedam præstatio, que dicitur relevium. And in Domesday it is called relevamentum & relevatio. Co. Litt. 76. a.—See Ld. Coke's Copyholder, 36. L 25.

[2. But H. 1. abrogated this evil custom, and ordained [that] the heirs of the dead tenants of the king, and of other lords, relevarent terras de dominis suis, non redimerent. Janus Anglorum, 79. & 116. 70.]

What.

See (E. a) pl. 3.

[3. Relief is a profit of the seigniory. 17 E. 3. 64. Co. 3. Pennant, 66.]

- [4. Relief is not a service, but incident to the service. 4 E. 2

Avowry, 200. by Scrope. Co. 3. Pennant, 66.]

Fol

Fol. 515.

2 Inft. 95. S. P.——It is not any service, but a flower of the service, and shall go to the executors. Cro. J. 28. in the case of Mackworth v. Shipward.——It is only an improvement of, or an incident to the service. Co. Litt. 83. a.

5. It was said, that relief is only a thing personal. Br. Relief, pl. 11. cites 39 H. 6. 33.

6. The paying a relief is a putting the lord in seisin, and an acknowledging him for his lord; so as of ancient time, and in ancient books, relief is called simplex seisina. 2 Inst. 134.

7. Relief on alienation is not properly a relief, though called so in divers books; but is properly a fine for alienation. And this may be by tenure, by special reservation, by custom. Agreed per tot. Cur. Jo. 133. Trin. 2 Car. B. R. Hungersord v. Haviland.

- (E. a) Relief. Of what Tenure or Service it is [247] to be paid. [And what it is, pl. 3. How much to be paid, pl. 2, 3, 4.]
- [1. HE, who holds by petit serjeanty, shall not pay any relief.
 28 E. I. statute of wards and reliefs.]
- [2. He, who holds in socage, shall not pay any relief, accord-Relief is an ing to the proper fignification of relief. 28 E. 1. statute of incident as well to chiwalry and reliefs. Ancient Tenures, fol. 3. b. But only shall walry as to double his rent; for anciently always it was put as a badge of socage; quod knight nota bene

Br. Te- knight service, ward, marriage, and relief. Bracton, lib. 2. nures, pl. fol. 85. b. s. 8.]
76. cites
13 R. 2. and Fitzh. Avowry, 89.

[3. But of late time the doubling of the rent by tenant in so-The heir in focage shall cage, that is to fay, the paying of so much as his rent is by one double the year over the rent, is called relief. Litt. 28. s. 126. Doctor Sturent; after dent, 14. b. 31 Aff. 15. Brack. lib. 2. fol. 85. b. f. 8. it is the death of his facalled quadam prastatio ab harede propter dominium & dominii recogther, in Ancient Tenures, 3. b. says, that he shall double the ·mame of relief. Br. 13 E. 2. Avowry, 89. 20 E. 3. Avowry, 131. Britton, Relief, pl. fol. 178. shall give this in acknowledgment of the seigniory. Kello-13. cites Vet. N. B. way, incerti temporis, 136.] tit. Ra-vishment de Gard; and this appears tit. Socage in the Old Tenures, that the heir in locage shall not pay relief, but shall double his rent in name of relief.

If a man had been infeoffed before the fature pay 10s. for relief. Co. Litt. 91.]

[4. If tenant holds of the lord by fealty, and to pay 10s. rent every 2 or 3 years, though it be not any annual rent, yet he shall of quia

emptores terrarum, to bold by 12 d. and fealty for all services, actions, and demands; yet he should pay relief; for this is incident to the tenure; per Skrene, ad quod non suit responsum. Br. Relief, pl. 10. cites 14 H. 4. 8.——Br. Incidents, pl. 22. cites S. C. per Skrene; but Hank. contra, therefore quære inde.

Where the tenure is by fealty only, there is no relief due; for all other services except fealty are severable. Co. Litt. 93. a.

Pc. Relief, [5. A fee farmer shall not pay any relief; for the rent is inpl. 5. cites Vet. Ten.
S. C.—— 45 E. 3. 15. Ancient Tenures, so. 4. b. because he ought not to Ibid. pl. 8. do other thing, but so as is contained in the feosfment. Britt.
cites 45 E.
3. 15. S. C.
per Finch.—But if the annual value be abridged by express reddendo, there the grantee of the fee-farm shall pay relief. Mo. 163. pl. 301. in the case of Saffron Walden.

[6. He who holds in frankalmoigne shall not pay any relief. Britt. fo. 61.]

[7.] [10. Of corporal service, or labour, or work of the tenant, no relief is duc. Co. Litt. 91. b.]

Entre be to ing upon his lord at Christmas, he shall not double this corporal service for relief. Co. Litt. 91. b. It seems because it is impossible to do this service double, being to be done by his own person at one and the same time.]

10 s. there the relief must be 10 s. because the other cannot be doubled, & sic de similibus. Co. Litt.

91. 2.

[248] [9.] [12. But if a man holds in socage by service to do certain work-days at the lord's harvest, he shall double this corporal service for his relief, because the particular time of daing it is not prescribed, but only to be done in the harvest; the which may be done by his own person, or may be done by the labour of any other man.

man. Autumn Vacation, 11 Car. So held by Master Herbert, reader of the Inner-Temple. Contra, Co. Litt. 91. b.]

[10.] [13. So it is when it is to plow the lord's land by certain days, or to work about a hedge by certain days, or such like.]

[11.] Abbot nor prior shall not render relief; for they do not come in by descent. But because the prior and the covent granted by their deed to the lord to hold in chivalry, and to render 100s. for relief at every avoidance of the prior, the lord distrained, and avowed for relief, as upon his very tenant, and the avowry awarded good. Brooke says, quod miror! Br. Tenures, pl. 77. cites 20 E. 3. and Fitzh. Avowry, 124.

[12.] Relief and heriot service are all in one and the same, condition, and the same law holds place in all cases. Per Frowike

Ch. J. Kelw. 84. pl. 7. Pasch. 21 H, 7. Anon.

(F. a) Relief. How much shall be paid.

[1. THE relief of knights, and all superiors, is the 4th part of their revenues. Co. 9. Lowe, 124. b. Co. Litt. 69. 2. b.

Co. 7. Nevill, 33. b.]

[2. An intire earldom shall pay 1001. for relief. Doct. Student, 14. Co. Litt. 69. a. b. 83. b. Magna Charta, cap. 2. Bracton, lib. 2. fo. 84. b. s. 2. Co. 7. NEVIL, 33. b. Selden, tit. Honor, 232.]

[3. An intire barony shall pay 100 marks for relief. Doctor Student, 14. Co. Litt. 69. a. b. 83. b. Co. 7. NEVIL, 33. b.

Selden, tit. Honor, 232.]

[4. A marquisdom, which consists of the revenue of 2 baronies, which amounts to 800 marks, shall pay for relief 200 marks. Co. 9. Lowe, 124. * b. Co. Litt. 69. a. b. 83. Co. 7. Fol. 516. NEVIL, 33. b. Selden, tit. Honor, 232.]

[5. A dukedom, which consists of the revenue of 2 earldoms, that is to say 800 l. a year, shall pay 200 l. for relief. Co. 9. Lowe, 124. b. Co. Litt. 69. a. b. 83. b. Co. 7. Nevil, 33. b. Selden, tit. Honor, 232.]

[6. Quære, what relief the king of the Isle of Man, or Waight, shall pay. Co. Litt. 83. b. This is not limited by the statute of magna charta.]

[7. An intire knight's fee ought to pay 1008. Doctor Stu- Co. Litt. dent, 14. Litt. 24. b. Co. 9. Lowe, 124. b. Gervasius de Til- 76. a. 83. b. bury, fol. 63. b. cap. de relevio. Co. Litt. 69.]

[8. And, pro rata, according to this value, if it be less. Litt. Co. Litt. 76. a. And this relief was, as some hold, certain by the common law; but the relief of earls and barons were incertain, and therefore were called relevia rationabilia; but the statute of Magna Charta, cap. 2. limits them in certain, and mentions also a knight's see.

A man may hold his land of his lord by the service of 2 knights fees, and then the heir, being of still age at the time of the death of his ancestor, shall pay to his lord 10 i. for relief. Co.

Litt. S4. a.

S. C. at pl. 22.

[249]

[9. Tenant by knight service, by a custom, may pay for an entire fee but 2 marks for relief. 40 E. 3. 9.]

[10. Upon the creation of a tenure any sum may be reserved, if more or less than the law appoints. 31 Ast. 15.]

[11. If a man be created an earl of a county, and that he shall have the 3d penny of the profits of the county, this is clearly such earl as shall pay 100l. for relief, within the statute of magna charta; for this was the ancient use of creation of earls. See

Selden's Titles of Honor, 131.]

[12. [So] if a man be created an earl of a county, and that he shall have pro tertio denario ejusdem comitatus, vel pro nomine ejusdem comitatus 201. or such sum, this is such earl as shall pay 1001. for relief, though he has but 201. value, which was the body of his county; and the relief is according to the value of 4001. for the relief is not paid according to the true value, but according to the dignity of an earl. See Selden, tit. Honor, 131.]

[13. [So.] if a man be created an earl of a county by letters patents, et ulterius rex concedit to him 201. annuity, ut honorem dignitatem predictos honorificentius supportare valeat, though this is not any part of the body of the earldom, but only an annuity for the supportation of his honour, yet he shall pay 1001. for his relief as an earl; for of late times the creations of earls have been made in this manner. Contra, Litt. 83. b.]

[14. [So] if the king creates J. S. earl of a county, and does not grant to him any land or annuity for the supportation of it, yet he shall pay 1001. for relief, because the relief is not to be paid according to the value of the county, but as earl. Contra, Co. Litt. 83. b.]

[15. If the king creates J. S. earl of a vill, or of a place within the county, yet he is such an earl as shall pay 100l. for relief.]

earl, and he aliens part of the land which is the body of the earl-dom, he shall not pay 1001. for a relief for his earldom which remains; but his relief shall be abated according to the value of the land which is aliened. 10 H. 5. in the Exchequer, ex parte Rememoratoris, the which intratur 9 H. 5. Ibidem, this is admitted upon the pleading, where the earl of Devon pleaded such plea; and it was adjudged no plea, because he does not shew what persons had the lands so aliened, by which the king might have remedy against them for their reliefs.]

[17. If the king gives land in fee absque aliquo inde reddendo, this is a knight service in capite, because it is the best service general, that is to say, escuage for defence of the realm; but because it is not expressed in the reservation by what part of a fee he shall hold, and the law cannot make it an entire see, or other part of a see, according to the value, it seems that he shall pay the value of the land by a year, according to a grand serjeanty. Autumnal Reading, 1635, held so by Master Herbert, reader of the

Inner-Temple.]

[18. So it is, if the king gives land, and does not express any tenure, it shall be a tenure be knight service in capite; and because it cannot be made certain any way by what part of a knight's fee he shall hold it, it seems he shall pay for relief the value of the land by a year, having resemblance to a grantl serjeanty; for relief is out of the statute of Magna Charta, c. there being no certain knight's fee, and then ought to be resorted to as was before the faid statute.]

[19. De serjeantiis vero nihil certum exprimitur, quid vel quantum dare debeant hæredes & ideo, juxta voluntatem dominorum dominis satisfaciant pro relevio, dum tamen ipsi domini rationem, vel mensuram non excedant. Bracton, lib. 2. fol. 84. b. s. 7. Gervase of Tilbury, fol. 63. b. cap. de Relevio de Baronie. For grand serjeanty the value of the land for a year shall be paid for 11 H. 4. 72. b. by Cockain, Litt. 35. The value * Br. Re-(over the charges and reprizes).]

[250]

lief, pl. 2. cites S. C.

per Cokain Ch. B. ad quod non fuit responsum.—Br. Tenure, pl. 13. cites S. C. accordingly.

[20. In divers provinces by the feudal law there used, the rent of a year of the feud shall be given to the lord for relief; and in other provinces in other manuer relief is given. Contii Methodus, 47.]

[21. By the law of England the tenant (in socage) ought to double the rent for relief, that is, he ought to pay for relief so much as the rent is by the year, and ought to pay his rent alfo. 16 H. 7. 4. b. Doctor and Student, 14. b. 28 E. 3. Statute of wards and relief. Bracton, lib. 2. fol. 85. b. f. 8. Litt. fo. 28. s. 126. Though the rent be payable at 4 or 5 terms of the year. Kell. incerti temporis, 136. 4 E. 2. Avowry, 200.]

[22. Tenant by knight service by a custom, may pay for an S. C. at pl.

entire see but 2 marks for relief. 40 E. 3. 9.]

23. It was agreed, and not denied, that where a lord avows for 100s. relief, where by custom of the country, or otherwife, he ought to have but 13s. 4d. there, if the lord has judgment to have return for 100 s. the tenancy shall be charged with 100s. for relief for ever. Br. Estoppel, pl. 25. eites 40 E. 3. 9.

(G. a) Relief. Who shall pay.

[1. HE that ought to be in ward, if he had been within age at If the king's the death of his ancestor, shall pay relief, if he be of tenant in chivalry full age at his death. 17 E. 3. 64.]

chivalry dies, his heir of full age, the heir shall for primer seisin, and shall pay his relief. Contra of heir within age, and in ward of the king, and fues fivery, he shall not pay relief. And the heir in socage, tenant of the king in chivalry, shall payrelief, and those shall find surety for their relies upon the suing out of the primer Seifin. Br. Relief, pl. 12. Ates F. N. B. 254. And says, see ibidem, 262. That where the tenant of the king in chivalry has iffue two daughters, and dies, the one of full age, the other within age, the eldest shall fue livery for her moiety, and shall pay relief for her moiety, and the other shall be in grand quousque, &cc.

See (I. a) pl 7.

[2. If the tenant be disselfed, and dies, his heir of full age, he shall pay relief; for he ought to be in ward if he had been within age. 17 E. 3. 64.]

3. Two coparceners; one dies, her heir of full age; she shall not pay a relief; for if she should pay any at all, she shall pay but the moiety, and that she cannot do; for a relief cannot be apportioned, for coparceners are but one tenant to the lord. 3 Le. 13. pl. 30. Mich. 8 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

[251] (H. a) Who. In respect of Estate.

Br. Re- [1. A Purchaser shall not pay relief, but only he who comes in by descent. * 40 E. 3. 9. 11 H. 4. 74. b. 17 E. 3. 63. b.]

If the te- [2. If the tenant at common law had aliened in fee to his name infeoff; eldest son and died, the son being of full age, he shall not pay bis beir aprelief; because he was in by purchase. Bracton, lib. 2. fol. 85.

collusion and 17 E. 3. 64.]

dies, bis [3. If the tenant enfeoffs his eldest son and dies, the son being beir of full of full age, he shall pay relief though he be in by purchase, age, it is a because he ought to be in ward, if he had been within age, ai aoifisup by the statute of Marlborough (and it seems relief is within our books, whether he the equity of it, or otherwise it cannot be law). 17 E. 3. 63. fiall have b. 64. 7 E. 3. Relief, 11. Nevertheless Fitzherbert says, relief either by the comcredo quod non est lex.] mon law, or by the statute of Marlbridge, cap. 6. But now the statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 5. has cleared that question, and that the lord shall have relief where the conveyance is made to any person by collusion, sec-

Co. Litt. 84. a.

[4. If the tenant aliens in fee, and dies before notice of the feoffment to the lord, his heir of full age, no relief shall be paid, because the heir is not his tenant; for the privity of the avorwy is determined by the death of the alienor, for the heir shall not be in ward. Dubitatur, 17 E. 3. 64.]

[5. If a feme pays relief, and after takes baron, and bas issue fol. 518. by him and then + dies, the baron shall not pay new relief, because he does not succeed as heir. Bracton, lib. 2. sol. 84. b. s. 7.]

See (G a) [6. A man shall not pay relief being of full age, but where, pl. 1.—See if he had been within age, he should be in ward, and e converso.

(I. a) pl. 7: 26 H. 8. 6. by Knightley said to be a ground.]

[7. A purchaser shall not pay the relief. 26 E. 3. 71. b. Bracton, lib. 2. fol. 84. b. s. 3. But only he who comes in by descent. Britton, fol. 177. b.]

[8. But, by the custom in Cornwall, the purchaser shall pay it. 14 H. 4. 5. b.]

S. P. But [9. A corporation aggregate shall not pay relief, for it is a soration perpetual corporation. Co. Litt. 70. b.]

conveys over the lands to any natural men and bis beirs, now relief, &c. and other incidents thereunto is due. And yet this possibility was remote potentia, but the reason is, cessione legis cessat ipsa lex, and the resion of the immunity was in respect of the body politic, which by the conveyance ever ceases. Co. Litt. 70. b. and lays, it is the same of an abbot and Lis successors. Ibid.

[10. An abbot or prior who is in by succession shall not pay • Br Relief, pl. 9. relief. 20 E. 3. Relief, 8. and Avowry, 124. 30 E. 3. Relief, 9. cites S. C. * 3 H. 4. 2. Because the corporation never dies. 3 E. 3. Every bishop in England Relief, 9. Co. Litt. 99.] hath a ba-[11. But by + prescription they may pay. 3 H. 4. 2. 8 R. 2. rony, and that barony

Itinere Cancii, title Relief, 14. Admitted by issue. 17 E. 3. 5. b. Co. Litt. 99.]

is holden of the king in capite, and yet the king can have neither wardship or relief. Co. Litt. 70. b. ---- 2 Inst. 7. S. P. --And yet the successor of a bishop or abbot may pay relief by prescription or grant. Co. Litt. 84. a. No relief if due upon succession unless it be by special reservation in point of tenure, or by custom also; agreed per tot. Cur. Jo. 133. Trin. 2 Car. B. R. Hungerford v. Haviland. + S. P. per Thirn. Ch. J. But not by the common law by the tenure. Br. Relief, pl. 9. cites 1 H. 4. 2. ———See the note on pl. 9.

[12. If a tenant gives the land to his fon and his feme in tail, and dies, by which the reversion descends upon the son, though he has the estate tail by purchase, yet he shall pay relief for the reversion descended. 26 E. 3. 71. b. said to be adjudged by all the counsel.]

[13. But if the tenant aliens in fee upon condition to leafe to kim- But where self for life, the remainder to his son in tail, the remainder to his land was own right beirs, and it is performed, and after he dies, his son father for Thall not pay relief for the remainder descended, because he bas life, the rethe tail by purchase. 26 E. 3. 71. b. Dubitatur.]

given to the mainder to the eldes

for in tail, the remainder to the right beirs of the father, and the father died, and after the fon died toitbeut iffue, and the youngest son entered; he was adjudged to pay relief as heir of his eldest brother, and not to be purchaser by the name of the right heir of the father. Br. Estoppel, pl. 25. cites 43 E. 3. 9.

[14. An heir female shall pay relief as well as the heir male. Doctor and Student, 14. b.]

[15. If land descends to an infant it being held in socage, he Chall pay relief. Doctor and Student, 14. b.]

16. Grandfather, father, and son, the grandfather held by relief and died, the father entered and enfeoffed his son and dies; there the lord may distrain the son for the relief of his grandfather before he accepts him for his tenant, and shall make avowry for the same relief; contra if he first accepts the feoffee for his tenant; for upon an alienation the lord is not bound to change his avowry before he be satisfied of the arrears due before; and here the fon is purchaser, but if he was in as heir and not as purchaser it had been otherwise. Br. Relief, pl. 7. cites 4 E. 3. 22.

17. If a man be seised of certain lands which is holden in -focage, and makes a feoffment in fee to his own use, and dies seised of the use, (his heir of the age of 14 years or more,) and no will by him declared, the lord shall have relief of the heir; and this by the statute of 19 H. 7. cap. 15. Litt. £ 126.

:8. Relief

Walden.

18. Relief is not due to the lord, but only from his very tenant in fee simple. Per Frowike Ch. J. Kelw. 82. pl. 2. Pasch. 21 H. 7. Anon.

(I. a) Relief. To whom it shall be paid.

Litt. 83. b. [I. I F the king bas the wardship of land held by others, by because the reason of his prerogative, yet the heir at full age shall king bad the pay relief to every of the common lords. * 24 E. 3. 24. b. wardship of 26 H. 8. 6. Bracton, lib. 2. fol. 85. s. 7. 39 E. 3. tit. Relief, I. lands by his 13 H. 7. 15. Co. Litt. 83. b.] prerogative,

and the lord upon every descent ought to have either wardship or relief.

* S. P. And per Hilliar, the other lords shall sue to the king by petition, and shall have their rents also. Brooke says, quære inde; for it seems that their seigniories are extinct. But see now the statute thereof, 2 E. 6. 8. Br. Relief, pl. 4. cites S. C.

S. P. But the king, or this lord who had the ward, shall not have relief also. But where a man bolds of several common persons several lands in chivairy, and the one has the ward within age by priority, and the others have the ward of the land held of them, there none shall have relief; for every lord has the ward of land held of him. Br. Relief, pl. 13. cites Vet. N. B. tit. Ravishment de Gard.

See the note [2. If an infant be in ward to J S. his guardian in chivalry, on pl. 7. he shall not pay relief to him at his full age.]

[253] [3. With this accords the law of Scotland. Skene, Regiam Majestatem, 68.]

[4. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant aliens, the mesne shall not have the relief. 14 H. 4. 5. b.]

Mo. 160. in [5. But by the custom in Gloucester, the lord shall have the rethe case of lief upon alienation of the tenant. 14 H. 4. 5. b.]

[6. If the tenant dies, bis heir within age, and the lord waives the ward, and takes him to his feigniory, in this case the lord shall not have relief at his full age, because he might have had the ward of the body and land. Co. Litt. 83. b.]

See (G. a)

[7. If the tenant be disselfed, and the disselfed and after at full age be recovers the land of the heir of the disselfeifor, he shall pay relief; because he could not be in ward † till the recovery, because of the descent to the heir of the disselfeifor. Co. Litt. 83. b.]

And though in this case the tenant held two manors, and died se sed of one, and the lord seised the body and lands of that manor, yet after recovery of the other manor by the heir at full age, the heir should pay relief for that manor; and so the same lord of the heir of the same tenant shall have both wardship during his minority, and relief at his sull age. Co. Litt. 83, b.

8. Tenant for life should have relief, &c. 2 Inst. 234.

9. Relief is not any service, but a flower of the service, and shall go to the executor. Arg. Cro. J. 28. pl. 4. Pasch. 2 Jac. B. R. in case of Mackworth v. Shipward.

(K. a) Relief. What Thing shall be paid. [Disjunctive.]

[1.] F tenant in socage holds to pay a pair of gilt spurs, or ss. in money, at the feaft of Easter, it is in the election of the tenant to pay which of them he will for relief; but if he does not pay when he ought, the lord may distrain for which of them he please. Co. Litt. 90. upon s. 126.]

[2. [But] if the tenant in socage be to attend upon bis lord at Christmass, or to pay 10s. there the relief ought to be 10s. because the other cannot be doubled. Co. Litt. 91. upon

[. 126₁]

(L. a) Relief. At what Time it shall be paid.

[1. IF tenant in scage dies, bis beir within age, he shall pay Br. Terelief immediately, as well as if he had been of full age. Dures, pl. 21 Aff. 15. by Tank.]

30. cites

pl. 1.

[2. But if tenant by knight fervice dies, his heirs within age, he shall not pay relief before sull age. 31 Ast. 15. Admitted.)

[3. After the death of the tenant in focage, relief is due immediately of what age soever the heir be, though he be not past the age of 14, because such lord cannot have the ward of the body, nor of the land of the heir. Litt. f. 127. Co. Litt. 91. where it is faid that the said words in Litt. (so that he be past the age of 14 years) are not any part of Littleton, but added after thereto.]

[4. If the tenant in focage dies before the rent-day, yet the [254] heir ought to pay the relief presently before the rent-day comes.

16 H. 7. 4. b. Littleton, f. 127.]

[5. Properly this ought to be paid before the homage or any other See (M. a) fervice shall be received. 17 E. 3. 64.

[6. After receipt of homage, 2 man shall not avow for relief. See (M. 4)

15 E. 3. Relief, 5. 16 E. 3. Relief, 10.]

[7. If the tenant in socage holds by fealty and 10s. or a pair of gilt spurs, if the heir be not so soon as conveniently he may, all circumstances considered, after the death of his ancestor ready upon the land to pay his relief, the lord may distrain for which of them he will; for upon default of the tenant, the election is given to the lord. Co. Litt. 91.]

[8. If the tenant in socage holds by a bushel of wheat, he ought to pay it for relief presents after the death of his ancestor, and the lord is not bound tarry till harvest; for this is to be had at all times of the year. Co. Litt. 91. b. 92.]

[9. But if the tenant holds by a rose, or a bushel of roses to be paid at Midsummer, he is not bound to pay it for relief after the death of his ancestor till the time of the year comes for the growth of them; for the law does not compet him to do impos-Vol. XX. fible sible things, nor to preserve them by art to other time than nature has ordained them. Co. Litt. 92.]

Fol. 520.

[10. But if tenant holds to pay certain saffron, he ought to pay it for relief presently after the death of his ancestor, before the time of growth, because it may naturally be preserved as well as corn, and it is to be had at all times of the year. Co. Litt. 92.]

In It was held by Frowike and Kingsmil for clear law, that if I make a lease for life, the remainder over in see, and after the tenant for life dies, yet the lord after his death shall not have relief, notwithstanding that his tenant be changed; but if he in remainder dies living the tenant for life, now by his death the right of a relief accrues to the lord, but it is not leviable during the life of tenant for life, because he is always tenant to his avowry, but immediately after the death of the tenant for life the lord may distrain for relief due by the death of him in the remainder. Keilw. 83. b. pl. 7. Pasch. 21 H. 7. Anon.

12. If lord and tenant are, and the tenant gives the land in tail, the remainder over in fee, and he in the remainder dies, and after the tenant in tail dies without heir of his body, quære if the lord shall have relief by reason of the death of him in the remainder, as well as if this remainder had been dependent upon a lease for term of life? It seems he shall not. Keilw. 84. a. pl. 7. Anon. And says, see like matter 11 H. 4. pl. 154. Scire

Facias.

(M. a) Relief. What shall be a Bar of Relief.

See (L. 2) [1. I F the lord accepts homage of his tenant, he shall not have relief of himself after. 3 E. 2. Avowry, 190.]

2. A man gave in tail pro homogio & servitio the donce reddend. 6d. pro omnibus servitiis. Et per judicium Cur. By this the donce shall be discharged of homage and of relief; but the reporter says it is not law. Br. Tenures, pl. 76. cites 13 R. 2. and Fitzh. tit. Avowry, 89.—But Brook says, see ibidem, 99. Anno 19 E. 3. A man gave land tenendum by 10s. pro omnibus servitiis, exactionibus, consuctud & demand and yet the tenant was compelled to pay relief; for this is incident as well to chivalry as to socrete; and note here. Br. Tenures, pl. 76.

as to focage; quod nota bene. Br. Tenures, pl. 76.

3. It was said, that anno 18 E. 3. a man avowed for relief upon the beir in socage for double the rent, the heir pleaded feoffment to hold by fealty and 10s. pro omnibus servitiis & demandis, and yet judgment was against the heir, and that this should not discharge the relief; for it is not due nor in esse till the ancestor dies, and therefore was not in esse to be released. Br. Relief, pl. 6. cites 5 E. 4. 42.

Mo. 643.

4. Alienation of the land by the heir, and acceptance of the rent due after, is no bar to the lord of his relief due on death sec. S. C. of the ancestor. 2 And. 178. Mich. 43 & 44 Eliz. Parkham v. Norton.

(N. a) Relief. Remedy for Recovery thereof. Actions, &c. and Pleadings.

1. I T was said, that relief is only a thing personal, and yet where there are lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant is distrained by the lord for the relief of the mesne, he shall have writ of mesne against the mesne to discharge him thereof. Br. Relief, pl. 11. cites 39 H. 6. 31.

2. And, per Rolf, 7 H. 6. 13. if the relief be due to the * An the lord, he shall * [not] bave action of debt thereof; but if he dies, editions of his || executors shall have thereof action of debt against the te- mis-printed, nant; quod non negatur. Br. Relief, pl. 11.

by leaving out the word (not). For the Year-book is express, that the lord shall not have writ of debt thereof, because it is parcel of his feigniory, which is a franktenement in him. 7 H. 6. 13. pl. 84.

The lord may † distrain, but he cannot have debt for it; but his executor or administrator may have debt, but I cannot distrain for it. Co. Litt. 83. a b. —— Co. Litt. 162. b. S. P. because it is no rent, but a Cafual improvement.

† 4 Rep. 49. b. cites 7 H. b. 13. 22 Ast. pl. 52.

I Arg. D. 140. pl. 37.

2 Le. 179. Trin, 30 Eliz. B. R. in LORD NORTH'S CASE, some were of opinion, that debt lies for relief; for there is a contract by fealty. ——— And 2 Roll. Rep. 371. Doderidge J. held clearly, that debt lies for relief by the lord himfelf; and that so are all the books in the time of E. 1. throughout the law almost, and cites Fitzh. tit. Distress, in time of E. 1. And the reason is, because it is not a fervice, but a cafual profit and duty, by reason of the service, though it be in the realty.

S. P. per Holt Ch. J. Show. 36. Trin. r.W. & M. in case of Shuttleworth v. Garret bec use they have no other remedy. ———They may have debt for it by the common law. Co. Litt.

162. b.

3. And Brooke says, see 32 H. 8. Ro. 528. in C. B. debt was brought by executors of the lord, of relief due to the testator. And the defendant pleaded in bar, and traversed the tenure, and so to issue; and therefore it seems clearly, that debt lies for the executors. Br. Relief, pl. 11.

4. The statute of 32 H. 8. of avorvries, extends only to rent fuit, or service, so as relief is not within the purvieu of the law, because it is no service, but a duty, by reason of the tenure or service. 2 Inst. 95.

5. A. the grandfather died seised, leaving B. his son (the Cro. E. father of C. the defendant) at age. B. made C. his executor, 883. pl. 17and died. O. S. as executor of an executor, brought debt Eliz. B. R. against C. for relief. It was agreed by the court, 1st, That an Lord St. executor may have an action of debt for relief by the common Brandring. law, without fealty 32 H. 8. and that seifin of the services need S. C. ad. not be alleged, when the executor brings & debt for relief: otherwise judged for when the party himself avows. 2d, That debt may be brought for it in a foreign county, and the defendant cannot plead nibil debet; for relief is made certain by the statute of Magna Charta, cap. 2. 3dly, That debt well lies an inft an executor for relief; the telletor could not wage his law for that, because it is certain, and a real duty. Also in the case of relief, there was a real contract in the ereation of the tenure. Poph. said, that in debt, for relief, the plaintiff ought to shew the tenure in special, and by what pare of a knight's the plaintiff. §[256] knight's fee the tenure is, that the Court may judge what is due for relief. And judgment was given for the lord St. John, and after error was brought; but the judgment was affirmed.

Noy, 43. Oliver St. John v. Bawdrip.

6. If relief be due by tenure, then distress is incident; but if Per Whitby custom, no distress lies, unless especial custom warrants it. lock J. Lat. 95. Jo. 133. Trin. 2 Car. B. R. Hungerford and Haviland-S. C. cites '11 Rep. 44. Bullen v. Godfrey. Lat. 130. per Whitlock J. S. P.

(O. a) Tenures taken away.

Mr. Madox 1. 12 Car. 2. ENACTS, That all tenures by knights service in his Historical cap. 24. s. 1. Enacts of the king, or of any other person, and by ry of the knights service in capite, and by socage in capite of the king, and Exchequer, P. 432, 433. the fruits thereof, Shall be taken away. And all tenures of any makes the honours, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, held either following of the king or of any other person, shall be turned in free and oblervations on this ftacommon socage. tute. He fays, it is wonderful to see how much the notion of tenancy in capite, which is in itself plain and simple, has been obscured and perplexed by writers within the memory of man. There have been eager disputes about the tenants in capite. By what I have read of the controversy, I cannot perceive that it was ever agreed amongst the disputants, what tenancy in capite was; or that they had a distinct notion of it. There is one thing here to be remembered, which may justly seem strange. I must speak of it with great submission. It was intended, by the above statute, to take away and abolish tenure by knight-service, whether of a king or of a subject, with the fruits and appendages thereof, viz. wardthip, marriage, relief, escuage, &c. and to take away wardship, marriage, relief, escuage, and other feedal profits or services incident either to tenure by barony, or by serjeanty. But there are some clauses in that statute relating to tonures, which, if I do not mistake, are worded in terms so complex and indistinct, that, like a two-edged sword, they out both ways. In general, as to the nature of tenancy in capite, one may prefume to lay, it has not been sufficiently cleared by the common lawyers, or even the antiquaries of our nation. Sir Edward Coke has no luck in the explication he gives of it in his first Inst. p. 108. a. Nor is his opinion in the case needful to be recited here. Mr. Selden speaks as if be thought a baren and a tenant in capite was all one. (Not. & Specil. & Eadm. p. * 868 & tit. Hon. p. 575.) And Sir Henry Spelman fays, that in the time of king Hen. 2. every tenure in capite was accounted a tenure by barony. (Glossar. ad vocem Baro. p. 73. col. 2.) In this case, both Mr. Selden and Sir H. Spelman, although in part they are not far from the truth, have fallen short of giving a clear and just explication. I think it may be rightly said, that in the ancient times (suppose about the time of king Hen. the 2d) most of the tenants holding of the king in capite, were real or reputed berons; not barely because they held of the king in capice, but partly for that reason, and chiefly because they beld of him large seigniories. And there was, as I take it, so great a likeness between a baron and one of the king's tenants in capite, who held a large seigniory, that in the reign of king H. 2. they made little or no differ ence between them. There was also another thing which made tenancy by barony, and tenancy of the king in capite, by knight-service, so like the one to the other; and that was the indetermined quantity or number of knights fees necessary to compose a barony. For whereas seme baronies or honours were exceffive large, confisting of a very great number of fees; others again were so small, that by the quantity of them, or the number of the fees whereof they confifted, they could not be known to be baronies. In some, every baron, properly to called, was a tenant in capite; but every tenant in capite was not, by reason of his tenure in capite, a baron, or reputed baron. From the reign of king Henry 3. downwards to the succeeding times, the tenants in capite became very numerous; so that it sometimes happened that a man was the king's tenant in capire of a half, or a quarter, or a noth part of a knight's fee, which small tenancies in capite were far different from baronies. Again, if a man beld of the king in capite by some other tenure than barony or chivalry, such person, although he was a tenant in capite, was by no means a baron. Men seem to have been led into their consused way of speaking upon this subject, by supposing tenure in capite to have been a ditainch kind of tenure, in like manner as tenure by knight's fervice, focage, and † others were, which suppression is fullacious and untrue. For tenure in capite goas fo far from being a distinct fort of conure by welf, that it might be predicated of the several other tentres, that is to fav, a man might hold of the king in capite, either by barony or by light fervice, or by ferjeanty, or by focage, or by fee farm. And if it be faid that a man held of the kills in capite, without mentioning expressly by what jerwice, it is ea be understood, that he held of the king immediately, in opposition to his bolding +[257]

bolding immediately of another; and that phrase was used in such case, when the service was not in que-Rion, but the tenure only, to wit, whether it was mediate or immediate. But the fallacious supposition above-mentioned had entered into the minds of men long before the reign of king Charles 2d. For example: Queen Elizabeth by her letters patent, dated at Westminster the 19th of November, in the 42d year of her reign, granted to RICHARD RYVES AND JOHN BURGES, gentlemen, the manor or lordthip of Borscombe in Wiltshire, and divers other lands in see-simple; the tenure was reserved in these words: Tenendum de nobis, bæresibus & successoribus nostris, ut de manerio nostro de Eist-Greenwich, in comitata nostro Kancia, per fidelitatem tantum in libero & communi focazio, & non in capite, nec per fervitium militare, pro cumibus aliis redditious, servitiis, &cc. (To be held of us, our heirs and successors, as of our manor of East-Greenwich, in the county of Kent, by fealty only, in free and common focage, and not in capite, nor by military service, for all other rents and services.) Ex. 8. parte orig. 42 Eliz. The same queen, by letters patent, dated the 14th day of March, in the same 42d year, granted to Sir John Spencer, in fee-fample, the cite of the priory of Tortington in Suffex, &c. Tenendum de nobis, &c. in the same words as above in the grant to Ryves. Ib. Rot. 10. And many other letters patent, made in the reign of that queen, and afterwards, are of the same tenure; whereas the latter words (& non in capite) are (with great submission) repugnant to the sormer, tenendum de nobis. And therefore the tenure (if any) referred to the crown by those patents, was in truth, tenure in ca--Dr. Brady, in his Gloffary, verbo Tenentes in capite de rege, says, that besides the temants in capite by military fervice, and fuch as were bound to military fervice in and by their tenure in Serjeanty, there were small tenants in capite by petit serjeanty. Milprinted for 168.

For more of Tenuce in general, see Abouty, Distress, Guardian, Melne, Prerogative, and other proper titles.

Term-Time.

1. ASSUMPSIT, &c. and declared of a promise made 5 June, to pay money in Trinity term next ensuing, and averred, that the next Trinity term after the said promise began the 7 June, 30 Eliz. and ended on the 26 day of the same month, and that the defendant had not paid. Defendant pleaded non-affumpfit. The plaintiff had a verdict. It was must write moved in arrest of judgment, that the effoign-day of the said Tri- the pernity term was the 3 of June, 30 Eliz. and so the term in which the promise is to be performed must be Trinity Term in 31 Eliz. and so the action is brought too soon. But some of the Court held, that the plaintiff ought to have judgment; for according to common intent, it is not term until full term; and therefore, when the promise was made between the essoign-day and the common day of appearance in court the common people lock upon the term to be when the justes fit in court; but others e contra. But however they gave judgment for the plaintiff; for 3 judges held, that when the defendant pleaded non-assumpsit, he had agreed, that there was such a term as the plaintiff had alleged, though, in truth, it commenced before the promise; for the \mathbf{U} 3 defendant

S. C. 1193, that Anderfon was of opinion that the plaintiff formance of the promise year ionger, but that the other 3 J. held ftrugly the co... trary, by reason of the common intendment. and that fo it is utually let down in the almanack; and _ lays, that afterwards judgment Was given for the pliantiff, mention the defendant should have set it forth in his plea, or have given evidence of the truth of this matter to the jury, which not having done, the Court is not bound to inquire the truth thereof, any farther than any other * matter in fact not appearing to them. but does not And. 240. pl. 256. Pasch. 32 Eliz. Bishop v. Harecourt.

particular reason of such judgment. —— Cro. E. 210. pl. 6. S. C. and that the other 3 justices held contra to Anderson, because the plaintiff had expressly alleged, that the term began 7 June, and the defendant had no denied it, and the court ex officio are not to search the rolls of the court, &c. but admitting they ought so to do, and though in law the essoign-day is the first day of the term, and write may be returned then, yet in common speech that is the first day when the cours sits; and Anderson against his own opinion gave judgment for the plaintiff. ______ 5 Rep. 37. a. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

258] † S. P. Godb.33.in 2. The + whole term is but as one day, and all the judgments in B. R. are entered as upon the 1st day of the term. Per Cur. case of Har-3 Bulst. 114. Mich. 13 Jac. Anon. Jey v. Reymolds. -

S. P. 5 Rep. 74. in Wymark's case. ————Though to some purposes the term is but as one day in law, yet to other purposes it is not so. As, for instance, if there be continuances, there can be no judgment before they are entered. Arg. and admitted by the Court. 8 Mod. 190. Mich. 10 Geo. in case of Miller v. Bradley.

- 3. Midsummer-day was on a Wednesday, and if that had not been, that Wednesday had been the last day of Trinity term, but now it was on a Tuesday; for, per Holt Ch. J. Trinity term may begin, but cannot end on Midsummer-day, and in such a year there can be no return in tres septiman' Trin. But it must be Die Jovis post tres septiman' Trin. And this, he said, had not happened in 100 years before. Farr. 17. Pasch. 1 Annæ, B. R. Anon.
- 4. Though the next day after the last day of the term be not, in strictness, part of the term, and therefore (as Mr. Vernon infifted) could not be a day to make any motion on the petty bag side, yet as to other purposes it is part; and therefore a motion then made, to dismiss a bill for want of prosecution, on 2 certificate from the fix clerk, that no profecution had been within 3 terms, of which the last term was one, was denied by the Master of the Rolls. Wms.'s Rep. 522. Mich. 1718. Anon.

5. So where the last seal continued 3 mornings, and computing the 3d morning according to the day of the month, it would be a proper time to move to make a report absolute, viz. it would end of page then be above 8 days after service, it was held by the Master of the Rolls, that the report cannot as yet be made absolute; for though this seal lasts 3 days, yet it is all a continuance only of the first day, and so the time not yet out. Wms,'s Rep. 522. pl. 147. was made Mich. 1718. Anon. cites Hill. Vacation, 1721. by Ld. C. King in 1730.

> For more of Term-Time in general, see Excutions, Budgmento, Celte, and other proper titles.

a ni baA note added by the editor at the 523. it is faid that the like determination

Testatum.

(A) Good.

I. If I recover goods by action brought in Middlesex, I may, upon a testatum, have a capias into any foreign county.

Per Williams. 2 Le. 67. pl. 90. in Noon's case.

2. Testatum is grounded upon a former return filed, that the party has nothing in the county where the action is brought. Yelv. 179. Trin. 8 Jac. in case of Goodier v. Junce, cites 18 H. 6. 27. and 2 H 6. 9.

3. A ca. sa. was awarded with a testatum, where no capias bad been awarded before, and for that reason it was reversed. Cro. J. 246. in case of Goodyere v. Ince, says a precedent was cited between Jones and

4. An action was brought by original, and judgment was had the last paper day of Trinity term. It was objected, that this judgment could not be figured till after the quarto die post, &c. of the present Michaelmas term, and therefore a teflatum ca. sa. being brought in this Michaelmas term must be irregular; because there could be no ca. sa. on a judgment not figned, and consequently nothing to ground a testatum ca. fa. upon, especially this action being brought by original. But it was answered, that when the judgment was signed, though in the latter end of Trinity term, this, by relation, is a sufficient foundation to sue out a capias the first day of Michaelmas term, which will be a warrant to found a testatum returnable tres Trin. and so good. Per Cur. this, by relation, is a judgment of the first day of the term in which it was obtained, which is sufficient to ground a ca. sa. and consequently a testatum ca. sa. And if there is no difference between an action by bill and by original, it is regular: but if continuances had been entered, no execution could be prior to such entry. 8 Mod. 189, 190. Mich. 10 Geo. B. R. in error on a judgment in C. B. Miller v. Bradley.

capias issued to the county palatine of Durbam, and a copy thereof having been served on the desendant, the Court was moved to stay proceedings; and counsel being heard on both sides, the Court gave their opinions seriatim, that the testatum capias to the behop was not the process that the desendant should be served with, pursuant to the stat. 12 Geo. 1. cap. 29. but that the capias which the bishop issues, is the proper process wherewith he should have been served, and upon which he would have been arrested, if this act had not been made, and the act has not altered the law in that particular; and thereupon the Court stayed the proceedings which had been had on the service of the testatum capias. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 38. Mich. 1 Geo. 2. Beake & al. v. Smith Ar.

U 4 process

6. A capias in Middlesen, and a testatum capias may be sued out both together. Arg. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 392. Mich. 3 Geo. 2. in the case of Porter v. Jones, it was said to have been settled about 3 years-ago in the case of Stone v. Stone.

7. A motion was made in Easter term 1735, to stay proceedings on a testatum capias, a copy of which had been ferved on the defendant in the county palatine of Lancaster, without taking out of a mandate thereon from the chancellor of the county palatine; and a rule to shew cause being granted, the Court upon hearing counsel held, that the process was well served, and purfuant to the statute of 5 Geo. 2. cap. 27. and therefore the rule to shew cause was discharged. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 119, 120. Trin. 8 & 9 Geo. 2. Byer v. Whitaker and others.

(B) Necessary. In what Cases.

1. A N elegit issued into the country of Lancaster, which mentioned another elegit issued before into London, and returned nibil, and upon the testatum it was commanded to extend all the that no such goods and land, &c. But in truth, no writ. was awarded before into London. This was held to be a manifest error by reason of the testatum, whereas without a testatum the plaintiff that recovered might have had an elegit into as many counties as he had pleased. Cro. J. 246. pl. 4. Trin. 8 Jac. in the Exchequer. Goodyere v. Ince.

179. Goodyere v. Junce. S. C. accordingly. _____ 2 Brownl. 208. S.C. that no writ issued to the sheriff of London.

> 2. A man is outlawed in Middlesex, a capias utlagatum may be fued out against him into any other county without a testatum. Vent. 33. Trin. 21 Car. 2. B. R. in a nota there.

3. A. brought debt in London and had judgment and fued out a feri facias directed to the sheriff without a testatum sieri facias into London, by virtue whereof the defendant's goods were taken . in execution in Middlesen, and for this reason the judgment was set aside as irregular. 8 Mod. 282. Trin. 10 Geo. 1725. Goddard v. Gilman.

4. So where an action was brought in the county of S. and upon judgment for the plaintiff he took out a fieri facias di-rected to the sheriff of W. without a tellatum; execution was set 8 Mod. 282. cites Mich. 1725. White v. Cornwall.

5. A scire facias was sued out into Middlesex against the defendant as bail, and a fieri facias issued to the sheriff of that county,

Brown!. 207. S. C. but it is not bial stads writ issued, but that the theriffs of Lopdon made no fuch return. ----Yciv.

county, who returned nulla bona, then a common fieri facias was executed in London, without mentioning it to be a testatum. And the Court held it good, and said, there was no occasion to insert the form of a testatum in the writ, in order that the writ itself might shew it was a testatum; and that if it had been necessary they would have given leave to amend. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 79. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. Oades v. Forrest.

(C) Return thereof.

1. O N a judgment in Staffordsbire, the plaintiff sued out a fi. fa. with a testatum into Worcestersbire. It was moved that this ought to be fet aside, because no fi. fa. bad ever gone into Staffordsbire, and the sheriff of Staffordshire made affadavit that he never returned any fi. fa. in the cause. Sed non allocatur for the fi. fa. upon which the testatum is founded, is returned of course by the attornies themselves, as originals are; if you search the file you may find one, and that is sufficient. 2 Salk. 589. pl. 2. Mich. 7 W. 3. B. R. Palmet v. Price.

2. Executors brought 2 scire facias's of the same teste, but [261] different returns, the one tested October 22, returnable November 14. the 2d returnable November 23. So by rule of Court defendant had 4 days from the return of the 2d scire facias to plead, which indeed was all that remained of the term. Defendant did not plead. Plaintiff takes out a fi. fa. returnable the same last day, to warrant a testatum. And per Cur. it was well; for though defendant has 4 days to plead after the return of the 2d scire facias, yet that is in favour to him when he does not plead; the judgment is of the day of return of the 2d sci. f2. and he may take out a fi. fa. after to warrant the testatum; and the secondary remembered a case where a fi. fa. was returnable before judgment affirmed was held good in favour of execution, to warrant a testatum. Far. 138. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Austin v. Crifby.

For more of Testatum in general, see Ball, Devastabit, Executions, Teste, and other proper titles.

Testatum Existit.

(A) Pleadings by Testatum Existit. Good or not.

1. I N covenant the plaintiff declared, quod'cum per indentu-2 Roll. Rep. 110. Butram testatum existit, that the defendant infeoffed the plaintiff TIPANT V. of such lands, and therein covenanted to save him harmless from all HOLMAN, S. C. And dowers and incumbrances, which he had not done, &c. . Upon it was faid demurrer to this declaration the plaintiff had judgment. Arg. that it Upon error brought it was affigued, that the declaration was was resolved ill, because it did not expressly allege that the defendant made Mich. 31 & 32 Elis. a feoffment to him, but only by a quod cum testatum existit, that fuch which is only a recital; but all the Court resolved the contrary, pleading as and that the difference is where it is by way of declaration, here is good, because the and where by way of bar or replication; for in the declaration feoffment testatum existit is sufficient to induce the action, and to assign is pleaded the breach; and the judgment was affirmed. Cro. J. 537. only by ducement of pl. 2. Trin. 17 Jac. B. R. Bultivant v. Holman.

the action, because this action is only to recover damages; and that in the New Book of Entries are 3 precedents, where quod testatum est was pleaded, as in our case, and held a good plea. 1st, Upon a bargain and sale, testatum est quod harganizavit. 2dly, Upon demise of a lease for years, viz. testatum est quod dimissi, the case of which record is reported in 9 Rep. 8. Bradshaw's case. 3dly, Of a grant of an annuity, viz. testatum est per indenturam quod concess. And Doderidge J. said, is there was any difference between those cases and the case at bar, it is, that in those cases the grant took essect by the deed only, whereas in the principal case; a further act is to be executed, viz. livery of seisin, but it seems that there is no diversity; for though nothing passed by the seossiment by reason of its insufficiency, yet the seossee has good cause to have action of covenant, and since the covenant is in the same deed by which the land was conveyed, he may as well have it as he may plead the other, quod Crooké and Haughton J. concesserunt; and the judgment was affirmed, absente Mountague Ch. J.—Jenk. 331. pl. 63. S. C. and takes notice of the difference where the pleading is by way of bar or replication, according to Cro. J. as above.

* [262]
2 Lev. II.
HOLBECH
v. BENNET, S. C.
and the fame exception taken by Hale Ch.
J. but adjornatur.—
2 Keb. 825.
pl. 45. S. C. fays, that the avowry

2. In replevin, &c. the defendant avowed for that the place where, &c. was parcel of the manor of F. &c. and that time out of mind the mayor, *&c. of Coventry, and one Millon and athers were seised in see thereof; and being so seised by indenture made between them of one part, and one Bassnet of the other part testatum existit, that the said corporation and the natural persons had demised the said manor to the said Bassnet, &c. Hale Ch. J. said, and the same was agreed to per Cur. that this plea was ill, because the avowant had not laid the lease in Bassnet by an express averment in sact, but only by a testatum existit, which is not good good pleading. 2 Saund. 317. 319. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. Bennet being ill, judgment and Holbech's cafe. was affirmed in the Exchequer-chamber.

3. Debt was brought upon an indenture of charter-party 3 Keb. 94. not made between parties, in which there was a covenant with pl. 40. 115. the plaintiff, who was a stranger to the indenture, and no party thereto; and the plaintiff declared by testatum existit. And the Court were all of opinion, that the declaration by testatum existit is good, though it be in debt, and not in well enough covenant, and brought by him alone to whom the debt is here in due; and gave judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Lev. 74. Hill. anicles, 24 & 25 Car. 2. B. R. Cooker v. Child.

pl. 23. Co-KER V. CHILD, S. C. And per Cur. k is debt, as on though testatum existit in debt on demise is ill. And afterwards judgment was given for the plaintiff.-S. C. cited Lutw. 535. Trin. 5 W. & M. in the cate of Boswal v. RAWSTERNE; and the difference was there taken, that where action of debt is brought on covenant to pay money, it is good by way of testatum existit; but where it is upon a demise reserving rent, it is not good; and thereupon an exception that such declaration by testatum, &c. was not good in debt, was over ruled.

4. In covenant the plaintiff declared, that he was seised in fee, and that by indenture made between the plaintiff and Eliz. bis wife of the one part, and the defendant of the other part, testatum existit that the plaintiff and his wife demised. It was objected, that it being shewn that the husband was sole seised, the husband and wife could not demise; sed non allocatur; for it is not affirmed, but only that by the indenture it is witnessed; for the testatum is a rehearsal of that. 2 Salk. 515. pl. 2. Pasch. 2 W. & M. B. R. Woodward v. Cliffe.

For more of Testatum Existit in general, see Covenant, and other proper titles.

The teste is the war.

sant of the writ. Cro.

E. 592. pl.

33. Mich.

39 & 40

Eliz. C. B.

Grondy v.

Ischara.

* Teste.

(A) What Time there ought to be between the Teste and Return of Writs.

I. I N assise, the justices saw by the teste of the patent that it was brought within the 15 days before the assise; and therefore they would not take the assise. Br. Assise, pl. 316. cites 30 Ass. 44.

[263]

2. 13 Car. 2. stat. 2. cap. 2. In all personal actions and actions of ejectione sirms by original writ in B. R. or C. B. after issue joined and judgment had, there shall not need to be 15 days betwixt the teste and return of any venire facias, babeas corpus jur. or distr. jur. seri facias, or ca. sa. other than cap. ad sat. whereon a writ of exigent after judgment is to be ewarded and cap. ad sat. against the defendant, in order to make a bail liable.

This act shall not extend to popular actions, except debt upon

2 E. 6. of tithes.

rs Med.
451. S. C.
sccordingly.
—LdRaym.
Rep. 671.
S. C. accordingly.

3. In writ of appeal of murder there ought to be 15 days between the teste and return, but the want thereof is cured by appearance and pleading in chief. 1 Salk. 63. pl. 4. Pasch. 13 W. 3. B. R. Wilmot v. Tiler.

4. It was resolved, it was not necessary to have 15 days return of process in a franchise; for the reason of them in the court of Westminster is, because that time is judged necessary for people to come from the remote parts to which the process of those courts does extend, which does not hold in franchises. 12 Mod. 524. Trin. 13 W. 3. B. R. Bidolph v. Veal.

5. One was outlawed for murder and brought error, and the outlawry was reversed, and the defendant committed to Newgate to undergo his trial next sessions; and Holt Ch. J. said, that to try the defendant in B. R. there must be a venire facias returnable at the common day, and 15 days between the teste and return of it. 12 Mod. 544. Trin. 13 W. 3. and 562. Mich. 13 W. 3. the King v. Young.

6. Defendant had obtained a rule for plaintiff to shew cause why writ of capias ad respondendum should not be quashed, there not being 15 days between the teste and return thereof. The rule was discharged, this being matter of error, and not of irregularity. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 295. Trin. 10 G. 2. Williams v. Faulkner.

7. Attachment of privilege bore teste 23d, returnable Jan. 31. Defendant moved to quash the writ for want of 15 days between the teste and return, and a rule was made to shew cause, which was afterwards made absolute, the Court con- this might fidering the attachment of privilege in the nature of an original writ. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 297, 298. Trin. 11 & 12 advantage G. 2. Haward, Attorney, v. Dinison.

porter makes a quete whether not pass been taken of by plea in abatement, or by writ of error. Ibid. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 149. S. C. and the prothonotaries said, they did not know that the practice required 15 days, but usually there were 8, and sometimes 4. The Court observed, that then nothing seems fettled by the practice, and said, that the common law requires 15 days between the teste and return of all writs; and if the practice has not settled it otherwise, the law ought to prevail in this as well as in other cases; and so the rule was made absolute.

(B) Good or not. And where it shall be said to be prior to the Cause of Action.

1. TF the tenant in affife or pracipe quod reddat aliens the Br. Briefs, day of the teste of the writ, yet the writ is good, and S.C. shall not abate; for this day is all the day of the plaint in law; quod nota. Br. Jours, pl. 44. cites 17 Ass. 21.

2. In formedon the tenant may appear at the first day, and may abate this writ; and new writ may be brought bearing pl. 17. cites date mesne between the 1st day and the 4th day, and therefore S. C. it shall not abate. Br. Jours, pl. 33. cites 24 E. 3. 24.

3. In scire facias the prayee in aid cast protection bearing Br. Jours, date the 7th day of January, to continue for a year, and after S. C. the plaintiff brought re-garnishment, bearing date the 8th day of Jan. then next after, scilicet, the last day of the year, and well, per Finch. for a man may bring a new writ the same day that his writ abates, quære, for by 4 H. 6. 7. a man may bring writ the same day that the disseifin was made. Brief, pl. 40. cites 40 E. 3. 18.

4. And get the teste of the writ to some respects shall serve for all the day, for alienation such a day or jointenancy this day shall not abate the writ, for the writ shall have relation to all this day that it bore teste; and therefore it is pending the writ. Br. Brief, pl. 40. cites 40 E. 3. 18.

5. Note per Catesby J. That if the recordare bears date before the plaint affirmed, or if mittimus bears date before the fine came into the Chancery, or if writ of error bears date before judgment, or if indictment be taken after the teste of the certiorari which comes to remove it; yet if those are removed the courts to which they are improved shall hold plea. And so it is put in use at this day of writ of error, for all are the courts of the king; and yet the writ of error is si judicium inde redditum sit. And therefore see that the first court, to which it comes, needs not to fend the record till the judgment be given; but if they send it, then the higher court may proceed upon it. Contra often in court baron. Br.

Br. Journes Accounts, 264

which

Cause de Remover, &c. pl. 32. cites 1 R. 2. 4.

6. In assis the seisin and disseisin was found for the plaintiff, Br. Brief, · and that it was done the 15th day of May, and the writ of the pl. 446. cites S. C. assis bore teste the same day, and yet the plaintiff recovered by ----And award, after long debate; and yet per Ellerker and Fulth. per Wefton if a joint all this day is the day of the writ; and so the writ bore fcoffment be made the teste besore the disseisin. Br. Jours, pl. 34. cites 4 H. 6. 7.

fame day that the writ of affile bears teste, and the tenant pleads jointenancy by deed bearing date the same day, the jointenancy is void; for this shall be taken to be done pending the writ; for all the day is the day of the writ; but Strange and Martin e contra, and otherwise it shall be mischief; for the disseissor may make several alienations the same day, &c. and therefore judgment was for the plaintiff; quære if the eause was not in as much as the day in their werdiet of the disserties is not material. Br. Jours, pl. 34. cites

4 H. 6. 7.

7. Upon trespass or robbery, the party may have action béaring date the same day; quod instanti die fecit transgr.

&c. Br. Jours, pl. 34. cites 4 H. 6. 7. per Rolf.

8. Bond was made 29 Aug. 13 Jac. and the latitat bore 8 Mod. 344. PERRY V. teste before the bond scilicet the 29 June, 13 Jac. yet being re-Kirk. Hill. turnable in Mich. term it is good; and the process always 11 Geo. 1. bears teste the last day of the term before. Cro. J. 561. The plaintiff in al-Hill. 17 Jac. B. R. Pigot v. Rogers. fumplit counted of a promissory note, upon producing whereof it appeared the defendant was to have 6 weeks from the date thereof to pay the money, but within the fix weeks he was arrested on a latitat, whereupon it was infifted that the action was not maintainable. But it was answered, that the declaration was above 6 weeks after date of the note, and that is all that the Court ought to take notice of. For the original process was only to bring the defendant in cuttodia mareschalli, which may well be before the cause of. action. The Court held that to be the constant difference, for the plaintiff may sue out a latitat before the cause of action, but he cannot declare till after the cause of action does arise.

 [265] 2 Jo. 149, 150. S. C. and that there is veritas legis and veritas facti, and that the declaration is according to the truth of the fact. and the teste of the '; writ must ncceffarily be in the

9. In case, the plaintiff declared, that the defendant took out a latitat 21 Januarii 32 Car. 2. ac etiam billæ, &c. whereas he owed him nothing. Upon not guilty, a special verdict was found that the latitat was teste 28 Novembris 32 Car. 2. but was really taken out 21 Januarii 32 Car. 2. Pemberton Ch. J. said, the course of the Court is to teste latitats taken out in the vacation, as of the term preceding; and the * course of the Court is the law of a court; he might have declared, that the defendant sued out a latitat the 21st Jan. teste the 28 Nov. preceding, and if he be not estopped to declare so, furely the jury may find the whole matter; and so judgment was given pro quer'. 1 Vent. 362, 363. Hill. 33 & 34 Car. 2. in B. R. Walburgh v. Saltonstall.

term, though the writ be profecuted after. -----Skin. 32. S. C. adjudged, and that it was faid that if he had pleaded it as taken out 21 Jan. teste 28 Nov. it would have been unquestionably good, and that so it should be now, the course being known.

Original process may bear date out of term, because it issues out of Chancery, which is always open; but judicial process issues out of those other courts which are open only in term-time, and therefore must bear date in term; per Doderidge J. Lat. 11. in case of Ramsey v. Mitchell. _____ 118. S. C.

10. In debt for rent, the desendant pleaded an eviction by Indebema elegit, teste 15 July; and adjudged 5 Will. & Mar. that the beil-bond, it elegit was void; for the Court will take notice that it was tested out of term. Ex relatione M'ri place. Ld. Raym. Rep. 4. tion, that the Pasch. 6 W. & M. C. B. Ball v. Rowe.

appeared by the declarawrit was Jued out in the long vacation, out of term-time, and exception was taken; for that the Court must judicially take notice of the beginning and end of the terms, as well moveable as immoveable; and that the 18th of July was after Trinity term was ended, and therefore that the writ was a void writ, for it was not possible to be sued out of the court of B. R. then sitting at Westminster the 18th of July, when it was vacation-time, no fuch court being then fitting at Westminster. And the writ being void, the arrest was illegal, and the bail-bond thereupon given void alfo; the Court being unanimous of opinion, that it was ill, and that it was not according to the truth of the fact, for it could not on the 18th of July be fued out of the court of B. R. then fitting at Westminster, when the Court did not, nor could not, sit out of term. The plaintiff defired leave to discontinue, which was granted him May 13, 1729. 2 Lord Raym. Rep. 1557, 1558. East. 2 Geo. 2. B. R. Usher Estwick v. Edward Cooke.

11. It was moved to refer the regularity of a judgment 1 Salk 50. in debt; the declaration was of Hillary term, and judgment Mich by confession, which was signed after the term; and after the Ann. B. R. figning, viz. the 10th of April, the defendant died, and the S. C. but execution before teste the 23d of January; and it was insisted that it appeared that the execution was before the judg- Ld. ment. Sed non allocatur; for execution may be fued out Raym. Rep. after the death of the defendant, except against a purchasor, saysthe moand the writ of execution may bear teste of the precedent term, tion was deeven of the first day of that term. Comyns's Rep. 117. pl. 82. Pasch. 13 W. 3. Parsons v. Gill.

S. P. does not appear. nied; for per Cur. The practice is always fo, and well enough.

12. An action being limited to be brought within a year, the plaintiff gave instructions for an original to the cursitor some days before the end of the year, but the writ was not sealed till after the year, though antedated as of the day of the instructions given; and upon debate whether this was good or not, Ld. C. Parker referred it to the principals and assistants of the Society of Cursitors, who certified that it was the constant practice of the office to teste original writs against hundreds, corporations, beirs, and in several other cases, the same day the writs are bespoke; and that they never knew it otherwise, or that the practice was ever contested before the present case; and his lordship decreed accordingly. Wms.'s Rep. 437, 438. Trin. 1718. Price v. Chewton Hundred in Somersetshire.

13. The capias ad respondendum was directed to the sheriff Rep. of (fingular) of London, tested the 13th of February, which was Proct. in the day after the end of last Hillary term. It was moved to S. C. ac. quash it, alleging defendant has no other remedy to take ad-cordingly. vantage thereof, because he cannot have over of the writ; nor will it appear upon the record in case of a writ of error. A rule was to shew cause, which was afterwards made absolute. This writ bearing teste in vacation is void. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 201, 202. East. 7 G. 2. Bennet v. Sampson.

(C) In whose Name.

1. If the king dies in the morning, all process and patents shall be in his name all this day, and not in the name of the new king; per Ellerker & Fulth. Br. Jours, pl 34.

cites 4 H. 6. 7.

2. The Lord Chief Justice of the King's Bench died about 11 in the morning, and all the writs which were sealed that day, bore teste in his name, and all those which were sealed the next day, bore teste in the name of the second justice of the King's Bench. Cro. C. 393. pl. 3. Hill. 10 Car. a memorandum.

For more of Teste in general, see Executions, Testatum, and other proper titles.

Time.

(A) Time. Day. In what Cases the Day shall be taken exclusive.

S. C. eit- [1.] F a man leases for years, habendum from the stealing and deed Arg. 3
Lev. 438.
in case of commence presently after the delivery. H. 32 El. B. R. Hetter v. between Higham and Cole. Dubitatur. Co. 5. * Clayton, Ash. 1 Co. Litt. 46. b.]

Hob. 140. [2. So if it had been extunc, or from the making, it shall pl 190. in commence presently. Co. Litt. 46. b. Hobart's Reports, 188.] ris v. the Hundred of Gawtry.—— 5 Rep. 1. Mich. 27 & 28 Eliz. B. R. Clayton's case.—— Mo. 879. said by Hobart to have been so adjudged.

[3. But if a lease be made, habendum from the day of the date, or from the day of the making, the day shall be taken exclusive. Co. Litt. 46. b.]

Roll. Rep.

[4. [But] if a man leases for years, habendum from the date, 387, 388.

S. C. Dothe day of the date shall be taken exclusive. Tr. 14 Ja. B. R. deridge said between BACON AND WALLER adjudged per Curiam. Co.
nothing,
but all the others agreed that the day thail we exclusive. ___ 3 Bulst. 204. S. C.

But

But Trin. 8 W. 3. C. B. it was adjudged by 3 judges egainst Treby Ch. J. that fuch habendum includes the day of the date. 2 Salk. 413. pl. 1. Haths v. Ash. ____ 3 Lev. 438. S. C. by the name of HATTER V. AsH, and was of a leafe made by a prebendary for life habendum a datu: and adjudged accordingly by Nevil, Powel senior & junior, Treby Ch. J. being now e contra, though himself at first was of the same opinion, but changed it, and was not present when the judgment was given, but, as it was supposed, absented himself purposely; and note also, that Powel junior was at first of opinion f r the plaintiff, but afterwards changed it, and was of opinion for the defendant, fuch variety and change had there been in this cale. — Ld. Raym. Rep. 84. S. C. and there It was urged, that though Co. Litt. 46. is objected to the contrary, yet that book is founded upon 5 Rep. 1. b. CLAYTON'S CASE, "where this point is not resolved by the Court, but inferred by the reporter of the case from Popham in Dyer, 218. which book does not warrant any such opinion. And though 3 Bult. 203. Bacon v. Walker, Mo. 40. pl. 128. agrees with 5 Rep. 1. yet Cro. J. 135. Osborne v. Rider, and 258. Luellin v. Williams, are contrary. And for these and other reasons, the said 3 justices held the lease good, and gave judgment accordingly.

[5. If A. makes an obligation to B. dated 1 May, and B. the Trespession was obligee after makes release to A. dated the same day, of all actions till the day of the release, this shall not release the obligation. bitatur. H. 3 Ja. B.]

• [267] done in the morning, and the fame day. at noon a release was made of all trespasses; afterwards on the same day another trespass was done. In trespass brought for a trespass generally done on that day, the defendant might plead generally the release given on that day, and then the plaintiff in his replication must divide the day, to shew that the trespass was done after the release in that day. Moor, 596. pl. 812. Trin. 33 Eliz. in case of Plaine v. Bynd.

[6. In case of a protection, the year shall be accounted from Hob. 139. pl. 190. in the day of the date, excluding the day of the date. Hobart's case of Nor-Reports, 188.] ris v. the hundred of Gawtry. — Mo. 879. pl. 1233. in S. C.

[7. A deed of bargain and sale may be inrolled within fix months Roll. Rep. after the day of the date, excluding the day of the date. Hobart's Reports, 188.]

387. Arg. in case of WALLER v. BACON, cites D. 5 Eliz. Populam's case; and the reporter says nota, it has been resolved also, that if it be inrolled the same day on which it bears date, it is good.

[8. An action to be brought upon the statute of hue and cry Hob. 139. upon a robbery, ought to be brought within a year after the robbery done, including the day upon which it was done. Hobart's Reports, 188. Norris and hundred of Gautris; for it is an act, not a date.]

140. pl. 190. Hill. 14 Jac. S. C. -Mo. 878. pl. 1233. S. C.-

Brownl. 156. S. C. accordingly.

[9. If a man leases for years, rendering rent for one whole year, viz. a festo Sancti Michaelis + usque ad sinem termini pradicti; in this case the rent shall be due on the feast-day itself; for the premisses of the reservation are || generally, rendering rent, for one entire year, which is from the time of the reservation, and there-And when he goes further, and fore the feast is not excluded. . says, viz. a festo Sancti Michaelis; these words are void, in asmuch 28 they are repugnant to the premises. Pasch. 43 El. B. R. per Curiam, between UMBLE AND FISHER.]

X

Cro. E. 7c2. S. C. but there the | Fol. 521. declaration was held to be ill, and judgment fo. the defendant.-

of Though in pleadings usque tale festum will exclude that day; yet, in case of a reservation, it is to Vent. 292. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. B. R. Piger w. Bridges. be governed by the intent.

VOL. XX.

[10. If

110. If a man in debt for rent declares, that 25th March, 15 Jac. he leased certain land to the defendant, habendum abinde, for a year, rendering so much rent balf-yearly at the feaft of St. Michael, and the annunciation, by equal portions, during the term. For the said rent, due at the said 2 feasts, he brings the action; and moved in arrest of judgment, that the lease commenced the 25th day of March, and so all this day is taken inclusive; and then the lease ended the day before the next 25th day of March, and so the rent reserved after the term ended, and therefore no action lies for it. But resolved, that by the word abinde, the 25th day of March being before mentioned, the said 25th day shall be taken exclusive, and so the rent reserved within the term. Mich. 2 Car. between BENEDICT, HALL, AND DEWE. Adjudged.]

11. If the condition of an obligation be to stand to the award of J.S. Ita quod fiat upon or before the first day of

and an award is made upon the faid first day of between 6 and 7 o'clock, post occasium solis. This is a good award within the condition; for if it be within the natural day it is fufficient, and not like to the * payment of money to bind men to attend it. P. 11 Car. B. R. between Church and Greenwood. Adjudged per Curiam, upon a special verdict. Intratur Mich. 10 Rot. 497. Note, That Master Hodgson, an attorney of Staple's Inn, shewed afterwards to me a precedent of Mich. 18 & 19 El. B. between RAVEN AND LYTWIN, adjudged accordingly, upon a special verdict, per Curiam, because they faid that the day to this purpose has continuance till midnight.]

Cro. E. 218. pl. 5. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff; but it does not appear that any - exception was taken there to this point, or that the > Court took any notice

[268]

The day

21 for pay-

tobat of mosvy determines at

But for meking artitrement, Sc.

continues at night.

2 And. 38,

39. pl. 25. Arg. 'in case of Ea-nester v. Trussel.

till 10 and II o'clock fun-set.

· 12. Assumpsit on the 11 Sept. to deliver certain goods to the plaintiff, if they were not claimed by any other before the 14 day of September; and alleged, that there was no claim made after the 11 day unto the 14 day. After a verdict for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the declaration was ill; because the plaintiff should have alleged, that no claim was made after the promise, (and not after the 11 day of September,) unto the 14 day, &c. But adjudged well enough; for the especial matter on the division of the day, ought to come in by the shewing of the other side; or otherwise it shall not be intended. Mo. 596. pl. 812. Trin. 33 Eliz. Rot. 700. Plaine v. Bynd.

Le. 22c. pl. 303. S. C. but nothing said as to this point. But Cro. E. 301. pl. 16. Bynde v. Plaine, S. C. affirmed in error, where this very matter was affigned for error.

3 Bulft. 204. in S. C. fays, as to this point the whole Courtagreed in cpinion, the judgment given

13. Habendum a datu, and a die datus, are all one. Rep. 387. in case of BACON v. WALLER. Arg. cites it to have been adjudged, Mich. 8 Jac. in the case of LUELLING v. Mor-GAN. But Serjeant Athow and Meore seemed e contra. But Crook and Haughton thought them all one; but Coke was not according to then present; and the Court said, they would see the record of that cale.

in Lucilin's case, that the force is all one. Bulk. 177. Trin. 9-Jac. Anon. Eleming Ch. J.

held a die datus to be exclusive, but that a datu was inclusive of the day. And he took this difference, where it is in a case and point of interest, that is conveyed or passed from one to another, as in case of a lease for years, or any other interest that is passed; and so is CLAYTON's case, Coke, 5. pa. fol. 1. But where it is in matters of account, where no matter of interest is to be passed or conveyed, as if one be to be accountable to another, and that by deed, be the same to be done, a die datus; or a datu, in this case no interest passing by the deed, he the same a die datus, or a datu, it is all one, and no difference between them; as was clearly held by Flemming Ch. J. and so agreed by the

S. C. and same difference cited Arg. Lord Raym. Rep. 85. Trin. 8 W. 3. in case of Hatter v. Ash. And of this opinion was Powel sen. but the others said nothing.

14. If a submission be to an award, so as it be made within 6 days after the submission, an award made on the same day on which 2 Lutw. the submission was, is good; because the day of the award shall be taken inclusive, and not exclusive; per Roll Ch. J. Stile, 382. in a nota, in Trin. 1653. B. R. Clark's case.

1593. hy the reporter the case of Bellafis v. Hefter?

15. Insurance of H.'s life for a year. H. died on the last day. 12 Mod. The insurer is liable. 2 Salk. 625. pl. 3. Trin. 11 W. 3. B. R. at the sittings at Guildhall, Sir Robert Howard's case.

256. S. C. ----Lord Raym. Rep. 480. S. C.

16. When the computation is to be made from an act done, the day in which the act was done must be included; because since there is no fraction in a day, that act relates to the first moment of the day in which it was done, and was as if it were then done. But when the computation is to be from the day itfelf, and not from an act done, there the day in which the act was done must be excluded by express words of the parties. As if a lease be made to commence a die datus, the day is excluded; but if it be a confectione, which is an act done, the day of the making shall be included. Per Powell & Nevil J. Contra Treby: Ld. Raym. Rep. 281. Mich. 9 Will. 3. in case of Bellasis v. Hester, cites Clayton's case. And Treby Ch. J. admitted that case to be good law.

17. The law will never account by minutes or hours to make priorities in a single day, unless it be to prevent a great mischief or inconvenience; as if a bond be made the 1st day of January, and this bond is released the same day, the bond may be averred to be made before the release. So if a feme sole binds berself in a bond, and the same day marries, one may aver, that she married after the bond delivered. In assise it appears, that the disseism was done the same day on which the writ was teste; yet this shall not abate the writ, because the assise might be purchased after the diffeisin; per Cur. Ld. Raym. Rep. 281. Mich. 9 W. 3. in case of Bellasis v. Hester.

18. A was born Feb. 1. at 11 at night; and January 31, at I in the morning, A. makes a will of lands, and dies. It is a by Holt Ch. good will, for he was then of age a said, per Holt Ch. J. to have been so adjudged. 🔞 Salk. 44. Mich. 3 Annæ, B. R. Anon.

S. C. cited J. 2 Salk. 625. pl. 3. 7 rin. 11 W. 3. at the

480- in S. C. And in 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1096: Mich. 3 Annæ, in case of Fitzhught v. Den-

(A. 2.) Day. How to be computed.

1. TATHERE the king dies one day, and another king is made the same day, this day shall be the day of the old king; quod quære; for otherwise it was computed in 1 E. 6. and if he mistakes his day, this shall be at his peril in mortmain. But it is said that it was not greatly argued by the Court, nor adjudg-

ed. Br. Jours, pl. 49. cites 7 H. 7. 5.

2. Citra festum Sancti Johannis; per Frowike Ch. J. The seast in our law commences in the morning, and ends at night, and the natural day begins ad ortum solis, and ends ad occasum solis, and so is taken and adjudged in our law; but the feast, by the law of the church, commences at noon in the vigil, and continues till the next day at midnight; and the night as to burglary commences ad occasum solis, and continues ad ortum solis Keilw. 75. Mich. 21 H. 7.

3. There is no fraction of a day but in special cases, and then the day of payment, (viz. of a bill of exchange payable one day after fight,) shall commence after midnight, and from this time he shall have an intire complete day, consisting of 24 hours, to pay the bill; for a day to this purpose commences always at midnight, and always consists of 24 hours; per Treby Ch. J. 2 Lutw. 1593.

in case of Bellasis v. Hester.

(A. 3) Where there shall be a Priority and Pofteriority, as to Things done on the same Day.

1. IF a man brings assiste, and the tenant aliens the same day that the affise is purchased, yet the writ is good; for this day is adjudged in law all the day of the plea; quod nota. Br. Brief, pl. 275. cites 17 Ass. 21.

[270] S. C. cited Arg.2Lutw. 1592. in rase of Belter.

2. In false imprisonment the defendant justified, for that on the 29th Sept. he was chosen mayor of Lynn, and that a plaint was levied in the court there against the plaintiff, for which he was committed by the mayor to the gaol there. Upon demurrer it was oblass v. Hes- jected, that the defendant did not answer to the time of the day before he was chosen mayor; for the commitment might be the same day before he was chosen mayor; but adjudged for the desendant; for the justification shall be intended for the whole day, and if the commitment was before he was mayor, the plaintiff ought to shew it. Cro. Eliz. 168. pl. 4. Hill. 32 Eliz. B. R. Smith v. Hellier and Clerke.

7 Bulft. 222. Mich. 14 Jac. S. C. _Roll. Rep. 413. pl. 1. S. C.

3. A. became indebted to B. for wares, and in consideration thereof postea eodem die promised to pay it; and such declaration was ruled good, not as a promise in law, but as an actual promise raised upon a consideration continuing; which shews that little little distance of time (though the same day) alters the intendment of the law; cited per Roll. Allen, 70. as 14 Jac. the case of Hodge v. Vavasor.

- 4. If a writ abates one day, and another writ is purchased which bears teste the same day, it shall be intended after the abatement of the first. Allen, 34. Mich. 23 Car. B. R. in case of the Earl of Northumberland v. Green.
- 5. Error was brought to reverse a judgment in an action for words, and affigns for error, that the plaint was entered the same day that the words were spoken, which was said ought not to be, because the action should be brought after the words spoken, which shall not be intended to be, if it be the same day; for the law admits of no fractions of time, which will be if the day be divided into several parts, as it here must be, for there must be one hour supposed when the words were spoken, and another hour when the plaint was entered. But Roll Just. said, it was well enough, and ordered the plaintiff to take her judgment nisi causa, before the end of the term. Sty. 72. Mich. 23 Car. Symons v. Low.

6. If 2 informations are preferred the same day, which refer so in case to the first day of the term, yet it may be examined which of them of ancewas first preferred. Per Levins of councel. Arg. 2 Lutw. 1591. in the case of Bellasis v. Hester.

ecution, as where 2 fiers facias's are delivered to the speriff the same day, there is a print & posterius, and though that which was first delivered was tested after the other, yet it shall be preferred. Otherwise the sherisf is liable. 12 Mod. 147. Smallcomb v. Buckingham. --- I Salk. 320. pl. 4. S. C. --- S. C. cited Arg. 6 Mod. 292. by the name of Smallcombe v. Croffe.

7. There is no * division of a day, unless in case of necessity, 1 Salk. 320. as in Co. Litt. 135. and 6 Rep. 33. b. where there was a pri-S. P. Arg. ority of an instant. Arg. 5 Mod. 377. in case of Smallcomb v. Sty. 119. in Buckingham, case of Cor-Diffy. Cow-

Ley. ——Yelv. 87. S. P. and in general intendment, what is done in one day is done at the same time. In case of Dorrington v. Easte.

(B) Year. How it shall be accounted.

1. PER statutum de anno bissextili editum, 21 H. 3. it is ordained that to avoid the doubt which has been made, computetur dies excrescens in anno bissextili in ipso anno, & sic habeatur de mense illo in quo excrescit & contineatur dies ille excrescens in integritate anni prædicti & deputentur dies ille & dies proximo præcedens pro unico die.

2. If a condition be that if a rent be arrear at Mich. by a quar- [271] ter of a year after, it shall was awful to re-enter, the quarter of a year shall be accounted by the days of the year, which is, that 91 days make a quarter, and for the o hours over, the law has not any regard. D. 17, 18 El. 345. 5.]

3. Decla-

3. Declaration in debt for rent pro reditu unius anni finiti a festo Mich. primo ad festum anno secundo Caroli, aster verdict judgment was arrested, because this cannot be a year, being between the feasts. Palm. 531. Pasch. 4 Car. B. R. Bligh v. Trefrey.

Cro. J. 166. pl. 6. Trin. 5 Jac. B. R. Bishop of Peterborough v. Catesby, S. P.— 2 Show. 206. pl.215. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B.R. the King v. Spiller. S. P.

4. Where time mentioned in any statute is expressed by the year, balf year, or quarter of a year, it is always computed in law by folary months, viz. 12 calendar months for a year; but where months are mentioned in a statute and not years, those are always computed by the moon, viz. 4 weeks to the month. And so the statute against deer stealing, appointing the prosecution to be within 12 months after the fact, and 12 lunary months being expired before any profecution; the conviction was quashed for the reason. Carth. 407. Trin. 9 W. 3. B. R. in case of the King v. Peckham,

5. It was moved to fet aside an execution for irregularity, upon suggestion, that when he confessed the judgment, the plaintiff. and he agreed, that execution should not be taken out till a year after ; the plaintiff infifted that he had staid a year; for the warrant was in a long vacation, and the judgment was entered as of Trin. term before, and the execution was after Trin. term following; and so the plaintiff had waited a year after judgment entered. But the Court was not agreed, whether in such case the year was to be reckoned from the date of the judgment, or of the warrant. 6 Mod. 14, Mich. 2 Annæ B. R. Dillon v. Brown.

Month. How the Month shall be com-See (B) pl. (C) 4.—Rent puted. (X. a)

A month in [1, [N all statutes where mention is of a month, 28 days shall. be intended the legal computation. Trin. 5 Ja. B. R. · Ratutes, ' which are only directo- CATESBY's case, per Curiam agreed.]

ry of a pu misbment for an offence, which was at common law, is not a penal statute; and in that case the month shall be computed according to the calendar, and not 28 days. Sid. 186. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. B. R. on flat. 13 H. 4. 7. of riots. King v. Cussens & al. - See Cro. E. 835, pl. 6. Trin. 43 Eliz. B. R. in an information on the statute of liveries. S. P. Dormer v. Smith.

[2. The 6 months for proof of a surmise in a prohibition accord-Hob. 179. ing to the 2d E. 6. shall not be accounted by 28 days to the pi. 211. Mich. 14 month, but according to the calendar. Hobart's Reports, 342.]2c. S. C.-between COPLY AND COLLINS resolved,] 2 Mod. 58. Sharp v.

Hubbard. Mich. 27 Car. 2. C. B. held accordingly.

3. If an information upon the statute of unlawful games be against. Fol. 522. J. S. * for 7 months exercise of the game, in this case the month shall be reckoned by 28 days to the month, and shall not be reckoned according to the calendar, M. 11 Jac. B. R. WHETHERED'S cale, per Curiam.]

[4. If

- [4. If a rate be put upon ale and beer by the mayor and chief officers of a town, according to the statute of 23 H. 8. to continue for 6 months next ensuing; this shall not be reckoned according to the calendar, but according to 28 days to the month. P. 7 Car. B. R. adjudged in the case of one Evans, and divers others Brewers of Exerer, where it was averred that they fold contrary to the rate between the time of the rate made, and fuch a day, which was the end of the 6 months, according to the calendar; but [was] 6 months and 2 weeks according to 28 days to the month, and for this the indictments quashed.]
- 5. The words fix months, in the statute of * usury and labourers are to be expounded half a year; (for the year is mentioned in those statutes) and they shall be reckoned according to the calendar, as in case of a lapse. Jenk. 282. pl. 8.

- 5. P. Pa PophamCh, which none gainsayed. Noy, 37. Anga.

- 6. In the case of policy of assurance made to warrant a ship, one was bound to warrant a ship for 12 months; and the truth was, she did not perish within the time of the 12 months, being accounted according to 28 days; but being accounted by the calendar, as January, February, &c. it perished, &c. 1 Le. 96. pl. 125. Mich. 29 Eliz. in the Exchequer, in Sir Wollaston Dixie's case, Arg. says it was said and holden that the insurer had not forfeited his bond.
- 7. Tempus semestre to prevent a lapse is to be computed Yelv. 100. by the calendar. 6 Rep. 62. Mich. 3 Jac. C. B. Catesby's case.

S. C. --Cro. J. 141. Bishop of Peterborough v. Catesby. ——— And Ibid. 167. pl. 6. in S. C. Yelverton said that Justice Walmsley shewed him a precedent in the time of E. 1. (which was immediately after the statute) where it was resolved that tempus semestre should be taken for the half-year, and not for fix months only. --- Per menses non per hebdomedas. D. 327. b. pl. 7. and in Marg. cites Mich. 5 E. 1. Rot. 100. Queen Eleanor v. the Bishop of Lincoln.—Jenk. 282. pl. 8.—Cro. E. 835. Dormer v. Smith.—Verba accipienda sunt se-Cundum subjectam materiam; and therefore because this computation of the months concerns those of the church, it is great reason that the computation should be according to the computation of the church, which they best know. 6 Rep. 62. Catesby's case.

But where a presentee was refused for insufficiency, and notice was given of such resultal, and the cause thereof, it was agreed and resolved by the whole Court, that in the computation of the 6 months, in such cases the reckoning ought not to be according to the calendar, but according to 28 days. Le. 31.

pl. 39. Trin. 27 Eliz. C. B. Albany v. the Bishop of St. Asaph.

The 2 months for reading the articles of religion are to be reckoned by 28 days. Lev. 101. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Brown v. Spence.

8. A twelvementh in the fingular number includes all the year according to the calendar; but twelve months shall be computed according to 28 days for every month. 6 Rep. 62. Mich. 3 Jac. C. B. Catesby's case.

9. It was agreed by all the Court, that in a condition for rent, as 38 H. 6. 7. and in case of involments, as 5 Eliz. D. 218. and in case of a leet held within a month after Easter and Michaelmas, it shall be accounted 28 days. Cro. J. 167. pl. 6. Trin. 5 Jac. B. R. in case of Bishop of Peterborough v. Catefby.

10. It was moved to quash an indicament upon the statute Keb. 694. 13 H. 4. cap. 7. for a riot: for that the inquiry was not within the Court X 4 a month, a month, (viz.) 28 days after the offence committed; but the Court said, that the time shall not be confined to 28 days, but to an almanack month. Sid. 186. pl. 9. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Cosins.

per Cur. 4 Mod. 186. Pasch. 5 W. & M. in B. R. in case of Barksdale v. Morgan.

Show. 368.
Burton v.
Woodward,
feems to be
S. C. Adjornatur.—
4 Mod. 95.
Burton v.
Woodward.
Adjornatur.
—Comb.
191. S. C.
Adjornatur.

- 11. Upon the statute of 1 W. & M. which appoints all bi-Joops, &c. to take the oaths, the question was, whether the 6 months mentioned in the statute are to be accounted calendar months or lunar months; per Holt & Curiam, absente Gregory. this being upon the construction of an act of parliament, it ought to be construed according to our law, that the 6 months shall be accounted lunar months. And Holt * observed, that there was another clause in the act for fellows of colleges who are not ecclesiastical persons, and asked whether the 6 months Ihould be reckoned lunar months for them in this clause, and calendar months as to bishops, &c. in the other clause, and so the same word in the same act be taken in 2 different senses? and he said, No. Curia adversare vult. But they seemed ripe to give judgment that the 6 months should be accounted lunar and not calendar months; and Dolben and Eyre doubted of COPLEY AND COLLINS'S CASE; and Holt said, that that case alone stuck with him, and notwithstanding he inclined fortitur ut supra. Skin. 313. Pasch. 4 W. & M. in B. R. Woodward v. Hamersley.
- 12. The defendant, in consideration of 20 guineas paid him by the plaintiff, did covenant, upon payment of 500l. more, within one month next sollowing, to transfer to him upon notice, certain East-India shares, &c. the plaintiff averred that he tendered the 500l. within a month, &c. The defendant pleaded that the plaintiff did not tender it within a month; for that before the tender 28 days were past from the day of the date of the agreement. And the truth was, that the plaintiff tendered the money after 28 days, but within a calendar month. Per Cur. In common parlance a month is taken to be 28 days in all cases but in a quare impedit; and words and phrases of speech must be governed by the common acceptation of the people, and as they are generally understood; and so held that the computation in this case must be after the rate of 28 days to the month. 4 Mod. 185. Pasch. 5 W. & M. in B. R. Barkesdale v. Morgan.
- 13. In debt upon the statute 5 Eliz. 4. for using a trade, the computation by calendar months was held fatal, but being after verdict it was aided. 12 Mod. 641. Hill. 13 W. 3. B. R. Stretchpoint v. Savage, and cites Mich. 6 W. 3. The King v. Stowbridge.

(D) How to be understood where it is mentioned generally.

I TATHERE a man speaks of the feast of St. Michael, and does 2 Ind. 485 not say what St. Michael, it shall be intended St. Michael 486. the archangel, which is the most notable, and not St. Michael in Tumba. Br. Jours, pl. 5. cites 20 H. 6. 23.

2. But if a man speaks of the feast of our Lady, and does not shew which feast, it is said that this is not good. Br. Jours,

pl. 5. cites 20 H. 6. 23.

(E) Pleadings of Time. Necessary to be pleaded. In what Cajes.

1. TN affife in London, it is usual to put the year and day of the See (F) disseifin. Contra in other assis, for it is not used but in actions personal, and not in actions real nor mixed; quod nota. Br. Pleadings, pl. 62. cites 20 Aff. 6.

2. Where a man declares upon an obligation without a date, he ought to declare quando factum fuit. Br. Obligation, pl. 66. cites

3 H. 4. 5. per Richill.

3. In trespiss, if a man justifies for tithes as parson at the time of the trespass, &c. it is not good; because he does not say, that he was parson as well at the time of the severance as at the time of [274] the taking. Br. Pleadings, pl. 15. cites 35 H. 6. 48.

4. So of villeinage, and seifing of goods, he ought to say, that he was his villein as well at the time of the first taking as at the time of the second taking. Br. Pleadings, pl. 15. cites 35

H. 6. 48:

5. And where a sheriff justifies an arrest by capias, he shall say, that he was sheriff as well at the time of the arrest, as at the time of the receiving of the writ. Br. Pleadings, pl. 15. cites

35 H. 6. 48.

6. Trespass de clauso fracto; the defendant said, that the place Br. Plead. is a piece of land, and that J. W. was seised of a house in D. of ings, pl 94. which this piece was parcel, and infeoffed A. in fee, who infeoffed cites S. C. J. B. in fee who had issue W. and died seised, and W. entered as beir and infeoffed the defendant, aud gave colour by J. W. The plaintiff said, that he was seised of a lane in the same will in see, of which the place is parcel, and that the defendant did the trespass, absque hoc, that it was ever parcel of the said house, prout, &c. 'to which the defendant said, that it was parcel of the house in the possession of J. B. and the others e contra, and it was found for the plaintiff; and exception was taken inafmuch as he did not answer if it was parcel of the house at the time of the dying seised of J. B. and yet good by the opinion of the Court; for when he says, that it was parcel when J. B.

therefore it was parcel at the dying seised, and it suffices to say that W. ut silves & hæres entered, for this word (ut) is tanta mount, that he is son and heir in sact. Br. Trespass, pl. 304.

cites, 3 E. 4. 27.

7. Trespass of goods taken at A. in the county of E. the defendant So enbere be faid, that the city of London is an ancient city time out of mind, and bought at Bartbolothat there is a market there every day except Sunday, and that H. was mew fair, possessed of the goods at London, and on Friday before the trespass sold without them to the defendant, and did not shew any year; and yet good per shewing the year. Br. Catefby, Chocke, and Littleton, because he faid, that there is a Pleadings, pl. 100 cites market there every day except Sunday. Br. Pleadings, pl. 100. 12 E. 4. I. cites 12 E. 4. 1. -So if he had said upon a work day. Br. Pleadings, pl. 100. cites 12 E. 4. 1.

Br. Repleader, pl. 31.
cites S. C.—
So in trefpass, when a man jussifies by com
8. If a man pleads that A. was seised in fee to the use of B. and that B. gave to bim the trees, this is not good if he does not say precisely, that A. was seised to the use of B. at the time of the gift; for alteration may be mesne between them. Br. Pleadings,
pl. 79. cites 6 H. 7. 3.

mand of ceftni que use, he shall say, that the seoffeet were seifed to this use at the time of the command.

Br. Pleadings, pl. 166. cites 10 H. 7. 26.

So it is if he fays, that the place is his franktenement, he shall say, that at the time of the tresposs, the place was his franktenement, &c. Br. Pleadings, pl. 79. cites 6 H. 7. 3.——Contra of things which may be intended to have continuance. Br. Pleadings, pl. 79. cites 6 H. 7. 3.

9. Where a man plends a lease for years and release, he shall say that he was possessed at the time of the making of the release. Br.

Pleadings, pl. 166. cites 10 H. 7. 26.

10. The time of seisin in a quare impedit is immaterial, and seisin generally in the time of peace, in the reign of such a king, being alleged, it is sufficient. Per Holt Ch. J. Skin. 660. in case of the King v. the Bishop of Chester.

flouid appoint, and the plaintiff declares; that he did appoint such a day; it was doubted, whether this was appointing a time, which is more certain and determinate than a day: per Curiam, by appointing a day the law will supply the rest, and fix it to the most usual and convenient time of that day. 3 Salk. 346. pl. 1. Trin. 11 W. 3. B. R. Scott v. Hogson.

12. In pleading want of affets by an administrator the time must be set forth. See 12 Mod. 611. Hill. 13 W. 3. Ingram

v. Foot.

[275] 13. In transitory actions time and place are not material, but the plaintiff may declare at any time or place. 10 Mod. 251. 348.

Hill. 3 Geo. 1, B. R. Case v. Hawkins.

(F) Pleadings. In what Cases a Day must be shewn certain.

I. IN trespass the defendant pleaded a gift of the plaintiff; and Br. Vilne, the plaintiff said, that after this gift, and before the trespass, pl. 120. cites the defendant re-gave it to the plaintiff, by which he was possessed till the trespass, and the defendant maintained his bar, absque hoc, that he re-gave after the first gift; and this plea admitted without alleging a day certain. Br. Pleadings, pl. 142. cites 10 H. 6. 16.

2. In debt upon account by an executor, the defendant said, that the testator made the plaintiff and one W. his executors at London, subo is in full life, not named in the writ, judgment of the writ; and the plaintiff said, that after this the testator made him his fole executor at C. in the county of Middlesen, judgment, &c. To which the defendant said, that the truth is, that he made the plaintiff his executor sole, but after this he made both his executors; absque hoc that he made the plaintiff his sole executor efter this. And he was compelled to shew day certain, viz. that such a day he made both his executors; absque hoc that he made the plaintiff executor sole after this. For, per Prisot, if all was alleged in one county, then the county may inquire of the time well enough; or if all was alleged in two counties which might join, visne should be of both counties; but London cannot join with any. Therefore by him and Moile day certain shall be alleged, that the visne shall come where the affermative is alleged. Br. Visne, pl. 5. cites 33 H. 6. 44.

3. Where a man is bound [that J. S. shall, enter into such Sowhere the land before Michaelmas peaceably, it is sufficient to say, that he entered into it peaceably before Michaelmas, without declaring what was, that the day. Br. Conditions, pl. 79. cites 37 H. 6. 18.

condition of an obligation colliger shall NOL CHIEF HOF

claim such a bouse; and the defendant said, that be did not enter nor claim. Keble said, he claimed; prist. Brooke says, it seems that he ought to say that such a year and day he claimed. 'Br. Conditions, pl. 130, cites 4 H. 7. 13.

4. Trespass of a close broken, &c. The defendant justified, that Br. Count, J. S beld of bim, and aliened in mortmain, and he entered for the S. C. alienation within the year. And no plea; per Cur. Because be does not shew what day the alienation. was made, so that it may appear whether he entered within the year. Br. Jours, pl. 49. cites 7 H. 7. 5.

S. P. for it shall not be insended that be entered within the yes, if it be not shewn; for the time there is parcel of the substance of the bar, and it shall not be a good plea there to say, that he entered within the year, without shewing the day certain, for the notice of the jurors. Arg. Pl, C. 27. b. in case of Colthirst v. Bejushin.——S. P. 33. b. in S. C. by Mountague Ch. J.

5. But in formedon, if the tenant pleads nontenure, and the Br. Count, demandant said that be was tenant, and made alienation to per- pl. 59. cites sons.

sons unknown, to the intent, &c. and that he took the profits, and Heath's Max. 8. cites that he brought his action within a year of the title accrued; there S.C. & 9 H. 6.115.16.2. he shall not shew day of the alienation, but when the action accrued to him. Agreed, per tot. Cur. Br. Jours, pl. 49. cites 7 H. 7. 5.

Br. Count, 6. And in dum fuit infra atutem he shall not shew day of the pl. 59. cites alienation. Br. Jours, pl. 49. cites 7 H. 7. 5. S. C.

[276] 7. But note, that in * real actions, it is not usual to shew the • S. P. year and day, contra in personal actions. Br. Jours, pl. 49. cites Nor in mixt 7 H. 7. 5. actions, as in affile, waste, and quare impedit. Br. Count, pl. 59: cites S. C. Heath's Maz. 8. cites S. C. and 9 H. 6. 115, 116,

> 8. If one be bound in an obligation to infeoff another between the date of the obligation, and the feast of St. Mickael next can fuing, there, if action be fued upon the obligation, it is no plea to say that he infeoffed him, but he ought to shew the day certain; for the time is parcel of the substance of the bar, and if it be omitted it shall never be intended. And 'also the plea should not have been good, if he had faid that he infeoffed him before the feast of St. Michael, without shewing the day certain, for the information of the jurors, if issue be joined. Arg. Pl. C. 27. b. Pasch. 4 E. 6. in case of Colthisst v. Bejushin.

> 9. Lessee brought bill of covenant against lessor, who had covenanted with him, that if he was lawfully ejected of any part of the land, that he should have so much other land of the lessor during the same term, and he shewed that he had been ejected of such a piece of the land, and did not say when; and it was held that he ought to have shewn the day certain, inasmuch as it is matter of substance. Arg. Pl. C. 27. b. in case of Colthirst

v. Bejushin.

12. It is to be noted always for a general rule, that if he who As if one justifies for pleads in bar is prescribed to a certain time, he ought to shew the common besween Lem- day of his act certainly; per Mountague Ch. J. Pl. C. 33. b. in mas and Can- case of Colthirst v. Bejushin. diemas, he ought to shew certainly the time of his using thereof; so that it may appear to be done between this time. Pl. C. 32. b. in case of Colthirst v. Bejushin.

So he who justifies by licence, by warrant, or by authority, ought always to few the time certain of his justification. Pl. C. 33. b. in case of Colthirst v. Bejushin.

But be who pleads in the negative, need not plead certainly. Pl. C. 33. b. in cafe of Colthirst v. Bejushin.

But he who pleads in abatement of a writ, or pleads a plea after the last continuance, ought to plead certainly; per Mountague Ch. J. who said that these were observed as principles in our law. Pl. C. 33. b. in case of Colthirst v. Bejushin.

11. In replevin the defendant made conusance for a rent due to Noy, 93. S. C. but J. S. who was seised as remainder-man in tail, and averred that the S. P. does tenant for life was dead, but did not allege the precise time when he not appear. Lat. died. It was + argued, that he need not, because an avowry (which is in lieu of an action) is a real action, and in real actions 205. S. C.

the precise day need not be alleged. Poph. 200. Mich. 2 Car. but S. P. does not ap Dicker v. Moland. pear. --

Palm. 508. Hill. 3 Car. B. R. S. C. and S. P. argued accordingly; but the opinion of the Court seemed against him, and advised the taking a new distress, because here the time of the death of tement for life does not appear whether it was before the rent arrear or not

† 3 Nelf. Abr. 287. cites Poph. 201. DITCHER V. MORLAND as adjudged, that he need not

fkew the precise time; but this seems to be an error of the press.

12. In assumpsit, the plaintiff counted, that desendant in consideration of 2 s. promised to carry such goods abourd a ship, if plaintiff would deliver them to him, and shewed that he delivered them, but defendant did not carry them aboard. But exception was taken, because he faid only deliberavit, without shewing when or where, and then the law says they were not delivered. Per Jones J. The same is but matter of inducement to the promise, and ought not to be shewed so precisely. Godb. 404. pl. 484. Pasch. 3 Car. B. R. Mole v. Carter.

Pleadings. Good. Where Time is made [277] Parcel of the Issue.

I. In replevin defendant avowed, for that J. S. was seised and 2 Saund. made a lease to B. for 21 years, who being possessed, as- 317. Benfigned his term to H. the avowant, by which he entered, and HOLBECH, was possessed; and on the first Dec. 18 Car. 2. at F. demised S.C. thys for part of the term to the plaintiff rendring rent; and for so much rent arrear he avowed the taking the beafts. The plaintiff pleaded in bar, that the avowant upon the said first December 18 Car. 2. aforesaid at F. did not demise mode & forma, as the avowant has alleged, et boc, &c. unde, &c. After verdict and sided by judgment for the plaintiff in C. B. it was assigned for error in B. R. that this was an immaterial issue, by making the day and place parcel of the iffue; for a demile at another day and place would maintain the avowry, and the putting them in is only for conformity in pleading, but the plea should have been general, non dimissit modo & forma, &c. The Court could tute of jeonot tell for whom to give judgment according to the right of fails; but the matter; and after the matter had been twice argued, whe- ment was ther this case was remedied by the new statute which cures affirmed. defaults where the right is tried, the Court were of opinion that it was not, and doubted what to do. But afterwards, upon s. c. acother exception taken by Hale Ch. J. to the avowry, the judg- cording to 2 Lev. 11. Trin. 23 Car. 2. in B. R. ment was affirmed. Holbech v. Bennet.

2. In account the plaintiff declared, that upon the 1st March, 22 Car. 2. and thence to the 1st May, 27 Car. 2. the defendant was his receiver, &c. Defendant pleads, that from 1st March, 22 Car. 2. to the 1st May, 27 Car. 2. he was not his receiver, &c. The plaintiff demurred specially, because the time from the 1st March to the 1st May are made parcel of the issue, which it that Hale Ch. J. was of opinion that the isfue and verdict was the statute of jeofails, but Twisden contra, and that it was not aided by any stathe judg-825. pl. 45. ought not; because plaintiff must allege a time for sorm's sake, and desendant might say he was not receiver mode of sorma, &c. Besides the desendant was charged as receiver on the r day of March; and he pleads, that he was not receiver from that day; so the day was excluded, which the Court held an incurable fault, and that the time ought not to be made pareel of the issue. And judgment, quod computet. 2 Mod. 1454 Hill. 28 & 29 Car. 2. B. R. Brown v. Johnson.

3. When by a traverse the time is made part of the issue, such traverse is never good; per Cur. 5 Mod. 286. Mich. 8 W. 3.

Blackwell v. Eales.

For more of Clime in general, see Arbstrement, Condition, Limitation, Payment, Stocks, Tender, and other proper titles.

[278]

Title.

See Right (A) pl. 4.

(A) What is.

1. POSSESSION is a good title, where no better title appears. See Maxims, in equali jure melior est condition possible possible and qui prior est tempore, potior est jure, in equali jure.

2. A prescription, that is to claim a real interest in alieno sole, is a title, and as a title must be strictly and curiously pleaded; per Sir Francis North Arg. Vent. 386. in case of Potter v. North.

(B) Preserence. Where a Man has several Titles, which shall be preserved.

See more at tit. Remitter, and at diffeisor leases the land to the disselse for years, or at will, maxime if be enters, the law will say that he is in of his ancient and betters, see.

L. W HEN 2 titles concur, the best shall be preserved; as where title seement, and to the disselse for years, or at will, seement and better title. Finch's Law, 16. a. s. 95.

ž. Iţ

2. It was enacted by act of parliament, that all the lands of S. should be forfeited to the king, of whomsoever they were holden. S. held some lands of the king; the king had that land by escheat by the common law, and not by the statute. Arg. Godb.

300. cites Sir Ralph Sadler's case.

3. Abbot seised in right of his house, committed treason, and made a leafe for years, and then surrendered his house to the king after the statute 26 H. 8. 13. It was adjudged that the king field's case, was in by the surrender, and not by the statute, and so should not avoid the lease. But if the king had it by force of the statute, then he should have avoided the lease. Arg. Godb. 311. cites the Abbot of Colchester's case.

S. C. cited 4 Le. 141in Engleand in Mo. 319. S. C.

4. Tenant in tail, reversion to the king. Tenant in tail makes a lease for years, and is attainted of treason, the king shall avoid the leafe upon construction of the statute of 26 H. 8. 13. which gives the land to the king for ever. Arg. Godb. 311. cites Pl. C. 360.

5. If a devise be made of land to the heir at law, of the same See more of estate as would descend, it is a void devise; for the descent shall Devise. be preferred. Per Doderidge J. Godb. 412. pl. 489. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. in Sommers's case.

(C) Excuse. Coming in by Title, how far favoured [279] in Law.

I. IF 2 man disseises me, and makes a feoffment, and I re-enter, So of the 24 I shall not have trespass against the feoffee; for he is in by disfers, by title and no trespussor to me. Br. Trespass, pl. 35. cites 34 H. 6. 30. inde, for he by the best opinion.

is in by tort. Br. Trefpais, pl. 35. cites 34 H. 6. 30. Trespass lies for disseise against feoffee of disseisor; per Keble and Wood. But Constable, Kingsmill, Frowike, and others, seemed e contra; for by the common haw, he that was in by title should not be punished. For if the heir of disseisor had lands which descended, no damages should be recovered against him, any more than where he was in by feostment, and that was the reason of making the statute of Gloucester, that every one should answer for his own sime; so where disseifor sells trees, and the vendee cuts and carries them away, but where the c.crying away is to the use of diffeisor, it is otherwise. But where seoffee was party to the diffeisin by covin, are. he should be punished. As if I disseise a man, and infeosf my father, who dies seised, assise lies against me. Hill. 13 H. 7. 15. b. pl. 11. See Trespass (T) pl. 8. and the motes there.

2. But where disseisor commands his servant to do an act upon the land, and I re-enter, trespass lies against the servant, by the best opinion. Quære. Br. Trespass, pl. 35. cites 34 H. 6. 30.

(D) Pleadings. Declaration. In what Cases a Title must be set forth in the Declaration.

So in affile 1. I N affile of common the plaintiff shall make title in his plaint; of common quod nota: though the defendant or his bailiff cannot challenge the plaintiff it; quod nota bene. Br. Titles, pl. 22. cites 15 Ass. 5.

pelled to shew title, because it was against common right, and so he did; and this seems to be in his plaint; by which he said that S. was seised of the manor of D. with the piscary appendant, and gave him the manor cum pertinentiis simul cum tota pischaria, &c. and alleged seisin per my & per tout. Br. Titles, pl. 48. cites 34 Ass. 11.——Br. Plaint, pl. 17. cites S. C.

Where 2 2. The plaintiff need not to make title in the plaint, but where shing opthe plaint is of such a thing, of which assigned did not lie at common pears to be against comagainst comagainst office common,

&c. there a man shall make his title in his plaint; but of a rent e contra, though it be a rent-seck or rent-charge. For that does not appear to be against common right; for it may be rent-service by intendment till the title be made; and when the plaint has the appearance of a thing which may be intended to stand with common right, there the plaintiff is not always compelled to make his title in his plaint.

Br. Assise, pl. 13. cites 35 H. 6. 6, 7. ——— Br. Plaint, pl. 1. cites S. C.

- 3. In quod permittat of a way, &c. the plaintiff shall make his title in his count; per Cur. Br. Titles, pl. 60. cites 30 H. 6. 8.
- 4. So in secta molindini, &c. because it is a thing issuing out of another's soil. Br. Titles, pl. 60. cites 30 H. 6. 8.

5. Contra of common right. Br. Titles, pl. 60. cites 30 H. 6. 8.

As in tref. 6.

6. Where a man is not to recover the thing, but damages for the thing, he shall not be compelled to shew title; and e contra in quod permittat, assis, &c. where he may recover the same thing. Note the diversity. Br. Titles, pl. 3. cites 34 H. 6. 28 & 43.

fuch like, the defendant shall not say, that the place is his franktenement, judgment if without title "shewn, &c. For this action is in the possession, and only trespass to recover damages, and not to recover the warren. Br. Titles, &c. pl. 3. cites 34 H. 6. 28 & 43.——Br. Warren, pl. 2. cites S. C.

* [280]

vi & armis

Warrenam

suam in-

Heath's Max. 93. cites S. C.

7. Entry in nature of assist of common; the defendant pleaded non dissistivit; and the plaintiff gave prescription in evidence, and did not allege it in his count, and yet it was permitted; for it seems that title cannot be made in the count in this action, as in the plaint of assist, and therefore does not lie of the common. Br. General Issue, pl. 68. cites 4 E. 4. 1.

8. Assis of an office, the plaintiff made title in his plaint, and it seems that he ought so to do; for this is of a thing of which assis does not lie by the common law. Br. Titles, pl. 54. cites

2 H. 7. 12.

o. In waste, when the desendant makes default at the grand distress, or in a quare impedit, or in an avowry, in such cases the plaintiff plaintiff ought to count; but he has no occasion to count of a year and day; for the defendant in one case, and the plaintiff in the other, where fuch default is, has no day in court to make a defence; but in both cases a good title ought to be shewn. Jenk. 124. in case, 52.

10. For the office of parker or fleward, there is no occasion for any title; for they are offices af common right. It is otherwise of a rent-charge, or rent-seck, which are against common right. an assiste of these, a title ought to be made. Jenk. 130. pl. 64.

171. Action sur le case, supposing that he was seised in see of the S. C. cited manor of H. and of a fair to be held there every Ascension-day, and that the defendant disturbed him to take toll, &c. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and found against him. And now moved cause it was in arrest of judgment, that the declaration was not good, because against a he doth not shew a title to the fair by grant, nor by prescription, so he hath not any cause of action, sed non allocatur; because it is but a conveyance to the action, and is not any claim thereof, as to the right, as in a quo warranto; and therefore the declaration, without special title comprised therein, is good. Wherefore it - was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. J. 43. pl. 9. Mich. 2 Jac. B. R. Dent v. Oliver.

12. The plaintiff declared in action fur le case for disturbing his cattle, and lays no title but only in using their common in fuch a close, but lays no title; and judgment by nil dicit. And afterwards, upon a writ of error, exception was taken, for that he lays no title, and it title, which he ought in this case, where he claims an interest, and a charge in the foil of a ftranger, especially here, being upon defendant's a nihil dicit, or upon a demurrer. After a verdict, it is true, it land. Skin. will be well enough; for it thall be prefumed the judge, upon the trial, made them shew their title. Pollexsen, on the other side, faid, that this action being upon the possession, is well enough; and compared it to a way, to a case of lights, to a water-course, &c. and cited cases where such actions had been brought. And cited, 1 Cr. 575. the case of SANDS v. TREFUSIS, where an action for stopping the water-course, without laying a title, was held good upon demurrer. Skin. 115. Trin. 35 Car. 2. B. R. Brown v. Booking — Cites 2 Cr. 121.—1 Cr. 325. 499. 575.—

2 Cr. 673. 13. Where a common or way is claimed, the title ought to be set forth in the declaration; but for a fair or franchise, which is no charge to another's foil, there habere debuisset is good without more; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 35. Pasch. 5 W. & M. B. R. Anon.

- 14. Where action is brought upon the possession, and is founded upon a wrong done upon the possession, and not to the title, as if brought by a commoner for digging coney-burrows, so that he cannot enjoy his common in tam amplo modo, he need not set a title forth either by grant or prescription. 12 Mod. 97. Trin. 8 W. 3. B. R. Birt v. Strode.
- 15. A seisin in see is not necessary to be set forth, but where a S. C. eine prescription is to be made; and therefore a declaration on the per Holt J. polles-Vol. XX.

Arg. 6 Mod. 313. to be good, bewrong doer.

S. C. in error ruled that he need not shew a appears not to be the 213. Bold v. Broking.

possession where no prescription is made, is as good as upon a seisin in case of Tenant v. 12 Mod. 98. Birt and Strode. Goldwin.

16. Covenant by an heir against an assignee for rent; it seems that Where the demise was this being brought on the title, the title ought to be set forth in the made by timself, plaintiff declaration, and that the want thereof will not be made good by need not let verdict. See 11 Mod. 179. Trin. 7 Ann. B. R. Willet v. Bosforth any comb. title; but where it was made by his ancestor, or another, and he brings his action, and entitles himself under such, he must set forth his title. Holt's Rep. 568. Willet v. S. C.

77 Mod. 168. pl. 4. S. C. but S. P. is mentioned.

Holt Ch. J. allowed that formerly,

and still, there is a difference charging a lort feaf.r, and the tenant of the between

17. A. was possessed of a close adjoining to a close of B. the sence between the faid 2 closes had time out of mind been repaired by not expressly the tenants and occupiers of B.'s close. The fence was not repaired; so that B.'s cattle came into A.'s close; A. brought an action on the case against B. setting forth this matter, and had judgment in C. B. and upon error brought in B. R. this judgment was af-And per Cur. this is a charge upon the defendant against common right; for the law bounds every man's property, and is his fence; and this is obliging another to make a fence for And where a charge is imposed upon another against common right, and the charge is laid on him as owner of the foil, or * tertenant, the plaintiff in his declaration must make himself a good title; but where he declares against the defendant as a wrong-doer only, and not as tertenant, it is sufficient that the plaintiff declares on his possession. 1 Salk. 335, 336. Mich. 9 Ann. B. R. land; for to Starr v. Rookesby.

charge a tertenant, one must make a title by grant or prescription; but none need be made against a wrong-doer.

6 Mod. 313. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of Tenant v. Goldwin.

In what Cases a Title must be set forth in the (E)Pleading.

1. IN assise, if the tenant makes bar by H. who was heir of N. and sheavs certainly, &c. the plaintiff cannot traverse that H. was not heir of N. without making to himself title; quod nota; for in assis the plaintiff shall always make to himself title. Br. Titles, pl. 21. cites 14 Ass. 10.

Pr. Titles, pl. 24. cites s. c.

2. Assise against 2; the one pleaded a release of all actions personal, and the other jointenancy with a stranger, and none took upon him the tenancy, and the plaintiff chose him who pleaded the release for his tenant, and the affife anvarded to inquire of the tenancy, which found for the plaintiff; by which he who pleaded the release pleaded it agains without taking the tenancy, and the plaintiff said that after the release he was seised and disseised and found for, him; by which he recovered and the other brought writ of error, because the plaintiff chose his tenant, who pleaded in bar, and the plaintiff did not make title; and yet because the defendant who pleaded the release did not take the tenancy, therefore the judgment was affirm-Br. Error, pl. 115. cites 17 Aff. 25. and 19 Aff. 3.—

But

But 17 Ass. 25. the opinion of the Court was against the plaintiff in the assis. Br. Ibid.

3. In trespass, the defendant said that he gave to W. in tail, who bad iffue M. who married Q. and had iffue, and died, and the iffue died, without iffue, and Q. tenant by the curtefy aliened to the plaintiff in fee, by which the defendant entered for alienation to his disherison; and the plaintiff said that Q. ne aliena pas, and a good plea without shewing title; quod nota. And so it seems that a man shall not be compelled to shew title in trespass; for he by his possession [282] bas title against all who have no title; nota; for trespass is supposed in the possession. Br. Trespass, pl. 38. cites 40 E. 3. 5.

4. If a man traverses the bar, the defendant need not make The plaintiff title in trespass; otherwise it is in assis. Br. Titles, pl. 6. cites may traverse the bar,

40 E. 3. 5.

without making title in trespass; per tot. Cur. except Brian. Br. Titles, pl. 52. cites 18 E. 4. 10.

5. In mortdancestor, &c. it is agreed that the tenant may say that the plaintiff has an elder brother alive, or that he is not next heir, &c. without making title; for the action affirms him [tenant]. Contrary against a trespassor; note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl. 57. cites 47 E. 3. 5.

6. In cosinage, the plaintiff intitled himself as cousin and beir, and the tenant said, that he who is supposed to die seised, had issue W. born and begotten at D. who is alive; judgment si actio; and a good plea without intitling himself; for he has the possession; and therefore if he can prove that the demandant has no title, it is fufficient. Br. Bar, pl. 17. cites 11 H. 4. 56.

7. But in trespass, if the defendant intitles a stranger, vet this is no plea without intitling him to do the trespass; for there the plaintiff was supposed to be in possession at the time of the trespass; note the diversity. Br. Bar, pl. 17. cites 11 H. 4. 56.

8. In trespass upon anno 5 R. 2. it is a good plea for the master of an hospital, that J. S. his predecessor was seised and died, and he was elected master, and entered, and give colour; for if he conveys to himself a lawful entry, it is sufficient. But contrary in offife, for there he shall make title; for it is not as a dying seised, and a descent; quod nota disferentiam by several. Br. Assise, pl. 11. cites 34 H. 6. 27.

9. In trespass, if the defendant pleads bar, and gives colour, the S.P. Per Pigot and plaintiff ought to make title. Br. Titles, pl. 44. cites 9 E. 4. 46. Jenney. Br.

Trespais, pl. 188. cites 9 E. 4. 49.

10. But where the defendant pleads bar, and gives title in the S.P. Per fame bar, and destroys it, there it suffices for the plaintiff to maintain the same title without making other title. Br. Titles, pl. 44. Trespass. cites 9 E. 4. 46.

Pigot and Jenney Br. pl. 188. cites 9 B. 4. 49.

11. As in trespass the defendant says, that he was seised, till by B. disseised, who infeoffed the plaintiff, upon whom he entered; there it suffices to say, that B. did not disselfe the plaintiff. Br. Titles, pl. 44. cites 9 E. 4. 46.

S. P. Per Pigot & Jenney. Br. Trespals, pl. E. 4. 49.

12. And in affife, if the tenant says, that he infeoffed the plaintiff upon condition, and for the condition broke he entered; there the plaintiff may fay, that they were not broken. Br. Titles, pl. 44. cites 188. cites 9 9 E. 4. 46.

13. So if the tenant says, that he within age infeoffed the plaintiff upon whom he re-entered, there it suffices for the plaintiff to say, that he was of full age tempore feoffamenti, without making other title. Quære; for it is but the opinion of some, and several e contra. Br. Titles, pl. 44. cites 9 E. 4. 46.

14. So if he says, that he leased to the plaintiff for life who aliened in fee, and he entered, the plaintiff may say, that he ne infeoffa pas. Per Pigot and Jenney. Br. Trespass, pl. 188. cites 9 E. 4. 49.

15. In trespass the defendant justified for tithes as parson imparsonee, and was compelled to shew how he came to the parsonage, and so he did. Br. Pleadings, pl. 117. cites 21 E. 4. 65.

16. If in case for disturbing his common, &c. plaintiff counts on his possession, and after it appears by pleading, that defendant is owner of the land, there a title must be set out. As in trespass for taking and chafing his cattle, if defendant justifies as in his freehold, and that he took them damage-feafant, there the plaintiff must thew forth some title in his replication, in answer to that of the [283] defendant's in his bar. But in a declaration, where the defendant may be as well supposed a stranger as an owner, there no title is necessary to be shewn. Per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the Court. 12 Mod. 98. Trin. 8 W. 3. B. R. in case of Birt v. Strode.

Comb. 472. S. C. says, the defendant demurplaintiff's replication, because he ought to have tiaversed the title let out in the avowry; it being necessary in let forth a title, and therefore it an action ofdest for rent, for . that being a personal ac-

17. Replevin; the defendant avowed for rent, that he was possessed of a house for divers years then, and yet to come; and that he leased it to the plaintiff from year to year, &c. The plaintiff replied, red upon the nil habuit in tenementis. Defendant rejoined, quod satis habuit in tenementis. And upon demurrer to the rejoinder it was alleged, that the defendant in the rejoinder should have set forth a title. But Northey for the defendant moved, that there was no necessity so to do; for though in debt for rent, if the defendant pleads in bar nil habuit in tenementis, the plaintiff in his replication must shew a title; because in debt for a rent, the plaintiff is not obliged to shew a title in his declaration, but quod cum dimisit is sufficient, this action to yet in an avowry it is otherwise, for in an avowry some kind of title must always be shewn, as was here, viz. that he was possessed for divers years then and yet to come; which being done, there differs from is no necessity to set out a title again in the rejoinder. Whereon the Court took time to consider. And after Northey said, he could not make good the avowry, and therefore prayed leave to amend, paying costs. Quod Cur. concessit. 12 Mod. 188. Pasch. 10 W. 3. B. R. Chaloner v. Claiton.

tion, the title need not be set forth; and if it should, would be unnecessary, and therefore need not be answered, as it ought to be in this case. And the case of Symons v. Pashley, 2 Jac. 2. was cited as authority in point; and the Court inclined to that opinion. Sed adjournatur.—3 Saik. 306. pl. r. S. C. according to 12 Mod. and that the demurrer was to the rejoinder, and that Mr. Northey moved to amend it a for that he faid he could not make it good for want of fetting forth a title, and that is not proper in a rejoinser.—In an avowry a title must be shewn; per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 220. Pasch. 8 Annæ, in case of Harrington v. Bush.

13. In replevin for taking a horse, the defendant avowed, that be was possessed of the close, being the locus in quo, &c. for a term of years yet to come, and being so possessed, the horse was damage-feafant there, &c. The plaintiff replied, that the desendant was to keep up his fences round the said close, but that the same being down, and out of repair, the horse escaped into the close for want of good fences, upon which they were at iffue; and at the trial the plaintiff was nonfuited; and now it was moved in arrest of judgment, that this avowry was ill, because in all avowries for damagefeasant the avorvant must shew where the fee is, and how the particular estate is derived, quod suit concessum per Curiam, if there is a demurrer to such avorury; but because the plaintiff by his replication had waived the matter, and confessed and admitted a possession in the avoivant, that is sufficient to justify a distress damage-feafant, and has cured this defect in the avowry. 3 Salk. 307. pl. 3. Trin. 12 W. 3. B. R. Freeman v. Jugg.

19. Trespass for going over the plaintiff's close with horses, cows, and sbeep; the defendant justifies, that he has a way for borses, cows, and sheep, and says, that such a day he went over with horses; and upon demurrer it was adjudged ill; for it is a justification only for horses. Judgment for the plaintiff. Sed quære. 11 Mod.

219. pl. 7. Pasch. 8 Ann. B. R. Roberts v. Morgan.

20. Action of trespass for taking cattle, the desendant pleads quod possessionatus fuit of the close, and that he took them damage-feafant. The question was, whether in this case possessionatus suit was sufficient, or whether the defendant should have set forth his title. Holt Ch. J. said, that he thought the title could not come in question; for the action is brought only for taking bis cattle. If he had claimed the land, the action should have been for entering the fore; and land; but where the trespass is only for a personal act, as beating fendant or taking cattle, possessionatus is sufficient. And judgment for pleaded that 11 Mod. 219, 220. pl. 9. Pasch. 8 Ann. B. R. A. 40.11 posthe defendant. Harrington v. Bush.

Holt's Rep. 23. pl. 22. S. C. reports, that the action was for driving and impounding that the defdf.d of the close where &c. for a term not expired; and A. being so possified, and the sheep in the close * doing damage, be by command of A. and as his servant, drove them out and impounded them. To this the plaintiff demurred, and shewed for cause, that there is no title set forth; and to justify this demutter were cited for the plaintiff, Yelv. 74. 2 Cro. 291. Mo. 847. Holt Ch. J. gave his opinion as here, and per Cur. judgment for the defendant.

*[284]

21. If A. is possessed, and B. comes and treads down his corn, and A. molliter manus imposuit to put B. out of his corn, for which B. brings assault and battery, A. may plead quod possessionatus fuit &c. and that he molliter manus imposuit to put C. out of his corn; and it is good without setting forth a title, for the action is transitory and cannot be made local but by a clausum fregit. Indeed, in an avowry a title must be shewn; but that is not like this case. Per Holt Ch. J. Powis and Gould of the same opinion. 11 Mod. 220. in case of Harrington v. Bush.

- (F) Pleadings thereof, bow. And the Difference thereof in the Writ or Count, or in Bar.
- 1. IN scire sacias a man pleaded, that his father was seised of the manor, and died seised, and it descended to him as son and heir; and per Cur. he ought to shew of what estate his father was seised; quod nota. Br. Pleadings, pl. 33. cites 24 E. 3. 75.

2. Error: a rent was granted of all his lands and tenements in B. and the title was, that he was seised of certain lands and tenements in B. and yet judgment affirmed; for it was said, that it is apparent; but Brooke says, quod mirum, for uncertain. Br. Pleading,

pl. 17. cites 8 H. 4. 19.

3. In assiste, the tenant said that A. held for life, the reversion to J. S. who granted it to his father. The tenant attorned and died; the sather entered and died, and he entered as heir, and gave colour; and there it was held, that he ought to shew of whose lease the tenant for life was seised; and therefore he shewed of whose lease. But Brooke says, it seems that in pleading he ought to shew, that A. was seised in see, and leased, &c. But in writ or declaration he may say, that A. gave or demised, &c. without alleging that A. was seised, and gave or demised. Br. Pleadings, pl. 18. cites 9 H. 4. 5.

Nor the beir

4. Avowry by tenant in dower, after endowment pleaded, afin avowry need not allege what day the anceffor died.

Br. Pleadings, pl. 19. cites 11 H. 4. 63.

5. If a man makes title in assis, or pleads fine between him and a stranger, or a recovery, he shall say, that the parties to the sine or the tenant in the recovery were seised at the time of the sine or recovery, and this by way of title or pleading; but contra by way of formedon or other action, or by way of declaration. Br. Titles, pl. 59. cites 10 H. 6 21.

6. By way of title or pleading, as in barr, title, &c. a man shall say, that he was seised, &c. and leased or gave, but by way of writ or count he shall say, that he gave or demised, without shewing that he was seised and leased, or gave; note a diversity. Br. Pleadings, pl. 13. cites 34 H. 6. 48.

7. Pracipe quod reddat of 40s. rent, the plaintiff in his title faid that the tenements put in view, out of which the faid rent arises, was a messuage and 10 acres of land in S. which makes the house and monastery of S. and so they did make and were time of mind situate upon the said 10 acres, &c. Br. Pleadings, pl. 29. cites 9 E. 4. 19.

8. Debt upon a lease for years by the plaintiff to the defendant, who said, that E. was seised in fee and leased to the plaintiff at will, who leased to the defendant, upon whom E. entered and ousled him, before which entry riens arrear; and it was held that it suffices for the plaintiff to say, that E. did not lease to him at will, without making other titl, quod nota & quære. Br. Pleadings, pl. 48. cites 21 H. 7. 20.

5

- (G) Pleadings. What shall be said the Title, or only Conveyance to the Title.
- 1. IN assise of rent, the plaintiff made title that A. his ancestor had been seised of the rent time out of mind in fee, and that A. granted the rent to C. in fee, and that it is devisable by custom, &c. and that C. devised to D. which D. devised to the plaintiff, who was seised and diffeifed, and shewed the deed; and well; for the prescription is the title and all the rest is only conveyance. Br. Titles, pl. 50. cites 38 Aff. 23.
- (H) Pleadings. Where it must be set forth at large.

I. EXECUTOR of him who had land delivered to him by elegit brought affise, and made general plaint; and good. Br.

Titles, pl. 25. cites 22 Aff. 45.

2. In affife the tenant pleaded by escheat of his tenant, and gave colour to the plaintiff, and good, and the plaintiff said, that J. N. was seised, and infeoffed him, and so was he seised till disseised, &c. and no title per Cur. For he has not traversed the bar, nor confessed and avoided it; and so it seems, that it is no bar at large, quære inde. Br. Titles, pl. 46. cites 27 Aff. 71.

3. A man need not make title at large unless in * affife only and *Br. Titles, in no other action, per Moile; which was not denied. Br. Titles, circs 21 H.6.

18. and pl. 36. cites

pl. 4. cites 34 H. 6. 46.

5 H. 7. 13.—S. P. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 185. cites 5 H. 7. 11, 12.

- (I) Pleading Title. Without shewing bow his Ancestor, or bimself came to it after a Feoffment, &c. alleged.
- 1. IN assise the tenant pleaded in bar deed of feoffment of the grandfather of the plaintiff with warranty as affignee, and shewed both deeds; the plaintiff said, that not confessing the deed, his grandfather was seised in fee and right, and died seised, by which be entered as cousin and heir, and was seised, and a good title, without shewing bow he came to it after. Br. Titles, pl. 19. cites 9 Aff. 11.

2. In affile, release with warranty of the uncestor of the plaintiff, [286] was pleaded in bar, and the plaintiff said, that the ancestor died But where seised after, et non allocatur without shewing how he came to it after. Br. Titles, pl. 20. cites 10 Aff. 23.

† feoffment with warranty is pleuded in bar, the plaintiff was permitted to plead the dying feifed of the fame ancestor, without shewing hew he came to it after. Quære the diversity. Br 'l itles, pl. 20. cites 10 Assag. † S. P. Per Cur. Br. Titles, pl. 55. dites 9 E. 3. Fitzh. Affise.

3. In affise the feoffment of the ancestor of the plaintiff, whose heir, &c. was pleaded in bar, and the plaintiff faid, that the fame ancestor was seised and died seised, and he entered as heir, and was seised and disseised, and a good title by award, without shewing how he came to it after; quod nota; by which the assis was awarded. Br. Titles, pl, 23. cites 17 Ass. 18.

4. In assise, deed of the ancestor was pleaded in bar, and the plaintiff said, that his ancestor was seised, and died seised, after whose death be entered as heir, and was seised and disseised, &c. and the assise awarded; and yet he did not shew how he came to the land after. Br. Titles, pl. 31. cites 29 Ass. 25.

5. In assiste of rent, deed of the ancestor was pleaded, and by award the plaintiff was received to say, that the same ancestor died seised of the same rent, without shewing how he came to it after; as well as in assise of land. Br. Titles, pl. 32. cites 30 Ass. 33.

So if such title was plaintiff, it is no title that after the recovery the ancestor was seised in bar against the ancestor of the plaintiff, it is no title that after the recovery the ancestor was seised in fee, and died seised, without shewing how he came to it after. Br. such reco very, per Cur. Br. Titles, pl. 55. cites 32 E. 3.—Contra of a gift of the ancestor made by deed. Br. Titles, pl. 55. cites 29 Ass. 25.——And so see a diversity between matter of record, and matter of fast.
Titles, pl. 55. cites 32 E. 3.

Br. Titlee, pl. 55.

The tenant said, that H. father of the plaintiff, whose heir, &c. was seised in fee and the land is devisable by custom, and he devised to A. for term of life, the remainder to this J. in tail, and the remainder in fee to be sold, and that the tenant for life and the said J. are dead without issue, and conveyed himself to the land by the sale of the fee simple, and shewed the testament of the father; judgment if assist, &c. And per Cur. in this case the plaintiff shall not say, that he was seised in fee, absque hoc, that he had any thing by the devise, without shewing how he came to it after; by reason that the devise hinds as a deed indented. Br. Titles, pl. 48. cites 35 Ass. 1.

8. Formedon of the gift of R. to B, father of the demandant, in tail, &c. Rede said that before the gift A. was seised in see, and leased to the said R. for life, which R. after gave to B. in tail, and the said A. entered after the gift made to his disinheritance. Hill said, after this gift, and the entry by A. this same R. was seised, and gave the land to B. in tail, of which gift this action is brought, and no title, without shewing how R. came to it after the forfeiture; by which Hill said, that after the death of A one T. was seised, and infeosfed R. in see, who gave to the father of the demandant as in the writ and declaration, &c. Rede said, T. whom you suppose to give, nothing but, &c. and the others e contra. Br. Titles, pl. 43. cites 3 H. 4. 17.

9. In trespass the defendant pleaded in bar, and gave colour to the plaintiff by lease made to the father of the plaintiff at will, and the plaintiff thinking that his father had died seised in see entered, &c. The plaintiff said that his father died seised, without shewing how he came to the see. And good per Cur. Because the defendant [287] in his bar does not bind the plaintiff by matter of record to the estate at will. Br. Titles, pl. 57. cites 10 H. 6. 1.

. 10. A man shall not make title after act of parliament, fine, or recovery, but by matter of later time; for by such a ? against his father, if he enters again, and dies seised, and his heir enters, this shall not make title to the heir, without shewing title after the recovery, &c. Br. Titles, pl. 63. cites 10 H. 7. 5.

(K) Pleadings by confessing and avoiding the Bar by elder Title.

1. IN trespass, the defendant made bar, that J. P. was seised, and infeoffed M. who leased to the defendant, &c. The plaintiff faid that before that J. P. any thing had, W. was seised in fee, and inseoffed two, who gave to W. and his seme in tail, the remainder in fee to W. and after W. and his feme died without issue, and M. as heir of W. entered, upon whom the plaintiff entered, to whom the said M. released all his right, upon whom J.P. entered and infeoffed 4, who leased to the defendant, upon whom the plaintiff entered, and the trespass mesne; this is a good plea per tot. Cur. Br. Titles, pl. 58. cites 10 H. 6. 14.

(L) Pleading Title by Recovery. Good in what . Cases, and how.

1. IN affise, the tenant pleaded lease by R. his ancestor, whose heir, &c. to K. for term of life, who aliened in fee; by which he entered for the forfeiture as heir of his ancestor, and the plaintiff claiming as heir of R. where he was a bastard, entered, &c. The plaintiff said protestando, that he is not a bastard, pro placito that he brought assist the lessee and the ulience, and recovered, at which time this now tenant had nothing, nor ever before; and because the judgment was against a stranger, which does not bind this tenant, and can have no other effect than to put him in the possession which he had before, the Court was of opinion that plaintiff ought not to have affife, and so he was nonsuited. See Fitzh. tit. Title, pl. 7. and Br. Titles, pl. 45. cite 10 Aff. 20.

2. In assis by a seme, the tenant said that at another time the By which plaintiff brought cui in vita of the sume land against A. Que estate the plaintiff he has, and appeared to it, indement if to the surit of a more hase said that A. be bas, and appeared to it, judgment if to the writ of a more base in the cui in nature she shall be admitted; and a good plea; for by this was vita difclaimed, &cc. the land discharged of assis. Br. Titles, pl. 35. cites 33 Ass. 5. by which the entered, and was seised until differsed, &c. and a good title, and the affise awarded; for though she by her fult affirmed him tenant at one time, yet she may agree to the contrary with him at another time. Ibid.

3. Where a recovery is pleaded against a man, there, per Finch. As where a the parties against whom, &c. shall not make title of later time, without shewing how they came it; but he may make title of elder a wife, and time, without shewing how he came to it. Br. Titles, pl. 7. cites makes a 47 E. 3. 13. and oufts the feoffee, and be recovers by afffez the fime brings dower, the defendant pleads the * recovery against the man seised of land takes feoffment, baron, she may say that long time before her baron was seised, so that she might have dower. Br. Titles, pl. 7. cites 47 E. 3. 13.

And in trefposs of disarest taken, a in fact; per Prisot. Br. Titles, pl. 51. cites 39 H. 6. 25. recovery of a rent service is a good title to it, and to fealty; for this is incident thereto. Quære if the service had been bomage; it seems all one, because a præcipe quod reddat does not lie of homage. Br. Titles, pl. 51. cites 39 H. 6. 25.

5. So of a recovery in formedon, without alleging that the donee was seised and gave; per Prisot. Br. Titles, pl. 51. cites 36 H. 6. 25.

6. And the same law of an affise, and so in the case of a writ of right of advowson, it is a good title without alleging presentment. Br. Titles, pl. 51. cites 39 H. 6. 25.

7. Contrary of a recovery in quare impedit, without presentment; for quare impedit may be against desorceor, who claims nothing in the patronage, and there he can recover only the presentment; and a writ of right of advowson lies not but against the patron, and there he recovers the advowson. Note the diversity; per Prisot, which none denied. Br. Titles, pl. 51. cites 39 H. 6. 25.

(M) Pleading Title of his own Possession.

by affife against one J. then tenant, and the estate, which the plaintiff here has was by abatement upon J. pending the writ, &c. Judgment, &c. and it was awarded a good bar; to which the plaintiff said that a long time before this writ brought he was seised, &c. And the assise upon this title was awarded, without shewing how he came, &c. Contra in Itin. Derby, per Herle, where the recovery was alleged against the plaintiff; and see that he did not shew how he was seised before the disseisn upon which the other recovered, but only before his writ brought, and the title good, and the assise awarded; quod quære; for at this day the plaintiff shall not make title upon his own possession, unless in special case. Br. Title, pl. 18. cites 9 Ass. 10.

2. In affise, the tenant pleaded bar by custom, that the widow shall bold the whole for her life, if she remained sole; and that if she marry, the lord shall have it for her life; and that such a widow married, and he as lord entered, &c. The plaintiff said that she was seised in see before she married the first baron; and it was awarded a good plea, without shewing title, and yet it is of her own seisin; quære at this day. Br. Title, pl. 27. cites 25 Ass. 11.

3. Trespass by the prior of C. upon anno 5 R. 2. the defendant said that T. D. was seised in see, and gave to W. N. in tail, and conveyed several descents, but he did not allege any dying seised to the defendant, and gave colour to the plaintiff by him who last died; and the plaintiff said that he was seised in his demesse as of see and of right in jure ecclesia sua, till the desendant entered where entry was not to him given by law, absque hoc that T. D. gave in tail, prout, &c. and so to issue, issue, and found for the plaintiff, who prayed judgment; and it was pleaded in arrest of judgment, that this was no title, because it was upon his own possession, without shewing how the house came to it. And by several it was argued long, that the title was not good, and Markham Ch. J. was strong that the title was not good; but the greater number, and the best opinion was, that the title is good in this action; for it is only trespass. Contra in assis where a manshall recover franktenement; and after anno 4 E. 4. 17. judgment was given for the plaintist in absence of Markham, and the action was in B. R. and Danby Ch. J. of C. B. was strong that the title is good. Br. Titles, pl. 38. cites 3 E. 4. 18.

For more of Title in general, see Right, Toll, Traberse, Urespals, and other proper titles.

* Toll.

(A) What is Thorough Toll.

[1. †† THOROUGH toll is properly where a toll is taken of ket, or for men for passing through a vill in the high street. † sallage, † 22 Ass. 58. by Thorpe. Mich. 41, 42 El. B. R. in || SMITH picage, or the like.

AND SHEPHERD'S case.]

Information against B. sarmer of Newgate-market, for extortion, in taking divers sums of memery of the market people for rent for the use of the little stalls in the markets, and divers great sums for sines, and was sound guilty. It was held by the court of B. R. and by Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall, that if the desendant crecks several stalls, and does not leave sufficient room for the market people so stand and sell their wares, so that for want of room they are forced to hire the stalls of the desendant, the taking of money for the use of the stalls in such cases, is extortion. But if the people have room enough clear to themselves to come and sell their wares, but for their farther conveniency they voluntarily hire these stalls of the desendant, without any necessity compelling them, there it is no extortion, though the desendant takes a fine and rent for the use of them. The law has not appointed any stalls for the market people, but only that they shall have the liberty of the market, which the desendant does not abridge, having left them room enough besides the place where the stalls are set; and then if they will enjoy the convenience of the stalls, they must comply with the desendant's terms. Ld. Raym. Rep. 148, 149. Hill. 8 & 9 Will. 3. The King v. Burdett.

† S. P. Se for passing public ferries, bridges, &c. 1 Sid. 454. in pl. 24. cites Blount's Law Dict. tit. Toll.

‡ Br. Toll, pl. 6. cites S. C.——Fitzh. tit. Toll, pl. 1. cites S. C.——S. P. And thorough toll is § against common right. Fitzh. tit. Toll, pl. 3. cites Trin. 20 E. 3.——And ibid. pl. 4. cites anno 8 E. 3. that it is where toll is taken of beasts and merchandises which pass through the vill, though they are not sold.

§ S. P. Arg. Because it is to be taken in the king's highway. Mod. 231. in the case of James v. Johnson.

Cro. E. 710. S. C.

[2. Thorough toll improperly is when toll is taken of men for passing through a vill, in a place which is not the nigh street. 22 Ass. 58. by Thorpe.]

*Toll to the fair or market is a reafonable fum of money due to the owner of the fair or market, upon fale of things tollable within the fair or market, or for † flallage, picage, or the like.

Toll Traverse, what.

†Br. Toll, [3. Toll traverse is properly where a man pays certain toll for pl. 6. cites passing over the soil of another man in a way not a high street.

†Mo.574. †22 Aff. 58. by Thorpe. M. 41. 42 El. B. R. in †SMITH AND S. C.—Cro. SHEPHERD'S case.]

E.710. S.C.

-S. P. And yet the owner of the land cannot justify the taking, unless such toll has been used to be taken time " out of mind; for otherwise he may take the beasts damage seasant. Fitzh. tit. Toll. pl. 3.

cites Trin. 20 E. 3.

S. P. So for passing ferries and bridges which are private. I Sid. 454. cites Blount's Dict. tit. Toll. And toll turn is a toll paid upon return of beasts from a fair. Ibid.——Br. Toll, pl. 12. S. P.—S. P. Br. Quo Warranto, pl. 3. cites It. Not. fol. 21. & 32 E. 3.

4. The words toll-thorough and toll-traverse are used promiscuously. Arg. And the Court seemed to agree. Mod. 232. in case of James v. Johnson.

(B) Thorough-Toll. [Pl. 1, 2, 3. and Toll-Traverse, Pl. 4. In what Cases payable.]

Man cannot prescribe to have thorough-toll of men passing through a vill in the high street, because it is against the common law and common right; for the high street is common to all. $\frac{1}{2}$ Ass. 58. by Thorpe. M. 41. 42 El. B. R. between songh, simply cannot beclaim. onsideration, as the repairing the way; but so he may.]

ing to 22 Aff. [58.] Yet when it is in confideration of repairing a bridge, and pavement of their freet, and reparation of the fea bank, it is well claimed; and so it is of toll-turn. Jo. 162. pi. 2.

Trin. 3 Car. B. R. The King v. the Corporation of Boston.

Toll for passing through a vill may be good; for it may be a nearer way, and he who has the toll is bound to repair it. Per Holt Ch. J. Comb. 297. Mich. 6 W. & M. in case of Warrington v. Mosely.

Toll-thorough may be by prescription, without any reasonable cause alleged for its commencement; for having been paid time out of mind, the true cause of its beginning in the intendment of the law cannot be known. Arg. and agreed to per Cur Mod. 232. pl. 21. Hill. 28 & 29 Car. 2. C. B. in case of James v. Johnson.——2 Mod. 143. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

§ Mo. 574. S. C. — Cro. E. 710. per Popham, S. C.

÷,

[2. And the king cannot have such toll for passing in the high street, as in the case aforesaid, for the cause aforesaid. 22 Ass. by Thorpe.]

[3. A man cannot prescribe to have thorough toll of men for passing through a vill in a place which is not the high street; for it is more than the law allows to go there. 22 Ass. 58.]

Br. Toll, pl. 6. cites S. C.

[4. A man may prescribe to have toll-traverse of men passing over his soil in a way which is not a high street, and the prescription shall be good. 22 Ass. 58.]

[B. 2] Toll. [How much.]

Sœ (H).

[1.] [5. MIRROR of Justices, so. 4. b. cap. 1. s. 3. it was or- 2 last. 2220. dained, that fuirs and markets be made † in places, and that same book: buyers of corn and beafts give toll to the bailiffs of the lords of the mar- but says, kets or fairs; that is to say, a halfpenny t of ten penny-worth of goods, and of less, less; and of more, | more, & to the person to whom it belongs, so that no toll exceeds one penny of one manner of merchandise. And this toll was invented for witnessing of contracts; for every day there is privy contract was forbid.]

fame book;

|| Foi. 523that at this not one certain toil to the market taken; but if that which is taken be not reasonable, it is punishable by this statute; and what " shall be deemed in law to be reasonable, shall be judged, all circumstances considered, by the Judges of the law, if it come judicially before them. 291

+ Orig. is (per lieus). 1 Orig. is (de dire fous). • Orig. is (al afferant).

[2.] [6. Among the eiers of the county of Cornwall of 30 E. 1. See (D). inter placita coronæ, & infra hundredum de Keryer, (which fee, with Master Bradshaw in the Exchequer,) there it is presented, that in Helston burgh they take de novo de quolibet animali grosso, scilicet bove, &c. tam de emptore quam de venditoribus one penny, where they ought to take but one penny de emptore; and that they take of all merchandize exceeding 12 d. of the buyer a halfpenny, and of the seller a halfpenny, where they ought to take but an halfpenny of the buyer. See the like there in other hundreds.]

3. The king may grant a fair, and that toll shall be paid; but But Ma. it must be of a very small sum, as 1 d. or 2 d. or less but not more. Per Popham. Cro. Eliz. 559. Heddy v. Wheeler, or Welhoufe.

474- pi. 680. S. C. the Justices held 1 d. a beaft unicationable.

(C) Toll. For what Things it shall be paid.

[1. OF things bought by any for his own use, no toll shall be paid. Br. Toll, pl. 7. cites 28 Aff. 53.] S. C. per Thorp, Green, and Seton, for law.

2. De communi jure, no toll shall be paid for things brought Noy, 37. in to the fair or market, unless they be fold, and then toll to be taken of the buyer. But in ancient fairs and markets toll may be paid says, he for the fanding in the fair or market though nothing be fold. cannot have 2 Inst. 221.

MAN'S CALE toll if the things be fold; and cites D. 227, 228. But it feems mis-printed by leaving out the word (not). I Toll may be due by custom for every thing brought to market, and for the standing of the seller there, though the things are not fold. Arg. Le. 218. in case of Lord Cobham v. Brown. -----Adjudged, Mo. 835. pl. 1124. Trin. 12 Jac. HILL v. HAWKER, that a cultom to take toll of corn brought into the market, but not fold, is good; but without a special cultum no told is due in such case.

3. No toll is due for hens or geese, or for many other things of fuch nature. Per Clench. Ow. 109. Trin. 36 Eliz. 3. R. Effect v. Lanreny.

(D) Payable. By whom.

The king fhall not pay things bought, &c. for the king shall not be prejudiced by things bought, &c. for the king shall not be prejudiced by his grant of any liberty which appertains to his person, &c. But Toll, pl. 9. quære of toll-traverse, if he shall pay it? It seems that he shall. Fitzh. tit. Toll, pl. 5. cites 23 H. 3.

S. P. 2 Inst. 221. cites S. C.

Fitzh. tit.

2. The buyer shall pay toll, and not the feller. Br. Toll, pl. 2. cites 9 H. 6. 45.

Agreed clearly.——S. P. unless it be by special custom. F. N. B. 223. (E)——Ibid. in the new notes there (b) the 2d paragraph, cites 20 E. 3. Avowry, 129. and 9 H. 6. 45. that goods of the vendor were distrained for toll.

[292] 3. If the lord or owner of the fair or market do take toll of the feller of horses, &c. he is to be punished within the statute W. 1. cap. 31. For he ought to take it of the buyer only. 2 Inst. 221.

(E) Discharged. Who and how.

Br. Action fur le Case, for le Case, pl. 37. cites S. C. ____ household, and to manure their land. Br. Toll, pl. 3. cites 7 H. 4. 44. S. P. Br.

Toll, pl. 4. cites 9 H. 6. 66.—F. N B. 281. (E) cites * 7 H. 4. that a tenant in ancient demesses mesne may merchandise, buy, and seil, and shall pay no toll, and says, that the same agrees with the Register.

F. N. B. 228. (E) in the new notes there (b) says the case 7 H. 4. 44. was in trespass against A. quod telonium asportavit, & illud soivere recusavit; (it was held that the writ was good, and the first words as to the asportavit void;) the plaintist counts that the defendant had bought 12 beasts in his market, and that he came the next market in the next week and sold 6 of the beasts (oxen), and the other 6 at the fair held there at the feast of, &c. Defendant pleads, that he is a tenant of ancient demesse, &c. and that all those tenants have been free to buy and sell beasts, for manuring their lands, &c. without toll, &c. time out of mind, and that he bought ut supra, and some he used for manuring his land, and some he put to passure † to make grasses, and after convenient time sold them, &c. The plaintist offers to aver, that he bought the beasts to re sell them, and that he re-sold them ut supra; the defendant demurs; but the opinion of the Court being against him, he became nonsuit; so that it seems for things bought for their sustenance, or manuring their lands, or concerning husbandry, they are discharged, but not to merchandise; and the merchandise of these is differerent from other merchandise, and cites 9 H. 6. 15. & 66. 3 E. 3. (Toll), 138.

The words are (pur eux faire grofs & pluis able a vendre & puis apres eux vend' al faire, &c.) which is (that he put them to pasture to make them tat and more fit for fale, and sometime after sold them at a fair, &c.)

Br. Toll, pl. 1. cites 9 H. 6. 25. That they shall be discharged of toll in every sair, market, or place, for the things arising of the same tenements for seiling or buying for their sustenance, according to the quantity of their tenements, as for heasts and other things necessary for their use within their has it is yell the Justices.—Fitch. tit. Toll, pl. 8. cites S. C.—F. N. B. 228. (E) cites S. C. accordingly. But says, that for other things it is a question; but forasmuch as they shall be quit of pontage, murage, and passage, he conceives that they shall be quit of toll generally, although they do merchandise with their goods.——And ibid. 228. (A) says it appears that they shall be quit of toll for their goods and chattels which they merchandise with others, as well as for their other goods, for the writ is general, pro bonis & rebus sus. And it appears, that that writ may be such by all the tenants, as a writ of mon-straverunt shall be sued; and also that every particular person who is grieved, may sue forth the writ if he will.

They shall be free by their tenure of toll of all things which they sell, if it be sold upon the same soil, and of all things which they buy to manure their soil. But Br. makes a quere if they shall be see of all things which they sell and buy, &c. Br. Augcent Demesne, pl. 22. cites 19 H. 6. 66.

2 Inf.

2 Inft. 221. fays, that for things coming of those lands they shall pay no toll, because at the beginning by their tenure they applied themselves to the manurance and husbandry of the king's demesnes, and therefore for those lands so holden, and all that came and renewed thereupon, they had the said privilege; but if such a tenant be a common merchant for buying and selling of wares or merchandises, that rafe not upon the manurance or husbandry of those lands, he shall not have the privilege for them, because they are out of the reason of the privilege of ancient demesse; and the tenant in ancient demesse ought rather to be a husbandman than a merchant by his tenure, and so are the books to be intended. And herewith agrees an ancient record, the effect whereof is quod his qui clamant effe immunes de theolonio præstando, ut tenentes in antiquo dominico, vel per chartas regum, non debent distringi pro aliquo theolonio pro merchandifis ad usus suos proprios emptis; imo pro nicrchanditis quæ emerint vel vendiderint ut mercatores, debent solvere pro eis.

By the custom of the realm they ought to be quit of toll, &c. in every market, fair, town, or city throughout the resim; and upon that every one of them may sue to have letters patent under the king's seal, to all the king's officers, and to mayors, bailiffs, &c. And also the tenants of ancient demelne may have a writ directed to the bailiffs, or mayor, or others, who will compel them to pay toll, that they suffer them to go quit, &c. F. N. B. 228. (A).

2. If lord dwells in ancient demesse, in a little tenement, he shall The lord in. be discharged of toll for things touching his sustenance, to the quantity of the tenement only; quod nota. Br. Toll, pl. 1. cites self shall be 9 H. 6. 25.

ancient demeine bim . as well acquitted of sell throughout the realm as the tenants in ancient demelne shall be; and that * appears by the Register of an attachment fued by the lord of the manor in ancient demelne against the bailists of C. because they took toll of him. F. N. B. 228. (B).

* [293]

3. Non molestando was awarded to the mayor of Calice out of Chancery, that he shall not take toll of the tenants of D. returnable in B. R. and so alias and pluries, and no writ was returned, by which, by the opinion of the Court, attachment issued to the lieutenant of Calice against the mayor. Br. Process, pl. 181. cites 21 H. 7. 31.

4. If citizens or burgesses have been quit of toll throughout the So if any realm by grant or prescription, and afterwards the king's officer city or bedemands toll of them, they may have a writ not to molest them, to be quit of and thereupon an alias pluries, and attachment. F. N. B. 226. toll for the (I) 227. (A).

rough ought merchandifes which they buy in another town or place, if any of them be compelled to pay toll, all the corporation may bring the writ by the name of their corporation, and may have an alias, and attachment thereupon, it need be-F. N. B. 2274 (E).

- 5. Note, if the king grants to one to be quit of toll, this does not extend to custom as it seems, nor is it any bar to a demand of toll, by them who have toll by a prior grant made to them. F. N. B. 227. (A) in the new notes there (c) cites 39 E. 3. 13. and fays, fee 18 E. 1. Lib. Parl. 10.
- 6. As well those tenants who hold of the manor which is ancient demesne in the seisin, or the possession of another man, as the tenants which hold of the manor in ancient demesne in the king's hands and possession, shall be quit of toll. F. N. B. 228. (A).

7. + Tenants at will within ancient demesne shall be discharged of toll as well as free-tenants, or tenants for life, or years of lands in ancient demesne, shall be discharged of toll for their 25. goods, &c. F. N. B. 228. (D) cites 9 H. 6. 14.

† 5. P. Br. Toli, pl. 1. cites 9 H.6. Fi zh. tit. Toll, pl. 8. cites S. C.

8. If the king or any of his progenitors, have granted to any to The king be discharged of toll either generally or specially, this grant is good the arch-Mhop of York the toll of corn sold in the market of to discharge him of all tolls to the king's ownsairs or markets, and of the tolls which together with any fair or market have been granted after such grant of discharge; but cannot discharge tolls formerly due to subjects either by grant or prescription. 2 Inst. 221.

Rippon, and afte wards the king granted to the mayor and citizens of York to be discharged of tollthrough the whole realm; and afterwards the archbith p exchanged his manor of Rippon with the king for another manor. It was moved, if now the citizens of York should be discharged of toll, for the grant to the archbishop was eigne to the grant to the citizens of York to be discharged of toll in Rippon. Dyer conceived that they should not be discharged, for the king had no right; and when the king grants over the manor of Rippon, the grantee that have the toll notwithstanding the grant made to the citizens, for the grant made to them was void, as to discharge them of toil at Rippon; for the grant to the citizens shall not take effect after the exchange, for the grant was void ab initio: but if the grant of the king to the archbishop had been but for life, then the grant afterwards made to the citizens should have taken effect after the estate for life determined. And the better opinion of the Court was, that toll should be paid. 4 Leon. 214. pl. 346. Mich. 16 Eliz. C. B. York Archbishop's case. _____4 Leon. 168. pl. 274. S. R.

- 9. King H. 3. did grant to the abbot of L. and his successors, quod ipsi & homines sui sint quieti ab omni theolonio in omni foro & in omnibus nundinis, &c. and there it is resolved, that the abbot should have this privilege by force of this general grant in this manner, quod ipsi & homines sui sint quieti a præstatione theolonii in venditionibus & emptionibus pro suis necessariis, ut in vietu, vestitu, & similibus & hoc ad opus proprium ipsius abbatis & hominum fuorum. 2 Inft. 221.
- 10. In 16 E. 3. the king by letters patents for the considerations therein mentioned, concessit pro se & hæredibus suis to H. earl of Lancaster, and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten (among other extraordinary grants) that the faid Earl and his heirs & omnes homines sui in perpetuum sint quieti de pavagio, passagio, [294] pangio, lestagio, stallagio, talliagio, cariagio, pesagio, pikagio, & terragio per totum regnum, &c. After the death of the said earl, the said patents being produced by his fon and heir before the faid king and council, they were declared to be the disherison of the king, and by affent of the king and council, and also of the said earl the son, were revoked, cancelled, and annulled; and it was agreed, that all patents before granted should be restored and of no force or effect. Afterwards, 25 Sept. 23 E. 3. the same king reciting the said first grant, and that the said son bad voluntarily resigned the same and all right and claim by reason thereof, in consideration thereof granted to the said son all the liberties, &c. in the said first grant mentioned for bis life. In replevin, tried before Mr. Justice Price at Exon assises, at which these charters were produced, there was a verdict given for the defendant, but a rule to stay, &c. in common form. And afterwards, on attending the judge at his chambers, he was of opinion, that the first charter was surrendered, and that in the 2d charter there were not words sufficient to exempt the plaintiff from the toll in question; and thereupon was entered up a nonsuit of the plaintiff, and the defendant had the costs thereof. MS. Voysey v. Tottle.

(E) Grant good. In respect of the Manner, &c.

1. IN trespass for taking a cow, the defendant justified by a Mo. 474. grant of H. 7. of a yearly fair to the mayor, &c. of N. cum omnibus libertatibus, & liberis consuetudinibus ad hujusmodi feriam Welhouse. spectantibus, &c. and that at a fair there held, J. S. fold a cow to the plaintiff, whereupon the defendant demanded 1 d. for toll, and because he refused to pay it, he distrained the cow as bailist, &c. Popham, Gawdy, and Fenner, delivered their opinion, that by a grant of a fair cum omnibus libertatibus, &c. toll was not due not demandable, because it is not incident to a fair, but that fair, and it may be due if it had been granted by express words in the let- judgment ters patents; Cro. E. 558. pl. 15. Pasch. 39 Eliz. & pag. 5911 pl. 29. Mich. 39 & 40 Eliz. B. R. Heddy v. Wheelhouse.

pl. 683. Heddy v. S. C. The Justices all agreed, that toll is not of common right incident to a for the plaintiff. Popham faid, the case may be, that by the king's grant with such words as here, toll may pass; as where one has a fair by grant or prescription, wherete tell has usually been paid, which afterwards is forfeited to the king, who then grants it, cum considue libertatibus ad hujusmodi feriam spectantibus, now by this grant the grantee Mali have toll; because toll was formerly belonging thereto, and therefore the king's grant did not grant a new fair, but the ancient one, which was not extinct by the King's possession. Cro. B. 591. in S. C. - S. C. cited Palm. 78, 79. Hill. 17 Jac. B. R. in case of the King v. the Corporation of Maidenhead; and Doderidge J. said, he well remembered it, and that he argued it at the bar. And Mountague Ch. J. said, that the parties sued in parliament to get it reversed, but that it was affirmed there. S. C. cited 2 Inft. 220.

2. If the king grants a fair or market, and grants no toll, he S. P. becannot after grant a toll to such free fair or market, without quid once a free pro quo some proportionable benefit to the subject. 2 Inst. 220. market, and cites it as resolved in the case of Northampton.

when once a market is in the city, that being with a custom for a fum certain, they can never raise it but thay left a it. Arg. s Show. 266. in cale of quo warranto.

3. If the toll granted with a fair of market be outrageous or unreasonable, the grant of the toll is void; and the same is a free 2 Inst. 220. cites it as resolved in the case of Northampton.

4. The king granted to the city of London, that all persons bringing into London saleable commodities, should pay so much for toll; this was held to be a good grant, and yet generally speaking, it may seem to be against the liberty of the subject. Hard. 55. [295] pl. 1. Pasch. 1656. in Scat. in case of Hayes v. Harding, cites Mich. 43 & 44 Eliz. in B. R. Hawkeshead v. Ward.

5. A grant of such toll as was used to be taken ibi & alibi infra rignum Anglia, and averring payment at another place, but not there, was held ill for uncertainty. See Prerogative (F. c) pl. i. Lightfoot v. Levet.

6. It was held per 3 Just. that toll was well granted, notwith- But Newstanding that the quantity of money to be paid for tall for every thing was not expressed; but Mountague Ch. J. contra. Palm. 86. Hill. the Corpora-17 Jac. B. R. the case of Maid Thead in Berks.

betry, who argued for tion, faid, that no judgment was given for the king in the case, but that the corporation enjoyed the privileges notwithflanding this action brought. Falm, to, at the end of the cale. And fer it ere the case argued somewhat fully.

Vol. XX.

A pre-

A prescription to toll, and says not what in certain is void, and so is a grant from the king of such uncertain toll. Arg. 2 Show. 266. cites Palm. 79. ---- Agreed Arg. on the other fide, that a prescription to have a toll uncertain, and as often as accession requires to ascertain it, is ill. But that in London it is good, though it would be so no where else. 2 Show. 273. Hill. 34 & 35 Car. 2. B. R. in case of the Quo Warranto v. the City of London.

> 7. The king cannot grant a toll for things not brought to market to be fold. 2 Lutw. 1502. per Powel J. in case of Kirby v. Whichelow.

(G) Toll. Due in what Cases, and how.

1. A Man cannot justify for toll of waggoners (charrettours), &c. nor for toll for passing of men by land or by water, unless by usage or prescription. And Thorp said, that a man cannot justify it by grant of the king, but may have toll by the king's grant of such as buy in his fair or market. Fitzh. Tit. Toll, pl. 2.

cites Hill. 50 E. 3.

$5. P. Or may be by grant, but cannot be by either grant or prescrip-

2. Toll-traverse lies in * prescription, but not toll-through; for it is an oppression of the people. F. N. B. 226. (I) in the new notes toll-thorough there (b) cites 22 Aff. 58. and fays, yet fee a common person may prescribe for toll-through, if he shews a reasonable cause, and proves that the country has a recompence; and cites 14 E. 3. tion. F.N.B. Bar. 275. 5 H. 7. 10. and so the king may prescribe for toll-227. (A) in through; quære if without shewing cause, and cites 11 H. 6. 39.

the new notes there (c) cites S. C. and 20 E. 3. Toll, 3.

Fitzh. Tit. Toll, pl. 7. cites S. C.

3. A man by law shall not pay toll for any thing brought to a fair, but for things fold; but by custom he may pay for every thing brought to the fair, and he shall pay for his place, viz. his standing, though he fell nothing. Br. Toll. pl. 2. cites 9 H. 6. 45.

4. Note, toll-through is in the highway, but toll-traverse is for passing over another's land; yet it seems if a highway be in a city or town, toll-through may be there by prescription. F. N. B. 227. (A) in the new notes there (c) cites 5 H. 7. 10. 13 H. 4. 15. And pontage, murage, or ferry, may be demanded in a highway by the king's grant, but not in a private way; and cites 13 H. 4. 15. and fays, see there that the king may grant tronage, and good.

5. No toll is due either on the part of the lord, when he has a fair or market, and not any toll, or on the part of the market-man who ought to be discharged of toll, or of the thing sold that is not tollable. 2 Inst. 220.

6. No toll for any thing tollable brought to the fair or market [296] + By Special to be fold, shall be paid to the owner of the fair or market before cuffom toll the sale thereof, unless it be + by custom time out of mind used, may be due, which custom none can challenge that claim the fair or market though the by grant within the time of memory, viz. fince the reign of king party dotb not self. Arg. R. I. which is a point worthy of observation, for the suppression 2Bulit. 202. cites 9 H. 6. of many outrageous and unjust tolls incroached upon the subject, to be punished within the purview of this statute. 45.----Ibid. 204. better to have a fair by prescription than by grant. Per Coke ennuot be where the corporation is evolved within time of memory. 2 Lutw. 13361 Trin. 2 Jac. 2. Leight v. Pym.

7. Toll is not of common right incident to a fair, and none shall Cro. E. 55%. have toll in a fair, unless he has it by grant or prescription. Mo. 474. pl. 680. Mich. 39 & 40 Eliz. B. R. Heddy v. Well- B. R. S. Q. house.

pl.15. Parch 39 Eliza adjornatur. ----S. C.

adjudged Cro. E. 591. pl. 29. Mich. 39 & 40 Elis. B. R.

8. The owner of a port may have toll by prescription, without alleging any consideration, said by Treby Ch. J. 2 Lutw. 1523. Pasch. 12 W. 3. in case of WILKES v. KIRBY, to have been so held in the case of PRIDBAUX V. WARREN; but because in the principal case the defendant had taken upon himself to allege a consideration, it was left a quære, supposing the consideration not to be well alleged, whether the plea be then good.

(H) How much. Punishment of taking more than due. See (B. 2]4

1. 3 Edw. 1. E NACTS, That touching them that take * outrage- In the cap. 31.

E NACTS, That touching them that take * outrage- In the trouble and irrelations and irrelations and irrelations. market towns, if any do so in the king's own town which is let in fee reign of H. farm, the king shall ‡ seise into his own hand the franchise of the 3. outrage-I market.

troublesome and irregular ous tolls were taken and usurped in cities, boroughs, and towns, where fairs and markets were kept, to the great oppression of the king's subjects, by reason whereof very many did refrain from the coming to fairs and markets, to the hindrance of the common wealth; for it has ever been the policy and wildom of this realm, that fairs and markets, and especially the markets, be well furnished and frequented. 2 Inst. 219.

That is, where a reasonable toll is due, and excessive toll is taken, or where no toll at all is due, and yet told is unjustly usurped; for it is an outrage to do such a common injury and wrong. Sometimes it is called superfluum vel indebitum, vel injustum. 2 Inst. 220.

† This is, in a city, borough, or town of merchandife, where fairs and open markets are kept for merchandifing, and buying and felling. 2 Inft. 220.

That is intended of toll to the fair or market. 2 Inft. 220.

I That is, shall seize the franchise of the sair or market until it be redeemed by the owner. But this is intended upon an office to be found; for in statutes, incidents are ever supplied by intendment. 2 loft. 222.

If This word here includes at well a fair as a market; for forum, from whence fair is derived, figpifies both; and a mart is a great fair holden every year, derived a merce, because merchandises and wares are thither abundantly brought; and mercatus is derived a mercando. 2 Inst. 221.

And if it be another's town, and the same be done by the sords of S That is, the town, the king shall do in like manner; and if it be done by a baithe fair of liff without the command of his lord, he shall render to the plaintiff as market. 2 much again for the outrageous taking as he had taken from him, and Inft. 22. fball have 40 days imprifonment.

Fieta collects the effect of this former part of the act in these words, inhibitum est ne quis in villis regis merchandiis, quæ dimissæ sunt & commisse ad seodi sirmam, indebita & injusta capiat theolonia; quod si quis ecerit extunc eo iplo capiat rex libertatem mercati in manum suam; eodem modo facit rex, licet in alterius villa præmissa sieri contigerit, si balivus hoc secerit sine voluntate domini sui, reddet tantum querenti quantum cepisset balivus ab eo, si tolnetum asportasset, & nihilominus habeat prisonam 40 dierum. 2 Inft 222.

297 · Touching citizens and burgesses, to whom the king or his father has + Muragranted | murage to enclose meir towns which take such murage other- gine a muall does exe wife then it was granted, and of this are attaint, they shall + lofe plain it, to their grant for ever, and shall be grievously amerced. wali in or

Isciole with wall a town, under which word is here included a city and burgh. It is a responsible tell 60 be taken of every east, wayne, horse laden coming to that town, for the inclosing of that town with walls of defence, for the safeguard of the people in time of war, insurrection, tumuits, or uproces, and is due either by grant or by prescription. But if a wall be made which is not defeasible, not for Safeguard of the people, then ought not this toll to be paid; for the end of the grant or prefeription is not performed. s laft. 222.

He that has burgbloss granted to him, is discharged of murage granted afterwards; and although mu-. Buge be here particularly named, yet there are grants of like nature within the purview of this statute, as pontage, paviage, keyage, &c. 2 Inft. 222.

† Here the whole franchise is forseited; and so note a diversity between the words (shall lose the framchife, &c.) and the words (finall lofe the grant) the one implying a feifure, as has been faid, and the other a forfeiture for ever; for it is a miluler or abuler. And thereof Bracton lays, hujulmodi autom libertates, &c. Statim quali transferuntur, & quali-possidentur, &c. donec amiserit per abusmu, yai son uium. 2 isk. 222.

Fleta renders this last part of this chapter in these words; Item qui murzgium ad villam claudendam gravius ceperint, quam concessum fuerit per cartam regis, perdant extunc gratiam sum concessionis & graviter amercientur. And presently after the making of this act, the effect thereof for justices in eyre to inquire of it, was inferted in the chapters or articles of the Eyre, in these words, Item de hiis pui ceperunt superflua, vel indebita tolneta in civitatibus, burgis, vel alibi contra communem usum fegni. Item de civibus & burgentibus qui de muragio per dominum regem eis concetto, plus ceperant quam facere deberent secundum concessionem domini regis factam. 2 Inst. 223.

The Mirrour says, touching murage, thus, Le point que voet que ceux que misusent murages les perdent ne fuit missier daver estre, car ley voet que chescum perdra son franchise que misusera; so as this flatute was made in that point for 2 purposes, viz. to affirm the common law, and to add a further punishment, vie. to be grievously amerced. 2 Inft. 223.

(I) Remedy.

It was agreed on all lides

1. A Distress is incident to every toll. Noy, 37. in Hickman's case, cites 30 E. 3. 20.

that if toll be due, a diffress may be taken for it. Cro. E. 558. pl. 15. Pasch. 39 Eliz. B. R. in case of Hoddy v. Wheelhoufe.

> 2. The party has no remedy for the toll, if the goods are carrird out of his jurisdiction. Noy, 37. in Hickman's case, cites 20 H. 7.

Br. Toll, pl. 5. cites S. C.—Ja east the plaintiff deslared of a toll-traverse, ser passing over the bridge at Ware; and that the docarried fo mony toads of, barley

3. Action upon the case was brought by the mayor and burgesses of Gloucester, against the burgesses and commonalty of B. because they bave used, time out of mind, &c. to bave toll of every boat which paffed the water of Severne by the vill of Gloucester with any merchandise, &c. and that the defendant passed with a boat and 20 pipes of-wine, and did not pay toll, where they ought to pay for every pipe 3d. for toll, &c. Marowe, of ecunicl with the defendant, said, that if a man passed over land which ought to have the toll, and the other did not distrain for the toll in his land, but Anders bad permitted him to pass without payment or distress, he shall not have action of toll. Quære inde. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 70. cites 2 th. 7. 16.

over that dridge; that the foll through, at so much per cart, amounted to 40 l. which the defendant refused to pay, Arc. Upon a demorrer it was inflited, that an action would not lie for a toll-graverie for passing through the highway without shewing a title, and consideration. Besides this action was brought for a non featance. (vis.) not paying, &c. for which (if any thing is due), an action of debt, and not on the case, mould he brought. But on the other fide it was answered, that we action lies " without stewing a tille or con-Aderation, and that this shall come upon the evidence; and as to the I non-feasance, many cases were eited to thew that case lies for non-featance. But adjustratur. 3 Lev. 400. Trin. 6 W. & M. in C. B. Steinson v. Heath.

1 See Adions, (K. c) pl. 2.

~[298]

A. If a man ought to have toll in a fair, &c. and his servents are diffurbed to gather the same, he shall have trespass vi & armis for affault of his servants, and for the loss of their service, and for the disturbance made unto them, and for losing the profit of his toll, and all in one writ. F. N. B. 91. (A).

5. An ox bide was brought into Leadenhall-market, on the market-day, and fold, and the bailiff of the mayor, &c. of London, and by their command, took it there damage feafant. But it was agreed by all, that this ox hide, brought into the market and fold, cannot be distrained damage feasant. Cro. E. 627, 628. pl. 21. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. B. R. Sawyer v. Wilkinson.

6. A customary toll was of 5d. a chaldron of coals. was infifted, that a diffress ought not to be on any thing, but on that commodity out of which the toll was payable. But the anchor and cable, and sails, being distrained, it was adjudged that 5 Mod-359. they were well taken. Carth. 357. Trin. 7 W. 3. Vinkinstone v. Ebden.

And it I Salk, 242 judged atcordingly.-216. Mich. 10 W. 3.

S. C. by the name of Winckelline v. Ebden, adjudged accordingly.

7. If A. has a market and toll, and B. is coming with goods to S. C. cited the market, for which, if fold, toll would be due, and C. binders Arg. Gibb. B. coming to the market, the lord of the manor may have an action case of forebecause of the possibility of damages. Per Powell J. 6 Mod. 49. falling, Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Ashby v. White.

174. as in whereby toll is loft.—

Per Wild J. 2 Vent. 26. in case of Turner v. Sterling. -- Ibid. 27. per Tyrrel J. accordingly .-Ibid. 28. per Vanghan Ch. J. accordingly.

8. An indebitatus assumpsit was brought for tall. It was objected that this action would not lie for toll, but the only remedy was diftress. But the Court inclined to think it would, if the corn is the duty; but gave time to move this and other exceptions at another time. Afterwards the matter was moved again, and the rule for staying judgment was discharged. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 243. Paich, 6 Geo. 2, and 484. Hill. 7 Geo. 2. Cock v. Vivian.

Writ and Declaration. Good or not.

1. TRESPASS by the vicar against A. that where he and his pre-decessors ought to grind without toll, there the defendant has taken toll, vi & armis, viz. of one quarter of rye, and one quarter of corn, and of all the corn that he ground there, from such a day to such a day. The defendant said that he is only a servant, judgment of the writ; et non allocatur, and the writ was awarded good vi & armis, by which he pleaded to the writ, because the plaintiff has not alleged the price of the toll; ct non allocatur, because he has pleaded more high before. By which he traversed the prescription, and prayed aid of the tenant for life, to whom he was deputy; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 47. cites 44 E. 3. 20.

2. The action was for non-payment of toll; quod sectoneum after-Br. Brief, pl, 113. cites tavit & illud solvere recusavit. Whereas toll, not paid, cannot be S, C.—S. P. carried away; and therefore asportavit is false. And notwithstand. Br. Action ing that this be void * or surplusage, yet because the other word sur le Case, pl. 37. cites solvere recusavit are sufficient, therefore the writ awarded good, S. C. by and yet false, repugnant, and surplusage; quod nota. Br. Nugawhich the tion, pl. 9. cites + 7 H. 4. 44. defendant justified as to manure their land or [maintain their] houses, sold or bought; by which he bought 8 beatts, with part whereof he manured his land, and the rest he sed to sell. Judgment, &c. And the plaintiff said, that the defendant was a common merchant, and sold and bought every day for prost; and the defendant demurred in law; and as to the other heafts he bought them one day, and sold them next day, and so merchant. And the defendant demurred in like manner. And the opinion of the Court was with the defendant, and the plaintiff was nonsuited. Brooke says, quare why, and whether the opinion was only for the last plea, or for both; for, upon the first plea, it seems the law is with the plaintist, unless this buying for pasture and sale be one kind of manurance and pasture-land. Quarre.——Br. Toll, pl. 3. cites S. C.

S. C. cited by Coke, 2 Bulst. 228. in case of Willamore v. Bamforde; for the rule is, utile per intile non vitiatur.

3. Trespass for hindering him from taking the profits of his fair in Br. Toll, pl.g. cites S. viz. pro uno equo vendito 4d. for toll. And because he did not S. C.---F. N. B. 91. Shew of whom the buyer bought the horse, therefore ill, by the opinion of the Court; for the buyer may have notice of the name of the (G) in the new notes vendor. Contra in an action of wreck, or against an hostler. there (b) But where he justifies the buying of a horse in market overt to fays, it feems change the property, he shall shew of whom he bought. Br. that the name of the Count, pl. 78. cites 9 H. 6. 45. buyer, as also of the thing fold, for which the toll is due, ought to be sheave in the count; and tites S.C. but adds damie-

Br. Toll,

A. If a man prescribes to have toll of every boat which passes by the will of B. he ought there to count upon what water, by name, the boats were passing. Br. Prescription, pl. 92. cites 21 H. 7. 16.

5. In case the plaintiff declared of a lease for years of the toll, and Clench took another exprofits of the markets and fairs, within the manor, &c. of T. and ception; bethat the defendant disturbed bim in taking divers pieces of wool; it was cause he did not set forth objected against this declaration, that the plaintiff did not sew that toll was that his lessor was seised at the time of the demise. Sed non allocato be paid of tur; for the plaintiff, in this action, is to recover damages only, wool by and the right or title of land is not in question. But contra, if it common ulage, for no were in such action in which the right of the toll had come in detoll is due Ow. 109. Trin. 36 Eliz. B. R. Escot v. Lanreny. for hens or geele, or for many other things of such nature, and so it might be that toll was not due for wool. Feaner was of the same opinion; but Popham contra, who said, that the plaintiff had declared, that the desendant had disturbed him from the toll of divers pieces of wool; and by that is implied, that toll ought to be paid for wool. And at another day judgment was given for the plaintiff. Ow. 109. Escot v. Lanreny.

6. A claim in quo warranto, to have toll in specie of grain expeded to sale, whether sold or not, ratione manerii was adjudged to be ill, because it ought to have been ratione mercati. Noy. 37. 41 Eliz. Hickman's case.

7. In action sur le case against the town of Unbridge, for taking toll of a Thursday market there. The plaintiff made title by conveyances under the lord Derby, to whom it was granted heretofore, and allowed in 38 H. 8. and 8 Car. 1. in 2 several quo warranto's, and the town disclaimed. Twisden J. excepted, because in the count it was not said by grant or prescription, but on a seisin only. 3 Keb. 12. pl. 16. Pasch. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Cook v. Baker.

8. In case, the plaintiff set forth, that the city of Norwich has a common wharf and crune, and a cuftom that all goods brought down Vent. 71. the river, and passing by, shall pay such a duty. It was objected, that this is for toll-thorough, which is malum tolnetum. Twisden s. c. it was faid, that * if they had unladed at the key, or at any other place alleged, that in the city, they should pay the whole duty; or if he had set forth, that they had cleansed the river. It was ordered to stay. common 1 Mod. 47. pl. 103. Hill. 21 and 22 Car. 2. B. R. Haspurt v. Wills.

*[300] Pasch. 22 Car. B. R. they maintained a key for unlading goods, and held a void custom as to fuch vessels as did not unlade at the key, or elsewhere in the city; but if they had seceived their freight at the key, it might extend to them. ——Sid. 454. HESHORD V. WILLS, S. C. that it was debt brought on a by-law, to have so much a tun for goods passing upon the river; and that the plaintiff had judgment in C.B. But that upon error brought in B.R. the same was held to be

9. When toll is claimed generally, it shall be intended tollthorough. Per Atkins J. Mod. 232. in case of James v. Johnson, and said that so is the case in Cro. E. 710. Smith v. Shepherd.

(L) Pleadings.

I. A Man cannot prescribe in the negative to pay no toll, but in Br. Custom, pl. 23. cites the negative with an affirmative, viz. that be and all, &c. S. C. bave used to buy and sell, &c. without paying toll. Br. Prescription, The prepl. 17. cites 7 H. 6. 32. and 8 H. 6. 3. Per Paston. fcription. ought to be in the affirmative, viz. to be quit of toll, and that he had not paid toll. F. N. B. 227. (1) in the new notes there (a) cites 14 H. 6. 12.

2. If a man prescribes to be quit of toll, he ought to shew how it has been allowed and put in ure; quære. Br. Patents, pl. 27. cites 14 H. 6. 12. Per Vamp.

3. Trespass against him for taking a quarter of corn, he justi- Cro. E. 117. fied for that it was within the town of L. and it was damage pl. 2. Mich. feafant in his freehold; the defendant pleads that they were by charter in the time of queen Mary incorporate, &c. and a market Exchequerwas granted to them, and the place where, &c. was appointed for the market place, and he brought his corn on the market-day, and fet it there, and the defendant took it; and upon demurrer it was adjudged without argument, that upon this matter the mayor could not justify the taking. Cro. E. 75. pl. 34. Mich. 29 & 30 stated, as if Eliz. B. R. The Mayor of Lawnson's case.

30 & 31 Eliz. in the Kingdon v. BARNES, feems to be S. C. but differently the action had been brought in right of the patentee, formating away the corn which he had distrained damage-feafant; and says the desendant justifies as forms proper goods, and pleaded a special justification, that the plaintiff made title to them by seisure, and pleaded that king P. and queen M. by letters patents inrolled in Chancery, dederunt & concesserunt willa de Launceston liberty of a market, &c. and shows a special cause as feifure as an officer there; whereupon it was demurred, and judgment for the plaintiff. And and upon error brought the error affigned was, that he pleaded that the king and queen granted by letters petents, &cc. but did not fay (fub magno figillo confectes), and this was clearly held an error; for if the grant was not under the great seal, it is not good, and the saying it was insolled in Chancery is not fufficient; for any patent may be inrolled there. And therefore the judgment was reversed,-10 Rep. 94. b. S. C. cited in Dr. LEYFIELD's CASE; and there the Court said that the error assigned in the mayor, &cc. of LAUNCESTON'S CASE, was the want of a profert bic in curia of the letters patents; and that it was resolved that for this cause the plea was insufficient in substance; and therefore resolved by · all the Jukices of C. B. and Barons of the Exchequer, that the judgment be reversed.

4. In trespass for taking an ox-hide, the defendant justifies that the mayor, &c. of L. was seised in see of, &c. and that it was damage feasant, and therefore he took it by command of the mayor of L. as bailiff. The plaintiff replied, that the place where, &c. is a market, and that be on a market day bought the bide in the market of one W. B. and delivered it to J. S. to carry away, who put it in [301] a basket; and in carrying it away on his shoulders from the market, the defendant took it away, &c. which he is ready to aver, &c. Defendant demurred, 1st, Because having justified damage feasant, the plaintiff's replication shews this matter to take from defendant his authority for the taking, whereas the plaintiff varies from the manner of the taking, and does not conclude que est eadem, &c. 2dly, Because defendant justifies for a taking, which is intended upon land damage feasant; but the plaintiff's replication is of another, and does not traverse; sed non allocatur; for the plaintiff shewing the special cause of the hide's being there, and that therefore the defendant had colour to take it, but that by reason of the matter in law which he shewed, his taking was not justifiable, it seems that the replication was good, and needs no traverse; and that the conclusion of the pleas quæ est eadem transgressio, is not requisite, he having agreed in the time and place of the caption, but shows cause why it is not destrainable. But Popham held that the plaintiff ought to have traversed, because he does not agree in the manner of the caption; but Gawdy and Fenner e contra, because it is his matter Adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 627, 628. pl. 21. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. B. R. Sawyer v. Wilkinson.

Cro. E. 710. pl. 34. 3.C. Jays that the execption scribing to distrain the ep in yia regia for the toll was not good, because it was against the flatute of Marlbridge, was not allowed; for that this statute intended only diftrefles for reats and fervices, and not such things of which no diffress can be but in the highway. And exception being taken, because the coften mas alleged to be, that if the sheep of any foreigner be driven through, a tell shall The pail ; and if denied by any foreigner that drives them through, a diffress may be taken, and it is not secred that he who drove them through was a foreigner, but only that the master was a foreigner : Sed non allocatur; for the driving of the servant is the driving of the master, and if he be a fereigner It suffices. Another exception was, because he justified quod copit & abduxit, and says not by distress, . musine diffrictionie; for that he cannot otherwise justify. This per tot. Cur. was need a material exception, because without that it does not meet with the precription. Popham thought toli-traverse and toll-thorough might be by prefcription, but that it ought to be for some reasonable cause which must be thewn, but no fuch being alleged here, he conceived the plea ill, Gawdy and Clench held the plea well enough notwithstanding, because being by prescription, the cause cannot be intended to be known; but Sace it might have a lawful beginning, it is we'll enough without shewing it; but Gawdy doubted upon the reason of 22 Ast. 58. whether such toll might be claimed by prescription: Fenner delivered not any spinion herein. But for default in the pleading it was adjudged for the plaintiff.

5. Trespass for taking of his sheep, the defendant justified as fervant to the lord B. by prescription to take 2d. for every 20 sheep passing per & trans the vill; and if it was denied upon request, to dethat the pre- tain one sheep of every 20 till payment. Upon demurrer it was adjudged for the plaintiff, because the prescription was not good to take toll for passing in via regia; for that the inheritance of every man for passing in the king's highway is precedent to all prescriptions; but if the party shows cause for the toll, as if he is bound to repair a bridge or causeway, &c. This would be good, but no such is shewn here; but it is clear that a man may prescribe for toll traverse, because it is a passage over his own freehold, but not so for toll-thorough. Besides, the defendant should have shewn that the sheep were passing through the town before he took the distress, otherwise it does not suit with the prescription to distrain them, Mo. 574. pl. 793, Trin, 41 Eliz. Smith v. Shepherd.

6. In trespals for taking a cow, the desendant justifies that the bishop of D. had a fair by letters patents with toll, and that the plaintiff fold certain bides, and the defendant demanded 1 d. for toll, which the plaintiff denied, and thereupon he distrained. The plaintiff replied, that it was ancient demesne in which he distrained, which is found against him. Jones moved in arrest of judgment, that the justification was ill; for toll is against common right, and here is no grant or prescription laid for distraining; judgment stayed per Curiam, had not a non prof. been before entered. 1 Keb. 342.

pl. 14. Mich. 14 Car. 2. B. R. Harris v. Hawkins.

7. Trespass of taking, cutting, and spoiling so many yards of cloth, the defendant justified as to the taking by prescription to take a reasonable sum for stallage, and that 5s. was a reasonable sum; the [302] plaintiff demurred, because this was [not] to distrain only, but to take and keep the goods until the fum is paid. 2dly, It is not faid certainly what, but a reasonable sum; nor, 3dly, shewed how 5 s. was a reasonable sum, that the Court may judge it so; but per Twisden J. the prescription for a reasonable sum is as sufficient as for fine of copyhold, without shewing what sum; for this is iffuable: but the justification of the taking at the place agreed, and carry-Ing to another out of the county, should be traversed; and judgment for the defendant nifi; for it cannot be said quæ est eadem. 722, 723. pl. 7. Hill. 28 Car. 2. B. R. Ricrost v. Roberts.

8. In trespass for taking his cattle, the defendant justified by 2 Mod. 143. prescription to have toll for all beasts driven over the manor of B. S. C. and it A special verdict found that the manor, &c. was parcel of the this toll is possessions of the priory of B. that the prior had such a toll by not become prescription as appurtenant to the manor; that by the dissolution it a tell in came to the crown, and so to J. S. in whose right, and as iervant to dissolution; him, the defendant justified; and conclude, that if the defendant and judgmay claim by a que estate, then they find for him, if not, then ment for the defendant. for the plaintiff. It was argued, that toll may be appurtenant to a manor, as well as any other profit apprender; and for the que estate, though a thing which lies in grant cannot be claimed by a que estate directly by itself, yet it may be claimed as appurtenant to a manor, by a que estate in the manor. And to this the Court agreed, and gave judgment for defendant. Mod. 231. pl. 21. Hill. 28 & 29 Car. 2. C. B. James v. Johnson.

9. If defendant prescribes to toll for passing the bighway, he must show some cause to intitle this less to the taking of it, as by doing something of public advantage. Admitted Arg. 2 Mod. 144. Hill, 28 & 29 Car. 3. C. B. in case of James v. Johnson.

a Show. 54 pt. 26. Pach. 31 Cars. B.R. S. C. by the to sense HILL V. Priour, the Court faid that the queen's pareieular interest is not ton faid it had been good, if general without recital, because it would and fould have paffed what assup satt

10. In trespass for taking a bushel of eatment, the defendant as to all besides one quart, pleads not guilty, and as to that he justified for toll in the market at Penzance, and made a title to the market and toll by prescription, &c. The plaintiff replied that before the defendant had any thing in it, &c. queen Eliz. was feifed of the market, and by letters patents, reciting that R. 1. and K. John had granted to the borough of Hilston, that it should be a free borough, and quit of toll, of pontage, passage, stallage, and sallage through all Cornwall; fhe incorporated the faid borough, and preserved to them all the faid recited privileges. Then he sets forth, that he was born in, and a and Pember- free burgess of Hilston, and so exempted. The defendant rejoined, &c. that the burgesses of Hilston had always paid toll; and upon demurrer the Court said, it was a doubt whether this toll be within the word sallage, or any other particular word of discharge, and that the word theolonium will not extend to all the particulars after mentioned. And their opinion was, that the charter of Q. Eliz. did not discharge the plaintiff, and so gave judgment quod nil capiat. 2 Jo. 118. Gill v. Prior.

had, but here it refers to king John, and he never had this. Scroggs faid, the queen only passed those tolls which belonged to the kings of England, particularly which king John had, and not those which came to her fince, and by another means; to which the rest agreed, and judgment was given for the defendant.

11. In trespass for taking 4 bushels of wheat at 4 several days, (viz.) 2 in the market-place in Lanceston, and 2 more in the bouse of J. S., &c. The defendant as to all but 16 pints, pleads not guilty, and as to these actio non, and justifies as servant to the mayor and commonalty of Lanceston, and by their command, &c. for toll in the faid market; and that he took the 16 pints at two soveral markets, (viz.) 12 pints for 12 bushels exposed to sale, &c. and 4 pints for 4 other busbels, &c. que est eadem captio. Plaintiff demurred, because the taking in the several places mentioned in the declaration are not answered severally, so that it might appear whether the pints of corn were taken in or out of the market; for though the taking may be justified in a market, yet it cannot be justified out of it: sed per Curiam, the plea is good; for it is sufficient for the defendant to answer the taking in the vill, and the very place where taken is not material in trespass, as it is in a replevin; and had the taking been out of the market, the plaintiff ought to shew it. And judgment quod nil capiat. 2 Jo. 207. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Specot v. Carpenter.

12. In trespass for taking his corn, the defendant justified for toll, but did not set forth that the corn was fold; and exception being taken for this reason, because none can otherwise be due, unless by special custom, judgment was given for the plaintiff.

2 Lutw. 1329. 1336. Trin. 2 Jac. 2. Leight v. Pym.

13. Trespass for taking two lambs at F. the defendant pleads in bar a grant of 2 fairs to W. R. and his heirs, to be held every year in F. with all tolls, &c. to these fairs belonging, &c. That a fair was held there 5 Aug. &c. and that the plaintiff bought 600 theep and lambs, for which 6s. became due for toll, of which he gave notice; but he refusing to pay it, the defendant, as servant to W.R. diffrained the two lambs for tall, and took and carried them away, which is reliduum transgressionis, &c. The plaintiff replied, that he was inhabitant in T. within the duchy of L. and fo prescribed to be quit of tell, and that he gave notice to the defendant. Upon demurrer it was objected, that no toll was expressly granted, and therefore none is due by law. The grant is (as belonging, or accustomed to the fair) which cannot be by prescription, which ought to be averred. adly, For that the defendant fet forth, that he did take and carry away the lambs for the toll not paid, but did not say nomine districtionis, as was resolved Cro. E. 710, 711. in Smith and Sheppard's case; but in this case it was said that he distrained the lambs for toll. But admitting the plea good, the Court were of opinion, that the prescription for inhabitants to be quit of toll is good, and so the replication and sount being good, though the bar was not, the plaintiff ought to have judgment, and so he had for this reason. 2 Lutw. 1377. Paich. 4 Jac. 2. Ofbuston v. James.

14. Trespass for taking deal-boards; the defendant prescribes to repair a wharf, and ratione cujus to have a toll of 2d. per tun of all merchandize landed within the manor, (but did not for upon the wharf,) and for non-payment to distrain a reasonable part of the goods. The plaintiff replied de injuria fua propria, and traverses the proscription; upon which they were at issue, and there was a verdict for the defendant; and now it was objected that this prescription was void, because without any confideration, it being for landing goods on the manor, and not on the wharf; so that this is as a toll-thorough, and without confideration, and not good. But the Court held, that this is rather toll-traverse than toll-thorough, and gave judgment for the plaintiff. 3 Lev. 424. Trin. 7 W. 3. C. B.

Crispe v. Belwood.

15. In trespass, &c. the desendant prescribed for a fair every year on fuch a day, to be held in the place where, &c. and to bave reasonable toll, (viz.) inter alia, one shilling for every double or large stall, and for the ground near it and about it. Upon iffue joined, the defendant had a verdict. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that toll could not be due for stallage, for they are different things. Sed non allocatur; because tolnetum may well fignify stallage, as a general word for all such duties and payments. 2. It was objected that the defendant had prescribed for toll, inter alia, (viz.) 1s. for a large stall, which is incertain; and fince the prescription is intire, the duty ought to be so too. Sed non allocatur; for the defendant need not fet forth more than what the present occasion required. 3dly, The words near and about the stall were objected as uncertain and void. Sed non allocatur; for this shall be ascer- [304] tained by the common usage of the fair. And judgment, per tot. Cur. for the defendant. 2 Lutw. 1517. Pasch. or Trin. 12 W. 3. C. B. Bennington v. Taylor.

16. In trespass of goods taken, the defendant justifies, that R. 2 Ld. Raym. Bishop of W. was seised in the of a market in C. and that he, Rep. 1589. S. C. by 28 bailiff, distrained them da tree feasant. Plaintiff replied, a grant name of by letters patent to J. late Bisbop of W. and alleges, that he brought Wight v.

the PRACKY &

al.' adjudged accordingly by Raymond and Probyn, (Lee absente.) And Says it was never moved again.

† 2 Roll's

Abr. Market, (B) pl.

Jac. B. R. Nameton

CASE. And

was e contra at a day before

FAIR'S

says, that Doderidge

the goods into the market for sale, when the defendant took them of his own wrong. The defendant, by his rejoinder, craved over of the patent, and said, that plaintiff did not pay toll, and therefore de-Ch. J. Page, fendant defired him to remove his goods; which not being done, he distrained them, &c. Plaintiff demurred, because desendant demanded over of the patent, which was not pleaded with a profert; that he did not allege, that any toll was due, nor for what, or in what manner, nor that any was denied; and that the rejoinder is a departure from the bar. The defendant's counsel agreed, that the rejoinder could not be maintained: but faid, that the replication admitted his bringing the goods for fale into the market; but that plaintiff, before his doing so, should have tendered stallage to the lord's bailiff; and cited + 2 Roll's Abr. 123. relating to the town of Cambridge. But the Court declared, they were by no means satisfied that toll or stallage was due to a mar-1. Mich. 15 ket, without any express clause in the grant, or prescription for that purpose; but if these duties were incident to markets of common right, they thought that stallage could not be necessary to be tendered before the goods were brought into the market; and that it was enough to do it after they were brought in. And as to the case cited out of 2 Roll's Abr. 123. the Ch. J. and Judge Page declared, that they doubted whether it was law. Accordingly judgment was given for the plaintiff, unless cause, on Thursday next. 2 Barnard, Rep. in B. R. 161, 162, Trin. 5 Geo. 2. Bigley v. Pechey.

(M) Verdict.

1. TF it be found, that the corporation, &cc. are bound to repair, 3 Salki 248. pl. 4. S. C. &c. the thing, on account whereof the toll is to be paid, but S. P. it is sufficient, without finding that it was then in repair; for it is does not apthe obligation which lies on them to do the thing, and not the DC27.---12 Mod. performance of the thing itself, which is the consideration of the 216. Mich. duty; per Holt Ch. J. And judgment accordingly. Carth. 359. 30 W. 3. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. Vinkinstone v. Ebden. S.C. by name of Winckesline v. Ebden. But same point does not appear.

See Market, (I. 4).

Toll-Book.

1. A. Stole a horse, and sold him in market overt; but he entered a false name in the toll-book. This does not alter Ow. 27. 'S. C. ≈cordingly by the property of the thing tolled. Le. 158. pl. 225. Mich. 31 Eliz. Windham and Rhodes, C. B. Gibbs's case.

-----If one takes my horse, and sells it in a market overt, and pays toll for it, though he enters his name falfely in the toll-book, yet the fale is clearly good, and the property altered, if there was no cook in the bendee. For the misnosmer of the party is nothing to him, when he huys it bona ado, and is not conviant of the tortious taking. And they advised the plaintiff to discontinue his suit, and ordered that small costs should be affested; and it was so done. Cro. Elizabe. pl. 6. Hill. 30 Eliz. B. R. Wicken v. Morefoots.

*[305] For more of Wall in general, see Market, Prescription, and other proper titles.

Tort.

(A) Confiruction of Law, relating to Torts.

E. F a man sells a diffress which he took and impounded, and Lafter rebuys it, and impounds it again, yet the selling is not excused. Per Mountague J. And Knightly seemed of the same opinion, and cited 5 E. 4. D. 35. b. pl. 34. cites in Marg. 2 E. 4. 55. a. 28 H. 6. 5. b.

2. The same of trees cut by lesse, and by him sold, and after- S.P. Co. wards by him bought again, and employed for repairs. D. 35. b. Litt. 53. b.

pl. 32. Trin. 29 H. 8. Maleverer v. Spinke.

trees, and

fells them for money, and with the money repairs the house, it is waste. Co. Litt. 53. d.

3. A. devised a term to B. and makes C. executor, and dies. The executor takes a new leafe, which is a surrender and a devastavit. The devisee enters without assent of the executor, by which he is a diffeisor, and then grants his interest to the executor. Adjudged that this shall enure as affent of the executor first to the term devised; and this makes the devisee to be in by right, and then he is in of such term in estate, as he may grant. Mo. 358. pl. 487. Trin. 36 Eliz. Carter v. Love.

4. When a man enters, baving a good title, he shall not be said to enter by a tortious one. Arg. Mo. 363. pl. 494. in Bullie's CASE, cites 12 Aff. where the lord diffeifed his tenant by knightservice, who died his heir within age. This purged the diffeisin. So 38 H. 6. Tenant pur auter vie is disseised, cesty que vie dies, he shall be occupant and the diffeisin purged.

5. A man cannot apportion his tort. Cro. E. 651. pl. 6. Hill. 41 Eliz. B. R. in case of Heliar v. Whitear.—6 Rep. 24. b. HELYAR'S CASE.

6. Where a tortious possessor shall be liable to answer consequential damages, though a possessor bona side shall not in the like case, see Hob. 100. in case of Moore v. Hussey, cites 8 E. 3. 52. and 8 E. 3. 45.

7. When right and wrong do meet together, the right shall ever [306] be preferred. See 3 Buist. 47. in case of Harris v. Austin.

And see Roll. Rep. 214. in S. C.

For more of Cott in general, see Distin, Ratifiabitio, Re= leafe to Diffeiforg, and other proper titles.

Tout temps prist.

(A) Tout temps Prist. [And Uncore Prist.]

Br. Touts [1. In debt upon obligation, upon condition of payment of a less sum, temps Prist, pl. 21. cites s. C.—

yet he ought to say uncore prist. 10 H. 6. 16. b. 11 H. 6. 27.

But if the money was to be paid to a firauger, he need not to fay uncore prist. And. 4. pl. 7. Puch. 3 & 4 P. & M. in case of Pannel v. Nevel.

Where a man is bound in 60 l. to pay 40 l. if he pleads tender of the 40 l. in action of debt brought against him of the 60 l. he ought to say that he is yet ready, and always has been ready to pay the 40 land bring the money into court, because the less sum is parcel of the greater sum expressed in the obligation, and there refusal of it shall not serve, for it is parcel, sec. Br. Tout temps, sec. pl. 31. cites 20 E. 4. 1. per Brian & Cur.——But ibid. pl. 33. cites 21 E. 4. 42. 52. that it was held, per tot. Cur. in such case, that he need not say that he is yet ready to pay; quod nota. But it is said, that 21 H. 6. is contrary, and so are several other books thereof.

But if the obligation he of 60 l. to enfeoff the plaintiff by fack a day, or to deliver to him a borfe, or such like, subject is not money, tender by the defendant, and refusal by the plaintiff, is sufficient for the defendant for ever. And there in pleading the defendant need not to say, that he has been always ready, and yet is; but in the one case and the other the penalty is saved. But Tout temps, see. pl. 21. cites

20 E. 4. 1. per Brian & Cur.

12. If A. covenants with B. to pay him 10 l. ofter Michaelman, and before Easter; in debt upon this covenant, if desendant pleads, that within the said time he tendered to the plaintist the said 10 l. and plaintist resuled it, it is not good without saying uncore prist, &c. Hill. 1649. between Newton and Newton, in 2 actions. Adjudged upon demurrer. Intratur. M. 1649. Rot.

[3. In debt upon obligation, if condition be, that a stranger shall make another deed to the plaintiff; if he pleads a tender to the plaintiff, and refusal by him, he need not say uncore prist.

10 H. 6. 16. b.]

[4. The same law would be, if the defendant bingelf englit to make the deed. Contra, 10 H. 6. 16. b.]

S. P. per [5. In debt upon obligation upon condition to perform an awarded, Brian & if the defendant pleads a tender and refusal of the sum awarded, Tout temps, he need not to say uncore prist. 14 H. 6. 23. Curia. Contra, &c. pl. 31. 11 H. 6. 27.]

ciges 20 E.
4. 1.—But in debt upon arbitrement, he shall say that he has been always ready, and yet is, &c. Br.

Tout temps, &c. pl. 31. cites 20 E. 4. 1. per Brian & Cur.

[307] [6. If I deliver 10 l. to another without deed, to my use, and modes a descapance by deed, if he pays 5 l. &c. if he pleads a tender at the day, he needs not to say uncore past. Contra, 18 E. 3. 39. b.]

7. In debt upon obligation, whereof a defeasance is made by ano- S.P. That ther deed to pay a small sum, if he pleads tender at the day, he to say unneed not to fay uncore prist. Contra, 18 E. 3. 53. b.]

he need not core prist, per Prisot and Littleton, by which they took issue that he did not tender; and note. Br. Tout temps, dec. pl. 40 cites 33 H. 6. 3.——Heath's Max. 124. cap. 5. cites S. C.——S. P. accordingly, 9 Rep. 79. b. in Peytoe's case, cites 13 H. 6. 2. a. b. — D. 36. pl. 119. Trin. 4 Eliz. Anon. per Dyer.

So in debt upon an obligation, it was held, that where an obligation is made, and afterwards a defeafance is made thereof, if he pays a leffer fum, &c. there, if he pleads the defeafance and the tender of the leffer sum, he need not to say, tout temps prist; for by the tender he was discharged of all. But of therwife it is of an obligation, with a condition to pay a leffer fum. Cro. Eliz. 755. pl. 16. Paich. 42 Elie. in C. B. Cotton v. Sir Gervase Clifton.

[8. The same law is where the deseasance is upon a statute. Contra, S. P. 9 Rep. . 22 E. 3. 5.] Pcytoe's case cites 33 H. 6. 2. a. b.

[9. If a man confirms land to a man in fee upon condition of payment of certain tinne, if he pleads a tender of the tinne at the day, he need not to fay, et uncore prist. Quære. 30 Ast. 11.]

10. In detinue of a horse, he shall not say, that he has been always ready, &cc. Br. Tout. temps, &c. pl. 31. cites 20 E. 4. 1. Per Brian & Cur.—So of Arbitrement. 16 H. 7. 7. Ibid.

11. It was faid, that in debt upon an obligation, it is a good plea Heath's that the defendant has been always ready to pay, &c. if he could Max. 127. bave acquittance. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 39. cites 1 R. 3. and 1R. 3. 1. Fitzh. Verdict, 13.

cap. 5. oites S. C. and adds, that by this it should seem that the plaintiss in that case ought to offer an acquittance as he is to demand rent that is payable on the ground, quære inde-

12. When a bond is for payment of money in discharge of a debt, tout temps prist must be pleaded, notwithstanding a tender; but where the payment of the money is in defeasance of some ether colleteral matter, as a bond to save harmless, &cc. it need not be pleaded. Arg. 10 Mod. 282. cites Co. Litt. 207. a.

13. A difference taken between a bare debt and a penalty to page a delt, as an obligation with a condition; for in that case it shall be sufficient to plead a tender at the day without [with] an uncore defendant prist, without a tout temps prist; there he may plead a tender to imparled perform the condition, without faying, that he was always ready; but when it is for a bare debt, there he must plead, tout temps J. said, that And the Court agreed the difference between an obligation if he had with a penalty and a bare debt. Freem. Rep. 205. pl. 209. Mich. 1675. in case of Setle v. Bunnion.

So in affumplit where the specially, Windham pleaded tender, and that he was now ready, as in

D. 300. it might have been good, but now it seems he is estopped to plead always ready; and Atkins inclined to this, cæteris absentibus; sed advisare volunt. Freem. Rep. 134. pl. 156. Mich. 1673. in C. B. Bone v. Andrews. -- 3 Salk. 220. pl. 9. S. C. but not S. P. -- 2 Mod. 70. S. C. but not S. P.

14. If a promise be to pay money on a particular day, there a tender 2 Saik. 622. with a tout temps prist is good enough, but it is otherwise where the money is to be paid on muest; for there might be laches before the tender. Per Holech. J. Cumb. 444. Trin. 9 W. 3. B. R. Giles v. Hart.

(B) At what Time he may plead this Pleas

[1.] I the defendant in the action of debt takes his delays by essine and * comes by the grand distress, yet he may plead • Fol. 524. tout temps prist. 18 E. 3. 53. b.] In detinue against executors, they ought to say, that they have been always ready, and yet are, sec. for otherwise they shall render damages; and they were permitted to say so at the diffress; quod nots. Bi. Tous temps, &c. pl. 37. cites 22 E. 3. and Fitzh. Damages, 103.

In debt the defendant came at the diffress, and faid that be but been always ready to pay, and yet is, and brought the money into court, and the plaintiff demorred because he came at the diffress, et non alloentur; for it may be that be was never warned by the sheriff, by which he recovered the furn tendered, &c. without damages, as it seems. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 8. cites 7 H. 4. 9. --- Heath's Maxi-$28. cap. 5. cites S. C.

But in annuity, the defendant came at the diffress, and faid that he has been always ready, and yet is, to pay, are, and no plea per Cur. because he came at the diffrest. Br. Tout temps, arc. pl. 7. cites

2 H. 4. 3.

'Heath's S. C. 十 S. P. and does no wrong till a demand be made. Co. In 33. a.

2. Dower unde nibil babet, the tenant came at the first day, and cap. 5. cites said, that he had been always ready to render dower, and the demandant said, that oftentimes before the writ she demanded dower and could not have it; and was received, inasmuch as it was at the first day. And it is said elsewhere this is inasmuch as the * heir is in by title, but contra in cosinage aiel & mortdancestor; for this is to disaffirm the title and estate of the tenant; note the diversity, for there such averment shall not be taken. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 34. cites 2 H. 4. 7.

> 3. In debt the defendant joined iffue for part, and as to the reft tendered it in court, and said, that he has been always ready, and yet is, and said, that he tendered it to the plaintiff at the fummons, and attachment, and distress in London, &c. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 11. cites 11 H. 4. 55.

5. P. Br. Tout temps, ₹cc. pl. 36. cites 7 H. 7. 16.— Heath's Mar. 128. fame cases.

4. In dower, effoin cast for the defendant does not estop him to fay, that he has been always ready, and yet is, to render dower in case the demandant will render him his evidence concerning his land which he has by descent, &c. For the essoin may be cast by a stranger, and therefore shall not prejudice the tenant; quod nota, cap. 5. cites per Cur. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 20. cites 14 H. 6. 4.

g. In dower, the tenant faid, that he has been always ready to rem-Heath's Max. 128. der dower, and yet is, to which the demandant said, that to this be cap. 5. cites fall not be received; for at such a day the original was returnable and the parties appeared, and the demandant made her demand, and Br. Tout temps, &c. the defendant imparled, and bad day such a day; and per Aderne J. pl. 42. cites and Danby Ch. J. this is an estoppel, to say that he has been always S. C.— In debt upon ready, &c. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 27. cites 5 E. 4. 141.

an obligation, the defendant, after over of the same, imparled, and now pleaded that he was ready to pay that money at the day and place, and that none was there to receive it, and that he is now ready, and tendered the money in court, and faid not tout temps, and a good plea as it feems; for he had excused the forfeiture by the plea above, and he shall not be estopped by the impariance to plead the plea above, per several Justices, but Lennard custos brevium aliter sentlit. D. 300. pl. 37. Pasch. 13 Elis. Anon-Cro. J. 627. pl. 22. Mich. 19 Jac. B. R. Steward v. Coles, S. P. and the plaintiff offered to demur because the defendant did not plead tout temps prist, and though he tendered it at the day, whereby he faved it for the time, yet if he pleads not this plea, it shall be intended that he has forfeited his obligation. and whether he should have judgment or no was much doubted : so that the defendant durit not infile upon this plea; but by direction and mediation of the Court he paid 500 l. in fatisfaction of the debt, and 100 l. costs and damages.————It is true in debt upon bond such plea is good after imparlance, because it is to save the penalty. Asg. cites D. 300. but when a single duty is demanded, and the party is entitled to damages for non-payment, the plea of tout temps prist is not good. Arg. 2 Mod. 62. Anon. (And judgment according to the last part of the diversity.)——The case of D. 500. is good law. Per

Holt. Cumb. 334. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. Broom v. Pine.

Assumptit for money due for work, the defendant has a special imparlance, salvis omnibus exceptionibus tam brevi quam narrationi (& advantagiis omitted), and then comes and pleads that he tendered him the money, and was always ready to pay him, and uncore prist. The plaintist in his replication shews, that the defendant did imparl ut supra, and demands judgment, whether or no, after this imparlance, he shall be permitted to plead a tender, and that he was always ready. And it was insisted, that it is a contradiction after an imparlance, to plead he was always ready; for if he were ready, why did he imparl? Besides, the entry is saving all exceptions to the writ and the deciaration, and he shall not have more than he has referved, and cites Br. Tout temps Prist, 27. accordant. 2 H. 6. 13. Windham J. p. rhaps if you had pleaded your tender, and that you are now ready, as it is pleaded in Dyer, 300. it might have been good; but now it seems that you are estopped to plead that you were always ready. And Arkins inclined hereto exteris absentibus; sed advisare volunt. Freem. Rep. 134. pl. 159. Mich. 1673. Bone v. Andrews in C. B.

It cannot be pleaded in an indebitatus assumpsit after imparlance; for it is contradictory to such pleas, for the money was due on the day of the assumpsit. Carth. 413. Giles v. Hart.——2 Saik. 622.

pl. 1. Mich. 9 W. 3. S. C. —— 12 Mod, 152. S. C.

So in debt for rent, the desendant imparls generally, and then pleads tout temps prist. The Court held this plea could not be pleaded after a general imparlance; for it is † contradictory to say he was always ready, and yet to take sime to answer to the declaration. Freem. Rep. 205. pl. 209. Mich. 1675. Serle v. Bunnion.

† S. P. Per Holt Ch. J. Comb. 334. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. in case of Broom v. Pine. ____ S. P.

2 Mod. 62. Anon.

One must plead tout temps prist alevays before imparlance. 12 Mod. 72. Pasch. 17 W. & M. Anon.

____S. P. 12 Mod. 83. Mich. 7 W. 3. in case of Wigmore v. Veale.

Upon point of pleading of tender this diversity was taken by Holt Ch. J. that tender at the day is no plea to a single bill but only in bar of damages, in which case you must plead it before imparlance with a tout temps and uncore prist & prosert, &c. but tender at the time is a good plea to a penal bond in bar, because it saves the forseiture, and therefore may be after imparlance. 12 Mod. 354. Pasch. 12 W. 3. in case of Horne v. Luines.——But the reporter cites 1 Inst. 207. a. 21 Ed. 4. 25. pl. 39. and says, this seems to hold only where the penal bond is for doing a collateral thing, and not where it is for payment of maney, but says, vide the case in Dyer, 300. a. that in case of a bond for payment of money, he may plead tender and uncore prist after imparlance. 12 Mod. 354. in case of Horne v. Luines.

6. In debt, at the capias the defendant came and found surety, and had supersedess, and tendered the money, and said that he has been always ready, &c. and yet is, and tendered the money. And per Littleton, he may plead this well, because he was returned nihil upon the original, and had not conusance till the capias. Contra if he had had conusance before. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 30. cites 8 E. 4. 9.

7. In detinue of divers parcels, tender of part is a good plea to it Heath's before verdict, &c. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 39. cites I R. 3.

But if there be a verdict, then is the sum of the value made a thing entire, whereof the plaintiff is not bound to receive part without the whole.

8. In debt upon a fingle bill, or for rent, the plaintiff declares that the defendant hath not paid him licet sæpius requisitus; the desendant may plead that he was always ready and still is ready, and pray judgment of damage; and then the plaintiff, if he will have damage, must reply, and shew a special request; per Holt Comb. 334. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. Broom v. Pine.

VOL XX

À 2

(C) Tout temps Prist. [And Uncore Prist, after. Verdiet for Defendant on the Tender.]

[1. If the defendant be to pay a less sum, and defendant pleads a tender at the day with an uncore prist, if the plaintiff resuse the money, and takes issue that he did not tender it at the day, and it is found against him, he has not any remedy for the less sum. 18 E. 3. 39. b. quære. 53. b. quære. 25 E. 3. 45. b. quære.]

[2. So if he pleads payment of part, and tender and refusal of the residue with an uncore prist, and plaintiff resuses the money, and takes issue that he did not pay the sum alleged, and this is sound against him, he shall not have the residue of which defendant pleaded uncore prist. Contra, 22 E. 3. 5. Curia.]

[3. But he might have taken that money after the issue joined.

22 E. 3. 5.]

(D) How the Pleading shall be. Where he shall bring the Thing [viz. Money] into Court.

[1.] F a man pleads a tender of money with an uncore prist, &c. it is no good plea without bringing the money into court. Mich. 1650. between WITHAM AND LITTLE adjudged upon demurrer. Intratur Hill. 1649. Rot. 121.]

Debt upon [2.]

an obligation if defer indorses, it is no paid 10 l. to bring at D. such a

[2. In debt upon obligation, if condition be to pay a less sum at D. if desendant pleads a tender and refusal, with an uncore prist, it is not sussicient to say uncore prist at such a place, but he ought to bring the money into court. 11 H. 6. 27.]

day, that then, &c. And he said that he was there that day, and tendered it, & hec, &c. Tirwhit said, you ought to tender it in court now. It non allocatur; for he is not bound to pay it at another place than is comprised in the condition; as in replevin the defendant avowed, the plaintiff alleged tender upon the land tempore captionis, and he refused, and good-without tender now; for the rent is only payable upon the land. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 35. cites 5 H. 4. 18.——Br. Tender, pl. 6. cites S. C.

But in debt by obligation of 60 l. upon condition to pay 10 l. at such a day and place, the defendant said that he was ready at the day and place, and offered, &cc. and the plaintiff refused, and the plea challenged, inasmuch as he did not say that he has been always ready after, and tender the money in court; and the defendant said that he is not bound to tender it, unless at the place expressed in the condition. And yet per tot. Cur. he ought to tender it now. Contra, 5 H. 4. 18. supra. But this book is taken for the best law at this day. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 43. cites 7 E. 4. 3.

So where the less sum was to be paid at the holt in the mansion-house of the obligor, at a certain day, and the obligor pleaded that he was ready at holt to have paid, but nobody came to receive it, but did not say uncore prist; and therefore held no plea. And. 4. pl. 7. Pasch. 3 & 4 P. & M. Pannel v. Nevel.—D. 150. pl. 84. Trin. 3 & 4 P. & M. S. C. And because he did not say uncore prist; with a tender of the money in court, nor say uncore prist to pay at the holt, the Court without argument adjudged it no plea; but that it would be otherwise if the condition had been to do a collateral also and not to pay money, which is of the nature of the sum in the penalty, and the very duty, by intendment of law, for surery whereof the obligation of the greater sum was made, and cited 7 E. 4. But per Catiya and Griffin the attorney general, the law is not so, because the place of payment is parcel of the condition, and it ought not to be paid elsewhere. And so is the diversity in 7 M. 4. where a place of payment is put, and where not, &c.—Bendl. 54. pl. 90. S. C. adjudged no plea by all the Justices, because the sum remains a debt still, notwithstanding the tender at the host; and cites 7 E. 4. according to this judgment, though in 7 H. 4. it was adjudged contrary; but they did not hold this to be law now. And the reporter adds a quære, if he had pleaded that he was uncore prist to pay this sum at the holt aforesaid, whether this would have been a good plea?

[3. The same law is, where the condition is to perform an award, Debt upon which was to pay a fum at D. it is not good to fay, ready at obligation D. (admitting that he ought to say uncore prist. Contra, tion to stand 11 H. 6. 27.] ment; the defendant pleaded that the arbitrators awarded that he should pay in such a place, which he has been always ready to pay, and yet is, and did not tender the money in court; and yet good by the opinion there, because it is payable at another place, and he is ready to perform the award. And so it seems that if the place certain had not been in the around, he ought to have tendered the money in court. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 41. cites 11 H. 6. 27.

4. In assise of rent the tenant pleaded to part a release, and to other part diffeifin of the land for a time, to suspend the rent, and to the rest that he has been always ready, and yet is, and tendered the money in court; nota. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 25. cites 8 Ass. 35.

5. Covenant by the lessee against the lessor for ousting kim of his [311] term, the defendant pleaded in bar a clause of re-entry for rent arrear, and the plaintiff to part of the rent pleaded accord to recoup it for boarding the defendant, and to the rest pleaded tender, and that the defendant refused it and ousted him, and yet is ready, &c. and tendered the money in court; quod nota, and demanded judgment, and prayed restitution, and his term and damages. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 5. cites 47 E. 3. 24.

6. In trespass the defendant pleaded arbitrement to pay 101., &c. This is no plea, per Marten, if he does not say that he has paid it, er say that he has been always ready, and yet is, and bring the money into court, and this seems to be where the day of payment is past.

Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 15. cites 8 H. 6. 25.

7. In debt the defendant as to parcel said that he has been always ready to pay, and yet is, and brought the money into court, and to the rest pleuded in bar, the plaintiff pleaded in estoppel to the saying that be bas been always ready, &c. for that he imparted the last term; judgment if he shall be received to say that always ready, &c. And per Danby, the plaintiff shall not have the money here till the other issue be tried, and this by reason that the damages shall not yet be tried till the other issue be tried; but per Prisot, he may have judgment of his debt of this parcel, and his damages, & cesset executio; for those may be well assessed by the Court as to this parcel, but the plaintiff shall not have it till the other issue be tried, by reason that the costs shall be entire, which cannot be taxed till the other issue be tried; and when the plaintist pleaded the estoppel above, the defendant prayed to have his money again. And per Prisot, he shall re-have it; quod non fuit concessum; for he has confessed of this part. And by him, if the plaintiff will relinquish his estoppel, he shall have delivery of the money without damages and costs; and the plaintiff afterwards relinquished the estoppel, by which the money was delivered to him. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 22. cites 36 H. 6. 13.

8. Debt upon an obligation of 101. to pay 40s. such a day; the Heath's defendant pleaded payment of 20s. at the day, and that he offered 20s. Max. 124. refidue there the same day, and the laintiff refused it, and that he has s. C. been always ready to pay it, and get is, and tendered the money in court, and the plaintiff tendered to aver that he did not tender the 20s. at the day. Per Cur. now the defendant shall have the money again, and so he had; and if the issue be found for the plaintiff the obligation is forseited; and if it be found for the defendant, the plaintiff has lost the 20s. Quod nota; for he has refused it by matter of record, and took the other issue at his peril. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 32. cites 21 E. 4. 25.

A 2 2

9. In indebitatus assumpsit, & quantum meruit, the plaintiff laid Comb. 443, 444. S C. a special request at such a day and place, and that the desendant Holt thought refused to pay, the defendant pleaded that such a day before the rethey should quest, be tendered, and the plaintiff refused, and that afterwards have said, that all times semper paratus suit, & profert kic in cur. Holt Ch. J. said, that after the promise they where the agreement is to pay at a certain time, there a tender at were ready, that time, & semper paratus, is a good plea; but where the mo-& tali die ney is due, and payable immediately by the agreement, there the detendered, &c. ____3 %!k. fendant must plead semper paratus from the time of the promise. 343. S. C. 2 Salk. 622. pl. 1. in case of Giles v. Hart. ---- Carth.

413. S. C. and adjudged ill upon demurrer, because the desendant has not said any thing as to the time between the promise and the request, and the money was due on the day of the promise; and therefore the desendant should have pleaded the tender on that day, and that he from that day was always ready; for the special request laid in the declaration is only surplusage, and therefore the day on which the request was made is immaterial; and when once the cause of action accrued, a subsequent tender could not take it away. But per Floit Ch. J. In these cases the best way of pleading is to plead generally semper paratus, &c. & prosent hic in curia, without pleading any tender.—If he pleads that he was always ready, this refers to the time of the promise made, and not to the time of the tender; per Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 254. S. C. and says that judgment was given for the plaintist, and that if the desendant had pleaded tout temps prist, the plaintist should have replied, and shewn the request, and the time when it was made.

10. There is a difference between debt and assumpsit; for in debt [312] the damages are but accessary, but in assumpsit they are princi-Where debt is brought pal; therefore in debt the defendant may plead in bar of the daon a bond, mages; but in assumpsit he must plead semper paratus, with a conditioned profert in cur. and demand judgment de ulterioribus damnis. to pay money at a day 2 Salk. 623. pl. 1. Mich. 9 W. 3. B. R. Giles v. Hart. certain, if the defendant pleads a tender at the day, and that he has been always ready, &c. it is good. But in assumptit, or debt upon a fingle bill, he must plead that he has been always ready. Ld. Raym. Rep. 254. per Holt Ch. J. in case of Giles v. Hartis. _____ 3 Salk. 353. S. C.

11. In debt upon bond, with condition to pay the money, if the defendant pleads a tender with adhuc paratus, he ought to bring the money into court; because it is parcel of the demand. Per tot. Cur. Ld. Raym. Rep. 643, 644. Hill. 12 W. 3. in case of Horn v. Lewin.

(E) Where he shall bring the Thing into Court.

In decinue of [1. IF the thing in demand be so ponderous, that it cannot be caraches of exarters, it is no plea court. 11 H. 6. 29. b. 30 Aff. 10.]

that they came into their hands ensealed, as executors;

The the thing in demand be so ponderous, that it cannot be caraches so ponderous, the may plead uncore prist, without bringing it into court. 11 H. 6. 29. b. 30 Aff. 10.]

[2. But in such case he ought to plead so; that is to say, that it cannot well be carried. 11 H. 6. 29. b. 30 Aff. 10. so pleaded.]

and that they have been always ready, and yet are to deliver them, &c. unless they offer them to the Court.

Court, or fay that they are so ponderous that they cannot bring them here for the weight; quod nota, poe Cur. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 3. cites 9 H. b. 65.

3. In ward, he who pleads that such a writ is brought against Heath's him, and that be is ready to deliver to whom the Court Shall award, Sap. 5. cites and lays, that he does not claim any thing but by cause of nurture, s.c. ought to have the infant ready at the bar. Br. Tout temps, &c. The defendpl. 17. cites 24 E. 3. 31.

ent in writ of ward,

pleaded, that he claimed nothing, &cc. but for nurture; and that W. has brought fuch a writ against him; and prayed, that they interplead, and that he is ready to render him to whom the Court shall award; but be ber not the body ready; for it is in peril of death, and in peril of water at S. Et non allocature But it was awarded, that the plaintiff recover the marriage. Quære of the damages; quod nota. For Queen said, that to those matters the plaintist cannot have answer, &c. Quere if this be the reason. Br. Tout temps, Sec. pl. 19. cites 24 E. 3. ------- Br. Gard. pl. 49. cites 24 E. 3. 66. S. C. ------ Heath's Max. 125. cap. 5. cites S. C.

Where reco several writs of ward are brought, and the desendant says be is ready to render the infant to whom the Court shall award, and has not the infant, there he shall find mainprise to have the infant there at the day. Br. Tout temps, pl. 38. cites 8 E. 3. and Fits. Gard. 25. ——Heath's Max. 125.

cap, 5. cites S. C.

4. He who pleads arbitrement in trespass, to give a piece of cloth, shall Br. Asbitrefay, that he has been always ready to give it, and yet is, and bring ment, pl. 12. the cloth into court; quod nota. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 9. cites 31. S.C. 5 H. 4.

5. In detinue of 10 quarters of barley, the defendant, as to four Heath's quarters, said, that be bas been always ready to deliver them, and Max. 126. yet is, which he could not have in court for portage, but is ready s.c. to deliver them, &c. and to the rest waged his law. And the plaintiff to the four quarters said, that after the bailment, and before the action brought, he required him at D. in the county of S. and he refused, &c. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 28. cites 6E. 4. 11.

(F) Uncore Prist. Necessary to be pleaded, or not. [313] In what Cases.

1. IN audita querela, the plaintiff declared upon defeasance to pay 101. at such a day, and 101. at another day, and that be paid the first sum at the day, and tendered the last at the day, and he refused, and he is yet ready to pay, and tendered the money in court; quod nota. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 6. cites 47 E. 3. 25.

2. Debt upon an obligation. Newton said, it is indorsed upon condition, that if J. N. shall stand to the award of W. P. of all matters between him and the plaintiff; if the award be made before such a day, or that the said J. N. render himself to the plaintiff about the same day, that then, &c. And faid, that the arbitrators did not make any award; but the faid J. N. about the aforefaid day, proffered himself to the plaintiff, and he refused him, & hoc, &c. Judgment si actio, &c. Caund. said, you ought to say, that you are yet ready, as upon obligation of 40 /. to pay 20 /. But the Court held the plea good, and a great diversity between the cases. The reason seems to be inasmuch as the one is to do an est debors, and the other of payment of money. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 21, cites 14 H. 6. 23.

Br. Tout
temps Prist,
pl. 16. cites
S. C. for he has no other temedy but

3. In debt upon an obligation of 20 l. to pay 10 l. if the desendance and refusal, he shall say, that he has been always ready, and yet is, and tender the money in court. Br. Dette, pl. 98, cites 22 H, 6. 39, upon the same obligation. —— S. P. Ibid. pl. 6. cites 47 E. 3. 25. ——— S. P. Ibid. pl. 44. cites 16 H. 7. 7. —— Heath's Max. 124. cites S. C. ——— S. P. For this is parcel of the sum in the obligation; per Cur. Br. Tout temps Prist, pl. 1. cites 19 H. 8. 12.

Br. Tout

4. But if it be upon an obligation to ftand to the arbitrement, which awards to pay 10 l. before Christmas, and debt is brought after Christmas, and he pleads payment and refusal, he need not he cannot be ready to

pl. 98. cites 22 H. 6. 39.

pay before the day, where the day is past. Contra by him, if it had been to be paid at a day which is to come, and in this case he may have debt upon the arbitrement, over and above the obligation.

S. P. Br. Ibid. pl. 44. cites 16 H. 7. 7. For the sum awarded by the arbitrement is not any part of the sum in the obligation. —— Heath's Max. 128. cap. 5. cites S. C.

S. P. Ibid. pl. 1. cites 19 H. 8. 12. For it is an exterior and collateral act.

S. P. Arg. Show. 129. in case of CARTER v. Downish, cites z Inst. 207. Prytor's case, 9 Rep. 79. S. P. per Littleton. But by him, in action of debt upon arbitrement, he shall say, that he has been always ready, sec. Quod non negatur. Br. Tout temps, sec. pl. 4. cites 33 H. 6. 3.

5. B. brought debt for 40 quarters of malt, and counted upon 2 This feems to come obligations, in which the defendant acknowleged himself to owe within the 20 quarters, to be delivered at L. such a day, and if he failed, to reason of D. forfeit 40 quarters; and averred, that he did not deliver the 20 150. pl. 84. that the quarters. The defendant pleaded tender, and that the plaintiff refused thing to be paid is of the to receive them. Judgment, &c. The plaintiff demurred, and had judgment; and he remitted 20 quarters, &c. For defendant ought nature of the fum in to have said, that he was uncore prist to deliver the 20 quarters. the penalty, and the very D. 24. b. pl. 154. Mich. 28 H. 8. cites Trin. 12 H. 8. Brickhead y. Wilson. duty by intendment of law, for surety whereof the obligation of the greater sum was made.—9 Rep. 79. a. b. Mich. 9 Jac. C. B. in Prytor's case, cites it as held in 28 H. 8. according to Carrel's report of it, that the obligor needs not plead it with an uncore prist; because this corn is bonum periturum, and it is a charge to the obligee to keep it.——Co. Litt. 207. a. accordingly.

[314] 6. In debt upon an obligation of 201. which is indorsed, to pay to the plaintiff so much money for such a trespass as J. N. shall assess, it is a good plea, that J. N. assessed 101. which he offered to the plaintiff, and he refused, without saying that he is uncore prist, and tendering the money in court; for it is an exterior and collateral act. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 1. cites 19 H. 8. 12.

7. Where J. S. is bound to me in 20 l. that W. shall perform the covenants contained in a certain indenture, &c. which covenant is, that W. shall pay to me 10 l., &c. if the defendant says, that W. tendered the money to me, and I refused it, this is a good plea, and need not say, that he is uncore prist, and tender the 10 l., &c. And the reason seems to be, inasmuch as the defendant is a stranger to the payment. And also the condition is to perform the covenants in the indenture; and it is not as an obligation of 20 l. upon condition that the obligor shall pay 10 l. by a day. Note the diversity. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 2. cites 27 H. 8. 1.

8. A legacy is devised to H. and the executor gives bond to perform the will, and yet he is not bound to tender the legacy without request. And in debt upon the bond, tout temps prist, and uncore prist, is a good plea; for the bond has not altered the nature of the legacy, but the same remains payable as before upon request. Le. 17. pl. 20. Pasch. 26 Eliz. B. R. Fringe v. Lewes.

9. In debt on bond, no place being named, if the defendant pleads that the plaintiff was beyond sea at the day, he ought to say uncore prist. Sid. 30. pl. 7. Hill. 12 Car. 2. B. R. Hobson v.

Rudge.

10. Condition of a bond was to pay money to B.'s administrators Raym. 416. within 2 months after B.'s decease; though no letters of administration cordingly. were granted within 2 months after B.'s decease, yet to an action of debt for the 2001. defendant must plead uncore prist; for the debt is not lost. 2 Show. 143. Mich. 32 Car. 2. B. R. Lee v. Garret.

11. Uncore prist is nowhere necessary but where the duty is *Per Gould. demanded; here is only covenant, which is not to recover the duty, but damages. But were it otherwise, wheresoever the money is payable to a stranger, or at a particular place, there needs quires a deno uncore prist. Arg. and judgment accordingly. Show. 129. Mich. 1 W. & M. in case of Carter v. Downish.

Where the thing in its nature remand, a bond for doing thereof is not forfeited till demand; and in that case the desendant must take advantage of the want of demand, by pleading that he was always, and still is ready to pay it; for if he plead performance generally, and plaintiff assigns a breach in his replication, the defendant shall not rejoin, and allege want of demand; for that would be a departure; quod Holt concessit. 12 Mod. 414. in case of Levins v. Randall, cites 1 Cro. 76, 77.

12. There is no necessity for uncore prist in any case of covenant where damages, and not the debt, is in demand; per Pollexfen Ch. J. Show. 130. Carter v. Downish.

13. Debt on bond conditioned to pay to obligee, or fuch as he should appoint, he appoints it to be paid to J. S. and the defendant tendered it to J. S. who refused, it is good without an uncore prist. Arg. Show. 130. in case of Carter v. Downish.

(G) Uncore Prist. Necessary to be pleaded, or not. In what Actions, and how.

ASSISE of 10 s. rent, and 40 acres of land put in view, and the tenant said that the plaintiff himself is seised of 15 of the acres, and be himself is tenant of the rest, and said that he has tendered the services for the portion of the land which he has, and yet is [315] ready, &c. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 24. cites 4 Aff. 5.

the demandant said that always bas been ready to render the evidences, prist; by which she had judgment immediately; and yet it does not appear that

2. In dower the tenant said that the demandant detained from him S. P. And certain evidences concerning the same land, and if she will deliver the evidences, he is and always has been ready to render dower, judg- feeis, and ment, &c. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 13. cites 14 H. 4. 33.

the offered the evidences to the Court. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 14. cites 21 E. 3. 8. Uncore prist is no plea in dower, unless an actual assignment is made. Arg. and seems admitted.

8 Mod. 25. Hill. 7 Geo. 1. 1721. in case of Spiller y. Adams.

3. Annuity

Heath's Max. 126. cap. 5. cites S. C. And fays the defendant ought not to tender the

3. Annuity of arrears by 5 years, the defendant said that it was granted till he promoted the plaintiff to a competent benefice, and be tendered to him a competent benefice pending the writ, and he refused; and a good plea without faying that he is uncore prist; for by the refusal the annuity is determined. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 18. cites 5 H. 5. 1. and 14 H. 7. 32.

arrears, because the plaintiff shall have debt for the same.

Heath's Max. 126. cap. 5. cites S. C.

4. Detinue of a writing, the garnishee came by process, and said that it was delivered to the defendant, upon condition to stand to the arbitrement of J. N. that then he shall re-have it, and that J. N. awarded that he should pay to the plaintiff 40 s. which he tendered, and the plaintiff refused it, and did not offer the money now in court, nor say that he is uncore prist, &c. and yet good per Cur. because the money is not now in demand; quod nota. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 23. cites 36 H. 6. 26.

S.P. Heath's Max. 126. cap. 5. cites 7 H. 4, 3.

5. Where the defendant in trespass of goods makes a good justification, he shall not say that he has been always ready, and yet is, to deliver them to the plaintiff, notwithstanding that he has confessed that they belong to the plaintiff. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl, 29. cites 7 E. 4. 3.

6. In a quantum meruit, or other declarations, it is usual to plead uncore prist specially, viz. that the plaintiff deserved only so much, which the defendant was always ready to pay. Sid. 365. a nota of the reporter's, at the end of the case of Ludlow v. Stacy.

(H) Uncore Prist. Pleadable, at what Time. See (B).

1. DEBT upon a lease for years rendering rent, payable annually at D. the defendant said, that he has been always ready to pay, and yet is, and tendered the money to the Court. The plaintiff pleaded estoppel; that the sheriff returned the defendant summoned, and after returned him attached, and after returned distring. nibil s by which capies issued till the pluries, when he came in ward of the sheriff, and day given over. At which day he made default, and distress issued, and returned that he bad nothing; and capias issued again, returnable, &c. at which day be came and pleaded, judgment, if against this record he shall say always ready. And per Hank. and Hill, the return of the sheriff is no estoppel; but Thirn. e contra, & adjornatur. And much default was faid to be in the. defendant, because he appeared and had day over, and made default, and after came again; so that it cannot be that he has been always ready, &c. And per Norton, he ought to plead this tender at D. according to the referention. Quære inde. And so, per Hill and Hank. clearly, he shall not be estopped; for it [316] may be that he was never summoned, attached, or distrained, notwithstanding the return. But Thirn. contra, and that if it be so, he shall have action of disceit against the sheriff. Br. Tout temps, &c. pl. 12. cites 11 H. 4. 61.

2. It

2. It was ruled, that after imparlance in debt upon an obliga- S. C. For tion, the defendant shall be admitted to plead always ready; though 13 Eliz. in DYBR, was urged to the contrary. Win. 68. not be plead. Mich. 21 Jac. C. B. Anon.

tout temps pritt need ed in that cale.

Mod. 8. Mich. 13 W. 3. Anon.—So in case upon a mutuatus for 203. the plaintiff likewise declared upon a other promises; and the defendant, after an imparlance, pleads uncore prist. Upon demurrer it was held per Cur. that where the fum and day are certain, the defendant may plead uncore prist; but not after an imparlance, for that shews that he was not tout temps prist. Sid. 364. pl. 22. Pasch. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Ludham v. Stacy.

For more of Cout temps Prill in general, see Condition, Detinue, Dower, Tender, and other proper titles.

(A) Town and County.

1. ACCOUNT upon receipt in Newcastle upon Tyne, brought in the county of Northumberland, the defendant demanded judgment of the writ; for Newcastle is a county in itfelf; and because it was made a county after the teste of the writ, therefore the writ awarded good. Br. Brief, pl. 530. cites 2 H. 4. 18.

2. Trespass; the writ was put T. D. of Norwich, gentleman, the defendant demanded judgment of the writ, because Norwich extends into the county of N. and into the county of the Vill of N. and yet the writ good per Cur. But if it was against T. D. of the county of Devon, or of Devon, which is a county, and not a vill, it is ill. Contrary of this which is a vill and county. Br. Brief, pl. 23. cites 27 H. 6. 4.

3. A man in plea of land in the county of York recovered land which lay in York, and after, before execution, the vill of York was made a county, by which he sued scire facias to the sheriff of the county of the city of York, and not to the therist of the county Br. Variance, pl. 8. cites 28 H. 6. 1. of York.

4. The county of the city of Gloucester extends 4 or 5 Miles further than the city. Arg. Cro. E. 264. Mich. 33 & 34 Eliz. in the Sheriff of Gloucester's case.

5. King R. 3. made the city of Gloucester a county, with a clause of exemption from the county of Gloucester, and from the power of the officers of the county and magistrates, saving to the king and his for the theheirs liberty for their justices of offife, gool-delivery and peace, to keep their sessions there. And upon the resolution of all the justices hold his at Serjeant's-inn, this was a good saving, and that those justices in countytheir sessions to be held within the city, may hear and determine offences

And likewife these was a faving riff of the county to courts there. and to ke-p low and mean concernment. To which he pleaded the custom of London, that a man who had ferved an apprenticeship to one trade might exercise any other. And the custom was found against him, and judgment given against him accordingly. Hard. 54. pl. 1. Pasch. 1656, in Scacc. in case of Hayes v. Hardling, cites it as Mich. 14 Car. B. R. Appletost v. Sturton.

11. Action was brought for using the trade of a draper. After verdict for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the statute does not name the trade. But it was answered by the other side, that the trade is comprised in the meaning of the statute, because it was a trade used at the time of making the statute. Sty. 223. Trin. 1650. Naylor v. Ash.

12. Whether the art of foap-making be within the 5 Eliz. cap. 4. fee Hard. 53. Pasch. 1656. in the Exchequer. Hayes

v. Harding.

[319] 13. Upon an indicament on the statute 5 Eliz. the question was, The trade of if a tallow-chandler is within it. But adjornatur. 2 Sid. 177, 178. a tallow-chandler Hill. 1659. B. R. Stubington's case.

feems admitted to be within the statute. See 4 Le. 9. pl. 39. at (C) And fee (D) the King v. Collier.

Keb. 411.

14. In an action on the statute 5 Eliz. for using the trade of 2 barber, Twisden J. hesitated at first whether it be a trade within the statute; but at length all agreed that it is. Lev. 87. Mich. 14 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

Car. 2. B.R.

feems to be S. C. and held accordingly.——Vent. 326. Hill. 29 & 30 Car. 2. B. R. in the case of the King v. Plume, Arg. it was said, that in 14 Car. 2. an indicament was for using the trade of a barber, but no judgment given. But others said, that in that case judgment was given for the King.

Lev. 206. in the case of the King v. Plym, S. C. Arg. said this point was adjudged, and that it was agreed.

Sid. 367. pl. 4. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. in case of the King v. Chilkes, it was said, per Cur. to be commonly held that the law is, that a barber is within the statute.——Lev. 243. S. C. the Coust said, it had been resolved that a barber is a trader within that act.

15. The using the trade of a butcher in selling meat, was conceived per Cur. not to be within the statute 5 Eliz. 4. 2 Keb. 391. pl. 76. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Jackson.

16. The Court said, that the law is commonly held to be, that a mercer is within the statute of 5 Eliz. Sid. 367. pl. 4. Trin.

20 Car. 2. B. R. in the case of the King v. Cellers.

17. The Court said, that it had been resolved that a taylor is a trader within the statute 5 Eliz. Lev. 243. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. in the case of the King v. Sellers.

18. Whether a filk-weaver is, see 2 Mod. 246. Trin. 29 Car. 2, of a fruiterer, not being apprentice to it for 7 years. Upon demurrer to the indictment the Court was divided; two judges thought it was a mistery within the statute, there being great art in chusing the times to gather and preserve their fruit. The other judges seemed of opinion otherwise; but the Court took time to deliver their positive opinions, & adjornatur. Vent. 326. Hill.

Forest qui tam, &c. v. Wire.

2 Lev. 206, Mich. 29 Car. 2. B.R. the KING v. PLYM, S. C. of a enfermenter, fays, that Twisden and

279 & 30 Car. 2. B. R. and Ibid. 346. Hill. 31 & 32 Car. 2. B. R. Jones held the King v. Plume. strongly, that it is not a trade within the statute. Rainsford dubitante, Wilde absente, adjornatur. 2 Salk. 611. pl. 2. in case of the KING V. SLAUGHTER, Arg. says, that Pasch. 4 Jac. 2. such indichment was reversed. Roll. Rep. 10. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. R. in the case of the King v. Tollin, it was cited by Coke Ch. J. to have been adjudged and affirmed in a writ of error, that a pippin-monger is not within the statute, because it requires not any skill to exercise this trade. ——— S. P. cited by Coke Ch. J. 2 Bulst. 189, 190. to have been adjudged and affirmed in error; for the statute speaks of mistery or trades, and they refolved there was no mittery in buying of pippins.

20. In the case of the King v. Plume, Vent. 346. Hill. 31 & 32 Car. 2. B. R. it was faid by Scroggs Ch. J. and Dolben J. to have been lately ruled, that a coach-maker is within the act of 5 Eliz.

21. Upon demurrer to an indictment, the sole question was, 2 Keb. 610. whether a salesman was within the statute of 5 Eliz. because it pl. 47. Hill. seemed to be a new trade. But resolved it was a trade then used, 2. B. R. the Raym. 385. Trin. 32 Car. 2. B. R. KING V. and so within the statute. the King v. Bishop.

WAY, the Court conceived it no trade at the time of the flatute.

22. A pin-maker was resolved within the statute. Arg. Show. 3Mod. Rep. 241. Mich. 2 W. & M. in case of Hobbs qui tam, &c. v. Young, cites it as resolved 3 Jac. 2. in case of Mason v. Nightingale.

314. in case of Hosss V. Young. S. C. cited by the name of Morstyn v. Nightingale.

23. A borner is an ancient trade for the pressing of horns. Per [320] Holt Ch. J. Show. 242. Mich. 2 W. & M. in the case of Hobbs v. Young.

24. S. was indicted on this statute for using the trade of a felt- 12Mod.311 monger, not having been apprentice for 7 years. It was urged, that it is a buliness which requires no skill. Per Holt Ch. J. If per Holt Ch in the indicament it be * averred to be a trade at the time of making the statute, we will not quash it; for whether it was a trade or po, or whether skill is required or not, is + matter of fact proper for the inquiry of a jury; and there are many trades within the general words and equity of this act, besides such as are mentioned therein. And the Court would not quash the indictment. 2 Salk. flatute. 2 611. pl. 2. Hill. 11 W. 3. B. R. the King v. Slaughter.

S. C. accordingly, * Where it is fo averred, the Court cannot intend it not within the Salk. 6:1. Queen v. Harper.

† Sid. 269. pl. 21. Trin. 17 Car. 2. B. R. in the case of PLAIR v. PETTIT, where the question was as to the trade of an upholiter. It was faid and agreed, per Cur. that though it be matter of facts to be tried by a jury, whether this employment was used at the time of making the statute, or whether the defendant had used it, and to the proving whereof it is no evidence that a maid servant sewed a bed, or that the maid-servant of a tailor sowed the pockets; yet this sact being found, the Court are judges whether an upholder, &c. are trades within the flatute.

25. It was affirmed by Holt Ch. J. that the trade of a woolcomber is within the statute, though the contrary has been adjudged 4 Jac. 2. 12 Mod. 312. Mich. 11 W. 3. in case of the King v. Slaughter.

26. Exception was taken to an order of justices for discharging an apprentice, because it appeared upon the face of the order, that the master was a collur-maker, and non constat what the trade is, nor that it is within the statute, like Comfort's case, where one was bound to a mantua-maker, when there was no fuch trade within the statute, nor at the time of the statute. 2 Salk. 490. pl. 53. Pasch. 13 W. 3. B. R. in DITTON'S CASE, but nothing was answered thereto.

27. Whether a feamstress be or not within the statute. Sec (K) pl. 2.

28. Merchant taylor is not within the statute. See (K) pl. 14.

29. It was moved to quash an indictment against a woman for using the trade of a millener, not having served an apprenticeship. But the Court refused to quash it, and Holt said it ought to be tried if it was within the statute or not; for it did not appear to the Court but that it might be a trade at the time of making the statute; and all trades are not enumerated in the statute, but yet they may be within the meaning. 11 Mod. 63, 64. pl. 5. Trin. 4 Ann. in B. R. Anon.

30. Whether the trade of a barber-surgeon is within the statute, was argued, but adjornatur. 11 Mod. 110. Pasch. 1707. 6 Ann.

B. R. the Queen v. Standish.

31. One was indicted for using the trade of a falter contrary to the 5 Eliz. not having served 7 years apprenticeship. An exception was taken, that this mystery was not within the number of those mentioned in the act, and consequently not punishable by that statute. But it was answered, that this act had provided a very proper remedy for the advancement of trade; and therefore was not to be confined barely to those mysteries mentioned in the act; but where there are like trades, that require knowledge and experience, they are within the intention of it, and the mysteries mentioned in the act are only set down for examples. Accordingly the Court over-ruled this exception. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 30. Mich. 1 Geo. 2. 1727. the King v. Lister.

32. A rope-maker was thought by Page and Probyn J. not to be a trade within the statute 5 Eliz. though Page J. said it might be otherwise of a cable-maker. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 225. Hill.

6 Geo. 2. the King v. Langley.

[321] (B) What is an using a Trade within the 5 Eliz. cap. 4.

8 Rep. 129. a. S. C. 2ccordingly, by the name of the Case of the City of London.

1. THE making candles for a man's own use, or a servant's making them for the private use of his master, without making any fale of them, is not using the trade of a tallow-chandler, so as to be punishable within the intent of the act; for the fale is the wrong, and trade is in tradendo, which is to deliver over; per Coke, to which Foster and Daniel agreed. 2 Brownl. 289. Mich. 7 Jac. C. B. Waggoner v. Fish.

2. Debt on the statute 5 Eliz. for using the trade of a cloth-worker, Show. 241. Mich. 2 W. not being brought up apprentice; the jury found that the defend-♣ M. S. C. ant was a Turkish merchant, and exported woollen cloths thither; and that he employed clothiers, who had freed apprenticeships to work the Trin. 3 W. cloaths in his own house at his own abarge, and with his own mate-& M. ad.

argued. And ibid. 266.

rials, which he fent into Turkey as merchandize; but that the judged a defendant never served an apprenticeship. Per Cur. the defendant is the trader, because he employs the rest, who work but as his servants, and the loss and gain is to be his: that this is a trad- by 3 Juft. ing within the statute, because the cloth is not confined to be used in his family, but to be vended by way of commerce. Carth. 162. 2 Salk. 610. pl. 1. Trin. 3 W. & M. B. R. Hobbs qui tam, &c. S. C. acv. Young.

uting the trade within the statute, contra Doicordingly.— Comb. 179.

S. C. accordingly. _____ 3 Mod. 313. S. C. accordingly. _____ S. C. cited as adjudged to be an using the trade. Skin. 428. Arg. Paich. 6 W. & M. in B. R. in case of the King v. Buggs.

3. If a man use to trade 14 days in one month, and then ceases and uses again 14 days in the next month, he is not punishable by the statute. 12 Mod. 642. Hill. 13 W. 3. B. R. Stretchpoint v. Savage.

(C) Service. What is a Service sufficient.

I. IN an information upon the statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 4. against one for exercising the trade of a chandler, not having been an apprentice to the same by the space of 7 years, it was holden by the justices, that forasmuch as he had been apprentice to a taylor for 7 years, which is one of the trades mentioned in the said statute, that the penalty thereof did not extend to him: but judgment was given against the informer; for it was holden clearly upon the Said statute, that if one has been an apprentice for 7 years at any trade mentioned within the said statute, he may exercise any trade named in the faid statute, although he has not been an apprentice to it. 4 Le. 9. pl. 39. Mich. 33 Eliz. in the Exchequer, Anon.

2. Moor was indicted at Hicks's-hall upon 5 Eliz. cap. 4. for using the trade of a weaver, not having served as an apprentice 7 years; the evidence was, he served 6 as an apprentice, and had fince as journeyman in the same trade worked above that time; and by all the justices, the serving 7 years is sufficient either way; and the defendant was found not guilty; and fo by Thompson for the defendant, it was resolved by Hale Ch. Justice at the nisi prius at Westm. for Middlesex, in the cause of the MAMME But Offly said that 15 Car. 2. in Forth's case, at the Guildhall. it was held by Hale Ch. J. as party per pale, and no sufficient fervice; which was agreed if the service were not in the same [322] trade. 3 Keb. 400. pl. 106. Mich. 26 Car. 2. B. R. the King v.

dictments on

the statute of

3. If a man takes one to live with him in the exercise of the trade Upon infor 7 years, this is a sufficient qualification, though the party is never bound an apprentice; and he shall have equal privileges 5 Eliz. we with one bound; per Cur. 12 Mod. 46. Mich. 5 W. & M. Mas- allow in eviter, Warden, and Company of Cutlers in Highamshire v. Buskin. Gollowing: the trade for 7 years to be sufficient without any binding, this being a hard law. 2 Salk. 613. pl. 76 Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Maddox.

Moor and Dibloe.

But where one was indicted for using the trade of a grocer, and he offered to give evidence of his having exercised this trade for 7 years, as being matter tantamount to his having served an apprenticeship for that time, Ch. J. Eyres did allow, that the cases had gone so far as to allow a wife's living in the shop with her husband for 7 years to be equivalent to an apprenticeship, but thought the present case not strong enough to comply with the meaning of the statute. Accordingly the evidence was dishlowed. Basnard. Rep. in B. R., 367. Trin. 3 Geo. 2. The King v. Morrice.

4. One brother living with another at the trade of a tallow-chandler for 7 years, may set up the trade, though there be no indenture; and he is a good apprentice within the statute of 5 Eliz. Per Eyres J. Comb. 254, 255. Pasch. 6 W. & M. in B. R. the King v. Coller.

A man that 5. H. ferved 7 years as an apprentice beyond sea, but was not has served an bound; this is sufficient to excuse him from the penalty of 5 Elizapprenticepip beyond Per Holt Ch. J. at Surrey assists. Salk. 67. pl. 5. 10. Will. 3.

fea, is there. Froth's cale.
by qualified

wuse a trade in England. 1 Salk. 67. Pasch. 11 W. 3. B. R. King v. Fox.

So it was resolved obiter, by the Court upon the 5th of Elim. that serving 5 years to a trade out of England and 2 in England was enough, and satisfied the statute. But there must be a service of a sall time either in England or out of England; therefore serving 5 years in a country where by the law of the country more is not required, will not qualify a man to use the trade in England. 10 Mod. 70. Mich. 20 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Morgan.

6. A wife living with her hulband 7 years, may after his death continue the trade; for the act does not require a man or woman to be an actual apprentice; but the words are tanquam an apprentice. 10 Mod. 70. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Morgan.

7. If a man lives with another that uses a trade, which other is not qualified for using it, 7 years, he may set up the trade as well as if he had lived with one never so well qualified. 10 Mod. 70. the Queen v. Morgan.

(D) Service. In what Cases a Man may use a Trade without Service, &c.

But 12 Ann.
1. 5 Eliz. cap. 4. ENACTS, That, it shall not be lawful to any as emobles for any occupation, now used within foldiers to use for the stades as an apprentice, nor to set any person on work in such occupation, as they are apt for in any to shall have been apprentice, or having served as an apprentice approved as an apprentice approved as an apprentice approved as an apprentice approved as an apprentice.

counties where they twere born.——At common law no man was restrained from working at any lawful trade, or using as many arts and mysteries as he pleased. 11 Rep. 54. Mich. 12 Jac. in the Taylors of Ipswich's case.—Show. 266. Hobbs v. Young. S. P.—Per Tirrel J. Cart. 118. cites Hob. 211. but says a costom may restrain, and cites 43 E. 3. 52.—Per Bridgman Ch. J. ibid. 120.

2. In an information against T. for using a trade different [323] from that to which he had ferved an apprenticeship, he pleaded Upon an iffue joined, a custom in London, that every citizen and freeman of London -Littleton. may relinquish his trade wherein he has been an apprentice for the recorder of space of 7 years and exercise another trade; and the question was, London, certiped ore teif this be warrantable by the rules of law or no, infomuch that. Rus, that ebere was not before the Ratute of 5 Eliz. 4. which restrains it, it was lawful 201 for every man to use what trade he would, although he had not any such cusbeen apprentice by the space of 7 years; and then it being the common law of the realm, that a man might use any trade although he had not been an apprentice for 7 years, it may not be alleged by way of custom in London, but it ought to have been shewed as the custom of the realm; for that which is the common law of the realm, is the custom of the realm. It was answered prentice in and agreed, that as this custom was alleged in this information, the allegation of it was warrantable in the law, and it may well be said to be a custom before the statute of 5 Eliz. for first, the custom is restrained to a citizen and freeman of London, so as he that is not a citizen and freeman may not enjoy the benefit lour timereof of this custom; and it being restrictive of the common law, which gives power unto all, as well freemen as citizens to exercife what trade they will, stands well in custom, and may well be one of a alleged by way of custom. 2. This is alleged to be the custom of London, and so is tied to a particular place; and howsoever it may be the common law of the realm in other places, yet in London, which is for the most part governed by their particular custom, it may well be faid a custom; and so the plea in bar good Calth. Rep. 15, 16, 17. Hill. But this he enough as to this exception. 12 Jac. B. R. Allen v. Tolley.

som generally; for he faid, that the cuftom is not ibat one brought up AS AN APthe trade of a go!d/mitb, cuiler, Sec. being a freeman of London, by comay uje any other manual trade; but trade, subo us buying and selling, may exercise another trade of buying and sciling. did not men-certificate, but generally that there is no such custom as is pleaded. Cro. C. 361. pl. 1. Pasch. 10 Car. B. R. The King v. Bagihaw. -----S. P. certified accordingly by the recorder, with the difference of manual trades and trades of buying and felling, as mercer, grocer, &c. Cro. C. 516. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. in case of Appleton v. Stougton. —— See (H) pl. 1.

3. Indictment for using the trade of a woollen-draper at F. in Saund. 311. Suffolk, not having been apprentice to that trade for 7 years; the defendant pleaded the patent of H. 3. to London, that every citizen, &c. hereafter sould freely trade tam per mare quam per terram, and charter did said that he was a freeman of London, and so justified and traverfed his using it aliter vel alio modo. Upon a demurrer, the Court held the traverse and also the plea ill, because the patent ty, but only cannot be pleaded in bar of the statute; and though the customs of London are confirmed by parliament, yet this statute intends freemen of to include all but their custom concerning taking apprentices, and London may not their customs in general. And judgment for the king. Sid. 427. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Kilderly.

S. C. and was argued that the not intend to grant any other liberthat the cisizers and fell their merchandises and refide where they will, notwithstanding some cities and boroughs claim a liberty of excluding foreigners from selling and buying merchand ses within such city or borough, as appears Cro. Eliz. 110. 352. Dy. 279. b. Co. 8. 128. and that that was the fole intent of the charter, as by the words thereof it fully appears, wherefore it was concluded that the plea was ill, and of fuch opinion were the whole Court. And judgment was given pro rege nifi, &c. and it was not moved afterwards ex parte defendentis.

4. 5 Eliz. is a negative statute, and no one shall exercise a Show. 256. trade against it unless by virtue of a sistem, as the widows of S.P. and tradesmen who by custom carry on the trades of their husbands, s.c. which the Court held not within the statute. 2 Salk. 610. pl. 1. Trin. 3 W. & M. B. R. Hobbs v. Young.

Vol. XX.

(E) In what Cases a Man may use several Trades. And what Trades.

AN information was brought upon 5 Eliz. cap. 4. (for using the trade of a dyer, whereof he had not been an apprentice) at the quarter-session in Southwark, and was removed by certiorari and traverse taken; and upon the evidence it appeared, that the defendant was a felt-maker; and that the selt-makers for the space of 60 years last past have used to die selts; and many haberdashers deposed, that the colour dyed by them was better than that which was coloured by the common dyers. And it was adjudged by the Court, that that is part of their trade of selt-maker. And the jury sound accordingly for the desendant. Noy, 133. Hunter v. Moone.

2. He that uses one trade cannot use the trade of another for or and S. P. about the same commodity used in his own trade; as a * coach-maker cannot make the wheels of his own coaches; a wheelwright cannot use the trade of a smith. Per Holt Ch. J. Show. 267. Trin. S. P. so if workmen to curry his own leather, this is against the statute, because it is he only who receives all the profits of the several trades, and the wheelright and the currier are but his servants.

be keep 3 W. 3. B. R. Hobbs v. Young.

Show. 242.

3. A comb-maker presses and smooths borns for his own use in his S.P. per trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute to be maker presses and smooths borns for his own use in his trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute the first trade, this was held at the affises to be within the statute that the property statute that the first trade, the statute trade, the statute that the first trade, the statute trade, the statute trade, the statute trade, the statute trade that the affises to be within the statute trade, the statute trade, the statute trade, the statute trade trade by Holt Ch. J. as adjudged, hecause it was a distinct trade. 11 Mod. 190. 7 Annæ, B. R. in case of the Queen v. Prew.

4. A man is a mercer and he sells bats, and the party is apprentice to bim as mercer, he may use the trade of a hatter (in the petty towns it is usual) because he served him who did so. Show. 242. Arg. in case of Hobbs v. Young cites it as a Shrewsbury case of Rotheram v. Morris.

5. A serge-maker cannot use the trade of a dyer to dye bis own serges. 11 Mod. 189, 190. pl. 4. Mich. 7 Ann. B. R. the Queen

v. Prew.

(F) In what Cases Securities given in Restriction of Trade are good.

1. 28 H. 8. NO master, wardens, &c. shall cause any apprentice cap. 5. or journatimen, by oath or bond, or otherwise, that he after his term expired shall not set up nor keep any shop, house, or cellar, nor occupy as a freeman without licence of the master, wardens, &c. nor take of any such apprentice or journeyman, nor any other occupying for themselves, nor of any other persons for them after their years expired, any money or other things for their freedom or occupations otherwise than is appointed in the at 22 Hen. 8. cap. 4. upon pain to forfeit 20 l. the one half to the king, &c. and the other half to the party that will sue, &c.

2. N. bound himself apprentice to a mercer at Nottingham, and after the master took bond of him not to exercise his crast in 4 years in Nottingham. In debt upon the bond, it was held that the action is not maintainable. Mo 115. pl. 259. Pasch. 20 Eliz. Anon.

3. A bond conditioned that the obligor should not exercise the 2 Le. 210. trade of a blacksmith in South-Mims in Surry, was held void by all pl. 259. in the justices; because the condition is against the necessity of the but S.C. commonwealth in some place within the realm. Mo. 342. pl. 379. that the Mich. 29 Eliz. Anon.

C. B. Anon. bond was void and against law. —— 3 Le. 217. pl. 258. Mich. 30 Eliz. S. C. in the same words. — But as was observed by Sir Bartholomew Shower in his argument in the case of the Taylors of Exeter v. Clarke, 2 Show. 357. this was an extra-judicial opinion.

4. In debt upon a bond of 30 l. the condition was, that if R. B. Cro. E. 872. fon to the defendant, did use the trade of haberdasher, as journeyman, fervant, or apprentice, or as a master, within the county of Kent, within the cities of Canterbury and Rochester, within 4 years S.C. and after the date, that then, if he pay 20 l. upon request, the obligation to be void. And all the justices agreed, that the condition was against law, and then all is void; for it is against the liberty of a free-man, and against the statute of magna charta, cap. 20. and is against the commonwealth, and cited 2 H. 5. & 5. And Anderson said, that he might as well bind himself that he would well as he not go to church. And judgment was given against the plaintiff. Ow. 143. Mich. 43 & 44 Eliz. Claygate v. Batchelor.

pl. 8. Col E-GATE V. BACHELER, that to prohibit or refirain any at any time, or at any place, is against law. For as may restrain him at one time, or at one place, he may restrain him for longer times and more places, which is against the benefit of the commonwealth; and though the prohibition be not absolute not to exercise the trade, but that if he exercise it he shall pay 201. and so was said to differ from the case of 2 H. 5. 5. b. yet the Court said it was all one; for he ought not to be abridged of his rade and living. S. C. cited Noy, 98. in case of JELLIET V. BROADE, by the name of LEGGATE V. BATCHELOUR. ----- S. C. cited All. 67. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. in case of PRUGNELL v. Gosce, and agreed by Roll Ch. J. for law; but said, that if there were a confideration for the restraint, as the taking off braided ware, such wond or promise is good; and so it was adjudged in FROWARD'S CASE, upon a writ of error out of Bridgenorth. But a restraint general throughout England is void, notwithstanding a consideration.

5. The defendant, in consideration of so much by him paid to S. C. cited the plaintiff, promised not to exercise the trade of a joiner in a shop, by La. Cn J. Parker, parcel of a house to him demised for 21 years, durante termino pradicto. Wms.'sRep. All the Court agreed clearly, that as this case here is, for a time 186. in case certain, and in a place certain, a man may be well bound and restrained from using of his trade; and so, by the whole Court, REYNOLDS, here is a good breach of promise assigned, which well intitles the that where plaintiff to his action, and that the declaration is good. by the rule of the Court, judgment was given, and so entered upon a good for the plaintiff. 2 Bulst. 136. Mich. 11 Jac. Rogers v. Parry.

by Ld. Ch. of Mir-CHEL V. fuch a contract is made and adequate confidera-tion, so as to make it a proper and useful contract, it is good. Though he said, that case is wrong reported, as appears by the roll, which he had canfed to be searched; for it is B. R. Trin. 11 Jac. 1. Rot. 223. And said, that the resolution of the judges was not grounded upon its being a particular reflection; with a consideration; and the stress Les on the words, as the case is here; though as they stand in the book they do not seem maurial.

Palro. 172.
Pasch. 19
Jac. B. R.
S. C. that the plaintiff had bought

as much

6. T. in consideration of 10 s. promised to pay B. 100 l. if he thenceforward kept any draper's shop in Newgate-market; and adjudged good, and the plaintist recovered. Cro. J. 597. pl. 19. in case of BROAD v. JOLLYFE, cites Pasch. 18 Jac. Bragg v. Tanner.

goods of the defendant as came to 500 l. in confideration whereof the defendant made the promife; and resolved that the assumptit was good, and judgment for the plaintiff.

*[3.26] This judgment was afterwards affirmed in the Exchequer chamber, Mich. 19 Jac. Ibid. 597----Jo. 13. pl. 15. S.C. accordingly; and tays it was affirmed by all the Justices, except Tanfield, who. fald nothing against it.— 2 Roll. Rep. 201. JoL-LIE V. BROAD, S. C. but the cause was first in

7. In assumptit plaintiff declared, that the defendant was a mercer, and kept a shop in N. and had his shop furnished with old sullied wares, and the plaintiff had a shop there furnished with new and fresh wares; and in consideration the plaintiff would buy his wares, and pay for them such * prices as he paid when he first bought them, the desendant promised he would no longer keep any shop at N. and alleged he bought the defendant's wares, and paid 300 l. for them, the price the defendant bought them at, whereas the wares were then not worth 100 l. and yet the defendant, contrary to his promise, kept his shop there, and furnished it with new wares, &c. to the plaintiff's damage 500 l. On a verdict for the plaintiff it was faid, that this promise being to restrain trade, was against law; but all, except Houghton J. held the affumplit good; for that it is voluntary, and a man upon a valuable confideration may restrain himself from using his trade in such a particular place; and it is usual in London for one to let his shop and wares to his servant when out of his apprenticeship; as also to covenant not to use that trade in such a shop or street; so, for a valuable confideration, and voluntarily, one may agree that he will not use his trade; for volenti non fit injuria. Cro. J. 596. pl. 19. Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. Broad v. Jollyfe.

C. B. and the judgment there affirmed in B. R. by Mountague Ch. J. Doderidge, and Chamber-laine J. but Haughton contra. —— Mar. 77. pl. 121. Trin. 16 Car. C. B. S. P. cited by Littleton Ch. J. to have been adjudged in B. R. which seems to mean this case; but that if one be bound that be smill not use his trade, it is no good bond. —— Noy, 98. Jellie v. Broade, S. C. resolved, that the action well lies; for it was a voluntary promise for a good consideration, and is restrained to a place; otherwise had it been a general restraint, or upon a co-action, or without consideration.

8. In debt against a surety in a bond to perform covenants, one of which was not to set up a trade in Cicester. To which the defendant demurred, because void, being encouragement of idleness; and the defendant's being a surety does not alter the case. Windham said, that an apprentice might be bound on this condition, as Hall v. Haws, 9 Car. 1. when the † original taking and instruction is on these terms. But he doubted this case; for he said, to oblige a lawyer not to give counsel to any man in Salisbury was held void by Jones; and the Court inclined it was void here; but adjornatur. 2 Keb. 377. pl. 35. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Ferby v. Arrowsmyth.

9. A in consideration that B. would marry her daughter, pro-Pragnet mised, inter alia, to assign over her shop in Basing stoke to B. and that v. Goff, S. C. and judgment action brought, the plaintiff had a verdict and judgment in C. B. affirmed.— and now that judgment was affirmed in B. R. Allen, 67. S. C. cited 3 Lev. 242, Trin. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Prugnell v. Gosse.

243. in case of Clerk v. the Taylors of Exeter.

it, that the within a month ofter

the trade of a taşler in Exeter,

otberzvise

than as a journeyman z and if he

town on 40 days notice, good. But at the end of then, &cc.

that the bond was condition of

10. Debt on a bond conditioned not to use the trade of a taylor 2 Show. 345. in Exeter, the defendant pleaded that he was an expert taylor, Pl. 353. and skilful in that art; and that the plaintiff, pretending that no Car. 2. B.R. one, who was not a member of the company of taylors there, the Tayought to use that trade there, did many ways vex and trouble the Lors of defendant, which to get clear of, he gave this bond, which is CLERKE, in against law, and void; the plaintiff replied that the defendant B. R. flates fealed and delivered the faid bond as his deed. And it was adjudged in B. R. that the bond, being only to restrain trade in a the bond was particular place, was good. Whereupon error was brought in 10 fey 20 1. the Exchequer-chamber, and this judgment was reversed, and the bond held void. But an assumpsit, upon a good consideration not to use be shall use a trade in a particular place, they held would be good; because in fuch case, damages only being to be recovered, the jury may assess the same, having respect to the consideration upon which the promise was made. But in this case all the penalty is forseited, be the confideration what it will, and though the offence be never so little; and such promises upon good considerations have always leave the been allowed in such cases because the jury may try of what value the consideration was, and what * damage the use of the trade is to the party to whom the promise was made; and cited several Adjudged, And the reversal was by the unanimous consent of all the justices. 3 Lev. 241. Mich. 1 Jac. 2. in the Exchequerchamber. Clerke v. Taylors of Exeter.

pag. 364. fays, that in the Exchequer-chamber the bond was held void, and the difference between a bond and assumpsit agreed, because of the consideration, without any regard to the consideration implied in law, upon fealing and executing the bond; and so the judgment was reversed.

11. A bond recited, that whereas the defendant had affigued to the plaintiff a lease of a house and bake-house, in such a parish, for the term of 5 years. Now if the defendant should not exercise the trade of a baker within that parish, during the said term; or, in case he did, should, within 3 days after proof thereof, pay to the plaintiff the sum of 501, then, &c. The Court were all of opinion, (as the same was delivered by Parker Ch. J.) that a special consideration being set forth in the condition, which shews it was reasonable for the parties to enter into it, the same is good; and that the true distinction, in this case, is not between promises and bonds, but between contracts with or without confideration; and that wherever a sufficient consideration appears to make it a proper and an useful con- it be of the tract, and such as cannot be set aside without injury to a fair con- party's own tractor, it ought to be maintained; but with this constant diver- Per Ld. Ch. sity, viz. where the restraint is + general, not to exercise a trade throughout the kingdom, and where it is limited to a particular place; for the former of these must be void, being of no benefit to either party, and only oppressive. Wms.'s Rep. 181, 182. pl. 44. Hill. 1711. Mitchell v. Reynolds.

T L 327] 10 Mod. 27. 85. 130. S. C. accordingly.-† General restraints are all void, whether by bond, covenant, or promile, &c. with or without confideration, and whether trade or not. J. Parker, in delivering the judgment of the Court. Wms.'sRep. 185. Mitchel v. Reynolds. The restraint must be upon good consideration, and the breach of it must apparently tend to the damage of the obligee, or otherwise the restraint is void, though for a particular place. Per Ld. Ch. J. Parker. 10 Mod. 133. in case of MITCHEL V. REYNOLDS. --- For what does it signify to a tradesman in London what another does at Newcofile? And furely it would be an unreasonable thing to fix a certain loss on one side, without any benefit to the other; per eundem. Wms.'s Rep. 190, 191. in S. C.

B b 3

12. In debt by A. against E. on bond of 1001. conditioned, that whereas A. at the special request of E. is to take E. into her shop for her hired servant, to attend in her shop, and inspect her customers, and to assist A. in her trade of a linen-draper. And whereas the said A. consents to hire and take the said E. upon her express agreement, that after her leaving A.'s service she will not exercife such trade, either by herself or any other directly or indirectly, in any shop, room, or place, within half a mile of A.'s now dwellingbouse in Drury-lane, or other house she may remove to; nor shall asks any other person to carry on such trade, &c. which agreement is the sole consideration of A.'s taking the said E. into her service. The breach assigned was for assisting J.S. in carrying on the said trade within half a mile of A.'s house in Drury-lane, and verdict and judgment for the plaintiff, and afterwards affirmed in B.R. and afterwards in the House of Lords, with the unanimous opinion of all the 12 Judges, and with 401. costs. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1456. Hill. 13 Geo. 1. Chesman v. Nainby.

13. An action was brought on articles, by which the defendant agreed not to exercise a certain trade within the weekly bills of mortality. Judgment was given for the plaintiff. And in error brought it was said, that such agreement was determined to be good in the case of Jaspen v. Lamper, Hill. 13 Geo. 1. and likewise in the case of Michel v. Reynolds; for which reason the Court assumed the judgment directly. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B.R. 463.

Trin. 7 Geo. 2. Clerk v. Crow.

[328] (G) Restrained. By Charter, Custom, or By-laws.

1. 1 & 2 P. ENACTS, That no person dwelling out of any city, & M. 7. E borough, town corporate, or market-town, shall sell It was adjudged upon demurrer, by retail any woollen or linen cloth, haberdashery wares, grocery or that the inmercery wares, within any of the said cities, towns corporate, or marhabitants of the market- ket-towns, or liberties of the same, except in open fairs, on pain of 6s. town may 8d. for every offence, and the forfeiture of all wares so offered to be fell goods in anothermar- fold, one moiety to the crown, and the other to the profecutor, to be reket-town, covered in any of their majesties courts of record. not prohibited by this statute; for this extends only to such as are living in country towns, and come and sell their goods in market towns. 2 Lev. 89. Trin. 25 Car. 2. B. K. Davis v. Leving.

An indictment upon this statute set forth, that the defendants had sold earthen-ware in London, contra forman statuti; but it was quashed upon a motion, because the statute does not give justices of peace any jurisdiction to proceed in this matter at their sessions, for they are not so much as named in the act. 5 Mod. 149. Hill. 7 W. 3. the King v. Clough & al'.

Provided, that this do not extend to any such wares to be sold by wholefale.

Provided also, that every freeman in such town corporate, or market-towns, dwelling within the same, may sell the said wares by retail as heretofore.

Provided also, that all persons may sell by retail, or otherwise, all manner of cloth, linen or woollen, of their own making, in every such town corperate or market-town as beretofore.

This

This act shall not be prejudicial to the privileges of the universities of Cambridge and Oxford.

2. Upon a return, that the custom of London was, that no person not being free of the city, shall, directly or indirectly, either by himself or any other, keep any shop inward or outward, for putting to fale any wares, &c. by way of retail, or use any art, trade, mystery, or handicraft, for hire, gain, or sale, within the city, upon pain of forseiture of 5 l. it was resolved this was good by way of custom, but not by way of charter or grant to the city; and therefore no corporations made within time of memory can have such privilege, unless by act of parliament. 8 Rep. 124. b. 125. a. Hill 7 Jac.

the City of London's cafe.

3. One found guilty of having used the trade of a working goldsmith, and a working jeweller, not having served as an apprentice to the trade, was committed in London; and being brought into B. R. it was shewn for cause why a procedendo should not, be granted, that the declaration is founded on a by-law founded on a custom; and that if either be not in all parts good, the declaration is naught; and here the custom is certified in the negative, and is contradictory, and that the by-law certified is uncertain and unreasonable; for every stroke the defendant strikes is using his trade, and to pay 51. for every stroke is unreasonable. 2dly, That the declaration is not applied to the by-law, because doing a thing one day is not a using to do it, and the words diversis vicibus do not help it; nor is it faid that he gained his living by the trade or fale of the commodity wrought, and the words pro lucro & pro ficus do not help it; for perhaps he uses it to his private use, which is to his profit, though he fells it not. And that it is unreasonable a stranger be restrained by a by-law made 40 years ago, whereof he had no notice, and yet punish him for doing what the common law allows, viz. the getting his own living. Besides, it is said non existens liber homo usus est arte, &c. which is uncertain; for so every apprentice may be punished, he not being liber homo. The other side cited 5 E. 3. that a negative with an affirmative implied, is good, and that it is exclusive of strangers, and inclufive of citizens, and that the offence, and not the time of uling the trade, is the matter; and as to the apprentice, he uses not the trade for himself but his master's benefit. The Court desired books, & adjornatur. Sty. 226. Trin. 1650. B. R. London (City) v. De-roy.

4. In case, the plaintiff declared of a custom in Derby, that every butcher in Derby having served an apprenticeship for 7 years, might use that trade absque damno alterius, vel ab altero; but that the defendant not being a freeman, nor having served an apprenticeship, sold flesh in Derby on such a day, not being a market-day, by reafon whereof the plaintiff could not sell so much as otherwise he might, ad demnum, &c. The defendant demurred, because the custom is not laid * positively, but only potentially, (viz.) that he might use * See (H) that trade; besides, there is no by-law to restrain foreigners, and pl. 1. without a by-law, or a custom, any foreigner may sell in markettowns, except on the market-days. And as to the declaration B b 4 that that he fold flesh, it is not sufficient; for it may be a horse or a dog. And upon these exceptions judgment was given for the desendant. Lev. 262. Hill. 20 & 21 Car. 2. B. R. Wilmot v. Nixon.

[329]

See (H) pl. 4. S. C. 5. Custom that none shall trade in a town, besides persons free of the gilda mercatoria there, quære if good in any place, except London? 1 Salk. 203. pl. 2. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R. Mayor, &c. of Winton, v. Wilks.

JoMod. 131. S. C. & P.

6. Restraints of trades by by-laws are 3 several ways. 1st, To exclude foreigners, and this is good, if only to enforce a precedent cuftom by a penalty; per Parker Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the Court; and cited Cart. 68. 114. and 8 Rep. 125. But that where there is no precedent custom, such by-law is void; and cited 1 Roll. Abr. 364. Hob. 210. 1 Bulst. 11. and 3 Keb. 808. But said that the case in 3 Keb. is misreported; for there the defendants did not plead a custom to exclude foreigners, but only to make by-laws generally, which was the ground of the resolution in that case. 2dly, All by-laws made to cramp trade in general, are void; and for this he cited Mo. 567. 1 Bulft. 11. 3dly, By-laws made to restrain trade, in order to the better government and regulation of it, are good in some cases, viz. if they are for the benefit of the place, and to avoid publick inconveniencies, nulances, &c. or for the advantage of the trade and improvement of the commodity; and for this cited Sid. 284. Raym. 288. 2 Keb. 27. 873. and 5 Rep. 62. b. Wms.'s Rep. 184. Hill. 1711. B. R. Mitchel v. Reynolds.

Sec(D) pl. 3.

(H) Proceedings and Pleadings.

1. TNFORMATION for using the trade of a goldsmith, not S. C. cited Sty. 479. as having been apprentice to that trade; the defendant pleaded g Car. the custom of London, that one having been an apprentice there for 7 FLETCHER years, and made a freeman of London of any trade, may use any other BAQ-NALL, that trade in that city; and then pleads that he served an apprenticelicitum fuit ship 7 years in the art of a cordwainer, and was made a freeman for a Lonof London, and so justified. Upon demurrer it was objected to doner to use the custom of the plea, because it was * quod uti possit any other trade, and not London, was quod usus suit. It was answered, that this being alleged by way of custom in the city, and not a particular prescription, it was be il! pleadwell enough; and to that opinion the Court inclined. Cro. C. 347. ed; and pl. 9. Hill. 9 Car. B. R. the King v. Bagshaw. though it may be good in evidence, yet it is not so in a return. And he hid that all customs ought to be alleged in sacto.

* See (G) pl. 4.

[330] 2. In action fur statute 5 Eliz. for using the trade of a grocer, the defendant pleads a former act depending in the Exchequer in bar, which should be in abatement; et per Curiam no respondeas ouster, but absolute judgment for the plaintiff as on plea in bar. 2 Keb, 716. pl. 102. Mich. 22 Car. 2. B, R, Smith v. Poyner.

3. Debt

3. Debt upon the stat. of 5 Eliz. for using the trade of making chartas pictas, anglice, playing cards, from the 23d of February till the 23d of January following, viz. per duodecim menses integras, not having served his time for 7 years. After verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the computation here is by kalendar menths, whereas by the statute it must be by lunar months; and for this was cited the case of the KING V. STOWBRIDGE, Mich. And if this should be construed, that if he used it for the time mentioned here, he must have used it for 11 lunar months of necessity, then it will be uncertain when they will begin the computation, and the defendant may be again charged for part of the time for which this recovery now is, and cannot plead this recovery in bar; and the right way had been to fay, that from fuch a day per undecim menses prox' sequent' he used it. per Cur. it would be fatal, but is helped by the verdiel's finding him guilty of 2 [12] lunar months next after the 23d of February. And if a man use a trade 14 days in one month, and then ceases, and uses again 14 days in the next month, he is not punishable by the statute. 12 Mod. 641. Hill. 13 W. 3. B. R. Stretchpoint v. Savage.

4. In case, the corporation of Winchester declared, that Winton was an ancient city, &c. and that there was a custom, that none but persons free de gilda mercatoria of the said city, should exercise a trade there, unless brought up apprentice to it within the said city; that the defendant nevertheless did exercise, &c. Holt Ch. J. faid that all people are at liberty to live in Winchester, and asked how they could be restrained from using the lawful means of living in a place where they had a lawful liberty to live? That this was the cause of making the stat. 5 Eliz. That such custom is an injury to the party, and prejudice to the public; that the case of London differs, because they have by custom the bringing up the youth of that city; and therefore they have power by custom to make infants apprentices, and to assign apprentices, and after fuch apprenticeships they are free, but other cities have no fuch custom: but this declaration is ill, because the action ought to be brought by the gilda mercatoria. I Salk. 203. pl. 2. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R. Mayor, &c. of Winton, v. Wilks.

It was agreed that fuch custom in London might be good, because their customs are confirmed by many acts of parliament; but it was doubted if fuch custom was good in any other city or borough. But it was agreed per tot. Cur. that the de-. claration was naught; for non conftat that the corporation has any guilda mercatoria; nor does it appear who the homines liberi de guilda mercatoria are, so as they may be the whole corporation, or some part of them; and anciently the king's grant to have guildam mercatoriam, made them all a corporation, viz. all the whole vill. 3 Salk. 349. S. C.—2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1720. S. C. argued by counsel, and spoke to by the Court; and Holt Ch. J. said, he would give judgment for the plaintiff if he could tell why; but judgment was entered quod querentes nil capiant per billam, upon the exceptions to the declaration.——6 Mod. 21. Mich. 22 Ann. S. C. says, note this action was not grounded on any by-law, nor for any penalty. And Holt Ch. J. said, it was a point not determined whether such a custom was good, though many corporations did pretend to it; and that some corporations pretended a right by custom to exclude toreigners, but he thought they could not support it. And the reporter says, that in Pasch. 4 Ann. judgment was stayed upon saults in the declaration; and the Court declined saying any thing upon the merits, which, they said, was a question of great consequence.

(I) Forfeitures for using a Trade by 5 Eliz. 4.

1. 5 Eliz. ENACTS, That the forfeitures mentioned in this cap. 4. s. 39. Enatute (excepting those otherwise limited) shall be In an information for ufing the divided betwixt the queen and the prosecutor; and all justices of peace, trade of a. baker within or any two of them, (I quor.) and every head-officer, shall have the city of power to hear and determine the breach of this statute, upon indistment Norwich. or otherwise, and to award process and execution accordingly, and shall not having yearly in Michaelmas term by estreat certify into the Exchequer the ferved as app:entice for fines which accrue apon this statute, in manner as they ought to do in 7 years, it was faid that other cases.

S. 45. Provided that all manner of amerciaments, fines, issues, it seems no action acand forfeitures which shall arise, &c. by reason of any offences or decrues to the informer for faults mentioned in this act, within any city or town corporate, shall be a penalty levied, gathered, and received by fuch person or persons of the same city, arifing upon or town corporate, as shall be appointed by the mayor or other beadthis act officers mentioned in this act, to the use and maintainance of the same wi hin the city of Norcity or town corporate, in such case and condition as any manner of other wich; and amerciaments, fines, iffues, or forfeitures, have been used to be levied upon this act and employed within the same city or town corporate, by reason of any the justices waried in ' grant or charter party from the queen's majesty that now is, or of any opinion. Et of her grace's noble progenitors, made and granted to the same city, bofic adhuc pendet. Mo. rough, or town corporate, any thing or clause in this act to the contrary .886. pl. not with standing.

1245. Hill. 14 Jac. Davison v. Barker. Hob. 183. pl. 220. S. C. And Hobart Ch. J. said, that if the clause is to be understood so as that they are given thereby to the use of the city or town corporate, the confequence will be, that this information cannot stand, it being for the king and the informer; and he was of o; in on that the word (forfeiture) in this latter clause was not to be understood of the main penalty of the law for 2 reasons: 1st, Because it was penned beginning with amercements, &c. which imports the forteitur s of the like, or less nature. Again, that it appoints them to be levied in such fore as other am reements, &c. granted to fuch cities are to be levied, which are of record, and due, as foon as they are unposed, and want nothing but the levying. Now fines, issues, and amerciaments are often granted to cities; and yet that could not extend to the like, growing upon fuits, upon offences made by new statutes. Note, those are not due till there be a conviction, so the question is of the suit, and not of the levying. But no city has, or can have grant by charter of any penal law. And where it was urged, that the former clause did except from the queen the penalties otherwise appointed, which must needs be understood of these, there is in the statute 51. forseiture given against hun that departs without licence out of a work undertaken to him from whom he departs; at Coventry the Tummer affizes 17 Jac. Hopart justice of affize there, advised Stapleton to give judgment for the informer in the sheriff's court there.

(K) Indictments, or Informations, as to using Trades.

1. INFORMATION qui tam on 5 Eliz. 4. because the de-8 Rep. 129. fendant at S. the 1st December 3 Jac. and continually after b. S.C. cited accordingly, till 12 Nov. 4 Jac. (which was until the day of the information) in the case for the space of 11 months, and more, exercised and occupied the of the Ciry art and occupation of a brewer, being an occupation used within of London. -12 Rep. the realm 12 Jan. 5 Eliz. ubi revera, he did not exercise the 11. S. C. said tràde the 12 Jan. 5 Eliz. nor was ever brought up for 7 -2 Bulft. 189. Hill. years, as an apprentice in the said art, contra formam statuti, 11 Jac. in &c. The defendant pleaded not guilty, and found against him; cale of THE and and after verdict moved in arrest of judgment, first, that the art King AND of a brewer is not fuch a trade, the using whereof is prohibited ALLEN V. by the statute; sed non allocatur; for by the express words of the flatute * it is reckoned as a trade or occupation. And the words in Coke Ch. J. the statute whereupon this information is founded, refers to the trade aforesaid. Cro. J. 178. pl. 17. Trin. 5 Jac. in the Exche-Exchequer quer, Shoyle v. Taylor.

Tooley, it is said by that the barons of the held a brewer to be out of the statute; for if they are divided into 10 parts, there are not 9 of them that have been apprentices; and that it was therefore adjudged for them, and affirmed. ——Roll. Rep. 10. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. R. in case of the King v. Tollin, Coke Ch. J. cited S. P. to have been adjudged within the statute, because it is for the sustenance of man; and said it was affirmed in error.

A + public brewer ought to serve apprentice 7 years; otherwise he is within the statute of 5 Eliz. but not so of a private brewer in private houses. Upon an information against a public brewer upon the statute of 5 Eliz. it is sufficient in the count to declare that he was not a brewer at the time of making the faid flatute; and there is no occasion to jay, that he did not then use any other trade; for although the flatute is obscurely penned, this is the true sense of it; if he had used the trade of a barber at the time of making the faid statute, it would not serve to excuse him for being a brewer. Panis & potus sunt duor vitze sustentacula; and therefore the law provides, that the brewer and baker shall be apprentices for 7 years. These trades also concern the health of the bodies of men; and the law does not suppose that unexperienced persons can direct or work at them; and the law judges that 7 years are a convenient and necessary time for instruction before such public employment. Jenk. 284. pl. 15.

† Cro. C. 499. pl. 4. S. P. agreed, in case of the King, &c. v. Fredland.

2. An indictment on the statute, for using a trade not being S.P. Keb. apprentice to it for 7 years; but it was quashed, because it did 473. pl. 88. not set forth that it was a trade used at the time of the statute; for 15 Car. 2. the Court as judges cannot take cognizance that it was, and the B. R. The statute says (trade at this time lawfully used). Palm. 528. Pasch. 4 Car. B. R. Anne Stafford's case.

Hubbard. T. was inexercifing the trade of a mercer, not having been an apprentice; exception was taken, that it is faid that it was a trade 13 Feb. 5 Eliz. whereas the parliament began 12 Feb. But the Court held it well enough, and it might have been I omitted that it was a trade 5 Eliz. for that exception is worn out. Comb. 288. Trin. 6 W. & M. in B. R. The King and Queen v. Taff.

1 But 2 Salk. 611. pl. 3. says, it is a good exception that it is not averred in the indicament, that the trade therein mentioned was a trade at the time of making the statute. Trin. 4 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Harper. - And the same term between the Queen and Cornesh, it was moved to quash an indictment for using the trade of a scamstress, not having served as apprentice; and the Court resused, because it was set forth in the indictment to be a trade in England at the time of making the act; wherein the words are, any craft, mystery, or occupation now used. So that if this trade of a seamstress be not within the act, the defendant would have the advantage of it upon the trial. Ibid. --- 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1188, 1180. in case of the Queen v. Harrer, cites S. C. accordingly; and the Court resused to quash the indictment, because they said they could not take notice what was, or what was not, a trade within the statute.

It was moved to quash an indictment, for exercising the trade of a baker, the defendant not having ferred a legal apprenticeship. The exception took to it was, that the trade was | not laid to be used infra regnum Anglia at the time of the act. The Court said the trade of a baker was within the words of the act; and no averment of the trade being used at the time of the act is necessary, but where the trade only falls within the general conclusion of the clause at last. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 277. Hill. 3 Geo. 2. The King v. Munroe.

I So in indiament for using the trade of a grocer. 2 Keb. 226. pl. 83. Pasch. 19 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Hopkins, the innichment was quashed for that reason. See 2 Barnard. Rep. 147. The case of the King v. Windgrove, cited in the case of the King v. Britton.

2. Information for using the trade of a draper in Norwich, was Indiament quashed, because it was not averred that he did not use the same trade at the time when the statute was made. Hard. 54. Arg. in the baker, not case of HAYES v. HARDING, cites it as adjudged. Mich. 22 Car. having serv-Johnson v. Wilnerford.

for using the ed 7 years appren: ice-ship, contrary to 5 Eliz. and does not say be did not use the trade at the time of making the act; and it was quathed, but agreed and declared by all the Court, that this exception should never be allowed for the future; and now they would intend that no man did use that trade at that time. 2 Show, 210, 211. pl. 218. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Green.

4. An alien was indicted for using a trade upon the statute 22 H. 8. cap. 13. But the indictment was quashed, because it was not set forth that he was born out of the power of the commonwealth, but only that he was born out of England; but Roll Ch. J. said, if it says that he is alienigenus, it implies all. 2dly, The indictment did not say that he is an alien born out of England; and this was held a a good exception. Sty. 256. Pasch. 1651. Harman v Jacob.

5. An indictment upon the statute 5 Eliz. for using the trade of a draper, not having served as an apprentice, &c. was quashed, because it was faid that he used the trade in the year 1653, and did not say in the year of our Lord. Style, 448. Pasch. 1655. B. R.

Anon.

S. P. Per

6. Indictment on 5 Eliz. 4. for using the trade of a eurrier, not Cur. Keb.

558. pl. 80. faying that he had not served in any art, mystery, or manual occupation; but only that he had not served as a currier for 7 years; Car. 2. B. R. which the Court conceived ill, and quashed. Keb. 473. pl. 88. the King v. Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Hubbard.

7. It was moved to quash an indictment on 5 Eliz. for using the trade of a hosier, in which he had not been educated, according to the form of the statute, (not saying, tet apprentities,) and a good exception; per Cur. and the indictment was quashed. Keb. 558.

pl. 80. Trin. 15 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Harlow.

8. Exception was taken to an information by common inform-To an indictment for er, for exercising the trade of a barber, not saying he set up pubusing the licly; sed non allocatur, the statute being in the disjunctive. trade of a 2. It is not faid * contra pacem; sed per Curiam, that is never done barber, without ferin fuit by common informer; and if the defendant did not fet up vice of 7 publicly, he may be found not guilty. Keb. 860. pl. 70. years, ex-Hill. 16 & 17 Car. 2. B. R. v. Lusamoor. ception was taken, because not laid contra pacem. Holt Ch. J. thought it well enough, because it was laid contra forman satuti. But by the other 3 judges it was quashed; for every breach of a law is against the peace, and ought to be so laid. 6 Mod. 128. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Lane. ——S. P. Keb. 292.

Pasch. 14 Car. 2. B. R. pl. 115. in case of the King v. Grove. ——Ibid. 501. pl. 58. Pasch.

15 Car. 2. B. R. Indictment quashed on S. P. the King v. Leverington. ——Ibid. 789.

pl. 43. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Harris, S. P. ——Ibid. 848. pl. 48. S. P. and the indictment was quashed. Hill. 16 & 17 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Houseden. ——S. P.

And the indictment quashed. 3 Keb. 646. pl. 63. Pasch. 28 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Eeds.

† Indi&-9. Exception was taken to an indictment on 5 Eliz. 4. being ment for before justices ad pacem conservand, and do not say + domini regis, ving the fed non allocatur. 2. It was for using the trade of mercator, Angl, trade of a a merchant, sed non allocatur. 3. It was not faid where they buicher was excepted to, were justices, for which cause it was quashed. Per Twisden, the because it rest being absent. 2 Keb. 385. pl. 58. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. was ad gethe King v. Lambe. neralem scsfionem pacis, not faying domini regis. And per Cur. it was quashed. 2 Keb. 391. pl. 75. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B.R. the King v. Jacksou.

Nent. 51.

Anon. S. C. mentions it to be faid,

To. Moved to quash an indictment upon 5 Eliz. cap. 2. for exermentions it apprentice to it for 7 years, because the statute says they shall proceed.

ceed at the quarter-sessions, and the word quarter is not in the that to indictment. Twisden, that word ought to be in; and I believe the using of a trade in a country village, as this is, is not within the the statute. Moreton accorded. Rainsford said, it will be very prejudicial to corporations not to extend the statute to villages. Twisden said, he had heard all the judges say, that they will never extend that statute further than they needs must. Obj. very inconfurther; that there wanted these words, viz. + ad tunc & ibidem onerati & jurati; for which all the 3 judges, Keeling being absent, ants must go conceived it ought to be quashed. 1 Mod. 26. pl. 69. Mich. 21 Car 2. B. R. the King v. Turnith.

keep a shop, within a country village is not within the flatute; and that it were venient that. the inhabitto some great town upon every occafion. ---- 2 Keb. 583. pl. 121. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. French, seems to be S. C. for using the trade of a grocer in Cheston in Hartfordshire, being a country vill, and not a market town, and said the Court agreed that it was not within the statute, and that the statute is not to be extended by equity; and it was quashed. ---- S. C. cited 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 225. Hill. 6 Geo. 2. in case of the King v. Langley; and there Page J. said, that he had often known these indictments quashed upon such exception.

* 3 Keb. 790. pl. 45. Trin. 27 Car. 2. B.R. THE KING V. BONIVEL, the Court conceived the using the trade of selling grocery wares in small parcels 2 miles out of any corporation, and among many poor, to be within the statute 5 Eliz. But judgment was given for the defendant, because the indiament wanted the words contra pacem. ———See 3 Keb. 782. pl. 28. The King v. Burnivil, S. C.

but adjornatur.

† S. P. 2 Keb. 610. pl. 47. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Greenway. ----- See pl. 20. The King v. Morris. [334]

II. Upon a motion for quashing and indictment against a baker, these exceptions were taken. 1st, He is indicted for using facultatem pistoris, and does not say panis humani. 2dly, It is for baking panis tritici, Anglice, household bread; whereas it signifies only bread made of wheat, and not household bread, for that may be made of other corn. 3dly, For baking panis assis, without a dash for panis assise. Upon these exceptions it was quashed. Styl. 24. Pasch. 23 Car. Anon.

12. B. was indicted for using the art of a brazier, contra 5 Eliz. cap. 4. not averring it a trade then, and ubi revera he had not ferved 7 years, according to the ancient custom in the town of Nottingbam. After verdict this was excepted to in arrest of judgment; and per Curiam, it is ill both in the averment, and also in drawing the necessity of service to a particular town; whereas it should be, that he had not served generally any where. 3 Keb. 550. pl. 55. Mich. 27 Car. 2. B. R. the King v. Boot.

13. Indictment for using a trade, not having served 7 years An indictapprenticeship in England or dominion of Wales, was held naught; ment for because limited to England or Wales, when the statute is general. trade, not 2 Show. 155. pl. 141, Hill. 32 & 33 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

exercifing a having served to it the space of 7 years, infi a regnum Anglia aut Wallia was quashed for this exception, for it should be aut Walliam. 12 Mod. 251. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. King v. Fox.

14. In the case of an indictment for using the trade of a mer- S.C.&S.P. chant-taylor, the Court seemed to think a merchant-taylor was cited Ld. nonsense, and unintelligible; they did not know what a mer- 1189. acchant-taylor meant 2 Salk. 611. pl. 3. Trin. 4 Ann. B. R. the cordingly, Queen v. Harper.

Raym. Rep. that they could not understand what a merchant-taylor is, and that there was no such trade. And the reporter says, note, Mr. Eyre said he had known many indictments on this statute quashed for that exception. And the reporter lays further, that it feams to him that what a craft, mystery, or occupation is, is matter of law.

15. Two

baving been apprentices, because they not being apprentices is that which makes the crime and forseiture, and that must of necessity be several. I Salk. 382. pl. 32. Pasch. 5 Annæ, in case of the Queen v. Atkinson, cited and admitted the case in 2 Roll. 81. [Indictment (N) pl. 6. Brooke's case.]

16. Baron and feme could not be inditted for exercising a trade, not being qualified, because it is the exercise of the husband. If the wife be qualified, that qualifies the husband, but still it is the exercise of the husband. 2 Ld. Raym. 1248. East. 5 Ann. Per Holt Ch. J. in the case of the Queen v. Atkinson, & al'.

17. It was moved to quash an indictment against a ferge-maker for dying his own serges, he not having served as an apprentice to the dying trade; for that it was not said in the indictment, that he was a common dyer, and that he might lawfully dye his own wool. And it was said to be so adjudged in a case where, because it was not said a common baker, it was held ill; for any man may bake for himself, and so he may dye, &c. But the Court held the indictment well enough, being not like the case of a baker, for many people bake their own bread; but a dyer is a separate trade.

11 Mod. 189, 190. pl. 4. Mich. 7 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Prew.

[335]
See (A).—
An exception was taken to an indictment for using the tride of a cutler, because it was

18. An indicament for using the trade of a falter was excepted to, because it said that the trade was infra how regnum usital at the time of the act made. Now they said (how regnum) would as well extend to Scotland as England; and the averring that this trade was used in Scotland at the time of the act, would signify nothing. Upon this exception the Court quashed the indicament. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 30. Mich. 1 Geo. 2. 1727. the King v. Lyster.

said to be used infra b c regnum Angliae at the time of the ast; whereas there is no such kingdom. It was answered on the other side, that this being a trade expressly declared within the ast to be used at the time of the ast, the classe of infra hoc regnum shall be rejected as surplusage; but adjornatur. 2 Barnard. Rep. ia B. R. 147. Pasch. 5 Geo. 2. 1732. The King v. Britton.—Ibid. 172. Trin. 5 Geo. 2. S. C. The Court thought it so clear a point against the prosecutor, that they immediately gave judgment for the desendant. And Lee J. said, that the case of the Queen v. Robinson, Trin. 13 Ann. was the first determined on this point after the union.——In arguing this case, ibid. 147. for the desendant were cited the cases of the Queen v. Robinson, Easter, 1714. and the King v. Hog. Trin. 9 Geo. 1. and the King v. Paris, determined on the case of the King v. Hog, and the case of the King v. Windgrove, Hill. 3 Geo. 2.

19. An exception taken was, that the indictment was in the berough of Colchester, and no county laid wherein that borough is.
And adly, That the indictment only charges in general, that the defendant exercised this trade the first year of the present king, without saying in what month of the year it was. Now he said, the act of parliament gives so much a month forseiture for the time the offence is committed, and therefore it was material for the indictment to have charged how many months the desendant exercised it. The Court said the first exception was clearly satal, and therefore made the rule absolute. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 285. Hill.
3 Geo. 2. the King v. Kendal.

20. Indictment on the 5 Hiz. for exercising a trade, &c. It was moved in arrest of judgment that it does not appear when or where where the jury were sworn; for the caption of the indicament is Turnith, juratores pro domino rege jurat' pro, &c. omitting the words adtunc pl. 10. & ibid. Hereupon judgment was arrested. Gibb. 266. pl. 1-1. Pasch. 4 Geo. 2. B. R. the King v. Morris.

See the King. V.

For more of Trade, in general, see Actions tam quam, &c. Apprentices, By-Laws, Crade and Navigation, and the References there, and other proper titles.

Trade and Navigation.

Cases relating to Trade and Navigation.

See major part (A).

I. IF a ship freighted for a voyage be made use of for a longer voy- Four jointage, or for several voyages, in case there be no protest against owners of a it, and the ship suffers any damage in the voyage not allowed of, the damage shall be equally paid. Miege's Laws of Wisby, 15. s. 11. ship, the Arth thip, 3 will navigate the will not, the course is to go into the Admiralty, and there give security to answer for the ship if she be * lost, and they shall be discharged against the other. If one dislike the voyage and doth not expressly probibit nawigating the ship, and the ship goes the voyage and is lost, in such case he shall not be answered his part; but if the ship return, he shall have an account for what is earned, and it shall be intended a voyage with his consent, without any express prohibition proved. As if 4 are tenants in common of land, and one or more flock the land and manage it, the rest shall have an account of the profits; but if a loss come, as if the sheep, &c. die, they shall bear a part. Per North Ld. Keeper. Skin. 230. Hill. 36 &c 37 Car. 2. in Chancery. Anon. ——Vern. 297. pl. 291. Strelly v. Winson, S. C. accordingly. For qui sentit commodum sentire debet & onus.

*[336]

- 2. If there be several owners of a ship and they fall out, the fbip notwithstanding this variance may make one voyage upon their common charge and adventure before they shall be so much as heard to dissolve the partnership; but if after that they cannot agree, he who desires to be free is to offer to the rest his part at a price as he will either give or take, which if he will not do, and yet refuses to fell the ship forthwith, the rest may rig the ship at their own charge and upon the adventure of the refuser so far as his part extends, without any account to be made to him of any part of the profit at her return. But they must bring ber home fase or answer him the value of his part. Molloy, lib. 3. f. 14. cites Lex Mercatoria, 120, 121.
- 3. But if the partners who have the greatest share of the ship refuse to continue the partnership with one who happ but one part or a small share therein, and who without great loss sell or part theretherewith at the price set, nor is able to buy their parts, then they must all put the ship to an appraisement, and so dispose of her by sale, or fetting her forth on the voyage according to such appraisement.

Molloy, lib. 3. f. 14. cites Lex Mercatoria, 120, 121.

4. No subject ought to trade within any realm of infidels without licence of the king, because he may turn insidel. Per Coke Ch. J. and fays, he had feen a licence in E. 3.'s time, reciting that he having special trust and considence that his subject will not decline from his faith and religion, did licence him, &c. 2 Brownl. 296. Hill. 7 Jac. C. B. Michelborn v. Michelborn.

5. In an information the case was that the Russia company was incorporated in 1 and 2 Ph. and Mar. and it was granted to them, that no person not being of their company should trade thither without their leave, under the penalty of forfeiting ship and goods: afterwards by act of parliament 8 Eliz. thefe letters patents were confirmed, and it was enacted, that no person subject or other, should trade thither without their leave. The question was, whether a person free of their company might trade thither without their leave? The Court inclined to be of opinion that he could not; for the great inconvenience was the fingle and separate trade of those of the company, and not of foreigners, who could not trade without leave of the company, and the act is a mere act of creation, and to regulate those of the company who trade separately to the prejudice of the joint-stock; and if it was an act of confirmation, it would be void, because the letters patents themselves are void, being to appropriate a trade which the king cannot do by law. Hard. 108. Hill. 1657. in the Exchequer. The Attorney General v. Alum.

6. In case the plaintiff declared that he was owner of one sixteenth part, and the defendant of another 16th part of the same ship, and that the defendant fraudulently and deceitfully carried the said ship ad loca transmarina, and disposed of her to his own use, by which the plaintiff lost his 16th part to his damage; on not guilty pleaded and verdict for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgment that the action did not lie; for though it be found deceptive, yet this did not help it, if the action did not lie on the subject matter. And here they are tenants in common of the ship; and by Littleton, between tenants in common there is not any remedy, and there cannot be any fraud between them, because the law supposes a trust and confidence betwixt them; and upon these reasons judg-Litt. s. 222. ment was given quod querens nil capiat per billam. Raym. 15.

but it seems Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Graves v. Sawcer.

for s. 323. ---- But see now the statute 4 & 5 Anne, cap. 15. as to tenants in common.

[337] This case was communicated to mie as taken from a MS. Keyling.

Keb. 38.

pl. 102. S. C. accordingly,

and that it was the folly of the tenant

in common,

that he did not take security for collateral his 16th part. ----

Lev. 29.

S. C. cites

misprinted

7. Mr. Skinner's case preserved to the judges from the councilboard. After a petition presented by him to the lords of the council, he stated his case as follows, viz. that in the year 1657, when trade was open to the East Indies and free for all, he fet forth a ship of his own from London and arrived at Jamby in 1658, and pof-Lord Ch. J. sessed himself of a warehouse on the river side, on which his ship rode, wherein he put great part of his goods; he also had possessed a house at Jamby and goods therein, and purchased of the king of

Grat

Great Jamby to him and his heirs the islands of Baretha, and built a house and had contracted for the planting of pepper; that in the year 1657, the agents of the East India Company with above 30 men armed with muskets, swords, and half pikes, set upon his ship, boarded her, and took her; they assaulted and took his warehouse and all his goods on shore, and with above 20 men armed as aforesaid, they assaulted his person at famby and wounded him and took him, broke open his house, spoiled him of his goods and papers, and the said agents, with men armed as aforesaid, did assault the islands of Baretha and possessed themselves of the same, built a house, cut down timber, and do still (as he believes) possess the same; and upon this case he propounded these questions:

1st the faid 12th of April 1665, the king's majesty being prefent, the state of his case was sent to the 2 Lord Ch. Justices, and the Lord Ch. Baron and the rest of the judges then in town, to consider of the said questions and make a report of their judgment thereupon; upon which we met accordingly, and after adment thereupon; upon which we met accordingly, and after advice made the report following.

1st, That we are of opinion that Thomas Skinner in the order mentioned, is not relievable for any of the matters in his case proposed in the constable or marshal's court, they having no jurisdiction in matters of this nature.

2dly, That his majesty's ordinary courts of justice at Westminster can give relief for the taking away and spoiling his ship goods and papers, and assaulting and wounding his person, notwithstanding the same was done beyond the seas.

3dly, That as to the possessing and detaining of the house and islands in the case mentioned, he is not relievable either in the constable and marshal's court, or in any ordinary court of justice.

8. Upon an information tam quam, grounded upon the act of navigation, for importing goods in a foreign ship contrary to that act, the question was, whether or not, if a foreign ship naturalized by the new act, being a prize taken in the late war with Holland, be afterwards sold to a foreigner, who sells her again to an Englishman, whether or no the oath now must be taken again according to the new act. And adjudged that it need not, because that the ship was once lawfully naturalized. Hard. 511. Trin. 21 Car. 2. in the Exchequer, Martin vi Verdew.

o. A bill was brought to be relieved against actions of trespass, for seising their goods in the island of, &c. on the pretence of breaking an inhibition of the king of Denmark, whereas by articles of alliance between the crown of England and Denmark, free trade was allowed to all English in all ports of the kingdom of Denmark, whereof the island was a port; but in regard sentence was given in the court there for the plaintiff on the seisure, the bill was dismissed.

Chan. Cases, 237. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Bluet v. Bampfield.

part-owner of a ship for his share of freight was joint or several at Vol. XX.

bring it alone was sufficient, and one cannot release the other's part. Also if one takes * but a moiety or less of what belongs to his share for freight, yet the other may sue for his whole share of it, and so it was said to be held in the case of coal-merchants; but the matter ended by reference. 3 Keb. 444. pl. 63. Hill. 26 and 27 Car. 2. B. R. Stanley v. Ayles.

11. By the act of navigation 12 Car. 2. c. 18. certain goods are 5 Mod. 193. prohibited to be imported here under pain of forfeiting them, one part S. C. 2djudged acto the king, another to him or them that will inform, seife, or sue for cordingly by the same; and it was adjudged in this case, that the subject may the whole bring detinue for fuch goods as the lord may replevin for the goods Court. — 12 Mod. 92. of his villein distrained; for the bringing the action vests a pro-S. C. adperty in the plaintiff. Salk. 223. Pasch. 8 Will. 3. B. R. Roberts judged. —— And by v. Wetherall. Reckby Te the very offence devests the property, though not then in the plaintiff, yet when the action is brought it is in him by relation. And judgment for the plaintiff. Comb. 361. S. C.

So where there were 37 consenters, and but _ 2 or 3 refusers, the Court denied a prohibition to a fuit in the Admiraity upon the stipulation; for per Curiam, though by the law of England, 2 or 3 partowners may hinder the others from fending the hip a voyage without their consent, yet the law of the

12. Some part-owners of a ship were descrous that she should go to fea, and others would not consent, upon which they procure the ship to be arrested by process out of the Admiralty, and compelled these who intended to fend the ship a voyage to enter into recognizance there, conditioned for her safe return. After which the ship began a voyage and was lost, and upon this the persons bound were sued in the Admiralty. Prohibition was moved for. 1. Because the recognizance not being in nature of a stipulation, the Admiralty had not power to compel the party to enter in it. 2. Because this suit being in nature of debt upon a recognizance, that court had not cognizance of it. But the prohibition was denied by the Court (absent Holt Ch. J.) because this suit is between the part-owners of the ship, and the property is admitted; and therefore it is properly conusable there. 3. If the Admiralty had not power to take such recognizances all navigation must be obstructed if one obstinate part-owner would not confent that the ship should make a voyage; and e contra it is very reasonable that he have security that the ship return in safety, since he does not consent to the voyage. Ex relatione m'ri Shelley. Ld. Raym. Rep. 223. East. 9 W. 3. Lambert v. Aeretree.

Admiralty is otherwise. For there, for the encouragement of navigation, the Court of Admiralty will permit the ship to make the voyage, upon security given to bring her back safe. For it is reasonable that the others who oppose the voyage, should have some security for their ship. Then if the ship be less it is at the peril of the adventurers, and they shall be suable upon their stipulation by the others in the Admiralty; for now it is not doubted, but the Admiralty may take stipulations. Ld. Raym. Rep. 235. Trin. p. W. 3. Blacket v. Ansley.

But where there were 3 owners of the ship called the Upton Galley, 6 were defirms that the ship then lying in the Thames, should go on a voyage to, &c. the other 2 opposed it, thereupon the 6 libetled in the Admiralty against the others in order to obtain a derree of that court, that the ship shall make the voyage, and the same was decreed accordingly; and that the 6 should enter into a sipulation to the other 2 for the safe return of the ship, which they did. The ship sailed and was less in the voyage. The 2 suche other 6, viz. Degrave, and 5 others, on this stipulation in the Admiralty. D. moved for a probibition to stay this suit, upon suggestion of the statute of 13 R. 2. cap. 5. and 15 R. 2. cap. 3. and of the sall before alleged. But the Court thinking this point not sit to be determined on a motion, ordered the plaintiff to take a prohibition, and declare upon it, and then on the desendant's demurrer, the point would come judicially before them, and receive a more solemn determination. But Holt Chi. Justice said, that the Court of Admiralty might take stipulations for bail, and that they might proceed upon them, and

It was constantly allowed, though Co. 4 Inst. 135. is of another opinion; and yet such stipulations are as much within the words of the flatute of Rich. 2. as the recognizance in this case. But the question in this case is, if by the custom of England the Admiralty has not such a jurisdiction; if it has, neither the statute nor common law will restrain them. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1285. East. 6 Ann. Degrave v. Hedges.

For more of Trade and Pavigation in general, see Court of Admiralty, Factor, Fraight, Pypothecation, Mariners mages, and other proper titles.

Traverse.

[339]

(A) Notes and Rules.

Traverse signifies in pleading the denying of some point, matter, or thing alleged on the other side, with an absence. que hoc, that fuch a thing was done or not. Heath's Maxims, 103. cap. 5.

2. When the matter of a plea is not good, there a traverse is not good; by the justices of both benches. Br. Appeal, pl. 122. cites

37 H. 8.

3. Where a perfect bar is pleaded, a traverse makes the plea double; for it requires a double answer. Arg. Litt. Rep. 15. cites 6 Rep. 24. Hellier's case, and 33 H. 6. 18. 22 H. 6. 42. E. 5. 3. Co. Ent. Quare Impedit, 505.

4. If a man pleads in bar, and the plaintiff replies matter in law, he shall never traverse the bar. Arg. Litt. Rep. 15. in case of FENNER V. THE BISHOP OF LONDON, PASVIL AND MICHELSON, cites 5 H. 7. 14. per Hussey.

5. No traverse ought to be taken, but where the thing traversed is issuable. Cro. J. 221. pl. 3. Pasch. 7. Jac. B. R. in case of Bedel v. Lull.

6. When the defendant traveries any part of the plaintiff's count Ld. Raym. or declaration in a quare impedit, it ought to be such part as is both Rep. 41. in inconsistent with the defendant's title, and being found against the plain- WALtiff, does absolutely destroy his title; for if it does not so, however THAM V. inconsistent it be with the defendant's title, the traverse is not well taken; per Vaughan Ch. J. Vaugh. 8. Hill. 17 & 18 Car. 2. Vaugh. 8. C. B. in case of Tuston v. Temple & al.

SPARKES, For if a man will traverse, he ought to traverse that which will reduce the point in debate to a conclusion; and therefore the traversing an imparation merment was ill, and it was so held.

7. If one will take a traverse to a declaration, he ought to traverse that part of it, the doing whereof will make an end of the matter for which the plaintiff declares, and then is the traverse good Pasch. 24 Car. 2. B. R. else not; for then it is to no purpose. 2 L. P. R. 589. tit. Traverse.

8. The effential part of a traverse is but the denial of a material matter alleged by the plaintiff or defendant respectively; the formal part is absque hoc. But that a traverse is good without the words absque hoc, is expressly resolved I Saund. 22. Bennet v. Filkins. Arg. Ld. Raym. Rep. 356. in case of Pullein v. Benson.

[340] Sec (G).

(B) Of the Inducement to a Traverse.

1. A Traverse ought to have an inducement to make it relate to the foregoing matter, or else it is not good and formal. Mich. 22 Car. B. R. for else it cannot be known what is traversed thereby. 2 L. P. R. 587. tit. Traverse.

2. Where the inducement to the traverse is ill, and the traverse is well taken, this is good upon a general demurrer; but upon a special demurrer shewing this for cause, it is naught. 2 L. P. R.

588. tit. Traverse, cites Mich. 5 W. & M.

3. The inducement to a traverse ought always to contain sufficient title, but it is not material whether the matter is true or false. 3 Salk. 353. pl. 5. Pasch. 9 W. 3. Anon. cites Cro. C. 265, 266.

4. Per Holt Ch. J. a man ought to induce his traverse, and the reason is, because he ought not to deny the title of another till he shew some colourable title in himself; for if the title traversed be sound naught, and no colour or right appears for him who traversed, it would happen that no judgment could be given. 3 Salk. 357. pl. 12. Pasch. 9 W. 3. Anon.

g. Where a traverse goes to the matter of a plea, &c. all that went before becomes inducement, and is waived by the traverse; but where a traverse goes to the time only, what was set out in the plea before does not become bare matter of inducement, nor is it waived by the traverse; per Holt Ch. Justice. 2 Salk. 642. pl. 12....

Ann. B. R. Green v. Goddard.

6. Inducement to a traverse is insufficient where the traverse is a thing immaterial. See Comyns's Rep. 302. pl. 155. Mich. 5 Geo. 1. C. B. Newland v. Collins.

8. P. 3 Salk. 353. pl. 5. Parch. 9 W. 3 Anon.

See (5). (C) Traversable, what. Cause; in what Cases.

1. IN assis, if the warranty of the uncle, whose here, &c. is pleaded, it is a good plea that he never had such uncle. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 329. cites 44 Ass. 1.

and B. bad 1001. of the money of the offender, who was sued; and he who was supposed to have the money came and traversed the seuse, inasmuch as it was only an inquest of office. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 321. cites 47 E. 3. 26.

3. Issue was taken enhether bond was taken for 101. parcel of a Br. Contract. contract of 201. or for other cause. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 46. S. C. cites 3 H. 4. 17.

4. If a man removes plaint of replevin out of the king's court for cause, and the defendant tenders to traverse the cause, and the other party demurs, and it is adjudged against him who traverses, this is peremptory, and the plaintiff shall recover; but the court will not suffer the traverse of the cause, unless in ancient demesne, as they said there. Br. Peremptory, pl. 79. cites 27 H. 6. 4.

5. In pracipe quod reddat, a man prayed to be received, and the ether traversed the cause; and this was held jeofail; for he ought to traverse the reversion, and because he did not, therefore it is jeofail, as it was held. Br. Repleader, pl. 42. cites 33 H. 6. 39.

6. Trespass by W. Babington against N. B. quare M. P. prisoner [341] in the Fleet, in custodia querentis apud W. cepit, &c. The defendant said that E. Venor was warden of the fleet at the time of the trespass, and that the prisoner was bound in a recognizance, and that the justices commanded E. Venor the same day to have the prisoner before them, by which the defendant, as servant of the said E. Venor, brought bim to the justices to the court, and carried kim back to the Fleet by command of the same justices, and as he was carrying him in Westminster, the plaintiff took him out of his possession, and he retook bim absque boc that he was warden at the time of the trespass. And by the opinion of the Court it is a good plea; for if he was not warden he cannot have action of the taking. Br. Trespass, pl. 305. cites 4 E. 4. 6. 9.

7. The cause shall be traversed in several cases; as to cleanse the Br. Presentland by reason of tenure, he may say that he has not the land per ment in Courts, pl quam, &c. or that the way is not a highway, or in battery of his 14. cites fervant, to fay that he is not his fervant, &c. Br. Traverse, per, S.-C.

&c. pl. 182. cites 5 H. 7. 3.

8. Where the cause of voucher is shewn, the cause is traversable.

Jenk. 12. pl. 20.

9. The cause why the college of physicians fine and imprison ought to In affault, be certain, for it is traversable; for though they have letters pa- &c. and false imprisontents and act of parliament, yet inasmuch as the party grieved ment against has no other remedy, neither by writ of error nor otherwise, and the censors they are not made judges, nor court given to them, but have authority barely to do it, the cause of their commitment is travers- ficians for able in action of false imprisonment brought against them. 8 Rep. fining and 121. Hill. 7 Jac. per Coke Ch. J. in the conclusion of his argument in Dr. Bonham's case.

of the college of phyimprisoning pro mala prax., they set forth their authority, and shewed the person and fact to be within their jurisdiction as censors; and per Holt Ch. J. this is not traversable in this collateral action, because they are made judges to hear and determine; and therefore not liable to an action for what they do by virtue of their judicial power; and wherever a statute gives a power to fine and imprison, the persons to whom such power is given, are judges of record, and their court is a court of record. Carth. 494. Paich. 11 W. 3. B. R. Dr. Groenvelt v. Dr. Burnel. ———And per Holt, as to that point in Dr. Bonham's case, it is only an opinion delivered, and not a resulution, and is not law. Ibid. Marg. ——Ld. Raym. Rep. 467, 468. S.C. and same points accordingly.——12 Mod. 389. S. C. and same points.——And though the plaintiffs had no remedy in any other court, it does not follow that the fact upon which fuch conviction Cc 3 is grounded is traverlable in a collateral action, because the power which the consors have is given to them by the statute by which they are, as it were, a jury to try the fact whether the pracis is good as not. And if a jury find contrary to evidence, yet no action lies against them, because they are on their oaths; therefore what they find cannot be traversed. Carth. 494. Dr. Groenvelt v. Dr. Burnel & al'.

Raym. 199. S. C. and by Twisden J. the pleading is well, and so is the constant practice.— Vent. 101. HAYMANY. TREVANT, S. C. and the traverse was held

10. An action upon the case brought upon a bargain for corn and grass, &c. The defendant pleads another action depending for the same thing. The plaintiff replies that the bargains were several, absque hoc that the other action was brought for the same cause. The defendant demurs specially; for that he ought to have concluded to the country. It was infifted that when there is an affirmative, they ought to make the next an issue, or otherwise they will plead in infinitum; and accordingly judgment was given for the defendant. 1 Mod. 72. pl. 26. Mich. 22 Car. 2. in B. R. Haman v. Truant.

good, and allowed for putting the matter more fingly in issue,

11. If a sentence of deprivation be pleaded, you need not shew the cause; it is not traversable, even in a visitation, when it is by the visitatorial power. Skin. 485. Trin. 6 W. & M. B. R. in case of Philips v. Bury, cites Rastall's Ent. fol. 1. 11 H. 7. 27, and 7 Co. Kenn's case.

7 Salk. 247. pl. 2. S.C. but S. P. does not appear. L342 J

12. In case for a pound-breach, and taking thence a mare impounded by the plaintiff for damage feasant, the defendant pleaded that he gave the plaintiff 6d. in satisfaction of the trespass, and that plaintiff accepted it, and gave, leave to defendant to take the mare out of the pound, and that he took her accordingly, the gate being open, &c. Plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria absque tali causa. After verdict for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgment that the replication was ill, because the plaintiff should not have traversed the cause generally, but the acceptance in satisfaction. Sed non allocatur; for though fuch issue is improper, and had been ill on demurrer, yet it is aided by the verdict. Ld. Raym. Rep. 104. Mich. 8 W. 3. Cotsworth v. Betison.

13. Cause for which a fine is set, is never traversable. 1 Salk. 397.

Trin. 12 W. 3. B. R. Groenvelt v. Burwell.

See Trespais.

Command.

1. THE command is not traversable unless in special case, where the command determines the interest of the other party. 2 Le. 215. in case of Fuller v. Crimwell, cites 13 H. 7. 12, 13.

2. In replevin, the defendant justifies, for that 7. S. was seifed in fee of the place, &c. where; and that he, as his servant, and by his command, did take the cattle there damage-feasant, and so The plaintiff replies, and confesses it, but says shot justifies. J. D. was seised in see long before, and leased to him at will, absque boc that J. S. did command him for to enter, and to take the cattle. Upon demurrer the only question was touching the validity of the And by the whole Court it was ruled good; for the plain-4

See Thorn v. Shering. -Mann. Secundary informed the Court, that if it had bren incase of a lease for years, or for life, plaintiff in this case could not traverse any other matter but the then in such command. And so judgment was given for the plaintiff. 1 Bulst. a case the 189. Pasch. 19 Jac. Horne v. Harrison.

other ought to have been graverled, and not the command; and so it has been here adjudged before, but otherwise in case of a lease at will, as in this case; the Court agreed in this. I Bulk. 189.

3. In conusance for rent in replevin by bailiff, the command is not traversable, because that goes to the right. But in conusance for damage-feasant, the command is travertable in replevin; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the Court. Raym. Rep. 310. Hill. 9 W. 3. in case of Britton v. Cole.

(E) Dates and Delivery of Deeds.

1. DEBT against the successor of a parson upon a grant of his predecessor of an annuity with penalty for non-payment, and confirmation of the patron and ordinary, which bore date before the grant, and he declared the first delivery to be 4 days after the grant; and the defendant said that it was delivered the day that if bore date. And the opinion was, that it is no plea without traversing that it was not delivered after the grant; for it seems that the day is not traversable, but whether it was delivered after the grant, or not. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 59. cites 8 H. 6. 6. And so is 37 H. 6. 17, 18.——And see Fitzh. Bar. 131. the plea not good for default of traverse. Ibid.

2. Where the deed is pleaded, bearing date such a day, and the first delivery another day, and the other pleads release mesne, this is no plea without traversing the first delivery, &c. Per Judicium. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 186. cites 1 E. 4. 9. and Fitzh. Bar. 131. and 18 H. 6. 8.

3. And, per Townsend and Brian, if a man be bound the first [343] day of May, and the obligee makes an acquittance to him bearing date before the bond, and delivers it after the bond, in debt, if he pleads this release bearing date before, and that it was first delivered after, he shall not traverse; and yet it shall be intended, that the release was delivered as it bears date prima facie; but the declaration of the delivery destroys the intent; quod nota. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 186. cites 7 E. 4. 9. and Fitzh. Bar. 131. and 18 H. 6. 8.

4. In quare impedit the plaintiff counted that W. N. was seised, and presented J. S. his clerk, who at his presentation, &c. and after, by his deed dated the first day of May, W. N. granted the next presentation to the plaintiff; and after J. S. died, by whose death the church is now void, and so it belongs to the plaintiff to present, and the defendant disturbed him. And the defendant said, that true it is, that W. N. granted to the plaintiff by deed, dated the first of May, Se. but this was first delivered the fourth day, Sc. before which day the said W. N. granted to the defendant the next presentation, &c. And no plea, per Rede, Fineux, and Vavisor, because he did not traverse the plea, that the deed was not delivered the first day of May; C¢4 for for it shall be intended, that it was delivered the day that it bore date, if other matter is not shewn to the contrary, as to allege primo deliberatum alio die, &c. But Keble, Bryan, and Townsend contra; for the writ is but supposal, and therefore the bar, which is the matter in fact, is good without traverse; for he has confessed and avoided it. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 186. cites 5 H. 7. 26.

Ld. Raym. Rep. 349. S. C. and it was debt on a bail bond. And ibid. 356. Holt Ch. J. said, that non antea would be a traverse in some cases, and that judgment was given for the plaintiff by the whole Court, for want of the traveric.-

5. In delt on bond the plaintiff declared, that the defendant, 20 die Novemb. acknowledged himself indebted, &c. The desendant pleaded, that the bond was first delivered 30 Novemb. & non antea; and shews, the writ on which he was in custody was returnable quind Martini, so that the bond was taken after there turn; and then relies on the stat. H. 6. The plaintiff demurred, and had judgment. The Court agreed, that mere matter of supposal, matter alleged out of due time, or immaterially alleged, is not traversable; but they held the 20 Novemb. to be an express allegation, and that the but not here; defendant's plea had made it material; for the validity of this bond turned wholly on the day of the delivery, so the defendant should have traversed the delivery on the 20th. And the Court held the non antea no traverse, because it is what cannot be rested upon, but the party must disclose further matter before he comes to conclude. 2 Salk. 628. pl, 2. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Pullen v. Benfon.

Ibid. 356. is a note at the bottom of the page, that Mr. Jacob faid, the reason Holt Ch. J. gave was, that in this case one cannot conclude to the country, beause there ought to be other matter alleged to make the date material; otherwise where that is the single matter of the plea. ------12 Mod. 204, 205. S. C. and per tot. Cur. the plea was held ill; for here the date was material; for suppose the arrest was before the return of the writ, and after the return of the writ he took an ante-dated bond, this bond is woid; and therefore the date is material, and ought to be traverfed; wherefore the plaintiff had judg--3 Salk. 352. pl. 2. S. C. by the name of Buller v. Benson accordingly.

(F) Day or Time.

1. IN trespass the defendant justified for common, and the " L 344 J plaintiff would have traversed whether he had common the + Br. Trespaís, pl. 106. day of the taking or not. But per Curiam, the day is not tracités 5 H. 5. versable in writ of + trespass, nor in ‡ replevin, without special matter 7. S.P. shewn. Contra, if he *has common there once in the year, and Br. Traverse, per, not all the year. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 44. cites 2 H. 4. 24. &c. pl. 54. cites S. C.

In replevin the defendant avoived for rent-fervice, &c. The plaintiff replied, that the taking was wolle ejusdem diei. The defendant rejoined, that it was tempore diurno absque boc, that it was nolle ejusdem diei. The plaintist demorred, pretending that the traverse ought to be absque hoc quod cepit mode & forma, &c. generally; for that the day is not material in this action, nor in trespass. But resolved, absente Haughton, that the traverse is good; for where the parties are agreed on the day, as in this case, it is not sufficient, if found to be done at [another] day; but where they do not agree upon the day, if it be found or proved on any other day, it is fufficient; and there the traverse ought to be general, mode. & forma. And in this case the defendant has not made the day material by his plea, that the distress was made in the night; and for rent-fervice he cannot diffrain in the night, as he may for damaga feafant, and therefore ought to have averred in tempore diurno. And so judgment was affirmed. Palm. 280. Paích. 20 Jac. B. R. Heyden v. Godsale.——Palm. 150. S. C. but not S. P.—— Hob. 265. S. C. but not S. P. — Godb. 247. pl. 345. S. C. but not S. P. — 2 Bulk. 159. S.C. but not S. P. ——Cro. J. 334. S. C. but not S. P.

> , 2. Debt against a feme, the plaintist counted of 10 l. that the defendant bought of him a bond of 20 l, in subich N. her baron was bound:

and counted, that she for 10 l. bought of him the bond the 2d of July, such a year; and she said, that she bought it of him the first day of July in the year aforesaid, at which time she was covert of baron of the same N. absque hoc that she bought it the day in the count; and held a good plea. Quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 69. cites

19 H. 6. 9.

3. Where a man is bound to enter into such land peaceably before Michaelmas so that the plaintiff may bring essise against him, and he says, that such a day before the feast be entered peaceably; this is a good plea. But if the other says, that such a day the defendant entered by force, absque hoc, that he entered peaceably the day in the bar, this is not a good replication, for the day is not traversable; but shall say, that he entered with force absque hoc, that he entered peaceably; guod nota. And per Prisot, it is sufficient for the defendant to say that he entered peaceably before Michaelmas, without expressing any day; and the other may say that he entered with force absque hoc, that he entered peaceably, Prout, &c.. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 140. cites 37 H. 6. 17.

4. Where the justification of the defendant lies in a special matter, there the plaintiff has election to maintain the traverse of the time, or to traverse the special matter; as in trespass anno 7. the defendant pleads a release anno 6. absque hoc, that he was guilty after the release; there the plaintiff may say non est factum, without maintaining the day or time; for if it be not his deed, he is not guilty any day. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 230. cites 10 E. 4. 2.

5. In ejectment the defendant intitled himself by a copy granted Yelv. 122. 44 Eliz. The plaintiff intitled bimself by copy granted 1 June S.C. and a The defendant maintained his bar, and traversed absque boc, that the queen I June 43 Eliz. granted the land by copy, modo & Yelverton, forma, &c. The Court held, that the day ought not to be made material, unless the queen had granted by copy before the grant to the defendant; and the traversing the day, where it ought indifferently not, is matter of substance; because thereby he makes it parcel of the issue, which should not be. And so adjudged for the day or the plaintiff. Cro. J. 202. pl. 2. Hill. 5 Jac. B. R. Lane v. Alex- other, there ander.

diversity Was taken by Arg. that wbere the alt done may be intended at the one the day is not traveri-

As in case of feofiment by deed such a day, there the day of the seofiment is not traversable, because it passes by the livery, and not by the deed; and the livery is the substance, and the day only sur-Plusage. But tobere a man makes his title by a special kind of conveyance, as in this case by a copy, there all contained in the copy is material, and the party cannot depart from it; for he cannot claim by any other copy than that which is pleaded. As 18 H. 6. 14. in action against J. S. for taking bis forward, and counts by deed on Monday in such a speek; it is no good plea to say, that the retainer was the Friday after, absque bec, that the plaintiff retained him the Monday. And so of letters patents, the day and place are traverlable, becaylo they are the especial conveyance of the party, from which he cannot de-But per tot. Cur. the day is not traversable; but whether the queen granted a copy to the lessor of the plaintiff before the copy granted to the defendant, and so the traverse should be absque hoc, that the queen ted modo & forms to the lessor of the plaintiff; and that the law is the same as to letters patents. But Fenner J. contra, for the reason rendered by Velverton. And by him and the Ch. J. It is aided by statute 18 Elia. because it is only form; for if the jury find a prior grant to the lessor of the plaintiff, though at another court, it suffices, and consequently the day is not material in substance. But Williams J. contra; and adjudged by all but Fenner, that the traverse is ill; for thereby the jurors will be bound to find a copy at luch a day, which ought not to be; and also it is matter of substance † not sided by the flatute of 18 Elis. ——Brownl. 140. S. C. but seems a translation of Yelv. 122. ---- S. C. cited a Mod. 145. Arg. in cash of Brown v. Johnson.

† See Holbech v. Bennet, at tit. Time (G) pl. s.

[[345]

6. Where a traverse makes a day parcel of the issue, it is ill; 28 where plaintiff declared of a judgment obtained in such court on 1st May, and defendant traverses such judgment obtained on 1st May. Lev. 193. Mich. 18 Car. B. R. Dring v. Respass.

Sec (P) pl. 33. & 2Z.

Inducement.

S.P. 3 Salk. 357. pl. 12. Anon

1. THE inducement to a traverse can never be traversed, because that would be a traverse after a traverse, which would be not only infinite but abfurd; because it would be to quit his own title, and fall upon the title of another. 3 Salk. 353. pl. 5. Pasch. 9 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

Jo. 92. pl. 5. Hill. 1 Car. S. P. in the 5th refolution, in cale of Veale v. Gatesdon. — For the cowin is the material thing. Arg.

2. Debt against an executor, who pleaded several judgments in bar, &c. The plaintiff replied, that the judgments were satisfied, and kept on foot by covin, to deceive the plaintiff. The defendant traversed the satisfaction of the judgments. The plaintiff demurred, because the satisfaction was but an inducement to the fraud and covin, and matter of inducement shall never be traversed; and judgment was given accordingly for the plaintiff. Latch. 111. Hill. 1 Car. Beaumont's case.

Hard. 70. in case of the Protector v. Holt, cites it as adjudged Hill. 1 Car. B.R. [and seems to intend Beaumont's case.

See Show. Park Cafes, 219, 220. 5. C.

3. The king may not traverse the inducement to a traverse more than a subject; and though it is said in the old books that the king may traverse the inducement, this is to be understood upon an office found; for heretofore the subject could not traverse the king's title found by office, without inducing his traverse with a title on his part; in which case the king might traverse the inducement of the subject's title, but in no other, and so are the books to be understood. But if the traverse be ill, there the king may traverse the inducement, and so may a subject. Per Holt Ch. J. Skin. 657. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. The King v. the Bishop of Chester.

(H) Intention.

S. P. docs mot appear.

1. THE taking insufficient bail, with intent to defraud the plaintiff of his just debt, is not a matter traversable, and theretore ought not to be answered. Sid. 96. pl. 24. Mich. 14 Car. 2. B. R. Bentley v. Hore.

2. Trespass, &c. for breaking his close called the balk and the hade, and cutting and carrying away his grass. The defendant disclaimed any title in the plaintiss land; but said, that he had a balk and hade next the plaintiff's; and in mowing his own, he involuntarily, and by mistake, mowed some grass growing on the plain-[346] tiff's balk and hade, intending only to mow the grafs on his own balk and hade, and carry it away, quæ est eadem, &c. and that, before the writ sued out, he tendered 2s. in satisfaction, &c. And upon demurrer the plaintiff had judgment, because it appears, the fact was voluntary; and intentions are not traversable, nor can they be known. 3 Lev. 37. Mich. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Basely v. Clerkson.

3. Intention of an indenture is not traversable, because the Court cannot know it but only by the words in the indenture.

3 Lev. 167. Trin. 36 Car. 2. Kidder v. West.

4. Intention in some cases is traversable, as if A. be indebted to B. by bond and by simple contract, and pays money to B. the intention to which debt it shall be applied, is traversable. 1 Salk 196. Mich. 5 W. and M. B. R. Griffith v. Harrison.

Matter or Thing alleged, or Matter or Thing not alleged.

1. A N absque hoc ought to be taken to a thing expressly alleged before, It is a rule and is induced with a former plea, viz. ut prius dicit, where a man shell he has shewn a cross matter contrary to the plea of the plaintiff. D. 355. b. pl. 33. Mich. 21 and 22 Eliz. in Sir Fra. Leak's cafe.

in law, that a man shell never traverie that which is not alleged in the plaintiff's declaration. Per Holt Ch. Justice. Ld. Raym. Rep. 64. Mich. 7 W. 3. in case of Powers and Cook.

Where a traverse is taken of a matter not alleged it is but form. Ld, Raym. Rep. 238. in case of Lambert v. Cook.

2. A man cannot traverse disseisin with force, and detainer with force, where the plaintiff alleges disseisin with force only; the reason feems to be that he shall not traverse that which is not alleged.

Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 146. cites S. C.

3. In trespass upon 5 R. 2. the defendant said that W. was seised and infeoffed him, and gave colour to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff said that W. was seised and infeoffed him, absque hoc, that he infeoffed the defendant before that he infeosfed him, et non allocatur; for he traverses that which is not alleged in the bar, by the opinion; by which he faid that W. infeoffed him, and after disseised him contrary to his own feoffment, and infeoffed the defendant, upon whom he entered, and was feifed till the trespass; and there it is faid that a que estate is traversable if both parties claim by one and the same man. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 231. cites 10 E. 4. 6.

4. Assumpsit, the defendant granted to the plaintiff 1000 trees to be cut within 3 years, and afterwards they agreed that when the plaintiff bad cut 800 no more should be cut within the 3 years, and that defendant promised, after the expiration thereof, in consideration of forbearance till after the 3 years, to give the plaintiff licence to cut them then, which he refusing, the plaintiff brought this action. The defendant pleaded, that before the promise supposed to be made, the plaintiff had cut down 1000 trees, absque hoc, that at the time of the promise he had cut down 800 trees only, &c. Upon demurrer it was objected, that the traverse was idle, and the plea had been good without any; for his saying that he had cut 1000 trees was a full answer, and would make an iffue. But per tot. Cur. the traverle is good; for the plaintiff by alleging the cutting 800 trees only, which is a matter issuable, has given advantage to the defendant to traBowers v.

adjudged,

Cook. S.C.

that the de-not traverse that the was ever administered as fuch.

3. B. R.

S. C. and

Carth. 363. Mich. 7 W. verse, as he has done; for every matter in fact alleged by the plaintiff may be traversed, and defendant by way of traverse may answer the matter * alleged in the same words as the plaintiff alleged them; and then the plaintiff by demurrer upon the bar has confessed the cutting 1000 trees which was his full bargain, and so no consideration to ground the assumpsit upon. Yelv. 195. Mich. 8 Jac. B. R. Tatem and Poulter v. Perient.

5. The matter alleged by the king in a writ of ne exeas regnum is not traversable. Comb. 53. in case of Merchant Adventurers

v. Rebow. Arg. cites 3 Inst. 179. D. 176.

6. Escape, the defendant pleads recaption upon fresh pursuit. The plaintiff replies, de injuria sua propria absque hoc that he retook, &c. upon fresh pursuit, et adhuc detinet. The defendant demurs, and shews for cause, that the plaintiff had traversed matter not alleged in the plea, viz. quod adhuc detinet, which ought not to be; for if the defendant has fuffered J. S. to escape a month after the recaption, yet the plaintiff shall be barred by the recaption for the old escape, and shall have a new action for the new escape: quod Holt Ch. Just. negavit, for both are but one escape. Judgment for the plaintiff. Mr. Nott. 1 Ld. Raym. Rep. 39. East.

7 W 3. Meriton v. Briggs.

7. But in debt upon an obligation against the defendant as executrix g Mod. 136. of J. S. the defendant pleaded that J. S. died intestate, and that administration was committed to her, and petit judicium si ipsa ad billam prædict. respondere debeat, &c. Upon this the plaintiff demurred, and insisted that the defendant should have traversed absfendant need que hoc, that she intermeddled before administration committed to her; executrix, or for if she did, she made herself liable as a tort executrix; and cited 3 Cro. 566. 810. 102. 3 Leon. 197. Yelv. 115. Brownl. 97. Holt Ch. J. and Cur. fuch a traverse had been ill; for fuch intermeddling is not alleged, and the defendant ought not to traverse that which the plaintiff does not allege in his declaration. 1 Salk. 298. pl. 9. Trin. 9 Will. 3. B. R. Powers v. Coot.

per Cur. the plea is better without such traverse. Ld. Raym. Rep. 63. Powers v. Cook, accordingly per Holt Ch. J. _____ Salk. 297. pl. 8. Mich. 7 W. 3. in B. R. Fowler v. Cooke, S. P. and seems to be S. C.

Names, &c.

1. IN precipe quod reddat R. G. came and tendered his law of nonfummons, and at the day came one R.G. ready to have made bis law, and the demandant said, that he is son of the tenant and of the same, and a good averment, and the demandant had judgment to recover, for the father shall not change his name for the son; but per Herle, if the son be tenant and be ousted by this judgment he shall have assize. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 349. cites 9 E. 3. 20.

2. If a man brings action, as warden of a prison, parson of a Br. Trespass, pl. 305. cites church, abbot, or the like, and the action is founded by this name; it is a good plea that he is not worden or parson, or is not abbot; S. C. cited but. but he makes title pro forma, absque hoc that the plaintiff is war- Arg. Lene, den, parson, or abbot, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 334. cites Richards v. 4 E. 4. 6. 9.

3. A man was outlawed and taken as mainpernor, and said that he was dwelling at another vill absque hoc, that he was ever mainpernor, and per Cur. he shall not have such traverse; but may fay that there were 2 of the name, and the other was mainpernor and not he. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 317. cites 21 E. 4. 71.

4. In trover and conversion of barley, defendant pleaded that the dean, archdeacon, president, and chapter of L. were seised of a parsonage in fee, and by the same name leased it to him. Plaintiff replied that the archdeacon and chapter of L. were seised in see, and leased it [348] to him, absque hoc, that there was any such corporation as dean, archdeacon, president, and chapter; the desendant demurred. The point was argued. Tanfield Ch. B. seemed to think the traverse was not good; but Baron Herne seemed that it was; but he was once of counsel with the plaintiff; and it was moved that the case should be compounded. Lane, 18. Pasch. 4 Jac. in the Exchequer. Richards v. Williams.

5. The defendant was fued by the name of John; and he pleaded, that he was baptized by the name of Benjamin; and traversed, that ipse idem Johannes was ever known by the name of John; and upon a general demurrer Holt Ch. J. said, this traverse is repugnant in itself, and very immaterial, for it had waived the precedent matter of baptism, which was well pleaded, and was now become the substance of the plea itself, for now the issue must be by what name the defendant was called or known, and not by what name he was baptised; whereas he ought to have replied on his name of baptism and concluded with it without a traverse; for a man can have but one name, therefore it implies a negative in itself, without saying he was never known by the name of John, &c. 3 Salk. 351, 352. pl. 1. Hill. 1 Ann. Anon.

(L) Offices, Presentments, &c.

1. FALSE presentment taken before justices in a forest was tra. Br. Forest, versed in B. R. and scire sacias thereupon against the party S. C. who made the claim before the justices of the forest. Br. Scire But present-Facias, pl. 105. cites 21 E. 3. 48.

ment before justices of the forest in sevanimote by foresters, verderors, regarders, and agisters is not traversable before justices in eyre. Br. Presentments in Courts, pl. 4. cites 45 E. 3. 7. - Br. De son Tort. pl. 7. cites S. C. Presentment before a steward of a forest and verderors, or in a * leet is not traversable, per Thorpe, if it does not souch franktenement or inheritance, and then he ought to make title, and not to traverse it generally. And so it seems always that he who will traverse egainst the hing shall make title. Br. Assis. pl. 459. cites 50 E. 3. and Fitzh. Assis, 442. * See pl. 6.

2. If a man flies for felony which is found before the coroner, this shall not be traversed; for this is an ancient law of the coroner; contra to say that he was not felo de se, this may be traversed. Br. s. c._ Corone, pl. 150. cites 8 E. 4. 4.

Br. Traverie de Office, pl. 36. cites The coroner's inquie stion finds a man felo de se. The question was, whether or no this was traversible? And the Court incline

Viz. That

inclined that it was; for (per Hale) the reason why an inquisition, that finds a fugam fecit, is not traversable is, because all the parties that were present at the death of the party are bound to attend the coroner's inquest, and their not appearing there is a flying in law, and cannot be contradicted; but that reason does not hold in felo de se. Freem. Rep. 419. pl. 556. Mich. 1675. Anon.—2 Lev. 22. Mich. 27 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Aldenham, such traverse was granted by Hale, Twisden, and Wild, silente Rainsford; but it was said that a sugam secit sound before the coroner is not traversable.

3. The statute which gives traverse is only of ward, and of fine for alienation, which are only chattles, and of those there was no traverse at common law; but of franktenement, traverse was at common law.

law. Br. Petition, pl. 15. cites 9 Ed. 4. 51.

before the flatutes of tle, Br. Petit 34 [E. 3.

4. Note, it was touched that traverse of a thing real was not at common law, but petition or monstrans de droit. Contra of chattle. Br. Petition, pl. 30. cites 13 E. 4. 8.

Ast. 1. cap. 14.] and 36 E. 3. [Stat. 1. cap. 13.]

[349] 5. The attorney of the king, when a man traverses an office, may maintain the office, or traverse the title of the plaintiff, though the plaintiff after his title traversed the office. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 246. cites 13 E. 4. 7.

Br. Present. 6. Presentments of nusance, or in leets, &c. which touch the perment in Son, and do not touch any franktenement, shall not be traversed.

Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 183. cites 5 H. 7. 3.

S. C.—

But if they touch franktenement, there a traverse lies. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 183. cites 5 H. 7. 3.

And in cases where process shall be made, there lies a traverse thereof; which Brooke says seems to be good reason; for it is in vain to make process, if the party shall not have answer when he comes. Br.

Traverse, per, &c. pl. 183. cites 5 H. 7. 3.—Br. Presentment in Courts, pl. 15. sites S. C.

It was said by Hale Ch. J. that if there be a presentment in a leet for a personal misdemeanor, or in a swanimote concerning wert or wenison, if it pass that day it is a conviction, and conclusive; but if it be for a nusance, or any matter that concerns freehold, the party may come afterwards and traverse.

Freem. Rep. 339. pl. 422. Trin. 1673. Anon.

Per Wild: The presentment in leet is not traversable, unless the same day, because every refiant is presumed present. Twisden J. contra; where freebold is in question, presentment may be traversed at any time; and so where remedy is given in leet by statute. 3 Keb. 646. pl. 62. Pasch. 28 Car. 2. B.R. Elliot v. Bluck.—See the note to pl. 1.

- 7. An office is found, that A. died seised of the manner of B. and held the same in capite by knight service, his heir within age; this office is traversed that A. infeossed him, who traverses, in see, and traverses the dying seised: whereupon the king takes is ue, and hanging the traverse it is found by another office, that the said seossement was by collusion, and after the issue was found against the king s whereupon by the rule of the Court, the party had judgment, and an amove manum; for the office, found depending the traverse shall not grieve the party, for so he might be infinitely vexed; but in a sci. sa. by the king upon the latter office, he shall answer, &c. (An excellent case for the benefit and speed of them that are given to traverse.) 2 Inst. 693. cites 11 H. 4. f. 8. 13 H. 4. tit. Traverse, 16. and 13 H. 4. tit. Livery, 21. 13 H. 4. 6, 7. tit. Traverse.
- .8. It was found by office, that A. died seised of estate tail, which descended to B. his son and heir. This office was traversed, absque hoc that he died seised of estate tail; and found for the king in B. R. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that the dying seised of estate tail is not traversable, but the gift according to 15 E. 4. 2. 14 H. 7. 22. 15 H. 6. by which it was an ill issue; and this is not aided by the statute of jeofails, it being in case of the king, and not between party and party. But it was resolved per tot. Cur. that the traverse here is good; for it is the office intitles the king to the wardship, and not the gift; and the effect of the office ought to be traversed, because it is not the right of the party that gives wardship to the king, but his dying in possession; for were it not for the statute 32 H. 8. which gives to the king the 3d part after alienation, there ought to be a dying seised of the tenant to intitle the king to the ward; but in an action which questions the right of the tail, as formedon, there the gift only is traversable. And judgment for the king. Palm. 330. Hill.

20 Jac. B. R. Young's cafe.

9. It was found by office, that A. was seised of Bl. Acre in M. * [350] and Wh. Acre in N. held in socage; and also of a piece of ground in- 2 Roll Rep. . closed out of the manor of O. and that A. had 5 daughters, and that King v. J. S. married one of them, and found the descent of the lands, &c. SUMMERS. J. S. traversed the office in 3 points. 1st, He pleaded demise S.C. and in [devise] to him by A. absque hoc that the lands descended. Several same with exceptions were taken to it. 1st, Because the heir shall not be re- this of Pale. ceived to traverse his own title found for him; and cites + 27 Aff. 1. that the heir may traverse the tenure, but not his title; and that this is often put for a rule in Staund. Prerog. and Dyer, 366. places it [Vernon's case] accordingly. 2dly, That the traverse is repug- would be nant, because he did not plead entry after the demise [devise] and fo it descends; and that therefore he should have pleaded the de- meaning mise [devise] *without taking traverse. 3dly, That as to the lands inclosed, it is not good to say absque hoc, that they descended, with- But in Roll out making title to himself. 4thly, That all the coheirs ought to join it is (devise) by the common law, and the statutes which give traverse, give it to all that are grieved, and they ought to join; and cites (device). 42 Aff. 23. of jointenants. 5thly, That the venire fac. was from M. N. and the manor of O. whereas it ought not to be from the manor of O. because the parcel of ground is severed from it by the diffeisin. But it was resolved by Lea Ch. J. and Doderidge and Haughton J. for the plaintiff as to all, and they faid, ist, that the I venire is good; for the possession only is severed from the manor, that it but this parcel is not severed in right by the diffeifin, nor is the should be situation altered thereby. 2dly, That & descent may be traversed, and cited 5 Eliz. D. 221. that this prevents remitter; and so 49 E. 3. Cooch's case of escheat. 3dly, That he may traverse Roll's Rep. the descent in this case, || without making title, and that for the mischief which otherwise might happen; for the office here is no found a seisin of the socage land, and of parcel held in capite, whereas in truth he did not die seised of this parcel; so that if the disseisee [devisee] cannot traverse it, his devise shall be de- cel was (instroyed for 2 parts; and therefore he shall not be constrained to make title. 4thly, The coheirs need not all join in the traverse, it being to their disadvantage, and J. S. claims as purchasor to their nor), and disinheritance. But had he claimed as heir, all should join, be-therefore cause almost the but so much milprinted, that in foote difficult to find out the without the help of Palen. throughout, as Palmier it † 2 Roll Rep. cites 37 Ast. pl. E. But both the books feets to be misprinted and 1 And 2 351. Haughton J. said certainty. but only that the parclosed out of the walks of the ma-

when issue

cause they claim by the same title. Palm. 372. Trin. 21 Jac. is joined thereupon, B. R. Sumner's case. the venue ought to come de manerio, fince it cannot be from any other place, to try this part of the iffue. Godb. 410. pl. 489. Summers's CASE, S. C. and by Doderidge J. regularly you shall not traverse the discent, but the dying seised. But in this case it ought to be of necessity, vis. in case of a devise the traverse must be of the discent; for here they cannot traverse the dying seised, for if they traverse the dying seised, then they overthrow their own title, viz. the devise. But here in case of a will, the party shall traverse the discent; for he cannot say, that it is true that the lands did descend, and that he devised it, &c. The heir cannot traverse that which entitles him by descent; but here his title is by the devise, and not as heir.

I Though the rule is generally true, yet here it does not hold by reason of the mischief; for the case is not that the father died seised of socage lands, and devised them to J. S. or to his eldest daughter, having 5 daughters, and died; but the office finds that A. was feifed of this and other lands in capita, when in truth he did not die seised. 2 Roll. Rep. 351, 352.

Het.71.S.C. CHICHES-LIY V. THE Bienop of ELY, but S. P. does not appear. --- Hutt. 96. 5. C. adjudged that the title of the plaintiff being traversed, it ought to have been maintained ; and that it that the king is entitled to this presentation, though no office had been; and fo the denial of the office not material. And the defendant had judgment. [351]

10. Quare impedit; the plaintiff shewed that A. was seised in see of the advowson, as in gross, and presented M. and died seised, which descended to B. the plainiff's husband, who 9 Mar. 8 Jac. by a deed granted it to D. and E. in fee to the use of the plaintiff for ber jointure, and after of himself in tail, and died seised, and that the church became void by the death of M. and so she ought to present. The defendant said he was parson imparsonee of the presentation of the king, and shewed, that the plaintiff's busband died seised in fee, as of an advowson in gross, and of the manor of P. his son and heir within age, holden of the king by knights service in capite, and that an office found the tenure and descent; whereupon the king was seised, and presented the defendant, who was instituted and inducted, absque hoc, that the bufband granted the advowson to D. and E. The plaintiff traversed the inappears fully quisition. It was holden by the Court in this case, that inasmuch as 2 titles are comprised in the bar for the king, viz. the dying seised within age, and the tenure by knight's service, whereby the wardship is vested in the king, and a title to present without office; therefore in the replication they both ought to be answered, and it was not sufficient to traverse the inquisition, but the plaintiff ought to have answered to the tenure, and to the descent alleged of the manor, if the defendant had relied upon them; but because the defendant did not rely upon them, but made them inducements to the traverse of the grant, which is the plaintiff's title, that title ought to be maintained, and not to traverse the inducements to that traverse; and therefore adjudged for the defendant. Cro. C. 104. pl. 6. Hill. 3 Car. in C. B. The Lady Chichesley v. Thompson and the Bishop of Ely.

(M) Of the Place. Necessary. In what Cases.

So in trefpas ; per Fitsjohn; quære inde ; for it seems to be local. Br. Ibid.

1. A PPEAL of maybem in the ward de Cheap; the defendant said that the said day and year the plaintiff offaulted him in Cornbill ward, and the ill which he had was de son assault demesne, and in defence of the defendant; and a good plea without traverfing the maybem in the other ward, by award; for the trespass is the effect, and not the place. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 173. cites 41 Aff. 21.

2. 4

2. In dower it was faid, that in pracipe quod reddat in D. it is no plea that the land is in S. if he does not traverse absque hoc that it is in D. for it is alleged in the writ, and that which is contrary to the writ ought to be traversed. Br. Traverse, per, &c.

pl. 124. cites 9 E. 4. 16.

3. Replevin of taking in White-acre in D. Pigot said that Whitevacre is in S. and made avowry for damage-seasant to have return. Per Cur. you thall say absque hoc that W. is in D. and so he did; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 308. cites 20 E. 4. 2.

4. In debt upon a bond made at B. it is a good plea that it was And in temade at S. without saying absque hoc that it was made at B. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 279. cites 22 E. 4. 39.

tion upon retainer in one county, the defendant may fag that be was retained in another county, without traversing the first county. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 279. cites 22 E. 4. 39.

5. There is a diversity between trespass and replevin; for in teplevin the place is traversable; for where he declares in one place, and the defendant avows in another place, there he ought to traverse the taking in the place in the declaration. Contrary in trespass; per Brian and Starkey. Br. Trespass, pl. 369. citès 22 E. 4. 50.

6. In replevin of goods taken in the parish of St. M. the defendant avowed the taking in the parish of St. P. and therefore was held ill, because he ought to have traversed the taking in the place alleged in the count. 2 Lutw. 1147. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. Petree v.

Duke.

(N) Of the Place. Good; in what Cases.

1. IN debt, the plaintiff counted that the defendant retained him at B. in the county of K. to serve him in the war in France, where B. was in France, and yet good; for the place is not traversable. Br. Count, pl. 94. cites 48 E. 3. 2, 3.

2. In debt upon a duty due by the king, assigned to him by tally de- But contra, livered, he counted, that he such a day, place, and county, shewed to where bejusthe customer the tally, at which time he had enough to pay, and would not. To which the defendant said, that such a day in April he shewed and traverses to him the tally, at which time he had nothing, nor ever after; absque hoc, that he shewed the tally before this day, and well. Br. first county Traverse, per, &c. pl. 18. cites 27 H. 6. 9.

tifies in another county, the first county; for the 18 parcel of the iffue.

Therefore there the place and county shall be shewn in the bar in this case; but in the other case he * need not to thew the place nor county in the bar, and then it shall be intended to be where the plaintiff has counted by his count; per Cur. quod miror. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 18. cites 17 H. 6. 9. ---- S. P. Heath's Max. 108. cap. 5. cites 27 H. 6. 1. 43 E. 3. 29. 7 H. 6. 35. 9 H. 6. 50. 71. 21 H. 6. 8, 9.

3. Nusance, that he levied a mill in D. in the county of K. to the Contra of nusance of his frank-tenement in the same vill. The defendant said, that he and all his ancestors, &c. have been seised of a mill in D. in away, which the county of E, and the mill fell by tempest, and he re-edified it, as may be conlawfully he might; absque hoc, that he is guilty of any nusance in Vol. XX.

[352] battery, or goods carried tinued, and are trans-

D. in the county of K. and did not traverse all the county. And yet tory, there he shall trawell, per tot. Cur. because the thing is local, and annexed to the verse all the county. Br. frank-tenement. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 252. citès 18 E. 4. 1.

And accordingly in trespass for damage feasant; the same year, fole 11. ibid.

Heath's Max. 109. cap. 5. cites S. C. and fays, that always in replevin the place of the taking is -traveriable.

4. In replevin of taking at W. in the county of O. in a place called P. the plaintiff said, that the taking was in P. in the vill of O. Absque hoc, that he took them.in W. Keeble said, the traverse is not good; for it extends to the vill, and not to the place. But by the opinion of the Court, the traverse is as well to the vill as to the place; but a man cannot plead misnosmer of the place, but he may well traverse the place. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 386. cites 16 H. 7. 7.

Heath's s. c.

5. Action for making false cloths in Bartholomew-fair against the cap. 5. cites flatute. The other said, that he made them well and truly at D. in the county of F. Absque hoc, that he made them in Bartholomewfair in L. prout, &c. and a good plea. Br. Traverse, per, &c.

pl. 368. cites 34 H. 8.

4 Le. 4. pl. 14. and 106. pl. 17. S. C. accordingly, the same words.

6. Trover, &c. for goods in Ipswich. The defendant pleaded, that the goods came to his hands at Dunwich in the same county; and that the plaintiff gave him the goods, which came to his bands at Dunwich; and in much absque hoc, that he was guilty of any trover, &cc. at Ipswich. by the opinion of the Court the pleading is good, by reason of the special justification. But where the justification is general, the county is not traversable at this day. Godb. 137. pl. 163. Mich. 27 & 28 Eliz. B. R. Strangden v. Barnell.

7. If a man justifies in a place in Suffolk, absque boc, that he is guilty out of the county of Suffolk, this is not a good traverse. Roll's Rep. 265. pl. 37. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R. in case of Eveley v. Sloley, it was faid by Hele to have been adjudged in the Exchequer the fame term, between Taylor and Downe.

8. When a justification is local, as where a man justifies by war-As in trover, &c. of rant of a justice of peace, or such particular matter, the place to many where, &c. may be traversed; but where the matter is transitory, hogsheads of and not local, it is otherwise. 3 Bulst. 209. Trin. 14 Jac. Philcyder in London, the lips v. Weeks.

dcfendant pleads bailment of them unto him, to re-deliver to another in the county of Oxon, to spend in his house; the which accordingly he had done, and takes a traverse, absque hoc, that he converted the same at London, aut alibi extra com. Oxon. Upon this plea the plaintist demurred in law. Dodderidge J. faid, the plea here, in effect, is no more than non culp. the general issue, and so not good. The Court agreed with him herein; and therefore, by the tule of the Court, judgment was given for the plaintiff. 3 Bulft. 209. Phillips v. Weeks .- S. C. Roll. Rep. 395. pl. 19. accordingly .- And ibid. 396. pl. 20. in case of Bush v. Luxburrough, S. P. adjudged.

So where an action against a carrier was brought in London for goods delivered in Yorkshire, to redeliver at London, the defendant pleaded a robbery at Lincoln, absque hoc, that he loft them at London. The Court held the traverse ill, because the justification was not local; though Scroggs J. was of a contrary opinion. And judgment was given for the plaintiff. 2 Mod. 270. Mich. 29 Car. 2. C. B.

Barker v. Warren.

(O) Things doubtful to the Jurors.

1. WHERE prescription of villeinage is alleged in the plaintiff, and in his blood, the plaintiff may say, that his father was a bastard; and a good plea without traverse, because the matter is doubtful to the jurors; and yet both are in the affirmative.

Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 185. cites 5 H. 7. 11, 12.

2. And in ravishment of ward, if the defendant says that he holds in socage, and not in chivalry, and he as prochein amy took the infant, this is not a good plea; for the jurors do not know what is socage, nor what is service in chivalry; and therefore he shall say, that he holds by fealty and such rent, or the like, &c. which is socage, and traverse the chivalry; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 185. cites 5 H. 7. 11, 12.

(P) Traversable. What other Things, in general.

1. NOTE, that it was put in issue in trespass brought by the master of Saint L. if he was master, or the plaintiff; quod nota, that this traversable. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 39. cites 43 E. 3. 29.

2. These words in a writ, master, most reverend, nephew, doctor, or the like, are not traversable. Contrary of knight, taylor, carpenter, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 32. cites 35 H. 6. 55.

3. That which is alleged in protestation, and not by matter in fact, is not traversable. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 162. cites 39 H. 6. 5.

4. Matters in fact ought to be confessed, and avoided by tra-Traverse shall be only verse. Br. Brief, pl. 339. cites 1 E. 4. 9.

fact. Pl. C. 231. William v. Barkley.—Every matter in fact all ged by the plaintist may be traversed by the desendant; per tot. Cur. Yelv. 195. Mich. 8 Jac. B.R. in case of Tatem and Poulter v. Perient.

5. The distress in the ne injuste vexes is not traversable. Br.

Petition, pl. 26. cites 5 E. 4. 118.

6. Arresting of a man for suspicion is good cause, and the suspi-Br. Trespass, cion is traversable; quod nota; and it seems to be law. Br. Pe-pl. 268. cites remptory, pl. 39. cites 4 H. 7. 2.

7. Every thing which is material is traversable. Br. Traverse, The traper, &c. pl. 238.

the material matter of the plea only. This was laid down as a rule. Arg. Lat. 12. in case of Constable v. Clobery, and cites 15 E. 4. 2. 19 H. 8. 7. 32 H. 6. 16. .2 H. 5. 2. 3 H. 6. 33. 7 Rep. Ughtred's case.—Noy, 75. S. C.

8. Surmises never shall be traversed. Pl. C. 76. a. Arg. in case As if writ of Wimbish v. Ld. Willoughby.

comes to receive a feme in the reversion, upon default of the tenant for life, by attorney, because she is grossly enseint, this surmise is not traversable though it be false. Quod suit concessum. Pl. C. 76. a —So the surmise of damages in a curia claudenda is not traversable. Br. Petition, pl. 26. cites 5 E. 4. 119. ——So of a recital that the defendant has made an attorney, because he is sick, the being sick is not traversable.

D'd 2

&co. F. N. B. 25. (D). But where suggestions are in case of the spiritual court or admiralty, they are traversable. L. P. R. tit. Suggestion. See pl. 29.

9. Sciens

Traverse.

Verse, per, & . pl. 10. cites 28 H. 6. 7.

- 9. Sciens, as the knowing of a deed to be forged, or of a dog being accustomed to bite sheep, is not traversable, but must be proved in * evidence upon the general issue; for sciens, &c. is not a direct allegation. 4 Rep. 18. b. pl. 14. 32 & 33 Eliz. Gerard v. Dickenson.
- 10. Condition precedent is traversable. Noy, 75. in case of Constable v. Cloberry, cites 48 E. 3. 34. 9 E. 4. 3. b. 3 H. 6. 33.

S. P. Pl. C. 11. Matter in law shall never be traversed; per Cur. Yelv. 200.

231. a. per Hill. 8 Jac. B. R. in case of Kenicot v. Bogan.

in sase of William v. Berkley.

- 12. The point of the suggestion in a prohibition, is always traversable.
- 13. As in a prohibition against churchwardens, the plaintiff declared that his lands were charged with the payment of 15ths and 5s. yearly to the poor, and that the surplus of the profits were for his own use, the defendant maintained his libel, and averred that the surplus of the profits were to go to repair the church, and the residue to charitable uses absque hoc, that the surplus, &c. was for the use of the plaintiff; and upon demurrer it was objected that the traverse was ill, because that which was traversed was only an inducement to the plea, and inducements must not be traversed. Fleming and Williams agreed that the traverse was good because it is the sole negative and the point of the libel, and no other issue could be taken; and per tot. Cur. judgment against the plaintiff. 2 Bulst. 20. Mich. 10 Jac. Austin v. Cliston.

14. An averment is in any [some] case traversable and issuable; for [as] if an executor pleads that he has no goods, nor ever had, whereas he should have pleaded plene administravit, and so nothing in his hands; per Doderidge J. and Mann the secondary assimpled it with other cases. Brownl. 225. Pasch. 11 Jac. in case of Miles

v. Jones.

15. Circumstances are not traversable.

16. As, where it was made to the date of a bond, it was not material; for a deed bearing an impossible date is good enough; per Crew Ch. J. Lat. 61. Pasch. 1 Car. in case of the Bishop of Norwich v. Cornwallis.

Noy, 75.
S. C. accordingly;
for the voyage is the fubstance of the covemant, and mot the going with the

17. So where in covenant the plaintiff declared on indenture of covenant, that a ship should sail with the next sair wind; and that the merchant should pay so much for freight, the desendant traversed absque hoc, that the ship did sail with the next sair wind. And upon demurrer Crew Ch. J. Doderidge and Jones J. held the traverse ill; for Crew said a circumstance cannot be traversed, and wind is alterable. Poph. 161. Pasch. 2 Car. B. R. Constable v. Clobery.

which is uncertain every hour.——S. C. Palm. 397. held accordingly.——Lat. 12. 2nd 49. S. C. and the traverse held ill.——S. C. cited Arg. Hard. 69. in case of the Protector v. Holt.

18. But when the party will allege the circumstances and need not, there this is traversable; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 179. eites 4 H. 7. 9.

19. A

19. A false return to a writ of restitution is not traversable; The Court but the plaintiff is put to his action on the case. Per Doderidge J. Lat. 124. Pasch. 2 Car. in Audley's case.

denied a periff creturn to be traveriable, as in cases of devastavit returned upon a fieri facias, the party cannot traverse, but is put to his action fur case, which is the way the law allows to remedy the party upon a false return. Skin. 76. Mich. 34 Car. 2. B. R. in the Lord Grey's cafe.

20. A man shall never traverse a matter alleged out of time; agreed per Cur. 2 Salk. 628. pl. 2. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Pullen v. Benson.

L4. Raym. Rep. 156. S. J. & S. P. As where in debt on burd

the plaintiff expressly awers that the difendant was of full age when he deliwered the bond, yet the defendant may plead infancy and shall not traverse that he was of full age, and that for this reason, because it was alleged out of time. Per Holt Ch. J.

- 21. Matter immaterially alleged is not traversable; agreed per [355]. Cur. 2 Salk. 628. pl. 2. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. in case of Pullen v. Benson.
- 22. A record may be pleaded by way of inducement, which is See pl. 23. not traversable, and thereto nul tiel record is no plea. record of an inferior court be pleaded, it is not traversable, because not a good plea; per Holt. 12 Mod. 351. Pasch. 12 W. 3. B. R. in case of Creamer v. Wickett.
- 23. There is a diversity between a fine and an amerciament; if a fine be imposed it is not traversable, but amerciament is. Mod. 391. Pasch. 12 W. 3. B. R. in case of Dr. Grenville v. College of Physicians.

24. Where H. acts as a judge, his act is not traversable; otherwife of a constable or officer'committing for the peace. 397. Trin. 12 W. 3. B. R. Groenvelt v. Burwell.

25. Fraud is traversable. See 12 Mod. 528, Trin. 13 W. 3. The keep-B. R. Parker v. Atfield.—See Lat. 111. Beaumont's case. irgjurg ments on foot by fraud must be traversed, and whether they are paid or not, is but evidence. Keb. 762. pl. 72. Trin. 16 Car. 2. Woodley v. Haydon.

26. A man's being the king's creditor in a quo minus is travers 1ble, if the party comes in due time to do it; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 535. Trin. 13 W. 3. B. R. Wilbraham v. Lownds.

27. Whatever is necessarily understood, intended, and implied in a 6 Mod. 100. plea, may as well be traversed as what is expressed. 2 Salk. 629. pl. 6. Pasch. 3 Ann. in case of Gilbert v. Parker.

S. C. 444 S.P S. P. and C.

cited · r

10 Mod. 302. in case of Muston v. Vate.

28. Matters of record are not traversable. 2 Salk. 521. pl. 22. 2 Ld. R Fanshaw v. Morrison. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R. 5 C. 8

-As in debt, the plaintiff declared on a judgment obtained 1st May, &cc. hefore the may beiliff of Norwich, at a court then held there according to the custom, &c. the defendant ple d she court there held according to the custom, is beld before the mayor; and traversed that the pla tained a judgment at the court held Ist May before the mayor and bailiffs. and upon a demuobjected that the piez was ill, because the defendant had traversed matter of record, which is a second that the piez was ill, because the defendant had traversed matter of record, which is a second to be a second to tried by a jury; and this was adjudged ill upon a demurrer, but it had been otherwise afte. a Lev. 193. Mich. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Dring v. Respass.

29. What is set forth only by way of recital, may be traversed; for the pleas of non assumpsit and non est factum are both of them pleas which traverse matters in those respective actions that are pleaded by way of recital; per Parker Ch. J. 10 Mod. 191. Mich. 12 Ann. B. R. Sestern v. Cibber.

.(Q) In what Cases. Abatement, Entry, or Gift in

1. IN affife, the tenant pleaded bar that his father was seifed in fee, and by protestation died seised, and he entered as heir, and gave colour; and the plaintiff said that J. N. was seised in fee, and infeoffed him, by which he was seised till by the defendant diffeised; to which the tenant said that his father was seised, and by protestation died seised, and after J. N. abated and inferfed the plaintiff, upon whom the tenant as son and heir entered, and was seised, till by the plaintiff disseised, upon whom D. entered, upon whom the tenant reentered; and the plaintiff said that the father of the tenant infeoffed the said J. N. who infeoffed the plaintiff as above, &c. absque hoc that J.

[356] N. entered after the death of the father of the tenant; and the tenant faid that he entered as above, &c. and so to issue, and sound for the And per Fortescu, the issue is jeofail; for the traverse is to no purpose, the reason seems to be inasmuch as he ought to have traversed the abatement, and not the entry; quære for adjornatur.

Br. Repleader, pl. 25. cites 37 H. 6. 5.

Br. Pleadings, pl. 56. cites S. C.— Heath's Max. 113. cap. 5. cites $. C.

2. Entry; the tenant intitled himself by gift in tail made by T. to bis ancestor, &c. the demandant made title, because W. was seised and gave in tail to the father and mother of the demandant; the father died, the mother survived him, and died seised, and the said T. abated and gave in tail to the ancestor of the tenant upon whom the demandant re-entered, there, per Prisot clearly, the tenant may maintain his bar, and traverse the abatement, and shall not be compelled to traverse the gift in tail to the ancestor of the demandant. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 159. cites 38 H. 6. 18.

(R) Abatement, or dying seised, &c.

1. IN trespass the abatement is not material, nor to the purpose; but where he who pleads it intitles himself by him who died feised, there it is material and answerable for the most part, and otherwise not; per Cur. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 163. cites

39 H. 6. 26, 27.

2. Trespass upon 5 R. 2. the defendant pleaded seoffment of J. N. But otherwife it is in and gave colour to the plaintiff; and the plaintiff said that L was affise ofseised, and died seised, and after J. N. abated and infeoffed the desendmortdanant, and [that] one H. as cousin and heir of L. and shewed how, encestor, asel, cofinage, and tered and infeoffed the plaintiff, who was seised quousque, &c. Catesby tue like, said, before that L. any thing had, S. was seised, and infeoffed L. and roben be J. and after L. died, and J. survived, and was sole seised, and inshravs dying leised in writ and declara- feoffed the defendant as above, absque hoe that J. abuted; and the tra-traverse of the abatement was not held good; for it is confessed tion; for and avoided, by which the party relinquished the traverse, and held him to the rest; but per Markham, Yelverton, and all of allege joint the Common Pleas, he ought to traverse the fole dying seised of L. for it shall be intended that L. died sole seised by all such pleadings as above. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 205. cites 1 E. 4. 9.

there it is sufficient to tenancy and Survivor wirbsut trā werfing the • dying seised } per Markham Ch. J. the cause seems to be, because writ is only supposal, and so the count or declaration ought to be according to it; but where it is alleged in a plea in bar, title, replication, or other pleading, there it ought to be traversed; note the diversity; by which he traversed the sole dying seised; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 205. cites 1 E. 4. 9.

3. Entry in nature of affise, the tenant said that E. was seised Heath's in fee, and infeoffed kim, and gave colour to the plaintiff; the plaintiff said that before E. any thing had, T. was seised in fee, and gave S.C. to J. and K. his feme in tail, who died seised, and had issue C. and the faid E. aboted and infeoffed the tenant, and the iffue entered and infeoffed the demandant, who was seised till by the tenant disseised; the tenant maintained his bar that E. was seised, &c. and infeoffed the tenant, absque hoc that E. abated after the death of J. and K. prout, &c. and the rejoinder was challenged, because he ought to answer to the former possession. And by the opinion of the Court the plea is good; for the demandant avoided the feoffment made to the tenant by the abatement, and so the abatement is traversable well enough. Quod. nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 202. cites 5 E. 4. 137.

4. In trespass, the defendant said that D. was seised in fee, and infeoffed E. and the defendant as servant of E. did the trespass, and gave colour to the plaintiff. Catesby replied, that a long time before D. any thing had, J. H. was seised, and had issue two daughters A. and K. femes of the plaintiffs. and died seised, and D. abated and infeoffed the said E. and the plaintiffs in right of their wives entered, and were seised till the trespass. Jenney said, a long time after the death of the said J. H. W. D. was seised, and died seised and D. entered as son and heir of W. D. and infeoffed E. as above. Per Littleton, this is no plea; for it may fland with [the allegation] that W. D. died seised after the death of J. H. and yet D. shall not have thereof advantage; for if D. abated after the death of J. H. and infeoffed W. his father, and W. died seised and D. entered, the entry of the parties is lawful, because D. the abator infeoffed his father, of which descent to himself he shall not take advantage. And tot. Cur. accordingly, by which Jenney faid that after the death of J. H. W. father of D. died seised, &c. as above, absque hoc that D. abated after the death of J. H. and before the death of W. bis father. Catesby said these words, before the death of his father, is more than is alleged, therefore you ought to traverse the abatement generally; and yet by the opinion of the Court the traverse of Jenney is good, by which Catesby maintained his replication as above, absque hoc that W. D. died seised of the same land. And this was held a good plea per tot. Cur. quod nota, one sans ceo taken upon another sans ceo. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 109. cites 15 E. 4. 22.

Br. Titles, pl. 40. cites S. C.——
Heath's Max. 113. cites S. C.

colour to the plaintiff; and the plaintiff said that before A. any thing bad, his father was seised, and died seised, and A. abated and inscoffed the defendant, and the plaintiff entered and was seised, and the defendant may maintain his bar, and traverse the abatement, on the dying seised at his pleasure; for it is the title of the plaintiff, and if the one point or the other be false, the title is not good. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 251. cites 18 E. 4. 1. & 26.

Heath's Max. 113. cap, 5. cites S. C.

6. In trespass upon the 8 H. 6. the defendant said that J. N. was seised in see, and leased to the defendant for one year, and gave colour to the plaintiff; and the plaintiff replied that A. was seised in see, and gave to the ancestor of the plaintiff in tail who died seised; and the said J. N. abated and made the lease as in the bar; and the plaintiff entered and was seised till disseised by the defendant, who did the trespass; and the defendant maintained his bar absque boc that J. N. abated. And by the reporter, this is no good issue; for the gift and the dying seised is not denied, which tolls entry. But contra upon dying seised for life and intrusion, there the intrusion may be traversed; for the dying seised for life does not toll entry, and in intrusion the intrusion is traversable. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 178. cites 3 H. 7. 7.

7. In trespass ubi ingressus non datur per legem, the defendant said, that J. S. was seised in see, and leased to the defendant for life, and gave colour to the plaintiss. And the plaintiss shewed descent to him, and that J. S. abated and leased, upon whom he entered, and was seised till the trespass. The defendant said, that the father of J. S. after the death of the ancestor of the plaintiss, was seised, and died seised; and the said J. S. entered and made the lease, and did not traverse the abatement; and good per tot. Cur. except Davers, without traverse; for traverse will waive the matter in law; that is to say, if J. S. abated, and infeossed his father who died seised, and J. S. is heir to him, if he shall be in by descent, or only as abator, because he is party to the tort. Br. Taverse, per, &c. pl. 184. cites

[358]

Sœ (℃),

5 H. 7. 6.

(S) Of the Conveyance.

THE mesne conveyance may be traversed, as ne lessa pas in writ of entry in consimili casu, viz. that he who is supposed to lease to the tenant for life, did not lease to him prout, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 343. cites 7 E. 3. 54. and Fitzh. Brief, 947.

Heath's Max. 121. cap. 5. cites S. C.

2. In quare impedit by the king, who made title by the heir in his award because J. S. was seised of 4 acres of land in D. with the advoruson appendant and presented, and it descended to the heir as sur of N. son of W. son of M. son of the said J. S. There it is no plea, that no such W. in rerum natura; for W. is in the mesne conveyance, which is not traversable Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 3531 cites 43 E. 3. 7.

. 3. Trespass

. 3. Trespass of beating his servant, the defendant said, that it was his servant, and not the servant of the plaintiff; and the others e And so see the mesne conveyance traversed here, and yet it amounts to not guilty; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 13. cites 3 H. 6. 54.

4. Debt for salary by one, who was retained in busbandry, the desendant said that he did not retain him in husbandry; and a good plea, to traverse the contract, or the mesne conveyance, where be cannot wage his law; quod nota, per Cur. and here he cannot to traverse wage his law. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 160. cites 38 H. 6. 22.

The defendant in debt, &c. hall not be permitted the mejne conveyance where he may evage his law, unless in special cases. Br. Ley Guger, pl. 94. cites 21 E. 4. 55-

- 5. Where a man may wage his law, he shall not be suffered to tra- S.P. Br. IIverse the mesne conveyance. Br. Pleadings, pl. 119. cites 2 E. 4. 13. sues joines, 13 E. 4. 4. — But in every action, where wager of law lies not, the conveyance to the action being a thing material, is traversable; per Gawdy J. Cro. E. 201. pl. 27. Mich. 32 & 33 Elis. B. R. in cafe of Smath v. Hitchcock.
- 6. When the defendant intitles himself by a gift, or the like, it As where 2 shall not be intended, that he has other title than he himself claims, feeffment by and so it is sufficient to traverse it. Br. Traverse, per, &c. d.ed, it is fufficient to pl. 200. cites 5 E. 4. 133. Jay that mething p. If d by the deed; and yet it may be that he was infeoffed without deed; but the Court shall not intend his title to be other than he himself shews. Quod nota. Br. Ibid.
- 7. In replevin the defendant challenged J. S. because he was cou- So in appeal fin to a nun of the house, who avowed and shewed how he was cou- the death of by a feme of sin; and it was said, that the conveyance is not traversable, but if her husband, be was cousin or not. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 344. cites 7 E. 4. 4, 5. the defendnot guilty. The plantiff prayed process to the coroners, because be is cousin to the seme of the sheriff. And per Yeiverton, in this action the party shall not have traverse to the conveyance of the cosinage, but to the cofinage itself, if she be cousin or not by any way; for this is not like to action auncestrell, where he makes himself coulin and heir, &:. Quære. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 123. cites 9 E. 4. 6.-Heath's Max. 121. cap. 5. cites S. C.
- 8. So where a juror is challenged because he holds two acres of the So it is of a party, it shall not be traversed bow he holds of him, but if he holds gossip; it is no matter if of bim or not. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 344. cites 7 E. 4. 4, 5. he was god, son, or to a daughter, nor to what daughter. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 344. cites 7 E. 4. 4, 5.
- 9. Where a release and several mesne conveyances are alleged against = [359] the plaintiff, or him by whom he claims, the release shall be tra- Br. Reversed, and not the mesne conveyance; for the defendant has pleader, pl. possession, and therefore the plaintiff ought to make good title, s.c. because he demands the possession. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 116. cites 1; H. 7. 2, 3.
- 10. But, per Finenx & Keble, where several conveyances are Br. Re. alleged in one title, or in one replication which are on the part of pleader, pl. the plaintiff, there the defendant may traverse which of them he S. C. pleases, and may traverse any of the mesne conveyances. Br. Tra- Heath's Max. 119verse, per, &c. pl. 116. cites 15 H. 7. 2, 3. cap. 5. cites S. C .- Br. Double Plea, pl. 143. cites S. C. Contra where it is in a bar, and to fee a dif- ference between bar and title or replication; and no difference is taken there as to those pleadings, be they in assise or in trespass. Quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 116. cites 15 H. 7. 2, 3.—Br. Repleader, pl. 24. cites S. C. ——Dr. Double Plea, pl. 143. cites S. C.

- 11. The defendant may traverse any part of the plaintiff's conveyance of his action, and not be forced to the general issue. Brown's Anal. 10.
- 12. Where the conveyance to the action is that which doth entitle the plaintiff to the action, it may well be traversed, if the defendant cannot wage his law; otherwise where he may wage his law. Per Gawdy J. Cro. E. 169. Mich. 32 Eliz. B. R. in case of Kinnersty v. Cooper. Cites 8 H. 6. 5. 22 Ed. 4. 29. 7 Ed. 3. 54. 31 H. 6. 10. 26 H. 8. Br. Traverse, 5 H. 7. 3.

13. When both parties claim by one and the same person, there always the mesne conveyance is traversable. Cro. E. 798. pl. 46.

Mich. 42 Eliz. C. B. in case of Fawkner v. Powel.

14. In trespass vi & armis for cancelling a deed, and set forth, that J. S. the defendant being seised of land in see, inscoffed A. and his heirs with warranty, reserving rent with clause of distress; and afterwards by deed bargained and sold the rent to the plaintiff, who casually lost the said deed, and the defendant found and cancelled it; but did not expressly shew that he was, at any time before the action brought, possessed of this deed, but only by implication argumentatively. The defendant traversed the bargain and sale of the rent. It was insisted for the plaintiff, that this is only matter of conveyance to his action, and so not traversable. But it was answered, that the plaintiff by shewing his title gives the defendant advantage to traverse it. And per tot. Cur. clearly the grant is not traversable in this case; and so the traverse is not good. Bulst. 214. Trin. 10 Jac. Sucksield v. Constable.

(T) Descent, or Gift in Tail.

1. N formedon the gift only is traversable, and not the descents.

Br. Double Plea, pl. 16. cites 33 H. 6. 32.

As in tref.

2. If a man conveys to himself descent of estate tail, it is sufficient to traverse the gift, without answering to the descent; quod suit concessum. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 210. cites 2 E. 4. 15.

ment, the plaintiff said that before that the defendant anysthing had W. was seised in see, and leased to S. for term of life, the remainder to the father of the plaintiff in tail, and after S. surrendered, &cc. by which, &cc. seised in tail, &cc. and died seised, and the land descended to the plaintiff as son and heir, and he emerced, and was seised in tail, and after leased to N. at will, nobo inseoffed the desendant for life, and the plaintiff entered; the desendant said that before W. leased for life, the remainder over, he inseoffed L. in see, and contrary to his own scoffment oused him, and made the said lease; and after the said L. before the surrender, and in the life of the sather oused the tenant for life, and insofted us, by which, &cc. And a good plea per Cur. by which the other said that L. ousted S. tenant for term of life [in the life] of the tather in the manor, &c. and the others e contra. Br. Consess and Avoid, pl. 42. cites S. C.—Br. Dettes pl. 148. cites S. C. Brooke says, and therefore see that tail and descent is not double.

(U) Disseisin or Conveyance, as Release, &c.

1. WHERE the dissers is the effect of the bar, it ought to be Br. Confess and Avoid, traversed by the plaintiff; but where it is only colour for pl. 46. cites the plaintiff to bring his action, there the other matter, which is the S. C.—effect of the bar, shall be traversed, and not the dissers. Br. As in trespass the defendant said that he was seised till by B. disseised, which B. was seised till by the plaintiff disseised, upon whom the defendant at the time of the trespays entered; to which the plaintiff said that before the defendant or B. any thing and, H. was seised, and leased to the plaintiff for term of life, by which he was seised till by the defendant disseised, and after B. disseised the defendant, and the plaintiff entered, and was seised, till the defendant did the trespass; and it was moved if he ought to traverse the disseisin, and the desendant imparted. Br. Consess and Avoid, pl. 46. cites 10 E. 4. 7, 8.

In assise, the tenant said that J. B. was seised and disseised by W. to whom T. B. made a release, and contrary to his own deed disseised W. and infeosfed 5 persons, who infeosfed the plaintiff upon whom W. re-entered, whose estate the tenant has; and the plaintiff for title said that T. B. was seised, and infeosfed the 5 persons who infeosfed the plaintiff who was seised, till by the tenant and the others disseised, absque hoc that T. B. disseised W. And per Prisot and Pole, this is not traversable; for it is only a conveyance; and because the plaintiff claims by the same person by whom the defendant claims, whose title is bound by the release, therefore he shall traverse the release; and so he did at last. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 377-cites 30 H. 6. 7.

3. In ejectment the defendant pleaded, that before B. the leffor, of the plaintiff had any thing, &c. A. the father of the lessor of the plaintiff was seised in see, and let to the defendant for life, and died seised of the reversion, which descended to B. who entered and disseised the defendant, and let to the plaintiff. The plaintiff says that A. was seised in see, and died seised; and it descended to B. who entered and leased to the plaintiff, &c. and traverses absque boc, that A. .. ased to the defendant prout, &c. And it was thereupon demurred, because he traverses the diffeisin, and not the lease, which is but a conveyance. But after argument it was adjudged for the plaintiff that the traverse was good, and that he might traverse the one or other at his election; for when both parties make their conveyance from one and the same person, there always the mean conveyance is traversable; wherefore it was adjudged accordingly. Cro. Eliz. 798. pl. 46. Mich. 42 Eliz. in C. B. Fawkner v. Powel, cites 4 H. 7. 9.

(W) Disseisin or Descent.

DEBT for rent reserved upon a lease for years; the defendant pleaded that before the plantiff any thing had in the lands, &c. one J. S. was seised, and died seised, and his heir entered, and the plaintiff entered upon him and disselect him, and made this lease, and before the rent-day the son entered; the plaintiff by protestation said that J. S.

was not seised, nor died seised, and pro placito that he did not disseise the son. The defendant demurred; the question was, whether discent or disseisin was traversable. And adjudged that the disseisin was. -Moor, 539. pl. 708. Pasch. 39 Eliz. Banister v. Lilley.

[361]

2. In trespass and ejectment; the desendant pleads that the plaintiff did disself J. S. of the land, and then made a lease of it to him, and that afterwards the land did descend to the plaintiff. The plaintiff replies that he was seised of the lands, and traversed the disselfin supposed to be made to J. S. And to this the desendant demurs, and for cause shews that he ought to have traversed the descent, and not the disselsin. But Roll Ch. J. said, that the traversing of the disselsin makes an end of all, and therefore it is well taken, as being the most material matter, although the descent might have well enough been traversed; and therefore let the plaintiff have judgment niss. Sty. 344. Mich. 1652. Wood v. Holland.

(X) Disseisin, or dying seised.

Heath's

Max. 175.
cap. 5. cites
S. C. cited

Arg. Hutt.
124. Trin.
25 Car. in 26 Car. in 27 Car. in 28 Car. in 29 Car. in 29 Car. in 29 Car. in 20 Car. in 20 Car. in 20 Car. in
20 Car. in
21 N trespass, if the defendant says that his franktenement, and the plaintiff says that his firther was seised, and diea seised, and he ended the defendant upon whom he ended that the defendant upon whom he ended that the defendant upon whom he ended that the defendant upon the difficision shall be traversed, and not the dying seised. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 359. cites 30 H. 6. 7. and Fitzh. Trespass, 68, case of Edwards v. Laurence.

Heath's 2. Contra in assis. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 359. cites.

Max. 115.
cap. 5. cites 30 H. 6. 7. and Fitzh. Trespass, 68.

S. C.—Hutt. 124. in the case of EDWARDS v. LAURENCE, Arg. cites 33 H. 6. 59. that Wangford put this case; in assis, if the defendant plead that his father was seised, and died seised, and gives colour to the plaintiff, the plaintiff ought to traverse the dying seised, and not the possession of the father, which is the cause of the dying seised.

See (L) pl.9.

(Y) Dying seised, or Descent.

ENTRY in nature of assiste, the tenant intitled himself by dying seised of R. S. Danby said, after the dying seised of the said R. one J. was seised in see, and died seised, and the land descended to the plaintiff as cousin and heir, &c. and shewed how cousin, by which he entered, and was seised and disseised. Arderne said R. was seised as above, and died seised, and the land descended to K. who entered, and leased to the said J. for term of life, of which estate he died seised, and K. entered, and died, and the land descended to C. who inseossed us, absque hoc that J. died seised in see, & sic ad patriam. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 98. cites 22 H. 6. 23.

2. In trespass the defendant said that his father was seised in see, and died seised, and he as heir entered, and gaye colour: the plaintiff said that before the father any thing had, he himself was seised in see, and gave to the father and his feme in tail, and after the father died without issue, and the seme held in, and after she died, absque hoc that the father died seised prout, &c. Per Fairfax, this is not a good plea, by which he said absque hoc that the father died sole feised prout, &c. and so it was accepted; but it seems that he may have traverse absque hoc that the father died seised in fee prout, &c. Quære; for per Fairfax, dying seised in tail tolls the entry, but [362] not as here where he dies without issue of his body; for then Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 266. cites there is no descent. 21 E. 4. 65.

3. Trespass upon the 8 H. 6. the defendant said that T. was Heath's feised and died seised, and the land descended to him as son and heir, and cites S. C. be entered, &c. and the plointiff said that T. was seised, and married K. and had iffue the plaintiff, and died feised and the land descended to the plaintiff, &c. absque hoc that it descended to the defendant, &c. Quære if this be a good issue, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 152. cites 21 H. 7 31.

4. Trespass by M the defendant shewed seisin in fee of J. N. who gave in tail to W. N. and conveyed by descent, and gave colour to the plaintiff by the donor; the plaintiff said that T. himself in the conveyance of the tail infeoffed W. who infeoffed the plaintiff, who was seised till the trespass, absque hoc that the land descended to the defendant mode & forma, and did not deny the dying seised of the father of the defendant alleged in the bar: and therefore by the justices the plea is not good; for he cannot traverse the descent but the dying seised; for where the dying seised is not denied, there it shall be intended that the land descended to the heir; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 114. cites 14 H. 8. 23, 24.

5. In trespass, the defendant said that F. was seised, and died Heath's seised, and he is cousin and heir to him, viz. son of M. sister of F. by Max. 112. which he entered, and gave colour to the plaintiff; and the plain- s.c. liff said that F. bad a daughter named E. and conveyed to himself by E. and so he was seised till the defendant did the trespass. good plea by the opinion of the Court, and by all except Shelley; for the dying seised is the effect of the bar, and therefore if F. had a daughter the bar is confessed and avoided, and so he need not to take traverse absque hoc that the defendant is cousin and heir ? and so note the dying seised is traversable, and not the descent. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 1. cites 19 H. 8. 6.

6. In assise, the defendant pleaded that J. A. was seised in see, and died feised, and the land descended to him, and gave colour; and the plaintiff said that before that J. A. any thing had, W. S. was seised in fee, and infeoffed the said J. A. and W. P. in fee, and J. A. died, and W. P. survived, and infeoffed the plaintiff, who was seised till diffeised by the defendant, & hoc, &c. and did not traverse the defcent; for the dying seised is the effect, and traversable only, and not the descent, and the dying seised here is confessed and avoided by the jointenancy; and the defendant said that J. G. was feised, and infeoffed the said J. A. in see, who was seised, and died seised, and all as in the bar, absque hoc that the aforesaid J. A. at the time of his death, held jointly with the aforesaid W. P. & hoc, &c.

And

S. C. cited Win. 13. in cale of Sir George Savil v. Thoraton.

And so see the joint-tenure put in issue, and not if W. S. infeoffed them jointly, or not. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 6. cites 27 H. 8. 22.

7. In trespass the defendant conveyed by 6 descents in tail; the plaintiff confessed the entail, and conveyed a feoffment to him by the heir of the donee, which was a discontinuance, and traversed the dying seised of the same feoffor. This was held ill, and that he should have traversed the very last descent; for otherwise it may be intended that one of the mesne descents came to the land, and thereof died seised, and so the next heir remitted. And at length, by advice of the Court, the plaintiff confessed the tail, and took all the dyings seised, except the last, by protestation, and for plea that he which is supposed to be last, &c. infeosfed the ancestor of the plaintiff, from whom it descended to him absque boc that the last ancestor of the defendant died seised modo & forma, &c. and although the feoffment be false, yet the defendant ought to maintain his first saying, and if it be false he will be tricked. D. 107. pl. 25. Mich. 1 & 2 P. & M. Vivion v. St. Aubin.

8. In ejectment supposing a demise by the ld. C. the defendant faid that before the plaintiff or the ld. C. any thing had, one B. was feised in fee, and infeoffed one Andrews who died seised, and his son leased to him, and that he was possessed till ousted, and that the son [363] was disselfeised by the said B. who after infeoffed the ld. C. who demised to the plaintiff, upon whom the defendant re-entered, &c. the plaintiff took a protestation to the feoffment, the dying seised, the descent and the demise, prout, and for plea says, that before the ejectment B. infeoffed the ld. C. who demised to the plaintiff absque hoc quod B. diffeised the son: but it was holden a good traverse to the disseisin, it being the chief substance of the bar; for if B. was diffeifor, this destroys the title of the plaintiff who comes to the land under the disseisin, which title of the plaintiff in ejectment must necessarily be answered either by matter in fact or in law, which confesses and avoids the title or traverses it; for a naked colour in ejectment is not sufficient as it is in affise - or trespass, &c. which comprehends no title or conveyance in law, writ or count, as this action does in both, so that the disseisin here shall be intended a confession and avoiding of the title, and of necessity it must be traversed; and 9 H. 6. it is a maxim that a diffeisin alleged in bar or replication is always traversable; yet it may be the feoffment of B. to Andrews, or the dying feifed, are both traversable at the election of the plaintiff, and given to him by the superfluous folly of the defendant, &c. D. 365. b. pl. 34. 366. pl. 35. Mich. 21 & 22 Eliz. Ld. Cromwell's case.

Bendl. 319. pl. 320. S.C. accordingly. _S.C. cited Arg. Le. 310. pl. 429. in case of Maidwell v. Andrews; but favs, that if the.

9. The avorvant conveyed a title to himself as next heir of the lerd Powis, who died seised in fee without issue, and the land descended to him; the plaintiff confessed the dying seised, but conveyed a title to himself by the devise of the ld. Powis absque hoc, that the land descended, &c. And upon producing a record of the case of ME-RINGS, Pasch. 14 H. 8. it was adjudged according to that case, that the traverse was ill because the title of the avowant was confessed and avoided; and in such case there ought not to be a traverse.

D. 366.

D. 366. a. b. pl. 36, 37. Mich. 21 & 22 Eliz. Vernon's case, alias parties do not claim by Fowler v. Clayton & al. one and the same person, or the dying seised be not confessed or avoided, there the dying seised shall be traversed and not the descent. ——Heath's Max. 110. cap. 5. cites S. C. and so is 19 H. 8. 60. as it feems, if he had claimed by survivorship, or in coparcenary.

10. In covenant the plaintiff set forth, that the testator made a Le. 309. pl. lease for life rendering rent, and devised the reversion to his wife and 429. Pasch. died; she married the defendant, and the husband and wife sold the reversion to B. G. for life and the rent to the plaintiff, and covenanted case is arthat be should quietly enjoy it without any disturbance from any person, claiming under the faid B.G. who died seised of the reversion, and the same descended to his beir; and the breach assigned was, for that the Court the beir claimed the rent by reason of the grant of the reversion to bis ancestor; the defendant pleaded the grant of the reversion to B. G. absque boc, that it descended to his heir; and upon a general demurrer this was held an ill traverse, because he ought to have traversed that B. G. died seised, &c. for that is the substance, and the descent is only the consequence of the other. 3 Nels. Abr. 343. pl. 1. cites Dyer, 366. 1 Leon. 309. Maidwell v. Andrews.

33 Eliz. C. B. this gued, but I -de son obferve that faid any thing as to this point of the traverise —D. 366. feems to mean pl. 36. Vernon's cafe, aijas Fowler v.

Clayton & al', which see at pl. 9. above.

11. If the eldest brother pleads descent of land to him in borough English, the youngest has no other plea but to traverse the descent; per Haughton J. Palm. 372. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Sumner's case.

12. So of devisee, if he makes a title against the heir he must traverse the descent; per Doderidge J. and Lea Ch. J. said, that it would be repugnant to say verum est, that it descended et pro placito; that the ancestor devised. Palm. 372, 373. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. in Sumner's case.

(Z) Dying seised, or Gift in Tail.

[364] See(L) pl.8.

1. IN affise where the tenant makes a good bar, and the plaintiff But where a makes title after by gift in tail, and dying seised, there the gift shall be traversed, and not the dying seised; for no dying seised can be * by gift in tail without dying seised. Br. Traverse, per ing seised, &c. pl. 12. cites 9 H. 6. 22.

man pleads feoffment in fee, and dythere the dying seised shall be traversed, and not the gift; for a man may be seised in see by disseisin without seoffment; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 12. cites 9 H. 6. 22.

* All the editions are as here, but the Year-Book is thus, (viz.) that he cannot die seised of estate tail, unless there was a gift, &c. 9 H. 6. 22. a. pl. 17.

2. Trespass upon the 8 H. 6. by J. N. against 2 barons and their femes and another; the defendant faid, that N. C. grandfather of the femes was seised in fee and died seised, and the land descended to M. as fon and heir, who protestando died seised, and the land descended to P. as son and heir of M. who died protestando seised without issue, and the land descended to the femes as sisters and heirs, and gave colour, and the plaintiff said that before N. C. any thing had, R. was seised in fee, and gave to the faid N. C. in tail, who had iffue as in the bar, and also had issue the plaintiff, and died seised and all as in the bar, and the desendant maintained the bar, absque hoc, that the donor gave in tail prout, &c. and by the reporter the replication confesses and avoids the bar without traversing the dying seised; for now it shall be intended that the donee was seised in see after discontinuance, and died seised; and then this is a remitter: but if it had been alleged that N. C. had been seised in see, and died by protestation seised, then the seisin in see shall be traversed; for there is no other thing to be traversed; for there can be no remitter without dying seised in fact; and so note the difference by him. Br. Traverse, per, &c. 177. cites 3 H. 7.5.

Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 64. cites S. C.

3. Trespass by T. C. against E. and S. his seme upon the statute of 5 R. 2. who pleaded that N. grandfather of S. the feme of the defendant was seised in see and died seised, and the land descended to J. C. bis son, as son and beir, &c. who entered and was seised, and by protestation died seised, and the land descended to 8. seme of the defendant as daughter and heir of the said J. C. by which E. and S. his feme as cousin and heir of the said N. entered and gave colour to the plaintiff; the plaintiff replied, that before N. any thing had, Martin and others were seised in fee, and gave the land to the said N. in tail to the heirs males, and N. died scised of such estate, and had issue the said J. C. and the said T. C. now plaintiff, and after J. C. died without iffue male and had iffue S. feme of the defendant, and the said T.C. plaintiff, as son and heir male of the said N. entered as brother of J. C. son of the said N. and the defendant maintained his bar, and traversed the gift in tail to the said N. and the issue sound for the plaintiff, that they gave, &c. And the best opinion was, that it is jeofail, and that the replication is not good, because where the defendant alleges seisin in fee in N. and that he died seised, the plaintiff alleges gift in tail to this same N. and that he died seised of an estate tail, and did not traverse the dying seised in see; for he cannot die seised in see and die seised in tail, and it cannot be intended by this pleading that he discontinued and retook in see and died seised, so that the heir in tail may be remitted; for though he may be remitted, yet N. the grandfather died seised in see and not in tail, and therefore the heir is not confessed nor avoided in fact nor in law; and by all he ought to be confessed and avoided in fact or in law, or traversed. For a man shall not make title at large in any case unless in assiste; per Cur. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 185. cites 5 H. 7. 11, 12.

[365] (A a) Dying seised, or Mesne Conveyance.

Br. N. C.
pl. 408.
cites S. C.
— Heath's
Max. 120.
cap. 5, cites
S. C.

1. IN assiste the tenant made bar by a stranger and gave colour, the plaintiff made title by the same, by whom the desendant made bit bar, viz. that J. S. was seised and gave in tail to his father, who infeoffed W. N. who infeoffed the tenant, upon whom A. B. entered and infeoffed the grandfather of the plaintiff, whose heir he is in see, who died seised, and the land descended to the plaintiff, and so he was in his remitter until by the desendant disseised, and in truth A. B.

never entered nor never infeoffed the grandfather; and yet it was held clearly, that the tenant in his bar to the title cannot traverse the feoffment of A. B. but ought to traverse the dying seised of the grandfather of the plaintiff which remitted him; for this binds the entry of the tenant, and is the most notable thing in the title; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 1541 cites 4 E. 6. Cocks v. Green.

2. Scire facias upon a recognizance in Chancery, issued out of Mod. 29. the petty-bag against the tenants of Yarway; the sherisf returned Dawson, scire feci against several, two of whom pleaded in bar, that Yarway S. C. but and J. S. were jointly enfeoffed, and seised in see, and so seised the said S. P. does Yarway died absque boc, that he was sole seised at the time of the recognizance acknowledged. The plaintiff replied, and confessed that Yarway and J. S. were jointly enfeoffed, but that they being so seised, did by bargain and fale enrolled, &c. convey a moiety of the lands to the faid 2 defendants in fee, and traversed that Yarway died seised mode G. forma. Exception was taken to the traverse, because when it was shewn that Yarway and J. S. had made a bargain and sale in ke, this had sufficiently confessed and avoided the dying seised, the traverse alleged by the defendants, and then the plaintiff ought not to traverse the dying seised also; for though the conusor had died jointly seised with J. S. yet by the bargain and sale a moiety of the said lands was liable to the execution, notwithstanding they should have a reconveyance, or that they had differred the purchafor, and afterwards Yarway had died seised, and J.S. had survived; and so the dying seised in this case not material nor traversable; and of this opinion were the Court. 2 Saund. 23, 24. 28. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. Jeffreson v. Morton and Dawson and al.

not appear. –Lev. 2831 S. C. but S. P. does not appears ---Sid. 436. pl. 1. S. C. fays, an exception was taken to in the replication, which could not well be answered, and therefore leave was prayed to amend inalmuch as the money (being an infant's) might otherwise be loft, and the same was granted nisi causa.——2 Saund. 28. says, that both parties contented to elter the defendant's plea, and the plaintiff to reply what matter he would, and that to it was done.

(B. a) Feoffment, or Diffeisin.

I. NTRY in nature of assis, the tenant said that J. N. was Br. Tra-feised and infeoffed him, and after disselfed him and enfeoffed werse, per, the plaintiff, upon whom he re-entered; the demandant said, that cites S. C. J. N. gave it to the plaintiff by fine, before which fine the tenant had accordingly, nothing of the feoffment of J. N. and no plea without traverling the disseisin or the feoffment, and so only argument; whereupon he that J. N. pleaded the fine as above, by which he was seised till by the tea infeoffed nant disseised absque hoc, that the * tenant any thing had of the feoffment of J. N. before the fine. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 294. cites so to issue. 21 H. 6. 12.

2. The feoffment made by disseisor to persons unknown is not tras As where versable, but the diffeisin or the pernancy of the profits. Br. Tra-. verse, per, &c. pl. 203. cites 1 E. 41 1, 2.

and the tchim before the fine, and  [366]

non tenure it t leaded by N, and the demandant overs that he was seised and disseised by N. who insecissed persons unknown, and that he took the profits ; there the tenant may traverse the disseisin, or the taking of the profits, but not the feefment to persons une known; per Markham and Danby the Ch. Justices; and accordingly often elsewhere. Br. Traverse, per, &cc. pl. 375. cites 4 E. 4. 30.

Vol. XX.

Εċ

3. Tref.

But if he self quas

had pleaded that be bim-

3. Trespass upon the 5 R. 2. by J. N. the defendant said toat R. and W. were seised in see, till by the plaintiff disseised, and the defendant as servant to them by their command entered; the plaintiff said, that T. was seised and disseised by the said R. and W. which R. and W. were diffeised by the plaintiff, upon whom T. re-entered and inscoffed the plaintiff, and he was seised till the defendant did the trespais, and the defendant maintained his bar, absque hoc that the plaintiff any thing had of the feoffment of T. after the disseis made by the plaintiff to the said R. and W. And the best opinion was that he ought not to traverse the feoffment.; but maintain what is defeated by the title, for otherwise it shall be a departure from his Bar, and so he did gratis after. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 239. cites 1. E. 4. 5.

4. In trespass the defendant said, that be himself was seised and leased at will to R. who infeoffed the plaintiff, and he entered; the plaintiff shall not traverse the lease at will, but the feoffment. Br:

Seised, till by Traverse, per, &c. pl. 218. cites 5 E. 4 4.

R. diffeised, wobo infe ffed the plaintiff, upon whom he entered; now he shall traverse the d ffeisin; quod nota bene. -Heath's Max. 115. cap. 5. cites S. C.

> 5. In trespass of a close broken, the defendant said that R. was seifed in fee, and before the trespass infeoffed the defendant in fee, and gave colour by R. the plaintiff said, that the said R. was seised, &c. and infeoffed B. in fec, upon whom R. contrary to his feoffment entered and disseised B. and so seised by disseisin, he infeoffed the defendant as in the bar, upon whom B. re-entered and infeoffed the plaintiff who was seised till the trespass, and the defendant rejoined that R. did not disseise B. prout, &c. And it was challenged because the disseisin is not traversable, but the seofsment. Per Needham J. the rejoinder is good; for he may traverse the seoffment or the disseisn at his pleasure: and per Danby Ch. J. he may traverse the disseism clearly if he will; for this is material in the replication. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 201. cites 5 E. 4. 136.

> 6. Entry sur disseisin of disseisin done to himself, the tenant pleaded recovery by himself in formedon against N. and the possession of the plaintiff mesne between the gift and the recovery. Young, not confesting the gift, nor that the tenant is beir pro placito, faid, that the demandant was seised till by the tenant disseised, who infeoffed N. pending this writ, and recovered by formedon' pending this writ, and so the recovery false and woid in law. And per Danby, clearly in this case he shall not say that he ne infeossa pas, but shall traverse the disseism, and not the feoffment. But per Littleton and Choke, he may traverse the feoffment if he will. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 224. cites

. 7 E. 4. 19.

7. In trespass of a close broken, the defendant suid, that the place was his franktenement, &c. The plaintiff said, that J. N. was feifed in fee, and leased to the plaintiff at will, and was so possessed till the defendant ousted him, and disselsed J. N. and the plaintiff by command of J. N. re-entered, claiming his first estate, and the trespass mesne between the disseifin and the re-entry. And by some he may re-enter [367] without command. And the defendant maintained his bar, absque hoe, that J. N. leafed prout, &c. and the issue accepted; for it is necessary to shew who made the lease as of gift in tail, or for life, or

For years, he ought always to shew who was sifed, and gave or trased, and so the gift or lease is traversable, for it is material. But in trespass, if the defendant pleads in bar, and the plaintiff intitles bimself, that is to say, that J. B. was seised, and infecssed the plaintiff in fee, who was feifed till by the defendant disseised; there he shall traverse the disseifen, and not the feoffment, for the feoffment is only a conveyance there; for he need not to have alleged the feoffment in trespass, and so it is not traversable. Contrary in esses for there he shall make title, and there the seoffment may be traversed. And all the Court agreed this case of trespass, and so it seems, that every thing which is material is traversable. Br. Traverse, per,

&c. pl. 238. cites 11 E. 4. 3.

8. In trespass the defendant pleaded bis franktenement. plaintiff said, that A. mother of the defendant, and two others, were seised in see, and inseoffed the plaintiff, by which he was seised till by the defendant disselfed, upon whom the plaintiff re-entered, and the trespass mesne. The defendant said, that B. was seised, and gave to the said D. in tail, by which the land descended to him as son and beir of the donee, by which he entered, &c. Absque hoc, that the faid A. and the other 2 infeoffed the plaintiff, prout, &c. and the issue found for the plaintiff. And it was pleaded in arrest of judgment, because the seoffment was traversed where the disseisin ought to have been traversed. Per Keble: where the plaintiff and defendant claim by one and the same person, the scoffment shall be traversed, and otherwise the disseism shall be traversed, for that which is not traversable at the commencement, may be traversed by matter ex post facto. And Daverse and Brian Ch. J. accordingly; but Hawes and Townsend, justices, contra. And yet Townsend confessed the ground put by Keeble, and took a difference, because the one claims by A. only, and the other claims by A. and two others. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 179. cites 4 H. 7. 9.

(C. a) Feoffment, or dying seised, &c.

1. THERE a man pleads feoffment in fee, and dying seised, . there the dying seised shall be traversed, and not the gift; for a man may be seised in see by disseisin, without seossment; quod nota. Br. Travesse, per, &c. pl. 12. cites 9 H. 6. 22.

2. In trespass the defendant said, that W. was seised and leased at will to A. and he, as servant to A. did the trespass, and gave colour. The plaintiff said, that S. was seised, and died seised, and the land descended to him, and be entered, and was seised till the defendant did the trespass. To which the defendant said, that a long time before S. Br. Traany thing had, J. and P. were seised, and infeoffed W. named in the bar, who leased to the said A. at will, who inferfed the said S. who cites S. C. died seised, the said W. being within age, by which W. entered for alienation to his difinheritance; and after leased again to A. to hold at will, as in the bar. To which the plaintiff said, that the said S. was feifed, and died seised, and the land descended to the plaintiff, who entered, &c. Absque boc, that the said J. and P. inferfed the said W. Ee 2 in life of the faid S. And ill pleading, per Cur. for 2 causes; one, because he held that J. and P. did not infeoff W. in the life of S. whereas it may be, that they infcoffed him before S. was born, and then the issue is found for the plaintiff, and yet he shall be barred; for it ought to be, absque hoc, that they infeoffed W. before the death of the said S. Quod nota. Br. Repleader, pl. 5. cites 33 H. 6. 49.

70

[368] Br. Traeites S. C.

- 3. Another cause is, becaue the defendant intitled himself by feeffment of J. and P. made to W. by lease at will, by W. to A. And the sec. pl. 26. plaintiff intitled himself by S. rubo is a stranger; and traversed, that J. and P. did not infeoff S. where he does not claim by J. and P. But contra, if he had claimed by them; therefore it feems if he had said, that the said J. and P. had inseoffed the said S. who died seised as above, absque hoc, that they had infeosfed W. before the feoffment made to S. then good. But quære, if no feoffment was made by them to S. Br. Repleader, pl. 5. cites 33 H. 6. 49.
 - 4. In mortdancestor, if the tenant pleads matter of fact, 28 feoffment of the same ancestor, there he ought to traverse the dying seised. Contra where he pleads fine or recovery; for there the heir shall be estopped to say that he died seised, contrary to the record, without shewing bow the ancestor came after to the land in the assisse; quod nota. Br. Mortdancestor, pl. 52. cites 6 E. 4. 11.
 - 5. Trespass upon 5 R. 2. the defendant said, that B. was seised, and infeoffed A. who infeoffed the defendant, and gave colour to the plaintiss. The plaintiff said, that R. was seised before that B. any thing had, and died seised, and the land descended to the plaintiff as heir, and be entered; absque hoc, that B. infeoffed A. prout, &c. And a good traverse by all the justices; for if the conveyance be false, the bar is not good; and if the plaintiss in his replication alleges a feoffment to B. and dying seised, the defendant may traverse the one or the other. Quære, for it was not denied. Br. Travèrse, per, &c. pl. 253. cites 18 E. 4. 26.

6. In affife against A. who says, that the plaintiff infeoffed his father in fee, who died feised, and he entered as heir, &c. The plaintiff says, that he brought affife against the father of the said A. and recovered, and had execution. There he ought to traverse the feoffment made to the father of the tenant, and not the dying seised; and yet at the commencement the feoffment was not traversable. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 179 cites 4 H. 7. 9.

7. Where several feoffments, with a dying seised, are alleged, the dying seised shall be traversed, and not the mesne conveyance. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 116. cites 15 H. 7. 2, 3.

* See Que Estate.

Feoffment, or * Que Estate, &c.

1. TF A. brings affise against B. and B. says, that J. N. recovered against A. que estate B. has, whereas B. is in by disseifin, A. finall say, that after the recovery J. N. infeoffed him, by which A. was seised till by B. disseised; absque hoc, that B. has J. N.'s eftate :

that after the recovery be entered and infeoffed A. and, contrary to his own feoffment, be entered and infeoffed B. the tenant, upon whom A. entered and was seised, till by the tenant disseised; and so confess and avoid it, and not traverse the que estate, and B. can traverse nothing but the feoffment which was made after the recovery; quod Billing concessit. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 226. cites 7 E. 4. 26.

2. In allise, feoffment is pleaded of one J. N. to T. whose estate the So of a scaff-tenant has. The que estate is not traversable, unless the plaintiff in assist, if alaim, by the same person, and then the que estate is traversable; the plaintist per Keble. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 179. cites 4 H. 7. 9.

if he claims by the same person the seufsment is traversable. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 179. cites. 4 H. 7. 9.

3. In replevin the defendant avowed for damage feafunt in his [369] freehold. The plaintiff replied, that long before the defendant had any thing therein, he himself was seised of the place where, &c. till by A. B. and C. diffeised; against whom he brought assiste, and recovered; and that the estate of the plaintiff was mesne between the assign and the recovery therein. The defendant rejoined, that before the plaintiff had any thing therein, one G. was seised, and infeoffed him, absque hoc, that A. B. and C. or either of them, had any thing therein at the time of the recovery. Walmsley J. held the bar not good, because it did not say that A. B. and C. were tertenants tempore recuperationis, which should be shewed in every recovery where it is pleaded. But Windham contra, because the assife may be brought against others as well as the tenants, as against disseisors; but other real actions must be against the tertenants only, and therefore need not shew they were tertenants ' at the time of the recovery; and also the traverse here is well enough. Le. 193. pl. 277. Mich. 31 and 32 Eliz. C. B. Rigden v. Palmer.

4. In tresposs the desendant pleaded, that A. was scised, and infeoffed B. who infeoffed C. who infeoffed D. que estate the desendant has. The plaintist may traverse which of them he will. 6 Rep. 24.

2. b. by the reporter in READ'S CASE, cites 15 H. 7. 3. and 16 H. 6. double plea, 83.

5. In trespass the defendant pleaded, that A. was seised, and infeoffed the defendant. The plaintiff said, that J. S. was seised, and died seised, and the land aescended to him, and traversed, absque hoc, that A. infeoffed B. and adjudged a good traverse. 6 Rep. 24. b. in Read's case, by the reporter, cites 18 E. 4. 26. and says, that so is 21 H. 7. 33. and that this is true in all cases where the desendant does not claim by any of the mesne conveyances from the plaintiff himself, for then it is traversable.

(E. a) Lease, &c. or Mesne Conveyance.

Br. Repleader, pl. 24. cites S. C.
Hearh's
Max. 119. cap. 5. cites
S. C. cites
Winch. 13. in case of Sir George
Savil v.
Thornton.

1. TRESPASS by the prior of T. for entering into a bouse, the defendant said that the predecessor of the plaintiff leased to J. N. for 14 years, who was possessed, and granted it to J. N. who made J. his fame executrix, and died, and A. married J. and after A. and J. granted to T. B. to the use of T. T. and after T. T. granted the rest of the term to the defendant by which be entered, judgment si actio; the plaintiff said that he was seised in fee in right of the house till the defendant did the trespass, absque hoc that A. and J. granted, &c. prout, &c, and so traversed the mesne conveyance, and not the lease of his predecessor under the common feal which bound him, and were at iffue, and found for the plaintiff, and this matter alleged in arrest of judgment. And per Fineux, Brian, and Wood, justices, it is jeofail; for he ought to traverse that which binds bim when he makes his bar from the plaintiff, or derives his title by the plaintiff, and binds him. Fisher and Davers; but at the last it was agreed in a manner by all the Court, that it is a jeofail for the cause aforesaid. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 116. cites 15 H. 7. 2, 3.

Heath's 2. Note in trespass, if the defendant pleads a lease of the plainMax. 119.
cap. 5. cites

not traverse the grant of the estate but the lease; for this is

But he may the thing which binds him. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 4. cites for that the fay that the 27 H. 8. 2, 3.

dered to bim absque bec that he granted his estate to the defendant, and so trick him, though it be upon a lie; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &cc. pl. 4. cites 27 H. 8. 2, 3.——Heath's Max. 121. cites S. C.

[370] 3. Replevin; the defendant around by reason of a copyhold granted to him by C. bishop of W. lord of the manor; the plaintiff said, that before C. was bishop, H. was bishop, by whose death the temporalties came to the queen, during which the copyhold escheated, and the queen granted it to the plaintiss in see, and traversed the grant by C. The whole Court held that the traverse was good, and that the grant by the queen of the copyhold escheated, was good, and that this traverse ought to be; for there is not any confessing and avoiding, because he does not confess the seisn and grant by copy; but if he had confessed that C. had entered and granted it by copy, then there need not any traverse; and it was ruled accordingly. Cro, E. 754. pl. 17. Pasch. 42 Eliz, C. B. Covert's case.

(F. a) Lease or Reversion.

1. IN precipe quod reddat, the tenant made default ofter default, and one prayed to be received by reversion, because he leased for life to the tenant, &c. there the reversion shall be traversed, and not the lease. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 364. cites 33 H. 6. 38.

2. But upon aid prayer, the lease shall be traversed, and not the In Trespass, reversion; note the diversity. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 364. Il the accites 33 H. 6. 38. that J. F. wa: jeijed, and leased to F. for life, and prays aid of him, the plaintiff shall make title, and shall traverse the lease.

Br. Traverse, per, &cc. pl. 316. cites ; E. 4. 1.

But if the defendant pleads that it is the frank'enement of J. F. who leased to bim, &c. and prays aid, the plaintiff shall make title, and shall traverse the franktenement, and not the lease, per Heydon. And Brooke says it is not much to the purpose. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 316. cites 5 E. 4. 1.

3. Where the defendant in trespass of entry into a close says, that Heath's J. S. infeoffed him, and gives colour to the plaintiff, and the plain- Max. 116. tiff says that R. was seised and leased to S. at will, who infeoffed the S.C. defendant, and after R. entered and infeoffed the plaintiff, absque hoc that S. eny thing had, unless at will; this is a good traverse, but shall not traverse the lease at will. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 217. cites 5 E. 4. 1.—But in the time of E. 6. he ought to say absque hoc that J. S. was seised in fee modo & forma, prout, &c. Ibid.

(G. a) Matter of Record, or Matter in Fact.

1. WHERE matter of rerord and matter in fast are jointly pleaded together, as in the foreign attachment in London of debt in another's hand, so that the matter of record is not good, but by reason of the matter in fact, there the matter in fact is traversable, notwithstanding the record, as to fay that no such custom. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 276. cites 22 E. 4. 30.

2. And where recovery is pleaded by defendant in affise or precipe quod reddat, the tenant ought to aver that the tenant was tenant of the franktenement at the time of the recovery, and there the demandant shall have answer to it that he was not tenant of the franktenement at the time, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 276. cites.

22 E. 4. 30.

3. And in formedon, if the tenant pleads a recovery by default [371] against his ancestor in pracipe quod reddat, and avers that he had affets per descent, 28 he ought, the demandant may say riens per descent; and so in all such like cases, where the matter in fact is maserial, as here. Contra where it is not material, as of a que estate, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 276. cites 22 E. 4. 30.

4. Where matter in fact is alleged by the defendant, as if the de- Heath's fendant says that the plaintiff in appeal named heir is a bastard, the cap. 5. plaintiff shall say that mulier, and not bastard. Br. Traverse, per, cites S. C.

&cc. pl. 279. cites 22 E. 4. 39.

5. Where a recovery with several mesne conveyances are alleged against the plaintiff, or him by whom he claims, there the record shall be traversed, and not the mesne conveyances. Br. Traverse, per, &c, pl. 116. cites 15 H. 7. 2, 3.

(H. a) Que Estate, or Confirmation.

A VOWRY for 10s. the tenant said that J. late lord there que estate the tenant has in the seigniory confirmed to D. then tenant que estate the tenant has in the tenancy, to hold by 1 d. pro omnibus servitiis, and shewed the deed, &c. And the desendant said that the tenant and his ancestors have held of the desendant and his ancestors from such a time, &c. by 10s., &c. absque how that he had the estate of I. and the traverse was rejected; for he ought to traverse the confirmation, or that J. had nothing in the seigniory at the time, &c. or that D. did not hold of him at the time, &c. per Curby which he traversed that J. had nothing in the seigniory at the time, &c. Br Traverse, per, &c. pl. 376. cites 30 H. 6. 7.

(I. a) Seisin in Fee, or Conveyance.

1. MORTDANCESTOR of the seisin in see of J. the ancestor of the plaintiff, &c. the tenant said that H. sather of the plaintiff whose heir, &c. was seised in see, and the land is devisable by custom, and he devised to A. for term of life, the remainder to this J. in tail, and the remainder in see to be sold, and that the tenant for life and the said J. are dead without iffue, and conveyed himself to the land by the sale of the see simple, and shewed the testament of the sale ther, judgment if assis, &c. And per Cur. in this case the plaintiff shall not say that J. was seised in see, absque hoc that he had any thing by the devise, without shewing how he came to it after, by reason that the devise binds as a deed indented. Br. Titles, pl. 49-cites 35 Ass. I.

Fo of such pleading in trespass, and then the other party shall take the traverse. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 209. cites 2 E. 4. 11.

2. Recordare; A. was seised in tail, and leased to B. and C. sor 2 years, and after A. B. and C. leased to F. N. for term of 20 years rendering rent, and A. died, and M. his son ousted the lesse, before which ouster nothing arrear; and this was pleaded in har of the avowry, which was that A. B. and C. were seised in sea, and all as above, and a good har to the avowry without traversing that A. B. and C. were not seised in see at the time of the demise; for if they were seised of any estate of franktenement, they may lease for life; for in assise if the tenant says that E. was seised in see, and infeossed him, and gives colour, the plaintist may say that before this he was seised, and leased to E. for term of life, who made seossement, and he entered for alienation; and good without traversing the seisin in see, per Littleton and Choke. Br. Traverse, per, &c., pl. 209, cites 2 E. 4. 11.

3. In formedon, the tenant said that before the gift the dones him; self was seised, and infeoffed the donor in see, who gave to the dones and his seme, the baron being within age, who had if us the mather of the demandant; the seme died, the baron took another seme, and had if us the son now tenant, judgment si actio; and the reason of the par seems to be, that when the infant made the seoffment, and the feoffee re-gave to him in toil, he is remitted in fee by reason of the nonage, and so confessed and avoided the gift; for the entry of the infant was lawful, by which the demandant said that the donor gave as above, absque hoc that the donee infeoffed the donor, prout, &c. Danby said he ought to traverse the seisin before the gift, and not the feoffment; but the other justices held the travease good, and Littleton the like. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 219. cites 5 E. 4. 5.

4. In dum fuit infra atatem, nothing shall be traversed but the demise; per Littleton. And by others it was agreed, that the seisin may be traversed, but not if he had any thing or not. Br.

Traverse, per, &c. pl. 219. cites 5 E. 4. 5.

5. In affife, if I say that I leased to A. at will, who infeoffed the plaintiff, and I entered; this is sufficient, and the feoffment shall not be traversed; per Catesby. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 219.

cites 5 E. 4. 5.

6. In formedon in descender the tenant said, that before the donors any thing had, he himself was seised in fee, and infeoffed the donors, being within age in fee, by which they were seised, and gave, &c. and after the tenant within age re-entered, and was seised in fee in his remitter, & hoc, &c. And the demandant maintained the gift absque boc, that the tenant infeoffed the donors, prout, &c. some the traverse is not good; for he ought to traverse the seism of the infant, now tenant; for the feoffment is only a conveyance; and if he was disseifed by the donors, or if they abated and gave, yet the tenant-infant may re-enter. And, per Needham and other Justices, the Court shall not argue nor suppose other title than the tenant himself alleges, though he was an infant; and so because he alleges feoffment it has the force of the bar, and suffices to traverse it. And yet Danby Ch. J. and others were contra, and that the seisin was very material; therefore quære. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 190. cites 5 E. 4. 9.

1. In trespass the defendant said, that M. was seised in see, and leased to him for life, and gave colour to the plaintist; and the plaintist said, that before this, D. was seised in see, and leased to E. for life, and died, and the reversion descended to A. seme of the said M. which M. granted the reversion to the desendant for life, and the tenant attorned, and M. died; and after A. granted the reversion to the plaintist, and E. attorned; and after E. died, and the plaintist entered, and was seised till the trespass; absque hoc, that M. was seised in see, prout, &c. But, per Choke and Littleton, he ought to traverse, absque boc, that M. leased modo forms. Quære. But the grant of M. was void, because he died before his seme, and before E. tenant for life. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 233. cites

10 E. 4. 8.

8. In trespals upon 5 R. 2. the defendant said, that the baron and feme were seised in see, and the seme died, and after the baron died, and the defendant entered as heir of the baron, and gave colour by the saron and seme. The plaintiff said, that before the baron any thing ad, the seme was seised in see, and married the baron, who levied a sine to J. S. in see, who granted and rendered to the baron and seme, and the heirs of the seme, and after the seme died, and the baron also, and the plaintiff 'as heir of the seme emerch, and was seised till the desendant ousted him; absque boc, that the baron was seised in see [373] prout, &c. And the best opinion was, that the traverse is well taken, notwithstanding the sine which gave the right of baron. Quære. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 259. cites 21 E. 4. 17.

9. In trespass the defendant said, that his father was seised in tail But if a man of the gift of N. and died protestando seised, &c. and he entered as beir, in trespais intitles bim-&c. The plaintiff faid, that the plaintiff's father enfeoffed A. in fee, felf by divers who leased to B. for life, the remainder to C. in see, whose estate the fcoffments, she A. was plaintiff has. The defendant said, that his father died protestando seised absque hoc, that A. lensed as above. and the opinion of the Court seised, and was, that it is not a good traverse; but be ought to traverse the feoffinferfled B. wbo infeeffed ment made by the father of the defendant. Br. Traverse per, &c. C. wbo inpl. 117. cites 15 H. 7. 11. feoffed D. wbose estate the defendant has, and gives colour to the plaintiss by the first seisin, this is not double; and the plaintiss may traverse which of the seissments be will, for now he conveys by a stranger; per Fineux, & tot Cur. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 117. cites 15 H. 7. 11.——Heath's Max. 119. cip. 5. cites S. C.

But if the defendant says, that the plaintiff was seised, and infeoffed B. who instaffed C. whose estate the defendant has, now the plaintiff cannot traverse any of the feoffments but only the first, because he conveys by the plaintiff, and destroys his right; per Fineux. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 117. cites 15 H. 7. 11.

But if the defendant says, that A. was seised in sees desired and infeoffed him, and so he was seised till by the plaintiff dissifed, and he re-entered, &c. And the plaintiff says, that B. infeoffed him, by and gave to him in tail, and so was seised till the defendant did the trespass. He ought to say, absque hoc, that he dissifed the defendant and shall not traverse shill by the feoffment. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 117. cites 15. H. 7. 11.

dissified, and be re entered, the plaintiff may say that N. was feised, and infeessed him, and so be was seised till the desendant did the trespass; absque bee, that A. gave in tail mode of sortia, without traverting the dissifin, which was affirmed by Fineux and others at the bar. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 117. cites 15 H. 7. 11.—Heath's Max. 120. cap. 5. cites S. C.

11. In trespass the defendant says, that T. S. was seised in fee, and So if he says, that be leased infeoffed him, and gives colour; there if the plaintiff says, that before for years to this he was seised of the manor of D. whereof the place is parcel, sbe said and held by copy, and leased it to the said T. S. by copy of court-roll, T. S. and be made the and he infeoffed the desendant, upon whom the plaintiff entered, he feoffment, need not traversc the seisin of T. S. in see; for by his entry to and the plaintiff enmake feoffment, and executing of it, he is seised by disseism tered, &c. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 5. cites 27 H. 8. 4. For it is sonfessed and avoided. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 5. cites 27 H. 8. 4.

1'2. In trespass the defendant said, that J. N. was seised in see, Br. N. C. pl.407. cites and leased to him for 21 years, and gave colour. The plaintiff said, S. C.—D. that his father was seifed, and died seised, &c. and he entered, and 112. pl. 48. was seised till the trespass; absque hoc, that the said J. N. any thing Hill. 1 & 2 Ph. & M. had at the time of the demise, and an ill traverse: but shall say, abs-Bosse v. que hoc, that J. N. was seised in fee, modo & forma, prout, &c. Br. WATERS, feems to be Traverse, per, &c. pl. 372. cites 4 E. 6. S. C. and fays the traverse was held a jeofail, per tot. Cur. and that the jury ready at the bar was discharged.—

And there in the margin it is said, that the traverse ought to have been upon the seisin in sec.——

Heath's Max. 117. cites S. C.———S. P. Heath's Max. 116, cap. 5. cites Br. Traverse, 372. and

4 E. 2. [but it secms it should be 4 E. 6.]

13. In

13. In intrusion brought by the heir upon a lease made by his ancestor, the tenant traversed that the ancestor never had any thing in the land, prist, and this was held a good plea; and the demandant maintained the seisin of his ancestor, and his lease also; but upon the seisin only the jury shall be charged. D. 122. b. pl. 23. Mich. 2 P. & M. in an anonymous case, cites Trin. 43 E. 3.

14. In trespass the defendant pleaded, that J. W. was seised, and infeoffed M. and so conveyed a title to himself. The plaintist replied, that A. bis ancestor was seised, and so the land descended to him, absque hoc, that J. W. was seised. Anderson said, the seisin is not traversable but where it is material, and therefore clearly the trawerse is not good; and so was the opinion of all the Court clearly. Golds. 31, pl. 4. Mich. 29 Eliz. Wylgus v. Welche.

[374] See Replication (B) pl. 3. (but in the last line of the note there, the reader is defired to read (does) inflead of the word (shall) it being mis-printed.)

15. In trespass, &c. the defendant pleaded, that J. S. was seised 6 Rep. 24. and made a leafe to him for years, and gave colour to the plaintiff. The plaintiff replied, that after J. S. was seised, G. the father of the now plaintiff was seised, and died seised, and that the lands descended to him, absque hoc, that J.S. made a lease to the defendant. The defendant demurred. And adjudged for the plaintiff, because he had sufficiently confessed and avoided the seisin of J. S. and aptly traversed the leafe. Mo. 574. pl. 792. Pasch. 41 Eliz. Rede v. Armiger, Mich. 41 & 42 Elis. READ'S CASE, S. C. and it was objected, that the feifin in fee was travers able, and not the lexie. because he alleged a freebold in a firanger; and if in trespais the defendant says, that the place where is the franktenement of A. and he by A.'s command, &c. the command is not traversable, if the plaintiff claims by a stranger; for the franktenement being alleged in a stranger, it ought to be answered. But it was adjudged that the traverse was good, and a great diversity between the said cases; for in the one case the pleading is, that at the time of the trespass supposed it was the franktenement of A. But in the case at bar the defend int pleaded that long time before the tiespass J. S. was seised, and so seised tlemised; and this might be true, and that G. diffeifed him, and a descent was cast. So that it is not alleged, that J. S. was seised in see, as in the other case, and then the material thing to be traversed is the lease. The reporter cites several books, and says it seems upon all shote books, that the one or the other, in many sales, is traversable.

16. In replevin the defendant avowed that one E. E. was feised in see of 3 acres, &c. and married A. and that they had issue B. That E.E. died and A. was tenant by the courtesy; and that B. the heir in reversion, granted a rent of 51. out of the said 3 acres, to mis-printed The avowant; [* and sheaved the death of A.] The plaintiff replied, that E. E. was tenant in tail of the 3 acres, and married A. and had iffue B. who, in the life of A. granted the rent, [+ and died] absque boc, that E. E. was seised of the 3 acres in see. Issue was joinved, and a verdict for the avowant. It was objected, that the traverse of the seisin in see of E. E. was idle, because the title to the 44. pl. 11. rent is not derived from her; but that he ought to have traversed the seisin of B. But per Cur. though it be not good, yet, it being after a verdict, it was helped by the statute of jeofails. Mich. 2 Jac. B. R. Pigot v. Pigot.

Brownl. 183. Mich. 20 Jac. S.C. but seems for 2 Jac. but otherwife feems a translation from Yelverton.-Cro. J.

Mich.2. Jac. S. C. And Gawdy J. was of opinion, that the only thing material was how B. was seised, and therefore the issue taken was ill. But all the other justices held, that in regard the feifin in fee is especially alleged in E. and the conveyance of the reversion to B. as it ought to be of peceffity; for otherwise the severtion cannot be conveyed unto him), therefore the seifin alleged in her might be well traversed; and if it be not an aptissue, yet it is aided by the statute of 32 H. 8. for it is an issue, although it be not an apt issue; wherefore it was adjudged accordingly for the anomant.

17. Tref-

2 Roll. Rep. KER Y. BLACKA-Lays, the defendant pleaded that in fee, and infeoffed J. D. to the use of B. in tail, and claimed under the entail; the plaintiff replied that A. fee, and made a feoffment thereof to him, and he continued seised till the desendant did the trespass, absque hos that A. infeoffed J. D. in fee; and adjudged ill, because he ought not to traverse the conveyance, when the claim is from several persons; for there the last seofiment or last dying seised is traversable only; but when both plaintiff and defendant claim from one person, the conveyance may be traversed. Cro. J. 681. pl. 18. Baker v. Biackman, S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff, that in this case he might waverse either the seisin in see alleged in the bar, or the gift in tail.

17. Trespais. The defendant pleaded, that A. was seised in 362. BAR- fee, and made a gift in tail to B. which descended to 4 daughters, &c. The plaintiff replies that A. was seised in see and gave the MORE, S.C. lands to B. and to his beirs males; and the plaintiff claims the intail as heir mule, and the defendant's under the general tail, absque bor, that A. was seised in see Dodderidge J. said, the seisin in this case A. was seised is traversable. And Ley Ch. J. said, take away the seisin, and then no gift, and therefore the seisin here is traversable. Haughton and Chamberlain, Justices, agreed. The Court resolved, that either the seisin in see, or the gift in tail, is traversable. And Dodderidge said, if they both convey from one and the same perfon, then they must traverse the conveyance; * and cited & Rep. 24. where the books are cited which warrant the traverse of either; and it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Godb. 427. pl. 497. Trin. was seised in 21 Jac. in B. R. Baker v. Blackamore.

[375]

18. In trespass the defendant pleaded, that C. S. was scised in fee of the land, and that it roas extended on an outlawry; and that he, by the theriff's command, entered upon a levari facias, &c. The plaintiff replies protestando, that C. S. was not seised, says, that the master and fellows of, &c. were seised in fee, and that, before the outlawry, and the inquisition thereon, they demised to the plaintiff, absque boc, that the close, in which, &c. was contained in the inquisition. The plaintiff had a verdict. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that the traverse was ill, and that the seisin in see, and not the being comprized in the inquisition, ought to have been traversed. But per Cur. the traverse is good; for any part of that which the desendant makes his title is traversable. Besides the seisin in see is not material in this case, because the justification is by command of of the sheriff, who had authority by virtue of the extent and levari fac. though C. S. never had been seised. Judgment for the plaintiff. Hard. 316. Mich. 14 Car. 2. in the Exchequer, Moor v. Pudsey.

19. In trespass, if the desendant alleges a seisin in fee in J. S. and a demise to himself, the plaintiff may traverse either the seisin in see or the demise at his election. Hard. 317. Mich. 14 Car. 2. in case of Moor v. Pudsey.

In this cafe Windham faid, that if in trespass the defenda ant pleads sbat J. S. was feifed in foe and infooffed; and maplies, that

20. In trespass S. the desendant pleaded that A. was seised in see and leased to B. for 3 lives, who assigned to S. who thereupon put his beasts into the common. Plaintiff replies absque hoc, that A. was seised in fee when he made the lease. Defendant confessed that A. was tenant for life and infeoffed B. but that before A. was seised, W.R. was seised and levied a fine to the use of himself the reversion to T. R. who inseoffed the lessor of the plaintiff. Desendant rejoins and confesses the she plaintiff fine, but said that T. R. died before A. absque boc, that T. R. infeoffed the lessor of the plaintiff. The plaintiff demurred. Windham conceived ceived the traverse was most proper, and it is not like the confess- bewas seifed ing that leftee for years infeoffed, which would be admitting a fee in him, but not so of tenant for life; and further the seisin of A. is not here sufficiently confessed without a traverse; for if A. had fee, the under-leases are good, else not. And judgment for the plaintiff, nisi. Keb. 374. pl. 73. Mich. 14 Car. 2. B. R. Holden v. fee, it is Swindall.

in fee and leased to J. S. for life absque boc, tha: J. S. was feifed it good; and per Curiam, this nor the case at bar cannot be pleaded otherwise. Keb. 374. in case of Holden v. Swindall.

21. In an action upon the case for a nusance in stopping lights; upon demurrer it was ruled per Cur. that if in trespass or action upon the case, one declares that J. S. was seised in fee and leased to him, and the defendant pleads that J. N. was seised in fee and leaf- Lev. 122. ed to him, &c. this seisin of J. N. shall be intended by disseisin; for the defendant ought to have traversed the seisin of J. S. and to say that a long time before, such a one was seised, &c. Sid. 227. pl. 22. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Palmer v. Fleshees.

Raym. 87. S. C. but 5. P. does not appear. -S. C. but S. P. does not appear,

22. In trespass the defendant justified by licence made the day before the trespass, by S. who was seised; the plaintist demurred because he does not fay that S. was seised at the time of the tresposs, and so the plaintiff can make no traverse; sed Curia contra, the plaintiff may [376] traverse the licence, which will bring the freehold and seisin of S. in issue, or he may take the license by protesiation, and traverse the seisin of S. because his seisin shall be intended to continue, albeit the pleading had been more formal to fay tempore quo, and long time before S. was seised; but this is not matter of substance; and judgment pro plaintiff nisi. 2 Keb. 266. pl. 25. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Thacker v. Cumberbeech.

23. In replevin the defendant avorus for the moiety of certain rents, and fets forth, that A. B. anno 83. demised to one H. rendering rent, and afterwards assigned the moiety of the reversion, &c. The plaintiff replies, that the defendant at the time of the distress was seised of a moiety, and M.C. heretofore was, and her son now is seised of a moiety; the Chief J. said he should have traversed the original seisin at the time of the leafe. Judgment for the avowant. Comb. 230. Mich. 5 W. & M. in B. R. Turner v. Fuller.

Seisin in Fee, in Tail, or Franktenement.

1. IN trespass, the one intitled bimself by special tail by gift to his father and mother and the heirs of their bodies, who had iffue the feme of the defendant; the other said that the gift was to the father and mother, and the heirs of the body af the father, who had iffue the for now plaintiff by a second wife; and no plea without traversing the special tail in the bar. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 286. cites 9 H. 6. 9.

2. Entry in nature of assise; the tenant said that W. was seised in fee, and infeoffed him and gave colour to the plaintiff, and the plaintiff said that W. was seised in fee in jure uxoris, and had issue by ber, her, and the some died, and W. was seised as tenant by the curtesy and infeoffed the tenant, absque hoc, that W. was seised in fee modo & forma, &c. and the others e contra; and some doubted if he need traverse or not, therefore quære; but it seems the traverse is well taken. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 375. cites 30 H. 6. 4.

He ought to have traversed the Seifin in fee 'wbich was alleged. Poph. 113. in cale of Holmes v. Gee, Pop-ham, and

3. In trespass the defendant justified the entering and cutting of corn, because C. M. was seised of the place in see, and sowed the land, and the aefendant as servant to him, &c. entered and cut it, &c. The plaintiff said that the land was his franktenement at the time, &c. absque hoc, that it was the franktenement of C. M. And per tot. Cur. he ought to traverse the seisin in see, quod nota; for the franktenement of C. M. was not pleaded in the bar, but his seifin in fee. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 254. cites 18 E. 4. 3.

Clench, cited 18 E. 9. 4. 3.

Br. Replication, pl. 45. cites S. C.-Heath's Max. 117. cap. 5. cites 8. C.

4. [In trespass.] The defendant alleged that his father was seifed in fee, and the plaintiff said that J. S. was seised in fee and leased to him for 9 years, and after he held over his term, and the lessor entered and gave to the plaintiff in tail, &c. And a good plea without traversing the seisin in see in the father of the defendant; for when he holds over his term it is a doubt in the law, whether he has seisin in see thereby. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 277. cites 22 E. 4. 38.

5. Avowry was made for a rent charge in fee, supposing the grantor seised of the place where, &c. in his demesne as of fee at the time of the grant. The plaintiff shewed that the granter was seised of an estate tail at the time of the grant, and shewed of whose gift the tail was, and that the grantor was dead, and that he was his iffue and heir of his body, &c. This is not good without traversing the seefimple, by the opinion of Mounson, Harper, and Dyer; but Man-wood e contra. D. 280. b. in pl. 16. cites Mich. 14 & 15 Eliz.

Anon.

S.P. by Hobart Ch. J. Hob. 105. the case of Digby v. Fitsherbert. For, as it was held Yel. 195. in case of Tatem v. Perient, every matter of fact aileged by the plaintiff may be traversed, and defendant by way of traverse may answer the matter

[377]

6. Avowry for damage feasant in W. &c. The plaintiff replied that he is seised in fee of B. which is the close adjoining, and the deat the end of fendant and those whose estate, &c. time out of mind have used to inclose against B. The defendant rejoined that B. was the franktenement of G. and traversed the seisin of the plaintiff in fee at the time when, &c. the plaintiff demurred. The Court was of opinion that the precise estate which the plaintiff had in B. was not traversable, if the plaintiff had said only in general that he was seised, without saying of what estate, and had only said it was his franktenement; and then the other side must have said that he had nothing in it; but now this special traverse of the estate in fee is good, because the plaintiff had given advantage to do so, whereas otherwise it had been ill; for if he had but an estate for years, or at will or sufferance, or common, or licence only to put in his beasts pro hac vice, it suffices; contra if but a trespasser. Bnt Windham doubted, D. 365. pl. 32. Mich. 21 & 22 Eliz. Sir Fra. Leake's case. alleged in the fame words.

7. In waste the plaintiff set forth that he was seised in fee, and Cro. E. 772. made a lease to the defendant for years, who committed waste; the Ewer v. defendant pleaded that R. H. was seised in see, who conveyed to the D. p. defendant in fee, who re-granted to the plaintiff and his heirs so long as Mo. 665. R. H. should have iffue of his body, whereupon the plaintiff entered and pl. 908. is a made the leafe to the defendant prout, &c. and that R. H. died at D. Lane, 83. without issue of his body; the plaintiff had judgment in C. B. and it is a D. P. was affirmed in B. R. for the seisin in fee set forth by the plaintiff us in himself shall be intended an absolute see since the desendant does not disclose any estate but a determinable see in the plaintist which differs from that alleged by the plaintiff, and so not good without a travese. Yelv. 140. Mich. 6 Jac. B. R. Ewer v. Moile.

(L. a) Seisin, or Tenure, &c.

Sec Avowry.

- 1. IN rescous the seisin is not traversable; for a man may distrain S.P. but the tenure is who never was seised. Br. Seisin, pl. 29. cites 5 E. 4. 62. Keilw. 31. b. pl. 3. Mich. 13 H. 7. Anon. per Fineux and Rede Justices.
- 2. Contra in replevin; for there the seisin is traversable. Br. In replevia Seisin, pl. 29. cites 5 E. 4. 62. the defendant made consusance as bailiff to the earl of B. and shewed that the lands were parcel of such a chantery, which came to E. 6. by the flat. of I Ed. 6. and pleaded the saving in the flatute, by which the rights of others were sowed, and shewed that so much rent was behind, &c. The plaintiff replied that the lands were out of the fee and seigniory of the earl, &c. This was ruled to be no plea, because he confessed so much by the avowry; but this is for rent referred by the faving of the act of parliament, and is a rent-feck distrainable for the privilege which was before; but he may traverse the tenure, (viz.) absque boc, that at the time of the making the flatute, or ever after the lands were holden of the said earl. Winch. 77. Pascha 22 Jac. Stephens v. Randal.

3. But in cessavit the cesser shall be traversed and not the seisin. In cessavit the tenure is Br. Seisin, pl. 29. cites 5 E. 4. 62. traversable and not the seifin per Fineux and Rode J. Keilw. 31. b. pl. 3. Mich. 13 H. 7. Anon.

4. And in writ of escheat the tenure shall be traversed, but not [378] the seisin. Br. Seisin, pl. 29. cites 5 E. 4. 62.

5. So in right of ward, and in writ of * ravisbment of ward. If in ward or ravish-Br. Seifin, pl 29. cites 5 E. 4. 62. ment of ward, the defendant pleads feoffment of the father of the infant, he shall say absque hoc that he died his tenant, and not that he did not die seised. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 49. cites 14 H. 4. 16. Br. Ejectione, &c. pl. 3. cites 13 H. 4. 17. S. C.

The possession, nor the seisin in ravishment of ward, nor in ejectment of ward, is not traversable.

Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 50. cites 14 H. 4. 24. Per Thirn and Hill.

Per Caresby, if Yord and tenant are, and the tenant is diffeised, and dies, and the lord brings writ of ward, supposing that the tenant died in his homage, this dying seised is not traversable; for the lord shall have the ward, though he does not die seised, because he died in his homage. But Brooke says, see the writ and the count thereof among the entries; for it seems that the lord shall suy that be died in his bomage, and not that be died seised of the land. And in writ of ward by the lord of the ward of the heir of the mesne, supposing that the mesne died seised in sec, this is not traversable. But see that the entry in writ of ward, and in ravishment of ward, is no more but that he died in his homage. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 255. cites 18 E. 4. 5.

S. P. Per Fineux and Rede J. Keilw. 31. b. pl. 3. Mich, 13 H. 7. Anon.

6. So in trespass the tenure shall be traversed, and not the seievisory, the an. Br. Seisin, pl. 29. cites 5 E. 4. 62. which is in the possession, the seisin is traversable, and not the tenure; for the avowant shall have judgment there to hive return for the services. And so the difference has always been taken between action of tresposs and avowry. Keilw. 31. b. pl. 3. Mich. 13 H. 7. Anon. Per Fineux and Rede J.

As in replevin · he defendant cause the plaintiff beld of bim one acre by bo-

7. Where the plaintiff confesses the same tenure that is in the avoury, and of the same nature, but he holds by less rent, there the plaintiff avowed, be- stall answer to the seisin. * But if the desendant avows for service of chivalry, and the plaintiff says that he holds in socage, there he shall traverse the tenure, and not the seisin; per Nele J. and Brian. Ch. J. agreed it to be a good diversity. Br. Avowry, pl. 104.

mage, fealty, cites 20 E. 4. 16. and escuage, and 2s. rent, and alleged seifin by the hands of the plaintiff as his wory tenant, &c. and for 2s. arrear at Easter he avowed. Varifor said he ought not to avow; for we bold this acre by fealty and 2 d. of which services, &cc. absque boc that we bold of you by bomage, fealty, and escuage, and 2 so rent, modo & sorma, &c. Per Hussey, you ought to traverse the seisin, and not the tenure, as here. And per Brian Ch. J. he shall traverse the seisin; for the escuage makes the service of chivalry, and the defendant has al eged seisin in the other service, and not in the escuage; and therefore he shall traverse the selfin of them, viz. of the 2 s. and of the homage; for all this may be focage; and therefore he shall traverse the seisin of that which makes the focage tenure, but not the service of that which makes the service of chivalry. Br. Avowry, pl. 104. cites 20 E. 4. 16.

And per Hussey, in avowry for tenure by 10 d. and alleging se sin, &c. the plaintiff may say that le bolds of bim by a bawk, absque bot that he holds of him by 10 d. and shall not unswer to the frisin; quod

Brian concessit. Br. Avowry, pl. 104. cites 20 E. 4. 16.

*S. P. Per Fineux and Rede J. and per Rede J. the tenure is traversable, though they do not very in the feware, in some cases in avowry; as if the avowant streets the commencement of his tenute, and he shows before the stature of, &c. and since time of memory, and shews when his ancestor was seised of the same lands where the taking, &c. and infectfed, &c. to hold of him by fealty and certain rent payable, &c. and for so much, &c. In this case the tenure is traversable, and not the seisin. Kelw. 31. b. pl. 3. Mich. 13 H. 7. Anon.

9 Rep. 35, a. in Bucknal's case, it is observed by the reporter, that where it is said that when the lord varies in the nature and quality of the services, that the tenure is traversable, this is true when the tenant confesses the tenure in part, but he cannot traverse all the tenure; as if the desendant in replevia avows upon the plaintiff for rent and services, as upon his very tenant, the plaintiff cannot say that he holds the same land of a stranger, absque how that he holds of the avowant; but he must disclaim or plead hors de son see; and says that with this agrees 10 H. 6. 6. b. and 7. a. 35 H. 6. tit. Avowry, 28. 37 H. 6. 25. a 11 H. 4. 11. 9 E. 2. Avowry, 222. 15 E. 2. Avowry, 214.

S. P. Mar. 175. Hill 17 Car. C. B. in case of LAYTON v. GRANGE, by Banks Ch. J. that where the lord and tenant differ in the services, the traverse shall be of the tenure and not of the seifin ; but where they agree in the services the seifin may be traversed; and cites 21 E. 4. 64. and 84. 20 E. 4.

27. 22 Ast. 68. and 9 Rep. 33. Bucknail's cafe.

8. In affife of rent, the tenure is traversable, and not the feifin : per Fineux and Rede J. Kelw. 31. b. pl. 3. Mich. 13 H. 7. Anon.

9. In replevin the defendant avowed, for that the plaintiff held of him one acre of land in the place where, &c. by fealty, and 16s. rent payable at two feasts; the plaintiff replied that be held of the avowant the same acre, and two more by fealty, and 16s. rent payable at [379] one day, absque hoc that he held the said acre by the services payable at 2 days, it was objected that the plaintiff ought not to traverse the tenure. But Walmsley contra; for if he should traverse the seisin, that would be a confession of the tenure, quod Periam concessit; and said that the difference commonly taken in the books is, that where the parties agree in the tenure, there the seisin is traversable, et vice versa; and he conceived that the payment at two days alters Godb. 24. pl. 34. Trin. 26 Eliz. C. B. Throgmoston the tenure. v. Terringham.

(M. a) Seisin sole, or joint.

3. IN ravishment of ward, the plaintiff claimed the beir as beir of In with-H. who died seised, &cc. and the defendant said that A. was feised in fee before that H. any thing had, and took H. to baron, and fendant said bad issue the infant, absque hoc that H. was sole seised at the time of his that the andeath, &c. and the others e contra; and the plea held good. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 142. cites 37 H. 6. 31.

ward the deceftor and J. N. wert jointly seisted, and J. N.

furvioed; this is sufficient without traversing the sole seisin; for the writ and declaration is only supposal. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 61. cites 1 E. 4. 9. and 2 E. 4. 28, 29. accordingly.

But in ravishment of ward by executors, who counted that A. was seifed in see, and held of their testator in chivalry, &c. and died, his heir within age, by which the lord seised him and died, and the executors plaintiffs were possessed, and the defendant ravished him; the defendant said that the futber of the infant was only seised in right of J. his wife now defendant, and the father died, and she survived and seifed the infant her onen son, &c. And per Cur. this is no plea, without traverting absque hoe that the father died seised in see prout, &c. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 255. cites 18 E. 4. 5.

2. In trespass, if sole dying seised be pleaded in bar, title, or repli- Br. Brief, cation, &c. and avoided by joint estate in him and in another who fur- pl.339. cites vived, there he shall traverse the sole dying seised; for bar, title, Traverse replication, and such pleadings are matter in fact. Br. Confess per, &c. pl. and Avoid, pl. 61. cites 1 E. 4. 9.

205. cites S. C.

S. P. Ibid. pl. 213. cités 2 E. 4: 28, 29.

3. But where such dying seised is alleged in ayel, befayel, and Br. Brief, mortdancestor, &c. there it is sufficient to plead the jointure in him and pl. 339. cites another, and that the other survived; and well without traverse; Traverse for writ and declaration is not but supposal; quod nota by both per, &c. pl. courts of B. R. and C. B. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 61. cites 205. cites 1 E. 4. 9.

S. C.—Br. S. C. ---S. P. Ibid.

pl. 213. cites & E. 4. 28, 29. S. P. Cro. E. 795. pl. 41. in case of Cowper v. Temple.

4. Where a man pleads jointenancy in affife, or pracipe quod reddat, or seisin in jure uxoris, judgment of the writ; this is sufficient. without affirming seisin in fact, or traversing the fole seisin, where the seifin is in jure uxoris; for the writ is only supposal, but title is matter in fact, therefore otherwise it shall be there. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 237. cites 10 E. 4. 16.

5. In dower, if the tenant alleges jointenancy in the baron, and Heath's in J. J. who survived, the feme shall say that he was sole seised, Max. 1110 absque hoc that they were jointly seised. Br. Traverse per, &c. S. C.

pl. 279. cites 22 E. 4. 39. 6. Replevin; the defendant made cognizance as builiff to Sir Anthony Cook for damage feafant in his freehold; the plaintiff said he beld the land in coparcenary with the faid Sir Anthony, as coheirs to Sir Edw. Belknap: and Harper and Weston thought it not good without a traverse of the sole freehold of the said Sir An- [380] thony, but Welsh and Dyere contra; and at length issue was joined upon the coparcenary, and not whether the intite was the coparcenary of Sir A. which is only supposal as a declaration; and this plea of coparcenary is only in abatement of the avowry Vol. XX F f in effect. D. 280. b. pl. 15. Mich. 10 & 11 Eliz. Sir Ant. Cooke's case.

7. In replevin the defendant anowed, for that a copybold was granted to the defendant and B. C. D. and E. and that C. D. and E. died, and afterwards B. died, whereby the defendant was in by survivorship, and so is sole seised, and took the cattle damage seasant; the plaintiff confessed the grant, and that C. D. and E. died, and that B. and the defendant survived; but says that B. afterwards surrendered his part to a stranger, who surrendered to the plaintiss, absque box that the defendant was sole seised at the time of the taking. It was objected that the sole seisin was not traversable, but the survivorship only; and that the jointenancy and survivorship are confessed and avoided, and so the traverse is double. But per tot. Cur. the traverse is good; for the sole seisin being alleged by the defendant by way of bar precisely and materially, it ought to be traversed. Cro. E. 795. pl. 41. Mich. 42 and 43 Eliz. C. B. Cowper v. Temple.

8. In trespass brought by M. widow, &c. the defendant pleaded that before the trespass B. her bushand was seised in see, and so seised died, whereby the lands descended to C. his son and heir, who demised it to the desendant, by virtue whereof he entered; the plaintist replied that before C. any thing had, &c. A. his grandfather was seised in see; and in consideration of a marriage between B. and M. the plaintist, he made a seoffment to them and to the heirs of B. on the body of M. to be begotten, remainder to B. in see, absque hoc that B. died seised in see modo & sorma prout, &c. Upon demurrer it was adjudged for the plaintist, because no dying seised is pleaded so as it might be traversed, but with a sic seisitus obiit. And the only matter traversable here is the seisin in see modo & sorma; for the replication has consessed a joint-seisin of B. and M. and to the heirs of the body of B. with a see-simple in B. and that is good with the traverse. Hutt. 123. Trin. 9 Car. Edwards v.

Laurence.

Freem. Rep. 202. pl.205. S. C. fays, it was agreed that when a dying feifed is alleged generally, it shall be intended a fole feifin. And fays, it was argued, that the plaintiff ought to

9. In trespass for taking his horse, the defendant justified that he was seised of such lands, and intitles himself to an heriot; the plaintiff replies that J. S. was jointly seised with the desendant, & hoc paratus est verificare. The plaintiff demurred generally, because the plaintiff should have traversed the sole seisin. It was answered that he need not traverse the sole seisin, because the matter alleged by him avoids the bar without a traverse. The Chief J. held the traverse of the sole seisin necessary, because it is issuable; and the other justices (absente Ellis) were of the same opinion; and gave judgment for the desendant. 2 Mod. 60. Mich. 27 Car. 2. C. B. Snow v. Wiseman.

have traversed the sole seisin, because otherwise there are only 2 assirmatives, and yet no consessing nor avoiding neither; and 2 assirmatives cannot make any issue. And he cited 22 H. 6. 23. I Bult. 48. 3. H. 7. 10, 11. And that there was a great difference between jointenancy pleaded in the bar, where a sole seisin is alleged in a count or declaration, and when it is in the replication, when a sole seisin is alleged in the bar; but the count is but as supposal, and so need not be traversed; as the bar must where it is contradicted, because the bar must be more certainly and positively alleged, and cited 1 Ed. 4.9.

Bro. Trav. 279. Yelv. 140, 141. and 3 Cro. 230.

To. In replevin for taking his cattle, the defendant made conufance, that A. was seised of the place where, &c. in see, and that by his command he took the cattle damage feafant. The plaintiff replied, that he was seised of one 3d part, and put in his cattle, absque boc that A. was fele seised. Upon demurrer the plaintiff had judgment; for the defendant made conusance that his master was seised, which must necessarily be intended sole seised; and whatever is necessarily intended, or implied, is traversable, as well as if it were expressed; therefore though the defendant *alleged a seisin in fee generally only, yet that being intended a sole seisin, the plaintiff may traverse the sole seisin; and since the plaintiff makes himself tenant in common with the defendant, it had not 280.[above] been enough to say, that he is tenant in common with the defendant, without traversing his sole seisin, or that he was seised modo 2 Salk. 629. pl. 6. Pasch. 3 Annæ, B. R. Gilbert v. that the & torma. Parker.

6 Mod. 15% S. C. and Holt Ch. J. for the alleging himfelf to be tenant in common with him, is not a confession and an avoidance. And Whereas the case of D. had been objected, be lad, ift, Court were divided upon it. And 2dly, there may be a difference between coparceners and jointenants, and tenants in common ; for the two first are seised, per my & per tout; but the last has a several seisin; and here, to introduce his traverse, he must make himself some title, to enable him to controvert with the desendant.

[381]

(N. a) Seisin in general.

1. IT was held, that if a man brings writ of right, and counts upon seisin of his ancestor, or upon his own seisin, this seifin is not traversable; but he may tender the half-mark to inquire of the seisin. But if such recovery by writ of right be pleaded in bar in another action, the demandant may traverse the seisin by way of falsifying; and note, that at this day the seisin in every action is traversable by the statute of new limitations. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 338. cites 10 E. 4.9.

2. A writ of entry, in nature of an affife, was brought against A. who pleaded, in abatement of the writ, that before the feisin and disseisen supposed, E. was seised in fee of this land, and being so seised, leased the land to him and his wife for their lives, and that his faid wife is in full life at Dale, and is not named in the writ. The plaintiff replies, that long after the seisin of E. of the lands aforesaid, be was seised in see of the said lands, and leased them to E. for life; and that E. being so seised, made the said lease for lives to A. and his wife, and that he entered for the forfeiture, and was seised till A. entered and oufted him. This is a good replication, without traverling the seisin in see of E. for that was confessed and avoided before; for when E. made a leafe for life to the husband and wife, he gained a wrongful fee to himself by this lease; which fee is destroyed by the entry of the demandant for the forfeiture, as is also the jointenancy between A. and his wife. Jenk. 105. pl. 1.

3. Where seisin is materially alleged in a real action, in a bar, But where replication, or title, it ought to be traversed; and the confession and avoidance of joint seisin and survivorship will not serve; for the allegation of seisin is positive, and is to be understood sole seisin. position, as in Jenk. 117. pl. 34.

the feifin is alieged by way of Supa writ of ayel or mort-describer, where the dying feiled of the ancestor is alleged by the words & qued cum in the sount; there a confession and avoidance will serve, for the reason aforesaid; and so is, in the writ of ayel, the session alleged in the ayel ut dicitur. In mortdancester the writ is for the jury to inquire whether the ancester of the demandant died seised. Jenk. 117. pl. 34.

2 Le. 80. pl. 107. HERRING Y- BALbock, S. C. and the demurrer was, because by that bar, the lease Set forth in the avowry evas not answered; for that the plaintiff in the avowry ought to

4. In replevin, &c. the defendant avowed the taking, &c. damage feasant, setting forth, that one J. was seised in see, &c. and demised the land to him for 21 years, &c. The plaintist replied, that before J. was seised, king H. 8. was seised in see, &c. and made a grant thereof, by copy of court-roll in see. It was objected, that the plaintist should have traversed the seisin in see in J. who might come to the land by a good title of puisne time. Wray said, there is no question but where the defendant alleges a seisin in one from whom he claims, there the plaintist cannot allege a seisin in another from whom he claims before the seisin of, &c. without traversing, confessing, and avoiding the seisin alleged by the defendant. And judgment was given for the avowant. Cro. E. 30. Trin. 26 Eliz. B. R. Herring v. Blucklow.

have concluded thus, (viz.) and so he was seised by the custom till the avowant, prætextu of the said lease for years, entered; and so it was adjudged.——3 Le. 94. pl. 186. S. C. in the same words.

*[382]

(O. a) Title, or Intrusion.

Heath's
Max. 113.
cap. 5. cites
S. C.

1. DETINUE of a box of charters, bailed by T. to the defendant to deliver to the plaintiff. The defendant said, that they concerned the manor of B. whereof he himself is seised, and was pessessed the box of charters till the said T. took them, and after he bailed them to the defendant, as in the declaration; by which he retained them, as lawfully he might. The plaintiff said, that before that the defendant any thing had, R. was seised of the manor, and possessed of the charters, and gave them to the said T, who delivered them the defendant, and after R. died seised, and the defendant intruded. And the defendant rejoined and maintained the bar, absque boc, that he intruded after the death of R. prout, &c. And, per Cur. this is not traversable; for the substance is the title of R. which ought to be traversed. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 196. cites 5 E. 4. 85.

(P. a) Necessary in what Cases.

Every bar

1. TO all bars that are pleaded in the affirmative, the plaintiff, in any and avoid the same. Brown's Anal. 10.

or trawerse, unless in special cases, (or by denial thereof may be added; for this is commonly said to be part of this rule.) 2 Lutw. 1625. Trin. 1 Annæ, in the Appendix, by the reporter in the case of Walters v. Hodges.

2. In trespass the desendant said, that the place is his franktenement, &c. The plaintiff said, that J. P. was seised in fee, and infeoffed him, by which he was seised till the desendant did the trespass; and he re-entered, and brought the action. The defendant said, that N. was seized, and died seised, and his heir entered, and died without issue ?

Afrie; and the defendant as beir entered, and shewed how heir, &c. and of such estate he was seised at the time of the trespass. And the opinion was, that it is no plea; for he has not traversed the replication, nor confessed and avoided it; for it may be, that the desendant disseised the plaintiss, and infeosfed N. who died seised, and to whom the defendant is heir, and he shall not take advantage of this descent. Br. Replication, pl. 18. cites 7 H. 6. 31.

3. Where the plaintiff alleges a negative, the defendant may an As in discet, swer in the affirmative without traverse. Br. Traverse per, &c. defendant

pl. 63. cites 7 H. 6. 43.

because the sued the plaintiff in debt in the name of M. without his affent, the defendant said, that he retained him at B. &cc. by which be sued bim with offent of M. without traverse, and well. Br. Ibid.

4. In trespass the defendant said, that he and A. did the trespass, [383] to which A. the plaintiff has released, &c. by this deed, &c. The plaintiff said that A. did not do the trespass, but thereof is not guilty; and a good replication. Br. Replication, pl. 64. cites 11 H. 6. 35.

5. Dower against R. and J.—R. pleaded nontenure generally; and J. answered as tenant of the entierty, and pleaded in bar; and no plea, without saying absque hoe that R. any thing had, by which he faid accordingly. But after Newton agreed the plea good without the traverse. Br. Several Tenancy, pl. 17. cites 22 H. 6. 44.

6. Where the one party traverses, the other, who rejoins to him, spall not truverse also; but it suffices to maintain the writ.

Maintenance de Brief, pl. 14. cites 9 E. 4. 36.

7. When the tenant pleads in the negative, it suffices for the de- As where be mandant to ansaver in the affirmative. Br. Maintenance de Brief, pleads nonpl. 14. cites 9 E. 4. 36.

fuffices for the other to say, that tenant the day of the writ purchased, prist. Ibid.

* 8. In affife the tenant pleaded feoffment of the ancestor of the plaintiff with warranty, whose heir he is. The plaintiff said, that the fame ancestor is yet alive at D, in the county of N, and a good replication. Br. Replication, pl. 63. cites 11 E. 4. 18.

9. In affife, if the tenant pleads feoffment with warranty of the father of the plaintiff sumply, the plaintiff may say, that it was upon condition, without traverse, that it was not simply; for it is no defect in the bar. Br. Nugation, pl. 15. cites 15 E. 4. 24.

10. In appeal of death by the heir, it is a good plea that he has So in appeal an elder brother who is heir, without traversing that the plaintiff is by a fine, to say that heir; per Hussey Ch. J. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 279. cites pe was not 22 E. 4. 39.

lawfully accoupled, &c.

Br. 1bid. ---- So to allege cutlatury. Br. Ibid. ---- And in those he shall not traverse the next beir, nor the lawfully accoupled. Br. Ibid.

11. In formedon, if the tenant pleads feoffment of the ancestor with warranty and affets descended, it is a good replication that after the affets descended, and before the action brought, J. N. had recovered the affets by elder title, and had fued execution; quod nota by all the justices arguendo in trespass. Br. Replication, pl. 66. cites 1 E. 5. 3.

12. Where

12. Where the one alleges dying seised in tail, and the other dying seised in see, there are 2 affirmatives; and therefore there ought to be a traverse, and because not, therefore ill by the best opinion. Br. Consess and Avoid, pl. 64. cites 5 H. 7. 11, 12.

† S. P. Per 13. In some case plea shall be good without traverse for the missing Ch. Hussey Ch. J. Br. Traverse per, that mulier, and well; quere inde, without saying, and not baseless 22 E. fey and Fairsax.

4. 39.

14. But where the thing is to be tried ultra mare, there it is good law, that he need not traverse. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 187. cites 6 H. 7. 5.

15. Where one justifies by lease from J. S. the plaintiff says that J. S. infeoffed him before, it is not good without traverse. Cro. E. 754. pl. 17. Pasch. 42 Eliz. C. B. in Covert's case.

16. When a matter is expressly pleaded in the affirmative, which is expressly answered by the other party in the negative, there a traverse is needless, because there is a sufficient issue joined, as 36 H. 6. 15. is Cro. E. 755. pl. 18. Huish v. Philips.

17. As where A. was bound in a statute merchant to B. the de-"[384] fendant in 600 l. to the use of C. deseasanced, that if he paid such Yelv. 38. Pas.h. r Jac. fums at fuch days, the statute should be void. In audita querela HUGHES V. by A. he shewed that he was paratus at the said days and places PRILLIPS, to pay & obtulit the said * sums, and C. was not there to receive them. S. C. And though feve-The defendant pleaded that at such a day C. was at the place where, ral excep-&cc. and demanded the fum, and neither the plaintiff, nor any for him, tions were were there to pay it, absque hoc that the plaintiff obtulit the said sum taken to the judgment, at the faid day, &c. and thereupon the plaintiff demurred. It was nbou eutot held, that the traverse was not good; for there being an express brought thereupon, affirmative before, quod paratus fuit, & obtulit, &c. and non the judgobtulit, being an express negative, there shall not be any traverse; ment was wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. Eliz. 754, 755. starmed in . B. R. Per pl. 18. Pasch. 42 Eliz. C. B. Huish v. Philips. ot. Cur. in -Cro. J. 13. pl. 17. Pasch. 1 Jac. B. R. PHILIPS V. HUGRE, S. C. and judgment - omnibus.--

> 18. In second deliverance the case was, that J. being lesses for sears 9 Eliz. assigned his estate to A. the plaintiff. The desendant pleaded that before the grant to A. viz. 8 Eliz. T. affigned his effecte to the defendant, without traversing the grant to the plaintiff. Williams said, there needs no traverse; for being granted the 8 Eliz. it is impossible it should be granted 9 Eliz. and cited 2 Ed. 6. and one H. 5. But Anderson held that he ought to traverse; for it is impossible to confess and avoid a grant by confession that was granted to another before; for if it were so, the 2d grant is void, and being confessed, here ought to be a traverse. Walmsley contra; but Glanvill and Kingsmill held, that there must be a traverse; for there ought to be a confession before there can be an avoidance, but here he does not confess the gramt, but pleads matter that denies its being granted. And at last Anderson gave judgmont that he ought to traverse. Ow. 142. 44 Eliz. in C. B. Ayer v. Joyner, 19. The attirmed.

5

To. The plea of the defendant ought either to confess and avoid, As if the or traverse the material point in the declaration; and confession is plaintiff enonly where the plaintiff and defendant agree in one and the same to a fee fo thing; and where they vary in estate in the quantity of it, there long as J.S. ought to be a traverse. Yelv. 140. in case of Ewer v. Moile.

titles bimfelf bas iffue, and the defendant would derive an estate so long as J. D. has issue, he must take a traverse; for though they agree in the nature of the estate, yet they vary in the substance by reason of the different limitations. Yelv. 140, 141. Mich. 6 Jac. B. R. in case of Ewer v. Moile.

So if the plaintiff in watte declares of an essare to bim and bis beirs males, and the defendant derives giste to the plaintiff and his beirs female, &c: this is not good without traverting the estate surmised by the plaintiff. Yelv. 141. in case of Ewer v. Moile.

20. In all actions where the plaintiff makes a title to the thing in demand, or to a thing for which he demands damages, there the defendant ought to make a better title to himself, and to traverse the plaintiff's title, or otherwise to confess and avoid it. Arg. quod fuit concessum per tot. Cur. Yelv. 174. Hill. 7 Jac. B. R. in case of Priestly v. White.

21. When a man justifies all the fact, there needs no traverse:

Mo. 864. pl. 1192. Hill. 13 Jac. Weaver v. Ward.

22. He who pleads in the negative, shall never take a traverse; for he must only maintain his bar; per Jones and Whitlock.

Palm. 511. Hill 3 Car. B. R. Farrer v. Gate.

23. Where any thing pleaded is directly contrary to the matter in the declaration, such plea is not good without a traverse, but it is in the election of the other party to pass by it, or to demur upon it; per Twissen J. who said that this seemed to be a rule 28 to traverses. Sid. 301. Mich. 18 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Courtney v. Phelps.

24. North Ch. J. said, he had always taken the law to be, 2 Mod. 60. that when you come to the replication, the omitting of a traverse Mich. 27 Car. 2. C.B. where it ought to be taken, was matter of substance; for if they S.C. acshould not be bound to traverse, they might plead on ad infinitum. cordingly. And he faid so he had often seen it ruled in B. R. that hoc paratus est verificare, instead of hoc petit quod inquiratur per pa- [385] triam, or de hoc ponit se super patriam, was matter of substance. Freem. Rep. 203. pl. 205. Mich. 1675. in case of Snow v. Sir Wm. Wiseman.

25. In replevin, the defendant made conusance as bailiff to Sir 3 Mod. 318. Mich. 2 W. P. W. setting forth, that he was seised in see of the place where, & M. in &c. and so justifies the taking damage-feafant; the plaintiff replies B.R. S.C. and confesses the seism of Sir P. W. but pleads that Sir G. W. bis father was seised, &c. in fee, and made a lease to W.R. for 3 lives of the place where, &c. that W.R. was dead, and that W.W. entered as occupant, and made a lease to the plaintiff. The defendant demurred, for that the plaintiff had not traversed the seisin in see of Sir P. W. the fon. It was held per Curiam, that either in trespass or in avowry, if a freehold is pleaded it must be traversed, unless the party does wholly confess and avoid it by a defeasible title, following it only with this difference, that if in action of trespass a freehold is pleaded, the party may traverse it generally, without inducing his traverse by a title; but in avowry, the traverse must the bar was by the name of Bradburn v. Kennerdale argued, but no judgment was given. Carth. 164. S. C. that in Hill. term was adjudged by the Court, that ill for want of a traversez that the place where was manor tempore captionis; for though it was granted that the reversion of the locus in quo remained parcel of the manor after the demise for three lives; yet the place itself and the freehold were severed by the demise, and by consequence they were not parcel of the manor tempore quo, &c. therefore the plaintiff ought to have traversed that which the deserdant had affirmed (vis.) that the locus in quo was parcel of the manor of A. tempore quo, &c. And as to this matter there is a difference between replevin and trespals; and the Court held that the seifia in dominico of the place where, &c. was not traversable; for it is not expressly alleged in the conusace, that Sir P. &c. was seised in dominico of the place where, but only by consequence as it was parcel of the manor of Asley; of which he (Sir P. W.) was seised in dominico; therefore if he had traversed the igifin, it must have been of all the manor. The judgment was affirmed.

· be induced by leting forth a title; et per Curiam, the want of a traverse is matter of substance in the principle case, because there are 2 affirmatives in the pleading, and that will not admit any triparcel of the al without a traverse; therefore it is not helped by a general demurrer; but a superfluous traverse is only matter of form, because it. doth the other party no injury. 3 Salk. 354, 355. pl. 7. Mich. 4 Jac. 2. Radborn v. Kennadale.

> 26. The default of a necessary traverse is substance, and not aided by a general demurrer, Carth. 166. Mich. 2 W. & M. B. R. in case of Bradburn v. Kennerdale.

Necessary in what Case, where there is a Sm (N. s). (Q. a) Confessing and Avoiding.

1. THERE the matter is confessed and avoided it need not be traversed. 3 Salk. 353. pl. 4. Pasch. 9 W. 3. Anon.

2. In annuity the plaintiff declared upon prescription; the defendant But where first ment is faid that it was granted upon condition, which is broken on the part of the pleaved fim. ply it is suf- plaintiff; and no plea per Cur. without traversing the annuity by prescription; for annuity by prescription, and annuity by grant uponncient for the other to condition, cannot be extended to one and the same annuity. Br. Confels Say that it and Avoid, pl. 63. cites 32 H. 6. 4. REQUISOF condition,

&c. w thout traverling, &c. for it may be intended one and the same feoffment; note the diversity. Be-Confess and Avoid, pl. 63. cites 32 H. 6, 4.

3. Where the plaintiff confessed as much as the defendant alleges and As in trespass the demore, he need not traverse. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 143. cites fendant jus. eified for com. 37 H. 6. 34.

mon appendant to bis boufe in D. and 40 acres of land in the place where, &c. the plaintiff faid that be "bad no commen there, but during the time be dwelt in the faid bouse, and be d.d not dwell there at the time of the tressals, absque bot that he had common there in other manner. Per Choke, where the plaintiff confesses all that which the defendant has said and more, he need to traverse; but per Prisot he ought to traverse; sor he does not confess all that the defendant has faid, for he claimed common there at all times; and the plaintiff said, that he had not common there, but when he dwelt in the house to which, &c. by which he traversed the common modo & forma, &c. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 22. cites 37 H. 6. 36.

For in affile if the tenant pleads feofiment of the father of the plaintiff with noarranty; and the plaintiff fays, that it was upon condition, &c. and that be entered as beir for the condition broken, he need not to traverse, Sec. for he has confessed all that the tenant said and more, which surplus avoids the bar of the tenant. Per Choke. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 22. cites 37 H. 6. 36. - S. P. ibid. pl. 38. cites 6H. 7. 5. per Hussey, Fairtax, and Wood, -S. P. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 187. cites 6 H. 7. 5. per Wood. ——Heath's Max 111. cap. 5. cites S. C.

So elsowhere, if the one alleges dying selfed, and the other alleges devise of him who died seifed; which ground was admitted there for law. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 22. citer 37 H. 6. 36. 7 [386]

4. In

214. cites

4. In trespass the defendant said that R. H. was seised in fee, Br. Traverse and infeoffed 2, who infeoffed 3, who infeoffed 5, and one died, and per, sec. pla the 4 infeoffed the defendant, and gave colour to the plaintiff, and the S.C. plaintiff said, that before R. H. any thing bad, J. H. was seised in fee, till by the said R. H. disseised, who occupied at will, which R. H. infeoffed the 2, who infeoffed the 3, who infeoffed the 5 and 4 others, by which they were seised, and shewed how the defendant came to. the possession by them, and he re-entered, and was seised till the defendant did the trespass, and the defendant rejoined that R. H. did not diffeise J. H. And a good plea, and need not to traverse that the 3 did not infcoff the 9, but the 5 only; for he confesses all that the desendant said and more; quod nota. Br. Consess and Avoid, pl. 43. cites 3 E. 4. 17.

5. Where one justifies by a lease from J. S. and the plaintiff says, that the said J. S. infeoffed him before, and after the feoffment entered and disseised him and made the lease, and afterwards re-entered. This is good without traverse; for thereby he confesses and avoids the lease alleged, per Cur. Cro. E. 754. pl. 17. Pasch. 42 Eliz. C. B.

in Covert's case.

6. In replevin the defendant avowed for that W. R. was seised and For a conmade a leafe to him (the defendant) for one year, and so justified the taking, &c. damage feasant. The plaintiff replied, that true it is, a full anthat W. R. was seised, &c. but before he made a lease to the defendant swer of the be made another to the plaintiff, which is still in being, and not determined; this is sufficient without a traverse, because the title of so there the defendant is confessed and avoided. 3 Salk. 353. pl. 4. Pasch. 9 W. 3. B. R. Anon, festing and avoiding is matter alleged, and needs no traverie of it, or denial of the thing. L. P. R. tit. Traverse, cites Pasch. 24 Car. B. R.

(R. a) Good or not. Where there is a Confessing See (W). and Avoiding.

1, WHERE the plea is fully confessed and avoided, and then a tra- For by that verse moreover is taken; this traverse vitiates the whole Ld. Raym. Rep. 238. Trin. 9 W. 3. in case of Lambert v. Cook, cites Brook, Confess and Avoid, 65. 33 H. 6. 28.

means the party denies what he had before con-

2. In ejectment the defendant pleaded in bar that the dean, &c. of fessed. Jenk. Windfor were seised, and made a lease for years to W.R. who assigned it to the defendant, who was possessed till the lessor of the plaintiff ousted bim and disseised the dean, &c. and being so seised made a lease to the plaintiff, upon whom the defendant re-entered; the plaintiff replied, and confessed the seisin of the dean, &c. and made title to the term by the assignment made by the lessee to his own lessor before the assignment made to the defendant, and traversed the disseism. The Court held [387] clearly that the traverse was ill, because the plaintiff had confessed and avoided, and also traversed, whereas he should have left the matter upon the assignment of the term without any traverse, fo as the defendant might have traversed the assignment in his rejoinder, which is the only material point in variance; for if the first assignment was made to the defendant it was a disseisin, but if to the lessor of the plaintiss it was no disseisin. So that the point was upon the priority of the assignment, and ought to be in issue.

Mo. 557. pl. 757. Trin. 40 Eliz. Townsend v. Kingsmill.

Brown!. 144. ' S. C. ac-Cordingly; and adds, that if the plaintiff had intendre to have fully answered the desendant, he ought to have taken his traverse in the very Same words the defendant had pleaded it against him, vis. shique hoe that the did enter. and was

- 3. In ejectment upon a lease made by E. J. the desendant pleaded that before the faid E. had any thing one M. J. was seised in fee and bad issue H. to whom the lands descended after his death, and that the faid E. entered, and was feifed by abatement, and died; the plaintiff replied, and confessed the seisin of M. and that he devised the lands to E. in fee, and so claimed under the devise, and traversed that she was seised by abatement modo & forma. And upon demurrer it was adjudged for the defendant; for the plaintiff need not both to confess and avoid and also to traverse the abatement; for the plaintiff made title under E. the devisee of M. and so her entry legal and not by abatement, and so the traverse over makes the replication vitious; for no traverse should be taken but where the thing traversed is issuable; and the devise here is only the title issuable. Besides the traverse was not good as to the manner of it; for he should not have traversed absque hoc that E. was seised by abatement. But it should have been absque hoc that she did abate, &c. Cro. J. 221. pl. 3. 7 Jac. B. R. Bedell v. Lull. seised by abatement; quod nota. --- S. C. Yelv. 151. accordingly.
 - 4. In trespass for trespass done in an acre parcel of the manor of D. the defendant pleaded that R. was seised of the manor and the acre escheated to him, who conveyed the manor of which the acre is parcel, after the escheat by mesne conveyance to A. in fee, and that A. 12 Eliz. infeoffed B. of the said manor of which the said acre is parcel, and so justified by conveyance from B. to the defendant; the plaintiff replied that 10 Eliz. R. infeoffed C. of the said acre, absque hoc that he infeoffed B. of the said manor of which the faid acre is parcel. The defendant demurred generally. It was argued that the traverse was good, and alleged 38 H. 6. 49. the same traverse, and that here when the defendant had pleaded that the acre had escheated and alleged a seoffment of the acre, the plaintiff may traverse that which is not expressly alleged, and cited 34 H. 6. 15. But Hobart Ch. J. said that the traverse is not good; for by the feoffmeut made 12 Eliz. he had confessed and avoided the feoffment made the 10 Eliz. and so there needed no traverse. Adjornatur. Het. 37, 38. Mich. 20 Jac. C. B. Johnson

Yo. 66. pl. 3. S.C. accordingly.

5. Debt upon bond dated 30 Novemb. 20 Jac. to perform an award, so as it be made before the first day of June; the defendant by his plea confessed the bond dated 30 Novemb. but said it was primo deliberat' 28 Aprilis 21 Jac. after which day, and before the 1st day of June following, there was no award made, absque boc quod cognovit Je teneri modo & forma, &c. It was held that the traverse was repugnant; for he had confessed the bond, but denied it by the traverse; for by Doderidge J. the traverse absque hoc goes to the deed itself. Lat. 59. 61. Pasch. 1 Car. The Bishop of Norwich v. Cornwallis.

(S. a) Good or not. Where the Party may wage see (S) pls. bis Law.

1. WHERE a man may wage his law, there he cannot tra- Br. Detta, verse the cause of the debt nor the contract. Br. Traverse S.C.—per, &c. pl. 64. cites 8 H. 6. 5.

S.P. Keilw.
39. pl. 4. cites 13 H. 7. Anon.

2. As in debt upon buying and † lending or the like, he shall not Br. Dette, fay that he did not buy nor did not borrow, but shall plead that 8H.6.5.—he owes him nothing or wage his law. Br. Traverse per, &c. • S. P. Bepl. 64. cites 8 H. 6. 5.

pl. 64. cites 8 H. 6. 5.

Inw. Keilw. 39. pl. 4. Trin. 23 H. 7. Anan.
† In debt against an abbot of 201. and counted that the predecessor berrowed the money of him, which came to the use of the bouse, that is to say, in reparations, &c. per Choke, it is sufficient to shew generally how it came to the use of the house, and not how it was laid out; and the desendant said that he did not berrow, and a good issue notwithstanding that by some he may wage his law. Br. Travense per, &c. pl. 245. cites 13 E. 4. 4.

3. So in debt upon arbitrement, the defendant shall not plead S.P. Br. no such submission; for he may wage his law, and there he cannot cites 22 E.4. traverse the cause of the debt, nor contract. Br. Traverse per, &c. 29. Per tot. pl. 64. cites 8 H. 6. 5.

But Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 245. cites 13 E. 4. 4. it was said that in debt upon arbitrement, he may traverse the arbitrement, or wage his law.————S. P. Br. Ibid. pl. 264. cites 21 E. 4. 55. that he may say no such arbitrement, and yet he may wage his law. Brooke says quere inde.—S. P. Be-cause this arbitrement lies in motice of a 3d person, and so the lay people may have constance of it, and for this cause the plea has been held good. Kelw. 39. pl. 4. Trin. 13 H. 7. Anon.

- 4. Contra in debt upon a ‡ lease for years, or upon § arrears of 18. P. Br. account before auditors, there he cannot wage his law; therefore per, &c. pl. there non dimitit, &c. or nul tiel account is a good plea. Br. 228. cites 8 Traverse per, &c. pl. 64. cites 8 H. 6. 5.

 Traverse per, &c. pl. 64. cites 8 H. 6. 5.

 E.4. 3. that he may traverse the lease. ——— § Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 264. cites 21 E. 4. 55. that he may say nul tiel account, and yet may wage his law. Brook says, quere inde.
- 5. In detinue of charters, the defendant may traverse the bailment, S. P. Br. because he cannot wage his law. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 228.

 Cites 8 E. 4. 3.

 E. 4. 55.—

But in detinue of a cheft sealed with charters, the defendant said that it is a box sealed with charters which the prior predecessor of the plaintiff delivered to the desendant, in pledge for 100s. borrowed, which he took to re-deliver when the 100s shall be paid, absque hoc that he detained such cheft of charters; and a good plea, and yet he might have waged his law, because he did not count of any charters special. Bro Traverse per, &c. pl. 272. cites 22 E. 4. 7.

6. But where he may wage his law, there he shall not traverse As in detinue of the bailment; by all the Justices. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 228. bailment of a borse to rebail when,

&c. the defendant said that be bailed to him to bail to a firanger, which be has done, absque hoc that it was bailed to him to re-bail, prout, &c. And per tot. Cur. it is no plea, because he may wage his law, and so shall not traverse the bailment. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 264. cites 21 E. 4-55.

Cravette.

So in detirme of goods, and counted of bailment, the defendant said that the Jame day, &c. and at ansa ther time the plaintiff gave to the desendant the same goods, absque bot that he bailed them to the desendant prout, &cc. And per tot. Cur. except Brian, it is no plea; for it is only argument; and also when the defendant may wage his law, as here, he shall not be suffered to traverse the mesne "comveyance, and in debt upon buying of a borse, that he did not buy is no plea; for it is only nihil debet argumentatively. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 275. cites 22 E. 4. .29.

See (D. b). (T. a) Good or necessary. Where the Writ or Count is of more or less than it ought to be.

1. I JPON the enterpleading in detinue of goods, the one said that they were delivered upon condition to fland to the arbitrement of W. P. who awarded that be should do such an act, which be has done, and that the other infeoffed him, which he has not done, and prayed livery; and the other said that he awarded this, and that the other should be bound to him in 1001. which he has not done, absque boc that he awarded as above. Per Ascough, where a man alleges an award where the award was + of this, and more, there the other shall say that he awarded this and such another thing, absque bee that he awarded this only. And per Newton, where a man pleads arvard of 3 things, and that the defendant has done 2 of them, and not the 3d, where in fact the award was but of 2 things, there the other may fay that he awarded the 2 things which he has performed, absque bot that he awarded the third; and there it is sufficient for the other to maintain that he awarded the third thing. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 68. cites 19 H. 6. 3. 19.

2. Detinue of two bonds, the garnisbee pleaded arbitrement made between the plaintiff and him, that the plaintiff should make partition of the manor of B. and of 100 acres of land in C. and pay to the garnishee 101. and said that the plaintiff had not made the partition nor paid the 101. the plaintiff said that they awarded as above, and also that the garnishee should deliver to him a deed of annuity, &c. absque hac that they awarded as above only. And per Paston, the ‡ only cannot make issue. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 88. cites

21 H.6, 18.

3. By which the plaintiff said that the award was, that he sould make partition of the manor by itself, and of the land by itself, absque hoc that they awarded that the partition should be made of the manor and land altogether prout, &c. and so ad patriam; and it was faid that there 19. the (only) was not suffered to make issue also; quod miror; therefore see. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 88. cites 21 H. 6. 18, 19.

4. In debt of 41. the plaintiff counted of a leafe of 20 acres of land, rendering 41. per ann. and the defendant faid that be leased the .; 20 acres, and 12 other acres for the same term, rendering the 41. per ann. Judgment of the count; and the best opinion was that he ought to traverse, abjque boe that he leafed the 20 acres only prout, &c. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 381. cites 32 H. 6. 3.

5. Debt upon a lease of 4 acres of land for 41. rent, the defendant demanded judgment of the count, because the plaintiff leased the acres, 56. Aig. in and a rectory, and 10s. rent, and view of frank-pledge, for the same

† 5. P. Per Prifut and Danby; and the best opimion Br. Traverse per, Acc. pl. 33. cites 35 H. 6. 38.

1 Orig. is (temant) in all the editions, but it Seems it should be (tastum).

S. C. cited Le. 44. pl.

the case of

him, and did not traverse absque hoc that he leased the land only for Kempton this rent. And the best opinion was, that he ought to traverse; v. Bellafor the leafe of the 4 acres is not a leafe of the rectory and relidue. 28 & 29 Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 33. cites 35 H. 6. 38.

MY. Mich. Eliz. C. B. and the Court clear of opinion, that for want of such traverse the plea is not good.

6. But in debt upon a lease, it is a good plea to the writ, with- *[390] out traverling that the plaintiff and another leased who is alive, or So in debt for that the leafe was made to the defendant, and another who is alive; the arrears for there * every one leases the entire, and the entire is leased to acres leased, Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 33. cites 35 H. 6. 38.

the arrears of &c. the defendant to 4 acres faid that ne lesse pas, and to the 10 acres that he leased to him and his seme who is alive not mamed, judgment of the writ; and by the opinion of the Court he shall say that he leased the 10 acres, absente bos shat be leased the 14 acres, prout, &c. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 249. cites 17 E. 4. 7.

7. So of selling a horse by 2, or to 2, and the action is brought by one, or against one. Note the diversity. Br. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 33. cites 35 H. 6. 38.

8. Avowry by tenure of 2 acres by 12s. The plaintiff said he Br. Avowry. held those 2, and 2 others by 10s. absque hoc that he held the 2 by 12s. Per Keble, this is pregnant, but may take the quantity of the fervices by protestation, and traverse the tenure of the 2 acres only; but if he will speak to the quantity of the services, he shall traverse the seisen; & adjornatur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 310. cites that the 8 H. 7. 5.

pl. 87. cias S. C.-Br. Double, pl. 93. cites Brian faid plaintiff could not plead otherwife; for there is no reason that for the falle avowry the plaintiff should be at any mischief, but he ought to have an answer to it then, and then if he was never seised of more than 10s. and he alléges 12s. he cannot traverse the tenure, absqué hoc that he holds by 12s. and as to the 2s. residue ne unques seifie, because then he ought to agree with him in the quantity of the land, which here he does not; but Keble contra, as here, Mich. 8 H. 7. 5. pl. 1.

9. If White-acre and Black-acre be adjoining, and are holden the ine of J. S. and the other of J. D. and J. S. distrains and avows for both acres, he may well traverse the tenure; per Periam J. Godb. 24. in case of Throgmorton v. Terringham.

(U. a) Not good, by its not answering the Point of See (M) the Writ, or being only to Part.

I. IN account against guardian in socage, it is no plea that the ancestor held of him in chivalry, by which he seised the ward, unless he traverses absque boc that he held of him in socage, prout, &c. quod nota; for he shall answer the point of the writ. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 373. (bis) cites 10 H. 6. 7.

2. In case for stopping 3 lights totaliter, the desendant justified the slopping 2 lights and part of the 3d, and traversed that be stopped the 3 lights aliter, vel alio modo. Williams J. said this was no answer to the declaration, but should have said guilty or not guilty, as to the residue, and not have traversed at all, and the absque hor goes to the 2 lights, and as to the 3d it is no answer;

and

and thereupon the Court gave judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Builti

116, 117. Pasch. 9 Jac. Newall v. Barnard.

3. If a traverse is too narrow and short of the mattter traversable, this is substance. Carth. 166. Mich. 2 W. and M. in B. R., in case of Bradburn v. Kennerdale.

(W. a) Of an immaterial Traverse.

S. P. Ibid. pl. 92. cites 23 H. 6. 35. 1. WHERE the plea, or matter of the plea, is not sufficient, there the sans ceo shall not aid it, though the sans ceo or traverse be good. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 132. cites 9 E. 4. 40-

[391]

2. In trespass the defendant said, that J. Long, and Alice bis feme, were seised in see jointly, and J. survived Alice, and died by protestation seised, and conveyed to the defendant as beir by descent, and gave colour. And the plaintiff said, that before the said J. any thing bad, the said Alice was seised in see, and took J. to baron, by which be was seised in right of the said A. and after they granted the said tenement to two by fine, who re-infeoffed the said J. and A. and to the heirs of the said A. and the plaintiff conveyed to him as heir of A. Absque hoc, that the said J. was seised in fee; and so to issue, and found for the plaintiff. Per Brian, the traverse is void; for if J. was seised in fee or not, yet by the fine, which is confessed by both, his interest in fee was determined, so he ought to have traversed, that 7. was not seised in see after the fine; quod Prisot concessit, that the traverse is void for the cause aforesaid; but Catesby contra. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 271. cites 21 E. 4. 83.

3. In replevin the defendant avowed the taking damage feasant. The plaintiff replied, that J. S. made a lease to him, by which he entered, and put in his cattle. The defendant rejoined, that before the lease made to the plaintiff, J. S. made a feoffment to him. The plaintiff maintained the lease, absque hoc that J. S. seisitus feoffavit. It was held, per tot. Cur. that the word seisitus is idle, and ought to have been left out; for a man cannot make feoffment, unless he is seised. Godb. 111. pl. 132. Mich. 28 and 29 Eliz.

Hales v. Home.

4. In replevin, &c. the defendant avowed, &c. and the plaintiff replied in bar, that the prior and convent of N. were seised in see, and so conveyed a title to himself by a lease, &c. The plaintiff [defendant] rejoined, absque boc that the prior and convent were seised in their demesses as of see, &c. Upon a demurrer the judges agreed, that this traverse was good, notwithstanding it was taid a thing impossible, (viz.) that the prior and convent can be seised of land, whereas the monks are dead persons in law, and therefore can have no seisin, but the prior alone; the monks being in consideration law of as dead persons, and therefore it shall be taken as if it had been pleaded, that the prior was seised, without mentioning the convent; so that the traverse is good, and the word convent surplusage. And 268. pl. 276. Trin. 32 Eliz. Eden v. Downing.

5. In debt upon an obligation, where the condition was, that one Lea should be his true prisoner, and pay every month for his diet, and the fees due to the plaintiff, by reason of his office; the desendant pleads the statute of 23 H. 8. and that this obligation was made for the ease and savour of the prisoner by colour of his office. And the plaintiff replied, that the Fleet is an ancient prison, and that time out of mind, &c. they used to take such obligations, absque hoc that this obligation was made for the ease and favour, contrary to the statute; upon which the desendant demurred generally. But Athowe prayed judgment, for that the traverse waives the matter before, which was but an inducement. And in 23 H. 6. there is an exception of the warden of the Fleet, and the warden of the palace of Westminster, that they might take such obligations which they used; to which the Court agreed. And for that the traverse over destroys the bar, the desendant ought to have joined in that; upon which judgment was given for the plaintiss, if, &c. Het. 146. Mich. 5 Car. C. B. Harris v. Lea.

6. Where a traverse is immaterial, unless there be a special demurrer to it with the causes shewn, it shall not vitiate the pleadings; but it is naught upon a special demurrer. 2 L. P. R. 588.

tit. Traverse, cites Mich. 6 W. and M.

7. Replevin. The defendant avowed damage feasant in his freebold. The plaintiss in bar replied, that B. was rite & legitime such a day feised in fee of the manor of W. whereof the place is, and time out of mind has been parcel, and lays a custom for the copyholders to bave common in the place where; and then sets out a grant of a copybold tenement, &c. * to himself from B. &c. The defendant rejoined that the cattle were damage feafant in his freehold, absque hoc that B. at the day in the bar mentioned was rite & legitime seised in fee of the manor, and granted the copyhold estate to the plaintiff, &c. The plaintiff demurred. Exception was taken first, that the defendant ought not to have traversed the rite & legitime; nor, 2dly, the day of the seisin, because if the lord were a disposer [diffeisor] the grant would be good; and the time of the seisin is not material, if it were before the grant. Judgment was given for the plaintiff. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 902. Trin. 2 Ann. Helliot v. Selby.

8. Declaration in prohibition, that defendants in error were elected common-council-men, that the plaintiffs (defendants in error) intending to draw their election into question, exhibited a petition to the common-council-men with design to remove them; whereas the faid common-council have no power to examine concerning such elections; for that time out of mind such election belonged to the court of mayor and aldermen. Defendants by their plea affirm, that the common-council, time out of mind have had, and ought to have, jurisdiction to examine into such elections; and aver, that the court of mayor and aldermen have not such jurisdiction. Plaintists reply, that the common-council have not such jurisdiction. Defendants demur. The traverse is immaterial, and the issue ought to have been joined upon the jurisdiction of the common-council; for though the mayor and aldermen should have no jurisdiction, it does not follow, that the common-council have. MS. Tab. 1718. Belton and Bridger v. Jeffes.

9. Where

*[392] 2 Salk. 701. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. ---- 3 Salk. 355. pl. 9. S. C. 26. cordingly 1 only there the day of the grant is expressly mentioned. and fays, that the day of granting it is not material; for a grant at one . day is a grant at any

And as to the plea of seking and driving the beafts, the scribed for common } and faid, abat immediately after the defend-

ent pounded bis cattle, be sequired bim

so deliver them to bint,

- 9. Where in trespass there is a good justification, a traverse of the time when the trespass was done, would be wholly immaterial. 8 Mod. 31. Hill. 7 Geo. 1721. Carvell v. Manly.
- (X. a) How. General or Special. And where it amounts only to the General Issue.
- 1. WHERE the defendant justifies to take a vagrant for sufpicion, the plaintiff may say, that de son tort demesne absque tali causa, but shall not say de son tort demesne, absque boc that be was a vagrant; for he shall not traverse the special matter, but where it is matter of record, or of writing, and not where it is matter in salt.
 Br. De son Tort demesne, pl. 20. cites 2 E. 4. 9.

2. Where the matter in the declaration and in the replication is of one and the same nature, the defendant shall take the general traverse;

per Choke. Br. Trespass, pl. 359. cites 21 E. 4. 75, 76.

3. Trespass for entering his close, and spoiling his grass, &c. and taking and driving his beasts to places unknown. The defendant pleaded, that the place where, &c. is a waste, parcel of his manor, and the plaintist's beasts were there mixed with the beasts of strangers, who had no right there; and because he could not separate the one from the other, he drove them all together to a pound in the waste to part them, and then drove the stranger's beasts out of the waste, and left the plaintist's in it. The plaintist replied; and as to the plea of entering into his close demurred, because it amounted only to the general issue. But it was resolved, that the bar being intire, though such plea be only the general issue, as being his own act, yet being joined with the special matter of justification in one intire plea, it is good. 3 Lev. 40, 41. Hill. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Thomas v. Nicols.

which the defendant rejoined, and maintained his bar, absque hoc that die & loce, eleleged by the plaintiff, he required the defendant to deliver them. Upon a demurrer the rejoinder was adjudged ill; besides it is multifarious, and he should have traversed one single point, and not all together. 3 Lev. 40. Thomas v. Nichols.

And as to the replication, it was adjudged ill; for the plaintiff should have traversed the bar, viz. either, first, That the defendant did not leave the beasts in the waste after severance; or, 2dly, That he saight have severed them without pounding them; or, 3dly, De injura sua propria absque tali causa; and then the defendant in this issue must have proved the necessity of impounding them. 3 Lev. 40, 41. Thomas v. Nichols.

=[393]

4. In covenant for not keeping and employing his apprentice, the defendant pleaded, that, from such a time to such a time, he did keep and employ him; and that then he servitium ipsius (the desendant deservities reliquit, & ab eo decessit & ulterius in servitio suo remanere neglexit & abinde postea huscuq; ad loca incognita seipsum elongavet & absentavit. The plaintiff replied, and traversed, absque hac quad servitium (of the desendant) deservit vel reliquit vel ab eo decessit, vel in servitio suo remanere (omitting neglexit) vel seipsum elongavit. And upon a demurrer to this replication it was objected, that the traverse was multisarious, consisting of so many particulars in the disjunctive; and that by omitting the word (neglexit) it was not sense. Sed per Cur. the traverse is good; for it is pursuant to the desendant's plea, which may be traversed, as he has pleaded it; and that part of it which is nonsense will not hurt, because the traverse is good without it. 3 Salk. 355. pl. 8. Pasch. 2 W. 3. B. R. Newdigate v. Selwin.

c. Every thing that is traverfable must be expressed in certainty ; and then if it be a good plea, and not traversable, it is not ques-cionable. Skin. 486. in case of Philips v. Berry.

6. In replevin, the defendant avowed for a rent charge in arrear; the plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria, absque hoc that rent was in arrear; and upon a special demurrer, for that this replication and traverse amounted to no more than the general iffue, the Court held that this is not a proper inducement to the traverse; the natural and proper plea to this avowry had been nihil in aretro, which is quafi the general iffue; fo that this is a pleading special mat- same thing ter, which amounts to the general iffue, and no other evidence can be given but such as might have been given upon the proper iffue; therefore this circumlocution is ill, because it prolongs the cause, by inforcing the avowant to an unnecessary replication; and though it is no more than matter of form, because it does not alter the evidence, yet per Holt Ch. Just. this being upon a special demurrer, is naught. 3 Salk. 356. pl. 11. Hill. 12 W. 3. B. R. Horn v. Lewin.

Ld. Raym. Rep. 639. 641. S.C. and held accordingly per tot. Cur. And though it be the in effect with a plea of riens arrear, yet riens arlear is the proper plea in avowry, and is quafi the general issue; and though it be but form, yet it is legal form, which the law will have to be followed. --- 12 Mod. 254. S. C. accordingly. 2 Saik. 583. pl. 4. S. C. accordingly. — And in 3 Salk. 356. pl. 11. it is faid to be as if in trefpest a man should plead de injuria sua propria, absque hoc quod est culpabilis, so de injuria sua propria, abique hoc quod he is bailiff, is de injuria fua propria, abique hoc that there was fuch a prefeription, thefe are naught.

7. Justification on a public act of parliament may be traversed 12 Mod. generally. Ld. Raym. Rep. 700, 701. Mich. 13 W. 3. Chauncey 580. S. C. w. Winde & al.

and in arguing the cale it was agreed, that when the plea confifts of a justification, part depending of matter of record, the replication bught to be with a special traverse. Agreed Arg. 12 Mod. 581. in case of Chancey v. Win & al.

But it was fald that this rule has its exceptions; in it matter of record be made use of by way of inducement to the part of justification, there it is not necessary to reply specially, and cited 2 Lec 102. and that that general rule only holds place where such matter of record is cleaded, to which the plaintiff mer bevean answer, as to a scire facias, &c. but here there can be no anime: to a justification under an act of parliament, as in the principal case. And he likewise agreed, that where one claims common by prescription, rent by grant, goods by sale, Sec. and so justifies as bawing interest, there the plaintiff must answer directly to the title, and not with a general de injuria sua proprie absque tali causa. But when one intitles bimself by all of parliament, especially a general act, which none can traverse, there he may well reply de injuria sua propria absque tali causa. And by Holt Ch. J. the act of parliament here, if it had not been pleaded, would have been taken notice of by the Court; therefore its being pleaded being funerfluous, will be no hindrance to the replication, with this general traverse. Mol. 581, 582. Mich. 13 W. g. in chie of Chancey v. Win & al.

- How, as to Time. Where it must be of the [394] Time before, or of the Time before and after, or of the Time after.
- 1. IN assise, the tenant intitled himself, because W. was seised in fee, and made recognizance to the defendant in 401. by statute merchant, and he sued execution, and shewed the record certain, &c. Vol. XX.

The plaintiff said that W. two years before the statute infeoffed the plaintiff, which estate he continued till by the defendant disselfed, absque hoc that W. the day of the statute, or ever after, any thing had, prist; and the other that he was seised the day of the statute, but was not suffered to say the day of statute, and after; for it is double on the part of the tenant, and yet well for the plaintiff. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 170. cites 24 Ass. 2.

And by some, the defendant shall shew what hour of the day be was infeofbe took them

2. Trespass of goods taken; the defendant said that J. B. was seifed of a house there in fee; and where the plaintiff declares the 2d day of May anno 5 E. 4. he infeoffed the defendant the 14th May in the year aforesaid, and the same day the defendant found the goods there damage feafant, by which he took them, absque hoc that he is guilty befed, and that fore the said 14th day of May; and it was challenged because he did not traverse before and after, and so was the opinion of 2 or 3 after; for if justices, and the best opinion. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 199. he took them cites 5 H. 4. 124.

in the morning, and was not infeoffed till the noon of the same day, he cannot justify before the noon. Br. Trawerse per, &c. pl. 199. cites 5 H. 4. 124.

But by 9 E. 4. fol. 4. it is sufficient prima facie, without shewing the hour, by which he pleaded the seoffment above at 6 in the morning, by which he took them there after on the same day damage feesant, absque bot that he was guilty before or after the 14th day, &cc. Br. Traverse per, &cc. pl. 199.

In trespass, the plaintiff declared that the defendant 1st May 28 Eliz. cut down 6 posts of the bouse of the plaintiff at D. The defendant justifies, because the freehold of the bouse 10 April 27 Eliz. was to J. S. and that he by his commandment the same day and year did the trespass, &c. The plaintiff democred, because the defendant did not traverse, without that that he was guilty before or after. And the opinion of Wray was, that the traverse taken was well enough, because the freehold shall be intended to continue, &c. See 7 H. 7. 3. But all the other 3 justices were of a contrary opinion; but they all agreed that where the defendant does justify by reason of his freehold at the day supposed in the declaration, there she traverse (before) is good enough. And afterwards judgment was given against the defendant. 1 Le. 95. pl. 123. Hill. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Higham v. Reynolds.———Cro. E. 87. pl. 9. S. C. that the defendant traversed, absque hoc that he was guilty of any trespass before the 10th April 27 Eliz. but did not traverse the time after, &c. And the Court inclined, that when he pleads his freehold, it shall be intended to continue, except the contrary be shewn, and therefore need not traverse the time after: but they would advise; but asserwards it was adjudged for the plaintiff.

S. P. Per Littleton, Pigot, and that it is a good replication that ne Br. Traverse

3. Contra in trespass in the land the 2d day of May, and he pleads feoffment the 14th day of May, absque hoc that he is Nele J. And guilty before, this is sufficient in trespass of * clauso fracto, grass fed, and the like; for the foil remains to him after the feoffment. Contra of taking of goods. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 199. cites Infcoffa pas. 5 H. 4. 124.

per, &c. pl. 110. cites 15 E. 4. 23. Heath's Max. 105. cap. 5. cites S. C.

中 In fuch case he shall traverse before and afser; for the Justification does not serve but for this time only. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 144. cites 37 H.6. 37.

4. Trespass of affault and battery done to W. H. bis servant, anno 7 H. 6. at B. and of entering into the house of the plaintiff; the defendant said that writ of subpana was delivered to him to serve upon the plaintiff, by which he served it anno 18 H. 6. and the plaintiff and bis servants carried him to the house of the plaintiff in spight of bis teeth, and detained him there for half a day, which is the same trespals, and to any trepals before this day not guilty; and to the battery of the servant, said that de son assault demesne anno 18, and to the trespass before this day not guilty; and by the reporter he may justify the trespass or maintain another day which the plaintiff does not count of without any traverse; and in + battery when he justifies at another day which the plaintiff does not count of, he shall plead not guilty to all before this day and after; quere. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 104. cites 22 H. 6. 49.

5. Trespass anno 17, the defendant said that the place, &c. anno Where the 18 was the franktenement of J. N. who leased to the defendant for 10 years, and as to any trespass before not guilty. Br. Traverse per, lease for &c. pl. 105. cites 22 H. 6. 49.

defendant justified by a years, he shall traverse before, and not the trespals after; for it is lawful after by his leafe. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 144. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

And it was faid that though the leafe be determined yet he need not to traverse after. Br. Traverse per-

&c. pl. 144. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

But ibid. ph 220. cites 5 E. 4. 5. it is said by Genney and Choke, that if the lease be determined he Thall traverse before and after. ————S. P. Heath's Max. 106. cap, 5. cites S. C.

Bus tobere the lease continues he stall not traverse the time before. Br. Traverse per, &cc. pl. 220. #fcc 5 E. 4. 50

6. So where he justifies another day after by descent from his father, &c. and to any trespass before not guilty; quod nota. Br. Traverse, per, &c. pl. 105. cites 22 H. 6. 49.

7. In trespass the defendant justified the taking of the cattle 3 days after the day of the trespass supposed by the declaration, by virtue pl. 204. cites of a precept of the sheriff to make replevin, absque hoc that he was guilty before the 3d day. Laken serjeant said, that he ought to traverse before and after, but Prisot said no, but before only, and not after; for the precept is an authority to him to make deliver- justified by ance at any day after, and continues till deliverance be made. writ of the Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 144. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

Br. Trefpall, S. C.---So in trefpals of taking bis crew, the defendant king as sbesounty to attack the cow, by which he attached her fuch a day and took her with him, abjque boc that he is guilty before the writ directed to bim and after the return of it. And the traverse admitted good; quære. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 189. cites 9 H.7. 6. -- Br. Trespass, pl. 283. cites S. C.

8. But where a man pleads release, he shall traverse all times S. P. Ibid. after; for the release discharges that which was before. Br. Tra-ph 104. cites 22 H. 6. 49. verse per, &c. pl. 144. cites 37 H. 6. 37. ----S. P. Ibid. pl.268.

cites 21 E. 4. 66. _____S. P. Ibid. pl. 309. cites S. C. ____In trespass the 4th of May, if the defendant pleads a release the 1st of May, he shall traverse all days after only. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 220. cites 5 E. 4. 5. S. P. Ibid. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6. S. P. per Periam J. Godb. 111. pl. 131. Mich. 28, 29 Eliz. C. B. Anon. S. P. And the plaintiff may say quod non est factum, without maintaining his day, if he will; for if there be no fuch release, he shall be punished at any day; and so see that it shall not be traversed, per Cur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 304. cites 10 E. 4. 2.

But in trespass laid to be done 1 Maii, the desendant pleads a release to him made 1 Junii, absque boc that he was guilty at any time after the 1st of Jung. Coke Ch. J. said that the day of the trespals is not material, it should have been absque bec that he was guilty before or after the 1st of June. And judgment to be desired. Rull acc. Thin to lace Arthur w. Walcott.

for the plaintiff. 3 Bulit. 209. Tain. 14 Jac. Amfon v. Walcott.

9. So of arbitrement. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 144, cites 8. P. Br. 37 H. 6. 37. per, &c. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6.

10. In trespals of goods taken, the defendant said that the plaintiff was possessed, and sold to F. who let them remain with the plaintiff, and ofter F. sold to the defendant, and he took them, the plaintiff said that be was possessed till the day in the declaration when the defendant took them, absque hoc that he sold to F. before the said day, and the others e contra; for it is a good plea per Cur. and by this means the G g 2 plaintiff shall punish the trespais done before the sale to F. Br.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 302. cites 2 E. 4. 16.

11. Trespass de clauso fracto 6 October, anno 1 E. 4. against the peace of the said king E. 4. the defendant said that 8 January 39 H. 6. † S. P. Heath's the place was his franktenement, absque hoc that he was guilty after Max. 107. the said 8th day of January, and + well, though he did not say cap. 5. bebefore and after, because * it is in the time of another king, and cause upon that writ be this writ is against the peace of the now king; so that if the jury cannot be find the defendant guilty in the time of Henry the 6th, he shall guilty benot recover by this writ. Contra if the writ had been against the fore, cites S. C.--peace of king Henry the 6th, and the now king; quod nota. And after Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 212. cites 2 E. 4. 23, 24. because he might be guilty after the day, in the time of H. 6. and in the time of E. 4. also he amended his traverse, and traversed that he was not guilty after the said day and time of E. 4. and then well; quod nota. Be..

Traverse per, &c. pl. 212. cites 2 E. 4. 23, 24.

If he justifies before the day in the declaration, there he shall traverse the time after. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 220. cltes 5 E. 4. 5.

If he pleads
If he pleads
Is frankte nement, there
the defend.

12. But if he had said that his franktenement such a day in the his frankte nement, there
the defend.

Versity. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 212. cites 2 E. 4. 23, 24.

mut ought to traverse all times after; for that excuses all times before. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 268. cites

21 E.4. 66.

But where he says that it was his franktenement such a day, he shall traverse all the time before; and this seems to be subere the day, that the plaintiff counts of, was before, and shall be intended his franktenement always after. Br. Ibid. — S. P. Br. Ibid. 309. cites S. C. and 12 E. 4. 6.——S. P. Br. Ibid. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6.——S. P. Br. Ibid. pl. 220. cites 5 E. 4. 5.

In trespass 13. False imprisonment; the defendant said that such a day after of imprison— the day in the declaration, he arrested the plaintiff by warrant of the ment the ad of May 4 B. peace, and carried him to gad, absque hoc that he is guilty before; 4. the de- and per Jenny and Choke, he ought to traverse before and after. fendant just- Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 220. cites 5 E. 4. 5.

4th of August in the 4th year aforesaid, by force of a warrant of the peace to him directed, to make the plain - eiff find surety of the peace, which is the same imprisonment, absque box that the defendant is guilty of any imprisonment before this day; and it was doubted if he shall traverse all imprisonments before and after, and long debated, & adjoinatur. By Traverse per, &c. pl. 191. cites 5 E. 4. 12.

Max. 106.

Ath of May there he shall say absque hoc that he is guilty before or after; for licence does not continue, but extends only to the s. P. Br. day in the licence. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 220. cites 5 E. 4. 5.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 309. cites 21 E. 4. 66.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 309. cites 21 E. 4. 66.

So when a matter which amounts only to a licence is pleaded at another day than is mentioned in the declaration, the defendant ought to traverse both before and after. Sid. 294. pl. 23. Trin. 18 Cm-

B. R. in case of Dame Madicin, says it seems to be agreed.

15. Trespals was the 22d June 36 H. 6. the defendant faid that J. N. was seised in see, and inseoffed the defendant 3 May 37 H. 6. and gave colour by the seoffer anno 37 H. 6. absque boc, that he is guilty before this day; and a good plea, though he claims by a stranger and not by the plaintiff, and gives colour by the stranger. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 195. cites 5 E. 4. 79.

16. Tref-

16. Trespass of cutting his wood the first day of August, the defendant justified by prescription that the lords of the manor of D. have used to have 20 load of wood there yearly between Michaelmas and Christmas, and he being lord of D. cut the 20 October between Michaelmas and Christmas, absque hoc that he is guilty before Michaelenas and after Christmas: the plaintiff said, that he cut as in the declaration, and traversed the prescription of the 20 load mode & forma: And well per Cur. for where the defendant alleges title, the plaintiff shall not be compelled to maintain his day if the defendant has no such title; and so he has election to maintain his day or to traverse the title of the defendant, and so see traverse upon traverse. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 304. cites 10 E. 4. 2.

17. Trespass de clauso fracto in D. 6 July, the defendant justified [397] for tithes severed from the 9 parts as parson the 10th day of August, absque boc that he is guilty unless after the tithes severed and till they were carried away; and it was held clearly that every parson may enter to collect bis titbes and to turn them till they are dry, and of this the reasonable time shall be tried; and a good plea, and shall not be compelled to fay that he is not guilty before nor after; for he is guilty every year after the tithes severed. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 242.

cites 12 E. 4. 6.

18. So of common, from the time of the corn fown till they are But where re-soun; because those things are incertain. Br. Traverse per, ought to &c. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6.

have commos from Lammas to Candlemas, there he ought to traverse all times before Lammas and after Candlemas. Per Choke. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6.

19. Where a man justifies another day for rent arrear at Easter, he shall traverse that he is not guilty of any entry, but to distrain when the rent was arrear. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6.

20. Account as receiver, the defendant said that he accounted But where before the plaintiff himself for the same sum the first day of April, absque hoc that he was his receiver after. And no plea per Cur. the same day for it does not go but for this time only, and not for the time be- that the fore; or it may be that he received the like sum diverse times before, and so he ought to traverse before and after. Br. Traverse needs no per, &c. pl. 309. cites 21 E. 4. 66.

the defendant justifies counts, there traverie. Br. Ibid.—

S. P. Br. Ibid. pl. 242. cites 12 E. 4. 6.——Centra where he justifies at another day, as said elsewhere for clear law. Br. Ibid. pl. 309. cites 21 E. 4. 66.

21. In second deliverance the defendant said that A. leased to B. for 20 years, which B. granted his interest to the defendant, and so avowed damage-feasant; and the plaintiff said that such a day and year B. granted to him his interest, absque hoc that he granted his interest to the defendant before that he granted his interest to the plaintiff, and admitted for good. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 113. cites 14 H. 8. 17.

22. In a quare impedit the plaintiff declared that the defendant being parson of the church in question was presented to another benefice, and was inducted 15 April, by which the first became void, Gg3

&c.

&c. The defendant pleaded, that he was qualified 18 April, abfque boc that he was inducted 15 April. The Court was of opinion (absente Anderson) that the traverse was not good; for he ought to have said generally absque bog that he was industed before the day on which he had alleged he was qualified. Godb. 111. pl. 131. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

(Z. a) How. Where the King is Party.

1. A Man was outlawed of felony, and aliened his land to J. N. by which scire facias issued against him, who came and would have traversed the felony; and the Court doubted if he might traverse it, by reason that he is a stranger to the record. But per Pigot 7 E. 4. 2. he cannot traverse it in case of felony, he being a stranger to the record; contra in case of trespass; by which it was prayed for the king that year, day, and waste be adjudged for the king immediately; and fo it was immediately from that day till a year and a day next after; quod nota. Quære if [398] the king may take the year and the day what time be pleases; it seems that he cannot. Br. Corone, pl. 205. cites 49 Ass. 2.

2. If A. be bound in a bond to 2, and after the one is felo de se and found by office, by which the king claims the entire bond, the other may traverse that he did not kill himself feloniously. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl 229. cites 6 E. 4. 3. by the best opinion.

3. Where a man makes title or pleads a plea against the king, and takes a traverse absque hoc, &c. against the king, there the king may choose to maintain the matter of the absque hoc, or to traverse the title or plea of the other party, and not to maintain the absque hoc; contra of a common person. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 207. cites 3 H. 7. 3.

Keb. 920. pl. 24. S.C. fays that the detendant the ancestor of the plaintiff granted so conveyed under him to the defendant,

4. In trespass quare clausum fregit, the desendant pleads that H. 8. was seised in fee, and so the lands descended to the king that now is, and that be as servant, &c. The plaintiff replies, that rejoined that H. 8. granted to the plaintiff, and does not traverse the dying seised of king Cha. 1. and it might come to the king otherwise. Twisden J. faid, a traverse needs not, and if it came to the king again, this to J. S. and ought to be shewn in the rejoinder; the last seisin shall be traversed if [for] it might be gained by disseisin. Adjourned. Raym. 137, 138. Trin. 17 Car. 2. B. R. Thatcher v. Ullocke.

which the Court held a departure; but if the replication be ill, the plaintiff cannot have judgment. And Keeling agreed that the plaintiff ought to have traversed, but Twisden doubted; but it being a trivial action against 3 schoolboys, for playing in a court-yard near the school, where they had long used so to do, adjornatur.

(A. b) How, where both Parties claim by one and See (S) pl. 13.—(1.a), the same Person.

IL TATHERE the plaintiff and defendant claim by one and the same person, there the traverse of the gift is good; per

tot. Cur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 278. cites 5 E. 4. 133.

2. In trespass if the defendant says that A. was seised in see and But if the infeoffed B. who infeoffed C. who infeoffed the defendant, and gives colour had colour by A. There it is sussicient to fay that A. was seised, and C. who was infeoffed the plaintiff, absque hoc that he infeoffed B. prout, &c. For the last, now the plaintiff and defendant claim by one and the same person; and there it is sufficient to traverse the first feoffment. Br. Tra- seised, and verse per, &c. pl. 200. cites 5 E. 4. 133.

been given by there to say that A. was infcoffed bim, absque bot that be infroffed B. is not a good replication, because they do not claim by one and the same person; but there be shall say that C. infeoffed bim, absque hoc that be infeoffed the defendant. Br. 1bid.

3. It was said, that a que estate is traversable, if both parties claim by one and the same person. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 231. cites 10 E. 4. 6.

4. In trespass the defendant said, that J. S. was seised of the place, Br. Traverse &c. and infeoffed B. who infeoffed C. And no plea, unless the plain- per, &c. pl. 256. cites tiff conveys by the same, by whom defendant conveyed. Br. Que Estate, S. C. pl. 36. cites 18 E. 4. 10.

5. In formedon in remainder the deed is not traversable; but if the demandant claims by the same by whom the tenant claims, the deed is traversable, and he may chuse to traverse the deed or the rift. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 179. cites 4 H. 7. 9.

6. In replevin the defendant said that B. was seised in fee and leased to E. for 60 years, which E. granted his interest to the defendant anno 38 H. 8. by which he was possessed, and distrained for damage feosant. The plaintiff said, that this same E. anno 32 H. 8. Rep. 238. granted bis interest to him. He shall not traverse the grant in anno 38, for he has confessed and avoided it by the elder grant obtained. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 65, cites 2 E. 6.

[399] S. C. cited per Cur. Ld. Raym. Trin. 9 W. 3. in case of Lambert v. Cook.

7. Where the parties do not claim by one and the same person, the dying seised shall be traversed, and not the discent. Le. 310. pl. 429. Arg. in case of Madewell v. Andrews, cites D. 366.

8. In replevin by H, against W. the defendant made conusance Cro. E. 650. as bailiff to H. because A. in 1 E. 6. leased to B. for 90 years, who assigned the term to C. who granted it to D. who granted it to E. who WHYTIER, granted it to H. The plaintiff confessed the assignment to C. and said S.C. accordthat D. took to baron J. S. who granted to the plaintiff; and traversed the grant to E. Adjudged that this traverse was ill; for a (absente lease for years cannot be gained but by a lawful grant, and therefore the last lease ought not to be traversed by him; but the other party ought to traverse the first lease, or shew how he came to it again, to enable him to make the 2d grant. 6 Rep. 24. b. Hill. 41 Eliz. B. R. Helyar's case.

ingly, and adjudged Gawdy) for the defendant.—Mo. 551. pl. 743. S. C. the defendant demurred.

because the traverse was superfluous, he having made title before, and paramount the grant, which he Official

9. But in case of a feoffment, the first feoffee must confess and avoid the last feoffment, as by dissering, &c. For a disserior may gain an estate in see, whereas a lease for years can be only by lawful conveyance. But when H. claimed by a sormer assignment of a term, it would be impertinent to traverse, that he after assigned his interest; for perhaps he did assign all his interest without having any. 6 Rep. 25. a. in Helyar's cate.

At the end of the case of LAM-BERT V. Cook, in Ld. Raym. Rep. 238. there is a nota, that the Court said the case of Denny v. Mazey was a blind calc. "Sec (B. b), pl 3.

10. In replevin, &c. the desendant justified, for that M. was seised in see, and upon the 20 Sept. 1 W. & M. demised the premises to him for a year, and he entered, and so avowed for damage feasant. The plaintiff confessed the seisin of M. but suid, that before the lease to the desendant, viz. 5 June 1 W. & M. she demised to the plaintiff for 6 years, &c. and traversed the lease made to the avowant. The avowant demurred generally. Pollexfen Ch. J. inclined, that the traverse was no cause of demurrer, though it might have been omitted, and that there were divers authorities against Helyan's CASE; and that the books generally are only, that there needed no traverse, as the case of the Bishop of Salisbury v. Hunt, Cro. C. 581. and Kelland v. White, Cro. C. 494. But the other jus tices doubted, by reason of Helyar's case, and * RICE AND HARVES-TON'S CASE. where it it is faid, that such a traverse makes the plea vitious. But here the demurrer being general, it is but form, and aided by 27 Eliz. where if one confess and avoid, and traverses, it is only in nature of a double plea; and cited Cro. C. 323. EDWARDS v. WOODDEN. And so per tot. Cur. judgment was given for the plaintiff. 2 Vent. 212. Mich. 2 W. & M. in C. B. Denny v. Mazey.

J. S. was seised of Bl. Acre, and demised it to the defendant for 3 years, from Lady-day 8 W. 3. who by virtue thereof entered and took the cattle damage feasant, &c. The plaintiff replies, that before the demise to the desendant, J. S. demised the same to him, to hold de anno in annum quamdiu ambabus partibus placuerit; and that be entered, and put in his cattle, and the desendant took them within the 2 years, absque hoc that J. S. demised to the desendant modo & forma, &c.

[400] absque boc that J. S. demised to the defendant modo & forma, &c. Secinfra]. The defendant demurred, for that the plaintiff did + not traverse the last lease, &c. Exception was taken to the traverse of the last lease, because the plaintiff had sufficiently avoided it before. And the same diversity was taken between leases and seossments, as in Helyar's case above; and then insisted, that such traverse is ill upon a general demurrer. But after several arguments at the bar the court was of opinion, that when the first termor (admitting that the lessor had ousted him, and made a subsequent lease) re-enters, the 2d lease is become void; so that to traverse the 2d lease is to traverse a void lease, which would be ill upon a general demurrer. But the Court resolved, that this demurrer was a special demurrer;

See super +. for as to the (‡ non,) since it is contrary to the record, they said they they would reject it as surplusage; and therefore judgment was given for the defendant. Ld. Raym. Rep. 237, 238. Trin. 9 W. 3. Lambert v. Cook.

(B. b) Where several Things of the same Nature are traversable, which of them shall be traversed first.

1. IN trespass, if the defendant says, that A. was seised, and in- Heath's feoffed B. who infeoffed C. who infeoffed D. whose estate the de- cap. 5. cites fendant has, and gives colour by A. there, per Cur. the plaintiff may s. c. traverse any of those feoffments, because the bar is at large, and does not bind him. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 346. cites 16 H. 6.— Contra where the bar binds the plaintiff, as this bar here does not. Br. Ibid. cites 15 H. 7. 3. and Fitzh. Double Plea, 83.

2. A bishop brought trespass against a prior, who pleaded, that his predecessor was seised in see, and died, and he elected prior, and entered, and gave colour. The plaintiff replied, that before this his predecessor was seised in see in jure episcopatus, till by J. disselfeised; upon whom the predecessor of the desendant entered, and his predecessor died, and he was elected bishop, and entered, and was seised till the trespass. And the defendant maintained bis bar, absque boc that J. disselfed the predecessor of the plaintiff, and well; for it is no traverse, that the predecessor of the desendant did not disserte J. by his entry upon him; for the diffeilin to the predecessor of the plaintiss is the matter which binds, and the meine conveyance nothing to the purpose. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 355. cites 35 H. 6. 59.

3. Bjeltment. The plaintiff declared on a lease made by J. B. The Brown1.247, desendant pleaded, that the land was copyhold, parcel of the manor of S. of which the king was and is seised, who by his steward granted the same to the defendant in see, to hold, &c. The plaintiff replied, that before the king had any thing in the lands, the queen was feifed in Tee, in right of the crown; and by her steward, at such a court, granted the lands to the plaintiff in fee, to hold, &cc. The defendant de- the plea vimurred to the replication, supposing that the plaintiff should have traversed the grant alleged by him in his bar. But the Court held the s.c. by the replication good, because the plaintiff had confessed and avoided the name of defendant's title, by a former copy granted by queen Eliz. and therefore needed not to traverse the grant made to the defendant. Cro. J. 299. ingly. pl. 2. Pafch. 10 Jac. B. R. Rice v. Harveston.

148. S.C. accordingly, and the Court held. that fuch a traverfe would make Ydv. 223. Rice v. Harsifon accord 2 Bult. I. S. C. by name of RICE v. HARRIS, accordingly; and Williams J. faid, that it appearing by the replication, that the grant to the plaintiff, being first in time, had avoided the defendant's leafe, being the # last. The defendant ought therefore to have rejoined, and so to have traversed the first grant; but by his demurrer to the replication be bad confessed the grant, under which the plaintiff claimed.

[401]

(C. b) Supposal of the Writ, &c. traversable in what Cases.

-1. WRIT of entry by A. that the tenant has not ingress unless by J. N. who disseled the plaintiff. The tenant said, that the demandant infeoffed J. N. by his deed; judgment if against his deed, &c. Per Thorp, this is contrary to the writ, &c. by which he said, that A. infeosfed J. N. absque hoc that J. N. disseised Quod nota, that where the plaint is contrary to the supposal of the writ, it is not good without traversing the point of the writ, Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 56. cites 38 E. 3. 1. and 15 E. 4. 28. 4 H. 6. 29. 8 H. 6. 2, 3. 9 H. 6. 32. and 15 H. 7. 16, 17. accordingly.

S.C. cited Arg. Ld. Raym. Rep. 355. in calc of Pullein w. Benien. S.P. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 279. cites 22 E. 4. 39. S. C. cited Arg. Ld. Raym. Rep.

of Pullein v. Benson.

2. In mortdancestor the tenant may allege joint-seisin in himself, and in the father of the demandant; and this is a good plea, without traversing the sole dying seised; and the reason seems to be because the writ and declaration is only supposal. But where the jointenancy is alleged for bar in assis, or other action, or in a title, there the fole dying seised is traversable. The reason seems to be, because the bar, title, and replication are matters in fact, and not supposal. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 185. cites 5 H. 7. 11, 12.

3. In formedon it is a good plea, that the ancestor is alive, without traversing the death, because the death is not alleged but by supposal. Contra where it is alleged by matter in fact; for where one 355. in case alleges life in fact, the other shall say that he is dead, objace bec that be is alive; and where death is alleged, the other shall say that he is alive, absque hoc that he is dead; and where the absque hoc is alleged, there shall come the visne. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 187. cites 6 H. 7. 5.

(D. b) By whom, or in whose Name to be taken. Plaintiff, &c. or Defendant, Tenant, &c.

MITHERE the tenant takes no sans ceo in his plea, there the As in precipe 1. against 2, if demandant shall take no sans ceo in his replication, but shall the one takes the entire te- maintain that which the tenant has traversed. Br. Traverse per. &c. pl. 70. cites 19 H. 6. 13. per Newton. him, and wouches or pleads in bar, absque bot that his companion any thing has, and the other likewise takes the entine tenancy upon him, absque bot that the other any thing has, and wonches or pleads in har; there it is sufficient for the demandant to fay that they two are tenants as the writ supposes, prist; without travers; because they in their pleas have taken traverse; per Newton and Fulthorp accordingly. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 70. cites 19 H. 6. 13. --- Br. Maintenance de, &c. pl. 9. cites 9 H. 6. 13.

2. But where the tenant takes no fans ceo in his plea, there the As in formedon, if the demandant ought to take a sans ceo in the replication. Br. Traverse tenent ploads per, &c. pl. 70. cites * 19 H. 6. 13. per Newton. jointenancy evith a stranger not named, of the gift of J. N. judgment of the writ; there the demandant shall say that be a is tenant as the writ supposes, absque hoc that the stranger any thing has. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 70. cites 19 H. 6. 13. per Newton. Br. Maintenance de Brief, pl. 9. cites 9 H. 6. 13. S. P. Br. Traverse per, &c., pl. 137. cites 6 H. 7. 5. per Hussey and Fairsax J.

~ [402]

3. In

3. In outlawry it was said per Young, that where a man is Contra if be attainted of felong by verdict, his feoffees nor his mainpernors for his was attainted good behaviour shall not traverse that he was not guilty. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 320. cites 7 E. 4. 2.

by confission; per Young, which none denied. Br.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 320. cites 7 E. 4. 2. But upon outlawry of the principal, the feoffee may traverse the felony, contrary of verdict. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 323. cites 49 E. 3. II.

4. In debt for rent the plaintiff declared that he demised to the It is said in defendant 26 acres rendering rent; the defendant pleaded that be demised to him the 26 acres, and also 4 acres more, absque boc that this be demised the 26 acres tantum; and the jury found that the plaintiff opinion of demised 21 acres only; the Court doubted for whom to give judgment; but Shelley said, that the desendant needed not to C. B. as to have traversed, he having confessed that and more, and then the traverse. traverse ought to come on the part of the plaintiff, viz. absque hoc that he demised the faid 4 acres prout, &c. and then the charge of the jury would be only upon the furplusage, viz. the demise of the 4 acres; whereas here it is upon the whole 26, &c. but he would advise. D. 32. b. pl. 7. Pasch. 28 & 29 H. 8. Anon.

of Dyer, Shelly was affirmed in

5. In debt for rent, the plaintiff declared on a demise of 4 acres at 5 l. The defendant pleaded that the demise was of the said 4 acres and one acre more, viz. Wb. Acre, and that before the rent due the plaintiff entered into Wb. Acre. The plaintiff demurred, because mentioned. the desendant did not traverse, absque hoc that he demised the 4 acres only; but it was said on the other side, that the traverse ought to come on the part of the plaintiff, viz. that he should have maintained the demise, absque hoc that he demised Wh. Acre, It was answered, that this would be a departure, and therefore the traverse should be by the defendant; because when he pleads other lease than that on which the plaintiff declared he should traverse the lease upon which the plaintiff declared, viz. he should have pleaded the lease of Wh. Acre, absque hoc that he demised the 4 acres tantum: and of this opinion was the Court, and gave judgment for the plaintiff. Lev. 263. Hill. plaintiff had 20 & 21 Car. 2. B. R. Salmon v. Smith.

Kaym. 125. S. C. very fhort, and no judgment Sid. 405. pl. 15. Sammon v. Smith, S.C. that judgment was given for the plaintiff because defendant had not concluded his plea, abique hoc that the devised modo & forma.

-Saund. 206. S. C. adjudged accordingly. But Saunders, who argued for the defendant, fays at the end of his report of the case, that it seems to him that the leaving the matter at large in the plea, and so for the traverse to come of the part of the plaintiff in his replication, would have been the most apt I Gubdantial manner of pleading: but that the Court was of another of ported.

(E. b) How much.

1. IN forcible entry the declaration was of 2 bouses, and 100 acres Br. Repleof land; the defendant said that A. B. was seised of the manor of D. of which the houses and land is parcel, and conveyed himself to et by temure and escheat of the manor, and gave colour of the houses and land only, and the plaintiff intitled himself to the manor, and so be was seised of the houses and land till by the desendant disseised, house did and traversed the dying seised of the tenant [of] the defendant of the not die seised der, pl. 50. S. C. for it may be that he who died feifed of the land and of the mathe action is to the entire manor, as his title was * in the premises; and yet well, house and per judicium. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 156. cites 36 H. 6. 19.

And he need not traverse, but only that of which be complains who brought the action, and it may be that the house and land were parcel of the manor at one time and not at another. By. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 156. cites 36 H., 6. 19.

But where a fine is levied of the manor, and he brings scire facias of 3 acres parcel, there it is otherwise; for he alleges the entire manor to be in the fine. Ex. Ibid.

For where
2. A man may traverse more than is alleged; per Wangs. Br.
condition or

Traverse per, &c. pl. 26. cites 33 H. 6. 49.

arbitrement to consist in one point, the other party may say that it was upon this condition and another, and show what, absque bot that it was upon the one only, or that they arbitrated this point, and another, absque hot that they arbitrated this point only. Br. Ibid.

And in waste by the beir, if the tenant alleges grant of the reversion by the father in his life, to which

be attorned, the plaintiff may say be did not attorn in the life of bis father. Br. Ibid.

And in assisfe, if the tenant pleads that his father was seised in see, and died by protestation seised, the plaintiff may make title by a stranger, absque hoc that the sather of the tenant ever any thing had. Br. 4bid.——And it is said P. 38 H. 8. that he may say absque hoe that the father was seised in see, sec.

Ibid----Heath's Max. 116. cap. 5. cites S. C.

So where a writ of privilege was brought by the defendant in trespass as servant of an officer of the Exchequer; the plaintiff replied, that the defendant was servant in bushandry, obsque bot that he is a servant attending at the office. And Prisot held this a good issue; and none but Laken denied it. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 27. cites 34. H. 6. 15. — But Brooke makes a quære if he ought not to traverse, absque hot that the privilege extends to all the servants, prout, &c.

3. Where the justification goes to a time and place not alleged by the plaintiff, there must be a traverse of both. 2 Mod. 68. Hill.

28 & 29 Car. 2. C. B. Wine v. Rider.

4. Judgment was given in debt in C. B. The desendant brought writ of error, and offigned the want of an original, to which the defendant in error pleaded a release of errors. The plaintiff in error replies, that defendant had obtained two judgments against bing in the same term, and traversed that the release of errors pleaded was a release of errors in that judgment of which the writ of error was now brought. Holt Ch. J. said the plea is good now, after the release is set out upon over; for now it appears to be a release of this judgment, and it shall not be intended that there was another judgment between the same parties of the same term. your replication is not good; for if there were another judgment to which this release might be applied, you should have pleaded fpecially and certainly, and have averred, that this release was a release of the errors in that judgment, and so have given the plaintiff an opportunity of answering that judgment, as by pleading nul tiel record; for if there be no fuch record, the very foundation of your replication is gone; for if there be no other judgment, this release releases this judgment, and the traverse is of a thing in the air. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1054, 1055. Mich. 3 Ann. Davenant v. Raftor.

(F. b) What must be alleged, though it be not traversable.

1. IN formedon the explices ought to be alleged, for otherwise Br. Attachthe count is not good; and get when they are alleged they ment for Prohibition, nee not traversable. Per Martin. Br. Explees, pl. 6. cites pl. 1. cites 9 H. 6. 61.

2. Attachment upon a prohibition, the writ was tenuit placitum contra probibitionem nostram, and did not count that probibition was delivered to the defendant, by which the defendant demanded judgment of the count for this default; and per Cur. he ought to count it; and yet it is not traversable. Br. Attachment sur Prohibition, pl. 1. cites 9 H. 6. 61.

3. In formedon in remainder, deed of remainder ought to be fhewn, and yet it is not traversable. Br. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 324. cites 14 H. 6. 1.

4. He who prays to be received ought to shew cause, and if the [404] cause be not sufficient the demandant may demur; and yet be shall not traverse the cause. As a man may demur for a thing formal, as the year and day in trespass, and yet they are not traversable. Br. Resceit, pl. 133. cites 32 H. 6. 12.

5. If a man dissels me I may have trespass for the mesne profits though I do not re-enter, but in pleading I ought to allege re-entry; but this shall not be traversed: quod nota per Pigot, and none denied it. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 131. cites 9 E. 4. 38. at the end.

6. In replevin if the defendant says that he took them in another place than where the plaintiff counts, it is no plea if he does not shew cause of the taking, as to make avowry, &c. and there the cause or matter of the avowry shall not be traversed, but the issue shall be taken upon the place; quod nota; issue tendered, which. shall not be tried. Br. Replevin, pl. 45. cites 21 E. 4. 64.

7. Condition of an obligation was, that the obligor should not enter or claim such a house; and the defendant said that he did not enter nor claim. Keble said he claimed, prist. Per Brian, you ought to fay that be came to the land, and claimed the land, and entered into it, and yet nothing of the entry shall be traversed, but only the claim; quod nota. Brooke makes a quære of this opinion; for there he alleges both points of the condition, &cc. Br. Conditions, pl. 130. cites 4 H. 7. 13.

8. The confideration in an action upon the case is material, but So where in not traversable; per Wray and Fenner Justices. Cro. E. 201. case upon pl. 27. Mich. 32 & 33 Rliz. B. R. in case of Smith v. Hitchcock.

was executed, it is not traversable. Ibid. eites 5 H. 7. 21 H. 7. 130

9. So in an action fur trover, the conversion is material, but not traversable; per Wray and Fenner J. Cro. E. 201. pl. 27. in case of Smith v. Hitchcock.

an indebitai tus, the confideration

10. Trespass for killing, &cc. a tame deer; the desendant pleaded in bar that he was possessed of such lands for a term of years, and that a stray deer came thereon, and that he not knowing it to be a tame deer killed it, que est eadem interfectio, &c. And upon demurrer the Court inclined, that the plaintiff should have averred in his count that the defendant knew the deer to be tame, otherwise they inclined that he is excusable; but afterwards they ordered the declaration to be amended, and defendant to plead not guilty. 2 Lutw. 1359. Pasch. 3 Jac. 2. Atkinson v. Hunter.

(G. b) What Thing is traversable in one Action which is not so in another Action.

1. ANNUITY. Per Danby, Prisot, and others, anno 30 H. 6. A parson shall have aid of the patron without cause shewn, otherwise than to say that B. was seised of the manor of D. to which the advowson was appendant, and presented him, and that he found the church discharged, &c. and prayed aid; and the cause is not traversable where he shews cause, as it shall be where land is demanded against tenant for life, for he shall shew cause, and the cause is traversable of the aid, and not in writ of annuity; note the diversity. Br. Aid, pl. 89. cites 22 H. 6. 47.

2. Replevin. The defendant makes conusance as bailiff to J. S. The plaintiff traverses absque hoc that he is bailiff: the desend-[405] ant demurs, and judgment for him; for the difference is between trespass and replevin. In the former such a traverse may be taken, but not in the latter. 1 Ld. Raym. Rep. 233. Trin. 9 W. 3.

Harrison v. Britton.

3. A presentment in a court leet is traversable, but no action lies against the steward, for awarding process upon it. Such presentment is traversable in replevin, not in trespass, nor in action against the judge. Ld. Raym. Rep. 470. East. 11 W. 3. in case of Groenvelt v. Dr. Burnel & al.

(H.b) By what Words, or what will amount to a Traverse.

1. THE words absque boc are not necessary. See Saund. 22. in the case of Bennet v. Filkins.

2. Et non virtute warranti, &c. See Saund 21, 22. Mich. 18 Car. 2. Bennet v. Filkins.

3. Non antea in some cases will make a traverse; per Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 349. 356. in case of Pullen v. Benson.

4. Partes finis nibil babuerunt, &cc. is a sufficient denial of the seisin alleged at the time of the fine, and is a traverse in effect, though not introduced with the formal words of absque hoe, &c. 2 Lutw. 1625. Trin. 1 Ann. in some observations of the reporter on the case of Walters v. Hedges.

S. C.---See (E) pl. 5. S. C.

See 2 Salk. 628. pl. 2.

5. Non

5. Non affumpfit, and non eft factum, are both of them pleas which traverse matters in those respective actions that are pleaded by way of recital; per Parker Ch. J. 10 Mod. 191. Mich. 12 Ann. B. R. Sestern v. Cibber.

(I.b) Aliter, vel alio Modo. Good or necessary, in what Cases.

EBT against executors, who faid that the party died intestate, S.P. Heath's and the ordinary committed the administration to N. and they as servants of N. sold the goods, and rendered to him an account, absque 13 H. 6, 13. hoc that they administered in other manner. Br. Traverse per, &c.

cap. 5. cites

pl. 379. cites 31 H. 6. 13.

2. Debt against the marshal, upon an escape of one T. who was And it was condemned to the plaintiff in affile in 101. and brought writ of error; and the judgment was affirmed, and he committed to the that frange Marshalfea, and suffered to escape, the defendant said that a great enemies did number of the king's enemies broke the prison, and took them out, to pew force of absque hoc that be escaped aliter, vel alia modo. And the opinion their names, was, that it is no plea, if he does not say that they were strange ene- and not mies, as of France, &c. For if they were of England, he may quod ignotion have his recompence, and if they were strangers, the plea is good Ibid. without any sans ceo; & adjornatur. Br. Dette, pl. 22. cites 33 H. 6. 1.

3. Trespass of grass cut, the defendant justified, because he was faid that if he pleads

Max. 118.

seised of a house, and 100 acres in see, to which he and all those whose estate, &c. have had common appendant in 40 acres, of which the place [406] where, &c. with all manner of beafts, &c. Littleton protestando that he has not, &c. Et pro placito, that he has common there, as long as he and those, &c. dwell in the house aforesaid, with their beast levant and couchant, and not otherwise; and that at the time of the trespass the defendant was not divelling in the said house, absque hoc that be and those whose estate, &c. have had common in any other form. Per Prisot, he ought to traverse here; for where the plaintiff confesses as much as the defendant alleges, and more, he need not traverse; but as here he has not confessed so largely as the defendant has alleged; for he alleged all times, and the plaintiff did not confess but during the time that the defendant dwelt in the house, but this traverse absque hoc that he has common in any other manner is not good; quod curia concessit, by which he traversed absque boc

Traverse per, &c. pl. 143. cites 37 H. 6. 34. 4. Trespais upon the 5 R. the defendant justified, because distress Heath's was awarded against the plaintiff in the court of B. and he at the de- Max. 118. fire of the bailiff aided bim to distrain, which is the same entry of s. c. which, &c. and no plea by 2 justices, because he claims nothing in the foil by fuch entry, by which he faid further, absque hoc that he entered in any other manner; and then a good plea, per Choke Justice; for the general issue is obscure to the lay jury, but Ashton that be bas common there modo & forma, prout, &c. and the others

Quære of the diversity of those traverses well. Br.

and Markham contra; for per Needham, he shall say absque bee that be entered as the writ supposes, and Ashton contra, and that he shall have the general iffue, and give the matter in evidence. Br.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 215. cites 4 E. 4. 13.

5. Trespass upon 5 R. 2. the defendant justified his entry into the land to make withernam by precept, &c. absque boc that he entered in other manner; and held no plea because he did not onswer to the entry and expulsiom of the plaintiff, by which he said absque boc that he entered as the writ supposes: and the plaintiff imparled; for this last plea was held a good plea by the Justices. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 192. cites 5 E. 4. 26. 34. quod nota.

So in annuity against the prior of Jerusalem in England tion; the defendant pleaded that be is par∫on G. and that

6. An abbot by name of the abbot of D. recovered an annuity against a vicar; the defendant died, and the abbot brought scire facias against St. John of the fuccessor, who said that where the abbot recovered by prescription by name of abbot, he faid that the abbot had the annuity, as parfon imparby preserip- sonce of W. and so the recovery not naming him parson void and null in law; and because he did not say absque hoc that the abbot had other annuity, therefore no plea per judicium: for it may be that he had two annuities, the one as abbot and the other as parimparsonce of son. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 305. cites 10 E. 4. 16.

he and his predecessors have used to pay it as parsons of C. and not as priors, absque hoc that the plaintiff has bean seised of any annuity in other manner; and after he said, absque bot that the plaintiff or his predecessor bave been jeised of any annuity other than this annuity; judgment of the writ, and this was said a perilous issue, by which he said absque bot that be was seised of this annuity in other manner, prist; & edjornatur; and this a good plea that he is charged as parson, and not as prior; for otherwise he may be doubly charged with two annuities. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 280. cites 22 E. 4. 43, 44.

So in debt abou sicabs the 18th December, the defendant pleaded the escape the 16th December, and a re-taking upon fresh suit the 17th December, and that he retained him, absque hoc that he is guilty aliter, vel alio modo; it was moved that this traverse of aliter, wel alio modo, answers not to the time, but to the manner of any thing alleged; and cited 33 H. 6. 28. and 37 H. 6. 67. And of that opinion were all the justices at this time, besides Popham, that the plea was ill for that cause; but adjornatur. Cro. E. 439. pl. 55. Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. B. R. Grille w. Ridgway.

7. The traverse aliter, vel alio modo, shall never answer to the time, but to the manor of the conversion. Cro. E. 434. pl. 43. Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. B. R. in an action of trover, &c. Ascue v. Saunderson.

So in trespess for breaking and entering his house at Norwich, on the 10th day of November, &c. the defendant justified by a process out of an inferior court, by virtue whereof he entered the house on the *11th day of November, &c. que oft eadem fractio & introlio, and then traversed that he was guilty alter, wel also modo; and upon a special demurrer, and shewing this for cause, the plea was adjudged ill; and agreed by all, as well at bar as at bonch, that the traverse aliter, wel also made, does not extend to time, but to the manner of doing the thing. 2 Lutw. 1457. Hill. 9 W. 3. Hargrave v. Ward.

*[407]

8. Indictment for using a trade at H. in Suffolk, not baving served an apprenticeship to that trade, &c. The defendant pleaded the custom of London to buy and sell any where, and that he being a citizen and freeman of London, did reside at F. to buy and sell goods prout ei bene licuit, which is the same using the trade, as in the indictment, absque hoc that be used it aliter, vel alie modo; the Court held the traverse and plea ill. The reporter in a nota says he thinks the plea ill, because the defendant had confessed the using the trade, and yet has traversed absque hoc that he used the trade aliter, vel alio modo, which he fays is idle and abfurd to traverse the using the trade aliter, vel alio modo; for he was not charged by the indictment of using it aliter vel allo modo; and therefore the traverse ought to have been omitted: Saund. 311, 312. Mich. 21 Car. 2. the King v. Kilderby.

the

(K. b) Modo & Forma. Necessary, or good. what Cases.

In See (F) pl. 1. in the notes, and pl. 5. and (M. 2).

1. IN avowry, if the plaintiff agrees with the avowant in the fervices, but varies in the quality of the land, the traverse may be absque hoc that he holds modo & forma. 9 Rep. 35. b. in Buck-NAL's case cites it as resolved 5 H. 5. 4. b.

2. Annuity of 10s. the plaintiff counted by prescription, the defendant said that he held the advowson of B. of him by the 10s. which is the same rent now in demand; judgment of the writ, and he was put to answer over; for it is only argument. Br. Traverse per,

&c. pl. 23. cites 33 H. 6. 27.

3. By which he faid that he held 3 acres of land in B. and the advowson of B. of the plaintiff by 10s. which is the same rent of which the plaintiff demands the arrears, absque hoc that the plaintiff and bis predecessors time out of mind, &c. were seised of any yearly rent of 10s. except of the said rent of 10s. for the said advowson and 3 acres; & hoc, &c. and the plaintiff demurred, and the best opinion was that the traverse is not good; for he ought to have concluded with modo & forma, and not with an except of, &c.: for this is repugnant to his plea; for the one and the other is annual. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 23. cites 33 H. 6. 27.

4. Debt upon an obligation with condition to fland to the award, For in effice, fo that it be made before Octab. Mich. &c. the defendant said that the arbitrators such a day before the said Octab. made such award, &c. which the defendant was ready to perform, in case the plaintiff ment of a would perform his part; to which the plaintiff said that after the making of the obligation, and before the faid Octab. Mich. and pleads froffbefore the day whereof the plaintiff speaks, viz. such another day, ment made they made award, &c. and shewed what, which he was ready to have performed, in case the defendant would have performed his part; and before the the defendant maintained his plea, absque boc quod fecerunt talia arbi- feoffment to trium, & judicium qualia, &c. and fo to issue, and it was jeofail per judicium Cur. For those words talia qualia go only to the matter, and not to the time, where it ought to have been to the time only; and therefore he ought to have faid absque hoc that they awarded mode forma, or * absque hoc that they awarded before the day in the bar; absque bac quod nota. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 24. cites 33 H. 6. 28. plaintiff modo & forma; for this goes to the time and to the matter also, viz. it goes to all.

if the de-Pridant pleads feoffstranger, and the plaintiff to bim by the Same stranger the defendant, it is a good replication for the defendant to say as before, that be infeeffed the But see Modo & Forma in Littleton contra in Abridgment thereof. Br. Traverie per, &c. pl. 24. cites 33 H. 6. 28.

408

5. Trespass of shovelers and herns taken; the defendant said that the place, &c. is 20 acres, which the plaintiff leased to him for 20 zears, and the herns and shovelers bred there, and he took them. The plaintiff said, that the place is named the park of D. which he 以h leased to the defendant, except the woods and underwoods, and the herns and showelers bred in them, and the desendant took them, of which he brought his action, absque hoc that he leased as the desendant supposes, &c. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 112. cites 14 H. 8.-1.

6. In replevin the defendant made conusance as bailiff to E. for that the place where was parcel of the manor of T. whereof the archbishop of York and others were seised in see, and 3 June 11 H. 8. by deed inrolled, granted a rent-charge to H. 8. and so derived a title under that grant, and avowed the taking for arrears of rent: the plaintiff confessed the seisin of the archbishop, &c. and said that 4 Junis 11 H. 8. they made a feoffment to F. who licensed the plaintiff to put in his cattle, absque hoc that they 3 Junii 11 H. 8. granted the rentcharge to the king modo & forma, prout; the defendants rejoin that they did grant to the king the rent-charge modo & forma. The jury found that they were seised, and by their deed dated 3 Junii, and inrolled 7 Junii, granted the rent to the king, &c. and adjudged for the defendant, because the issue was joined upon the grant modo & forma, and not upon the day, as was offered by the traverse; and the matter found is generally as alleged, and modo & forma goes only to what is material, and nothing by the verdict appears to be intervening after the 3d day, and before the 7th when the deed was inrolled, and then it is a good grant of the 3d of June. Hutt. 120. Mich. 8 Car. Hickes v. Mounford.

See (R) (L. b) Traverse upon a Traverse, necessary or good or not.

Heath's Max. 123? cap. 5. cites S. C.

1. PRÆCIPE quod reddat against 2, the one pleaded non-tenure, and the other jointenancy with a stranger, absque hoc that the other named in the writ any thing has; the demandant shall say that both named in the writ are tenants, as the writ supposes, absque boc that the stranger any thing has, and so traverse upon traverse. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 351. cites 9 H. 6. 1, 2.

2. Where the tenants first have taken a traverse, there is no need for the demandant to take other traverse; for one traverse suffices to make the issue. Br. Maintenance de Brief, pl. 2. cites 34 H. 6. 16.

3. Trespass of cutting wood the 1st day of August, the defendant justified by prescription, that the lords of the manor of D. have used to have 20 load of wood there annually, between Michaelmas and Ghristmas; and he being lord of D. cut the 20th of October, between Michaelmas and Christmas, absque hoc that he is guilty before Michaelmas, and after Christmas; the plaintiff said that he cut as in the declaration, and traversed the prescription of the 20 load mode of forms. And well per Cur. For where the defendant alleges title, the plaintiff shall not be compelled to maintain his day, if the defendant has no such title, and so he has election to maintain his day, or to traverse the title of the defendant. And so see Traverse upon Traverse per, &c. pl. 304. cites 10 E. 4. 2.

Poph. 101. S. C. and per Cur. 4. A traverse upon a traverse was adjudged good, where the place is material; as in salse imprisonment in the ward of F. in London. The desendant justified by recovery in debt, and writ of execution

In Sandwich in Kent, and the taking and imprisonment there, if the speabsque hoe that he is guilty in London. The plaintiff replied, cial matter that he is guilty in London; absque hoc that there is such record the foreign Mo. 350. pl. 469. Mich. 35 & 36 Eliz. Paramour county is v. Verwold.

false, the plaintiff may

maintain his action, and traverse that special matter; and in such case a traverse on a traverse is good, When fulfity is used to oust the plaintiss of the benesit which the law gives him, --- Cro. E. 418. pl. 13. 6. C. accordingly, per tot. Cur.-----Mo. 603. pl. 834. S. C. but not S. P. ----- 2 And. 151. pl. 85. S. C. but not S. P.

5. Traverse upon a traverse, is only where the matter traversed is but inducement. Hutt. 97. per Cur. Hill. 3 Car. in the case of Chichley v. Bp. of Ely and Thompson.

6. There never shall be a traverse upon a traverse, but where the traverse in the bar takes from the plaintiff the liberty of his action, Arg. 2Mod. for the place or time, or such like. There the plaintiff may maintain his action for the place or time, and may traverse the inducement to the traverse, and needs not to join with the defendant in Bath and the traverse; but at his pleasure may do the one or the other. But when the inducement is made and concluded with a traverse of a S.C. cited title shewn by the plaintiff, there the plaintiff is enforced to maintain his title, and not to traverse the inducement to the traverse. Arg. cites 10 Ed. 4. 3. & 49. 12 Ed. 4. 6. 2 Ric. 3. title Issue, 121. Dyer, 107. And of this opinion was the whole Court. Cro. Car. 105. Hill. 3 Car. C. B. in case of the Lady Chichesley v. Thompson and the Bishop of Ely.

S. C. cited 184. in case of Stroud v. the Bp. of Weils, and Horner. in totidem verbis, Arg. 2 Lutw. 1630. in the case of Crane v. the Bishop of Norwich, Reeve, and Dubourdieu.

7. Trespass de clauso fracto. The descudant justifies his entry by the command of J. S. The plaintist replies, that J. S. was seised in fee, and let unto bim at will, and traverses the command of J. S. The defendant maintains, that J.S. commanded him to enter, and that he entered by his command, and traverses the lease at will. And hereupon it being demurred, it was adjudged for the plaintiff, that the command was traversable; atd that the defendant's rejoinder to make a traverse upon a traverse, as this case is, was not good; wherefore judgment was given for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 586. pl. 5. Trin. 16 Car. B. R. Thorn v. Shering. cites Pasch. 38 Eliz. in PARKER's CASE adjudged, that the commandis traversable.

8. A traverse ought not regularly to be taken upon a traverse. Lev. 192. But the difference is where the first traverse is good, and taken to the Car. 2. B.R. material point, and goes to the substance of the action, then there s.c. shall be no other traverse taken after. But where the first traverse * Mo. 869. is idle, and not well taken, nor pertinent to the matter, there, to that S.C. which was sufficiently confessed and avoided before, the other Hob. 101. party may well take another traverse, after such immaterial tra- S. C. verse taken before. Per Saunders, Arg. Saund. 22. in case Cur. Ld. of Bennet v. Filkins, and cited the case of * Digby v. Fitz- Raym. Rep. herbert.

pl. 1207. 121. Mlch. 8 W. 3. in enfe of SERLE w. DARFORD, eites Co. Litt. 282. b. Cro. E. 99. Inglebath v. Jones, and 437e Barman v. Spring.

Vaugh. 60. S. C. the King v. the Bp. of Worcefter, Jervis and Hunkley. 4 [410]

9. In the case of a common person the books are clear that he sannot take a traverse upon a traverse for these reasons. Ist, If you will recover any thing from another, you must not only destroy the desendant's title, but you must make your own better than his; for you must not recover by the weakness of his title, but by the strength of your own. 2. If the plaintist should make it appear, that the desendant's title is not good, and make no title for himself, the Court could have no inducement to give judgment for him, quia in sequali jure melior est conditio possidentis. 3. It would be to no end for the plaintist to set forth any title at all, if he can force the desendant to make out his title, and is not bound to make good his own. And these reasons hold as well in the case of the king as of a common person; by Vaughan Ch. J. Freem. Rep. 7. pl. 6. Mich. 1670. in case of the King v. Hinckley.

a traverse may be to that inducement; as in trespass, where the justification is local by virtue of his office, or the like; and in Hobart in DIGBY AND FITZHERBERT'S CASE; per Hale Ch. J. I Vent.

248. Mich. 25 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Hinchman v. Iles.

11. Trespass against A. B. C. D. and E. for breaking his close, and taking his fish in his several and free fishery; A. B. C. and D. stad not guilty, E. justified; for that D. was seised in see of a close next the plaintiff's close, and so prescribes to have the sole fishing in the river which runs by the said closes, with liberty to enter the plaintiff's close the better to carry on the fishing; and that he as servant of D. and by his command, did enter, &c. absque hoc that he was guilty aliter, vel alio modo. The plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria, absque boc that D. his master has the sole fishing. It was argued that the traverse in the plea was immaterial; for having answered the declaration fully in alleging a right to the fole fishing and entry into the plaintiff's close, it is insignificant afterwards to traverse that he is guilty aliter, vel alio modo. And the plaintiff had judgment by the opinion of the whole Court; for the traverse in the plea is naught, because where the justification goes to a time and place not alleged by the plaintiff, there must be a traverse of both; and as to the replication they held it good, and that the defendant ought to have traversed the plaintiff's free fishery, as alleged by him, which not having done, the plea is ill. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. C. B. Wine v. Rider.

12. In qua. imp. the plaintiff alleged, that H. seised in see of the manor of D. to which the advowson was appendant, presented J. S. and then granted the next avoidance to the plaintiff; and that J. S. being dead, it belongs to him to present. The bishop claims nothing but as ordinary: but the incumbent pleads, that at the bringing the writ the church was full by collation of the bishop on a lapse. The plaintiff replied, that H. seised as before, did tali die anno present him as clerk, absque hoc that the church was full by collation. The desendant rejoins protestando, that the church was full tali die; for plea saith that it was full of the collation of the bishop tali die, absque hoc that H. did tali die, &c. present the plaintiff, &cc. and so traversed the plaintiff's inducement to his traverse. It was argued, that the rejoinder was not good; for that when defendant pleads a matter in bar, and the plaintiff hath traversed the same, the defendant should take issue upon that traverse, and so maintain his bar, which he has departed from by traversing another matter. And the Court held the pleadings not good. 2 Mod. 183, Hill. 28 & 29 Car. 2. C. B. Stroud v. the Bishop of Bath and Wells and Sir Geo. Horner.

13. Where a traverse in the bar is idle and frivolous, the plaintiff may well traverse the substance of the matter of the bar .- As in debt on a specialty, wherein the defendant bound himself to pay the plaintiff 2001. when demanded, if he did not marry her; and affigned the breach, that she had tendered herself to marry the defendant, but that he refused, and after married another woman. The defendant pleaded, that after giving the specialty, he offered to marry the plaintiff, and she refused; absque boc that he refused to take her for [411] his wife, before she refused to take him for her husband. The plaintiff replied, that she tendered herself to marry the defendant, absque boc that the defendant offered himself to marry the plaintiff, & hoc, &c. Upon demurrer it was insisted, that the traverse in the replication was ill, because she traversed that which was inducement of the traverse in the bar; so that it is a traverse upon a traverse, which the law will not allow. But it was answered, that the traverse in the bar is ill, because too large; it being of more than is alleged in the declaration, viz. absque hoc that he resuled to take the plaintiff for his wife, before she had resused to take him for her husband, so that he intended to make this circumstance of time parcel of the issue; whereas such circumstance is not alleged in the declaration, nor any affirmation, that defendant had refused before plaintiff had; and so the traverse in the bar being idle, the plaintiff might well traverse the substance of the matter of the bar; and of this opinion was the Court, and judgment for the plaintiff, Carth. 99. Mich. 1 W. & M. in C. B. Crosse v. Hunt.

14. Where a traverse is merely surplusage, and not necessary, as where one traverses a thing which he had before confessed and avoided, the other party may traverse that traverse, and also the inducement to it. Carth. 166. Mich. 2 W. & M. in B. R. Bradburn v. Kennerdale.

Two several Traverses, or more.

1. THREE traverses were suffered in one plea to a present. Br. Issues ment of nuisance, for not making a bridge, by 3 absque 63. cites hocs; for the king was party, and so it is used in the Exchequer s. c. where at this day, where the king is party; quod nota. Br. Traverse the presentper, &c. pl. 301. cites 38 Ass. 15.

ment suas, that the ab-

bet of D. tertenant of 40 acres in D. and bis predecessors, and the tertenants of the 40 acres, and those subofeestate they have in the Jaid 40 acres, have made such a bridge in D. And the abbet came and traverjed the presentment, and said, that W. N. and his ancestors, tertenants of the manor of W. &c. have used to make it time out of mind, absque but that the abbot, or his predecessors, or the tertenants of the 40 acres, . er those whose estate the abbot has in tie land, have used to repair it time out of mind, &c. prout, &c. And the others e contra, and a good iffue; for these three points shall be but one and the same prescription, and it was admitted without exception.

2. Action upon the statute of Marlbridge, anno 12. for distrain-Br. Issues Joined, pl. ing in the high street, &c. and detaining them till the plaintiff made 66. cites 19 E. 20. and fine; where this second point is not in the statute, and yet the desendant was compelled to answer to both; by which he said, that he fays, quod took them in his several damage feasant, absque hoc that he took them nota, two issues in one in the high street; and absque hoc that he detained till be made fine; action, and and the issue taken upon both. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 135. that the reafon feems to be because they are several trespasses; and so it was said there, that the first matter is by the said statute, and the other is by the common law, and yet the joining both in the one writ is good; for the one is pursuant to the other.

3. Cessavit that the tenant held of him a house and 20 acres of land, and ceased, &c. Defendant pleaded, that be held the 20th part of a house in the same will, which is part of the land in demand by fealty and 2 pence; and another parcel lying in a croft called B. by fealty, and a penny for all services; and another acre in the same vill, and parcel of the same land in demand by fealty and a penny, for all [412] services; absque boc that the premises are held by an entire service, and absque hoc that the rest is held of him. Br. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 122. cites 4 H. 6. 29.

Heath's 5. C.

4. In trespass upon 5 R. 2. the tenant pleaded gift in tail to bis Max. 122. futher, and gave colour, &c.. And the plaintiff pleaded recovery against the tenant in tail by the defendant, upon a voucher and recovery in value. The defendant said, that after the gift in tail, and before the recovery, his father tenant in tail discontinued, and re-took another tail, of which estate he was seised at the time of the recovery, and died - before the recoveror entered. Absque hoc that the recoveror extered in the life of the father, and absque hoc that his father bad other estate at the time of the writ and recovery, unless by the said second tail; and absque hoc that the recoveror was seifed as in the replication, and so the recovery false, and faint in law, and all the three traverses permitted. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 244. cites 12 E. 4. 14. 19.

(N. b) Parcel. Where one Thing's being Parcel of another Thing is traversed, bow it may be.

descent is ed. Br. Repleader, pl.

And so the 1. IN trespass the defendant said, that the place is parcel of such a house, of which W. was seised, and infeoffed P. who had iffye C. and died seised; and C. as son and heir entered, and infeoffed the defendant, and gave colour by the first feoffor. The plaintiff said, 51. cites$.C. that he himself was seised of a lane of which the place was parcel, till the defendant did the trespass, absque hoc that it was parcel of the bouse. And the defendant said, that it was parcel in the possession of P. and so to issue, and well, notwithstanding that he did not say, that the land descended to C. as heir, and he entered; for this is all one, and to say that it was not parcel in the seisin of P. is as well as if he had faid, that it was not parcel at the time of the dying seised of P. for this * goes to all his seisin. Br. Traverse per &c. pl. 358. cites 3 E. 4. 27.

*[413]

(O. b) Without making Title. In what Case it may be. See (L)pl.9.

HE, who will take a traverse against the king, shall make See Vaugh. title. Br. Assise, pl. 459. cites 50 E.3. and Fitzh. Assise, 442. 64.

2. It was held by the Justices, that if in trespass the defendant For he is to pleads in bar by feoffment, the plaintiff may traverse the bar generecover only damages, rally without making title to himself, as to say that he did the tresand no pass, absque hoc that he infeoffed him. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 225. franktenement. Br.
Traverse

per, &cc. pl. 225. cites 10 E. 4. 8.————S. P. And so if the defendant intitles bimself by gift in tail or the like, per tot. Cur. except Brian. Contra in assis. But the law seems to be with Brian; for the desendant is in possession, and therefore it seems that the plaintiff shall make title against him, as well in trespass as in assis. Br. Traverse per, &cc. pl. 354. cites 18 E. 4. 10.—Heath's Max. 123. cap. 5. cites 18 E. 4. 10.

3. But contra in affise, where he shall recover franktenement. If in assist the bar is not good, the plaintiff may have the affise without making title; but if be makes title which is not sufficient, upon which the assise is awarded, and the seisin and disseisin found; the plaintiff shall not recover; by the opinion of all the justices. Br. Repleader, pl. 63. cites 11 H. 7. 28.

4. In replevin, &c. it is sufficient for the avowant to plead his freehold; but if the plaintiff will traverse it, he must make a title to himself, per Cur. (Anderson absente.) But per Peryam, it is not sufficient to make it of his own seisin; but it must be paramount. Goldsb. 65. pl. 6. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. The Lady Rogers's case.

5. In trespass against husband and wise; they pleaded that J. S. was seised, &c. and made a lease to them for years, &c. The plaintiff replied, de son tort demesne, absque hoc that he leased, &c. And per Cur. the traverse is not good without the plaintiff's making himself a title. Otherwise if the defendant claims common or such like, and not possession of the land. Goldsb. 67. pl. 11. Mich 29 & 30 Eliz. Foster v. Pretty.

(P. b) What Plea may be pleaded at the same Time.

ter, it is not material whether the matter of the plea be true or not; for he cannot say any thing but maintain the traverse. Br. Departure de son Ple. pl. 4. cites 11 H. 4. 81.

2. Note that a man cannot traverse and also say not guilty to one and the same thing. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 144. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

(Q. b) Ill Traverse. Aided by what.

as where one traverses a thing which he had confessed and evoided before; this is merely form, and aided upon a general de-Hh 4 murrer.

Creature Move.

murrer. Carth 166. Mich. 2 W. & M. in B. R. Bradburn v. Kennerdale.

2. An ill traverse as the traversing a void lease is not helped by a general demurrer. See Ld. Raym. Rep. 237, 238. Trin. 9 W. 3. Lambert v. Cook.

For more of Traberle in general, see Formedon, Jointte nanty, Pulance, Mücke tound, Prescription, Presentation, Due Estate, and other proper titles.

[414]

(A) Treasure trove.

Find. 132. 1. NOTHING is said to be treasure trove but gold and filvery sap. 58.

2. Treasure trove cannot be claimed unless by grant, and cannot pass by the word leet. Br. Incidents, pl. 32. cites Itin. Cant. 6 E. 3.

3. It was presented that J. S. had sound 100 marks of gold and filver, which came to the hands of A. who came and said that nothing came to his hands, prist; and so see that coin sound though it be not hid is treasure trove, as it appears here. Br. Presentments in Courts, pl. 24. cites 27 Ass. 19.

4. He to whom the property is, shall have treasure trove; and if be dies before it be found, his executors shall have it; for nothing accrues to the king, unless when no one knows who hid that treasure; as in case of Ireland M. 22 H. 6. Br. Corone, pl. 198, certain rule.

React. Cites the printed book of abridgment of assis, fol. 61.

Bract. Cites the printest book of abridgitient of annie, 101. 01.

120. a. lib. 3. cap. 3. f. 4. fays, it is quædam vetus depositio pecuniæ, vel alterius metalli, cujus non extat medo memoria, ut jam dominum non habeat, & sic de jure naturali sit ejus qui invenerit, ut non alterius sit. Alioquin si quis aliquid lueri causa vel metus, vel custodiæ recondiderit sub terra, non erit thesaurus, cujus etiam surtum sit. Thesaurus fortunæ domum creditur, & nemo servorum opera thesaurum quærere debet, nec propter thesaurum terram sodere, sed si alterius rei tunc operam succeptat, & sortuna aliud dedit. Cum igitur thesaurus in nuclius bonis sit, & antiquitus de jure naturali esset inventoria, nunc de jure gentium esseitur ipsius domini regis. ——3 Inst. 132, 133. cap. 58. Lord Coke says, that where of ancient time it belonged to the sinder, as by ancient authors it appears, yet he says he sinds, that before the Conquest thesauri de terra domini regis sunt, nis in ecclesiæ vel cæmeterio inveniantur; & licet ibi inveniatur aurum, regis est, & medietas argenti est medietas ecclesia ubi inventum suerunque ipsa specit, vel dives vel pauger.

S. P. and fuch treafure trove belongs to the king, or to fome lord, or other by the king's grant, or prescription.

g. It was said where money, plate, silver, or bulion is found, the proprietor or owner not known, this is treasure trove, and the king shall have it. But all mines of metal, except mines of gold and silver, belong to the owner of the soil, and the mines of gold and silver to the king, as appears Libro Rastal, and by the records of the Tower. Br. Corone, pl. 175.

The reason of its belonging to the king is a rule of the common law, that such goods whereof whereof no person can claim property belong to the king, as wrecks, &c. Quod non capit christus, capit fiscus, &c. It is anciently called fyndaringa, of finding the treasure. 3 Inft. 132. cap. 58.

6. If any man happen to find in the sea, or sea-shore, precious If treasure stones, fishes, or the like, which no man was ever proprietor of, it the sea, the becomes his own, because he is the first finder. . Miege's Laws of finder shall Oleron, 11. s. 33.

have it. 2 latt. 168.-

Kitch. of Courts, tit. Treasure trove, cites Britton, fol. 26.

- 7. If any seek for gold or silver lost on the sea-shore, and finds it, he ought to restore it all to the owner, without any diminution thereof. Miege's Laws of Oleron, 11. s. 34.

8. And if a man going along the sea-shore to fish, or do any thing else, happens to find gold or filver, he is likewise obliged to make restitution, yet he may pay himself for his day's work; and if he do not know whom to make restitution to, he ought to give notice to the neighbourhood, where he found the faid gold or filver. In [415]? this case he must advise with his superiors; and if he be poor, they ought to confider his condition and advise him to the best, according to true godliness and a good conscience. Miege's Laws of Oleron, 11. s. 35.

9. As to the place where the finding is, it seems not material whether it be of ancient time hidden in the ground, or in the roof or walls, or other part of a castle, house, building, ruins, or elsewhere, so as the owner cannot be known. See 3 Inst. 132. cap. 58.

10. It appears by Glanvil and Bracton also, that occultatio the- If treasure sauri inventi fraudulosa, was such an offence as was punished by trove be taken and death; but it has been resolved that the punishment of concealing carried treasure trove is by fine and imprisonment, and not of life and mem- away, this is. 3 Inst. 133. cap. 58. cites 22 Aff. 99.

not felony.

25. b. cap. 16. cites Fitzh. tit. Corope, pl. 187. & 265. Because dominus ejus non apparet 3, and so it is uncertain who has any right to it. - Hawk. Pl. C. 93, 94. cap. 33. s. 24. S. P. before it has been seised by any person having a right thereto, and that it shall be punished by sine only, &c...... The punishment is by fine and imprisonment. Kitch. of Courts, tit. Treasure trove.

- 11. The charge of treasure trove belongs to the coroner, as appears by the statute De Ossicio Coronatoris, anno 4 E. 1. 3 Inst. 133. cap. 58. and fays the ancient authors Bracton, Britton, &c. agree hereunto.
- 12. The king may dig in the land of the subject for treasure trove; for he has property. 12 Rep. 13. in the case of Salt Petre.
- 13. It feems to be agreed, that feifures of treasure trove belong. ing to the king, may be inquired in the sheriff's tourn; but it seems questionable whether a prescription in a court leet to inquire of the seisure of such things belonging to the lord of it, being a subject, be good or not, since it is against the general rule of the law for the court leet to take conusance of trespasses done to the private damage of the lord, because that would make him his own judge. 2 Hawk, Pl. C. 67. cap. 10. s. 58.

For more of Treslure trobe in general, see Prerogative, and other proper titles.

Trees are no part of the thing demised, but are as ferwants; as if one has pischary in another's land, the land adjoin-

· ing is as it were a fer-want, vis.

to dry the nets. Arg.

+ Trees.

(A.) Disputes between Lessor and Lessee, as to Trees.

1. WHERE a man leases a wood which is only great trees, the lessee cannot cut it, but shall have only the grain. Br. Waste, pl. 126. cites 12 E. 4. 8.

Godb. 117. pl. 136. Mich. 29 Elis. C. B. in case of Lewknor v. Ford.

S. C. cited

2. And per Fairfax and Jenny, if tenant for years lops trees, or Arg. Godb.

2. And per Fairfax and Jenny, if tenant for years lops trees, or Lews.

2. And per Fairfax and Jenny, if tenant for years lops trees, or Lews.

2. And per Fairfax and Jenny, if tenant for years lops trees, or Lews.

3. C. cited

4. And per Fairfax and Jenny, if tenant for years lops trees, or Lews.

4. C. cited

5. C. cited

6. And per Fairfax and Jenny, if tenant for years lops trees, or lops trees, l

FORD, and admitted by Walmsley Serjeant of the other side, because, as he said, there is a contract of the law, that if lessee cuts them down he shall have them, and the lessor shall have treble damages for them.—But II Rep. 81. b. Pasch. 13 Jac. Lewis Bowles's Case, in the 5th resolution there, it was held that if lessee for life or years cuts timber, the lessor shall have it; and that the same was resolved the term before in Livord's Case, and that because the lessor has the general ownership, right, and inheritance, and the lessee only a particular interest; and therefore by whatever means they are disannexed from the inheritance, the lessor shall have them in respect of the general ownership, and because they were his inheritance.

But no cross.

3. If lesson cuts a tree growing on the land demised, and carries name lies, yet it out of the land, lesse shall have trespass, and recover treble damatemised with ges, as the lessor should recover against him in waste. Agreed the rest; per Mo. 7. pl. 23. Pasch. 3 E. 6. Anon.

Twisten J.

West, 43. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Pomfret v. Roycroft.

4. A. leases to B. for life, and grants that it shall be lawful for B. to take fewel on the premises, proviso that he do not cut any great trees. Per Cur. if lessee cuts any great trees, he shall be punished for waste, but the lessor shall not re-enter, because that proviso is not a condition, but only a declaration and exposition of the extent of the grant, and lessee for life, or years, by the common law cannot take sewel but of bushes and small wood, and not of timber trees; but if the lessor in the lease grants fireboot expressly, if the lessee cannot have sufficient sewel as above, he may take great trees. 3 Le. 16. pl. 38. Mich. 14 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

Ale. 162.

g. Lesse for years, the trees being excepted, has liberty to take the Arg. contra, for our and loppings for fireboot, but if he cut any tree, it shall be cites 14 H.8. waste as well for the loppings as the body of the tree; per Hosensor shred bart & tot. Cur. without question. Noy, 29. Rich v. Makepeace. the timber trees. Arg. Roll. Rep. 182.

6. Where trees are excepted on a lease, the lessor may enter and take the trees, though there be not any clause of ingress or regress; per per Foster J. Godb. 173. pl. 239. Pasch. 8 Jac. C. B. in case of Heydon v. Smith.

7. Lesse for years cuts down timber trees, and lets them lie, and after carries them away; so that the taking and carrying away be not as one continued act, but that there be some time for the distinct property of a divided chattle to settle in the lessor, an action of trespass vi & armis will lie against the lessee; and in fuch case felony may be committed of them, but not where they were taken and carried away at the same time. Allen, 82, 83. in case of UDALL v. UDALL, cites it as the case of Bury v. HEARD, which commenced 20 Jac. and continued 7 years.

8. A. demised ground to B. which was pasture, except the trees; B. put in his cattle to feed, which barked the trees; A. cannot have trespass against B. Ruled by Holt Ch. J. upon a point made and referred to him at the affises at Bury in Lent 12-W. 3. upon hearing of counsel several times, though at first he was of a contrary opinion. Ld. Raym. Rep. 739. Glenham v. Hanby.

(B) Disputes between Lord and Freebolders, &c. as to Trees.

1. KITCHIN of Court-Leets, 68. tit. Ways, says he collects upon the opinion of the book of 2 E. 4. 9. and of 8 E. 4. 9. and of 27 H. 6. 9. and 6 E. 3. Way, 2. that where a lord of 2 manor has land upon both parts of a highway, he shall have the trees growing in the highway; and also where a way is over a [417]. waste of the lord's. But where a freeholder has land of each part of the highway, he shall have no trees growing in the highway; and where he has land joining but upon one part of the way, he shall have no trees growing upon that half of the way. But fays, that Britton, fol. 111. fays, that a freeholder shall have trees, if it be not in the common highway.

2. The custom was, that the lord should have quicquid valeret ad macremium, and that the freeholders should have ramillos. Per Hobart Ch. J. that contains all the arms and boughs; for whatever is not maeremium is ramillum. Godb. 235. pl. 326. Mich.

11 Jac. C. B. Bishop of Chichester v. Strodwick.

• 3. And it was held in the case above, that the non use, or negligence in not taking the boughs, did not extinguish or take away the custom, as it has been often refolved in the like case. Godb, 235,

4. So where the lord by the custom is to have macremium, and that the tenants shall have residuum; this shall be intended the boughs and branches. Godb. 235. pl. 326. cited in the case of the Bishop of Chichester v. Strodwick.

5. To the owner of the soil on both sides the way, of common right belong the trees that grow in the lane, whether he be lord or freeholder. The best badge of truth is the usage of taking the profit of the trees. Brownl. 42. Nota.

(C) Disputes between Tenants in Common.

1. TWO tenants in common; one fells the trees, and lays them on his freehold. If the other enters into the land, and carries them away, trespass quare clausum fregit lies against him, because the taking away of the trees by the first was not wrongful, but that which he might well do by law; and yet the other tenant in common might have seised them before they were carried off the land. Godb. 282. pl. 403. Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. in Polly's cafe.

Disputes between Tenant for Life and Remainder-man, or Reversioner in Fee.

15. pl. 14. S. C. says it nculty.

- Chan. Prec. 1. T AND devised to A. for life, remainder to B. in fee, he paying certain legacies at the times limited by the will; but the remainder, on non-payment at such times by B. was liwithout dif- mited over to C. &c. There was a great deal of timber growing on the land. B. brought a bill for leave to cut down timber to pay the legacies, and so prevent a forfeiture of his estate. The tenant for life and C. opposed it; but the lords commissioners decreed it; but B. to make satisfaction to the tenant for life, for breaking the ground by the carriage, &c. 2 Vern. 152. pl. 148. Trin. 1690. Claxton v. Claxton.
- 2. A. by deed limits a term of 500 years to trustees for payment of debts, remainder to B. for life, without impeachment of waste? remainder to his first, &c. sons in tail. A. died. The debts were great, and the trust not like to determine soon. B. by bill fet forth the limitations, and that there was much decaying tim-[418] ber on the estate, and that he was reduced to great want; that the trustees had no power to cut the timber, and prayed leave to cut, allowing what damage he did. The court decreed à commission to take timber, not exceeding the value of 500 l. for the plaintiff's relief and support. 2 Vern. 218. pl. 199. Hill. 1690. . Aspinwall & al. v. Leigh & al.

(E) Disputes between Neighbours.

1. IF trees grow in the hedge, and the fruit falls into another's ground, the owner may go in and take it. Per Doderidge J. Poph. 163. in the case of Millen v. Fandry, cites 8 E. 4.

2. If the boughs of your trees grow out into my land, I may cut Per Croke J. Roll. Rep. 394. pl. 15. Trin. 19 Jac. B. R.

3. A tree grows in A.'s close, and roots in B.'s, yet the body of the main part of the tree being in the soil of A. all the residue of the Croke J. 3 Bulst. 198. But if it grows in a bedge wbich

3. P. per the tree belongs to him also. 2 Roll. Rep. 141. Hill. 17 Jac. divides the land of A.

B. R. Masters v. Pollie.

the roots take nourishment of both their lands, it was adjudged they are tenants in common of it. 2 Roll. Rep. 255. Mich. 20 Jac. B. R. Anon.

(F) Power of Traftees, as to cutting Trees.

- Seised of lands in fee demised the same for 500 years to B. C. and D. in trust to pay debts, and for a charity. B. purchased the reversion of A.'s heir at law, and cut down 1800 l. worth of timber; but lest sufficient for the tenants for repairs and botes. The desnise was not without impeachment of waste. Ld. C. King said it was plain that B. as purchasor of the reversion, could not enter upon the premises to cut down the timber, and though C. another trustee consented to the cutting down (which was a breach of trust in C.) B. ought not to take advantage of it; but something ought to be paid to the charity for their leave. And on his lordship's proposing 220 l. both parties agreed thereto; and so the matter was compromised. 2 Wms's Rep. 397. Mich. 1726. Bays v. Bird.
- (G) Stranger. Who shall have Trees cut down by Strangers. And what Remedy Lessor or Lessee has for the cutting them down.
- I. IF a ftranger cuts down woods in a forest, and there is no fraud or collusion between him and the owner of the soil, the owner of the soil shall have them; and yet the owner could not cut them down, but is to take them by the livery of one appointed by the statute. Godb. 99. pl. 113. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. C. B. in an anonymous case.

2. If a firanger cuts down trees, and lesse brings trespass, he shall recover but according to his loss, viz. for lopping and topping. Arg. Godb. 117. in case of Lewknor v. Ford.

3. A stranger entered into lands leased for life, and cut down timber trees, and barked them; and the lessor before seisure brought trover for the bark, and had judgment to recover, though the cutting down and barking was all at one time. Allen, 82. in the case of UDALL v. UDALL, cited per Cur. as a case commenced 20 Jac. and depended 7 years between Bury and Heard.

4. If a stranger cuts the trees, lesse for life without impeachment of waste shall have them. Poph. 193. Mich. 2 Car. Sacheverel

v. Dale.

5. In trespass brought by the plaintiff for cutting down his trees, the plaintiff was nonsuited, because it appeared that he was only lesse. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 302. Hill. 3 Geo. 2. Odel v. King.

419]

(H) Grant of Trees by whom, and how.

1. If a man sells certain trees growing, and aliens the land to another before that the vendee has cut the trees, yet the vendee shall have them; per Newton. Markham said we can say no more. Br. Trespass, pl. 400. cites 20 H. 6. 22.

2. Grant of all his woods which shall grow bereaster or in time to come is not good, because it is not of a thing in esse; per Harper

J. 3 Le. 29. 15 Eliz. C. B. in an anon. case.

But by grant of manor and trees, habend' the manor for 21 years without mentioning of the trees, the leffee cannot cut and fell the trees, for

3. A. demises to B. a manor for 3 lives, and by the same deed in another clause bargains and sells the trees. The habend' is of the manor only, and limits estate of that for 3 lives without mention of the trees. Per Winch J. they shall pass as a chattel immediately on delivery of the deed before any livery made thereon to pass the manor, and if livery never had been made, yet lessee shall have the trees. 2 Brownl. 193. Trin. 10 Jac. C. B. in case of Rowles v. Mason, and 197. per Warburton J. accordingly, and 201. per Coke Ch. J. accordingly in S. C.

that was all in one sentence, viz. the grant of the trees and the demise of the manor. Per Winch J. Brownl. 193. cites D + 379. 18. 23 Elis.

+ It should be 374. b. pl. 18.

4. The law doth not favour fractions and severances of the trees from the freehold. 11 Rep. 48. Mich. 12 Jac. Liford's case.

5. Bargain and fale of a manor, and all the trees growing thereon, if the deed is not inrolled, the trees shall not pass without the manor. It Rep. 48. Liford's case.

6. Grant of all my trees within my manor of G. to A. and his heirs, A. shall have inheritance in them without livery and seifen.

11 Rep. 49. b. Liford's case.

7. A. seised in see simple makes a lease, excepting the trees, and afterwards covenants to stand seised de tenementis pradictis cum pertin. superius dimissis, &c. The trees pass with the inheritance, as things annexed to it notwithstanding they were not demised.

11 Rep. 50. b. Liford's case.

But otherwife in case of sale by a tenant in tail. 11 Rep. 50. Mich. 2 Jac. Liford's case. 8. By a grant of trees by tenant in fee simple, they are absolutely passed away from the grantor and his heir, and vested in the grantee, and go to the executors or administrators, being in understanding of law divided as chattels from the freehold, and the grantee hath *power incident to the grant to fell them when he will, without any other special licence. Hob. 173. Hill. 12 Jac. Stukely v. Butler.

Jones J. 9. If lesse for life without impeachment of waste assigns over makes a dif- all his estate, he may dispose of the trees. Poph. 193. Mich-ference between a te- 2 Car. B. R. Sacheverell v. Dale.

mant for life without impeachment of waste by grant, and one who is so by indulgence of law, as tenant in tail, after possibility, &c. that such things as a man hath by the law he cannot reserve to himself upon his assignment; but in case of a grant he has a larger liberty than the law gives to him. But if such tenant by grant assigns over all his estate, he cannot except the tress; but where he has a remainder it is otherwise. Poph. 195. in case of Sacheverel v. Dale.

(I) Windfalls, Dotards, &c. Who shall have them.

- I. LESSOR shall have the windfalls. Arg. Godb. 117. cites Godb. 118. Culpeper's case 2 El. & 44 E. 3. Statham; and 40 Aff. 22. Anderson Ch. J. accordingly, but Rodes J. contra. ——Per Anderson in LEWENOR's case. 4 Le. 166——S. P. resolved in HARLAKENDEN's case, 4 Rep. 63. b. Pasch. 31 Eliz. B. R. in case they have no timber in them ; but that if they have, then it is otherwise. ———And in Lawis Bowles's case, it Rep. 81. b. the resolutions in Harlakenden's case were affirmed for good law. — Mo. 813, 814. pl. 1099. Mich. 8 Jac. Per all the justices of Serjeant's-inn in Fleet-street, S. P. in the Countest of Cumberland'a
- 2. Lessee cannot justify cutting down pollards, by saying that Bendl. 217. they were dry, hollow, and rotten, and not timber fit for build- pl.251. S.C. ing. Mo. 101. pl. 246. Mich. 15 & 16 Eliz. Sir Roger Man- the plaintiff. wood's case.
- 3. If trees are excepted, &c. and they become dotards during the lease, yet that cannot divest the property of the lessor; per Holt Ch. J. Cumb. 453. Trin. 9 W. 3. in a nota to the case of Park v. Fifield.
- (K) Timber Trees. What are, and what shall be faid to be such for a collateral Respect, &c.
- I. GREAT wood specified in the act of 45 E. 3. is intended 2 Inft. 643. cites S. C. of wood which consists of trees of value, as of aspect, and says that beeches, and elms, &c. but not of hornbeams, sallows, hasels, maples, the whole &c. Pl. C. 470. b. Hill. 17 Eliz. Soby v. Molyns. Court upon deliberate advice held it to be no law, and that beech, horsebeech, and hornbeam are great wood, because they serve for buildings or reparation of houses, milis, cottages, &c. And in the margin there it is said it was adjudged. Pasch. 2 Jac. between Hall and Fettyplace.

- 2. Birch-trees were decreed to be timber-trees. Toth. 151. Mo. 812. pl. cites 8 Jac. Countess of Cumberland v. Earl of Cumberland. 1099. S. C. cause it appeared that such trees, in the country where they grew, were used and serviceable for building sheep-houses, cottages, and such mean buildings; and all the justices of Serjeant's-inn in Fleet-street, upon a conference had with them, were of opinion, that in this country they were timber, and belonged to the inheritance, and could not be taken by a tenant for life.
- 3. A. articled to fell land to B. for 20,000l. and the timber to be valued and paid for by B. over and above the purchase-money. Upon a reference to the master he made his report, and estimated fome thousands of saplings at 12d. or 18d. a piece, and also pol- [421] lards, some of which were rotten, or contained no timber, and so of walnut-trees as worth 20 or 40l. a tree; also yew, cherry, crab, lime, and borse-chesnuts, were by him valued as timber. And exception being taken thereto, Ld. C. King said, that it is the custom of the country that makes some trees timber, which in their nature, generally speaking, are not so, as horse-cheshut and · lime trees; and so of birch, beech, and asp. And as to pollards, motwithstanding what is said in Soby and Molins's case, Pl. C.

470. that these are not timber, and that tithes are to be paid of their loppings, (which could not be if pollards were timber,) yet if the bodies of them are found and good, he inclined to think them timber; otherwise, if not sound, they being in such case fit for nothing but fuel. And his lordship faid, that if a timber, tree, not worth 3 or 41. shall be valued or paid for in the purchase, why shall not walnut-trees, some of which may be worth 10 or 201. or even 501. a piece? However, as they seem of a considerable value, if the parties cannot agree to lump the valuation, and as it is the custom of the country which ascertains what are timber-trees, making some esteemed such, which, in their own nature, generally are not, especially in countries where timber is scarce: his Lordship said, he should direct an issue to try whether any and which of those trees are, by the custom of the country, to be accounted timber. Trin. 1731. 2 Wms.'s Rep. (603:) (606.) Duke of Chandos v. Talbot.

For more of Trees in general, see Copyholo, Matte, and other proper titles.

Fol. 545.

Trespals.

Set (I).

(A) With Continuando.

RESPASS lies with continuando by divers days together, and the party shall not be compelled to bring several, actions. 29 E. 3. 35. adjudged; for it is one trespass.]

(A. 2) Affault. What. [And Menace.]

[1. IF a man holds me by the arm, this is an affault in law. It feems 3 H. 4. 9. will warrant it; but there it feems it was justifiable.]

Pl. C. 134. [2. If a man faith, that he will cut my arm, it is an affault.

faith, that [3. If a man faith to another, that if he will appeal him of treanotwithfranding the many ancient opipions to the [3. If a man faith to another, that if he will appeal him of treanotwithfon, he will defend himself by his hands upon his body, and rather than he shall kill him, he will kill him; this is an affault in lawpions to the contrary, it feems at this day agreed, that no words what soes amoint to an affault.

† (E) pl. 3. S. C. *[422]

4. So

- [4. So if a man calls me traitor, and I say to him mentiris in Br. Trespass, capite tuo, and if be will appeal me of treason, I will defend myself Pl. 197. 37 by my hand upon my body, during the life of one of us. This is an [pag. 2. b. assault, though it be upon a condition precedent. 37 H. 6. 3. 20.] and 3. and pag. 20. b. are both the same S. C.]——See (E) pl. 3. S. C.
- [6. So if a man fays to me, that if I will not cease my suit, which N.B. There is no pl. 5. I have against him, be will beat me; this is an affault, though com-Br. Trespale ditional. 37 H. 6. 20. b.] pl. 197. cites 37 H. 6. 2, 3. Per Prisot.
- [7. So if a man faith, in presence of the court, or in a church, to Br. Trespass, another a false matter, and the other replies, that if he will come pl. 197. cites 37H.6. out of the court or church into the field, and fay so, * he will break 2, 3. that bis bones, this is an assault. 37 H. 6. 20. b.] it is a menace, and not lawful. -- Orig. is (Il luy naufrera.)
- [8. If a man rebukes another with ill words, by which he dares This was a fuit by colnot flay in the vill; this is an affault. 27 Aff. 11. adjudged] lector of the fifteenths, pro rege & seipso of affault and battery, as he was collecting of the fifteenths in D. and it was found, that the defendant rebuked the collector in collecting the fifteenths, so that he dared not to flay in the will, but did not beat him. And this was adjudged an affault, but no battery; and the plaintiff recovered damages 100s. Quære, if the king had not been party. Br. Trespass, pl. 246. cites S. C.

[9. Action of trespass lies for an assault. 40 E. 3. 40. 42 E. 3. 7. 45 E. 3. 24. b.]

- [10. If a man strikes at me with an hatchet, though he does not Br. Trespale, pl. 336. touch me, yet this is an assault in law. 22 Ass. 60. adjudged.] cites S. C. per Thorpe. And the case was, that the defendant came to a tavern in the night to buy victuals, and the doors being thut, he struck upon the doors with a hatchet; and the plaintiff, who kept the tavern, putting his head out of the window, and bidding the other to leave off, he struck against him with the hatchet, but did not touch him. ____ S. C. cited by Doderidge J. 2 Bulft. 339. Hill. 12 Jac. in case of Wilson v. Codd. -----Roll. Rep. 177. S. C. cited by Doderidge, quod fuit concessum, per Coks Ch. J. in case of Wilson v. Dodd. And ibid. 328. Hill. 13 Jac. B. R. in case of Curtis v.
- S. P. Hawk, Pl. C. 133. cap, 62. f. 1. And so if a man strikes at me'without a weapon, it is an asfault.
- S. P. And so if he bolds up his hand against another, and says nothing, it is an assault. But if one frikes another upon the kand, arm, or breoft, in discourse, it is no assault, there being no intention to affault. Mod. 3. pl. 13. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. per Cur. in an anonymous case,

[11. If a man delivers to another a subpæņa, this is an affault. Trin. 13 Jac. B. between Elpin and Hutton, per Curiam.]

12. In affault, battery, and wounding, the evidence to prove 2 Keb. 545. a provocation was, that the plaintiff put his hand on his sword, and said, if it was not assistant, I would not take such language of Tunfrom you. Adjudged no affault; for he declared he would not BERVILL assault him, the judges being in town, and the intention, as well v. Savage, as the act itself, makes an assault. Mod. 3. pl. 13. Mich. 21 Car. 2. the plaintiff B. R. Anon, pl. 13. S. C. by the name and fays, that bent bis fift at the same time size that he laid his hand on his sword and spoke the words; and the Court held it no assault, as it would be without that declaration. But it was further sworn, that the plaintiff with his above punched the defendant, which, if done in earnest discourse, and not with intent of violence, is no assault; nor then is it a justification of battery after a retreat.

Pasch. 26
Car. 2. B.R.
S. C. by the tery; and so shall have no more costs than damages. Vent. 256.

Pasch. 26
Pasch. 26
Pasch. 26
Pasch. 25 Car. 2. B.R. Anon.

NERSAM; but that is only as to the point of costs, but does not state the manner of the assault.

3 Keb. 383. pl. 1. S. C. says it was, that a woman shook a sword in a cutler's shop against the plaintiss, being on the other side of the street.

5. C. and fays that if the defendant having him and results into his house, bailiff has no remedy but an action for the affault; for the holding up the fork at him, when he was within reach, is good evidence of that. I Salk. 79. Trin. 3 Ann. B. R. Genner v. Sparkes.

of affault and battery, in which the affault is ill laid if the defendant be found guilty of the battery, it is sufficient. Hawk. Pl. C. 134. cap. 62. s. 1.

Fol. 546. (A. 3) * Battery. What shall be said a Battery.

Any injury [1. IF a justice of peace makes a warrant to J. S. to arrest J. D. whatsoever, be it never so see it never so small, being J. S. and + lays bis bands molliter upon the shoulders of J. D. [and] actually says to J. S. this is the man, this is not any battery. Hill. 12 Ja. done to the person of a man in angry, or revengeful, or rude, or insolent manner, as by spitting in his face, or any way tenthing him in anger, or violently justling him out of the way, are batteries in the eye of the law. Hawk. Pl. C. 134. cap. 62. s.

B. R. between ‡ WILSON AND DODD by Coke.]

† S. P. Hawk. Pl. C. 134. cap. 62. f. 2. † Roll. R. 176. pl. 15. Pasch. 13 Jac. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. _____2Buist. 335. S. C. but S. P. does not fully appear.

[2. If a man delivers a subpæna to another, this is not any battery. Tr. 13 Ja. B. between Elpin and Hutton, per Curiam.]

3. Upon evidence in battery, Popham, Fenner, and Williams, bad bald A. directed the jury, that if A. assaults B. and in fighting A. falls to the ground, and then there B. beats and wounds him, that this is an assault in B. not justifiable. Noy, 115. Hudson v. Crane.

is a battery in B. not justifiable, &cc. and the jury found accordingly. But Yelverton and Tanfield on the contrary, because it is but a continuance of the former assault. And that all is de son assault demesses. Noy, 115. Hudson v. Crane.

4. In action of affault and battery, the plaintiff counted that the defendant firuck the plaintiff's borse, whereby the plaintiff sell; this was held good and no material variance, because licet sæpius requisitus is only matter of form. Arg. Hard. 41. in case of Harris v. Ferrand, cites it as Mich. 15 Car. B. R.

5. The

[424]

- 5. The least touching of another in anger is a battery. Ruled per Holt Ch. J. at nisi prius. 6 Mod. 149. Pasch. 3 Annæ in the case of Cole v. Turner.
- 6. If two or more meet in a narrow passage, and without any violence or design of harm the one touches the other gently, it is no battery. Per Holt Ch. J. at nisi prius. 6 Mod. 149. Cole v. ther to force bit way in a passage in

in a rude inordinate manner, or if any struggle about the passage to that degree as to do burs, * this will be a batterry. Ruled by Holt Ch. J. 16 Mod. 149. Pasch. 3 Annæ at nist prius in case of Cole v. Turner.

7. Spitting in one's face is a battery. Per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 172. Pasch. 3 Annæ, B. R. the Queen v. Cotesworth.

(B.) Trespass. Against whom it lies, in respect of Interest.

[1. IF my beafts are in the keeping of J. S. and during this time do if A. has the trespass to another, he shall have trespass against me or J. S. beasts or at his election; but he shall not have satisfaction against both. 7 H. 4. hoggs of B. and they are put into B.'s yard, if these do a trespass to the land of C. adjoining, A. shall be punished in trespass, and this though if agisted tattle do a trespass, the owner of the soil where, &c. shall answer for that trespass, cited in the case of DAWTRY v. Huggins. Clayt. 33. as Bateman's case.

B.'s servant did wait upon them. Clayt. 32. Dawtry v. Huggins.

2. A man shall not have trespass against him who has the frank-tenement as disselfer, &c. before regress made upon him; per Newton where the desendant pleads his franktenement, there the plaintiff in his replication ought to shew a regress, for disselsor has the franktenement and ought to have the profits, till it be reformed by entry or action mixt or real. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

3. If I bail goods and the bailee gives and delivers them, I shall not have trespass; for he had lawful possession. Br. Trespass,

pl. 295. cites 2 E. 4. 4.

- 4. Note Finch's law, li. 3. c. 6. that no action of trespass will lie for a lesse for years against the lessor, although he distrained without cause. And see there the reason. Q. per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 209. pl. 13. cites 9 Rep. 76. Yelv. 148. Wing's Max. 1. 703.
- (C.) Trespass of Assault and Battery. What will See (A. 3) be a good Cause of Justification.
- It. IF a man be in a rage and does great mischief, his parents may Br. Trespass, justify the chastising and beating him with a rod, to the intent S. C. but says nothing of the beating being by parents.

Jo. 249. pl. 3. S.C. but reports that it was a stander-by and not A. the person laid hold of the cheat, and carried him immediately before the justice, was

[2. If A. plags at dice with B. in the house of a justice of peace, the which B. is a common cheater, and there cheated A. of his money; the defendant in an action of battery may justify that he for the cause aforesaid put his hands upon him to bring him before the said justice of peace, and that he brought him accordingly: and the justice cheated, that bound him over to the sessions where he was indicted and found guilty of the said cheating. And this is a good plea though the defendant was not any officer; for it concerned himself and was for the public good. Mich. 7 Car. B. R. between HOLLEDAY AND OXENBRIDGE adjudged upon a demurrer, where the justice was Sir Nicholas Carey in Surrey.]

a good justification. ——— Cro. C. 234, 235. pl. 16. S. C. according to Roll, and judgment for the defendant by 3 justices (absent the Ch. J.) and they held it to be pro bono publico to stay such offenders.

2 Hawk. Pl. C. 77. cap. 12. s. 20. cites S. C. and says, that from the reason of this case it seems to follow, that the arrest of any other offenders by private persons for offences in like manner, scandaless and prejudicial to the public, may be justified.

[425]

[3. If A. incites a dog upon B. an infant, and upon this C. comes to A. and lay his bands softly upon him, to the intent to stay his bands, so that he shall not incite the dog upon B. this is lawful and justifiable in action of affault and battery brought by A. against E. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. between Walter and Jones per Curiam upon a demurrer, but adjourned upon the pleading. Intratur Trin. 10 Car. Rot. 409. and after issue taken by consent.]

4. In trespass of battery and wounding, the defendant said that W. affailed the defendant to have beat him with a knife, and the defendant took the handle of the knife in his hand, and the plaintiff came in aid of W. and took the blade of the knife in his hand, and cut his own band with the blade of the knife, absque hoc that he beat or wounded him, prist. The plaintiff replied that he beat and wounded him as above, prist; and the others e contra.

pass, pl. 235. cites 22 Ass. 56.

5. Trespass of assaulting him and taking his horse, the defendant faid that J. C. had the tithes of B. in farm for 6 years, and certain barley was severed from the 9 parts, and the plaintiff took and carried them to D. and the defendant came and found the horse there in the same barley, damage feasant, and he by command of the defendant took the horse, and the barley, and the plaintiff would bave disturbed bim; so that the ill which he had was de son assault demesne, and in defence of the goods, and a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 134. eites 19 H. 6. 65.

6. A justification for a battery is no justification for wounding, &c. F. N. B. 86. (K) in the new notes there (d) cites 21 H. 6. 27.

7. Trespass of assault and battery; the defendant said that at the time of the trespass he was a justice of peace, and the plaintiff made an affault upon B. and for conservation of the peace be came to discretion to the plaintiff, and charged him to keep the peace, and he said that he swould not, and the defendant put his hands upon him peaceably, and arrested bin to find surety for his good behaviour, &c. which speak. ing and putting of hands are the same assault and battery of which, And the Court held it a good plea, without saying that be

And a justice of peace may arrest a man at his find furety of peace, and though he permit him to go without lurety, fint bim to gool, and yet to make the matter clear the desendant the party alleged the arrest, as above, and that after he escaped out of his custody, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 177. cites 9 E. 4. 3.

punish him, because he is a justice of record; per Littleton Justice, quod non negatur. Br. Trespass, pl. 177. cites 9 E. 4. 3.

8. There are some actual assaults on the person of another, which do not forfeit a recognizance of the good behaviour, as where an officer having a warrant against a man, who will not submit to him, beats or wounds him in the attempt to take him, or where a parent reasonably chastises his son, or a master his servant, or a schoolmaster his scholar, or a gaoler his prisoner; or, as some say, a busbond bis wife; or where one in a proper mannner confines and beats a friend who is mad, &c. or where one forces a sword from another, who threatens to kill a man with it; of where one gently lays bis bands on another, and stays him from inciting a dog upon a man; or where I beat one (without wounding him, or throwing at him a dangerous weapon) who wrongfully endeavours with violence to difpossess me of my lands or goods, and will not desist upon my laying my hands gently on him, and disturbing him; or where a man beats one who attempts to kill any other; or where a man threatens to kill one who puts him in fear of death in such a place, where he can- [426] not fafely fly from him; or where one imprisons those whom he sees fighting, till the heat be over; or where a man beats, or as some fay, wounds or maims one who makes an affault upon his person, or that of bis wife, parent, child, or master; or, as some say, where one beats another in defence of his servant. Hawk. Pl. C. Abr 151, 152. f. 16.—Hawk. Pl. C. at large, 130, 131. cap. 60. f. 23, 24. And says that therefore these are justifiable, ibid. 134. cap. 62. f. 3.

What Person may justify it. [In Defence of another, &c.

[1. THE baron may justify the battery of another, in defence of Br. Trespals, bis feme; for she is your [his] chattel. *19 H. 6. 31. b. 66.] pl. 134. cites 19 H. 6. 65. So in trespass by busband and wife, for an assault and hattery on the wife, the defendant pleaded for affault demesne of the wife; the plaintiffs replied, that the defendant was going to wound her bufbend, and that fbe insultum fecit to defend bim. Upon demurrer, it was infifted that insultum fecit was naught, and that they should have pleaded molliter manus imposuit. But the Court held, that a wife may justify an affault in defence of her husband, and if the defendant was holding up his hand to frike the husband, the wife might make an assault to prevent the blow. And judgment for the plaintiff. 1 Salk. 407. pl. 2. Mich. 7 W. 3. B. R. Leeward v. Basilet .- Ld. Raym. 62. S. C. accordingly.

S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 128. in the large edition, eites 29 H. 6. 31. but it should be 19 H. 6. 31. and so are the smaller editions.

[2. The mafter may justify the battery of another, in defence Br. Tresof bis servant; for the servant is in a manner his chattel. + 19 H. pass, pl. 34. cites 19 H. 6. 31. b.] 6.65. and

pl. 189. cites 19 H. 6. 31. and 66. but cites 9 E. A. 48. contra. - Ow. 150. in case of Seaman v. Cuppledick, where in trespass of assault and battery, the defendant justified in defence of his servant, viz. that the plaintiff had affaulted his fervant, and would have beaten him, &s. Yelverton held the bar good; for that otherwise he might lose his service, and cited 19 H. 6. 60. a. but Williams J. contra. And that said that a man may defend his servant, but he cannot break the peace for them; but that if another assaults the servant, the master may defend him, and strike the other, if he will not let him alone.——A master cannot justify in defence of his servant, because he might have an action per quod servition amisst. Per Cur. 1 Salk. 407. pl. 2. Mich. 7 W. 3. B. R. in case of Leeward v. Basse.————Ld. Raym. Rep. 62. accordingly in S. C.

+ S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 128. in the large edition, cites 29 H. 6. 31. but it should be 19 H. 6. 31.

and so are the smaller editions.

S.P. And [3. The fervant may justify the battery of another in defence of to of his master. 11 H. 6. 16. quære. 14 H. 6. 24. b.]

Trespals, pl. 189. cites 9 E. 4. 48. And he may kill a man in saving the life of his master, if he cannot otherwise escape. Br. Trespass, pl. 217. cites 21 H. 7.39. per Tremaile, cannot ftrike. Agreed. Br. Trespais, pl. 37. cites 35 H. 6. 50, 51.

S. P. And to take bows, arrows, gauntlets, &c. with which the party might strike them, and retain their keeping till the malice be assuged. Contrary of a coat of mail, &c. with which the party.

2 Lutw. 1483. at the end of the case of Shinglelon v. Smith, is a nota of the reporter, that It was said in that case by Powell J. that a servant may justify in defence of his master, but he can me justify a battery in defence of the goods of his master.

[4. If a lunatic beats a man, this shall not excuse him in tresposed pass, because it is but to repair him in damages; but otherwise it is in case of * felony, because he cannot do it with a felonious intent. Hobart's Reports, 181.]

of the reporter's in Beverly's case———Hob. 134. pl. 179. in case of WEAVER V. WARD; and says that therefore no man shall be excused of a trespass.

[427] 5. The father cannot beat another in defence of his son. Br. But if the Trespass, pl. 189. cites 9 E. 4. 48. per Catesby.

another are combating, and the fon comes in aid of bis father, and strikes the other; this was held justifiable, though the father began the affray; but quære of that, but so it is holden; but here the other party did begin upon the father; therefore here it was held clearly justifiable. Clayt. 120. pl. 211. Greis's case.

(E) Trespass. Assault. What will be good Cause of Justification.

Br. Trespass, [1.] F a man comes to stop my river which runs to my mill, I may. pl. 79. cites well justify the holding of him by the arm. 3 H. 4. 9.] in the written book, S. C.

See (G. 2) [2. If a man has licence (by him who has power to give it) to pl. [5] 6. erect a booth in a fair, and when he is about making of it, another comes to break it down, he may well justify the holding of him by the arm to flay him from the breaking of it down. 11 H. 6. 23.]

See (A. 2) [3. If a man calls another traitor, upon which he fays that he pl. 4. S.C. mentitur in capite, and that if he will appeal him of treason, he will pl. 197. cites defend himself by his hand upon his body during the life of one of them, accordingly, assault. 37 H. 6. 3. 20.]

But per Prisot, if those words (secundum formam legis) had been omitted, the plea had not been goods but the other justices held it would have been good, notwithstanding such omission.

. 4. IF

- 4. If a fervant departs from his master, or if an heir in ward departs from bis lord, it is not lawful for the master, nor for the lord, to retake them with force, nor to lay their hands upon them, but require them, &c. And if they refuse, then to take their actions. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 37. cites 38 H. 6. 25. per Markham, & nemo dedixit.
- 5. Trespass of battery and imprisonment. The defendant justified inasmuch as the plaintiff lay in wait at D. to rob the people, and made affault upon A. and commanded him to deliver his purfe, by which the defendant took bim and put him in the stocks. And the lying in wait, and the affault upon A. is not double, because some act ought to be done, as where a man justifies for suspicion; quod nota. Br. Double, pl. 138. cites 6 E. 4. 27.

6. In action of false imprisonment, the best opinion was, that Every men it is a good plea, that the defendant was a watchman, and the plain- may take tiff was a night-walker, and the defendant cast his hands upon him walkers who peaceably to see his visage, which was the same imprisonment, &c. go by the Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 39. cites 4 H. 7. 2.

way; for it is for the common profit. Per Hussey and Fairfax. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 15. cites 4 H. 7. 18. at the

7. A. takes B.'s horse. - B. the same day requested A. to re-deliver it, but A. refused. - B. said, if A. would not deliver him, be would take it in spite of his teeth; and takes up a stick lying on the ground, and made towards A. with the stick. This is an assault justisiable. Kelw. 92. pl. 4. 22 H. 7. Anon.

8. Striking a man's horse is such an assault upon a man's goods, as will justify striking the person; and stopping the horse is stopping the man. Clayt. 109. Booth v. Jenkinson.

- (F) Trespass. Assault and Battery. What will be [428] good Cause of Justification of Battery. Assault to the Person.
- [1.] F a man affaults me, and I can escape with my life, it is not S. P. per lawful for me to beat him. 2 H. 4. 8. b. Curia.]

 Markham quod Curie Markham. quod Curia, concessit; but Brooke says, it seems, that I may beat him, if I cannot otherwise escape without strokes or maybom, as well as for life. Br. Trespass, pl. 71. cites S. C.

[2. [So] If a man affaults me, I am bound to go from him as much as I can, and not presently to beat him. 19 H. 6. 31.]

[3. [But] If a man affaults me, I am not bound to attend till the Br. Tref. other bas given a blow; but I may beat him before in my defence, país, pl. 71. cites S. C. for perhaps I shall come too late after. 2 H. 4. 8. b. Curia.] per Cokeyn; quod Curia concessit. A man my beat another in desence of himself, per Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 128. in the large edition, cites 29 H. 6. 31. but it should be 19 H. 6. 31. and so are the smaller editions.

[4. In an appeal of maihem, de son assault demesne is a good justification. 41 Aff. 21. admitted by issue, 28 E. 3. 94. Fitzh. Corone, 141. Mich. 27 El. B. R. Rot. 38. inter communia irter Ii4

Sec (C).

Hob. 134. pl. 179.

Pasch. 14

Jac. S. C.

Mo. 864. pl. 1:92.

S. C. ----

per Ray-bert and _ Olliet v.

mond J. in Beffey.---

S. C. cited 2 Jo. 205.

In case of Dickinson

v. Watton.

JOHN DE IVES, appellant, and RICHARD SKIRBEN and NICHOLAS TAYLOR, defendants. But the defendants pleaded, that the plaintiff affau!ted them, & eos vulneravit & ad terram prostravit ad interficiendum, & malum si quod, &c. de insultu proprio querentis, & issue de injuria sua propria. New Entries, 52. d. Old Entries, 45. Mich. 4 Car. MITCHEL W. BRABANT, B. R. so pleaded, and issue joined thereupon.]

5. Where a man, in his own defence, beats another, who first assaulted him, &c. he may take an advantage thereof upon an indictment, as well as upon an action; but with this difference, that in the first case he may give it in evidence upon the plea of not guilty, and in the latter he must plead it specially. Hawk.

Pl. C. cap. 62. pl. 3.

(G) Trespass of Assault and Battery. Justification. What will be good Cause of Justification.

[1.]T is no good cause of justification, that all the companies of soldiers of London were commanded by the privy council to muster, and that the plaintiff and defendant were under one captain, and their captain skirmished with another captain, and the defendant in this skirmish discharged his gun, the which casually, against his will, hurt the plaintiff, (viz. because it was discharged in his face.) S. C. cited Raym. 423. Though this was in the service of the commonwealth, that is to fay, in the practice to make them able to defend the realm; yet it will not excuse, because he does not say that he could not do cuse of Lamotherwise; as if he had said, that the plaintiff run cross his piece when he was discharging it, or had expressed the case with the circumstance, [and] so it had appeared to the Court, that it had been inevitable; and that the defendant had not been guilty of any negligence to give occasion to the hurt. Hobart's Reports, 181. between Weaver "AND WARD adjudged, because it is but to be So in tresrepaired in damage for the hurt.]

pais for an assault, battery, and wounding, by shooting out the plaintiff's eye. The defendant pleaded in bar, that he was a collector of the hearth-money: and for the better securing the money collected he rode with fire-arms, and baving a pistol in his hand, and intending to discharge it, to prevent missibles, he seeing none coming that eway did discharge it; and on his discharging it, the plaintiff casually came that eway, and if he received any barm, it was against the will of the defendant, que est cadem transgressio. The plaintiff demorred, and had judgment; and upon a writ of error brought, judgment was affirmed, nothing being urged besides the plea, which the Court held insufficient; for the defendant shall never be excused in trespess, unless upon an inevitable necessity, which was not shewn here. Besides he did not traverse absolue hoc aliter vel alio modo, as was done in WEAVER AND WARD'S CASE, in the like plea; and yet in that case the plaintiff had judgment. 2. Jo. 205. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Dickenson v. Watson.

Serjeant Hawkins says, it seems, that a man shall not forfeit a recognizance for the good behaviour, by a hurt done to another merely through negligence, or mischance; as where one soldier hurts another by discharging a gun in exercise, without sufficient caution; for notwithstanding such person must, in a civil action, give the other latisfaction for the damage occasioned by his want of care, yet he seems not to have offended against the purport of such a recognizance, unless he be guilty of some wilful breach of the peace. Hawk, Pl. C. 131. cap. 61. L. 27.

429

(G. 2) Entry into Land.

[1.] [2. A Man may justify the battery of another, in defence One may of bis possession. Trin. 3 Jac. B. demurred in law. justify an assault and allault and battery in defence, or for the preservation of his possession of lands or goods. 2 lnst. 316.

[2.] [3. If a man comes into the forest in the night, the forester cannot beat him before resistance made by him. Mich. 14 Jac. in the Star-Chamber, resolved by the chancellor and judges in HASTOCK'S CASE, and Hastock had recovery against him at the common law in action of battery.]

[3.] [4. But if the party, who comes so into the forest, resists the forester, he may justify the battery of him, as was agreed in the case aforesaid. The statute of malefactors in parks, of 21 E. 1.

gives as much. See the statute of 21 E. 1.]

[4.] [5. A man cannot justify a wounding in preservation of his possession. P. 12 Ja. B. R. between * Butler and Austin; per Curiam. Mich. 9 Car. B. R. between Buckhurst and Trowte, Ch. J. he adjudged upon demurrer. Intratur Trin. 9 Car. Rot. 472.]

S. C. and S. P. But per Coke may justify wounding in defence of his person. Roll. Rep. 19. pl. 20.

[5.] [6. If a man be making a booth in a fair by good licence of the owner, and a stranger disturbs him, and breaks it down without cause, yet he cannot justify the battery of him. 11 H. 6. 23]

[6.] [7. A man may justify the battery of one who will enter Noy said, into his house; for it is his castle. P. 7 Ja. B. Lawrence's case, that a man cannot justiper Curiam.]

fy the Winding

another to fave bis bouse or goods, but can only stay the party with his hands in desence of his possession. Lat. 20. in case of Hall v. Gerard.

A man cannot justify an assault in defence of his bixse or cluse. I Salk. 407. per Cur. in case of Leeward v. Basilee. — Ld. Raym. Rep. 62. S. P. accordingly, per Cur. in S. C.

[7.] [8. If a man enters into my close, and there with an iron sledge and bar breaks and displaces my stones there being in the land, being my chattle, and I require him to defift, and he refuses, and speaks threatening words, if I shall approach to him, and upon [430] this I, to keep him that he shall not do more damage to the stones, not daring to approach him, cast some stones at him molliter & molli manu, and they lay upon him molliter, yet this is not good justification; for the judges said, that a man cannot cast stones molliter, though it was confessed by a demurrer; and it would be perilous there to give liberty to a man to cast stones out of his hand in defence of his possession; for when a stone is cast out of the hand, he cannot + guide it; and a justification of battery in + Fel. 849. defence of possession, though it arises from the possession, yet the conclusion is in defence of the person. P. 11 Car. B. R. between Cole and MAUNDER adjudged upon demurrer. Intratur H. 10 Car. ' Rot. 502.]

8. There is a force in law, as in every trespass quare clausum fregit; so if A. enters into my ground, I must request him to depart, before 10 before I can lay hands on him to turn him out; for every impositio manuum is an assault and battery, which cannot be justified on the account of breaking my close in law, without a request to be gone. And likewise there is an actual force, as in burglary, in breaking open a door or gate; and in that case it is lawful to oppose force to force; and if A. breaks down the gate, or comes into my close vi & armis, I need not request him to be gone, but may lay hands on him immediately, for it is but returning violence with violence; per Cur. 2 Salk. 641. pl. 12.—Annæ, B. R. Green v. Goddard.

(G. 3) In Defence of Goods.

[1.] [9. A Man may justify the battery of another, in defence of his goods. *19 H. 6. 31. b. Trin. 3 Jac. B. Ow. 150. per Coke, in case of Seaman v. Cup. agreed.] pledike.

----I may lay hands on one that would take my goods, and diffurb him, and if be will not leave, I may beat him, rather than he shall carry them away. Fin. Law, 8vo. 203.

• S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 128. in the large edition, cites 29 H. 6. 31. but it should be 19 H. 6.31.

and so are the smaller editions.——2 Inst. 316. S. P.

If A. comes forcibly and takes away my goods, I may oppose him without any more ado; for there is no time to make a request; per Cur. 2 Salk. 641. pl. 12. Ann. B. R. Gieen v. Goddard.

[2.] [10. If a man will take my money out of my purse, I may justify the battery of him in defence thereof.]

[3.] [11. If a man takes the beafts of another damage feafant to The defendant came his corn, and a stranger will take them out of his possession, he manu forti may well justify the battery of him in defence of them. to rescue & 19 H. 6. 66.] diftress from the plaintiff, and it appeared, that the plaintiff bad net time to request bim to forbear, and this being pleaded was held a good just fication of the assault. 11 Mod. 64. pl. 6. Trin. 4 Ann. B. R. Anon.

> 4. A man may justify a battery to preserve his dog. Arg. Saund. 84. in case of WRIGHT v. RAMSCOT, cites Rast. Ent. 611.

5. In affault, &c. the defendant pleaded fon affault demesne. The plaintiff replied that he was servant to A. to take care of his borses,

pl. 10.

and that the defendant would have beaten one of them; whereupon be, in defence of the horse, laid his hands on the defendant, and thereupon the defendant assaulted him. The defendant rejoined, that B. another fervant of A. was going to break the hedge, and leap a horse of A.'s into Black Acre, a close of the defendant's master, whereupon the defendant forbid him, and endeavoured to hinder him; and thereupon the plaintiff [431] came up and assaulted, &c. the defendant, who defended himself; and traversed, that he was guilty, &c. but in Black Acre, &c. Exception was taken to the replication, that it was only that the defendant would have beaten the horse, and did not allege in fact, that he did beat him. But notwithstanding this exception, the defendant had judgment. 2 Lutw. 1481. Hill. 11 W. 3. Shingleton v. Smith.

(G. 4) Assault and Battery. Declaration. Good or

TRESPASS of affault, that he imposed such and so many threats of his life and maining him, that he could not go about bis business in public; and did not say about his business there, and yet well; per Cur. Br. Brief, pl. 230. cites 37 H. 6. 2, 3.

2. In trespass the plaintiff counted, that the defendant menaced him, by which his business in this county and in the county of S. was not done, and shewed bow, viz. in collecting rents, &c. repairing such houses, &c. And the same where he says, that he dared not attend his business, he shall shew in what business. Br. Count, pl. 46. cites 37 H. 6. 19.

3. In trespass of affault at D. & ipsum verberavit vulneravit, & male tractavit, all shall be intended in the first place; and yet it may be, that it was at divers places. Br. Surmise, pl. 27.

cites 5 H. 7. 17.

3 /

4. In trespass of assaulting him, nec non unum equum pretii 6 l. a persona ipsius (the plaintiff) adtunc & ibidem cepit. After a verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the declaration was ill, because the plaintiff did not suppose any property in the horse, but ought to have said equum suum; for it might be the defendant's, and then he might lawfully take her; or it might be the plaintiff's and then tortious: and the construction being indifferent, it shall be taken strongest against the plaintiff. And the jury having affessed intire damages for both trespasses, and there being no cause for one trespass, the verdict is not good; quod fuit concessum per Fenner & Yelverton J. no other being in court. Yelv. 36. Pasch. 1 Jac. B. R. Purcel v. Bradley.

5. In action of affault, the plaintiff declared quod cum the de- Roll. Rep. fendant verberavit, without an express allegation that the defendant 55. C. by the did beat him. Exception was taken, and cited the case of SHE- name of RIFF AND BRIDGES, 39 Eliz. where such a declaration was ad-SHERLAND judged void. But the justices were of opinion, that the decla- V. HAUration was good, notwithstanding the judgment cited. Godb. 251. Coke Ch. J.

pl. 347. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. R. Sherloe's case.

seemed to think it

good, and instanced in an ejectment, and also in debt for rent, that a quod cum dimisit is good. But it being moved at another day, and the case of SHREENE v. BRIDGE, Trin. 37 Eliz. cited as adjudged in point in a writ of error to be good, though the custom is to declare in such cases with a de to quod ipfe, &c. the Court (absente Coke) held accordingly. ——— 2 Bulst. 214. S. C. and the whole Court declared they would be directed by precedents, and accordingly precedents were produced, and add (absent Cake) were clear of opinion that the declaration was not good. And Man secundary, informed the Court, that he had 2 precedents directly in point adjudged upon a declaration to be insufficient, being in this manner as here with a quod cum. But Croke J. said, if the declaration here had been quod cum, he was in pace domini regis, the other did assault and beat him contra pacem, this had been good; for here is a good relative to the quod cum, which always pre-supposes some matter subsequent to be depending upon it, which is not so here, and therefore the declaration here not good; and so the rule of the Court was quod querens nil capiat per billam.

After verdict, judgment was arrested, because no place was [432] alleged where the battery was done. Lat. 273. Mich. 2 Car. Edfol v. Bengor.

7. Upon

7. Upon hearing counsel on both sides, 3 declarations in afault; battery, and false imprisonment, were ordered to be reduced into one, appearing upon the sace of the declaration to be all for one and the same sact; and in each of the 3 the plaintiff declaring against one of the desendants for an assault, &c. Simul cum the other 2. Notes in C. B. 249. Hill. 7 Geo. 2. Catlin v. Elliot, Hunt, and Drew.

(G. 5) Pleadings. Good or not.

TRESPASS of battery, wounding and maihem, and it was demanded judgment if the writ, inasmuch as of the maihem he ought to have appeal of maihem, et non allocatur. Br. Trespass,

pl. 261. cites 43 Aff. 39.

Br. Appeal, pl. 138. cites S. C.——Serjeant Hawkins fays that howfoever

2. By which the defendant said, that the plaintiff at another time brought appeal of maihem of the same act, and was nonsuited after appearance; and good clearly per Knivet Ch. J. and so see that nonsuit in appeal of maihem is peremptory. Br. Trespass, pl. 261. cites 43 Afl. 39.

the law may stand in relation to this marter; if such action be brought for the battery-only, without mentioning the maihem, he sees not how it can be barred by such a nonsuit, because it is generally holden, that in an appeal of maihem, no consideration can be had of the battery, but only of the maihem; and if so, it seems strange that a nonsuit in such an appeal should bar an action of a different nature brought from a matter which the appeal had nothing to do with. However it seems clear that a nonsuit in an action of trespass is no bar of an appeal of maihem; also he takes it for granted, that a nonsuit in an appeal of maihem, before the plaintist has appeared to it, is not a bar of any other appeal or action, because the writ, for what appears to the contrary, might be purchased by a stranger in the name of the plaintist. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 160. cap. 23. s. 26.

Br. Prefentments in Courts, pl. 4. cites S.C. All the editions of Brooke are (defendant), but the Year-book is(plaintist).

- 3. In trespass, the defendant said that he was forester of the forest of B. and the * plaintiff was indicted by the foresters and verderors, regarders, and agisters, for taking of deer, by which he came to him, and prayed him to find pledges to answer before the justices of the forest, and would not; by which he took and imprisoned him till he performed the statute, judgment, &c. And the plaintist said, that de son tort demesse absque tali causa, and the issue was received by the Court. And it was said, that before justices in eyre, he shall not have averment contrary to such presentment of the foresters. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 7. cites 45 E. 3. 7.
- 4. Trespass of battery, the defendant pleaded not guilty, the plaintiff pleaded estoppel, because at another time the defendant being indicted, owned the trespass before justices of peace; and upon this process issued against him to answer to the king, who came and pleaded that the ill which the plaintiff had, was de son assault demesne, and so to issue; and before verdict the defendant came and confessed the trespass, and put himself in grace of the king, and made sine, and demanded judgment, if he shall be received to plead not guilty; and the record came in by writ of the Chancery: and the Court held that he shall not plead not guilty, contrary to his confession, by which he pleaded de son assault demesne. And the other demurred, inasmuch as he pleaded it against the king, and after waived it, and confessed the trespass. And after writ was awarded to inquire of damages; and so it seems that he fball not plead contrary to bis confession. Br. Trespass, pl. 96. cites 11 H. 4. 65.

5. Trespass of assault and battery; the defendant said that the [433] plaintiff came upon his land, and would have occupied it, and the defendant disturbed him, and took him by the hand, and charged him to go ffo; which is the same affault and battery; and admitted for a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 413. cites 11 H. 6. 23.

6. Trespass of battery of his servant, per quod servicium servientis sui prædicti, &c. the defendant faid, that be was retained with bim before that he beat him, and departed and came to the plaintiff; and yet it seems that it is no plea; for he cannot retake him, nor beat him, without request to his second master. Br. Trespass,

pl. 139. cites 21 H. 6. 8. 8.

7. Trespass of breaking his close, and battery, menace, and wounding A. and B. his servants in N. The defendant said, that be was feised of 2 acres on C. till disselfed by the plaintiff, upon which be entered and did the trespass, absque boc, that he is guilty in N. and The defenda good plea; and to the wounding not guilty; for per Cur. wounding cannot be justified; and to the menace and battery said, that he was feised of the said 2 acres in C. till by the plaintiff disseled, and the said the plaintiff A. and B. servants of the plaintiff, came with the plaintiff upon the were cutting land, and the defendant re-entered upon the plaintiff, and found A. and B. upon the land occupying to the use of the plaintiff, by which he put and in C. by bis hands upon them peaceably, and said, that if they would not go off the land, he would pursue and chastise them according to the law of the tiem, and land; which is the same menace and battery, of which the action is laid bis brought, absque boc, that he is guilty at N. And a good plea without the traverse: for it is a trespass transitory. Br Trespass, pl. 143. commanded cites 21 H. 6. 26, 27.

Trespals of aliault made to his fervants at D. ant faid, that the said Jerwants of of the grafs of the defendarubich be probibited bands upon them, and then to go out of bis land, absque hoc that he is guilty of an affault in D., &c. And it was held a good plea; and yet it is not like where a man justifies by assault made by the plaintiff to the defendant; note the diversity. Br. Justification, pl. 4. cites 27 H. 6. 1.

8. In trespass of affault in the county of N. by which he lost his S.P. Br. business in the county of N. and S. it is no plea that he had not any bu- Count, pl. finess, or did not loose his business in the country of S. Br. Traverse per, and pl. 89. &c. pl. 136. 17 H. 6. 2, 3.

9. And if he fays that by the menace of the defendant he could not S. P. Br. gather in his debts, nor plow his land in S. it is no plea that he has Count, pl. no debts there; for the assault or menace is the effect of the matter, and the rest is only to increase damages. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. answer to the

136. cites 37 H. 6. 2, 3.

10. Trespass by F. for assault upon M. his servant, and beating And after he and wounding him, 5 August anno, &c. and imprisoning him, and Said that be, carrying him from L. to N. and there imprisoning him by 3 days per quod servitium, &c. perdidit; the defendant said, that 4 August he and by bis was robed of such goods, to the value, &c. at midnight, by which he levied the cry, and came to D. constable of S. and to W. N. bailiff of the hundred, and shewed the matter, and prayed them to search for suf- that be could picious persons, and take and arrest them; by which they there searched

43. citesS.C.

89 citesS.C. But he shall menace.

as servant of the conflable, command arrested bim, &c. and faid, ried at jour corporis peri- fearthed accordingly, and found the faid fervant going and watching culo, which suspiciously in the street; in the night, and would have arrested him, and is as well as he fled, and the defendant pursued, took, and carried him to H. absque morto have him carried to gaol; and because he was sick, and could not be tis periculo, quod nota; carried, they held him for 3 days, and after carried him to gaol; which and the fame is the same affault, battery, and imprisonment, &c. And no plea, apon a rebecause he makes not any justification for himself. Br Trespass, turn of languidus. Br. pl. 297. cites 2 E. 4. 8. Trespass, 297. cites 2 E. 4. 8.

11. In trespass, the defendant shewed that the plaintiff would have taken 6d. of the money of the defendant from him, and he put his hands upon him, and did not suffer him. And by the Justices, if a man takes my goods, I may put my hands upon him, and disturb him, and if he will not leave, may beat him rather than suffer him to carry them away, by which the plaintiff said that de son tort demesse absque tali causa; and this was of trespass of battery. Br. Trespass, pl. 185. cites 9 E. 4. 28.

12. Trespass of menace, the defendant said that the plaintiff was indebted to him, and he said to him that he would sue for it by the law, and imprison him if he could, which is the same menace. And per Cur. this is no plea; for the one is a tortious menace, and the other is a lawful menace. Br. Trespass, pl. 388. cites 16 E. 4. 7.

Br. Trefpaís, pl. 389. eites S. C. 13. Trespass vi & armis in D. insultum secit, verberavit vulneravit, & male tractavit, & tales, & tantas minas imposuit quod, &cc. the desendant to the vi & armis pleaded not guilty, and to the residue of the trespass that at the time of the trespass, &c. the plaintiss made an assault upon him, and the desendant prayed him to suffer him to be in peace, and if not, that he would desend himself, and rather than he should beat the desendant, that the desendant would meet him, and yet the plaintiss would not surcease his assault, by which the desendant in his desence beat him, which is the same assault and menace of which the action is brought; and a good plea, and shall not be compelled to say generally, that de son assault demesne, and in his desence; for then the menace shall not be answered; quod nota per Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 333. cites 16 E. 4. 11.

14. In trespass of assault and battery, the defendant said that divers felonies were committed in the place where, &cc. and said that he was watching in his house, and came out into the highway, and the plaintist came at the hour of 11 in the night, and the defendant came and put his hands upon him in a peaceable manner, and locked in his saes, and when he saw that he was a true man, he departed, which is the same assault and battery of which, &c. Per Keble, by the statute of Winchester, cap. 3. watchmen may arrest night-walkers, but such watches ought to be assigned by the vill. And per Cur. suspicion is sufficient cause toarrest a man, and is traversable. And per Hussey, watchmen may oppose nightwalkers from whencesoever they come; and Fairfax J. agreed thereto, and so a good plea. Quære if double. Br. Trespass, pl. 268. cites 4 H 7. 1, 2.

15. Trespass of assault, battery, and wounding, the defendant said that the same place and day he had a warrant to arrest the plaintiff, plaintiff, by which he there put his hands upon him peaceably, and arrested him, which is the same assault, battery, and wounding, &c. Per Fineux, this is no plea; for this is no assault, battery, nor wounding; but if he had faid that he arrested by a warrant at the time, &c. and the plaintiff made assault upon him, and the ill which he there had, &c. was de son assault demesne, &c. this had been a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 218. cites 21 H. 7. 39.

16. In trespass of assault, battery, and wounding, the defendants justified by warrant from the mayor of S. to take the husband, and that when they were taking him, the wife hindered them, whereupon they laid their hands on her molliter to make her desist, quæ est eadem transgressio, &c. It was objected that they did not answer to the battery, nor traverse it. And it was held ill. Cro. E. 93, 94. pl. 3.

Pasch. 3 Eliz. B. R. Jerome v. Phear.

17. In affault, battery, and wounding, the defendant pleaded that he was constable of D. and for such a misdemeanor by the plaintiff, be laid his hands on him and put him into the stocks, que est eadem transgressio; and upon demurrer it was adjudged for the plaintiff, because the desendant did not plead not guilty to the wounding, or justified it; but if one pleads that the hurt which the plaintiff had was of his own affault, this is a good answer to all, and the plaintiffhad judgment. Cro. E. 268. pl. 3. Hill. 34 Eliz. B. R. Pendlebury v. Elmer.

18. A boy pressed to get into a cock-pit, to see the game, and the [435] master of the pit endeavoured to put him forth; the boy resisted, the master thereupon pulled him by the ear, so that it bled; and the boy by his guardian fues action of battery. And the master pleaded not guilty, and for this it was against him; but by Damport Judge, some opinion was, that by good pleading in this case the master of the pit might have justified the act well enough, but could not plead not guilty. Clayt. 24. pl. 41. Rigg's case.

19. In affault and battery, the defendant justified by molliter manus imposuit upon the plaintiff, who entered his close. And the opinion of the Court was, that he ought to shew what estate he had in the close, and that the plaintiff came there and endeavoured to eject or disseise bim. Mo. 846. pl. 1142. Mich. 13 Jac. Smith v. Bull.

20. If a battery be outrageous, so that a molliter manus imposuit be not true, it ought to be specially shewn, otherwise it shall be a good justification. Skin. 387. pl. 22. Mich. 5 W. & M. B. R.

King & Uxor v. Tebbart,

21. In trespass and assault the defendant pleaded that he was 4 Mod. 404. riding in the highway, and his horse being feightened, ran away with bim, and that the plaintiff and others were called to to fland out of the plainthe way, which they did not, and that the horse run upon the plaintiff tiff; and against bis will, &c. And upon demurrer to this plea it was adjudged ill, because the defendant had justified a trespass, and did like the case not confess it; but if he had pleaded not guilty, upon this evidence of WEAVER he might have been acquitted. 2 Salk. 637. pl. 5. Pasch. 7 W. 3. in Hob. 134. B. R. Gibbon v. Pepper.

S. C. adjudged for there it was said not to be because the e the fact was confessed; but the battery is not answered here. ----Ld. Raym. Rep. 38. S. C. and says that in this case the defendant justified a battery, which is no battery. And so was the opinion of the Court; and judgment for the plaintiff.

22. One

22. One cannot plead his possession in bar without more, except it be in the case of battery, where it may be merely collateral; and the true diversity is between a declaration and a plea, for one may count upon his possession without more, but not justify by virtue of it; and you can never give possession in bar, without making a title; per Powell J. 12 Mod. 508, 509. Pasch. 13 W. 3. in case of Pell v. Garlick.

8 Salk. 423. pl. 11. S. C. but not S. P. —6 Mod. 240. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.—II Mod. 38. pl. 2. S. C. but not S. P. of puance.

- 23. In trespass an exception was taken, that the plea was discontinued, because the declaration was of an affault, taking, arresting, and imprisoning, and the defendant pleaded to the trespass, assault and imprisonment, but pleaded nothing as to the arrest. But per Holt Ch. J. the imprisonment includes the arrest; for imprisonment cannot be without an arrest, nor an arrest without imprisonment; for an arrest is an actual imprisonment. And the plaintiff had judgment. 2 Ld. Raym. 1100. Hill. 3 Ann. Blackmore v. the disconti- Tidderley.
 - 24. In trespass, assault and battery, laid 1st Octob. 3 Ann. the defendant as to the force pleads not guilty, and as to the residue pleads that long before, &c. (viz.) on September 13, a stranger's bull broke into his close, which he was driving out to impound him; and that the plaintiff came into the close, and with force hindered him, and would bave rescued the bull; to prevent which the plaintiff parvum flagellum super querentem molliter imposuit, which is the same residue of the trespass, and traversed that he was guilty at any time before the faid 13 Sept. Exception was taken, because the defendant should have required him to go out of his close before he beat him, and that flagellum molliter imponere was repugnant, and that the traverse was short, because it did not answer the trespass after Sept. 13. per Cur. The quod est idem residuum is good without a traverse, and therefore not material though it be short; for it goes only to [436] the time where the quod est idem avers it to be the same.

644. pl. 12. . . . Ann. B R. Green v. Goddard.

25. In affault and battery, the defendant pleaded that be was fervant to R. and that the plaintiff having affaulted R. at a certain time and place, he did then and there affault the plaintiff in defence of his master. Exception was taken that a servant could only justify defending his master, and not assaulting the plaintist in the defence of him; and cited 11 H. 6. 8. Besides the assault of [by] the plaintiff might have been of a time past; for the words of the plea are, that the plaintiff baving affaulted R. And the whole Court (al sente Lee) were of opinion that the plea was not good, and gave judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B.R. 327. Mich. 7 Geo. 2. 1733. Markweth v. Reynolds and Westwood.

(G. 6) Justification. Good, or not.

1. IN trespass of battery at D. there, if he justifies at another place in the same county, this is good without alleging continuance of the trespass; per tot. Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 37. cites 35 H. 6. 50, 51. 2. In

. 2. In trespals of battery, ita quod desperabatur, &c. it suffices to justify the battery, without answering to the jeopardy of life. Br. Faux

Imprisonment, pl. 3. cites 35 H. 6. 54.

3. Trespass of battery, the defendant said that he is serjeant, ond arrested him upon an action, and pleaded all certain; and the plaintiff made rescous, and the serjeant pursued him, and he sted, and because he could not otherwise take him he beat him, which is the same trespass, &c. Per Littleton, if I come to distrain, and the party chase the cattle upon another's land, or into another county, I may purfue and retake; for when they are in my view they shall be adjudged in law in my possession; the reason seems to be inasmuch as they are transitory. So where it is said to a man, I arrest you, and he flies, I may purfue him and take him, and this in another county. Per Markham Ch. J. yet you cannot beat him when he flies; but if he had been arrested in fact, and made rescous, or would stand in his defence upon the arrest, there he may beat him to take him. Br. Trespass, pl. 296. cites 2 E. 4. 6.

4. Trespass of menace of life and member; a man cannot just tify the menace of death; by which he said not guilty, and to the rest faid that he menaced him from going in his way, and made affault upon him; by which he said to him that he would go in his way, and would defend himself in their assault, and rather than be maybemed bimself that he would maybem him; and so to issue. Br. Trespass,.

pl. 319. cites 10 E. 4. 6.

5. Trespass of assault, wounding, and imprisonment by one day; and the defendant justified the wounding because the plaintiff made an affault upon him the same day, year, and place, and the wrong, which he had was de son assault demesne in his desence; and to the imprisonment he said that he was constable of the same vill, and because the plaintiff made an affault upon him and broke the peace, he took and carried bim to gaol for conservation of the peace; and a good plea per tot Cur. though the assault was made upon himself. Br. Trespass, pl. 272. cites 5 H. 7. 6.

6. In trespass for an affault, wounding, taking, and imprisoning, Roll. Rep. the defendant quoad the affault and wounding pleaded not guilty, and quoad the taking and imprisoning justified by a warrant from the lord mayor, but shews neither time or place when or where it was made, and faid nothing as to the affault; and upon demurrer the plea was held ill, by reason of * omitting the affault; and so it was a discontinuance, and therefore ordered to begin again. 2 Bulft. 335. the warrant

Hill. 12 Jac. Wilson v. Dodd.

176. S. C. accordingly, and the point as to the place was admitted by Coventry of counsel for the defendant. It was infifted by the counsel for the plaintiff, that where the things to be answered are of divers natures, there ought to be a particular answer to each; but where the one includes the other, it is well enough, if he justifies that which includes the other without answering the other, and so in this sale; for there cannot be an imprisonment without an assault, so that the imprisonment which is justiand includes the affault; but Coke Ch. J. said that there might be an affault without an imprisonment. and so they are distinct, as wounding includes an assault; but if he directs his plea to the wounding, it is no answer to the assault. And Doderidge said the plaintist did not intend the assault comprehended by implication in the imprisonment, but another distinct assault

7. It was objected, that the traverse de injuria is not good, where the justification is by reason of a freehold, or a lease for Vol. XX. Kk. · years .

135. pl. 15. S. C. 2ccordingly. And perCur. A place ought to be alleged where was made. And ibid.

*[437]

years; but notwithstanding the plaintiff shall have judgment, because the justification is not merely in the realty, but mists with the personalty; and where it is mixed with the personalty, injuria sus propria is a good traverse, and he need not to traverse the title, 28 the defendant pretends; and cites 8 H. 6. 34. Besides, the justification is not here upon the lease, but upon the assault upon him by laying his hands molliter upon him, to remove him from his possession; so that the realty is not inducement only to the justification. Lat. 273. Pasch. 2 Car. Hall v Gerrard.

Ibid. 404. The reporter says, quod that all justifications in fuch cases are as here, and the laying on his

8. In trespass of battery and imprisonment, the defendant justified as bailiff, by virtue of an execution, and that he mulliter manus mirror! For imposuit upon him, and arrested and imprisoned him. It was objected that the molliter manus imposuit did not answer the battery; and the Court inclined that it did not sufficiently answer it, but that he should have pleaded that the plaintiff resisted him, by which he in his defence beat him. 3 Lev. 403, 404. Mich. 6 W. & M. in C. B. Patrick v. Johnson.

hands is a battery, if he had no warrant to justify it. And ibid. 405. says, that upon this exception and another curia advisare valt; and the plaintiff being satisfied that the exceptions would not help him, discontinued. ____But fee 2 Lutw. 929. where this remark of Lev. 404, 405. is canvalled and denied by Ser-jeant Lutwich in the same case of Patrick v. Johnson.

9. Where an express battery is laid, it is not enough to justify the imprisonment upon legal process, which includes a battery, but the defendant ought to go on, and shew that he arrested the plaintiff, and the plaintiff offered to rescue himself, and so the desendant was compelled to beat him; for otherwise if it be not upon some occasion, a man cannot justify a battery in an arrest. And judgment was given by the whole Court for the plaintiff. Ld. Raym. Rep. 231, 232. Trin. 9 W. 3. in case of Truscott v. Carpenter and Man.

see (G. 5). (G. 7) De son tort Demesne. Good Plea, in what Cases of Assault and Battery, &cc.

1. IN trespass of menacing, it is no plea de son tort demesne, &c. for if a man affaults another, it is not lawful for the other to say that he would kill him, and to menace him of life and member; but if he, upon whom the affault is made, flies, and the other purfues him so near that he cannot escape, or if he has him under him upon the ground, or has chased him to a wall, hedge, water, or dike, so that he cannot escape him, there it is lawful for him to say, that if he will not depart, he in salvation of his life will kill him, &c. Per Prisot, quod non negatur. And Brooke says such manner of form is good se defendendo in an indictment upon the death of a man se desendendo. Br. Trespass, pl. 28. cites 33 H. & 18.

[438] But where a man justifies so arrest N. for suspicion of felong, the plaintiff

2. In trespass the defendant justified to see if waste be done in the land which the plaintiff held in execution against the defendant by slatute merchant; and the plaintiff said that de son tort demeine absque tali causa. And per Brian, where a man justifies bis entry by the law, and by no person certain, as to enter to see waste, entry into a tavern for victual, or the like, there de son tort demeine meine is no plea, by which the plaintiff waived the iffite, and may say that faid that he claimed the land to be his own land; and a good iffue. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 49. cites 12 E. 4. 10:

de son tort demelne, &c. and yet he justified by the law; for the one is an entry, and the other is an excuse in law. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 49. cites

12 E. 4. 10.

And it was faid there, that if a man justifies by authority of the plaintiff, as by licence, lease, or such like, there de lou tort demesne absque tali causa is no ples. Br. De son tort, sec. pl. 49. cites 12 E. 4. 10.

3. In trespass of assault and battery, the defendant justified that J. S. was possessed of a dog ut de bonis propriis, and delivered it to bim To keep, and that the plaintiff would have taken it from him, in which he resisted him, and in defence and custody of his dog he beat him, and the hurt which he had was de son tort demesne; and to this the plaintiff was put to answer, and replied de son tort, &c. which proves a property in the dog when he justifies the beating of one in defence of it. Arg. Cro. E. 126. in case of Ireland v. Higgins, cites 13 H. 7. Rot. 33.

4. Where defendant in trespass, assault, battery, &c. justifies in defence of his possession, the plaintiff may reply de son tort demesne, because the title of the land does not come in question; per Powell J.

Ld. Raym. Rep. 120, 121. Mieh. 8 W. 3. Serle v. Darford.

(G. 8) De fon Assault Demessie, a good Plea. In what see (G. 5)i Cases.

1: IN trespals of battery, the defendant faid that the plaintiff beat W. to death, and the constable came to arrest him, and he stood in defence, by which the defendant came in aid of the constable, &c. and the ill which he had was de son assault demesne; judgment, &c. The plaintiff said that de son tort demesne, &c. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 11. cites 38 E. 3. 9.

2. Battery against two defendants; they pleaded son assault des mesne, and this was assigned for error, because the assault of the one could not be the affault of the other; and therefore they ought to have pleaded several pleas, but it was adjudged good, because the affault may be joint. Mo. 704. pl. 983. Penruddock v. Etrington.

3. Though one cannot justify a battery by fon affault demesne, by pleading it to an indictment, yet he may give it in evidence on a not guilty, and he may be thereupon acquitted; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 172. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Cotesworth.

4. In trespass for an affault, battery, and maihem, defendant 13 Mod. 43. pleaded son assault demesne, which was admitted to be a good plea in maihem; but the question was, what asfault was sufficient and Holt to maintain such a plea in maihem? Holt Ch. J. said that the meaning of the plea was, that he struck in his own defence; that if A. strike B. and B. strikes ugain, and they close immediately, and does not rein the scuffle B. maims A. that is son assault; but if upon a little sent it im-Mow given by A. to B., B. gives him a blow that maims him, that Kka pl. 3. S. C. accordingly; faid that if a man strikes another who mediately after, but takes his opportunity, and some time after falls upon bim, is not fon affault demesne. Powel J. agreed, for the reason why son assault is a good plea in maihem is, because it might be such an assault as endangered the defendant's life. 3 Salk. 642. pl. 13. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. Cockcroft v. Smith.

and beats him, in this case son assault is no good plea, but in such case he ought to plead what is necessary for a man's defence, and not who struck first, though this he said had been the common practice, but which he wished was altered; for hitting a man a little blow with a little stick on the shoulder, is not a reason for the other to draw a sword, and cut and hew the other, &c. And the principal case was, that the plaintiff in a scusse ran his finger towards the defendant's eye, who bit off a joint. - S. C. cited Ld. Raym. Rep. 177. in a note at the end of the case of Cook v. BEAL, says that Holt Ch. J. directed a verdict for the defendant, the fi. it affault being the tilling a form or feat upon which the defendant sat, whereby he feel, and the maihem was that the defendant bit off the plaintiff's finger.—6 Mod. 230. & 263. S. C. but upon other points.

(G. 9) Replication in Assault, &c. Good, or not.

much in the fame words with that of Yelv.—Cro. J. 224. pl. 5. 8. C. adjudzed accordingly.

Brownlers. 1. N affault and battery, the defendant pleaded, that at the time, b. C. and is much in the acc. he was seised of the rectory of D. in see, and that corn was severed from the 9 parts, and he came into the ground to carry away the tythes, and in desence thereof, and to hinder the plaintiff from taking it, he stood there to defend it, and the burt which he bad was of his own avrong; the plaintiff replied, de injuria sua propria absque tali causa: and upon demurrer the plaintiff had judgment, because by his declaration, he did not claim anything in the foil or in the corn, but only damages for the battery, &c. which is collateral to the title. Where the plaintiff makes title in his count, and the defendant pleads any matter in destruction of such title, or of the plaintiff's cause of action, there the plaintiff must reply specially, and shall not say absque tali causa. Yelv. 157. Trin. 7 Jac. B. R. Tailor v. Markham.

2. Trespass of assault, battery, and wounding, 1 Aug. 13 Car. the defendant pleaded son affault demesne, upon issue the defendant gave in evidence an assault and battery by the plaintiff, 2 July 13 Car. and that it was in his own defence, and produced witnesses to prove it; the plaintiff shewed that the battery he intended was 9 July 13 Car. and produced also divers witnesses to prove it. It was infifted for the defendant that this was no evidence; for the plaintiff ought to have made special replication, and shewed that special matter; but all the Court held that it was not requisite; for if be had shewed another day in the replication it had been a departure; but it is sufficient to shew it in evidence, that there was an assault; for the day is not material. Cro. C. 514. pl. 12. Mich. 14 Car.

Thornton v. Lister.

Mod. 36. pl. 86. S.C. but femewhat varying, viz. The defendant pleaded de ion assault demeine; the

3. In battery, the defendant pleaded fon affault demeine; the plaintiff replied that he was standing at his gate, and that the defendant being on horseback offered to ride over him, whereupon he molliter affaulted the plaintiff in defence of his perfon, qui est idem infultus, &c. and upon demurrer this replication was adjudged ill, because he had now confested the first assault; but he should have said molliter manus imposuit upon the plaintiff to hinder his riding over him. JudgJudgment for the defendant. Lev. 282. Jones v. Tresillian. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. B. R.

plaintiff replies, that the defendant

would have forced his borfe from him, whereby he did molliter insultum facere upon the defendant, in defence of bis possession. To this the defendant demurred. Moreton said, that molliter insultum facere is a contradiction; suppose you had said that molliter you struck him down. And Twisden said, you cannot justify the beating of a man in defence of your possession, but you may say that you did molliter manus imponere, &c. Keeling faid you ought to have replied, that you did molliter manus imponere, quæ est eadem transgressio. And per Cur. Quer' nil capiat per billam, unless better cause be shewn this term. ---- Sid. 441. pl. 10. S. C. but states it that the defendant pleaded specially in defence of the possession of a ship, and concluded his plea et sie molliter insultum * fecit, where it should be manus imposuit; and therefore the bar was adjudged ill. ———S. C. cited Ld. Raym. Rep. 62. Mich. 7 W. 3. in case of Leward v. Basely, as Trin. 21 Car. 2. Rot. 1841. but states it differently from all the rest, viz. that the defendant pleaded fon affault demesne; the plaintiff replied that he was possessed of a close called Cupner's close; and that the descendant broke the gate, and chased his horses in the close, and the plaintiff for defending his possession molliter insultum fecit upon the defendant. And upon a demurrer adjudged a bad replication, for he should have said molliter manus imposuit; but he could not justify an assault in defence of his possession. And this case the Court agreed to be good law.— 2 Keb. 597. pl. 23. S. C. says the plaintiff replied that in defence of his body and possession molliter infultum fecit on the defendant, who came riding against him standing in his close; and the Court held je ill,

4. Assault, battery, and wounding. The defendant justified, that he being master of a ship, commanded the plaintiff to do some service in the ship; and on his refusing, he, the defendant, moderate castigavit eum. The plaintiff maintained his declaration, absque hoc moderate casquod moderate castigavit. After verdict for the plaintiff it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the issue was not well joined; for non moderate castigavit does not necessarily imply that he beat him at all, and so no direct traverse to the justification, which immoderate castigavit would have been; but de injuria sua pro- castigavit, pria absque tali causa would have been the most formal replication. However, it was held good after a verdict. Vent. 70. Pasch. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Aubrey v. James.

440 Sid.444. pl. 2. the replication was quod non tigavit, and itiue thereupon; and the jury found quod non moderate and 201. damages. It was moved, that this was negativum infinitum, and so not a good issue. And the Court held it would have been ill upon demurrer, but is good after verdict; because here is an affirmative and a negative. — Gilb. Hist. of C. B. 124. cites S. C. and fays, that it was rather a traverse of the chastisement, than of the moderate manner of doing it; yet after verdict it is good, because the injuria has ascertained that he did beat him immoderately.

5. In trespass of assault and battery, the defendant pleaded son Comb. 227. affault demesne. The plaintiff replied, that the defendant came King & into his house, and continued there after the plaintiff desired him to PEPPARD, depart; upon which he commanded his wife to put him out of the S.C. It was house, que molliter manus super the desendant imposuit, & hoc, &c. but does not say qua est eadem transgressio. And adjudged a good ant, that replication; for it being eodem tempore quo, it is good without fuch there ought a conclusion; but if they vary in time, then it is necessary to say to be a traquæ est eadem transgressio. Skin. 387. pl. 22. Mich. 5 W. & M. Holt Ch. J. in B. R. King & Ux. v. Tebbart.

Ux. v. infifted for the defendsaid, the plaint iff by the replication shows it was a justifiable assault, and so confesses and avoids, which is a full answer without a traverie; and where the replication is de injuria sua propria, it must conclude ad patriam. -- -Carth. 280. King & Ux. v. Phippard, S. C. accordingly. And per Cur. the replication ought so be special as it is ; because the matter could not be given in evidence upon the general replication of de injuria sua propria. And judgment for the plaintiff,

- (G. 10) Judgment and Damages, How, And where several Defendants plead several Pleas, and one or more is found guilty of the Battery, and the others of the Assault only.
- 1. TRESPASS of affault and battery. They are at iffue, and it is found that he affaulted him, but he had no burt, and that he was not beaten; and taxed damages at balf a mark, and the plaintiff recovered by judgment, Br. Damages, pl. 19. cites 42 E. 3. 7.

2. Trespass for affault such a day. The defendant pleaded not guilty. The jury found the affault on this day, and another day to the damage of 201. The plaintiff shall have judgment of the 201. for [441] the affault; and it is taken as one and the same affault; quod mirum, and so judgment pro querente. Br. Damages, pl. 32.

cites 45 E. 3. 24.

- 3. Trespass against 4, de verberatione & vulneratione. The one justified the avounding, and the blows by affault of the plaintiff, and are at issue. And the other pleaded not guilty. And per Cur. if the plea of him who justifies be found against him, be shall be charged of the entire damages; and it shall be inquired bow the others did, for they may make an affault, and not wound him; and then of this the damages shall be against all, and of the wounding against him who struck only, quod mirum. For in trespass there is no accessary, and he who came and did not strike is principal, if the others struck. Br. Trespass, pl. 278. cites 6 H. 7. 1,
- (H) Trespass. In what Cases it lies. Clausum fregit, [Who shall have it. In respect of his Estate.]

S. C. cited [1. HE that has only the herbage of a forest or of a close, may Mo. 302. pl. have trespass quare clausium fregit, as well as if he had have trespass quare clausum fregit, as well as if he had 453. Hill. 34 Eliz. in the land. Dy. 12 El. 285. 40.] cafe of Welden v. Bridgwater. S. P. Ibid. 355. pl. 48. Pasch. 36 Eliz. per tot. Cur. in case of Hoe VI Taylor. ---- Co. Litt. 4. b. S. P. Arg. 2 Roll. Rep. 356. in case of Zouch v. Moore.

[2. [So] If A, seised in see of a close, grants the pasture of the Mo. 302. pl. 453. S. P. chose to B. for years, B. shall have trespass quare clausum fregit by Fenner for a trespass done to him; for the close itself is demised to pasand Gawdy ture, and not the pasture to be taken by the mouth of his beasts. I. in case of Welden v. Mich. 14 Car. by Barkley.] Bridgwater.

-S. P. per tot. Cut. Mo. 355. pl. 480. in case of Hoe v. Taylor. S.P. by Doderidge J.

2 Bulft. 88. in case of Whittier v. Stockman.

3. Trespass was brought by the lessor against the lesses for life for. cutting of trees, which were reserved upon the making of the lease; and it lay well, though the leffee had a leafe; therefore quære, if by the refervation the soil be not referred, for it was quare clausum fregit, and awarded good by reservation of the great wood. Br. Trespass, pl. 55. eites 46 E. 3. 22.

4. Owner of land contracts with others for the fowing it, &c. Cro. E. 143. at balves; the owner only can have clausum fregit. Le. 315. ph. 10. Trin. pl. 439. Hill. 20 Eliz. C. B. Hare v. Okeley. C. B. S. C, accordingly, by the name of Hare & al' v. Celey. ---- Goldib. 77. pl. 9. Hill. 30 Eliz. Hare's cafe.

5. Trespass was brought by grantee of the proficuum of such a mead, viz. the ear-grass. The jury found that ear-grass is such grass as is upon the land after mowing till Lady-day. Such grantee cannot bring trespass quare clausum frégit; but he may have action for spoiling his grass. 3 Le. 213. pl. 282. Mich. 30 & 31 Eliz. B. R. Hitchcock v. Harvey.

6. He that has the crop and vesture of lands as let acres, to his Cro. E. 424. lot every 3 or 4 years, shall have trespass quare clausum fregit. Mo. 302. pl. 453. Hill. 34 Eliz. Welden v. Bridgewater.

pl. 17. S. C. And this allotment having been so made time out of mind, may be good by prescription; and by the allotment it is the proper soil and freshold of him to whom it is allotted, and so may well maintain this action.

- 7. So the king who has the profits by outlawry. Mo. 302. L 442] pl. 453. Hill. 34 Eliz. in case of Welden v. Bridgewater, So if a man be outhwed cites 15 H. 7. 2. 34 H. 6. 28. in a personal action, and the king has the profits of the land, and lets the same to another, he shall have trespass quare causum fregit; per Clench J. which Shute granted., 3 Le. 213. pl. 282. Mich. 30 & 31 Elis. B. R. in case of Hitchcock v. Harvey.
- 8. Partition was made between coparceners, that the one Shall So partition, have the manor of D. for one year, and the other the manor of S. and that the one that every second year they shall exchange. Now each of them for shall beve it their time have a several freehold, and shall have trespass alone day to such quare clausum fregit. Cro. E. 421. pl. 17. in case of Welden a day, and the other for v. Bridgewater, cites F. N. B. 62. the relidue of the year. Cro. E. 422. pl. 17. cites tempore E. 1. Partition, 21.

- 9. He that has a profit apprender only, and not the land itself, cannot maintain this action; as 5 H. 7. 10. he that hath a warren only in another's foil, or 15 H. 7. or 14 H. 8. of a commoner only. Arg. Cro. E. 421. in case of Welden v. Bridgwater.
- 10. Tenant by copy of underwood to be cut annually by 4 or 5 acres, Cro. E. 413. may bring trespals quare clausum fregit, notwithstanding it was Pl. 3. Mich. objected, that the soil was not granted, and which the Court admitted. Mo. 355. pl. 480. Pasch. 36 or 37 Eliz. B. R. upon S. C. error of a judgment given in C. B. Hoe v. Taylor.
- 11. Trespass vi & armis, quare clausum vocat P. &c. fregit, 4 Mod. 186. and taking his fish in his free fishery in clauso predicto, &c. It was objected that the action would not lie, for he is no more than a commoner, and has only a liberty of fishing with others, and not brought in the entire fishing himself; for he has neither the property or possession of the fish in libera piscaria, but only a privilege of libera pis-K k 4

37 & 38 Eliz. B. R. 4 Rep. 30. b. pl. 23. S. C.—— S.C. per Cur. the like action was 46 E. 3. 11. for fishing in taking them there; and therefore cannot maintain trespals vi & caria; and it does not armis, no more than he who has common of pasture. And appear by the Just. G. Eyres cited the case of Up-John v. Dawkins, where book, but the like action was brought, and judgment arrested for the like the action was maincause; sed per Holt Ch. J. and Dolben, the plaintiff had judgtainable: ment in Pasch. 1693. Eyre J. contra, and Gregory absent. but if it is a Holt Ch. J. grounded his opinion upon the authority of the writ fault, it is cured by the in the register, fol. 95. b. and F. N. B. 88. (G)! but Dolben J. verdict; and seemed to differ this case from the register, because here it was it shall now laid to be libera piscaria in clauso (of the plaintiff) which amounts to be intended that they separalis piscaria. Carth. 285. Mich. 5 W. & M. B. R. Smith were the v. Kemp & 'al. plaintiff's own fish.

-2 Salk. 637. pl. 4. S. C. and Holt Ch. J. held as reported in Carth. But Salkeld says, note that Carthew (who moved in arrest of the judgment) said that there were several writs in the register against law.—Skin. 342. pl. 9. S. C. says that Holt likewise dited 17 E. 4. 6. where such writ was brought, and therefore the register, and F. N. B. being so, and the old book of 46 E-3. 11. agreeing with it, they did not regard the cases cited, or I lnst. but gave judgment for the plaintiff;

Carth. 286. in the margin, cites 1 Inft. 122. a. Cro. Car. 553. and a case adjudged between PEAK and Tucker, Hill 1 & 2 Jac. 2. B. R. where judgment was arrested upon the motion of Mr. Policefon for this very cause, [443] (I) Trespass with Continuando. Of what Thing it may be.

So of grass [1. TT lies of grass trampled. 46 E. 3. * 14. 20 H. 7. 3. Curia. fed. Br. 29 E. 3. 35. 2 R. 3. 15. b. Fitz. Na. 91. (L.)] Trespass, pl. 441. cites 20 H. 7. 2. per Cur. - This should be (24).

[2. It does not lie of a gorce, for it cannot be continued. 46 L. Breaking of a garce,

3. 24. bouse, &c.

[3. But it lies of a house. 46 E. 3. 34. 3 H. 6. Trespass, 19. which are Fitzh. Na. 91. (L) Dubitatur 20 H. 7. 3. contra 46 E. 3. 24. done in an instant, the 19 H. 6. 23. b. admitted.] plaintiff shall not say transgressionem illam continuand', for these cannot be continued. Contrary of grass fed, &cc. In the one case the justification refers to the day of breaking only, and in the other it refers to the continuance of the trespals. Per Finchden Justice. Br. Trespals, pl. 374. cites 46 Ass. 9. ----- S. P. Br. Nusance, pl. 6. cites 46 E. 3. 23.

* S. P. Br. Trespals, pl. 441. cites 20 H. 7. 2. See pl. 9.

[4. So trespass lies of a close broke with a continuando. Na. 91. (L) contra 2 R. 3. 15. b.]

[5. A trespass with continuando is not good, quare succidit & 3. P. Arg. Raym. 228. asportavit 10 arbores, &c. for it cannot be continued for the same in case of trees. M. 9 Car. B. R. between Hoskins and Jennings, per Curi-King v. ... am, and Littleton recorder of London, prayed leave to disconcites S. C. and Mich. tinue after demurrer joined. + 20 H. 7. 3.] 20 H. 7. 3. pl. 7. --- + Br. Trespass, pl. 441. cites 20 H. 7. 2. S. C.

[6. A trespass of corn in the blade may be with a continuando 5. C. cited Raym. 306. diversis diebus & temporibus by 2 years, though there cannot be a in the case continuance of such trespals by such time together. P. 5 Ja. B. of Nappier KING's case,] w. Cartis.

[7. A tref-

17. A trespals of goods carried away, that is to say 2 load of Bri Prospels. wiheat, and 5 load of barley may be with a continuando diversis S. C. diebus & vicibus from such a day to such a day. 21 H. 6. 43. a. b. It was madjudged.]

force that trespais

cannot be laid of loofe chattles with a continuando, as 100 had of wheat with a continuando from such a day to such a day. And therefore per Powel J. no evidence can be given, but of the taking at one day. Ld. Raym. Rep. 242. in case of Fostheroy v. Aylmer.

[8. A trespass quare equum cepit, cannot be with continuando. Br. Trespass. 20 H. 7. 3. for this cannot be continued.] P1.441. CHOS 20 H. 7. 2.

9. A man may have an action of trespass for breaking of his Teespass for house or close, and allege a continuance of the trespass, and of the entering his breaking thereof, from such a day unto such a day, as well as he coming there may for treading of his grass, or cutting of his corn, &c. F. N. B. divers days, 91. (L).

bouse, and &c. and after verdice

for the plaintiff, it was moved that the plaintiff had declared with a continuando for beaking his honse; which he could not do; for the entering is one act done and ended at the going out again; and therefore if he re-entered it is a new trespass, and the continuando is only alleged for the aggravation of damages, and cited 2 R. 3. 15. 10 E. 3. 10. 16 E. 3. 24. That a continuando cannot be for breeking the house; but Doderidge and Houghton J. the rest being silent, thought it splight be alleged with a continuando; for although it might be that if he went forth and re-entered, it should be a new trespals, but if upon his first entry he continued divers days, it might be alleged with a * continuando, and cited F. N. B. 91. (L). Brownl. 223, 224. Trin. 10 Jac. in case of Sutcliffe v. Constable.

Where the trespass may be laid with a continuando, depends much upon the consideration of good sense; therefore where trespals is brought for breaking of a bouse or a bedge, this may be well laid with a continuando; for the pulling away of every brick is a breach, which may be done one at one day and another at another day, so one stick may be pulled out of a hedge one day and another another; bee trespass cannot be laid with continuando for the proflemation of a bouse; for when the house is once thrown down, it cannot be thrown down again. The same law of the throwing down of a bedge, per Treby and Nevil. But Powel J. was of opinion that a man may bring trespals for throwing down of a house with a continuando, because one part may be thrown down at one day and another at another. The same law of a † hedge. Resolved per Cur. Ld. Raym. Rep. 240. Trin. 9 Will. 3. in case of Fontieroy v. Aylmer. L 444]

† See pl. 11.

10. In trespass of battery at D. in the county of Esex, the defend- Br. Visne, , ant pleaded that the plaintiff made an affault upon him at B. in the s. c. county of Kent, and the defendant fled, and the plaintiff pursued him Br. De fon continually unto D. aforesaid, at which place the defendant did defend test Debimself, and so the hurt which the plaintiff had was of his own as- mesne, pl. 3fault, and demanded judgment if action. The same is a good plea without traversing of the county; for a battery may be continued from one county to another. Arg. 1 Le. 39. pl. 49. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. in the Exchequer. In case of the queen v. Ld. Vaux, &c. cites 34 H. 6. 15, 16.

11. Trespass quare clausum fregit pedibus ambulando and breaking Freem. Rep. down his fences continuando transgression. præd. from such a day to fuch a day, ad damnum, &c. and after verdict upon non culp. Rose. Mich. it was moved in arrest of judgment, because there can be no con- 1673. seems tinuando in breaking of fences. Et adjornatur. Raym. 228. Mich. but nothing 25 Car. 2. B. R. King v.....

347- pl. 432. King v. was faid there as to this point; but Ibid. 356. pl. 448. Rosz v. Kinna says it was admitted that a general cliusum fregit or domum fregit, lies not in continuance, for they are not continued acts. For Cur; pedibus ambulande lies in continuance, and so does eating his grass; and so in this case they resolved that breaking fences may well be in continuance, for a fence may be a mile long. Jud' pro dnes,.

Trespals, quad profravit 20 perches of fence, with a continuendo. It was objected that it cannot beg for when they are once proftrated it cannot be continued; otherwise if it bad not been faid 2 perches. Treby Ch. J. thought it was well enough; for if it were a total proftration it could not be continued, and then damages were given for the rest of the trespals; but if but a partial prostration, then it lies in continuance, and well enough. But Powel J. said, it must be intended, that 20 perches were actually prostrated, which cannot be continued; and if it be repugnant, the verdict cannot help it; therefore in old books they did always arrest the judgment where laid so: if the verdict helps it, it helps it at common law as much as now. Treby faid, it is a bis petitum, and it would be ill upon demurrer; but he thought the Oxford act helped it. Powel faid, that indeed the Oxford act has been largely confirmed Et adjornatur. Comb. 426. Trin. 9 W. 3. in B. R. Anon.

6 Mod. 39, 40. Mich. 2 Annæ, B. R. it was said, per tot. Cur. to have been adjudged, that trefstats for proftrating a bench [which feams misprinted for sence] with a continuando, had been held good [which seems to mean this very case]. -----See pl. 9. the last note.

g Mod. 38, Mich. 2 Annæ, B.R. 5. C. by mame of MONKTON V. ASHLEY. adjudged for the plaintiff. ____2 Ld. Raym Rep. 974. S. C. argued; and Holt and Powel beld as here, but it is not exprefsly men-

12. Trespass for entering bis close, and bunting such a day continuando transgressionem quosal the hunting diversis diebus & vicibus from the day of the tresposs alloged till such a day; Holt Ch. J. held that of acts which terminate in themselves, and being once done, cannot be done again, as killing a hare or five hares, or cutting and carrying away 20 trees, it ought to be alleged that diversis diebus & vicibus between such a day and such a day he killed 5 hares, &c. and where a trespass is laid with a continuance that cannot be continued, exception should be made at the trial, because the plaintiff ought to recover but for one trespass. And the Court held that hunting might be continued, as well as spoiling and consuming or cutting his grass. And judgment for the plaintiff, 2 Salk. 638. pl. 2. Hill. 1 Annæ, B. R. Monkton v. Pashley. tioned there, that judgment was given.

[445] (I. 2) Trespass with a Continuando. Pleadings.

1. TRESPASS of a close broken, and goods carried away contra pacem Richard late king of England, & contra pacem nostram, and counted of parcel of the trespass in the time of king Richard, and parcel in the time of H. 4. so that the writ supposed in a manner joint trespasses in the time of both kings, and the count supposed several trespasses; and yet because trespass may be continued, & reddendo singula singulis, the writ is good, and therefore was awarded good. Br. Trespass, pl. 91, cites 11 H. 4. 15.

2. In trespass, the plaintiff counts that the trespass was committed such a day, &c. diversis diebus & vicibus, without shewing the days of the continuance of it, yet this count is good. nuance of the trespass is to be proved in evidence for the increase of damages. Jenk. 124. in case 52.

8id. 319. pl. 9. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. that a man cannot carry away a vaft

3. Trespass, &c. for taking 10 loads of wheat, 10 loads of barley, and 10 leads of oats 1st April, continuando the said trespass from B.R. S.C. 1st April to the 1st June. After a judgment for the plaintiff, it and observes was assigned for error, that the trespass being laid 1st April, and sa all one day, the continuando must be ill; for what was done ist April cannot be done at another day. But judgment was affirmed; for though for the doing a fingle act, as killing a horse, &c. a number of continuando is ill, yet where divers things may be done at several times, as in the principal case, though the trespass be first laid to be done the first day, the continuando sball make a distribution of them, (viz.) that part was done on one day and part on another, within the time declared. Lev. 210. Pasch. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Butler v. Hedges.

th

loads in ong day, and therefore it may be with a continuando.

4. In trespass by men and beasts (with a continuando) and found 2 Keb. 407. for the plaintiff, and damages pro transgressione prædicta. moved in arrest of judgment, that this cannot be; for trespass by seems to be men cannot be with a continuando. And Twisdon J. doubted, but the other justices thought that judgments should be for the plaintiff, and that the damages shall be intended for this part of the trespass, which may be with a continuando. Sid. 379. pl. 8. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Pave v. Brown.

pl.24. PAIM v. Brown, S. C. that the traffajs was laid the 3 ft of CEnber, contimuando the said trespass, a pradicto primo Septembris to a year after. It was moved in arrest of judgment after a general verdict, but this being but a mistake in the aggravation of damages, and the main trespals tried, the Court conceived it was well enough, and that the continuando is void, and the damages shall be intended for the principal entry, the other being repugnant and impossible. Judgment for the plaintiff.

5. In trespass for fishing in his several fishery, and taking 20 bush- 2 Jo- 109els of oysters, &c. continuando piscationem præd. from such a day to the time of the action brought, the plaintiff had a verdict. was moved in arrest of judgment, that the fishing in the continuando was altogether incertain, not expressing the quantity or quality And of this opinion were Wylde and Jones J. upon the authority of PLAYTER's case. But Hale Ch. J. seemed to think it well enough, and said that that case had not been well approved. of late years, as to the necessity of expressing the kinds of fish, which has been since held needless. And the other justices thought the same reasonable, but thought themselves tied up by the authorities, and that Playter's case had remained unshaken. But adjor-billam. Vent. 329. Trin. 30 Car. 2. B. R. Hovel v. Reynolds.

HEVEL V. REYNOLDS, S. C. fays that judgment was given by Twifden, Wild, and Jones, (diffentiente Scroggs,) that the plaintiff all capiat per 2 Show. 196. pl. 199.

Howell v. Reynolds, says, that upon motion in arrest of judgment, it was held well enough, and that there might be a continuance thereof. ———— 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 976. in the case of Monkton v. PASHLEY, Holt Ch. J. said that trespass was brought for taking oysters continuando, which cannot be and judgment was arrested, and that it had been so adjudged.

*[446]

6. Trespass for breaking bis close, and spoiling his grass, and trampling and eating other grass (of the plaintiff's) with horses, &c. and also with his waggons, &c. subverting and spoiling other grass, and the foil of the faid close, and therein did dig and carry 2000 load of tobacco pipe clay, to the value of, &c. continuing the said trespass diverfis diebus & vicibus. And as to the trampling and eating the grass with their cattle, and as to the subverting and spoiling of other grass with waggons, &c. and as to the digging in the said close from fuch a day to such a day, the defendants demurred, because the feveral continuances of those trespasses were several trespasses by themselves, and ought not to be declared upon with a continuando; but Curia contra. And it seems that these words, diversis diebus & vicibus made the action good. But adjornatur. Raym. 396. Trin. 32 Car. 2, B. R. Nappier & al' v. Curtis.

7. Tref-

2 Jo. 194. Pasch. 34 Car.2. B.R. pame of LEIGHTON v. GILLOW, fays, that after verdict the continuando shall be spoiling the grais only to which it is applicable,

7. Trespass for breaking his close, spoiling his grass, and taking up and carrying away 200 posts fixed in the ground, continuando trans-S. C. by the gression. præd. to such a day; there was a verdict for the plaintiff, and intire damages and judgment for the plaintiff. Error was brought, and faid that there could be no continuando as to the posts; but Curia contra; for when the continuando is de transgression' præd' generally, and the trespasses consist of divers parts. some whereof may be with a continuando, but others not, the applied to the continuando + refers only to such of which continuando may be, and not to the others; but had it been of the posts particularly, it had been otherwise. And judgment was affirmed by all the 3 Lev. 93, 94. Mich. 34 Car. 2. Gillam v. Clayton.

and not to the posts, which would be repugnant; and judgment nisi, &c.—Skin. 42. pl. 12. CLAYTON V. GIL-LAM, S. C. accordingly; but if it were on demurrer it would be otherwise. ——2 Show. 196. pl. 198. S. C. accordingly. —— Vent. 363. S. C. accordingly. And cites the case of LETCHFORD V. ELLIST, which was trespass for entering, and feeding, and laying loggs, &c. continuando transgressionem prædict. and yet good for the reasons aforementioned. ----- S. C. cited accordingly 2 Jo. 194. in the said case of Leighton v. Gillow. ----Sid. 224. pl. 16. Mich. 16 Car. 2. and 249. pl. 17. Pasch. 17 Car. 2. Lichford v. Elliot, is only of laying loggs continuando transgress. prædict. without any thing of entering and feeding, and that judgment was stayed, and that Keeling Ch. J. intended the continuando should be applied to the laying the logs upon the land, and not to the casting them on it. But the others e contra, because it is continuando transgress, quod ejectionem; but upon reading the record, it was because the logs (jecerunt) which as to this purpose is an insensible word, and so no ejectment mentioned before, and there is surplusage, and shall be taken to be transgress, prædict, generally; and therefore, though it was twice moved, judgment was given for the plaintiff. ——Raym. 396. Arg. in the case of NAPPIER v. CURTIS, cites S. C. and fays if the words divertis diebus & vicibus had been in it. had been good.

† 2 Salk, 639. S. P. in case of Brook v. Bishop.

8. Trespass quare clausum fregit, and pulled down a wall 2 April, 2 W. & M. with a continuando to the 20th February 1 W. & M. the Ch. J. and Eyres held, that the continuando is void, because it is impossible, and the damages shall be intended for the trespals only. Comb. 193. Pasch. 4 W. & M. B. R. Horner v. Bridges.

ras to the 20 bushels of wheat making 4 been told formerly by a phipadquan of that country where this action is laid, viz. Hertfordthire, that facks of wheat, containing 5 buthels each, were in that country calked by the name of loads, and & 4 facks,

9. Trespass for breaking his house, and taking viginti modios triciti (anglice, 4 loads of rubeat) continuando totam transgressionem, from 27 Octob. to 27 Novemb. Judgment was given in C.B. by nil loads, I have dicit, and on error in B. R. the errors assigned were, that modius signifies a bushel, and that it is not possible to make 4 loads of 20 bushels; besides, the continuando cannot be for a month; for a man must have some time to rest. It was answered that the anglice was furplufage, and the continuando shews the taking not to be all at the same time, but was only to * shew how it was done; and that where a continuando is not well laid, and intire damages given, it shall be intended for that only which might have a continuance. And so was the opinion of the Court; for the taking the corn is laid to be on fuch a day, continuando transgressionem prædict. from that day to such a day, which is insenfible. If it had been continuando transgressionem predict generally, it had been well enough; but it is totam transgressionem, which cannot be for breaking the house. The judgment was affirmed. 5 Mod. 178. Hill. 7 W. 3. Wilson v. Howard.

containing 20 bulbels, were there called 4 loads of wheat (distinguishing it from 4 load, without an (s)].

"[447]

16. Trespals for breaking and entering his close on the 2d of April, and treading down his grass, and taking and carrying away 10 poplars, and 10 load of underwood, the faid trespasses till 27 April diversis diebus & vicibus continuando. It was resolved that the continuance trespass for as to the poplars and underwoods was impossible, and could not be; and that where there is a continuando of such and such things in particular, and they lie not in continuance, it is naught, even after a verdict. 2 Salk. 639. pl. 8. Hill. 1 Ann. B.R. Brook v. Bishop.

7 Mod. 152. S. C. And per Cur. the right way in répeated acts of trespals would be, that on such a day, et diversis aliis diebus & vicibus, between such a day and such a day, the defendant did so and so; and cites 20 H. 6. but in this case the continuando is impossible; and therefore no damages could be given for it; and the only mischief possible would be that of giving other acts of trespals in evidence by pretence of it; but that ought not to be suffered, and therefore not to be intended, ———Comb 427. in an anonymous case 1697. in C. B. adds a note, that Powell J. said the true way of pleading is as above; for otherwise if it be laid on a certain day with a continuando, they can give in evidence but one day, (though they may chuse their day;) for tha which is done on one day cannot be continued. And that Treby Ch. J. agreed that they must either de so, or make several counts for the several days. _____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. $23. S. C. accordingly.

Trespass with Continuando. At what Time Fol. 550. it lies.

[1.]F a man be disseised, he shall not have trespass with a con- F.N.B. 91. tinuando, after the disseisin, before that he has re-entered; be- (L) in the cause the franktenement is in the disseisor at all times after the there (e), 19 H. 6. 27. b. 70, 71. b.] diffeilin.

new notes cites S.C.-Fitzh. tit.

Trespass, pl. 37. says nota by all the justices, that a man shall have trespass of a trespass done by the diffeifor without entry; but of trespass done after the disseisin, he shall not have trespass unless he re-enters; for the issues of the land ought to be his who has the franktenement, and that he shall punish the trespass, &c.

[2 But after his re-entry he shall have trespass with continuando, from the disseisin till his re-entry. 9 H. 6. 27. b. Admitted.]

[3. But if the estate of a man be determined by limitation, or all of God, after the disseisin or ouster, so that the disseisee cannot reenter; there, for necessity, he shall have trespass with continuando for all the time after the diffeisin, without any re-entry 19 H. 6. 28. a. b.]

[4. As if tenant pur auter vie be disseised, and after cesty que vie dies, he may after have trespass with continuando for all the time after the disseisin, without re-entry, because his entry is taken away by the act of God. 19 H. 6. 28. b.]

[5. So if lessee for years be ousted, [and] after the term expires, L 448 | he may have trespass with continuando for all after the ouster S.P. And if one does me without re-entry, because he cannot re-enter. 19 H. 6. 28. b.] a trespass, and I alien the land, yet I shall have action. Fitsh. tit. Trespass, pl. 37. cites 19 H. 6. 27. Per Ascough, and Yelverton, and Fulthorp agreed.

[6. But if the entry of the diffeisee be taken away by his own If one be all, there he shall not have trespass with continuando for the disselfed, and then the trespass by the disseisin, because it was his own folly to toll his disseisor is entry.]

diffeifed, and the first dis

seise releases to the seisor, he shall not have trespass with continuando after the dissert the first disseisor, seisin till the release, because it was his folly to tell his entry by disseise may this release; and this release shall not enure as an entry and punish the feostment in this case. Contra 9 H. 6. 28. b.]

by writ of trespais for all the trespais, because this release countervalls an entry, sec. Fitsh. tit. Trespais, pl. 37. cites 19 H. 6. 27. per Ascough and Yelverton, to which Fulthorp agreed, but Newton in the Ascough held the law as above.

nied it; but Ascough held the law as above.

* This seems misprinted, and that it should be (19).

8. P. brought trespass against W. and R. for breaking bis close, and eating his grass, 15 Eliz. continuando the said trespass diversis diebus & vicibus, untill the writ purchased, which was 28 Eliz. Upon evidence it appeared, that W. and R. had entered, and occupied for half a year; and afterwards P. entered upon them, and occupied for a time; and after R. entered, and after that P. entered, and after R. re-entered, and occupied is till the day of the writ purchased. The question was, if this entry by P. be not such an interruption of the trespass, that he shall be forced for every trespass to have several actions, or that one action with a continuando will serve for all. And the Court held clearly, that one action of trespass with a continuando will serve for all; and it may well be brought with a continuando. Cro. E. 182. pl. 2. Pasch. 32 Eliz. B. R. Sir Francis Willoughby, and Ralph Saches veral, v. Patrick Sacheveral, &c.

(L) Trespass. Trespass in Forest, Park, Warren, &c.

[1. TRESPASS lies at common law for breaking his park, and cutting his trees. 46 E. 3. 12. b.]

[2. But trespass for breaking his park, and taking his surges, did not lie at common law. 46 E. 3. 12. b. Admitted.]

† See Park, (A) and the notes there.

[3. But in such case writ is given by the statute. 46 L 3, 12, b. It seems it is the statute. † Westm. 1. cap. 20-]

[4. If A. bas a free warren in the foil of B. A. shall not have action of trespass vi & armis against B. quare in libera warrennz fua latibula ejusdem warrennz prostravit & obstruxit per quod cuniculi de eadem warrenna interierunt; but A. is put to his action upon the case against the owner of the soil for his tore. Mich. Q Car. B. between Sir William Monson Knight, Viscount Monson of Castleman in Ireland, and others plaintists, and John Staples and others desendants, adjudged per Curiam. Intratur. Mich. 8 Car. Rot. 1727. Moyle.]

objected, that the writ ought to be quare quandam damam from domesticam interfecit; for of savage beasts he shall not have recovery, unless he supposes that he took them in his close or park, or warren or chase. And afterwards the writ was abated, &c. Fitzh. tit. Brief, pl. 564. cites Trin. 43 E. 3. 4.

6. Trespass quare warrennam intravit apud W. & cuniculas cepit & asportavit. It was objected, that the writ should be et in codem cuniculos cepit & aspertavit; as in trespals of goods carried away, he shall say et ibidem bona sua cepit; but the writ was awarded good. Fitzh. tit. Brief, pl. 563. cites Pasch.

43 E. 3. 13.

7. Trespass against 2 for bunting in bis park, and killing 2 deer ; both pleaded not guilty; and the one was found guilty, and the other acquitted. And the plaintiff prayed damages according to the flatute; and the best opinion was, that he shall not have it, because he did not bring his action upon the statute. Br. Action sur le Statute, pl. 6. cites 9 H. 6. 2.

8. In trespals for entering into a park, warren, &c. it is no plea to fay it is no park or warren; but he must plead non cal', and give the matter in evidence. F.N.B. 86. (L) in the new notes there (f) cites 10 H. 6. 16. 19 H. 8. 9. And says, that therefore it is held clearly, that if one has a warren, if he inchose or impark without the king's licence, and another hunts there, and he brings trespass de parco fracto, the other may plead non cul', and give this matter in evidence; for none may have a park without the king's grant, or by prescription. Note also, the plaintiff in this writ does not make any title to the park in his count; and therefore it is no plea, that he had no park by prescription or by licence; for how can judgment be given on a title where none is alleged, and cites 18 H. 6. 21.

(L. 2) Trespass for taking of the Wife. [And Pleadings.]

In lawful matrimony, is no plea; because it is not lawful to take her, if it be a marriage in facto. 9 H. 6. 34. b.]

[3. But the defendant may say, that the feme was espoused to him before she was espoused to the plaintiff, by which he retook his fene. 9 H. 6. 34. b.]

3. Westm. 2. 13 E. 1. cap. 34. Of * women carried away with At the conthe goods of their husbands, + the king shall have the suit of the goods men law the so taken away.

might have had an action of trespass de uxore abducts cum bonis viri. 2 Inft. 434. This is also probibited by the flatute of Westminster the 1. cap. 13. and a further punishment inflicted than was at the common law; and therefore in the original writ de uxore abducta cum bonis viri, it is concluded, contra formam flatuti in hujusmodi casu proviso, meaning the said statute of Westm. 1. For this act of Westim. 2. extends only to the suit of the laing; and is the writ be brought at the common law, omitting these words, contra formam statuti, then it is si A. secerit, &c. tunc pone, &c. quod sit, &c. But if contra formam flatuti be added, then the writ is fi A. fecerit, &c. attachies B. ita quod cum habeze, &c. 2 Inft. 434.

The flatute of W.1. 3E. 1. cap. 13. enables any person to sue within 40 days; but if no one commences the Just within that time, then the king shall suc; and such as are found culpable shall suffer 2 years imprisonment, and make fine at the king's will; and if they have not whereof, they shall be punished by longer imprisonment, as the trespass requires.

Note, The party shall not have the punishment enjoined by the statute, but where he is sued by a writ that makes mention of the statute. F. N. B. 89. (203.) in the new notes there (d) cites 9H. 6. 2.

a Hawke Pl. C. 175. cap. 23. £. 72. says, that this statute of 3 E. 1. cap. 13. is repealed.

Though

* Though the word in the flatute is (mulieribus) yet that is the same as to say (uxoribus), for of see eient time mulier was taken for a wife. 2 Inft. 434.

If the wife be taken away, and after is divorced, or if the dies, yet the busband shall have bit affind de uxore abducta cum bonis viri; for in this action he shall not recover his wife, but damages; and he cannot have an action for taking her away as his fervant, because the law gives him an action in another form. 2 Inft. 434.

Where a man marries a wife before she is of the age of 12 years, and after the comes to 12 years, and before she affents or disassents to it, a man takes and carries ber away, the baron shall I not have trespass de muliere abducta cum bonis viri; for it is not properly a marriage till she assents. Brooke makes a. quære of the action; for it seems that it shall be intended a marriage till she disassents. Br. Trespais, pl. 420. cites 47 E. 3.

I S. P. mentioned 2 Inft. 434. But lord Coke says, he holds the law to be contrary; for the is maor till disagreement.

The plaintist must in his count show the goods in certain. 2 Inst. 435.

Albeit the words of the writ be rapuit, yet here it is taken for a violent taking away, and not when carnal knowledge is had; so as this action may be brought against women as well as men. 2 Inst. 4350 -And it being assigned for error, because it was said (cepit & abduxit) where it was objected that it ought to have been (rapuit) and that so is the register of writs brought in such cases. The objection was disallowed, because it may be both ways. And judgment was affirmed. Cro. J. 538, 539. pl. 6. Trin. 17 Jac. B. R. Hyde v. Scysfor.

+ And albeit the words be, that the king shall have the suit, yet may the husband also have his action, m is aforefa.d. 2 Inft. 434.

٤.

4. Trespass de muliere abducta & rapta cum bonis viri asportatis, against baron and seme, and others; and well against the seme; for one feme may affent and aid to the ravishment of another feme, and may carry away the goods; and there it is agreed, that is no plea that the plaintiff and the feme are divorced; for he is not to recover his feme, but damages; and if she was seme tempore,

&c. this suffices. Br. Trespass, pl. 43. cites 43 E. 3. 23.

5. Trespass of taking his feme. Little said, actio non; for a debate was between the plaintiff and his feme, by which the plaintiff gave licence to the defendant to take his feme to his house, which he did accordingly, to intreat the feme to be amiable and well-disposed to her baron. Judgment, &c. Laicon said, this is no plea; for it is not lawful to take the feme against her will. But per Markham Ch. J. it is lawful against the baron, plaintiff, who gave the licence. And so to carry his seme from one place to another, by which the other traversed the licence. Br. Trespass, pl. 294. cites 1 E. 4. 1.

6. Trespass of taking his seme and goods, and faid that the feme prayed him to put her upon the horse, and to carry her to Westminster, to sue a divorce between her baron and her, and he did so. Per Conisby, this is a good plea. And per Fineux, to sue a divorce is good cause for discharge of conscience. And adjornatur.

Br. Trespass, pl. 440. cites 20 H. 7. 2.

In what Cases it lies for intermeddling with (L. 3)the Feme.

Man may aid a feme who falls upon the ground by a horse; . and so if she be sick; and the same if her baron would murder her, per Conisby. And the same, per Rede, where the feine would kill herself. And per Fineux, a man may conduct 4 Br. Trespass, pl. 440. cites 20 H. 7. 2. feme in a pilgrimage.

2. Trespals for carrying of his feme, without the affent of the * This is baron, to L. to sue a divorce. Per Fineux, the action does not lie, misprinted, and thould for it was lawful for the defendant to carry her; for it shall be inbe 21 H. 7. tended that there was cause of divorce. Br. Trespass, pl. 207. cites 13. a. pl.17. * 12 H. 1. 37.

3. And where the feme is going to market, it is lawful for ano-[451] ther to suffer ber to ride behind him upon his horse to market; per + Seethe note to pl.2.

Fineux. Br. Trespass, pl. 207. cites + 12 H. 1. 37.

4. And if a feme says, that she is in jeopardy of her life by her # See the baron, and prays him to carry her to a justice of peace, to obtain a note to pl.2. warrant of the peace, he may lawfully do it; and a man may lawfully sue to have judgment in the law; per Fineux. Br. Trespass, pl. 207. cites ‡ 12 H. 1. 37.

5. And a man may lawfully pursue to reverse a judgment; per So if a seme a man to aid ber to reverse the outlawry, it is lawful for him to aid her; per Fineux. Br. Trespass, pl. 207. cites § 12 H. 1. 37.

Fineux. Br. Trespass, pl. 207. cites § 12 H. 1. 37.

§ See the note to pl. 2.

6. Where my feme is out of her way, it is not lawful for a man to take her to his house, if she was not in danger of being lost in the night, or of being drouned with water; per Brudnell. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

(L. 4) Quare Filium & Hæredem rapuit, &c. or See Father other Injuries done to a Child.

1. TRESPASS de filio & hærede querentis abducto, & capto S. P. per vi & armis. Skrene prayed judgment of the writ; for it is not said cujus maritagium ad ipsum pertinet. Per Hank. it is intended by the law, that the marriage belonged to him; and adjornatur. But it seems, that he shall say as Skrene said, for otherwife it may be that the father had married him before the taking. Nota. it faid, that Br. Trespass, pl. 101. cites | 12 H. 4. 16.

that the writ shall be cujus maritagium ad insum pertinet.

2. Trespass against W.T. quare R. filium suum & hered' apud T. inventum rapuit & abduxit. Yelverton protestando that he such a day delivered the infant to his father, pro placito dicit, that it was + noised in the country that the plaintiff was dead, and his feme was + The other dead in fact; by which the defendant, as uncle and prochein amy of editions are the faid R. came to T. to fee the faid R. and found the faid R. of the nurse), but age of one year, ill governed, and out of his ward, by negligence of feem by the bis nurse, by which he took him, as lawfully he might. Per Paston, fense to be misprinted. if a man sees an infant in the street in peril of death, and takes him and delivers him to his father, this is no tort. But per Newton, if a man ravishes my son, and after redelivers him, it does not excuse the rape; but the cases are not alike. And per Portington, it is not lawful for any to take an infant out of the custody of a nurse to whom he was put by the father. But Newton · Vol. XX. faid, and Son(A). See Guardian (X).

be outlawed,

and defires

Seton. Ibid. pl.252. cites 29 Aff. 35. Br. Garde, pl. 77. cites S. C. where Hank. utterly denied And adjornatur.

said, that if an infant is put to nurse, and I see him in peril of a dog, or of a horse, and I take and deliver him to the sather, this is no tort, by which the issue is good above, and therefore it stood;

quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 141. cites 21 H. 6. 14.

2 Wms.'s Rep. 116. S. C. cited per lords commissioners, in case of Eyre v. Lady Shaftf- cale. bury.

3. Every ancestor, male and semale, shall have trespass, or writ of ravishment of ward, against every stranger who, of his own tort, ravishes the heir apparent of any person, be the heir male or female; and the writ shall say, cujus maritagium ad ipsum pertinet; and it matters not of what age the heir apparent is in such 3 Rep. 38. b. Hill. 34 Eliz. B. R. Ratcliff's case.— Cites 32 E. 3.

[452]

4. But such action did not lie against guardian in chivalry, but only for the father; who might have action against such lord, where his fon and heir apparent was ravished by him. Ibid. cites Litt.

s. 114. and 18 E. 3. 25. 30 E. 3. 17. 29 E. 3. 7 & 19.

5. In trespass for thrusting one on his son, an infant under the age of discretion, and breaking his thigh-bone, whereby the plaintiff was at great labour and charges in the cure, &c. Upon not guilty pleaded, the plaintiff had a verdict, and damages 51. It was moved in arrest of judgment, because the plaintiff sustained no wrong, and he was not compelled to expend any money, or procure his son's cure. Raymond J. thought the action did not lie for the father, it not being laid per quod servitium amisit, nor that the child was less capable of procuring a fortune with a wife; but that the child should have brought the action. But Mountague Ch. B. and Atkins clearly for the plaintiff, and judgment was given for him. Raym, 259. Pasch. 31 Car. 2. in the Exchequer. Hunt v. Wotton.

(L. 5) Threatening the Plaintiff's Tenants, so as they depart. And Pleading.

1. IN trespass quare tales & tantas minas tenentibus suis imposuit But the action does not ita quod de tenuris suis recesserunt, the plaintiff ought to delie but of the clare their tenures, and how much land they beld, and of what value, tenants at by reason of the recovery of damages; per Cur. Br. Trespais, will, and not of the pl. 144. cites 21 H. 6. 31. tenants for years, by all the justices. The reason seems to be inasmuch as the one may depart at his will, and the other not; so against the one lies debt or distress, and e contra against the other. Br. Trespass, pl. 144-

cites 21 H. 6. 31.

2. In trespass of menacing his tenants, per quod recesserunt a tenementis suis, it suffices to justify the menacing, without answering if they recesserunt a tenementis, suis, &c. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 3. cites 35 H. 6. 54.

3. Action upon the case quare servientes, or tenentes sus verberavit, per quod a servitio, or tenuris suis recesserunt, is a good wit, without shewing the names of the servants or tenants, where it is plurally. Contra if it were servientem or tenentem singularly; per Choke. Br. Brief, pl. 375. cites 14 E. 4. 7.

4. Tref-

4. Trespass of menace of his tenants at will of life and member, Ita quod recesserunt de tenuris suis of the plaintiff, to the damage of the plaintiff 10l. Yaxley said, the defendant was seised till by the plaintiff disseised, who leased at will; and the defendant re-entered, and said to the tenants, that if they would not depart, that be would sue them as the law wills, which is the same menace, &c. and to the menace of life and member, not guilty. And this menace to fue them, if they would not depart, is a good plea; per tot. Cur. For he does not menace them to fue them for their possession, which they had before his regress; and therefore this is in nature of menace; and to the life and member he pleads not guilty, and so the plea is good in toto. Br. Trespass, pl. 285. cites 9 H. 7. 7.

(L. 6) Beating Servants. And taking them out of [453] their Service. And Pleadings.

1. TRESPASS of taking his servant vi & armis; it was objected that he had not counted how the servant was out of his fervice; and yet well; it feems that this shall come in evidence. Br. Trespass, pl. 196. cites 39 E. 3. 38.

2. In trespass of retaining his servant who departed, &c. the being in the service of the plaintiff is not traversable, but the retainer in service. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 319. cites 41 E. 3. 20.

3. Trespass of his servant and certain sheep taken vi & armis; the defendant said that he found him vagrant and retained him. The plaintiff said, that he retained him first by a year, within which term the defendant procured him to depart, which he did, and the defendant retained him; and the opinion of the Court was that the replication is contrary to the writ. And this is not trefpass vi armis; by which the plaintiff said, that he procured him prist. Trem. said, you ought to traverse the vagrancy, & non allocatur, by which the defendant maintained his bar, absque hoc that he took bim, and so to issue. And per Thirn, and Culpepper the writ lies well. Contra Hank. and Hill. Br. Trespass, pl. 92. cites 11 H. 4. 23.

4. Trespass of taking a servant retained; the defendant said that Br. Jours, before be was retained with the plaintiff he was retained with him, pl. 4. cites be subject he found him suggested and took him and the bland of City. S. C. by which he found him vagrant, and took him; and the plaintiff said that he was not first retained with the defendant. And per Martin this is not good pleading; for the plaintiff shall say in his replication, that such a day he was retained with him, before which day be was not retained with the defendant. And Rolf. did so. Quære of this manner of pleading. Br. Issues joines, pl. 2. cites 3 H. 6. 31.

5. Trespass of battery of his servant, & quod servitium servientis sui prædicti per magnum tempus amisit. Yelverton prayed judgment. of the writ; for it ought to be per quod servitium, &c. and not Et quod servitium, &c. Et non allocatur, for it is all one. Br. Trespass, pl. 21. cites 20 H. 6. 14.

6. Where a man beats him who ferves me at pleasure, or an in- F.N.B.91. fant whose covenant is void, yet I shall have an action upon the new notes Ll₂ case case for the battery for the loss of my service. And the same there (a) cites 11 H. law where I retain a man who is beat, &c. And here it lies for 4. 2. per the master vi & armis. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 35. cites Hull accord-+ 21 H. 6. 8 and 9. and the Register 102 and 182. ingly. — + Br. Labourers, pl. 29. cites S. C. - in trespals of beating his servant, the plaintiff med not to count of retainer; for if a man serve me at his p'easure, and he is beaten, by which a lose his service, trespais lies by me; quod nota. Er. Trespass, pl. 157. cites 22 H. 6. 43.

In trespals for beating his servant, it was held not necessary, that he he a hired servant as the statute of 5 Eliz. declares, &c. to have this action; but if bired for any time certain, it subsees; and note the servant in this case was only to kelp to lead corn, and was not entertained in the praintiff's house, but went to his own house every night. And holden the action not maintain the tor beating such a servant. Clayt. 132, 134. pl. 241. Summer assises 1649, before Thorpe J. Linley v. Hauter.

And Serjeant Widrington said, a man may be said a hired tervant within the statute 5 Eliz. though the hiring be for less time than a year. Ibid.

In trespals of a servant taken, it is a good plea that he was not bis serwant at the time. Br.

7. In trespass of battery of his servant, per quod servitium suum amisit, &c. It is no plea that non amisit servitium servientis pradicti, for by this the battery is confessed, and then the law implies that the master * is damnissed. But is a good ‡ plea that he was not his servant at the time. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 378. cites 31 H. 6. 12.

Trespais, pl. 326. cites 12 E. 4. 7. S. P. Ibid. pl. 303. cites 5 H. 7. 3. per Cur.

TS. P. Trespass, pl. 34. cites 34 H. 6. 28. 43.

[454]

8. The master shall not have trespass of battery of his servant, In trespass for breaking if he does not say & per quod servitium servientis sui amisit, &c. conhis close, and trary of battery of feme covert or villein, for there the baron and beating his servant; up- lord shall have action. Per Frowike, Kingsmill, and Fisher, Juson not guilty tices. Br. Trespass, pl. 442. cites 20 H. 7. 5. pleaded, the plaintiff had a verdict, and the jury affested intite damages; and because the plaintiff had no cause of action for battery of his servant, he not having averred that he lost his service; it was ruled that the plaintiff nil capiat per billam. 5 Rep. 108. in Sir H. Constable's cale, cites it as adjudged, Mich. 14 & 15 Eliz. B. R. Pooly v. Osburn. S. C. c'ted 10 Rep. 130. b. in James Osborne's case. -----S. C. cited 2 Bulft. 112. ------S. C. cited by Bridgman Ch. B. Trin. 12 Car. 2. Hard. 106. in case of Rochel v. Stedle.

Bendl. 157. pl.217. S.C. accordingly, that the writ was abated; and fays, that the reporter was of counter. with the defendant.

—And. 13.

9. W. A. brought trespass against W. S. and others, and the writ was quare clausum fregerunt & in homines & servientes suos infultum fecerunt, &c. and counted that the defendants in homines & servientes suos, viz. in quosdam W. A. filium querentis ac Ursulam Clerk & Winifrid Coppin servientes suos insultum secerunt, &c. It was found for the plaintiff. And it was moved that the declaration varies from the writ; because the writ is in homines, &c. infultum fecerunt, and the declaration is of one man only, and the writ was abated. Bendl. at the end of Kelw. 211. b. pl. 30. pl. 28. S.C. Mich. 8 & 9 Eliz. Armsteed v. Steedman.

accordingly; but as to the declaration not mentioning men, the reporter lays quæe of this reason; for homines is a word which contains in it as well the female as the male, but what these words homines suos intend, and what shall be the sense thereof, quære.

10. Trespass by bill filed Hill. 18 Jac. that the defendant 20 Jan. Gib. Hift. of C.B. 107. 17 Jac. assaulted and wounded his servant per quod servitium amist cites S. C. and says, the per magnum tempus scilicet a prædicto 20 Martii 17 supradicto usque. Martii tunc prox' sequent' perdidit; upon nihil dicit, a writ of indefendant quiry quiry found damages 10l. It was moved that the 20 March was had judga misprission, and should have been 20 Jan. till the 1 March. But the Court held it not good, nor aided by intendment. And here the loss of the service is the point of the action which ought to be certainly shewed; for that only enables him to the action; and if the time be not expressed therein, the count is not good, and therefore the scilicet and what comes after it is material; which being ill alleged, the count is not good. And adjudged for the defendant. Cro. J. 618. bis. pl. 8. Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. Hanbury battery; and v. Ireland.

ment, because the gift of the action being for the loss of the service, is not ex necessitate rei relative to the the plaintiff having laid a different month from the battery, there is nothing in the record to determine the Court to the 20th of January, and to reject the word March as repugnant, and if the loss of the service stands on the month of March, viz 17 March following, it takes 3 months of the time elapsed, after the time of the action brought, for which the jury was not authorized to give damgaes.

- 11. Trespass quare vi & armis J. S. being the plaintiff's servant cepit & abduxit at D. in Essex; the defendant pleaded that J. S. was vagrant in the same county, and that not having notice that he was another's servant, he retained him, &c. Hobart seemed to think the plea good, and Winch seemed to agree; and by Hobart and Hutton, an action for receiving and entertaining a fervant may not be said to be vi & armis. Winch, 51. Mich. 20 Jac. C. B. Anon.
- 12. No action of trespass lies for the taking away a man (a ne- [455] gro) generally. But there may be a special action of trespass for taking his servant, per quod servitium amisit. Per Cur. And judgment was given accordingly. 5 Mod. 191. Pasch. 8 W. 3. Chamberline v. Harvey.
- (M) Trespass. Who shall have the Action. respect of special or general Property.]
- [1. HE that has goods to agist may maintain a trespass for taking Br. Brief, of them. 48 E. 3. 20. b.] pl. 514. cites

Br. Trespass, pl. 67. cites S. C. and the defendant said, that the beasts were the property of J. N. who fued a replevin and had deliverance; the plaintiff replied that J. N. agisted them to him before the taking. It was objected that the writ should be in custodia vestra existent'; but it was answered that there is no such writ in Chancery, though the writ of execution shall be so, and that in this case neither the one or the other may have the writ; but per Persey, when the one recovers the action of the other is gone; and afterwards issue was joined whether they were agisted to the plaintiff or not.

- [2. He who has beafts for a year to feed his land, may have general trespass against a stranger, if he takes them within the year. 11 H. 4. 24. b,]
- [3. So he shall have trespass against the lessor himself, if he takes He that has a special prothem within the year. Contra, 11 H. 4. 23. b.] perty of the goods at a certain time, shall have a general action of trespass against bim that has the general property; and upon the evidence damages shall be mitigated. 13 Rep. 69. in case of HEYDON V. SMITH, cites 21 H. 7. 14.
 - [4. So against his alience. Contra, 11 H. 4. 23. b.] Ll3

See pl. 1.

[5. The agister of the goods may have trespass for the taking of S.C. and the potes there. them. 48 E 3. 20. b.]

[6. If the lord seises the goods of his villein, and leaves them in his possession to his use, and after the goods are taken out of his possession, he shall not have trespass, because they are the goods of the lord. 11 H. 4. 1. b. (It seems because he is not chargeable over.);

[7. The bailee of goods to keep, shall have trespass against any who 13 Rep. 69.

cites 14 H. takes them out of his possession. 14 H. 4. 28. b.] 4. 23.-

Clearly the bailee, or he that has a special property, shall have a general action of trespass against a stranger, and shall recover all in damages, because he is chargeable over. 13 Rep. 69. cites 21 H. 7. 14. b.

> [8. If a man takes my servant out of my service with my goods, trespass lies of goods carried away, and servant taken. 4. 32. b.

> 9. Where a thing certain is devised, and a stranger takes it, the devisee shall have trespass before the livery of the executors. But contra of a thing incertain, as a 3d part of the goods, &c.

pass, pl. 25. cites 27 H. 6. 8.

10. If 2 executors are, and the one has the goods, and a trespeller takes them, and the executor from whom they were taken dies, the other executor shall have trespass; for the possession of the one executor is the possession of both. Br. Trespass, pl. 346. cites 20 E.

4. 18. Per Tremail justice.

11. If I bail goods to a man who gives or fells them to a stranger, and the stranger takes them without delivery, I shall have trespass; for by the gift or fale the property is not changed, but by the taking; but if the bailee delivers them to the stranger, I shall not have tres-[456] pass; per Fineux and Tremail Justices. Br. Trespass, pl. 216, cites 21 H. 7. 39. but Rede contra. Ibid.

> · 12. And if an infant gives or fells the goods, and delivers them, trespass does not lie. Contrary if the other takes them by the gift or fale without delivery; per Fineux and Tremail Justices. Br.

Trespass, pl. 216. cites 21 H. 7. 39.

But where 2 13. A servant who is commanded to carry goods to such a place, fervant is shall have an action of trespass or appeal. 13 Rep. 69. in case of only entrufted Heydon v. Smith, cites i H. 6. 4. 7 H. 4. 15. 19 H. 6. 34. with goods, he has nei-11 H. 6. 28.

ther general nor special property in them, and he shall have no action of trespals, if they are taken away; per An-

Goldsb. 72. pl. 18. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. Blosse's case.

14. A. in London gives goods to me which are in York, and before my possession B. does a trespass to them; I shall have trespass, because property draws possession in personal things; per Doderidge J. Lat. 263. in case of Hodson v. Hodson.

15. Master of a ship may have case or trespass for seising and detaining the ship, and declare on his possession, and recover for his particular loss; per Holt. I Salk. II. pl. 4. Pasch. 12 W. 3.

B. R. Pitts v. Gaince, &c.

Trespass. What Person, in respect of Estate, shall have the Action.

[1. TENANT at sufferance shall maintain action of trespass He shall have the against a stranger. Contra, 9 H. 6. 43. b. admitted.] action in respect of his possession. 13 Rep. 69. Per Cur. in case of Heydon v. Smith, cites 30 H. 6. Trespass, 10. — But the sense seems not right there and Fitzh. tit. Trespass, pl. 10. which cites S. C. fays he cannot have the action, because he cannot intitle himself to the land by such sufferance; for he cannot make issue.

[2. If tenant at will be ousted by a stranger he may maintain a Fitzh. tit. trespass against him. 18 H. 6. 1. Contra, f. H. 4. 90. Dubitatur, pl. 10. cites 21 E. 3. 34.

Trin. 30 H. 6. that he may. — 13 Rep. 69. Per Cur. in case of Heydon v. Smith, 21 H. 7. 15. and 11 H. 4. 23.

that he may have such action.

Trespals in B. R. of a close broken, and grass spoiled, transgression' prædict. continuand' by 8 years. The defendant pleaded bis franktenement, the plaintiff said that before shat the defendant any thing had, J. evas thereof seised in fee, and leased to A. for term of life, and A. leosed to H. all bis estate, and H. leased to the plaintiff at his will, by subth he was pesselfessed till the defendant ousted him, and disselsed H. and did the trespass, upon rubom the plaintiff re-entered, claiming his estate, and brought the action of trespass, and averred the life of H. The defendant ma ntained the bar, and traversed the disseifin, and so to issue, and found for the plaintiff; and the tenant alleged in arrest of judgment, inasmuch as the tenant at. will who is sufted cannot re-enter: for by the diffifin the will of the leffor is determined, and the leffee cannot bave any action to recover his interest; for he cannot have affise, nor ejectione sieme, because his estage is not certain, and also he has not averted the life of H. his lessor, and yet the plaintist recovered by award. And so it seems that tenant at will, who is ousted by disseisin, may bave disseisin without commandment of bis leffor, and that the life of H. shall be intended without averment, and if H. be dead, then the plaintiff is an occupant. But by the reporter the life of H. ought to be averred; but dubitavit after. And see that this action was not only for the first entry, but for the continuance of the trespass after the entry; for it is transgression' prædict. continuand' by 8 years. Br. Trespass, pl. 227. cites 38 H. 6. 27.

So if lessee at will be oufed, and the estate of his lessor determines by his death, now the lessee thall have trespass with a continuando without regress; for when he may not enter, the law supplies it, and the mean profits and emblements belong to him; per Gawdy J. Goldsb. 145. pl. 60. Hill.

43 Eliz. cites 38 H. 6.

* Lessee at will may have trespass against eurong-doers, but not against any one that enters by colour of title. Sid. 347. pl. 13. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Geary v. Barecrost.

[3. If a man subverts the land in lease at will, the lessee may have Br. Trespass, a trespass against him, and shall have damages for the profits, and the S. C. lesfor may have other trespass, and shall recover damages for destruction of the land. 19 H. 6. 45.]

[4. If trees are cut upon the land of tenant at will by the custom, he Br. Trespair, And S. C. may have action of trespass. 2 H. 4. 12.

the lord also other trespass.]

Br. Tenant per Copy,

pl. 2. cites S. C. and he shall recover his damages by judgment, though the franktenement be another

[5. The same law is of a lessee for years. 2 H. 4. 12.]

[6. Lesse for years shall have trespass for trespass done upon the

18 H. 6. 1. 21 E. 3. 34.]

[7. If a man beats my servant I shall have trespass, and the servant another trespass, diversis respectibus. 19 H. 6. 45.]

Br. Trespass, pl. 131. cites S. C.

[8. If baron leafes for years the land of the feme, and after feme dies, the heir of the feme shall not have trespass against the lessee before entry. (For the leffee is tenant at sufferance.) 9 H. 6. 43.1

[9. A commoner shall not have action of trespass of grass trodden Nor trefclausum fre- and spoiled, because though he has common there, yet the grass is not his. 22 Ast. 48. Curia.] git; per Doderidge J.

2 Bulk. 88. in case of Whittier v. Stockman, cites 12 H. 8. 2. in Simon de Harcourt's case. ----Arg. Cro. E. 421. in case of Welden v. Bridgwater, cites 14 H. 8.

But the commoner may diffrain and avery for damage feasant. Br. Trespals, pl. 174. cites

15 H. 7. 13. and herewith agrees 24 E. 3. Ibid

If beafts are taken in a common, or other land which does not belong to the powner of the beafts, yet he shall have trespals vi & armis, but not quare clausum stegit. Br. Trespals, pl. 421. cites 3 M. I.

> 10. Where the king has profits of any land by reason of outlawry in action personal, and damage is done in going over the grass or corn, he shall have action of trespass; for he has an interest in the land, and get he has not the land itself. Br. Trespass, pl. 172. cites 15 H. 7. 2.

> 11. Guardian in knight service, who has custodiam terræ, shall have trespass of cutting down the trees of the heir that has the inheritance. 13 Rep. 69. Per Cur. in case of HEYDON v. SMITH,

cites 2 H. 4. 12.

2 Roll. Rep. 140. S. C. and S.P.

- 12. Trespass vi & armis does not lie for locking or breaking a seat in the chancel, in which the plaintiff claims no interest, but only sedere there; but otherwise if he conveys to himself therein; by the opinion of all. Palm. 46. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. Dawtrie v. Dec.
- 13. It has been much doubted whether a bargainee before actual entry can maintain an action of trespass. Arg. Vent. 361. Hill.;3 & 34 Car. 2. B. R. in the case of Perry v. Bowes.
- 14. Trespass is founded only on the possession; so that be in reversion shall not have trespass against a stranger for drowning the land and rotting the trees. 3 Lev. 209. Hill. 36 & 37 Car. 2. and 1 Jac. 2. C. B. Biddlesford v. Onflow.

15. If a person preach in a parish church without leave of the parson, he is a trespasser; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 420. Mich. 12

W. 3. B. R. Anon.

[458] (O) Trespass. Against whom it lies. In what Cases against Sheriff, or other Officer of a Court. 5ee (G. a). Sheriff(B.a)

Br. Office and Officer, pl. 8. cites S. C.

Br. Office

5. C.

[1.]F 2 bailiff of 2 court upon summons to him directed, attaches the party by the goods of another man, trespass lies against him; for he ought to take conusance of the goods of the party. 11 H.4.91.]

[2. So if he attaches the fervant by the goods of his master. 11 H. Br. Treipais, pl. 99. S. P. 4.90. b. 91. b. adjudged, being in possession of the servant. 13 H. 4. cites 11 H. 2. b. adjudged fame case.] 4. 90.

[3. The same law if a sheriff upon an execution takes the goods of a and Officer, franger, 11 H. 4. 90. b.] pl. 8. cites

[4. But

[4. But if he attaches the defendant by the goods of another man being in his possession, it is justifiable. 11 H. 4. 90. b. for he is chargeable over.

[5. If the sheriff takes one man for another, false imprisonment lies Br. Office & against him. 11 H. 4. 91.]

[6. If the sheriff upon a replevin sued by J. D. delivers the beafts Br. Office of a stranger, upon shewing of J. D. the owner of the beasts may have action of trespass against him. 14 H. 4. 25.]

Officer, pl. 8. cites S.C. Officer, pl. 10. cites S.C. —He must take notice whether the beafts are the same, on pain of rendering damages. Br. Notice, pl. 23. cites 14 H. 4. 24.

[7. If the sheriff comes to make replevin of beasts impounded in an- Fitzh. tit. other man's soil, if the place be inclosed, and has a gate open in the place be inclosed, fame inclosure, he cannot break the inclosure and enter thereby, where S. C. he may enter by the open gate. 20 H. 6. 28.]

[8. But if the owner hinders him, so that he cannot go by the open gate for fear of death, he may break the inclosure, and enter there. 20 H. 6. 28.]

[9. If the sheriff makes a warrant to the baily of a franchise, to take the goods of a man in execution, and be mistukes the goods, and takes the goods of another man, the bailies are trespassers, and not the sheriff. M. 7 Ja. Per Coke.]

[10. If a man be arrested by the bailies of the sheriff, and there- Sheriff made upon he shews to them a supersedeas to discharge him, and the bailies a warrant refuse it, and detain bim after in prison, he shall have false imprison- lists on a ment against the bailies, and not against the sheriff. Trin. 17 Ja. ca. sa. Af-B. per Curiam.

to his baiterwards a supersedeas was delivered to the sheriff, unknown to the bailiff, who takes the party, lets him escape, and after 20 days retakes him. Falte imprisonment lies; for having time by intendment to have notice from his mafter, he ought at his peril to take notice of the supersedeas. Cro. E. 918. pl. 10. Hill. 45 Eliz. B. R. Prince v. Allington. Mo. 677. pl. 921. says, that the bailists had notice.

- 11, If execution be executed upon goods by force of a judgment, and after the judgment is vacated, yet neither the sheriff or his assistants shall be punished by trespass; though the contrary was adjudged in the case of Turner v. Felgate, 2 Sid. 125. But this judgment was afterwards disallowed. See I Sid. 272. in case of BAILY V. BUNNING, and Lev. 95. where the case of Turner v. Felgate is cited by Twisden and Windham J. who said they remembered it to be adjudged.
- (P) Trespass and false Imprisonment. Against whom [459] as aiding, or Assistant to Officers.
- [1. IF a man sues a plaint in a court, and upon the attachment the Fal. 5 procurement of the plaintiff, trespass does not lie against him; for he is no party to the tort. 11 H. 4. 91. 13 H. 4. 2.] paffer by fo doing. Br. Office and Offices, pl. 8. cites S. C. -- Br. Trespass, pl. 99. cites S. C. accordingly.

[2. The same law it is, where one man is taken for another by the Br. Office & Officer, pl. sheriff ut supra. 11 H. 4. 91. b. False imprisonment does not 8. cites 11 lie. 13 H. 4. 2. b.] H. 4. 90. S. P.——

Br. Trespass, pl. 99. cites S. C. accordingly.—C. brought salse imprisonment against L. who justified because be bad a warrant to arrest J. D. and he demanded of C. what his name was, and be answered that his name was J. D. by which he arrested him. And the plaintist demurred, and it was adjudged for the plaintiff, because the defendant ought at his peril to have taken notice of the party. Mo. 457.

pl. 629. Trin. 38 Eliz. Rot. 495. Coote v. Lighworth.

So where commission of rebellion issued against Thurbane, but one Green appeared before the commissioners, and offirmed bimself to be the person; whereupon they apprehended him by virtue of their commission, and in relifting he inatched the commission from them, and tore it in pieces. Upon an affidavit of this matter, an attachment was prayed against Green. Hale Ch. Baton said, if a wrong man be taken, though he affirm himself to be the person against whom the commission was awarded, yet that will not excuse the commissioners from false imprisonment, because they had no warrant to take him. But an attach. ment was granted, nife, &c. Hard. 323. pl. 2. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. in the Exchequer, Thurbane's case.

Br. Office [3. But otherwise it is if he procures the bailiff to take those goods, Officer, pl. or shews them to him. 11 H. 4. 9.]

4. 90. and says, that in such case both are trespassors. [And the (9) here seems misprinted for (90).]-Br. Trespass, pl. 99. cites S. C. accordingly.

[4. So it is if he procures the sheriff to take one man for another, pl. 99. cites or shews him to him. 11 H. 4. 91. 13 H. 4. 2. b.] 11 H. 4. 90. that they are both trespassors. --- Br. Office & Officer, pl. 3. cites S. C. accordingly.

See (O), pl. [5. So in a replevin, if the plaintiff shervs the beasts of a stranger. Br. Trespass, for his own beasts, and the sheriff takes them, trespass lies pl. 104. cites against the plaintiff. 14 H. 4. 25.] S. C.—Ibid.

pl. 99. cites 11 H. 4. 90. that both are trespassors .- Br. Office & Officer, pl. 8. cites S. C. accordingly.

[6. The plaintiff in a replevin may justify the entry into the close Br. Trespass, pl. 11. cites of the defendant, to shew the beasts to the sheriff to make deli-5. C. verance. 3 H. 6. 37. b.]

> 7. Trespass against baron and feme of taking of a borse, it was said for the baron that he brought plaint in the court of C. against the plaintiff, and the bailiff attached the horse, and he came in aid of the bailiff; and for the feme it was said that she came in aid of the bailiff; and held a good plea for the feme as well as for the baron, by which the plaintiff faid that they took de son tort demesne, absque tali causa; and the others e contra. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 4. cites 41 E. 3. 29.

8. Trespass; the defendant justified the imprisonment by virtue If the fberiff of a precept to arrest the plaintiff, which he did, and the other defendant came in aid of him; quod nota, the coming in aid of an officer * is a good plea by a stranger to the precept. Br. Trespass.

pl. 133. cites 19 H. 6. 43. 56.

of him without precept. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 23. cites & E. 4. 14.

*[460]

arrests a man, another may

justify to come in aid

(Q) Trespass. Who shall be said the Trespassor.

[1.] F my servant without my notice puts my beafts in another's land, But where a my servant is the trespassor, and not I, because by the voluntary putting of the beasts there without my assent, he gains a his master's special property for the time; and so to this purpose they are his own land, 12 H. 7. Kell. 3. b.] beasts.

beafts into and they escape into the land of another next adjoining for want of fences, which the other ought to make, the matter only is to be charged as trespassor, and not the servant. But where the servant put in his master's beafts into another's land, and justifies for common of his master, which is a confession of his putting them into another's soil, there the servant is the trespassor. Br. Trespass, pl. 155. cites 22 H. 6. 36.

[2. But it seems, if my wife puts my beasts into another's land, I myself am trespassor, because the seme cannot gain a property from me. Contra, 12 H. 7. Kelloway, 3. b.]

3. If several come, and the one does the trespass, and the others do nothing but come in aid, yet all are principal trespassors, and shall render damages, and shall be imprisoned; nota. Br. Trespass,

pl. 232. cites 22 Aff. 43.

4. If a man enters into land as diffeisor or trespassor to my use, and Br. Ejec-I agree to it, as by taking of profits after, or by granting of it over, tione, &c. &c. I am by this principal trespassor, and action lies against me s.c. leaving out the other, and there the plaintiff shall recover; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 256. cites 38 Ass. 9.

5. He who commands a trespass to be done, or agrees to a trespass, S.P. As in entry, &c. done to his use by any without his command, is principal ejectment of ward trespassor; for in trespass there is not any accessary. Br. Trespass, against the pl. 113. cites 38 E. 3. 18.

bisbop of W. wbo ∫aid that be did not eject; and it was found by nift prius, that J. who was bailiff of the bishop, seised to the use of the hishop, and the hishop manured the land, and took the profits, and aliened the ward over, and so agreed, but knew not whether J. ejected by commandment of the bishop; and the bishop was condemned, and the plaintiff recovered. Br. Ejectione, &c. pl. 5. cites S. C.

S. P. So where a servant takes a sheep for an amercement, and the master agrees, he is equally liable to an action of trespass as the servant. Clayt. 5. Farrer v. Eastwood.

6. Hue and cry is a good cause to take a man upon suspicion of felony, and if it be made without cause he who made it shall be punished, and not the other who arrested the man. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

7. A. brought an action of trespass against B. pedibus ambulando; the defendant pleads this special plea in justification, viz. that he was carried upon the land of the plaintiff by force and violence of others, and was not there voluntarily, which is the same trespass for which the plaintiff brings his action. The plaintiff demurs to this plea; in this case Roll J. said, that is the tresgass of the party that carried the defendant upon the land, and not the trespass of the defendant; as he that drives my cattle into another man's land is the trespassor against him, and not I who am owner of the cattle. Styl. 65. Mich. 23 Car. Smith v. Stone.

(R) Trespass. Against whom it lies.

Fitzh. tit.
Action für le Statute,
pl. 12. cites
S. C. —

ARON may have trespals against a feme and others for ravishment of his feme; for she may be affenting.

43 E. 3. 23.]

Ibid. pl. 22 cites 44 Ass. 13. in the same words with pl. 12. and cites 44 Ass. 13. but it is a mistake; for that it is quite a different point.

. 2. He that has a special property of the goods at a certain time, shall have a general action of trespass against him that has the general property, and upon the evidence damages shall be mitigated. 13 Rep. 69. Per Cur. in the case of Heydon v. Smith, cites 21 H. 7. 14. b.

Jo. S. C. by name of Glosse v. felony; per Anderson. Godsb. 72. pl. 18. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. HAYMAN; Blosse's case.

Court were clearly of opinion, that trespass vi & armis lies against such servant.——Ow. 52. S. C.—See Master and Servant (M. 2) pl. 3.

4. There is a difference between an interest and authority; for if a man has authority to do a thing in general, an action of trespass lies; but where a man has an interest during such time, his misseasance shall not be punished by a general writ of trespass. But in case of a tenant at will, if he cuts down the trees, or pulls down the houses, a general action of trespass lies; for thereby his interest is determined, and he is become a stranger; for that he voluntarily had done such an act which could not be done by his interest, and determines his will; per Popham Ch. J. and judgment accordingly. Cro. E. 784. pl. 22. Mich. 42 and 43 Eliz. C. B. in case of the Countess of Salop v. Crompton.

Sœ(Q)pl.5. (R. 2) Against whom. Commander, or Servant, or both.

S.P. Thatit
I. IF a man commands another to do a trespass, and he does it, lies against the comthe commander; per pass, and he might have joined both in one and the same writ Mowbray. of trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 148. cites 21 H. 6. 39.
Br. Bille,
pl. 20. cites 3 Aff. 14.

2. If I command my servant to distrain for me, which he does, command him to distrain, and be lies against me, but not against the servant. Br. Trespass, distrains a borse, and rides upon it, trespass lies against him, and not against me; for trespass does not lie against him who does unlawfully, or trespasses. Br. Trespass, pl. 211. cites 21 H. 7. 22.

(R. 3) Against whom. After Trespassors.

I. IF a man takes my horse with force, and gives it to S. or if S. S. P. And takes it from him with force, in this case I shall not have so contrain fo of lands. Contra in trespass against the second offender; for the 1st offender had appeal gained property by the tort; per Brian J. and his companions. against a second felon, Br. Trespass, pl. 358. cites 21 E. 4. 74. as appears elsewhere; for a selon does not claim property as a trespassor does; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 256. cites 38 Aff. 9.

Against whom. Disseisor or his Feossee, see (T). &c. Persons in by Title.

1. IN trespass, the desendant justified, because the prince seised the body and land of the plaintiff, as guarcian by chivalry, and granted to the defendant, by which he entered and did the trespass: and the plaintiff said that his father held of the prince in socage, prist, and so de son tort demesne, &c. And per Cur. because the plaintiff acknowledges the holding of the prince in socage, therefore if he seised as guardian, and granted to the defendant who did the trespais, action of trespass does not lie against the grantee, by which he ought to answer to the grant made to the defendant; quod nota. Therefore it seems that without regress trespass does not lie no more than against feoffee of disseisor. Br. Trespass, pl. 46. cites 44 E. 3. 18.

2. If a man disseises me and makes a feoffment, and I re-enter, S. P. Ibid. I shall not have trespass against the feoffee; for he is in by title, and 13 H. 7. 15. no trespassor to me, by the best opinion. Br. Trespais, pl. 35. by all the cites 34 H. 6. 30.

justices, except Wood and Vavisor. — Where diffeisor makes a feofiment, and so over, the diffeise shall have trespass against the 20th feoffee if he re-enters; per Fortescu & Danby; quod Littleton & Spilman, omnino negaverunt; and that trespass lies against the disseifer only, and against no seoffee, but the disseisee shall recover for all the time; quod Pole concessit. For before the statute of Gloucester, damages were not given in affile, but against the disseisor only, and not against the tenant. Br. Trespals, pl. 202. cites 37 H. 6. 35.

3. So of the second disseisor, by some. Quære inde, for he is in by tort. Br. Trespass, pl. 35. cites 34 H. 6. 30.

4. But where diffeisor commands his servant to do an act upon the land, and I re-enter, trespass lies against the servant, by the best opinion. Quære. Br. Trespass, pl. 35. cites 34 H. 6. 30.

5. If the disseise enters upon the feoffee or lessee of the disseisor, he shall not have an action of the trespass for the same trespass against the feosfee or lessee, because they come in by title. And at common law, before the statute of Gloucester, no damages for mean occupation against the feossee or lessee; by all the justices. Het. 66. Hill. 3. Car. C. B. Symons v. Symons.

(S) Trespass. What shall be sufficient Possession to maintain the Action. [Of Land.]

[1. A Man who has a franktenement in law, if he has not the actual possession, cannot have action of trespass.]

[2. As the heir shall not have trespass against the abator, before ke bas entered. 19 H. 6. 28. b.]

[3. If a man be disseised, he may have a writ of trespass for the trespass done in the disseisin, without re-entry; for he himself was seised at the time of the disseisin, which is sufficient possession to maintain the action. 19 H. 6. 28. b. All agreed.]

[4. But if a man be disseised, he shall not have writ of trespass for any trespass done by the disseisor before re-entry, because then the franktenement was in the disseisor, and not in the disseise.

19 H. 6. 28. b.]

Fol. 554.

[5. So he cannot have trespass against any stranger for any trespass done by him after the disseism without re-entry, because he had not any possession at the time. 19 H. 6. 28. b.]

Br. Ordimary, pl. 5. cite &S. C. 6. If a man dies intestate, and the bishop sequesters the goods, and J. N. disturbs him, the ordinary shall have trespass by reason of his possession. Br. Trespass, pl. 83. cites 7 H. 4. 18.

8. P. that
7. But where he sequesters by office or contumacy, there he has no possession, and there he shall not have trespass. Note the diffion, but versity. Br. Trespass, pl. 83. cites 7 H. 4. 18.

this shall go to the spiritual court; for the ordinary, by the possession as above, shall have trespass; but he shall not have debt; and yet he to whom he commits the administration shall have debt; for this is by statute, which gives it to the administrator, and not to the ordinary, as it seems elsewhere. Br. Ordinary, pl. 5. cites S. C.

8. In trespass the defendant said, that A. and B. were seised in see to the use of the plaintist, and that the plaintist fold the land to the defendant for 201. by which he entered and made a seossment; and did not say whether he paid the money, nor whether a day of payment was agreed between them, and then no bargain, per Yaxely, and then this does not change an use. But, per Fineux, it is a good bargain, by reason that the vendee entered and took the land, and made a seossment. But Brooke queries of his opinion, because it is not delivered to him: nevertheless he says it seems to him, that if a man pleads that he has bought any thing, it shall be intended a lawful buying, without special matter shewn to the contrary, by these words emisset, &c. for if it be not a perfect bargain, then non emebat. Br. Contract, &c. pl. 18. cites 21 H. 7. 6.

9. If tenant for life surrenders to him in reversion out of the land, to which he agrees, the franktenement by this is immediately in him, and he is tenant to the action to be brought by præcipe quod reddat, without entry; but he shall not have trespass without entry. Br. Surrender, pl. 50. cites 21 H. 7. 7.

10. If lesse for life or years cuts timber and sells it, the lessor may have action of trover or trespass, though he never was possessed of them. See Maeresme (A) pl. 3.

11. A,

11. A. levies fine to B. sur conusance de droit, &c. Now the conusee has possession in law, but not in fact; and if before the entry of conusee J. S. enters, and dies seised, he has no remedy, for he had no possession in fact, so as he might have assis or trespass. 2 Le. 147. pl. 182. in case of Berry v. Goodman. Per Coke [464] Arg. and he said, that so the law is now taken.

12. If A. intrudes upon the possession of the king, and B. enters upon him, A. shall not have trespais for that entry; for he who is to have and maintain trespass ought to have a possession, which in such case A. has not, for every intruder shall answer to the king for his whole time, and every intrusion supposes the possession to be in the king; per Anderson Ch. J. which all the other justices agreed, except Periam, who doubted of it; and Rhodes J. said, and vouched 19 E. 4. to be that he cannot in such case say, in an action of trespass, quare clausum suum fregit. 4 Le. 184. pl. 284. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Anon.

13. He that claims an estate by virtue of the statute of uses ought to have an actual possession before he can have trespass, per Walmsley and Glanvil. Noy, 73. Green v. Walwyn.

14. There is an actual possession in law, and an actual possession in fact. As if a man bargains and sells lands, presently the bargainee hath actual possession; he may surrender, assign, attorn, and release; yet he cannot upon this possession bring a trespass, and so he hath no such actual possession, but the actual possession which gives him power to bring an action for the profits. Per Bridgm. Ch. J. Cart. 66. Pasch. 18 Car. 2. C. B. in case of Geary v. Bearcroft.

(T) Trespass by Relation. What shall be sufficient Possession to have the Action by Relation [and after Restitution for Trespass done Mesne].

[1. A N executor shall have trespass for trespass done to the goods Br. Relation, of the testator mesne between the death of the testator and pl. 46. cites S. C.—A. the probate of the testament; for the interest was in the executor made a will, before probate. 18 H. 6. 22. b.]

and the plaintiff executor 3, administration was granted to the defendant, who took the goods; the plaintiff proves the will and then brings trespass against the defendant, for taking of these his goods; for now by the probate it is a will, and the plaintiff executor from the death of the testator. And by the whole Court clearly, an executor shall have trespass vi & armis before seisin, because he has a property by being mede executor; and this action well lies, otherwise an administrator may trick any executor, by getting the goods into his hands before probate of the will. And so judgment for the plaintiff. .2 Bulft. 268. Mich. 12 Jac. Fister v. Young.

[2. [So] an administrator shall have action of trespass for trespass Br. Relation, done to the goods of the testator after his death, before the administration granted to him; for the relation may settle the possession Ibid. pl. 46. ab initio, so that he may have the action. 36 H. 6. 8. dubitatur. 18 H. 6. 22. b.]

pl. 34. cites s. c. cites S. C. S. C. cited Mo. 132. pl.

278. in case of Bosvil v. the Corporation of Bridgwater. Fitzh. tit. Administrators, pl. 2. cites S. C.——Br. Rélation, pl. 13. cites 36 H. 6. 8. S. P.

[3. Ic

[3. If a man abates after the death of the ancestor, after the beir bas entered he shall not have trespass against the abator for the trespass done before his entry, for it cannot so relate to settle the posfession in him ab initio, where he had not any before. Contra 19 H. 6. 28. b.]

[4. If the testator dies intestate possessed of goods which after his death comes to the hands of a stranger who converts them, and after administration is granted, yet the administrator may have a tro-[465] ver and conversion for those goods upon this matter shewn, because the administration relates to settle the property of the goods in him from the death of the testator. P. 11 Car. B. R. between WHITTINGSTALL AND SIR MILES SANDS, adjudged this beng moved in arrest of judgment after verdict for the plaintiff, where it was alleged the testator died the first of August 3 Car. and the conversion the 3 August 3 Car. and the grant of the administration Sept. 5 Car. But it was alleged that Sept. 5 Car. the administration was granted, and that after scilicet 3 Aug. 3 Car. the desendant converted, and so that which comes after the scilicet will be void. But the Court did not insist upon it, but upon the other matter before, scilicet the relation. Intratur Tr. 10 Car. Rot. 702. P. 11 Car. it was assirmed per Curiam in writ of error, in the Exchequer Chamber.] He who does

5. If a man be diffeised, after his re-entry he may have action a trespass of trespass against the disseisor for any trespass done by him after the diffeifin; for by his re-entry his possession is restored ab initio, not be punish- and all times after. 19 H. 6. 28. b.] ed by the first disseise; per Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 348. cites 20 E. 4. 18.

[6. So after his re-entry, he may have action of trespass against any stranger for a trespass done after the disseisin. 19 H. 6. 28. b.]

[7. As if B. disseise A. and C. disseise B. and after A. re-enters, Ow. 112. S.P.Gawdy, be shall have trespass against C. for his first entry, for he has by to which this re-entry reduced the possession to him ab initio. Popham and B. R. agreed between Holcombe and Rawlins. Contra, Co. 11. Fenner agreed, but LIFORD, 51.] Clench contra. Pasch. 38 Eliz. B. R. in case of Holcombe v. Rawlins. - Cro. E. 540. pl. 3. S. C. accordingly.

Mo.461. pl. 644. S. C. accordingly agreed upon all the justices.

Ow. 111.

seisin sball

[8. So if a diffeifor leafes for years, or life, or gives in tail, or enfeoffs B. upon whom the disseise re-enters, he shall have trespass against the lessee for his first entry, though he comes in by title, because by argument by relation, the disseisee has been always seised of the land. H. 39 El. B. R. between Holcomb and Rawlins, adjudged upon demurrer. Contra, Co. 11. LIFORD, 51. Contra, 13 H. 7. 15. b. 16.]

S. C. ad--Cro. E. 540. pl. 3. S. C. accordingly. judged. -

> 9. In writ of damages, it was faid that for any trespasses done upon the land after the judgment given, the party may have action of trespass; quære how this is to be understood, for if it be in plea of land, where his entry is tolled, he shall not have trespass before execution; but if he was in possession; and a man enters and does trespass, which continues pending the writ, it seems.

> > that

that there he may have trespals for trespals done after the judgment. Br. Trespass, pl. 312. cites 7 E. 4. 5.

10. Where a man was attainted by one parliament and after was S. P. Br. restored by another parliament, as if no such former act had been. [The question was] whether the patentee shall punish a trespass done mesne between the attainder and the restitution. Per Brian, he shall not have trespass for the mesne trespass; but Vavisor and Br. Trespass, pl. 270. cites 4 H. 7. 10. others contra.

Trespass, pl. 425. cites 10 H. 7. 22. Where the patentes brought trefpass against. him who was attainted and reftored; and he pleaded the act, and the plaintiff demorred; and if was adjudged that the plaintiff should take, nothing by his writ.

After attainder annulled by parliament, the party attaint shill punish mesne trespasses. Mo. 132. pl. 178. in case of Bosvil v. the Corporation of Bridgwater, cites 3 H. 7. and 13 H. 7. Saintleget's case.

11. And if a man recovers erroneously, and be who lost does a trespass upon the land and after reverses the judgment, he who recovered But where first shall * not have trespass; per Fineux and Rede; for per Rede, it shall be recouped in the restitution of the profits, as judgment for where a lord diffeises his tenant, the tenant brings assise and recovers, the rent due to the lord shall be recouped in the damages. Br. Trespass, pl. 270. cites 4 H. 7. 10.

"[466] a man reverses a error, and bas reftitution with the mesne profits, yct he who loft shall have trespass of the mesne trespass. But per Brian, this is because he is charged to restore the meine profits. Br. Trespais, pl. 270. cites 4 H. 7. 10.

What Act or Thing shall be said a Trespass of Battery.

[1.] F A. comes in aid of B. who beats me, though A. does nothing against me, yet he is a trespassor as well as B. 22 Ass. 43. adjudged. 27 Aff. 4.]

[2. If a man commands another to beat me, and he does it accordingly, he is a trespassor as well as he who did it. 22 Ass. 59.]

Qui facit per atium, facit per ie.

Trespass. What Ast shall be said a Trespass.

[1.] F a man enters into my house against my will, it is a trespass, But not if though the door be open. 11 H. 4. 75. b.] he that enters be the landlord, and comes in to see if waste be done. Br. Trespass, pl. 97. cites S. C. -- Br. Replication, ph 12. cites S. C.

So if a man buys beafts in a market, and in driving them along the street they enter my house, this is a trespass, though the doors are open; for I am not bound to keep my doors shut; per Danby and Cheke. 10 E. 4. 7. b. pl. 19.

2. If a man has land adjoining to the king's highway, and another drives cattle in the way which enter the close in default of inclofure of the owner, which he and those que estate, &c. have used to inclose time out of mind, and they are freshly pursued and chased back, this is not a trespass punishable. 10 E. 4. 7. a. pl. 19.

Vol. XX. Mm 3. If grain grows in a common field near the way, and the beafts feed, the defendant shall render damages; for there the plaintiff is not bound to inclose; per Danby and Littleton. Br. Trespass, pl. 321. cites 10 E. 4. 7.

Man share a 4. The intent shall not be construed in trespass. Contra in felony; at butts kills per Rede Ch. J. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

T. N. it is not felony; per Rede Ch. J. Br. Trespals, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

So where a tyler drops a stone which kills a man not knowing it. Br. Trespals, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

But in those cases, if they same or hurt a man trespass lies; for there the intent is not to be construed.

Br. Trespals, pl. 213. cites 21 H 7. 27.

And where executor takes of the goods of J. N. among it the testators, trespass does not lie; for the executor, prima facie, cannot know the goods of the testator from another's goods; per Rade Ch. J. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

5. If another's sheep are among st my sheep, I may chase them to a strait, so that I may sever them; for they cannot be severed but at a strait; per Rede Ch. J. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

- 5. Every continuance of a trespass is a new trespass. See D. 319.

 See Nusance, b. pl. 17. Moore v. the Lady Browne, where in trespass on the case the turning of a water-cock put into a main pipe, which carried the water to the house of another, and which water-cock was put into the pipe by a predecessor of the desendant, was adjudged a new diversion.
 - 7. Note for a rule, that in all trespasses there must be a voluntary act, and also a damage, otherwise trespass does not lie. Per Doderidge J. Lat. 13. in case of Millen v. Hawtry.

Carth. 436. 3. C. 8. Causing a superfluity of water by pulling down the defendant's own wear to drown or overflow the land or fishery of the plaintiff, is a plain trespass. Ld. Raym. Rep. 272. 274. Mich. 9 W. 3. Courtney v. Collet.

9. If a dog breaks a neighbour's close, the owner will 'not be subject to an action for it; per Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 608, Mich. 12 W. 3. in the case of Mason v. Keeling.

B. C. & P. 2 Salk. 594. pl. 3. Trin. 6 Ann. B. R. in case of the Queen v. J. in deli- Soley, cites 29 E. 3. 18.

vering the opinion of the Court, cites 29 E. 3. 74.

(X. 2) Where Trespass lies, though for an Act in itself lawful. Want of Care, &c. to avoid it.

1. TRESPASS quare vi & armis clausum suum [fregit, &c. & herbam suam] pedibus ambulando consumpsit in 6 aeres, the desendant as to all, except the 6 acres, pleaded not guilty, and to the 6 acres actio non; for he said he had an acre in which a hedge of thorns is adjoining to the said acre, and at the time of the trespass he cut his thorns, and they ipso nutu fell into the acre of the plaintiff, and the desendant came freshly into the acre, and took them, which is the same trespass, &c. and the plaintiff demurred. And by the best opinion, and almost all, it is no plea; and per Choke J. it is no plea that ipso nutu they feil upon the land of the plaintiff:

tiff; for he ought to fay that he could not do otherwise, or that he did all that he could to save them out. Br. Trespass, pl. 310. cites 6 E. 4. 7.

2. But where the wind blows my tree upon the land of my neigh- S. C. cited bour, I may take it, and this is no trespass; for this is the act of in case of the wind, and not of me; per Choke Just. Br. Trespass, pl. 310. Millen v. tites 6 E. 4. 7.

(X. 3) Trespass or Trespassor. What, or who. By see (Q) Consent, Agreement, or Sufferance, &c.

1. IF a man says that he will disselfe J. N. to my use, and I say that I am content, he is sole disselsor, and this is no command but sufferance. Br. Disselsin, pl. 15. cites 21 H. 7. 35.

2. If a man fays to me that he will beat J. S. and I say do as you will, this is no tort in me. Br. Disseisin, pl. 15. cites 21 H. 7. 35.

3. A. requests B. to take goods of C. if B. takes them A. is a trespassor. See 1 Salk. 409. pl. 9. Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. in case of Britton v. Cole.

(X. 4) What shall be said Trespass, and what Felony. [468]

Man took the feme of another by rape, with the goods of the baron, and it was adjudged felony, and well, as seems to me; for though the taking of the seme be not selony, they remain therefore in the custody of the seme as the goods of her baron, and when he took the seme and the goods, this is selony in him. Br. Corone, pl. 77. cites 13 Ass. 6.

2. And the like was adjudged before of a vicar who took feme and goods, and was delivered to the ordinary by his clergy. But this seems to be where the seme is taken against her will; but quare if the seme takes the goods, and go with another man with his good will. Ibid. and so is 13 E. 4. 9. where the seme took and delivered them to W. N.

(Y) Trespass. Against whom it lies. Gist of the See (Y. 2), Action, [Trespass or Detinue.]

[1. IIE that comes to the goods by delivery of the plaintiff, cannot be charged in trespass; but he ought to have detinue.

Trespass, pla
187. sites
8. C.

Trespass, and not Detinue.

[2. If A. peffessed of goods, sells them to B. and after P. leaves them in the peffession of A. and after A. delivers them to C. to carry to another place, who carries them there accordingly. B. shall not M'm 2 have trespass against C. upon this, but detinue; because he came to the goods under the delivery of the plaintiff himself. 16 H. 7. 2. b. 3. Per Curiam.]

It is a good plea, that the plaintiff delivered the goods to bim

[3. So if A. buy goods of me, and after leaves them in my possession, A. shall not have trespass against me for the detaining after, but detinue; because he comes to the goods, by lawful means, by deliverance of the plaintiff himself. 16 H. 7. 2. b. Per Curiam.]

for sufekeeping, judgment of the writ, if it be in one and the same county; for this proves, that he ought to have action of detinue. Br. Trespais, pl. 33. cites 34 H. 6. 5.

[4. He who comes to the thing by the law, cannot be charged in trespass.]

[5. As if a man comes to goods by delivery of the sheriff upon replevin sued, trespass does not lie against him. 44 E. 3. 20. b.]

Br. Trespass, pl. 54. cites S. C.

[6. If goods are cast into the sea by tempest, and a stranger takes them, and delivers to the servant of the owner, for the profit of the owner, no trespass lies against him. 46 E. 3. 15.]

Ow. 120.

[7. If a constable takes my goods lawfully into his possession, to the S.C. and the point was, that the contract wards result to deliver them to me upon demand, yet no trespass that the contract was against him, but detinue. Trin. 4 Ja. B. R. between Walfelon who had robbed GRAVE AND SKEGNES.]

B. of zol. and found the zol. about the felon, but because the place where he took the felon was of no strength, he was carrying it to another town, but was robbed by the way; and whether he should be charged in trespass was the doubt. Williams J. held, that he ought to keep the money safely, and because he did not, he is liable to this action. Popham said, he might have pleaded not guilty; for he said, that if a town has the possession of my goods a detinue lies, and not a trespass: but if a stranger takes them out of their possession, there a trespass lies; and therefore he conceived, in this case, that the plaintiff should have broughter trover and conversion, and not a trespass, quod all justiciarii concesserunt; and therefore the case was deferred till next term, to be argued upon the general issue.

*[469]

[8. If lesse at will does voluntary waste, as in abatement of fol. 556. houses, or cutting of trees, a general action of trespass lies, for this determines the will. Litt. 15. Co. 5. Countess of Salop, pl. 10. S.P. 13. b. 22 E. 4. 5. b.]

agreed by Popham and Fenner in the case of the Countess of Salop v. Crompton, S. C. ———Cro. E. 784. pl. 22.

S. C. and S. P. For the privity of the leafe is determined by the doing such act.

3.P. in S.C. [9. If I bail to B. my beafts to keep, or for special purpose, as to agreed by Popham and Fenner. Cro. pass lies; for though he comes to them by my delivery, yet if he E. 777.— destroys the thing, the privity is determined, and general trespass 11 Rep. 82. lies. Litt. 15. Co. 5. Countess of Salop, 13. b. 22 E. 4. 5. b.] Car. cites Litt. sol. 15. and 11 H. 4. 17. a. and 23. b.— Litt. sol. 71. S. P.— Co. Litt. 57. S. P. and says, that I may have action of trespass on the case for this conversion, either the one or the other at my election.

If a man bas my brasts to draw in the plough, and kills them, I shall have trespass; per Moyle. Be-

Trespals, pl. 295. cites 2 E. 4. 4.

Contra if they are bailed to bim, and he kills them ; per Moyle. Br. Trefpafe, pl. 295. cites 2 E. 4. 4.

to. In trespals it is a good plea, that T. S. was feifed of the bouse, and made him executor, by which he entered, and took the chest in the declaration. Per Thorp: the sirst possession of the goods and chest is in the executor, though evidences are in the chest; for they cannot cannot know what is in it till it be opened, and if charters are in the chest, the heir may have thereof an action of detinue, but not trespass; quod Cur. concessit. Br. Trespass, pl. 396. cites 43 E. 3. 24.

11. If a man diffrains, and after the tenant offers the rent, and Br. Detinue the lord refuses it, the tenant shall have detinue of the distress, de Biens, pl. but not trespass; but if the lord kills the beasts, or labours them, trespass lies. Br. Trespass, pl. 29. cites 33 H. 6. 26. 27.

12. If a man takes my goods as a trespassor, I may have replevin, though the trespassor has property by tort; for this is of the property which I had at the time of the caption. But I cannot have detinue; for this is of property which is in me at the time of the action taken; per Brian. Br. Replevin, pl. 36. cites 6 H. 7. 9.

13. Where the sheriff levies the condemnation, and does not return the writ, action of trespass lies; per Kingsmill J. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 12. cites 21 H. 7. 22.

14. Detinue does not lie of hawks, bounds, apes, or monkeys, or Br. Prosuch like, which are things of pleasure, and are made tame, and perty, pl.44were fere nature; and yet trespass lies of them well, and the plaintiff shall recover damages of the taking; per Brudnell, & non negatur. Br. Detinue de Biens, pl. 44. cites 12 H. 8. 5.

cites S. C.

[470]

See (L) pl. 4.--Actions,

(Y. 2) Trespass, and not Case.

(M.č)(N.c) [1.] [10.] F toll be taken by a miller of one who ought to be toll- pl. 36, 37. free, general trespass lies, not action upon the case; sur le Case, Br. Action for it is as illegal as if he had taken the moiety. #41 E. 3. 24. pl. 14. cites b. † 44 E. 3. 20.] S, C.----Fitzh. tit.

Action sur le Case, pl. 31. cites S. C. --- Br. Trespass, pl. 41, cites S. C. † Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 19. cites S. C. ——Br. Trespass, pl. 47. cites S. C. ——Fitzh. tit. Brief, pl. 579. cites 40 E. 3. 20.

[2.] [11. If a man takes a servant out of my service, and retains $Br. Acbim, trespass lies against him. # 11 H. 4. 23. b. 24. Tr. 15 Ja. tion fur is Cafe, pl. 38. between Whetely and Stone, agreed per Curiam in writ of cites S. C. error at Serjeant's inn. 39 E. 3. 38. Adjudged. 43 Aff. 9.] -Br. Labourers, pl. Br. Trespass, pl. 92. . 21, 22. S.P. Trespale vi & armie lay at common law. cites 11 H. 4. 23. S. P.

[3.] [12. But if he does not take him out of my service, but pro- Br. Laboureures him to go out of my service, and retains him, trespass does not ers, pl. 21. cites 11 H. lie against him, but case; for he does not do it contra pacem. 4. 21, 22. 11 H. 4. 23. b,] that trespass vi & armis did not lie in this case at common law, but that action on the case did.

[4.] [13. If a servant departs out of my service, no trespass lies No action in this case lay 11 H. 4. 23. b.] against the setziner at common law, and for that reason the statute of labsurers was made. Br. Labourers, pl. 21. sites 11 H. 4. 21, 22,

Hob. 180. pl. 215. S.C.

[5.] [14. If a serjeant of London, or bailiff in a counter, takes a man upon a capias in process at my suit, and J. S. rescues him out of his possession, I may have a general writ of trespass against him, because the serjeant is my servant to this perpose, as well as fervant to the king; and therefore the taking out of the posession of the serjeant, who is my servant, is a taking out of my possession. Tr. 15 Ja. between Whetely and Stone adjudged in a writ of error at Serjeant's-inn. See the same case Hobart's Reports, 242. and at Serjeant's-inn there were cited these precedents. Mich. 34, 35 El. B. R. Rot. 169. ASHTELL AND RUDGE adjudged in point. Mich. 42, 43 El. Rot. 468. B. R. PATTINGER AND MARRIOT. Mich. 37, 38 El. Rot. 192. between + Fenner AND PLASKET, both adjudged in point.]

† Cro. E. 459. bis, pl 2. Hill. 38 S. C. but not S. P. ____ Mo. 422. pl. 584. S. C. but not S. P. Eliz. B. R.

Hob. 180. pl. 215. in cale of WHEAT-LEY V.

[6.] [15. But in the case aforesaid, I may have action on the case at my election. Tr. 15 Ja. between Speere and Stone adjudged, and the judgment affirmed in writ of error at Serjeant'sinn, at the same time that the general action was affirmed.]

STONE, sites S. C. that though the rescous were laid vi & armis, yet it would bear either trespass vi & armis, or trespass upon the case; but the plaintist must beware that he follow his original, if it be by writ; for . If that be vi & armis, or upon the case, the judgment must be suitable. And so it must be in a bill in B. R. * but if the bill be trespals general, neither vi & armis, nor upon the case special, he may use it to either.

[471] Cto. J. 501. pł. 11. S. C. adjudged; for the action is not Frought in respect of this harm done to the

[7.] [16. If a man beats the feme of J. S. by which he loses the consortsbip of his feme, J. S. alone, without naming his wife, may have a general action of trespass against him for the battery of the feme per quod confortium amisit by 2 months, though this action be grounded upon the loss of the confortship. Mich. 16 Ja. B. R. between Guy and Livesey adjudged by admittance, that the general action of trespass lies.]

feme, but it is brought for the particular loss of the husband's, for that he lost the company of his wife, which is only a damage and a loss to himself, for which be shall have this action, as the master shall have for the loss of his servant's service.

[8,] [17. So the baron alone may have a general action of tref-S. C. cited Cre. J. 502. pals for menacing and battery of the feme per quod negotia sua inpl. 11. in the sale of Guy fetta remanebant. Tr. 27 El, B. R. Rot. 227. hetween CHOLMLEY v. Livesey, AND CUNEY adjudged.] as adjudged

8 Eliz. in B. R. And another precedent was cited to be in the Exchequer in Doyles's case, that such an action was adjudged good.

[9.] [18. If the sheriff upon a writ of extent takes a furnace fixed Cgo. E. 374. to the land, and sells it to J. S. and he takes it, no action of trespass lies against J. S. though it be admitted that the sheriff could not p1,24. DAT ▼. B19вітск, S.С. lawfully sell that which was fixed to the land; for J. S. comes to fays it was moved that it without any tort done by himself. Hill. 37 El, B. between the action lay DAY V. AUSTIN AND BISBICH, per Curiam.] pot against the defendant, pecause he has it by the delivery of another, and not by his own taking; but that this matter was net much infifted upon, because he was present, and took it, and so he was an immediate trespassor; and gites 42 E. 3. 6. 20 H. 7. 13. and 21 H. 6. 26. ---- Ow. 70. 5. C. 1475, that the Court held it a good discharge. —— Cro. E. 398. pl. 3. S. C. but not S. P.

10. Where

10. Where a man lends beafts to another to compester his land, and a firanger takes them, trespass lies vi & armis; but contra if the owner takes them within the term; for there lies only action upon the case; for if trespass vi & armis should lie, he should recover the value against the proper owner; per Hank, quod Hill & Culpepper concesserunt. Br. Trespass, pl. 92. cites 11 H. 4. 23.

11. In debt against 2, as executors, where the one is not executor, Br. Action and be appears and confesses, and the other makes defence, and the fur le Case, plaintiff recovers, the other shall have desceit, but not trespass; S.C. for he is party to the judgment; per Littleton. Br. Trespass,

pl. 180. cites 9 E. 4. 13.

12. If a man lends his borfe to ride to York, and he rides further, trespass general does not lie, for this is the authority of the party, but trespass upon the case; but where he misuses the authority of the law, he shall have trespass general; as if a man distrains, and kills the distress, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 327. cites 12 E. 4. 8. per Brian.

13. In trespass the defendant justified entering into the house by 13- Comera of 13cence of the plaintiff; and the plaintiff said, that he broke his door and windows, of which he has brought his action, and no plea; for meaner after, of licence in fact, as bere, be shall not have general action of trespass, but upon the case. Br. Trespass, pl. 359. cites 21 E. 4. 75, 76. and taking the bowl, or entering to see waste, or to distrain, and after breaking the walls, or killing the distress, there lies general writ of trespass. Contrary above of licence in fact. Ibid.

cence in laws and mifde- · as entering into a tavera to drink,

14. If a man distrains beasts, and impounds them, and another takes them, he who distrains shall not have general action of trespals; for he has no property. Contrary of goods bailed; quære of estray. Br. Property, pl. 52. cites 20 H. 7. 1.

15. A. lessee for years of a house, demised it for 6 months, and [472] afterwards permitted him to occupy the bouse for 2 months longer, Jo. 224. pl during which time he pulled down the windows, &c. A. brought 4. S. C. by case against him; it was objected that the action did not lie, be- WEST AND cause it was the plaintiff's folly to let him continue tenant at suf- TREFUSIE, ferance; and if any action did lie, it was trespass. The Court una voce conceived that either case or trespass lay, but that case was the that the acmost proper action to recover so much as he was damnified, be- tion laycause he himself is subject to an action of waste; and judgment for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 187. pl, 7. Pasch. 6 Car. B. R. West v. Treude.

16. It was holden, that where an action is brought by the master for beating his servaus, by which he lost his service, that this is trespals vi & armis, and not upon the case; but in this case the master shall not have damages for the beating, but for the loss of service only, Clayt. 17. pl. 27. Aug. 1633. Swallow v. Stephens.

17. In an action for stopping a rivulet, and drowning a close, and thereby spoiling the trees, it was held, that case lies for him in reversion, and trespass for the tenant in possession; but during the term the reversioner cannot have trespass, that being founded only upon the possession. 3 Lev. 209. Hill. 36 and 37 Car. 2. C. B. Biddlesford v. Onflow.

and causing stinking water in his yard to run to the walls of the plaintiff's house, and by piercing them run into his cellar. After a verdict it was moved, that trespass vi & armis does not lie against the defendant for this, because a man cannot be a trespassor with sorce and arms in his own ground; but that he ought to have brought an action on the case. The Court seemed to be of opinion against the plaintiss; but afterwards they gave judgment for him, after great wavering in opinion, pro & con. Hard. 60. Trin. 1656. in the Exchequer. Preston v. Mercer.

The Court agreed this case to be good law;
for the plaintiff furned that which was properly trespass into au action

19. In case the plaintiff declared, that he was possessed of a close, and the defendant dug pits in it, &c. per quod. &c. And after verdict for the plaintiff it was adjudged, that the action will not lie; because the cause of action was properly trespass, for which the party might have an action of trespass, but could not turn it into an action upon the case. Arg. Ld. Raym. Rep. 188 East. 9 Will. 3. in case of Shapcott v. Mugford, cites Hill. 4 and 5 W. and M. in C. B. Thornton v. Austen.

upon the case, only with design to evade the statute of 22 and 23 Car. 2. and to get full softs, though the damages were under 40;. Ld. Raym. Rep. 188. in case of Shapçoit v. Mugford.

[Y. 3] [In what Cases, and at what Time, Trespass lies, where the Matter is Felony.]

Ow. 70, [1.] [19.] If a ftranger takes my borse, or other goods, and sells it so. P. per Cur. in S. C. to J. S. and J. S. takes it accordingly, no action of that trespess trespass lies against him. Hill. 37 El. B. in the said case of Day. will not lie gainst the rendee, but a definue.

[2,] [20. No trespass lies, because it appears to the Court to be Fol. 557. felony; for this appertains to the king only to punish. Tr. 4 Ja. B. R. Huggin's case.]

[3.] [21. As action of trespass does not lie for the baron for s. C. cited battery of the seme, by which the seme languished by six weeks, and by Roll Ch. then *died of the stroke; for this is selony. Tr. 4 Ja. B. R. Hug-in case of Gin's Case, adjudged.]

Dawkes v. Coveneigh.

Noy, 82, S. C. The Court held the plea in bar naught, because it does not shew, that the plaintiff. gave ovidence for the conviction; because otherwife he shall not have

[4.] [22. [So] If A. robs B. of 30001. of money in bags, for which he is after indicted and convicted, and after B. brings trespass against A. for taking of the money, and he pleads this matter in bar, it seems that the action does not lie; because, when it appears that the act was felony, the party ought to sue him by way of appeal, if he will have his goods again; or prosecute him by indictment, and then he shall have his goods again by the flatute of 21 H. 8. for otherwise no one will prosecute felony for the public good, to punish such offenders, but only to have trespass for his private interest. Contra, Mich. 2 Car. B. R. between MARKHAM AND COBBE, by Doderidge and Whitlock; but Jones e contra, because he cannot aver against the verdict. But it seems he may aver against it, he being a stranger to it. Intratur, P. 1 Car. Estitution, Rot. 112. The bar was adjudged ill upon the pleading, not upon gation of the matter in law.]

and an alleprocusement is not fufficient; and for that reason judgment was given for the plaintisf. ____ Jo. 147. pl. Q. S. C. agrecable to Roll, together with the reasons of Jones; and in the conclusion says, quarte bene; for it is a point of great consequence as well of the one part as of the other. ——— Lat. 144. S. C. and the defendant in his bar having averred, that it is the same offence, it was said by Doderidge to be ill; because by the Indictment it was found burgiary, and here it is only trespass, which cannot be the same offence; but he might have averred, that it was for the same caption. And Jones and Whitlock agreed to this, though they differed as to other matters. ---- S. C. cited per Roll. Ch. J. Sty. 347. in case of Dawker y. Coveneigh,

[5.] [23. So in trespass of goods taken, if it appears upon evidence that it was felony, it seems the action does not lie for the cause asoresaid, and yet he cannot plead it. Contra in the said case of Markham. Agreed per Curiam.]

[6.] [24. If A. enters into the house of B. and there robs him felo- Sty. 346. niously, and after B. indicts A. for this felony, and upon not guilty pleaded he is found guilty, and has his clergy, and is burnt in his band, and so delivered; in this case B. may bring an action of tref- Ch. J. sit. pass against A. for entry of his house, and taking 3001. of his money; for here is not any inconvenience by it, for he has prosecuted him according to the law as a felon, at the fuit of the commonwealth, and it was a trespass also to the party; and therefore there is good reason, that he shall have recompence for the wrong the selon done to him also, inasmuch as he has done his duty in the prosecution, according to the law, for the felony at the fuit of the M. 1652, between Dawkes and Cavennaugh. judged per Curiam upon a special verdict in London. Hill. 1650. Rot. 653.]

cordingly ; but Roll tion would not he before conviction, for the danger that might not be tried; and lince the party robbod could not have his semedy before.

he shall not lose it now; for now there is no danger of compounding for the wrong; and the rest of the justices agreed with Roll, and so judgment was given for the plaintist.—See (A. a) pl. 3.

Orig. is (bien publique).

(Y. 4) Trespass, or Trover.

5ee (ℤ) pl 5. the note.

1. THE defendant's bailiff seised the plaintiff's beast for an beriot, Cro. E. 824. where none was due. The defendant agreed to the seisure, and pl.25. Patch converted the beaft: whereupon the plaintiff brought trover. It c. B. S. C. was insisted, that the property was gone by the taking, so as the plaintiff cannot dispose of the beasts, and therefore the proper [474] action is trespass. And of this opinion was Daniel; but others e contra, and that he had election to bring either of the actions at his pleasure. And so it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. J. 50. ~ pl. 21. Mich. 2 Jac. C. B. Bishop v. Lady Montague.

2. In trespass, &c. the plaintiff declared, that he was robbed of 201. and that he pursued the robber to such a town, and there shewed bim to the defendant, who was constable, and he apprehended him, and finding the 201. about him took the same, and detained it in his possession. The defendant consusted the taking the 201. as above, but, that it being a place of no strength, he was carrying it to the next.

43 Eliz.

next town, and was robbed of the money. Popham thought the plaintiff should have brought trover, and not trespass, to which the other justices agreed. Owen. 120. Mich. 3 Jac. B. R. Walgrave v. Skinner.

(Z) Trespass. Of what Thing.

[1. THE obligor may have trespass vi & armis against the obligee, for taking of the obligation. 20 H. 6. 24. b.]

2. If he who has charters breaks the seals, trespass lies. Br.

Trespass, pl. 29. cites 33 H. 6. 26, 27.

*Trespass 3. Trespass lies of a couple of * bounds, and of partridges, and of partridges, and pheasants taken; but he shall not say ad valentiam. Br. Trespass, the defend-pl. 315. cites 8 E. 4. 5.

ant demurred in law, and the plaintiff recovered 6s. 8d. for costs and damages, notwithstanding that the bound be a beast of pleasure, and fere natural, and of which a man does not pay tithes, and appeal of selony does not lie thereof, nor action of detinue: but if a man takes it and hills it, traspass lies; for when it is made tame the master has thereof a property, and it may be pleasure or profit to the owner, as to guard his house, or to kill deer or vermin, &c. quod note. By. Trespass, pl. 407. cites 12 H. 8. 3.

4. Trespass by the Lady Wiche against the parson of D. who took a coat armor, certain pendants with the arms of Sir Hugh Wiche her bason, and a sword in a chapel where he was buried; the parson said that he took them as oblations. Yelverton said, I have a seat in the chancel, and have a carpet, book, and cushion, and the parson shall not have those choses in action. Per Pigot, the parson cannot take a grave-stone. Quære, for by the reporter oblations shall be taken according to the intent of the donor. Br. Trespass, pl. 181. cites 9 E. 4. 14.

For the tak- 5. Trespass lies of a bawk, popinjay, thrush, ape, &c. which are ing of a mode tame. Br. Trespass, pl. 507. cites 12 H. 8. 3.

plaimed) a manshall not have trespals, but trover and conversion. And the count ought to he that he is reclaimed; and is not sufficient to say he was possessed of him as of his proper goods. F. N. B. 86. (L) in the new notes there (f).

6. If a man draws wine out of the vessels and puts water in the same to fill them up again, he shall have an action of trespass.

F. N. B. 88. (F).

- 7. In trespass for taking a greybound with a collar, the desendant pleads that the dog was courfing an bare in his land, and therefore be took and led him away. Whereupon the plaintiff demurred; and adjudged for the plaintiff, because the plea is frivolous. Whereby it seems trespass lies. Cro. J. 463. pl. 10. Hill. 15 Jac. in B. R. Athil v. Corbet.
- 8. Trespass will lie against a man for frightning another out of his money. As where several persons threatened to send A. to Newgate by colour of a warrant, and to indict him of perjury unless he would give them money and a note, which he did through their threats. And every extortion is an actual trespass, Per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 137. Mich. 6 Annæ B. R. the Queen v. Woodward.

(A, a) Trespass. At what Time it lies.

[1.] F a man marries my niece I shall not have trespass supposing Fitch tit. the trespals at the day after the marriage, for then the was free by marriage before. 46 E. 3. 6.]

Labourers, Pl. 24. OIL

[2. If a man takes my goods, and after I grant them to another, If one takes yet I may have trespass for the taking. 42 E. 3. 2.]

my goods.

wards I have my goods again, yet I may have a general action of trespass, and upon the evidence the damages shall be mitigated. 13 Kep. 69. per Cur. in case of Haydon v. Smith, cites it as the better opinion in 11 H. 4. 23.

3. It was agreed, that if a man be indicted, arraigned and acquit- Sec (Y. 3) ted of robbery of J. S. he shall not have thereof trespass; for the pl. [6] 4trespass is extinct in the felony, and omne majus trahit ad se minus; quære inde. Br. Trespass, pl. 415. cites 31 H. 6. 15.

4. If an act be made felony by flatute, as hunting or the like, and after a man offends in it and then the act is repealed by statute, there the hunting is dispunishable; for there the law by which it shall be tried is repealed. But where trespess is done upon a termor, and after the term expires, the trespass is punishable; for there the interest expires, but not the law. And so see a diversity where the interest expires, and the law remains, and where the law is repealed and does not remain. Br. Corone, pl. 202. cites 2 M. 1.

5. If I limit uses and revoke them and limit new uses, the uses lettle without entry or claim; yet not so as to bring action of trespals. Per Bridgman Ch. J. Cart. 78, Trin. 18 Car. 2. C. B. in eale of Thomasin v. Mackworth.

(A. a. 2) At what Time. Before Possession bad by the Plaintiff of the Thing taken.

1. IF a man have waif and stray within his manor by prescription, and another man takes the waif or stray out of the manor, &c. he who has the manor shall have an action of trespass for them, &c. and that without any seisure of them before. F. N. B. 91. (B).

2. If a man have a wreck by prescription, or by the king's grant, &c. if goods be wrecked upon his lands, another takes them away, he who has the wreck shall have an action of trespass quare vi &. armis for this taking without seisure thereof before.

91. (D),

3. If an abbot or other man has a hundred, and has all felons goods within the hundred, if any felon within the hundred be attainted, and the sheriss takes the goods of the felon within the hundred, he who has the hundred and such liberty shall have an action of trespass against the sheriff for the goods which the sheriff took, and the same shall be quare vi & armis, &c. F. N. B. 91. (F),

[476]

(B. a) Trespass. In what Cases it may be justified. Fol. 558. Justification for the Public Good.

s Bulft. 60. 8. C.—Cro. J. 321. $. C. -Brownl. 224. S.C.

[1. IN trespass for entering his land pedibus ambulande for hunting and digging the land, the defendant cannot justify this, and the digging of the land by reason of the bunting a badger, and to draw him out of his hold, though he fills up the hole again with earth afterwards, though it be for the public good. 11 Ja. B. R. between Gedges and Minn.]

See tit. Hunting, (A) pl. 4.

[2. In a trespass quare clausum fregit & berbam, &c. The defendant cannot justify this trespals for cause of bunting the fox. Mich. 37 B. between Nicholas and Badger by Fenner.]

3. Trespass for digging his land, the defendant faid that it is 4 acres adjoining to the sea, in which all the men of Kent bave used time out of mind when they fish in the sea, to dig in the land adjoining, to pitch stakes to hang their nets to dry. Nele faid he ought to shew what men. Per Choke and Littleton, this is no custom; for it is contrary to common right and reason. But per Danby, sishers may justify the going upon the land to fish; for this is for the common weal, and for the sustenance of several, &c. and it is the common law, quod fuit concessum; but per Fairfax the dig-. ging is the destruction of the inheritance, therefore it is no custom,

&c. Br. Customs, pl. 46. cites 8 E. 4. 18, 19.

For the commonwealth a man may justify trefpais as to enter the land of J. N. to make a bulwark, &c. per Kingm. Trespals, pl. 213. cites

33 H. 7. 27.

. 4. Trespass of cutting of grass, the desendant said that there is such a custom in the county of Kent, that when any enemies come to the sea it is lawful for all the men of Kent to come upon the land adjoining to those same coasts, in defence and safe-guard of the country, and there to make their trenches and bulwarks for the defence of the same country, and faid that at the time of the same trespass enemies came, &c. by which they dug to make trenches and bulwarks, &c. Per Jenney this is at common law to do so in defence of the Justice. Br. realm; but Catesby contra inde, &c. quære. Br. Customs, pl. 45. Cites 8 E. 4. 23.

> 5. Every man may arrest a night-walker; for this is for the commonwealth; per Hussey and Fairfax. Br. Trespass, pl. 416. cites 5 H. 7. 5. ——And so it was agreed, 4 H. 7. 18.

6. In trespass for taking his horse; the defendant justified by virtue of a commission directed to the constables by the post-master general, and that the constables made a warrant to him; and held good. Noy, 114. Garrons v. Banbury.

7. In trespass for flinging down materials erected towards the building of a bouse; the desendants pleaded that the erection was for building a house upon the king's bighway, and that they threw down the materials. And Holt Ch. J. seemed to agree that the throwing down the musance was justifiable. Comb. 417. Hill. 9 W. 3 B. R. Lovey v. Arnold.

(C. a) Trespass. Imprisonment justifiable. By Officers upon Warrants.

Is. IF the sheriff arrests a man upon process, and lets him to bail, and after returns a cepi corpus, and after a babeas corpus comes to the theriff to remove the body, the theriff cannot justify the retaking of bim upon this writ, after he had let him to bail before, but he ought to aid himself upon the bail. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. between LAY AND STRUT per Curiam in action of falle imprisonment upon such re-taking.

[2. In a falle imprisonment against a tipplaff of B. R. for imprisoning him for 3 months, if the defendant justifies for 6 hours because he was a servant to Sir John Lenthall, the marshal of B. R. and appointed by him to attend and execute the commands of the chief justice of B. R. for the time being, and that there is a custom a tempore, &c. that such servant so appointed by the marshal for the time being, had used to execute the commands of the chief justice, &c. and that after upon complaint of J.S. to Sir Thomas Richardson then chief justice, against the plaintist, according to the custom in such case for the chief justice for the time being, a tempore, &c. usitatam, the said chief justice mandavit eidem marescallow quod caperet the plaintiff & eum salvo custodiret ita, quod haberet eum coram eodem capitali justiciario quandocunque, &c. ad respondendum de & super his quæ ei ex parte dicti domini regis abjicerentur in ea parte. By force of which warrant he took the plaintiff as servant to the marshal and by his command, and detained bim by the space of 6 bours, and after, at the end of the 6 hours, delivered him to the faid marshal salvo custodiendum quousque. is a good justification, though this warrant was by parel and not in writing, it being by custom, and though no cause was expressed in the warrant, inasmuch as it is alleged to be according to the custom, and it may be greatly prejudicial to the king's fervice to express the cause in the warrant; and though the warrant is ita quod baberet eum coram eodem capitali justiciario quandocunque, &c. yet it is good; for it is usual in warrants of sheriffs to be with an, &c. * and the * Fol. 559. fignification of the words quandocunque, &c. is quandocunque the party, who complains, will complain against him, and though the defendant does not make any answer, what the marshal did with him after his delivery of the plaintiff to his custody, but he only says, that he is not conusant of it, yet the plea is good; for if the marshal afterwards detains him unjustly, yet the defendant is excused, because he has done legally before. P. 11 Car. B. R. between Sir George THROGMORTON AND ALLEN adjudged upon a demurrer. Intratur, Tr. 11 Car. B. R. Rot.]

3. In false imprisonment, the defendant said that the commission Is a commission of the king such a day was directed to him and others to take those who fion issues to svere notoriously slandered for felonies or trespasses, notwithstanding that which is they were not indiffed, and this is against law, and that the plaintiff contrary to had wounded J. N. to death by which they took them, &c. And admitted

theseupon

take J. S.

W.R. takes mitted for a good justification, though the commission be against him, yet he shall be excelled of some directed their precept to take the plaintiff made this justification upon the matter, and not the commissioners themselves. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 9. cites 24 E. 3.9.

Br. Trespass, pl. 372. cites 42 Ass. 5.

4. It was agreed arguendo, that where a capias issue to the sheriff without an original, and be serves it, false imprisonment does not someont, pl. lie; for it is not the default of the sheriff; per Hank. in trespass.

Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 31. cites 11 H. 4. 36.

*S. P. And 5. In debt it was faid by Hill J. that if the * sheriff takes a man the plaintiff by capins, and does not return the writ, false imprisonment lies: but not against the bailiss, if the sheriff does not return the writ; for the default of the sheriff shall not condemn the bailiss as it is said imprison—essence. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 5. cites 11 H. 4. 58.

cites 21 H. 6. 5. per Paston. ——— A common bailiss arrests a man by the sherist's warrant, sales imprisonment lies against the sherist, and also against the bailiss, if the sherist does not return the writ; but if the bailiss of a liberty makes such arrest, he shall not be punished though the sherist never returns the writ; because he is not servant of the sherist; for the sherist can make no other return than the bailiss of the liberty certifies him. Per Frowike Ch. J. but per Rede Ch. J. if a common bailiss makes arrest, and his master does not return the writ, the maker shall be punished and the bailiss not. Kelw. 89. pl. 12. 22 H. 7. Anon.

If the theriff does not return the capias, falle imprisonment lies; but otherwise it is of an attackment of goods out of an inferior court, because the capias is conditional, but the attachment general. Asg.

Lat. 223. in case of Turvil v. Tipper cites 14 H. 7. 14. per Keble.

Fieri facias & capias ad respondendum, which have these words, it a qued babeas corpus ejus bic ad respondend', &c. ought to be returned in pain of action of false imprisonment; but contra of capias of suisfaciend', which has no such words in it. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 28. cites 21 H. 7. 22. per Kingsmill J.

6. In trespass of imprisonment, the desendant justified by war-If a confrable rant of the peace to him directed to make the plaintiff to find surety of has a warrent to bring the peace. And it was held that he soall say first, that be required a person before a justice him to find surety, and he would not, by which he arrested him; for of paste to he shall not arrest him if he does not refuse to find surety, and to find surety there it is agreed that he may arrest him diverse times; for if he of the peace, arrests him, and he breaks from him, he may retake him, and so and upon refufal to carry feveral times; quod nota. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 18. cites him to gael, L. 5 E. 4. 12. Oc. if up-ing the person before a justice he resules to give security, the officer without any new warrant or command may carry him to prison by virtue of the words of the warrant, viz. (and if he shall resule, ac.) g Rep. 59. a. b. Hill. 32 Eliz. B. R. in a note of the reporter in Foster's case, alias Foster v. Smith.

7. In false imprisonment, the desendant justified the imprisonment for a quarter of an hour by capias directed to the sheriff against the plaintiff, who commanded the desendant to arrest him, by which be took him and did not shew precept. Per Moyle, where the theriff comes to arrest a man he need not shew capias, but if the desendant demands his warrant, he ought to shew his warrant; but Choke said, no; for the sheriff or bailiff errant who is known and sworn, needs not shew warrant, for the party is bound to take conusance thereof; but where the sheriff commands another to arrest the party, party, he ought to shew warrant; for otherwise the party may make rescous. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 23. cites 8 E. 4. 14.

8. A man may justify in false imprisonment inasmuch as supplicavit came to the lberiff, and be awarded warrant to the defendant to take bim, which he did, and yet the sheriff cannot give his power to another to take surety there. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 34. cites 9 E. 4. 30.

9. If action be brought against J. N. son of W. N. if the sheriff by capies errests J. N. son of T. N. action of false imprisonment lies, though the party, who is arrested, be the same person against whom the plaintiff has cause of action, which was agreed arguendo in detinue. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 38. cites 10 E. 4. 12.

10. If the sheriff of London arrests a man in London by capias dieelled viceconitibus Midd, writ of false imprisonment lies. Br. Privilege, pl. 44. cites 16 E. 4. 5.

11. Where a justice of peace awards warrant of the peace, and [479] the officer arrefts him, and will not suffer him to come before such of the justices of the peace which he chuses, to find surety of the peace, the party shall have action of false imprisonment against the officer; per Fineux Ch. J. Brooke says, quære inde ; for as it seems, it is at the discretion of the officer to carry him before such justices as he will. Quare, if the officer of malice will carry bim to a justice who inhabits 40 or 60 miles distant, where there are other justices of peace who inhabit within two leagues [or 5 or 6 miles] of the place where he arrested him. Quære, if action upon the case does lie or not. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 11. cites 21 H. 7. 21.

12. If bailiff, by precept of the sherist, arrests a man, and does not carry bim to the sheriff, false imprisonment lies; per Kings. J.

Br. Trespass, pl. 211. cites 21 H. 7. 22.

13. A justice of peace cannot make a warrant to arrest a suspected S.P. And person, unless be be indicted; and yet if he does make such warrant, justification and the bailiff serves it, he shall be excused; for they are justices for bim, met-Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 33. cites 14 H. 8. 16. of record.

tbjz is a good withflanding that the justsice erred in awarding the process. So where the sheriff errs in his warrant, directed by him to the bailiff of franchife. So of his own bailiff; by 3 justices, and after fitzh. the fourth justice did not deny it. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 8. cites 14 H. 8. 16.

· 14. If the sheriff takes J. S. by force of process awarded out of a Bar Tria. court, which has not jurisdictin of the principal cause, he is a tres- 34 Car. 2.

But only the principal cause, he is a tres- 34 Car. 2.

B. R. it was But otherwise if the court has authority of the principal said by the case; there if the process be misconceived, it is only erroneous; Ch. J. 2nd per Manwood Ch. B. 2 Le. 89. pl. 112. in case of Ognel v. Paston. agreed to by the Court, that if an arrest be by process out of an inferior court, in a cause not arising within their jurisdiction, the party arrested may have action against the plaintiff, who shall be invended constant where the cause of action arose; but not against the judge or officer who has entered the plaint, or the officer who has executed it, but the proper and just remedy is against the plaint sf. 2 Jo. 214. in the case of Olliet v. Belley.

15. If the plaintiff commands the sheriff to discharge the defendant 3 Bulft. 95. before his imprisonment, and makes to the sheriff a release of that Rep. 240. fuit, and yet the sheriff imprisons the defendant, it is false impri- s. c. forment. And per Doderidge J. if the case be, that the sheriff bas no conusance of the plaintiff, and therefore refuses to discharge the prisoner, he must plead so. Cro. J. 379. pl. 7. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R. Withers v. Henly.

16. If the sheriff has not any writ, and makes a warrant to J. D. to arrest J. S. action lies for this arrest against J. D. and the sheriff also. Per Jones J. Jo. 379. Hill. 11 Car. B. R. in Girling's case.

S. C. cited By Sir John Powell, ba. zon of the Exchequer, in his argument in the safe of GWINNE v.Poole, 2 Lutw. 1565, 1566. pat fays, that this certainly is only process inverso ordine. 17. Where a capias issues out of an inferior court, and no summons was first issued, though upon a writ of error, this matter is not assignable, because a fault in the process is aided by appearance, &c. yet salse imprisonment lies upon the arrest. And an officer cannot justify by process out of an inferior court, in like manner as upon process out of the courts at Westminster. For suppose an attachment should go out of the county court without a plaint, could he that executes it justify? Yet a sheriff may justify an arrest upon a capias out of C. B. though there was no original. But + ministers to the courts below must see that things be duly done; per Hale Ch, J. and judgment accordingly. Vent. 220. Trin. 24 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Read v. Wilmot.

Palm. 449. MARGET v. HARVEY, and that no custom of any inferior court will make this process good, and cites 2 Roll Abr. 277. BANKS v. PRMBLETON, nor would it be so by the oustom of London, but that it is confirmed by act of parliament, and otherwise would be only erroneous; that where process issues out of an inferior court without plaint, it is only error, cites 4 Le. 78. SAVAGE AND KNIGHT. And note, there is no authority cited by Hale to support the judgment in the case of READ v. WILMOT, and there seems no reason that officers of inferior courts should be more knowing than those of superior courts, to judge of the legality of process under the peril of being subject to an action, and that it would be hard doctrine; but the true reason, why they are not liable, is, where the court or judge has jurisdiction of the matter, they are only ministers, and cannot dispute the legality of the mandates directed to them.

† S. P. by Mallet J. Mar. 113. pl. 195. Mich. 17 Car. in case of Drz v. Olivz; but Heath J. contra. And Bramston Ch. J. consessed, that it was hard to punish an officer for his obedience to what he is bound to do; and that it he does an act by command of the Court, whether the act be just or unfield, he is excused, in case the Court has jurisdiction; but otherwise he is liable to an action of sale imprisonment. But the case was adjourned.

 [480] 18. If a bailiff of a liberty arrefts J. S. out of the liberty, and de-2 Show. 14%. pl. 1 37. Hill. livers him to the gaoler of the liberty, who detains him, yet the 32 and 33 En- 2. B.R. gaoler is not liable to an action of false imprisonment; for he knew not that the arrest was tortious, nor is he obliged to inquire about adjornatur. S. C. by it. And if he had been informed of it, (without being of the covin the name of or practice in it,) yet he ought to detain J. S. being delivered to him Colcot v. with a good warrant for the arrest, though the execution of it was Beichey. illegal; for had such information been false, the gaoler, by letting Ibid. 204. pt. 214. J. S. at large, would be liable to an escape. And a judgment in Trin. 34 2 Jo. 214. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Olliet v. Car. 2. S. C. C. B. was reversed. by the name Belly.

Ressey, adjornatur.——S. C. cited per Powell J. in case of Gwin v. Pool. Lutw. 1568.——Skin. 40. Elliot v. Brezy, S. C. in B. R. and it was argued against the judgment in C. B. that if the gaoler had suffered him to depart after the bailist had brought the prisoner to him, it had been an escape; and likewise if the gaoler had resuled him, it had been an escape; so that to punish the gaoler for an escape if he resules him, and for salse imprisonment if he receives him, is unreasonable. And though their main reason in C. B. was, for that the bailist of a liberty and the gaoler were but one officer, yet it is plain that is a missake, as was said here by the Court; and they said, that in this case the gaoler should be punished for doing but his duty, and yet be without any remedy. It was said by the Court, that in this case, though notice had been given to the gaolet, yet it were not material. Upon this the Court pronounced their reversal, n.s.——Lambert & Olliet v. Lessey, Raym. 42 to S. C.

Street by Raymond J. who conceived the judgment ought to be affirmed. ———Raym. 467. Bze-BET V. OLLIET, S. C. and the same argument of Raymond J. in support of the judgment of C. B. but says the other 3 judges resolved, that the gaoler was not chargeable, because he could not have notice whether the prisoner was legally arrested or not, and yet he is compellable to take him into his custo-shall not be punished for doing his duty in keeping his prisoner.

- 19. If an officer intermeddles in, or does nothing but what belongs to bis office, he is not liable to precedent tortious acts. 2 Jo. 214. Olliet v. Bessy.
- 20. If an action be brought in an inferior court for a matter Vent. 369. which does not arise within its jurisdiction, and the defendant be Hodson v. Cooke, arrested thereupon, yet no action will lie against the officer that S.P. in S.C. arrested him, though it will against the plaintiff. Skin. 131. pl. 6. and says, Mich. 35 Car. 2. B. R. per Cur. in the case of Hudson v. Cook. that so it be resolved 18 Car. 2. in the Ezchequer, when Ld. Ch. J. Hale sat there, in the case of Cowper v. Cowper. ————— 2 Show. 328. pl. 335. S. C. but not S. P. ————— S. C. cited 2 Lutw. 1568. by Powell J. in his argument in the case of Gwinn's v. Pools, and says he knows not any authority against it, unless the case of "MARTIN V. MARSHALL, in Roll's Rep. which he says is a mis-report of that case, because the Ld. Hobert, who was Ch. J. when this judgment was given, reports it othermile.
 - Hob. 63. pl. 64 and 2 Roll. 109, 116.
- 21. If one has a legal and an illegal warrant, and arrests by virtue of the illegal warrant, yet he may justify by virtue of the legal one; for it is not what he declares, but the authority which he has, is his justification; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 387. Pasch. 12 W. 3. B. R. in the case of Dr. Greenville v. College of Phyficians.
- 22. If upon an escape-warrant a prisoner is taken by the mob, without any officer, and delivered to the sheriff, per Holt, it is as if there had been no warrant at all; nor can the sheriff detain him by grafting legal imprisonment on an illegal one; if he does, · false imprisonment will lie against him. He is bound not to receive him from any body but the constable, or other peace-officer; but if such assirms himself to be a constable, he must believe him, [481] and make return accordingly; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 154. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of Rich v. Doughty.

(C. a. 2) Imprisonment. Justification. By Officers by Warrant. Pleadings.

1. DECEPTUS de facie is no excuse for the sheriss's arresting a wrong person by virtue of a writ. Arg. in the case of Bulft. 149, cites 13 H. 4. 2. per Hankford. WALE V. HILL.

2. In false imprisonment the defendant justified, because B. F. justice of peace, &c. found the plaintiff guarding a manor with force and arms, and arrested him, and sent him to the gaol of L. where the defendant was constable, by force of a warrant, &c. made to him by the said justice to receive him, by which he received and imprisoned him there, prout, &c. which is the same imprisonment. Yelverton said, de son tort demesne absque tali causa, and held no plea; for the VOL. XX. Nn defendant justified by matter of record. Yelvert. de son tott demesne, absque hoc that he imprisoned him by force of the precept. Newton; as he had a precept, it shall be intended that he did it by virtue thereof. Yelverton said, be imprisoned him, absque boc that the justice of peace made to him any precept; and the others e contra. And because it was dubious how this matter should be tried, whether per pais, or by certificate of the justice to certify it upona writ to him directed, therefore he said, that de son tort demesne, absque hoc that the justice of the peace illic ei misit; and the others e contra. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 16. cites 21 H. 6. 5.

3. And in 16 E. 3. the defendant justified to make execution for damages recovered; and the other said, that de son tort demesne absque tali causa. And the issue received, and P. 18 E. 3. accordingly, for notwithstanding his authority, he may take the goods de for tort demesne. Nota bene, and study of the best; and see the book for the pleading of the bar above at large. Br. De son tort, &c.

pl. 16.

In trespals of affault, wounding, taking, and imprisoning, the defendtaking and imprisoning justisted by a Coarrant from the lord mayor; but sbews neither time or place Tuben or wberc it was per Cur. a place ought

4. In false imprisonment the defendant said, that capies issued out of the Exchequer against the plaintiff to the sheriff of M. to take the plaintiff; by which he took and imprisoned him, by virtue of a warrant to him directed thereupon by the sheriff, the defendant being a bailiff sworn and known. And the plaintiff demurred, because the ant as to the defendant did not show * place where the warrant was made, and did not shew if the sheriff + returned the writ or not. And as to the place it is good by the best opinion; for if the plaintiff denies the warrant, the defendant may rejoin, that it was made at D. &c. And as to the return, it is good; for the bailiff cannot compel the sheriff to return the writ; but this is the default of the sheriff. But where the sheriff himself justifies, he ought to allege, that he has returned the writ; but per Rede J. the defendant ought to fay, made. And that he returned the body to the sheriff, or brought the prisoner to him. And then a good justification, & adjornatur. Br. Faux Imprisonto be alleged ment, pl. 12. cites 21 H. 6. 22.

where the warrant was made. Roll. Rep. 135. pl. 15. Hill. 12 Jac. Wilson v. Dodd. ___Ibid. 176.

S. C. accordingly, and admitted by Coventry of counsel for the defendant.

+ In trespals of imprisonment the defendant pleaded, that be took the body as servant of the sheriff, and by his command. And well, without shewing that his master had returned the writ; for the laches of the master shall not prejudice the servant; but contrary of the master himself; per Littleton. Br. Trespass pl. 339. cites 18 E. 4. 9.

5. Trespals. If a serjeant arrests a man, and one comes in aid of [482] bim, or if the party shews to the serjeant, or the sheriff, the man who shall be arrested, there, in trespass of false imprisonment, the serjeant, or he who shews or comes in aid, justifies as above. There the plaintiff shall not say, that de son tort demesne absque take causa, against the one or the other; but shall traverse absque boc that be had such capius, or made any rescous, or such like, &c. Br. De fon tort, &c. pl. 19. cites 2 E. 4. 6.

6. In false imprisonment the defendant justified, that he at another day, after the day in the declaration, arrested him by warrant of the peace, and carried bim to the gool, absque boc that he was guilty before, &c. But it was said, that the justification is no plea without Taying that he carried him to gaol. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 21.

cites 5 E. 4. 5, 6.

7. In trespass the defendant justified the imprisonment by precept, which came from a justice of peace, by reason of a supplicavit. And the plaintiff faid, that de son tort demesne, &c. and so to is-

fue. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 40. cites 9 E. 4. 31.

8. In false imprisonment the defendant justified as sheriff of M. and arrested bim by capias, judgment, &c. And per Catesby, this is no plea, without answering to the false imprisonment; but it seems a good plea, if he says, that it is the sane imprisonment. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 29. cites 22 E. 4. 47.

9. In false imprisonment, where the bailiff makes an arrest, de fon tort demesne, &c. is a good plea. Contra where the sheriff bimself makes the arrest, and is prohibited. Br. De son tort, &cc. pl. 53.

cites 16 H. 7. 3. per Keble.

10. Faux imprisonment. The defendant justified, because the plaintiff said to J. S. that the mayor of Burnstable was a fool, which the mayor bearing of, commanded the defendant, being an officer, &c. to imprison bim. And upon demurrer it was adjudged no plea ; but for such words he might have bound him to his good behavi-Our, but was not to imprison him. Yet if the mayor had been in public place of justice, and he had called him by such opprobrious words, he might imprison him. Cro. E. 78. pl. 38. Mich. 29 and 30 Eliz. B. R. Simons v. Sweete.

11. In false imprisonment the defendant justified, that he was constable, and the plaintiff being in the presence of a justice of peace, who, not having opportunity to enamine him, commanded the defendant to take the plaintiff into his custody till the next day, which he accordingly did, which is the same imprisonment. It was adjudged a good justification, though not alleged what cause the justice had to imprison the plaintiff, or any warrant in writing, it being in the justice's presence. But the justification is as proper for another as for the constable. But because the defendant justified the 16th, where the imprisonment is supposed the 15th, the plaintiff had judgment.

Mo. 408. pl. 551. Trin. 37 Eliz. Broughton v. Mulshoe.

12. In false imprisonment, if the defendant justifies by a capids to the sheriff, and a warrant from him, there de injuria sua propria generally is no good replication; for then matter of record will be parcel of the cause, (for the whole makes but one cause,) and matter of record ought not to be put in iffue. But he may reply de injuria sua propria, and traverse the warrant, which is matter of fact. But upon such justification, by force of any proceeding in the udmiralty, hundred, or county courts, &c. not being courts of record, there de injuria sua propria generally is good; for all is matter of fact, and the whole makes but one cause; per Cur. 8 Rep. 67. a. Mich. 6 Jac. in Crogate's case.

13. In trespass of faux imprisonment against a sheriff and bailiff, they justified by warrant on writ to the sheriff. The plaintiff replies, that no writ was then taken out. To which the defendant demutred, and judgment pro plaintiff; for albeit the bailiff has a warsent, yet he is liable, if there be no writ. Contra if the writ be N n. 2 void, if delivered. 2 Keb. 705. pl. 69. Mich. 22 Car. 2. B. Ri Plucknett v. Grenes.

14. Trespass of battery and imprisonment. The defendant justi-34und. 298. CREEN V. fied by a writ out of B. R. directed to the sheriff, and a warrant JONES, S.C. thereupon made to him. The plaintiff demurred specially, because it and fays, is not pleaded, that the writ was delivered to the sheriff as the usual that it was infifted that form is. It was answered, that it need not be so pleaded; for if the plainin truth a writ be fued, though he made a warrant before it came tiff ought to bave reto his hands, it is lawful; and the precedents are both ways, as plied, that Dr. Bonham's case, Co. 8 Rep. and other cases cited; and of the arreft was fuch opinion was Hales and all the court, and gave judgment for before the bill of Mid- the defendant. Levinz of counsel for the defendant. dlesex deli-Mich. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Jones v. Green. vered, and then the matter would come in question; but now the plaintiff by bis descrive bas lost the advantage of it. And of such opinion was the Court, viz. that it should be intended, that the bill of Middlesex was delivered to the sheriff before the arrest, and before the making of the warrant; and that the plaintiff should have replied the contrary, specially if it had not been true; and that by the demurrer he has admitted the delivery of the bill, and the Court was ready to give judgment for the desendant; but gave the plaintiff leave to discontinue on payment of costs; because, in truth, the bill was not delivered to the sheriff till after the arrest, as the plaintiff's counsel informed the Court.

S. P. 3 Salk. 357. pl. 15. Paích. 9 W. 3. Anon. cites 3 Lev. 69. 15. In false imprisonment, &c. the defendant justified under a latitat and warrant, and arrest thereupon at D. absque boc, that he is guilty at any other place or time. The plaintiff replied de injuria absque tali causa. The desendant demurred, and judgment for him; because upon general demurrer it is ill to put matter of record, and sact, and variety of matters in one issue, as the warrant, the arrest, &c. Besides, the replication wanted conclusion, viz. et petit boc quod inquiratur per patriam; for the replication in this case ought to make issue of itself, whereas here those words are wanting. 3 Lev. 65. Trin. 34 Car. 2. C. B. Fursdon v. Weeks.

16. In trespass and false imprisonment, and detaining bim in pri-Skin. 50. ELLIOT V. fon, quousque finem fecit ad damnum 1001. The desendant pleaded BESEY, not guilty as to all, except the imprisonment : and as to that, he justi-S. C. The fied by a non omittas, &c. It was assigned for error, that the desend-Court as to this point ant was charged for imprisonment of the plaintiff, quousque finems faid, that the fecit pro deliberatione, which is not answered; for the imprisongaoler here wasadistined ment only is justified, and not the finem fecit. But the whole officer from Court thought the plea good notwithstanding, because he pleaded the bailiff not guilty as to all, besides the imprisonment. Raym. 467. Trin. or Reward; and where 34 Car. 2. B. R. Bessey v. Olliet. it had been objected, that the gaoler might, in this case, have action for case against the bailiff, the Court doubted of it. And where it was urged, that if the gaoler keeps one imprisoned for not paying unreasonable sees, that now the imprisonment becomes false ab initio, the Court doubted of it.

17. In trespass, assault, battery, and false imprisonment, the defendants justified under a plaint levied against the now plaintist in an inferior court, for a debt of 201. and that a capias issued, whereupon he arrested him. The plaintist replied, that the cause of action did not arise within the jurisdiction of the court. And upon a general demurrer judgment was given for the desendants. 2 Lutw. 935. 1506. Mich. 4 W. & M. in the Exchequer, Gwinne v. Poole & 21.

18. In trespals of affault, battery, wounding, and imprisonment, the desendant, as to the affault and imprisonment, justified as bailiff under a judgment and execution in an inferior court of record, and that he at D. molliter manus, &c. and arrested him, &c. The plaintiff demanded over of the execution, which appeared to be sued out more than a year after the judgment; and then replied, that no execution emanavit infra annum. And upon demurrer it was resolved, that fuing out the execution after the year was not void, but only voidable by writ of error; so that till it is reversed, it is a good justification. 3 Lev. 403. Mich. 6 W. & M. in C. B. Patrick v. Johnson.

[484]

- 19. In trespass, affault, battery, and false imprisonment, the defendants, as to all but the salse imprisonment, pleaded not guilty; and as to that they justify by virtue of their charter confirmed by act of parliament, and by the statute 14 H. 8. impowering them to fine and imprison pro non bene utendo facultate medicinæ, &c. and so justify the imprisonment pro mala praxi, by a warrant in writing under the hands and seals of the censors, &c. The plaintisti replies de injuria sua propria, & non virtute warranti pradicti, & hoc petit quod inquiratur per patriam; and Holt Ch. J. who delivered the opinion of the Court, held the replication ill, and that the plaintiff does not say there was no such warrant, nor traverses it, but only says he was not arrested by virtue of it. If he had denied that there had been any fuch warrant it had been a good traverse, for then the defendant would not have had authority to arrest the plaintiff; but if the plaintiff was arrested for other cause, and not upon this warrant, then the plaintiff should have shewn the other cause; as if there were two warrants, the one good, and the other ill, and the plaintiff had been arrested upon the ill one, he ought to shew it specially, and a traverse that defendant did not take him by virtue of such warrant is ill; but he sould bave traversed that there was any such warrant, or have said that it was granted afterwards, absque boc that there was any such warrant at the time of the arrest. Ld. Raym. Rep. 454. Easter-Term 11 W. 3. Groenvelt v. Burwell & al. Cenfors of the College of Physicians.
- (D. a) Imprisonment justifiable by Officers. shall be good Cause of Justification of Imprisonment by Officers.

[1. TF a man comes through a vill, driving certain beafts, and a hue and cry pursues him, the bailiff of the vill may justify the imprisonment of him, &c. without other cause, that is to say, of ill fame, suspicion, or indicament. 29 E. 3. 39. adjudged.]

[2. If an bue and cry be levied upon a man, it is good cause of Br. False imprisonment of him by an officer, without any other cause. 29 E. 3. 39. b.]

ment, p'. 16.

5 H. 7. 4.—And see Robbery (Z), per totum.

Cro. E. 222.
pl. 2. Taylor v. Beale, is not S. P.
—And Le.
237. pl. 320.
S. C. is not
S. P.

[3. Upon a fuit in the Chancery between A. and B. if an order be made by the Court that the warden of the Fleet shall take B. and imprison him for diverse contempts done to the Court till be has made an obligation to A. and the warden of the Fleet, by sorce of this order, takes him accordingly, this is justifiable in an action of false imprisonment against A. who comes in aid of the warden by sorce of such naked commandment without writ. Tr. 39 El. B. R. bestween Taylor and Beale.]

4. False imprisonment against R. who came vi & armis, and beat and imprisoned him, the defendant said that he was constable, and the plaintiff beat R. almost to death, by which hue and cry was levied, and the defendant would have arrested him, and the plaintiff refused the arrest, by which the constable took power to arrest him, and the damage which he had was because he disturbed the arrest; and to the imprisonment he said, that because the plaintist heat R. almost to death, he imprisoned him by 4 days, till he perceived that R. would live, and then he let him at large; judgment, &c. and no more is thereof said; and therefore it seems that it is a good plea. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 6. cites 38 E. 3. 6. and see 38 H. 8. that a man cannot arrest him after the affray is ever without warrant.

or by justicies; for those are only commissions to hold plea, and the body shall not be taken but by process out of court of record, and the court of the sheriff by those is not of record. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 30. cites 2 H. 4. 24.

Contra before the affray, and in the time of the affray, &cc. And so of a justice of peace.

6. If the sheriff does not return the writ, yet the servant who makes the arrest, may justify; for the act of the master shall not lose the justification of the servant, per Danby and Choke; but Moyle and Littleton contra, but agreed of the bailiss of the franchise that it shall not hurt him. And so after, that the sheriss himself cannot justify without returning the writ; and yet he may, per Choke, in case the parties notify to him that they are agreed. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 23. cites 8 E. 4. 18.

7. If a man makes affault upon the constable, he may justify to are rest him who made the default, and to carry him to gaol for breaking the peace, though he himself he party, viz. the constable upon whom the affault was made; quod nota. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 41. cites 5 H. 7. 6.

8. A man may arrest J. N. by command of the justices of peace, if J. N. be present in sight, and not otherwise. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 33. cites 14 H. 7.

o. If a constable by warrant of the peace from a justice of peace arrests the party, and brings him to the justice, who does not put him to find surety, action does not lie against the constable. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 12. cites 21 H, 7. 22.

of the arrest, but after a warrant is directed to him for this purpose, this is no cause to justify; per Crr. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 8. cites 14 H. 8. 16.

11. Lq

11. In false imprisonment the defendant justified, for that Sir Brownl. 204, R. L. the lord mayor of London, and who was a justice of peace, com- 205. Mich. manded bim, being serjeant at mace, pro diversis causes eidem majori bene cognitis, to imprison the plaintiff, &c. All the Court held it no case seems good plea; for the cause of imprisonment ought to be shewn, so as the Court may adjudge whether it were lawful, or not; for though a magistrate may send for any to examine him, without notice, that shewing cause in the warrant, or telling the officer what the cause is, which might not always be proper to discover, yet when he is ther the committed, the cause is then discovered. Cro. J. 81. pl. 4. Mich. commit-3 Jac. B. R. Boucher's case.

Woody's to be S. C. and there the Court took it did not appear whement was by the lord mayor, as mayor, or as justice of peace; and that his power as mayor was not known to the Court, but ought to be shewn in the pleading. _____S. C. cited 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 83. cap. 13. f. 11. by name of Broucher's case. And the serjeant says it seems to be holden in this case, that where an officer arrests a man by force of a warrant from a magistrate, pro certis causis, without shewing any cause in particular, he cannot justify himself in an action brought against him for such arrest, without setting forth the particular cause in his plea; and yet in this very report it seems to be allowed, that such a gomeral warrant is good; and if so, it seems strange that the officer should not be justified by setting forth the truth of his case, fince if there were no good sause to justify the granting of the warrant, the magistrate ought to answer for it, and not the officer.

12. In trespals of taking his servant out of his service, &c. the desendant justified that A. was possessed of corn at S. and that the fervant, by command of his master, had carried the same away; and [486] that the faid A. desired the defendant, being a constable, to detain the fervant until he could get a warrant from a justice of peace, &c. And upon demurrer the plea was held ill, because a constable connot detain any person but for felony. Brownl. 198. Mich. 11 Jac.

Hill. 12 Jat.

Ringhall v. Woolsey, or Welsh.

13. In false imprisonment, the defendant justified, that he was 2 Bulk. 328. sheriff of London, and having arrested one T. S. he escaped, and be- S. C. acing in pursuit after bim in February, he met the plaintiff about nine at cordingly. night, who used him indecently, thrusting him against the wall, and giving him scurrilous language; and thereupon finding him wandering in the street in the night-time, and misbehaving himself, the defendant imprisoned bim; and upon a demurrer it was objected, that it was ill, because circa nonam horam was uncertain as to the time, neither was it a time to be committed for a night-walker, it being usual for men at that time to be about business; and that the using him uncivilly is too general, and the thrusting him against the wall might be by accident. Sed per Curiam, taking it all together, the justification was good; but if it were so that the thrusting him against the wall was casual, this ought to have come in the replication, and not to have demurred; and judgment per tot. Cur. against the plaintiff. Roll. Rep. 237. pl. 8. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R.

Chune v. Pyot. 14. In trespass of assault, battery, and false imprisonment, the desendant justified as deputy-governor of the isle of Scilly, setting forth a custom there to chastise and punish by imprisonment any soldier, &c. who neglects or missehoves himself in his duty, or obstinately resuses to every the orders of the governor or his deputy, and being required thereunto gives contumelious words to the said deputy governor; and then sets forth that the defendant disobeyed the orders of the deputy governor, and gave him opprobrious words, whereupon he imprisoned him prout ei bene licuit; and upon demurrer the plaintiff had judgment. 2 Jo. 147. Pasch. 33 Car. 2. B. R. Ekins v. Newman.

Nn4

15. If a process be unduly obtained, and the party against whom it is had, be thereupon taken and imprisoned, an action of false imprisonment lies by the party imprisoned, against him at whose fuit be is imprisoned, but not against the officer who executes it. Mich. 24 Car. 1. B. R. L. P. R. 595. tit. False Imprisonment.

(D. a. 2) Imprisonment. Justification by Officers without Warrant. Pleadings.

1. TRESPASS of wounding and imprisonment; the desendant justified the wounding that it was of the assault of the plaintiff and in his defence, and the imprisonment, because the defendant is constable of the vill, and the plaintiff broke the peace upon him, by which be took and carried him to the gool; and the plaintiff. faid, that de for tort demesne absque tali causa; and a good plea, because no matter of record was alleged as capias, &c. For there de son tort demesne is no plea without more, viz. traverse of the matter. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 18. cites 5 H. 7. 6.

2. In false imprisonment, the defendant arrested the plaintiff without warrant, and after warrant came to him, and he justified by the warrant; and the plaintiff said that de son tort demesne, absque boc that he had any fuch warrant, and gave the matter in evidence; [487] and the warrant was of a justice of peace to arrest him. Br. De fon tort, &c. pl. 17. cites 14 H. 8. 16.

3. In false imprisonment, the desendant justified that York was 2 Roll. Rep. a city by prescription, incorporated by name of mayor, &c. and had 109. 17 Jac. B.R. S.C. time out of mind a Court of Chanceay for all causes of equity arising fays the demurrer was because the defendant did not aver that the matter in controverly in the city between the citizens, &c. and that the mayor had always used to direct precepts for appearance, and to imprison for contempt of orders; and that a bill was exhibited against the defendant, who being summoned did appear but refused to answer, and thereupon an order was made that he should answer or stand committed; and because he still refused to answer, the mayor com-&c. did arise manded the defendant, who was serjeant at mace, to take bim, who did so; and brought him into court, where he was in open court committed, and so justified, &c. And upon demurrer this plea was adjudged ill, because the prescription being laid for the mayor to direct precepts for appearance, those must be understood to be in writing, but the precept to the defendant to arrest the plaintiff was by word only, and if that were void which is made part of the cause of the judgment the whole plea is vitious though the commitment in court was good; besides the plea is ill in substance, because a court of equity did not lie in grant and much less in prescription, as here it is alleged, it being a jurisdiction to be derived from the crown, and it had been resolved by all the judges

for which, and grow within the. city, and therefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff, and for the same reason judgment was confi. med in B. R. in a writ of error, and that in judges of C. B. that the king could not grant to the queen to this case Serhold a court of equity, and that the courts of chancery in Chef- jeant Hitter and Durham are incidents to a county palatine, which had that it was Hob. 63. Martin v. Marshall and Keys.

the opinion, of the Count of C. B. that a court of equity cannot be by prescription, but true it is, that in London they have such court, but their customs are confirmed by act of parliament; but e contra it was said that the Court of C. B. gave no such opinion, and that Mountague Ch. J. demanded of Hitcham, why a court of equity may not be by prescription; and cited tit. Jurisdiction the last plea, where it is held that a court of equity may be by prescription. Haughton J. said, that the cinque ports have had a court of equity by prescription; but Hitcham said that they have likewise an act of parliament for it is 7 H. 6. and that in the Chancellor of Oxford's case, it is doubted whether a court of equity may be by prescription or not.—S. C. cited 2 Lutw. 1564. in the case of Gwinne v. Poole in the argument of Sir John Powell, who says, note that this was for want of jurisdiction in the court as to the process, and that this was the region of the judgment, and not for want of averment, that the cause arose within the jurishdiction of the court, as is said in Roll. Rep. 109. which report he says is certainly mistaken. And Ibid. pag. 1568. says it is misreported, because the lord Hobart, who was chief justice, when the judgment was given, reports it otherwife,

4. In trespass, the plaintiff declared that the defendant 1 Apr. 2 Keb. 237. &c. vi & armis affaulted, beat, wounded and imprisoned the pl. 13. S.C. plaintiff for 2 days, &c. The defendant, as to the affault, battery, defendant and wounding, pleads fon affault demesne; and as to the imprisonment, weverted except for II hours, he pleads not guilty; and as to those II hours he pleads in bar that it was on the 10 January, &c. at the city of Coventry, in the county of that city, and that he was then sheriff thereof, and in the execution of his office, by watching the common gool there, left the prisoners should escape; and that the plaintiff at II o clock at night, being an unseasonable time, struck the defendant with his fift, and hindered him in the execution of his office, whereupon be, to keep the peace, imprisoned the plaintiff till the next morning, and then carried bim before a justice of peace, who bound him over to the assises, &c. And upon demurrer it was objected that the not answering to the vi & armis had made both the pleas ill. the Court held that the vi & armis was only matter of form, and per Curiane aided by the statute 27 Eliz. cap. 5. of General Demurrers. Saund. 81. Trin. 19 Car. 2. Law v. King.

fays that the abique hoc that he was guilty on the if of April Or at any other time before or after while he was thetiff, or at any other place. To which the plaintiff demurred. And this traverse is sufficient, and the plaintiff snuft reply, and shew if there were any other assault or imprisonment; also the traversing the time hefore, and after, does not lock up the plaintiff from assigning another day and place, especially the thing being local. Twisden on 2 Cro. 514. said this would be a departure. Judgment pro desendant.

Imprisonment. For what Causes or Things [488] those Persons may be imprisoned.

[1. A Man may imprison another to prevent apparent mischief which may ensue.]

[2. As a man may justify the imprisonment of feme covert Br. Faux egainst baron because she was mad and would have killed herself, or ment, pl.28. done other mischief, as fire an house or other thing. 22 E. 4. 45. b.] cites S. C.

plaintiff brought action of imprisonment against the defendant for imprisoning of his feme; the defendant said that he declared [* to the feme that her baron was taken and imprisoned] for a Scot, and the feme looked as if she bad been mad or lunatic, and the defendant to avoid m. s. bief, took ber and fut ber in his bense for an hour, which is the same imprisonment. And ger Fairfax J. this is no plea; for you cannot have the jury to try your conceit or mind, which cannot be, but you saght to farmile in fall that se was mad, and supposed that she would have killed herself, or done other mischief, as burnt a boase. * These words are omitted in the large edition.

[3. If a man fees two men fighting, so that perhaps one would. 5. P. Br. kill the other, it is lawful for him to part them, and put one in Paux Impri-Sonment, pl. an house till the rage be over. 22 E. 4. 45. b.] 28. cites

[4. But if he sees 2 quarrelling, and baving many words as if S. C.—— It is faid that they would fight, yet it is not lawful to take the one or the other if a constable and put in any place; for notwithstanding the words, the one sees persons will not peradventure strike the other, and so it shall be intended. ekher aetually engaged 22 E. 4, 45, b.] in an affray, as by firthing or effering to firthe or drawing their weapont, &c. or upon the very point of entering upon an affray, as where one shall threaten to kill, wound, or best another, he may either carry the offender before a justice of peace, to the end that such justice may compel him to find sureties for the peace, &c. or he may imprison him of his own authority for a reasonable time, till the heat shall he over, and also afterwards detain him till he find fuch fureties by obligation. But it seems that he has no power to imprison such an affender in any other manner, or for any other purpose; for he cannot justify the committing an affrayer to grol till he shall be punished for his offence; and it is said, that he ought not to lay hands on those who barely contend with bet words, without any threats of personal bart, and that all, which he can do in such a case, is to command them under pain of imprisonment to avoid fighting. Hawk. Pl. C. 137. cap. 63. f. 14.

[5. If a man be in a rage and does a great dool of mischief, bie 十 As by chastising parents may justify the taking and binding of him in a house, and and beating there to use him in such a manner + as shall be reasonable to rehim with duce him to his good sense again; for it is for the benefit of the rode. Br. Trespets, pl. party and of all others for the mischief which he may do if he 235. cites were at large. 22 Aff. 56.] Ş. C.---Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 35. cites S. C.———In this case the desendant justified as above, absque hos that he imprisoned him in other manner; and the other said that de son tort demesse, &c. absque tali causa. Br. De son tort demesse, pl. 44. cites S. C. S. P. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 28. cites 28 E. 4. 45.

· In false imprisonment, the defendant said that the plaintiff was luxuic, and would have killed bimself, or would have burnt a bouse in B. by which he took and imprisoned him; the plaintiff said, that de son tort demesos absque tali causa, and the others e contra. Br. De son tort, dec. pl. 53. cites 22 B. 4. 451

6. In false imprisonment, the defendant justified because the plain-Br. De son tort, &c. pl. tiff and others affaulted J. F. and beat him [almost] to death, by 44. Cites which bue and cry was made, and the defendant, as steward of the S. C.—Br. vill, him took, arrested and kept, till they were assured of the life of Faux Imprisoment, pl. 7. F. &c. And the other said that de son tort demesne, &c. 35. citesS.C. Br. Trespass, pl. 235, citer 22 Aff. 56, ____S. P.

Ibid. pl. 44. cites 10 H. 7. 20.

7. A stranger cannot justify to arrest a man by command of the sberiff without precept. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 23. cites 8 E. 4. 14. per Needham.

8. A man may arrest a vagrant and send him to gaol; and a good justification; per tot. Cur. Br. Trespals, pl. 184. cites

9 E. 4. 26.

9. If I fee a man going to kill J. N. I may take and hold him Berjeant Hawkins from it; per Moyle and Needham, Br. Trespass, pl. 184. cites says that any 9 E. 4. 26. one may lawfully lay hold on another whom he hall fee upon the point of committing a treason or solony, or doing an act which B)2

With manifestly endanger the life of another, and may detain bim to long till it may reasonably be pas-Sumed that he bath changed his purpose. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 77. cap. 12. f. 19.

to. In trespass of falle imprisonment, the defendant faid that so of bod the plaintiff feloniously robbed W. N. by which he took and arrested bim, and delivered him to the constable of D, to carry him to gool; and a good plea, though he does not fay that the constable did fend bim to carry him to gaol, contra of arrest by capies and not returning the gaol; for the writ; for this is upon condition its quod habeas corpus ejus tali he hall fend die, &c. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 24. cites 10 E. 4. 17.

who errefts a vagrant, and does not statute is that him to gaot. but this case

Is at the common law; but per Cur. if be sends bim to gool by bis servant, who suffers him to escape, aca tion does not lie against the master; per Cur. And so if the plaintiff had been rescued out of the possess. fion of the defendant, selion does not lie for the plaintiff; for there is no default in the defendant. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 24. cites 20 E. 4. 17.

11. Where a man arrests a felon, and offers him to the gaster, and he will not receive bim, the party himself may keep him. Br.

Faux Imprisonment, pl. 25. cites 11 E. 4. 4.

12. In false imprisonment in B. the defendant said that he was robbed in another county, and the voice and fame was, that the plaintiff did the robbery, by which be arrested him for suspicion in the county of B. The defendant said that de son tert demesse absque tali causa; and well per Catesby; but per Brian and Townsend, he shall say that de son tort demesne, absque hoc that there was any fuch felony done; & adjornatur. Br. De son tort, &c. pl 52. cites 2 H. 7. 3.

13. Where a justice of peace sees a man who will break the peace, And if a he may take bim and put him in prison, and action does not lie thereof. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 12, cites 21 H. 7. 22.

justice of peace fees a man breake ing the peace.

and lays bis bands upon bim, and stays bim, and lets him go at large, yet action does not lie thereof, Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 12. cites 21 H. 7. 22.

14. Justices of the peace cannot award warrant to errest a man, for that he had broke the peace, but they may award warrant to arrest him for fear that he will break the peace for the future; this is not for the breaking which is past. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 41.

Serjeant Hawkins fays it feems clear, that regularly no private perion can of his own authority arrest another for a bare breach of the peace after it is over; for if an officer cannot justify such an arrest without a warrant from a magistrate, a fortiori a private person cannot. Pl. C. 77. cap. 12. f. 20.

15. A constable took a madman and put him in prison, where he died, and the constable was indicted of this, but was discharged; for the act was legal. Cited by Glanvill. Arg. Ow. 98. Hill. 31 Eliz. C. B. in case of BEALE v. CARTER, as a case which he he heard in that court in 10 Eliz.

16. Trespass for salse imprisonment; the defendant justified as Mo.284. pl constable of A. because the plaintiff brought a child of 2 months old, and 436. S.C. laid it in the church-yard of A. to the intent to have destroyed it, KEALE V. or to charge the parish with the keeping of it; for which he did CARTER, arrest him, and put him in the stocks. And upon demurrer it was held * a good justification; for it is an ill practice, and is good prisonment [490] cause that he justi-

tist the plain-cause to stay the plaintist, and to imprison him; and afterwards tist agreed to in the same term, it was adjudged that the plaintist nihil capiat infant; and per billam. Cro. E. 287. pl. 1. Mich. 34 & 35 Eliz. B. R. Beal adjudged v. Charter.

cause the plaintiff's intent was selonious, and the act of the confishic was only an impersonment to prevent the felony, which he might do ex officio .- Le. 327. pl. 462. Beale v. Carter, mentions the child not to be above 6 years old, and the bringing to be into the church [and so is Mo.] to be left there. Exception was taken, because the plea said (quendam infantem) without naming him, or saying (ignotum) sed non allocatur. And the plea being also, that the plaintiff intended to have left the child there, exception was taken, because he did not say that the plaintiff departed from it; besides, his intention is not traversable, nor can be tried by jurors. Wray said, if the defendant had pleaded that he stayed the plaintiff to have carried him before a justice of peace, it had been good; and Fenner faid that the justi-Scation had been good, if the defendant had pleaded, that the plaintiff refused to carry away the child ; so all the justices were of opinion against the plea, but they would not give judgment by reason of the in example, but they left the parties to compound the matter. Poph. 12. pl. 3. Anon. S. C. mentions the child not above 10 days old, and that the plaintiff left it upon the ground, to the great differs. ance of the people there, and that Fenner held that what the constable did was lawful; and Pophane said, that if one lays an infant, which cannot help itself, upon a dunghill, or openly in the field, so that the beafts or fowls may deftroy it, the confiable feeing it, may commit the party to doing to prison 3 for what greater breach of the peace can there be, than to put such an infant by such means in danger of his life? And what divertity is there between this case and the case in question; for nobody was bound by the law to take up the infant but he which brought it thither, and by fuch means the infant might perish; the default thereof was in the plaintiff, and therefore the action will not lie. And thereupon it was agreed, that the plaintiff take nothing by his writ, ------ Ow. 98. S. C. according to Le. 327.

Serjeant Hawkins fays, it feems to be the better opinion that not only a constable, but any private porfon who shall see another expess an infant in the street, and resule to take it away, may lawfully approbend and detain him till he shall consent to take care of it, 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 77. cap. 12. s. 19.

17. It feems clear, that all persons whatsoever who are present when a felony is committed or a dangerous wound given, are bound to apprehend the offender, on pain of being fined and imprisoned for their neglect unless they were under age at the time. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 74. cap. 12. I. I.

(E. a. 2) Imprisonment. Justification. By Persons not Officers. Pleadings.

1. TRESPASS of imprisonment, the defendant pleaded that the plaintiff assaulted him, and would have beat him, by which the defendant came to the constable, and prayed him to arrest him to find surety of the peace, who did so, and he came in aid of the constable; judgment si actio, and admitted for a good plea in the written book. Br. Trespass, pl. 79. cites 3 H. 4. 8. 9.

2. In trespass of false imprisonment, because the desendant assaulted, beat, and imprisoned the plaintist till he made sine. The desendant said that actio non; for he said that in the time of the rebellion of Jack Cade, one W. S. and other malesacters in the vill of B. where, &c. made insurrection, and would have cut off the heads of all that were not their friends, and they took the plaintist, and carried him to the cross, and would have cut off his head, and the defendants came and laid their hands peaceably upon the plaintist, and carried him to the house of the mayor, and prayed him to keep him in his house all that night, in salvation of his life, by which he was there all the night, which is the same assault, battery, and imprisonment of which

[491]

which the action is brought; and said that he did not make any fine, &c. And the best opinion was, that it is a good plea without saying that the rebels were there watching all the night, so that they could not let the plaintiff at large sooner than they did; and a good plea, without traverfing absque boc that they imprisoned him till be made fine; for then he traverses that which he justified before, and also the imprisonment ought to be answered; for otherwise he shall recover damages for the one and for the other. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 3. cites 35 H. 6. 54.

3. Trespals of imprisonment; the defendant justified, because he bimself brought action of debt against the now plaintiff in the court of the Tower of London, and it was returned nihil, by which capias issued to the bailiff there to take the plaintiff, and the now defendant showed the plaintiff to the said officer, by which the officer took him by bis warrant, and returned cepi corpus, &c. which is the same imprisonment of which the plaintiff has brought his action; and the plea was challenged, because it is an imprisonment by the bailiff or officer who arrested him, but is no imprisonment by the defendant who shewed him to the officer; and so per Cur. it is no ples, unless be says further that he required the officer to arrest him by his warrant, by which he did it, and then this request, with the arrest by the officer, is a lawful imprisonment in him who required him; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 307. cites 4 E. 4. 36.

4. Imprisonment was justified, because the defendant was in com- Common faces pany of thieves, who had killed J. S. and the voice and fame was that in some cases be was guilty. The being in the company is traversable, but not the voice and fame; per Markham Ch. J. Br. Traverse per, &c. fication, as pl. 339. cites 7 E. 4. 20.—But see 11 E. 4. 4. 6. that the issue was taken upon the voice and fame; quod nota. Ibid.

may be a good justiappears by 2 H. 7. 5. 25 H. 8. 9.

7 E. 4. 20. But this is to be understood, if the cause for which he was taken be public, but not where the cause is private, as for taking a man's goods in a private manner, there he must show specially that the goods were found with him, and in his possession, and not to go by belief, and to give credence to every particular man, but he must shew some good and apparent cause to the court. Arg. Bulst. 149. and says so is 7 E. 4. 20. —— Ibid. 150. per Croke J. The difference is where an offence was committed, and suspicion withal, common same will excuse, but not where no such offence was committed, in case of Wale v. Smith.

5. In trespass the defendant justified the imprisonment of the plaintiff, because he assaulted J. N. to have robbed him, by which the desendant took him and put him in the stocks. The plaintiff said that de son tort demesne absque tali causa; and a good plea, and so to issue. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 39. cites 9 E. 4. 27.

6. Trespass of assault, battery, and imprisonment at E. the de- Br. Double, fendant said that a man was robbed by J. S. and R. such a day, who S. C. came to the house of the plaintiff, and the constable arrested the plaintiff, because he had suspicion of him, and because he would not obey him, be commanded the defendant to ashift him, by which the defendant put his hands upon him, which is the same battery; and after he went with the constable to D. in aid of him, and there delivered him to the gaoler, which is the fame imprisonment, &c. and a good plea; for it is as well the imprisonment of the defendant as of the constable, and is not double, viz. the power which every man has to arrest a felon, and the command of the constable; but it is not good unless the defendant shews suspicion in the plaintiff, as to say that be was a man of ill fame, or a vagrant doing no work; by which he pleaded so. Br. Trespass, pl. 335. cites 17 E. 4. 5.

leis

7. False imprisonment against an abbot, and commoign; the abbot said that W. S came to him such a day and year, and said that be was in doubt of his life by R. who intended to kill and destroy him, and prayed his advice and counsel, who counselled him to go to T. N. justice of peace for a warrant of the peace, by which he obtained a warrant, whereby the plaintist was arrested to the peace; and the officer said that if he would not find surety, that he would carry him before the justice of the peace. And the opinion of the whole Court was, that the plea amounts only to not guilty; for the desendant justifies no imprisonment, and his counsel was lawful. But per Rede, if he had said that be came in aid of the officer, &c. this had been a good plea; quod non negatur. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 17. cites 12 H. 7. 14.

8. In false imprisonment, it is no plea that diverse exen were stole, and because he suspected the plaintiff that he had stole 6 exen, he wrested him; for he ought to say precisely that the exen were stole; for otherwise he cannot arrest him. Per Fitzh. quod nemo negavit. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 1. cites 27 H. 8. 23.

o. In false imprisonment, where the defendant justifies for several causes, and some of them are found good, and others not, the desendant shall not be amerced for this falsity; for there was good cause for the arrest, and this is only a desence, and not by way of action, as an avowry is. Jenk. 184. pl. 77.

Fol. 560. (F. 2) Imprisonment. Justification. For what Causes it may be.

Br. False
Imprisoniment, pl.13.
eites S.C.—
Br. De son sort, &c. pl.
46. cites
5.C.

by the Scots, and carried out of the realm in the life of the father, and after the father dies, the lord may justify the taking the younger brother as his ward, till the eldest comes back into England, and he has conusance of it. 22 Ass. 85. admitted. It seems it is intended, that he had not conusance in his absence whether he was alive or dead.]

2. A man cannot justify the imprisonment of a villein by command of the lord, unless for rebellion or disobedience. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 40. cites 33 E. 3. and Fitzh. tit. Trespass, 253.

(F. a. 2) Trespass justifiable by Officers. [By Warrant.]

Cro. C. 394. [1. If there be the parish of D. and there is also a vill called S. pl. 6. S. C. which in truth is within the parish of D. but for a long time, and the that is to say, 60 years and more before the statute of 43 El. cap. • Court said, of the poor, and all times after has been reputed a parish by itself. But the

the church-wardens of the parish of D. conceiving that by force that it is not of the statute of 43 El. they had power to tax the inhabitants of S. to the poor of the parish of D. taxed them accordingly; and there- making an upon, for default of payment thereof, have a warrant from the justices of peace, according to the statute, directed to the churchwardens to levy it. Whereupon the church-wardens take a distress court, which of the inhabitants of S. who bring an action of trespals, and the church-wardens justify by force of the warrant of the justices. This is no good justification nor excuse of the trespass, though they contradict, do it by force of the warrant of the justices, and though (as was faid) they cannot dispute the authority of the justices, inasmuch as the church-wardens nor justices have any power to charge them, and so they ought to take conusance of the law at their peril. *Hill. 10 Car. B. R. between Nichols and Walker ad- peace have judged, upon a special verdict found at bar. Tr. 10 Car. but a parti-, Rot. 222.]

like to an officer's arrest by warrant out of the king's if it be errot, the office cer muk not because the Court has a general jurisdiction. But here the justices of . cular jurifdiction to

*[493]

by Sir John

Powell in his argument in the case of

GWINNE V. POOLE, 2

Lutw. in the

Appendix,

make warrant to relieve rates well affessed. _____Jo. 355. pl. 4. S. C. adjudged that trespals lay. ____ S. C. cited Arg. 4 Mod. 349. in the case of Crump v. Holford.

1 [2. If A. brings action against B. in an inferior court of record, in S.C. cited which C. is bail for B. and binds by recognizance his goods and lands, that B. shall render his body to prison if he be condemned, or that he shall pay the money recovered; and after judgment is given against B. and a precept is directed thereupon to the baily of the court in nature of a capias ad satisfaciendum, to take B. if he be found, and in his default to take C. And thereupon the baily returns, that because B. was not found, be took C. in execution; though by this 1563. recognizance C. does not bind his person, so that the capias does not lie against him; and though a capias does not lie at the same time against the principal and bail by a custom, (as was alleged) but a capias ought to be first against the principal, and after a fire facias against the bail; and though it was apparent in the precept to be against law, so that the bailiss might have taken notice of it, yet because the Court had jurisdiction of the cause, and he did it by force of the precept of the Court, it shall excuse him. Hill to Car. B. R. between SEABORNE AND SAVAKER, adjudged. Per Curiam upon demurrer. Intratur, Tr. 10 Car. Rot. 572.]

a bouse nor

cbeff, to

3. In bill of trespass it is not denied by the plaintiff, but that The therist the sheriff, by capias awarded upon indictment of trespass, may break cannot break the house, or the doors of his close, to serve the arrest. Br. Trespals, pl. 248. cites 27 Aff. 37. but see thereof 18 E. 4. 4.

make execution by sheri facias; per Cur. But he may take the goods or body for execution. Br. Trespais, pl. 390. cites 18 E. 4. 4.

4. What an officer does by colour of justice or office, is excusable, See Kelw. 66. b. pl. 8. 20 H. 7. Anon.

5. When a court bas jurisdiction of the cause, and proceeds in- As in tresverso ordine, or erroneously, no action lies against the party that pass the de-Ines, or against the minister of the court that executes the precept fied taking or process of the court. Resolved. 10 Rep. 76. Mich. 10 Jac. in of beasts in case of the Marshalfea.

execution, becau e he me beiliff of the monor of D. and J. S. recovered damages upon plaint against the plaintiff in the court-beron; and the defendant, by pret pt to him directed, made execution. The plaintiff faid, that J. B. fault against him plea of franktenement there by plaint, where none shall unswer of franktenement there, unless by writ, by which he demurred upon it; and yet the Court awarded damages against him for not desending, and the desendant took the heasts for the damages, where the judgment was corner must judice, and demanded judgment, and prayed damages, and by award he took nothing by his hill; for the officer shall not be grieved as here, for the judgment is not void; but shall have error or faise judgment; but shall not have affise; because the land lies within the jurisdiction of the Court, though they ought to have held the plea by writ. Br. Trespass, pl. 238. cites 22 Ass. 64.

So if the theriff arrefts a peer on a capias in debt out of C. B. he is exculable, because the Court has jurisdiction of the cause. To Rep. 76. B. in case of the Marshalfea.

Trespais against an officer, who justified by a process out of an inferior court; but because the custom was not pursued, judgment was against him. Hale Ch. J. took this difference: if an officer, for his excuse, justifies by process according to custom, out of an inferior court, though the custom be had, the officer shall be excused, and the judgment is not void, but voidable; but if the custom be not pursued, the officer shall not be excused; as if a custom be alleged in a court after a plaint levied to take out process, and he alleges that process was taken out, (but alleges no plaint levied,) he is a trespassor. From Rep. 356. pl. 449. Mich. 1673. Bennet v. Therne.

6. But when the court has not jurisdiction, all the proceeding is coram non judice, an action lies against them, without regard to precept or process. Resolved. 10 Rep. 76. in case of the Marseutrast, which was made out of the jurisdiction, or of land vobich lies out of the jurisdiction, and the plaintiff or demandant secovers, has execution, there trespais lies; for it was coram non judice. Contrary here, and so a diversity where the court may have jurisdiction of the thing by some means, and where it cannot have jurisdiction by any means. Br. Trespale, pl. 238. cites 22 Aff. 64.

But where a private act of parliament erected a court of conscience in B. for all matters under 40 s. and enected, that all judgments for such matters elsewhere should be merely wold; yet a judgment had in the town-court for a matter under 40 s. where this matter was not pleaded, is a justification of the officers for taking the defendant in execution. Carth. 274. Pasch. 5 W. & M. B. R. Prigg v. Adams.——2 Salk. 674. S. C. accordingly.——Skin. 350. 366. 407. S. C.

To if a just 7. If justice of peace makes a warrant to arrest one for felony, who tice of peace is not indicted, though the justice errs in the warrant of it, yet ferve in bis false imprisonment lies not against him who executes it. 10 Rep. warrant all 76. b. in case of the Marshalsea, cites 14 H. 8. 16. 2.

Bances profiribed by a flatute, yet if the conflable executes the warrant he is excused, as the flatute of Car. 2. appoints, that all send their horses and carts to work in the highways, (not having a reasonable excuse to the contrary.) If a complaint be made to a justice of peace, that such a man did not send his horses, &c. and he makes a warrant; but mentions nothing in the warrant of his having sent for the party to know his excuse, yet the officer shall not be questioned for executing it. Vent. 273. Trim. a7 Car. 2. B. R. Webb v. Batchilor.——Freem. Rep. 396. pl. 514. S. C. and the Court inclined, that the officer was not liable, by reason of any irregularity in the justice's proceedings, if it be a matter whereof he has jurisdiction.——Ibid. 407. pl. 533. S. C. and judgment per tot. Cur. for the defendant.——S. C. cited by Sir John Powell in his argument in the case of Gwynge v. Poole, 2 Latwares and says, that Lord Hale there said, that otherwise it would be making the constable more know-ing than the justice.

8. No action of trespass will lie against officers for taking goods or cattle by a replevin, unless he who has the possession claims property when the officers come to demand them, and they take them, notwithstanding such claim of property; and this special matter must come in by way of replication by the plaintist; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 38 r. Trin. 8 W. 3. B. R. in case of Hallet v. Byrt.

9. And so there is a difference between a replevin and other process, in respect to officers; for in replevin they are expressly commanded what to take in specie. But in writs of execution the words are general, viz. to levy of the goods of the party; and therefore it is at their peril if they take another man's goods; for in that case an action of trespass lies; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 381.

in case of Hallet v. Byrt.

. to. In trespass and false imprisonment for such a time, quousque 5 Mod. 295. the plaintiff paid 11s. The defendant justified under the statute 3 Jac. 1. cap. 15. for erecting a court of conscience in London; and that on such a day the Court did order, that he should be carried to the Counter, and imprisoned until he paid 7s. debt, and 2s. 6d. for costs, by virtue whereof the defendant, being an officer, took him and detained him 6 hours. And upon demurrer it was held, per Cur. that though the defendant did not answer the detaining, quousque the plaintiff paid 11s. yet the plea is well enough; for the imprisonment, and not the quousque, is the cause of action; but the quosque is only matter of aggravation. And if he had faid nothing to the money, the justification had been good; and if, after payment of the 9s. 6d. he had been detained, he ought to have replied it. But they held the plea ill, because the order wa, to carry the plaintiff to the Counter; and though he confesses be detained him 6 hours, he does not shew it was in the Counter, or in carrying him thither. And this differs from the case of a common arreft; for in such case the officer may make any place his is upon a prison, because the writ is ita quod habeas corpus ejus coram, &c. apud Westm', which is a general authority; but here it is a special authority to carry him * to the Counter. 1 Salk. 408. pl. 3. Hilary term, Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Swinsted v. Liddall.

S. C. and per Cur. this is a special zuthority given by act of parliament to this court of confeience. to commit, &c. but the officer is not to decain the person in custody till the money is paid to bion s for neither pe or the meriff should receive it, unless it fi' fa'. And afterwards in for this reafon, judgment was given for the plaintiff. Skin. 664. pl. 2. S. C. and Holt Ch. J. said if the plaintiff would take advantage, he ought to show that he paid the cs. 6d. and that the plaintiff detained Lim afterwards; otherwise the quousque is only in aggravation, and ought not to be answered; and though it should be a variance, yet the conclusion, quæ est eadem transgressio, aids it.—3 Salk. 219. pl. 6. S. C. by the name of Swinstead v. Smith, adjudged. And Holt faid, if the detainer had been after payment of the 93. 6d. it had been material; but then the plaintiff should have set it forth in a replication.

11. If there be no judgment, and a ca' sa' or other execution is taken out, the sheriff and all other persons acting under him in the execution are justifiable, though there be no judgment. But if a stranger of his own head interposes, who is not concerned, and he sets on the sheriff to do execution, he cannot justify this. Or suppose it be the plaintiff who sued out the writ, he must in his justification plead the judgment; for if there be no judgment he is a trespassor; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the Court. 12 Mod. 178. Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. in the case of Britton v. Cole, cites Ray. 73. Turner v. Felgate.

12. Where a judgment is illegally entered, and afterwards execution is sued out thereupon, and executed, the officers who execute it are excused, but the plaintisf is liable; for the officers are in no fault; they do but obey the process of the court. 2 L. P. R. 260.

tit. Office and Officer.

13. In trespass for taking goods, the defendant pleaded a plaint 12 Mod. in replevin in the sheriff's court in London, and that he was serjeant 396. Palch. at mace, and a precept came to him to replevy those goods, which he did S.C. And accordingly. The plaintiff demurred. And per tot. Cur. the says, that in plea is ill for want of shewing a return; for wherever a principal all capies's officer is to justify under a returnable process, he must show that dendum, or Vol. XX.

12 W. 3.

other mean process to theriff, if treiphis or falle im-Monment be brought against him for exacuting them, he

the writ was returned as he is commanded to do, and shall not be protected by it, unless he shews he paid a full obedience in acting under it; but any subordinate officer, as a bailiff, may. In this case the defendant is a principal officer; and this process, under which he justifies, was a returnable process; and judgment was entered for the plaintiff. Salk. 409, 410. pl. 5. Hill. 12 Will. 3. B. R. Freeman v. Blewit.

cannot justify without shewing a return. _____ 3 Salk. 220. pl. 8, S. C. says, that because the pluries replevin commands the sheriff to replevy the goods, vel clausum nobis fignifices, therefore he must return the writ, otherwise this inconvenience might happen, (viz.) that if the defendant should appear, and be nonfuit (for he is the first actor) the Court would be at a loss how to give judgment whether pro returno habendo, or a capias in withernam, or a mere nonsuit,—Ld. Raym. Rep. 632. S. C. 24judged accordingly.

> 14. An arrest of a criminal without a warrant cannot be made good by a warrant fubsequent. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. cap. 13. pl. 9.

Fol. 561. (F. a. 3) Trespass justifiable by those who are aiding Officers.

pl. 11. Girling's cafe. 6. C. adjudged for the defendant, hotit was objected that the Meriff

~ [496]

See pl. 1. BBOYE.

Cro. C. 446. [1.]F a latitat comes to a sheriff to take J. S. and the sheriff makes his warrant to certain bailiffs to arrest him, and the builiffs arrest him, and after the arrest J. D. upon the intresty of the bailiffs keep the prisoner in his custody till he is delivered by the sheriff; this is good matter of justification for J. D. in an action withstanding of false imprisonment brought against him by J.S. Hill. 11 Car. *B. R. between GIRLING AND ALLEN. Per Curiam adjudged upon a demutrer. Intratur, Tr. 11 Car. Rot. 539.] did not return the writ. ____ Jo. 378. pl. 8. S. C. adjudged.

> [2. If a ftranger after an arrest of a prisoner by bailists, apon a process of latitat, or capias, comes in aid of the bailists, and asfifts them to keep the prisoner in their custody, and this upon the command of the bailiffs, it is justifiable by the stranger in an action of false imprisonment. Hill. 11 Car. B. R. in the said case of Per Curiam.] GIRLING AND ALLEN.

3. Trespass of battery by J. the defendant said that J. wounded B. to death and one W. a constable of the ward came to attach bim, and be stood in defence, and he came in aid of the constable, and the il which he had, was de son tort demesne, &c. Judgment, &c. The plaintiff said that de son tort demesne, &c. Br. Trespals, pl. 110. cites 38 E. 3. 9.

4. Trespass against 2 of a horse taken, the one said that he is bailiff, and attached it by plaint entered by R. against the plaintiff, and the other said that he came in aid of the bailiff. Br. Trespass, pl. 402. cites 41 E. 3. 29.

5. Assault and battery by husband and wife against the defendant, a constable, and 2 others, who pleaded to all but the affault not guilty, and as to that, the defendant justified that the wife was prefented in the leet to be a common scold; whereupon the steward made a warrant to the constable to punish her according to law, and the defendants defendants went to the plaintiff's house to execute the warrant, and the wife assaulted the constable; wherefore he commanded the other defendants to lay hands upon her; and take her, which they did molliter. It was holden by the justices to be a good justification, although they neither show the day when the leet was holden, nor that the plaintiff's house was within the jurisdiction of the leet, nor the steward's warrant; for that these were all but inducements to the bar and justification, and the substance is the presentment and the command of the constable. Mo. 847. pl. 1147. Hill. 13 Jac. B. R. Curtere's anso teys's case.

defendant justifies by virtue of a replevin out of the sherist's court in London, and a precept thereupon to J. S. an officer, and defendant came in aid of him. Plaintist replies, that before the taking away the goods be claimed property in them, and gave notice thereof to the defendant. And the question, upon a special verdict, was, whether the taking away after claim of property, and notice thereof, did not make him a trespassor ab initio? And held per tot. Cur. that he was a trespassor ab initio; for though the claim ought to be to the sherist or officer, and that a claim to a person that comes in assistance, be not enough to the making the execution illegal, if the officer does not desist, yet if it be notified to him that comes in aid, that claim of property is made, he at his peril ought to desist. 6 Mod. 139, 140. Pasch. 3 Ann. in B. R. Leonard v. Stacy.

7. It is a good plea for a stranger, that he entered into a house in aid of a bailiff who had a writ of execution, and took the goods, and be need not say that he did it by command or desire of the bailiff; for every one not only may, but is by law, bound to assist officers in execution of justice. 10 Mod. 24. Trin. 10 Ann. B. R. Templeman v. Case.

(F. a. 4) Justification by Officers. Pleadings. [497]

TRESPASS. J. N. rid upon the horse of his master to C. and there one affirmed a plaint against the said J. N. and attached the same borse, by which the master of the servant brought trespass against the bailiffs, who attached the horse and recovered by award; for the desendant said the arrest was by others and not by him, and did not traverse the tort done by him, and so the plaintist recovered; for the officer is bound to know whose goods he attaches. Br. Trespass, pl. 99. cites 11 H. 4. 90.

2. The defendant justified to make execution upon the land as officer of the admiralty for the sum of 20 marks there adjudged to J. N. and the plaintiff said that de son tort demesses without such cause. Yelverton said this is no plea; for where a sheriff justifies by sieri sacias to him directed, &c. it is no plea that de son tort demesses without such cause, quod Newton & tota Curia concessit; but if the sheriff makes warrant to his servant, and he serves it, and justifies thereby, there de son tort demesse is a good plea against him; quod nota, diversity being matter of record and matter in fall, and immediate officer and other officer, and therefore as here be was compelled to answer to the cause, per Cur. quod nota. Br. De fon tort, &c. pl. 14. cites 19 H. 6. 7.

O o 2 him;

3. Trespass for beating and imprisoning his wife, &c. the defendant justified by warrant from the sheriff; the plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria absque tali causa. The plaintiff had a verdict, and it was moved for a repleader, because de injuria sua propria is not a plea to matter of record, but the plaintiff ought to have traversed the warrant; but adjudged good after a verdict. Raym. 50. Mich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Collins v. Walker.

4. In trespass the defendant, as bailiff, justifies by warrant on recovery in assumption in court baron, not shewing the cause thereof to arise within the jurisdiction of the court; for which cause the plaintist demurred, and per Cur. it is ill. 1 Keb. 840. pl. 26. Hill. 16 & 17

Car. 2. B. R. Hoyland v. Bacon.

one Wood, and the plaintiff would have rescued him, whereupon be did molliter manus imponere; the plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria, absque hoc that the desendant had taken him by virtue of such warrant as that by which the desendant justified; to which the desendant demurred. And per Curiam the justification is sufficient, and better by the admittance in the replication, than if the issue had been offered de injuria sua propria generally without such traverse; and judgment pro plaintist. 2 Keb. 293. pl. 77. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R.

Haywood v. Wood.

o. In trespass, the defendant justified by a judgment in ejectment, and an babere facias possessionem, and warrant thereon, by which he was commanded to put the plaintiff in ejectment in possession, by virtue whereof he entered into the house, &c. and took the goods and put them in the highway, and the plaintiff refusing to go out, he thereupon molliter manus imposuit to turn her out, and she de injuria sua propria assaulted him, by which he defended himself, absque had that he was guilty before the warrant or after return of the writ; the plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria, without any traverse, or without saying absque tali causa. Resolved upon demurrer that this replication was ill, because de injuria sua propria is no good issue in any case without the words absque tali causa; but in this case either the writ of possession or the warrant upon it ought to be traversed 2 Lutw. 1381. Pasch. 4 Jac. 2. Rodoway v. Lowder.

[498]

7. Trespass for entering her house and taking her goods; the defendant justified by virtue of a sieri facias against the goods of one Dunn, and a warrant thereon, by which he entered the house and took the goods aforesaid. And upon demurrer the plaintist had judgment, because the plaintist counted of the goods taken as of his own goods, and the defendant did not aver that the goods which he took were the goods of Dunn; and if he had made such an averment, yet he should have alleged that they came there by the tort of the plaintist, or some other matter by which he might justify the entering the bouse of the plaintist to take them. 2 Lutw. 1385. Trin. 4 Jac. 2. Gardner v. Peyton and Chapman.

· 8. Where

8. Where an action is brought against an efficer, or his assistant, for executing of a capias ad satisfaciendum, be need not set forth the judgment but only the writ and warrant; because he is an officer of the court to execute the process of the court; and if the process be erroneous, or there is no judgment to ground the process upon, yet the officer shall not suffer, for he doth but his duty to obey the court, who will protect him. But if the action he brought against the plaintiff in the execution, he must plead bis judgment. 5 W. & M. B. R. 2 L. P. R. 259. tit. Office and Officer.

9. Trespass quare clausum fregit & averia cepit & asportavit, the defendant came and justified, and pleaded a by-law, &c. and that he, as bailiff, took the beafts as a diffress for breach of the bylaw by the plaintiff; and upon prolix pleadings, which were drawn up on the precedent of Tintener's case in 1 Cr. and March, the plaintiff demurred, and many exceptions were taken, but in the resolution of the Court, Holt Ch. J. said that the pleadings are ill, because that the defendant had not shewn a precept to make the distress; for he could not do it ex officio no more than a theriff might execute a judgment of B. R. without a writ, and the command in this case is traversable; for this is the difference between a justification in trespass, and an avorury in replevin, that the justification there is in the right, and therefore not traversable. But in trespass it is only by way of excuse; also in trespass it is sufficient to say, presentatum existit, but in avowry he ought to shew the thing was done, as well as presentatum existit. Skin. 587. Mich. 7 W. 3. B, R. Lamb v. Mills.

10. Trespass against the officers will not lie for taking goods, &c. by virtue of a replevin, unless he that has possession claims a property when the officers come to demand them, and they take them notwithstanding such claim; and this special matter must come in by way of replication by the plaintiff; and so there is a difference between a replevin and other process of law, with respect to the officers; for in the first case, (viz.) in replevin, they are expressly commanded what to take in specie, but in writs of execution, the words are general, (viz. to levy of the goods of the party, and therefore it is at their peril if they take another man's goods, for in that case an action of trespass will lie. Per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 381, Trin. 8 W. 3. B. R. in case of Hallet v. Burt.

(G. a) Trespass ab Initio. What A& shall make a [499] Man [Officer or other] Trespassor ab Initio.

[1.] F a man enters into a house by authority of law, and abuses The case that authority, he is a trespassor ab initio for the first entry; for it shall be intended that his first entry was to this purpose. Co. 8. The six Carpenters, 146.b. 11 H. 4. 75.b.]

was, that the fix carpenters went to a tavern, and drank a equart of wine which they called for, but went out again and refused to pay for the wine. 8 Rep. 146. The non-payment did not make the carpenters trespassors; for that was a non-feusance, and no nonseasance shall ever make a man a trespessor ab initio; per Coke Ch. J., Roll. Rep. 130 .-- Nonfeafance cannot make the party that has authority or licence by law to be trespulsor ab initio. 8 Rep. 146. Alich, 8 Jaco The Carpenters case.

If a man diffrain corn in sheaves, and threspes it, or comes to a towern, and steels a hamper, in these cases they are trespessors ab initio, and the very entry is punishable, which at first by the ticence in last was good. Otherwise it is of a licence in fast, as Yelv. J. says; for this excuses the entry though tortious act ensues, and the party shall be punished only for this in which the act is tortious, and for nothing more. Yelv. 98. Hill. 4 Jac. B. R. Bagshaw v. Gaward.

If the law gives a man a liberty to a certain intent, and he uses this liberty to another intent, or misuses it, he shall be a traspassor from the beginning, if not that it be in special cases. Perk. & 190.

The difference is between a licence in fact, and a licence in law. Perk. f. 191.

†Br. Tres- [2. As if lessor enters into the house to see if waste be done, and pass, pl. 97. there stays all night, he is a trespassor ab initio. † 11 H. 4. cites S. C. 75. b.]

Replication, pl. 12. cites S. C.——Fitzh. tit. Trespass, pl. 176. cites S. C.——S. P. Br. Licence, pl. 17. cites 21 E. 4. 75.——So if he enters to see waste, and breaks the hedge. Yelv. 96. Bagshaw v. Gaward.

8 Rep. 146. [3. If the purveyer of the king takes my beafts, as for the housb. cites 18 hold of the king, and after fells them in a market, he is a trespassor H. 6. 19. b. ab initio. 18 H. 6. 9. b.] printed, and should be as in Roll. 18 H. 6. 9. b.]

Lane, 90.

[4. If a fearcher searches certain fuffs, and unpacks them, and s. C. Infra, lays them in the dirt, by which they are impaired though the search was lawful, yet this abuser of this authority in law will make him a trespassor ab initio. M. 8 Ja. in the Exchequer. Gibson's case, per Cariam.]

1 Br. Tref. [5. If a man comes to a tavern, and will be there all the night, the pass, pl. 97. taverner is not bound to watch with him, nor wait upon him all the night; and therefore if he prays him to go out, and he will not, but continues there all the night, he is a trespassor ab initio. ‡ 11 drank, he H. 4. 75. b.]

So if he breaks open a hamper, or firites a forwant of the house. Br. Replication, pl. 12. cites S. C.

[6. If a constable takes my goods in his vill, being waived by a felon who robbed me of them, and keeps them to the use of the owner; so that his first act was lawful, though he refuses to deliver them to me on demand, he is not a trespassor ab initio. Tr. 4 Ja. B. R. between Walgrave and Skegnes.]

So If I ten der sufficient amends before the diftress, the littress is

[7. If a man takes my sheep damage feasant, and I tender him sufficient amends beamends betress, the diffress is

[7. If a man takes my sheep damage feasant, and I tender him sufficient amends beamends betress, the
diffress is

cortious. 8 Rep. 147. in the 6 CARPENTERS case, and says that with this agrees 7 E. 3. 8. in the Master of ST. MARK's case; and that so is the opinion of Hull in 13 H. 4. 17. b. is to be underfood, which opinion is not well abridged in tit. Trespass, 180.

If the lord [8. So if he, who has distrained, detains the beasts after amends or bis bailiff tendered before the impounding, he is a trespassor ab initio, 45 E. 3. train, and 9. b. Contra, Co. 8. SIX CARPENTER. 147.]

before the

diffress the senant upon the land tenders the arrears, a distress taken for it is tortions. 8 Rep. 147.

But if after the distress, and before impounding, it makes the detainer, and not the taking tortious; if after impounding, it makes neither the one nor the other tortious. 8 Rep. 147.

[9. If

. [9. If a serjeant of London arrests J. S. at the suit of J. D. upon a plaint entered in the Counter, upon which arrest J. S. tenders bail to the serjeant, and prays him to go to the court of the Counter to accept the bail, and the serjeant resuses it, yet action of false imprisonment vi & armis does not lie, but he is put to his action upon the case; pl. 7. S. C. for this does not make him a trespassor ab initio, the caption being by lawful process. Tr. 6 Car. between * Salmon + and Per-CIVAL. Adjudged B. R. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. between Feverell AND BRIDGER. Adjudged per Curiam in arrest of judgment, in cordinally. case of a bailiss of another county. Intratur, Tr. 24 Car. Rot. where the issue was upon the refusal; and the court held that it BEALY v. was t not the office of the bailiff to take bail, but of the sheriff or un- Sameson, der-theriff.]

pl. 2. S. C. adjudged ascordingly.--Crd. C. 196.

† Fol. 562. adjudged ac-2 Vent. 96. in cale of Ventris J. faid that if the sheriff upon melne process resuses bai', this does not make him a trespessor ab initio, though he is liable to an action upon the case; and cited the case of Salmon v. Percival.—So if the therist detains a man taken upon mesne process after a supersedeas; per Ventrie J. 2 Vent. 96. cites Cro. E. 494. Stringer v. Stanlack, and Cro. J. 379. Withers v. Henley.

I S. P. Agreed by all. Cro. C. 196. in the case of Salmon v. Percival.

[10. [So] if a copias for the good behaviour be directed to the sheriff by the justices of assis, and thereupon the sheriff makes a warrant to J. S. to take him, who takes him accordingly, and the party tenders to J. S. sufficient bail for his appearance, and J. S. refuses it, and keeps him in prison after, yet this does not make him a trespassor ab initio; for it was || not the office of the bailist to take || See pl. 9.2 bail, but the sheriff himself ought to do it. P. 10 Car. B. R. between Adams and Bailie, per Curiam, this being moved in arrest of judgment. Intratur, H. 9 Car. Rot. 109.]

[11. If the lord of a manor that ought to have all estrays there, Cro. J. 147. takes an estray, and within the year works it, he shall be a trespassor ab pl. 6. Baginitio, because it is not lawful, and he comes to the custody of him Goward, by the law. H. 4 Ja. B. R. between Bagshaw and Gallard, adjudged upon demurrer.]

S. C. adjudged 20cordingly,---

Yelv. 96. S. C. — Noy, 119. S. C. resolved accordingly.

[12. If the lord of a fair has used to have toll upon every sale, and for non-payment of the toll the lord feifes one of the beafis fo fold, damage feaand works it, this makes him a trespassion ab initio. Mich. 13 Ja. sont, and Per Hubard.]

ira maa takes fleaves after thresher them, by this he is a trespassor; and if he distrains cows, and after milks them, or a horse, and after rides upon it, he 18,2 trespallor. Br. Trespass, pl. 392. cites 22 E. 4. 47. --- Br. Licence, pl. 17. cites 22 E. 4. 47. Abuser of diferes lawfully taken makes it a trespass ab initio. 1 Salk. 281. pl. 1. Hill. 2 W. & M. C. B. Gargrave v. Smith. _____ S. P. by Ventris J. 2 Vent. 96. in case of Bealy v. Sampson.

[13. If the custom of a vill be, that the bailiffs of the will shall bave 2d. for every bide of every sheep, cow, or ox which is killed within the said vill, and for non-payment of it to seise the hides, &c. and after the bailiffs do take certain bides for non-payment, &c. and tan them, and convert them into leather; by this they are trespassors ab initio; for though they do it for necessity, because otherwise the hides would putrify, yet this will not excuse them, inasmuch as the damage by the putrifying will be only to the owner, 004

[501] Cro. B. 783. pl. 21. $. C. acturged for the plaintiff accordingly for by the tanning the property is quali altered, and not to them; for they may have action of debt for the marks to know them 2d. M. 42, 43 El. B. R. between Duncon and Reeve adby are taken judged.] sezy from the owner. so as he cannot have them again. But, per Popham, in some cases one may modele with and use a diffress, where it is for the owner's benefit; as where one diffrains armour he may have it scoured, to . avoid ruft; so if one distrains raw c'oth he may have it fulled, because it is for the owner's benefit; but this tanning is a means of taking away the thing Itself.

Crack 446. pl. 17. GIRLING'S CASE, S.C. adjudged accordingly, -Jo, 378. pl. judged accordingly.

[14. If upon a latitat a warrant be made by the sheriff to certain special bailiffs, to take the body of the party mentioned in the writ, and they by force thereof take him, and J. S. a stranger comes in their aid, and by their command, and after the sheriff does not make any return of the writ, yet no action lies against J. S. who 28. S. C. ed. comes in aid of the bailiss, because his act was lawful, and the default of the sheriff in not returning the writ shall not put him to prejudice, and make him a trespassor ab initio. Hill 11 Car. B. R. between GIRLING AND ALLEN adjudged upon demurrer, that no false imprisonment lies against J.S. who came in aid, for the cause aforesaid. Intratur Tr. 11 Car. Rot. 539.]

[15. But [and] if a sheriff takes J. S. upon a latitat, or other capias in process at my suit, and by my shewing, and does not return the writ, a false imprisonment does not lie against me, because I have not done any wrong. nor is it my default in not returning the writ, nor was I the servant of the sheriff in delivery of the writ, and shewing of the party to the sheriff. Contra

8 E. 4. 17. b. by Moyle.]

16. If a sheriff, upon a fieri facias to him directed against J. S. Cro. E. 181. makes a warrant to J. S. [R. S.] to execute the writ, and he does it Pl. 16. S. C. accordingly, and after the sheriff makes a false return, (scilicet, that adjudged accordingly. the writ came tarde to him, & which he himself is trespassor Mo. 352. ab initio, yet this false return shall not make the bailist the tres-PI- 473-Mosse v. passor, inasmnch as it was legally done by him; and by this exe-PACRE, cution by the bailiff the party, against whom it was executed, is S. C. but discharged. M. 31, 32 El. B. R. between PARKS, plaintiff, and S. P. does not appear. Mosse and How, defendants. Per Curiam. But adjudged H. . -Lc. 144. pl. 20. S.C. 32 El.] adjudged accordingly.

Though by the abusing Or licence in folio, a man thall not be

[17. If J. S. be a fearcher of stuffs, and certain strangers come to Fol. 563. the others as servants to the said J. S. to search and unpack the suffs, and put it into the dirt, by which it is much impaired, though the strangers did it without the precedent appointment or agreement an authority of J.S. yet if J.S. after approves the seisure, without any assent to the abuser, yet he shall be a trespassor ab initio. M. 8 Ja. in the Exchequer. Gibson's case. Per Curiam.]

trespessor ab initio, but an action on the case lieth; yet for misuting an authority in low, trespass lieth ab initio. Lane, 90. Gibson's case. ——S. C. supra, pl. 4.

[18. If a capies be directed out of an inferior court to the officer of the court, to take J. S. and he takes bim accordingly, and does not return the process, he is a trespassor ab initio, because it is his [502] own default, inasmuch as he himself is the officer who ought to retura return it, and is as theriff within this jurisdiction. Mich. 15 Car. B. R. between Kirke and Atkins. Per Curiam adjudged upon demurrer, upon an imprisonment in the honour of Peverell. Intratur, Tr. 14 Car. Rot. 51.]

[19.] [8. If a capius in process issues against J. S. and the shoriff takes bim, and after returns non est inventus, he is trespassor ab initio, and false imprisonment lies against him. 8 E. 4. 18. 11 H.

4. 58.]

[20.] [9. So if the theriff does not make any return upon the faid The diverwrit, false imprisonment lies against him; for he is trespassor ab tween capies initio; fot the writ is ita quod habeas corpus ejus at the day of the in process, return bic in curia. 16 H. 7. 14. 3 H. 7. 3. b. 8 E. 4. 17. b. and capies 9 E. 4. 3. 21 H. 6. 5. 18 E. 4. 9. b. Co. 5. Hoe, 90. 2 H. 6. 26] at latterafor if the capias in process be not returned, the arrest is tortious; because there the intent of the arrest is, that the party shall appear and answer the plaintisf. But in all other writs of execution, which are made by the theriff alone, if the execution be duly made, it is good, though the writ be not returned; unless in case of elegit, where the extent is made by an inquest, and not by the sheriff alone, it is other-

5 Rep. 90. Trin. 42 Elis. in the Exchequer, Hoe's case. ——And Ibid. 90. b. in a note of the reporter, it is faid, that where the words of the writ of fi. fa. are its quod habeas denatios, &cc. those are only words of commandment to the theriff to make return; the which if he does not do he thall be amerced, but yet the execution shall stand in force. — Lane, 52. Trin. 7 Jac. in the Exchequer, in the 'safe of Doillie v. Joiliss. S. C. cited, and same diversity taken.

[21.] [10. Upon a capias in process, if the sberiff makes his war- *Kelwrent to the bailiff of a franchise to execute it, who does it accordingly, and makes return of the body and warrant accordingly to the sheriff, and the sheriff after does not return the writ, yet this shall not make the bailiff a trespassor ab initio, because he has done his duty, and no default in him, and he is the officer of the franchise, and not of the Theriff. 8 E. 4. 17. b. *21 H. 7. 23.]

[22.] [11. [So] if a capias in process be awarded to the sherist, and he makes his warrant to a bailiff errant, who is sworn, and a known bany within the same county, to take him, and he does it accordingly; if the sheriff after does not return the writ, this has no makes him a trespassor ab initio, because he is but the sheriff's fervant, and therefore ought to be subject to the tort done to the feriff to party, as his master is. 20 H. 7. 13. + 21 H. 7. 22. M. 14 Car. B. R. between How and Stockenham adjudged. Intratur, P. 14 Car. Rot. 412. upon demurrer.]

The bailiff is but the theriff's fervant, and means to make the return the writ, and the arrest made by the bailiff was legal, and shall not be made idegal by the sherist's act in not returning the writ. See Cro. C. 447. Oirling's case. Jo. 378. S. C. — Per Powell J. upon a mesne process the bailist who acts by a warrant from the eriff is not liable in trespass, if the sheriff does not return the writ. 2 Vent. 95. † Kelw. 86. b.

[23.] [12. But in the said case, if the bailiff errant returns the body and warrant to the sheriff, though the sheriff does not return the writ, yet he is excused. 20 H. 7. 13. b. by Read, and 21 H. 7. 22.]

[24.] [13. [So] if the sheriff upon such process makes special Cra C. 445. bailiffs, and they take the party, and the sheriff does not return the Pl. 11. writ, though there be not any default of the bailiffs, yet they are trespassors ab initio, because they are but servants to the sheriff, adjudged, and by his appointment. Contra H. 11 Car. between GIRLING that the bai-AND ALLEN. Per Curiam.]

GIRLING'S CASE, S. C. little are nos trespassors ab initio. _____Jo. 378. S. C. adjudged accordingly. ____See pl. [22]. 11. Marg.

[25.] [14.

5. P. Br. Licence, pl.

37. cites 21

E. 4. 75.

[25.] [14. If a man makes his executors and dies, and after the executors find, amongst other goods of their testator, an obligation, by which their testator was bound to J. D. and they thinking that the obligation was discharged, because the day of payment was past, break the seal; they are trespassors ab initio, though they come lawfully to it, scilicet, by trover. Hill. 11 Ja. B. between Higginbottom and Stoddard adjudged.]

26. If a man may justify the taking at one time, it cannot be tortious after without special matter, as misdemeanor after, as it seems.

Br. Trespass, pl. 311. cites 7 E. 4. 3.

27. The defendant justified by prescription for 10 load of wood overy year to burn, and 10 load to repair pales between Michaelmas and Christmas, absque hoc that he is guilty before Michaelmas, and after Christmas; and the other said that he cut the day in the declaration, absque hoc that the defendant and his ancestors, &c. and traversed the prescription, and if he expends it on other purposes than in burning or repairing pales, trespass lies; quod nota the misdemeanor after makes trespass to lie. Br. Trespass, pl. 318. cites 10 E. 4. 2.

28. If the lord comes upon the tenancy, and takes and chases away a beast, and impounds it, the taking shall be deemed as for a distress; but if he * kills the beast, this subsequent act is a declaration of his intention ab initio, and will make him a trespassor. 9 Rep. 11. 2. per Cur. in Dowman's case, says with this accords

12 E. 4. 8. b. 28 H. 6. 5.

29. If there be lord, mesne, tenant, and the lord distrains the beasts of the tenant for rents, &c. paid by mesne, if the lord will not suffer the mesne to take the beasts of the tenant out of the pound, he is a trespassor ab initio. 9 Rep. 22. b. in B.R. in the case of avowry, cites 13 E. 4. 6. a. b.

30. If one takes a diftress damage-feasant, and drives it into another diffress so taken, or taken for And. 65. pl. 139. Mich. 23 & 24 Eliz. Pleadall v. Knap.

a rent service, be misused. But quære is a differels be taken for a rent-charge, and be misused. Perk. 1. 191.

31. Detainer in his house of one who comes there voluntarily is a caption; per Coke Ch. J. and Croke J. Roll. Rep. 241. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R. in case of Withers v. Henley.

32. If the sheriff has not any writ, and makes a warrant to J. D. to arrest J. S. an action lies for J. S. against J. D. for this arrest, and against the sheriff likewise; per Jones J. Jo. 379. pl. 9. Hill.

9 Car. B. R. in Girling's case.

33. Action of battery against a constable, who had made a search in the plaintiff's house for stolen goods, by virtue of a justice of peace bis warrant, to search in all suspicious places; and upon the evidence it appeared the defendant in this search did pull the cleathe from off a woman's bed, then in her bed, to search under ber smock; and this was holden to be a misdemeanor in the constable, and all with him, and did make all their proceedings in this place illegal from the beginning. Summer Assies, 1636. Coram Barkley J. Clayt. 44. pl. 76. Ward's case.

34. If

34. If one imprisoned be detained by the gaoler for not paying unreasonable sees, it seems that this does not make it a false imprisoument ab initio. Skin. 50. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Elliot v. Beley.

35. In battery and imprisonment the defendant justified by attachment out of Chancery, that the sheriff after delivery of the writ to him made his warrant to him 27 May, by which he took the plaintiff the same day, and traversed all time before the warrant or after the return of the writ. The plaintiff maintained his declaration, and traversed that the writ was delivered to the shetiff before the battery and imprisonment. The defendant rejoined that before return of the writ he was delivered to the sheriff, viz. on the faid 27 May, and that before the arrest he had no notice [504] of its not being delivered to the theriff. The plaintiff fur-rejoined, that before the arrest the writ was not delivered to the sheriss. The defendant rebutted as before, that he had no notice, &c. at de hoc ponit se, &c. Upon demurrer, judgment was given for the defendant; for 1, It is not material whether the writ be delivered to the sheriff before the warrant and arrest or not, so long as in rei veritate there is a writ which warrants the whole. being a writ and a warrant thereupon, the bailiff shall not be charged for the executing it; for he was neither privy nor had notice of the time of its delivery to the sheriff, and he has tendered an issue of notice, which the plaintiff has refused to accept. 3 Lev. 93. Mich. 34 Car. 2. C. B. Osborne v. Brookhouse.

36. A fieri facias was awarded against T. tested 27 April, and 3 Mod. 236. afterwards, viz. the 28th of April, he became a bankrupt, and the 29th of April the sheriff took the goods by virtue of the sieri facias; S. P. does afterwards an extent issued out of the Exchequer, whereby the goods not appear. are taken out of the sheriff's hands; after which the commissioners of bankruptcy make an assignment to the creditors, and the assignee 2 W. & M. brings trespass against the officers, who took the goods by virtue of the extent. The Court were of opinion, that a construction should not be made to make the officer a trespassor by relation; for the judgment in taking was lawful at the time, and Baily and Bunning's case in Siderfin was agreed per Holt and Dolben; judgment for the defendant nisi. Comb. 123. Trin. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Leech- otherwise mere v. Thorowgood.

12. Pasch. 1 W. & M. in B. R. the S. C. And the Court was clear that trespass lay not against th pefficers, though trover would against the party. And judgment for the defendant.

37. Where it is apparent to the officer, that the cause of action profe out of the jurisdiction, he is a trespassor by executing it: otherwise where it is not apparent. I Salk. 202. pl. 5. B. R. Lucking v. Denning.

Trin. 4 Jac. 2. S.C. bot -2 Vent. 169. Pasch. in C. B. the S. C. and mentions the B. R. but the S. P. does not appear there. ---Show.

(H. a) Trespass. Justification by Officers. Process. Fol. 564. Execution. What Things done in Execution of Process may be justified.

> 1. If the sheriff arrest J. S. upon a latitat, and he escapes, the sheriff cannot enter into the bouse of J. D. and there break a chest of J. N. after demand of the keys, to seek his prisoner there, upon information that he was fled into the said honse: but he ought to take it upon him that he was in the cheft; for otherwise the sheriff upon fuch pretences may fearch the houses of all men within the county. P. 1 Car. between Bennet and Gray adjudged, the declaration being that he was informed that he was in the said house, &c. This is entered Mich. 22 Ja. B. R. Rot. 155.]

> 2. Trespass of goods taken, &c. the defendant justified as officer, because A. recovered against W. N. 101. at B. in a fair in the court of piepowders, and he did the execution, and fold the goods, and delivered the money in execution, and admitted for a good plea.

Br. Trespass, pl. 244. cites 22 Ass. 90.

3. If recovery in affife is had in ancient demesne of land and dame-+ S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. ges after a fine thereof levied at common law, so that the land is made 403. cites frank-free, yet the + officer who ferved the execution for the damages S. C. For it * recovered in the affife, shall not be blamed, nor the lord who held the is actus cu-M&.--plea, though the recovery be coram non judice; for they are not Br. Execubound to take conusance of the fine; quod nota. Br. Office & tien, pl. 26. cites S. C. Off. pl. 6. cites 7 H. 4. 27. ----Br.

Gage Deliverance, pl. 3. cites S.C.

[505] Br. Execution, pl. 26. cites S. C. accordingly, epiniov of 4 H. 6. 17.

4. In replevin of taking beafts, it is a good justification that A. recovered certain land and damages in ancient demesne, and that be is bailiff, and by precept directed to him he made execution, viz. he fold contra to the the beafts and delivered the money to the plaintiff in execution. And a good justification; for a justification is to excuse the defendant of tort only, and not to have return of the beafts; but avowry or conusance is to have return quod nota diversitatem. And so see that it is admitted that bailiff in ancient demesne may sell the beasts to levy a fum to make execution; contra it was said in other court baron, which is not ancient demesne. Br. Justification, pl. 13. cites 7 H. 4. 27.

5. In trespass the defendant justified by shewing the land to the sheriff to make there the view to the demandant in a writ of formedon brought by this defendant against this now plaintiff; and the plaintiff said that de son tort demesne absque tali causa, and the defendant said that such cause, prist, &c. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 26. cites 10 H. 6. 8. and Fitzh. tit Issue, 60. Brooke adds nota, that it was of a house; and he said that he found the doors open and entered and made the view.

6. If in pracipe quod reddat the court awards a cape by which the Br. Juftification, pl. 1. sheriff arrests the tenant; he shall not have false imprisonment eites S. C. though though they amend the process after into grand cape; for the act of the court shall not prejudice the party who ought to be obedient to the commands of the Court. Br. Conspiracy, pl. 1. cites 20 H. G. 5.

7. Trespass quare clausum fregit, &c. the defendant justified be- For land cause the plaintiff was amerced in the court baron of J. S. &c. and he which lies by command of the Court entered, finding the house and the close open, inclosure, is and took for diffress. And a good plea, without saying how the close inclosed Br. Trespass, pl. 439. cites 16 H. 7. 14. was inclosed or open. so interest there; and his writ shall say clausum fregit, and the precept in the court baron is good by parol.

Open without against every one aubo bas

8. Tresp. (s for breaking his bouse; the defendant justifies his enery virtute warranti of the sheriff upon a fieri facias to levy such a debt de bonis Excatallis que fuerunt Philippi Biscop testatoris ; tempore mortis in manibus Lucretie Biscop his executrix; and says, that the executrix was in the plaintiff's house cum bonis suis, and for that the door flood open, be entered to levy that debt, &c. And it was thereupon demurred and adjudged to be an ill bar; because he does not allege that bona testatoris were in the house, but bona propria executricis, which were not liable to execution; but if bona testatoris had been there, it was conceived that the entry had been justifiable. Wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 759. pl. 30. Pasch. 42 Eliz. in C. B. Bishop v. White.

Br. Trespass, pl. 439. cites 16 H. 7. 14.

9. By the common law no house can be broken by the king's officer at the suit of a common person (but otherwise at the suit of the king.) But by the statute of 21 Jac. of bankrupts, commissioners may break the house of the other for debt of the debtor; and if bankrupts convey their goods to a neighbour's house, the commissioners cannot, but the sheriff may, break the house, because he is a sworn officer of the king. The commissioners may break the booth or ship of the other to come at the bankrupt's goods. Per Mr. Barchdale Lecturer of Lincoln's-inn in Lent 1627. D. 36. b. Marg. pl. 41.

10. Sheriff on a fieri facias may break the door of a barn, without request, to take goods in execution, unless the barn is adjoining and parcel of the bouse. Sid. 186. pl. 11. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Penton v. Brown.

11. If there be a diffeisor of a manor, and a recovery in that court [506] baron, the officer may well justify executing the process; for he that is in possession is dominus pro tempore. Freem. Rep. 404. pl 207. Mich. 1675. Ward v. Bent,

(H. a. 2) Trespass justifiable. [Entry into Land or House.

[1.] F a man seised of land in fee has certain loads of timber upon the land and dies, his executor may justify the entry into the land to take the timber. 9 H. 6. 11.]

, [2. So if the executor fells it to another, the vender may justify the entry into the land to take the timber. 9 H. 6. 11.]

[3. If

2 Roll. Rep.

55. S.C. accordingly.—

S. C. cited

accordingly.

2Lutw.1311.

Nozks. ---

Baldwin v.

my borfe,

and carry him to the land of B.

it is not and take lawful for me to enter into the land him. But cafe; quod fuit concetIg. If a man has a pifcary in enother's feil, he may justify the seas

ting the pales in the fail, or doing other thing. 20 H. 6. 4.]

[4. If certain persons unknown, in a felonious manner, come into my garden, and eradicate and pull up certain apple and pear trees, and carry them away into the bouse of J. S. and the common wice being that the said trees are in the bouse of J. S. yet I cannot justify and adjudged my entry into the said house to take the said trees, inasmuch as the stealing those trees being annexed to the franktenement, was not felong, but only a trefpass; and so the case is no other; but that So if A. take if the trees had been taken by a trespassor and put into the said house, then it had not been lawful for me to take them without being a trespassor by my entry. Mich. 16 Ja. B. R. between Hig-GINS AND ANDREWS, adjudged upon a demurrer.]

[5. But otherwise it had been, if the stealing of the thing bod been felony, and I had upon fresh suit taken it in hie house, this had been justissable in a trespass against me.. Mich. 16 Ja. B. R. in the said case of Higgins and Andrews, per Curiam agreed.]

if A. felonioufly freals my borfe, and carries bise into B.'s land, then I may justify my entry into the land, and techne him. 2 Roll. Rep. 55. Higgins v. Andrews. - If A. will carry my borse into his stable, I may justify my entry into his stable to retake him. But in the case above, the trees were carried away by a Branger. Per Doderidge J. S. C. 2 Roll. Rep. 56. cites 21 H. 6. 30. ____ If A. takes wrongfully the goods of another; and carries them into A.'s own lead, the owner may take them thence : but not out of the land of a stranger. But in no case a man can enter within my door to take his goods. Per Chamberlain J. 2 Roll. R. 208. in case of Masters v. Poolie. ——Because every man's house is his caffle, into which another cannot enter without special licence. Godb. 283. pl. 403. Mich. 28 Jec. B. R. in Pollye's case.

> 6. Trespass by a chaplain of a chamber broken, and gold rings taken and carried into London; the defendant said, that in London is a custom used, time out of mind, that when a chaplain has a seme in his chamber, of whom a man has an ill suspicion, that man shall come to the constable of the ward, or to the beadle, and enter the chamber and search; and that he was related to such a feme, and delivered the same rings to the seme, who brought them to the chamber of the chaplain, and there the faid chaplain detained the feme and the goods by a great time, by which he and the beadle entered the chamber and fearthed and found the goods, and carried them away, as lawfully be might, judgment, if action of the goods or breaking the chamber ought he to have; and because the plaintiff by possession of the goods for the time had property, therefore it was held a good plea to the goods, and to the breaking; quod nota, that this is colour in itself. Br. Trespass, pl. 74. cites 2 H. 4. 12.

7. If a vicar has offerings at my house or chapel, he cannot by co-[507] lour thereof break my house or chapel to take them out, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 77. cites 2 H. 4. 24.

8. In trespass, the defendant said that the plaintiff distrained bis beafts, and he sued a replevin, and come with the sheriff to shew bim the beasts, which is the same trespass, &c. Judgment si actio, and the desendant imparled. Br. Trespass, pl. 11. cites 3 H. 6. 37.

9. In trespass the defendant justified, because J. S. was seised, *S.C. and P. cited 11 and devised it to the plaintiff for life, and that the defendant should sell Rep. 52. a. in Livord's . the reversion, &c. and that he found the door open, and entered to see if there was any waste, and to see the * value of the bouse to sell it, and a good plea; and it is there granted that such catty is lawful sum per tot. to see if waste be done, but he cannot break the door nor windows to enter. Per quod the plaintiff replied that he broke the door and windows, and the other e contra. Br. Trespass, pl. 26. bridge, he cites 9 H. 6. 29.

and

Cur. 50 if 4 manis bound to repair q 🕶 may come upon the land of any one that adjoins to the bridge to repair the bridge, and this without licenee of them. Br. Trespass, pl. 260. cites 43 Ast. 37. per Knivet Ch. J.

10. In trespais for breaking bis close and bunting, desendant pleaded Br. Justificanot guilty to the hunting; and to the breaking he fuid that a variance was between him and the plaintiff for a gorce, and he faw him hunting in his park, and entered by the gate, which was open, so shew him his evidence to the gorce, which is the same breaking, &c. and a good justification by all the justices; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 23. cites 20 H. 6. 37.

11. If trees are blown down by the wind, it is no trespass to en- But if a man ter the land into which they are blown down to take them. Lat. 13. Per Crew Ch. J. in case of Millen v. Hawery, cites 6 E. 4. 7.

cuts trees it his own land, which fall into anosber man's land, and goes and he takes them, trespass lies; per Crew Ch. J. Lat. 13. cites 6 E. 4. 7.

12. If a man takes my goods, and puts them upon his land, I may S. P. Per enter and retake them. Contrary upon * bailment of goods; per Littleton. Br. Trespass, pl. 186. cites 9 E. 4. 35.

Littleton 5 for in the one case it is tort, and in the other not. Br. Nusance, pl. 14. cites S. C. When a man bails goods to another to keep, It is not lawful for him, though the doors are open, to enter into the house of the bailee, and to take the goods, but ought to demand them; and if they are denied, to bring writ of detinue, and to obtain them by law. 'Br. Trespass, pl. 208. Cites 21 H.J. 13.

13. A man may break a house to take a felon, or for suspicion of felony. Contra of debt or trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 330. cites

13 E. 4. 8.

14. If 2 are fighting in a house, I may justify entry into the house to part them, because it is for the preservation of the peace, which is a thing that concerns the commonwealth; per Yaxley, quod Frowike Ch. J. concessit. Keilw. 46. b. pl. 2. Mich. 18 H. 7. - Anon.

15. If beafts are damage feasant in the lands of another, a stranger cannot justify entering into the land to turn them out, upon a pretence that it is to the advantage of the owner of the land; for it prevents the owner from taking the benefit of distraining them for satisfaction of the damage; per Frowick Ch. J. Kelw. 46. b. Mich. 18 H. 7.

16. In trespass of breaking a close, per Rede, it is not lawful to fay that the defendant had timber lying there, and came to see his timber.

Br. Trespass, pl. 208. cites 21 H. 7. 13.

17. If my beafts are in another's land damage feafant, I cannot But if anojustify to enter to rechase them; per Rede Ch. J. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

ther chajes my beafts into the land of J. N. I Br. Trespais, may enter and rechase them; for the tort commenced in another person; per Rede Ch. J. pl 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

3 Le. 266. pl.358, S.C. but adjurna-DH.

18. In trespals for entering his house, and taking his goods, the de-Sendant plends that the goods were B.'s, who fold them to the defendant, and that be came to the house, and demanded them, and the plaintiff. being absent, bis wife licenced bim to enter and take them; whereupon he entered and took them. And upon demurrer it was adjudged ill, it not appearing how the goods came, viz. either as trespass, &c. and therefore cannot enter of his own head, and the licence by the wife was not sufficient; but Gawdy contra, for it may be intended the goods were there by the plaintiff's licence, and then he might well enter and take them. Cro. E. 245. pl. 3. Mich. 33 & 34 Eliz. C. B. Taylor v. Fisher.

AB. 35. S.C. adjudged . that his feat is no justisication, and the defendant has rethose that compelled.

19. In trespass quare clausum fregit, and takieg of a gelding, the defendant pleaded that he, for fear of his life, and wounding of 12 armed men, who threatened to kill him if he did not the fact, went into the house of the plaintiff, and took the gelding. The plaintiff demurred to this plea. Roll J. this is no plea to justify the defendmedy against ant; for I may not do a trespass to one for sear of threatenings of another; for by this means the party injured shall have no satisfaction, for he cannot have it of the party that threatened; therefore let the plaintiff have his judgment. Sty. 72. Mich. 23 Car. Gilbert v. Stone.

> 20. If tenant at will fows the land, and then determines his own will, he cannot break the hedges to carry away the corn. Vent. 222. Trin. 24 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Perrot v. Bridges.

> 21. If the sheriff upon a fieri facias sells corn growing, the vendee cannot justify an entry upon the land to reap it, until such time as the corn is ripe; per Twisden. Vent. 222. in case of Perrot v. Bridges.

(H. a. 3) Retaking Goods, &c. Justifiable in what Cases.

TRESPASS. If a man seises an ox, &c. to the use of the king, he who has property cannot re-take it. And so it seems that the king may be intitled to a chattel by seisure, or otherwise, without office, as appears by this case. See the book. pass, pl. 375. cites H. 39 E. 3:

2. If a man takes my swan's eggs, which after produce cygnets, the first owner may take the one and the other; per Fairfax. Br. Trespass, pl. 323. cites 12 E. 4. 4, 5.

So where a man took the fow of another wbich pro-

3. So if a man takes my mare or cow, which after produces a fool or calf, the first owner may take them; per Fairfax. Br. Trespass, pl. 323. cites 12 E. 4. 4, 5.

duced pigs, the owner brought replevin of both, and recovered damages for both; per Littleton. Br. Trespass, pl. 323. cites 18 E. 3. 48.

4. Where a thing may be known, the owner may retake it, though It is agreed to among another thing be mixed with it. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites 5 H. 7. 15. ¢ivilians, that in all cases where the new form may be reduced to the former state, the property remains to him who hath the old substance; but otherwise not. Arg. Raym. 329. in case of BAMBAIDGE V. BATES, and fays, that with this agrees 16 H. 7. 16. pl. 6. Mo. 19. pl. 67. g. As

. 5. As in trespass of shoes and boots taken, the defendant said, S. P. Ass. that he was possessed of 3 dickers of leather, and bailed them to W. S. who gave * to the plaintiff, who made thereof shoes and boots, and the de- Bambridge fendant retook them; and the re-taking good and lawful, for the nature remains. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites 5 H. 7. 15.

Raym. 329. in case of v. Bates. * [509]

6. So where a man takes cloth, and makes thereof a robe, the owner But wool may retake it; for the nature is not changed. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites 5 H. 7. 15.

made into cioth cannot be retaken. Arg. Raym. 329. in case of Bambridge v. Bates.

7. So of iron made into a bar. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites But iron made into 5 H. 7. 15. an anvil cannot be retaken. Arg. 2 Brownl. 114. in case of Cross v. Westwood.

8. But, per Cur. where grain is taken, and made into malt, or + If a man † money taken and made into a cup, or ‡ a cup made into money, these takes a white piece, and cannot be taken; for grain cannot be known one from another, nor caufs it to one piece of money from another. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites be gilt, the owner can-5 H. 7. 15. not retake it, by fome. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites 5 H. 7. 15. I Plate altered in fashion may be retaken, but not if converted into coin. Arg. 2 Brownl. 114. 10 case of Cross v. Westwood.

9. And if a man takes timber, and makes thereof a house, this can- But if a man Br. eree, and 'not be retaken; for the nature is altered into franktenement. Property, pl. 23. cites 5 H. 7. 15.

takes my Squares it into timber, yet the owner may retake it; for it may be known. Br. Property, pl. 23. cites 5 H. 7. 15. -----S. C.

cited Arg. 2 Brownl. 117, 118.

In trespals, &c. the defendant justified under a lease, and that afterwards A. entered, and cut down trees there growing, and made them into timber, and brought it on the land where the trespass was supposed, and gave it to the plaintiff; whereupon he (the defendant) entered on the fuid land, and retack his timber. Upon a demurrer to this plea it was objected, that by making them into timber the defendant could not know it to be his tree, and so the property altered; but adjudged, where any thing is wrongfully taken, and altered in the form, yet if that which remains is the principal part of the substance, then the notice is not lost, and therefore if he saws them into boards he may retake them; but if they are fixed upon the land, or a house be made of the timber, it is otherwise. Quære, the house now is the principal substance. Mo. 19. pl. 67. Mich. 2 Eiiz. Anon.

10. If a man takes fish, he who has the water may retake them; per Keble. Kelw. 30. a. pl. 2. Mich. 13 H. 7.

11. Trespass for breaking his close, et quedam averia ibidem existent' cepit & asportavit. Defendant pleaded, that the cattle were his own goods, and that J. S. took the cattle by wrong, and put them into the plaintiff's close by the plaintiff's affent; and the defendant finding them there, took them, &c. The Court held the plea good; for the plaintiff does not aver the property of the beafts to be in him, but says only quædam averia. And when the beasts are taken from him by wrong, and are not out of his possession by his own delivery, he may justify the taking of them in any place where he finds them. Cro. E. 329. pl. 3. Trin. 36 Eliz. B. R. Chapman v. Thimblethorp.

12. A. lends a horse for hire to ride to D. and within the time Cro. J. 236 the horse is lent for, A. meets the rider at a place further distant pl. 3. S. Vol. XX. Pp cordingly. -Brown!. 217. S. C. adjudged; be taken from Yelv. 372.

than D. yet A. within the time cannot seise his horse; for the perfon that hired him has a good special property for the time he hired him for, against all the world. And if he misuses the horse but feems to in riding to any other place, that is to be punished by action on the case, and not by seising the horse. Yelv. 172. Hill. 7 Jac. B. R. Lee v. Atkinfon and Brook.

[210]

13. A. found the goods of B. and bailed them over to C. for money; in that case the owner may take them again, per Doderidge J. Arg. 3 Bulst. 17. in case of Waller v. Hanger, cites 22 E. 4.

14. Milk made into cheese cannot be retaken; res corruptæ & transformatæ abeffe videntur; a thing arifing from the parts is not any of the parts. Arg. Raym, 329. in case of Bambridge v. Bates.

- 15. A master of a ship may keep the goods till he be paid his freight; but if he once parts with the possession of them, he cannot retake them; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 511. Pasch. 13 W. 3. B. R. Anon.
- 16. If A. makes a bill of sale to B. a creditor, and afterwards to C. another creditor, and delivers possession at the time of the sale is neither; and after C. gets possession of them, and B. takes them out of his possession. C. cannot maintain trespass, because the first bill of sale is fraudulent against creditors, and so is the second; yet they both bind A. and B.'s is the elder title, and the naked possession of C. ought not to prevail against the title of B. that is prior, where both are equally creditors, and possession at the time of the bill of fale is delivered over to neither; per Holt Ch. J. 2 New Abr. 606. Baker v. Loyd, cites Trin. 1706.

(H. a. 4) Plea good. In Trespass for taking or retaking Goods.

1. IN trespass of goods and chattels, the plaintiff shall not count of monies taken; for he ought to have had a special writ.

Count, pl. 90. cites 34 E. 3. 23.

2. Trespals of corn carried away. The defendant faid that he was seised, and leased to W. N. for life, who died, and the defendant entered and sowed the land, and we came, and cut and carried away, and awarded a good plea; and therefore it feems that this is colour in itself. Br. Trespass, pl. 114. cites 38 E. 3. 28.

3. Trespass of trees cut and taken; per Finch. you yourself gave them to us, and a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 394. eites 42 E. 3. 23.

4. If I recover damages, and the freniff delivers to me your goods in execution, you cannot have trespals against me; for I am no transgressor; per Finchd. & tot. Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 48. cites 44 E. 3. 20.

5. Trespass of taking of goods; the defendant said that they were cast into the sea by tempest, and the desendant took and kept them, and when he come to land be bailed them to the servant of the plaintiff to bis use, absque boc that he took other goods, or in other manner, and admitted mitted for a good plea; therefore quære of the vi & armis. Br.

Trespass, pl. 54. cites 46E. 3. 15.

6. Trespass of goods taken in Middlesex, a taking by gift in Trespass of London is no plea, without traversing the taking in Middlesex; quod goods taken nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 89. cites 11 H. 4. 3, 4.

at D. in the county of S. the defendant justified by gift of the plaintiff at London, by which he took them in the country of S. and a good plea; the plaintiff said that at the time of the gift be was within age, and a good replication. Contrary if the infant bad delivered the goods to the defendant; for this is a good excuse in action of trespass, but the gift is void. Br. Trespais, pl. 150. cites 22 H. 6. 3.

7. Trespass of a mare, the defendant justified as distress for rent of Al. of whom the land is held, and the defendant at the defire of the plaintiff intreated A. so that the distress was re-delivered to the plain- [511] tiff, upon condition that if the plaintiff did not pay the rent by such a day, that he should re-take the distress, &c. and he did not pay, &c. by which he re-took it and re-delivered it to the plaintiff, and admitted for a good plea without argument. Br. Trespass, pl. 410.

cites 10 H. 6. 3.

8. Trespass of goods taken. The defendant said, that the plain- So elsewhere tiff at D. in the county of C. fold it to J. N. by which he took it, as of a gift. lawfully he might, as fervant to J. N. the vendee, and by his command, and admitted for a good plea. Nota. Br. Trespass, See pl. 6 pl. 124. cites 19 H. 6. 8.

9. In trespass the defendant said that the property of the goods was in J. N. who made the defendant his executor, and died, and we took as executors, and gave colour to the plaintiff as executor, where he is not executor, &c. which is the same taking, and a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 126. cites 19 H. 6. 12.

10. In trespass of goods taken in C. it is a good plea, that the plaintiff bailed them to him at D. to bail them over, which he has done, absque boc that he is guilty of the carrying away at C. and a good plea; per tot. Cur. and yet C. and D. were in one and the same county. Br. Trespass, pl. 386. cites 19 H. 6. 43.

11. Trespass of battery of his servant per quod servitium ser- Where a vientis sui prædicti, &c. The defendant said, that he was retained with him before he beat him, and departed and came to the plaintiff. And yet it seems that it is no plea; for he cannot retake ed who debim, nor beat him, without request to his second master. Br. Trespass, pl. 139. cites 21 H. 6. 8, 9.

man has ward or servant retainparts from him, he cannot take them, and bing them back by force, ror put his bands upon them to bring them back; but he may require them, &co. and if they refuse, be shall kave his action; per Cur. Br. Tiespass, pl. 225. cites 38 H. 6. 25.

12. In trespass it is no plea, that A. was possessed as of his property, and bailed to the defendant, and the plaintiff took them, and the defendant retook; for there is no colour. Contrary where he says, that A. was possessed, and bailed to B. who gave to the plaintiff, and A. retook and gave it to the defendant. And per Newton, it is a good plea, that the defendant was seised till by the plaintiff disseised, upon which he re-entered and did the trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 146. cites 21 H, 6. 36.

. 13. Tref-

Br. Justification, pl. 12. cites S. C.

13. Trespals by administrators of goods carried away. The defendant faid, that the testator was possessed as of his proper goods, and made 7. S. his executor, and died, and after the goods came to the bands of the plaintiff, and the defendant by command of the executor took the goods, and after the executor refused before the ordinary, who committed the administration to the plaintiff, judgment. And per Laicon, Prisot, and Moyle, this is a good plea, and the colour is good; for the defendant acknowledged possession in the plaintiff; and the power of the administrator, by the committing of the administration, shall have relation to the death of the intestate; and therefore this is matter in law, at least if the justification be now good or And when matter of law is, then there needs no colour; for it is matter in law (when the administration is so committed) if the administrator shall have trespass of the taking before the committing of the administration or not. And by them the plea is good; for when the defendant had good cause to justify at the time, &c. this shall not be lost by the refusal of the executor, since he is a third person. Br. Trespass, pl. 222. cites 36 H. 6. 7.

14. Trespass of goods taken in T. The defendant said that the place where, &c. is a house of which J. B. was seised in fee, and infeosffed him, and he found the goods damage feasant, &c. and ill pleading; for in trespass of goods, &c. it is not the form to say, that the place [512] where, &c. is such a house, or such land; for by intendment it is supposed that the place is a vill. Contrary it is in trespass done of land. Br. Trespass, pl. 293. cites 5 E. 4. 124.

15 Trespass of a close broken, and goods corried away. The defendant, as to the close broken, prayed judgment of the writ; for the plaintiff has not any thing in it, unless in common, & pro indiviso with W. N. not named in the writ. And as to the goods, be demanded judgment of the writ; for before the plaintiff any thing bad, S. was possessed ut de propriis, and made the plaintiff and A. his seme bis executors, and died; and A. took the goods, and was thereof pofsessed and made the defendant her executor, and died; and the defendant found the goods, among st other goods, in the house of A. and took them to keep to the use of the plaintiff; and therefore the plaintiff ought to have detinue, judgment of the writ. And it seems there, that he cught not to take the goods of the first testator, another executor being alive; wherefore he said, that his testator put those goods, and others of his proper goods, together in one cheft, and so be found them. This is a good justification, for he cannot sever them; but where the goods are severed, it is not lawful for him to take them which do not belong to him; quod Fairfax and Choke concesserunt. And a good plea, without saying that he is, and at all times has been, ready to deliver them; for if he may justify the taking at one time, it cannot be tortious after without special matter, as misdemeanor after, as it seems, Br. Trespass, pl. 311. cites 7 E. 4. 3.

16. In trespass of goods carried away, it is a good plea, that they were the goods of two alien enemies of the king, and the defendant seifed them, is lawfully he might; for it was said there, that every man may seise the goods of enemies of the king brought into England.

5

513]

England, and retain them to their own use. Per Vavisor, it was adjudged in the time of this king, that he who takes such goods shall retain them as above. Br. Trespass, pl. 313. cites 7 E. 4. 13.

17. Trespass of taking his hawk. The defendant justified for dammage feasant in his pigeon-house; and it was admitted. And per the justices, trespass quare columbas cepit does not lie, for he has no property. Br. Trespass, pl. 387. cites 16 E. 4. 7.

18. Trespass of taking his horse. The defendant said, that the plaintiff lent it to him till he had finished his business; and said, that he had not yet sinished his business. And a good plea, per Brian and Littleton, notwithstanding that the time is uncertain. Quod nota. But no mention of the uncertainty of the business.

Br. Trespass, pl. 337. cites 17 E. 4. 8.

19. Trespass of taking beasts in A. in D. The defendant said, that be was seised of land called C. in D. aforesaid; and the same day found the beasts damage feasant in C. aforesaid, and took them, and chased them towards the pound, and they escaped, and went into A. aforesaid, and the defendant freshly retook them, which is the same taking of which the action is brought. Pigot protestanda, that the place of G. is not the franktenement of the defendant, and pro placito, that before the taking alleged by the defendant, the defendant took the beafts in A. aforesaid, and chasted them to his land called C. aforesaid, and they escaped into A. and the defendant took them prout, &c. upon which first taking we have brought this action. Bridges changed his plea, and said, that the same day, before the trespass supposed by the plaintiff, he found the beasts damage feasant in C. his own foil, and took them, and they escaped into A. aforefaid, and he freshly pursued and took them in A. &c. Pigot said, he took them in A. absque hoc that he first took them in C. &c. Modo & forma, prout, &c. and fo to iffue. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 52. cites 21 E. 4. 64.

20. Trespass of trees and oaks cut. The defendant said, that the plaintiff leased to him 10 acres of land for term of years, of which the place, &c. by force of which he was thereof possessed, and cut the trees, &c. and a good plea; and yet the writ of waste lies. Br. Trespass, [

pl. 430. cites 13 H. 7. 9.

21. And in trespass of goods taken, the defendant said, that the plaintiff leased to him a house in D. for a year, and the goods were his before the lease, and he put them into the house, and the plaintiff immediately after the year determined took the goods damage feasant, and the defendant retook them. And no plea, per Cur. for he ought to carry his goods out at the end of the term; and if he leaves them there, he cannot after justify to enter and retake them. Br. Trespass, pl. 430. cites 13 H. 7. 9.

22. Trespass of goods taken. The defendant said, that the plaintiff put them within the doors of the defendant; and after, because the plaintiff was indebted to the defendant in 10 l. it was agreed between them, that the defendant should retain them till he was paid, by which he took them, and the plaintiff has not yet paid. And a good plea, by the opinion of the Court, without shewing cause of the debt; and a good plea, without shewing other taking; for the putting into the house is no delivery; but when he accepted them by the agreement, this is the taking; for if he had pleaded delivery, & had been not guilty argumentatively. Br. Trespass, pl. 209. cites 21 H. 7. 13.

Pp 3 into

23. In trespass it is a good plea that the plaintiff gave them As in trespals of taking to the defendant, by which be took them. Br. Trespass, pl. 209. of his boat, cites 21 H. 7. 13. the defendant picaded gift of the plaintiff of all his goods by deed, &c. at which time the boat belonged to the plaintiff, judgment, and a good plea; and so see gift in trespass a good plea; and the plaintiff was not received to say, that at the time of the trespass the boat was his boat without shewing how he came by it after, &c. by which he faid that at the time of the gift it was the boat of one A. who gave it to him after,. and the defendant carried it away; and the defendant said that at the time of the gift it was the book of the plaintiff prist, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 42. cites 42 E. 3. 1, 2.

In trespass the defendant pleaded a gift, the plaintiff said that after the gift and before the trespass the defendant re-gave to him; and the defendant maintained his bar absque bx that he re-gave after the first gist, and it was accepted; quære is it be pregnant. Br. Negativa, &c. pl. 55. cites 10 H. 6. 16, 17. So in trespass of a boat taken, and the defendant pleaded a gift by J. N. and the plaintiff laid that

J. N. took it cut of the possession of the plaintiff, and gave, Gc. The defendant maintained the gift absqua bec that the plaintiff had any thing before the gift; and well, and not pregnant. Br. Negativa, &c.

pl. 53. cites 38 H. 6. 25.

24. Where things are not in such danger, but that the owner may As in trespals of corn remedy it; or have his remedy for this trespass by action against taken, the the other, there a man cannot justify the taking of the goods defendant to save them. Per Kingsm. Justice. Br. Trespals, pl. 213. cites said they were severed 21 H. 7. 27. from the 9 parts, and were in danger of being lost by beasts in the sield, by which he took and put them into the born of the plaintiff, parf n of the will; and by the opinion of the Court it is no plea; for they cannot be in such danger in the field, but that men may guard them. Br. Frespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27. And it is not lawful for a man to take my borse, saying that it was in danger of being stele. Per Brud-nell. Br. Trespass, pl. 21g. cites 21 H. 7. 27. Nor where my feme is out of her way, it is not lawful for a man to take her to his house, if she was not in danger of being lost in the night, or to be drowned with water. Per Brudnell. Br. Trespals,

pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

But where goods of another are in danger, by water, fire, sec. of unbich the party cannot have remedy, there I may take them to save them. Per Rede Ch. J. Br. Trespais, pl. 213. cites 41 H. 7. 27.

[514] (I. a) Trespass. Justification. Upon Default or AE of the Plaintiff himself.

[1. TF A. be seised in see of copyhold land next adjoining to the land of B. and A. erects a new bouse upon his copyhold • Fol. 565. land, and some * part of the house is erected upon the confines of his land next adjoining to the land of B. if afterwards B. digs his land so near to the foundation of the house of A. but on no part of A.'s land, by which the foundation of the house and the house falls into the pit, yet no action lies by A. against B. because it was A.'s own fault that he built his house so near the land of B. for he by his act cannot hinder B. from making the best use he can of his own land. P. 15 Car. B. R. between WILDE AND MINSTERLEY, per Curiam after a verdict for the plaintiff. But it feems that a man who has land next adjoining to my land cannot dig bis land so near my land, that thereby my land shall go into his pit; and therefore if the action had been brought for this it would lie.] [2. In that Roll

S. C. fays

Ch. J. held

as here, and Jerman thought

judgment

cathe to pe given for the defendant,

cale was that the Courtgave

printiff niff.

Br. Trefpaff, pl. 192. cites

judgment

for the

and that Afk J. said the hard on botth

[2. In trespass quare clausum fregit called S. in the parish of 8ty. 165. D. if defendant justifies because his sheep were stolen by persons unknown, and that the plaintiff afterwards chased the said sheep with kis own sheep in the same parish, and that he suspected that his sheep were chased into the said close of the plaintiff, in which, &c. and upon this he went into the faid close where, &c. to fearth for his sheep, and not finding them there, he went out of the close as soon as he could, doing as little damage in going and returning as he could. This is not a good justification, because he did not enter to search for the felon, which was for the commonwealth, but for his private interest to inquire for his goods; for by the same reason he may come into the lands of any other men, with a pretence to fearch fides, but for his goods. And here he does not shew any cause of suspicion that the sheep were in this close. Mich. 1649. between Top-Adjudged upon demurrer per totam Curiam LADY AND SCALEY. præter Justice Jermyn, who was e contra. Intratur, Mich. 24 Car. Rot. 596.]

[3. If a man ought to repair a fence between my land and his land next adjoining, if he does not repair it, by which my beafts enter into his land for default of reparation, this is justifiable in a trespass that the brought by him. 19 H. 6. 34. 39 E. 3. 3. b.]

other replied that his

S. C. and

hedge was sufficiently inclosed. And so this point was admitted.] - 9. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 148. cites 21 H. 6. 39. - And in foch case J. may pursue and retake them. Per Frowitke. Kelw. 30. pl. 2. Mich. 13 H. 7. Anon. See Infra, pl. 26.

[4. So in the faid case it is lawful for me to go into his land to retake my beafts and rechase them into my own land. And this is justifiable in trespass, because it comes by his own act.

Kelloway, 30.]

[5. If a man ought to impale against a forest, and by his default of Per Brian impaling the favages go into his land, it is justifiable for the forester Ch. J. the in trespass there to enter into his land, where the savages escape, not enter into rechase them into the forest, because they come in by his own to any man's Dubitatur, 13 H. 7. Kelloway, 30.

forester canland out of the forest, nor into the land which should have been inclosed against the forest, because the property of * sawages it only during their heing in the forest (or park) and no pursuit will preserve it; and in this respect they differ from other beafts not favage. Kelw. 30. b.

[6. If beafts are impounded in a place inclosed which has a gate open, The same if the sberiff comes to make replevin, and the owner of the close stands law of shear with bows and arrows in the gate to shoot at him, by which he is Br. Justificain + fear of death, he may, to avoid death, break the elefe and enter there, and make the replevin. And this trespass is justifiable. 20 H. 6. 28.]

7 [515] riff a bailiff. tion, pl. 2. cités S. C. † See (H. 2. 2) pl. 19.

[7. If my land be open to the bighway, and the beafts of a stranger enter upon the land, this is not justifiable. 39 E. 3. 3.]

[8. If a man does a nusance in his own soil to my mill, house, or land, As if a mea I may justify the entry into his soil, and fling down this nusance, of a anco diversible because it was of his own wrong. 9 E. 4. 35. Curia. 8 E. 4. 5. water fran Co. 9. BATEN, 55.]

my mill, I may fill up ele ditch with that which the other has dug out. Per Danby. Br. Trespass, pl. 186. cites 9 E. 4. 35.

†Fol. 556. may justify my entry into the said land to take † my goods again; for they come there by his own act. 9 E. 4. 35.]
pl. 254. cites S. C.

S. P. Br. [10. If a man by negligence suffers his house to be on fire, I who am 186. cites 9 his neighbour, may break down his house to avoid the peril, which may E.4. 35. per come to me by the burning of it. 9 H. 4. 35. b.]
Littleton.

For the tort [II. If a man tortiously imprisons me in his house, I may justify the commences on his part. breaking the windows and door to go out. 9 E. 4.35.b.]

Br. Trespass, pl. 186. cites S. C. Br. Nusance, pl. 14. cites S. C. Arg. 2 Le. 202. pl. 254-cites S. C.

See Distress, [12. If my tenant, seeing me coming to distrain, drives bis beasts out of the land held of me into land held of another man, I may justify my Litt. 161. a. entry there to take the distress, because it was by his own tort. that if the tenant, or $\frac{1}{2} \text{E. 4. 35.}$ any other, to prevent the lord to distrain, drive the cattle out of the see of the lord into some place out of his see, yet may the lord freshly sollow and distrain the cattle, and the tenant cannot make rescous, albeit the place wherein the distress is taken, is out of his see; for now in judgment of law the distress is taken within his see, and so shall the writ of rescous suppose. But if the lord coming to distrain had no view of the cattle within his fee, though the tenant drive them off purposely, or if the cattle of themselves, after the view, go out of the see, or if the tenant after the view remove them for any other cause than to prevent the lord of his distress, then cannot the lord distrain them out of his see; and if he does, the tenant may make rescous.—2 Inst. 131. S. P.—And although in such case the distress be taken out of his see or seigniory, yet it is within the statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 19. For in judgment of law the distress is lawful, and is as if taken within his see and seigniory. Co. Litt. 268. b.—S. P. for when they are in his view they shall be adjudged in his possession. Br. Trespass, pl. 296. cites 2 E. 4. 6. and says the reason seems to be, because they are transitory.

1 Br. Trespass, pl. 186. cites S. C.

S.P. Arg. [13. If a man has an heap of grain by my heap of grain, and takes by 3 Just. an handfull out of my heap, I may justify the taking an handfull again Roll. R. 45. out of his heap, because he shall not take advantage of his own wrong.

—But per Tr. 12 Ja. B. R.]

Haughton J.

not to take more than the other took from him. Ibid. --- See title property (E) pl. 6, 7, & 8. and the notes there.

Cro. J. 366.

S. C.—

Bulst. 323.

S. C.—

Bulst. 323.

S. C.—

all, because otherwise he will by his tort bar me to take my Roll.R.133.

S. C.—

S. C.—

Curiam.]

-perty (E), pl. 6 & 7. and the notes there.

This is the cth resolution in that the heasts were in his close damage feasant, and he with a little dog chased them out of the land; for inasmuch as they come there of their wrong, the owner is not bound to impound them, but may remove the tort done to him, by chasing of them out of the land. Co. 4.

Exp. 38.

D. Mich. 26

Exp. Elis.

Terringham, 38. b. resolved.]

B. R. S. P. and shall not be compelled to distrain for damage seasant.———Sav. 23. pl. 56. Pasch. 42 Elis. Tz-zingham's case, is not S. P.——See (N. a), pl. 12.

[16. If 2 tenants in common of timber or other goods are, and the 2 Roll. Rep. one takes it, and puts into his feveral land, the other cannot justify the entry into the land to retake it, because though he may retake, yet inasmuch as there is not any tort in law when one takes all to his own S.P. does use, because the law has allowed him so to do for the trust which is between them, he cannot justify a trespass in the land to retake lbid. 207. it; but he ought to take it when he can without trespass. M. 18 S.C. and Ja. B. R. between Masters and Polley. Per Curiam.]

141. Hill. 17 Jac., B. R. S. C. but not plainly appear.---S.P. held by the justices accordingly. ——Godb. 282. pl. 403. POLLYE's case, S. C. and S. P. agreed by the Court.

[17. If a man comes into my close with an iron-bar and fledge, and there breaks my stones, and after departs, and leaves the sledge and bar in my close, in an action of trespass for taking and carrying of them away, I may justify the taking of them and putting of them in the close of the plaintiff himself next adjoining, especially giving notice of it to the plaintiff, as it was pleaded, inasmuch as they were brought into my close of his own tort; and in such case of tort I am not bound to carry them to the pound, but may well remove the wrong done to myself by them by tort of the plaintiff. P. 11 Car. B. R. between Cole and Maunder adjudged upon a demurrer. Intratur, Hill. 10 Rot. 502.]

18. Trespass quod arbores succidit & asportavit; Fulth. said the Br. Trespass, plaintiff sold to the defendant Horsleywood, except 40 of the best ashes, and pl. 50. cites the plaintiff to carry them within 2 years next; and after he came and s.C. says it required the plaintiff to cut and carry them, and he would not; and be- was admitcause the defendant by his bargain had but 3 years to take the wood, he left 40 of the best ashes, and cut and carried the rest; per Caund. cation. you abated our wood, absque hoc that we were warned, prout, &c. and said no more. Br. Trespass, pl. 299. cites 44 E. 3.

44 E. 3. 39. ted for a good justifi-

19. Trespass of trees [grass] spoiled, and fed with the cattle of the defendant, who said that the plaintiff to the intent to have the defendant in his power, commanded his own fervant to chase the beasts of the defendant into his land, which he did accordingly, and the defendant as foon as he knew of it, chased them out; judgment si actio, and a good plea, and was not compelled to fay not guilty. Br. Trespass, pl. 148. cites 21 H. 6. 39.

20. Trespass of a close and house broken, and grass spoiled, his fervant beaten, and his oxen taken. Laycon faid that he had a bighway going to D. against the said house where, &c. and the defendant rode in the faid way, and when he was against the house, the plaintiff and others came with bows and arrows, &c. and affault the defendant, and he left his horse, and fled into the house, and over into the close, and came back into the way, which is the same trespass, &c. and as to the grass spoiled, pleaded the same matter, and when he came back into the way his horse was in the close, by which he freshly re-entered and retook his horse, & hoc, &c. and to the beating the servant he faid as above, that they made an affault upon him, and the damage which they had was of their own affault, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 204. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

21. And as to the oxen he said, that before the trespass A. B. affirmed plaint of replevin before the sheriff of beasts taken, and he made precept to the bailiff to make deliverance, by which the bailiff, and this defendant by his command, made the deliverance three days after the trefpass supposed, and attached the plaintiff to answer, absque bos that he is guilty before the third day. Choke said he ought to shew if the way be in the same vill as the house, or where else it is, and also he does not say whether the doors of the house were open whest he entered, by which he said so. Br. Trespass, pl. 204. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

22. It was said for law, that if all the neighbours of the vill carry their grain out of the common field, except one who would not carry for frowardness or negligence, there the others may put their beasts in the field, and shall not be trespassors to the other. Br. Trespass, pl. 352.

cites 21 E. 4. 41.

Browni.221. a translation of Yelv. but that some words are misprinted. -Roll.Rep. 21. pl. 12. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. ----Cro. J. 337. pl. 1. S. C. but not S. P.— Buist. 157. S. C. but that is of cattle strayclose into the highway, which was the waste of the lord, who theretrespass, but the Court discountenanced the action, which fee at (N. a) pl. 11.

23. Trespass for chasing his cattle at S. the defendant justified S. C. and is for damage feafant in a close called Wh. Acre, which was hit franktenement. The plaintiff replied that B. was seised in fee of a close called Bl. Acre in R. which he leased to him; and that the defendant was seised in see of another close called Gr. Acre, which lay contiguons to Wh. Acre, and so prescribed for the defendant and all those whose estate he had in Gr. Acre, to repair the fences between those two closes; and that he put his cattle into Bl. Acre, and they for default of enclosure escaped into Gr. Acre, and thence into Wb. Acre. 'The defendant rejoined, and confessed that the plaintiff was possessed of Bl. Acre, and himself seised of Gr. Acre, as above; but said, that between Bl. Acre and Gr. Acre there is a little brook, which on the fide of Bl. Acre has a bank contiguous to it, which B. and those whose estate, &c. have used, &c. to repair, and for want of repairs the beasts escaped out of Bl. Acre into Gr. Acre, and thence into Wh. Acre; whereing out of a upon the defendant chased them, &c. The plaintiff demurred and had judgment; for the defendant pleaded a good bar, and the plaintiff made a good replication, and showed the default to be the defendant's, by not inclosing between Bl. Acre and Gr. Acre, and the rejoinder does not confess and avoid the replication, but perplexes the uponbrought matter, by adding a prescription on the plaintiff's part, to repair a bank between Bl. Acre and Gr. Acre, whereupon issue cannot be taken, because then 2 prescriptions shall be tried together, which cannot Besides the rejoinder is no answer to the replication but by way of argument, and if true, is good matter in evidence against the plaintiff, who must prove his replication true; for the plaintiff fays that Bl. Acre and Gr. Acre are contiguous, which intends that there is no mean space between them, whereas the rejoinder fays that there is a bank between them, and if so, they are not contiguous. But the defendant should have traversed the prescription alleged by the plaintiff, which would have made an end of all; per tot. Cur. Yelv. 217. Hill. 9 Jac. B. R. Durrant v. Child.

24. In trespass of treading his grass, entering his close called the yard, and pulling down his gate, &c. The defendant justified for a passage by and through his yard, and that at the time when, &c. 2 gate was erected in the passuge, so that he could not pass with his beasts, whereupon he broke the gate, and in passing along he aliquantulum trod the grass, which is idem residuum. The plaintiff objected, that he could not justify pulling down and breaking the gate, he not baving shown that it was locked or nailed, so as he could not pass. But per Cur. he having pleaded that the gate was put there, so as he could not use his passage, it shall be intended locked or nailed, or that the way is thereby so straitened that he could not pass, and the plea good; and that the replication being so general, is idle [518] and vain. And per tot. Cur. judgment for the defendant. 3 Lev. 92. Mich. 34 Car. 2. C. B. Sprigg v. Neal.

that

25. In trospals of entering his close, and killing two mastiffs, the defendant pleads that they were fet upon his hogs and were like to kill them, to prevent which he entered into the said close, and killed the mastiss. And per Hale Ch. J. the justification of killing the mastiss is well enough; for one cannot set mastiss upon pigs to kill them, but he may hunt them with a little dog. Freem.

Rep. 347. pl. 432. Mich. 1673. King v. Rose.

26. A. was seifed of Bl. Acre, B. of Gr. Acre, and C. of Wh. Acre, See pl. 3. which 3 closes adjoined to one another. B. was to repair the mound supra. between A. and B. and C. was to repair the mound between B. and C .- A. puts his beafts into Bl. Acre, which strayed into Bis close for want of repairs between Bl. Acre and Gr. Acre, and out of Gr. Acre into Wh. Acre, the mounds being out of repair between B. and C .- C. brought trespass, and A. pleaded the special matter. The questition was, whether or no, when the beasts of A. stray into the close of B. for default of repairs by B. and so were no trespassors there, and then stray into the close of C. for default of repairs by C. this should excuse the trespass of A.'s beasts, as it would for the beasts of B.? The Court seemed to incline that it would not; for though C, was bound to repair between him and B. and so B.'s beasts would have been excused if they had strayed into his close, yet the prescription that binds him to repair, is only personal against B. and his beasts, and not against all beasts that come into his close. Twisden said, if this were a good plea, the right of repairing the fences between B. and C. would be tried between A. and C. but he thought A. must be put to his special action on the case against B. for not repairing, per quod, &c. Sed Cur. advisare vult. Freem. Rep. 379. pl. 495. Mich. 1674. Right v. Baynard.

Trespass. Justification. What shall be good Justification. A Thing of Necessity.

[1.]F a man has a way over my land for his beafts to pass, * if the beasts seed the grass by morsels in passing, it is justifiable. P. 15 Ja. B. R. REEVE AND Downs. Per Curiam, it being against his will as it is to be intended.]

* Fol. 567. If a man has way over the land of another for his cattle, and upon the way he scares his cattle, so that they run out of the way upon the land of the owner, and the driver freshly pursues them, &c. if trespass be brought, he that had the way may plead this special matter in justification; per Richardson Ch. J. Het. 166. Hill. 6 Car. C. B. Anon.

Crespals.

Roll. Rep. 79. S. C. accordingly.
—And see zit. Necesfity (A), pl. 12. S. C.

[2. If there are diverse passengers in a common passing barge upon the Thames, and one of them has a pack with him, in which are bound up monies and things of great value, and a tempest arising, all the goods in the barge are cast into the sea for safeguard of their lives, among which the pack aforesaid is cast into the sea, the master of the barge not having notice that there were any such things of value in it; in an action for the pack, and things therein, this is justifiable, because it was done for the preservation of their lives.

M. 12 Car. B. R. by Coke said, that it was so resolved in bank in the case of Gravesend Barge.]

[519] 3. If a chimney be on fire, I may enter and take the goods in safety, which are in jeopardy to be lost; per Palmes. Br. Trespass, pl. 213. cites 21 H. 7. 27.

. [K. a. 2] Things of Charity.

[1.] [3. IN trespass of his house broken, if defendant pleads, that her daughter was retained in the service of the plaintiff, and was very sick in the said house, being then the plaintiff's servant, and defendant being her mother, entered into the said house to see her daughter, which is the same trespass; this is not a good justification, without licence of the owner of the house, or at least demanding of leave to see her daughter. Hill. 1649. between Parlet and Bowman, adjudged upon demurrer.]

(L. a) Trespass justifiable. In what Cases a Trespass may be justified.

See tit.
Hunting
(A), pl. 1.
and the notes
there.

[1.] If a man lets a falcon fly at a pheasant in his own land, which pursues the pheasant into the warren of another, and there takes him, yet he cannot justify the entry into the warren of the other to take the falcon and pheasant. 38 E. 3. 10. b. 12 H. 8. 10.]

In trespass of killing a justify killing the tumbler with my mastiff by my incitation. M. 3 Ja. at E. in

B. LEWIN'S CASE.]

Kent, the defendant pleaded, that Sir F. W. was seised of a warren in D. in the same county, whereof he is and was warrener; and that the dog was divers times there killing conies, and therefore finding him there, tempore quo, &c. running after conies, he killed him. And all the Court held the justification good, it being alleged, that the d g used to be there killing of conies. Cro. J. 44. pl. 13. Mich. 2 Jac. B. R. Wadhurst v. Damme. S. C. cited Saund. 84. Arg. in case of Wright v. Ramscot.

3. In every case where a man may avow he may justify; but not e contra, per Yong, & non negatur. But see elsewhere, that if he justifies he shall not have return of the beasts. Contra upon avowry. Br. Justification, pl. 16. cites 5 E. 4. 6.

4. If A. takes the cattle of W. S. without cause, it is not lawful for J. N. to take them from him; for he has title against all, unless against the very owner; per all the Justices. Br. Trespass, pl. 433. cites 13 H. 7. 10.

5. Tref-

5. Trespass. Tenant at will justified for digging a trench to avoid the water, which surrounded the common in another's land, appendant to the other land which he had at will, and to keep his own land from being surrounded. And it was held double; for there are two matters, and the plaintiff demurred. Therefore quære; for two justices were against two. And there are diverse cases what a man may do for the benefit of a stranger. And there is a divertity where it is in defence of the person of a stranger, and where of his goods or land. And for the commonwealth, a man may extirpate the fuburbs of a vill, or an house which is on fire. Br. Trespass, [520] pl. 406. cites 12 H. 8. 2. 15. And cites the time of E. 4. that a man may make a bulwark upon another's land in defence against enemies.

6. If trees grow in my bedge, hanging over another man's land, and the fruit of them falls into the other's land, I may justify my entry to gather up the fruit, if I make no longer stay there than is convenient, nor break his hedge. Lat. 120. per Doderidge J.

7. In trespass the plaintiff declared, that the defendant killed Sid. 336. pl. his mastiff, &c. The desendant pleaded in bar, that the plaintiff cordingly. the same day, &c. suffered his mastiff to go in the street, not muzzled; Lev. 216. and that he killed another dog of B. his mistress, which she kept for the security of her house; and that he, as her servant, adtunc & ibidem molossum prad. occidit to save the dog, and least the mastiff should do any further damage. And upon demurrer it was argued, that a mastiff is a valuable thing, and therefore the defendant cannot justify the killing it, without a reasonable cause; that he might save the justify the beating the mastiff to prevent any further mischief to the other dog, but not the killing it, unless it could not otherwise killing the be prevented; and he has not faid, that he could not have saved his mistress's dog without killing the mastiff. And of this opinion was the court, and gave judgment for the plaintiff. Saund. appear that 84. Trin. 19 Car. 2. Wright v. Ramscott.

S. C. and the plea was adjudged ill, because he did not fay that he could not other dog without mastiff; and also because it does not theplaintiff's dog was used to bite, nor that the defendant's dog was a mastisfi. ----- 2 Keb. 237. pl. 11. S. C. says, that Keeling Ch. J. faid it was a sufficient justification; to which More:on J. inclined. But adjornatur

8. In trespass of killing 2 greyhounds, the defendant justified, because they chased a deer in his park, and killed him there. The plaintiff replied, that the deer, was out of the park in his land eating his grass, and therefore he set his greyhounds on to chase him out of his land, and they followed him into the park, and there killed him. Adjudged upon demurrer, that the replication was ill, for not faying that he did his endeavour to stop the greyhounds at the side of the park, to hinder their entering into it. But it was then objected, that the bar was ill; for though it was not lawful to chase in the park, yet the defendant ought not to have killed the greyhounds, when he had taken them; and cited 2 Roll. Abr. 567. [See fupra, pl. 2.] Lewin's case. And e contra was cited 2 Cro. 44. * WAD- * See supra, HURST v. DAM. And at another day, upon consideration of both pl. 2. in the books, judgment was given for the defendant. 3 Lev. 28. Mich. 33 Car. 2. C B. Barrington v. Turner.

(M. a) In what Cases a Man may justify, as incident to another Thing.

See tit.
Grants,(Z)
pl. 16. and the notes
there.

[1. IF a man bargains and sells all his trees growing upon certain land whereof he is seised, the bargainee has power given to him as incident to the grant, to come upon the land, and cut down and carry away the trees at whatever time he please; and the coming upon the land is justifiable. Tr. 15 Ja. between Stukeley adjudged per Curiam.]

S. P. by Twifden J. Vent. 43. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B.R.

in the case of

POMPRET

[2. If a man grants to mc, to make a trench in his foil from such a fountain unto my house, so that I may put a pipe to convey the water to my place [or house] in a conduit; if after my pipe be stopped, *I may dig the ground to amend the pipe, for it is incident to the grant. 9 E. 4. 35. b. Curia,]

W. ROYCROFT; for quando aliquid conceditur, conceditur & id fine quo res ipfa wit non potest.—
A farmer of the king of a capital message makes a conduit to convey water to his house, through the land of a expybolder of the manor, and atterwards the king grants the capital messuage to A. with the appurtenances; and the copyhold was granted to another person. Adjudged, that the farmer may dig the ground to amend the pipe; because terra transit cum onere. Mo. 644. pl. 889. Trin. 43 Eliz. B. R. Guy v. Brown.

*[521]

[3. So if I have such pipe by prescription, I may justify the digging of his land to amend it, without prescribing to do it; for it is incident to the thing prescribed. 9 E. 4. 35. Curia.]

4. Trespass of taking his servant and a scaplery, viz. a garment, was brought by the prior of grey-friars in London. The defendant said, that the friar took his son and heir apparent, now named serwant, and put him into a friars habit; and the defendant came into the church, and the son came to him with the scaplery, and was only 11 years of age, and by award of the mayor of London he took the scaplery. And it was challenged to be treble, viz. that he was fon and heir, and was taken and carried away, in which case he might take him; and another, that he came to him; and the third, the award of the mayor of London. Hank. he may take his fon and heir, if he be under 21 years, if he be not professed. And by the opinion of the Court, because the justification is good of the taking of the body; therefore it is good of the garments upon his back, and therefore a good plea for the scaplery. And it was held there, that where a man nuts another into apparel, it is a gift in law. And per Hank. if an adulterer takes the feme of a man, and cloaths her well with new cloaths, the baron may retake the feme with the cloaths. after it was awarded, that as to the entry into the church, and the taking of the infant and the scaplery, that the plaintiff take nothing by his writ. Br. Trespass, pl. 93. cites + 11 H. 4. 31.

the Viscountess of Binbon's case, ci es 12H.4. S.P. [but is misprinted, and should be 11 H.4. nor are there so many pages in 12 H.4.]

5. Trespass of a house broken and goods carried away. The defendant said, that the plaintiff's husband was seised in see of the bouse, and possessed of the goods, and made the defendant executor, and died; and the desendant found the door open, and entered and took the goods, and the plaintiff supposing that she had been executor, took them, &c. And this was admitted good colour, and the plea was awarded good per Cur. notwithstanding that the plaintiff brought the action of her goods and the defendant justified of the goods of the testator. Wherefore the plaintiff said, that the testator devised them to her, and the defendant delivered them to her after the testator's death, and after took them. And the defendant protestando, that they were not devised, and pro placito said, that he did not deliver them, and so at issue. Br. Trespass, pl. 9. cites 2 H. 6. 15.

good

6. Trespass quare clausum fregit, & averia cepit. The defendant said, that the plaintiff commanded N. to deliver to him the beafts, by which he entered and received them of N. And per Hussey and Brian, the defendant may justify the entry by the command given to N. But per Choke, here the party may receive the beafts at the park-gate, and cannot enter by the command given to a stranger, by which the defendant changed his plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 342. cites 18 E. 4. 25.

7. Where a man is bound to make me a house before Michaelmas, and he is no carpenter, he may justify to bring a carpenter there to make the house. Br. Trespass, pl. 342. cites 18 E. 4. 25. Per Hussey and Brian.

8. And where a man makes a letter of attorney to deliver feifin to W. S. there W. S. may justify the entry to take the livery. Br. Trefpass, pl. 342. cites 18 E. 4. 25. Per Hussey and Brian.

9. In trespass the defendant justified by custom of faldage by pre-Scription of all cattle which pasture in such a common, &c. the plaintiff said that de son tort demesne without such cause. Br. De son [522] tort, &cc. pl. 31. cites 5 H. 7. 9.

(M. a. 2) Trespass justifiable. By Lord. [Or Re-versioner. Entry.]

[1. Li E in reversion may well enter the house in lease for life, to Pl. C. 13. 2. see whether it be well repaired, if the house be open. in Manzell's 9 H, 6. 29. b.]

12. But he in reversion cannot enter into the house where it is fastened up er locked, and break the windows. 9 H. 6. 29. b. Curia.]

(M. a. 3) Justification by Command. And Pleadings. verse, (L.b),

I. IN trespass of goods carried away, it is a good plea that the exumer was outlawed, and he as fervant of the escheator by his command took the goods; per Littleton. Br. Trespass, pl. 339. cites 18 E. 4. 9.

2. In trespass the defendant pleaded the franktenement of one A. and he by his command entered and did the trespass; the plaintiff said that before that A. had any thing, he was seised till by A. disseised, and he re-entered, and the trespass mesne; and no plea, but was compelled to say that he was seised till by the defendant disseised to the use of A. and he re-entered, and the trespass mesne, and well. Br. Trespass, pl. 429. cites 11 H. 7. 21.

[523]

3. In trespass of goods taken, per Keble, where a man derives interest from the owner, as by command, de son tort, &c. is no plea. Contra where he justifies in another's right, as to say that the franktenement is in a stranger, and he by his command, &c. Br.

De son tort, &c. pl. 53. cites 16 H. 7. 3.

4. In trespass of chasing his cattle, the defendant as servant to a copyholder of the manor of T. laid a prescription in the lord for common of passure for him and his customary tenants of the said house, and so justified the chasing by command, and as servant to the said copyholder, and that he molliter drove them out of the common. The plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria absque tali causa. And upon demurrer it was resolved that these words absque tali causa relate to the whole plea, and not to the command only; for all makes but one cause, and neither of them without the other is any plea by itself; and that here the issue will be full of multiplicity of matter, whereas an issue ought to be full and single; for in this case parcel of the manor demisable by copy, grant by copy, prescription for common, &c. and commandment will all be parcel of the issue. And judgment against the plaintist. 8 Rep. 66. b. Mich. 6 Jac. Crogate's case.

5. In battery the defendant pleaded a judgment, and execution had by E. his father against J. S. and that the plaintiff assaulted the bailiff to rescue the goods, whereupon he in aid of the bailiffs, and by their command molliter manus imposuit upon the plaintiff to prevent the rescue. The plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria, and traversed the command, &c. The whole Court resolved that the traverse was ill; for he might have done so of his own head to prevent a rescue, which is a tort and breach of the peace. 3 Lev. 113.

Mich. 35 Car. 2. C. B. Bridgewater v. Betheway.

See (H.2.2) (M. a. 4) Justification by Licence. And Pleadings.

Where lii ence is pleaded, the plaintiff shall that de son tort demesse absque tali tort demesse
absque tali

1. TRESPASS of chasing in his free chase; the defendant pleaded licence of the plaintiff to chace there; the plaintiff said that de son tort demesse absque tali causa, prist, and the others e tort demesse
absque tali

8 E. 4.

S. P. Br. De son tort, pl. 41. cites 9 E. 4. 41.—S. P. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 30. cites 10 H. 6. 9. & 13.—S. P. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 50. cites 20 E. 4. 4.—S. P. per Keble and Townsend. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 53. cites 16 H. 7. 3.

2. In trespass it is a good plea that the place where is the common gool of the sheriff of L. and that W. N. is gooler, who licenced the defendant to enter to speak with a prisoner, by which he did it, which is the same trespass; and a good plea per Choke J. Br. Trespass, pl. 332. cites 14 E. 4. 8.

3. So where a parker licences a man to drink with him in his lodge, though the licence is derived by a servant, and not by the owner;

per Choke J. Br. Trespass, pl. 332. cites 14 E. 4. 8

4. In

A In trespass the defendant pleaded licence of the plaintiff to enter, Contra of liand the plaintiff said that he broke his door and windows; this is no good replication without traversing the licence, inasmuch as it is a into a tavern licence in fact. Br. Replication, pl. 55. cites 21 E. 4.

cence in law, as to enter to drink, or to enter to see waste, take distress, and the like, it is a good replication that he broke a sup, or staid all night, or killed the diffress e for misusing a horse borrowed, &c. lies action upon the case, and not trespass vi & armis; but it is a good replication after the licence in full executed, that he came back after the same day, and broke as above, &c. And the best opinion was that the other may rejoin to those, as to say that he did not break the cup, or flay there all the night, or be did not kill the d firefs, and thall not be compelled to lay not guilty. Ibid.

5. Trespass for entering his house and taking his goods. The defendant pleads quoad the goods not guilty, and quoad the entry that the plaintiff's daughter licenced him, and that he entered by that licence. The plaintiff replies non intravit per licentium suam. The first issue was found for the defendant, and the second for the plaintiff, that he did not enter by the licence, and damages afsessed to 801. It was moved in arrest of judgment that he ought to have traversed the licence, and not the entry by the licence, or the entry by itself, or the licence by itself, and not both together; and of that opinion were Williams and Yelverton; to which Popham agreed, had it been at the common law; but being tried, it is made good by the statute of 32 H. 8. which aids misjoining of issues; for an issue upon a negative pregnant is an issue; per quod adjornatur. Cro. J. 87. pl. 13. Mich. 3 Jac. B. R. Myn v. Cole.

(M. a. 5) Justification. Pleadings.

[524]

1. TRESPASS for breaking his house and close. The defendant So of entry justified that the plaintiff was his tenant for years, and he en- into a tavers, and the other tered to see if he did waste, &c. The plaintiff said, that he staid said, that there by a day and a night; and a good replication. Br. Replica- after bis ention, pl. 12. cites 11 H. 4. 75.

and the other try be 10'k B cup and beat bis servant. Br Replication, pl. 12. cites 11 H. 4. 75.

2. Trespass of nusance, and of stopping a gutter, to the nusance of the plaintiff in furrounding his land. The defendant prescribed to amend the gutter, and to stop the water during that time. The plaintiff said, that de son tort demesne, &c. and traversed the prescription modo & forma; and so to issue. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 48. cites 39 H. 6. 32.

3. In trespass for pulling down his hurdles in his close, the defendant justified, for that one B. was lord of the manor of D. and that the faid B. and all those whose estate he had in the said manor, had a free course for their sheep in the place where, &c. and that the tenant of the faid close could not there erect hurdles without the leave of the lord, and that B. let to the defendant the faid manor, and because the plaintiff erected burdles without leave, &c. in the said close, be cast them down, as it was lawful for him to do. The plaintiff replied of his own wrong, without cause, &c. It was holden by the Vol. XX.

justices to be an ill plea; for the plaintiff ought to have traversed the prescription. 4 Le. 16, 17. pl. 59. Trin. 26 Eliz. B. R. Ruishbrook v. Pusanies.

4. In trespass of breaking his sences, and eating up his grass with hogs, the defendant pleads, that the sences were out of repair. The plaintiff demurs, because the desendant does not say that they are the plaintiff's fences, nor that the plaintiff's close was contigue adjacens. Per Hale Ch. J. the not alleging that it was the plaintiff's mound seems not good, and then the plaintiff shall have judgment; and so he had. Freem. Rep. 347. pl. 432. Mich. 1673. King v. Rose.

officers) ought to set forth the judgment; and so must the party who is plaintiff, if he justifies; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 443. Hill.

9 W. 3. B. R. in case of Britton v. Cole.

Contra to former judg.
ments, as in
Cro. C. 138. fion is sufficient to count upon. 12 Mod. 506. Pasch. 13 W. 3.
Skevil v.
Avery.——

6. In trespass, justification without shewing the commencement of the possible of the commencement of the commence

And 2 Mod. 70. Searle v. Bunion.—And 3 Mod. 32. Langford v. Webber.——And Carth. 9. S.C. ——See Possession (1) pl. 2.

* Lutw. 1492. S. C.

[525] (N. a) Trespass excusable. What Act or Thing will excuse a Trespass.

[1. IF my beasts escape (not contra pacem) into the land of J. S. and tramples his corn, this escape shall not excuse me of trespass, but a writ of trespass lies against me for default of good keeping of them. 27 Ass. 56. adjudged. 12 H. 7. Kell. 3. b.]

[2. If A. leases land to B. for life, and after leases it to C. for years to commence after the death of the lessee, and then B. sows part of the land, and dies before severance of the corn, and afterwards C. enters into the residue of the land not sown, and puts in his beasts, and the beasts go against his will and feed the corn:

in his beasts, and the beasts go against his will and seed the corn: this shall not excuse him, but the executor of B. shall have action of trespass for it; for he ought to take care of his beasts, that they do no damage to another man. And here the emblements belong to the executor of B. and he has liberty to permit them to grow there till a convenient time for their severance. M. 10 Car.

B. R. between PITTS AND COLLIBEARE adjudged upon a demurter. Intratur, Tr. 10 Car. Rot. 575.]

3. In false imprisonment, the defendant said that the father of the plaintiff held of his master by service of chivalry, and died, the plaintiff being within age; and he by command of his master, seised him, and detained him sin months; and after one E. an elder brother of the plaintiff, who was ravished into Scotland, came back; and the defendant perceiving it, weived the plaintiff, and seised E. Judgment si actio, and a good plea. Br. Notice, pl. 19. cites

22 Aff. 85.

4. If the eldest brother goes over the sea, the youngest thinking that So where a be is dead, cannot justify to enter into the land; per Portington. Br. Trespass, pl. 141. cites 21 H. 6. 14.

executors, and goes beyond sea, the Br. Trespale, executors, thinking him dead, seise the goods, he shall have trespass; per Portington. pl. 141. cites 21 H. 6. 14.

5. If an infant delivers goods to the defendant, it is a good excuse in an action of trespass; but a gift by an infant is void. Br. Trespaís, pl. 150. cites 22 H. 6. 3.

6. In trespass of cutting trees, &c. it is a good plea, that the plaintiff bired bim to cut for 8 d. by which he cut, as lawfully he might, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 383. cites 33 H. 6. 55.

7. In trespass the defendant said, that the close where, &c. adjoins to the king's highway from such a vill to such a vill, and he chased his cattle in the way, and they entered the close in default of inclosure of the plaintiff, which the plaintiff, and those whose estate, &c. have used to inclose time out of mind. And the defendant freshly purfued and rechased, &c. by which the other said, that it was sufficiently inclosed, prist, &c. Nevertheless, per Danby and Littleton, if grain grows in a common field near the way, and the beafts feed, the defendant shall render damages; for there the plaintiff is not bound to inclose. Contrary above. And the issue was joined upon the sufficient inclosure, and not upon the inclosure only. nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 321. cites 10 E. 4. 7.

8. And where a man has a private or particular way, which is But if a men not the king's highway for all, there if he, who has title, chafes who has me cattle which * enter and feed, trespass does not lie, though it be not inclosed; per Moyle and Choke. Br. Trespass, pl. 321. there, and cites 10 E. 4. 7.

right of way there, chates his cattle enter, for default of inclosure trespass lies; for the not inclosing is no matter to him who has no title to chase there; per Moyle and Choke. Br. Trespals, pl. 321. cites 10 E. 4. 7.

[526]

9. If a man bas common in D. and one W. S. has land adjoining, which he is not bound to fence, as in the field country; there the commoner is bound, when he puts his beafts in the common, to keep them that they do not go into the land of W.S. Per 2 justices. Br. Trespass, pl. 345. cites 20 E. 4. 10.

10. Justification in trespass for subverting his soil and feeding the grass, by a custom, that where he ploughs he may turn his plough upon the land adjoining, by which he did so, and his horses in the turning subverted a foot of land, and took a mouthful of grass against his will; and well. Br. Trespass, pl. 351. cites 21 E. 4. 28. and

22 E. 4. 8.

11. Trespass quare clausum fregit; it appearred that the de- See (1. 1), fendant had a close adjoining to the highway, which was supposed to pl. 21. S.C. but D.P. be the lord's waste, and that the cattle coming out of his close did cafually stray in the highway, and for this the action was brought. Croke J. said, that if the cattle stay any time on the waste, and depasture there, the lord may have an action of trespass. Fenner said the cattle ought not to feed in the highway; and as it appeared to be alta via regia, which made it the stronger Qq2 against against the plaintiff, he was against the action; and the whole Court disliked much of it, and were of opinion against the plaintiff; but the matter being upon compromise, they delivered no independent. Paul and Trime Lee Description Childs judgment. Bulst. 157. Trin. 9 Jac. Durand v. Childe.

12. In trespass, the defendant pleaded that the plaintiff's sheep Jo. 131. pl. 1. MILLEN V. were trespassing in his ground, and that he chased them out with a FAWTREY, little dog, and he immediately re-called his dog, but the dog purfued S. C. adthem into the plaintiff's ground adjoining. Upon demurrer, it was judged accordingly, held that the action does not lie. And Doderidge J. gave for and the jusreason, that there was no hedge. And judgment was given for tices held further, that the plaintiff. Poph. 161. Pasch. 2 Car. B. R. Millen v. Fandrye. if the dog had chased them out of the land where they were damage scasant into the land of a stranger, and the party did his endeavour to recal the dog, no trespassies; but Jones J. held it not lawful for the party himself to chase them into the lands of a stranger, but to a highway only or a common, or to the land of the owner only.——Lat. 13. MILLEN v. HAWERY S. C. adjudged accordingly, and same difference taken by Jones J. as to the party's doing it by himself or by a dog, and where they drive them into the highway, and where into a common, &c.——Lat. 120. S. C. and S. P. by Jones and Crew Ch. J. and Doderidge J. held that the action did not lie. And Jones agreed clearly, that the chasing with the dog was lawful, and took the difference between chasing by the party himself and where he does it by a dog; and said, that the party himself may chase them into the land of the owner, unless it be into b a crr, and even there in case of necessity. But that in all those cases it seems that trespass lies for the owners of the heasts, because it is not lawful to do a tort to another to ease myself; and that Doderidge said, that here is a damage to the owner of the heasts, but no injury; and that there never shall be trespass unies there is both damage and injury. But the reporter says that notwithstanding all this, judgment was given for the plaintist.

13. No excuse is good in trespass, but by inevitable necessity.
2 Jo. 205. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Dickenson v. Watson. See (G), pl. 1. in the notes, the case more large.

[527] (O. a) Trespass. What will be a Discharge of a Trespass. Death.

[1. If trespass be done to the goods of the testator in the bands of the executor, if the executor after dies, his executor shall not have trespass for it, but moritur cum persona. Contra, 18 H. 6. 22. b.]

Yelv. 89. [2. If a man beats my fervant by which I lose his service by diverse months, and after he dies, yet I shall have action of trespass against the trespassor; for this was a distinct trespass to me. Tr. 4 Ja. but S. P. by B. R. in Huggin's case by Williams.]

does not appear; but Tanfield said, that if one beat the servant of J. S. so that he dies of that bearing, the master shall not have an action against the other for the buttery and loss of service, because the servant dying of the extremity of the beating, it is now become an offence against the crown, it being turned into selony, and this has drowned the particular offence, and private wrong done to the master before; and his action by that is gone; which Fenner and Yeiverton agreed to.——Brownl. 205. Huggins v. Butcher S. C. seems only a translation of Yelverton.

Yelv. 89.

Trin. 4 Jac.

B. R. Higgins v. Butcher, S. C.

and S. P.

agreed; for damages

shall be

[3. But if a man beats my feme, by which she languishes by diverse months, and after dies, I shall not have action of trespass against him after for this trespass, because the trespass was not done to me but to the seme, so that the seme ought to have joined in the action, and I only for conformity. Dubitatur, Tr. 4 Ja. B. R.

Huggin's case.]

given to the seme for the tort offered to the body of her. ____Brownl. 205. Huggins v. Buther,

S. C. and feems to be a translation of Yelverton.——Noy, 18. Higgins's case S. C. and S. P. by Tanfield. And per Cur, the action will not lie; for the king only is to punish felony, except the party. Brings an appeal.

(P. a) Trespass. At what Time. In what Cases it shall be defeated by Matter Ex post Facto.

IF one ravish my seme, and after we are divorced causa frigidi-tatis, yet I may have trespass for ravishment of my seme with iny goods taken, &c. 43 E. 3. 23. 44 Ass. 13. adjudged.]

[2. So if a man ravish my feme, I may have trespass against him after the death of the feme, for ravishment of my feme with goods taken; for in this action he is not to recover the feme, but damages. 44 Ass. 13.]

3. If a man who has no right distrains in his own right, and after But if be justifies as bailiff in right of the lord, this is no good justification, bailiff of the though the rightful lord agrees to it after. Br. Justification, right ford, pl. 14. cites 7 H. 4. 23. per Gascoigne.

and is not his bailiff in fact, and after the lord agrees and he justifies as bailiff, this is a good justification, per Gascoign; but Br oke fays the law feems to be otherwise, for he was once a trespassor; for he had not any authority at the time of the taking, and therefore agreement after will not ferve. Ibid.

4. If trespass be brought of beasts generally, and the plaintiff has [528] the beasts again, this shall be given in evidence; for otherwise the plaintiff shall recover in value. Per Culpeper. And per Hank. where the value of the beafts is alleged in the writ, it is a good plea that the plaintiff himself is seised of the beasts. And per Hill, where the value is alleged the utices of nisi prius shall enquire of the value, not having regard whether the plaintiff has the beasts again or not. Br. Trespass, pl. 93. cites 11 H. 4. 23.

5. If a man abates after the death of my father, and I re-enter, I shall have action of trespass; but contrary if I release; per Newton. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

6. If trespass be done upon tenant for years, and his term expires, he shall have trespass without regress; for his term is ended. Per Fulthorp. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

(P. a. 2) [Defeated by] Act of the Party.

[1.] [3. IF a man takes my beasts without cause, and I sue a deli-verance, yet trespass lies for the taking. 46 E. 3. 26. b. Contra, 7 H. 4. 15.]

[2.] [4. After a trespass upon my land, if I alien the land, yet I Br. Trespass, may have trespass for the trespass done before. 19H.6. 28.b.

pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

[3.] [5. If bailee of goods brings trespass, and bailor other trespass, perAscough. he that first recovers shall oust the other of his action. 48 E. 3. 21. 20 H. 7. 5. b.]

[4.] [6. If the owner retakes his goods from the trespassor, yet he 13 Rep. 69. Per Cur. in shall have trespass for the taking. 11 H. 4. 24. b.]

Heydon v. Smith, cites in H. 4. 23. S. P.

The shall 5. If a man breaks my bouse, and ouss me, and another man distress in the case of against the first disseisor; per Ascough. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. the release of the trespass done after the diffeisin : but contrary of the trespass which is the disseisin; per Newton. Br. Tres-patt, ph 127. cites 19 H. 6. 2;.

6. If A. recovers land by judgment against B. and then J. S. does a trespass, and after B. reverses the judgment for error, yet A. shall have trespass against J. S. For B. cannot have remedy but only against A. and not against strangers. And as the law charges A. with all the mesne prosits, so it gives him remedy, notwithstanding the reversal, against all trespassers in the interim. 13 Rep. 21, 22. in Ninian Menvil's case.

(P. a. 3) [Defeated by] Acts of a Stranger.

Br. Contract, &c.
pl. 9. cites

11 H. 4. 23. this stranger; and if the lesson after sells the beasts to the trespassor, contra. That yet trespass lies for the trespass done before. Dubitatur, itisina manner agreed

11 H. 4. 24. b.]
that such sale extinguishes the action of the lesse; and Hank. was precise in it; quod mirum | for trespassor, and then the sale of the first owner is void; quod quære.—Br. Trespass, pl. 92.
cites S. C. accordingly by Hank. and compared it to the case of a difficisin of A. by B. and then B. is disserted by C. and afterwards A. scleases to C. now the action of B. is determined.

[529]

(Q. a) Trespass. Gist of the Action. In what Cases it lies for an Act by Virtue of an Office.

Br. Quin- [1. IF a man be affessed to pay a 15th by force of a commission, since, pl. 3.

and had been affessed in time before, yet if be ought not to per Hank. pay it, trespass lies against the collector, if he levies it. 11 H. 4. 35.] that if a collector distrains for sisteenths him, who ought not to pay it, trespass does not lie.—But it is said there, that where a man is assissed to sisteenths for his beasts in D. where he has no heasts there, and is distrained by the collector, he shall have trespass against him, and he shall not have aid of the king. Ibid.

2. If a sheriff serves a capias where there is no original, trespass does not lie; per Hank. Br. Quinzime, pl. 3. cites 11 H. 4. 35.

Br Patents.

3. Where the king or the escheator seises by insufficient office, which does not intitle the king by the law, a man shall have trespass against the escheator or grantee of the king, &c. Contra where the escheator seises by reason of a writ where the king has not title. Br. Trespass, pl. 15. cites 9 H. 6. 20.

(Q. a. 2) One or several Trespasses. What shall be faid to be.

1. TRESPASS against 2 of trees cut. The one justified for himself of common there, and the other for common there for himself, and are found guilty, and damages taxed entirely; and by the best opinion it is well; for it is but one and the same trespass, though the answer be several. Br. Damages, pl. 202. cites 11 H. 7. 19, 20.

2. Contra in trespass against two of 2 borses taken; for it is a several trespass. Br. Damages, pl. 202. cites 11 H. 7. 19, 20.

3. If a man cuts a tree and carries it away presently, it is not felony, but one intire trespass; per Hale Ch. J. Freem. Rep. 23. pl. 29. Hill. 1671. in case of Emerson v. Amell.

(Q. a. 3) Vi & Armis. In what Cases Trespass lies [530] Vi & Armis. In respect of the Persons.

1. Marlb. 3. ENACTS, that if any diffrain his tenant for services This branch 32 H. 3. Enanglement and customs, or other thing for which the lord of ed, that the the fee hath cause to distrain; and after it is found that the services lord hall pay are not due*, the lord shall not therefore be punished by redemption. no fine; and therefore by a consequent, fince this act no action of trespass quare vi & armis lies against the lord in this case; for then he should pay a fine. But at the common law trespass vi & armis did lie. 2 Inst. 105.

If the leffor oufts the leffee for years, trespass vi & armis lies, notwithstanding the statute that the lord shall not therefore be punished by redemption; for he may distrain or see waste, but not retain the possession; for this act is not done as lord, and so out of the case of the statute. Br. Trespass, pl. 384. cites 38 E. 3. 33. and 48 E. 3. 6. and 5 H. 7. 10.-2 Inst. 106. S. P. and cites same cases, and 28 E. 3. 97.

Trespals quare vi & armis clausum fregit, and taking his beasts; the defendant said that he leased the land where, &c. for 10 years rendering rent, and so the land is held of us, and within our fee, judgment of the writ vi & armis; and as to the close broken he was compelled to answer by award; quod nota. And if the writ vi & armis lies between leffor and leffee adjornatur; therefore quære. Br. Trefpass, pl. 65. cites 48 E. 3. 5, 6.—Br. Brief, pl. 513. cites S. C.

And another such case was brought by the lissor and J. B. and said there, that because covenant lies of the ouffer against the lessor only, and not against the other who was not party to the lease; therefore trespass vi & armis sies against horb. Br. Trespass, pl. 65. cites 48 E. 3. 6, 7. and says, see 38 E. 3.

fol. 33. that it lies against the lessor alone; and herewith agrees 5 H. 7. 10. Ibid.

Trespess vi & armis lies by the lessee against his lesser for years, by the opinion of the justices; for leffee for years shall do † fealty, and therefore the leffor hath fee there; by which the plaintiff said that the leffer bath nothing but in right of his wife, who is dead fince the lease, and never had iffue. Quere ; for then it seems that the reversion is descended to the heir of the seme, and then the desendant hath not fee there; and the defendant's plea was that he leased for years to the plaintiff rendering ros. rent. and for the rent arrear he entered and diffrained; judgment of the writ vi & armis, and this case was not adjudged. Br. Trespass, pl. 18. cites 9 H. 6. 43.

† 2 Inst. 106. says, that the word (dominus) in this act is extended to the lessor upon a lease for life, or for years; for the lessee for years shall do fealty also. --- And Br. Trespass, pl. 344. cites 20 E. 4. 2. accordingly, that it shall be intended as well to the lessor for term of years, as between other tenant and his lord; per Cur. — But Ibid. pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10. it is said, per Cur. that it is intended between lord and tenant, and not between leffor and leffee.

Trespass vi & armis, the defendant justified as bailiff for rent arrear, within the fee of his master, and demanded judgment of the writ vi & armis. Hill said, that the writ is good enough against the bailisf vi'& armis, notwithstanding the statute of Marlbridge, cap. 3. that the lord shall not therefore be punished by redemption. Contrary against the lord himself. Br. Trespass, pl. 98. cites 11 H. 4. 78. and 9 H. 5. 14.—S. P. Ibid. pl. 220. cites 7 H. 6. 3. per Cur.—S. P. Ibid. pl. 377. cites 2 H. 4. 4. for the statute is to be taken strictly. ____S. P. 2 Inst. 106. for the bailiss is not dominus.

2. In trespass the defendant avowed for beriot arrear, &c. And the plaintiff said that de son tort demesne without such cause, and the defendant tendered demurrer, because the writ is vi & armis where he is lord, and yet the defendant was compelled to join the issue as the plaintiff had tendered; quod nota. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 5. cites 44 E. 3. 13.

3. Trespass vi & armis. The defendant said that the plaintiff held Br. Trespals, pl. 88. cites three acres of him by fealty and 3d. and for the rent arrear be dif-8. C. — _s.p. Br. trained; judgment of the writ vi & armis, and a good plea. Br. Brief, pl.

Brief, pl. 115. cites 8H. 4. 16.

407. cites 20 H. 6. 24. held a good plea per Cur. whether any rent be arrear, or not-

Br. Trefpais, pl. 92. cites S. C.

4. In trespass, if a seme covert delivers the baron's goods to W. N. trespass vi & armis lies against W. N. per Skrene, which Hank. denied; the reason seems to be because seme has lawful meddling with goods of the baron. And it is agreed that such taking is not felony; but quare of trespass. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 36. cites 11 H. 4. 24.

[531]

5. Trespass of a close and house broken vi & armis, the defendant pleaded not guilty to the force and arms; and to the reft, that he was seifed, and leased to the tenant for years, and came there to see if waste was done. Judgment; and a good plea; per Hill and Hank; but Thirn contra. Br. Trespass, pl. 97. cites 11 H. 4. 75.

S. P. Ibid. pl. 362. cites 22 E. 4. 5.

ľ

6. If the lord distrains his tenant for rent, where none is arrear, or fuch like, which may be intended to be done as lord, trespass does not lie vi & armis. Br. Trespass, pl. 16. cites 9 H. 6. 29.

Br. Labour-' ers, pl. 29. eites S. C.

7. Where a man beats him who ferves me at pleasure, or an infant whose covenant is void, yet I shall have action upon the case for the battery, for the loss of my service. And the same law where I retain a man who is beat, &c. and here it lies for the master vi & armis. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 55. cites 21 H. 6. 8, 9. and Register, 102, and 182.

8. Trespass quare vi & armis clausum fregit, and cutting his And to the entry the defendant faid, that the plaintiff held of him by fealty and rent, and demanded judgment of the writ vi & armis. And per Cur. it is no plea, unless he fays that the rent was arrear, and that he came to distrain; and yet it shall not be traversed. But if no vent be arrear, he cannot enter unless as a stranger, who shall be a trespassor; by which the defendant pleaded accordingly, and as to the trees cut, not guilty. And per Cur. this is no plea to the writ above, but to the action; for the action does not lie vi & armis against the lord, who demeans himself as lord; by which the plaintiff said, that he held of B. and not of the defendant. And it was said, that writ of trespass of close broken does not lie without vi & armis; but justicies may be without Br. Trespass, pl. 317. cites 8 E. 4. 15. vi & armis.

9. In replevin, if the lord claims property and will not avow, trefpass lies vi & armis, and he shall make fine and ransom. Br.

Trespass, pl. 317. cites 8 E. 4. 15.

10. Trespass vi & armis. The defendant justified for distress by tenure of him by rent and services. And the plaintiff pleaded, that riens arreare; and found for the plaintiff, by which he demanded judgment. And the defendant alleged the statute of Marlbridge, that the lord shall not therefore be punished by redemption, and by all the justices, because the statute is negative and restraining; and it appears in the record, that the defendant is confessed to be lord, therefore the plaintiff shall not have judgment. Br. Judgment, pl. 121. cites 10 E. 4. 7.

11. Trespass vi & armis does not lie where my bailiff cuts trees Br. Trespass, without cause, or * kills my cows, sheep, &c. nor where my bailiff or butler breaks my bowl, &c. for he has lawful possession of them. +S.P. per And yet see 13 E. 4. fo. 9. that if he steals them it is felony; for Collow. Be. it is the possession of the master. But in the first case, trespass 8. cites 28 lies upon the case. Quod nota. Per Chocke and Catesby. Br. E. 4. 5. Action sur le Case, pl. 99. cites 18 E. 4. 27.

Trespass, pl.

Pl. 343. cites

12. If a man takes my cattle out of the possession of him to whom I bail them, I shall have trespass vi & armis; per Colow. Br. Trespals, pl. 362. cites 22 E. 4. 5.

13. Trespass quare vi & armis he cut his trees. The defendant · justified as servant, and by command of the tenant at will of the lease of the plaintiff. And per Brian, the plea is not good; for the tenant at will himself cannot do it; because he cannot grant the land over, for he has strict interest, and therefore truspass vi & armis lies. Br. Trespass, pl. 362. cites 22 E. 4. 5.

• - 14. If tenant at will himself cuts the trees, trespass lies vi & armis; per Colow. Br. Trespass, pl. 362. cites 22 E. 4. 5.

15. Trespass quare clausum fregit, & averia cepit, & abduxit. Bu: it was The defendant said, that the place was his frantenement, and the cattle were damage feasant, by which he took them. The plaintiff if the depleaded lease for * years made by the defendant, which yet continues. fendant bad And the defendant demurred, because it was vi & armis; and yet justified for the writ is good, per tot. Cur. by reason of the breaking of the just fied for close. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

in a manner agreed, that the full, that the writ vi

& armis had abated. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

16. In several cases a man who is tenant of the franktenement shall As lord of be punished by trespass vi & armis for an act done in his own franktenement. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

[532] shall bave trespass vi & armis, agoinst the oconer, quare vi & armis warrennam suam intravit. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

And if a man grants wishnam terræ for term of years, and the granter takes the vesture, there the . grantee sball Lawe trespass vi & armis. Br. Trespais, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

So if a man sells his trees, and afterwards cuts them, the vendee shall have trespass vi & armis. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

And so of other liberties and profits in another's land, which was agreed by all the justices. Br. Trespaís, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

17. If the lord does an act in the land of his tenant which does not be- 18. P. per long to him to do as lord, as labour the distress, or tkill it, or cut trees, Ibid. pl. 317. trespass lies vi & armis. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10. cites 8 E. 4. 15.—S. P.

> Ibid. pl. 362. cites 22 E.4. 5. 1 S. P.

IS. P. So if he breaks a door, or a window, &c. which cannot be intended as lard, there the tennet may have a writ of trespals quare vi & armis against the lord, notwithstanding the statute of Maribridge, cap. 3. Br. Trespals, pl. 16. cites 9 H. 6. 29.——S. P. And so if he seeds the ground of his tenant, or the like. 2 Inst. 106.

. So if the lord breaks the gates or bedges, trespals lies vi & armis. Br. Trespals, pl. 344. cites

30 E. 4. 2.

18. The lord cannot break the close to distrain; but shall have affise, if it be so inclosed that he cannot enter to distrain. Br. Trespass, pl. 273. cites 5 H. 7. 10.

29. Holt Ch. J. declared for law, that no action of tresposs vi armis would lie for a tenant at will against his landlord for the lord's entering or distraining for rent, &c. 11 Mod. 209. pl. 13. cites D. 119. 10 E. 4. 7.—2 Inst. 105.—Mo. 105.

(Q. a. 4) Vi & Armis. In what Cases Trespass lies Vi & Armis. In respect of the Thing, &c.

Br. Quod
permittat, pl.
5. cites S.C.
—S. P. Br.
Trespass,
pl. 47. cites
44 E. 3. 20.

I. IF a man ought to grind his grain toll free, and the miller takes toll, trespass lies vi & armis, and not action upon the case; and nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 41, cites 41 E. 2, 24.

S.P. Br. quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 41. cites 41 E. 3. 24.

2. It was awarded for law to be a good plea in trespass of taking of goods vi & armis, to say that the defendant bad deliverance thereof by replevin; judgment of the writ; for after this the plaintiff shall not have trespass, but shall pursue by the replevin; and such deliverance is by the law, and not as trespass, and therefore the defendant who obtained deliverance of it by replevin, is not trespassor, nor trespass vi & armis does not lie of such taking by replevin; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 48. cites 44 E. 3. 20.

[533]

3. If vi & armis be at the commencement, it shall refer to all the matter ensuing. Br. Trespass, pl. 112. cites 38 E. 3. 15, 16.

4. Trespass quare vi & armis, he took his boat and nets, the defendant said that this taking was in the county of H. and there was deliverance made by the sheriff, judgment of the writ vi & armis, and adjornatur; it seems that of deliverance made by the sheriff trespass does not lie vi & armis. Br. Trespass, pl. 76. cites 2 H. 4. 16.

7. Trespass upon the case, inasmuch as the desendant vi & armis stopped a sewer in L. by which 40 acres of his land are surrounded to the damage, &c. And the writ vi & armis awarded good of stopping; contra of laches of nonfeasance, or not repairing, &c. by which the land is surrounded, there the writ shall not be vi & armis. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 46. cites 12 H. 4. 3.

6. In assise, the disseisin shall not be supposed to be with force, if it be not inquired and presented. But in trespass, if the issue fasses against the defendant, it shall be intended to be with force and arms, and the party shall make fine; note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl. 119. cites 7 H. 6. 40.

7. In trespass, if a man breaks my hedge to the damage of 4d. and beasts of the common enter and do much damage, I shall recover damages against him in respect of all the other damages, per Jenny and Finch. Brooke makes a quære if he shall have trespass vi & armis, armis, and give all in evidence, or shall have it vi & armis of the breaking, and action upon the case for the other damage by the entry of the beafts; and fays it seems, that he shall recover all the damages by the general action of trespass vi & armis. Quære if trespass vi & armis and upon the case may be all in one and the same writ. Br. Trespass, pl. 179. cites 9 E. 4. 4.

8. Trespass quare vi & armis columbas suas cum pantello & aliis ingeniis cepit; and by the serjeants the action quare vi & armis does not lie; but de columbario fracto & columbis captis, action lies , vi & armis; quære, for there is no property. But there in the next case trespass was brought of a goshawke, and hawk taken and carried away. Br. Property, pl. 30. cites 16 E. 4. 7.

9. If a man comes into a tavern, and takes the cup or beats the ferwant of the house, trespass lies vi & armis for this misusage after, and yet his first authority was good; per Colow. Br. Trespass,

pl. 362. cites 22 E. 4. 5.

10. In trespass, the defendant said that the plaintiff himself was feised in see, and leased to the desendant for 6 years, and that after the term ended, the defendant held himself in, and did the trespass of which the plaintiff has brought this action before any entry. Judgment, &c. And by all the justices, trespass vi & armis does not lie before that the plaintiff has made regress, as here; quod nota. Br. Trespals, pl. 365. cites 22 E.4. 13.

11. If the writ of trespass be returnable, then these words vi & armis shall be in the writ; and if it wants those words it shall abate, unless they are writs of trespass upon the case, which writs shall not have these words although they are returnable in C. B. or B. R. and if they have the words quare vi & armis, it shall be good cause to abate them. F. N. B. 86. (H).

12. If beafts are taken in a common, or other land which belongs not to the ouner of the beafts, yet he shall have trespass vi & armis, but not quare clausum fregit. Br. Trespass, pl. 421. cites 3 M. 1.

13. In trespass of affault, beating and wounding the plaintiff, and taking a bag with 100l in it, but because there was no vi & armis in the declaration, which must necessarily be in trespass, and is not matter of form but substance, and not aided by any of the statutes, a judgment in B.R. was reversed. Cro. J. 443. pl. 19. Mich. 15 Jac. in the Exchequer-chamber, Taylor v. Welsted.

14. Trespass for breaking his bouse and taking away his dishes, the [534] defendant justified under a by-law; but that being ill the plaintiff demurred; but because the declaration wanted the words vi & armis, the Court held it naught upon a general demurrer, being an omission of the substance; for it alters the judgment from a capiatur to a misericordia: besides, it belongs to the county court if it be trespass without vi & armis. 2 Salk. 637. pl. 3. Trin. 3 W. & M. B. R. Wildgoose v. Kellaway.

But see now the statutes of 16 & 17 Car. 2. cap. 8. and 4 & 5 Ann. eap. 16. at tit. Amendment and Jeofail.

(Q. a. 5) Contra Pacem. In what Cases it shall be Contra Pacem.

I. TRESPASS of taking his beafts contra pacem, the defendant justified for distress for a tenure, by which he distrained with the peace, and not contra pacem. The plaintiff said, that de son tort demesse, and contra pacem, without such cause; and the others e contra; and so to issue without exception. Br. De son tort, &c.

pl. 37. cites 24 E. 3. 72.

2. Trespass of corn trampled. The defendant said, that not guilty. The jury sound that the beasts trampled it by escape, to the damage of 5s. but not contra pacem. Tank. said, in this case he ought to have a bill without these words contra pacem. And because it was in default of good keeping, therefore the plaintiff recovered. Br. Trespns, pl. 249. cites 27 Ass. 56.

3. Trespass of taking the borse of the plaintiff at D. of the price of tol. and carrying it to P. and there killing him contra pacem; and because there is a mean time between D. and P. and so the defendant as trespassor had property, and then the killing at P. cannot be of the horse of the plaintiff, therefore per opinionem the bill shall abate; by which he brought another bill that the defendant had killed the horse of the plaintiff at P. contra pacem, and then well. Br. Trespass, pl. 250. cites 27 Ass. 64.

4. Trespass upon the case, for not repairing and amending his bank, and [scouring his] rivers, by which 30 acres of the plaintiff's land was surrounded, so that he lost the profits thereof for 5 years, to the damage of 30l. But because the writ was contra pacem, it was abated. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 20. cites

45 E. 3. 17.

5. In trespass the plaintiff declared of chasing his cattle, vi & armis, into the close of J. S. who took them damage feafant, and compelled the plaintiff to pay him 40s. for the damages. After verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the declaration had not contra pacem, as it ought to have; because the bill is in placito transgressionis, and the declaration was vi & armis. But it was answered, that the action was not brought merely for the chasing the cattle, but for chasing them into another man's lands, so as they were trespassors, and he was forced to compound for the damage; and its being vi & armis does not prove it to be an action of trespass; for these words may be in an action on the case, as in 9 Rep. 50. the EARL OF SALOP'S CASE. And though the recital of the bill be in placito transgressionis, it is not of necessity to be trespass only, but may serve for trespass on the case. And all the Conrt being of that opinion, it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 325. pl. 7. Mich. 9 Car. B. R. Tyffin v. Wingsield.

[535] 6. Trespass. The words contra pacem were omitted in the declaration; and therefore after execution of a writ of inquiry, judgment was arrested upon motion. But Holt Ch. J. seemed to incline, that it would have been good after verdict. Mr. Knott.

1 Ld. Raym. Rep. 38. East. 7 W. 3. Melwood v. Leech.

7. It

7. It was said, arg. that since the capiatur pro fine is taken away, it is not necessary to allege the trespass contra pacem. But Holt Ch. J. denied it, and said, it is the vi & armis that may be omitted. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 985. Trin. 2 Ann. in case of Day v. Muskett.

(Q. a. 6) Writ and Declaration. Good or not.

1. THE writ in trespass contains only a general complaint, with-out the expression of time or damage, which might have been at any time done, and was intended to defend the estate itfelf against the invasion of the neighbours, and seems to have been thus generally allowed before the distinction of bounds; and therefore the vill only was alleged where the trespass was supposed to be done, and the plaintiff might count of any trespass committed G. Hist. C. B. 3. cap. 1. before the fuing out of the original.

2. In trespass vi & armis for cancelling a deed, and set forth, Yelv. 223. that J.S. the defendant, being seised of land in see, infeoffed A. and his heirs with warranty, referving rent, with clause of distress; and afterwards by deed bargained and fold the rent to the plaintiff, auho casually lost the said deed, and the desendant found and cancelled it; but did not expressly shew that he was at any time, before upon the 34 the action brought, possessed of this deed, but only by implication exception argumentatively. By the whole Court, the plaintiff ought here in his declaration to have shewed, that he was possessed of the deed before, S. C. acwhich he has not done; and fo, for this omission, the declaration cordingly, is not good. And the rule of the Court was, quod querens nil capiat, per billam. 1 Bulst. 214. Trin. 10 Jac. Suckfield v. Con-translation stable.

3. In trespass for entering his close on such a day, and detaining possession usque diem exhibitionis billæ; and did not allege what day the bill was exhibited. The plaintiff had a verdict. It was objected, that it ought to have appeared to the jury how long the defendant had detained the possession, that they may proportion the damages accordingly, and that its appearing to the court of record is not material; and of this opinion was Doderidge J. And Broome informed the Court, that the usage was to limit a day certain in 2 Roll. Rep. 135. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. Sliford v. the declaration. Goodricke.

4. In trespass for taking his goods and chattels, it was adjudged, that if the words pretii and ad valentiam are omitted, after a verdict it is aided by the statute of jeofails. Sid. 39. pl. 1. Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Usher v. Bushell.

5. In trespass the entry was quod cum pradict. &c. and this being moved in arrest of judgment, it was staid per Cur. Keb. 130. pl. 52. Mich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Shepherd v. Tomkins.

6. In trespass for chasing and driving his cattle to places unknown, 2 Keb. 76. fo that he lost them, the Court was of opinion, upon demurrer, that the dethat the declaration was ill, because hereby the plaintiff shall have murrer was damages as well for chasing as for driving to places unknown, on 1 Car.

S.C.by name CONSTA-BLE, held accordingly, there. — BrownL222 and feems to be only a of Yelverton.

whereby 20. pl. 24.

[Cro. C. 20. whereby he lost his cattle. Sid. 295. pl. 16. Trin. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Cooper v. Coatabed. trefpass of driving being drowned by the trespess of chafing away. But the Court doubted on 10 H.7. debt on contract and obligation. But adjornatur.

[536] 28. Mich. 36 Car. 2. Robinson v. Sayers.

7. In trespals for taking goods it was moved in arrest of judg-Keb. 783. Pl. ment, because it was not said (sua.) And per Cur. it is ill, and judgment staid; but in custodia sua existent were sufficient. B.R. S.P. 3 Keb. 100. pl. 44. Hill. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Gallant v.

> 8. Trespass of entering a close, and pulling down and carrying eway posts, &c. As to the posts, on not guilty, and justification of entry for a way, found against the defendant, and damages 1d. and judgment. The defendant assigned for error, that it was not faid ad valentiam, which as to chattels, distinct from freehold, ought to be; sed non allocatur; for per Curiam, this is but form, and aided by 21 Jac. cap. . and judgment affirmed. 3 Keb. 728. pl. 13. Hill. 28 Car. 2. B. R. Hingly v. Saunders.

9. Trespass for that on 1 May, &cc. he broke and entered his close, and digged bis land, and carried away 20 loads of ful, valoris 40s. continuando the faid trespass as to the digging, taking, and carrying away the earth and soil aforesaid, from, &cc. ad damnum 301. Adjudged ill, because no value is mentioned of the soil carried away during the continuando. 2 Lev. 230. Mich. 30 Car. 2. C. B. Strode w. Hunt.

10. Trespals for taking and carrying away averia ipfius quer. viz. unum equum, &c. nec non unum galerum, Anglice, one hat. After verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, that as to the hat there is no property laid in the plaintiff; and judgment was stayed. 2 Show. 395. pl. 365. Mich. 36 Car. 2. B. R. Dannet v. Collingdell.

11. In trespass the plaintiff declared quare vi & armis clausure fregit; and after verdict for the plaintiff judgment was arrested; for quare is not positive but interrogatory, and much worse than quod cum. Salk. 636. pl. 2. . . . 1 W. & M. B.R. Hore v.

Chapman.

12. Trespass quare clausum fregit & solum & fundum, viz. duas acras terra did dig, subvert, and carry away. After verdict it was moved that the declaration was insufficient as to the digging and carrying away the soil; for duas acras terræ signifies only the measure and extent of the ground where the digging was, and not the quantity of soil carried away. And for this reason judgment was staid per tot. Cur. 2 Vent. 174. Pasch. 2 W. & M. in C. B. Highway v. Derby.

13. Trespass, &c. quare clausum fregit, & diversas pecias moberemii cepit, &c. After a judgment by default, and a writ of enquiry returned, the judgment was stayed for the uncertainty of the declaration. 2 Vent. 262. Hill. 2 & 3 W. & M. in C. B.

Anon.

14. The writ was quare vi & armis he broke the plaintiff's house, and took and carried away bona fua; but the declaration was of breaking the house, and taking bona & catalla, but left out

(fua)

(fua) and also (vi & armis). After judgment by desault, it was moved in arrest of judgment, 1st, That the declaration was ill, because of the omission of vi & armis. 2dly, Because it did not allege that he had property in the goods. But it was answered, that in * C. B. the writ is part of the declaration; and that the omis- * See tit. sions objected in the count are mentioned in the writ to which it Property refers, and thereby the declaration is made good; and the plain- lones v. tiff had judgment. 2 Lutw. 1509. Hill. 12 W. 3. Daile v. Coates. Princhard.

15. Trespass for breaking his close, and throwing bricks and other materials there lying erga confectionem domus de novo erect. into the sea. It was held that the declaration was repugnant and insensible; for there could not be materials towards the building a house which was de novo erect. for then it is already built. 2 Salk. 458. pl. 3. Mich. 9 W. 3. B. R. Lodie v. Arnold.

16. Trespass of affaulting and beating the plaintiff, &c. and breaking and entering his bouse, and also that they assaulted and menaced bis sons and daughters, nec non E. N. servam suam, & alia enormia, &c. Upon not guilty pleaded the plaintiff had a verdict. It was objected that the master could not maintain trespass for beat- [537] ing his servant, without some special damage, which ought to be shewn; but resolved that this action was for breaking and entering the house, and the further description is only to shew the enormity of the trespass, and by way of aggravation of damages for the breaking and entering the house. 2 Salk. 642. pl. 14. Trin. 5 Ann. B. R. Newman v. Smith.

(Q. a. 7.) Pleadings in Trespass. Good, or not. And what shall be a good Plea.

1. TRESPASS in C. it is no plea to the writ that the place where, &c. is in K. and not in C. but he may justify in K. absque bec that he is guilty of any trespass in C. And so he did for common appendant in the place where, &c. and the defendant was not compelled to the general issue not guilty in C. but shall have the special plea with traverse, as above, by which the plaintiff was compelled to reply that guilty in C. prout, &c. prist; per Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 176. cites 4 H. 6. 13.

2. Trespals of breaking his close, and spoiling his grass in D. Chaunt. said the place is a carve of land called A. in which the defendant, and those whose estate he has, have held in common with the plaintiff and those whose estate he has time out of mind, and held in common the day of the writ purchased, by which he entered, &c. and a good plea per tot. Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 122. cites

8 H. 6. 16.

3. In replevin it is a good plea that the property is in a stranger. Contrary in trespass; for there he may plead not guilty; note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl 382. cites 20 H. 6. 18.

4. In trespass of goods taken in Coventry, the defendant pleaded delivery in London, by which he took them in London, and no plea, by which he pleaded delivery at L. by which he took them at C. and no plea; for if they were delivered he has possession immediately; but gift in L. by which he took them in C. is a good plea; quod nota; per omnes & per Prisot. Br. Trespass, pl. 33. cites 34 H.6.5.

5. In an action in which the thing shall be recovered, as in quod permittat, assign, &c. and in trespass of goods, it is no plea to fay that the plaintiff had no goods; for this amounts to not guilty. Br.

Trespass, pl. 34. cites 34 H. 6. 28. 43.

6. Trespass of a bouse broken, and goods taken, the defendant said that the plaintiff at the time, &c. held the house of him by 10s. rent, &c. and for so much rent arrear such a day, he took the goods as distress. The plaintiff said that he did not hold the house of him, priss, and the others e contra; and a good issue per Cur. for in replevin and rescous hors de son see is a good plea, contra in trespass; for here he cannot disclaim or answer to the see, for the defendant does not suppose that he has see there, but that he holds of him; and therefore that he does not hold of him is a good plea; quod nota. Br. Issues Joines, pl. 26. cites 38 H. 6. 26.

7. In an action by warden nor sheriff, it is a good plea that he was not warden nor sheriff at the time, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 326.

cites 12 E. 4. 7.

- 8. Trespass for breaking his house and the walls of the sume, the desendant to the breaking of the house pleaded not guilty, and to the walls justified. And by the opinion of the Court he shall not have both these pleas; for one is repugnant to the other; for by the justification he confesses himself guilty, though it be excusable, and the house and the walls are all one, and he cannot plead not guilty, and justify to one and the same thing. Br. Bar, pl. 51. cites 21 H. 7. 21.
- the defendant pleaded that it was in default of inclosure by the plaintiff, and as to the residue not guilty; and issue thereupon. But before the trial, the plaintiff confessed the bar, and no prosequi ulterius entered, and after the issue is found for the plaintiff; and well. For the defendant had relinquished that part without benefit of the bar; and for that had pleaded not guilty. So, by Popham, if it had been for a trespass in two several acres, and the defendant justifies in one, and as to the other pleads not guilty; the plaintiff may confess part, and have issue and verdict for the ather. And judgment in our case for the plaintiff. Noy, 42, 43. Stephen v. Carter.

Sty. 72.
S. C. but
S. P. as to the manner of pleading, does not appear.

- pleaded that he by compulsion, and for fear of his life, entered the faid house, and returned immediately through the said close, which is the same trespass, &c. The plea was held ill, as well for the matter as the manner, because he did not show that the way to the house was through the said close. All. 35. Mich. 23 Car. B. R. Gilbert v. Stone.
- 11. In trespass, the plaintist declared of chasing and taking his cattle, and carrying away three beisers of the plaintist; the desendant justified the taking and carrying away three heisers of one P. another desendant, by virtue of a warrant from the sheriff in repleving

&c. The Court took exception that this was no answer to the de-And the reporter fays, that this without question was a fatal exception; for he ought to have pleaded not guilty to the taking and carrying away the plaintiff's beafts. 2 Lutw. 1372.

Hill. 3 & 4 Jac. 2. Dale v. Philipson & al'.

12. In trespass for breaking his close and digging stones; the 2 Lutw. defendant prescribed to enter and dig stones for the reparation of his 1387. S. C. bouse, and sences, by which he dug and took them for repairs, but does not fay that he used them, which he should, or at least should say penes se retinet ad reparand'; and so judgment was given for the plaintiff. 3 Lev. 323. 3 W. & M. in C.B. Danby v. Hodgson.

13. In trespass of assault, battery, wounding and imprisoning, The defendant, as to the force and wounding, pleads not guilty, and quoad residuum transgressionis, insultus & imprisona- which was menti he justifies as bailiff by virtue of an execution. It was objected that the plea was ill, because in the quoad residuum he had emitted the battery, and said only quoad residuum transgress' in- ry, and pubfult' & imprisonamenti; so that the not answering the battery was a discontinuance of the whole. The Court agreed that quoad residuum had been sufficient, but when in the quoad he enumerates trespass and all the other particulars, omitting the battery, by this the battery is excluded in the quoad residuum; but upon citing the case of * the King v. Newton, Curia advisare vult. But the plaintist being afterwards fatisfied that the exception would not aid him, he + to prevent the judgment of the Court against him, discontinued. 3 Lev. 403. Mich. 6 W. & M. in C.B. Patrick v. Johnson.

*2Lev. 111. Trin.26Car. 2.B.R. S.C. an indictment of trespals, forgelication; and the jury found the forgery, but omitted the publication. The Court held, that the finding him guilty de transgressione prædicta, included it; as in trespass of assault and battery, the jury found desendant guilty of the trespass and assault. The Court said it had been adjudged that this includes the battery. † This is denied by Serjeant Lutwich. 2 Lutw. 929. S. C.

14. In trespass of taking goods, the defendants justified under a precept to the bailiffs of the borough, delivered to the defendants, then bailiffs of the court, to be executed; but judgment was given for the plaintiff, because they aver that they were bailiffs of the court and officers, but not that they were bailiffs of the borough; and if they were not, then, though they might be bailiffs and officers of the court, yet the precept was not directed to them, and so could not execute it or justify under it; for there might be both bailiffs of the borough, and bailiffs of the court too, and they might be dif- [539] tinct officers. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1530. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Watkins v. West.

Pleadings. How. Where there is a Dif-(Q. a. 8) feisin and Re-entry.

1. IN trespals, the defendant said that he was feised till by D. disseised, which D. was seised till by the plaintiff disseised, upon whom the defendant entered at the time of the trespass; which was adjudged a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 320. cites 10 E. 4. 6. VOL, XX, 2. Tref-

2. Trespass quare clausum fregit, &c. and the defendant said that it was the franktenement of A. and he by his command entered and did the trespass; the plaintiff said that be himself was seised till by the defendant and the faid A. diffeifed to the use of A. and the plaintiff re-entered, and the trespass mesne, &c. And per Cur. this had been no plea, unless the plaintist had made the defendant privy to the tort; for he who does a trespess after the disseisen shall not be punished by the first disseisec. Br. Trespass, pl. 348. cites 20 E. 4. 18.

But if be bad Said that be bimlelf was D. diffcised, the plaintiff,

3. It is no plea in trespass that A. was seised till by D. disseised, who infeoffed the plaintiff, upon whom the faid A. re-entered, whose feifed till by estate the defendant has, because the estate of the defendant is not immediate upon the estate and the possession of the plaintiff; per Brian. Br. who infeoffed Trespass, pl. 274. 5 H. 7. 11.

upon wbom the defendant re-entered; this had been a good plea; per Brian. Br. Trespass, pl. 274.

cites 5 H. 7. 11.

4. And in trespass it is a good plea that the plaintiff disseled the defendant, upon whom he entered; but it is no plea in affife, for it amounts but to nul tort; per Brian. But Vavisor held all one, immediate entry or not, and no diversity between trespass and Nevertheless all the King's Bench held with Brian. Br. affife. Trespass, pl. 274. cites 5 H. 7. 11.

5. In trespass, the defendant justified in 40 acres for common appendant; the plaintiff said to 20 acres that they were parcel of bis waste, and he approved them, saving to the tenants sufficient common, and the defendant entered after the approvement and did the trespass; and to the other 20 acres, he faid, that he was seised and disseled by the defendant, and re-entered; and the trespass, mesne, &c. Note good pleading. Br. Trespass, pl. 423. cites 10 H. 7. 14.

(R. a) Bars of a Trespass.

[1.] F monies are paid in satisfaction of trespass, it is a good bar. 12 H. 4. 8. b.] 5. P. of grass spoiled. Br. Trespass,

pl. 195. cites 39 E. 3. 20.

[540] [2. If a trespass be done to the lord of a leet, for which he is So of putting mud and oramerced in the leet, which is not lawful, if the amercement be levied * and + received, this shall be a bar of the trespass. 12 H. 4. 8. b. 39 E. 3. 20. b. adjudged.]

dure to the walls of bis bouse; for though the amerciament is not lawful for trespals to the lord himself, but only of common nutance, yet as it is paid, it is a satisfaction and good bar in trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 100. cites 12 H. 4. 8. - Br. Replication, pl. 13. cites S. C.

So in trespass, the defendant said that the defendant was amerced for the same trespass in the court of the plaintiff, and affeered to 10d. which the plaintiff bad levied; judgment, &c. And the plaintiff said that he did another trespass the e. prist; and the others e contra. And so see that a recompence is admitted for a bar and fatisfaction. Br. Trespass, pl. 61. cites 47 E. 3. 19.

So where the defendant fuil that he was amerced, which was affeered to 21. of which he had made gree to the lord; and held a good plea by the acceptance of it, though the amerciament in the court baron be exerction; quod nota. Br. Trespals, pl. 66. cites 48 E. 3. 8. ___ S. P. Ibid. 234. cites 22 All. 51. []. So

13. So if he had held court in his chamber, and amerced him, and levied it, this shall be bar of trespass (for he has a satisfaction.) 12 H. 4. 8. b.]

[4. A noussuit in an appeal of maihem, is not any bar in action of trespass of the same battery. Centra 43 Ass. 39.]

[5. If a man recovers in an appeal of maihem, this shall not be But a recovery in trefany bar in trespass for the battery. 22 Ass. 82. by Thorpe.] pais for affault and battery, and execution had, is a good bar in appeal of maihem against the same person upon the same matter; per Ayliss J. Le. 19. cites Cobham's case.

6. Trespass of beasts taken brought in B. R. it is a good plea that So in tresthe plaintiff has replevin pending of the same taking in C. B. to which pass of a the plaintiff has appeared, judgment of the writ; quod nota. Br. breught in Trespass, pl. 257. cites 40 Ass. 31.

birse taken C. B. Ite defendant faid that the plain: iff has replevin pending in B. R. of the same taking; and a good pleaper tot. Cur. Br. Tiespals, pt. 171. cites 14 H. 7. 12, 13. -- S. P. per Newton Ch. J. Br. Trespals, pl. 152. cites 22 H. 6. 15. ——— Same cases cited 5 Rep. 61. b. in Sparrie's case.

So of writ of eletinue p nding of the same beasts; for these affirm property in the plaintiff; per

'Newton Ch. J. Br. Trespais, pl. 152. cites 22 H. 6. 15!

Contrary, to say that the plaintiff has another writ of trespass pending of the same taking; per Newton Ch. J. Note the diversity. Br. Trespals, pl. 152. cites 22 H. 6. 15.

7. Trespass of a horse taken. The defendant said that he had a Br. Issues leet in D. and J. N. was amerced there for purpresture, by which he Joines, pl. was amerced to 10s. by which he distrained the horse of J. N. for s. c. the americanent, and the iffue was taken if the horse belonged to the plaintiff at the time of the taking, or to J. N. Brooke makes a quære of this pleading at this day. Br. Trespass, pl. 59. cites 47 E. 3. 12.

8. Trespass by a prior of trees cut, and franktenement broken, and fervants beaten; the defendant pleaded arbitrement, which by protestation he is ready to perform, & pro placito that the trespass was in the time of his predecessor; to which the plaintiff taking the arbitrement by protestation said for plea that the trespass was in his own time, prist, and the others e contra; and this plea was pleaded to the writ. Br. Trespass, pl. 69. cites 2 H. 4. 4.

9. Trespass in bank of goods carried away; the defendant said that the plaintiff sued plaint of the same trestals in the county, and had deliverance, and a good plea; for by this action he is to recover the value, &c. which ought not to be where he has received the goods. Br. Trespass, pl. 82. cites 7 H. 4. 15.

10. In trespass the desendant said that he himself was seifed till But it is no by one A. diffeifed, who infeoffed the plaintiff upon whom the defendant entered, of which entry the plaintiff has brought his action, was feifed and admitted clearly for a good bar, and all the argument was upon the replication of the plaintiff. Br. Trespass, pl. 17. cites plaintiff dif-9 H. 6. 32.

plea that the defendant till by the seised upon subom he entered. And the same law in assis was said for law. And the reason seems to be inasmuch as it amounts to the general issue, and then he may give the matter in evidence. Br. Trespass, pl. 24. cites 27 H. 6. 3.

11. Trespass against J. N. who said that at another time the [541] plaintiff brought trespass of the same goods against him and T. N. [who] appeared, Rr 2 appeared, and the plaintiff recovered against him, which T. N. is in full life not named, judgment of the writ; and the best opinion was, that it is a good plea, without saying that he had execution; for recovery without execution, if it was against this same J. N. is a good har in trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 20. cites 20 H. 6. 11. and 40 E. 3. 27. 39.

12. Trespass of trees cut and carried away. The defendant to the trees pleaded gift of the plaintiff before the trespass, by which he took them, &c. and to the cutting not guilty. Littleton said not guilty of the cutting goes to all. But Prisot said no, he shall have both; for he may be found guilty of the one, and acquitted of the other. And the same law that gift is a good plea.

42 E. 3. 23. Br. Trespass, pl. 27. cites 33 H. 6. 12.

13. It is a good plea in trespass, that the plaintiff was seised, and leased to him for years, by which he entered and cut the trees, and yet it is waste, but trespass does not lie; per Moyle Just. Br. Trespass, pl. 291. cites 5 E. 4. 64.

14. Trespass. The defendant pleaded lease to him for life made by the plaintiff; per Wood, this is no plea, no more than in assis. But Brian and Vavisor contra; for the lessor has colour by the reversion to enter and see the waste. Br. Trespass, pl. 280. cites 6 H. 7. 14.

Jo. 147. pl.
6. Mich. 2
Car. B. R.
the S. C. and the faid justices held accordingly.
—Lat. 144.
S. C. accordingly.
—But all the books

in bags, the defendant pleaded that he and one A. were indicted by procurement of the plaintiff for the same offence, and that A. was found guilty as principal, and the defendant as accessary, and bad his clergy, judgment si actio, &c. Jones J. thought the action would not lie, because being found felony, the party shall not be admitted now to make it trespass; but Doderidge and Whitlock J. e contra, because an indictment is at the king's suit; but otherwise had it been by appeal. Noy, 82. Markham v. Cobb.

agree that judgment was unanimously given for the plaintiff upon the defect of the plea, by not shewing that the plaintiff gave evidence; for otherwise he shall not have restitution, and the alleging his procurement is not sufficient.

2 Keb. 69.

16. Trespass for riding his horse; the desendant pleaded that poster, viz. such a day, the plaintiss exoneravit eum of the said trespass. Westlake Upon demurrer it was held no plea, and judgment for the plain-s. C. that it tiss; and it seems it cannot be a plea in trespass in any case, is ill withough it may in assumptit before breach of the promise. Sid. 203. pl. 12. Trin. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Westlake v. Perve. accord; and judgment for the plaintiss nis.

17. Where a distress escapes, the distrainer cannot bring tresponded accordingly, afterns in the state of the

-[And it seems by all the books that the pig was lost, and that the defendant never had it afterwards, so as if judgment should have been given against him, he would have been punished doubly, as was observed in the reports, and which it is said there, would have been very hard.]

18. It was agreed, that if a distress is taken damage-feasant, it 1 Salk. 248. is a good bar in trespass so long as it is detained. 12 Mod. 663, pl. 3. S. C. and S. P. in case of Vasper v. Edwards.

[542] (S. a) Trespass. Bar. What shall be a good Bar see it. Tender (M) of Trespass. [Tender.] and (S).

[1.]N an action of trespass for a negligent escape, as where beasts escape into my land, it is a good plea in bar that he tendered to me sufficient amends before the action brought. Tr. 9 Ja.

SIR G. WALGRAVE'S CASE, by Popham and Williams.]

[2. But in an action of trespass for a voluntary trespass, as for 3 Lev. 37. putting in my beafts into his land, or breaking bis hedges, it is not Basely v. any plea, that I tendered to him sufficient amends before the action S. P. brought. Tr. 3 Ja. B. R. Sir G. WALGRAVE'S CASE, by Popham Trespate of and Williams. P. 7 Ja. B. HAWTON'S CASE, per Curiam.]

Clarkson, a close broken, and grals spoiled. The defendant said, that the trespass did not exceed 10s. and he tendered to him sufficient emends; and was held no plea, but a void tender. Contrary in avowry for damage fealant, elienuers, Br. Trespals, pl. 214. cites 21 H. 7. 30.

(T. a) Pleadings. New Bar, &c. In what Cases the Defendant may plead a new Bar.

1. IN trespass in D. the defendant said, that the place is an acres and pleaded in bar. And the plaintiff said that it is 4 acres otherwise than in the bar; and inasmuch as he did not answer to the trespass in this, judgment, &c. the defendant may plead a new bar to this. Br. Trespass, pl. 359. cites 21 E. 4. 75, 76.

2. And in affife of rent, the tenant pleads hors de son fee. The plaintiff makes title to the rent, the tenant may plead in bar of this title; per Vavisor. And all the justices said, that it is clear that he shall have a new bar in those cases. Br. Trespass, pl. 359.

cites 21 E. 4. 75, 76.

3. And where the defendant justified by licence to enter into his house, and the plaintiff said, that the defendant entered the same day, and came back, and after the same day entered and broke his door and windows, of which trespass the action is brought. And to this the defendant pleaded not guilty. But per Catesby J. in such case the defendant shall not be compelled to plead not guilty, but may make bar or justify; for now it is as if it had been comprised in the But per Brian Ch. J. he shall plead not guilty. Br. Trespass, pl. 359. cites 21 E. 4. 75, 76.

4. And where the matter in the declaration, and in the replication,. is of one and the same nature, the defendant shall take the general trawerfe; and of killing of distress, he shall say that he did not kill;

per Choke. Br. Trespass, pl. 359. cites 21 E. 4. 75, 76.

(U. a) Pleadings by Que Estate. Good or not.

I. IN tresposs the defendant justified the taking as distress in the hundred by the default of plaintiff, who was decener, because he and all his predecessors, and all these que estate he has, have been feised of the hundred, &c. time out of mind. And per Hill, clearly he cannot prescribe by que estate without shewing deed thereof; and Hull accordingly, in action upon the case, 1 H. 4. 7. Br. Que Estate, pl. 9. cites 11 H. 4. 89.

2. In trespass the defendant made title by affigument of dower to E. S. que estate the said E. has, which E. is zet in full life. And so it seems that he who conveys by que estate of him who has but a particular estate, ought to aver the life of the particular tail, by which, &c. Br. Que Estate, pl. 46. cites 10 H. 6. 1.

3. In tresposs upon the statute 5 R. 2. the defendant said, that W. was seised in fee, and infeossed N. in fee, que estate be has, and gave colour, &c. and a good bar by que estate, without streaming bow he has his estate, and this in this action, and the like in pracipe quod reddat. Br. Que Estate, pl. 32. cites 4 E. 4. 15.

Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 240. cites S. C.

4. In trespass of spoiling his grass, and breaking his close, Catt. faid the place where, &c. is 120 acres of land, &c. and his father brought assist of common, and recovered against f then tertenant, by which he used the common at the time of the trespass, &c. Que estate in the land the plaintiff had at the time of the trespass. Jenney said, that W. was seised, and infeoffed us, by which we were seised till the trespass, absque hoc that he has the estate of J. against whom the recovery was. And the others e contra; and a good issue, per Littleton; for now the plaintiff claiming by J. shall be estopped, as J. himself should be. Br. Que Estate, pl. 35. cites 12 E. 4. 5.

5. In trespass the defendant said, that J. N. was seised in see, que estate he has, and gave colour; and by the opinion of the Court 2 good plea. Brooke fays quod mirum! for he ought to fay that A. was seised, &c. and infeoffed J. N. in see, que estate he has, or the like. But the plaintiff demurred as above, and the defendant durst not stand to his plea, but pleaded another plea; and the fame term a que estate was traversed, and issue joined upon it; quod nota, Br. Que Estate, pl. 43. cites 9 H. 7. 14.

6. In trespass it is no plea, that A. was seised in fee, and infeoffed B. que estate C. has, who infeoffed the defendant; for the que estate · shall be allowed in the defendant, and not in any who is in the mesne conveyance; quod nota. Br. Que Estate, pl. 49. cites 1 E. 6.

(U. a. 2) Pleadings. Regress. In what Cases a Regress must be shewn.

1. THERE is a diversity where the defendant pleads his franktenement, and where he lays, that J. S. was seised in fee, and infeoffed him, and gives colour to the plaintiff by J.S. There it is a good plea for the plaintiff, that he was seised till by the defendant disseised, absque how that J. S. infeoffed the desendant without sheaving regress; for there is a diversity where the defendant makes title to himself in his bar, which is traversed by the plaintiff, and when not; per Ascough. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

2. Where the defendant in his bar gives to the plaintiff a title, As where and destroys it, it is sussicient for the plaintiff to maintain the same ant makes title without regress; per Ascough. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. cites bar by dis-19 H. 6. 23.

the defendcent as beir, ard the plaintiff claims as beir rubere be is a bastard, &c. there it is sufficient for the plaintiff to say, that he is mulier, and not bastard, without sheaving regress; per Ascough. Br. Trespais, pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

3. And it is sufficient to destroy the title of the desendant with- As in tresout more; and when the title of the plaintiff may stand with the bar, pass the de-there it is sufficient for the plaintiff, without shewing regress, to that J. N. traverse the title of the desendant; per Newton. Br. Trespass, was seised in pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

fee, and infeoffed bim,

and gives colour to the plaintiff by J. N. by which he entered, and the defendant re-entered, and did the trespass, &cc. Now it may be that he entered, and yet no diffeisin to the plaintiff; for it may be that both were upon the land together, and then this is no ouster nor disseif to the plaintist; and there it is sufficient to say, that the defendant had nothing of the flossment of the stranger; per Newton. Br. Trespass, pl. 127. cites 19 H. 6. 23.

4. In trespass, if the defendant pleads, that it is his franktenement, the plaintiff may say that he was seised, and diffeised by the defendant, without alleging regress in the land, house, or close. Contrary of trees cut, &c. there regress shall be alleged, which is traversable; per Prisot. Br. Trespass, pl. 417. cites 37 H. 6. 35.

5. After disseisen or tortious ouster the party cannot have tres- Br. Trespass, pass before that he makes regress, and there in trespass of the trespass pl. 238 cites S. C. mesne the regress is traversable. Br. Trespass, pl. 322. cites S. P. Br. 11 E. 4. 3. Fstates, pl.

46. cites 22 E. 4. 38.

- 6. Trespass does not lie against disseisor before regress. Br. Es- Is a man tates, pl. 46. cites 22 E. 4. 38. per Hussey Ch. J. diffeises me, I may have trespass for the mesne profits, though I do not re-enter, but in pleading I ought to allege re-entry; but this shall not be traversed, quod nota per Pigot, and none denied it. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 131. cites 9 E. 4. 38. at the end there.
- 7. Second deliverance; where a man leases for years upon con- So where the dition, and after the condition is broken, the leffor shall not have action leafe is determined, of trespass before that he has entered again, per Brudnell. Br. Tres- trespass pass, pl. 169. cites 14 H. 8. 23. does not lie without reentry, and this of land and things lecal, but contrary of things transitory; for there a man shall be in possession without entry or seisure; per Brudnell. Br. Trespals, pl. 169. cites 14 H. 8. 23.

(U. a. 3) Plea in Abatement. What is a good Plea in Abatement.

1. TRESPASS in C. near S. it is no plea that C. is a hamlet of S. And so see that action of trespass may be brought in a hamlet. Br. Trespass, pl. 371. cites 29 Ass. 33.

2. Trespass of cattle taken in C. vi & armis, the defendant said that the plaintiff himself had brought replevin of the same taking in N. which is a hamlet of C. returned at this day, to which writ he has counted, and by this writ he does not suppose the taking to be vi & armis; judgment of this writ vi & armis; and a good plea, by which the plaintiff averred that the replevin was sued of another taking. Br. Trespass, pl. 115. cites 38 E. 3. 35.

3. Trespass against three, the one said that the two were dead before the writ purchased; judgment of the writ; et non allocatur, but against the two. And so see that the death of some shall not abate the writ against all, but mirum as here before the writ purchased; for then it is false, &c. But death pending the writ, shall not abate all the writ. And after the other said that the two bought the wood of the plaintiff to the use of the king; and this defendant came to measure the wood, &c. And issue tendered upon the bargain. Br. Trespass, pl. 60. cites 47 E. 3. 18.

4. In trespass, the defendant said that before the trespass the plaintiff leased to J. N. which term yet continues; judgment. This is no plea, per Caund. without privity of the lessee. Br. Trespass,

pl. 62. cites 47 E. 3. 19.

5. Trespass of cattle taken generally. Paston prayed judgment of the writ, for the plaintiff himself is possessed of the cattle, by which he ought to have had writ quod cepit & detinuit per tantum tempus per quod proficuum, &c. amisit. To this Bab. bid him to answer, quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 221. cites 1 H. 6. 7.—And cites M. 11 H. 4. the like matter in trespass; and said there that the desendant in this case is not at any mischief; for he may give it in evidence to diminish the damages; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 221.

6. Trespass in C. it is no plea to the writ that the place where, &c. is in K. and not in C. Br. Trespass, pl. 176. cites 4 H. 6. 13.

Trespass in 7. Trespass in D. it is no plea to the writ that there are two D. the defendant said that there are vithout addition; for it suffices if he be guilty in that there are one. Br. Trespass, pl. 14. cites 9 H. 6. 5. But per Babb. by in the same 9 H. 6. 29. * Nul tiel will as D. &c. Judgment of the writ is a county D. good plea, and 6 H. 7. 3. is accordingly ibid.

netber, and none with ut addition, absque boe that there is any vill, hamlet, or lieu comus out of vill or hamlet called D. only in the same county. And a good piez for the visce by the reporter. Br. Trespis, pl. 299. cites 2 E. 4. 10.

* S. P. Br. Trespals, pl. 19. cites 9 H. 6. 62.

8. In trespass, it is no plea that the vill is in another county; but shall say that nul tiel vill in this county; nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 19. cites 9 H. 6. 62.

9. It

o. It is no plea in trespass that the trespass was done by the defendant and another who is alive, not named, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 20. cites 20 H. b. 11. & 40 E. 3. 27. 39.

10. Trespass of entering into his house and breaking his close; Danby said, the bouse and the close are all one and the same place, and not diverse, judgment of the writ; but per Ascough and Porting. then you may plead not guilty to the one, and justify to the other; and therefore it was awarded no plea to the writ. And yet in præcipe quod reddat it is a good plea; note the diversity. [546]

Br. Trespass, pl. 151. cites 22 H. 6. 7.

11. Trespass de clauso fracto by B. and C. the defendant said that the place is 20 acres of which D. and the plaintiff are possessed in common, and shewed how, judgment si actio; and against C. he faid not guilty. The Court held that he could not justify against. the one, but that this is a justification against both, and he cannot be guilty against the one but against both, for it is a joint-action; but per Moyle be may plead to the writ against the one who has nothing in the foil, as to fay that the foil is to the one only, and justify absque hoc that the other on the day of the writ purchased had any thing in the foil, as in replevin by two, he may fay that the property is in the one, absque hoc that the other has any thing; judgment of the writ; quære, for after he pleaded not guilty against both. Br. Trespass, pl. 300. cites 2 E. 4. 22.

12. Trespass of breaking his close in O. and H. Young demanded judgment of the writ, for H. is a hamlet of O. and was, &c. And per tot Cur. it is no plea in trespass. Contra in præcipe quod reddat, and yet the mischief of the visne was mentioned, & non allocatur, but the defendant awarded to answer.

Br. Brief, pl. 363. cites 7 E. 4. 18.

13. Trespass was brought by the baron and seme of battery of them, The defendant pleaded not guilty, and the damages taxed for the baron 101. and for the feme 40s. And because the seme cannot join with her baron for battery of the baron, therefore for this part the writ was abated; and for the battery of the feme they recovered, for of this they may join in action. Br. Trespass, pl. 190. cites 9 E. 4. 51.

14. Trespass of trees cut, and land depastured in K. Norton faid there is no fuch vill as K. without addition in the same county, prist; and the plaintiff was compelled to answer to it by reason of the visne; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 94. cites 11 E. 4. 61.

15. Trespass by baron and feme of close broken and grass spoiled, the defendant said that A. was feised in fec, and had issue the feme of the plaintiff and the feme of the defendant, and died, and the daughters entered, and the one married the plaintiff and the other the defendant, and so the defendant and his feme held in common with the plaintiffs; judgment si actio; quod nota, by which the other made sole title. Br. Trespals, pl. 163, cites 15 E. 4. 2.

(U. a. 4) Pleadings. Where there is a new Assignment.

1. TRESPASS of a close broken and grass spoiled in D. Chaunt. said the place is a carve of land called A. in which the defendant and those que estate he has have held in common with the plaintiff, and those que estate he has time out of mind, and held in common the day of the writ purchased, by which he entered, &c. and a good plea per tot. Cur. by which the plaintiff assigned the trespass in this land and another, and that of this land he was sole seised, absque hoc that the defendant held in common, and the others e contra; and as to the trespass in the rest, not guilty. Br. Trespass, pl. 122. cites 8 H. 6. 16.

2. In trespass in one acre of land in D. the defendant pleaded the lease of the plaintiff of the same acre, by which he did the trespass, &c. To which the plaintiff said that he was seised of 2 acres, und made a lease of the other acre. And the best opinion was, that it is no plea, but shall say that he did not lease the acre in which the trespass was done, &c. But per Paston, he may say that he leased [547] one acre, and the defendant entered and did the trespass in the one and the other, absque hoc that he leased the acre in which he supposes the trespass. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 15. cites 9 H. 6. 64. 3. Trespass for breaking his close, and digging and spoiling his land with carts and ploughs. Defendant faid the place where, &c. is 3 acres, and that he and all those whose estate he has in such a house, have had a way there time out of mind to 12 acres, &c. with carts and plows to carry and re-carry, and that he at the time of the trespass, &c. came with his carts and plows, &c. plaintiff replied, that besides the said way the defendant had broke his close in another place, and that defendant answered nothing to that; whereupon defendant justified in this place also for another way, 28 above, &c. Per Moyle and Prifot, this is good; for as well as the plaintiff may affign the trespass in a new place, and the defendant shall have a new answer, so where he assigns it in another place in the same land, as here the * defendant cannot justify for both together; for a man may have two ways in one and the same land, and common in the same land and estovers, and digging of turves, or of clay, and he cannot allege all those at the commencement, but one only; but if he has way through all the land, there it ought to be alleged accordingly at the commencement. Contrary where he las a way in the one end only, and another interest in another parcel, there he may be a trespassor in another parcel of the same land; quod Cur. concessit. And per Prisot, the plaintiff in bis new assignment ought to allege in what other part of the same land the defendant has done the trespass; and the defendant in his justification Shall shew in what place of the land, viz. in the east end or west end, &c. and the plaintiff in his new assignment shall shew how that the defendant did the trespass in the south part or north part of the same land, so that a distinction may appear between them; and by him, Moyle suid that the defendant is at large to plead at large fuch matter as he has done here. 37 H. 6. 37.2. pl. 26.

him, where the plaintiff affigns the trespass in other land, the plaintiff ought to give it a name, and if he affigns it in the fame land where the defendant has justified, he ought to give such special notice that the difference may be perceived; by which the plaintiff amended his replication according to the opinion of Prisot; quod nota bene. Br. Trespass, pl. 203. cites 37 H. 6. 36.

4. Trespass ubi ingressus non datur per legem; the plaintiff after S. P. Per bar pleaded by the defendant shall not assign the trespass in a new place, because the writ comprehends certainty, viz. quod ingressus est in 4 acres of land and 8 acres of meadow, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 224. H. 7. 6.

cites 38 H. o. 7.

Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 284. cites 9 Contra in general writ of trespess; for there is no such certainty in the writ; per Moyle and Choke. But per Prisot, it is no good plea in the ipass upon the 8 H. 6. and therefore it seems the like in this action, and after the averment was received, and the plaintiff maintained his writ. Br. Trespass, pl., 224. cites 38 H. 6. 7. S. P. per tot. Cur. Br. Trespals, pl. 284. cites 9 H. 7. 6.

5. Trespass of a close broken, and 20 stacks of corn taken and carried away, the defendant said that the place is 3 acres called White Acre, and justified there for damage feasant. The plaintiff said that the place is 3 acres called O. whereof he was feifed in fee, and there was possessed of the stacks till the defendant took them, &c. And no plea, by which he faid as above, absque hoc that they were damage feafant at the time, &c. in the 5 acres called W. prout, &c. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 193. cites 5 E. 4. 53.

6. In trespass, where the plaintiff in his count gives the place, Br. Deputy. where the trespass is supposed, a name, there the plaintiff shall s. C. Per not assign the trespass in a new place; per Choke, which none Choke.

denied. Br. Trespass, pl. 422. cites 9 E. 4. 24.

7. Trespass of breaking his close, and subverting his soil with his cart, and shewed how much of the land was subverted, as he ought, as it is faid, viz. two acres of land. The defendant said that the place where, &c. is 2 acres of land called E. and pleaded in bar. Per [548] Townsend, where the trespass is alleged in certainty, as here, the defendant shall not give the place a name, no more than in trespass upon 5 Rich. 2. or upon 8 H. 6. And the whole Court held contrary to him, that in this action he may plead, as above, and give name, notwithstanding the certainty in the count; for it may stand with his count, and it was not denied but that he shall do so in action upon 5 R. 2. or 8 H. 6. Br. Trespass, pl. 350. cites 21 E. 4. 18.

8. Trespass of breaking his close, and subverting his soil, viz. 30 acres. The defendant pleaded feoffment of the manor of D. of which the place, &c. at the time of the trespass was parcel, and gave colour to the plaintiff; and the plaintiff said that the place where is a rod of land called S. other than the defendant has answered to; and because the defendant had not answered to it, he prayed his damages; to which the defendant pleaded not guilty, and found for the plaintiff am makes to the damage, &c. And there the opinion of the Court was clear, that he shall not make another assignment when he has shewed it in his count, viz. 30 acres; to which the defendant has answered where the that this is parcel of the manor, &c. . For the certainty appears;

And to fee a diversity where the plaintiff in trespass counts in 30 acres, and the defendbar that this is parcel of a manor; and defendant and fays that the place is 30 and there is no diversity when the certainty appears in the count, and acres, and that the when in the replication. Br. Trespass, pl. 284. cites 9 H. 7. 6. plaintiff leesed to him, &cc. for there the plaintiff may assign the trespass in a new place. Br. Trespass, pl. 284. cites 9 H. 7. 6.

Crespals.

9. In trespass, the defendant justified in a place called Black-acre: But where the plaintiff the plaintiff assigned the trespass in White-acre; the defendant said affigus the that the places are all * one and the same place. And per Cur. he trespass in amother place, shall not have it for a plea, but may plead the same justification to it. And per Brudnell, Pollard, and Brook, in this case the the defendan' may jujdefendant may plead not guilty to this new assignment; for the plaintify to it, or tiff by this has confessed that he claims nothing in the place where the picad not defendant justified, and so he shall be tricked upon the evidence; guilty. Br. Treipais, pl. quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 168. cites 14 H. 8. 4. & 24. 268. cites 14 H. 8. 4. and 24.

But upon such an assignment the defendant cannot justify in another will, absque bot that he is guilty in the place supposed by the plaintist; for this amounts to not guilty there. Be. Trespass, pl. 168. cites 14 H. 8. 24.

Hence it follows, that if the plaintiff counts the place certain at the commencement, the defendant shall not have this pleading as above. Br. Trespass, pl. 168. cites 14 H. S. 24.

- S. P. and upon a demurrer it was adjudged without argument to be no plea; for it is repagnant to fay they are both one, when the plaintiff by his replication has affirmed upon record that it is enother ; for when he fays alius it cannot be idem; and so are 14 H. S. 4. 27 H. S. 7. And Walmily said it was so adjudged 28 Eliz. wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 355. pl. 13. Mich. 36 & 37 Eliz. in C. B. Freeston v. Standford & al'-Poph. 109. pl. 5. Mich. 38 & 39 Eliz. S. C. by name of Fenner's case, says it was adjudged for the plaintiff, because that in such a case upon a special affignment, it shall be taken merely another than that in which the defendant justifies, inasmuch as the plaintiff in such a case cannot maintain it upon his evidence given, if the defendant had pleaded not guilty to this new affignment, that the trespals was done in the place in which the defendant justifies, although it be known by the one and the other name, and that the plaintiff bath good title to it, because by his special assignment, saying it is another than that in which the defendant justifies, he shall never after say that it is the same in this plea; for it is quite contrary to his special assignment. And upon this a writ of error was brought in the King's Bench, and the judgment was there affirmed this term for the same reason; quod nota.—Cro. E. 492. pl. 10. S. C. by the name of Farston v. CROUCH accordingly, by Popham, Clench, and Fenner; and because the plaintiff is estopped to give evidence in that which the defendant hath pleaded, the defendant should have pleaded in bar to the place newly affigned, or have pleaded not guilty, according to 14 H. S. 4. and 27 H. S. 7. But Gawdy e contra, who held the law to be with 21 H. 6. 21. For it is not reasonable, that if they are all one place, but he may plead it, and not to stand upon an estoppel, and put it upon evidence to a jury; but because the other justices were of a contrary opinion, he assented that judgment be assirmed. ------Mo-460. pl. 641. S. C. by the name of Couch v. Freestone, that where the plaintiff make a new effigurement the defendant ought to plead not guilty, and cannot aver that the place where, &c. is one and the fame.
 - bis franktenement; the plaintiff assigned a new trespass in B. which is other place than A. and because the defendant did not answer to the trespass in B., &c. the defendant said that A. and B. are one and the same place, and not diverse. And per Cur. this is no plea; for by the new assignment of the trespass the first har is waived, and the defendant may plead not guilty to the trespass in B. and if the plaintiff gives evidence in A. the desendant may estop him by the first matter in the resusal of A. quod nota, and then the desendant pleaded other matter; and in assist if the desendant pleads hors de son see, and the plaintiff makes title, the first har is waived. Br. Trespass, pl. 3. cites 27 H. 8. 7.

11. In trespass for breaking his close, the defendant says the place where is 6 acres in D. which are his freehold, the plaintiff replied his his franktenement, and not the franktenement of the defendant. If the plaintiff has 6 acres there, and the defendant has other 6 acres, the defendant cannot give in evidence that he did the trespass in his own 6 acres, but his plea shall be intended to relate to these 6 acres of the plaintiff, because till defendant gives a name to the place where the trespals was done, the plaintiff need not make any new affigument, fince the defendant hath not varied the meaning of the plaintiff, as by saying that the place where, &c. is 6 acres called Greenmead, &c. D. 23. b. pl. 147. Mich. 28 H. 8. Anon.

12. If the plaintiff in trespass makes a new assignment, and gives a special name to the place, and also assigns boundaries on every part of the place, viz. east, west, north, and south, and names the boundaries, it was held by several that be ought to prove those to be true, as well as the name of the place, because every word, which is put in the new assignment to make the place plain and certain to the jury before the words alias quam in barra, is effectual, and the buttals are parcel of the new assignment; but quære, because the opinions are differing. D. 161. b. pl. 46. Trin. 4 & 5 P. & M.

Saunders v. Lord Burgh.

13. In trespass quare clausum fregit, &c. the new assignment was_And. 31. pl. (viz.) in one acre of land or meadow lying in a field in S. aforesaid called 73. in the Northfield, &c. The defendant, as to the trespass de novo assignat in pred' acra terre, pleaded not guilty. But the jury was discharged, by cices this the opinion of the Court, for the uncertainty in the new assignment, it being of land or meadow, and there being no buttals or name to abated for the acre; and also the answer was to the acre of land only. And the this uncerplaintiff might have 2 acres, one land and the other meadow. D. 264. pl. 39. Trin. 9 Eliz. Anon.

case of LEB V. MAYER, cale, and that the writ tainty. And adds, fo nota, that this new affignment is as parcel of the declaration; otherwise could not be that the writ abate it, but rather ought to be a repleader, and so to commence at the new assignment, which was not done for the reason aforesaid. Bendl. 177. pl. 222. S. C. that the pleading was adjudged void of both parts.

14. Trespass of breaking his close and house. The defendant 4Le-15. pl. in his plea put the plaintiff to a new assignment, (viz.) an house 56. 33 Eliz. called a stable, a barn, and another house called a cart-house, and most the granary. Per Gawdy J. the same is good enough; that the word very same domus in the declaration is nomen collectivum, and contains every thing mentioned in the new affignment, and so was the opinion of the whole Court. 2 Le. 184. pl. 230. Mich. 32 Eliz. B. R. Hore v. Wridlesworth.

15. When in trespass the defendant pleads in bar, and the plaintiff makes a new assignment, it is reasonable that the defendant ration was may answer to this new assigned wrong; for by 27 H. 8. after a new assignment the old bar is waived, and out of the book, and the defendant shall plead to the new assignment as if he had never pleaded before; per Gawdy J. To * which the other justices agreed. Goldsb. 191. pl. 128. Hill. 43 Eliz. in case of Bodyam and that it v. Smith.

[550] The declaof taking an ox in Dale. The defendant justified the taking in Bl. Acres wa. bis freeboid, for damage feafant. The plaintiff made a new offignment, that the place where the taking was. was Wh. Acre in Dale; and the defendant justified for heriot service. Goldib. 191. Bodyam v. Smith. The Court were all clear of opinion, that the defendant might vary in his justification upon the new affigument, and I a judgment in C. B. was reversed, and this upon conference with the justices of C. B and great deliberation. Mo. 540. pl. 713. Mich. 35 & 36 Eliz. Odiham v. Smith. ---- And. 298. pl. 306. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. ---- Cro. E. 589, 550. pl. 27. Mich. 39 & 40 Eliz. B. R. theS. C. And the Court held the pleading well enough; for by the new affigument the bar is out of doors, as if it never had been pleaded; and cited 27 H. 8. 7. And it may be that he took the ox in Bl. Acre, being his own land, for damage feafant, and another in Wh. Acre, as for the heriot, and so they may well stand together; and if the case he so, he could not have pleaded it And judgment in C. B. was reversed.—Goldsb. 191. pl. 128. Bodyam v. Smith, S. C. otherwise. accordingly.

S. C. cited by North Ch. J. wbo faid that it ed whether a new af-Egnment might be in a trespals for dall v. Sendall.

16. Trespals of taking his beasts at K. and chafing them, &c. The defendant justifies in such a close for damage feasant. The plaintiff replies, that the place where was another close, &c. Whereupon has formerly the defendant demurred, pretending that the plaintiff never made been doubt- any new assignment, but where the writ is quare clausum fregit. But the Court held the contrary, wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. J. 141. pl. 18. Mich. 4 Jac. B. R. Batt v. Bradley.

taking goods, till it was resolved in this case that it may, but that it is generally used in trespass quare ciausum fregit. Freem. Rep. 238. pl. 250. Mich. 1677. Cockley v. Pagrave.

> 17. In an action of trespass, and a new assignment made, &c. the issue is found for the plaintiff, and the writ of enquiry of damages was general, without any mention of the new affignment. And yet it was ruled by the Court, that judgment shall be entered for the plaintiff, although that the clerks say in ordinary course it is otherwise; and with that judgment agreed the case of PULLEN AND EASON, H. 43 Eliz. B. R. Rot. 941. for the new assignment > is not the declaration of the certainty of accompt. Noy 26. Sen-

18. In trespass for taking and carrying away 100 loads of turf at L. the defendant pleaded, that the locus in quo, &c. (whereas there was no place alleged) was a acres colled Bl. Acre in L. which was bis freekold. 'The plaintiff replied, that the locus in quo, &c. was a piece containing 20 acres in L. alias quam, &c. The defendant rejoined, that quad aliquam transgressionem in prædictis 20 acres, not guilty. After verdict for the plaintiff it was moved, that this was no iffue, because there were neither 20 acres, or any place certain in the declaration. But adjudged for the plaintiff; for though it was not in the declaration, yet it was no departure, because both parties agreed that the trespass was done at L. so that the affigning a more particular place in L. stands with and reduces the declaration to a greater certainty, and supplies it; and so is helped by the statute of jeosails. Hob. 176. pl. 197. Hill. 14 Jac. Plant v. Thorlev. 19. In trespuis of his close broken, against J. and 2 others, the worit was general; but the declaration was of plowing balf a rood, and in digging another bulf road; and after in his new as figument showed it to be a fellion, containing by efficient on acre. And it was found for the plaintiff, and damages affessed to 20s. And now it was moved in arrest of judgment, because the new assignment is more large than the declaration; and the opinion of the Court was, that because this was but an action of trespass, where damages only is to be recovered, that this is very good; but otherwise it is,

perchance

[551]

perchance if it had been in an ejectment. Win. 65: East. 21 Jac. C. B. Avis v. Gennie & al.

20. Battery was laid at D. The defendant justified at S. in the same county, on aid, and the command of bailiffs, to prevent a rescue of goods taken by them in execution. But the plea was held to be ill; for the bailiffs have authority throughout the whole county, and so the cause of justification in the same county not local; and therefore he should have justified in the same place (being in the same county) where the plaintiff declared; and if the place had been material, he should have traversed all other places in the same county. And judgment for the plaintiff. 3 Lev. 113. Mich. 35 Car. 2.

C. B. Bridgwater v. Betheway.

21. Trespass for taking his cattle in Newmore. The defendant pleads that the place where was Stone-hill, and justifies that it is bis franktenement. The plaintiff replies that there is a river runs through Newmore, and on the north-side of it is Stone-hill, but that he took the cattle on the fouth-side of the river; and concludes hoc paratus est verificare; and because the defendant has not answered to the trespass in this place now assigned, demands judgment. The defendant demurs generally; and it was urged that this replication was not well concluded; for he ought to have stopped at hoc paratus est verificare, and not have demanded judgment for not answering the trespass new assigned, when it was impossible he should answer it before it was alleged. But per Curiam, this is but matter of form, and though not so formal, yet the defendant not having shewed it for cause, cannot take advantage of it, although it had been proper only to have averred it, or else he might have traversed, absque hoc that he took the cattle at Stone-hill. Freem. Rep. 238. pl. 250. Mich. 1677. Cockley v. Pagrave.

22. If a man brings trespass for taking his cattle in Black Acre on such a day, and the defendant justifies the taking at another place damage feasant, the plaintiff may make a novel assignment, if there were 2 takings. So if there were 2 batteries on one day, and the one were on the plaintiff's oron assault, and the other not, if he will justify one de son assault demesne, he may make a new assignment of the other battery. Agreed per tot. Cur. 6 Mod. 120. Hill.

2 Ann. B. R. in case of Elwis v. Lombe.

Pleadings. (W. a) Que est eadem Transgressio. See Record Good or necessary in what Cases.

(N), pl. 19.

1. TRESPASS. The defendant said, that the land is 4 acres, of which he was seised in fee till by the plaintiff disseised, upon which he entered; which is the same entry of which the action is brought. And a good plea, per tot. Cur. because the action was of entry into the close of the plaintiff, and the defendant has averred that it is the same entry, for otherwise it is no plea; for if otherwise, then it seems that he shall say that it was his franktenement, &c. or make title and give colour, &c. Br. Trespass, pl. 357. cites 21 E. 4. 74.

2. Trespass

Jenk. 92. pl. 2. Trespass of breaking his close the 1st day of May. The defend78. cites S.C. ant pleaded licence of the plaintiff the same day, by which he entered.

trespass of Judgment si actio, and a good plea, without saying that it is the goods carried same trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 219. cites 21 H. 7. 39.

desendant justifies the same day and place. Br. Trespals, pl. 219. cites 21 H. 7. 39.

So in trespals of battery, and he justifies the same day and place, it is good, without saying that it is the same trespass. Br. Trespass, pl. 219. cites 21 H. 7. 39.

But if he justifies at another day, or another pla e, then he ought to say, which is the same trespass, &c. And this per Constable, Serjeant, which was affirmed by all the Court for clear law. Br. Trespass, pl. 219. cites 21 H. 7. 39.——Jenk. 92. pl. 78. cites S. C.——S. C. cited by Williams J. Bulst. 138. Trin. 9 Jac. in case of Vastenope v. Taylor.

- of Suff. 26 Sept. 21 Eliz. The defendant pleaded, that P. Farl of A. was seised of 60 acres of pasture called S. in Thetford in the said county, and let them to R. W. 28 Eliz. for 21 years; and that the plaintiff tempore quo clausum pradic? fregit & cuniculos ipsus R. ibidem inventos cum retibus & aliis ingeniis capere voluit, for which the defendant, as servant to the said R. and by his commandment, molliter manus imposuit upon the plaintiff at T. in the said 60 acres, to hinder him from carrying away the said conies quæ est eadem, &c. Absque hoc that he is guilty de transgressione & insultu, &c. alibi vel alio modo in dict com Suff. prout, &c. & hoc, &c. And upon demurrer it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 242, 243. pl. 7. Trin. 33 Eliz. B. R. Barret v. Havesett.
 - 4. Trespass for taking his cattle at D. and driving them to places unknown. The defendant pleaded, that S. was seised in see of 12 acres in M. and that the cattle were there damage seasant, and he by the command of S. drove them to D. and thence to F. in the same county, where he impounded them, which is the same taking; absque hoc that cepit averia predict. apud D. Adjudged the plea was ill, for that the traverse is a departure from the first plea, and repugnant to the matter which induces it. And it was said there needed no traverse, because the matter of the justification is transitory, and not local; but it suffices that he justifies in another place. Cro. E. 667. pl. 21. Pasch. 41 Eliz. C. B. Sir Walter Sands v. Lane.
 - 5. Trespass of affault and battery in London. The defendant pleaded, that the plaintiff entered into his house in Waltham, in the county of Essex, and he molliter manus imposuit upon him, to put him out of his house, quæ est eadem, &c. Absque hoc, that he is culpabilis extra Waltham. Upon demurrer it was moved, that this trespass being transitory, the place is not traversable; but if it was, yet he ought not to conclude his plea quæ est eadem, &c. But all the Court held the contrary; for the cause of the justification being local, viz. the maintaining of the possession of his house, he may well justify there, but not elsewhere, and he may traverse every other place; as where one justifies as constable, or by force And therefore Popham said, the difference is beof a warrant. truixt this case and the case of PATRIDGE, which was adjudged in this court, that where one justifies by reason of an assault in another county, and traverses the county in the declaration, that is not good; because the justification is personal and transitory, and might miight be alleged in any place as well as the battery. But where it is local, as here, it is otherwise, and the conclusion quæ est eadem transgreilio, &c. is good enough; for it concludes, that it is the same cause of action, but with a traverse, as it ought to be of necessity. But if the averment quæ est eadem transgressio had been omitted, it had been good enough. Wherefore, upon the first argument, it was adjudged for the defendant. Cro. E. 705. pl. 27. Mich. 41 Eliz. in B. R. Peacock v. Peacock.

6. If a declaration be general, quare clausum fregit, and does 2 Keb. $60. not express what close, there the desendant may mention the trespass pl. 14. Hill. at another day, and put the plaintiff to a new affignment; but if he fay quare claufum vocat' Dale fregit, &c. there the conclusion, quæ Marshar est eadem transgressio, will not help; per Hale Ch. J. 1 Mod. 89.

p'. 54. Mich. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

23 & 24 Car. 2. B. R. v. Dit-CHEN, feems to be S. C. and it was of trespals of cutting trees 1 May; the desendant justified at another day que est eadem transgressio; but the Court held it ill, unless it was transitory only, but there should be a traverse absque hoe that he is guilty at the day in the deciaration; for the plaintiff cannot reply that he did the ticipals as supposed, because that would be infinite, and so ill'on a general demurrer.

7. In trespass for breaking and entering his house on the 10 Novemb., &c. the defendant justified his entry 1-1 Nov. by process out of an inferior court, &c. Quæ est eadem fractio & intrusio, and traversed that he was guilty aliter vel alio modo; upon a special demurrer, it was resolved inter alia, that if trespass be alleged on [553] 10 Nov. and the justification on 11 Nov. yet if, there be an averment quæ est cadem transgressio, as here, the plea is good without the traverse; and that though the plea was sussicient in matter of Substance, yet the adding the traverse (though merely surplusage) being specially sheavn for cause of demurrer has made it ill. 1452. Hill. 9 W. 3. Hargrave v. Ward.

[X. a) Pleadings. Giving a Name to the Place where Sec(U. 24). the Trespass was done. In what Cases, and how.

TRESPASS in W. of breaking his close and spoiling his grass; Trespass in the defendant justified in T. absque hoc that he is guilty in D. the de-W. modo & forma; the plaintiff said that T. is a hamlet of W. fendant jus-And per Newton and Markham, by this replication they are agreed absque box that W. and T. are all one and the same vill, and then the justification remains not answered. Quære if the plaintiff shall anfwer to the justification in his replication; for it was not adjudged, but issue was taken that T. was a known place, prist, and the others e contra; and per Newton and Markham, it is not sufficient to Tay that T. is not a hamlet of W. but shall say that it is a hamlet of plea pleaded another vill, or vill by itself, or place known. Br. Replication, pl. 4. cites 20 H. 6. 28.

that be is guilty in D. it is a goal replication that C. is a bamlet of D. and to the by the manner, &c. and demurred, &c. For now the plea amounts to a justification, and the traverse amounts to not guilty, which are repugnants Br. Replication, pl. 56. (58.) eites 22 E. 4. 50.

2. In trespass, the plaintiff, in his count, gave the place a name Br. Trespass, certain, viz. Greenclose, and the defendant answered to a house only; pl. 164. cites 15 E. 4. 22 Vol. XX. SI and and per Brian and Littleton, this giving of the place a name is 24. S. C. surplusage, and not traversable. Br. Nugation, pl. 15. cites And fays, that the 15 E. 4. 24. word green-cofe was firuck out. Brooke fays, quod nots, that the name of the place shall not compel the defendant to answer to it.

3. Trespass of breaking his close and subverting his soil, viz. 2 acres of land, &c. the defendant said, that the acres are called White Acres, and pleaded bar; and well per Brian and Choke justices; for the defendant may give name in bis bar, though the plaintiff bas not given name in his count, and if the defendant pleads in bar without giving name to the place, there the plaintiff in his replication may give name to the land where, &c. For otherwise, if the plaintiff have several acres in the same vill, and the desendant has justified in some, and in some not, he shall lose his justification; and when the plaintiff has given name in his replication, he may say that the trespass was done in this land named, &c. But in action upon the stat. of 5 Rich. 2. he shall not plead so by a name, for there the certainty of acres is comprised in the writ; contrary in trespass, quod Catesby concessit; but by him, where the plaintiff gives name in his count the defendant may vary from it; and so note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl. 360. cites 21 E. 4. 80.

viz. one acre of meadow, and half an acre of pasture; the defendant faid that the place is called B. and was his franktenement, &c. Per Fairfax Justice, where he gives name in his writ you cannot vary from it, but contrary where the writ is clausum fregit generally, without shewing name or quantity, there he may vary, though he gives name in his count; but not where he gives name in his writ [554] or in the writ and count: and per Hussey Ch. J. where the writ is quare clausum fregit containing 20 acres or 10 acres, the defendant cannot say that the place, &c. contains 6 acres, &c. or more, by which he may plead by protestation that the place is named B. and pre placito that the place is his franktenement; and therefore he pleaded

4. Trespass, the writ and the count were quare clausum fregit, accordingly; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 366. cites 22 E. [4.] 17. 5. In replevin of taking in D. the defendant justified in C. absque hoc that he took in D. The plaintiff said that the place is known by the one name and the other; and to the plea pleaded by the manner, no law puts him to answer, &c. Br. Replication, pl. 56. cites IH. 7. 21.

6. Action upon the statute of 8 H. 6. of entry into a house, and 20 acres of land with force, the defendant pleaded in bar and gave the acres a name, and was not suffered to give name any more than in assise or præcipe quod reddat, because the plaintiff has given certhinty in his declaration; and so the defendant shall plead to it at his peril; as in writ of entry in nature of assis, he shall not give Br. Pleadings, pl. 134. cites 5 H. 7. 28.

7. In trespass, the plaintiff supposes the trespass to be done in the breaking of his house and close in such a town: the defendant justifies in a house and close in the same town, and shews which, to put the plaintiff to his new assignment; to which the plaintiff replied that the house and close of which he complains is such a house, and gives it a special name, upon which the defendant demurs; and adjudged that the plaintiff take nothing by his writ; for albeit a house may have a curtilage which passes by the name of a messuage with the appurtenances, yet this shall not be in this case, for by the bar the plaintiff is bound to make a special demonstration in what messuage and what close he supposes the trespass to be done, as to say that the house has a curtilage, the which he broke, and it shall not be taken by intendment that the messuage had such a curtilage to it, if it be not specially named. Poph. 109. pl. 4. Mich. 38 & 39 Eliz. Anon.

8. Trespass of breaking his house and closes; the defendant pleaded that the house is called C. and one of the closes is Bl. Acre, and the other Wh. Acre, and that they are his freehold, and so justifies. The plaintiff replies that the trespass done was in C. and in Bl. Acre, which are his freehold, abfque hoc that they are the freehold of the defendant; and that the trespass was done in another place containing 20 acres, alias quam Wh. Acre, &c. Upon demurrer, all the justices, præter Walmsley, held that in regard the defendant has hit some of the places wherein the plaintiff intended the trespass, and pleaded thereto; the plaintiff may well answer to that part, and the defendant shall have no other answer; as if the defendant had hit one place and had confessed the action therein, the plaintist needed not make any answer thereto; and the defendant shall not wave his answer, and answer to all de novo. Wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 812. pl. 18. Hill. 43 Eliz. C. B. Prettyman v. Lawrence.

9. Trespass, &c. for immoderately beating, wounding, and chafing borses and beasts at R., &c. The defendant pleaded that the place where, &c. was called Speltriggs in R. and is his franktenement, and so justified for damage-feasant by gently chasing and striking them with a little stick doing no damage quæ sunt eadem, &c. The plaintiff replied, that de injuria sua propria absque causa the desendant graviter & immoderate percussit the horses, &c. It seems that upon demurrer, judgment was given for the desendant, because the words (apud R. predit?) were omitted in the replication. See 2 Lutw. 1394. and 1398. Trin. 4 W. & M. Cundal v. Hodgson.

(Y. a) Pleading Deed of the Ancestor.

[555] See (C. b) pl. 3.

tra,

1. IN trespass, the defendant pleaded feoffment of the father of the plaintiff with warranty, whose heir, &c. made to the defendant; and no plea per Ashton, Newton, and Porting. by which he waived it, and pleaded the same plea with colour; to which no more was said. Br. Trespass, pl. 156. cites 22 H. 6. 42.

2. In trespass, the defendant said that place is 20 acres, and pleaded a release of all the right with warranty from the ancestor of the plaintiff, whose heir he is, made to J. N. tenant of the land whose estate be has, and relied upon the warranty. Per Suliard this is no plea, but if he had given colour it had been a good plea, but several con-

S1 2

'tra, and that it is no plea, unless when the franktenement comes in debate and by way of conclusion, it is then a good plea, and not as here; for the action stands indifferent, for it may be brought by tenant of fee-simple, fee-tail, for term of life or for years; and this is a real bar, which is no plea in an action merely personal; for it may be that the plaintiff is tenant for years, or by execution by elegit, statute merchant, or such like, and therefore no plea. Trespass, pl. 361. cites 21 E. 4. 82.—And cites 22 E. 4. 4. by the opinion of the whole Court there, except Catesby, it is no plea; quod nota.

See(Q. 2.6). (Z. a) Title. In what Cases a Title must be shewn in the Count or after Pleadings.

1. IF A. brings trespass against B. of goods carried away, and B. fays that the property was in C. who made D. his executor, and died, and the ordinary sequestered, and committed the administration to A. and A. administered, and after D. proved the will and administered, judgment, &c. this is a good plea without making title to B. And the same in debt by executor, to say that the testator died outlawed without making title. Br. Trespass, pl. 347. cites 21 E. 4. 5. per Brian Ch J.

2. Where a man justifies in trespass for distress for rent, which be recovered of a stranger, issuing out of the same land, it is no good justification to plead the recovery only, but ought to shew title also; for if he has no title, the ter-tenant who is a stranger, is not bound by it; per Moyle and Billing. Br. Judgment, pl. 7. cites 35 H. 6. 10.—But see 39 H. 6. thereof; for by them avowry is in the possession, and seisin ought to be alleged and not the recovery

• [556] only. Ibid.

Poph. 1, 2. 5. C. adjudged accordingly; who feems to differ from Clench and Gawdy, said he agreed · that in trefcases the plaintiff may traveric the bar, or part of it, with-

3. Trespass. The defendant justified that W. was seised in fee, and leased to him for years; that the plaintiff claiming by colour of a deed of feoffment, where nothing passed, entered, &c. The plaintiff reand Popham, plies by protestation, that W. was not seised in fee, pro placito, says And being found for the plaintiff, it was movquod non dimisit. ed that the plaintiff has not made any title to himself in his replication. But all the justices held it good enough; for in this action a man need not make any title to himself; but otherpass in some wise in an assise or other real action; also by the defendant's plea, that the plaintiff entered by colour of a deed of feeffment, * he admits him to be tenant at will, which is not destroyed. And it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 288. pl. 4. Mich. 34 & 35 Eliz. in B. R. Justice Fenner v. Fisher.

out making any other title than what is acknowledged to the plaintiff by the bar; but this always ought to be where a title is acknowledged to the plaintiff by the bar, and by another means destroyed by the same bar; for there it suffices the plaintiff to traverse that part of the bar which goes to the destruction of the title of the plaintiff comprized in the bar, without making any other title; but if he will traverse any other part of the bar, he cannot do it without making an especial title to himself in his replication, where by the bar the first possession appears to be in the defendant, because although the traverse there be found for the plaintiff, yet notwithstanding by the record in such a case the first possessions was stail appear to be in the defendant, which suffices to maintain his regress upon the plaintiff; and therefore the Court has no matter before them in such a case to adjudge for the plaintiff, unless in cases where the plaintiff shews a special title under the possession of the defendant.

As for example; in trespass for breaking of his close, the detendant pleads that J. G. was seised of it in his demesse as of see, and insected J. K. by virtue of which he was seised accordingly, and so being feifed, infeoffed the defendant of it, by which he was feifed, until the plaintiff claiming by colour of a deed of feoffment made by the faid J. G. long before he infeoffed J. K. (where nothing passed by the said seossimen') entered, upon whom the desendant did re-enter, here the plaintist may well traverse the seiffment supposed to be made by the said J. G. to the said J. K. without making title, because this feoffment only destroys the estate at will made by the said J. G. to the plaintiff, which being deftroyed, he cannot enter upon the defendant, albeit the defendant comes to the land by diffeifin, and not by the feoffment of the sad J. K. For the first possession of the defendant is a good title in trespass against the plaintiff, if he cannot shew or maintain a title paramount. But the froffment of the said J. G. being traversed and found for him, he has by the acknowledgment of the defendant himself, a good title gainst him, by reason of the first estate at will acknowledged by the defendant to be to the plaintiff, and now not defeated; but in the same case he cannot traverse the feoffmen, supposed to be made by the said J. K. to the defendant without any special title made to himself; for albeit that J. K. did not infeoff the defendant, but that he defendant disselfed him, or that he comes to the land by another means, yet he has a good title against the plaintiff by his first possession not destroyed by any title paramount by any matter which appears by the record upon which the Court is to judge; and with this accords the opinion of 31E.4. 1.

- 4. Trespass, &c. quare fænum suum cepit. Upon not guilty pleaded, the plaintiff had a verdict; and it was moved in arrest of judgment that the declaration was ill, because he had not pursued his title made in the declaration. But Coke Ch. J. said, that quare fænum suum cepit is sufficient. And the Court held clearly the declaration good; for it is only matter of surplusage for a plaintiff in trespass to make title in his declaration; and if he makes a title, and does not pursue it, or if his title be not good, it is not material, being only matter of furplufage, and nugatory. And by Doderidge J. the plaintiff needs not make any title, in an action of trespass, the same being a possession; but if he do make a title in the way of evidence, he ought then to pursue the same, and make it good, but he needs not to make any title in his declaration, faying that this hay was for tithe belonging to his farm, which is more than he needed to have done; this is but furplufage. And judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Bulft. 288. Mich. 12 Jac. Willamore v. Baniford.
- 5. In trespass for striking and killing accipitrem ipsius the plaintiff. After a verdict for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the plaintiff did not shew what kind of hawk it was, whether a gotshawk or lanner, &c. for accipiter is the genus, and he ought to show the species thereof; nor does he show that the barok was reclaimed; for being feræ naturæ, no man can have property, unless reclaimed. But the Court held the declaration good enough, being in trespass for striking and killing, &c. which he only may have who has the possession. Cro. C. 18. pl. 11. Mich. 1 Car. C. B. Sir Fra. Vincent v. Leiney.

6. In an arrest of judgment in an action of trespass for carrying arvay 24 load of timber, the exception was, that the timber is not faid to be the timber ipsius querentis, and so no cause of action. Upon this, judgment was arrested. Styl. 53. Mich. 23 Car. Wood v. Salter.

· 7. In trespass quare clausum fregit, and threw down his fences. [557] The defendant pleaded not guilty to all, but the breaking of the fences, and for that he justifies; for that he was possessed of ceretoin tain corn in the place where, as of his proper goods, and made a breach in the fence, as was necessary for the carrying of it away. The plaintiff demurs specially, because he did not shew by what title he was possessed of the corn. And the Court were of opinion that for that cause the plea was insufficient; and Twisden said, if the sheriff upon a fieri facias sells corn growing, the vendee cannot justify an entry upon the land to reap it, until such time as the corn is ripe. I Vent. 221, 222. Trin. 24 Car. 2. in B. R. Perrot v. Bridges.

S.C. cited 2 Lev. 156. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. in B. R. in case of Terry v. Strad-

8. Trespass quare clausum fregit, berbas conculcavit, & diversas carectatas tritici ibidem asportavit. After verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, because the plaintiff did not set forth whose wheat it was; for it was not said ibidem crescen', but ibidem asportavit. Adjornatur. Vent, 278. Mich, 27 & 28 Car. 2. B. R. Holland v. Ellis.

a case of the Michaelmas term before, as in trespass for eating up so many load of wheat then and there being, with cattle; and because the plaintiff did not say blada iptius, judgment was stayed.

3 Keb. 524. pl. 6. S. C. but that had it been ibidem crescent it would be intended sua; but here being casestat it is sto be intended severed, and may be a stranger's goods; per Wild J. which the others agreed, and judgment staid.

S. C. cited Arg. Ld. Raym. Rep. 239. in case of FORT-LEROY v. AYLMER, and says that Hale Ch. J. then said, that if it had been a new point, he would not have arrested judgment for this cause; for since the plaintist has said that it was his close, the corn there should be intended prima facie his corn; but he said that there were so many precedents to the contrary, that because he would not over-rule them, he arrested the judgment for this cause. And there in the principal case of Fontleroy v. Aylmer, the count in trespass was of sisting in his several sistery, of pisces cepit; and exception being taken for not saying (sues) and so had not intitled himself to the action, he not having laid any property of the sish in him, the Court seemed to incline strongly that this exception was not very considerable for the reasons that Hale Ch. J. gave against his own judgment in that case of Holland.

9. In trespass of breaking his close, and taking his goods, the defendant justified the taking nomine districtionis, by command of the lord of the manor for non-payment of rent. The plaintiff replied that the place where, &c. is extra, absque hoc that it is infra feedum. The desendant demurred specially, because the plaintiff, pleading hors de son see, should have taken the tenancy upon him. But the Court held that this is to be intended in cases of assis, and so Co. Litt. 1. b. is to be understood; but the principal case is an action of trespass brought upon the possession, and not upon the title; so that if the plaintiff destroys the desendant's justification, it is well enough. 2 Mod. 103. Trin. 28 Car. 2. C. B. Sherrard v. Smith.

10. Trespass vi & armis for taking the mare ipsius querentis, nec non bona & catalla sequentia, viz. and sums them up, but does not say they were the goods ipsius querentis; and thereupon the desendant demurs; and resolved the plaintiff may have judgment for the mare, and release the action for the residue. Raym. 395. Trin. 32 Car. 2. B. R. Cutsorthay v. Taylor.

11. In trespass for chasing of his sheep, the defendant made conusance as bailiff to T. for damage feasant in the acre of ground, of which T. was possessed; and there was a demurrer to the plea, because he did not shew what title or estate he had, nor any seism or freebold; and therefore judgment was given for the plaintiff. Arg. 4 Mod. 419. Pasch. 7 W. 3. B. R. in case of Strode v. Byrt, cites it as Trin. 4 Will. & M. in C. B. Godfrey v. Rock.

12. Trespass

12. Trespass for breaking his close at D. et duos equos apud D. 6 Mod. 14. and 20 busbels of wheat de bonis propriis ipsius, &c. did take, &c. the defendant pleaded not guilty as to all but the horses, and as to them justified by distress for rent. After verdict for the plaintiff, S. C. held it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the borses were not alleged accordingto be the goods of the plaintiff. It was held that the plea did not confess a property; for a * distress might be of a stranger's goods the case was for the rent, and that the copulative () did not let it into the subfequent part of the other sentence, so as to make the horses come under the words (de bonis propriis). 2 Salk. 640. pl. 9. Trin. trespass de-2 Ann. B. R. Joce v. Mills.

Mich. 2 Ann. Jose v. MILLS, ly; and the Court faid no morc than this: plaintiff in clares, that the defendant took away two cows from his land in Dale, and also 2 horses of the goods of the plaintiff from the faid Dale; so that laying a venue for the taking of the 2 cows closes up the sentence, and interrupts its being coupled with the 2d sentence, or the matter of description which follows.

[558]

13. In trespass for taking cows in the plaintiff's close, defendant pleads in bar, that they were damage feasant in clauso suo. Plaintiff demurs, because he set forth no title to the close. Resolved that it was well without it; for a possessiory right is sufficient to maintain an action of trespass. And this difference was taken, that where the defendant justifies to a place specially laid down in the declaration, there a title must be shewn; but where no place is specially laid down, as here there is none, there he need not. 10 Mod. 37. Trin. 10 Ann. B. R. Osway v. Bristow.

(A. b) Plea good, without shewing Title in himself, or Authority from him who has.

1. TRESPASS against 2, the one said that the plaintiff was his Br. Trespass, villein, judgment, &c. and the other said that the plaintiff pl.254. cites would not be justified, but essoined himself, and the lord took him as his villein, and the defendant came in aid of him; and the other said that frank, and of frank estate; and so see there and in several other books, he who justifies by coming in aid, does not say that he by command, or as servant of the other, nor at his request, came in aid, and yet well; therefore quære if the law implies request or command; for it feems that he cannot do it de son tort demesne. Br. Trespals, pl. 193. cites 39 E. 3. 16.

30 AII 36.

2. In trespass the defendant said that the plaintiff himself leased But in mortthe land to J. N. for 40 years, which term yet continues, judgment, &c. and no plea by award, without answering that he by his command, or as servant to the lessee, did the trespass; for this amounts tenant may but to not guilty, and that the termor should have the action, and not the plaintiff, who is lessor. Br. Trespass, pl. 57. cites `47 E. 3. 5.

dancestor, &c. it is agreed that the Jay that the plaint off bas an elder brother alive; or that be is not next beir, &c. without making title; for the action affirms him. Contrary against a trespassor; note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl. 57. cites 47 E. 3. 5.

(B. b) Plea. What fetting forth of Title is sufficient.

1. TRESPASS of breaking his close, and spoiling his grass; Littleton said the place is a great field inclosed round, through which field is a way common for kerfe and man to pass, and the plaintiff made there a gate over the way, and at the time of the trespals the defendant opened the gate, and avent on by the avay, & hoc, &c. and a good plea, though he did not fay the field is the frank-[559] tenement of the plaintiff; for this shall be implied by the declaration, when it says clausum suum fregit, and the desendant did not deny this by the plea above, and therefore it shall be intended so; quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 298. cites 2 E. 4. 9.

2. In trespass, the defendant said that J. S. was seised in see whose estate he has, and the plaintiff demurred, and give colour by J. S. And by the opinion of the Court in a note, it was a good plan-Contra by the reporter. And Brooke fays it feems to him that it is not a good plea; for he does not convey title to the defendant; but if he had conveyed title to any whose estate the defendant has, then well, as to fay that J. S. was seised in fee, and died seised, and the land descended to M. who entered, &c. whose estate he has, or that J. S. was seised in fee, and infeoffed N. &c. whose estate be has,

it is good. Br. Bar, pl. 74. cites 9 H. 7. 14.

♥ S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 286. cites

3. Trespass of a close broken. The defendant said, that the place where, &c. is an acre of land, of which he and M. his feme 1211.7.14. were seised in their demosne as of fee before, and at the time of the trespass. And the defendant entered, and did the trespass, and exception was taken, because he did not say that they were seised in jure uxoris, or jointly, & non allocatur; for per kineux Ch. J. it is "fusficient for the defendant to intitle himself to any part of the land in whatsoever manner it be. Br. Pleadings, pl. 84. cites 12 H. 7. 24.

4. In trespass the defendant pleaded, that he leased the land to the plaintiff for another man's life, and that he, for whose life it was, quas dead, upon which he entered. And it is adjudged, that it suffices for the plaintiff to maintain that ceftuy que vie was yet living, without making any other title. Poph. 1, 2. pl. 1. Mich. 34 and 35 Eliz. in B. R. in case of Fenner v. Fisher, Arg. cites 2 E. 4. fel.

5. In trespass for taking his cattle, the defendant pleaded that be avas possessed of a close for a term of years, and the cattle trespassed therein, &c. The plaintiff demurred, and judgment was given for the defendant, though he shewed no title, but justified upon a bare possession. And this difference was taken by Holt Ch. J. where the action is transitory, as trespass for taking goods, the plaintiff is foreclosed to pretend a right to the place, nor can it be contested upon the evidence who had the right, therefore possession is justification enough. But in trespass quare claufum fregit it is otherwise, because there the plaintist claims the close, and the right may be contified. 2 Salk. 643. pl. 16. Pafch. 8 Ann. B. R. Anon.

(C. b) Pleadings. His Franktenement. That the Place where, &c. is his Franktenement, or the Franktenement of his Master.

1. TRESPASS of trampling his grass, the defendant pleaded his franktenement. The plaintiff faid, that the defendant took his grass modo & forma, prout, &c. and was not suffered to have this general averment against this special matter, by which he made title to the land. Br. Averment, pl. 7. cites 38 E. 3. 11.

2. In trespass the defendant said, that the place was his franktenement the day of the trespass supposed, judgment in actio. The plaintiff said, that the defendant disselfed his father, who died, and the plaintiff entered; judgment, &c. And the defendant durst not demur in his first plea; for, by all the justices, the disseis [560] may well be tried in trespass, &c. And it does not appear if the trespass was before the entry or after, but it was tempore ingresfus, &c. as it feems by the pleading, and was of grass spoiled, &c.

Br. Trespass, pl. 80. cites 7 H. 4. 4.

3. Warranty to him, his heirs and affigns, it is a good eflopped Br. Trespass, against the defendant to say, that the land where, &c. is his frank- pl. 102. cites tenement, quod nota, (by the affignee;) but the other took issue with him gratis; therefore quære, &c. For in trespass the same year, fo. 35, 36, the defendant pleaded his franktenement; and the plaintiff pleaded a feeffinent by deed of J. P. ancestor of the defendant whose heir he is, to N.S. whose estate he has; and demanded judgment, if he against the deed of his ancestor, whose heir he is, shall be admitted to say his franktenement; but at last he was compelled to conclude upon the franktenement, because it is only an action of trespass; quod nota. Br. Estoppel, pl. 68. cites 14 H. 4. 13.

4. In trespass of spoiling his grass the defendant said that the place, at the time of the trespass, was the franktenement of his master, by which by his command he entered and did the trespass, judgment, &c. The plaintiff said, that de son tort demesne, without such cause; and held a good plea. And yet if the master himself had been party, and had pleaded his franktenement, there this had been no plea; but the plaintiff had been compelled to have made title, or to have answered to the franktenement; but now the authority of the defendant is in iffue, and not the franktenement.

Br. De son tert, &c. pl. 13. cites 8 H. 6. 34.

5. In trespass the defendant justified, that it was the franktene- Br. Trament of his master E. by which he, by his command, entered and did verse per, &c pl. 84. the trespass. The plaintiff said, that before that E. any thing had, cites S. C. W. was seised, and inferssed the plaintiff, who was scised till by T. disselfed, who infeoffed the same E. and the plaintiff re-entered, and the trespass mesne between the dissession and the re-entry. The defendant said, that N. was seised, and infeoffed E. judgment & non allocatur; by which he said as above, and traversed the disseism, and so to issue. Br. Trespass, pl. 138. cites 21 H. 6. 5, 6.

But in the time of E.6. he shall say absque bec that J. S. was seifed in fee, prout, &c. Ibid.

6. In trespass of entering into his close, if the defendant says, that J. S. was seised, and infeoffed him, and gives colour, the plaintiff may say that R. was seised, and leased to J. S. at will, who gave to the defendant, and R. re-entered, and infeoffed the plaintiff, absque boc that J. S. any thing had, unless at will; and admitted for a good plea. Br. Trespass, pl. 308. cites 5 E. 4. 1.

7. If a man justissies in trespass as his franktenement, it is no plea that it was the franktenement of the desendant, absque hoc that the other leased. Br. Counterplea de Aid, pl. 21. cites 5 E. 4. 2.

8. In trespass the defendant said, that the place is 20 acres, which was the franktenement of S. and he, as his servant, and by his command, entered, and S. took the heasts damage feasant, and delivered them to the desendant, to put them in pound, &c. which he did, &c. and it was held a good plea; for by such taking, the property is not out of the plaintiff; for if it was, then the plaintiff cannot have trespass against the second trespassor; and the plaintiff traversed the franktenement, and would have pleaded another plea for the heasts, and was not suffered, for the first goes to all; for if it be not the franktenement of the desendant, he cannot distrain damage seasant. Br. Trespass, pl. 329. cites 12 E. 4. 10.

9. Trespass of beafts taken in A. in B. the defendant said, that be bimself was seised of 4 acres called C. in B. aforesaid, and the same day found the beafts damage feasant in C. and took them and chased them towards the pound, and they escaped into A. and the defendant freshly retook them, which is the same taking, &c. Pigot said, of your own tort without such cause. And, per Brian and Chock J.

this is no plea; for where the defendant intitles himself to the soil by the plaintiff, or his ancestors, or as his franktenement, this ought to be answered specially, and shall not say generally, that de son tort demesne; quod nota. And after, per Brian, the plea is good enough; for, by the plea, it is proved that he took them before. Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 22. cites 21 E. 4. 64.

Br. Pleadings, pl-133cites S. C. 10. In trespass of goods carried away, the defendant said, that the place is his franktenement, and he found the goods damage feasant. And per Cur. it is no plea without shewing the certainty of the land, because he has made to himself title to the goods, and therefore he shall shew the certainty as well as if he had made title to the franktenement in trespass de clauso fracto. Br. Pleadings, pl. 77. cites 5 H. 7. 28.

S. P. Br.

Pleadings, pl. 133. cites
S. C. But certainty of the land; because the writ and the plea are general, and the makes title to the Pleadings, the place where, &c. is his franktenement, without shewing the certainty of the land; because the writ and the plea are general, and he makes title to the land; quod nota, per tot. Cur. Br.

Pleadings, pl. 77. cites 5 H. 7. 28.

land; for his franktenement is no title, because it may be by disseisin; quod nots, per tot. Cur.

12. Trespass quare in seperali piscaria sua piscatus suit. The desendant pleaded franktenement; and a good plea, per Brian and Keble. But Wood contra. Quære is it had been in sibera piscaria sua; sor it seems that a man may have liberam piscariam in another's soil; but several piscary shall be intended in his proper soil. Br. Trespass, pl. 426. cites 10 H. 7. 24.

13. Trespass

13. Trespals for taking and carrying away his trees. The defendant pleaded the common bar, viz. that the place where the trespass was supposed to be, is his (the defendant's) freehold, and so justifies as in his freehold, &c. But adjudged ill; for this is no plea in trespass de bonis asportatis, but peculiar only to a trespass quare clausum fregit. Quod nota. Carth. 176. Hill. 2 & 3 W. & M. B. R. Alstone v. Hutchinson.

14. In trespass for breaking his close, and carrying away his wood and stones, &c. the defendant justified, &c. that the place where, &c. is called R. close, aid is his freehold. The plaintiff replied, that it was his freehold, and that the defendant, de injuria sua propria, did break and enter, &c. and carried away the wood and frones, &c. and traversed that it was the freehold of the defendant. And upon demurrer the defendant had judgment, because the plaintiff ought to have concluded his replication to the country, for there was no new assignment; for this always alleges, that the place mentioned therein is alias quam in Barra, so that the place being agreed on both fides to be the same, the traverse of the freehold must be ill. Therefore the plaintiff jught to have concluded his replication thus, viz. that it was his freehold, and not the freehold of the defendant, & boc petit quod inquiratur per patriam. 2 Lutw. 1399. Trin. 5 W. & M. Hustler v. Raines.

15. There are 2 ways of pleading liberum tensmentum; the one without any manner of certainty, the other with a certainty. 1st, If there be any certainty, as that the place is Black-Acre, liberum tenementum of him, then the way to reply is to make a new affignment. 2. If there be no certainty, the way is to ascertain the place, and to make himself a title to it in the replication. Arg. and per Cur. if 2 man declares quare clausum generally in such a vill, the desendant may plead liberum tenementum; and if the plaintiff traverse it, it is at his peril; for the defendant, if he has any part of his land in the whole town, shall justify it there; and therefore, in that case the better way is to make a new affignment. 6 Mod. 119. Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Elwis v. Lombe.

(D. b) Pleadings ill. Want of Certainty.

[562] See (C. b) pl. 10. 25.

TRESPASS of grass cut. Per Newton Ch. J. if the defend- S. P. Br. ant justifies, and intitles himself specially, as by descent, feoff- pl. 26, cit ment, &c. he ought to shew the quantity of the land, as to say that s. c. the place contains 20 acres of land, &c. But contra where be fays, that the place where, &c. is his franktenement. Note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl. 153. cites 22 H. 6, 24.

2. In trespass of an affault and battery, the plaintiff declares, Intrespass, quod cum the defendant die & anno, &c. the aforesaid plaintiss ver- the plaintiss beravit & vulneravit, &c. and upon that the plaintiff recovered. quare cum. And now error is brought, and assigned in the declaration; be- it was cause there is not any direct affirmation, that the defendant verberavit, &c. but it is quod cum verberavit. The prothonotaries judgment, being but no raic was made, the Court being of opinion, that thingh the cam in being asked by the Court what the course was, said, that in C. B. it was in debt with a quod cum, &c. The Court liked the difference well; and said certainly, that such a declaration in trespass cannot be good, so the judgment was reversed. Noy, 58. Sheriff. v. Diggs.

the count, if it flood alone, might be had, yet the recital of the original, which goes before, belos it. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 174, 175. East. 8 G. 2. WARREN V. LAPDOS. And cites CLARKE V. Lu-CAS, Mich. 2 Geo. 2. which was removed into B. R. by writ of error, and remains there undetermined.

3. Trespass quare clausum fregit, & spinas suas ad valentiam succidit. After verdict, upon not guilty, and found for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the declaration was not good, because he does not shew the quantity of the loads, or load, and so it is uncertain; as in the case, Coli. 5. sol. 34. PLAYTER'S case, trespass quare pisces suos cepit; and of that opinion was the Court, but they would advise. Asterwards being moved again, in the end of the term, many precedents were shewn for the maintenance thereof, wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. J. 435. pl. 3. Mich. 15 Jac. in B. R. Johns v. Wilson.

The reporter if the action had been laid ty of Cornwall, where it is usual to carry corn in the straw wpon horses, whether the

4. In trespass inter alia, for taking and carrying away 40 loads says, quare, of corn in the straw. After verdict for the plaintiff it was moved, that the declaration was uncertain; for the plaintiff had declared in the coun- for 40 loads of corn in the straw, and it does not appear whether they be horse-loads, or cart-loads, or what other loads of corn they are. But Glyn Ch. J. answered, that it is well enough expressed; for it being of corn in the straw, it shall be intended cart-loads, and therefore let the plaintiff have his judgment. Styl. 466. Mich. 1655. London v. Wilcocks.

declaration would have been good. Ibid.

5. Trespass quare clausum fregit, & arbores succidit ad valentiam. decem librarum. To which the defendant demurred generally. The plaintiff prayed judgment for breaking of his close; but as to the other, the declaration was insufficient, because not expressed what kind of trees. I Vent. 53. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. B. R. Tomlinson v. Hunter.

6. Trespass, &c. against P. and T. of breaking his close, chasing and taking his beasts. P. pleaded not guilty. T. justified by a warrant in replevin, setting forth, that P. was possessed of the cattle, and that the plaintiff took them unjustly, whereupon P. complained to the sheriff, who made a warrant to the defendant to replexy the cattle. [563] Upon demurrer it was objected, that it was not said that P. was possessed of the cattle ut de bonis propriis. 2dly, That no place was expressed where the complaint to the sheriff, nor where the warrant by bim, was made. 3dly, That he ought to have pleaded, that the warrant was in writing. But none of these exceptions were refolved, because the Court agreed that the declaration was ill, as to the chafing of the beafts, because it did not shew what fort of beafts they were; and so the parties agreed to amend on both sides. 2 Lutw. Rep. 1372. Hill. 3 & 4 Jac. 2. Dale v. Philipson & al'.

7 Trespass for taking 200 bushels of salt. The defendant justified under the statute 10 W. 3. for laying a duty on falt, and that it.

was

was shipped to be exported, and not weighed; and that he was an officer, &c. and seised it. The plaintiff replied, de injuria sua propria absque tali causa. Upon demurrer, Holt Ch. J. said, that where a desendant justifies by authority at common law, as a constable by arrest for a breach of the peace, under process of the admiralty, &c. there de injuria sua propria, &c. is a good replication; and so it is where the desendant justifies by authority of an act of parliament, because that being a general law can be no part of the issue. And the Court held the plea ill, because the defendant did not shew what fort of falt this was, whether bay-falt, pit-falt, whitefalt, &c. for the statute does not extend to all. 2 Salk. 628. pl. 3. Mich. 13 W. 3. Chance v. Weedon.

8. Trespass, &c. for entering his house, and taking several keys for opening the doors of the said bouse. Upon not guilty pleaded, the plaintiff had a verdict. It was objected, that the taking of each key was a distinct trespass, and might require several answers, and that the kind and number ought to be ascertained. But it was refolved, this was sufficiently ascertained by reference to the bouse. 2 Salk. 643. pl. 15. Pasch. 8 Ann. B. R. Layton v. Grindall.

. (E. b) Traverse necessary in what Cases.

I. In trespass of grass carried away, the defendant pleaded his franktenement, and so justified. The plaintist replied, that long before the defendant any thing had in the franktenement, one A. B. was feised in fee, and leased to the plaintiff for years set continuing, by which he entered, and was poffeffed till the defendant did the trespass: and held good, without faying any thing more. D. 171. b. pl. 9. cites Fitzh. tit. Replication and Rejoinder, Trin. 41 E. 3.

S. P. And the defendant demurred because the plaintiff neither confeffed or avoided the franktenement in the defendant. And adjudged the replication good in trespass upon franktenement pleaded; but if a feoffment had been pleaded in bar, it had been otherwise. Jo. 352. pl. 4. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. Key v. Cook.

2. In trespass of grass cut, which is local, a man cannot justify in another county, and traverse the county in the writ, but shall plead not guilty; for if the jury finds him guilty generally, and expressly in another county, the verdict is void; and if he fays guilty gene- goods carrally, modo & forma, where it was in a foreign county, attaint lies, Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 14. cites 9 H. 6. 62.

But in trespass transi.ory or moveable, as of ricd arvay, or of battery, rubich may commence in one will, and continue in another, the defendant may justify in another will in the same county, without traverting the vill in the writ. Br. Ibid.

But if it be of trespass local in D. as of trees or grass cut, and he justifies in another will, there he ought to traverse the vill in the writ. Note the diversity. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 14. cites 9 H. 6. 62.

And in replevin in D. he may say, that he took them in C. in another county, and traverse that he did not take in D. and make avowry to have return, &c. and this shall make issue; per Martin quod. non negatur. Br. Ibid.

3. In trespass the defendant said, that the plaintiff bailed the bowl [564] to A. in pledge for debt, who bailed it to the defendant, who re-bailed it to the plaintiff, which is the same taking. The plaintiff said, that

R. gave it to him, and the defendant took it, absque bor that be bailed to A. and a good plea, without traversing the bailment to the defendant; for he has traversed the bailment in pledge, which answers to all; quod nota, per Cur. Br. Trespass, pl. 412. cites 10 H. 6. 25.

4. Trespass in D. of trees cut. It is no plea, that there are 2 D.'s, and none without addition; for if he be guilty in any of the 2, the plaintiff shall recover; and if he has justification in any of the 2, he may plead it, absque boc that he is guilty in the other. So in affile or account; contra in all other actions. Br. Brief, pl. 341. cites 3 E. 4. 26.—And see 2 E. 4. 10. not adjudged.—But 9 H. 6. 5. it is no plea. Ibid.

As in affife against me, I may fay that E. was frifed and infeoffed me, and give colour to the plaintiff, without trawerfing the difficifin, because the writ is but a supposal.

5. In trespass, if the defendant says that 8. was seised, and insensed him, and gives colour to the plaintist, and the plaintist says that be himself was seised until disseised by the said 8. who insenses the defendant, and he re-entered, and the trespass mesne, &c. And the defendant says that a long time before the plaintist any thing had, the father of 8. was seised, and had issue 8. and died, and the plaintist entered, upon whom the said 8. entered and insensed the desendant; this is no plea, without traversing that 8. did not disseise the plaintist, because the disseise is alleged by matter in sail to otherwise it is where the disseise is alleged by fupposal. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 109. cites 15 E. 4. 22. per Catelby.

Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 109. cites 15 E. 4. 22.

And if the plaintiff in trespass quare claufum fuum in S. called D. fregit, &c. there if the defendant justifies in

6. In trespass, the defendant justified, and gave the place a name; the plaintiff said that his plaint is of a trespass done in another place, and shewed where, &c. and the name, &c. and because he did not answer to it, demanded judgment, &c. and well without traverse, that he has commenced his action of any trespass done in the place where the defendant has justified. Br. Trespass, pl. 369. cites 22 E. 4. 50.

another place, he ought to traverse the trespass in the place in the declaration; per Sterkey. And so see a diversity where name is given in the declaration, and where not. Br. Trespass, pl. 369. cites 22 E. 4. 50.

7. Trespass of chasing his cattle, so that they died of the chasing. S. C. cited in the case of The defendant pleads, that the place where, &c. is holden of him by LIECH V. MIDGLEY, such services, and he distrained those beasts, and impounded them in a pound overt; and that they died there of hunger in default of the plain Lev. 283. Hill. 21 & tiff, the which is the same trespass. And it was thereupon de-22 Car. 2. B.R. which murred, and without argument adjudged for the plaintiff; for when the plaintiff alleged that they died of the chasing, and he was trespals forchafing 40 pleads that they died of hunger, that is not any plea without a of his B.ep its quod they traverse that they did not die of the chasing. Cro. Eliz. 384. pl. 5. Pasch. 37 Eliz. Hill v. Prideaux. were damaified, and one ef them died; the defendant justified damage seasant in his franktenement; the plaintist replied, and claimed common in the place where, &c. the desendant rejoins and justified by enclosure, leaving sufficient common, &cc. And upon demurrer it was insisted, that the plea not answering to the dying of one of the sheep, was ill; for he ought to have traversed the chasing upon which he died. But it was answered, this coming only under the its quod, is only to aggravate the damages, and he needs not traverse it. Keeling Ch. J. held the bar good for this reason, and the other 3 held that it is carrel at least by the replication over; and judgment was given for the desendant. Lev. 233. Hill.

21 & 22 Car-2. B. R. Leech v. Midgley. Vent. 54. S. C. by the name of Leech v. Widley, adjudged. — Raym. 185. Anon. S. C. adjudged.

8. In trespass of a battery in London, the desendant pleaded that the plaintiff affaulted him at D. in the county of S. and if he had any harm, it was de son assault demesne, and in his own desence, absque hoc that he was guilty in London. Upon demurrer it was adjudged no plea, that both the justification and traverse were not good; for a battery in bis own defence is not local; and therefore he may [565] justify in any place, and therefore he cannot plead it in another place, and traversed the place alleged. Cro. E. 842. pl. 21. Trin. 43 Eliz. C. B. Pursett v. Hutchins.

- 9. Trespass of battery in such a parish and ward in London. defendant justifies in the county of Cambridge, and arresting him there by warrant from the sheriff there, and traverses the battery in the parish and ward in the county mentioned; and for this cause it was demurred, and adjudged for the plaintiff that the traverse was ill to traverse the place, but he ought to have traversed the county. Cro. Eliz. 860. pl. 31. Mich. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Johnson v. Burton & Shut.
- 10. In trespass quare oves, &c. generally, the defendant prescribes for ewes, and says they were oves matrices. The plaintiff replies that they were oves verveces; this is not good without a traverse, absque hoc that they were oves matrices; per Richardson and Het. 29. Trin. 3 Car. C. B. in case of Johnson v. Crook. Morris.
- 11. In trespass vi & armis of breaking his close, and taking his cattle, the defendant as to the force and arms pleads non. culp. and as to the sest justifies that the cattle went in for default of the plaintiff's fence. The plaintiff replies that they came into through another's fence. The defendant demurs, because the plaintiff does not assign where the place of the other close lies, through which the cattle came. Plaintiff said it is not necessary to shew where it lies; for they went not in where the defendant has alleged, and so the traverse is well taken. Defendant answered that here is a new assignment, which answers not the trespass for which the action is brought; and because it is a new assignment, a new answer must be given, and therefore plaintiff must show the place where the new assignment Roll Ch. J. faid he pleads no more but that the cattle came in at another place than is pleaded, and he needs not shew the place. Judgment for the plaintiff nisi. Sty. 357. Mich. 1652. Baker v. Andrews.
- 12. In trespass for entry, and pulling down of posts of a fishery, the defendant pleads be was lord of a manor, wherein was a river of Awon in which he had a fishery; and because the plaintiff set up posts there be pulled them down; for which cause the plaintiff demurred, as amounting only to the general issue, and so ill, unless there had been a traverse, absque hoc that he pulled down the posts in the plaintiff's fishing, to which the Court inclined, judgment pro plaintiff nisi. 2 Keb. 57. pl. 23. Trin. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Hely v. Raymond.

13. When the plaintiff in his declaration has assigned a day of the trespals done, and the defendant justifies the trespals upon the same fame day, there the defendant needs not traverse the day, because the day is agreed on both sides. 2 Saund. 295. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. per Cur. in the case of White v. Stubbs.

2 Keb. 878. pl. 50. S.C. adjudged.

14. In trespass of breaking his close and carrying away his goods, the defendant pleads not guilty to the breaking of the close, and justifies the taking of the goods at a time varying from that alleged in the declaration, and concludes quæ est eadem transgressio, upon which it was demurred, because he did not traverse the time before and after it; and it was adjudged for the plaintiff. 1 Vent. 184. Hill 23 & 24 Car. 2. in B. R. Smith v. Butterfield.

15. In trespass of taking his goods, the defendant justified by recovery in an inferior court, and execution thereupon by a fieri facios que est eadem captio. And upon demurrer it was objected that the taking was alleged on one day, and the defendant in his justification varying from that day, ought to have traversed any other taking because the same goods may be taken at several times, and that the quæ est eadem is not sufficient. But it was said per curiam, he having averred that it was eadem captio, the averment was sufficient; and the parties by confent afterwards pleaded to issue. 2 30. 146. Pasch. 33 Car. 2. B. R. Allen v. Chamming.

[566] (F. b) Traverse. Good. In respect of the Thing.

1. THE use and prescription of common appurtenant was put in issue in trespass, and yet this is in the right, and the action is in the possession. Br. Prescription, pl. 89. cites 22 Ass. 63. and 30 Ast. 42. and 40 E. 3. 31. and 22 H. 6. 51. and 7 E. 4. 26. 20cordingly, and yet 40 E. 3. 10. he was put out of this please Ibid.

Br. De fon tort, &c. pl. 46. cites S.C. Contra 44 E. 3. 18. inalmuch as the defendant made title to the ward.

defendant

borje, by

wbich be

2. In false imprisonment, the defendant justified to seise the plaintiff by command of his master, as ward of the lord of D. his master, of whom the father held in chivalry, and the plaintuf was within age, and retained him 6 months, and then came one J. next heir, who was ravished into Scotland in the life of his father, by which the defendant waived him; judgment si tort, &c. Finch said the father held his land of J. S, and not of the master of the defendant. fon tort demesne without such cause, and was not suffered to traverse the tenure, by which he said that de son tort demesne, &c. Br. Faux Imprisonment, pl. 13. cites 22 Ass. 85.

3. Trespass in one acre of land in D. The defendant justified by So in trespals of a borse, the lease of the plaintiff of the same acre, where in truth the lessor bad two acres in the same vill. And the opinion was, that it was dangerous mag say that for the plaintiff to fay that he did not leafe this acre, though the the plaintiff gave bim the trespass was done in the other acre; but the best opinion was, that he shall be aided in this form, viz. to fay that he was feised of 2 acres, and leased the one, and the defendant entered into it, and also took it, and the plaintiff into the other, and did the trespass, absque boc that he leased the acre. inmay say ibat which the trespass is supposed. Br. Trespass, pl. 381. cites 9 H. be was pos-6.64.

Sessed of 2 borses, and gave the one, and the defendant took it, and also took the other; shigue hos that he gave the horse of wind Crespass.

. Which the affion is brought; per Babb. and Paston & non negatur, and it seems to be good; for where a man has 2 acres or horses, and leases or gives the one which is uncertain, there the lesse or donee by his entry or taking makes it certain, and then if he meddles with the other he is a trespassor; but it was not adjudged. Br. Trespass, pl. 381. cites 9 H. 6. 64.

4. Trespass against the lord upon tenure. The plaintiff may traverse the tenure, but in avowry the seisin. Br. Trespass, pl. 411.

cites 10 H. 6. 3.

5. In trespass the defendant pleaded his franktenement; the plaintiff said that he was seifed till by the defendant disseised, by which he entered, and the trespass which, &c. the defendant said by protestation, not confessing the disseisin, for plea said, that the plaintiss did not re-enter; and the opinion was, that it was a good plea, and that the regress is traversable. Br. Trespass, pl. 367. cites 22 E. 4. 21.

6. In trespass, if the defendant pleads satisfaction, this is only tra- But if be versable; per Brian. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 179. cites pleads ac-4 H. 7. 9.

cord, orpleada _ubmi//ion, arbitrement, .

and satisfaction, the party may traverse the accord, submission, arbitrement, or the satisfaction. For when the party will allege the circumstances, and need not, there this is traversable; quod nota-Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 179. cites 4 H. 7. 9.

7. In trespass, the defendant justified under a custom of a manor: the plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria absque tali causa. plaintiff should not have traversed the cause generally, but the custom; but being only matter of form, it is helped by the statute of jeofails, for absque tali causa contains the custom and more. Hob. 76. pl. 97. Banks v. Parker.

Brown1.233. BYKE A. BARKER, Hill. 12 Jac. S.C. but S. P. does not appear to be spoken to by the Court

(G. b) Traverse of the Command. Good or necessary. [567] In what Cases.

I. IN trespass, if the defendant justifies by command of the owner, But if the the command is traversable. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl 325. cites 14 H. 4. 32. 9 H. 6. 21 H. 6. 46. 22 H. 6. 34. 33 H. 6. 41, 42. 37 H. 6. 7. 13 H. 7. 13.

defendant picads that the place where, &c. is the frank-tenement of A. and he by his commandment, &c. The commandment is not traversable, if the plaintiff claims by a stranger; because the franktenement being in a stranger ought, to be answered. Arg. 6 Rep. 24. a. in Read's case, and seems admitted, cites Doctrina Placitandi, 352.

2. In trespass if the defendant says that the ancestor of the plaintiff. held of J. N. by service of chivalry, and he by command of J. took the infant plaintiff as ward; the plaintiff shall not say that de son tort demesne without such cause, but de son tort demesne, absque hoc that J. N. commanded; by which the plaintiff said accordingly, Br. De son tort, &c. pl. 42. cites 14 H. 4. 32 & and so to issue. 33 H. 6. 41. accordingly.

3. In trespass of barley, and a horse taken; the defendant alleged property in a stranger, and that the plaintiff took them, and the defendant by the command of the stranger re-took, &c. and the other said, that de son tort demessie without such cause, &c. Br. De son tort,

&c. pl 15. cites 19 H. 6. 65.

Vol. XX.

Br. De son tort, &cc. pl. 13. cites 8 H. 6. 34.

4. In trespals, the desendant justified by command of J. N. The plaintiff said that de son tort demesne, absque hoc that J. N. commanded bim modo & forma, and the others e contra. Br. de son tort, &c. pl. 2. cites 33 H. 6. 41.

Heath's Max. 121. cap. 5. cites 3. C.

. As in trefpass in land,

5. In trespass the defendant said that the franktenement is J. N.'s, and be, by his command, entered; the plaintiff made title by leafe of a firanger, by which he was possessed till the trespass, absque hoc that the defendant entered by command of J. N. And a good traverse per Cur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 137. cites 37 H. 6. 7.

6. In trespass, when the command is the effect of the bar, it is traversable, and otherwise not. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 222. cites the defind-7 E. 4. 2. per Markham Ch. J. ant said that the plaintiff before the trespass kased to R. at will, and be by command of R. entered and did the trespass; and per Markham Ch. J. it is no plea without privity, by which he feid, that be by command, &c. entered and did the trespess; and no danger of the traverse of the command, for the lease is the effect and not the command. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 222. cites 7 E. 4. 2.

Heath's Max. 110. cap. 5. cites

- 7. In trespals for grass cut, the defendant justified as servant of J. S. and by his command for using the common of the said J. S. and the 11 H. 7. 9. plaintiff said that the defendant put in his proper beafts, whereof be brought his action; and a good plea without traverse; for it may be that he put in the beasts of J. S. and also his own beasts, but the defendant may fay that he put in the beafts of J. S. absque boc that he put in bis proper beafts; per tot. Cur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 385. cites 11 H. 7. 9.
 - 8. If trespass be brought for cattle taken, &c. and the defendant justifies as bailiff to J. S. and by his command that he distrained them damage-feasant, if the owner did not command him, he shall be a trespassor. The same law for a distress for rent arrear, for the command is traversable; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the Court. Ld. Raym. Rep. 309, 310. Hill. 9 Will. 3. in case of Britton v. Cole.

(H.b) Traverse of the Day or Time. Good or ne-See (D. 2. 2) cessary. In what Cases. pl. 4. marg.

1. In false imprisonment such a day the desendant justified another day by commission to hear and determine trespasses, &c. absque hoc that he took at another day, and the other e contra. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 115. cites 24 E. 3. 3.

2. Trespals of beafts of the plow taken the first day of May; the defendant justified at another day for services due, and that there were no other beafts there, and traversed the day; and ill, for he ought to traverse the time of the taking only, and not the day. Er. Traverse per, &c. pl. 312. cites 33 E. 3. and Fitzh. Brief, 915.

3. Trespass of battery of his servant the 11 day of May; the jury found the battery another day; upon not guilty pleaded, the plaintiff recovered. And so the day not traversable. Br. Trespass, pl. 191. citcs 39 E. 3. 1.

4. Trespass

4. Trespass by a bisbop; the defendant shewed certain meddling by him the time when the temporalties were in the hands of the archbishop of Canterbury, absque boc that he did any such act after that the temporalties came to the hands of the plaintiff, and the plaintiff maintained as here, prist; and yet the answer amounts only to the general issue, as it seems. Br. Trespass, pl. 194. cites 39 E. 3. 19.

5. In trespass of affault the Monday, where in truth it was the Saturday, and he pleaded not guilty modo & forma, and the jury finds the truth, the plaintiff shall recover; and therefore the defendant said, that such another day the plaintiff made an assault upon him, and the ill which he had was de son assault demesne, and in his desence, absque boc that he was guilty before or after the same day that he justified; and to this he was compelled by the Court, quod nota.

Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 75. cites 19 H. 6. 47.

6. In trespass of affault and battery the 10th day of August anno For it was 17 H. 6. the defendant justified de son affault demesne the 14 day of said, that if Jan. anno 18 H. 6. absque hoc that he is guilty the 10 day of fee in tres-Aug. anno 17., &c. And per Newton and Paston clearly, he ought pass for comto traverse absque hoc that be is guilty before or after the said 14 day mon between of Jan. for if he be found guilty any other day he shall be Michaelmas, condemned; and Markham would not traverse so, by which he ought to Yelverton demurred. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 16. cites 20 H. 6. 14, 15.

traverse that be is not guilty before nor after this time of commoning 3 quod nota. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 16. cites 20 H. 6. 14, 15.

7. Trespass of taking his cow; the defendant justified because the property was to H. R. who fold it to him at S. in the county of C. &c. The plaintiff said, that the sale to the defendant was the third day of October anno 20. and before this, that is to say, the 4 day of August, in the year aforesaid, the said H. R. sold it to the plaintiff at C. in the county of N. and the other said, that he sold it to him, absque boc that be fold it to the plaintiff before that he fold to the defendant, and so to iffue; for Portington would not traverse the day but the time. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 94. cites 21 H. 6. 41.

8. In trespass the defendant justifies the taking of beasts by precept of wythernam to him directed such a day before Whitsuntide; the other suid de son tort demesne, absque boc that he had precept to him directed before Whitsuntide, whereas the day that the plaintiff counted was the Monday before Whitsuntide anno 19 H. 6. Prist. Danby said he took the beafts of the plaintiff by force of the warrant before the said feast; prist; et sic ad patriam. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 103.

cites 22 H. 6. 36.

9. Trespass. The defendant justified, because at another day after, the place where, &c. was the soil and franktenement of J. N. who leased to bim for 10 years, &cc. and as to any trespass before not guilty. And in trespass anno the 18. the defendant justified by descent from his father the 19. and to any trespals before not guilty. Br. Trespass, pl. 160. cites 22 H. 6. 49.

10. In trespass, the defendant pleaded award made at W. in the county of M. to pay 10 s. which he has paid; the plaintiff said that defore this the arbitrators awarded him to pay 10 s. and a horse at D. Tt2 in the country of C. and he has not paid the borfe; the defendant maintained his bar absque boc that they did award in the county of C. prout, &c. before the award made at W. Prist, and the others e contra; and so note the county and the time traversed. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 107. cites 22 H. 6. 52.

As in trefpass of . [tearing] an obligation bailed to 11. In trespass, note, always where a man traverses the time it is no plea without shewing the day certain. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 165. cites 39 H. 6. * 45.

the defendant to keep and redeliver; and he fays that it was bailed to bim to deliver over to W.N. which be has done, absque hoc that he tore it before the delivery to W. N. this is no plea, without shewing at what day he delivered it to W. N. quod note per Cur. by which he shewed the day, &cc. and traversed as above. Br. Traveise per, &c. pl 165. cites 39 H. 6. 45.

Misprinted in all the editions, and should be 44. pl. 7.

12. Trespass upon 5 R. 2. by A. against B. The defendant faid that before the entry J. N. was feifed and infeoffed the defendant, and gave colour, &c. The plaintiff faid that before J. N. any thing had, he himself was seised in fee till by B. disseised, who infersted the said J. N. who infeoffed the defendant, upon whom he entered and was seised till the trespass. Littleton said a long time before the plaintiff any thing had B. was seised and infeoffed J. N. who infeoffed the defendant, and the plaintiff claiming as above, entered and was seised till B. entered upon and disseised him, absque hoc that B. diffeised the plaintiff before the feoffment made by B. to the said J. N. Prist, &c. and the others e contra; and a good issue per tot. Cur. Brook fays he wonders that the time was traversed as here; for he says it seems that the diffeisin only shall be traversed. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 204. cites i E. 4. 6. -And that so it was said for law in C. B. 6 E. 6. per Hale Justice and others, and that this book is not law. Ibid.

13. In faise imprisonment, the defendant justified at another day after, absque hoc that he was guilty before, &c. And there per Danby, the plaintiff ought to reply that guilty the day in the declaration, prift, &c. and yet if he be found guilty any day that the defendant has not justified, the plaintiff shall not recover; but the plaintiff cannot reply that guilty modo & forma prout, &c. for this goes as well to the day that the defendant has juffied, as to other days, which is ill; quod Danby concessit. Br. Replication, pl. 40. cites 5 E. 4. 5.

And there It was said That the defendant in fuch case pleaded release of the plaintiff beof the battery supposed in the do-

14. Trespass of assault the 1st of July, anno 2 R. 3. Defendant said that poster, viz. 4 die Januarii in the same year, the plaintiff made an affault upon the defendant, and he beat him in bis defence, absque hoc that he was guilty before or after the said 4th day of January. The plaintiff said that de son tort demesue absque tali causa; and it was faid that the plaintiff ought to reply that guilty modo & But he may give other day in evidence. Brook makes fore the day forma, &C. a quære, and fays mirum! because the day only is now in issue. Br. General Issue, pl. 92. cites 2 R. 3. 11.

claration, ab que bot that he was grilty after, and the iffue was joined upon the release; qued mirum est by the reporter; quare legem; for it is only a note. Ibid.

15 Falle imprisonment. The plaintiff supposed the trespass [570] and falfe imprisonment to be 10 December 29 Eliz. The defendant pleads 13 pleads that he by a warrant of the sheriff, &c. did arrest and imprison bim 2 & 3d die Decemb. before, absque hoc that he was guilty before or after, &c. The plaintiff replied he was guilty, &c. after the 3d day of Decemb. prout in narratione sua specificatur; it was found for the plaintiff. It was moved that the issue was not well joined; for it is that he was guilty, &c. after the 3d day, &c. but fays not, and before the action brought. But it was ruled to be well joined; for when it is said he was guilty after the 3d day, &c. prout, &c. it is to be intended between the 3d day and the day of the which he counted. And the plaintiff had judgmen. Cro. E. 95. pl. 6. Pasch. 30 Eliz. B. R. Richardson v. Pricket.

16. Trespass was alleged to be done 7 Maii. The defendant Soin tresjustified on the 10th of May, and concluded his plea thus, que est eadem transgressio. And upon demurrer this was held a good plea by 3 judges against Yelverton; for the precise day need not be answered; it is sufficient that the justification be on another day, so as there is an averment that it is eadem transgressio. And judgment ant justiquod querens nil capiat, &c. Bulst. 138. Trin. 9 Jac. Vaste- fied fur stalnope v. Taylor.

pals for taking two bats in Suffex 10 Jan. 35 Car. 2. The defendlage in a fair by pre-Scription at G. in Kent, on Sept. 14. 35 Car. 2. &c. que est eadem transgressio, &c. and traversed that he was guilty of the taking any where out of the said fair; and upon a special demurrer, for that the plea did not answer the declaration, it was insisted that the traverse was ill, because the desendant did not traverse the time of the taking, as well as the place; but per Cur. the conclusion quæ est eadem with a traverse of the place, is good without a traverse of the time. And judgment for the defendant.

3 Lev. 227. Trin. 1 Jac. 2. C. B. Bodle v. Wilkins.

17. Trespass for entering bis close and taking bis goods 9 Oct. 2 Saund. 20 Car. 2. the defendant pleaded that R. was seised in see, and 23 July 20 Car. 2. demised the place where to the desendant, and that he the plaintiff. 16 July demised to the plaintiff for a quarter of a year, which ended 16 October 20 Car. 2. and because the goods were there after the 735 pl. 28. quarter of a year ended, he took them damage-feasant, absque hoc that judged actook them 9 October, or on any time within the quarter of the year. cordingly. The plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria absque tali causa; upon which the defendant demurred. And it was resolved that the replication de injuria, &c. absque tali causa was ill; for it may be that he took them before the quarter of the year, and before the demise to the defendant by R. by which judgment was given for the plaintiff. And it seems that the traverse ought to be absque hoc that the 9th October, or any time before the 23d July, or during the quarter of the year, &c. Lev. 307. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. B. R. White v. Stubbs.

18. In trespass the desendant justified by a precept out of a hundred court, and traversed that he was guilty before the delivery of the precept, or after the return. And upon demurrer it was objected, that this traverse is not good; it should have been before the teste, or after the return of the precept; sed non allocatur; for if the traverse. is too narrow, it is to the prejudice of the defendant, and not of the plaintiff. 2 Lev. 81. Hill. 24 & 25 Car. 2. B. R. Doe v.

Parmitter.

19. In an action of trespass, &c. the defendant justifies by a licence, &c. and in his justification agrees in time with the plain-adjudged for ---2 Keb. tiff's declaration. He need not traverse before and after, and cites Hob. 104. But then the plaintiff may vary his time. Freem.

Rep. 246. pl. 257. (bis) Hill. 1677. Anon.

20. In trespass, assault, and battery, the defendant pleaded a general release of all actions, &c. from the beginning of the world, usque ad diem datus of the said release. And it happened that the battery was done upon that very day in which the release was dated : To that it was held that this action was not discharged, for the release did not include that day. The defendant should have tra-[571]! versed all, &c. after the day of the date of the release. 4 Mod. 182.

Pasch. 5 W. & M. in B. R. Dixon v. Terry.

21. In trespass laid to be done ift of August, the desendant justifies for right of common after the corn is cut, and that after it was cut he put in his cattle, absque hoc quod est culpabilis aliter vel alio modo. And upon a demurrer to this plea it was adjudged ill, because it did not answer the trespass done 1 August, it baving no reference to that time. 3 Salk. 357. pl. 14. Pasch. 9 Will. 3. Anon.

This cale was Mich. C. B. but adjornatur. Cart. 86.

22. In trespass of battery and false imprisonment, the defendant was Mich. justifies under a capias, teste the 27 Jan. and returnable 10th of April 18 Car. 2. in College and Capias, teste the 27 Jan. and returnable 10th of April following, and says, that by virtue thereof he took the plaintiff the 9th of March, and discharged him the 10th; absque hoc that they were guilty at any time before the teste, and after the return of the writ; so that there is a time not traversed, in which the desendants may be guilty, notwithstanding any thing that appears to the contrary, viz. between the 10th of March, which was the day of the difcharge of the plaintiff, and the 10th of April, which was the return-day of the writ. And they cited Carter, 84. * ATKINS V. CLEAVER. And of this opinion was the whole Court. Ld. Raym. 231. Trin. 9 W. 3. in case of Truscott v. Carpenter and Man.

(I. b) Traverse of the Place necessary in what Cases.

Heath's Max. 108. cap. 5. cites S. C.

1. IN trespass of battery at B. the defendant said, that the plaintiff the same day assaulted him at S. and the ill which he had was de son assault demesne, and in his desence, absque hoc that be assaulted bim at B. And the plaintiff said, that de son tort demesne, without fuch cause; and well, per Cur. without maintaining the place, because B. and S. were in one and the same county, and the trespass transitory. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 38. cites 43 E. 3. 29.

Heath's Max. 108. cap. 5. cites 9, C.

2. Contra where the place was in another county, or if it was of trespass local; per Cur. in the absence of Thorp. But some of the persons present said, that he ought to have maintained his writ. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 38. cites 43 E. 3. 29.

3. In trespass, in Middlesex, of goods carried away, the defend-In trespass in Middlesex, ant justified the taking in London, by reason of a gift; and no plea, of goods, &c. without traversing the taking in Middlesex. Br. Traverse per, sbe defend-&c. pl. 47. cites 11 H. 4. 3. en: may plead gift in Effen, by which he took them, and shall not traverse; for gift is sufficient to take the goods in any county. Br. Terverse per, &c. pl. 71. cites 19 H. 6. 50. 71. ____ S. P. 1bid. pl. 127. cites 9 E. 4. 26. -S. P. Ibid. pl. 300. cites 9 E. 4. 49, 50. S. P. per Prisot. Contra of delivery; for the delivery cannot be but in one place only. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 284. cites 34 H. 6. 5.

4. In

4. In trespass of cutting reeds in D. it is no plea, that the place Br. Treswhere, &c. is in S. and not in D. but may justify in another place pass, pl. 107. by special matter, absque hoc that he is guilty in D. Br. Traverse

cites S. C.

per, &c. pl. 55. cites 9 H. 5. 9.

5. In trespass local in D. the defendant justified in S. in the same In trespass county, and to the trespass in D. not guilty; and well; for he ought battery, or to traverse in trespass local, contra in trespass transitory. Br. Tra-goods carried verse per, &c. pl. 291. cites 14 H. 6. 21.—and 8 H. 6. 36.

transitory, at away, the place fball not make iffue, nor is it traversable, no more than in trespass upon the case of an assumptit, and those may be continued. Contra of trespass local, as trees ext, and grass mowed. Note the divertity. Br. Traverie per, &c. pl. 283. cites M. 2 M. 1.

Trespals of affault and battery in London. The defendant justified in the county of N. by a warrant from the theriff of N. upon a lattitar, que est eadem transgressio, absque hoc that he was guilty in London, or elsewhere extra com' N. It was demurred because be justifies, and also traverses. But the Court held it well enough, because the justification being in another county, the county where the efficient is brought ought to be traversed, and the plaintiff may maintain the action and issue if he will, or traverse the plea at his election, Cro. J. 372. pl. 1. Trin. 13 Jac. B. R. Bateman v. Woodcock .- Roll. Rep. 221. pl. 26. S. C. adjudged accordingly, though it was objected, that the plea is double; for the justification in N. que est eadem transgressio had been sufficient without more, and then the traverse makes it double, and faid he had a report in point adjudged accordingly. But the Court told him, that he could not take advantage of this upon a general demurrer.

* [572]

6. In trespass against J. N. of F. it is no plea that he was dwelling at B. the day of the writ, unless he says and not at F. Quod nota. For the negative makes the issue. Br. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 67. cites 19 H. 6. 1.

7. Bill of disceit, for that the defendant, deputy of the sheriff of B. embezzled a writ of habeas corpus in the county of Middlesen, and brought the bill in Middlesex. The defendant said, that the high sheriff of B. by J. N. bis under sheriff, commanded him at B. in the said county of B. to retain it after the delivery, and before the substraction, and not to return it, by which be retained it, which is the same substraction, &c. And by the best opinion, because he said, that it is the same substraction, which is in another county, and does not traverse the substraction in Middlesex alleged in the bill, it is no plea. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 71. cites 19 H. 6. 50. 71.

8. So of false imprisonment in Middlesex, and the defendant justisies in Essex, he ought to traverse in Middlesex; per Markham. Br.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 71. cites 19 H. 6. 50. 71.

9. Trespass of battery and imprisonment at W. the defendant justi- in wespess fied at S. because the desendant would have robbed at S. absque hoc of battery in that be imprisoned him at W. And the absque hoc was ousted; for fendent may he may justify by this matter in any place in this county. Br. Tra- justify in B. verse per, &c. pl. 127. cites 9 E. 4. 26.

if it be in the jame county, without Living that the affault continued, and without traverfing the affault in C. quod nota, which the Court granted. Br. Traverso per, &c. pl. 287. cites 35 H. 6. 50, 51.

10. But if he justifies by franktenement in another vill, there ought to be a sans ceo. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 127. cites 9 E. 4. 26.

11. Trespals of cutting and carrying away in C. the defendant And because he does not answer to the trespass, justified in B. judgment was given for the plaintiff; for he ought to have traversed absque hoc that he is guilty in C. But otherwise it is in trespals of battery. 2 Roll. Rep. 495. Hill. 22 Jac. B. R. Oxford (Bp.) v. Adams.

(K. b) Traverse of the Place. Good or not.

1. IN trespass of sheafs taken, the defendant justified for tithes, and the other the like, both as parsons of 2 parishes; and the issue was, if the place was in one parish or the other. Br. Traverse per,

&c. pl. 340. cites 50 E. 3. 20.

Heath's Max. 108. cap. 5. cites 5. C.

2. In trespass of goods taken, the defendant said that before the plaintiff any thing had, J. S. was poffeffed, &c. and bailed to W. N. in another place in the same county, who made the defendant his executor, and died, and the defendant feised them as executor in another place, in the same county which the plaintiff did not count of, and the plain-[573] tiff took them, and the defendant re-took them, absque hoc that he took them in the place where the plaintiff counted; per Babb. Just. This is no plea, where the * whole is in one and the same county. Contra if it was in diverse counties; for then you shall have the traverse, by which he omitted the traverse. Br. Traverse per,

&c. pl. 62. cites 7 H. 6. 35.

3. Trespass in D. in the county of Derby. The defendants justified in T. in the county of Nottingham, absque boc that they are guilty in D. modo & forma. And per Cur. nothing was entered but not guilty; for he cannot justify in another county, absque hoc that he is guilty in the county named in the writ; for in trespass in D. upon not guilty, the jury may find bim guilty in another will in the same county, but not in another county; for this is a void verdict.

Br. Trespass, pl. 19. cites 9 H. 6. 62.

4. Trespass upon the case, for that the defendant fold to bim certain wood at N. for 201. and shewed a portion of that which was good and merchantable, and warranted the rest to be as well marked as the portion was, whereas the remnant was defective, to the damage of 201, Newton said he sold to him certain wood at B. and warranted this wood good and merchantable, that is to say for such a sum and so many + parcels as the plaintiff had declared, which was good and merchantable, absque hoc that he fold to him at N. prout, &c. and a good plea per tot. Cur. Br. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 150. cites 14 H. 6. 22.

5. Trespass of imprisonment and battery at B. in the county of H. [till] he made fine. Yelverton said actio non; for as to the vi & armis affault and battery not guilty, and to the imprisonment that he fued attachment against the plaintiff, directed to the sheriff of London to arrest the plaintiff, returnable such a day, to answer him of a trefpass, &c. by which A. B. minister of the sheriff at B. in the ward of B: in London, by virtue of the attachment arrested the plaintiff, and carried him to the compter, and the defendant came in aid of him, absque. hoc that he is guilty of the imprisonment at B. modo & forma, and to the fine pleaded not guilty. Markham said guilty at D. in the county of H. prist, &c. and the othern e contra. Quære of this traverse; for it seems that it ought to be absque boc that he is guilty in the county Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 73. cites 19 H. 6. 35. 6. In the large edition, but the others me (tout).

Orig. is (tenant) in

†Orig. is (veffels) in all the editions; but the Yearbook is (parceis)

6. In trespass of goods taken at E. Fortescue pleaded actio non; s. P. Per for before the taking the plaintiff himself delivered the goods to the defendant at C. in the county of Middlesex, to deliver to S. N. which he has done, absque hoc that he is guilty of the taking at E. & hoc, &c. and demanded judgment si actio; and upon argument it was held a good plea per tot. Cur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 74. cites 284. cites 34 19 H. 6. 43.

Prifot; for there is no meine instant. Br. Traverie per, &c. pl. H. 6. 5.

7. Trespals of goods taken at E. in the county of York. Fortescue In trespals faid the plaintiff bailed to us the same goods at N. in the county of of battery of Middlesex to bail to J. S., &c. absque hoc that he is guilty at E. in the county of York, prist, &c. And the opinion of the Court was, that it is a good plea. Brook fays, quere if he shall not traverse the taking in the county of York; for the place certain is not much to the purpose. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 76. cites demesse at 19 H. 6. 48.

his fervant at B. in the county of E. the defendant justified de son tort F. in the courty of Middlesex, absque hoc that he is guilty in the county of E. and not at B. in the county of E. and good, and the other e contra; quod nota, the county trawerfed, and not the place; for if he he guilty at any place in this county, it is sufficient for the plaintiff. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 85. cites 21 H. 6. 8, 9.-

Heath's Max. 108. cites S. C. - Br. Traverse, pl. 293. cites S. C.

So in trespals of cutting bis grass at D. in the county of D. the defendant justified at S. in the county of S. absent boc that he is guilty at D. in the county of D. et non allocatur; for by the opinion of the Court he eaght to traverse the trespass in the county of D. and not the place; by which he did accordingly, and a good plea per Cur. Quod nota. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 102. cites 22 H. 6. 35. In trespass the plaintiff declared on a battery at D. in the county of Middlesex, the desendant pleaded son affault at S. in the county of G. absque hot that he was guilty at D. in the county of Middlesex 3 upon demurrer it was infifted that the traverse was not good, and put a difference between just fication, local and transitory. And it was adjudged after many motions, that the county was not traversable, and so * judgment was given for the plaintiff, Gawdy J. being of a contrary opinion. 2 Le. 79. pl. 204. Paich. 26 Elie. B. R. Partridge v. Pool. Le. 97. pl. 139. S. C. in the same words.

[574]

8. Trespass in A. in the county of B. the defendant justified by precept of the sheriff, &c. at S. in another county, absque hoc that be is guilty in the county of B. and the other said that guilty at B. prist, and to this he was received; and yet if he be found guilty in any place in the county of B. the plaintiff shall recover, notwithstanding the rejoinder in B. but it seems that he shall say, guilty in the county of B. prout, &c. but quære inde. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 79. cites 19 H. 6. 57.

9. Trespass of a close broken, and battery at N. The defendant to the close broken justified in C. absque boc that he is guilty in N. and well, because it is all in one and the same county; for otherwise it feems that he shall say not guilty, if it was in another county, as in 9 H. 6. and to the battery he justified in C. absque hoc that he is guilty in N. and the traverse was ousted, because it was a trespass transitory. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 90. cites 21 H. 6. 26.

10. Where the defendant in trespass of corn intitles himself to the tithes severed, &c. as parson of A. alleging that all the vill of B. is in the parish of A. and that those tithes grew in B. and the plaintiff intitles himself by sale of the tythes by the parson of O. for 7 years, and that they grew in a place called P. in B. Absque hoc that all the vill of B. is in the parish of A. this is a good traverse by award. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 95. cites 21 H. 6. 43.

11. In trespass of assault to his servants at B it is held a good plea that the servants were cutting the grafs of the defendant at C. by Vol. XX. which which he prohibited them, and laid his hands upon them and commanded them to go out of his land, absque hoc that he assaulted them at B. And yet contra it is said where the defendant justifies by the affault made by the plaintiff himself to the defendant. Note the diversity; for in the first case the justification arises by reason of the soil, contra in the second case, and therefore in the one case the place is traversable, and in the other not. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 17. cites 27 H. 6. 9.

12. In trespass of beafts wrong fully taken in D. the defendant said that he was seised of 2 acres in S. and found them there dumage-feafant, and he took them there, absque hoc that he is guilty in D. And a good plea without traverfing all the county, otherwise it is of things which may be continued, as battery or goods carried away.

Traverse per, &c. pl. 306. cites 11 E. 4. 9.

13. Trespass of goods taken at D. in the country of Middlefex, defendant pleaded that before the trespass supposed J. S. was possessed thereof, and bailed them to the plaintiff in the county of E. for safe keeping there, and ofter J. S. commanded the defendant to take the goods of the plaintiff in the county of E. by which he took them at N. in the county of E. and delivered them to the said J. S. absque hac that he took them at D. in the county of Middlesex; and because his warrant was to take them in the county of E. therefore a good plea for the loss of his evidence, and shall not be compelled to take the general issue. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 278. cites 22 E. 4. 59. \

. 14. In battery, &c. the action was laid in London, when in truth it was done at Uxbridge; the defendant pleaded that on such a day and year the plaintiff at A. in the county of H. made an affault upon him and the harm, &c. absque hoc that he is guilty in London. The whole Court held it a good plea. Goldsb. 2. pl. 5. Pasch. 28 Eliz.

Webster v. Paine.

15. Replevin. The defendant avows the taking in Wh. Acre damage-feasant; the plaintiff replies that they were taken in Bl. Acre, absque hoc that they were damage-feasant in Wh. Acre: and it was thereupon demurred. The Court without argument ruled it to be an ill traverse; for he ought to have traversed the place of the taking, [575] and not that they were damage-feasant; and adjudged for the avowant. Cro. E. 372. pl. 11. Hill. 37 Eliz. B. R. Watts v. Hagden.

16. In trespass for killing his dog at E. the defendant justified in D. within the same county as warrener there, and that the dog was killing of conies as he had done before, absque hoc, &c. that he is guilty apud E. prout, &c. And it was thereupon demurred because he traverses the place only, &c. and does not traverse all other places. But all the Court held that the traverse was good when his cause of justification is local, and that he needed not allege any more than that place. Wherefore it accordingly was adjudged for the defendant. Cro. J. 44, 45. pl. 13. Mich. 2 Jac. B.R. Wadhurst v. Damme.

17. Trespass of filse imprisonment at C. the desendant justified 2 Pufft. 326. Flill. 1: Jac. as steward of the court of the Stanneries at A. by process of the court . 5, C. adthere;

there; absque hoc that he was guilty at any place extra jurisdiction' judged accuriæ Stannariæ; but neither justifies or traverses the imprisonment alleged at C. which might be within the jurisdiction, and was not answered to; and therefore judgment was given against the defendant for default in the plea, because the traverse was not large enough. 2 Lutw. 1563. in the appendix, in the argument of Sir John Powell in the case of GWINNE v. Poole, cites 1 Roll. Rep. 264. Evely v. Sloley.

cordingly. Roll. Rep. 264. pl. 37. Mich. 13 jac. B. R. adjudged accordingly. Hob. 180.pl 216. SLow-LEY V.

EVELEY, S. C. in the Exchequer; but S. P. does not appear. — Cro. J. 439. pl. 11. Mich. 15 Jac. in the Exchequer, EULRY V. SLOLRY, S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

18. Trespass of breaking bis close, and digging his foil. The defendant pleads, that the place where is 2 acres called Bl. Acre, which is his freehold, and so justifies. The plaintiff replies, that the place called Bl. Acre is his freehold, absque hoc that it is the freehold of the defendant. The defendant demurred, because it is but a common or blank bar, and is only to inforce the plaintiff to assign his trespass in a place certain, the declaration being general, and so the bar not traversable; and of that opinion were Doderidge and Chamberlain. But Houghton e contra, and the plaintiff may assign a new place, or traverse this bar at his election; per quod adjornatur. Cro. J. 594. pl. 16. Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. Rickman v. Coxe.

19. In trespass for breaking and entering his close called Horn- 2 Lutw. Hill in the parish of R. and chasing, taking, and impounding his Sheep there found, &c. The defendant as to all, besides the chasting, taking, and impounding, pleads not guilty; and as to that, he justifies S.C. with that he was seised in fee of a close called Orchards in R. and took the sheep there damage-feasart, &c. absque hoc that he took and impounded them in the close aforesaid called Horn-Hill, modo & forma, as the some observplaintiff declared. The plaintiff demurred specially, and adjudged for him, because the traverse is ill, it being of matter not alleged; for the plaintiff does not fay that the defendant took the sheep in the close called Horn-Hill, but says (ibidem inventas), which (ibidem) refers to the parish, and not to the close; 1st, because Horn-Hill was the plaintiff's soil, so that the defendant could not impound the plaintiff's sheep in the plaintiff's soil: '2dly, ibidem is always referred to the vill, that the venue may come from thence, which cannot come out of a close. But the Court thought this an idle traverse, and would have been surplusage on a general demurrer; but being upon a special demurrer, it vitiates the plea. Ld. Raym. Rep. 121. Mich. 8 W. 3. Nevil v. Packman.

1447. NE-VILL V. PECKHAM, the exceptions and answers, and ations of the reporter; but I do not observe any thing faid by the Court.

(L. b) Trespass. Probibited or put shed by Statute. [576]

1. 43 Eliz. NACTS, That if any lewd person shall cut, or un- It was obcap. 7. lawfully take away any corn or grain growing, or rob jected to a any orchards or gardens, or break or cut any hedge, pales, rails, or fence, upon this er dig or pull up, or take up any fruit-tree or trees in any orchard, statute, 1st, garden.

That the defendant evas stiled gentleman, and a gentieman was not within the flatute, of wagabonds and fuch base people, and punisbaent,

vis. whip-

the law did

garden, or elsewhere, to the intent to take and carry away the same, or shall cut or spoil any woods or underwoods, poles or trees standing (not being felony); Juob offenders, their procurers or receivers, knowing the same, being convicted by confession, or one witness, before one justice of peace, mayor, or other head officer, shall make such satisfaction to the party, and within such time as such justice or head officer shall appoint; and which speaks if fuch offender shall not be thought able or sufficient to make satisfactions as aforesaid, then the said justice shall commit the offender to the constable to be whipped; and for every future offence shall also receive the inflitts a base same punishment of whipping.

And if any constable do refuse, by himself or some other, to execute ping, which the said punishment, he shall be committed to the common gool until the said offender be punished as aforesaid.

never intend Provided that no justice of peace do execute this statute for any offence for a gentledone to himself, unless he be affociated with one or more justice of peace man. 2dly, not concerned in the matter. That the conviction is untertain, for want of shewing the number of trees. Per Curiam, as to the first, whether the defendant be a gentleman or not, is not material; for if a man of quality will do a base or mean thing, there is no reason or justice why he should be exempted from the punishment: the quality of the offender is rather an aggravation than a leffening of the offence. To the second, the number as well as the nature of the trees should be expressed, for this is like an action of trespass in this respect, that the plaintiff is to recover damages, of which the number and nature of the trees is to be the measure; and if an action of trespais shall hereafter be brought for these trees, this conviction ought to be a plea in bac-Salk. 181, 1824 pl. 2. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Barnaby.

> 2. 21 Jac. 1. cap. 16. enacts, that in cases of involuntary trespass tender of amends may be pleaded in bar. See Tender (S) and the notes there.

> As to what punishments shall be nslicted, and what costs and damages shall be recovered in prosecutions and actions of trespals, see tit. Damages and Costs, tit. Game (A), and Tit. moods.

For more of Trespals in general, see Actions, Common Diftress, Pulante, and other proper titles.

END OF THE TWENTIETH VOLUME.

SITY LAW LIBRARY

